Efforts by the Church and Cannon Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution to Save the Historic Cannonball House at 127 Morris Avenue from Being Sold, Brought Some Encouragement from Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll in a Letter Addressed to Mrs. Milton P. Brown.

Letters were written to various Foundations and organizations interested in restoration and preserving historic sites and Gov. Driscoll's response gave new hope although there was no definite promise of assistance.

Following is Gov. Driscoll's letter:

Dear Mrs. Brown:

I was distressed to learn from your letter that the old Cannonball House is now up for sale, and that there is a possibility that it may be destroyed.

I have forwarded a copy of your letter to our Department of Conservation and Economic Development and expressed to Commissioner Erdman, the chief executive of that department and a member of my Cabinet, the hope that his department may take the lead in cooperative efforts to save this building.

New Jersey operates its government on the smallest state budget of any comparable industrial state in the union, with the lowest per capita state tax collection in the nation. Accordingly, our funds are very limited and none have been earmarked this year for the acquisition of historic buildings.

It is my hope, however, that the Department of Conservation and Economic Development may find it possible to interest public-spirited citizens in a cooperative effort to preserve the building and, perhaps, even make a modest contribution to achieve this objective.

With kindest personal regards,
I am
Sincerely,
ALFRED E. DRISCOLL,
Governor.

George D. Harrison

After this act was over, Master of Ceremonies A. E. Bowman, reintroduced the pair in view of their association with Lionism. Ted Lester is an active Lion at the Raritan Bay Club. Fred Lidsky was formerly District Governor in the state organization of Lions and is now an International Conductor.

Motorists Continue To Pay Heavy Fines

Speakers and other motor vehicle violators continued to be hauled into the Municipal Court, two men who drove cars while their names were on the revoked list, paid penalties of $100 each for pleading guilty before Magistrate Henry C. McMillen. They were William R. Yeager, 40 years old, of 614 South Springfield avenue, who was stopped by Motor Vehicle Inspector Harold May 20, and Harold D. Coombs, 48, 70 1/2 Tooker avenue. Yeager was assessed $28 for operating a nonregistered vehicle.

Magistrate McMillen handed twenty-seven traffic cases, with penalties totaling $379. Among others fined were: For driving a nonregistered vehicle, Joseph Daddario, 233 Marion street, Union, $8; driving without a license, Robinson Stinner-Wilkes, 532 West Front street, Plainfield, and Walter J. Milnes, Route 22, Mountaintop, $5 each.

Spending Audrey G. Weekly, Torrill road, Plainfield, $10; stop street violations, Mathew S. Paszewski, 38 James avenue, Clark Township, $5, and Thelma A. Horth, 23 Baltusrol road, Summit, $5, and careless driving, Vito A. Pina, 511 Franklin street, Elizabeth, $10.

Springfield Library changes hours for summer months. After June 15th the Springfield Library will close on Saturdays. The Children's Story Hour will therefore be held on Friday, June 26th—10:00 a.m. There will be two Story Hours in July and two in August, dates to be announced later.

Many Object to Construction Of Sidewalks

The proposed ordinance for the construction of new sidewalks on many of the main streets of Springfield met with a certain amount of disapproval from many of the local residents at the Township meeting last night.

Robert Finny, Secretary of the Baltusrol Golf Club, offered his objections on behalf of the club and its members. He stated that if there is any possible benefit to the community at large, the club would never object, but between the hours of 9:30 and 3:30 in the afternoon, pedestrian traffic was blocked. Three people walked on Baltusrol way, two on Shuamlin road and nine on Mountain avenue which certainly would not interfere with 2,000 linear feet of Baltusrol property necessitating sidewalks at all.

These and similar sentiments were aired by Carlton Morrison of the Andrew Wilson Company, the Stittles of the Springfield Nursery and Mrs. H. E. Callahan of Baltusrol way, who felt that as a convenience and safety factor for children, the construction of sidewalks left much to be desired, since there doesn't seem to be that much pedestrian traffic involved.

The Township committee members emphasized the fact that they were anticipating the future needs of the town and filling an obligation to the town at large and at the same time endeavoring to act on a recommendation of a school board survey.

Discussion on the sidewalk question has been continued until June 21 at 8:30 p.m. when objectors will be able to meet with the Town Committee and members of the school board.

Mrs. Merton D. Williams and Mrs. J. Frank Jakobson, president and past president, respectively, of the Springfield Women's Club, at the recent convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Atlantic City.

Presbyterian Members Pay Tribute to Miss Flora Day Fourth of July Drive for Funds Opens June 19

"Miss Day Night" isn't a play on words—it was the title given to an evening's program at the parish house of the First Presbyterian Church on Monday night to honor Miss Flora Day of 100 Tooker avenue for the faithful service to the Church School after 54 years as a teacher and worker.

Miss Day is retiring and members of the congregation, friends, former pupils, teachers and all others who have been associated with this tireless worker, crowded into the parish house for this happy event. The affair was arranged by the Christian Education of the church.

Miss Day was the first young woman to become president of the local Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, and a member of the church choir for 35 years.

