Layng and Remlinger Deny Use Of "Influence" in Real Estate

G.O.P. Barn Dance Friday Evening

Republican candidates for State, County and local offices will be honored at the annual barn dance to be held by the Springfield Republican Club Friday evening, October 14, at the Old Evergreen Lodge in Springfield, it was announced by Mrs. Amy Bandomer, chairman of the affair.

"As in the past, an invitation is extended to all the people of Springfield to attend this annual get-together and to enjoy the program that has been planned for the occasion," Mrs. Bandomer stated.

Dance music, both old and new, will be provided by George Hill and his Billbillys and refreshments will be available.

The Republican Club will also sponsor a candidates' night at its regular meeting next Monday, October 17, at the American Legion Hall, Springfield, it was announced by John S. Bender, club president.

GOP Candidates Blast Bonadies On Parking Ban

The pledge made by Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies that if Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg are elected to give him a voting majority in Springfield, legal steps would be taken immediately to lift the parking ban on Morris Avenue, brought a bristling joint statement from Township Committeeman Frederick A. Handville and Raymond W. Forbes, the Republican candidates.

Wilbert W. Layng, Springfield Tax Assessor, denied vehemently the charges made by the Democrats involving him in "real estate deals" and "job promises" at the township committee meeting held on Tuesday evening.

Layng polled the committee individually on this question—"Do any of you gentlemen know of any case where I ever asked for favors or influenced any real estate deals, or, specifically, know of any promises that I have made to further my own business?"

Mayor Albert G. Binder and Committeeman Donnelly, Handville and Remlinger gave emphatic "no's," but Committeeman Bonadies insisted that "this should have been brought to the attention of the accusers." Bonadies also added, "that on numerous other occasions, taxpayers have come before the town committee and were not given the satisfaction of being heard, and these same taxpayers were stopped in their attempts on the basis of using their remarks for 'gaining votes' and furthering their political careers."

Layng also pointed out that the job of permanent tax assessor is one that the town committee has absolutely no control over. Only by petition of 10% of the voters, a referendum and a general election can such a job be created, he said.

"It is a pitiful thing that two such completely uninformed candidates should be put forward by the Democrat Party for election to the Township Committee."

"Don't they know that the post of tax assessor is an elective office?"

"Don't these aspirants for public office know that the Township Committee has absolutely no power to change the present set-up? Don't they know that such a change must emanate with the voters, ten per cent of whom must sign a petition, requesting the change? Are they unaware that the question must then be submitted on a referendum to all of the voters? If the referendum is approved then the voters select their tax assessor in a general election."

"Do these two shadow candidates or their stage manager know as little about all the other public questions that arise in the day-by-day administration of public affairs?"

"This juvenile drivel is identical with the other fairy tales that Brother Bonadies has been peddling in this campaign."

"To make my position perfectly clear, let me repeat that any single tax assessor must, by law, be selected by the voters of Springfield alone."

"Furthermore, if the people decide upon a single assessor to replace the present three-man board on which I now serve, I will not under any circumstances, be a candidate for that office."

This gave Committeeman Charles Remlinger the opportunity to answer charges aimed at him of purported real estate deals. He posed the same question to the committee and the answers were the same. Remlinger clarified his position when Bonadies said, "disqualifying yourself from voting on real estate properties when they reach the town committee does not absolve you from blame regarding influence when you can exert such influence on the Planning Board." Remlinger attempted to clear up that point by stating that "on all occasions where I was in any way remotely involved with a property to come before the planning board, I advised the board before discussion of the matter and they could judge my remarks accordingly."

In the Woodside homes "deal" in particular, Remlinger stated that he had been out sick from Township affairs from December 21, 1954 to March 1, 1955. Preliminary discussion of the Woodside Home development had all been done in his absence, he stated.

The March meeting of the Planning Board, which was to give final approval to Woodside, was the only meeting he sat in on, he maintained. "I would be willing to stand before any court or body and let them pass judgment as to whether I misused my office," declared Remlinger.

