

YOUR NEW

COMMITTEEMAN

NEXT TUESDAY YOUR VOTE WILL HELP DECIDE WHO FILLS THIS PICTURE

Before you vote---Compare these FACTS with FICTION:

ALLYN C. BEARDSSELL is not running for the job of road supervisor . . . he is seeking the Republican nomination for Springfield Township Committee, the five-man group which makes our laws and sees that they are carried out.

You do not want a man in that position who can not see past the one small part of his job, and builds his entire campaign around his nine years of over-supervising the town's part in our road maintenance program.

ALLYN C. BEARDSSELL is a successful businessman . . . presently employed in a responsible position with Western Electric Company. He is in touch with present-day thinking, and the trends of today.

You do not want a man on our Township Committee who has shown no great evidence of positive thinking in regard to Township government affairs.

ALLYN C. BEARDSSELL has the vital, youthful approach to matters, which makes for action! He is articulate . . . his voice will be heard!

You do not want a man on our Township Committee who offers little in legislative initiative . . . one who wraps himself in the cloak of some supervisory function and forgets the legislative.

ALLYN C. BEARDSSELL will know the why and wherefore of his vote in Township matters. He specialized in government and business administration at Harvard College, and is today gainfully employed in applying that knowledge in business.

You do not want a man on our Township Committee who votes quickly, but not always too wisely. You do not want a man who would rather say yes, than spend the time to find out if the answer might not better be no.

ALLYN C. BEARDSSELL will not be afraid to speak out when to do so might lose him votes in the future. He will not be dependent on his Committeemanship for a livelihood. His independence of thought, expression and action will be inviolate!

You do not want a man who has to continually fear for his Township Committee job. You do not want a man who finds safety in "see nothing, say nothing, do nothing."

ALLYN C. BEARDSSELL is the practical man for the job. His business experience, his education, his sincere interest in the future of Springfield, his desire to keep taxes down (because he, too, pays them), are all points which will rally the majority of votes to his side.

You do not want a man on the Township Committee who has as his biggest asset the sympathy of a sentimental community. Certainly you will not cast aside logic and common sense in favor of sentimentality! Certainly NOT!

Don't Let "George" Do It!

STATISTICS OF SPRINGFIELD

Population—1945: 6,000; assessed valuation—1944, $6,477,225; tax rate—1944, $6.97 (township—$2.21; schools, $1.87; state and county, $2.89).
Springfield was settled in the early 1700's. Its township form of government was established April 14, 1794, and was incorporated in 1867.
Springfield is essentially a community of homes, with little industry except for farming and coordinated manufacturing for these: 45 miles from New York City on the Lackawanna R. R. with two stations at Millburn and Short Hills, less than a mile away; 7 miles to Elizabeth; 7 miles to Newark; excellent bus connections to Newark, Elizabeth, Summit and Plainfield.
The Railway Valley Railroad with a freight station in the township affords service for factories, commercial and industrial purposes. State Highway 23 makes New York City convenient by auto in 30 minutes. Site of the $600,000 Union County Regional High School, serving Springfield, Mountlake and four other county municipalities.
It has good streets, water, gas, electricity and modern sanitary sewer system, excellent police, fire and school facilities; mail-carrier delivery system, and zoning regulations for the protection of the individual property owner.
Of interest in Revolutionary history with its historic Presbyterian Church, where the Rev. James Caldwell cried "Gilead and walls, boys!" in the midst of the Battle of Springfield, fought on June 22-1780. Several colonial landmarks are to be found in Springfield, one of the oldest communities in Union County.

EDUCATION STATISTICS

We found a very encouraging note in the statistics released last week by Regional High School, indicating a trend to better education.

While only 50 of this year's graduating class have taken a college preparatory course, 91 of the incoming freshman class have enrolled for this course. The war, of course, has been largely responsible for the drop in college prep enrollment courses—many students wanted to take a commercial course that would enable them to get war jobs right away, and many students left school entirely, lured by the money to be made in war plants.

Such a course is short-sighted, to say the least. Education will become increasingly important in the post-war United States, and a majority of returning veterans will come back fully trained as skilled workers, through their training in the service.

Another interesting item in the Regional list, is the increasing desire of students for Spanish instruction. It reflects the influence of South America, which is rapidly gaining a far more important role in world affairs than ever before.

