Miss Heine was the bride of Theodore Plumb on August 4. Twenty guests were present including Miss Heine's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Harry Kreider and daughter, Dagmar, of Long Island.

Mrs. Marie Schantz and son, Jackie, of Rochester, Minn., have been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John D. Triolo of 126 Henshaw avenue, this last week.

GIRL SCOUT Corner By M. E. PENARD

The final week of the Springfield Day Camp has drawn to a close. The average attendance was 23. Girls attending the second week were as follows: Three Evils—Brownie group: Sandra Hoffacker, Merrill Post, Georgianna Gleim, Marianne Knuch, Nancy Bruhat, Pamela Francis, Dorinda Moses, Gail Lodig, Sandra Rae, Janice Pierson, Joyce Harrison, Sue Kerr and Marilyn Eno.

In the intermediate Scout group—the Straight Arrows—those attending were: Betty Haggerty, Nancy Frey, Marjorie Planklin, Henrietta Green, Judy Vance, Sue Kisch, Dorothy Boehm, Ellen Peinhart, Ann Wortmann, Delcio Zurroski and Sandra Penard.

The unit leaders last week were: Mrs. George Harrison, Mrs. John Kennedy, Mrs. Eugene Haggerty, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Russell Post, Mrs. Wilbur Eno, Mrs. C. Edward Francis, Mrs. Raymond Pierson, Mrs. Edward Feig, and Mrs. John Sea—Mrs. Henry Vance was in charge of handcraft instruction and Mrs. Frank Jahn, of drama. Mrs. Kerr was the nurse on duty.

Mrs. Vance showed the girls how to make balls, napkin rings and book marks of photo film, and Mrs. Haggerty and her group made and dressed dolls in paper outfits.

Each camp day one girl was elected scribe and her remarks on the day's activities were noted and filed. She read this report the following day so that any absentees would know what they had missed.

Tuesday the group had a photo taken by Bob Smith for the Sun.

Our Field Trip Wednesday we made a field trip to our local farms. The excursion was planned and conducted by Mrs. George Richele and Adam LaSola. First we went to Charles' Turkey Farm where the raising of turkeys was explained.

Next we went to Olympic Florists, Union, where the fall crop of chrysanthemums was shown. We were told how they are grown. These, it was explained, will be ready for our big sisters to wear to football games and at Thanksgiving, thus, Robert-Ruban, who led us through the hothouses gave each girl a present of a potted geranium plant.

Then we went to Lager & Hurst, the orchard grove in Summit. The display of orchids growing there was breathtaking. We each drew a slip of paper and Marilyn Eno and Sue Kisch who selected the ones with the marks on them, were given beautiful corsages.

At lunch time we ate on the lawn of the farm operated by William Happle. Mrs. Happle gave us all the milk we could drink.

From there we went to the Loizeaux farm in Fanwood, where prize Angus cattle are bred. Then we went to Kings farm in Scotch Plains where we saw a herd of sheep. They were sheared for Paul showing. Mrs. T. L. King, called the flock in as she does for their meals. She gave each of us a sample of sheared wool for our collections.

Thus ended one of the most enjoyable days we had. Certainly a special word of thanks from the Scouts and their leaders in day

Becomes Bride Of W. V. Keating

Miss Eleanor Rosemarie Boehrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aloys Boehrer of 10 Sharon avenue, Irvington, became the bride Saturday in First Congregational Christian Church, Irvington, of William Vernon Keating, son of Mrs. William Keating of 243 North 14th street, Kenilworth. The Rev. Robert M. Green officiated and a reception followed at the Schwaben Hall, Newark.

Miss Claire Domonkos was maid of honor and Miss Ruth Prudenreich bride-maid. Robert Keating was best man for his brother and Gene Carsey ushered.

Mrs. Keating is a graduate of Irvington High School and is employed by the Art Press, Irvington. Mr. Keating attended Regional High School, and served in the United States Army. He is clerk in the Kenilworth Post Office.

ough engineer. Since Mountside is desperately in need of a modern sewerage system, approval of the alternate plan is expected. Action on a plan suggested by the Linden-Roselle Sewerage Authority for establishing the authority's facilities for an outlet to the Arthur Kill was deferred until more definite word is received. If the groups could combine satisfactorily, it would cut down expenses of both.

