Springfield Shopping Center Ready; Stores Plan Grand Openings

The General Greene Shopping Center—located right in the heart of the Township with acres of free parking space—is practically ready for business.

Many of the featured units of the shopping center such as Newberry's, Morey-La Rue and several others will have their formal grand opening next Thursday June 23, when thousands of shoppers are expected to be attracted to the new modern stores.

One of the shops, Mae Moon, with the latest fashions in sportswear, beachwear, lingerie and dresses, is opening up almost a full week ahead of the others, their formal introduction to the buying public being scheduled for tomorrow (Friday) June 17.

The Mae Moon store has been stocked with the latest in their lines and low prices set to attract buyers to the shop. There will be offered some fine opening specials and free gifts will be given to all customers for purchases made at tomorrow (Friday's) grand opening sale.

The original plan was to have all units in a single grand opening but not all the stores could be ready for the June 23 date. Newberry's has been working overtime and will be set for next Thursday's expected rush of shoppers.

The plan of the local Grand Union super market—said to be the latest in the matter of equipment and service to customers—is to stage its grand opening on the following Thursday, June 30. Announcements will be made next week.

Only One Third Report to Take Vaccine Shots

Inoculation of Springfield school children yesterday with the Salk anti-Polio vaccine ran about the same as in other parts of New Jersey, one-third of the kids eligible reporting to the local schools for the shots.

At the James Caldwell School yesterday morning 56 children were inoculated—out of the 158 who were eligible. At the St. James Parochial School yesterday 52 received the Salk vaccine shots out of the 155 children whose parents had originally given permission for inoculation.

This morning the children at Raymond Chisholm School will have the vaccine administered and the Springfield Board of Health authorities anticipate about the same one-third average. No further inoculations of Springfield school children are being planned and the remaining vaccine will be returned to the New Jersey Board of Health as soon as this morning's scheduled shots are administered.

Newberrys To Open On Thurs., June 23

Springfield's newest store, the J. J. Newberry Co. variety department store, will officially open next Thursday, June 23, in the spacious new General Greene Shopping Center on the corner of Morris and Elemer Avenues.

Newberry's new store is 94 feet wide and 144 feet deep with approximately 3400 lineal feet of counters or over 1/2 mile of merchandise displays.

Forty complete departments will be featured on the two fluorescent lighted sales floors. Attractive colors on the walls blend well with the latest modern fixtures.

On the mail floor customers will have an opportunity to buy such merchandise as millinery, costume jewelry, ladies sportswear, girls sportswear, ladies underwear, boys and mens wear, infants wear, decorative novelties, and party supplies, hosiery for all the family, toys and many other items.

Many Departments Downstairs sales floors will feature such departments as yard goods and patterns, curtains and drapes, lamps and shades, plants and garden supplies, outdoor grills and accessories, tropical fish and goldfish, pet supplies, footwear, hardware and electrical items and many additional departments.

A modern 18 stool luncheonette and a snack bar will offer the finest food and refreshments. A new Newberry feature which will be available in the Springfield store will be Newberry's Home Made Ice Cream.

An innovation in the new store will be convenient area type shopping whereby a customer may leisurely select merchandise and take it to a nearby area wrapping station. Courteous trained salesladies are also ready to help select purchases.

The spacious shopping center parking area for 500 cars enables Newberry's customers to "drive up to the door" for convenient shopping.

The latest in scientific air conditioning has been installed which will provide the most comfortable temperatures at all times while shopping in the store.

Another new Newberry feature in the Springfield store will be continuous relaxing music by (Continued on Page 12)

John Rosenberg
John Rosenberg, 54 Henshaw Avenue, Springfield, will leave for Clarendon, Newfoundland, Friday, June 17, to participate in what promises to be an historic occasion—laying of the world's first transoceanic telephone cable. The HMMS Monarch, world's largest cable laying vessel, will start laying cable on June 22 amid high ceremony. The twin cable system will stretch 2,000 miles across the ocean floor between Newfoundland and Oban, Scotland.

Mr. Rosenberg, who is Information Supervisor of the Long Lines Department of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, will be in Clarendon when the Monarch sails. He will handle press coverage in connection with the event.

