Board Revises Pay Guide in School System .

Pay increases for the school year 1948-49 to teachers and janitors in the local the Board of Education Monday night at an adjourned meeting. The board also revised the teachers' salary guide to provide a future increase of $300 in minimus and maximums for teachers, based on individual qualifica-

The teachers' increases voted for next year range from $300 to $500, depending on length of service in Springfield schools. The $300 increase is intended as a "future guide only," Board Member Runcie said, for the hourd to follow in considering increases as the need

Under the $200 to $500 salary raises approved for the 1948-49 school year, increases will be according to the following schedule and subject to maximum limitations of the new guide. One to two years of service, $200; three, four over, $500.

In a few cases, Runcle pointed out, these increases will have to he cut down in order not to excollege work and now carning $3,150, but who might be eligible for a $500 increase because of six years or more of Springfield school service, would receive a raise of only $350 next year in order to conform to the $3,500 guide maxinum for the three-year category Full compensation in such cases, Runcie said, will have to be picked up by future board action, or further revision of the guide. Most teachers, however, he asserted, will receive the full increase due to

3-Year-Old Local Girl Stricken With Leukemia: Drug May Help

If miracles can happen, let there be one in Springfield at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Eva, 89 Springfield avenue. Sharon Lynn, ,three - year - old oaughter of the Eyas has been stricken with the fatal disease, Leukemia, known medically as cancer of the blood. Doctors have yet to find a cure for the dreaded ailment, but hope is held in the fact that a new drug, still in animal form, will be injected into the child by Professor Ganghorn, of the Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, New York City, within school system was voted by two weeks. The drug is one-of the several discovered by the doctor, but if successful, may only prolong Sharon's fate.

The baby was treated January for abscess of the cars, and a high fever followed. On February 17 Sharon was taken to Overlook Hospital for observation as the fever continued, and remained there until the 25th. She was returned home for a short time. and was sent back to Overlook the first week of March for several blood count tests, trans-

FIVE YEARS AGO The Raymond Chisholm School will re-open for the remainder of the school term, according to announcement made by Fred Hodgson, supervising principal. The school-was closed February 12 because of dwindling oil supplies, and a three weeks' vacation for the children followed. A plan was devised whereby children from Raymond Chisholm School could attend James Caldwell School, which was heated by coal.

Vegetable prices are still going up, and variety is lacking. Quality in most cases is good. Such the picture painted by Springfield merchants. Best buys of the week were: Asparagus, 19 cents per pound; California carrots, 8 cents a bunch; string beans, 10 cents per pound, and peas, 23

TEN YEARS AGO

Construction of a new 12-room school at an estimated cost of $125,000 to replace the partly burned James Caldwell. School was one of the four program: recommended to the Board of Education. The other three included a four-room addition to the school, repairs to make it serviceable 10 years, or temporary repairs until more funds are available for a new building. Presentation of the municipal ambulance by Commander Richard C. Horner of Continental Post, American Legion, to Mayor Wilbur Selander marked a climax to the dance benefit in Singers' Park, Proceeds of the affair were used for the ambulance fund.

LETTERS

Editor, SUN: This letter is to explain to you what happened on the 16th of June 1947.

I was out in my yard and Mrs Maior started to throw rocks at me and then went into the house and returned with a revolver and threaten me. She said that she would fix me once and for all. I called a policeman and then filed a complaint against Mrs. Maier

The trial was set for the following Monday, but was postponed until July 30, 1947. On July 30th Mrs. Majer filed a complaint against me for calling her names

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Billing at New Rate to Begin May 1

IN AN ORDER dated March 18, 1948, the Board of Public Utility Commissioners passed on this Company's application for approval of an increase in water rates. THE ORDER directed the Company to file a new schedule of rates effective with bills rendered on and after May 1, 1948.

THE NEW SCHEDULE has been filed and accepted by the Board. Therefore, bills rendered on and after May I will be figured at these new rates.-Copies of the new schedule are available at the Company's offices in Summit, Irvington and West Orange.

AS WE-HAVE-PREVIOUSLY STATED, increasing costs compelled us to ask approval for the increased rates which the new schedule establishes.

THE ACTUAL INCREASE, we are confident, will not be burdensome to the average consumer, but it will enable us to better maintain the high standard of service to which you are entitled and to carry out our program for expanding the facilities needed to meet the continuing growth of the communities we serve.

FOR A USEFUL, ALL-SEASON VEGETABLE .GARDEN there is almost no such thing as " planting too early.

Plan for a succession of crops and start the seed as soon as the soil is ready. If you' should be caught by a tardy frost you can seed again. If not, your garden will be valuable weeks ahead of schedule.

Here's a helpful test for determining when the ground is ready. Take a handful of soil and crush it between your fingers. If you can make a mud pie with it, it's still too wet. If it crumbles apart it is time to plant.

