Bank Joins Drive Against Inflation

First National Bank of Springfield and other banks in the State are being asked to join actively in the big nationwide campaign to fight inflation. Nationally, the program is being eponsored by the American Bankers Association with the assistance of state bankers associations throughout the country. Frank W. Sutton, Jr., President of the Association and President, First National Bank of Toms River, has called two important meetings under the anti-inflation program calling for voluntary action on the part of the banks.

The banks are being asked to see that bank credit is available to all borrowers who can increase the supply of needed goods and services; to discourage speculafive loans that will contribute to the inflationary demand for goods; to encourage thrift, regular bank deposits and the purchase of Savings Bonds; and to see that mortgage loans for non-essential building which can be postponed be discouraged until supplies and labor are in greater abundance.

The bankers cannot do the job alone. Inflation cuts the value of everyhody's dollar and threatens everybody's security. It-is-everybody's job to help fight it. One of the most effective ways to combat high prices and inflation is to buy only what you need now, borrow only for essential nurposes. spend carefully avoiding black markets, save regularly in a bank account and invest regularly in U. ### Motor Fatalities Drop to New Low 1944, when the traffic death rotal was the same. January, with its snow and lee-covored streets and treacherous driving conditions had only 28 highway accident fatilities, the lowest monthly total in sixteen years, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee announced today. January last year had 54 fatalities.

Highly elated over the reducon in deaths. Comm Magee said that the January record proves conclusively that drivers can be safe and that most traffic mishaps are caused and therefore avoidable.

"January was an ideal month for testing this theory," said Mr. Magee. "The whole state was blanketed with snow and ice throughout the entire month. Road conditions were such that extreme caution was necessary at all times. The result was a sharp curtailment in fatalities. If drivers can be more careful when weather conditions compel extreme caution there is no sound reason why operators cannot carry over this safety consciousness under normal driving conditions. The January death record should convince the driving and walking public that highway sufety can be achieved if everyone will do his part."_ -Gamden, Jersey City and Tren-Regular monthly meeting of the ton reported one traffic fatality arent-Education Group will be each while those were no deaths or Elizabeth. ### Brown to Remain In Township Race

Township Committeeman Fred A. Brown, running as an independent Republican for the GOP 3-year term nomination, yesterday emphatically denied reports he would withdraw from the race to accept a salarled post of road

Brown admitted that considerable pressure has been brought during the past few weeks to remove him from the political scene and at the same time reward him, but I have made a go of it alone before and I'm sure I can do it again," he said.

Announcement that Fred A. Handville would receive organization backing in opposing him for the Republican nomination did not come as a blow, Brown said. "I've had trouble in the past and I expected it again this time. As a matter of fact if I had clear sailing I would have been shocked," the committeemar

According to reports, the job was offered Brown to reward him for his many years of service on the committee as road chairman. Observers feel, however, the move was an effort to gracefully remove Brown from an authoritative position in the local political of 101 during the summer, the smallest force employed in years, maintenance of the Union County Park System during 1947 was aided by the addition of some new equipment, it is reported by Jarvis E. Badgley Superintendent of-Construction and Maintenance, in the annual resume of his department's work.

Considerable routine mainte nanco was required to care for thousands of trees and shrubs, a 20-acre nursery, various floral display gardens, a 27-hole golf course, athletic fields, two swimming pools, a riding stable, 100 rowboats, 20 playground areas, miles of roads, paths, and bridle trails, and many park structures.

Major improvements to the parks included such things as additional drainage and fairway renovating at Galloping Hill, the construction of concrete guard rails in the Watchung Reservation to replace rotted log guard rails, concrete signs and posts in the Reservation to prevent vandalism to such markers, and replacement of log steps at Laké Surprise and at Milton Lake Park

Lopsided Voting Results In Naming of Merlette

A complete lack of coordination on the part of Republican members of the Township Committee last night resulted in a Democratic victory for the post of township treasurer. Floyd G. "In view of this fact it is the opinion of the executive Committee of the Department of New Jersey of The American Legion that action in the form of deflnite recommendations should be forthcoming promptly."

It was Republican Committeeman Fred A. Brown's surprise vote which awang the tide in favor of Merlette. Previous to the ballot, Brown said he savored

Charles Fry for the position. In roll call vote, however, Brown istounded his fellow members of the committee and onlookers by casting his ballot in favor of the Democratic nominee. Even Committeemen Turk and Franics Keane, Demrats, appeared amazed at Brown's vote. To some, action of Brown was attributed to failure of organization Republican forces to back him for renomination to the governing body.

