FRIENDS!!

Most important item on the calendar of coming events listed for Springfield in the near future is the opportunity which will be presented voters to begin solving the community's miserable school crowding problem by authorizing construction of a new building on two previous occasions voters knocked the proposal to build a new school into a cocked hat by overwhelming majorities, but this time the situation appears to be slipping up somewhat differently. There still seems to be some dissatisfaction over selection of Fred A. Elsasner of Union, as architect for the planned $650,000 one-story building, but the vigorous education campaign waged by the Citizens' Advisory Committee prompts onlookers to believe the vote will be entirely different this time.

Finishing touches to the details involved in putting on a special school election are being worked out by A. B. Anderson, district clerk, together with several school board officials. The itinerary includes visits to Trenton and several consultations with financing authorities. It is expected the public will vote on the question between May 15 and May 31. If something happens to prevent the election before the end of May then the option on the Elsasner tract, slated as the site for the proposed new school, will expire.

Meanwhile there doesn't appear to be the slightest doubt in the minds of any reasonable thinking individuals in this community with regard to the desperate need for added school housing facilities. It may be disastrous to allow some people to continue what appears to be the start of a whispering campaign against the school building program because they don't see eye to eye with the Board of Education in the appointment of Elsasner as architect. There's trouble brewing!

Mrs. Julia Brown walked into the Sun office Tuesday morning and announced she was the new publicity chairman for the Springfield Republican Club. With that she handed the editor a small piece of paper announcing the results of the county committee election. "I don't bring anything more than I have given you, she warned. In fairness to Mrs. Brown, who may have to account to the "big bosses" for what appears in print, this newspaper shall continue to reserve the right to publish the news as it is and not as publicity chairman and others would have it presented.

There appears to be rumblings among merchants in the center of town with regard to the planned installation of parking meters along the business area. Several storekeepers again will insist upon abandonment of the rush-hour meter ban if another, forget the meters, they say. Police Commissioner Blumber and a committee from the Chamber of Commerce are expected to meet again on the subject shortly.

Time for the biggest yearly Springfield shindig rolls around again tomorrow (Friday) night when the Lions Club presents its all-star revue at Regional High School entitled "The Lions Roar Again". We understand this year's event has followed the usual sell-out pattern, but here's a reminder about an evening well spent. Proceeds go to the best charities.

School Program Review Tuesday

A public discussion of Springfield's proposed school building program, as recommended by the Citizens' Advisory Committee and approved by the Board of Education, will take place at a meeting of the Citizens' League Tuesday night in the town hall. An invitation has been extended to the public to participate in the discussion.

Route 29 Industrial Zone Voted

State Urges Keeler Street Parking Ban

The Township Committee last night introduced an ordinance which would create a new 40-acre industrial zone for Springfield on the north side of Route 29, between Hillside avenue and the Rahway River. Hearing on the measure, designed primarily to attract some much needed industry to the community, will take place May 9.

A letter from Arnold H. Vey, traffic engineer for the State Highway Department, urged the board to prohibit parking on Saller street at Morris avenue in view of the proposed traffic light at the intersection. He asks no parking be allowed on the east side of Saller street for a distance of 135 feet from Morris avenue and on the west side for a distance of 70 feet from Morris avenue.

Kenneth P. Woodbury, assistant state commissioner of education, notified the committee that a hearing will be held 11 a.m. tomorrow (Friday) in Trenton to consider the need for expanding the township's borrowing capacity in connection with Springfield's proposed school building program.

Library Exhibit On Mental Health

During Mental Health Week, which will be observed throughout the nation during the period of May 2 through May 8, the Springfield Library will have an exhibit of pamphlets and books relating to some of the many phases of the broad field of mental health. Additional information is available from Mrs. Russell Hillier, a member of the Public Relations Committee of the Union County, New Jersey Association for Mental Health.

