LISTEN

There's been no dirt in the colaumh for the past couple of weeks and a few of our most sardent readers, including a couple of cops, are kickin' up an awful fuss "Why don't you get some more dope on those free phones; and what's happened to Roy Wale deck; and that traffic light at Morris and Mountain avenue is still as lousy as ever; and those business district fire trans are getting more dangerous every day ... why don't you do somethe items as listed:

First, the case of the free. phones . . . Springfield is one of the few communities whose of ficials are lucky in that respect, but it isn't going to last long . . . pretty soon now the phone company's obligation on that score will cease and out they'll go . . . officials in neighboring Union heard about the free phones, too, but they've been told they're out of luck.

Now about Roy Waldeck : ever since the day we lambasted him for his New Year's Day criticism of Bob Marshall we've been expecting him to call . . . but he never said boo . . . some of his Spring Brook Park neighbors have dropped by to tell us a thing or two . . . nevertheless we tip our hat to Mr. Waldeck . . . he's taken his boot and shut up-about It . . . we understand he's been a darn hard civic worker in the past and we'd like to see him become active again. Then we get to that traffic light situation ... it seems , it seems it, but the outcome is pretty uncertain . . . lots of letters are the rounds between Springfield and the State Highway Department on a solution ... we'll disclose the answer as soon as we learn.

And now let's discuss fire traps along Morris avenue . . . soon af-"Listen Friends" told Springfield about the situation a rigid department inspection was made , store and building owners were told to do everything possible to alleviate hazardous conditions . . . meanwhile, we understand a new ordinance is in the making ... it'll be a strong measare and will carry rough penalties for-violations!

Some folks are seeking the real reason_behind Otto Heinz's campaign to have the township donate a piece of land to the federal government for a new Post Office building . . . here's the story as we hear it: Government authorities have stipulated exactly how much will be spent for Springfield's new post office . . . if the land is obtained without cost then the building will be larger, more elaborate and a real asset to the community . . . ten years from now a chean building won't look good , . . that's Heinz's theory and we agree with him.

"How about that fellow Symington's picture?" said a letter we received this week, "you certainly mystified him enough to the point where you've got na on pina und needles".

When Bob Treat became township rationrian a fellow in New York who makes a bustness out of writing tricky poems wrote him a letter . .\. "Send nte a dollar and I'll send you a poem about yourself". . . . Treat parted with a buck and a week later he got the "masterplece" . . . ask him to show it to you.

some time . . . boy, did it stink! Despite the downpour during the afternoon and early evening there wasn't a merchant along Morris avenue who was sorry he remained open for business last Friday night ... The setup will continue under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce for a long time to come. . .

1948 Tax Rate Set-at $5.94 45 Point Hike

Springfield's 1948 tax rate. will be $5.94, an increase of 45 points over last year's figure but not as high as originally anticipated.

The rate was made official yesterday by Mayor F. Edward Biertuempfel of Union, chairman of the Union County Board of Tax-

Despite an average, Li-point reduction effected, by the state's forthcoming clearet tax, only four county communities were able to drop 1948 rates in the face of steadily increasing costs of local government and schools. The counthing about it?" . . . No excuse, ty rate rose four points to 76 cents, folks, no excuse, but let's review but is still the lowest in New Jersey, according to the freeholders. A point is 1 cent per $100 assessed valuation. The heaviest increase was in Rahway, where the city's rate rose 95 points from $4.97 per hundred in 1947 to $5.92 this year. New Providence Township's 72-point rise boosted the rate to $4.74. Roselle and Summit tled for "third place" with 53-point rises. Roselle's new rate is $5.56 and Summlt'e, $4.92.

Garwood, reduced its rate 22 points to $5.27; Mountainside. seven_points_to $4.66; Fanwood, six points to $5.90, and New Providence Borough, four points to

Other rates, with increases, are Elizabeth, $5.16, 28 points; Plainfield, $5.01, 27 points; Clark. $5.41, 41 points: Cranford, $4.70, 23 points: Hillside, $5.41, 17 points; Kenllworth, $5.44, 31 points; Linden, $4.02, 16 points; Roselle Park, $5.10, two points; Scotch Plains, $5.70, 22 points; Springfield, $5.94, 45 points; Union, $5.29, '15' points, and Westfield, $4.58, 41 points.