Knockout Reversed

A few weeks ago when John Gunn, who became treasurer as a result of the famous January compromise announced he would have to resign the post due to a health condition, political observers classified it as a knockout blow to Democrats,

But today the entire affair apnears to have been more damaging to Republicans,

Committeeman Robert Marshall fought for appointment of Floyd Bowman as treasurer, but never offered his name in nomination. Commander Joseph G. Carty of As a matter of fact, when Brown Plainfield, has made public the voted in favor of Mericite, Marfollowing statement unanimously shall cast his ballot in the same approved by the State Executive direction "because I knew then Committee of The American Le- Bowman was licked." > But it wasn't the so-called moral obligation which brought about Merlette's appointment. Question of Pay Decision to pay Merlette $1,000 for the balance of the year came about as a result of a statement by Sclander that Springfield has undergone considerable expense thus far in training new treasurers. The mayor suggested, $1,400 for the balance of the year. To Exceed Red Cross Quota

At this point Marshall said his candidate would have been satisfied with $1,000 and he felt Merlette's pay for the rest of 1948 should not exceed that amount. Turk turned to Merlette, seated in the audience, "would you be satisfied at the $1,000 figure," Merlette agreed and the amount was voted. Annual salary for treasurer heretofore has been $1,675. _ Meriette's Experience

Merlette, secretury of the Citiven's Leavile was holm in Bound Brook in 1917. He was graduated from Bound Brook High School and Took courses in insurance and accounting given by the Life Office Management Institute of N. Y. He has served with the Prudential Insurance Company at its home office in Newark for 18 years in the general accounting and actuarial divisions.

Father of two sons, Merlette served four years in World War If with the Navy as an aviation chief radioman. He saw combat in both the Atlantic and Pacific Theaters. Merlette attends the Presbyterian Church and holds membership in the Springfield Republican Club. He resides at 22 Menshaw avenue.

Then thin out the weak canes less than 18 inches high. The remainder should be thinned to stand 6 to 8 inches apart. These that are left, cut back to a height of 24-not be pinched back in summer. Bush blackberries will do better if the canes are pinched in summer at a height of 24 to 30 inches. During the winter, removed old fruiting canes and any canes that are under 18 inches high. Cut back the laterals or side shoots to about 8 to 12

Dewberries and trailing blackberrice are pruned by removing dead and weak canes. Then head back all other canes. Dewberries should be headed back to three or four feet and trailing blackberries_(like Black_Diamond)_to 4 to 6 feet. All of these should be tied up to stakes or on a trellis. Currents and gooseberries form bushes with many canes that originate near the surface of the ground. Usually too many develop. Prune these by removingfirst all canes 6 years old or older. Then thin cut the weakest of those remaining. Cutting back seldom is necessary. More details are contained in a bulletin called "Pruning Hardy Fruite" free on request to Agricultural Agent, Court House, Elizabeth 4, New Jersey.

Apartment Review

hearing. The committee instructed Township Attorney Darby to have the records prepared.

While the board January 29 recommended the township committee grant the variance on the basis that the development would be in the best public interest, it has refused to certify hardship. The committee declined to act on the board's recommendation on advice of Darby. Darby told the committee it had no jurisdiction because of the failure of the board to find hardship.

Harry Silverstein, attorney for the developers, charged the failure of the board to find hardship was contrary to the testimony presented and was "unreasonable, capriclous and an abuse of the discretion granted to the board." Silverstein said in his writ application deprived use of its property, which was "taking of private property without due process of law.".

The application charged that reasonable consideration has not been given the character of the property involved and its "peculiar suitability? for the use desired Literal enforcement of the ordinance results in an unnecessary hardship on the property-owner and has "no substantial relation to the public health, safety, morals and general welfare," the applica-.

Silverstein also declared that he had not been informed of the board's January 29 action until February 11. He added he had requested information on the board's decision from members and the board clerk, but that all had refused him access to the records or to otherwise inform him of the action taken.

Silverstein maintains the property is unsuitable for one-family residences because of its irregular land contours and location, Nearby residents, led by Roy Waldeck of 25 Park lane, oppose the development on the grounds it would increase taxes and decrease values and work a hardship on adjoining property owners.

November 11 the board recommended the committee grant the permit provided the developers agreed to seven stipulations on the climination of a number of units to the rear of the project and other changes. The concern agreed, but the committee December 30 referred the matter back to the board on the grounds that it did not indicate a finding of hardship or public interest. The board a month later gave the ruling which is now up for review. A similar application by Spring Brook Gardens was turned down by the board in January, 1946, after objections from nearby residents.

Some Accidents Shouldn't Happen When we see a group of youngsters playing hide-and-seek among parked cars on a busy street or chasing up and down stairs, slamming doors and pushing furniture obstacles in front of one another, it seems a wonder that so many children manage to grow up all in one piece.

