

March Of Dimes Campaign Gets Under Way Here

Solicitation for polio funds in Springfield which has been delayed almost three weeks by the last minute announcement from George M. Turk, former chairman, that he "will not work in the campaign this year" will get under way immediately with the acceptance by J. Leo Moran and Felix G. Forlenza as chairman and treasurer of the annual March of Dimes drive in the township.

J. LEE MORAN
Fund Chairman

FELIX G. FORLENZA
Fund Treasurer

Mr. Moran has agreed to take over the Springfield chairmanship and as soon as Mr. Turk, who has served as head of the Infantile Paralysis campaign here for many years, turns over all the records to the two new local March of Dimes leaders, the entire township will be covered.

Mr. Forlenza, who is an attorney with offices at 269 Morris avenue, has consented to help the worthwhile cause by acting as treasurer of the local campaign and all contributions can be addressed to him or just "March of Dimes," Springfield, N. J.

Mail It Now
"Springfield has been very generous in the past," said Mr. Forlenza, "and it is hoped that those who have been contributors will respond to this call. Mr. Moran has consented to give considerable time to the campaign and even though we have lost several weeks because headquarters assumed that the local drive was well on its way, all of us feel confident that the response will result in even a greater amount of support than last year—since the need is so much greater in 1955."

Edward Whalen, county chairman of the polio drive, announced appointment of Messrs. Moran and Forlenza yesterday and asks all Springfield contributors of the past to immediately mail their contributions to the Springfield treasurer, Mr. Forlenza, so that the Township may once again be one of the leaders in the state in the amount of money raised.

"Polio is a disease which leaves in its wake many patients who require expensive long-term aid," Mr. Moran said. "There were 83 cases reported in the County of

Start Use Of Anniversary Cancellation Stamp

NEW COMMEMORATIVE STAMP—Top picture shows Abel V. Del Vecchio, Springfield Postmaster and Miss Florence M. Gaudineer, Vice President of the Springfield Historical Society looking over one of the first of the letters cancelled with the new die which commemorates the 175th anniversary of the Battle of Springfield. In the lower picture are the members of the post office who participated in the short ceremony inaugurating the new stamp. Left to right—Postmaster Del Vecchio; Arthur Bjorstad, Dispatching Clerk; William Corby, Assistant Postmaster; and Jack Fisher, Superintendent of Mails.

Over 125,000 pieces of mail will be sent from Springfield between this week and June 30, bearing the special cancellation marker, commemorating the 175th anniversary of the Battle of Springfield which was placed in use at the local post office for the first time this past Monday.

The die, used to cancel stamps on all mail going out of Springfield, now bears the wording "175th Anniversary" on the first line, "Battle of Springfield" on the second and "June 23, 1780" on the third. This was recently authorized by Postmaster General Summerfield in compliance with a request made by Postmaster Abel V. Del Vecchio on behalf of Magistrate Henry C. McMullen, president of the Springfield Historical Society.

Postmaster Del Vecchio stated that he held nearly 600 letters for the official first day use of the cancellation die among them being stamp collectors who requested that the letters be mailed when the die is first placed in use.

Miss Florence M. Gaudineer, vice president of the Springfield Historical Society, participated in the ceremonies at the post office Monday noon when the cancellation die among them being stamp collectors who requested that the letters be mailed when the die is first placed in use.

Mrs. Beardsley Accepts Palsy Chairmanship

Mrs. Gladys Beardsley, of 163 Tooker Ave., who recently accepted local chairmanship of the 1955 Cerebral Palsy fund-raising drive, today announced some details of the coming campaign, which is part of a National effort to raise 10 million dollars to combat this dread affliction.

Mrs. Beardsley stated that the month of February has been designated for collecting the funds needed to continue operation of the Cerebral Palsy Center, 636 Salem Avenue, Elizabeth, where Union County children are being treated. Many of these attending various classes there on a five-day-a-week schedule. Previous Cerebral Palsy campaigns, Mrs. Beardsley explained, have been conducted in May.