Winfield residents are_not_taxed because the township has not yet because the township has not yet other New Jersey High Schools for been purchased from the Federal the honor of going to Washington government by the Mutual Hous-

The Boy and Girl Scout organizations are making a drive for funds to meet their annual expenses. They are looking to you for help.

America's greatest investment is not in its banks, factories or mines. It is in the youth of today and the men and women of tomorrow. The nation will rise for recede on the quality of the new generation.

There is much discussion about the causes and remedies for juvenile delinquency but one of the great preventatives is to keep youth interested in and lined up behind an interesting, progressive and constructive character building program. The Boy and Girl Scout organizations provide such a program. Help the your people of your Township with your dollars and your talent.

Board Okays 14-Cent Fare To Elizabeth

Will Jump from 10c on July 4

A 14-cent fare between Elizabeth and Springfield on the No. 8 Morris avenue line is among the new rates to be effective July 4 under increases granted Public Service Coordinated Transport. according to an announcement this week by the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners. The fare at present is 10 cents.

There is only one Public Service line now charging 10 cents for service to points within Elizabeth the No. 134, Newark-New Brunswick, express route. The 10-cent fare will remain unchanged for the relatively small number of Elizabeth passengers the line car-

Elsewhere, the fare increases for the Elizabeth area's thousands of bus riders will fit evenly into the pattern of the Public Service rate increase: All 5-cent rides become 7 cents, 10-cent rides become 14 cents, and rides now 15 to 30 cents, inclusive, increase by 5

One-zone lines, now 5 cents and scheduled to go to a 7-cent fare, include the No. 30, First street, the No. 70-72 Jefferson avenue and the No. 40, Magnolia

The central design of the stamp consists of a reproduction of the State Capitol Building to the right of scroll showing an outline map of the State, around which is the wording, "Wisconein Centennial 1848-1048," in dark gothic. Directly above the Capitol, in the same

style of lettering, is the word "Forward." Across the bottom of the stamp appears, "United States Postage Sc," in white gothic.

> Data for Collectors. Collectors desiring first day cancellations of the Four Chaplains stamp may send not more than 10 addressed envelopes of the regular letter size to the Postmaster, Washington (13), D. C. with postal note or money order remittunce to gover the cost of the stamps to be affixed. An enclosure of medium weight ("stuffer card" he placed in each envelope, and the flap either sealed or turned in. It is not necessary to send a letter, but in the lower left corner of the large envelope addressed to the Postmaster should be marked "First Day Covers," and in the upper right corner of each cover (where the stamp or stamps will be placed) the sender should put a small lead-pencil figure to indicate the number of stamps wanted-as, so, for one stamp, fic. for two or 12c. for a block of four. Collectors desiring first day anneellations of the Wisconsin Statehood stamp may send addressed envelopes (limit 10) to the Postmaster, Madison, Wis, following the same directions asbove. In oither case-covers mus reach the first day post office prior | unkindly about what they did."

Both of the new stamps will be on sale at the Springfield Post Office as soon after the date of issue as supplies can be obtained.

Overlook Hospital is not large enough, nor well enough equipped, to care for all who need treatment there. This is the belief of a substantial majority of the citizens of Springfield and neighboring leased through the Washington, towns who have been first to reply to the poil of public opinion nov being conducted by the hospital's community relations committee.

> "Eighty-three out of each 100. who have so far responded," said tees, Ridley Watts, chairman of the community relations committee, express a definite opinion that the present fabilities of Overlook are inadequate. An even larger majority, 80 per cent, indicate a belief that Overlook should be enlarged; and modernized."

When further replies have been received, Mr. Watts explained, these percentages may be altered "But the general trend of public feeling is undoubtedly evident now, and it is encouraging to find that the citizens of our communities understand the difficulties which Overlook is taged."

Believe Service Is Better "These first replies also show that-most of our citizens are sympathetic with the hospital's efforts to function efficiently in spite of difficulties," added Mr. Watts. Eighty-three out of every 100 participating in -the thought that recent reorganization at Overlook had resulted in more efficient management, while 87 out pastor, shortly. of every 100, if they needed hospital-treatment, would prefer to go to Overlook. Mr. Watte said he was pleased at the large number of guestionnaires received so far. The completeness of the answers and the genuine sincerity and frankness of the comments were also heartening, he added, because they showed a deep public interest in the hospital. While no signature was necessary, many of those participating in the poll signed their names, glving added emphasis to their opinions.