But, of course, there are many unlucky kids who don't run the gauntlet of childhood without incurring some permanent injury through accident. In fact, today accidents are the greatest single menace to children.

Accidents are at the top of the list of thecauses of death for children not entirely because there are so many more accidents than in former _days, but partly because children aren't dying of other causes and partly because of the more serious kinds of injury caused by traffic accidents. Apart from accidents, medical science has succeeded in making childhood much safer than it used to be: In the past 15 years, deaths from preventable diseases among children up to 14 years of age have been reduced by more than 60 per cent.

In general, the only way to prevent accidentsis to be cautious and careful. But, unfortunately, caution, care, and deliberateness are not qualities held in the highest esteem among growing boys and girls. Still there aren't many youngsters who actually enjoy being laid up with a broken leg, or who relish the thought of getting their fingers smashed in a slamming door. It's not carelessness itself that we have to watch out for, but the consequences of carelessness, and if we think about these consequences and talk about them with one another. there is a fair chance we may avoid some of the needless and tragic accidents that would otherwise

There are many things that children can do around the house to help prevent accidents both for themselves and for their parents. For example, it is dangerous to leave things on the stairs for people to fall over, going up or down. Another frequent location of serious accidents is the family bath tub. It is high time that people learned not to try to stand up and walk around in a slippery bath tub. This is no argument against taking baths, but it is an argument for using a rubber mat and taking advantage of any handles or towel hangers that-may he available to help you getting in and out of the

The job of cleaning ice and snow off the porch and front walk that may be profitable fun for a youngster can be fatal for his daddy who has grown unaccustomed to such exertion. Far too many older men each year-some of them not so old at thatsufter a fatal heart attack from the exertion of shoveling heavy snow in winter time.

Along with the bathroom, the kitchen is a favorite place for accidents to happen in the home. It is said that more than six thousand men, women, and children are killed each year in the United States from accidents originating in the kitchen. Of course there are innumerable ways in which one can get badly hurt-in-the kitchen. There are the possibilities of burns and scalds, of gas poisoning, of cutting and slashing, of contacts with electricity, and of falling on slippery linoleum. Here certainly is a place where the entire family can help to cut down the accident rate, for more than any other place, the kitchen is a family room.

Let's get to work on this problem of accidents. We'll never know how many we have prevented, but we are certain to be very unhappy about the ones we don't prevent.

To have anything to do with a man or woman losing their job is nore than I would want on my conscience. If the people responsible for such an act would devote their time and effort to a worthwhile project, how much etter off we would be.

As proof of the type of man-we have, I quote the following-item from last week's issue of the Sun in the column "Looking Into Yesteryear": "Patrolman Arthur Lamb, who

Editor, SUN:

I have lived in Springfield for seven years and have made many friends, including Officer Lamb. I have-learned recently, he is to be removed from the force. This man has been a good policeman and has been more helpful than some of his collengues. There is also a question about his age is he is to be reinstated. I believe if this were checked, one would find other officers older than

MOUNTAINSIDE

Mrs. Joseph Hershey, Reporter

Tenpinettes Lead Despite 3 Losses

MOUNTAINSIDE Although lost three games to Birch Hill last Thursday night, the Templactics still lead the Borough Women's Bowling League. Their percentage is 595 against second place Blue Star's 577. The Blue Stars dropped two in their chance at first place, to the third place Tom Boys. The Tom Boys are only four games out of first place, and 114 games out of second.

Alex DiFrancesco, donated two bracelets for prizes last week; one for high score with hundicap and one for low score with handican. Hazel Johnson of Birch Hill at the end of their rolling held high and low, but when the totals of the other alleys were nidded lost out high to May Roeder with 187, thereby taking low with 110. Amazons did not roll.

A joint birthday party was held in the first grade room last Friday, in honor of the birthdays of Ann Scars and Harry Johnson. From two to four the school room rang with the shouts of joy at the games played. Mrs. Jane Sears and Mrs. Austin Johnson were hostesses and were assisted by Miss M. Miele, first grade, teacher. Games will follow the meeting.

FIREMEN WITNESS WET WATER TEST

MOUNTAINSIDE -- Members of the Mountainside Volunteer Fire Department attended a test staged by the Scotch Plains Department Monday night on the values of "wet water."

For those not in the know it was explained, wet water is water having synthetic detergents added, and is lauded for its assistance to fire departments in extinguishing a fire more rapidly. Wet water is said to really wet down any surface, and this in addition to smothering the fire, enables in keeping the fire from spread-

Telephone Service grows in usefulness

TEN YEARS AGO, here in New Jersey, we handled an average of 2,900,000 telephone calls a day. Now the average is more than 5,500,000-and on December 26, the day of the big storm, we reached an all time high of 8,845,000 calls.

