The Methodist Church

Rev. C. A. Hewitt

Church School 9:30 a. m.
Morning Worship: Early service 9:45 a. m.; Late Service 11 a. m.

The special feature of Missionary Sunday at the Methodist Church of Springfield will be the presentation of the new and outstanding film release of the Protestant Film Commission. It is entitled "My Name Is Han." Photographed on the spot, it tells the story of a Chinese family's return to the home they left during the war. Their efforts to pick up the loose threads of their lost life make an appealing drama. Their discovery of the lasting contributions of Christianity is an underable demonstration of the value of Christian Missions. Youth Services 7:30 p. m.

The young people will attend a special service conducted by the youth of the Methodist Church of Livingston. The speaker has been announced as Joel Singh, a native of India. Those attending will leave Springfield at 6:30 p. m. from in front of the church. Transportation has been provided.

School News

JAMES CALDWELL Kindergarten

Both classes have taken walks around the school looking and picking pretty colored leaves. We picked milk weed pods, and brought them back to school. Marilyn Eno, Betty Farrell, and Leonard Lindahl painted the pods. While the children painted the pods the rest of the class traced their leaves and cut them out. On Thursday the children brought in apples and we made apple sauce. After drinking our milk we ate cookies and apple sauce.

Barbara Geddes returned from Florida and enrolled in our Second Grade Class on October 8. She brought with her samples of palm leaves, bamboo, and cypress moss and added them to "Our Science Corner."

Grade 2

Our class very much enjoyed the play given by Miss Friedman's class about Christopher Columbus. We learned a song about Columbus. We also enjoyed a story about Columbus read to us by our teacher.

Grade 5

We are especially proud of two people in our class this year. They are Judy Wilmer and Bobby Mann. Judy Wilmer was interviewed at the WJZ broadcasting station on Saturday, October 9. The people who interviewed her were so impressed that they invited her back on October 16. Bobby Mann played his trombone at the September PTA meeting held at the Chisholm School. We hope this may be the start of his musical career. There are many pupils in our class who have special talent. In fact, so many that we are planning a concert on October 21.

Language Club

We have loads of fun in the Language Club. During the past few weeks we've been learning Polish and are able to count, exchange greetings, name quite a few articles, ask and answer simple questions and name the days of the week—and months of the year. We are also learning a very pretty Christmas carol which we hope to sing at assembly. Later on we're going to learn German and Latin expressions and songs.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club gave a play "Twas the Night Before—" The characters were: Patty Binder, Valerie Rogers, Lois Walker, Jane Comiskey, Marilyn Mann, Joan Field and Virginia Kelsay.

Special Class

We had a surprise last week. The art teacher, Mrs. Moser, brought colored chalk to our class to make chalk pictures. We made many kinds of things that made us laugh. Barbara Deller went to the Gingerbread Castle and High Point for a trip.

REGIONAL BOOSTERS WILL MEET MONDAY

The Regional High School Booster Club will meet Monday evening in the high school auditorium. The session will begin at 8 o'clock. Following the business meeting the club will entertain parents and friends of the school's football players.

Guest speaker will be R. D. Modersohn, representative of the State High School Official Association. Harvey Harmon, football coach at Rutgers University, has promised to send one of his assistants as a speaker. Athletic Director Bill Brown and his assistants also are listed as speakers. Films of local games will be shown.

RAYMOND CHISHOLM KINDERGARTEN

The kindergarten classes had their teeth examined this week. Dr. Balsam remarked that our teeth were good! We had our first lesson in working with real clay. Some beautiful dishes were made and painted by Ellen Fox, Sanders Smith and Judith Marchell.

GRADE ONE

Mary James is going to New York on Saturday with her mother. She is going to see a movie. Lynn Hughes has to have her tonsils out on Saturday. She has a turtle named "Smoky" in the pond in her back yard. He raises his head to say "Hello" when Lynn goes to see him.

Adeline Kopf has a pet chicken which she feeds every day. Bob Stiles has a baby chicken. His name is "Yankies." He keeps him in the cellar in a little box.

GRADES ONE-TWO

The boys and girls in Grade One are learning how to read. We all made funny faces this week. Mrs. Moser, our new art teacher, taught us how to cut and paste to make them. Chip Skousen went to Pennsylvania this week. Stephanie Karatz has a birthday on October 27.

GRADE TWO

Susan Kisch is very happy to have a new baby sister. Barbara Eberback went to New York to the zoo. Robert Zeoli and Charles Stevens went to New York to the rodeo last week.

