Board Chooses Architect for New School

NEW SCHOOL ARCHITECT
Emil A. Schmidlin has been selected to design new Springfield school.

Increased facilities to more adequately provide for Springfield's rapidly growing school population have been brought another step nearer by the selection of an architect by the Board of Education. The architect chosen, Emil A. Schmidlin of East Orange, was one of those recommended by the Citizens Advisory Committee in their report of last June and subsequently interviewed by the Board along with ten other architects.

Mr. Schmidlin has had 20 years' experience as an architect, and has had his own organization for the past eight years. Although the greater part of his present work has to do with the building of schools, he has also done considerable designing of hospitals and other institutions, office buildings, apartments and homes, and has received a number of awards for outstanding residence and apartment design. He was selected by the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. to design the new headquarters building in Newark.

His work in school design has also won considerable recognition. The Stockton School in East Orange was selected as the most progressive school design by the National Convention of School Administrators in 1949, and has been highly praised by visitors from Europe as well as many parts of this country. The Brookside School in Baldwin, N. Y., won first prize by the 1953 competition of the American Institute of Architects. He has lectured at Teachers College, Columbia University and at Syracuse University on contemporary school building design and construction, and, in 1951, was selected as consultant to the New York State Commission of Education on school design.

Township OK's Purchase of Parking Meters

Authority was given for the purchase of 100 parking meters to be used along both sides of Morris avenue in an ordinance presented by the Township Committee at their meeting last night.

The cost of this improvement will be financed by an appropriation of $8,500 to be taken from the Capital Improvement Fund set aside in this year's budget.

An ordinance was introduced making it unlawful to park any vehicle along Maple avenue between the intersection with Springfield avenue and Morris avenue for a period of time in excess of one hour between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. from Monday to Saturday inclusive.

Police promotions were approved by the Township Committee for the following positions: Eddie Hendriksen was promoted from a second-class patrolman to first class; Robert Polovina was promoted from third class to second-class patrolman. Hendriksen has served with the department for two years. Polovina has completed his first year with the force.

The one bid from J. Conuzzo & Sons, Maplewood contractors, for the construction of sidewalks in Springfield was turned down by the Township Committee upon advice from the Township Engineer, Arthur H. Lennox, who advised that the bid was too high. Advertisements for new bids will be run and received on November 11.

MR. TELEVISION OF 1950—People may complain that television programs have been slipping, but along comes a Springfield boy to dispute that theory. Bobby Alessi, 5 year old son of Philip and Helen Alessi of 28 Wirvick Circle, stole the hearts of thousands as he presented his problem to the famous Juvenile Jury last Sunday. Bobby outdid the panel and the moderator with his cute flow of conversation and completely stole the show. He is in the kindergarten at St. James Parochial School.

First Aid Squad Completes Annual Drive for Funds

The First Aid Squad has completed its house-to-house canvass of the Township for contributions in support of its Annual Fund Drive. Although the response to the Squad's appeal for funds has been equal to previous years, the not unreasonable goal of $10,000 has been far from realized.

A very great number of people were not at home when Squad members called and it was necessary to leave self-addressed envelopes in the hope that contributions would be mailed in, thus making it unnecessary to call a second time at such homes. The Squad is relying heavily on these envelopes not only to increase the total contributions, but to save the time and effort entailed in making second calls. The Squad simply does not have the membership to do the job without prolonging it over several weeks, which is a lot to ask of a group of fellow residents who already give so much of their time to this valuable community service.

If it were not for these volunteers, several thousands of dollars would have to be spent annually by the Township in salaries for operating personnel in addition to the maintenance costs of the ambulance. Township responsibility for the ambulance service would also impose certain restrictions and limitations on its use, which do not presently exist under the First Aid Squad's operation.

Members are particularly needed for daytime service and we urge anyone interested to contact any member of the Squad for information.

Friends of 'Joe, the Barber,' Just Can't Understand It

For over 27 years Joseph Di Giovanni, known affectionately in Springfield as "Joe, the Barber," has been shaving, giving hair cuts and whispering choice bits of gossip to patrons in his shop on Morris avenue.