Fears that use of the Arthur Kill as an outlet for waste will lead to pollution problems were allayed by a report that primary sedimentation will dispose of waste now and that chlorination will not be necessary for some time.

camp goes to Mrs. George Richele and Adam LaSola. To each of the farm owners we owe a vote of thanks, too, for the time they gave to show us through their places and around their farms.

Our Last Day Thursday, the last day of camp, was spent in finishing the craft work and taking a final vote on the activities we liked best. We selected star studies and Indian signs, cook outs, the field trip to the farms, handicrafts, shows and the dramatic games we learned.

Votes for things to do next year were taken and most of the Scouts decided we should do it again. So closed the first Day Camp in operation in Springfield.

Neglect Of Shade Trees Cause of Poor Lighting

Beautiful street trees so lovely to behold during the day may be in league with death and crime at night.

Lush foliage that obscures traffic and street lights and reaches low over thoroughfares and sidewalks is a major factor in causing tragic accidents and aiding and abetting the footpad. So says Martin L. Davey, Jr., head of the Davey tree experts, who points out proper pruning of street trees has more than an aesthetic function in the community.

While inadequate street lighting often is a matter of insufficient wattage or insufficient lights, quite frequently the problem is simply improper tree maintenance. Mr. Davey points out in Kent, O., where his company has its headquarters, the shade tree commission has recognized this grave municipal responsibility. Rules governing the care and maintenance of street trees are in effect to assure motorist, pedestrian and resident the maximum in protection.

Requirements are such that shade trees are trimmed to assure traffic light visibility for one block in all directions. Also, all trees are pruned not only to facilitate maximum street lighting, but to assure adequate clearance for vehicles on streets and parking areas on sidewalks.

Youth Development Thru Vocational Agriculture

'Know Your Aggies'

by Adam P. LaSota

The Vocational Agriculture Department at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School is often thought of as a department where boys of high school age are taught and trained in the fundamentals of agriculture.

This, however, is only part of the story. In fact, it is only about one-half of the story. All of the Vo-Ag Departments are called Agriculture Departments and we hope that you get to know us on these same terms have an inner organization which does more for the youngster than teach him farming. This organization is known as the Future Farmers of America. The F.F.A. is National in scope. Its members are found in all of the 48 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. The F.F.A. is one of the few organizations in the United States to have the privilege of being incorporated under a Congressional Charter.

The motto of the F.F.A. is "Learning by Doing, Doing by Learning." Because of this motto the Vo-Ag students are busy the year round. Yes, they are constantly seeking knowledge and helping others as well as themselves.

At the close of school in June and in some instances months before, a great number of the Aggies were busy working on farms. Some of the more fortunate were working with their dads on the home farm, while others began to work for neighbors. Some of the boys even went off to other states to help farmers who were in need of help and were interested in the business of farming.

I would like to start this series of articles, with a little story of the two boys whose pictures appear on this page. Both of them were graduated in June, but that does not mean that they are gone from my mind. No, my working with them has not been completed and will not be completed, for years to come.

Let's take Karl's story first. Karl was born and brought up on a farm in Clark Township. He studied Vo-Ag for four years, carried on project work during that time, and actively participated in the F.F.A. During his senior year he was president of the local chapter and secretary of the New Jersey Association of the F.F.A. Karl not only gave Regional statewide recognition by helping to win the apple packing trophy, but he also placed second in the state public speaking contest which was held in June. Karl has been admitted to the College of Agriculture at Rutgers University. He has been awarded a state scholarship and just recently was informed that he will be given additional help in the form of a room on the campus which he will pay for by doing chores on the campus. There are only twenty some such rooms made available to worthy students. While awaiting the opening of school, Karl is busy growing vegetables and poultry at home.

Now let's see what Dick has done and is doing. Dick is another of our four year students. He, too, was graduated in June and is still busy learning the fundamentals of agriculture. While a student, Dick was active in the F.F.A. He held the office of vice-president and was the backbone of many of the activities. Dick also participated in varsity sports, namely, football, baseball and track.