GRADE THREE

There are 17 members of Troop 11 in the third grade this year. Mrs. Olcese is the leader. Their meetings are on Tuesday at three o'clock. On Tuesday, October 12, they went to Echo Lake Park with all the other Scouts, Browns and Cubs. They went on the swings, walked from one end of the park to the other, and ate their share of the refreshments provided for them. Hot dogs, ice cream, soda and cup cakes were served and all the extras were given for those whose appetites were BIG!

GRADE FOUR

We have been making pictures of the ships of Columbus. We had a contest. The class chose the three pictures it liked best. Patty Prince, Barbara Burns and Joan Wagner were chosen as the best artists. They are going to make a large picture of the ships for us and we hope to frame it.

GRADE FIVE

The Columbus Day Program was given by the fifth grade. Talking part in the play were: Narrator, Richard Martin; Columbus, Richard Martin; Queen Isabella, Dorothy Augenstein; King Ferdinand, Donald Eger; Ladies-in-Waiting, Eleanor Kliche, Margaret Bullcock, Frances Jahn; ladies of the court, Marilyn Kisch, Judith Ann Sammis, Dana Lindauer, Patricia Mathews, Carol Matzek, Sylvia Feldman, Nancy Moen, Elizabeth Huber. Playmates of Columbus, Donald Campbell, George Haupt, David Zeller, Ronald Pezinger. The herald was William Powell. Sailors, Ralph Haselmann, Thomas Keane, William Brown, Ronald Wenberg, William Lynn, Indians, David George, Raymond Forbes, Karl Ford, Alfred Moslar. Richard Walker was the stage manager.

GRADES SIX, SEVEN, EIGHT

Roger Smith went to the rodeo in Madison Square Garden. The R. C. boys had a football game with J. C. boys at Regional field October 14. The Raymond Chisholm team won 6-0. Jack Wyckoff made the only touchdown.

Seth Brown had a party for some of the boys of his class. It was held at his home on October 13. Seth lives at 22 Center street but he has been coming to this school for over a year.

Vivian Fisher and Evelyn Pederson with Nancy Battelle are giving a Halloween party together. It will be at Evelyn's house. Games and refreshments will be enjoyed while everyone guesses who the other person is.

Susan Worrlis celebrates her fourteenth birthday on Monday, October 18. Doroanne Knight is thirteen on Friday the 22d. On the 23rd, Janet Walker has her thirteenth birthday.

Terry Davis' house is for sale. He expects to live in Philadelphia. We hope he can stay for graduation!

Joan Campbell is still taking roller skating lessons. She is in the senior advanced class.

Mary Ellen Stiles, formerly of the R. C. Eighth Grade, and now living in Englishtown, visited her old classmates and teachers the other day. She is very lonesome for her old friends.

A Tom Thumb wedding was held at the Antioch Church on October 15. Dolly Worrlis and Bobby Ford are the "victims."

The Eighth Grade Science class has had its first unit of study on the subject of the "Earth and Its Place in the Universe." A subject so large as that can hardly be completed in a short time. Many excellent notebooks were submitted. Those that were especially nice were done by Donald Roggelet, Jane Bolles, Ella Mae Jahn, Lois Wagner, Karin Flugt, Richard Elfvig, Edith Toomey and Barbara Stively.

The Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Grades had social dancing on Thursday, October 14. Parents were invited. Among those present were: Mr. John Marinaccio, Mrs. Andrew Anderson, Mrs. Walter Charles, Mrs. Harold Bishop, Mrs. Russell Pitzinger, Mrs. Charles Schaffernoth, Mrs. Henry George, Mrs. William Roselet, Mrs. John Rawlins, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. William Wagner and Mrs. Clarence Toomey. Some of the parents were invited to dance by some of the boys.

Health Protection for Children

Hundreds of thousands of New Jersey children are back in school. Not only are their minds and intellects again coming under the guiding influence of the teachers, but their physical health and development is once more coming under the supervision of the school doctor, the nurse, and others who comprise the school's medical staff.

Parents, for the most part, know very little about the health service rendered in the public schools and some of the popular notions about school medical service are not very true.

It is really important that parents should understand the purposes and objectives—and limitations—of the school medical system. Health services in the schools have four primary objectives:

First, they seek to maintain a healthful environment for the school children; that is, they are concerned with the sanitary facilities, the lighting, heating, ventilation; they seek to prevent overcrowding, etc.

Second, the school health service tries to protect the children against communicable diseases. They send home from school any children found suffering from such conditions, including the common cold—in an effort to isolate them from their schoolmates.

Third, the school doctor and nurse, in cooperation with the teacher, regularly inspect and record the growth and development of the child.