KEEP YOUR GARDEN HEALTHY-WATER IT THOROUGHLY AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK IF THERE IS NO HEAVY RAINFALL.

OYSTERS

Industry in New Jersey

Only three other areas in the world produce more oysters than New Jersey, and our great state produces more opviors-per acre than anywhere else on the globe. That's big business - in fact, during the 1946-47 season, 1,250,000 bushels of oysters* were shucked, packed and shipped by local shell fishermen.

And New Jersey studies its prize oysters, too. In fact, our state is unique among the world's oyster producing areas in supporting a program of scientific research on the oyster since 1888.

And did you know that electricity plays a big part in the oyster industry, for, thanks to electric power, oysters are washed, packed and shipped without being touched by human hands.

> Public Service Electric and Gas Company, public servant of a great state, joins you in pointing with pride to the industrial might and diversification of New Jersey.

A notable state paper was turned over to the Governor of New Jersey a few days ago-a paper of exceptional significance in this period of our history. It was the report of the Governor's Committee on Civil Liberties, and because it was jam-packed with ideas and recommendations for bettering the lot of individuals and minorities, it can be a means. of showing peoples all over the world that Democracy is far more than an ideology of dollars and cents.

We say it can be a demonstration of the freedoms of democratic government . . , if the people of the state see to it that the rec- | tee was presenting a paper which ommendations are carried out. If should be must reading for all the proposals, on the other hand, are allowed to go unanswered, the | Legislature's mandate that the report could be construed as an indictment of our way of life, and all of us would be guilty of nonfeasance. We say that because the recommendations would not have been necessary in the first place had there not been some weaknesses in our democratic armor.

The committee was appointed only five months ago to look into civil liberties questions raised by the anti-discrimination and antisegregation provisions of the new Constitution. No left-wing group that might he subjected to criticism on that score, it was headed by Dr. Wilbour E. Saunders. headmaster of Peddle School and chairman of the Constitutional Convention's committee on rights and privileges, and included such citizens as the presidents of Scton Hall College and Princeton and Rutgers universities.

"Absolutely Basic"

The report covered a wide area and suggested administrative machinery to protect the civil rights of the state's citizens. It took cognizance of recent Instances where minority groups have been denied the right of free speech and proposed that every municipality provide a place of assembly for political meetings and informal discussions similar to Hyde Park in London or Union Square in New York.

"Freedom of speech and, assembly," said the committee, "are absolutely busic to any civilization which aspires to call right of free speech will not long endure if exceptions to its enjoyment may be raised on the current unpopularity of a minority group,"

Because the state government has few diplomatic or military secrets, the committee said no to U. S. Sleel, Westinghouse, et al. so-called levalty checks for state employees, but auggested that their Communist or Fascist con-

Public Favors Veterans' Bonus This Year

By HENNETH FINK, Director, The New Yersey Poll A proposal to give New Jersey veterans a bonus this year has the overwhelming approval of the voters. A New Jersey Poll survey completed last week reveals that more than three out of every four New Jersey residents favor having the state legislature pass a law to give veterans a bonus this year. Only one-seventh of the state's residents say they are against a bonus at this time.

Sentiment for a veterans' bodus comes from every segment of the population-men and women, young and old, rural residents and big city dwellers, Republicans and Democrats.

When New Jersey Poll interviewers asked a representative cross section of the state's citizens:

"There's been talk of New Jersey granting a bonus to veterans of World War II at this time. How do you feel about this? Would you be in favor of the New Jersey state legislature passing a law to give New Jersey veterans a bonus this year or not?" The vote was:

New Jersey Establishes New Safety Record

New Jersey established a new highway safety record with the innouncement by Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. -Magee that March fatalities were the lowest for that month in fourteen years of accident statistics.

Deaths for the month totaled 4 as against 61 in the same month last year, a reduction of 28 per cent. The closest to this year's figure was the record of March 1945 when there were 45 fatalities. Reporting for the first quarter, Mr. Magee said that there have been 108 traffic accident deaths as compared with 145 last year. The decrease was 25 per cent over last year, -

Essex County finished March with only two fatalities and a total of ten for the first quarter as against five last March and 15 in the first three months, Cape May and Sussex countles have been death free this year so far.

The "new look" in architecture | from picture windows. Architects provided by modern houses built without basements and hugging the ground, calls for a new look in the landscaping planting about

The green-line of shrubs and evergreens which look so well on two story houses with high basements, is obviously out of place in front of a low, modern house. Too often you see picture windows screened by a tall growth of shrubbery, and the attractive lines of a ranch house hidden behind evergreens which in a brief period have grown too tall.

