LISTEN

A few of the big boys in town Republican ranks dropped in the other day and expressed bitter disappointment over the constant turmoil in which the GOP finds itself. They admitted the town clerk situation was a "shining" example of what shouldn't happen . . . and they further agreed that were they running this newspaper the stories on the condition as it exists would not have been different . . . To get an admission like that for a change makes the editor feel he isn't so ruthless after all!

Don't count the big apartment deal by any stretch of the imagination . . . the "banking" organizations who would finance the huge proposition are known to analyze a thing of this type very thoroughly before agreeing to foot the bill . . . surely it would have to be a good thing for the community or they would have now been made very plain and we wouldn't be too surprised to see the developers and Township Committee in conference on the subject before too long.

Despite a paid membership in the Springfield Chamber of Commerce far in excess of that in much larger neighboring communities, enthusiasm and attendance at local meetings have been sadly lacking . . . realizing this, Board of Directors of the chamber made a rugged decision Tuesday, but we have every reason to believe it will work . . . the group will hold a FREE dinner (cost about $3 apiece) for all members at the Orchard Inn next month . . . there will be an outstanding speaker and entertainment . . . there should be a bumper attendance . . . Joe Foeh has heads the committee and details will be announced shortly.

Police Commissioner Al Binder's "battle with the editor" came to a finish for the time being last Wednesday night when the official entered the first round of another conflict, this time with his "colleague" Walt Baldwin over the question of a new fire house for Springfield . . . Al never has been known to pull his punches, and therefore we predict he'll be Baldwin's No. 1 heading block insofar as the fire headquarters is concerned.

Shouldn't be too long before we announce ground-breaking ceremonies for the township's newest school . . . proof in the pending that it is sorely needed came in the form of Supervising Principal Ben Newsang's report . . . that the pupil load is now at its highest point in history and that double sessions are in effect at both existing schools.

For the past couple of weeks members of the First Aid Squad have been diligently canvassing every nook and corner of town for contributions . . . the response has been gratifying but the squad has not yet reached its goal . . . the organization is purely voluntary and its prime purpose is to save lives and prevent suffering . . . if you haven't already kicked in then do so at once . . . it should be first on your list each year.

Springfield was said to have been very well represented on the County GOP's board ride last weekend . . . and then some!

Word comes to us from Malvern in New York State that G. Mercer Guerry, who served as supervising principal of local schools until several years ago, has been named to a similar position by the Carlisle Board of Education in N. Y. . . a newspaper account of the appointment, says Guerry is very active in Boy Scout and PTA work.

CHORAL INVITATION

Residents of Springfield have been invited to join the Summit Community Chorus. The choral society, composed of about 100 mixed voices, presents its program twice a year in Summit and in other communities. Rehearsals are held every Monday evening from 8 p.m. until 10 p.m. at the Summit YMCA.

NORMAN FRANCIS LEBOEUF, teacher of sixth grade at Raymond Chisholm School, attended Seton Hall University and received a B.S. degree from Newark State Teachers College. He formerly taught eighth grade in Mahwah.

Tax Collections Show Increase

Tax collections for the township during the first eight months of the year total $550,958. It was announced today by Tax Collector Charles H. Huff. This is approximately $91,067 more than the collections for the same period of 1950. "That total" was $459,891.

Regional-Hillside Play Saturday

Bulldog Mentor Announces Tentative Opening Eleven

Game 1st of Eight For Local Outfit

By DONALD ROSSELET

A Bulldog two-year undefeated string of 16 games is in danger of being snapped when Regional and Hillside collide on the local grid-iron Saturday. The game marks the initial time the two schools will meet. Rahway was the last team last Saturday, following the game. Brown stated: "I hope to have the club in shape for the Hillside game. The boys will get plenty of work during the week in order to be in the best physical condition."

The Bulldogs will probably line up for the opener with the same most observers feel that the team won't go through its eight-game schedule. They are inclined to believe that Hillside might well be the stumbling block. Coach Brown will use this as a rebuilding year. The man will start his second year at the helm. The 6-2, 170-pound junior has two good receivers in Barringer—in its first scrimmage

Bowling League Starts Season

Norm Sotchek, who has impressed local coaches as the best runner in camp, and Bob Cole as a fullback round out the backfield. Bob Ruggeri will be the pivotman in the forward wall. He was the understudy to Johnny Speranza last season.

John McElroy, a converted back, and John LaMotta, 220-pounder from West Orange who joined the Bulldogs this year, will be in the tackle spots. Dan Russo and John Nadasky at guards round out the starting eleven.