Fourth, when they find a child who is not developing properly, or when they discover any physical impairment, the school medical staff reports such defects to the family or the family physician so that the parents may take prompt steps to remedy the trouble.

This fourth point puts a spot-light on the responsibility of the parents. The school medical service, contrary to what many people think, does not relieve the parent of the primary responsibility for his child's health. The school medical staff does not treat diseases; it does not maintain any clinics or hospitals. It tries to work with—not to supplant—the family physician or the treatment clinics and other services operated by the community through its hospitals, its health department, and welfare agencies.

Of course, if a child is injured while in school, the school doctor or nurse will administer first aid and take care of the child until the parents or the family physician can take over.

But the school doctor, we should remember, is engaged principally to "inspect" the school children, to keep a record of their growth and development and to perform the other duties that are mentioned above.

The Medical Society of New Jersey, cooperating with the State Education Department, is seeking to persuade local school boards to adopt a four-point program for improving school health services. Under this plan, the school physician, instead of giving a brief routine examination each year for all the children in school, would perform a far more thorough examination every fourth year during the child's school career. The presence of one or both parents at such examinations would be required and the child would be examined while stripped to the waist instead of being studied through one or more layers of clothing as is often the case today. The Medical Society also urges provision of a mental hygiene and guidance program in each school system, and it recommends that teachers coming into contact with children be examined each year and given a chest X-ray in order to find early cases of tuberculosis before they reach a communicable stage. At present, such examinations are required every third year.

Democratic Rift

post has been mentioned in connection with a G. O. P. victory is becoming increasingly significant in view of developments of the past week.

Actually two persons have resigned from the Democratic Club and two others have indicated that they are taking similar steps. All four are like-warm party members and their elimination means the entire organization now can center its full efforts on the campaign to elect Paul T. Callahan to the Township Committee," Kelly said.

"All members of the Democratic Club feel that Mr. Callahan is within his rights in working for a success of the Republicans here under the guise of a projected independent Democratic organization. Reports of a more lucrative township post to be created by a Republican governing board majority have led away a few Democrats in the past. But henceforth he will have to work with every one's knowledge that he has been read out of the Democratic Club," Kelly asserted.

Brown Target
Attacking what he described as "constant policy of the Republican-dominated township committee in awarding insurance and fuel contracts to favored firms over a period of years," Callahan this week pledged an equitable distribution of such contracts in the event of his election.

"The democratic minority for the past two years has been attempting to change the policy of giving all contracts for fuel and insurance to firms prominently identified with the majority faction on the governing board," Callahan declared.

"Election of a third Democrat to the Township Committee will terminate that setup. There are a number of firms engaged in insurance and furnishing fuel supplies. All of them pay taxes to Springfield. After January 1 we will divide these contracts on a fair basis. There is no reason why there should be any vested interest in this township."

Criticizing the re-election campaign of his Republican opponent, Fred A. Brown, Callahan cited the protests made throughout the summer months by township merchants regarding conditions in the business section. "It took a petition by most of the merchants on Morris Avenue to persuade the street department to finally inaugurate a policy of daily sweeping dirt and refuse from the business area," he declared.

"However, even that protest did not receive immediate action. It was only after Mr. Brown delayed action for two weeks pending what he called a 'survey of the situation' that Morris Avenue finally was given a daily sweeping. Previously only certain areas were cleaned by the street department. Why they were chosen never has been made public."

The Democratic candidate also was critical of the street sign situation in the township. "There are several areas where signs are unable to locate addresses, because there are no street signs at intersections," Callahan asserted. "This town has been in existence for more than 200 years. It certainly is time it erects modern street signs at every street intersection. Recently a township resident appeared before the township committee to complain that he had to erect a street sign at his own expense."

"When I am elected to the governing board street signs will be erected at all intersections. And they will not remain on order for more than two years, which has been the perennial expense of the road chairman."

Editor's Mail Box

Editor, Sun:
"Citizens of Springfield AWAKE! Harken to the disintegration of the Democratic Party. Think for a moment—for the past two years, your own Township Government has been represented, in part, by two Democratic Committeemen—who, today, have made a wide-open break with each other—with their own party—with their Democratic Club—with the PEOPLE OF SPRINGFIELD—and with their candidates for public office. They are accusing their own chosen candidate of a serious offense—TREASON! They openly admit they cannot get along with themselves. Just think for a moment—consider what the full impact of all this means—it means that these two men have been serving you in this same manner for two years. Isn't it obvious that the interests and relations of Springfield have suffered tremendously with representation such as this?—and now they would have you believe that their chosen candidates are going to provide you with a Utopia—a Shangri-Lai!"