As a veteran, in his early years in business, Joe regaled his listeners with vivid and thrilling stories of his exploits, proving to nearly everyone who would pay any attention that he and his particular company won World War No. 1. He was active in veterans' affairs as a member of the local Continental Post of the American Legion and turned out for parades until the old Army uniform became too snug for comfort.

Springfield liked Joe and Joe liked Springfield. Those youngsters, whose blonde curls Joe cut many years ago, grew up in Springfield but they still patronized "Joe, the Barber" to pick up an occasional bit of gossip or Joe's own observation on how the country should be run.

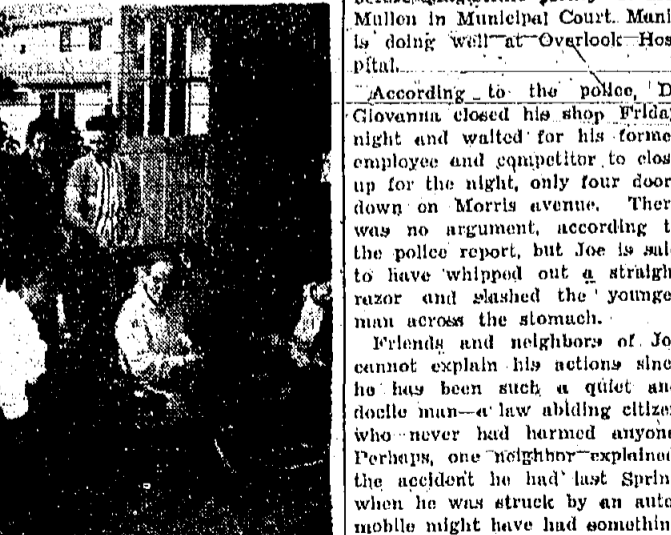

After nearly 27 years, Joe began to mellow and life no longer was the vibrant, challenging battle of the old days. His old customers still continued to patronize his shop despite the fact that his old employee, Joe Manis, had opened up another barber shop only a few doors away — at 288 Morris avenue. He was at peace with the world, content, 65 years old and then something happened.

Today, Joe is free in $500 bail to await action by the Union County Grand Jury on a charge of selling his competitor, Joseph Manis, 17, with a straight razor. He pleaded not guilty to atrocious assault and battery when arraigned before Magistrate Henry C. McMullen in Municipal Court. Manis is doing well at Overlook Hospital.

According to the police, Di Giovanni closed his shop Friday night and waited for his former employee and competitor to close up for the night, only four doors down on Morris avenue. There was no argument, according to the police report, but Joe is said to have whipped out a straight razor and slashed the younger man across the stomach.

Friends and neighbors of Joe cannot explain his actions since he has been such a quiet and docile man — a law abiding citizen who never had harmed anyone. Perhaps, one neighbor explained, the accident he had last Spring when he was struck by an automobile might have had something to do with his action last Friday. Dr. Henry P. Denger, police physician, who examined Joe said that he "was in extremely nervous condition."

"Joe might have had a little 'vino' one of his friends stated, 'to bolster-up his nervous condition' but Joe wasn't a drinker and that's no explanation. Too bad. He's a nice guy."

Report Another Big Firm for New Center

A very important announcement has been made by the developers of the proposed Springfield Shopping Center within a week or ten days which will give the name of another nationally known chain store to take space along with Grand Union and four of five more already signed.

The William O. Mehlich organization, realty agents for the shopping center, hope to be able to release the name of the new store since all the terms have been agreed upon. The coming of this new store calls for change of the plans with the Grand Union Company signing for additional space, the Mehlich office says.

Several other well known stores are considering becoming a part of the shopping center and a full list of all those that have already signed is expected to be made public by the Mehlich organization very shortly.

There was no indication when actual construction might start but information at the realty agent's offices indicate that architect's plans will shortly be submitted to the Township Committee.

The annual barn dance of the Springfield Republican Club will be held at the Evergreen Lodge on Friday night, October 23, and all square dance fans are invited to be on hand by 8:30.