"The charges by the Democratic candidates indicate that Planning Board members, who are Republicans, Democrats and Independents, have been derelict in their duty. It reflects upon their integrity and it is certain that these qualified men would take exception to any charges or inferences made by Keane and Weinberg."

Democrats Loosen Broadside; Charge "Whitewash" Attempt

The statement published by Mayor Albert G. Binder in last week's issue of the Springfield Sun regarding the charges made by the Democratic candidates for Township Committee brought another broadside from Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg in reply. Their statement, released yesterday, accuses Mayor Binder of attempting "to whitewash the whole matter."

Following is the statement by Messrs. Keane and Weinberg: "We were happy to read that Mayor Binder admitted last week that there were real estate activities on the part of some members of the present power politically controlled administration. 'No one will dispute that fact,' he said in his statement, and he then proceeded to apply generous swipes of the whitewash brush.

"May we quote, for the benefit of those who haven't read the Springfield Sun, a portion of the statement of Mayor Binder who said, 'The charge that certain individuals on the Board have outside interests that might be enhanced by their official capacity is beside the point.'"

Questions—Right
"Contrary to Mr. Binder we feel that this is the point. No one in any official capacity has the right to enhance his position because it must ultimately be at the expense of the taxpayer. One in an official capacity is in a position of trust and confidence and he must zealously guard the confidence and trust placed in him. It is a violation of that trust when an individual who has a personal interest in a matter uses his position by legislation or policy to further his interest.

"In such cases, he is under a duty to remove himself from any conflict—not to introduce an or-

"Town Meeting No Place For Politics," Bonadies

"The spectacle of turning a regular business meeting of the Township Committee Tuesday evening into a political circus with every rule of parliamentary procedure discarded," said Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies in a prepared statement yesterday, "is further evidence of the utter disregard Mayor Binder and his Republican power house have for citizens of Springfield. The only consolation was that only a handful of job holders were present to witness this miscarriage of power and a most farcical attempt to clear their skirts in a well rehearsed but very inept burlesque."

Honor P. O. Clerks As Safe Drivers

Raymond A. Daudelin and James E. Conner, letter carriers at the Springfield post office, were presented by Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio yesterday, October 12th, with Safe Driver Awards of the National Safety Council for "one year of accident-free driving of Government vehicles in the performance of their official duties."

The Post Office Department, operating the largest fleet of trucks in the United States, is an active participant in the Award Program of the National Safety Council, and the awards given to Carriers Daudelin and Conner are the first ever issued to an employee of the Post Office.

First Aid Squad Needs More Funds

The Springfield First Aid Squad has completed its door-to-door collection of the coin cards for annual fund drive.

For the convenience of the many loyal supporters in Springfield who have not been contacted and who wish to make a contribution to this fund drive, the Springfield First Aid Squad Ambulance will be stationed at the General Greene Shopping Center on Friday evening, October 14, and Friday evening, October 21.

Plans are now under way for the erection of a First Aid Squad building on property which has been made available to the squad by the Township. The First Aid Squad hopes the building can be completed with the least possible delay in order to better serve the people of Springfield.

1st National Has Free Magazine

Scores of suggestions for interesting weekend outings are contained in the current edition of "New Jersey Today," a colorful magazine being distributed to its customers without charge by the First National Bank of Springfield.

Packed with photos and stories about places to go and things to see in the Garden State, the eight-page publication outlines trip suggestions to please every member of the family.

The fall edition includes illustrated stories on Storyland, the Russell Patterson-designed world at Neptune where song and story of childhood come to life; best drives to see New Jersey's flaming fall foliage; the fascinating assembly of cars at Ford's new Marwah and Mercury's Metuchen plants; the New Jersey State Fair and Impique; Stevens Institute at Hoboken. Additionally, the paper tells about the availability of game for fall hunters and about raising Thanksgiving turkeys, naming farms where gobblers can be seen. It also features many historic places of interest and illustrates fishing, boating and cranberry picking scenes. Another feature is a calendar of coming events through November.

A quarterly, the magazine has found its way into many schools where it is being used in history, geography and social studies classes.

Surgeon To Be Guest Speaker At Church Sun.

