207 Bed Addition Officially Opens Doors Saturday

$2,500,000 Wing Helps Overlook Serve Area of 200,000 People

What is a hospital worth? No one ever knows until a time of trouble comes — until death stands outside a door — until an emergency puts a life in the balance. Then no price is too great to pay — but the time is too late if the hospital isn't there and it isn't equipped with iron lungs like this one, for example, and hundreds of other pieces of life-saving equipment.

BACK FROM A TREASURE HUNT OFF THE SOUTH AMERICAN COAST, BRUCE GENTRY AND HIS SIDEKICK 'HAPPY' LARKIN ARRIVE BY COASTAL STEAMER IN PUERTO BLANCO...

MISSED OUR PLANE, BRUCE? NO CHANCE NOW OF GETTING TO NEW YORK BEFORE THE KILIMANJARO EXPEDITION STARTS OUT!

THIS PLACE OPERATES A SIESTA ON A TWENTY-FOUR HOUR BASIS? SIESTA, HAPPY? YOU MUST MEAN FIESTA!

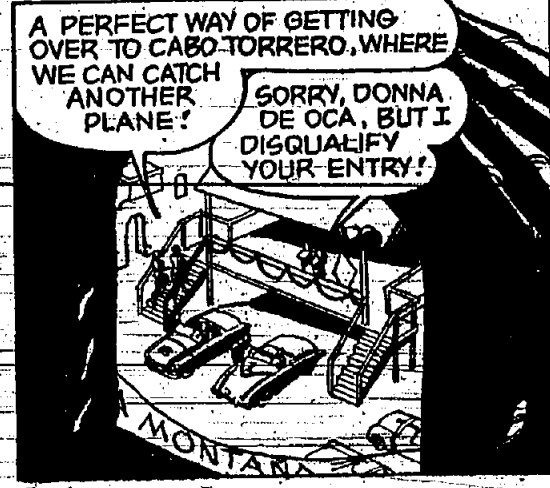

FOR A DROWSY CITY, THE SCENERY IS RIGHT PLEASANT! THERE'S SOME EXCITEMENT OVER THERE, HAPPY-- LET'S LOOK!

SAY! THE WHOLE TOWN'S TURNING OUT FOR--WHAT? THERE'S THE ANSWER--A MOUNTAIN ROAD RACE OPENS THE NEW HIGHWAY!

STOCK CARS, TOO! BOY, WOULD I LIKE TO BE RACING! IT WOULD BEAT THE KILIMANJARO EXPEDITION! YOU'RE GIVING ME IDEAS, HAPPY?

A PERFECT WAY OF GETTING OVER TO CABO TORRERO, WHERE WE CAN CATCH ANOTHER PLANE! SORRY, DONNA DE OCA, BUT I DISQUALIFY YOUR ENTRY!

YOUR DRIVERS ARE NOT HERE! NO LLEGO, DONNA! YOU MUST FIND SUBSTITUTES! MAY I OFFER A SUGGESTION, DONNA DE OCA?

I'M BRUCE GENTRY! I AND MI AMIGO, SENOR LARKIN ARE RACING DRIVERS FROM AWAY BACK! MAYBE WE CAN MAKE A DEAL... A DEAL, SENOR? IT IS ONE BARGAIN ALREADY!

AND REMEMBER, SENOR GENTRY, WHATEVER PRIZE YOU TAKE WILL BE MITARD Y MITARD --FEEFTY-FEEFTY! RIGHTO!

THIS IS ONE RACE WE CAN'T LOSE! WE'RE SURE TO CATCH THAT PLANE NOW! YES, AND PICK UP A FEW THOUSAND PESOS AS CONSOLATION FOR THE TREASURE WE DIDN'T FIND!

BRUCE GENTRY

③
STRANDED HIGH IN THE ANDES MOUNTAINS, BRUCE GENTRY AND HAPPY LARKIN HAVE TREKKED PAST THE VOLCANO, EL GRANDOTE

THERE'S THE NARROW GAUGE RAILWAY FROM PUERTO BLANCO INTO THE MOUNTAINS! THE CREW OF THAT STALLED TRAIN MUST HAVE GONE FOR HELP!

