Bulldogs Look For Upset Win Against Rahway In Grid Battle Here Today

Expected Crowd of 10,000 To Witness Traditional Turkey Day Classic

By DON HALESGUT

Springfield Regional and Rahway High come to grips this Thanksgiving morning for the sixteenth traditional battle at Springfield, and each has high hopes of coming out on top.

The words in the Bulldog camp were "Stop Killings and Lewis," and over at the Scarlets' quarters it was "Stop MacKenzie and Coles." And yet none of these troopers may emerge the hero. Both clubs, manned by Regional's John Brown and Rahway's Bill Burns, are in the best of condition, and the contest may prove to be the best ever.

Scarlet-Indians Lead Series

Although Rahway leads in this rivalry by 12 to three with one tie, it was not until 1946 that the affair brought state-wide attention. For the last six years the Group 3 state championship was at stake. And each season saw surprising results.

1946 saw Regional High entering the game with an unbeaten record of eight straight and Rahway had an even 4-4 affair. The undefeated Bulldogs led 7-0 at the half but Don Applegate's performance in the second half led Rahway to a 12-7 upset.

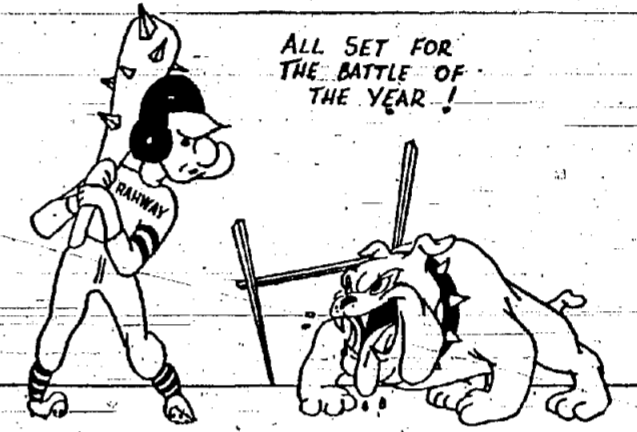

In 1947 the game was switched to the Springfield arena, where Bill Brown's Bulldogs, sporting a 7-1 record after its opening day loss to Summit, were to tangle with a powerful unbeaten Rahway eleven. The game was considered a toss-up but Regional romped to a 38-0 victory, its worst defeat suffered by the Indians since 1938.

Again, the following year, Riverside Park played host to the Blue and Orange, who again were unbeaten in eight games. Rahway had the 7-1 mark, and looking to opening day opposition, Dover. The game was a repeat performance of 1946. The Bulldogs led at half-time 7-0 on Frank Chorley's 94 yard touchdown jaunt, but again Rahway rallied to win 13-7.

Up to then Regional had won 31 of 84 games and Rahway had lost only two of 26, yet neither team had been able to complete an unbeaten season. In each of those three campaigns, the undefeated fell to the already beaten rival.

In 1949 however, Rahway and Regional were both undefeated. The Indians, with 16 consecutive victories and a new school record of 271 points for eight games, also has the state's highest scorer in Nate Smith with 125 points. The Regional unbeaten machine boasted Ken Belliveau, Frank Vicendese, and Company, and was considered to be the best in the school's history. Bill Brown's troop won

PTA Observes Back To School Night

Back To School Night, a yearly program feature, drew a record attendance at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of the Jonathan Dayton High School in the auditorium recently.

Parents followed their children's schedule through a typical school day, met the teachers and saw the various new rooms in the new Annex to the school.

Warren W. Halsey, Superintendent of the High School, spoke briefly about the additional High School planned for Clark Township and invited the parents to view the architect's picture of the new project.

Mrs. John Mayer, chairman of the Variety Show planned for February, asked for auditions in the six municipalities to secure the necessary talented people.

Table decorations were in the Thanksgiving Day theme. Mrs. George Casseia, Hospitality chairman was assisted by the following women: Mrs. Fred Rathjen, Mrs. Peter Witkowski, Mrs. Eugene Schiller, Mrs. Charles Schiller from Clark Township; the Mrs. Joseph Casale, Mrs. Anthony Casale, Mrs. Richard Wahl, Mrs. Anthony Riccardio from Garwood; Mrs. Harold Danielson, President, conducted the short business meeting.

Ask Lions To Help In Regional Vote

Past president of the Springfield Lions, Raymond W. Forbes, delivered a very enlightening talk at the last meeting of the Lions Club of Springfield. Mr. Forbes, who is president of the Board of Education for the Union County Regional High School District No. 1, based his discussion upon the coming special election, Monday, November 30, involving the expansion plan for the Regional school system.

His sound thoughts and convictions were openly discussed by the Lion members, during a question and answer period, at which questions were directed to Forbes and the other board members from Springfield; also a past president, William J. Melick. Forbes requested that a vote of "yes" on the proposal be made by the Lion members. He further stated that as many people from Springfield should come out for the election as it is a matter of vital importance for them, and should not be neglected as has happened so frequently in the past.