Dr. Archibald G. Fletcher

Dr. Archibald G. Fletcher, Jr., surgeon on the staff of Miraj Medical Centre in Western India, will be the featured speaker at the annual observance of Layman's Sunday at the Presbyterian Church this Sunday. Worship Services at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. will be conducted by the Men of the Church in conjunction with the Rev. Bruce W. Evans, Pastor. Mr. Edward Mertz, President of the Men's Club, will be in charge of the services assisted by Orval Goodman, Herald Jones, George Harrison, George Gleim and William Sweeney.

In the afternoon at 3:30 p.m. an informal reception in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher will be held at the Parish House. Special music will be provided by the Junior Choir and other young people of the Church. The community of Springfield is invited to attend both the worship services and the reception that they might meet.

Dr. Fletcher personally and learned in detail of the world-wide work of the Church. Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher receive partial support from the local Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Fletcher is the son of Presbyterian Missionaries to Korea, and spent his early life in that country. He came to the United States for his college education, and graduated from Princeton University in 1938. He took his medical training at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, and served as intern at the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. He was a medical officer with the U. S. Army in Europe two years, and just before going to India was an exchange fellow at McGill University in Montreal.

Dr. Fletcher is surgeon on the staff of Miraj Medical Centre, in Western India. This great Christian institution includes the Wanless Hospital, Vail Cancer Institute, a medical school, a training school for nurses, a leper hospital, and a home for untainted children of lepers. Also in Miraj is the Wanless Tuberculosis Sanatorium, an independent organization, but closely associated with Miraj Medical Centre.

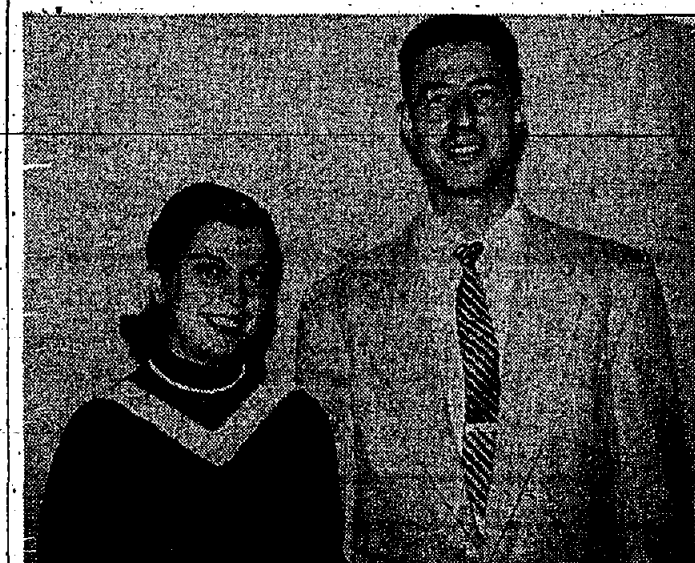

Wanless Hospital is particularly noted for surgery, and Dr. Fletcher has made a large contribution toward maintaining the well established reputation. In addition to his work in the hospital he has served dispensaries in the rural district surrounding Miraj. He also lectures to the medical students, and helps in the work of the outpatient clinic.

New Infants - Children Shop is Opening Here

The great influx of young married couples to Springfield has brought another enterprising store to the Township where everything for infants and children—"everything from diapers to dungarees"—will be available. The new shop is known as the Reineette Youth Center, located at 246 Morris Avenue.

The owners of the new shop, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shapiro who come from Plainfield, have had eight years' experience in this field of infant and children's clothes, both in the retail as well as the wholesale. They were affiliated with two such shops in New York City and have been watching the steady growth of Springfield before finally deciding to open up in the Township.

The place has been attractively tured. The Reineette Youth Center prepared with all the newest fix will carry all the well known brands of merchandise, complete layettes—all at very popular prices.

READY FOR BUSINESS—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shapiro appear very happy about their new shop—the Reineette Youth Center, at 246 Morris Avenue. The store has been renovated and they're ready for anything in the infants' and children's needs.