Sports In The Sun

Should Cranford's plan of staging football games on Saturday mornings, to avoid conflict with televised college contests, prove advantageous, the idea might be adopted by other schools in this area. TV has really created a problem for athletic promoters, Cranford, which until this season was on RHS's schedule, has booked Linden, Hillside and Scotch Plains for a m. engagements. Joe Pepe and Dick Scheffler, Bulldog ends, might make Orange and Blue fans forget about last year's stellar duo of Jack Haskell and Sandy Gonczlik. If this year's grid team comes through with any thing that resembles a good record, it will be a great tribute to the entire coaching staff of Regional. Molding a team around only one actual vet, converting a back into a starting lineman, and inserting a transfer student with boys he never played with before could be done by only the best of coaches. And RHS has them—John Brown, Head Coach; Lou De Rosa, Line Coach; John Muler, Backfield Mentor; Ed Ruby, Freshman Coach; and Dave Pavlin, also a frosh coach. Richie Schwerdt and Bert Jones, both local boys, will play football with the Rahway Indians of the Union County League. Ken Bellevue is slated for a varsity berth with George Washington U in our nation's capital. Ray Volden is back to help out Harvey Harman at Rutgers. The last team to defeat Regional was arch-rival Rahway. The Scarlets did it in 1948 after the Bulldogs had come up to the contest untested. Since then 16 games have been won or tied by the locals. For the last five years, Regional can show a very impressive record of 36 wins, two ties, and three losses; two at the hands of Rahway. Summit also dropped the Bulldogs during the five year span—Rahway and Bound Brook gained the ties. The RHS Jay Vee's play a six game schedule starting September 24 at Hillside. The local Frosh open a seven game card on the 24th also, entertaining Hillside.

Ex-Regional Star Rutgers Stalwart

Ray Volden of Springfield is among the leading veteran grid-ers of Rutgers University's varsity football team now engaged in pre-season practice sessions here. A former backfield player at Regional High School, Volden specialized in offense last season, but is expected to start at the defensive left halfback position this year for the State-University eleven.

George Van Laars On Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Van Laar, who were married Saturday in St. Philip Neri's Church, Newark, are spending their honeymoon in Florida. On their return they will make their home at 29 South Edison parkway, Maplewood.

Mrs. Van Laar is the former Miss Antoinette Lassa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lassa of 147 Summit street, Newark. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Laar of 63 Colfax road.

Gowned in satin, the bride wore an illusion veil arranged from a bridal bouquet. Miss Rose Decilla was maid of honor, Mrs. Pat Van Laar, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Dorothy Lassa and Christine Tozzi. Charles Lawler served as best man. Ushers were Eliner Nelson, Joseph Bangiorno and Thomas Keatens.

A six-foot, 183-pound senior, Volden was one of the mainstays in the 1950 offensive and defensive backfield.

Highlight of the Rutgers 1951 season will be the second annual

SCHOOL NEWS

Raymond Chisholm

Grades 1 Mrs. Mae Busch Mrs. Mildred Thurber We all told our teachers and classmates how we spent our vacation and what we enjoyed most. We made pictures of something we saw or did during the summer. Elaine Bouchard drew a picture of the cars going across the George Washington Bridge and a big Dayliner she went, going under it.

Mrs. Thurber's class welcomed Barbara Alex from Chicago, to our school. In Mrs. Busch's class we have learned to read four color words. Most of us are able to write these words too. We started our first workbook called, "Before We Read." Every day we color and read the pictures in it.

Grades 2 Miss Alice Rieg Mrs. Claire Hoopmann There are 24 fine boys and girls in our class. We have to be up bright and early as we must be at school by 8 o'clock. At 12 o'clock we go home for the day. We have a number of new children in our class. They are: Evelyn Nash from the James Caldwell School; John Bradley from South Orange; Tom Miletto from Irvington; and Susan Rynar from Newark. Kenneth Applegate has left us. He has moved to Farwood.

Monday afternoon when Mr. Post came to see us, we were working on our spelling words. Most of us had just finished printing our first five new words for this year. Our first word was cat, so Mr. Post had us make a big cat with long straight whiskers. We were happy to welcome three newcomers to our class: Clauette Gill, who came to us from Orange. Eugene Herne and Michael Pisan who were formerly from Newark.