The secretarial course also shows a sharp increase in enrollments, which also reflects the trend to specialized studies.

Together with the increase in the number of students, we believe the report is one of the most encouraging we have seen recently. It shows that the younger generation has its feet firmly on the ground, and means to take advantage of a thorough education to prepare them for the competition they will face in the post-war business world.

If your trip is for pleasure, let it wait.

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President, National College Survey, Johnson

FOLLOW THROUGH

Do you believe working people have a right to organize and bargain as a group for their general betterment? Do you believe a man who has saved some money has a right to invest it in any business he likes and to operate that business, trying to make a reasonable profit? Do you believe that big-volume production at low cost is the key to good pay? My answer is yes, to all three questions.
If you agree, you subscribe to the fundamentals of the Labor-Management Charter. It was signed in Washington last March 28 by William Green, for the American Federation of Labor, Eric Johnson for United States Chamber of Commerce, and Phil Murray for the Congress of Industrial Organizations. It is a powerful document, able if carried out to do the world more good than the famous Atlantic Charter.

Nothing Original

People who work surely have rights. Open competition is certainly fair. Economy of time and effort yields positive rewards. These ideas are not original. They are old and time-tested principles. All of them stand out clearly in the teachings of Jesus and of many great men who have lived and enriched the world more recently. They appear in the Labor-Management Charter.

Besides declaring the rights of labor, the fairness of competition and the dividends of economy, the Labor-Management Charter contains two vital pledges: (1) To settle industrial disputes peacefully—no strikes, no violence, no lockouts, no picketing, and (2) To support a sound economic system in America—an expanding foreign trade and an enduring peace. Both are perfectly sound.

Big Responsibility

Being the richest and strongest nation in the world, the United States has a serious responsibility. It is greater than ever now, with a global war to finish and the world to be set in order. Miss Columbia must point the way and she stands at the crossroads. America's choice will determine which way the whole world goes; to peace and plenty or to poverty and oppression.

Of the 200 billion people who have lived on earth, not more than 2 per cent could call their souls their own. The way of the world has always been oppression and it still is. Now especially the trend is toward dictatorships. Not 20 per cent of the people now living ever dreamed of freedom and prosperity like we enjoy. America is in actual danger of being carried with the political tide.

Jobs and Markets

The Labor-Management Charter points the right way; toward freedom of faith, security of ownership and liberty in self-government. Like any guide-post it is powerless in itself, useful only if it is followed. If followed, however, it indicates an orderly transition from war to victory in peace and prosperity. If it is ignored, our alternate course leads to economic war, government by edict, Issued by Continental Post No. 228, American Legion, Springfield, N. J., in the best interests of servicemen and women.

One of the most crying needs have been for wastepaper and scrap that in other days we used to burn, throw away or bury. Paper has been on the critical list for some time and we are told that it will continue. In Springfield we were faced with a decided lag in this matter last Spring and Summer and something had to be done. With an eye to helping out, the American Legion decided to take the bull by the horns and to see that Springfield was brought back to where it belonged. Arrangements were made with Postmaster Helms whereby the Legion would do all the work, the only requirement being that every soldier of Springfield would receive the SUN each week. Then we went to work. Let's see how we have made out.
In the eight months January to August 1944 the net return from scrap drives was $706.98. In the eight months, September 1944 to April 1945 the net return was $1,387.94 or a net increase of almost 75 per cent. This meant newspapers for GI's, more money for the Red Cross, more for the USO, more for the Boy Scouts and more for the Girl Scouts plus additions wherever the Postmaster sees it will do the most good. The drives have been held rain or shine and on January 7th in a blinding snow storm. But it was done and we will do more.
Naturally, we had some help, we had donations of trucks and it is only fitting that we should acknowledge in this column those who freely and willingly contributed the rolling stock:
Columbia Millwork Co.
F. & F. Nurseries
Hershey Ice Cream Company
Doggett & Pfeil
Shady Creek Farms
Union County Coal & Lumber
Commonwealth Water Co.
Stanley Trucking Co.
Andrew Wilson
Alfred Van Ripper
Township of Springfield
Particularly do we acknowledge the help of the Boy Scouts who collected the paper and placed it in piles at intersections so that we "retreads" would not have to lower wages and less of the things people want.