This Association, one of more than 250 local mental health groups joining throughout the country to build a coast-to-coast network for the promotion of mental health programs, has completed plans for programs in sixteen participating communities, according to Mrs. Arthur F. Ackerman, President. Special emphasis will be placed on the plea that every citizen accept increased responsibility against the nation's most threatening health problem. "Our eventual goal is the establishment of a mental health information center in Union County," Mrs. Ackerman stated. "Our immediate need is a center made available without charge to persons needing help—not treatment—but advice from a psychiatric social worker—who could recommend psychiatric treatment if he thought it necessary, or other steps required toward the solution of personal problems. Books and pamphlets, brochures, dramatic presentations, displays, documentary films and mental health information of all types could be secured from the center at all times."

First Aid Squad Inducts Officers

Harold Marter was installed as president of the Springfield First Aid Squad at a recent meeting at the Town Hall. Other officers are: Earl B. Leyer, vice-president; John Wilson, captain; Willard J. Watkins, first lieutenant; Robert Robinson, second lieutenant; Richard Allen, secretary; and Marian Wilson, treasurer.

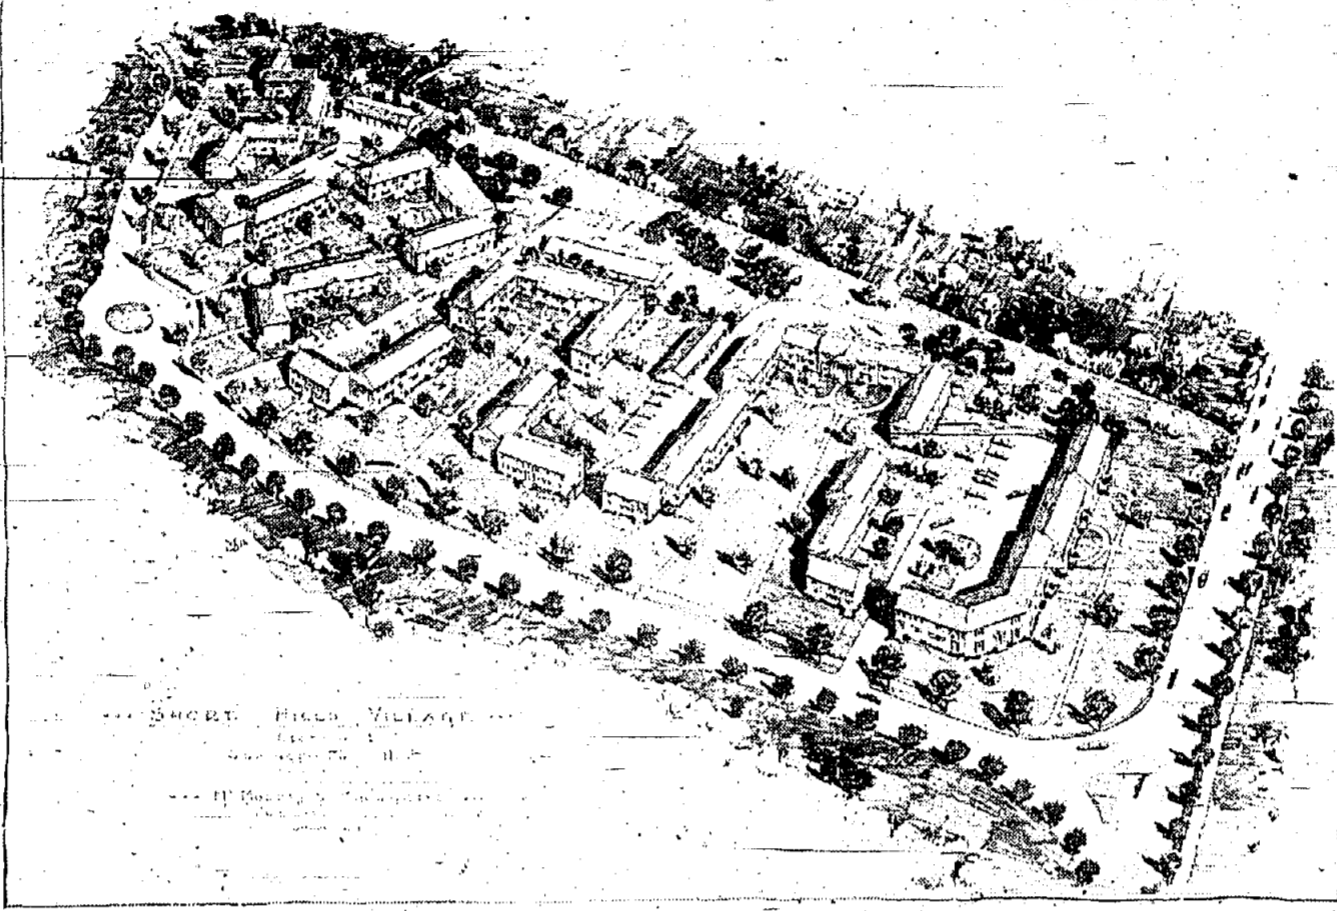

Watkins, Miss Wilson and Pauline Mesker were named to the Ways and Means Committee, Wilson, Leyer, Robinson and Marter, will serve on the Land Use Committee, and Mrs. Oswald will be in charge of publicity.

The First Aid Squad had a total of 28 calls during March. There are 10 active members in the organization.

Reserve Service Award

James E. Sheard, Jr., of 66 Wentz avenue, was one of 156 employees of the New York Sales and Production Division of the Gulf Oil Corporation, to receive a diamond and rubystone award button, at a luncheon held recently at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City. Sheard, who is assistant district manager, retail sales, has been with the company for 15 years.

Short Hills Village When Completed

A sketch of the first section of the multi-million dollar Short Hills Village on Short Hills avenue in which ground was broken last week. Actual construction work on the project will start Monday. It will have 110 apartments ranging from three to five rooms and rentals will be from $110 to $250. Ultimately the development will have 250 families. McMurray and Chirgott, Union architects, designed the apartment village. Nicholas Angleton of South Orange is the owner and developer.

Laying Is Named Local GOP Head

Reverberations from the recent primary election in which Fred R. Rigby failed to roll up a substantial vote in his own municipality echoed Monday night when Tax Assessor Wilbert W. Laying was elected chairman of the Republican Municipal Committee by an eight to four vote of the twelve members.