Grades 3 Mrs. Ruth Aray Mrs. Marietta Parkhurst So far there are 16 girls and 13 boys in Mrs. Parkhurst's Third Grade this year. They have been drilling on the 64 addition and subtraction facts in arithmetic perfecting their manuscript writing, reviewing their Second Grade vocabulary in reading and studying the four phases of the moon in science. They have made September calendars on which they are recording the changes of the moon as they are observed. We are looking forward to an interesting and profitable year together. Many of the 23 boys and 16 girls of Mrs. Aray's forenoon class have reported wonderful experiences on their vacations. Even Wilbur, the four-year-old goldfish, looked refreshed in his new aquarium. He thanks Sandra Fox of last year's third grade. Everyone looked a little taller and stronger. The following reported that they were forward-to swim during vacation: Herbert Ritzel, John Marlow, Richard Suseman, Jim Pittaro, Peter Merlette, Wade Maxwell, Richard Johnson, Elise Lipman, Linnea Wels, Michael Pettinichio, Phillip Vitello and Albert Miletto.

Grades 4 Mrs. Loretta O'Brien Mrs. Reva Johnson In our language class we wrote stories about our individual summer experiences. There was a wide variety of stories. Bobby Sills wrote a fine story about a fishing trip he had with his father. Alice Huber told of her vacation at Chateaufort Beach. They went crabbing many times. They also got up at 7 o'clock in the morning to see the fishing boats come in. Billy Yeager wrote of a visit to the deer reservation in Millburn. A first lesson in flying a real airplane was recalled by Lance Lewis. He went up to the Morristown Airport. The plane was piloted by Mr. Charles Beardley. An overnight camping trip was enjoyed by Charlotte Bodner and her Dad.

We have waxed the desks in our classroom. We think this will make them look better and help to protect them. Marilyn Muller was in charge of the activity, which grew out of a discussion of citizenship in connection with a story we had in our reading class. Grades 5 Mrs. Margaret K. McGarrath Mrs. Priscilla Butler The fifth grade told stories in English class on Tuesday. Those voted by their class as telling the most interesting story and presenting it the best were: Nicholas Calaves, Donald Booker, Charles Johnson, Stephen Weis, Richard Stephen, David Eger, Judy Vance, Barbara Aman, Diane Bouchard, Melinda Bradley, Jeff Manic, Chip Skousen, Paul Moade, John Hettlinger, Robert Zioll and Sue Kisch. Ruth Ann Toomey brought a plant to help make our room attractive. In Social Studies the background for the period of discovery and exploration has been developed through the story of Marco Polo. The fundamental processes in arithmetic are being stressed in order to assure accurate computation. We saw a movie "Life Begins" from the Bell Telephone Company. It was the story of a child with a hearing difficulty. After she was tested in school and by a physician the child secured a hearing aid. The improvement in the girl's personality and class work, was noted.

Grades 6 Mr. Daniel Murray Mr. Norman DeBoer Mr. Murray and Mr. DeBoer will have a sports club for the upper grade boys, since many of the boys have expressed an interest in such a club. Officers will be elected at the first meeting next week. The English lesson in the first class was enlivened by oral accounts of how students had spent their summer. Raymond Walsh told the class of the good times he had riding his favorite horse. Frank Ferner told of seeing Niagara Falls for the first time. Others including Warren Watkins, Henry Ruban and Elaine Huxton told of visiting various places such as amusement parks and beaches during the summer months. The aim of such oral work in English is to encourage the boys and girls to develop their ability to speak their language well. The sixth grade gained fine new students. They are: Herbert Bender and Nicholas Montano from New York State, and Erwin Fisher from Watning, N. J. Granville Weston has moved to Glen Gard, West, where he will attend school. Grades 7 and 8 Mrs. Thelma L. Sandmeier Miss Helene Kosloski Miss Patricia Guerin Mrs. Isabel B. Huff The Seventh and Eighth grades are very happy to welcome the following new students: Chick Guley from Albany, N. Y.; Ray Nantz from James Caldwell School, Danc Cople from Elizabeth, Barbara Fowler from Linden, Carl Uzar from the Bronx, Carol Hudson from Newark, and Bill Goodman who comes all the way, from Dallas, Texas.