Typical of the comments by those who have returned their questionnaires so far are: "I believe Overlook Hospital fills a great place in the community and I-believe a real-plan-should-b or folded sheet of paper) should formulated which will make this plant, modern in every respect and able to take care of people in the community.

. "Meals Are Better" "From family experience and that of friends, I believe there has been a marked improvement in treatment of patients. However, from some_experience, I think there is still much to be done. Meals are much better than those served several years ago which were very poor, Discipline among nurses is botter-a short time ago it was bad, loud talking and noise in the-halls-was-prevalent to the discomfort of patients.

Another comment regarding nurses runs as follows:

"I found nurses sometimes indif-Replying to a question on the kindliness or indifference of nurses and attendants, 73 out of every 100 participants thought the nurses' attitude wor one of kindliness. The general opinion, Mr. Wetts remarked, seems to be that the nursing staff, like the hospital administration is improving steadlly. Permanent improvement, however, he pointed out, is dependent upon community support, and this was recognized by many of those participating in the poll. P.T.A. FOOD SALE A food sale sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association of Regional High School will be held May 22 at Pinkava's garage, Mor-

Your plants need lots of water

Your garden and lawn are completely dependent on an adequate supply of water. To the old hand at gardening this may not be news. But even the seasoned gardener will probably be interested in these scientific reasons for getting out his hose at the first sign of dryness in the soil:

All plants are made up of about 75%

Water acts as the plant's blood stream, circulating minerals in solution to all parts of its structure.

Water and sunlight help transform part of the remaining 25% of the plant substance from dry carbon to sugar and starches, essential plant foods.

Water is the source of hydrogen and part of the source of oxygen, both necessary to plant life.

CATCHING UP THE WORLD

Before the House Foreign Affairs Committee last week, Secretary of State George C. Marshall gave to the peoples of this country and the world what amounted to a strong and direct answer to the "One World or None" comments which we made here a week ago. In deliberate and carefully-chosen language, he reassured the world that this country still has faith in the United Nations and flagged down the growing sentiment that the UN Charter must be amended to make the UN work.

. The Secretary's statement was, we believe, the most important state paper on the world situation that has come out of Washington in many months. It was realistic In that it recognized the-misunderstandings that have plagued us was filled with hope and faith for tween the U. S. and U.S.S.R. Here are a few of the many pertinent questions:

The immediate concern of the committee-is-legislation-to-extendfor another three years the RTA program that has been in effect since 1934. The present act exnires on June 12 and although the experience of 14 years demonstrates clearly the value and effectiveness of the plan, there is a small group of dic-hard high tariff men in Congress who are seeking to sabotage the whole program.

The word from Washington is that the RTA Act will be extended, but the handful of high tariff boys are aiming to limit the extension to one year and to tack on restrictive amendments. This is the plan despite-tremendous support inside and outside of Congress for continuation of the program inaugurated by Cordell Hull. This is the plan despite the fact that RTA is an essential ingredient of the whole European Recovery Program and of the whole economic policy of this country.

Unusual Home May Be Forerunner Of Future Suburban Architecture

By JOHN COAD There will be 458,000 tamilies in Essex and Union countles in 1970 according to Regional Plan estimates, an increase of 12 per cent over the present number of families in these two counties. That means a demand for more homes

That speculation interested us, so we paid a visit to William Cornett of Summit. An architect by profession, he recently completed a home of his own which may be a forerunner of future styles in Union and Essex county suburban homes.

But what type of homes?

His low, rambling, six-room ranch type home incorporates many of the most advanced principles of modern architectural design which Corbett explained means emphasis upon livability, case of maintenance and rooms informality rather than futuristic architectural style.

Low, one storied ranch type iomes, he added, are a new trend in American-architecture and are particularly adaptable to suburban areas. This style marks a departure from past custom of following European architecture, for the war and material shortages, he said, have forced native architects to evolve a new style of architecture suited to meet the needs of American home owners,

Up three steps from the living room is the hallway off of which are a study, master bedroom, bath and a unique contractible children's room, with a removable partition which can be placed in the center of the room making it

Carol selzed what is currently her most preclous possession, a funny bird made of scashells which she has as souvenir of Miami, and insisted that her Mother take it with her to look at in the hospital. I drove away in the car with their mother while they stood and waved until we could see them no more.