 Many of these additional calls are due to the increased number of telephones in use, but another reason is this: Telephone service is growing more useful and more convenient to each individual user. And, of course, that's our objective.

"The American Cancer Society is_the only organization which conducts a nationwide cancer control program embodying research, service and education, It has no connection with any other organization raising funds in the name of 'cancer'.

"April has been designated Cancer Control Month-by proclamation of the President and by joint resolution of Congress. During this month the American Cancer Society conducts its annual appeal for funds. It is only during this month that a widespread appeal is made to the public.

"The American Cancer Society has developed a broad program of research, which is the only mean that the causes and oure of can cer can be discovered.

"In addition, a large percentage of funds contributed to the American Cancer Society are spent in the county in which they are raised. This year, 50% of the funds raised is being spent within the trates, 24 were arrested, and 7 counties for medical service projects, to provide greater facilities, to provide cancer dressings, spe-· medications, transportation and direct aid to cancer patients; for education, to inform the public. that cancer can be cured if eaught in time."

State School Aid Asked to Prevent Local Tax Rises

The $13,000,000 increase in state school aid which is being sought from the Legislature this year, is designed to help keep local taxes from rising, Clyde W. Struble, chairman of the Educational Planning Commission, stated today, Struble is mayor of Ocean

"While the Commission is advocating this as a measure of tax reller," Struble said, "we do not want the public-to-think that it necessarily means tax reduction. The state would have to provide far more than $13,000,000 to bring any material tax cut under present conditions."

"The plain facts are, however, that-school costs are rising in nearly every community. Unless the state helps, those increases will mean higher local taxes. Thatis what we are speking to prevent.

"It is not the fault of school boards or teachers that schools are costing more. School costs have risen far less than most other costs in the present inflationary period. But it is inevitable that they show some increase. Teachers' salaries have to be raised to meet higher living costs; and the current teacher shortage makes it possible for teachers to ask and get more

The first of these sessions is a charm course including hair-do and make-up. The others are modeling, fashion phoography, and fashion high lights. Next week's assembly will feature scenes from the forthrowing senior play, "You Can't Take It With You". With the play only three weeks away it is more and more the topic of every lunch table. Members of the cast have some wonderful stories to tell about rehearsals.

On March 12 the Freshman class will present a dance with a St. Patrick's theme. Luke Anderson's orchestra will provide the music.

MILLBURN HIGH PLAY An old tradition of Millburn

High School will be revived March 19 when the Junior Class presents their play "Hi-Spirit", entirely by the students. At a class meeting VFW are used solely for service the "Forty Niners" decided that there was a sufficient amount of talent among them to create a play for public production. The play could be tailor-made to take chase ... equip ment and to send advantage of the talents of various members of the class. Several scripts were submitted by the students, and one by Dick Behrman was finally chosen as the one to be used.

Regional and Westfield New Opportunity combined last Friday night to badly muddle the Section Two, Group III basketball picture when the Blue Devils downed the locals 55-41.

Behind Roy Belliveau's six points, the Bulldogs built up a 9-6 first period lead.

Westfield roared back to forge a 22-16 margin midway in the second period, but Sy Wansaw connected for five points and Roy added a layup to put Regional one point ahead. Don Belliveau's jump shot countered Thompson's layup for Westfield and the visitors led 25-24 at the intermission.

YOUR ELECTRIC COMPANY KNOW This Map Shows the Territory We Serve CENTRA =DIVISION SOUTHERN DIVISION

MAIN ST.

HIS TERRITORY is one of the most important and fastest growing in the United States, extending 178 miles, all within the State of New Jersey from Pompton Lakes on the north to Cape May on the south, and it supplies with electric power a total of 278 cities and towns.

The servicing of this territory we recognize as a public trust to which we devoteour best energies and interest. The property -your property-we do our best to manage consistent with our announced policy, which is that "Our-conception of the Utility Business is to render the best possible service we can, at the lowest possible rate."

This slogan we keep pretty constantly in mind, and we think our Fourteen hundred and ninety-two employees do also, night and day, for much of the work especially emergency work, is often night work.

Perhaps this slogan has had some effect in the public interest, for since its adoption two years ago as an aim to be worked for we have reduced your electric bills nearly Two Million Dollars annually.

If you will be kind enough to glance at the map, you will see that we have outlined your properties in white, in their three divisions, and what a large proportion of the whole State they cover.

They are properties to be proud of, for the system throughout is highly developed, uses the best-approved modern equipment from radio truck to powerhouse, and benefits from a labor-employer relationship that has never produced a strike or serious disagreement.

In fact the devotion of its employees to their jobs has been outstanding, especially in the instances of great emergency from which no Utility, because of the nature of its work, can ever be altogether free.

