TREAT RESIGNS

Township Clerk Robert D. Treat, holder of that position for about 25 years, has resigned the post effective July 15. Although the action apparently comes as no surprise to the Township Committee, news of Treat's resignation shocked Springfield today.

First inkling of what was taking place came to this newspaper at dawn today when Treat notified the editor by phone at his home that his resignation had been accepted by the Township Committee in executive session at 9:20 last night. Treat visited The Sun office at 8:30 a.m., with a copy of his official resignation to the town board. The paper discloses that Treat submitted his resignation initially on May 8 to become effective the end of this year. He was asked to reconsider. He resigned again on June 12 and the governing board requested that he hold off. He reinstated the resignation last night and it was accepted. Treat, eligible for retirement, would not comment further nor would members of the Township Committee. Statements are promised for next week. Post of township clerk is elective and both Republicans and Democrats may enter candidates in November. Independent aspirants also may seek the job.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Caroline Harmon, who served as Treat's secretary, is expected to be deputized as clerk to serve until the end of this year. Treat, a resident of Springfield for more than 30 years, also held posts of secretary to the Board of Health, registrar of vital statistics, sanitarian and search official. He received a total in compensation of $4,550. At press time Mayor Robert W. Marshall informed the editor that all details with regard to Treat's resignation have been referred to Finance Chairman Arthur Handville. The mayor, who said he personally accepted Treat's resignation with regret, promised a complete statement for next week's issue.

FRIENDS!!

Very often in the past we've knocked the people who decided industry for Springfield and boosted those who agreed that proper industrial development was the most essential step if a town like this was to prosper. For three long years we fought certain officials and other community leaders who were of the erroneous impression that industry meant factories with smoke-stacks, unbearable noise and noxious fumes. . . . we pointed to neighboring Union Township as a shining example of what proper industrial development could do for a town, not only from a tax standpoint, but from the appearance outlook as well. . . . to make a long story short, Springfield is finally about to jump into the limelight industrially. . . . from this corner it looks like more than five million dollars of the stuff all properly situated and all choice cuts!

You folks, as taxpayers, have every right to feel pretty good now that your representatives in municipal government appear to be doing everything possible to enhance the community and at the same time lower your tax bills. . . . this should have been done years ago by the farmers who ran Springfield, but it wasn't. . . . that's water over the dam. . . . to all of you who own homes and property in the township, $5,000,000 dollars in additional taxable ratables will mean a substantial slice in your tax bill, many added municipal services, more cops, more firemen, additional playgrounds, and everything that tends to make a community a fine place in which to live. . . . story of a place to thank you but and where you would dread the thought of a new school or a new firehouse for fear it will send you to the poor house in higher taxes.

Next question in your minds is where will all this industry be located? . . . the answer is State Highway, Route 29, where employees will have easy access to all neighboring towns and the larger cities. . . . every new plant, and there are at least three of them contemplated at the moment, will be set back off the roadway by at least 100 feet. . . . architecture will be of modern design and fronts will be properly graded and shrubbed. . . . out-of-towners traveling the highway will most certainly be forced to pass complimentary remarks. . . . that type of comment is virtually assured.

The squad will have drill every Thursday except the second Thursday of each month when a business meeting will be held. During May the organization has been authorized by the Motor Vehicle Department. The township's share of the cost is $150.

The governing board adopted an ordinance prohibiting parking from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. weekdays, except Saturdays and from 2 to 8 p.m. Saturdays, on both sides of Main street, between Morris avenue and Academy Green, on the east side of Flermer avenue, between Morris and Wabeno avenues and, on the west side of Flermer avenue between Morris avenue and Hannah street.

REGIONAL CLASS HOLDS REUNION

More than 150 members of the Class of 1946 of Regional High School participated in the first reunion of the group held to mark the fifth anniversary of the class' graduation. The event took place Thursday night at the Hitchin Post Inn, Union. Class members from the six Regional municipalities were present. The class voted to hold a reunion every two years. Arrangements were in charge of Miss Katherine Tiley, Miss Ruth Tiley and Miss Irma Shullers.

TOWNSHIP BOOSTS CELEBRATION FUND

Indications that the municipality generally is going all out to make the traditional Independence Day celebration a success was strengthened last week when the Township Committee approved an appropriation of $250 to help finance the undertaking. The governing board customarily makes a donation to the event. The motion for the contribution was presented by Finance Commissioner Arthur Handville.

Assessment Bd. Is Named By Township Com.

