Name Chirgotis Architect For Exoansion Job

William G. Chirgotis, local architect, was selected at an adjourned meeting of the Township Committee Tuesday evening as the architect for the proposed expansion program which includes the enlargement of the present Municipal Building, an additional wing for the Public Library and the construction of the public garage.

A formal contract will be drawn up for approval at a later date but, in the meantime, Mr. Chirgotis will prepare preliminary sketches for review by individual the work on this important project can proceed as rapidly as possible.

Mayor Binder, whose special committee made a study of the needs for additional and enlarged municipal facilities, is very pleased that the first start has been made to move along on the expansion program.

"I feel that in the selection of Mr. Chirgotis," said Mayor Binder, "the Township Committee has obtained an outstanding man in his field who enjoys an enviable and widespread reputation. His intimate knowledge of our requirements and design, together with a civic pride as a local resident, will, no doubt, result in satisfaction for all interested citizens."

"We have been altogether conservative in our allotted expenditure of funds for the entire project," continued the Mayor. "Every dollar of the limited amount available will go to the physical improvements which are sorely needed to meet the ever expanding services of our governmental functions—our Public Library and our Department of Public Works."

The necessary ordinances have already been passed and as soon as Mr. Chirgotis is able to get approval of the preliminary sketches, the actual drawing of the plans will start and the wheels set in motion for contractors bids and other procedures.

Hobby Contest To Be Held Sept. 10

The Springfield Rotary sponsored Hobby Contest, set for Saturday, September 10 at the Meisel Avenue Field, is gaining momentum. According to contest chairman, Marving Gould, entrants this year have far exceeded expectations.

The main feature of the contest, as in past years, will be the airplane model division with prizes to be awarded in six or seven separate classifications. Any children interested in entering into the activities can still do so by contacting Dr. Marvin Gould at 269 Morris Avenue.

Springfield One of First To Go Over Red Cross Quota

Springfield received a pat on-the-back from the National Headquarters of the American Red Cross last week for such prompt action in sending money for the flood disaster relief.

Herbert J. Levins, Chairman of the Springfield Red Cross Chapter, reports that he received a letter from Washington saying that Springfield was "one of the first chapters in the country to reach its quota."

Albert W. Wold, the national director of the Red Cross, said that Springfield was to be congratulated.

Mr. Levins reports that over $1,000 has already been donated by Springfield residents for the relief of the flood victims. But despite the fact that Springfield has done its share, money is still desperately needed. According to Mr. Wold, the Red Cross will need more than $5,000,000 to handle this disaster operation.

So as the need continues, the Springfield chairman again outlined the procedures to be used in making donations. Mr. Levins says that checks should be made out to "American Red Cross Flood Relief" and mailed to "Red-Cross, Springfield."

Mr. Levins emphasized that this is an appeal for funds and not a campaign. Therefore no one will come around to houses to collect the money. It must be mailed.

Mr. Levins says there is a misconception that many people in town have that he would like to correct. They think that the people who receive assistance from the Red Cross have to pay the money back. This is not so. The average emergency order for the flood victims the last few weeks has been $20.00 a piece. None of this has to be repaid.

Public Schools Here Will Open Next Thursday

It's back to school for Springfield—the public schools opening next Thursday, September 8, while St. James will start its classes for Grade One up to 8 on Monday, September 12. The kindergarten classes for St. James will start at a later date.

James Caldwell, Raymond Chisholm, Florence Gaudiner and Regional High School will all open September 8 with an enrollment in the high school expected to reach 1600 as compared with a peak enrollment of 1400 last year. The delay in work at the new Walton School will force double sessions to be held in the Chisholm School but schedules have already been worked out by Superintendent of Schools Benjamin F. Newswanger to accommodate all students.

Those who have not registered will not be permitted to do so on the first two days of the school opening. Registrations will be accepted September 12. Members of the faculty of grade schools will meet next Wednesday, September 7, for orientation.

On Tuesday, September 6, at noon, there will be a luncheon for new staff members of the Regional High School, the President of the Teachers' Association and members of the Administrative Staff. At 2:00 o'clock a general teacher's meeting will be held to prepare for the opening of school on the succeeding day.