In these emergencies the value to its customers of strength and size of management, has time and again been demonstrated, for the great extent of territory covered makes it possible to rush large forces of repair units and highly specialized workmen, from districts undamaged by storm to the affected area

Although the parkway, or Route 4, is destined to cross the state from north to south, it is in Essex that the furore over location has been loudest: Twelve miles of the "roadway - through-a - park," - as State Highway Commissioner Spencer Miller, Jr., expresses are under construction in Union and Middlesex counties, and on the south, the engineers are only six miles from the Essex line. The route is mapped also on the north and on March 30, there'll be a public hearing on the alignment from the Essex-Passaic border to Bloomfield cen-

The only cores of opposition to the proposal are in East Orange and Irvington, and the fussing and stewing there go back a score of years-ever since a former Essex County engineer got through legislation for a north-south highway. And the fussing has continued despite the fact that a joint federal-state traffic survey-the most extensive ever attempted in the whole country-showed that any arterial facility should be located where the load was heaviest and where it would siphon traffic off local streets.

That's the background. To catch Essex Assembly delegation last week, apparently at the behest of bers, suggested that the parkway run through Essex west of First and Second mountains instead of through Irvington, East Orange and Bloomfield. But the assemblymen apparently went off half-cocked, as they sometimes have before. Their suggestion brought instantancous and untavorable reaction from a whole bunch of people, including the Freeholders,-the county GOP chlettain, the Joint Council of Municipal Planning Boords, et al. Speaking of highways, it is worthy, of note that the state's record of deaths by automobile continues to get better . . . 28 fatalities in January of this year compared with 54 in the first months a year ago and 83 in the same period in '46. That kind of progress is really worthwhile.

Outside of the still amazing (and amusing) mix-up over the Republican U. S. The candidate is Mrs. Katharine A. Van Orden of Montclair, long a leader in the League of Women Shoppers, who is going after the seat filled since 1038 by Rep. Robert W.

How well prepared to meet the Film on Highway

-PARKWAYS-FOR NEW JERture in color produced for the State Highway Department, was completed last-week and is now ready for public showing. The film-illustrates-in-graphic-tackion how New-Jersey's 5,000,000 residents will benefit by the program to-supplement the State's con gested highways with the type of parkway system now serving motorists elsewhere in the east.

Rural, urban and resort sections of New Jersey all will prosper from careful, long-range planning for better traffic arteries, the film points out. New Jersey motorists encounter greater density of trafno on their main highways than motorists of any other State.

The film also reveals that "many of our roads that were modernized within the past decade to carry 20,000 cars a day now carry 65,000 on week days and more than 100,000 on week-ends. Trafne has doubled since 1925 and will double again by 1970."

PARKWAYS FOR NEW JER-SEY vividly contrasts today's traffic-strangled roads with the Highway Department's sketches of the motorist's dream of the future: Actually, it is a dream wholly within the realm of possibility: a system of functional, landscaped highways that will assure quick, sale travel everywhere. Some will be built for passenger cars only, others will be open to vehicles of all types, Four and six lanes in width, each would flow for miles without intersections, pedestrian crossings or stop lights. The new picture has a running time of 20 minutes and is available without charge to all groups of 26 or more who have 18mm sound projection equipment. It may be reserved by writing The Film Center, 55 Mountain avenue.

A scene reminiscent of the best of Hollywood's western thrillers was enacted in East Orange last week, when Patrolman Walter Taird_pursued a team of runaway horses and finally risked his neck to bring them to a halt after a mile-long chase. Frequently people write us that they have an old camera in their home-and wonder if it is still any good. Mere age has little to do with a camera's usefulness. Good photographs can still be made with the cameras Matthew Brady used to take pictures of the Civil War. Like a fine watch, a good camera may look old-fashioned, but with good care they seldom wear out.

Before you try to use a camera. that has been out of action for some time, take it to your camera dealer or repair man for a good check-up. Have him inspect the bellows and body for light leaks, see if the shutter needs cleaning or adjustment and polish up the lens. If the camera shows obvious signs of wear or damage, it is best to send it to the manufacturer for a good going over.

A few dollars spent on a thor-ough overhaul will often make an old camera as good, and sometimes better than new for blackand-white pictures, even though its lens may not be corrected for color. If the old camera has a good lens, don't be in a rush to get rid of it just because it does not have every modern feature. If you have no need for an old camera, or want a different type,

A Piece of Your Mind

I stated that emotional factors are the cause of a great many accidents. Since then I have received several letters, most of which agree. Many of them, however, contain the same question, "Do you know that to be a fact, or is it just an opinion?"

