We have been learning how to tell a story to the street. If there is a policeman at the corner it is easy to tell, but when there is no policeman, look for the red light that says "stop," or the green one that says "go." We know how to look both ways before crossing, too. The children in our first book have toys, too. We enjoy drawing some of the toys to put in a tiny booklet.

Grade 1
Mrs. Jane Schorr, P.M.
We have been showing our favorite toys in our classroom. Each child has a turn to show his toy and tell about it. Nick brought a truck, Denny a watch, Betty, Dolores and Judy brought dolls. The children in our first book have toys, too. We enjoy drawing some of the toys to put in a tiny booklet.

Grade 2
Miss Alice M. Iles, A.M.
Our class consists of fifteen girls and eight boys. We were all in the school last year.

Grade 3
Mrs. Ann Hesser, P.M.
William Valois, in Miss Hoopmann's class, showed very fine leadership the first week of school. He conducted us in the flag salute and the singing of America. Last week, Virginia Dooze was in charge.

Grade 4
Mrs. Lorett O'Brien, P.M.
As a contribution from our outside reading, Arlene Straver read aloud to us, during recess period, a story of Jane Adams. The story told of Jane's childhood days in Chicago, and her determination, as a child, to help the living conditions of the early immigrants, when she grew up. Miss Adams' mother had a single-story house by founding "Hull House," the first large settlement house in America.

Grade 5
Mrs. Margaret McFarrah, A.M.
It seems hard to believe that only a few weeks ago we could be asked to rise as we waited in the morning! Now we find ourselves in school at 8 o'clock every morning—just the time when we used to be turning over for another nap! We are doing rather well at it though, with not a single case of tardiness among us yet.

Grade 6
Mrs. Ann Hesser, P.M.
Lance Lovins had a fine discussion on "Safety-To and From School." He was ably assisted by Billy Franklin, John Dooze, Bob Tanko, Corinne Davis and Michael Perisano.

That man's experience for good can be measured by his love for God will be brought out in the lesson-sermon on "Reality" in the lesson-sermon on "Reality" in the churches this Sunday.

The Golden text is from I Chronicles: "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all." (25:11)

Readings from the King James version of the Bible include: "Accquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee. . . Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee." (Job 22: 21, 25)

Among the correlative citations from the Christian Science text-book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be "Spiritual living and blessedness are the evidences, by which we can recognize true existence and feel the unshakeable peace which comes from an all-absorbing spiritual love." (p. 264)

UC Elevens Await Start Of Season

The rebuilding program of many of the Union County scholastic football elevens will be concluded tomorrow as thirteen of the clubs prepare to open their 1952 gridiron schedules.

On tap for Saturday are five games pitting UC teams against one another. Cranford at Linden, Regional at Hillside, Scotch Plains at Roselle, Summit at Roselle Park, and Union at Westfield. The other three units launching their campaigns Saturday are Thomas Jefferson which entertains Trenton in Elizabeth, Plainfield, which invades Long Branch, and Rahway, which plays host to Carteret.

The two features of Saturday afternoon's activity are the Regional-Hillside and Union-Westfield games. This Bulldogs of Regional send a rebuilt aggregation to Hillside, which has a heavy team ready for action. Union, which hit rock bottom last year with a winless season, expects to have better success this campaign, but will have a rough time getting started against a Westfield array which will be one of the better clubs in the county. The Group III representatives in the county—Hillside, Linden, Rahway, Regional, Summit and Westfield—are expected to wage an all-out fight for supremacy. Pre-season dopsters tend to lean toward Westfield as the leader with Linden, Rahway, Regional, Hillside, and Summit ranked behind the Blue Devils in that order.

Westfield has top-grade running backs plus a big, well-drilled line. Linden, with an experienced bunch of sophomores and juniors, has a good line nucleus. The Tiger backfielders should have the scoring punch it lacked last year. Rahway, almost entirely depleted by graduation, still has enough around to make a good showing. Regional's forward wall is experienced, but the backfield must prove itself for the Bulldogs to rate consideration.

Hillside, with its husky line, might be able to crush the big time as the campaign unfolds, but the Comets need experience. Summit, because it plays only one UC eleven—Rahway—will have to come up with an impressive slate to warrant consideration. The three county Group IV schools—Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth, Plainfield and Union—all will present formidable teams. If a top team were to be picked, it would have to be Plainfield, which will have the services of Olympic Games ace, Milt Campbell. But, the Cardinals still need ten other good men, several of which they do not seem to possess.

Jeff also lacks experienced operators at several key positions. Union, on the way up, figures to be a year or two away from fast Group IV company, but it plays only a few teams in the "big class" and it will do fairly well against its Group III crowded card.

Roselle Park looms as the top Group II club with Scotch Plains, which graduated from the Group I ranks this year, right on the Parker's heels. Roselle and Cranford probably will be also-rans. Pingry is the only prep school unit in the county. St. Mary's quit football this fall and thus there will not be a Catholic school eleven operating.

County Scoreboard

SATURDAY'S SCHEDULE
Cranford at Linden, 2:30
Plainfield at Long Branch, 3:00
REGIONAL at Hillside, 2:30
Scotch Plains at Roselle, 2:30
Summit at Roselle Park, 2:30
Trenton at Thomas Jefferson, 2:30
Union at Westfield, 3:00