On Wednesday, September 7, freshmen will be transported to the high school to duplicate the daily routine with shortened periods. This is an "Orientation Day" for freshmen to acquaint them with the operation of the school before the upper classmen are present.

The following are the new staff members at the High School this year:

O.R.T. Plans Two Meetings

The Springfield Chapter of the Women's American O.R.T. has two meetings planned for the beginning of September.

This evening, the first, the monthly board meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Wolt, 954 Ridgewood road, Millburn. Mrs. Harold Davis will present plans for a dress club. Mrs. Philip Goldhammer will preside.

Then on September 8, Mrs. Goldhammer will preside over the first fall meeting of the entire chapter. Mrs. Lloyd Kaplan, education chairman, will introduce Mrs. A. Duesy Stahl, president of the Passaic-Bergen region.

Mrs. Stahl was one of the three woman delegates from the United States to the World O.R.T. conference in Paris. She will speak on her recent visits to O.R.T. schools abroad.

Reports will be given by Mrs. William Lax, scholarship chairman, and Mrs. Sidney Garner, guardianship chairman. All interested persons are invited to this September 8 meeting.

Both the board meeting and the general meeting are scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m.

Dinner-Dance For Democrat's Discourse

Springfield's Democrats are going to trip the light fantastic next week as they open their campaign to trip the Republican incumbents in this fall's election.

Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies announced that the "First Annual Fall Dinner-Dance" of the Springfield Democratic Club will be held on Saturday evening September 10. The Chi-Am Chateau on Route 22 in Mountaineer will be the scene of the campaign kick-off affair.

According to Bonadies, the purpose of the dinner-dance is "to let the public meet and get to know the local and county Democratic candidates."

On hand will be Mayor Robert W. Sheldon of Roselle-Park, candidate for State Senator, as well as the two Democratic candidates for Township Committee this fall, Irwin Weimberg and Francis Keane. Deputy Attorney General Felix G. Forlenza will be the toastmaster.

The air will be filled with more than political sounds, according to Bonadies. The Wally Roman Orchestra has been set to keep the dancers in step.

Everyone is invited, says Bonadies, even Republicans. Reservations can be made by phoning Millburn 6-1140J or Millburn 6-0625J.

Big Sale Here Will Get Under Way On Sept. 8

Springfield's big sale—sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce—starts next Thursday, September 8 and continues for three days—with unusual bargains offered by all participating merchants.

Practically every store in Springfield—every unit in the General Greene Shopping Center—is taking part in this big sale, and the new stocks and low prices are expected to attract a great number of shoppers from all the surrounding areas.

The SPRINGFIELD SUN, in order to help tell the story of the many bargains being offered by Springfield during that sale, is preparing a special issue to be called the "Blanket Edition" since it will cover the entire Township. Every household in Springfield, and approximately 1,000 in Mountaineer as well as regular subscribers of the Springfield Sun, will receive copies of next Thursday's (September 8) newspaper with the many attractive items offered by the advertisers to the (Continued on page 2)

Springfield Youth Struck By Automobile

Sixteen-year-old Ernest Dambries of Springfield was struck by a car while crossing Morris Ave. Tuesday afternoon. He suffered cuts and bruises which sent him to Overlook Hospital for a day.

Springfield police report that Dambries returned home to 11 Battlehill Ave. Wednesday when X-ray reports indicated no broken bones.

Police say he had stepped off a bus on the corner of Marion Ave. and Morris Ave. and was crossing the street in front of the bus when he was hit by a car heading toward Springfield center. The police report says the driver of the car had a green light and the boy was crossing against a red light.

The car was driven by 24-year-old Peter Ries of Evanston, Ill. The accident occurred at 3:05 p.m.

A doctor, passing by, treated Dambries at the scene of the accident for lacerations of the right leg, a wound at the base of the skull and a bruised elbow. The Springfield First Aid Squad took the youth to Overlook.

Fashion Show To Run At Brookside

Floss McCutcheon and Sandy Hassler, two of the country's most beautiful professional models and cover girls, along with Barbara Garfinkel, who was crowned "Mrs. Brookside of 1955" in a beauty contest last week, will headline a fashion show to be held at the Brookside Swim Club in Union on Sunday, September 4, at 3:30 p.m.