There will be square and round dancing and a very enjoyable evening is being planned by the committee in charge.

DON'T FORGET TOMORROW NIGHT — MRS. ROBERT W. HAMILTON, Chairman of the Ways and Means Department of the Springfield Woman's Club, hopes everyone in Springfield will attend the Fall Fashion Show at the Gaudin School tomorrow night, October 16. Mrs. Anthony Pilar is chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements with Mrs. Ruffin Cook as the co-chairman. Everyone is invited and the 75 cent price of admission will also include refreshments. Lillian O'Grady of Summit will show the fashions and Fredrick Co. of New York will feature furs. ## Parties Continue Battle of Words

The battle of words and statements on behalf of the six candidates for the two places on the Township Committee is hitting on all eight cylinders—with the real excitement still to come. No two men—no one ticket appears like easy winners at this writing and many of those who have been watching elections in Springfield in the past, are a little confused in trying to pick the two men who will be selected to go on the governing body.

Another week of campaigning may crystallize the situation but, at the moment, no one is certain. Some are willing to pick one of the winners but no one will go out on the limb and attempt to pick both.

Below are statements issued by the three tickets:

REPUBLICAN	DEMOCRATIC	INDEPENDENT
Last week we called to your attention some of the misstatements and false charges made in opposition to the Republican candidates for Township Committee. We could not continue to let down other inaccuracies. However, we feel that it is more important to acquaint you with the accomplishments of the present Republican Township Committee and that we give you a glimpse as to what we have in store for you in the future. We have cooperated with the Board of Education in providing new, modern and progressive school facilities and we will continue to cooperate with the Board of Education in their school expansion program. We have provided for an increase in the equipment and personnel in the Police and Fire Departments thus providing you with greater personal safety and property protection. It is noteworthy that we have no juvenile delinquency problem in Springfield, no racketeers and no crime problem. The law-breakers have learned to respect our law enforcement agencies. Plan Parking Meters We have established a non-partisan recreation commission who serve you and your children without compensation. (This is the political plum that the opposition has been talking about.) (Continued on page 4)	The Democratic candidates for Township Committee, Vincent J. Bonadies and J. Leo Moran have now made known their program for civic improvement which has far reaching significance to the people of Springfield. This program represents one of the most important and far-reaching proposals and not one intended to be a cure-all or solution to all our problems but a guide and pattern for future action and planning. Despite the fact that the Democratic candidates if elected would be in a minority role, the program as outlined would not suffer as a result of this minority with the proper public information has the advantage of strengthening and improving the actions of the majority through constant public information of town activities and a spirit of cooperation rather than obstruction. This is especially true of the Democratic candidates who do not have an axe to grind or self interests to satisfy. No Name Calling In contrast to the revelation of a program by the Democrats, both the Republicans and Independents continue merely to find faults with each other and are resorting to name calling, retting the elections in their closets, and generally finding fault with each other. Neither of us has shown the fortitude and foresight of a constructive program. They rattle the past (Continued on page 4)	Election Day, November 3, 1953, can be the day the citizens of Springfield regain control of their community. On that day the choice will be theirs, either to continue at the mercy of party dominated officials or to take their rightful place of full participation in the task of self-government. It is time that Springfield received a worthy Township Administration. Nowhere in the County do the people pay more for their local government than do the taxpayers of Springfield. In return for this heavy price what do the taxpayers receive? Here are just a few of the blessings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The right to appear before the Township Committee to seek redress for inequities.</li><li>But not to receive a forthright, sincere reply.</li><li>The right to establish a business in town and pay taxes thereon, but not to object to Township actions which drive customers away.</li><li>The right to purchase a home in town and pay taxes thereon, but not to feel secure that business or industry will be prohibited in the area.</li><li>The right to expect proper drainage for your property, but not to object to flood damage caused by improper drainage.</li></ul> (Continued on page 4)

Letter Criticizes Method To Select New Architect

Clifford W. Zimmer, local engineer, sends a letter to the Sun in which he finds faults with the method used in the selection of an architect for the new K-5 school in Springfield. The letter is printed herewith:

Editor, Sun:

It is interesting to note that the selection of an architect for the new Springfield Grade School was determined by a method of voting that favored the minority, and not the majority. In this democratic country of ours, it is customary to use democratic principles, even at the community level. Could the minority have cooked up a political trick to gain their end?