At the next regular meeting, to be held next Friday evening, the scheduled speaker will be Robert Proctor whose subject will be "Life and Safety." Mr. Proctor is a safety agent with the Civil Aeronautics Administration and is being supplied to the Lion's Club by the National Air Transport Coordinating Committee.

The Shunpike Civic Association held its regular monthly meeting at the Baltusrol Golf Club. Many local topics were under discussion but the one considered most vital pertained to an appeal which is to be made to the Highway Commission to have black top put on Morris Avenue to cover the trolley tracks.

The guessing of the mystery package was won by Mrs. J. Cottrage of 38 Shunpike Road.

Dr. Nathan Vogel of 297 Morris avenue treated Mrs. Esther Scharf, 49 years old, of 810 Easton parkway, Brooklyn, after a three-car crash in Route 23 Sunday night police reported. She suffered a leg injury.

Police listed the drivers of the three cars, all in the eastbound lane of the highway, as Mrs. Lottie Fisher, 45, of 208 Berger street, Plainfield; Raymond R. Dennis, 17, of 222 West End avenue, Newark; and David Scharf, 29, of the Brooklyn address.

Mrs. Foster and Mr. Dennis were stopped, according to police, when the Scharf car crashed into the rear of the Dennis sedan, forcing it into the Foster car. Scharf's car was towed away.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE

Aroused residents in the vicinity of Morris avenue east of Meisel avenue up to the Union line are organizing to register formal and emphatic protest, and demands that something be done by the authorities to slow down the reckless speeders who roar by in both directions on the Springfield Speedway without any regard for intersections or pedestrians attempting to cross over to the other side.

Written complaints have been sent to the State Highway Department and even to Governor Alfred E. Driscoll's office, pointing out the necessity for something that will cut down the speed of the motorists on this section of Morris avenue.

The Highway Department does not install traffic signals until such action is approved and recommended by the Bureau of Traffic Safety. The report is that officials of Safety Bureau were in Springfield last week making a study of traffic conditions in this section of Morris avenue and the Highway Department is expecting that a report of these recommendations will be made within the next few weeks.

Residents in this area point out that it is impossible even for adults to cross Morris avenue because of the speeding cars in both directions and the children are never able to manage it without having some one help them against the onrushing traffic. It is the hope of parents that some electrical device could be installed to cut down the speed of the cars just enough to enable crossing the avenue—or permit other cars coming out of any one of the intersecting streets.

Just how the Safety Bureau and the State Highway Department hope to cure the situation is not clear but a traffic signal—not the blinker type—any place between Meisel avenue and east toward the Union line—would have the desired effect in curtailing the speed with which motorists now whiz by on Morris avenue.

The Township Committee is in sympathy with the residents of this section of Morris avenue but since it is a state highway matter, the installation of traffic signals is entirely in the hands of that state department.

Politics will not take a holiday—even during the Thanksgiving Day week—and there are as many rumors popping around as ever.

The one most repeated is that Police Commissioner Albert G. Binder is going to be the new mayor to replace Robert W. Marshall who, for the time being, at least, retires to the quiet of being a private citizen. Mr. Binder is, no doubt, more eligible than any of the others by virtue of his five years' experience in office—but this isn't always the accepted formula in political appointments. However, the story has it that there is a general agreement that Binder is qualified and deserves to be named.

Following closely on the heels of this rumor comes the report that Thomas A. Argyris, one of the independent candidates in the recent elections for Township Committee, would get the nod for the place to be vacated soon by Township Committeeman Fred A. Brown. Mr. Brown has been ill for several months and the rumor has it that his resignation may be accepted at the organization meeting and Argyris appointed to complete his term with the understanding that he will be a candidate next Fall.

All of which, of course, is conjecture but, if true, a very clever piece of political planning. Argyris represents a threat in any election and, appointing him to the vacancy would follow one of the oldest rules of the old line political bosses who know that "if you can't beat 'em, join 'em."

What will happen to the present Mayor "Bob" Marshall hasn't been kicked around much by the rumor boys. Marshall has a terrific following and the last time he was asked about the future, he was very emphatic in stating that he liked Springfield, sees a very fine future for the Township and does not intend to retire from the political life of the community.

There are two schools of thought whenever the question of bringing industry to Springfield is made the topic of conversation.

Since the Township is smack in the center of industrial progress, the Sun believes that every acceptable industry should be encouraged to locate here and given every concession to make certain that they DO come here. There are others who still believe in the shop-worn "oasis for jangled nerves" sentiment and no industry is "acceptable" as far as they are concerned.

However, the zoning laws of any community which serve as the bulwark against the invasion of industry in sections set aside for residence, should not be violated.

The Planning Board and Township fathers are now confronted with a problem which must be handled with diplomacy because of the ramifications and the bad tempers that may result from any decision made. This concerns what is known as the Hasleman property on South Springfield avenue, going towards highway 22. The owners of this property have several bids from industries to locate there and the report has it that unless permission is granted and a change made in the existing zoning limitations, they threaten to go ahead with another development on this site.