Two Republicans, One Democrat, Are Designated

The era of temporary assessment commissioners has passed for Springfield. Henceforth special assessment surveys will be handled by the Township Permanent Assessment Commission. Members of the commission, last week designated by the Township Committee are Charles Beardsley, Mrs. Muriel Schroeder and Russell Stewart. Mrs. Schroeder and Beardsley are Republicans and Stewart is a Democrat. Previously temporary commissioners were appointed for each project. The governing board has considered designation of a permanent commission for many months.

The committee also has approved a variation for erection of a $100,000 factory building in Route 29 on property occupied by Meln Inc. makers of pilot model machinery.

It was pointed out that the State Motor Vehicle Department has authorized a traffic light at Melsel avenue and Milltown road. Police Commissioner Albert G. Binder suggested installation be deferred. He pointed out that no appropriation has been made for the project.

Permission was granted for the Baltusrol Golf Club to proceed with installation of a blinker light at the entrance to Baltusrol Golf Club. The organization has been authorized by the Motor Vehicle Department. The township's share of the cost is $150.

The governing board adopted an ordinance prohibiting parking from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. weekdays, except Saturdays and from 2 to 8 p.m. Saturdays, on both sides of Main street, between Morris avenue and Academy Green, on the east side of Flermer avenue, between Morris and Wabeno avenues and, on the west side of Flermer avenue between Morris avenue and Hannah street.

Kenneth E. Bandomer was installed as president of the Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at Baltusrol Golf Club, with Fay W. Mathewson of Plainfield, past district governor, inducting the new slate. Bandomer, who served the past year as vice-president, succeeds Benjamin F. Newsom, outgoing head, who leaves office July 1. The latter was presented with a past president's lapel pin by Charles Remlinger, past president.

Other new officers, include: Vice-president, Carl Helmers; secretary, Adam LaSota; treasurer, Milton Billet. Directors to take office this year are: Harry Heath, Thomas F. Lyons and the president ex-officio, Newsom.

Inducted as a new member was Felix "Phil" Porzenga, local attorney, sponsored by Lyons.

It was announced that the club's annual clambake will be held Tuesday at Vogel's Grove, Union, with LaSota in charge of arrangements. The club members will handle the preparation and serving of foods.

5 Million in Industry Planned for Route 29; Firms Now Negotiating

Residents Urged To Aid 4th Fete

It was announced today by Joseph L. Poehl, general chairman, that the current drive for funds being conducted by the 4th of July Committee throughout the Township, is now in its fourth day. As the success of the program depends entirely on local contributions, he urged that all residents cooperate by making generous contributions, for which the collectors will distribute participating tags to all members of each family. Tags should be worn by all residents when attending the day's affairs. It can readily be seen where a full program for the day such as outlined to the residents by way of letters, posters and sound trucks, entails the expenditure of a considerable amount of money. The success and expansion of the program depends entirely on contributions.

At this time it should be emphasized that the program includes not only the morning and evening activities, but an afternoon schedule that has been made complete for all members of the family.

In the event you have not been contacted by your district collector, it is urged that you see Timothy Shochan, treasurer, or Charles Chisholm, who is the committee chairman in charge of business solicitation.

Township Board Paves Way By Highway Rezoning Move

More than $5,000,000 in new industries will be coming to Springfield within the next few months if present plans before municipal officials materialize. Efforts of Fire Commissioner Walter W. Baldwin are known to have contributed considerably toward the prospects for the contemplated industrial development.

Both sides of State Highway, Route 29, near the Union Township line, will be the scene of the major portion of the proposed industrial area. Only recently the Township Committee rushed rezoning of the entire general area in order to pave the way for the industries. Authorities predict a huge increase in taxable ratables for the community and a subsequent drop in individual property taxes once the industrial program becomes a reality.

Although the name of the largest plant, moving to Springfield from Newark, cannot be disclosed at this time, it is reported to be in the final negotiation stages for purchase of 22 acres on the highway. The plant would have 200,000 square feet of floor space and would employ more than 300 persons. This industry alone is expected to contribute three million dollars in ratables here.

Almost a year has to establish a new plant on a 100 by 200 foot plot on the fifth side of Route 29 in Precision Laboratories, Inc., of Irvington, an affiliate of General Electric. Plant and equipment would cost about $1,000,000. It is expected the concern will employ more than 100 persons and will probably begin ground in July. Final details together with a definite decision on Springfield is expected next week.

Chemical Construction Corp., of Lincoln, research division of American Cyanamid, also is seriously considering a location similar in size to Precision Laboratories and very close by. Upwards of 100 persons, mostly engineers, would be employed. Total cost also is expected to approximate $1,000,000.