Laying, supported by committee members who had backed Rigby's candidacy, defeated Daniel Wendland of the First District. Committee members were reluctant to comment on the action but it was recalled that Laying had endorsed Rigby despite the statement by Charles Beardsley, who then was G. O. P. municipal chairman, that he would not vote for Rigby and was supporting his primary opponents.

Beardsley had declined the chairmanship. However, it was reported that he was interested in the post of delegate to the county committee. Beardsley's nomination for that post was not seconded and Laying was named.

Laying later indicated that the primary fight had no bearing on the committee action Monday night. He said Beardsley did not wish to serve again as chairman because of increased responsibilities and that his nomination as county delegate was not seconded because members felt he would not have time for another post, even if it did not require a great deal of time.

Mrs. Amy Bandemer was re-elected vice-chairman. Two new officers were named: Mrs. Jennie Haas was elected secretary and Robert J. Anderson was named treasurer.

Survey At Square For Summit "Y"

"The 'Y' is coming to Springfield," is now being heard by the residents of Springfield Square. "Yes, the YWCA is coming to Springfield," says John Neville, president of the South Springfield Community Club. "We have long realized the need for organized recreation for our young people and adults," Neville added.

He further announced that the work would be organized by, and affiliated with the Lincoln YMCA of Summit and would be under the direction of H. Leon Cross, president of the Lincoln "Y" Board of Directors, and Robert Mack, Executive Director of the association.

In order to determine just what type of program should be organized, members of the South Springfield Community Club will conduct a survey under the leadership of Mrs. Arlene Street. This survey will begin today, Thursday.

The Lions Roar Tomorrow Nite

"The Lions Roar," the Springfield Lions Club's annual Broadway variety show, to be held tomorrow, Friday, at 8:30 p.m. in the Regional High School Auditorium, will include ten professional acts. Mark Zimmerman's Paramount Orchestra will furnish the music and Steve Evans, who has just completed a three weeks engagement at the Capitol, New York City, will be Master of Ceremonies.

The program will feature the following television and theatrical performers: Tony and Blag, Dave Monahan, the Marcos, Bob Hammond and Company, Alan Schaefer, Steve Evans, Lot and Anders, Saul Gramman, the Five Vikings, and a special mystery act.

The entertainment is produced and staged under the direction of Howard G. Oliver of Arlington.