Just how the township authorities are going to meet this challenge no one would say—but there has been a lot of shouting and pounding on the table and something should break very shortly. One family house would be acceptable on this property, according to the story, but the authorities frown upon any more developments.

The United States letter carriers, those dependable, persevering, hard-working public servants, deserves a vote of gratitude from the American people for their proposed errand of mercy on behalf of the hundreds of thousands of unfortunate victims of muscular dystrophy. Uncle Sam's men in blue-grey uniforms are preparing to go on a mission which takes them far beyond the call of duty.

After Thanksgiving, each of these public servants, 100,000 members of the National Association of Letter Carriers, supported by their national president, William C. Doherty, will take on the added burden of re-walking his route—to pick up contributions to aid victims of muscular dystrophy, a fatal disease. These funds are vitally needed to find a treatment and cure to save the lives of those afflicted by this dread crippling and fatal malady. Victims of this mysterious killer are principally children.

Heading the "Letter Carriers March" is U. S. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, who says of his men:

"A letter carrier on his daily rounds sees the joys and sorrows of those he serves. He sees the normal healthy child run and play. Then he is faced with the tragic sight of another child, wheelchair-bound and dying by inches of muscular dystrophy.

Some of our postal employees have children, relatives, and friends who are victims of this dread disease. Consequently they know first hand the tragedy of this dread and mysterious affliction which is 100 per cent fatal.

To aid those stricken with muscular dystrophy, the letter carriers of the nation, who so faithfully serve the public by delivering the mail are gladly and voluntarily putting in extra time after hours to collect the funds we feel certain generous Americans will want to give to this worthy cause."

It is up to the American public to support the efforts of these fine men who are giving so unselfishly of their time to help the nation's ailing children. Give generously when your letter carrier calls. If you should miss your letter carrier, you may send your donation to M.D.A., care of your local Postmaster.

There is no organized plan for Springfield's letter carriers to participate in this drive. Acting Postmaster George M. Turk said yesterday, although many of them are expected to volunteer.

"The turkey has the right of way at Thanksgiving," states William Green, president of the Motor Club of America (Automobile Association of New Jersey), "but, the bird might also be taken as a symbol of 'don't stick your neck out in traffic.'"

"Holidays can be happy days and unfortunately, sad days, as evidenced by the toll of holiday traffic accidents recorded each year.

"What's more American than pumpkin pie, and turkey with all the fixins. Thanksgiving is the time of visitation for family get-togethers. It's a time, however, that calls for vigilance on the part of every automobile driver. When we should give serious consideration to not only our own safety but to that of others.

"Accidents don't just happen—they are caused, and the traffic at Thanksgiving is unusually heavy, resulting in an unusual number of accidents on the highways.

"Thanksgiving is a time of celebration and the majority of us drink in moderation but even the mildest celebrant and usual careful driver without any obvious symptoms of intoxication, impairs his driving ability 25 per cent or more; becomes careless at the wheel through the increase of his casualness and self-confidence. Then there are the idiots who insist on testing out the formula of mixing alcohol and gasoline . . . and who, with bleary eyes and dulled senses step on the gas to give their car all it can take.

"Yes, Thanksgiving can also be the time of tragedy with increased traffic hazards. If we want to let ourselves go, let's consider the safety of others to whom the holiday means so much and stay away from the wheel.

"Let's celebrate and live."

Industry of Springfield

The attractive, vine-covered house at 642 Morris Turnpike appears to be a private home employing an exceptional gardener. However, the sign on the lawn gives evidence that this is the office of the Doggett-Pfeil Company, manufacturing chemists. The atmosphere on the outside goes within for the owners are not merely business associates—they are a family group of two generations with close ties that date back to 1921.

Sidney Doggett and Alfred Pfeil were childhood friends. Both worked with chemical concerns but felt there was a market for modern fertilizers. They started the Doggett-Pfeil Company in 1921—time when the chemistry of soil management and insect control was little understood.

Developed New Products
The initial years for Doggett and Pfeil were hard ones but these two men know the meaning of teamwork. The years saw the development of many new products. One of the early Doggett-Pfeil formulations was Springfield Rose Food, and the first specialty fertilizer developed in this county to meet the needs of commercial and private rose growers. Other products followed and the succeeding years brought small but steady progress to the partners and their company.

They successfully met the challenges and problems of the ensuing years—Japellent was developed when Japanese beetles were destroying gardens in the east and this product became a standard for beetle control.

During the depression years, many of the large estates to which the company was selling folded and Doggett-Pfeil had to look elsewhere for new sources of revenue. They began to develop concentrates that were more economical and started custom manufacturing. They delved into the line of auto polish and brake fluid under other labels.