Already approved and soon ready for operation will be the Melon Company, patent developers of Newark. It has purchased land and buildings formerly owned by Springfield Motor Exchange on Route 29 through Dunell Bros., Inc., of Springfield, N. J. Anderson negotiated the sale for the local firm. The plant will occupy 300 feet of frontage and have about fifty employees.

In all cases the new industrial concerns have agreed to erect modern, one-story structures with 100 foot setbacks from the highway. All will be well-shrubbed and landscaped and have off-street parking facilities for employees.

Full details concerning all proposed new industries for the highway will have been promised by municipal officials as soon as plans and arrangements are complete and definite.

Hundreds Attend Strawberry Event

Hundreds of Springfield residents attended the local Girl Scout's Third Annual Strawberry Festival last Saturday on the Municipal Green. The festival got under way at 1 p.m. with Girl Scout booths, sale tables, refreshment tables, pony rides, and games everywhere in evidence. Mayor Robert W. Marshall opened the festival with the cutting of a huge strawberry shortcake.

Highlights included the crowning of Miss Joan Ann Giannattasio as Strawberry Queen and the radio program which was broadcast over Station WNJJ, Newark, directly from that area. Will Peigebek was Master of Ceremonies and Huffman Boyle sponsored the program. Frank Cardinal and Herbert Kavin, as auctioneers, sold the merchandise donations. Mrs. Lee Andrews, Jr. was chairman of the Festival Committee.

A.&L. Engineering Opens on Route 29

Official opening of A. & L. Engineering Co., formerly of Hillside, took place this week in Route 29, Mountaintop, opposite the Somerset Bus Terminal. The concern, owned by Al and Lou Farina, of Scotch Plains and Hillside, respectively, occupies 5,000 square feet of floor space and is one of the largest of its type along the complete stretch of the well traveled highway.

The firm, distributors for Bell Heating Equipment and Chrysler Airtemp heating and cooling products, has a beautiful appliance showroom and remains open nightly until 9 o'clock A. & L. will handle all major home brands appliances including television and refrigerators. It has complete sheet metal fabricating facilities, which includes builder and retail departments. It employs a staff of trained mechanics and will carry the first in a series of opening advertisements in next week's Springfield Sun.

LOCAL BROWNIES NEED LEADERS

Local girls will not be admitted into Scouting as Brownies until their eighth birthdays, the Girl Scout Council decided at their semi-annual meeting last Tuesday evening in the Methodist Church building. The reason behind this move is the lack of volunteer leaders. As soon as there are enough leaders, the council will admit 7 year olds.

ANNUAL DINNER
County Oake Association held its annual dinner Tuesday night at the Club Diana. Forty-three persons were present. Joseph Polzotto of 457 Morse avenue, was chairman of the affair. Stanley Jacobus is president of the organization.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

The Commonwealth Water Company has filed application with the Board of Public Utility Commissioners of New Jersey, proposing a revision of its rate schedule, to become effective July 20, 1951.

Since the current rates were established, the company has been confronted by a condition of constantly increasing expense of operation, which includes material, operating, maintenance and labor costs, and of general taxes, which alone require approximately 30 cents of each dollar of revenue. While it is true that the largest portion of these taxes are paid to our own communities, they are nevertheless a charge upon the company.

Notwithstanding all possible and diligent efforts made by the company to affect every economy in operation, the spiraling costs of material, labor and taxes have resulted in our net income being steadily diminished. Because we must continue to maintain a high standard of water service, to which you are entitled and which is our responsibility, desire and purpose to furnish; because we must pay our personnel reasonable wages, comparable with their ability, efficiency and devotion to their work in the most essential of public services and because we must fully and efficiently meet the expanding demands of our communities, we have petitioned the Board for a review of our rates and consideration of the proposed 35% increase therein, necessary to meet the increased costs of operation which have been progressively rising, in order that a more equitable adjustment of our rate structure may be obtained.