Public knowledge of Cerebral Palsy is exceedingly slight, declared the local chairman. That is probably because it is not one of those spectacular "killers" which heads the mortality lists each year. However, it is an affliction which affects an estimated 10,000 babies each year, because of injury at birth, while other children and adults may become afflicted later in life because of serious illness or an accident.

Mrs. Beardsley emphasized the need for continuing the expanded program which was initiated more than a year ago at the Center in Elizabeth as the result of public support in previous campaigns. The stepped-up program, she remarked, has enabled physical, occupational, and speech therapists at the Center to give those children who need it attention every week-day instead of just once or twice a week. It has also made it possible to admit more new cases for treatment.

As in previous years, 75 per cent of all the contributions received will be used in Union County. The remaining 25 per cent will be used to aid in a continuing national research and training program.

Township In Suit On Home Building

The Township of Springfield is preparing to defend a suit filed last Monday in the Superior Court in Elizabeth seeking to void stipulations against the building of homes on a 14 lot tract of land at South Maple Street and Riverside Drive, which was purchased last August at a public auction.

"The property was purchased by Daniel Rajoppi of 37 Linden avenue, and the stipulation in the notice of the public auction stated that "no building shall be erected on any portion of the land to be conveyed."

Application for a permit was made last month and denied. The plaintiff in the action claims that the "ruling" was against public policy and not for the benefit of the land.

Representative groups of Regional High School will appear on Ted Steele's Teen Show on WOR-TV, channel 9 on Friday, January 21 between 5 and 6 p.m. as part of the regularly scheduled weekly telecast featuring the accomplishments and achievements of high school students.

The fifteen minutes allotted to Regional High School will be used to highlight varied phases of the high school program. Ten Regional cheerleaders will demonstrate and execute a few of the cheers. A forum group composed of four host students and their foreign guests will hold a short discussion. A scientific experiment will be demonstrated. In addition, dancing couples, composed of Regional students, will be seen in the background during much of the program. One of the features of the telecasts is a demonstration of the Tesla Coil by Jules Madey, a freshman from Clark. The agriculture exhibit will include trophies and other awards won by Regional students as well as many phases of the agricultural program.

Accompanying the group of students will be Mr. Adam La Sota, Mrs. Martha Stang, Miss Pauline Keith, and Mr. Alex Kropnicki. The trip to the television studio was sponsored by the Regional Board of Education to aid students in studio procedure and to project Regional High School before the public.

Heart Leaders Ask For More Fund Aides

Organization of the Heart Sunday Army, which on February 20 will undertake a house-to-house collection at homes in this community in behalf of the 1955 Heart Fund, is progressing in line with expectations.

Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio, Chairman, and Mr. Earl L. Lawit, Co-Chairman of the Local Heart Fund, have announced that approximately 75 volunteers already have been enrolled, and that 100 more will be required to bring the army to full strength. They expressed belief the quota will be filled long before February 20th.

"We are asking each volunteer to invest an hour or two on the afternoon of Heart Sunday, February 20, in the fight against heart disease that is being waged nationally by the American Heart Association."

First Aid Squad Has Busiest Day

Madeline E. Lancaster, secretary of the Local First Aid Squad, has named Monday, January 17 as the busiest single day in history of the squad. During the twelve hour period from seven in the morning till seven in the evening, the First Aid Squad answered 6 emergency calls, each of the cases required hospitalization and were admitted to Overlook Hospital for treatment.

So far in the month of January the First Aid Squad has been called upon for help on 24 different occasions, this is way ahead of the number for a comparable period of one year ago.

During the year of 1954 there were almost 40 more cases requiring emergency treatment than there were in 1953. Mrs. Lancaster urges the people of Springfield to help their First Aid Squad through volunteer work and financial aid but, even more than that, she pleads that we be more careful.