War Encourages Gardening
With the advent of World War II and the importance of victory gardens, the Doggett-Pfeil Company entered the small package field and helped to supply the needs of home gardeners, while the Doggett-Pfeil Laboratories produced large quantities of insect repellent, soap, liniment powders and other products for the use of the Armed Forces. At the conclusion of the war, when DDT became available for civilian use, the company, with its Double DDT line, was the first manufacturer in the East to put DDT products on the market.

The Doggett-Pfeil Company has been in Springfield since 1926, maintaining another plant in Millburn. This general area is very central to the greenhouse growers who were their first interest. The present address was once a private home onto which an office section was built. An informal atmosphere remains in the roomy, warm executive office which welcomes its visitors with comfortable leather chairs, pine-paneled walls, a glowing fire in the fireplace and the pleasant charm of Alfred S. Pfeil, president and Sidney H. Doggett Jr., vice-president and son of the late Mr. Doggett. The year building, once a garage, is used for manufacture of fertilizer but mostly for storage.

The company employs 40 regularly, about 12 at the Springfield office. During the busy season they have as many as 100. Cater to Horticulture
The Doggett-Pfeil Company does not manufacture for agriculture. All their goods are quality products for horticulture and good gardening. Their aim is to make gardening simple for the professional. They are constantly cooperating with Garden Clubs and have put out literature and sponsored forums and clinics. Two years ago they held a program at Regional High School, featuring outstanding speakers who discussed and advised on the problems of local gardeners. They have also had a booth at the N. Y. flower show.

Very few of the products manufactured have any odor. The executives take pride in the fact that they have never received any complaints along that line—especially in Millburn where the plant is practically in the shopping district.

The steady growth of Doggett-Pfeil Company

Rotary Endorses Regional Proposal

The Rotary Club of Springfield has endorsed the proposal of the Regional Board of Education for the forthcoming referendum at its regular meeting held last Tuesday at Baltusrol Golf Club.

Rotarians urged voters in Springfield to vote on this important issue since an additional school in Clark Township would certainly relieve the overcrowded conditions for local students at Regional.

Superintendent W. W. Halsey gave a talk concerning this vital subject and pointed out that by 1962, the estimated school enrollment would be doubled. In the past, Halsey said, barely 12 percent of the registered voters came out to the polls making it a simple matter for organized opposition groups to get their way.

The Rotary Club feels it is the duty of every citizen to vote on this referendum since Springfield is definitely affected by the outcome.

"Give 'Em Watts" To Visit Society
Members of the "Give 'Em Watts" Society, recently organized local unit of the Children of the American Revolution, will visit the New Jersey Historical Society in Newark on Saturday. They will make a general tour of the building and will also see a movie about colonial days.

Plans for future meetings were made by the group last week at the home of Miss Judy Widmer, 10 Tulip rd., Junior President of the organization. Lieutenant R. C. Harrison, U.S.N.R., of Cranford, will be the guest speaker at the January meeting. Future activities will include a square dance, an exhibit of guns, a music program, and a swimming party.

A reliable reputation has grown along with the progress. From the days of Springfield Rose Food to the present time, the company which Sidney Doggett and Alfred Pfeil founded in 1921 has maintained a prominent position in the manufacture of special products for horticulture.

Sherry Scores for Williams

Bulldogs

27-7, completing its first unbeaten season.

The following year the Bulldogs again finished unbeaten but Rahway held the lead—a 7-7 tie, the only deadlock in the series.

Rahway Blasts Bulldogs
In 1951 and 1952 the Indians, unbeaten again, blasted Regional, in its rebuilding stage, 33-7 and 32-7.

This year's episode again promises to be a dilly. John Brown's "winged-T" is pitted against Rahway High's speed merchants, who still are in title consideration. The Bulldogs have a 4-4 record with Burns' outfit carrying a 6-1-1 mark into the game. However, one cannot compare scores to determine the winner. Past performances prove that Rahway has been established a full favorite, but the Regionals are determined to achieve revenge.

George MacKenzie and Larry Robinson are the only holdovers in Brown's regular backfield, and will probably carry most of the burden. They are supported by blocking-back Bob Colandrea and Ron Coles, the freshman sensation of the club. MacKenzie, of course, seems to be the guy Rahway must stop to emerge victor. George is the sparkplug of the club who can punt, run, and be the main target for "Cooks" DeBassie's aerial attack. His punt return and sensational all-round play has put him on top of the pile for county and state honors.

The big hopes in the Rahway attack are Homer Killings, triple-threat halfback, and Doug Lewis, considered about the best T-formation quarterback in these parts. Charlie and Walt Smith also figure prominently.

Although Rahway's more experienced and faster backfield holds the edge, the forward walls must be considered even. Both have weight, height, and experience. Brown's machine has Ed Ruby, county standout, and Bob Hill at the ends, with Harold Bollek and Jack Wyckoff also standing out. These are supported by Joe Holt-day and Ernie Barefield, a pair of huffy sophomores, and many others.

Bill Tombs and Mike Petrulis will lead the Rahway line.