NO USE! THERE COMES ANOTHER LANDSLIDE!

WOW! THAT'S THE WAY THE AVALANCHE TOOK OUR RACING CAR!

AND THE NEXT WAY THE AVALANCHE SLIDE WILL BE TAKING US, UNLESS WE GET TO THE ONE SAFE SPOT--THE RAILROAD TUNNEL! COME ON, HAPPY!

FROM THE WAY THE TRACK CURVES, YOU CAN'T TELL WHICH DIRECTION LEADS TO PUERTO BLANCO!

IF THIS TUNNEL TAKES US FROM THE SLIDE ZONE, I'LL BE SATISFIED!

DONNA DE OCA, CIRCLING THE MOUNTAINS IN HER PLANE, HEADS BACK TO PUERTO BLANCO...

NO SIGN OF SEÑOR GENTRY AND HIS AMIGO! PERHAPS THEY DID NOT COME THIS FAR!

I'M SURE I HEARD THE THRUM OF A PLANE'S MOTOR-- BUT IT FADED---

THEN FORGET IT! SEE THAT RAIL-CAR WAITING FOR US? LET'S HOPE IT WILL PUTT-PUTT!

WELL, OUR GAS HAS HELD OUT FOR AN HOUR, BUT DON'T TELL ME WE'VE GOT TO CLIMB THAT!

WE'VE REACHED THE RAIL-HEAD, HAPPY! THAT'S THE CAMION DEL AIRE, OR AERIAL TRAMWAY THAT CLIMBS FARTHER INTO THE MOUNTAINS!

WHAT A RECEPTION COMMITTEE!

I'M SWAN BROOKE! YOU MUST BE THE NEW-MINING ENGINEER THAT MY UNCLE IS EXPECTING--

I'M BRUCE GENTRY AND THIS IS MY PARTNER, HAPPY LARKIN---

AND I'M NOT THE MAN YOU'RE EXPECTING, BUT I'VE HAD PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE IN MINING--

YOU CAN'T BE ANY WORSE THAN THE LAST THREE AND YOU LOOK A LOT BETTER-- SO COME ALONG!

NO TRACE OF THEM! YOU MUST PILOT ME AMONG THE MOUNTAINS AND LAND ON EVERY AIRFIELD UNTIL WE FIND THEM!

AH, DONNA DE OCA, YOU SHOULD NOT BE SO CONCERNED OVER SEÑOR GENTRY!

PERHAPS HE HAS FOUND SOME NICE SPOT IN THE MOUNTAINS AND MAYBE MET A CHARMING SEÑORITA--

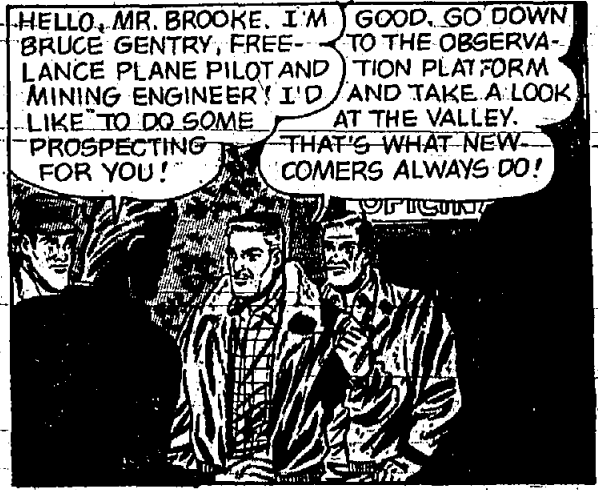

THAT IS SOMETHING I SHOULD LIKE TO SEE!

HIGH IN THE ANDES, BRUCE HAS JUST RESCUED SWAN BROOKE FROM THE EDGE OF A CLIFF NEAR HER UNCLE'S SILVER MINE...

A VERY TOUCHING SCENE TO SAY THE LEAST!

DONNA DE OCA!