Foundation planting is a method of making houses set too high, seem lower than they are by "tieing the house to the ground," But modern one-story houses hug the ground already and do not need to appear-lower. If any planting is done in front of them it should be low and should make the house look wide, by emphazing the horizontal line. Small houses especially-need-this-effect.

Dutch Elm Disease Can Be Prevented by Proper Care

By The Master Gardener Many of America's elms have already been destroyed by the dread Dutch Elm Disease. This fungus has moved across New England and into the Middle West, killing vast numbers.

Fortunately, there is something to be done to save our lms. We, as gardeners, can play a very important role by keeping the elms on our property strong and healthy. Dutch Elm Disease is transmitted by bark beetles which most often attack weakened trees. Your elms should be given no less than two leaf sprays in the

Complete Plant Food Needed for Healthy Crops The richness of vegetables in

In most parts of the state, gardens have been dug, but this operation should not be hurrled. If the soil is too wet, digging may result in damage that will make culivation difficult all summer.

Poultry manure is not a good source of the organic matter sonecessary in most garden soils, unless peat moss or straw is used as litter. However, concentrated manures such as poultry manure, are sources of nitrogen, and readily available nitrogen is necessary for growing leafy grops like lettuce, cabbage and spinach. Poultry manure can be made more valuable by adding 25 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate and 7 pounds of 60 per cent muriate of potash to 100 pounds of the dried poultry manure. This equals about 50 pounds of 4-10-10 fertil-

If you are growing vegetables to get the most from the smallest amount of land you should plur carefully to use companion and inter-crops. For example, use quick maturing crops like lettuce, radish, onions to be eaten green between slow maturing crops like cabbage.

This means digging the ped to a depth of 18 or 24 inches with a 6-inch layer of rubble or drainage. The soll above this should be enriched with one part well rotted manure to three parts of soil. An alternative is to mix peat noss through the bottom soil and 5 pounds of bone meal per 100 square feet. In the top 6 inches of soil mix 5 pounds of 5-10-5, Agrico or similar fertilizer per 100 square feet. If your soil has clay in it use sand or cinders to break lt up.

Planting may be done in April or October If you use dormant plants, and from now on if you use potted plants. With dormant plants you run the risk that the roots dry out before planting with subsequent failure. Make the hole large enough to prevent crewding of the roots and set the plant with the graft or knob where the roots and tops meet just an inch below the soil level. Firm the soil well and water liberally. For spring planting the tops should be pruned to 6 or 8 inches above the graft, removing all dead and weak branches without leaving a stub to cause rot. When pruning the tops make a clean cut a half inch above an eye or bud which points outward from the center of the plant. This will form an open plant well ventilated in the center. Stems with 6 or 8 buds will produce a good number of flowers but if you want fewer roses or larger size and more perfect form with longer stems cut the stems back to leave only 3 or 4 buds and only 2 or 3 cones per plant. After plant ing dormant plants, hill up soil temporarily around the stems to prevent drying out but remove this in 3 or 4 weeks. Space Hybrid Teas and Floribundas about 18

The first step in the law-making process is the drafting of a proposed law-known as a bill. Bills are drafted by members of the Loodsleture-Assembly men or Senators-but in this part of their work they almost invariably consult interested citizens or groups of citizens. For instance, if a bill is to be prepared on the subject of schools, the legislator preparing the measure probably would consult educators, teachers and representatives of professional associations.

Obviously it would be impossible for the entire Legislature to conduct hearings, ·make careful studies and give the necessary attention to each of the hundreds of bills introduced at a session. Accordingly, these preliminary studies are divided among the legislators, sitting on committees, The committee discusses the bill at length and weighs its faults and merits. Very often a public hearing is tulled especially if the bill is of a controversial nature. In addition, any citizen can ask for a public hearing on any bill.

Bill is Amended After the hearings, the committee deliberates on the bill and frequently leserts important changes or amendments. The committee then votes on the bill in its amended form. If the committee rejects the measure. If is for all practical purposes defeated. Under ordinary circumstances it is not returned to the Legislature for further consideration,

If the committee approves the bill, 'It is reported in its amended form to the chamber of the Legislature in which it was introduced. There the bill is read a second time and additional amendments may be offered from the floor by other members of the chamber, The measure then is reprinted in PERFECT HIDEAWAY in the woods is this rustic retreat, built of western pines log cable siding applied over ordinary house framing lumber. You don't have to be rich to build one of these simple little cottages, and what fun you can have in it on week-ends, vacations.

By MARION CLYDE McCARROLL

Such a cabin is often finished on the inside with knotty pine paneling, which can be given a light-colored stain or left as is.

The house shown is mostly living room, as vacation hideaways should be, with, a bunk room and a good-sized porch providing sleeping quarters. A second porch offers a place to eat outdoors, while a bath room and a compact little kitchen across the living room from the bunk room complete the floor plan.