The real estate office of Mrs. Georgia McMullen, located at 206 Morris avenue, announces the sale yesterday of the Ness property to a syndicate of builders and developers headed by John A. Celentano of Clifton. The sale includes approximately 26 acres of the property located off Morrison road.

No further information was available as to what the purchasers will do with the property except that "they plan to build." The Ness tract was rezoned last year for limited business but reports were rife for the past few months that homes or apartment houses were planned on the property. However, the Township Committee has made it clear that the present zoning requirements must be complied with and is on record as being opposed to both homes and apartment houses.

The story also has it that Mr. Celentano is the man who headed the syndicate reported to have purchased the Hasselman property on South Springfield avenue, but the Planning Board has not approved preliminary plans submitted by this group for the size of homes contemplated and that deal is very much in doubt.

The sale of the property by Mrs. McMullen is one of the largest reported in some time. It was purchased by Paul V. Ness about ten years ago and many thousands of tons of fill dirt were hauled in to the property last year to level off the ground. Many developers have been reported anxious to buy this big tract, located right in the heart of Springfield, but zoning restrictions have cancelled out all the deals until Mrs. McMullen closed the sale Tuesday.

Definite plans as to what use the owners will make of the property will be announced within a few days.

Business Brisk At Newest M. V. Offices Here

Springfield's new Motor Vehicle Agency officially opened Tuesday morning at the altered and renovated offices, 66 Morris Avenue, formerly the St. James Rectory, and according to Motor Vehicle Agent Vincent J. Bonadies, business has been very brisk. One side of the building has been turned into a comfortable office with a long counter to take care of the flow of business when the actual renewal of licenses gets under way next month.

Mr. Bonadies is now confining his alteration work on the building to getting the motor vehicle agency offices in readiness for business. Experienced clerical employees are already in charge of the agency. Mr. Bonadies has hired the kind of help with full knowledge of the workings of the motor vehicle agencies.

Tuesday morning's opening attracted considerable business which was handled with speed, said Mr. Bonadies, because of the kind of help he has employed and because of the easy parking facilities. A great deal more work is yet to be done, said Bonadies, but in another few days he hopes to have the agency offices all set for easy and quick handling of the annual license renewals. Parking will be permitted on the property which is one of the attractions of the local agency since very few motor vehicle offices offer as much off-street parking space as is available in the Springfield office.

Burglar Attempts Holdup, Scared Off

Mrs. John Geljack of 241 Morris avenue was the near-victim of an attempted holdup Tuesday evening, when, according to police reports, she was entering her car, which was parked in front of her residence, when a stranger in the back seat demanded her purse.

The startled Mrs. Geljack screamed and ran into her house, which evidently startled the thief, because by the time the police arrived on the scene, the car was empty.

Mrs. Geljack described the thief as about five foot-ten, wearing a gray jacket and a scarf over his face.

About thirty minutes later, the police received a call that a window had been broken at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Denman of 14 Salter street. When she turned on the light, the thief made a hasty exit.

Police believe the two attempts were probably done by the same man and coincide with reports received from Millburn police regarding the same type of incidents. Investigations are underway to find the culprit.

Name Hopping As Head Of Planning Board

John A. Hopping was named chairman of the Springfield Planning Board at the organization meeting held Tuesday evening in the Town Hall, replacing Frank M. Kerr who resigned to become a candidate for one of the vacancies on the Regional Board of Education.

Carl F. Ledig was elected vice president and Edward E. Lindauer was re-elected secretary of the Board.

There are two vacancies on the Planning Board to be filled. Thomas A. Argyris having been named to replace Albert Schatz who has resigned. Mr. Kerr, former chairman, who resigned to run for the Regional Board of Education and Henry F. Garbarz whose appointment as building inspector leave Name Hopping.

Two vacancies to be filled by Mayor Albert C. Binder.