Democrats in Another Blast At Town Board

Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, the Democratic candidates for the two places on the Township Committee in the November elections, are ignoring the celebration ceremonies, the opening of the new shopping center and the general rule that there is usually a moratorium on politics during the heat of the summer.

Last week these two candidates were instrumental in delaying action on the final passage of an ordinance changing the zoning of the quarry property where apartment houses are to be constructed. A legal procedure technicality was presented by Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies—the Democratic member on the governing body, and the vote on the ordinance was delayed and continued until the meeting to be held next Wednesday, June 22. Bonadies announced that the ordinance was unconstitutional, according to legal advice he said he had received which he later said was given to him by Weinberg and Keane, the two candidates.

Issue Not Statement
Keane and Weinberg today issued a statement in which they suggest that Township Committeeman Charles A. Remlinger "disqualify and remove himself from further consideration of this proposal" (the quarry zone ordinance). Following is the statement signed by Keane and Weinberg:

"On Wednesday, June 8th, 1955 we witnessed a dazzling display of complete abdication of government."

In keeping with Springfield's 175th Anniversary Celebration, Crestmont Savings and Loan Association has arranged an exhibit of furniture in authentic colonial design, according to Loren F. Gardiner, executive vice president.

The showing is being made through the cooperation of Huffman and Boyle. The exhibit is now in progress at Crestmont's office, 175 Morris Avenue. The public is invited to come in and view it, from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. weekdays, and on Mondays until 7 p.m. There is no charge.

Davega Stores To Open Big Springfield Unit

Davega Stores Corporation, the 78-year-old chain store organization with branch stores in New York City, New Jersey, Long Island, and Westchester, mass merchandisers of apparel, sporting goods, durable goods and appliances, and photographic goods, announced plans for the construction of a large suburban unit on U. S. Route 22 in Springfield. This project will occupy a 130,000 square foot site, with a frontage of 350 feet on the highway.

Davega Stores, through its real estate officer, Michael Cohen, announced this unit as the first of a series of projected drive-in junior department stores. There will be parking facilities for more than 600 automobiles.

The building and lease were arranged for Walright Realty Co. by Brown & Brown, Industrial Realtors of Elizabeth, who have helped develop Route 22 for many years. Leon Gamble was the attorney for the Davega Stores Corporation, and Julius Stein of New

"Town Crier" to Be On Steve Allen's TV Show

The tempo is increasing and excitement is beginning to show on all sides with the approach of the day for the ceremonies for celebrating the 175th anniversary of the Battle of Springfield.

The Township has taken on a holiday, festive spirit and all of Morris Avenue has been decorated with flags and bunting to attract attention to the coming anniversary.

Monday, June 20, should be quite a big day for the Battle Celebration Committee with several things being planned on radio and television. Mrs. Helen Donnelly, a member of the committee, will be a guest of Sydney Smith on the latter's radio show on WRCA at 9:35 in the morning.

Monday evening "Bill" Jensen, Mrs. Dorothy Reinhold and Mrs. Jaqueline Callahan, all dressed in Colonial costume and Jensen as the Town Crier, will attend the Steve Allen Show. Just what effect Jensen's appearance in the Steve Knickerbocker, will have on the show no one can predict.

BICYCLES MUST KEEP OUT OF SATURDAY'S PARADE

Chief of Police Albert A. Sorge this morning issued a warning to all parents of children with bicycles—and to the kids themselves—that NO BICYCLES WILL BE PERMITTED ANYWHERE ALONG THE PARADE NEXT SATURDAY, JUNE 25.

Police were ordered to keep all bicycles off the line of march on that day from 12 noon to 5 p.m.

"We expect a big crowd in Springfield on the day of the parade," said Chief Sorge, "and we don't want any children hurt and I have given orders to all members of the police department to enforce this rule. Parents are asked to help us in keeping the children on bicycles away from the parade. It is a matter of safety for both the bike riders, the paraders and the people watching."

Ex-Governor Will Attend Celebration

Mayor Albert G. Binder yesterday announced a partial list of the dignitaries and VIP's who will either sit in the reviewing stand or ride in the big parade on June 25 for the celebration of 175th anniversary of the Battle of Springfield.

