FRIENDS!!

Last week's story in The Sun concerning Springfield's possible 1952 tax rate—almost ripped the roofs from many of this community's staple structures, including the Town Hall. . . Tax Collector Huff reported being besieged with phone calls from worried home owners. . . he asked everyone to "take it easy" until final and official figures were prepared. . . and he was right. . . yesterday Finance Commissioner Handville came through with some revised totals. . . the story last week, he said, was based on preliminary estimates—but after conferences with auditors and other department heads, indications are the final figures will be almost considerably lower than the latest official word from Handville points to an approximate $8.66 tax rate for a jump of 145 points over last year's. . . not nearly as bad as last week's estimate but still a terrific blow to the property owner who must foot the bill.

When there is a contest for seats on the Board of Education it's up to the district clerk of the school system to draw the names from a hat, or a similar container, for positions on the board. . . with announcement yesterday by Robert Morgan of 34 Springfield road, that he would seek a place on the school board there now exists a contest. . . A. B. Anderson will draw the names tomorrow (Friday) at 8 p. m. and invites anyone who so desires to witness the "epic" event.

The Sun today is printing on an inside page a mysterious picture of Christ, supposedly taken by a Chinese photographer. . . the field of ice, snow and mist. . . like a mass of black and white blotches, but on closer inspection a beautiful, full-face image of Jesus is revealed. . . it is difficult for those who can detect the image to understand how any one can fail to see it. . . it is equally difficult for those who fail to see it to believe their friends aren't jesting. . . we predict that the reaction to the photograph will be electric.

Within the next couple of weeks we should be receiving definite indications as to what the primary election setup will be for the Township Committee. . . the Township Committee is concerned. . . in the Republican ranks there is sure to be a scrap with Art Handville and Wall Baldwin. . . to retain their seats on the governing body. . . in the case of Baldwin it is reported that his wife is urging that he make a graceful exit from the political arena, but that is questionable. . . reported to be considering tossing their hats into the ring for the GOP nominations are ex-Treasurer Floyd Merritt, ex-Mayor William Schneider, Bill Jensen and Duany Wendland. . . there is nothing from the Democrats thus far.

Some sharp criticism has been leveled in the direction of the Chamber of Commerce for the manner in which it directed Christmas light assessments to store owners, professional folk and industrial concerns. . . most of the assessments have been paid, however, and the results have been gratifying. . . Board of Directors of the Chamber will meet Monday at 1 p. m. at its offices at 322 Morris avenue to discuss the year's activities. . . first item of business is expected to be a request to the Township Committee to pave the municipal parking lot and keep it cleared of snow and ice in order to promote its use by local residents.

Lower end of Morris avenue, near the Union Inn, still remains a dark and desolate spot these nights and should receive additional attention by town fathers when it comes to proper lighting. . . scene recently of a fatal accident, the area in question could stand an illumination survey. . . we urge that be done as rapidly as possible.

SLATE MEETING
Springfield women interested in forming a group to make cancer dressings have been invited to attend a meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Amy Bendorer, 541 South Springfield avenue, on Monday at 1 p. m. Mrs. M. F. Cass of the New Jersey Cancer Society will speak to the group. The project is being sponsored by the Springfield Woman's Club.

New Budget Adopted by School Board

Measure Has Big Increase Of $122,280

Following a public hearing attended by a dozen persons the Board of Education Tuesday night adopted a tentative budget of $462,380 for 1952-53. There were no objectors. It is expected the measure will increase the municipal tax rate by approximately fifty-one points. It represents an increase of $122,280 over the current budget of $340,100.

The tax rate increase, according to Fred J. Stefany, the auditor, is computed at the rate of about $1,500 per point. The amount to be raised through local taxation, exclusive of a debt service item of $27,122 will be $381,814.

Board officials said one of the principal items of the increase is the raising of salaries in the board's salary schedule. . . it will be in a position to compete with other school districts in hiring of teachers. More than fifty teachers and two principals are added. Nine new teachers and another school nurse will be engaged. The total item for salaries will be $327,995 as compared with $241,475.

Other increases include: text books and supplies, $7,000; transportation, $2,000; cafeteria operations, $3,000; insurance, $6,360; office equipment, $2,500 and buildings and grounds, $10,000. . . Most of the increases were attributed to the added services which will be required for the new school now under construction. This specifically lists books, supplies, cafeteria and insurance. . . The following items will be voted on at the annual school election February 12: current expenses, $349,621; repairs and replacements, $14,860; manual training, $7,445 and capital expenditures, $9,887.