Routine matters were disposed of at Tuesday night's meeting with approval given to Labarre and Schuch, a nursery firm to build on the water company property in Springfield avenue. Approval was given for further building of the contemplated 81 homes by the Levin organization off of Wabeno avenue.

The Board would not approve another request made by the prospective purchasers of the Hasselman property on South Springfield avenue for homes that will not conform with the minimum number of front feet in accordance with the zoning laws now in effect. It is understood the developers of this Hasselman property hoped to be permitted to build homes less than the required number of square feet and the request was again turned down Tuesday.

OUR MISTAKE

New Elementary School Named For E. V. Walton

The Board of Education, Tuesday night, unanimously voted to name its new lower elementary school under construction in South Mountain Ave., the Edward V. Walton School, in honor of the township's first supervising principal. The board thus followed the practice of giving local schools names of persons.

Historical Group To Meet Wednesday

The regular annual meeting of the Springfield Historical Society will be held Wednesday, January 26, at the Florence M. Gaudineer School cafeteria with election of officers and trustees and an interesting program arranged for the evening.

Mrs. John C. Hoyer will present a motion picture depicting historic events related to the Battle of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kellar, of Summit, has consented to show some paintings with local history as the theme.

The Historical Society is only a year old but there are approximately 300 paid up members with many to be added in 1955. Magistrate Henry C. McMullen who did most of the work in organizing the local society has been the president since its inception and will, probably, be asked to continue as president.

Joins Insurance Firm

The local real estate and insurance firm of Bunnell Bros. Inc. announce the addition to its staff of Robert S. Bunnell Jr., effective January 3rd. Mr. Bunnell recently completed a four-year enlistment in the United States Air Force, most of which was served in England. During part of his service overseas, he was on special detached duty, and had an opportunity to visit France, Germany and Scotland. He will be connected with the Insurance Department of Bunnell Bros. and expects to help expand that branch of the business.

Law Says She Must—But It Has No Appeal

When Mrs. Eleonore H. Worthington boldly invaded the hectic man's world of politics and was elected to the office of Township Clerk, she realized that she would be called upon to perform many duties not entirely pleasant and, sometimes, downright distasteful.

However, Mrs. Worthington seems to have mastered the art of relating news that the Township Committee has turned down some request—she has cultivated an ease in accepting gripes and complaints on the telephone from residents in general and constituents in particular. As general clearing center for the various Township bureaus, Mrs. Worthington has kept tempers on an even keel and even now acts as the ambassador of good-will for all members of the official family.

But Mrs. Worthington had occasion to perform one of her duties as Township Clerk last Monday—the second time since she has held office—and she doesn't believe she will ever quite get over being squeamish when she is called upon to clip the ears of an animal.

It seems there is a New Jersey State Statute, which says that "when an animal—such as a fox—is caught and the catcher brings the animal to the office of the Township Clerk, she must clip both ears, certify in a regular form that she has done so which entitles the owner of the trapped fox to a bounty of $3.00.

Last Monday thirteen year old Michael Tatusio of 36 Lyons place came to Mrs. Worthington's office with a red fox which he had trapped and then cooked. In the presence of the police, Mrs. Worthington had to reach gingerly for the ears and, according to the state law, clip them.

She performed her duty by clipping the ears with a razor blade but it wasn't an occasion that gave her too much pleasure. She made out the certification, giving the thirteen year old boy his $3.00 bounty and was glad to go on with her other business, hoping that state law is either repealed or that there are no more bounty animals in the Township.

Women Voters League To Hear Board Candidates

All of the candidates have accepted the League's invitation and will be present. The candidates for the Springfield Board of Education are: Mrs. Sally A. Randonier, Mr. C. Roderic Gibbons, Mr. Loran E. Skousen, Mr. Howard S. Smith and Mrs. Clarice Weiniger; and the candidates for the Regional Board of Education are: Mrs. Antoinette Simmons and Mr. Frank M. Kerr.