Dick, as you already know, helped Karl bring home the Apple Packing Trophy. Incidentally, Regional is the only school to have gained permanent possession of the apple packing trophies. We now own two trophies for apple packing. These trophies must be won three times before gaining permanent possession.

But let's get back to Dick. His folks don't own a farm, but this doesn't keep Dick from wanting to be a farmer. As a student he worked for farmers in the vicinity of Clark. Since graduation he has been associated with Lager and Hurrell at Summit, who are one of the outstanding orchid growers in the country. Dick is busy learning the business of orchid growing and hopes that some day he, too, will be an outstanding, successful grower.

Well folks, that's about all I have to tell you about our Vo-Ag's this week. But if our editor will keep his kind heart open to me I'll be back with you again next week with more stories of vo-ag boys. In the meantime, let me make a few agricultural hints:

If you are gardening keep up the cultivation and pest control.

If you are growing poultry give them the best feed rations possible and plenty of water.

If you only have a lawn, keep mowing at the proper height and when watering give it a good soaking.

State Apple Packing Champs

Winning State Vo-ag apple packing team was composed of Karl Reinhardt and Richard Palmquist, both of Regional High School. This is the third time the trophy has been won by the local school.

Playground Activities

James-Cudwell Playground ANGELA CHIARAVALLO

The Arts and Crafts Program, which is conducted on Monday and Wednesday, is in full swing. Braided lanyards are especially popular. The following children worked on them last week: Richard and Amelia Fornillo, Gene Mittenicht, Eric Dalrymple, Ann Hamilton, Ed and Peter Kent and Dale Dreher.

Beaded rings were completed by Joan Steels, Peggy Hagerthy, Richard Newman, Patty Dreher and Ellen D'Amico. Michael Gansky and David Lapanuk were busy with clay modeling.

The Tether Ball contest is still going on. All those who are interested in entering are urged to do so.

The Hobby Show was held last Friday. Many thanks again to our faithful judges, Mrs. Coan and Mrs. Cawley. The winners were as follows: Eric Dalrymple, first prize, rock collection; John Mertz, second prize, handmade kite; Ed Coan, third prize, baseball cards; Patty Cawley, fourth prize, original drawings. Badges were given to the winners and cookies were enjoyed by all.

The Doll and Stuffed Animal Show will be held tomorrow, Friday. We urge all children to enter and we invite the mothers to help us judge our entries.

Myrna Chesler and Michael and Mary Ann Pettinichio received the most points.

In addition to the active sports such as Horseshoes and Handball, we now have Tether Ball!

Many children participate in our Arts and Crafts program. The following made top holders: Carol Mueller, Bruce Goldstein, Shuri-Ann Pfister, Herbert Etzold, Jim LeRoy, John Kisch and Lawrence Skousen. Irene Zidonik, Carol Mueller and Myrna Chesler made bracelets and Martha Kisch, Myrna Chesler, Ned Davenport, Richard Pancani and Mary Ann Scharffenberger made bracelets.

Our regular Friday show was a Hobby Show last week. It was very well attended. The winners were as follows: most artistic, Mary Ann Scharffenberger who entered clay models she had made; most unusual, Ned Davenport who had a collection of match covers in an album; and most elaborate, Myrna Chesler who had a collection of movie stars.

Tomorrow, Friday, at 2:30 p.m. we will have a Doll and Stuffed Animal Show. Both boys and girls may participate. Any child registered at this playground may enter this show.

Others who made lanyards were: Raymond Martini, Sarah Hoard, Dan Lacy, Gilbert Mann, Walt Kraft, Vin Martini and Joyce Munich.

Last Friday the playground looked like a Halloween party because we all wore costumes. Jim Martini dressed as a tramp and received a ribbon for the funniest costume. Bruce Heard as a rube-harb man, received a ribbon for the most unusual outfit. Walt Kraft was a bathing beauty. He was awarded a ribbon for the best costume. Joyce Munich, a tap dancer, was voted the prettiest and we're sure you would have agreed with us.

A Tether Ball Pole has been put up and it is by far the most popular game. A contest will be held soon.

Trying to keep ahead
IS A BIG JOB NOW-A-DAYS!