The system of open competition in enterprise made America the world's most influential nation and kept it in the forefront of human progress for 170 years. A recent survey shows that conservative business men are ready, if they have a chance, to offer more than one job per available worker after the war. For full employment, good pay, ready markets and active business, let's follow through with the Labor-Management Charter.

Question and Answer

Q: I have just recently been discharged and would like to arrange for a loan under the G.I. Bill of Rights. Do you think it would be advisable for me to hire a lawyer to plead my case?

A: ABSOLUTELY NO. Come to the American Legion, first, for consultation, then, for the preparation of your papers. You need not spend one dime for assistance. It is wholly unnecessary.

T/S Henry A. Engelhardt of Mrs. Bertha Engelhardt of Garwood has been awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement with the "Thirty-eighth" Division. During a sixteen-day battle in the Philippines Corporal Engelhardt, a battalion vice team leader, maintained a three mile wire line from the regimental to the battalion command post along a road which was constantly under heavy mortar and sniper fire. The corporal has been overseas sixteen months with the 151st Infantry, serving in Hawaii, New Guinea and Leyte. He is entitled to the Asiatic Pacific ribbon with three stars, Philippines liberation ribbon and the combat infantry badge.

Corporal Engelhardt is a member of the 1940 graduating class.

HOW DEEP WILL YOU DIG in the MIGHTY 7th WAR LOAN?

THIS YEAR, the 7th War Loan has to raise just about as much as was raised by two loans up to this time last year.

You can see in the picture above one reason why... why that boy and millions like him must continue to have every advantage money will buy to do the job and get home again.

War-bond money buys food, clothing, weapons and ammunition. War bond money buys medical supplies and convalescent care. War bond money helps bring him home faster.

New Regulations Announced For Mailing Papers

New rules, designed to conserve shipping space, and effective July 1, have been announced to govern mailing of newspapers and other periodicals to Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard personnel overseas.

Individual copies offered for mailing by publishers, addressed via fleet post offices in New York or San Francisco, will be accepted only when they are subscriptions or renewals requested in writing by the addressee. Publishers must present such requests at the post office of mailing for the postmaster's inspection.

Relatives or friends may pay for the subscriptions, if the addressee has requested the paper or periodical be sent. Complimentary copies, those paid for by the advertiser, and those sent under any arrangement in which the request is solicited, will not be accepted for mailing. Unexpired subscriptions will continue to be sent until the subscription expires.

Publishers mailing copies in accordance with the new regulations must include with the address a certificate calling "Mailed in conformity with order No. 27851" or the copies will be returned. The Navy suggests, however, that, wherever possible, clippings of interest be sent instead of the complete publication.

War Prisoners Aid

In the hills, at the rail end in Central China, the representative of War Prisoners Aid of the Y.M.C.A., a participating service of the National War Fund, left the train.

A coolie and a rickshaw awaited him. But the coolie was so weak he could barely drag the empty rickshaw. So the "Y" man helped the Chinese at the shaft. Together they dragged it over rugged hills, through tearing streams and sucking mud—for a hundred miles.

There had been a famine in the region. Thousands had starved to death. Even now, the roads were filled with walking dead men, so emaciated that unconsciously one listened for the rattling of their bones.

One midday, a blue twilight filled the world; there was a whirling of countless wings. Then the locusts shrouded the sky and earth like black snow. Every leaf, every blade of grass, was gone. The trees were gray gnarled hands grasping at the empty sky.

After many days, the Y.M.C.A. representative reached his destination—the ruined temple where Catholic missionaries had long been interned. He was their first visitor from the outside world. He came, as one of them said, "like an angel from Heaven, to soothe and comfort our sorrowful hearts."

EDITOR'S MAIL

Editor, Springfield Sun:
In sending you a copy of the June 1945 issue of "Prisoners of War Bulletin" which for the past two years has been published monthly by national headquarters of the American Red Cross for the benefit of families of American prisoners of war, we invite your attention to the following background information:

1. According to a recent statement made by Carl J. Bueckhardt, president of the International Committee of the Red Cross, in Geneva, Switzerland, Adolf Hitler late in March 1945 gave orders to execute all American and British prisoners of war in Germany. This statement has been substantiated by American prisoners of war, recently liberated and returned by air from Germany, who were in a position to know the facts. Hitler's order was in revenge for the bombing of German cities, particularly Dresden. One important reason why the order was not carried out by German army commanders was because they knew that the American and British governments had faithfully endeavored to carry out their obligations under the Geneva Convention toward enemy prisoners of war.