After an opening welcome message from Mrs. Elliott Mandl, President of the Springfield League the meeting will be turned over to the moderator, Mr. Stephen R. Holmes of West Dyersville. Mrs. Holmes is President of the Highland Coal & Oil Company and is a past president of both the West Orange, Rotary Club and the Chamber of Commerce and the Orange and Maplewood and is active in many other civic organizations. He will introduce the candidates and ask each to give his or her prepared seven-minute speech. Questions will then be requested from the audience.

The League of Women Voters is endeavoring to present an informative and impartial meeting and is desirous of impressing all residents of Springfield with the importance of knowing the candidates, being aware of the issues, and voting in the February 8th election. It urges all to attend this meeting in order that each may ascertain the candidates' bona fides for the job and become more familiar with current problems regarding educational facilities. Most heart patients can keep on working—often at the same job. 5. Your symptoms may or may not mean heart disease. Don't guess—don't worry. See your doctor and be sure.

Hold Hadassah Luncheon At Hessian House

Millburn-Springfield Hadassah will hold an Open House Luncheon for Patrons, Sponsors and Graduate Mothers on Wednesday, January 26th at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harvey Kahn, 155 Millburn Ave., Millburn. Pledges are being secured in connection with our Donor Luncheon which will be held at the Cffantier on March 29th. All funds are being contributed toward the particular project which we have adopted as part of the HMO, namely "The X-Ray Institute" at Beersheba, Israel. Mrs. Gilbert Heller is Chairman for the afternoon. Her Co-Chairman is Mrs. Edward Berger. Mrs. Robert Rosenberg is Donor Luncheon Chairman. Mrs. Jacob Kesselman will be the guest-speaker for the afternoon.
Mrs. Kahn's residence, known as the "Hessian House" is a historical landmark in Essex County and New Jersey. It was erected in 1730, and is the oldest home in Millburn. In its hallway hangs a certificate of authenticity presented to the house by the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C., where its complete 13 page blueprints and historical data are carefully recorded. High spot of historic prominence for the house and Millburn was the Battle of Springfield which started here. During the battle in 1780, two Hessian soldiers were separated from their troops and took refuge in this house, working for their board and lodging until such time as they were taken to the military court at Orange and released. Hence, the name is derived. It has been equipped with all modern conveniences in recent years, and now possesses the charm and dignity of Early Americana, combined with the new. Officers of the Continental army were quartered in this building during the Battle of Springfield, and George Washington was supposed to have stopped at the house as a guest. We urge all members qualified to attend, for a most interesting and delightful afternoon.

Board Passes Buck On Jean Problem

Blue jeans were the subject of hot debate on Tuesday night at the Union County Regional County High School Board of Education meeting.

Warren W. Halsey, school superintendent, reported to the board that Dr. A. L. Johnson, county superintendent-of-schools, had informed him that disciplinary action could be taken against boys who persisted in wearing dungarees to classrooms. Halsey recommended that a stringent rule be employed to enforce regulations preventing blue jeans in school. Halsey's proposal set off arguments from members of the board members.

Woman's Club News

An interesting, enlightening talk on the programs and services which are offered by the Union County Extension Service was given by Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong at the American Home Department meeting, January 11, at the home of Mrs. George Wilson, 291 Northview Terrace. Mrs. Armstrong is the Home Agent for Co-operative Extension Work in Agriculture and Home Economics, State of New Jersey. The Extension Service was begun in 1929 through the efforts of the Railway Women's Club, with the County, State, and Federal Governments all making contributions for its service. The making of gingham hats was the first project undertaken by the Railway Clubwomen working with the assistance of the Extension Service, but since that time as the needs of the homemaker have changed, so has the program of the Extension Service so that today there are many available projects and programs available embracing the fields of Home Management, Family Relations, Clothing, Foods, etc.

After the very informative talk and discussion, department members enjoyed "delicious" refreshments served by the hostess and her co-hostesses, Mrs. Louis James and Mrs. Henry Ostrom.