Multi-Million Short Hills Village Apartment Started

Construction has begun on the first section of Short Hills Village, multi-million dollar luxury garden apartment development of 110 suites spread over 3 acres in Short Hills avenue, Franklin Mortgage & Title Insurance Co. of Newark announced this week.

Arthur G. Pullis, Franklin Mortgage president, predicted the development will be rated with the top-rank city positions suites for quality appeal, plus its advantages of suburban location with space, clean air and quiet. Apartment rents will be from $35 to $40 a room, making suites cost $10 to $24 a month. Floor area, averaging 272 square feet per room, will mean 800 to 1000 square feet of living space per suite, compared with an average of 800 in today's typical lower-priced one-family "development" house.

McMurray and Chirgott of Union are the architects. Nicholas Angleton of South Orange, is owner. Franklin Mortgage is handling the one-package financing, including a conventional mortgage loan from Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, for which Franklin is exclusive agent.

The 11 two-story buildings will contain 42 three-room suites, 40 four-room, 20 of 5 rooms and 1 1/2 baths, and 8 duplex apartments of 6 rooms and 2 1/2 baths. All will be heated with forced hot water. Each kitchen will have an electric dishwasher in addition to conventional equipment. Plans call for 22 garages in basement space and 33 detached, in addition to parking area.

Springfield School Music—Basement Variety

Students at the Raymond Chisholm School attempt to practice instrumental music in the basement with heating pipes and a ladder crowding them. The item in the foreground is not an instrument used on the Original Amateur Hour but a section of garden hose used to water the lawn.

Students Get Liquid Soap & Hoses With Their Music In Township Schools

Students of instrumental music get their inspiration together with liquid soap, cardboard cartons, unused furniture and athletic and gardening equipment at the Raymond Chisholm School. It was pointed out today by the Springfield Citizens' Advisory Committee. This was just one of the many phases of the congested school conditions in the township.

According to the school music teacher, the basement room is used by groups ranging as high as fifteen students. The room is damp and frequently they must wear their coats as protection against the cold or damp air, she said. Ordinarily the entire orchestra can meet only in the gymnasium before school because of the many other demands for use of the room. This necessitates 8 o'clock rehearsals twice a week. Similar early morning rehearsals are also necessary in the James Caldwell School.

The basement storeroom, scene of the other rehearsals is crowded with drums of liquid soap, cardboard cartons, garden hose, tools and other equipment. In the Caldwell School most of the instrumental instruction is given in a space less than eight feet square to the left of the stage. There are no windows or other means of ventilation. There is no space for a piano.

The use of corridor space for classroom purposes in the Chisholm School was shown in The Springfield Sun recently.

School authorities have explored every possibility to obtain school space. The Methodist Church School rooms have been utilized for some of the Caldwell School first-grade classes.

Although school officials are grateful for use of the rooms one of the parents of a first-grader recently observed, "These Sunday School rooms are so small that the children are packed in. This (Continued on page 4)

Turk's P. O. Appointment Is Expected On Monday; Democrats Back Leader

Sheehan Supported For Postmastership

A number of civic leaders, including Postmaster Otto F. Heinz, have endorsed Timothy J. Sheehan, former Democratic candidate for the Township Committee, for the Springfield postmastership. The veteran political leader, considered one of the stalwarts of the minority party, admitted that petitions were being sent to Washington urging that he be given consideration for the post.

Others prominent in the political, civic and economic life of the township who are said to have signed Sheehan's petitions are former Township Attorney Herbert A. Kurvin; Richard Bunnell; former Chief of Police M. Chase Runyon; and Albert Flemer.

Sheehan said today he has received strong support from the rank and file in his bid for the post. The appointment actually is made by President Truman and must be approved by the Senate. However, the recommendation is made by Democratic County Chairman Edward L. Wheilan.

Order To Come From Washington On Heinz's Job

Former Township Committee Chairman George M. Turk probably will be functioning as acting Springfield Postmaster on Monday, it was revealed today by Democratic County Chairman, Edward L. Wheilan, of Elizabeth. If named to the post in an acting capacity Turk will succeed Postmaster Otto F. Heinz. The postmaster, who has held the job for fifteen years, was the virtual foundation of the Democratic party locally before becoming postmaster.