Norris, Jr., and Fred J. Allen, assures Springfield that the Variety Show this year will be a "must" on every social and entertainment calendar.

The Regional Board of Education at its monthly meeting Tuesday night voted to set February 20 as the date for receiving bids for sale of a $1,400,000 bond issue. The appropriation, which will finance construction of the high school addition, was approved by voters in the six supporting municipalities in a referendum last November. The board engaged Miss Frances Sorzano of Bernardsville to replace Mrs. Lockmiller and Miss Hilma Soule of Kenilworth as a replacement for Miss Wojtowicz. Loney's post was not filled.

The Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools notified the board that it has placed Regional on its list of accredited schools.

In a communication to a Garwood business executive the board pointed out that it does not pay tuition for pupils who wish to attend other vocational schools.

Commissioner Bertrand J. Bertolany, Garwood, board president, presided.

Hanovia Company Purchases Sector

Hanovia Chemical and Manufacturing Company, a unit of Englehard Industries, has announced plans for industrial development of a large tract of land in the township extending from Route 29 to the Union County Park line and Echo Lake. The property was purchased through the Leo Flaster Agency.

The initial structure will be a one-story unit of 150,000 square feet to house a portion of the company's operations now located in Newark. Eventually, it is planned to provide housing for six segments of the industry now located in various sections of Newark.

This is the section which the township recently rezoned from Residential A to industrial. The objective was to enable Hanovia to develop the area.

The company manufactures organic colors, ultra quartz lamps for medical, industrial and home use and laboratory quartz ware. The sector was sold for the Lubner Realty Company and Monterey Estate. The two firms recently retained the sixty-three acres by paying $68,754 to settle a proposed sheriff's sale, according to Sheriff Alex Campbell.

With the deadline for filing petitions only a few hours away, a contest has been secured in the local board of education election scheduled for Tuesday, February 12. Four candidates have filed for three vacancies.

The incumbents are Howard S. Smith, board president; George G. Harrison Jr., vice-president; and Thomas F. Doherty, the fourth candidate is Robert Morgan of 34 Springfield road. Doherty previously had indicated he might not seek reelection because of the press of private activities. He and Harrison are completing their first three-year terms.

Mobile Unit Gives Student Eye Tests

Students from the Raymond Chisholm School this week are having their eyes examined by the Mobile Eye Health Service sponsored by the New Jersey Commission for the Blind. Last week fifty-two pupils of the James Caldwell School were examined.

The mobile unit provides diagnostic examinations for public school students after they have been screened by the school nurse. Those with 20-40 vision or less or with mannerisms which indicate poor sight, are examined. Youngsters whose parents can finance the visit are sent to their own eye doctor. Doctors attached to the mobile unit give prescriptions to those who can't afford them. The Parent-Teacher Association pays for glasses for these children.

Arrangements were made for the local school system by Supervising Principal Benjamin Newswanger. The children were screened by Miss Florence Gordonier, the school nurse. "The mobile unit is the first of its type in the country. It has been in operation since 1946. Examinations are conducted of pre-school children, grammar and high school students. The Commissioner believes that 60 per cent of all blindness is preventable so it works in an attempt to improve the sight of children. Union is the seventeenth county to receive its assistance. The unit is a part of the Junior Division of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs. It is operated with a state appropriation.

All Full-Time Employees To Get 10% Increase

A township budget which will provide a total increase of approximately $240,000 in the amount to be raised by taxation will be introduced at a special meeting of the Township Committee Wednesday night. It was learned today. The figure means an increase of 145 points in the 1952 tax rate. The new rate will be $8.66 per $100 valuation.

A preliminary survey by Township Committee members had indicated that the rate would be up 220 points with the prospect of a tax rate of $9.50. Last year's rate was $7.21. However, recent conferences with Township Auditor Fred J. Stefany and with department heads have convinced Finance Commissioner Fred A. Handville and other members of the governing board that they can revise the budget downward in contrast to the original estimates.

Question Prompts Sharp Action by Township Com.

Edward J. Ryder, representing the Colfax Civic Association, last night requested the Township Committee to meet with representatives of his group to determine the correctness of their contention that only 180 instead of 282 apartments were contained in the original agreement for construction of Short Hills Village.