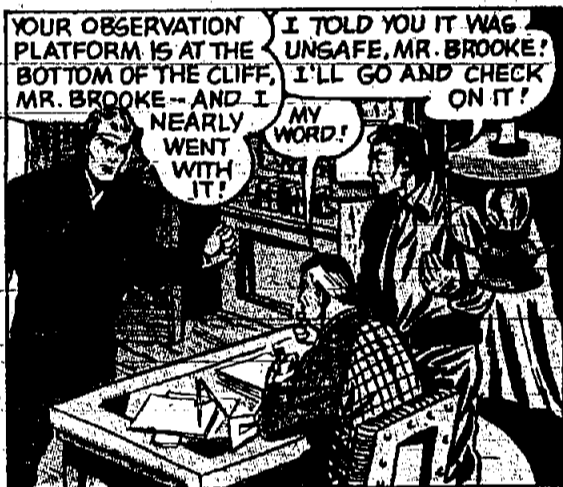

I WAS ONLY EXPRESSING MY GRATITUDE TO MR. GENTRY FOR SAVING MY LIFE!

NO ME DIGA! DON'T TELL ME!

WHILE THEY'RE THRASHING IT OUT, I'LL REPORT WHAT HAPPENED TO FELIX BROOKE AND KURT HOGAR, THE MINE SUPER!

MAYBE YOU DON'T CARE TO BELIEVE ME!

YOUR OBSERVATION PLATFORM IS AT THE BOTTOM OF THE CLIFF, MR. BROOKE-- AND I NEARLY WENT WITH IT!

I TOLD YOU IT WAS UNSAFE, MR. BROOKE! I'LL GO AND CHECK ON IT!

MY WORD!

I WANT YOU TO FLY ACROSS THE JUNGLE, GENTRY, AND INSPECT THE LOST EMERALD MINES OF COGUIMBO, WHICH I'VE RECENTLY UNCOVERED. WILL YOU TAKE THE JOB?

GO!

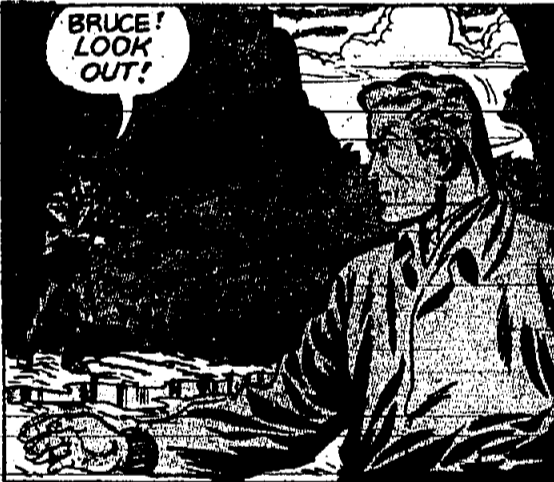

WILL I TAKE IT? WHY NOT?

I CAN TELL YOU WHY NOT, SEÑOR GENTRY! YOU ARE UNDER CONTRACT TO ME! TO DRIVE MY RACING CAR FROM PUERTO BLANCO TO CABO TORRERO!

I THOUGHT THAT RACE WAS POSTPONED BY AN EARTHQUAKE! HOWEVER, I'LL FIND HAPPY LARKIN AND SEE HOW HE FEELS ABOUT IT!

BRUCE! LOOK OUT!

IT WAS A POISON DART, BRUCE! AND THERE'S THE HEADHUNTER'S BLOW-GUN!

EXCEPT THAT NO HEADHUNTER FIRED IT, HAPPY! FOR TWO GOOD REASONS--

FIRST, NO HEADHUNTER WOULD COME THIS FAR FROM THE JUNGLE-- AND SECOND, WHEN HEADHUNTERS SHOOT DARTS, THEY DON'T MISS!

Editorial

Springfield is very proud of the honor given Felix G. Forlenza when he was recently named Deputy Attorney General of the State of New Jersey...

Forlenza, whose law offices on Morris avenue have been headquarters for a great number of civic programs, made a host of friends on both sides of the political scene...

Forlenza's appointment by the Democrats again emphasizes Springfield's role as a "political orphan" which is the lament of many Republican workers in discussing the matter of patronage in the Township.