Wheilan today said that there will be an acting Postmaster in charge Monday. He added: "In all probability it will be George M. Turk."

The first news that Turk probably would get the appointment appeared exclusively in The Springfield Sun in January. Later it was picked up by daily papers circulating in the township. At the time Turk would not comment on the Sun's story to the effect that he would receive the appointment. He indicated that as long as Heinz held the postmastership, he would have no statement.

PTA Meeting Set For 8 P. M. Mon.

Exhibits from the special departments of the Springfield Schools will feature the PTA meeting Monday night at 8 p.m. More than 100 students will participate in the program which is being planned by teachers in the home economics, manual training, physical education, music and art departments.

During the business meeting, the annual election of officers will take place. The nominating committee will report a single slate and nominations may be made from the floor. Mrs. S. M. Hettlinger, chairman of the committee, is being assisted by Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Alfred E. Bowman, Mrs. Clifford Zimmer, and Miss Patricia Guerin.

Mrs. John Haselmann and Mrs. Karl Roetzger, the PTA representatives on the Citizens Committee on Schools, will make their report. A question and answer period will follow.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. David Brobet, chairman of the hospitality committee, and the first grade class—mothers, Mrs. Carl Richards, Mrs. Arthur Von der Linden, Mrs. Joseph Sklenkiewicz, Mrs. John Schrupp and Mrs. Joseph Moutaneri.

Although there were numerous rumors concerning the appointment only three persons were considered likely to receive it. Turk was first mentioned and few persons considered it possible that any other person had much opportunity for appointment. The only person who was believed to have a chance was Assistant Postmaster William J. Corby, who incidentally is a son-in-law of Heinz.

Corby is a World War I veteran and was once listed as a Democrat. Presumably Corby would have the support of veterans' groups particularly in view of the fact that Turk is not a veteran. The other individual whose name has appeared in connection with the appointment is Timothy J. Sheehan.

Wheilan said that Turk had been backed for the post by members of the Democratic Municipal Committee. Incidentally, the group named him chairman of the committee Monday night when it re-organized.

The post pays $4,770 a year. Actually Turk apparently had no opposition within the committee for the nomination. In most instances the postmastership goes to the person endorsed by the municipal committee and then recommended by the county chairman. This precedent has been so strong that it could not have been upset in behalf of a disabled veteran in neighboring Union Township. Although the assistant postmaster held that status and finished first in an examination the post went to the temporary appointee who had been hired worker for the municipal Democratic party over a period of years.

Turk's qualifications on a similar basis are not likely to be questioned. He has been considered the foundation stone of the Democratic party for the past seven years. He ran for the Township Committee, several times, successfully on one occasion and served as a member of the governing board in the post of finance commissioner for three years. He also served the party as a candidate for freeholder and assembly on various occasions. When a split occurred in the party Turk's faction generally was recognized by the county organization.

Turk is in the printing business in Newark. It's no secret that Republicans are dismayed at seeing the only federal plum going to their principal Democratic enemy. And there is little doubt but what the G. O. P. will be on the watch, in event, Turk receives the appointment, for any violation on his part of the Hatch Act.

Rotary To Attend Spring Conference

Ten members of the Springfield Rotary Club are expected to attend the Spring conference of the 271st Rotary District tomorrow at the Berkeley-Carter Hotel, Asbury Park. Sessions opened yesterday with Henry G. Howell of Elizabeth, district governor, in charge. Almost 500 Rotarians from thirty-six clubs in the district are participating.

Charles Remlinger of the local club is in charge of arrangements for the Springfield group.

Joseph Mulholland, manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of Summit, spoke to the Springfield club at its luncheon meeting Tuesday on the effect of the newly revised Social Security Act, pertaining to its enlarged scope. He outlined how benefits will be derived for about ten million new eligible persons, such as employers and professional men.

Mr. Mulholland, a member of the Summit Rotary Club, is former president of the Regional Board of Education, and has been active in civic circles of Berkeley Heights, where he resides. Benjamin F. Newsinger, club president, conducted the meeting.