"Do you want your elected representatives to carry on in this manner? No—certainly not. Obviously, a group such as this, that fights and wrangles with itself, will, most certainly carry this type of thing to the conference table—to the Township Committee meetings where your interests, your desires, your benefits, and your overall prosperity will suffer. Your opportunity to prevent the furtherance of this treacherous type of representation will come on November 2nd. It is more important now, than ever before in the history of Springfield, that you, the voter, make certain that the Democratic candidates are defeated, for should they be elected, complete chaos will fall upon the pleasant and peaceful expanse of Springfield.

Democracy is something we live and strive for in our every day existence. The "two-party" system in politics, is a great part of our way of life in the Republic. Certainly, it is agreed that all men and women, no matter what their race, creed, or color, or political beliefs, should have the right, nay, should be encouraged, to hold public office. But when it becomes a matter of SELF-BETTERMENT, PERSONAL ATTAINMENT, POLITICAL PARTY PROMOTION, as is so obviously the case with our opponents in this election, then it is time for you—the voter—the citizen—to stand up for your rights, and rid your governmental representation of this type of incompetence, disloyalty, and petty politics.

It is indeed unfortunate, that, at the forthcoming election, you will not have the opportunity to unseat the two present Democratic members of the Township Committee. You will be afforded this pleasant opportunity in another year, however, in the meantime, assure yourself of protection against this disintegrated, incompetent, and unqualified party, by electing the two Republican Candidates—ALBERT BINDER AND FRED BROWN on November 2nd."

about such details," Callahan declared. "It is certainly negligence of the worst type. Children in those areas could easily suffer injury by falling through those openings."
"The road department should make a semi-weekly survey of all manholes. It would require less than two hours a week which is a very small price to pay to assure the safety of Springfield children as well as adults. This will be one of my first recommendations in the event of my election," Callahan declared.
"Then in the next paragraph he states, 'However, as a loyal Democrat, I can assure you that I will work for the election of the Democratic candidates.' The party obviously comes first, regardless of the candidate's ability."

And further stated—'Paul T. Callahan who can be depended upon not to abandon either his party or the people of Springfield...'
"It is quite obvious that to our opponents the Democratic Party comes first and Springfield last."
"The candidates presented by the Republican party, Al Binder and Fred Brown are men who are well qualified for the position and who can be depended upon to put the interests of the people of Springfield, first above all other considerations."

Regional High Grid Squad Unbeaten; Face Roselle Next

By BOB WOOD

Regional High School's unbeaten football machine derailed the Caldwell victory express 21-0 at Caldwell field Saturday. In rolling up the team's 11th straight victory, Ken Belliveau and Frank Chorniewy each scored once. Frank Vicendese provided the other touchdowns on a 91-yard gallop that brought the overflow crowd of about 3,000 roaring to its feet.

Regional flashed its scoring punch early as the team took its opening kick-off and with two Chorniewy to Vicendese passes marking 47 yards, marched—78 yards to score in 10 plays. Chorniewy covered the last four yards off-tackle and then booted the extra point.

Later in the period Chorniewy took a Caldwell punt on the Regional 35 and twisted his way 32 yards to the Chiefs' 33. A Belliveau plunge and Chorniewy pass moved the ball to the homesteader's 18 but a fumble ended the Bulldog's threat. Before the period ended, the visitors fumbled another chance on Caldwell's 24.

Regional reached the Blue and White's 31 early in the second canto and later reached the 28, missing a first-down by inches after having driven 53 yards.

The third quarter saw a flurry of penalties slow the powerful Bulldog attack, but early in the final period, Chorniewy grabbed a Botone pass and carried it 25 yards to the Chiefs' 39. He and Belliveau then alternately lugged the leather, moving to the three-in line plays. Belliveau then

YOUR LIBRARY

It is a striking sign of the times that the choice of books is so varied; there is, presumably, not one subject that has not been written up from every angle. In less than two generations a change has come about that would astound our grandfathers.

There is a completely different slant on historical figures and facts. Famous men who, we assumed, always knew the right thing to do at the right time, are shown as worried and anxious, struggling to do the best they knew how; sometimes mercenary and grasping, but always human.

Poor writers have been gradually discarded while good ones, once overlooked, have come into their own. Subjects, formerly taboo, are no longer shied from with a frankness that rather staggers the old but which the young take in their stride.