By way of flexing its vote getting muscles and to put the spotlight on Springfield's importance in county Republican campaigns, there is talk of synthetic revolt that might attract the attention of the dispensers of jobs.

A big vote for Rigby in Springfield, this rather timid revolutionary pointed out, "will show those boys in the 'big' Union County towns that our votes count in adding up for the winners, and they might think in terms of our Township when they begin handing out the political plums.

Assemblywoman Florence P. Dwyer, who is a resident of Elizabeth but whose friends in Springfield are legion, is merely following the election laws in going through a Republican primary contest for renomination for Assembly.

The fact that so many outstanding people have rallied to her support is evidence enough of her strength, and the names of people, actually conducting her campaign in the primary, reads like the "who's who" of the Republican County organization.

Letters to Editor

Editor, Sun:
Excepting the first sentence, we would like to express our wholehearted agreement with the sentiments expressed in Mr. C. L. Seltzer's letter in the March 17 issue of the Sun, supporting the justice and fairness of granting nursing service to the parochial school children.

Mr. Seltzer exhibits a thorough understanding of this question and has expounded it quite explicitly in his letter.

In the light of his personal convictions, Mr. Seltzer's letter stands out as a model of understanding, intelligence and good will.

We feel that Springfield can be justly proud of teachers such as Mr. Seltzer. His letter should go a long way toward removing misunderstandings and clearing the way for favorable action on this question.

respected citizens, addressed a letter to Mr. Rigby as chairman of the Litterbug Committee in which he writes: "As per our conversation Sunday afternoon concerning your committee, I would like to suggest that the Township Committee follow the plans of the other neighboring townships such as Millburn to eliminate having cans and receptacles lining the street curbs."

Dr. Morris also recommended in his letter that, "As to the litter we see on the streets, especially at the Center, refuse containers, placed at strategic points, might help especially if the local press would carry an item each week requesting that these containers be used more freely. Last Sunday you saw papers and cartons lying in my yard and houses adjacent to your home."

Heart Fund Drive Reaches New High

Springfield reached its quota with contributions received of $1,667.32 towards the total of $1,290.12 collected in the 1955 Heart Fund Drive, Miss Helen E. Jacobs, executive secretary, reported to the Board of Trustees of the Union County Heart Assn. at a recent meeting in the Winfield Scott Hotel, Elizabeth. The goal was $45,300.

This total represents $47,508.51 collected in 21 communities and another $3,781.51 donated directly to the county office.

The board directed Miss Jacobs to arrange a meeting for all campaign chairmen, assistants and their guests in May. The meeting will feature a motion picture and talk dealing with the most recent advances in control and cause of heart diseases and a report of progress made by the group during the past year.

Miss Eleanor P. Duffy, of VNA of Eastern Union County, reported distribution of $2,400 as follows among the various visiting nursing groups for their aid to heart patients in clinics at their homes: Eastern Union County, $1,185; Plainfield VNA, $765; VNA of Cranford, $160; Summit VNA, $160; and Westfield District Nurses Assn., $130.

Dr. Henry J. Mineur, president, reported that four grants of $1,000 each have been made to four heart clinics at St. Michael's Hospital, Newark, Elizabeth General Hospital and St. Elizabeth Hospital, both Elizabeth, and Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield.

Dr. Henry J. Knezelmann, chairman of lay education, reported that 15 programs have been presented. The group now has five motion pictures dealing with heart diseases which may be shown to groups on request.

More than 1,000 leaflets on heart diseases have been distributed through those meetings. Many others are being mailed daily from the Union County Heart Assn., 1137 E. Jersey St., Elizabeth, to doctors, nurses, nursing schools, clinics, schools, township health departments, libraries and individuals.

"Don't forget the Spring-Art-and-Handcraft Exhibit to take place on Club Night, April 6. Details appear elsewhere in the "Springfield Sun."

A special Easter program by Islay Benson, star of Stage, Radio and Television, is programmed for the April club meeting. For an enjoyable, entertaining evening—coupled with a very important business meeting plan to attend Club Night, April 6, in the Caldwell School.