Invitations have been sent to a great number of people but the acceptances have just started coming in to the Mayor's office. Admiral William W. Smith, Springfield's native son and one of the Township's claim to fame, has accepted the invitation and will definitely be here to help commemorate the famous battle.

Another very important state figure who has accepted and will be here for the June 25 parade is former Governor Alfred E. Driscoll. Congressman Harrison A. Williams, Jr., Assemblywoman Florence P. Dwyer, Assemblyman G. Clifford Thomas, Director of the Union County Board of Freeholders Albert J. Benninger, Mayor Percival M. Bland of Summit, Mayor Charles A. Johnson of New Providence, Mayor Edward J. Biertumpfel of Union, Mayor William Gero of Millburn, Mayor Thomas W. Sweeney of Maplewood, Mayor Nicholas P. LaCorte, Mayor Allan D. Tompkins of Plainfield will also be guests of Mayor Binder and the Township Committee at the June 25 ceremonies.

Ernie's Keys Delayed

Customers of Ernie Nagel who besetged his Morris Avenue market over the weekend requesting the keys he had promised to hand out will have to wait another few days because of some delay in manufacturing.

Ernie says he hopes to have the keys delivered to him in a few days and as soon as they arrive they will be distributed to the customers.

Pageant Cast Awaits Word to Start Program

Everything is in readiness for the opening feature of the celebration commemorating the 175th anniversary of the Battle of Springfield which is to be staged on the campus of the Regional High School next Thursday evening, June 23, in the form of a pageant under the title of "A Miracle at Springfield."

The presentation will start about 8:30 with selections by the full chorus of the Maplewood Glee Club to be followed by the Village Chorus of Millburn with Alfred Sillipini as the conductor.

The pageant, depicting the various events of the Battle of Springfield, will be presented on an especially constructed stage on the lawn, opposite the entrance to the high school and there will be seats available for about 2,000 on a first come, first served basis.

The organ with its amplifiers and all necessary equipment for lighting and sound effects will be installed early in the week. The authentic costumes to be worn by the members of the cast are already on their way and the committee expects this to be one of the high spots of the celebration ceremonies.

"Bill" Jensen who is doing such a fine job as Town Crier will be the narrator for the Miracle at Springfield.

In the event of rain on Thursday night, Friday is an open date with no special events on the program for that day and the pageant will be held on the following evening.

New Commander Is Installed at VFW

Clarence Buckalew of 208 Tooker Avenue was installed last Saturday as Commander of the Springfield V. F. W. Post. He succeeds Ed Cardinal of 272 Milltown Road. The VFW Installation was attended by 150 members and guests. In addition to installing the new commander, those at the meeting heard five speakers and saw the Post commend two citizens for their work.

For the first time in its history, the Springfield Post presented citations to civilians. August Hattersley of 152 Meisel Avenue and Mrs. Hamilton Scott of 115 Morris Avenue were honored for their contribution of time and effort towards the construction of the new Post home.

The guest speakers included: Past Department Commander Arthur Grabowski; Past 5th District Commander and Installing Officer Ed Baldwin, American Legion Commander Wilber Selander, Township Committeeman Fred A. Handville, and Union County Council Commander James D. Johnson.

Johnson commended outgoing commander Ed Cardinal for the 190% membership increase during the last year. He expressed confidence that this rapid increase will continue under Clarence Buckalew's administration.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Post also held their installation last Saturday evening during which a district officer commended them for their community work. After the installations, the men and women joined for refreshments and dancing.

 Dear Sirs:
 We read with pleasure in a recent issue of the Springfield Sun that the members of the Board of Health have discussed the problem of supplying nursing service to all children attending school in Springfield.
 All fair-minded citizens of Springfield must welcome this news.
 The members of the Board of Health deserve our hearty support and approval for spontaneously considering this democratic action.
 This problem is of particular significance today, when the plea for unity is so universal.
 A favorable decision on this fireworks in the evening. Classes for the baby parade are, up to two years, two to five years, and a float class up to five years. Full details of these and other events will be printed in forthcoming issues of the Sun.

Full Scholarship For Richard Dietz

Richard D. Dietz, 17-year-old senior at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, N. J., has been awarded a General Motors four-year college scholarship, it was announced today.