Season Compared

Both teams this campaign have faced Linden, Roselle, and Westfield, with Burns' outfit murdering the trio 21-7, 27-6 and 20-13. The Bulldogs fared worst, beating only Roselle 18-0. Linden's 30-10 win and Westfield's 12-7 verdict were the last two defeats planned for the Homesteaders.

Should the Bulldogs upset the highly-favored Scarlet-Indians, they would avoid their first losing campaign since 1944. Since then the Bulldogs have won 58, lost 16 and tied four. Predictions are that Rahway's domination in the series will continue, with the Indians given a two touchdown margin. However, should MacKenzie and company start clicking, the Bulldogs will be rough.

"Since the formation of the Regional District, it has grown in wealth, as well as in population. Each town's share of the cost of operating the school is based on the ratio of its valuation to the total valuation of the six-pending areas.

"Since its opening in 1937, Jonathan Dayton Regional High School has shown a steady increase in student population. From an initial enrollment of 817 pupils, the 900 student capacity school grew to have an enrollment of 982 in 1950 and 1,037 in the fall of 1951. "At that time, realizing that already our children were being subjected to crowded classrooms and other inadequate conditions, you supported the Board of Education in its proposals, by voting to enlarge the building from 900 to 1,500 student capacity.

"Enrollment in the enlarged building, completed this fall, is 1,224 students, substantially the growth prediction table that was developed in 1952 and rechecked this spring.

"The growth prediction table, shown below, indicates an enrollment of 1,733 pupils in September, 1954. This figure exceeds the capacity of the present facilities by more than can be reasonably accommodated for even one year."

P. T. A. Plan to Hold Annual Card Party

The Springfield Parent-Teacher Association wishes to announce that its annual card party, held at P. T. A. Club which has become an institution in Springfield, will be held as usual this year. Because of conditions beyond its control the P. T. A. decided the card party this year inadvisable, but public feeling has been such that a date has been set for the evening of February 1 and arrangements are going forward for another enjoyable event for Springfield. Be sure of your baby sitter for that night and engage her early for that occasion.

Mrs. H. Kern, Finance Chairman, has arranged for an advance sale of tickets to be held prior to the regular meeting on Nov. 30, so get there early because tickets are few in comparison to the demand.

SPRINGFIELD SKETCHES

Because of the fast moving pace of life we Americans feel so many of us never have the opportunity to develop or give time to our special and latent talents. The business or professional man, the housewife or career girl, too often just don't have time for interests outside their daily routine.

H. W. Post of 223 South Springfield avenue is a man who always found time for his interest—art—and now in retirement has turned to it completely. Born in Amsterdam, Holland, Mr. Post began to paint on his own at the age of twelve. His father, an interior decorator who worked in the Queen's palace, gave his son the opportunity to see many things of beauty and to realize an appreciation for art.

At eighteen, Mr. Post won an art scholarship from the government academy. However, he also had a flair for chemistry and physics and felt it more practical to pursue a career in science rather than take the chance of becoming a struggling artist, as many did.

With the chemistry diploma in his hand, Mr. Post started a chemical factory in Amsterdam. After twenty-four years he was approached by an American Company of the same art which was interested in starting such a factory here. Mr. Post was selected to write progress and make the apparatus, and was then sent to Newark to begin production.

For twenty years he managed the factory and now in retirement is devoting all his time to painting a talent which has not diminished since childhood.

Having the great Dutch masters of art as an inspiration, it is no wonder that Mr. Post should speak with much enthusiasm of the Rijks Museum in Amsterdam which houses the most famous of Rembrandt's works and those of other artists.

"One need not go to Paris to see magnificent paintings," remarked Mr. Post. "Those in Amsterdam are the most beautiful in the world."

EXHIBITED IN CLUB SHOW
Since his full-time return to painting, Mr. Post exhibited three of his works in the Woman's Club Art Exhibit held recently. Two were scenes of Dutch home life, realistic in detail and warm in their portrayal of the wooden-shoed apron clad generation. The other, "Three Happy Fellows," is an expression of Mr. Post's feeling for the gay and jovial Italian country folk.

"Art is making nature real," said Mr. Post. "When I paint I forget everything—concentration is important. I try to consider every detail to give my paintings the quality of life. A painting must live, in its color as well as its subject matter."

After being shown many of the canvases displayed in Mr. Post's home, this interviewer feels that he has done well in "painting as he breathes." The portraits, landscapes and still lifes all have the quality of life. Those of the Dutch scenes, so close to Mr. Post's youth are especially full of warmth and sincerity.

Mr. Post has been married 41 years to his beautiful wife, Maria. His daughter, Maria Louisa, and his two grandchildren—live in Springfield also. His son is a pilot for the Royal Dutch Airlines and has sent his father intricate wood carvings from Ball and India. Mr. Post and his wife visit Amsterdam every two years to see many of their family still living there.

DOESN'T REGRET CHEMISTRY
"I don't regret having been a chemist," remarked Mr. Post.