The annual dinner of the district Rotary Bowling League will be held May 16 at Marlinsville Inn, when awards will be made to league winners. The local club, with one week before closing, is eighth in the win and loss column, among 16 teams, climaxing the campaign Tuesday night at Highway Bowl, Union, by defeating the league leaders, Union A, in a clean three-game sweep.

Ludwig Stark is team captain, and other bowlers include: Adam LaSota, Charles Remlinger, Kenneth Bandowser, Carl Heburna, Milton Koshen and Jean Martt.

DI BELLIS IS NEW OWNER OF STORE

Donald D. Bellis, of Millburn, last week became the new owner and operator of one of Springfield's most complete food and liquor stores formerly owned by Harris Brothers at 19-23 Morris avenue. DiBellis already has begun putting his new establishment into shape by adding several cases of paint and adjusting fixtures in the store. He plans soon to make a complete and modern superette of the business and will retain the present staff of employees.

Organizing Meet Set By D. A. R.

The Organization Meeting of the Church and Cannon Chapter of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church. The Organizing Regent, Mrs. Milton Brown, will preside and will introduce the State Regent, Mrs. Ralph Greenlaw, who will organize the new chapter and install the appointed officers.

National and state officers of the D.A.R. presents of nearby chapters, town officials and their wives, officers of local patriotic groups and presidents of various women's organizations will be guests. The founding of this chapter forms another interesting link with Springfield's historic past. The meeting will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, which was built on the site of the one the British burned down during the Battle of Springfield. Many of the members of the chapter are linear descendants of men who fought in that battle; other members represent patriots from almost all the thirteen original states.

The National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, was organized on October 12, 1890, by 18 patriotic women living in Washington, D. C. The first president was Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, whose husband was then President of the United States. The New Jersey Society was organized six months later in April, 1891. There are now approximately 150,000 members of the National Society, more than 6,000 live in New Jersey. The membership is limited to women who have at least one ancestor who contributed to the War for American Independence.

CHURCH CARNIVAL

Third Annual Carnival, sponsored by the Foye Club of the Methodist Church, will be held Friday, May 4, from 4 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, May 5, from 2 to 9 p.m. Activities for adults and children, including a pony ride, have been planned. Hot dogs, hamburgers, soda and many other food items will be on sale. There will be a table for jewelry, neckties and bakery goods. Mrs. James Bash and Mrs. Richard Thompson are co-chairmen.

Shunpike Group Indorses School

The Shunpike Association at its regular monthly meeting held recently at the Baltusrol Country Club voted unanimously to approve the resolutions on the Springfield school expansion plan made by the Board of Education based on the recommendations of the Citizens' Advisory Committee. It was felt by the group that the urgent and immediate need for additional facilities could best be met by this program, which is a result of a lengthy and careful study of the situation.

Members of the Association further agreed to do everything possible individually to encourage the voters of Springfield to support the school program when it is brought to a referendum. A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Frank W. Wehrle, 22 Shunpike road, Mrs. Robert A. Andrew, 81 Kew drive, and Mrs. George M. Walton, 36 Kew drive, was elected to prepare a slate of officers for the Association for the coming year. Election of officers will be held at the annual meeting in June.

New members welcomed were Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Atkin, 43 Kew drive and Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Sparks, 70 Kew drive.

Ralph E. Walker
Visits Jap Ports

After months of rigorous duty in Korean waters, Ralph E. Walker, draftsman, second class, USN, of 42 Meeker street, Springfield, is getting a "sailor's eye view" of the Orient as his ship, the amphibious force flagship USS Mt. McKinley, visits some of the major Japanese ports.

The ship served in Korea since the outbreak of hostilities, and was General MacArthur's command ship for the Inchon invasion, Sept. 18. Ports of call for the McKinley include Saicho, Kobe, Moll, Kyoko and Yokosuka. Yokosuka is within easy commuting distance of Tokyo, third largest city in the world.

It makes your dollars talk great good sense!

When you look at the times we live in... and then take a look at this new Chrysler Windsor... you might almost think we'd had advance information and special-built this car just to fit these times!

Certainly it treats your hard-earned and tight-stretched dollars with a respect that's hard to find in a good many things you buy. To begin with, the Windsor line is the least-priced of the three lines of cars we build at Chrysler. To buy one gets you all the basic goodness Chrysler engineering means, at the very lowest cost. That's good sense in itself.