Young Dietz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Dietz of 1689 Sunny View road, Mountainside, N. J., will enroll this fall at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena. He plans a career in theoretical physics, with emphasis on astrophysics and nuclear physics.

His scholarship is one of 100 General Motors is granting annually as part of a $2,000,000-a-year expansion in its program to aid higher education.

Six hundred and eighty-nine New Jersey students were among more than 14,000 high school seniors in the United States, Puerto Rico, Alaska and Hawaii who took competitive examinations for the scholarships earlier this year. Final selections were made by a committee of prominent educators, which met at Princeton, N. J.

An outstanding student in class, young Dietz already has earned honors for his proficiency in science. He won a New Jersey Science Teachers' Association certificate of scholarship in chemistry, placed second in chemistry at the New Jersey State Science Day this year, won honorable mention in a 1955 science talent contest and a Bausch & Lomb honorary science award and placed third in Physics in the N.Y.C. Physics Trophy Contest. He also won top honors over 115 contestants from New Jersey schools in the annual Pi Mu Epsilon Mathematics contest at N. Y. U.

At the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, he served as editor of the newspaper and the yearbook, was a cabinet member in the student government organization this year, a member of the mathematics and science team for three years and a finalist in a National Honor Society scholarship competition.

Bees fan their wings to cool their hives in summer and maintain hive temperatures by bodily activity in winter.

ator trucks will be on hand at the completion of the parade to give the service men already prepared chocolates and sandwiches.

Mr. Hershney has instructed his culinary experts to prepare at least 700 of these sandwiches to be distributed to the boys.

"At first, the information I received," said Ernie, "was that there would be about 200 service men but now, I'm told, there will be over 700—oh, maybe 800. But, I'll keep my promise. I'll furnish enough frankfurters to take care of the boys who are good enough to come to Springfield and help us celebrate this important anniversary."

Valois New Head Of Country Oaks

The Country Oaks Association, Inc., has announced the selection of new officers for the 1955-56 season.

William F. Valois of 510 Meisel avenue has been made president. Gabriel Giannattasio of 250 Milltown road is vice president. Mrs. F. Ledig of 188 Milltown road has been elected treasurer. Mrs. Henry B. George of 184 Milltown road is the new secretary.

A dinner honoring the out-going officers will be held Saturday, June 18, at the Flagship.

The ostrich makes a noise which sounds much like the roar of a lion.

Everything's Davy Crockett these days.

Up our way a kid would rather be caught stark naked than without his coonskin cap and gun!

Happens Davy was a rather right sort, and all right for a kid's hero. The imagination of youngsters is boundless. If a Davy Crockett had never lived, the kids would think him up anyhow. There's got to be a hero to adore. Especially one who foresees things and does things ahead of time.

Like for instance, the head of the house who calls WOOLLEY ahead of time to keep the heating system running smoothly, with plenty of top quality oil in the tank or Lehigh coal in the bin.

Coonskin cap for youngster, thinkin' cap for dad—fair enough? Maybe better do it now, old scout. Call WOOLLEY—and relax.

Hot Dogs, Drinks and Ice Cream, Be Given Paraders

The service men who will make up the military units in the parade to be held a week from Saturday, June 25, as part of the 15th anniversary of the Battle of Springfield, are in for a big treat for playing their parts in the Township celebration.

Ernie A. Nadel, proprietor of the market bearing his name, has already announced that he is donating enough frankfurters for the service men at the end of the parade.

"At first, the information I received," said Ernie, "was that there would be about 200 service men but now, I'm told, there will be over 700—oh, maybe 800. But, I'll keep my promise. I'll furnish enough frankfurters to take care of the boys who are good enough to come to Springfield and help us celebrate this important anniversary."

So that the service men will have the usual to go with the frankfurters, Township Committee man Eugene F. Donnelly, an official of the Royal Crown Cola Bottling Company in Newark, announces that his company will make available enough of their ice cold beverage for the boys on that day. Donnelly doesn't know the exact number of bottles of the Royal Crown the service boys may need but, if it is a warm day, he says, a lot of it will be consumed and he plans to have enough on hand so that they don't run short.