Orchids to Mrs. Charles Heard, Mrs. George Walton, and to all the members of the Ways and Means Committee for the wonderful Luncheon-Card Party they arranged for last Wednesday at the Hotel Suburban, Summit. Thanks too, to all members of the Telephone Squad for their cooperation in making the project a success. The fashion show presented by Lillian O'Grady, of Summit, with Christy Kallas as commentator, was delightful and packed full of suggestions for making our Spring and Summer wardrobes well coordinated and thus achieving an expensivelydressed look on a budget. All hats worn in the Fashion Show were from the Lyndel Shop, Summit, and the fur pieces were by Fredrika of New York.

Mrs. Edward Murdock won spontaneous applause from the audience when she modeled a fashion creation of the Charleston days in the "Then and Now" fashion show at the annual Club Woman's Day at Hamm and Co., Newark, on March 24. Mrs. Murdock demonstrated the Charleston while wearing a waistlineless black georgette, short in length, and covered with jet and blue bugle beads. Bright red ankle strap shoes and satin headband lent authority to the costume. Mrs. Merle J. Unger, State Drama Chairman, was narrator for the show which also featured Spring styles of 1955.

This was the 21st anniversary of Club-Woman's Day, the annual Spring event which benefits the federation magazine, "New Jersey Clubwoman." The store turned over a percentage of the day's sale to the federation for the specific purpose of supporting the publication.

The women's clubs of Rutherford and Elizabeth and the Open Hand-Club of Jersey City won the awards for having the greatest percentage of total membership enrolled for the day. Each club received $25 toward their contribution to the Philippine Islands community center project.

Mrs. Gertrude Morrison, Director of Programs for the Newark News was chairman of the Newark News Auditions on Friday, March 24, in the Contemporary Auditorium, Newark. This marked the fifth addition of speakers on the Speakers Bureau Listing. Mrs. Edwin Davenport was an official hostess assisting Mrs. Drew Hall, State Program Assistance Chairman. Also attending from Springfield were Club president, Mrs. Merton D. Williams, Mrs. Joseph Zidonik, and Mrs. John Trout, Speakers, demonstrators, musicians, singers and other entertainers are presented as a service to program chairmen and department chairmen to help them plan the coming year's programs.

All reservations for the Fifth District Drama Festival must be made with Mrs. Robert Briggs, 679 Morris avenue, MI 6-4769-W, by April 6. The festival will be at the Paper Mill Playhouse on Monday, April 18, and will begin at 10 a.m. The afternoon session will commence at 2 p.m. Springfield will be one of the five clubs participating. Mrs. Henry Bultman, Mrs. William Darrow and Mrs. Henry Gross are preparing "Men Folk" as our offering this year.

Tickets are priced at 75c each and luncheon will be served in the Millburn Inn for an additional $1.75. The affair is not limited to clubmembers.

Springfield clubmembers will be responsible for securing properties for the day's productions. Mesdames Lee Andrews, Edmond Bates, John Bradley, Robert Biggs, Dominick Casternovia, Leonard Field, William Geitz, Louis Schneider, Harry Speicher and John Trout will assist with props.

GIRL SCOUT CORNER

Troop 11—

Mrs. Charles Mink, Leader
On Saturday, March 19th, our troop visited George Washington's Headquarters and the Ford Museum in Morristown. Mrs. Morton Adell and Mrs. Mink came with us. Another treat is in store for us on April 12th when we will see the ballet at the Mosque Theater in Newark.

We have received our Intermediate Handbook and have started to study the requirements for the Girl Scout tenderfoot rank.

Troop 12—

Mrs. William Hartz, Leader
We hope that the meals at Overlook Hospital will be a little more cheerful this Easter because of the place mats we are making for the dinner trays. During Easter Week, we are joining with Mrs. Horace Wilson's troop for a trip by special bus to New York City. We will visit the U.S.S. America and be able to take a tour throughout this beautiful ship.

Troop 13—

Mrs. Ward Humphrey, Leader

Each Scout in our troop is busy creating her own puppet. This work, which is far more fun than work, will help us earn the Puppeteer badge. Many of us have been taking roller skating instruction each Saturday at the Twin City Arena in Elizabeth. Our progress has been so good that twelve Scouts are completing the requirements for the Roller Skating badge.