New Jersey's big Defense industries and military establishments are keeping your Telephone Company mighty busy! Trying to keep ahead of the demand for Long Distance service (more than four times that of 1940) requires fast work. Here, for example, is a new switchboard being installed in Newark. Even before installers have left the job, Long Distance Operators move in to help put through thousands and thousands of urgent calls! You can help speed these calls, and get better service for yourself, too, if you'll give your Long Distance Operator the out-of-town number you're calling, whenever possible.

Braves Upset Indians, 7-6 Sheet Metal Snap Long Loss String

By DONALD ROSSELET

The cellar-dwelling Braves pulled the surprise of the week with a 7-6 upset victory over the Indians at the Metcalf avenue diamond Monday. The triumph was the second for the winners. The Braves were the victims of a 14-1 shattering the following night as the Sheet Metal team commemorated a new win streak.

The Braves ran wild with five markers in the first two frames before the erratic Tribe defense settled down. Ed Ruby started it off with a walk. An err. two safeties, and another pass netted the Braves three runs. Three bases on balls and a miscue made the score 5-0 in the second. Meanwhile, Al Haussman limited the Indians to one hit in the initial five frames. The Braves scored twice afterwards — in the third and fourth innings. The Indians rallied in the sixth for five runs. Four straight singles and Clyde Royster's grand slam put the Tribe back in the ball game. One final Indian tally in the seventh ended the game, 7-6.

Bob Etzold went on a home run binge last week winding up with a total of three, high in the loop. The Sheet Metal piled up three runs in the second, one in the third, two in the fourth, six in the fifth, and two more in the sixth. Fredly Dummaman pitched a four-hitter. Dummaman and Gerry Ferrone banded out three-baggers. Etzold highlighted a 12-7 victory over Strauss Stores with another

In a recent Washer Contest for girls, Dorothy Augenstein took first place, Carol Lorenz, second and Judy Sandback, third. Alice Reiss was the winner in the contest for the midgets.

So for the following boys are in the lead in the washer tournament: Bob Dressler, Robert Zoell, George Zoell, Kenneth Deker, Carl Mead, Raymond Mead, Larry Cyr, and Buddy Ruby.

Joseph Zellers won first place for his "Castle with Grass" in a sand modeling contest. Teddy and Ray Ganska, took second place, for a "Castle with a Bridge," and Bary Smith, third, for his "Suspension Bridge." "Heart Mountain and Volcano in the Indian Village" won the highest award, for Patricia Sullivan, and Carol Lorenz. Judy Sandback took second place with "A Windowed Castle" and Cathy Detrick and Marianne Karsh, third, for "Fannell Mountain and House."

The following girls were first, second and third place winners in a Shuffleboard Contest: Elaine Norref, Dorothy Augenstein and Pauline Kibowitz.

Joey Taddeo, Raymond Ganska and Robert Zoell were the winners of a Gum Stuck Contest.

Wits were put to work in a guessing contest of familiar advertisements. Winners were Don Bookler, Peter Zurawski, Barry Smith, Kay Brown, Velma Porcill and Diane Dalton.

The following contests are scheduled for the coming week: Horseshoes, Quilts, Penknife and Tether Ball. The Baby Show, to be held Monday, at 4 p.m. is open to children up to four years of age.

Mrs. Mildred Bullson of the Trailside Museum will visit the park tomorrow, Friday, at 1:30 p.m. Her talk this week will be about birds. She promised to bring some specimens.

Springfield County Park swamped Wheeler Park of Linden 12 to 0 on a two hit shut-out by Scott Donington. The hitting was highlighted by Vincent Altieri's two run triple, Richard Bednarik's three run home run and Scott Donington's two run double. The fielding was flawless as the team went errorless. GAS is FLEXIBLE

The price of food today is high. And when Mrs. Homemaker spends five dollars for a piece of beef she wants to make doubly sure that it's cooked just the way her family likes it best. This calls for steady, dependable heat at the exact temperature. And that's where GAS—the wonder fuel—is so important. When you use GAS you can easily and quickly get any degree of heat desired—from a low simmering flame to a high-quick-boil flame. No uneven step-ups. Simply turn the valve and ever so smoothly you have your choice of 1000 cooking speeds. This is flexibility—another reason why GAS is the preferred cooking fuel.