H. W. POST

"Through the years I turned to painting as a hobby but now that I can devote all my time to it I would be interested in selling some of my canvases."

Mr. Post also finds time to work in ceramics. He has his own kiln in the basement of his home. He feels that more people should try their hand at some creative work—especially painting. "One never knows if he has an aptitude unless he tries to develop it," said Mr. Post.

"That aptitude which he has developed has certainly brought much pleasure to his family, friends and especially to himself."

BRUCE GENTRY

AT FELIX BROOKE'S SILVER MINE IN THE ANDES MOUNTAINS... BRUCE FINDS A HEADHUNTER'S BLOWGUN FROM WHICH SOMEONE PROJECTED A POISONED DART THAT MISSED BRUCE BY SCANT INCHES...

'BRONC SADDLER'
RODEO KING

DRAT THAT KID! IF HE HADN'T TACKLED ME-- I'D BE AWAY!

YOU'RE STILL HERE, BAYO-- GO LINE UP WITH YOUR PAL!

KEEP THEM COVERED, MISS GINGER-- AND DON'T LET THEM GET AN INCH OUT OF LINE!

I JUST HOPE THEY TRY-- PARTICULARLY BAYO!

YOU WAIT WITH GINGER, JINGLEBUTION, WHILE PECOS AND I RIDE AFTER JUTE JABROW AND THE REST!

GOOD LUCK, BRONC!

THEY MUST HAVE HEADED DOWN THEIR REGULAR TRAIL, BRONC!

THAT MEANS THEY'LL BE MEETING THE BOYS COMING BACK FROM TOWN!

EAR AHEAD, DOWN THE OLD TRAIL...

C'MON, MEN-- WE'RE TURNING BACK! THERE CAN'T BE MANY RANCHERS DOWN THERE IN THE VALLEY!

YOU SAID IT, JUTE-- AND WE'VE GOT THOSE CATTLE WE RUSTLED, TOO!

HOLD IT, BRONC! HORSES, COMING UP THE TRAIL!

YOU ALWAYS HAD AN EAR FOR HOOF BEATS, PECOS! HOW MANY WOULD THEY BE?

ENOUGH TO BE JUTE JABROW AND HIS GANG!

THAT MEANS THEY'RE HEADING BACK! WE'LL TAKE THE SIMPLE WAY TO STOP THEM!

YOU SAID THIS WAS THE EASY WAY!

I SAID THE SIMPLE WAY-- NOT THE EASY WAY! HEAVE HARDER, PECOS...

AND THERE SHE GOES! JUTE JABROW SPECIALIZED IN BLOCKING OFF OLD TRAILS! NOW IT'S HIS TURN TO GET CUT OFF!

YOU'RE UNDER ARREST, JUTE-- YOU AND THE OTHER RUSTLERS!

HAVE IT YOUR WAY, SHERIFF!

HOME AGAIN-- AND ONLY YESTERDAY, WE WERE SAYING NOTHING EVER HAPPENED AROUND HERE!

THAT SHOWS HOW EASILY YOU CAN FOOL YOURSELF, MISS GINGER! WHY, YOU NEVER KNOW WHAT TOMORROW MAY BRING!

HOW RIGHT BRONC SADDLER IS! A NEW ADVENTURE IS ALREADY LOADING FOR MISS GINGER JONES-- IF SHE ONLY KNEW IT!

CAPTIVE ABOARD A PIRATE SHIP IN COMMAND OF CAPTAIN SABRE, THE YOUNG BUCCANEER REFUSES TO OBEY THE PIRATE'S ORDERS, AND FIGHTS WIN IN A DUEL.

AS A BULLET SMASHES INTO THE RIGGING, CAPT. SABRE RELEASES HIS HOLD ON THE YOUNG MAN.

AHOY! WHAT WAS THAT?

AT THIS SUDDEN DIVERSION, THE BUCCANEER THROWS A TERRIFIC PUNCH...

RUNNING OUT OF ITS HIDDEN COVE, A SPANISH VESSEL IS TO CUT OFF THE PIRATE SHIP'S RETREAT...

MEANWHILE, SAILING CLOSE TO SHORE, THE SPANISH SHIP READIES A WARNING BROADSIDE AT THE PIRATE SHIP...

CAPTAIN GALAXY

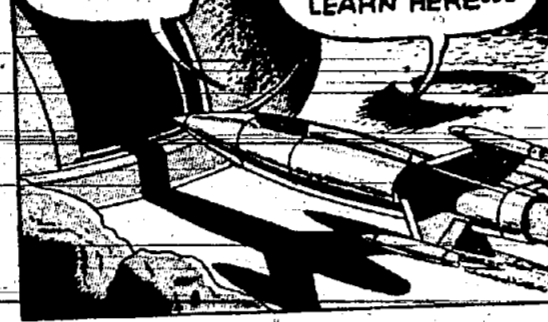

EASILY, I GUIDED THE STRANGE SHIP THAT CAPT. GALAXY HAD ENTRUSTED TO US TO THE FAR SIDE OF THE MOON, WHICH IS UNFORTUNATELY BEYOND SIGHT OF EARTH... BUT IN OUR WAKE, WE LEFT A MESSENGER ROCKET, JETTED EARTHWARD.