Of course it is an opinion, but there are, as usual-many studies to back it up. For example, the Metropoliance Company... has published a entitled Causes of Acness! Fifty Railway Company had been studied to determine the causes of their accidents. It was found that faulty attitude accounted for 14 per cent of their accidents, impulsiveness for 10 per-cent, irresponsibility for 8 per cent, failing to keep attention constant for 8 per cent, nervousness and fear for 6 per cent, worry and depression for 2 per cent, and improper distribution of attention for 2 per cent. These Items are—all—emotional in nature, and together they accounted, as you can see, for 50 per cent of the accidents.

Differ Within Self Human beings not only differ from others in their degree of emotional instability, but they differ from time to time within themselves as well. All of us have had the experience of feeling "low" or gloomy at times, with no apparent reason, and "high" or happy at other times... tionally low about 20 per cent drive."

Consulting Psychologist Two weeks ago in this column of the time. Hersey investigated four hundred minor accidents and found that more than 50 per cent of them occurred when the person involved was in a "low" state. Actually, of course, only 20 per cent of these accidents should have occurred during a low period, if the matter were determined by chance only. Therefore it can be well accepted that emotional states have a very real and significant determining effect upon the rate of accidents.

What, then, does this fact have to do with us? First, we must realize that if we have frequent accidents or near escapes from accidents, the strong probility is cident - Prone- that we are not too well balanced emotionally. We must check our level of maturity and determine the Cleveland whether we are behaving with the emotional strength and stability demanded by life. If not, then obviously psychological guidance

Keep a Record

Secondly, we ahould keep record for a few weeks to determine our emotional cycle. A very simple device will suffice. We can merely place on a calendar at the end of each day the word High, Low, or Medium, according-to the way we have felt that day. If we find ourselves low-for-much more than 20 per cent of the time, a check into our mental state is indicated.

Finally, because we know that we're at least 30 to 50 per cent more likely to have an acciden when we're depressed, low, angry, or frustrated, we had better remember not to drive when we feel that way, or if we must drive, to be very much more careful and cautious than usual. The old motto of 'If you drink, don't drive," holds true, and so does The average person feels cmo- that of "If you're depressed don't

I RECEIVE numerous inquiries about the cause of numbness and hand becomes less, but the patingling of the hands. My answer is awkward in the handling is awkways the same—that it is awkward in the handling of small-objects with the thumb is always the same—that It is necessary to consult a physician because there are so many different conditions which can produce these symptoms. That is perfectly true, and yel these sensations of numbness and be disturbed. The symptoms will he the same whether the-blocking occurs in the hand itself, in the arm, or at the point where the nerves leave the spinal cord. Around Shoulder Joint Then, too, there may be disturbances around the shoulder joint, such as arthritis or inflammation of the joint, which preand muscle power.

duce symptoms of this type. Recently, it has been noted that when persons do unusual work that requires repeated backward bending of the wrist, inflammation of the nerves may occur due to pressure on them by ligaments holding the wrist bones together.

First Symptoms Usually, the first symptoms, in such cases, are burning and tingling sensations. The discomfort may be severe enough to wake the patient up at night. Certain of the muscles in the hand may become weak. The patient loses some of the sense of touch, As time passes, the pain in the and fingers. One or both hunds may be affected, depending upon the type of work the patient does. Henvy Housework One patient studied was a roman 49 years of age, who, during the war, had to do a great ical of unaccustomed heavy ousework. The smyptoms of numbness, tingling, and burning pain in the band had persisted for about three years. The pain did not extend above the wrist. After about two years, the muscles at the base of the thumb became wasted and weak. The pain was worse at night and was aggravated by the carrying of heavy objects with the hands. -It would appear that in most cases this condition can be quickly relieved by means of a simple operation in which-the ligaments on one of the nerves runding t the hands are cut. Following the operation, pain was immediately relleved, and the patient gradually regains the sense of touch

Biggest Flower Show Ever To Open in N. Y. Monday

With 255 main competitive classes for private and commercial exhibitors, including a host of New Jersey entrants, and numerous garden club contests for member clubs and individuals, the 32nd International Flower Show management is preparing for a record-breaking list of entries. When the colorful and aroma-pervaded spectacle opens in Grand trophy for the best exhibit in Central Palace for a six-day run class 187, for rose gardens. on Monday, March 8 (one week earlier than usual) visitors will behold the largest International show ever staged. Four exhibition floors are required and some of the space used for storage in former years will be rearranged to accommodate more exhibits.

New Arrangement There will be a new arrange ment this year for the 16 large gardens on the main floor. In the center will be a 600-foot rectangular garden surrounded by wide aiele space, from which six aisles will radiate to the exhibits along the four walls. This design will permit visitors to view each of the featured gardens from either four sides or three. In shape, these garden areas are to be either rectangular or semitrapizoidal, with no circular or curved lines.