And to add further to the menu for the service men, E. E. Hershney, head of the Hershey Creamery Co., manufacturers of ice cream at 22 Flemer avenue, informed the parade committee that several of his company's refriger-

Two Local Men Get Stephens Degrees

Two Springfield men were awarded the degree of Mechanical Engineer at commencement exercises of Stevens Institute of Technology last Saturday, June 11, in Hoboken.

Emory G. Egler of 389 Morris avenue and Vincent Leone of 595 South Springfield avenue were graduated.

A family dinner followed the graduation ceremonies for Emory Egler. His sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Capone and daughter, Christine, were there, as was Mrs. M. Vaisman who flew up from Florida to see her brother graduate.

Emory will be employed by the Dupont Corp. in Linden.

Distinctive Gift Shop to Open Here On Saturday

NEW HOME OF BETTER GIFTS—Exterior view of the new Pace Setter gift shop which will officially open this Saturday. The store will have approximately ten different departments, specializing in lamps, jewelry, novelties, bar accessories and many miscellaneous gifts to suit the needs of modern, contemporary or antique homes.

Among the flurry of grand openings this week in Springfield is The Pace Setter, a shop devoted to distinctive gifts and interior designing.

The new store is opening in the location of the old Suburban Five and Dime on Morris avenue. The shop has been completely redecorated and modernized to be ready for the official grand opening on Saturday, June 25.

Actually the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Gold, have had their doors open all this week. But the full stock of merchandise won't be ready until the official opening.

The Pace Setter is a gift shop to people who want distinctive gifts in modern, contemporary or antique styles. The different departments include: lamps, jewelry, pictures, frames, exclusive studio greeting cards, novelties, bar accessories, beach hats and bags, custom lamps, and many miscellaneous gifts.

Mr. Gold's art school background enables him to advise and design home-interiors and decorating.

Regional Wins 2 More Math Tests

At the 1955 State Mathematics Day held at Rutgers University in April, Regional High School placed seventh among 95 high schools that participate.

A contest was held that is annually sponsored jointly by Mathematics Department of Rutgers University and the New Jersey Association of Mathematics Teachers. Each competing school is permitted to have two top mathematics students represent it in the contest.

In another mathematics contest sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America where schools from the entire country competed, Regional High School placed 20th among 682 high schools. In this contest Regional High School was represented by Dennis Cubbison, Richard Dietz, Howard Mason, and David Hill.

Previously this year, Regional High School had won first place in the PI MU EPSILON Inter-scholastic Mathematics Contest at N. Y. U. In this event, Regional scored higher than any other of the 38 competing schools from New Jersey.

Regional Observes 7th Anniversary

Brief ceremonies marked the seventh anniversary of "Charter Night" of the Springfield Rotary Club Tuesday noon at luncheon in Baltusrol Golf Club. Adam LaSota presided at the session, as visitors and members were presented with plaques on Rotary's famous "Four Way Test."

The club received its charter June 14, 1948, at exercises held in Baltusrol, with Hillside and Union Rotary Clubs serving as sponsors. Bo Adlerbert of Hillside was special representative of District Governor E. S. Mathewson in organizing the local club.

The first group of officers consisted of: President, Milton Keshen; vice-president, Harry Boughner; secretary, Lewis N. Sandler, and treasurer, Charles H. Meyer. The directors included: Kenneth E. Bandomer, Ray Bell and Ludwig Stark.

Other charter members were: Milton Billet, Keovic Farber, Fred Harms, John Harms, Gordon A. McCall, Yean Marti, Dr. Philip R. Pedinoff, Robert H. Roos and Maurice S. Worth. Club meetings were originally held at the Colonial Tea Room, Morrison road, later in the Hitching Post, Kentworth, until present meetings at Baltusrol.

The meeting was also featured by the appearance of Bill Jensen, as "town crier" for the approaching 175th anniversary celebration of the Battle of Springfield. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Reibold and Mrs. Jacqueline Callahan.

Mr. Jensen spoke on the value of service to the community, in an appropriate talk on "Flag Day" and the coming township celebration.

Your Library

As spring passes into summer, reading in the Springfield Free Public Library is taking on the pattern of summer reading. Adult readers are beginning to look for the lighter and more entertaining stories; younger readers are bringing back books of information used in school and looking for stories.