In powerplant, your Windsor brings you Chrysler Spitfire... one of the truly great engines in the whole bright history of America's motor cars. Time-proved and owner-beloved, it would be hard to put your money on a sounder friend than this to live and travel with you through the months ahead!

As to comfort, Windsor brings you the amazing travel bonus all Chrysler owners get this year... the revolutionary new-Oriflow shock absorber. With more than twice the shock-absorbing power of any other in the world, this amazing new device keeps wheels steady on the road, and riders steady in their seats.

As you can see, it is no idle claim that this car makes very special sense in these unusual times. But why not get the whole good story at first hand? Why not go see your Chrysler Dealer, very soon?

Beautiful to look at...
 Beautiful to drive!

Ten Years Ago

Three ordinances were passed by the Township Committee. The governing body authorized the purchase of a new fire truck to replace the Mack Chemical hose truck. The second ordinance approved was the resurfacing of a number of township roads in cooperation with the county road department. Another ordinance approved was for the sale of township-owned property on both sides of Ross avenue, 100 feet in front of Saker street and extending 300 feet in frontage at a minimum price of $1,400.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore M. Ganslen of Mountain avenue announced the birth of a son, Theodore, Jr. The child was the fourth generation of the Ganska family residing in Springfield.

Howard A. Day was elected president of the Methodist Brotherhood, replacing Captain Robert Creighton who was called to active duty with the Army. Captain Creighton was elected honorary president for the duration of his Army service.

A string of new home developments in Springfield formally made its bow when Spring Garden was opened by the Berkeley Homes Co. in the tract bordering on the Regional High School ground and Cwatas avenue. The tract, a portion of the F. & F. Nurseries property, involved a major slice in the land which had remained intact for almost 50 years.

Plans were completed by Miss Jean Webster Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nesbitt Phillips, for her marriage to John Robert Elsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Elsworth of 240 Morris avenue. The ceremony was to take place May 17, 1951 at the home of the bride's parents, 56 Early street, Morristown.

Know Your Government
By N. J. Taxpayers Association

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES AND POLITICS

The attention of New Jersey citizens is again being directed to the danger of mixing public job holding and party politics.

It is generally recognized that where public employees are beholden to political party leaders for their jobs, representative government is weakened. While the all-too-frequent result of this is a general reduction in operating efficiency, it can have even more dire results through subjecting government to control by the lowest elements of vice and corruption. This latter danger was brought into sharp focus by the recent meetings of the Kefauver Committee.

Political meddling in public employment frequently finds its favor among the employees themselves. They particularly resent favoritism, demands for campaign contributions, and other practices growing out of the political patronage system.

Recognizing patronage as striking at the very roots of representative government, the New Jersey Taxpayers Association in its 1951 Platform denounces the practice as a "barrier to governmental economy."

In a widely-distributed communication, the Association has now invited other taxpayer groups, civic organizations and public officials to join in developing such changes in the law as will make it unlawful for any person who

It Was Shepherd But Not Shepard

William C. Shepard pointed out to the Springfield Sun that in last week's issue his name had appeared in a story relative to issuance of a proposal on behalf of the Citizens' League. The story actually referred to Joseph Shepherd but his name was misspelled. The 1950 directory for Springfield (Price and Lee) lists the spelling of Joseph Shepherd's name as

There was a time when libraries were known as "organs of culture" but the trend for change has touched the libraries as well as everything else. The culture is still there of course, and many other things too. The simple homely things, the manual arts, etc.; books for the doer as well as the thinker.

For a well-rounded personality, one is expected to be fairly capable in both fields. With their explicit directions and illustrations in the many of the craft books, even the people who say they "can't drive a nail," can accomplish surprising results. A person doesn't he misled by the term "craft," it means so much more than the simple art of weaving baskets and such things. The new books include instructions and suggestions for repairing and renewing everything about the house from the prosaic task of making concrete to the most delicate touches needed to make a room attractive.

Please don't forget the "Things To Do" books for the youngsters. There are several for different age levels and these are as helpful for parties and small groups as they are for rainy day entertainment and for the young adolescent.