Youth Society To Hear Minister

The Rev. Ian McDowell, Presbyterian Minister from North Ireland and presently a graduate student at Princeton Theological Seminary, will be guest speaker at the meeting of the Presbyterian Young People's Society on Sunday evening at 7:30. This group, which is open to all high school age young people is under the leadership of Mr. George Forner, Student Assistant of Princeton, and Miss Judy Widmer as president.

Mr. McDowell is a graduate of Trinity College in Dublin where he received his bachelor's degree in physics. He did graduate work at the Presbyterian College in Belfast where he also served as an assistant pastor. He brings to the church a rich experience and an outstanding reputation as a minister vitally interested in the youth of the Church.

Local Candidates Night Set for October 20

One of the splendid civic services, the League Women Voters renders to the township of Springfield is that of sponsoring a "Candidate Night" at which time all candidates for public office are invited to express their views to the general public.

On Thursday, October 20, at 8:15 p.m., at the Florence Gaudineer School, the four candidates for the three year term for the township committee will speak. On the platform will be Raymond W. Forbes, Frederick A. Handville, Francis Keane and Irwin Weinberg, all candidates for the two vacancies on the committee.

This is part of the Voters' Service Program of the local league which is under the chairmanship of Mrs. David T. Stammelman, who has secured Mrs. Grace F. Reed of Westfield to act as moderator at the Candidates meeting.

Mrs. Reed is highly qualified to handle the chairmanship of the meeting as she is the President of the League of Women Voters of Westfield; a member of the State Board of the League, and a member of the Security Council of the Department of Labor and Industry representing the General Public.

The meeting will be opened by Mrs. Roy Gertmanian, president of the League after which Mrs. Reed as moderator will guide the meeting. Each candidate will be asked to present his platform in a 10 minute talk limiting his re-

When we took over as publishers and owners of the SPRINGFIELD SUN, an editorial appeared in the issue of November 20, 1952, a part of which read as follows:

"We want the SPRINGFIELD SUN to be a common meeting place where there can be an exchange of views and ideas... the owners hope to make this newspaper a militant medium through which we can all accomplish the things that will help Springfield as a community—as a place to live and grow—as a place to educate our children."

THE ABOVE IS STILL OUR CREED. This is still our policy of fair play. It was our editorial formula last year when the local Republican organization aired a lot of political linen during that very interesting slug-fest between former Mayor "Bob" Marshall and the administration-backed Harold G. Nenninger.

The SUN made its columns available to both political sides in the Bonadies-Marshall contest last November—giving equal space and emphasis to both.

And THE ABOVE IS STILL OUR POLICY. When the current campaign started, the SUN again announced to the gentlemen running the show for both sides that we will accept and publish everything pertaining to the contest for the two vacancies on the Township Committee.

We stipulated, however, that the matter of all articles should be subject to editorial blue-penciling where there might be some area of libel, but the SUN would publish whatever was submitted relating to the political campaign, within reason and conforming with good taste.

There is now another political storm blowing up—gathering hurricane winds—with plenty of huffing and puffing on both sides.

The SUN wants to reiterate that, in making space available on both sides, it merely follows the original policy of giving the candidates an opportunity to tell their stories. It does not necessarily reflect the position of the SUN on any of the questions raised in the campaign and it certainly isn't evidence that we are backing the candidacy of one over another.

The SUN wishes to make this clear. The columns of this newspaper are open to both political factions—and, if there is anything in an article by one side that calls for clarification and explanation by the other group, we will be glad to publish it.

We don't intend to suppress news—nor do we want to be placed in the position of "answering or elaborating" on any of the statements made. If one side released an article which was published in the SUN, we will be only too happy to print a rebuttal, or an explanation or a denial.