Despite a statement at the open meeting by Building Inspector Ruben H. Marsh that 282 was the correct figure, the committee voted three to two to impose additional municipal records concerning the apartment in the police department safe until the mayor calls for a conference on the subject.

Police Commissioner Binder strongly opposed the action, stating its implications are "too serious." Finance Chairman Handville agreed with Binder but, Committee member Walter W. Baldwin pushed his motion to a successful conclusion. Mayor Marshall and Committee member Brown voted with Baldwin.

Ryder and other members of the Colfax group said after the meeting that they did not intend for the board to take such drastic action. "All we asked was a question and all we want is an answer, not a congressional investigation," they said.

The committee agreed to meet shortly with representatives of the Recreation Committee to study the future recreation needs of the township. Jack Kell, who resigned as recreation chairman recently, will be asked to attend. Robert Anderson was named to the Planning Board and John Hopping became a new member of the Zoning Board.

An ordinance making Center street one-way was amended to permit easy access to the municipal parking lot. Driving into Morris avenue from Center street is still illegal under the terms of the ordinance. Another ordinance limiting parking on Wabeno avenue was amended to permit parking on the north side of the street for its entire length between Flermer and Linden avenues.

Acting on Handville's recommendation, the board unanimously adopted a resolution opposing low-flying aircraft over any part of the township. A copy will be sent to Congressman Clifford Chase.

Owners of the establishment call the event a carnival of food values which will give local consumers a chance to stock up and save from a brand new inventory featuring Flagstaff products. A telephone delivery service will be setup on reopening day. Plenty of free parking space is available in the rear of the store and at the nearby municipal parking lot.

Senator McCarthy, Study Is Launched On New Highway

Complying with the request of Governor Driscoll, the New Jersey Turnpike Authority has assigned to its engineering department the task of producing a study of an extension from the Turnpike to serve Essex and Morris counties. It was announced today by Paul L. Troost, Chairman of the Authority.

The route recommended for consideration and further study are: (1) the extension of Route 10 from the vicinity of Livingston to the Turnpike; (2) the alternative to Route 10 suggested by certain communities in Essex County, instead of the extension of Route 10 as originally planned; and (3) a route to relieve the present Route 21.

Conferees are taking place between the Engineering Department of the Authority and the State Highway Department to initiate this study.

The members of the Authority will keep in close touch with the situation and will advise the officials of municipalities and counties concerned as soon as sufficient information is available. The studies referred to are preliminary and for the purpose of suggesting a possible location which would best serve all the areas and which can be further investigated as to cost and revenue. In the event that those studies produce suggested routes which merit further consideration, hearings will be held in the counties affected, with each of the municipalities being advised of the dates of such hearings.

Senator McCarthy, Communist foe, to Address Group

Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin will speak at the Millburn High School on February 8 at 8:30 p. m. His address is being sponsored by the Millburn-South Hills Republican Club with the support of the newly organized "1952 Associated Suburban Republican Clubs" which includes representatives from Summit, Maplewood, South Orange and Springfield.

Described as one of the most controversial figures in today's politics, Senator McCarthy will speak on "The Communist Issue—Where It Stands Today." There will be a question and answer period following his talk. Voters from the area towns are invited to attend.

A spokesman for the sponsoring groups said that the clubs will take no official stand; their membership participating as individuals only. However, the spokesman pointed out that the meeting should be held with some realists believing that the senator's attacks are open to criticism while others oppose the wishy-washy methods too executives have employed to deal with the infiltration of Communists and Communist sympathizers into the national government.

This is the first of a series of meetings to be held in this area between now and the November election.

Inspection Period Will End Feb. 29

With license renewal season in the offing, William J. Dearden, Acting Director, Division of Motor Vehicles today cautioned New Jersey car owners that they will be denied 1952 registration plates unless cars have met both 1951 inspection requirements. The current inspection period ends February 29.

Last year 10,000 owners were refused renewal plates for inspection compliance failure, but Mr. Dearden hopes there will be fewer delinquents this year.

"If you have not already complied with the second inspection requirement, the time to do it is right now before weather and other conditions make it difficult," he said. "Should there be congestion at the stations during the closing weeks of the period, it will result from motorists failing to appear at the time suggested on the back of the first inspection sticker. If your return date is November and you do not show up until two or three months later, it is your own fault if you find yourself in a long line."

"Cooperation by motorists could make the whole inspection process easy and swift. Examiners are at the stations the year round and can handle the volume of business expeditiously if motorists appear with their cars on schedule."