Prepared Supper

When I came back late that evening, they met me with prider Between them they had prepared supper for us. David had made an omelet for each of us, had toasted and buttered bread. Carol had heated peas and corn, poured out milk, placed a clean cloth on the table, and set out the proper dishes and utensils. Despite their hunger, they had waited for me to arrive, so that the family could cat together. The meal was good, too. Afterwards, David washed the dishes and Carol dried them. I helped put them away. We all went upstairs, where a fresh surprise awaited me. My daughter had straightened the beds out and Am I bragging about my chiltiren? Perhaps a little bit, for that is only natural in any father. But what I am trying to do really is to emphasize that children must and can be, led to be self-reliant for their early years. It is so easy for perents to do everything for their children and so much more difficult for parents to realize that for the benefit of those children they must refrain from doing too much tightly elenching the pen in his It is so hard for parents to at and by when they see their children going into situations which if mishandled may result in bruises and scars. But parents who do too much for their children, parents who torbid their children experience which may be dangerous, are taking the easy way out. They are hampering the growth of their young ones to self-reliance and balance. They are hindering their children from learning to handle themselves, from being able to take care of themselves, from being able to with danger when they do meet with it, as they will.

A child aged a year or older would be a grotesque object suckling at his mother's breast; he is weaned so as to enable him to exist separately. Just as surely as we must wean every child physically, so must we wear him spiritually and psychologically, to enable him to stand on his own feet. We parents too often forget the latter weaning, but it is equally neces-

Evenings of Opera" Scheduled $ At Mosque

Two of the most popular music dramas in the entire operation Yepertoire, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" will open the three "Evenings of Opera" scheduled for May 20, 22 and 26 by the Griffith Music Foundation at the Mosque Theater as part of its Tenth An-iversary celebration. Both operas will have stellar caste with Regina Resnik, dramatc soprano of the Metropolitan Opera as Santuzza in "Cavalleria," Mario Berini as Turridu, Thelma Votipka, Lucia, Ivan Petroff, Alfio and Claramae Turner as Lola. Christina Carroll will be the Nedla of "Pagliacel" with Ramon Vinay as Canlo, Gluseppe Valdengo as Toni. Leslie Chabay as Beppe and Norman Young, Silvic.

Traditionally played on the ame bill, "Cavalleria," written by Mascagni in 1890, and "Pagliacci" composed by Ruggiero Leoncavallo two years later, have consistently retained their popularity. The first a tragedy of Sicilian life, simple but hot-blooded and highly dramatic, brought its composed fame and fortune almost overnight. "Pagliacel," a short opera in a similarly realistic vein, with its theme of a play within a play, had a success curiously akin to "Cavalleria" and continues to be one of the most popular operas on the modern operatic stage.

Many of the younger men in Europe who were sterilized by surgical operations under the Naziregime can have another opera-tion which will restore their fertility. A second operation may be successful by from 35 nervicent to 40 per cent of the patients.

chicken is one of the best poultry bird. And one bird of six pounds or so can be made to serve four for three meals with a little stretching.

This week's Extension Service menu suggests chicken fricassee for Sunday, club sandwiches for Monday, and chicken pie for Tuesday. Bacon, lettuce, tomato and toast make a few slices of chicken go a long way in the club sandwiches and veretables in the pie make a generous portion possible.

Chuck, about the best buy in the beef line, is used in Thursday goulash, and ham hocks with sauerkraut provide an economy dish for Saturday, While spanish omelet and baked shad provide the main dish for the two other dinners.

MENU . Sunday: Fricassee of chicken with rice, fresh asparagus, beet and red cabbage relish, celery, carrot sticks, vanilla ice creum, chocolate

SEUCE. Monday: Cream of asparagus soup, club sandwiches, potato salad, cole slaw, fruit jello with

Tuesday: Chicken pie, candied sweet potatoes, cauliflower, tomato jelly salad, baked caramel custard. Wednesday: Spanish omelet,