Miss Christie Kollas, fashion analyst, will act as commentator. Feature of the show will be the display of authentic Parisian originals flown in from France for the event.

The fashion show on Sunday rings down the curtain on a series of outstanding events with which the Brookside Swim Club has, in this its initial season, brought entertainment, recreation, and educational features to its patrons.

Murphy's Ordered to Move, Plan To Appeal Eviction

Eugene F. Murphy, a resident of Springfield for approximately 35 years and who has been living at 352 Morris Avenue for more than 10 years, came to the Springfield Sun office yesterday bewildered but "ready to defend the right of the Murphy's," he said.

He was referring to the order given him by Magistrate Henry C. McMullen in Municipal Court Monday night to "move from his home within 10 days, by September 8—or go to jail for 10 days," the building having been condemned by the Township authorities and declared "not fit for human habitation."

Murphy announced yesterday that he plans to get legal help and appeal the court order since, he says, "we cannot find a place soon enough to comply with the order."

"We have lived at this address—352 Morris Avenue," said Murphy, "for more than 10 years. It was 10 in June. Our son, Clifford, who is 12 years old, has already registered and is starting school at James Caldwell next Thursday. Apartments are not easy to find. We're building our own little home in Morris Township but that will not be ready for some time." (Continued on page 2)

Dial Telephones In This Area Now At Test Stage

Dial installation progress at the New Jersey telephone centers in Millburn and Summit has reached the testing stage, company officials said this week, which will change over designations in the Millburn, Short Hills and Springfield area in October. The Millburn and Short Hills exchanges will be changed to 9Rexel 6 and 9-numbers.

A 90-man Western Electric Co. crew is in Summit under direction of job supervisor Theodore Narzany and has completed the task of interconnecting 333 dial equipment frames, which have been set up in an extension of the present telephone building.

The frames, over 11 feet high and weighing up to a ton each, are packed with hundreds of electrical relays. Filling 21 freight cars, the frames were delivered with over a million connections already completed in the factory. Nearly half a million additional wire connections have been made on the job. Also, some 500,000 feet of switchboard and power cable were required to tie these giant frames one to another and to the basement power room.

Morris avenue story — and we'll see whether or not my family can be thrown out on the street on such short notice.

Mr. Murphy said they occupied the entire building at 332 Morris avenue when they first moved in. But, he stated, when the present owner purchased it, the Murphy family moved in a three room apartment on the second floor.

"We didn't have very good facilities," said Mrs. Murphy, "but we did the best we could under the conditions. The landlord would do nothing to eliminate many of the violations but, during all the time, nothing was done by the authorities to condemn the property. Then, when the new owner wanted to raise our rent and then demanded that we give up the apartment altogether — because he wanted to use it, the place was condemned. The whole thing was done so easily — so quickly — our job is to find a new place to live — and by September 8, we don't know how we're going to do it. That's the day our boy Clifford is to start school."

By the time technicians from N. J. Bell take over from Western Electric Co. in the middle of September, over a million test calls will have been run through the new equipment.

Coincidental with the changeover to dial service, scheduled for early October, Summit 6 and Chatham 4 customers will get new telephone designations — CRview 3-7 and Mercury 5. With dial service, non-coin customers will be able to dial most telephones in N. J. and, by first dialing the proper code, they will be able to dial direct to the five boroughs of New York City.

In addition, customers with individual and two-party service will be enabled to dial direct to selected long distance points, without the assistance of an operator, by first dialing a proper three-digit area code.

Coinbox users will be able to dial within a 10-cent dialing area. Telephones in the Madison, Millburn and Short Hills areas will also change over to dial service at the same time as Summit and Chatham. At the changeover, Madison 6 numbers will receive a new designation — Frontier 7.

Lieutenant Runyon is a 1954 graduate of Cornell University Medical College.

Residents Oppose Plan For Drive-In Theatre

Opposition to the proposed construction of a drive-in theatre on Springfield avenue, Union, just opposite the Club Diana, is developing, a petition from 40 residents in the neighborhood having been offered to the Union Township Committee Tuesday evening.

Springfield is preparing official action against the proposed theatre since the traffic problems would affect the Township considerably. There is already a plan on the part of nearby residents to offer objection and the Township Committee itself will watch developments.