Mrs. C. V. Mentzer and Mrs. Robert Smith assisted the hostess, Mrs. James Crowley, 110 Salter St., at the Music department meeting on January 13. Mrs. William Wagner was piano accompanist as the group members selected songs to be sung at Club Hobby Night next May. The next department meeting is scheduled for January 25 at the home of Mrs. George Lancaster, 23 Alvin Terrace.

At their January 13th meeting, members of the International Relations Department enjoyed a thrilling trip through Europe via colored slides through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes, 175 Short Hills Ave. Miss Ruth Levenson, 108 Morris Ave., was hostess to the group.

Discussion centered around members' concordance with club women from other countries around the world. Mrs. Kenneth Bandome read an interesting letter she had received from her "pen pal" who lives in Mexico. After the business meeting, Department Chairman Mrs. Gilbert Mann introduced Mr. Hayes who provided the commentary and slides for the evening's program. Last summer, he and his wife and their daughter, Arline, sailed on the "Queen Mary" and traveled through England, Holland, Belgium, and France. The slides are very beautiful, striking memories of that trip. Sights around London, Paris on Bastille Day, White Cliffs of Dover, and many more remarkable pictures provided the department members with a most pleasant evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Joseph Zidonik, Art Department Chairman, announces that the Spring-Art-Exhibit will be held during the month of April. A definite date will be announced later. From this exhibit selections will be made of paintings to be sent to the Art Symposium to be held at N. J. College for Women, New Brunswick, on April 23rd.

Any media may be used and all clubmembers are invited to enter the Spring Art Exhibit.

Members of the Civics and Youth Conservation Departments, especially their chairmen, Mrs. John Pitney and Mrs. Ruppert Humer, have been working diligently and conscientiously with Mrs. Thomas Doherty of the Springfield Recreation Commission in planning and directing the Pre-Teen Dances held each month for 7th and 8th graders of Springfield. More volunteer workers are needed to assure success of the current dance series and any interested clubmembers are urged to contact Mrs. Pitney or Mrs. Humer.

Federated Art Day will be observed January 25 at the New Jersey State Museum, Trenton, N. J. The principal speaker of the afternoon will be Dr. Boris Blai, Dean of the Tyler School of Fine Arts of Temple University, Philadelphia. He will give a talk and sculpture demonstration.

Executive Board members will meet January 26 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Bandome, 36 Evergreen Ave., at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Carl Ledig and Mrs. Charles Miller will be co-hostesses for the meeting.

A lively, enthusiastic group of Drama Department members held a meeting on Monday evening, January 17, at the home of Mrs. Henry Bultman, 66 Fieldstone Dr. Plans were made and many parts were cast for the show, "High Time," a revue with a TV theme which will be presented in March. Anyone interested in joining the cast please contact Drama Chairman, Mrs. Lee Andrews, Jr., at MI-6-0731.

As their entry in the Fifth District Drama Festival this year, the members of the department have agreed upon a short drama on the Irish Sea, "Men Folk," by Florence Ryerson and Collin Clements. Roles will be played by Mrs. Henry Bultman, Mrs. William Darrow, and Mrs. Henry Gross.

Fund Drive To Climax With 'Heart Sunday'

All 21 communities in Union County will participate in the house-to-house Heart Fund canvass on Heart Sunday, Feb. 20, it was announced today by Jack Camillo, 1955 Heart Fund chairman for the Union County Heart Assn.

The mass canvass by hundreds of volunteers throughout the county will be the first here, he said. Last year, 13 of the communities in the county participated in the drive. Only 1 of these, Elizabeth, failed to achieve and pass its quota.

Of the others, only Hillside passed its quota, he observed. The house-to-house canvass, he declared is the most effective and most inexpensive method of presenting the need of funds to the people for research and education in the cause, cure, and treatment of persons suffering from heart diseases.