Let's look at the facts. We have a five member School Board. Five architects were considered for the work. It was decided to eliminate one at a time by having all members vote for four, and the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes to be dropped. Successively, the vote was to be for three out of four, two out of three and finally, one.

On this basis, on the first vote, any three members could successfully eliminate the majority candidate of the group by voting for the other four. Is this fair? Certainly not; but this is exactly what happened. The first secret ballot was 4-7-7-4 and six members who may have selected the loser as No. 1 man were forced to continue to make a selection, which may not necessarily have been their first choice.

On the next vote, the score was 5-3-5-5. The two fives were dropped but five is still a majority on the School Board, and by eliminating the two fives the majority rule is again violated. It is a possibility that either of the two fives were first choices on his ballot. So what do we wind up with; two candidates who might be fourth, third or second choices. By this method of voting one of the least desirable candidates is selected.

Incidentally, the candidate who did win his two Grade Schools

We were also impressed by the lack of interest in the many reference letters that were available for the consideration of the board. Only one for each candidate was read aloud at the meeting; the one on top of the pile. Certainly, the Board would not authorize the clerk to solicit these letters if they were of no value, but why wasn't the evidence considered before a selection was made?

To make matters more complicated, it was disclosed that only one board member visited a completed building that was designed by the successful Architect. The rest saw only a building that was partially completed, or none of his work at all.

We believe that the citizens of this community have been hoodwinked by a small minority group who have, in this case, won a hollow victory over those who were honest and sincere in performing their duties. Cheap politics have no place in a school project; and we, as taxpayers in Springfield, will not support the program.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE

That loud, rumbling noise you hear is the increasing crescendo of Springfield's political scramble for the two places on the Township Committee in the coming elections. Six candidates seek the two places and the tempo of the campaign seems to indicate that the boys are shedding their kid gloves and preparing for some real punching in the few weeks remaining before the election.

The day of the "boss" who can deliver the vote is out of the window. If there were a real issue in Springfield, there might be some targets to shoot at in this campaign but it resolves itself to the old political adage where the "ins" want to stay in and the outs want to go their feet in the door. Except, of course, everybody wants to improve the administration of government.

As in every political campaign, there are rumors wherever you look. Rumors of deals—rumors that there is still talk of a coalition ticket, rumors of skullduggery, bullet voting, some plain and fancy mud slinging and ticket splitting. All of which means that the voter today is alert—he can make up his own mind and there is no longer the herded citizen who is willing to be led to the voting machine and told which keys to turn down before pulling the lever.

Without meaning to take sides—or pointing with pride—Springfield's election this year gives the voter an opportunity to weigh the capabilities of the six candidates without any regard for party labels or party lines. We're a growing municipality and Springfield deserves the kind of a governing body that will keep its sights raised and aimed at a better community in the future. The two men who can best do that job are the men who should receive the nod from the voters.

The six candidates are your neighbors—men who either have business in Springfield or are residents. It should be an easy matter to find out about each one, his ability, his background, his personality, his fitness for the job.

Before getting too far away from the topic of politics, we believe one of the important issues of the current campaign should be the elimination of that "eye-sore" in the very center of the town—the corner of Morris, Flermer and Main. Of course, when the new shopping center comes—and, according to the renting agents—it is coming despite the scoffers and the doubters—it should improve that corner but, right now, we look the other way when visitors to Springfield ask "what's that going in the center of your town?"

Perhaps, the town fathers might explore the possibility of running Main street through the property and eliminate the terrific bottle neck which now causes considerable congestion at that point. Condemnation of part of the property would be necessary but bond issues could carry it and, we understand, the county might even take over the job of paving the new street.