According to a recent issue of the Newark News under a Union dateline the governing body informed the bearer of the petition, John Mehegan — of 1254 Carlton Terrace, Union that the matter is still pending before the Board of Adjustment, and that the petition should be given to that board.

The Board of Adjustment had received an application for the project Aug. 1 from the Tepeo Development Co. of 395 Market St., Newark, and scheduled Sept. 12 for a hearing on the matter. The firm seeks to develop a six-acre outdoor theatre in a 28-acre Elizabethtown Water Co. tract opposite the Club Diana.

Mehegan said the residents opposed to the plan are from nearby areas in Allen and Liberty Aves., Carlton Ter. and Lidgerwood Rd. The petition cited the possibility of nuisance from lights and noise, increased traffic through residential areas and hazards to children, reduced residential A zone property values, and health hazards resulting from auto fumes.

Have your children ever dreamed of sailing up the Amazon River surrounded by live crocodiles? Have they ever ridden in a stagecoach that was attacked by Indians? These dreams came true for Bruce, George and Lois Briggs, who visited Disneyland with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Briggs of 670 Morris Ave. The Briggs family and Mr. George Briggs of 688 Morris Ave. spent a month "Out West" stopping at the petrified forest, the Painted Desert, Grand Canyon, Mexico, Hollywood, Las Vegas, Yellowstone Park, etc. One of their favorite stops was a day spent on a ranch in Wyoming.

Morrison, Illinois, is the former residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zasa who have moved into their home at 81 Jefferson terrace. They have two children, Bobby, age 5 and Donna, age 4. Mr. Zasa works for Leetronics in New York City. Springfield does not seem unfamiliar to the Zasa family since it is the hometown of Mrs. Zasa, the former Lucy Ferrara.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips of 153 Hawthorne Ave. and their children Susan and Maureen have come home after a two week holiday in California and Tia Juana, Mexico. They visited with Mr. Phillips' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Oberdich, of Van Nuys, California.

Karen Cohen, age 9 months, and her mom and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cohen, have moved into their new home at 27 Archbridge Lane. The Cohens moved here from North Bergen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brownstein and their son Peter will be moving shortly from their home at 155 Pitt Road to Convent, N. J. The Brownsteins have promised to visit with their many Springfield friends as often as possible.

Two darling sisters celebrated their birthdays at an outdoor party at their home at 174 Henshaw Ave. They are Toni Kalem (who was five years old) and Jeanette Kalem (who was six years old) and are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. A third sister, Allison Kalem, had to watch the party through her bedroom window because she is recovering from tonsillitis.

Invasion By Hordes of Ants Plagues Springfield Homes

Those who used to go on picnics to learn about those "pesty ants" that climbed over the pickle jars and the chicken salad sandwiches have discovered that these little outdoor pests have been coming right to the homes this summer. According to Union County Agricultural Agent Eric H. Peterson, Jr., dwellings in this area are beset by an invasion of outdoor ants and he describes it as the worst in his recollection.

Mr. Peterson said the infestation is more widespread this year throughout New Jersey. He conjectured that the summer's extreme weather may have had an effect.

Hundreds of households have besieged him for information on how to combat the pests, he reported, adding that the number of inquiries is considerably larger than last year.

The problem has grown steadily each year, he said.

Householders who have experienced these onslaughts reported the ants come in hordes overnight, streaming through concrete crevices, through baseboards and other points of entry.

The insects, it was said, have a preference for kitchens, but also will gather in masses in other parts of the houses, climbing up walls and draperies and getting into furniture.

Describing them as more of a nuisance than a menace, Mr. Peterson recommended the use of Chloridane for their control, either for preventive treatment or after their emergence.

Easy to Eliminate

The county agent regarded preventive measures as unwarranted work, however, asserting that the pests are easy to eradicate once they have appeared.

For indoor use, he advised a spray with a 2 per cent Chloridane emulsion, but warned that it be kept away from unprotected foodstuffs.

As an outdoor remedy, Mr. Peterson suggested a solution containing 45 per cent or 72 per cent Chloridane, or a 5 per cent Chloridane dust.

Chloridane, he explained, is the best chemical devised for its

Your Library

Now that summer is drawing to a close, the various clubs and organizations of Springfield will soon begin their activities. New officers and members will find many helpful books in the Springfield Public Library.