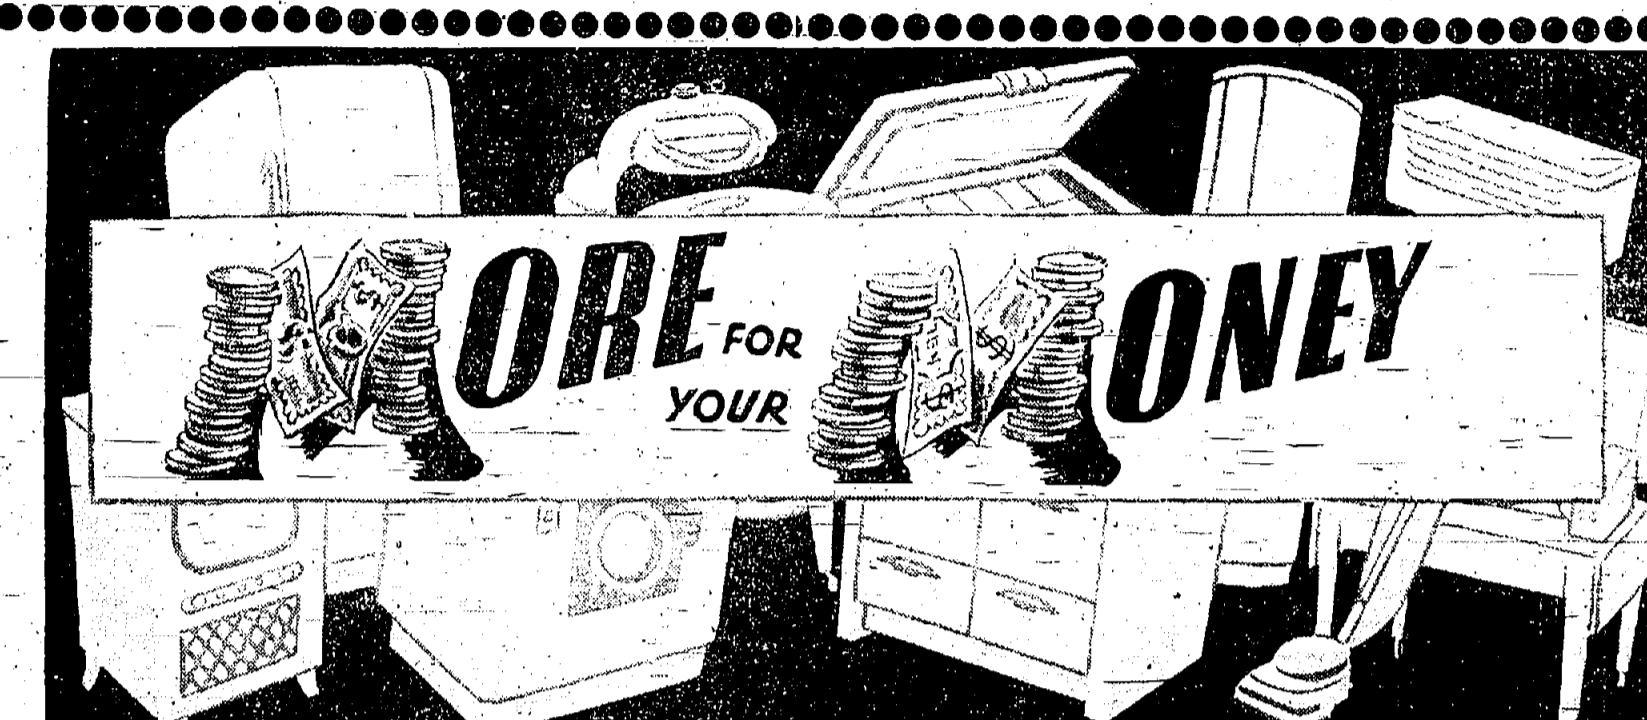

To keep pace with the rapid development of the communities we serve and to provide an adequate source of water supply to meet the increased demands made upon our facilities, we have found it necessary in the past four years to expend almost One and One-half million dollars for improvements and essentials to distribution systems, reservoirs and pumping stations.

In keeping with our company policy, we are making this explanation to our customers of the circumstances relative to our petitioning for revision of our rates in order that they may have a full understanding of the necessity therefore.

Millburn Explosion Alarms Township

Township residents today are still discussing the epic blast which wrecked a Millburn gas station, Morris turnpike and Farley place, here, here and rocked Springfield early Saturday morning. Patrolman Otto Sturm, in charge of Police Headquarters when the blast occurred, said the switchboard was flooded with calls of residents who feared there had been an explosion in a Springfield factory or thought there might have been an air attack.

Springfield firemen were called out to aid the Millburn fire companies in fighting the fire in the service station. The explosion cracked the walls, blew out the windows and frames and shattered glass over the area for several hundred feet.

An investigation revealed that Milton R. Winn, 28 years old, of 882 Springfield avenue, Summit, station operator, had been using cleaning fluid to clean tools. Apparently the fluid was ignited, Deputy Fire Chief Partridge, of Millburn said.

Winn apparently was not hurt in the blast. However, he later collapsed at his home and was taken to Overlook Hospital, Summit.

Members of the Township Committee and even our authorities cooperated fully with representatives of the plants which will locate here, the individual deserving bulk of the credit is Fire Commissioner Walter W. Baldwin. He has been hard at work making the contacts, outlining Springfield's advantages and pushing all possibilities to a successful conclusion. By the time Baldwin is through with his industrial program we predict he will have injected renewed life into a community which has been asleep at the switch for entirely too many years!