Mr. Dearden also reminded motorists that 16 stations in the metropolitan area are open one night a week for the convenience of motorists.

Superintendent Schoffel said present plans are to appoint approximately 50 men to the Academy as it is anticipated the number of vacancies between now and March 16 will increase as a result of men going on pension and inductions into the armed forces.

Qualifications were listed by Schoffel as follows:

Applicants must be citizens and residents of New Jersey; must be between the ages of 22 and 35 as of March 16, 1952; be free from physical defects; between 5'8" and 6'4" in height; and between 150 and 225 pounds. Educational requirements are high school graduation or equivalent.

Examinations Set For SP Vacancies

State Police Superintendent Chas. H. Schoffel today set January 19 for a written competitive examination to fill approximately 35 vacancies in his organization.

The test is open to all young men between the ages of 22 and 35 and will be held at the National Guard Armory, Paterson; the Naval Militia Armory, Camden; and the Field Artillery Armory, Eggert's Crossing, Lawrenceville; commencing at 10:00 A. M.

Appealing to young men to take advantage of this opportunity to become State troopers, Superintendent Schoffel said the job is more attractive now than ever before, explaining that expansion of the force in recent years has improved the troopers' working conditions and salaries and that chances for advancement are much more rapid.

Detailed information as to qualifications and requirements may be obtained from any State Station or by writing the Personnel Section, State Police Headquarters, Trenton 7, N. J.

The examination will take approximately two hours to complete. Superintendent Schoffel said, and will be followed by physical and mental tests to be given at Wilburha Headquarters, January 26. Those receiving passing marks in all three branches will be notified to appear before an interviewing board at a date to be announced later.

Candidates receiving the highest marks and approved by the interviewing board and an investigating staff will be eligible for a 13 week training course at the State March 16.

Pascoe Makes Bid For Re-Election

Former Senator Herbert J. Pascoe, Elizabeth, announced his candidacy today for the Republican nomination for another three-year term as register of deeds and mortgages, the office he has held since his appointment, May 16, 1947. Prior to his years as senator he had been a member and speaker of Assembly and an Elizabeth councilman. He has been at the forefront of Republican activities since his first vote when he became 22 years of age.

"Having consulted with Senator Kenneth C. Hand and other leaders and workers in the Republican party," said Register Pascoe, "and with their encouragement, I am seeking renomination as register of deeds and mortgages in the Republican primary election, April 15.

"During my present term, which will expire November 11, I have sought to bring my office to a high standard of efficiency and accommodation to the public. In return, the senators, lawyers, and the general public, from near and far, have heaped praise upon me. They declare the Union County register's office stands alone at the top in service. They tell us that for 'spaciousness, maintenance of records, and all round set up this office surpasses any deeds and mortgages department in the state."

The candidate's political career began in his home town of Lambertville, where he was a Republican challenger the first year he could vote. A few years later he moved to Elizabeth and was a member of City Council in 1920-21 and chairman of its finance committee the latter year. The voters chose him for one of the county's seats in the Assembly in 1922 and from then to 1941 he served fourteen terms and was speaker in 1933, 1938, and 1939.

For forty-six years, Register Pascoe was with the Pennsylvania Railroad, retiring as safety agent, April 4, 1947, with Mrs. Pascoe, formerly Edith S. Hankins, of this township and a son, Robert L., he lives at 1328 North avenue. Another son, Edwin W., lives in Rutherford, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert Cuddeback, in Shrewsbury township.

Shunpike Group Opposes Apt's.

The Shunpike Civic Association, a group organized for the purpose of opposing the construction of new apartment projects in the vicinity of the Shunpike Turnpike, recently took a similar stand.

In opposing the new apartment project, the association members asserted that it is impossible to provide adequate local services for the apartments without absorbing taxes. They contended that the projects absorb more in service costs than they contribute.

Another factor, it was said, is that in less prosperous periods assessments must be based on the apartments because of reduced rents.

Photo of Snow and Mud Contains Portrait of Christ

CAN YOU SEE IT? Definitely the photograph of the year (if not of the century), the picture above is a most unusual one of Jesus Christ. It is almost-defied detection, but the picture of Jesus definitely is there. We'll give you a little help: The image is full-faced, located above the center of the photograph and can be seen from a distance of 10 to 15 feet.