The slogan for the day is "Welcome Your Heart Fund Volunteer on Heart Sunday." An effort is being made in each community to obtain volunteers to visit 25 homes each during the hours of the canvass. They will be properly equipped with credentials, Heart envelopes and receipts.

The "Heart Sunday" appeal will be the highlight of the month-long campaign for $45,300, Mr. Camillo concluded.

SUNNING SPORTS

By SOB DUBOW

This brisk week in January we have much better news to bring you than last week's tidings which were not so encouraging at all. The basketballers have picked up where they left off before their two-game floundering streak and let the matmen have added another two teams to their already well-notched victory stick.

The courtsters defeated a sloppy one of the team that failed to add a win to his record was Jim Col-7044. The Plaintiffers, who had administered the Bull Dogs first defeat of the season, looked un-entirely outclassed. The Regional-ites started slow and built up a nice lead until the third period when they broke the game wide open, outscoring their opponents by a 22-6 tally.

Joe Schaffernoth played the best game of his four year basketball career at Regional, tallying 31 markers and just missing the record by one point. The record incidentally was set by Roy Bellevue, another Springfield boy. Also adding the cause in the line of points

Revolver Club Holds Elections

At the annual meeting recently, the Springfield Revolver Club elected the following officers for the year 1955: President, Sam Rosenberg (2nd term); Secretary, Treasurer, Herbert Bailey; Chief Instructor, William Pierce.

Two dates were set for the Herbert Bailey Handicap Sweepstakes Trophy shoot, January 23rd and January 30th. Members are busy now posting their trial scores, from which the handicaps will be figured.

The building boom here has deprived them of their range for the second time in two years, but through the good offices of Police Chief Albert Sarge, another location has been secured, and last weekend saw several of the members out with axes and saws, clearing the land before the bulldozer gets to leveling it off.

Last night, Wednesday, January 19th, the club began the second round of the Suburban League matches, against the crack Plainfield team. They have yet to win a match in this league, but are not fazed by that. The shooting will continue, Mr. Charles Wozowicz is the team captain for these matches.

First Of A Series On Your Post Office

In order to acquaint the residents of Springfield with the postal facilities available at the local post office, the Postmaster in co-operation with the Springfield Sun will publish a series of articles outlining the various services the postal employees are able and willing to offer.

"An informed public results in better service at reduced cost," said the postmaster.

This article will cover items of general information and includes the location of the post office, the hours of window service, the receiving and dispatch of mails, and the collection and delivery of mails.

The post office is located in leased quarters at 338 Morris Avenue, directly opposite Salter Street. These quarters are occupied under a 10-year lease which will expire in 1959. Employees are on duty at the post office from 5:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. daily. Mondays thru Fridays-Saturdays from 5:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.; and Sundays from 4 to 8 p.m. The service window hours, Mondays thru Fridays, as prescribed by existing regulations, are as follows:

Parcel post, stamps, general delivery and registry, 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Money order and postal savings, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

On Saturdays the windows open at the above stated hours, but close at 12M. For the convenience of box holders—the public lobby is open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mondays thru Fridays, and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays. The post office lobby is not open on Sunday because an overhead wire screen for protection above the screening is not provided.

Mail is received four times during the day and all local mail received for delivery up to 8 a.m. is taken out for delivery that day by 8 regular letter carriers. Each letter carrier makes an average of more than 400 deliveries a day with a total average weight of 150 to 200 pounds and walks an average of 9 miles in serving his route and effecting these deliveries despite weather conditions. New homes are absorbed into these delivery routes as soon as the requirements for city delivery service are met in the development. The latest extension of city delivery service was made on October 18, 1954, on Adam Terrace and Wentz Avenue. Other extensions of city delivery service were previously made on North and South Derby roads, Becker road, Essex road, Beverly road, and Baltusrol way. The approximate cost of this additional city delivery service is $1600 per year.