"New Ways to Better Meetings" by Carl and Frances Strauss should be of benefit to all. This book tells how to hold meetings that will interest and include all members. It also shows the best ways of discussing and resolving motions. "Roberts' Rules of Order" gives the accepted forms for minutes, voting, and the making of a constitution.

Later in the season, the book "How to Write Reports" may solve difficulties. Calvin D. Lincoln, the author, explains forms, note-taking, charts, and how to do the research necessary for a clear and concise report.

The library has many books on public speaking. Books such as "How to Speak Here, There, and on the Air" by John Dixon, and "The Fundamentals of Speaking" by W. E. Gilman will help officers to present their material clearly. Incidentally, suggestions on how to overcome stage-fright are found in both of these books.

Special types of organizations will find valuable aid in "Group Activities for Church Women" by Jane Kirk and "Guide to Community Action" by Mark S. Matthews.

All groups are urged to send the dates of their meetings to the library so they may be placed on the Community Calendar in the Reference Room. When planning any function, program chairmen may call at the library to see what dates are spoken for and the organizations using the dates. Queries coming by telephone will be answered if possible.

The library will be closed on Labor Day, but will be open Tuesday evening, September 6 to accommodate those who are able to use the library only in the evening.

statements of moderate length inserted Three Weeks for eight shillings and Two Shillings for each insertion afterwards.

"Stranger yet, to the regular reader of the Springfield Sun, was Page One which eight-column bannered: "Patriots Check British."

"The significance of the news was purely the 175th Anniversary of that famous battle of Springfield and The SUN played it for all it was worth.

"Under the eight-column banner was a late bulletin that detailed the fact that word had been received from 'Elizabeth Town' that the enemy began evacuating Jersey at midnight and have fled to Staten Island. They have burned their bridges—and destroyed their boats behind them. The Jerseys are safe."

"Other Page One stories included a victory report to Gen. Washington by Major General Greene, a reprinted article from the New York Gazette giving details of the surrender of the colonists at Charles Town."

"Included in the attractive display was a three column-out of the heroic parson, James Caldwell, standing on the steps of the famed Springfield Presbyterian Church during the height-of-the battle, and a three column warmer of the retreat of the Hessians. The AMERICAN PRESS, in its article, wrote: The whole front page was devoted to stories of the Battle of Springfield written as if they had happened on that day. Even a picture showing one of the scenes from the battle was reproduced."

Martin-Medway Nuptials Held

Mrs. David Dale Medway

Miss Hope Mary Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin, 209 Hillside Ave. Springfield, N. J., became the bride of David Dale Medway, son of Mrs. David D. Medway and the late Mr. Medway, Gouldsboro, Pa., on Saturday, August 27, at 11:00 A.M. in St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church, Summit, N. J.

Rev. Harold Murray performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. Given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in a gown of mousseline-de-soie over organza tulle styled with a fitted bodice, partial neckline, outlined with re-embroidered-aleon lace, long sleeves, and a full collition train. Her fingertip veil of French silk illusion was attached to a matching lace cloche. She carried a white prayer book adorned with white-California-asters.

Miss Lucretia Rae Hess, Newark, was maid of honor in a rose-colored cocktail length peau-de-sole dress fashioned with a scoop neck-line, three-quarter length sleeves and a semi-circular skirt with a center back flounce.

Miss Jean Cranse, Millburn, N. J.; Miss Anne Williams, Mountain Lakes, N. J. and Miss Nancy Gormsen, Phila, Pa. were bridesmaids in dresses of dolphin-blue made similar to that of the maid of honor. The attendants carried bouquets and wore headpieces of asters.

Costance Cipko, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white nylon dress with a rose colored sash. She carried a basket of mixed flowers.

John Medway, Gouldsboro, Pa. brother of the groom was best man.

Ushers were Leo Helfmann, Gouldsboro, Pa. Robert Bescker and Lloyd Ellison of Mt. Pocomo, Pa.

The reception was held at the Washington House, Watchung, N. J. After their honeymoon the couple will make their home in Summit, N. J.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's Academy, North Plainfield and she attended the college of St. Elizabeth, Convent Station, N. J. Mr. Medway attended Lehigh University and is presently employed by the H. A. Wilson Co. of Union.