On Tuesday we had our first club period. The teachers gave a brief talk about their clubs and then we chose the one we thought we would like. Miss Guerin has the Dramatic Club, Miss Kosloski the Folk Dancing Club, and Mrs. Huff, Hobby Club. Mr. LeBoer, Mr. Murray, our new Sixth Grade teachers, will have a Boys Sports Club. They expect to include the less popular sports such as fencing, bowling, archery and tennis, using films and demonstrators to instruct us. The new Junior Police have been introduced in the assembly. Carl Ford is the new captain. Our halls are quiet, the lunchrooms clean and orderly, and the lunchrooms clean. Nancy Meen (girls attendance) Carol Mueller and Agatha Naduru give up part of their lunch hour to see that the part-time classes get the right bus. Dorothy Augenstein and Sylvia Feldman are assisting the A.V. and P.M. Kindergarten. Other members are Elizabeth Huber, Richard Martinka, Richard Walker, Bob Bolles, Bob Schwartz, Walter O'Neill, Donald Eger, Tom Keane, Bill Coombs, Martha Kisch, Carole Matzek, Eleanor Kelle, Dana Kindauer and Suzanne Hackenburt.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH KINDERGARTEN Mrs. Dorothy Chandler Mrs. Florence Towner Mrs. Martha Webster We are learning what to do at busy corners: If there is a policeman there, we wait for him to take us across the street. If there is a stop and go light and no policeman, we know what light to wait for. It tells us in a poem we have learned: Red is at the Top Red says, "Stop." Green is below Green says, "Go." When riding on the bus, we never stand up while the bus is moving and we take turns getting on and off. Some of us have already learned to walk to the big school by ourselves and wait for the bus. Soon more of us will be able to do this.

James Caldwell Kindergarten Mrs. Janet Wronsky The Kindergarten is getting used to coming to school. Most of us enjoy our nice room and new toys. We have brought rugs and aprons to put in our lockers. We are learning to share our things and get along together. Grade One Mrs. Ollie Corby We took a walk Friday. It was such a beautiful day. We looked at the colors of the leaves. We picked some grasses. They are turning to seed. Later on we will take another walk to see what has changed. First Grade Now Mrs. Lorraine Anderson Mrs. M. E. Snider We are trying to learn the names of all the colors. We can read four of them now—red, yellow, blue, and green. We plan to learn orange, purple, black, and brown next week. Our first book is called "Before We Read." We find things that are alike and things that are different in it. We talk about the pictures and see if we can call words that sound alike sometimes. We are also working on our numbers. Most of us can make our numbers to five. Second Grade Mrs. Constance Bialowicz We are having a good time getting acquainted. New members of Springfield are Dorothy Peart from Elizabeth, Eva Simpson from Linden, Carol Brown from Cranford, Edgar Pollock from Detroit, and Leslie DiCataldo from Mountside. We enjoyed Judy Arledge's will teach us some Spanish since she speaks and writes Spanish as well as English. We have two new boys. They are new to our town, school and class. Gilbert Peart is from Elizabethton, New Jersey and Raymond to these three new members, as we will begin another year of work and fun together. Grade Four Mrs. Virginia G. Reynolds To help us observe Constitution Day our fourth grade class is making a visit to the Public Library where Miss Briggs, librarian, will show us the library collection of Revolutionary relics. We will also learn something of how the library functions to help the people of the community. We will take out library cards and books, thus becoming active members of the library. This trip will take place after the regular school hours. Those participating in the visit are as follows: George Rupp, Herbert Rupp, Judith Wilson, Shirley Clark, John French, Dorothy Siegha, Teddy Holm, Frank Varkala, Kenny Dreher, Russel Stewart, Judy Kaye, Richard Baker, Sue Kerr, Albert Flower, Julie Ryter, Leonard Mancuso, Claire Longfield, Mary Ann Soos, Norma Matimon, Louise Liffers, Cathy Detrick, and Mrs. Reynolds. Grade Four Mrs. Helen Ryder Back to School Some came on foot. Some on their bikes. Some in the bus. Some in their cars. Pouring out of the houses— Making a stream of kids— Walking toward a magnet— The school. All the excitement— The new clothes— Wish I had my bathing suit on. My shoes hurt. So do mine. I've got too much clothes on. Whose your teacher? Is she nice (Meaning is she easy, of course.) I called my teacher the last teacher's name. One kid called her "Mother."

Grade Five Miss Frances Wahl Miss Edna Pursel Mr. Joseph Hahaly We are beginning to get adjusted to coming to school when the upper grades are being dismissed for lunch. We have to eat our lunches at eleven o'clock and by three o'clock we get hungry and sleepy. Next week we are going to have milk and a lunch at two forty. This will give us a lift until four P.M., our dismissal time. Another fifth grade comes to school at eight thirty and stays until twelve thirty. They are also making adjustments. Grades Six Mrs. Elsie DiPreggio Mrs. John Navarra Mrs. DiPreggio's class has quite a beautiful display of cards and card folders brought in by members of the class. New members of Springfield are Dorothy Peart from Elizabeth, Eva Simpson from Linden, Carol Brown from Cranford, Edgar Pollock from Detroit, and Leslie DiCataldo from Mountside.