Already seventy-five children have joined the Summer Reading Club called the Golden Key Club. On Tuesday the Children's Room had one of the biggest days in its history, two hundred and eight books were taken out in one afternoon.

The last Pre-School Story Hours will be at 10 A.M. and 11 A.M. on Friday morning, June 17. After that, the story hours will be discontinued until the middle of July when a new series will begin.

Mrs. Ester Porter has redecorated the bulletin board for the children. It now has a beach scene for summer.

Because of the coming pageant, interest in history, patriotism, and early American costumes are still popular themes. In keeping with this American spirit, the Adult Department has an exhibit of books on freedom. These are part of the Freedom Agenda Series sponsored by the League of Women Voters and loaned to the Library by Mrs. Lemuel Stevens. The titles in this series are: "Freedom of Speech and Press" by Zechariah Chafee, Jr.; "Con-mental authority by the Township Committee in connection with the proposed re-zoning of the Angleton tract for apartment house use.

"The problem of re-zoning an area is a very serious matter. The town fathers previously considered the problem of re-zoning so vexatious that they went to the trouble and expense of hiring an expert in the field to prepare a master plan. This was in keeping with their responsibility under the law in making zoning ordinances have a direct relationship to, and be based on, the public welfare. With this carefully worked out background, we the citizens of Springfield are entitled to feel confident in the proper handling of future zoning problems. But then came the Angleton tract problem and the careful planning of the past was quickly forgotten. The Town Committee is apparently in such a hurry to railroad this change through that they had no time to follow the dictates of the law. They have seen fit to override the expert planner's findings that the Town of Springfield has enough apartment houses. Why?"

"The Law of New Jersey states that zoning ordinances must have some relationship to a comprehensive plan and in addition must be based on public welfare. The Township Committee had no answers nor had they given any consideration to the problems raised by the following questions: How the township of Springfield was going to provide for additional sewage facilities which four hundred families on the quarry tract would need? What considerations were given to additional traffic? Where would the traffic be routed? What plans and specifications have been exhibited to the Township Committee or the Planning Board? What effect would the apartment house have on the flood conditions in the Henshaw area?"

"Mr. Remlinger took exception to the charge that the Township Committee was writing a blank check for Mr. Angleton in approving a zone change without giving consideration to some of the above problems. Mr. Remlinger's weak answer was that the Planning Board would have to approve all of Angleton's plans and specifications once he got the zoning change. He further stated that to ask for plans and specifications at this time would cause a great hardship to Mr. Angleton.

"What Remlinger and a majority of the Township Committee have failed to tell the citizens of Springfield is the public purpose behind the zone change. Surely it cannot be for the sole reason that the township will get an increase of tax rates.

"What must be weighed against the possible increase in tax dollars is what the apartment house will bring in the nature of increased traffic problems, flood problems, sewage problems, etc. In having failed to give these items consideration, the Township Committee has delegated its authority to serve someone's private interests. They have the power at this time in writing an ordinance to determine if a developer should pay for widening of roads, putting in sewers and any other safeguards that the Township requires. Instead we repeat, they are writing a blank check. Mr. Angleton stands to make a considerable amount of money from the re-zoning. He should, therefore, submit detailed plans and specifications at this time so that a proper determination of fact can be made.

"We noted with interest that Mr. Remlinger saw fit to answer most of the questions from the public. Perhaps this is so because Mr. Remlinger is leaving office at the end of this year and does not have to be concerned with his fellow Township people. More probably, however, he is carrying the ball for Angleton and Company. Ray Bell with whom Mr. Remlinger is associated, carries the insurance on all the Angleton property.

"Mr. Remlinger had the temerity to use photographs taken of the quarry property in an attempt to show that the apartment house would be welcome. What Mr. Remlinger did not reveal was that the photographs taken were of the property which will not be utilized for the apartment house, and further, these photographs were taken and paid for by Mr. Angleton, of which we have proof. We suggest that Mr. Remlinger remove himself from further consideration on this proposal. "The Township Committee has said that the property in question cannot be utilized for a family development. We submit that any number of one family house developers would welcome an opportunity to purchase this land. The Township Committee stated that they were not prejudging the re-zoning ordinance but yet it was apparent that a determination had already been made to re-zone the quarry property. We ask this question—Is speed necessary to protect some private interest?"