She was superintendent of the primary department of the church school for 47 years. Miss Madeline Hall, who was the first assistant in the primary work and later became a missionary to China, was the principal speaker of the evening.

J. Frank Jakobson presided and Wm. N. Heard and Herbert Higgins offered congratulations. Donald Plemmer sang "I Know That My Redeemer Lives" and Mrs. R. B. Anderson was in charge of the social hour, assisted by the teachers of the primary department.

Miss Day was given an orchid corsage and a hand painted picture of the church.

Besides her church activities, Miss Day was a member of the local chapter of Red Cross for about 40 years, joined the War Relocation Authority during the second World War, and took her turn driving the ambulance at Summit Overlook Hospital.

Miss Day is a sister of Corolline L. Day, local teacher, who recently retired from her job as teacher in the Summit School for 41 years.

The Church and Cannon Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, plan a joint meeting shortly with the Sons of American Revolution to map out a program commemorating the Battle of Springfield on June 23.

These annual patriotic exercises will be the first to be held by the local Chapter with Mrs. Eugene Donnelly as the new Regent. Mrs. Donnelly was elected for a three-year term as head of the Chapter at the final regular meeting of the year held at the residence of Mrs. Eugene Brookes of Denham road. Mrs. Donnelly is a third generation descendant of Stephen Hopkins, a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants and has been one of the active workers in the local Chapter.

Frank J. Gaska Dies Suddenly

Frank J. Gaska, of 647 South Springfield avenue, a native of Springfield and well known throughout this area, died Tuesday night at his home after being stricken with a heart attack.

Gaska, co-owner of the large farm known as Mrs. Prince's, which attracted shoppers from all sections of the state, lived in Springfield all his life and was 63 years old.

He was a veteran of World War I and served overseas with the Army. He is survived by two sisters and four brothers. He was not married.

Former Sp'gfield Resident Dies

Friends of Arnold Scherrer, who conducted a custom tailor shop in Springfield for many years, were sorry to hear that he had passed away at the Masonic Home in Burlington last Saturday, June 6. He would have been 84 in a few weeks.

Mrs. Charles Kohlenbush, a daughter who resides in Highlands, N. J., said her father had a great affection for the town of Springfield and the many friends who were so good and kind to him during his many illnesses. He especially wanted to thank his former friends, the doctors, members of the police department and especially Bob Briggs.

Mr. Scherrer was born in Switzerland and had a tailor shop first on Morris avenue and then on Koeler street. He retired about four years ago and went to the Burlington Masonic Home to live.

SUBURBAN FIVE AND DIME—with Charles H. Dasher, Jr., (inset) plans a "grand opening" sale at the newly named store at 248 Morris Avenue.

New Morris Ave. Merchant Sees Future in Springfield

If a shopper should happen to walk into the new Suburban Five and Dime store at 248 Morris Avenue and be greeted by a smiling and eager-to-please person, that will, in all probability, be Charles H. Dasher, Jr., the manager.

And if it isn't Charles Dasher himself, it might be one of the sales staff he has gathered to help make this establishment one

Rapid Population Growth Doubles School Needs Here

Growth of Springfield's pre-school and school population in two years has been so rapid and so great that the 1951 estimate of the school needed from kindergarten through fifth grade is already inadequate. This much is already clear to the Citizens School Advisory Committee, based on figures brought in by the Unmet Needs Subcommittee at the last meeting.

According to the study that was made prior to construction of the Florence M. Gaudineer School, it was estimated that a new K-5 school, to be built later, would probably require seven rooms. Present census figures indicate the possibility that the need may require double that number, according to Nevell Clark, chairman of the Public Relations Subcommittee. Mr. Clark indicated there will have to be more study still before a definite recommendation on the exact number of rooms can be arrived at.

However, an idea of the degree of inadequacy of the old 7-room estimate can be glimpsed in the figures already available. If a new school were ready next fall, which is of course out of the question, the existing demands would be for accommodations for at least nine rooms in order to take away sufficient children from the Raymond Chisholm School area to relieve the overcrowding of that school. Raymond Chisholm School has only 10 standard classrooms, although currently two sub-standard rooms are being used with special permission of the State.

Details of the Site Subcommittee's report, which is virtually ready for submission to the Board of Education, reveals that there is a drainage problem that must be dealt with on the recommended site for the new school, the tract now owned by the Board of Education, which fronts on Mountain avenue and is at present occupied by the temporary veterans' housing development. A brook runs across the property and will have to be piped and covered for safety in the opinion of the committee. To pipe the entire length across the property will take 1,500 feet eventually, but 600 feet will free sufficient land for adequate play area for the proposed new school. The cost of piping the brook must be regarded as a part of the new school construction costs, the committee reports. (Continued on page 2)

It was announced that the International Relations Department will sponsor a trip to the United Nations Headquarters on June 12. The group will attend the afternoon session and is planning to leave Springfield on the 12:00 noon bus. Luncheon will be served in the Delegates Dining Room. A few last minute reservations may be secured from either Mrs. Gilbert Mann or from Mrs. Charles Heard.