Scout Barbara Rau celebrated her 12th birthday this month.

Troop 19—

Mrs. Horace Wilson, Leader
As one of our service projects, we are making and filling Easter baskets for patients at Overlook Hospital. On Wednesday, April 13th, we join with Troop 12, Mothers and guests for a New York trip. We'll have lunch on the bus. After visiting the U.S.S. America, we hope to have enough time to go to the Museum of Natural History.

When we get a break in the weather, we are going to combine a hike and "jelly apple treat" at Washington Park.

In New Home

Mrs. Alfred Berstler of 25 Millburn avenue held an afternoon tea for friends in her new home. Among those present were Mrs. Lillian Bersler, Mrs. Theodore Schuss, Mrs. M. D. Reminger, Mrs. John Leggett of Union and Mrs. Fredericks.

To Attend Secretarial School
Miss Joan Chadwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Chadwick, of 345 Morris avenue, Springfield, is enrolled in the Two Year Course at the Katharine Gibbs School and begins her work September twentieth. Miss Chadwick will be graduated from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in June.

LANGUAGE ARTS

The language arts program has as its primary goal the development of the student's ability to think and to communicate his thoughts clearly and effectively. It is a balanced program in which originality of thought and accuracy of expression are emphasized.

The English classes are currently engaged in a letter-writing unit. Students are taught to address carefully to the rules of form which deal with the letter, not only as a means of communication, but also as a form of expression, subject to rules of structure and composition. Such a unit is a practical test of real language learning.

Some classes are preparing booklets containing specimens of the kind of letters studied. Special attention is given to the over-all neatness and beauty of appearance. Bulletin board displays of examples of superior work serve as a stimulus and challenge to the entire class.

Other classes have had an opportunity to express their opinions about the media of "Letters to the Editor." This is designed to provide practice in the extension of concise and coherent opinions.

Correlation with art studies has produced a collection of color illustrations which colorfully illustrate principles of good English usage. Thus the graphic illustration reinforces the printed word.

Some future "O. Henry" may be found to have been a member of our classes. Original stories, written, illustrated, and sometimes read to other student critic auditors, have made the class a most varied and more entertaining.

The necessity for skill on fundamentals is not overlooked. Sentence analysis, diagramming, conjugation, synopsis, capitalization, punctuation, and the use of commas, dashes, and other devices, together with the formation of plurals and possessives are constantly studied and reviewed.

For those students who have difficulty with the grammatical principles, a visit to the after-school classes may offer a remedy for lack of learning due to absence or incomplete comprehension. Here, more individual attention can be given and better learning may result.

For the past two years, a major activity of the year has been the school-yearbook which is now the focal point of student interest, particularly as graduation nears for the eighth grade pupils.

We are all getting ready for Spring. We have been making pussy willow and planting them in our gardens.

Each March day the first grade children have been looking for signs of spring. They brought pussy willows to school. Some of the children saw plants bursting out buds on the trees and bushes.

They have been singing songs about the pussy willows and about March winds. They have been looking for signs of spring. They brought pussy willows to school.

The first graders have been getting ready for second grade. They have been studying to do and to do better. They use blocks, tooth picks, buttons, checkers and pennies to help them learn.

175th Anniversary Staged In School

Springfield history came to life Tuesday at the James Caldwell School when one hundred seventy children of the fourth and fifth grades presented their program "Springfield—Now and Then."

To these children, this was more than a play. It was the elimination of historical research in the events which happened to their town. It took the audience from the Springfield of today back through the turn of the century, through the period of the first public school, Civil War days, railroad days, and to the Battle of Springfield in 1780.

The growth of the town and the type of activity were shown in costume and song of the times. This program was an unusual cooperative effort, involving six classes of the fourth and fifth grades and their teachers Miss Wahl, Miss Pursel, Mrs. Bizlewicz, Mrs. Ryder, Mrs. Huff, and Miss Di Napoli.