The second, or mezzanine floor, will feature orchids; also azalea borders, hydrangeas, calendulas and bulbous plants, while-the-Lexington avenue side of the floor will be occupied, as usual, by the beautiful display of the Garden Club of America.

On the third floor (changed from day to day) there will be various exhibite of cut roses, carnations, camellias, gerberas, cineraria and numerous other blooms. A cyclamen group of about 300 plants will be a feature. Beginning Wednesday of show week a number of holticultural societies will-enter-displays in competition. Also, sweet pens and other out flowers will be offered in profusion on this floor, Wednesday and Friday. Here the New York Botanical Gardens and the Brooklyn Botanical Garden are to have their highly educational offerings. Then, too, there will be a class in suburban home planting-the first time such a class has been scheduled. Information Booth

A re-arrangement will be noted on the fourth floor which is to be occupied largely by the Fed-State. Here also will be the Men's Garden Club of New York exhibit, and an array of table decorations and various-floral-accessories and novelties in a competition open to retail florists. Two paties with chairs where vieltors may rest will be on this floor, also an in novation—an information booth with professional gardeners in attendance at all hours. They will answer questions that visitors may wish to ask relative to horticulture and gardens. The tea garden, as usual, will occupy the east out the week.

Some Gardening Hints For Early March Days

Clean bird houses and set up new ones in preparation for the coming of the birds. The pruning of trees should be completed before the sap starts to run.

Order dormant roses for delivery when the soil is right for planting. Early spring is the ideal time to plant fruit trees. Place ordens for them now for delivery at planting time. Flowers suitable for indoor sowing now are gaillardia, delphinlum, salvia, Vinca rosea, lobelia, dahlia, annual campanula, snapdragon, verbena, heliotrope, lantana and torenia; Vegetubles like tomatoes, eggplants, cauliflower, early cubbage and broccoll can be started indoors if facilities are available. Shade choice broad-leaved and other evergreens from the bright sun and strong winds of March.

Hardwood ashes are an excellent fertilizer for grapes, iris, delphiniums and roses. Keep them dry and apply as soon as cultivation starts.

About the-House

ELEANOR ROSS

MASTER is early this year, and by all the signs and portents, it won't be long before spring cleaning gets under way in many households. There are many home; makers that insist it is unnecessary to tear the house apart each year if it is kept in appleple order all the time. But there is another school, equally insistent that a house needs a thorough going-over and freshening after, the indoor activities, the radiator heat and the extra dirt and grime of winter.

It is a good plan to include the seasonal house cleaning with the weekly work schedule. The aver age house or apartment needs two weeks, if this plan is followed-while in many larger establishments it is a six-week schedule, with one or more rooms integrated into the regular weekly cleaning job each week.

Special Jobs One good homemaker of our acquaintance starts off her plan with a survey of all special jobs to be done, and a good supply of housecleaning equipment, with emphasis on new dusters, brushes of brooms that may be required. She sees to it that her vacuum and its attachments are in perfect condition. The upholsterer comes in to fix any sofa or chair that may need his attention.....Small rugs and such are sent out for a professional dry-cleaning. The unstairs work calls for a thorough cleaning of the bathroom. During this period the downstairs shower is used. Hot air registers and radiators are alraned with electric cleaning attackments, as are cornices and closets. Bureau and dressing table drawers are emptied and cleaned, each member of the family responsible for his or her own. Down come window shades, pictures, mirrors and curtains. Rugs are taken up, and if need be, sent out for cleaning. Rug pads get a good going over. Walls and cellings are cleaned. # Healthful Living

At night when lights are turned on in homes along your street, cheer and warmth as you walk by, But inside the story may not be so cheerful. Those lights may be far from adequate for the family's reading and working in the evening. Doris Anderson, extension specialist in home management at Rutgers University, points out that in many homes artificial lights give only one-twentieth of the light found near a window in the daytime. It's no wonder that members of the family using such poor artificial light have eye strain, undue fatigue, and are irritable and tense. Not enough-or-not-the-right kind of light strains the whole body, as well as the eyes. But what to do about this inadequate lighting found in so many homes? Light bulbs of higher wattage may be the answer to making the best use of the lamps you have. Or perhaps all that is needed in to place the lamps in a new location-nearer the jobs being done and where they won't throw shadows on the work. Or the color or shape of a shade may need changing. A shade that is lined with white will give 50 per cent more light than one whose lining is dark or discolored. Drum-shaped shades confine light around the base of the lamps, but shades with sloping sides provide wide circles of useful light. It's also important to keep glare at a minimum. Bare bulbs and unshaded wall fixtures are not the only offenders. Even shaded lights will cause a glare on any shiny surface if they don't have diffusing bowls. These can be purchased for almost any light that doesn't have one. Shades should be deep enough to cover the light bulh and dense enough so the bulb does not show through the shade.