This revives the project of a bus terminal at that point where passengers would be able to wait for service at one spot instead of boarding buses at intersections and corners.

We don't know how true the following is but Anthony J. Taddeo, proprietor of Regional luncheonette known as Taddeo's Super-Gossip Center, says it was related to him by a bus driver.

A nice lady, who evidently had not been in Springfield for several months boarded a Somerset bus in Newark and asked the driver to be sure to let her off "in the Springfield center, opposite the bank."

When the bus arrived at the nice lady's destination, the driver told her that "this was Springfield-Center." She looked through the bus window toward the bank and, knowing nothing of the alteration job being done by the Springfield First National, calmly told the driver he was mistaken. "I know Springfield very well and my landmark was a rather weather-beaten building on that particular corner." However, when the driver explained that she was alighting at the right corner, she consented to step out of the bus and, before starting to walk the remainder of her journey, wanted at the corner and admired the Colonial atmosphere of the freshly painted building.

Republican

We are in the process of adopting an ordinance for the installation of parking meters on Morris Avenue. This ordinance is designed to give the Township a means of revenue to produce desirable light development in Springfield. As a result of our efforts in this direction, we have attracted several "home" industries and businesses to town, to wit: General Electric, Public Service, Channel Lumber Co., Safeway Stores, Hufman & Boyle and the like. This program has produced over $100,000.00 yearly additional tax revenues with another $100,000.00 in tax revenues in the works. These taxes received from the foregoing companies help to defray the cost of education for our children and the many other Municipal services.

We have installed modern traffic lights at Milltown Road and Milltown Avenue, at Salted Street and Morris Avenue, and replaced the outdated traffic lights at Mountain Avenue and Shunpike Road. We have strongly urged the State to cooperate with us in the installation of traffic signals at Morris Avenue and Battle Hill Avenue as well as Morris Avenue and Short Hills Avenue. We will continue to press the State for the installation of these lights and any other traffic signals for which our traffic surveys will reveal a need. It should be noted here that traffic signals cannot be installed along State Highways without approval of the State Motor Vehicle Department.

For Flood Survey

We have ordered an Engineering Survey of all flood areas in town so as to determine the problems and the methods of alleviation. We have also pressed the County and State for assistance in this direction and have met and will continue to meet with County and State Agencies for that purpose.

We are continuing to cooperate with all service organizations such as the Red Cross, First Aid Squad and the various service men's organizations. We have been and will continue to provide Visiting Nurse Services which are available to all of the residents of Springfield.

We have made widespread changes in our zoning ordinances designed to give greater protection to our residential areas. We are presently, in cooperation with the Planning Board, working on a program designed to promote business and industrial growth within suitable areas in town and without threatening the character of our basically suburban community.

We are studying a forward-looking program to promote and protect the trees in town so as to help maintain the general appearance of our streets.

Our Road Department has been and is always ready to serve the people in town in keeping the streets clean, the sewers clean, the drainage ditches open and to provide the other day to day services.

We have in the works a codification of all of our Municipal ordinances. Very shortly this will be available to our citizens who will easily be put in touch with it or the legislation that has been enacted in the furtherance of their interests. In connection with this program, our Ordinances and various Codes will be studied and necessary changes will be made.

We have recently completed alterations within Town Hall designed to bring about the greatest possible utilization of available space. We are presently engaged in painting the interior of Town Hall.

We have organized and continue to maintain a Civil Defense Program designed to give you needed guidance and protection in the event of enemy attack.

We have under consideration modernization and expansion of our public library. We would have done something in this direction before now but for the unfortunate fire which destroyed the building. We did not feel that you should be asked to pay for both at the same time.

Has Much Experience

Albert G. Binder, Republican candidate for re-election, has had five years of experience in Municipal Government on the Township Committee. During that time Springfield has grown to a greater extent than it had in any like period since its incorporation as a municipality. He has been confronted with almost every conceivable type of municipal problem and the know-how that he has acquired in coping with these problems, is irreplaceable.