Regional Seniors To Present Play

When the senior class of Regional High School presents "Bells On Their Toes" this Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2, in the high school auditorium, they will be visited by Dan Gilbreth as intermission guest during the Saturday evening performance. Mr. Gilbreth is the son of Frank Gilbreth who wrote the book from which the play was adapted. He is the guest of Mrs. Julia Latzer, dramatic coach at Regional.

Mrs. Latzer, the play's director, is a member of the Dramatic Teachers Association of New Jersey and has worked with the Summit Playhouse. Before coming to Regional, she was a member of the Rochelle Operatic Ensemble, New Rochelle, New York. The student director is Dorothy Tacovski, a Regional senior.

"Bells On Their Toes" depicts the story of the life of Frank Gilbreth's family, formerly of Montclair. All of the action occurs during the 1920's. Many costumes were obtained from the attics of the parents of the Regional students appearing in the play. Other costumes were designed and sewn by students. The Morristown Fur Company of Summit supplied a raccoon coat. The Chatham players also lent some authentic suits and dresses.

To give the setting greater realism and authenticity, furniture of that period was donated by Mr. Herbert Swift of Regional's janitorial staff. Mr. Swift had many fine old pieces at his summer home in Lawrence Harbor. The boys of the cast re-upholstered and repaired all the furniture props. The sets were built by Mr. Lewis Fredericks, industrial arts teacher, and a staff of boys assisting him. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. for both performances.

P.T.A. NEWS

On Monday March 28, The Springfield P.T.A. gathered at the Florence Gaudineer School to hear Professor Heald, Foreign Student Counselor at Rutgers, and four exchange students from Ethiopia, Korea, Jamaica, and Argentina.

Professor Heald spoke about the foreign students at Rutgers. There are 31 countries represented at the University with a total of 142 foreign students. Eighty-five of these students are temporary students who will return to their own countries when they complete their studies here. The courses which most appeal to foreign students at Rutgers are Agriculture, Engineering, and Microbiology. Professor Heald in his capacity as Foreign Student Counselor helps these students with personal and business problems.

The student participating in the program were Mesfin Ababa, a native of Ethiopia, now doing special research in Educational Tests and Measurements; Miss Sun-Ok Chun of Korea, a graduate student in political science; Miss Velma McGeachy of Jamaica, doing graduate work in bacteriology; and Miss Susana Tampieri of Argentina, an undergraduate student at N.J.C. who will return to Argentina to continue studying law.

These students spoke of education in their respective countries. In Ethiopia and Jamaica education is not compulsory because there are not enough schools. In Jamaica there are 10 to 150 students in a class. Even though education is not compulsory it is government sponsored.

In all these countries the fathers' word is law. The children have much more discipline and a greater respect for their elders. Juvenile delinquency is not a major problem in these countries. Any delinquency is in the lower classes and is usually robbery often of necessity because of economic conditions.

Miss McGeachy of Jamaica

IT'S NICE—Mr. and Mrs. James E. Short of 51 Walker Court, photographed as they left for a casual 16 to 18 day cruise to the Caribbean ports of the Netherlands West Indies and Venezuela, sailing from New York on the Grace Line's Santa Clara.

stated that in her opinion our children grow up too fast. They are given too much too soon and by the time they are teenagers they are grown men and women with no adolescent experiences to look forward to; therefore turning to undesirable channels for new experiences.

Miss Tampieri of Argentina felt that discouraging the use of toy guns and other weapons as toys would promote a decline in delinquency.

Mrs. Philip Lewis, president of the P.T.A., gave the group all available information on the Salk polio vaccine inoculation series which are to be administered to all first and second grades of the public and parochial schools. Polio inoculation is voluntary. Only upon parents request will the vaccine be given. Request slips were sent home by the school children on March 29 and must be returned by April 1. These slips are to be returned regardless of whether or not the child is to receive the vaccine. The first inoculation will be given April 20 and 21, the second April 27 and 28, and the third May 25 and 26.

Mrs. Morton Weiss has been appointed to replace Mrs. E. Andrew as chairman of the Summer Round Up which will be May 4 and 5 for children entering school in the fall.