Vacationing Upstate — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pepe, Jr. of 37 Mountain Avenue made a trip through Upstate New York's famous canyon, the Ausable Chasm, last week. The Pezes are on vacation.

Hard Luck Traffic Light Hard Hit At Midnight

For the second time this year the traffic light station in the middle of Flermer Avenue at the center of town "has hit the dust."

Shortly after midnight Tuesday a West Orange woman drove her Cadillac sedan through the traffic light leaving only a few broken wires sticking up out of the cement dividing island.

The smashed light pole shorted out all the traffic signals in the center for 30 hours. Police estimate that this is the 8th or 9th time since the pole was put up seven years ago that a motorist has knocked it down.

According to police, Florence Paucello of 8 Union st., West

Orange was making a left turn off Morris Avenue into Flermer Avenue when she looked back to see if a friend was following her. Wham!

Mrs. Paucello was uninjured. But police say her car suffered a badly damaged front left fender, bumper, and headlight, a dented roof and cracked windshield.

Police Chief Albert A. Sarge says it will probably take three days to get a replacement for the wrecked traffic light.

Tremendous interest is being shown by pros all over the United States in the $50,000 Open Championship to be held at the Shacketon Country Club, Scotch Plains, New Jersey, September 5th to 11th.

As a result the deadline for filing entry blanks has been extended to September 2nd. Sam Sneed, Jack Fleck, Doug Ford, Ed Furgal, Dr. Cary Middlecott, Lighthouse Harry Cooper, George Bayer, and a host of other top pros have indicated they will compete in the tournament.

The Cavalcade of Golf Open Championship will be the largest money tournament ever held in the East, with a first money prize of $10,000, a second prize of $5,000, a third prize of $3,000, plus 42 other money prizes. It is expected that practically every top pro in the country will compete for a share in the $50,000 pot.

Even Gene Sarazen, the old maestro, is coming out for this one.

During the week of the Open Championship, on Wednesday, September 7, the 50 top money winning pros in the country will play in a Pro-Celebrity Tournament for the benefit of United Cerebral Palsy with top stars of stage, screen and television and top amateur golfers.

Steps Up Success Ladder

Harvey P. Sommerer of 30 Mapes Avenue has been promoted to the position of Manager of Purchasing for the Apparatus Division of Federal Telephone & Radio Corporation, Clifton. He succeeds Charles G. Sherwood who was transferred as Purchasing Director to Vice President and Manager of Railroad Sales.

Sommerer is also chairman of the Membership Committee of the North Jersey Chapter of the National Association of Purchasing Agents.

Feature Race At Atlantic City

The $25,000 added World's Playground Stakes for two-year-olds, to be renewed at seven furlongs on September 10, holds promise of bringing together once more the big three of the juvenile division. They are Barclay Stable's Polly's Jet, D. & H. Stable's Needles and River Divide Farm's Decathlon.

Polly's Jet and Decathlon sported unblemished records until the recent Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park when the fleet Needles proved their Achilles heel. Needles upset the previously unbeaten youngsters for one of the stunning victories of the year.

The nomination roster of 41 juveniles is replete with other fashionably-bred youngsters. One is Calumet Farm's Fabius, a highly regarded son of Citation and Shameen who carried the devil's red silks of the Calumet Farm to victory in his debut at Arlington Park. In his lone major engagement, he was a fast-closing third in the Arlington Futurity. Another prospect is Montpelier's Nahodah, a recent winner at Saratoga.

The World's Playground Stakes nominees follow:
Accepted, Another Page, Bear Pond, Beauridge, Black Emperor, Blazing Rocket, Busher Fantasy, Cedrus, Crack Down, Decathlon, Deep Breath, Dromond, Errard Prince, Espira, Fabius, Gold Bell 2nd, Golden Bear, Grand Refrain, Gun Shot, Hi And Fair, High King, Hobe, Irish Love, Jean Baptiste, Lenny G, Mighty Baker, Mighty Modest, More Apps, Nahodah, Nan's Mink, Needles, Peter Parent, Polly's Jet, Pop Pop Jimmy, Pyrides, Riggs Royal Beacon 2nd, Sicilian, Sol Hi, Tiger Wanderer, Twayblade.