Most people require considerable time before they spot the face, although a few have immediately recognized the image of Christ in the field of mud and snow. If you can't find it, stop in The Sun office, and we will be happy to assist you.

The story connected with the photograph is this:

"A Chinese photographer was riding one day through the snow-covered countryside of Interior China. His soul was troubled. He had been witnessing a great movement toward Christianity among his friends since the Japanese invasion. He longed to know the truth of what he had been hearing from Christian missionaries. As he rode along he said: 'Lord, if I could only see Thy face, I would believe.'

"Instantly a voice spoke to his heart: 'Take a picture, take a picture.'

"He looked down-at-the-melting snow forming pools of water, here and there revealing the black earth. It was an unattractive scene. Nevertheless, being thus strangely compelled, the man descended and focused his camera on the snowy road-side.

"Curious to know the outcome of the incident, he developed the film at once on returning to his home.

"Out from the snow came a white area of the snow scene, a face looked at him, full of tenderness and love. It was the face of Christ.

"He became a Christian as a result. And because the Chinese people believe that in this wonderful way God revealed himself to them in the hour of their trial, many have since found the Savior through the picture, as the story of it is told all over China."

Many persons have difficulty in finding the image of Christ. Some see it almost immediately. Others see it almost immediately. Others never see it.

Concentrated study does not seem to help. When you do see the face of Christ, it seemingly leaps out of the snow as though a light had been turned on.

Your Library

The stories of the rivers of America are as exciting and full of adventure as any historical novel, for they are part and parcel of the substance from which many of these novels are compiled. The Rivers of America Series was edited by Hervey Allen and Carl Carmer, past masters of the art of writing and keen students of American history in its every phase.

When the waterways were the chief means of transportation, supplemented by the covered wagon and the ox-cart, they carried on their placid or turbulent surfaces, as the seasons varied, the people, the food and the tools to build new settlements; and too often, in stealthy file, the loaded Indian War canoe to destroy them. The rivers take their names from builder and destroyer alike but they spell Romance and Legend with capital letters. Your library has many of the books in this series including such titles as "The Mohawk," "The Kennebec," "The Delaware," "The Everglades" and "The Saint Johns." There is a Lake Series too, equally interesting and informative, and also supplementary reading lists if you plan to read up on one particular section of the country.

The significant reduction in the polio death rate during the past few decades is attributed by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to two factors: 1) more accurate reporting of less serious polio cases in recent years and 2) the greater development and availability of improved treatment methods and equipment made possible in large part by the March of Dimes. By DONALD ROSSELET
A joint thirty-eight point production by Dick Scheffler and Judd Herman highlighted an 86-30 triumph over a hapless North Plainfield quintet yesterday afternoon in the Bulldog gym. The Bulldogs, however, could do no better than a split in the week's activities—losing a 79-63 posting at Roselle Park on Friday evening. Yesterday's victory over the Canucks was fashioned in a comparatively easy manner. Actually the combined scores of Herman and Scheffler defeated the North Plainfielders by eight points. Regional more than doubled the score on the Canucks in the initial frame and from then on, the game was never in doubt. The Bulldogs came back with a 12-6 second stanza edge for a 32-14 half-time advantage. The Canucks managed only three points in the third quarter. While Regional was tallying 11. The undefeated leaders of the Four-County Conference, Roselle Park, had a rather rough evening

Sports In The Sun

BY DONALD ROSSELET
The Regional-Plainfield encounter on January 11th marked the completion of the initial half of the Bulldogs' 1951-52 basketball season. We shall try to bring to light some of the statistics of the first half with the following column. Regional's record for the first half of the season was 3 wins and 6 losses.

Regional has scored a total of 426 points while its opponents were registering 467. That represents a margin of 41 points in favor of the opponents.

Three teams have run up more than 70 points against the Bulldogs this season. They are Hillside (72-63), Railway (75-44), and Union (70-54). The highest score Regional has attained was 63 points, against Westfield (63-48) in a winning cause, and against Hillside (72-63) in a losing battle.

The Orange and Blue courtsters have topped the century mark five times in the eight games that comprised the first half of the schedule. The highest individual score tallied against the Bulldogs was the 30 point performance by Union's Paul Wittling. Judd Herman's 24 points against Hillside was the highest individual total for a Regional player.

The complete Bulldog scoring totals show Judd Herman in front with 121 points. Bob Coles is second with 90 markers, while John Keith and Joe Cannonie are tied for the third spot with 51.