"We had occasion to attend a Board of Adjustment hearing which met for the purpose of determining the swimming pool variance. It was rather apparent that the Board of Adjustment was making it unusually difficult for township people to present their case. Here again was a prime example of a single vested interest taking precedence over the desires of the citizens of Springfield.

SUNNING SPORTS
By BOB DUBOW

This Year in Sports
Highlighting this year in sports at Regional, were the Wrestling team and the basketball squad. These winter sports which drew the most enthusiasm of any, provided thrills for the fans and many awards for the participants.

The grapplers won the state crown, and had three individual champions on the team. Jerry Sachsel, Wray Bailey, and Richie Scorese were the boys who did most of the scoring. Bailey and Scorese are seniors while Sachsel is a junior and will return next year.

The basketball team also did very well in winning the Group III Section II state championship. The boys did a fine job but were hampered greatly toward the end of the season by accidents and illness. Of the starting five this season, which was composed of Joe Schaffernoth, Curt Merz, Les Law, Ron Golcher, and Karl Ford, Schaffernoth is the only graduating man. The other four will be returning next season which ought to put Regional as a top contender for many honors.

On into the spring the baseball and track squads did very well compiling a 9-7 and 8-3 records respectively. The baseball squad had a bit of tough luck drawing to seeded Nutley as their first foe in the Greater Newark Baseball tournament. The Bull Dogs put up a fine battle losing by 2-0. Sparking the Regionals this season on the mound was Joe Schaffernoth who won 7 contests while losing 3. In these games Schaffernoth struck out 75 batters and hit over 300 himself. All season long Schaffernoth let in only two earned runs which puts his earned run average at .17. This figure speaks for itself and proves that if he had a little better support he probably would have had a 10-0 record. In the line of hitting Fred Breen led the squad with a .358 average, followed by Art Slinger and pitcher Schaffernoth.

The tracksters did fine all season and capped it off by having one of their boys take a first in the state track meet. Curt Merz heaved the shot over 52 feet. The tracksters were composed mostly of younger boys this year and if they can replace the few seniors that are graduating they will have a powerhouse next spring.

One team that did not go over the 500 mark as far as average was the grid team. The footballers had a young team with the plenty of spirit and fight but it didn't seem enough to overcome the experience and power of the other clubs. Next season with an experienced group of players the Bull Dogs should go far.

So there it is, a full year in sports at Regional. Looking over the picture we see that generally young talent occupied key positions this season and with the good coaching that we have at Regional they will all go far next year.

Display of "Old Glory" Satisfies Lions Club

"Old Glory" was flying over 331 buildings in Springfield on Memorial Day—a distinct improvement over the 108 counted on Veteran's Day, November 11, 1954, by the Lions Club flying squad; but still a far cry from their 100 per cent goal.

Members of the Springfield Lions Club, which has been conducting a widely publicized Fly-the-Flag campaign to inspire a greater show of patriotism on national holidays, are somewhat encouraged by the increased interest indicated by the recent display which, according to John J. Martin, chairman of the Lions Fly-the-Flag Committee, included private homes, public buildings,

Brothers Team Up For Bowling Honor

Rickey Knapp of St. Kew Drive, teamed up with his brother, Ed, last month out in Fort Wayne, Ind., to burn up the ABC bowling lanes. They placed second in the nation's top bowling competition.

The line score shows the two brothers rolling a fancy doubles score of 509. Only one other team in the American Bowling Congress topped them.

Rickey and his brother, Ed, have both bowled for 23 years. During that time Rickey has scored four perfect games, and four 299 games. He is employed by Armour and Co., and Ed lives in Irvington.

Although Notre Dame University is in Indiana, it has only 600 students from that state with 882 from Illinois and 851 from New York.

CATHOLIC FORUM

Private wire to God. "I must say," stated Bill, "That I do not like the thought of a priest, who has consecrated his life to God and His works, being a bad man. And, in fact, while I have known scores of priests, I have never known a bad one."

PROTESTANT FORUM

Should ministers get married? To hear some people talk, clergymen who choose a wife are being unfaithful to both God and their church. A few people even think that clergymen who get married are committing some kind of a sin. This is rather ridiculous.