Locals Placed In State Track Event Saturday

A steady downpour put a damper on any new records at the 27th annual State track meet in Montclair, but Regional's squad headed by Bruce Davis, managed to share a three-way tie for sixth place in team standing out of 21 schools entered in Group 3 competition.

Davis, who won the county pole vault the previous week with a new record jump of 11 feet 8 inches, tied in the State event at 10 feet 6 inches with a teammate, Dave Simms, and Billian of Bound Brook and Brown of Englewood.

Then Davis, competed in the 220 yard hurdles, taking third place. Steve Becker, Regional flash, took fifth in the 100. The Bulldogs compiled 11 points, equal to Hillside and Ferris.

Ahead of the locals were Plainfield, defending and successful champs, followed by Haddon Heights, Union, Englewood and Woodrow Wilson.

Bulldogs in Triangular Track Meet

Regional engaged in a triangular track meet Tuesday of last week with Cranford and Rahway at Rahway. A dual meet was scheduled with Rahway and since the earlier Cranford contest had been washed out, a three-way contest was arranged.

Cranford collected 83 points to 66 1/2 for Regional and 23 1/2 for Rahway. The individual star was Bruce Davis of Regional, who won

Voelker Becomes Town's First Donor Of Gallon of Blood

PAUL VOELKER
 Paul Voelker, of 3 Bryant avenue, became the first "gallon club member" in Springfield last Saturday when the mobile unit of the Blood Donor Service visited here. Mr. Voelker had donated seven times in Springfield, and once in Newark. It is expected that there will be several more gallon-donors when the unit visits Springfield again in November.
 Mr. Voelker, who has lived in Springfield for the past 11 years, is an active member of Continental Post No. 228 of the American Legion, where he is serving as chaplain this year. As a Legionnaire, Mr. Voelker is very much scrap paper minded, and his car is usually pretty full of papers he collects from his office, the J. Wiss & Sons Company, of Newark, where he has been employed the past 25 years, and where he is purchasing agent for the company. The paper he salvages down there, he brings home to add it to Springfield's total in the scrap drives.
 Mrs. Voelker is secretary of the Springfield Chapter of the Red Cross. Before assuming that office last January, she was a staff assistant.
 The Voelkers have a son, Pfc. John P. Voelker, who has been overseas for the past 14 months, and is now in the Philippines, and a daughter Ethel, who is a member of the junior class at Regional High School.

Candidates Talk Before G.O.P. at Large Gathering

 Committeeman Brown pointed to his record of nine years as chairman of the road and sewer committee, and said through his efforts the Board of Freeholders came to Springfield, as one of its first ventures, to assist in maintenance of township roads. For this he gave credit to the late Freeholder Director Peter H. Meisel of Springfield, who had been working closely with Brown in this respect.
 "This year, the county is cutting down on such outside aid," Brown added, "but because we were the first to take advantage of their offer, Springfield will again have the service of the county road gang." Later in the meeting, Freeholder Rigby told the group that he had been also instrumental in getting this aid for the township.
 In a brief question and answer period, at the conclusion of the meeting, Committeeman Brown was asked by a Henshaw avenue resident, John Brinkerhoff, how he stood on the question of the pencil factory, referring to the Richard Best Pencil Co., which bought town-owned land for a plant off Mountain avenue.
 A flurry arose, during which Brown said he favored use of the land for the purpose as in the best interests of the township, and Committeeman Richard Horner took the floor to defend the action taken. He said that before the board considered this question, the zoning Commission years ago granted an industrial zone in the present location, which could not be changed, except through Board of Adjustment action.
 Brinkerhoff said he had expressed his opposition to the pencil factory proposal, before he was a candidate for office, and that he told the Governing Body the "lack of publicity, except for a block and lot number for location" was insufficient notice to the public at large, when the land was sold for that purpose originally.
 The club voted to dispense with meetings during the summer months and will resume in September.

The Weather—Believe It or Not!

What is so rare as a day in June—in June?
 We have had March days and November days. The World Telegram has decided that June has a cold! Charles McCarthy (no relation to Reagan) thinks we have had beautiful fall weather; The Newark Evening News awaits the Prodigal Sun; even the loquacious hummingbird, for the last week, while it rained and halled—someone claimed it was sweet. The hail fell last Friday. The highest temperature since last Thursday has been 53, until Wednesday, when it rose to 64.
 At any rate, pastures are better than usual, even though tomato plants are at a standstill.
 And the fuel oil saved in March is coming in handy in June.