MY COMPANIONS WERE DUBIOUS BUT HOPEFUL WHEN WE LANDED AT GALAXY'S BASE...

I STILL THINK WE SHOULD HAVE HEADED FOR EARTH! CAPT. GALAXY MAY HAVE BLUFFED ABOUT THE SHIP EXPLODING IF WE DID!

BUT WE STILL HAVE MUCH TO LEARN HERE...

PROVIDED CAPT. GALAXY DOESN'T SPY OUR MESSENGER ROCKET AS HE RETURNS!

IT SHOULD BE NEARING EARTH BY THEN!

ITS AUTOMATIC JETS SHOULD PROPEL IT THROUGH EARTH'S ATMOSPHERE LIKE A METEORITE...

QUIET! YOU DON'T KNOW HOW SOON CAPT. GALAXY WILL BE BACK!

REALLY CALLED THAT TURN! HARDLY HAD I SPOKEN WHEN A DOOR SLID OPEN, REVEALING CAPT. GALAXY!

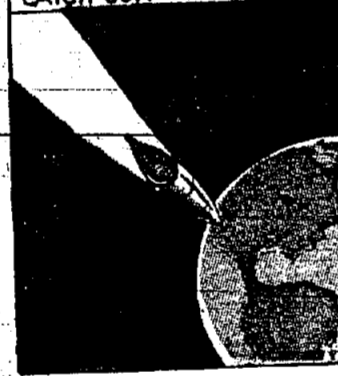

YOU LEFT ME AT THE SULPHUR MINES, YET YOU FIND ME HERE. HOWEVER, I AM NOT TWINS-- STEP IN AND LEARN THE ANSWER!

I CAME IN A SWIFTER SHIP, WHICH I CALL THE YXALAG. THIS MODEL EXPLAINS ITS CONSTRUCTION. THE OUTER SHELL ROTATES THROUGH SPACE, WHILE THE INNER CYLINDER ROTATES IN THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION, PROVIDING ARTIFICIAL GRAVITATION, YET MAINTAINING A CONSTANT LEVEL!

AS WE STUDIED THE MODEL, WE TRIED NOT TO THINK OF OUR EARTH-BOUND MESSAGE FOR FEAR GALAXY MIGHT CATCH OUR THOUGHTS...

MEANWHILE, AN OBSERVATORY IN EASTERN U.S.A. SPOTTED OUR MESSENGER AS IT REACHED EARTH'S ATMOSPHERE...

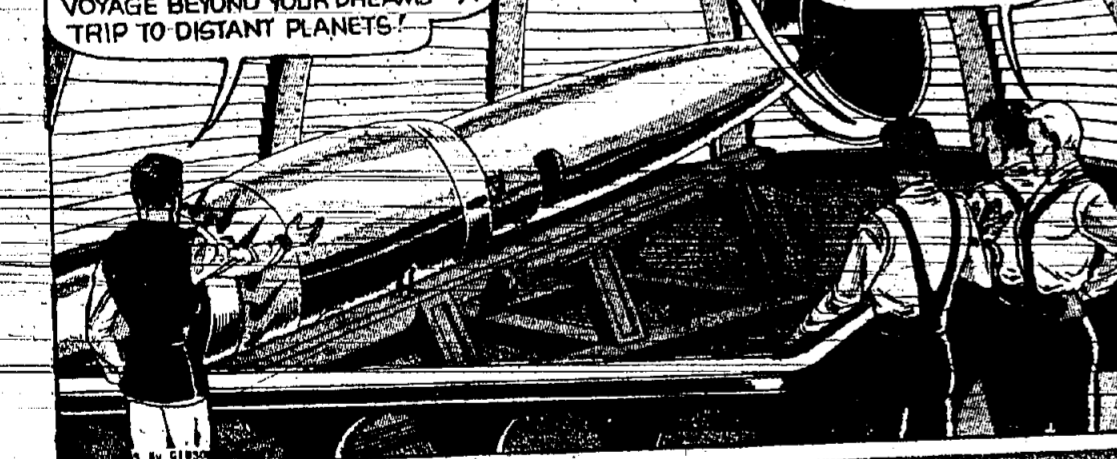

A METEORITE! IT WILL LAND SOMEWHERE IN THE ATLANTIC!

HERE, MY FRIENDS, IS THE YXALAG ITSELF, READY TO TAKE US ON A VOYAGE BEYOND YOUR DREAMS-- A TRIP TO DISTANT PLANETS!

AH, GUSTAV! WE ARE GUINEA PIGS AGAIN!

BUT MORE FORTUNATE GUINEA PIGS THIS TIME, I HOPE!