Your library has a choice that is up-to-date and broad in scope, a few of the new titles follow—"A Man Called White," by Walter White—"John Goffe's Mill" by George Woodbury—"Joshua" by Rogers MacVeagh and Thomas Colman—"The Damon Runyon Story" by d. Welner—"Earl Warren" by Irving Stone—"One Clear Call" by Upton Sinclair—"Mahatma G. I." by E. Stanley Jones and "The Furies" by Niven Busch.

REGIONAL HI-LITES

By Barb Roemer

Well, here it is, another week gone by and I'm sitting here, pencil in hand, thinking. Doesn't seem as if there's much news this week but here's the goings-on.

Regional's "little" football players showed those "big" Caldwell boys how to play ball. Anybody who missed that game ought to be shot. For thrills, that was it!

Speaking of sports, the girls hockey teams have been playing right along. The Seniors and Freshmen played East Orange High on Tuesday and the Sophomores and Juniors played Cranford on Thursday.

Miss Davies of the English hockey team gave the girls some pointers and tips on playing the game last Wednesday.

The Junior Class held their elections last week. The newly elected officers are: President, Frank Caldero; vice-president, Chick Coles; secretary, Mickey Braun and treasurer, Harvey Karlin. The candidates for the positions excluding those elected were president, Bill Kozak, Ken Belliveau and Joan Gorham; vice-president, Ray De Borjols, Margerie Di Fabio and Gene Jacob; secretary, Janet Layng, June Conrad; treasurer, Mary Vitall, John Roemer and Pat Rile.

Everyone, but everyone, thoroughly enjoyed last week's assembly. Our guests, as I mentioned before, were Dutch Dancers, three men and a girl. One played the ac-

Girl Scout Cookies are back again. No need to say more! Everyone has been waiting for them. The Girl Scouts and Brownies are taking orders from all who have bought them in the past and they feel sure there are others who will want to try them. When you see your neighborhood Young Scout or Brownie, tell her how many boxes you will need.

Uniforms

Keeping the growing Brownies in uniform is a problem these days. Each of us with a Brownie in our family has faced the problem of having a good uniform on hand but too small for that Brownie who grew during the summer months.

Possibly, mothers of "fly-ups" might help us solve this by offering the outgrown or not used uniforms for sale. Mrs. William Thompson, MI. 8-0487, will be glad to make a list of such uniforms available and pass the information on to those in need of one. Mrs. Thompson is secretary of the Leaders Club and is in close touch with Brownies needing uniforms. Thank you, mothers, for your cooperation.

Troop 1

Last Friday's hayride has secured an important niche in this troop's hall of memories for it was a trip filled with plenty of laughter and song. The popularity of these outdoor experiences was proven when almost fifty girls turned out for the party. Included were some of last year's Intermediates who are now ready for Senior Scouting. The roasting of hot dogs and marshmallows over the fire built at the half-way point turned out to be a "needed must" for the crisp Autumn air had stirred up ravenous appetites.

Miss Richards, leader, and the girls are grateful to Miss Shirley Paulson who accompanied them and to Mr. Widmer, Mr. Telfer, Mr. Reclor and Mrs. Hansen who took the girls out to the starting place and later brought them back.

Brownie Troop 8

These girls have settled down to a busy program. Last week they finished leather change purses and this week, will make felt lapel pins.

New Brownies to be welcomed into the troop are Karen Weinsolmer and Ethel D'Andrea. These girls will bring the membership up to 22. Co-leaders in charge of the troop are Mrs. William Thompson and Mrs. Richard Allen. There will be a meeting Friday, October 23.

WCSA ANNUAL EVENT

The Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church will hold its annual fair and supper Thursday, November 4. The fair will begin at 3 p. m., followed by dinner at 8 p. m. in the church.

Invitation to All

You are cordially invited to attend our Brownie and Girl Scout Exposition Friday night, October 23 at the Presbyterian annex. We have arranged a time to suit everyone, 6:30 to 10 p. m. Sincere greetings await all our old Scouting friends and a warm welcome will be given our new residents in town whom we hope to have as our friends.

Come, one and all, and see a display that will be of real interest and value.

New Troops

Several troops are being organized and new leaders welcomed into the Scouting fold. As there are yet a few changes to be made, announcement of full details has been postponed.

Maplewood Training

Mrs. John Gates, training chairman on the local board, has arranged for three of the new leaders, Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Farrell and Mrs. Dreher to attend the training classes given by Maplewood Council. On October 28, a special class covering songs, games and outdoor programs will be presented. Mrs. Gates would like as many of the other leaders to join her that day in attending. She will meet them on our bank corner at 12:30 p. m. sharp to take them to Maplewood.