Eugene F. Donnelly's success in business, in management and in executive capacities and his proven qualities of leadership qualify him as a running mate for Mr. Binder. Together they will make a great team. These men have something concrete to offer to Springfield. They make you no empty promises motivated only by a desire to entice your votes. They are pledged to give you the services you need at a price you can afford to pay.

Do not entrust your government to inexperienced office seekers who will experiment and learn at your expense. In Government, as well as in other endeavors, it is not wise to make changes in a proven successful administration.

In spite of these vast accomplishments, we were able to reduce the tax rate last year by 28 cents.

We advocate a study of the form of Municipal Government which is best suited to the needs of our Township. We will continue to re-examine our various departments so as to bring you the maximum services for minimum dollars.

We urge that you continue Republicans in office and Springfield will continue to be a community in which you will be proud to live.

Board Chooses

At the present time he has a number of school projects under way, including the New Jersey State Teachers' College at Montclair, two schools in Wayne Township, and high schools in Belleville and in Baldwin, N. Y.

Mr. Schmittlein will now meet with the Board of Education and the school administration to discuss what should be embodied in the proposed new school, which it is anticipated will have 14 classrooms and an all purpose room, and will be for kindergarten through fifth grades. It is expected that preliminary plans will be ready in a few weeks.

but not to question their subordination to the party inner circle. The right to elect the Township committee to seek ways to limit taxes, but not to question procedures which drive away potential industrial taxpayers.

The freights are just a few of the privileges the taxpayers receive for the heavy tax burden they carry, but as can be seen, they each have a string attached. So long as party politicians are allowed to control Township affairs, misinterpreting patience for complacency, they will continue on their merry way—replying to pleas for improved government with meaningless words and financing their extravagance out of the taxpayer's pocketbook.

The internal squabbles of the political parties in Town have reduced them to a state of decay and rendered them incapable of assuming the responsibility of leadership. The vision of their leaders has become warped and they have completely forgotten the real purpose for which they exist. To expect either party to produce the solution to the community's problems is being unrealistic. They have neither the necessary talent within their inner circle from which to draw nor do they have the interests of the entire Town at heart.

The only sure way to provide a worthy government for Springfield is to re-educate the party politicians on Election Day—and to vote for the Independent Candidates, Thomas A. Argyris and Francis J. Keane. They recognize that citizens' interests are servants of the people—not masters. They know that it is essential that the citizens of Springfield receive the maximum of efficient government at a minimum of expense. They realize that this can best be accomplished by utilizing the specialized talent available among our citizens and by doing first things first in the order of their importance to the community as a whole. The election of these Independent Candidates, Argyris and Keane, is your job—you owe it to yourself and to your fellow citizens.

Jewish Group Plans "M" Day Oct. 25

"M" Day for the Springfield Jewish Community Group will be Sunday afternoon, OCTOBER 25, at the notes membership and on that day most of the members will be out soliciting eligible families to join the group. The goal for "M" Day is 100 per cent membership enrollment.

The Group's Adult Education Program commences on October 26 with the following seminars offered: Current Affairs, Sketching, Music Appreciation, Jewish History, Holidays on Customs, Child Guidance and Dramatics. With the exception of Child Guidance, which will include lectures by visiting professional experts, the emphasis of the entire program is informality and lively discussion. Exact dates and meeting places may be obtained by calling M. Kappistatter, 4588 R. or at 39 Glenview Dr.

The Group meets October 21 at the Legion Hall at 6:30 p.m. The program schedules Arnold Harris, speaker on the topic of Channukah. Mr. Harris is Executive Secretary of the Community Relations Committee of the Jewish Community Council of Essex County.

Township Prepares Defense in Suit

Springfield's Township Committee is preparing to defend a suit filed this week in the Superior Court in which Camptown, Inc., of 280 South Springfield Avenue seeks to force Reuben Marsh Township building inspector, the Township Committee and the Planning Board to grant a building permit to construct a dwelling in Cambridge terrace.