Among the new books for adults are—"God's Men" by Pearl Buew—"Great Oaks" by Ben Ames Williams—"Mrs. Galley" by Sheila Kaye-Smith—"Festival" by J. B. Priestley—"Rommel, The Desert Fox" by Desmond Young—"Thanks to Noah" by George and Helen Waite Papashvilly—"These Well-adjusted Children" by Grace Longdon & Irving W. Stout and "The Better Homes and Gardens Garden Book."

Carol Schmelz's Nuptials Held

Mrs. Ida Schmelz of 239 Willow avenue, Garwood, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Carol, to Emil DelConte, son of Mrs. Rita DelConte of 240 Beech avenue, Garwood, and the late Emilda DelConte. The ceremony was performed Friday night in the rectory of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Garwood, by the Rev. Walter Pugh, pastor. A dinner followed at Sniff's Restaurant, Scotch Plains.

The bride was attired in a pink dress with black accessories and carried white roses. The couple was attended by the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yankow.

The daughter of the late Frederick Schmelz, Mrs. DelConte is a graduate of Regional High School. Mr. DelConte a veteran of Navy service during World War II, is a graduate of Garwood schools. He is associated with the DelConte Contracting Company.

Hills News Story
After reading an article in a daily newspaper last week one would be inclined to believe that I had a proposal to solve our school problem. That article could not have been any further from the truth, because I never had one nor do I have one now.

If I had any proposal I certainly would have given it through the proper authority, to the Citizens' School Committee or direct to our Board of Education. It might be added that I have been asked in the past if myself or any group that I might be associated with have endorsed any school plan. My answer to that question was no.

The no answer was given because, at the time I was asked I knew of no official plan, and did not know what plan would ultimately be presented. It could have been one to one one-story building, additions to one or both of our present buildings, a new two-story building or some other plan. Since that time, as we all know one has been endorsed by the Citizens' Committee and our Board of Education. I believe, as an individual, will help solve the problem and is a step in the right direction.

Overcrowding involves a health hazard because of poor ventilation and lighting. In many cases there is not sufficient room for good working space, storage of materials, blackboards, class projects and exhibitions. These things play an important role in the school program. After two years of schooling, these children have yet to go to a real school. Because they are not in the school proper, they are missing part of their school life. They are not able to attend school assemblies, educational programs, films and entertainments, which they could enjoy if they were in the main building.

The town is forced to have extra polling because these children must have protection at the crossings on the way to the churches. Parents with children in the churches and in the schools proper are always faced with transportation problems on stormy days. We definitely must get a new school with adequate additional space to solve these difficulties.

Six Straight Walks Win UCC Tilt For Rahway, 3-1; Loss First For Bulldogs

By DONALD ROSSELET
The Scarlets of Rahway handed Regional its first loss on the diamond this year at Rahway on Tuesday. Bob Thwaites and Bill Peterson collaborated in a one-hitter, but six bases on balls in the damaging third frame ruined the ball game and ruined an eight game winning streak for the Bulldogs. Regional tumbled in the sixth with Charley Schuffernoth's smash to left leading the way. Thwaites set Rahway down in order to open the contest and surround, but the Bulldogs came back for two in the second and five in the fifth, while Westfield was getting a single run in the fifth to win. Thwaites pitched the big Regional fifth with a single followed by "Pussini's" double. Tomassetti singled scoring Thwaites and a walk and Pepp's single led the way. Peterson held the Blue Devils to six hits, but he was in serious trouble in the first. With one away, Dave Anderson singled, Dawson-Lest doubled, and George VanHart and Bob Williams tripped, three runs scoring in the bitrage. Union County Conference Standing

ONE YEAR GUARANTEE IN WRITING

THE PUBLIC CAN THANK THE SAMUELS BROTHERS FOR THE LONG TERM GUARANTEE GIVEN ON A USED CAR TODAY. Phil, Erv, Marty Samuels were the first to give a long term better than a new car guarantee, and to give you added protection we now give you the guarantee in writing. We have taken the fear and worry away from the purchase of a used car. Our cars are put in and kept in tip top condition in our own modern shop. We have forced (by our large sales alone) other dealers to give a guarantee on used cars.