The number of visitors to the United Nations buildings in New York City is increasing rapidly with the number approaching 6,000 on peak days.

Modern fishing for a living has become so mechanically complicated that a project now receiving serious consideration in Britain is a college for fishermen.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

"Those worn-out dogmas!"

Via pulpit, platform, and loudspeakers, we hear it. In newspapers, magazines, and books, we read it. "Those worn-out religious dogmas no longer fit the modern mind — no longer fill the needs of humanity. Away with them!"

Well, let's see about it. There's an all-creative God. Nothing that is, can be logically explained without the dogma. Better hold on to that one anyhow.

The Bible. Do not all Christians believe it to be a collection of inspired writings? Hasn't it proved itself by withstanding the most venomous attacks for sixteen hundred years and by remaining today the keystone of Christian beliefs? Then let's trot fast to the Bible, despite all its dogmatic teachings.

In the Scriptures the prophets foretold the coming of the Savior and the prophecies were fulfilled in Jesus Christ, the Divine Son of God, who lived to teach, who died to expiate the sins of man. Old, old dogmas, but can they ever wear out?

The Catholic Church, because it believes that Christ commissioned it to "teach all things whatsoever I have commanded you," and because it believes that God bestowed upon it the guardianship and interpretation of all His revealed truths, is richer in dogmatic teachings than all other churches.

But, after all, if you are a Christian you too believe in many of the Catholic dogmas. If you are an Individualist, you believe in some of the Catholic dogmas. If you are just a Deist, you believe in one of the Catholic dogmas.

Therefore, we are sure, you can smile or weep with us at the ignorance of the "No-dogma" orator who probably knows not the meaning of the word "Dogma" — who obviously has created "the modern mind" in the image and likeness of his own — who certainly has not true conception of the needs of humanity, else he would plainly see that to get back to Christ and His Dogmatic teachings is the sole hope of the world today.

Qualifying Round At Morristown

More than 70 of the finest stock car race drivers in the East will converge Friday night, Sept. 2, on the Morristown Raceway to take part in the weekly card of motor competition, but there will be a special incentive in this 19th card of the year.

Word was received yesterday by Track Operator Joe Soranno from Pat Purcell, executive secretary of the National Assn. For Stock Car Auto Racing, based in Daytona Beach, Fla., that the Morristown Raceway had been selected as the site for a qualifying round program Sept. 2; sportsman division drivers who finish well up in the night's 25 lap feature contest will become eligible for the October 9-NASCAR National Sportsman Division Championship race at the Langhorne (Pa.) Speedway, the number one event annually in its field in America.

Hundreds of stock car chauffeurs point for the Langhorne classic but only 60 can possibly make the grade and to earn a starting berth they must qualify via meets such as the Morristown card.

Purcell was to rule on whether drivers of modified cars could become eligible by converting to the single carburetor engine, with a final decision expected by mid-week. Should he decide that such a move can be made, top ranked modified stars like George Tet, Spud Murphy, Ray Cook, Ronnie Kohler, Ray Baxter and many more who compete weekly on the Hanover Avenue speed strip may change over, making for the most interesting situation of the year.

Every pilot seeking one of the 25 positions open in Friday's 25 lap feature will have to make the grade in one of the three 10 lap heats, or the 10 lap consolation race; the weekly 15 lap-rookie race for beginners in the sport is an individual contest that has no bearing on the open competition, serving as a stepping-stone for the young hopefuls. Several of the professional performers are graduates of the rookie crop.

International Flower Show Plans Underway

A 1956 International Flower Show for New York became a certainty on August 18 with the signing of the first lease for the use of New York's new show palace, the south building of the former John Wanamaker department store at Broadway and Fourth Avenue, between 8th and 9th Streets in New York for March 11 to 17, 1956. It was announced by W. E. Coe, Jr., chairman of the board of directors, that the International Flower Show will use three of the five lower floors now available as a permanent exhibition palace, as an immediate successor to the old Grand Central Palace, former home of the Flower Show, with about twice the old Palace's floor space. The Flower Show will use 180,000 sq. ft., about 30,000 more than at the Grand Central Palace.

The International Flower Show is a joint project of the New York Florists' Club and the Horticultural Society of New York, but functions independently with a board of directors representing both sponsoring organizations.