Following Monday's meeting refreshments were served by the third grade mothers.

The Pro-School section of the P.T.A. will meet Monday April 4 at the Florence Gaudineer cafeteria. The film "Shyness" will be shown. Dr. Clifford Hale of Springfield will be the discussion leader.

Packed Lunches Can be Appealing

The packed lunch carried to work or school should be well-balanced, interesting and attractive, says Mrs. Irene H. Wolgamot, extension food and nutrition specialist of Rutgers University. To make it so, calls for good planning, care in packing and some imagination.

The lunch, packed or otherwise, should provide about one-third of the day's food requirements. Mrs. Wolgamot points out that a good packed lunch pattern consists of a protein—food—meat, fish, poultry, egg or cheese; milk or a milk product; a vegetable; a fruit; and bread and butter or margarine.

"For appetite-appeal, include a hearty food, a sweet food and a wholesome drink," she suggests. "You can add interest by including some surprise food, such as a few figs, dates, raisins or nuts, or a piece of candy or other favorite tidbit."

"Sandwiches are usually the mainstay item of the packed lunch. Use a variety of fillings and vary the kind of bread used. There's white, whole-wheat, rye bread, pumpernickel and for a sweet bread—Boston brown, nutbread or raisin bread. Use buns occasionally instead of sliced bread. And be generous with butter and filling, spreading it to the edges of the bread. Wrap lettuce and tomato for sandwiches separately so they can be put in just before eating.

"If you freeze your bread, make the sandwiches of the frozen slices. They're easy to spread, keep the filling cold and thaw out in a few hours. Or you can make some sandwiches ahead—peanut butter, cheese or meat—and freeze them. They will stay fresh for a week or so in your home freezer.

"For variety, include occasionally a hearty soup or main dish instead of sandwiches. A slice of ham or roast beef, a piece of chicken or a deviled egg. These are tasty and nourishing, too."

To serve as salad, Mrs. Wolgamot suggests crisp celery or carrot sticks, a small ripe tomato or a small covered paper cup of shredded cabbage. Pack the dressing separately so it can be combined with the cabbage just before eating. Or include raw cauliflower, green onions, green pepper sticks or radishes. Suitable sweets for packed lunches include fresh fruit, a small jar of canned or cooked

Garden Topics

Carol Stroyemeyer Beatrice Seagull

Have you ever looked in awe at your neighbor's garden and wondered how on earth it is done? By what mysterious means is all this beauty brought about? There is no mystery at all. You, too, can have a garden which will equal the beauty of your neighbor's.

We want to share with you the joy that gardening brings, the satisfaction in your first flowers and vegetables. We in Springfield have many gardening problems in common and we shall use this column to discuss them with you in simple everyday language.

Now that spring is around the corner, I am anxious to start work on my lawn. What immediate steps must I take to establish a sound and healthy lawn?

Do not hesitate to fertilize your lawn this month even if there are no visible signs of growth. You must supply your grass with the proper nutrients now to carry it through the growing season.

to reach the roots faster. Of course, the ideal thing would be to take a soil analysis to determine the chemical composition of the soil. If lime is needed, it should be applied before fertilizing.

My house plants were flowering and healthy when purchased. After being in the house several days they are beginning to wilt, lose their flowers, and the leaves are turning yellow. What is the reason for this?

You cannot possibly duplicate the ideal conditions under which the plants have been grown. The plants cannot adjust too easily to the new environment so they suffer a setback.

I am planning a vegetable and flower garden. There seem to be so many varieties of the same flower and vegetable listed in the catalogues. How can I know which ones to select in ordering seeds?

If you have noticed many of the varieties are divided into three classes: Early, mid- and late season. After deciding when you want your vegetables or bloom, you must then narrow the selections by personal choice.

Rake lawn to remove dead winter-killed grass. Fertilize your lawn with 6-10-4 analysis fertilizer. Make sure your overgreens such as azaleas and rhododendrons are well protected from the blustery winds of March.

"South Pacific" To Open At Paper Mill Playhouse

The Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn, inaugurates its spring season on April 11 with the best possible choice and a very distinguished one - "South Pacific."