The Drama Department will present the program for next year's "Husband's Night" to be held in March. A musical show is being planned.

The Music Department has announced plans for a permanent music library.

Two new members were received. We welcomed into the club Mrs. Harry Hamilton, 161 E. 2nd avenue, Roselle and Mrs. George J. Varga, 67A Flermer avenue, Springfield.

Mrs. William Cosgrove, Northern Vice President of the Youth Conservation Committee, is the assistant to the chairman of the Girls Citizenship Institute at New Jersey College for men to be held in New Brunswick from June 15 to June 19 in Gloria Macomber, 80 Hawthorn avenue, a Junior at Regional High School, will attend the Institute as a representative of the Springfield Woman's Club.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. G. Franklin Ream, lecturer and teacher. His topic was "The Value of Humor in Today's Living." In a talk interspersed with humorous anecdotes, Dr. Ream stressed the need for laughter in everyday living. If we are to appreciate the world with which we come into contact, we must have the "sixth sense" of humor. Laughter is universally understood and is, therefore, a common bond between peoples. Dr. Ream suggested that we keep our eyes and ears open for the humorous developments of a situation and that, in so doing, we will find that life can truly be a happy, healthy, successful one.

At the conclusion of Dr. Ream's enjoyable address, the club members enjoyed refreshments prepared by the members of the Hospitality Committee. Mrs. Wats Chapin, Mrs. Bertram Fahs, Mrs. Arthur Dausar, and Mrs. Ralph Lindeman deserve credit for preparing such a delightful, cooling treat. The Garden Department supplied a lovely red rose centerpiece.

On June 8, Mrs. William Cosgrove attended a state meeting of the Youth Conservation Committee under the leadership of Mrs. Robert McKinley, State Chairman. The meeting was held in the Federation office, Newark, and plans were made for the forthcoming Citizenship Institute at New Brunswick.

Several members of the Art Department have acted as judges of the Strawberry Festival posters. Miss Gertrude Sala, Mrs. Paul Weis, Mrs. Andrew Nelson, and Mrs. David Cavanaugh have selected the winners of the contest who will receive their awards at the Strawberry Festival, June 13. Three Girl Scout prizes and one honorable mention will be awarded; also three Broyette prizes and one honorable mention. Mrs. Edith Davenport, 42 Edgewood avenue, entertained members of the Literature Department on June 8. Plans were formulated for the coming year. It was a pleasure to welcome Mrs. Bryant Hans' mother here on a visit from California.

Mrs. Herman Meyer, 120 S. Maple avenue, called June 6 on the S.S. Maedam, Holland American Line, to spend the summer in Europe.

Mrs. and Mrs. Glyn Treharne of Short Hills avenue will soon be leaving for a three weeks' tour of England and Wales. They will leave the United States via British Overseas Airlines and return upon the Queen Mary. Mr. and Mrs. Treharne will visit relatives in London and will also convey the best wishes of Mrs. Robert Hayes to her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nottingham of Harrow, England.

Local Group Helps "Trailer City" Work

Members of the Springfield Bible Study Group, which meets at the home of Dan Matting at 20 Spring Hill avenue, are spending all of their spare-time evenings and week-ends assisting in the construction of "Trailer City" at New Market on the Old New Brunswick road.

Louis Episcopo, who is associated with the Elizabeth congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, is the presiding minister of this group and is joining with those members in volunteering their services free towards this overflow housing project. This is in connection with the World Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, scheduled for July at Yankee Stadium.

With 100,000 guests pouring into the New York area from 90 countries, something had to be done to counteract the housing shortage. Louis Episcopo pointed out, "Already 70,000 persons have written in for accommodations and 22,000 have asked for trailer and tent space in the city which has just begun to be laid out."

Last week a construction shed and the administration building were erected. "The big job at the moment is the construction of a laundry building and putting food stores. The laundry is one of two buildings that will be erected, each 16 by 100 feet and containing 34 washing machines and 39 ironing boards each. These are some of the conveniences that are being arranged to accommodate the residents of the city during their short stay."

ROBERT F. MCAULIFFE, of 23 Marcy Avenue, received his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering at Stevens Institute of Technology. DONALD J. MALONE, of 42A Linden Avenue, received his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering at the Stevens Institute of Technology.

Facts about the E. H. Werner Station

The station is centrally located at South Amboy at the mouth of the Raritan River, adjacent to rail, highway and water transportation of fuel and supplies.

The original station, first high-pressure steam plant in the East, was built in 1930 and contained two units capable of generating 55,000 kilowatts. Cost of the original station was $6,000,000. The new addition cost $12,500,000.

Plant expansion includes an addition to the former building to house a new 62,500 kilowatt turbo-generator, two Cyclone furnaces—first to be installed in the East—pressurized boiler and its auxiliary equipment and new coal-conveying system. In effect, it's a new plant added to the original station.

As with other JCP&L power plants, the E. H. WERNER Station is tied-in through a transmission network with other sources of power, ensuring a constant supply of low-cost electricity for homes and business.