Byes are priceless, so don't encrifice them with poor lighting. Make surp that you can read or work without straining your eyes everywhere in the house.

Leisure hours can be turned into each by growing a vegetable garden, Savings on your food bill will; pay high wages for the time spent in pleasurable garden work.

The jacket may be quite all right. But the skirt is likely to be too short. If there's a hem to let down, it's simple. But perhaps that's already been done. Study the side seams. If they are wide, the skirt can be let out from the waistline to the hipline and reshaped to bring the hip curve at the proper place. Lengthen the belt so it can be worn low around the waist. This will add at least an Inch or two. But-if-the skirt is very narrow or the seams small, this can't be done. Perhaps the tacket is worth a new skirt. By G. A. BRADSHAW --

Yorkshire, England, the city of Burlington has seen the Revolution began, Its rector, during the ten many significant events in New Jersey history. It was the provincial capital in early times until 1735, and then again from 1757 to 1790. The New Jersey Provincial Congress met there in 1776 and elected New Jersey's representative to the Continental Congress. Old St. Mary's P. E. Church was built

Founded in 1677 the settlers from London and in 1703, almost three-quarters of a century before year period from 1767 to 1777, was the Rev. Johnathan Odell, grandson of Johnathan Dickinson, first president of Princeton University. The church is under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of New Jersey of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Burlington-is located in Burlington County, on New Jersey route

'Shoe Shine" Held Over at Little For Second Week

The prize-winning film "Shoe Shine" which has broken all box office records at the Little Theater n Newark-is-being held over for s second week.

The story takes its name from he homesless street urchins who followed the American Army into Rome and who for a while earned a living polishing the boots of our soldiers. Since the boys had ready access to Army personnel anxious to dispose of cigarettes, chocolates plankets and other precious unobtainables, the Black Marketeers soon began to make use of them as the ideal middleman.

Specifically, the film follows the course of two ragmuffins who, in an effort to realize their dream of owning a beautiful white horse, become tragically involved in the black market operations of post-

"Look Homeward Angel," the late Thomas Wolfe's first important book which has become a classic since its appearance in 1930, is to be the author's first story to reach the screen. Screen rights to the novel have been bought by Paramount from Rudy Monter and Arthur Ripley who purhased the book in 1944, prepared

The story will be filmed as a Liberty production, and will be produced and directed by William Wyler, one of Hollyvood's ablest men, "Look Home ward Angel" is the story of a poor family in a mountain town in North Carolina, where Thomas Wolfe was born. It'll be interesting to see what sort of treatment Hollywood gives to the works of one of America's most prolific great men of letters, since Wolfe's poetic prose does not seem to lend itself to adaptation too well. If Paramount succeeds in reproducing something clse besides the basic plot, if it works in some of Wolfe's Intricate style into the film version, they'll be doing the country an educational service far beyond the usual entertainment bounds. Who ever does the screenplay will be tackling what looks to be moviedom's toughest writing task in history. It could be an awful dud!

When radio actress Terry Rice was a struggling, would-be actress, she was constantly being eased out of easting offices with the advice that she try modeling for a career. Terry was perseverant, however, and got her break right after falling in loveshe married Robert Rice, son of the Broadway playwright-Elmer-Rice. She couldn't miss that way.

A new song was released for public consumption this week. titled "Haunted Heart." It's featured in the new musical "Inide U.S.A.," which is based or the title of John Gunther's latest best-seller. I heard a preview of it last Sunday, and happened to hear it again three or four times on Monday, each time done by a different vocalist. In spite of a huge record distribution, featuring top artists, the song didn't exactly click the way a hit song normally would. Perry Como seems to have the best recording, but none of them are terrific enough to create waiting lists at record stores. If "Haunted Heart" is the top tune in the new play's musical score, "Inside U. S. A." will be "outside Broadway" unless the management offers Bingo games between the acts.

When Godercy Wynn, British author, lecturer and script writer for J. Arthur Rank productions appeared on Bill Leonard's "This Is New York" radio program, he mentioned that he was in American gathering material for a book and had visited many ordinary American homes but he had never visited one in Brooklyn. Before the broadcast was over the studio switchboard was jammed-over 300 Brooklynites offered the visiting Britisher the hospitality of their Flatbush firsts.

Another story with a "Gone With the Wind" treatment is ready for the screen. Paramount has signed novelist Robert Wilder to write the screenplay for "Web of Days," best-selling book by Edna Lee.