OUR MESSAGE WAS PICKED UP BY FISHERMEN FROM THE ISLE OF MIGUELON, TOO LATE TO INTERRUPT OUR TRIP INTO OUTER SPACE!

C'EST UNE LETTRE DE PROF. EDOUARD DUPREZ, ECRITE SUR LA LUNE!

IMPOSSIBLE!

DEBBIE DEAN

OH, BILL-- I MUST FIND SOME WAY TO ENTERTAIN MY SCOUT TROOP! CAN'T YOU HELP?

GIVE IT NO FURTHER CARE! I SHALL SETTLE YOUR PROBLEM HERE NOW, AND FOR ALL!

ACROBATICS-- CHARADES-- CONSEQUENCES-- JUGGLING-- AH, THIS IS IT!

A FEW DAYS LATER...

I PUSH THE SILK HANKY INTO THE PAPER CONE--

AND IT'S VANISHED!

I SEE IT STICKING FROM YOUR SLEEVE!

DON'T WORRY, DEBBIE-- I'LL WOW THEM WHEN I PULL A BUNNY FROM THIS HAT--

I SEE THE BUNNY ALREADY!

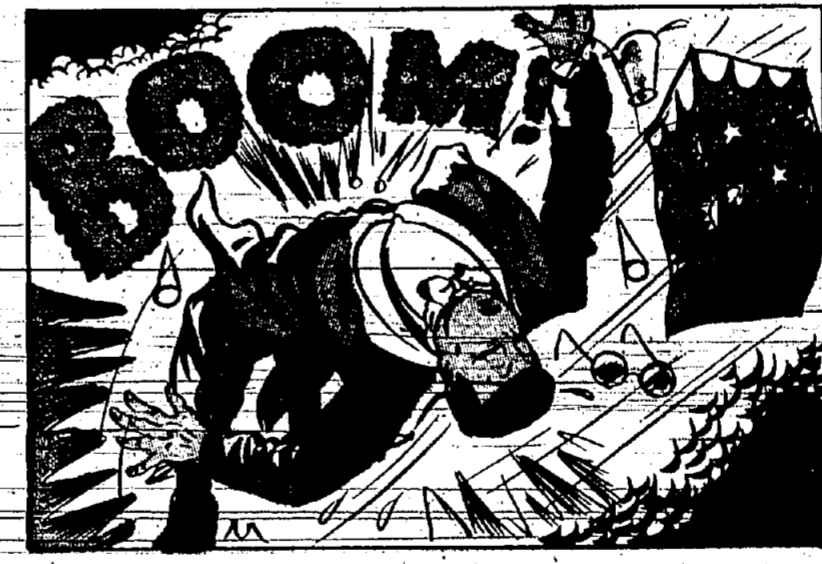

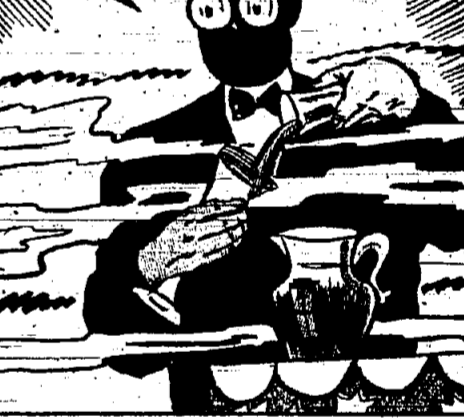

THIS WINE-TO-WATER TRICK IS DONE WITH CHEMICALS! IT CAN'T MISS!

GOOD! I'LL DROP THE CURTAIN WHEN YOU FINISH!

WATCH CLOSELY NOW--

I MUST HAVE COPIED THE WRONG FORMULA!

OH, NO, YOU DIDN'T! THAT TOTAL DISAPPEARANCE WAS THE ONE GOOD TRICK IN YOUR SHOW!

COMPLETELY NEW EDUCATIONAL TOY

3 DIMENSIONAL

DOLL'S DRESSMAKER DUMMY

ONLY $3

LOOK, MOM, WHAT I MADE WITH MY ANN BALDWIN 3-D CLUB KIT!

Here's a brand new idea in an educational toy that any little girl who likes to dress up dolls will want. Mothers, teachers, and Dad, too, will rave at how easy it is to assemble the dress form without adult assistance... and how this constructive toy helps develop creative ability in smart little girls.

The dressmaker dummy comes flat, all ready to cut out just like a paper doll, from a sturdy, attractive, pink-colored Bristol card stock. Simple step-by-step instructions guide little fingers into shaping the four cut-out pieces into a real dressmaker's dummy for 12" to 17" dolls. In fact, this 3-dimensional doll's dressmaker dummy is a miniature of the adjustable, life-size ANN BALDWIN DRESS FORM now being advertised nationally in Vogue, McCall's, Simplicity and other pattern magazines.

The doll's dressmaker dummy kit comes in a colorful 11 1/2 x 11 1/2 gift package that will look decorative under the Christmas tree. Send check or MO for $3. Sorry, no CODs. But we pay the postage.