Somewhere in some Springfield attic there must be a wheelchair which hasn't been in use in years. It probably is in a very good state of repair. . . that particular item is sorely needed by an elderly local man crippled by arthritis and the Lions Club, through its welfare committee, this week issued an appeal for all one wheelchair owned by the township's Red Cross Chapter, already is being used. . . Sheet Metal Team Beats Braves, 3-2

By Donald Rossettel

Rain played havoc with the local softball league's schedule last week and only one contest was played. The league-leading Sheet Metal team squeezed by the Braves, 3-2. The victory moved the winner's advantage in the loop to a half game over the second place PBA.

The triumph also left the Sheet Metal team undefeated and the Braves are yet to hit the win column.

You have read a lot of bally-hoo about price wars, but we believe the public has discovered by now that most of these are "come on" advertising campaigns.

Many stores are picking a few isolated items which they haven't been able to move and are using these items to build up store traffic and call it war. This so called "war" is being fought with water pistols.... we have chosen cannons as our weapons.

It Costs Money To Run A Business !!!

WE CAN SELL OUR FLOOR SAMPLES BELOW COST WITHOUT BEING HURT VERY FEW CAN GO BEYOND THAT AND REMAIN IN BUSINESS.

Many appliance stores will be forced to close !!! But remember this price war is not of our making.

We are happy to announce that we can continue to give bargains at our main store indefinitely. We own all our own buildings and have sufficient income from our fuel oil, coal, boiler and burner installations, sheet metal shop and our new laundrette, which is located next door, to survive without any profit from appliances.

Your Library

A nation's legends, traditions and songs, beginning in the earliest history of the people and handed down, first by word of mouth and later on parchment and paper, form a distinct part of the world's literature. In each generation there must have been some favored few with the storyteller's gift who, with the fairy tales, the sagas and bits of remembered history, made up the whole basis of the world's folklore. It is easy to understand how these tales interest children and story lovers of all ages, but they also merit attention of historians, sociologists and those who specialize in language and race study. Probably most people will find tales of their own country most interesting. For them such books as a "Treasury of New England

Folklore," "Southern Folklore" and "A Treasury of American Folklore" - all edited by B. A. Botkin, will offer a realistic picture of regional history and customs. It is only a step from books such as these to further knowledge to be found in the "Chronicles of America" which your library was very fortunately able to acquire. These Chronicles comprise a set of fifty volumes which cover every phase of America's growth and are written in a thoroughly readable manner. New books include: "A Woman Called Fancy" by Frank Yerby; "The Cain Mutiny" by Herman Wouk; "We Barymores" by Lionel Barrymore; "A Mouse Is Born" by Anita Loos; "The Foundling" by Francis Cardinal Spellman; "Officer and Gentleman" by DeLves-Broughton, and "Peace Can Be Won" by Paul G. Hoffman.

The library is now on summer schedule, closing on Saturdays between June 15 and September 15. This necessitates changing the time of the Monthly Story Hour, which will be on Fridays during the summer months. The June Story Hour will be on Friday, June 22, at 10:30 a.m.

Testimony will continue tonight June 21 on Route 29 by Motor in the drunken driving case in which Vehicle Inspector Joshua Johnson, which T. Robert Patterson, 40 years old, of Sherwood road, is the defendant. He was apprehended two hours Monday night.

Decision Reserved In Truckers' Case

Magistrate Henry C. McMullen has reserved decision on a complaint against a Staten Island firm that its trucks were overloaded. The magistrate also is scheduled to resume a hearing tonight of a case involving a charge of drunken driving. Two charges of overloading were made against the Bay Material Corporation by State troopers on May 18. Decision was reserved pending submission of a brief by the firm's attorney who contended that the reciprocity arrangement between New Jersey and New York permitted cement mixers registered in New York to operate with the same load in this state. Troopers charged one truck was 11,000 pound overweight and the other 13,000.

AS THE WEDDING GIFTS COME IN...

DICK: "Think we can live up to all this grandeur, darling?"
ANN: "We may not use all the silver or the complete dinner service, but we'll use these electric appliances. We can afford to run them, can't we?"
DICK: "We surely can. We've been figuring expenses ever since you said 'yes'. Rent, and food, running the car, cost of commuting—seems the only thing that hasn't gone up is electricity."

REDDY: "That's so. I'll do a lot of work for her for a few pennies. That's how brides stay beautiful. Where could they get so much for so little? Prices on other things may go up, but my charges as an electric servant have been downward over a long period of years."