The thought that summer's coming really takes hold of people's imaginations, starting them dreaming about lazy hours lying in the sun on the beach; about camping trips, and hikes through the woods; about floating on mountain lakes in a drifting canoe.

It's the time, too, when people begin to think how nice it would be to have a little vacation home of their own, in the woods, at the beach, or on that mountain lake. Just a modest little cottage, they want, and near enough, perhaps, so that it can be used for week-ends as well as for the longer

The cozy little vacation house pictured is the perfect hideaway in the woods. Built of log cabin siding made from Tells of Federal western pines, it fits into a rustic setting more as though nature had just quietly set it down there when she planted Aid for N. In constructing a simple log home of this type, the siding is nailed to ordinary house framing lumber, and its snug-fitting lap joint provides greater weather tightness.

ser role of the original production. Maxwell's showing to advantage s especially notable in that Frank have staged the Paper Mill edition of "The Great Waltz" differently than it has been either in the United States or in Europe in the past. The production has never been shown on tour because it was believed inadvisable to carry it about the country, but the devices of the Millburn production have revived interest in a nationwide tour

Arne Lundborg's settings which give unusual mobility to the picturesque scenes of old Vienna, insluding the sequences at Ebeseder's on the Ringstrasse and at the famed Donmayer's cafe and ballroom, contribute to the outright success of "The Great Waltz." Another important factor is the lancing and choreography of David Tihmar whose dancing nartner is Bettina Rosay.

Not the least part of the production are the featured players who play their roles to the hilt. Leslie Barrie, Albert Carroll, Dorothy Jay, Stapleton Kent, Albert Bergh, John Roland Hogue, Warren Brown and Daniel O'Brien are among those whose acting has won praise from the many capacity audiences who have seen "The Great Waltz" at the Paper Mill Playhouse.

Linden Woman Makes Masks, Dolls from Leftovers

A few scraps of crepe paper - a little flour and water - that's all Mrs. Isabelle Gargano of Linden needs to constructively while away the hours on a leisurely afternoon or evening after the house chores are finished. From these ingredients she moulds Halloween masks or faces for gayly dressed dolls.

Other leftover items-spools of and face made of papier mache, dolls: all items which most housewives would throw away, But Mrs. Gargano finds use for them as basic materials in making papier mache Halloween masks or dolls.

It's easy to do, she says, Just cut the crepe paper into small strips; add to a mixture of flour and water then mould it over a east of the mask. If it is to be a doll's Tace, just model it to the form desired as if it were clay. Her unusual hobby of maskmaking started several years ago when she was making a costume for a Halloween party in one of the local schools. She planned to be dressed as "Qualimodo" -- but couldn't find an appropriate mask in any of the stores. It was then she hit upon the idea of making her own. The costume won first prize and incidentally, started her off on a new hobby. In succeeding years she made masks of Rip Van Winkle and a cave man, which also won prizes.

Maskmaking led to the making of dolls and one of her favorites was a gally dressed gypsy doll, with a spool of thrend for the body

By Horman N. Bundesen, M.D. Chicago Commissioner of Health

Clouding of the lens of the eye is known as cataract. There are various reasons for the tissue changes which lead to cataract, among them being poor circulation and poor diet. It is generally agreed, however, that when cataract appears before the age of 60 it is due either to infection of the elsewhere in the body, in which substances harmful to the lens re 'produced.

Such changes in the lens occurring after the age of 60, and the majority of cases do occur after 60, are usually due to the aging processes. Some physicians are of the opinion that these changes are unavoidable and cannot be warded off. However, other doctors believe that with right living habits, such as the use of proper diet, rest and exercise, and the correction of physical disorders. the development of cataract in elderly persons often can be prevented

Consults Doctor

The patient with cataract usually consults a doctor because of spots before the eyes, dizziness, or taract are gradual loss of vision.

Many persons with beginning cataract, falling to realize their trouble, feel that all they need to do is to buy a pair of glasses. Of course, this will not correct their vision because the cataract blocks the passage of light rays into the eye. Furthermore, the delay in having treatment allows the cataract to progress. Loss of Eyesight

Early changes in the lens of the eye produce a gradual loss of eyesight. In fact, the loss of vision may be so gradual that the patient is not conscious of any inconvenience. Later on, if the patient has been wearing glasses he may find that he sees better without them. This happens because the lens swells up. This does not mean that the condition is actually improving. In fact, it only indicates that the trouble is getting worse.

Up to the present, the only satisfactory method of treating cataract, once it is fully developed, is by removal of the lens. Of course, the operation should be done by one who is skilled in this proce

Physical Condition

Before the operation the na tient should be put in the best possible physical condition. Folowing it, the patient should be kept on his back for about four hours, after which time he may be turned on either side. How ever, the head must be kept flat