Harry Rothberg, head of Camptown, Inc., developers of Springfield property, alleges that Marsh on orders from the Township Committee and the Planning Board, has refused to issue a permit. The complaint states that specifications and plans for the building were submitted on October 2 and several days later, Marsh informed the company that the permit would not be given.

Rothberg and the Township Committee have been at odds because according to the governing body, the necessary curbing and sidewalks had not been built by Camptown on his other jobs in compliance with the Springfield code. According to the Township officials the developer has not been willing to assure conformance with regulations and post bond as required.

Beverly Scores A Touchdown!

The Sun office is in a state of... Beverly Rappaport, but the news reached us that she had become engaged and rather than have her write her own "walking-on-the-clouds" version of the announcement, we turned it over to our sports department with this result:

Mr. and Mrs. Max Rappaport, owners of the Spring Pharmacy... Beverly will be traded to the Goldberg Goliaths, a team well-known around Rydal, Pennsylvania and presently under the control of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Goldberg.

Miss Rappaport will be teamed up with L. J. Nolan M. Goldberg (USNF) who in the past held the NCAA record for making passes without interception. However, if you sports enthusiasts will recall in past games between the two teams, Beverly had intercepted nearly 94 per cent of all the passes Nolan had made. Prediction: The new combination should lead all others in ground gained and eventually come up with the only football team that can boast of at least four water-boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stender, chairman of the Youth Conservation Department, has announced that the new coordinator of Volunteer Services at Overlook Hospital is making some excellent changes in the program for Junior Volunteers. The minimum age is being lowered to fifteen for example. Details will be forthcoming soon.

The regular joint meeting of the Youth Conservation and Civics Departments will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Stender, 4 Lyons place, on Tuesday, October 20, at 8:30 P.M. Because the police department is considering the advisability of licensing bicycles, the police commissioner and a member of the police force have been invited to be present at this meeting to discuss the various aspects of this proposal. All club members who are interested in this project are urged to attend this meeting. Those who have suggestions to offer, but who might find it impossible to be present, may make their opinions known by telephoning Mrs. Stender, before the meeting.

Have you a picture you would like to exhibit? The Art Department is sponsoring an art exhibit to be held on the Library Lawn, Saturday, October 24, and Sunday, October 25. Besides showing paintings and drawings, the department is planning to have a ceramic display. Any residents of Springfield are invited to enter some of their work.

See you at the Fall Fashion Show!

Springfield Juvenile Crime Low; County Shows Rise

The exact number isn't available but Springfield had less than 20 children of the 83 youngsters who appeared as defendants in Juvenile Court according to a report published recently by Judge Libby E. Sachar, who presides over Union County's Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. The report showed a 6 per cent increase in Juvenile Court complaints and an 18 per cent in the number of defendants who appeared before Judge Sachar's court, compiled by John D. McCarthy, her court clerk, for the twelve-month period ending September 1, 1953. September 1 is the start of the court year for statistical purposes.

The figures showed that a total of 406 complaints was referred to Juvenile Court in the last twelve months, compared with 382 for the previous twelve months. The cases in 1952-53 involved 791 defendants and those in 1951-52 671 defendants. In both years some of the children were in court on more than one occasion, a condition more prevalent in 1951-52 than in the last year.

Of the 883 children who appeared before her, including the "repeaters"—412—were from Elizabeth, 213 from Plainfield, twenty from Union, fifty from Linden, forty-four from Rahway, thirty-nine from Hillsdale, thirty-nine from Westfield and twenty-seven from Cranford. The other county committee had fewer than twenty, and only New Providence had none.

Your Library

During the month of September 48 new persons registered at the Springfield Public Library. With other members of the library you have already borrowed 2,889 books. Other volumes have been added here for reference and school work. This is welcome news. The value of a library is not in its size but its usefulness to a community. Every new borrower increases the worth of our books.

Some of you have raised two points that should be cleared up. One is the location of the building itself. We are at number 30 Main Street—That's just a block from the intersection of Main Street and Morris Avenue. There is a sign in front and the building itself is white with green blinds. It was once a residence and is a landmark of which Springfield is justly proud.