The medical staff has approved this modification of the hospital's practice which formerly allowed no visitors under 16 years.

"We feel that the age limit for visitors can be lowered with complete safety," Mr. Turner said. "And we have found that mothers are happier when they can have their children come to see them."

Children under 14, accompanied by an adult may be admitted to private rooms if permission is granted by the attending physician.

Commuters Object To Closing 23rd Street Ferry

Louis H. Dos Passos of Summit is acting president of the Twenty-third Street Association and Leo Kimer of Chatham is the acting secretary, which is opposing the closing of the twenty-third street ferry of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, between West Twenty-third street, Newark, and Hoboken.

The association is the outcome of the application of the railroad company asking the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to close up the ferry. While the association was hurriedly organized to oppose the request it is intimated that it may become permanent to look after commuter interests.

The association said 3,231,199 passengers and 714,000 vehicles were transported by the line last year. The organization maintained that improved service of the Christopher Street ferry, as proposed by the railroad, would provide a more convenient substitute.

It is understood that thousands of protests have been filed with the I.C.C. against the proposal, many of them pointing out that if this terminal is abandoned they would find themselves without a midtown service as compared with the two downtown terminals, at Christopher and Barclay streets. It is suggested by some of the commuters that if service is curtailed it would be better to eliminate one of those terminals.

Among the protesters from business concerns are those of Auto Car Trucks, C. F. Kirk Company, Jabez Burns & Sons, Inc.; James N. Wells' Sons, Berlin & Jones Company, Inc.; Order of Railway Conductors of America, Inland Boatmen's Union, Port of New York; Order of Railroad Telegraphers, and many others.

Some of the individuals who have protested declared that in case the I.C.C. authorizes the abandonment of this ferry service it will necessitate giving up their New Jersey homes. Commercial concerns in the West Twenty-third street district have notified the I.C.C. that many of them have just renewed long leases for their property and that the abandonment of this commuter and vehicular service will seriously impair their business.

One commuter points out that the Lackawanna is one of the railroads that do not sell a commutation ticket at a lower price based on a five-day business week and that the proposed change to the Christopher Street Ferry would entail extra tube fares or bus fares, as well as long roundabout trips on account of inadequate facilities.

For economy, for comfort, for a real rest and as a genuine contribution to the war effort, spend your vacation in or near your home town.

Cancer Education, Research Program To Begin at Once

With the appointment of Admiral Charles S. Stephenson, USN, retired as managing director of the American Cancer Society, the educational, preventive and research program for fighting the disease that each year kills more Americans than any other malady, will be organized at once.

Admiral Stephenson was the recipient of the Purple Heart and a citation for his work in organizing the U. S. Typhus Commission and directing the campaign against that disease in the Near East. In announcing the appointment, Elmer H. Bobst of Newark, who is a member of the executive committee and chairman of the New Jersey Division of the American Cancer Society, said this week that the plans for the society for this year comprise the first comprehensive campaign ever launched for the immediate reduction of cancer mortality and its eventual control.

"Admiral Stephenson was selected to direct this program," said Mr. Bobst, "because of his outstanding accomplishments in preventive medicine, which, with increasing knowledge of cancer, is one of the very hopeful fields of effort. Part of the money obtained from the national campaign for a $5,000,000 Cancer Fund will be spent in establishing preventive institutions throughout the country.

"Research and preventive clinics are two parts of the three-pronged attack on cancer planned by the American Cancer Society. Coordinated research, such as will be conducted under the direction of the cancer committee of fifteen of the world's outstanding specialists in their respective fields, offers the hope that the cause of the disease may be discovered, and with such discovery the way will be open to finding effective means for conquering it as other terrible diseases have been conquered. The importance of this work can be fully appreciated when we know the fact that cancer has, throughout the ages, taken a greater toll of human lives than all the wars that have ever been fought.

"Our third point of attack is education. If everybody can be made to understand how cancers start, and that they are preventable or curable in their early stages, at least a third of the 167,000 lives taken every year by this disease can be saved. The mystery and secrecy about cancer must be dispelled. The fear and hush-hush idea that goes with it must be abolished.