The trials and tribulations of a newspaper editor—especially a weekly—was cleverly portrayed in a California publication which means that readers are about the same all over. Here, in part, is how he portrayed it:

THE MORNING AFTER

"Hello. Is this the editor?"
Even the telephone couldn't hide the lady's disdain.
"See here, last week I gave you an article on the Watch Winders Auxiliary. What do you mean by not putting it in?"
"Begging your pardon, madam, I believe that appeared. Let me see... oh, yes... you'll find it on page 2."
It was a good three minutes before the next call.
"This is Mrs. Sue Perfluvo. I'm calling about the story I sent in on the visit-at-my home by my third cousin from Altadena."
"I believe we ran an item on that..."
"Yes, but you left out so much."
"You mean his war record? It's sometimes necessary to leave out a detail or two, even as important as his tour of duty in Texas, for space reasons. You see..."
The lady didn't see.
I barely had time to light a cigaret.
"Hello, I just wanted to tell you that I thought this was a wonderful issue. All the columns were interesting. There was a wealth of news and very good interpretive articles. I especially liked the excellent photo coverage. The editorial was thought provoking and well written. The paper was outstanding."
I waited until the lady was through.
"Thank you," I answered humbly. "What's for dinner tonight, honey?"

WE WOULD LIKE TO throw a few more orchids at the local League of Women Voters for the wonderful job done in preparing and producing the most interesting and fact-packed publication called "Springfield." There was evidently a lot of serious research done and the booklet is a source of useful information for those who want to know something about Springfield.

The SPRINGFIELD SUN has been mailing copies to prospective advertisers who want to "look over the territory" and some of the comments indicate that the text matter, the very fine typography and the general appearance of the booklet have been just what the Township needs for promotion purposes. The league must sell a lot of them in order to meet the publication costs and all those who haven't yet purchased a copy will be helping an excellent "selling" job for Springfield by getting copies for their own use—or even to send to friends.

LOVERS OF GOOD FOOD who still believe they must scout around to far-away restaurants to dine properly, need not be surprised to learn that Springfield has a couple of intimate places where the gourmet can find many things the palate will love.

If you haven't tasted Terry Dempsey's garlic toasted bread—which is served generously at every meal—you're in for a taste surprise. Dempsey's is, probably, better known as a rendezvous for discriminating diners from all parts of Essex and Union but Springfield hasn't yet really discovered it. Garlic bread is something that makes us drool but Dempsey's charcoal steaks and chops—with sizzling platters, yet—can match anything you get in those plush palaces where they add to the rugs what they take away from the fllet mignon: We're not alone in shouting about Terry Dempsey's because, the other evening there was an after wedding party on hand from the Badenhausen—(Ballantine) family, and Dempsey said they come in very often.

The other personal rave spot is Jack Powers' Twigs on Springfield Avenue, just off Morris. Powers has practically rebuilt the place and there are now comfortable booths and tables for the many things he has in store for Springfield. There are a couple of mixing magicians behind the bar and the cocktails they serve should win some ribbons or medals. Jack will start serving lunch next Wednesday but his charcoal steaks and chops for dinner are the star attractions.

GRANDFATHER'S CORNER: We suppose every grandpa soon enough becomes a terrific bore with his stories of some world-shattering thing his "grandson said only that morning." However, at the risk of being told to sit in the corner, we just can't resist repeating one of the many startling things our own Jimmy has said to further convince this grandpa that he is definitely a child prodigy—or something.

Jimmy had been taught to count and, at the age of about 2 1/2, he did very well. When asked to do his stuff, Jimmy counted up to "six" and, for some childish and obstinate reason, would not go above that number. Finally, in some desperation, Jimmy was asked, "and what comes after six?" And his reply quickly came, "Howdy-Doody."

This opens the door for all dotting grandfathers in Springfield. We will be happy to print any unusual incident about grandsons or granddaughters but the readers will have to be prepared for more about Jimmy because "we've got millions of them."

Your Library

The booklet "Springfield," published by the League of Women Voters, is selling rapidly. If you have not been able to buy a copy, the library has them for sale along with the booklet "Battle of Springfield, June 1780," published by the Springfield Historical Society. Both of them are handy reminders to send to out-of-town friends to give them an idea of what our town is and what it stands for. Because of the fine map and directory of new telephone numbers, the new booklet "Springfield" is worth the price (50c) to every household. Congratulations to the League of Women Voters for a difficult job well done!

"Letters Bring Happiness" is the slogan for National Letter Writing Week, October 2-8. Everyone knows how glad they are to hear from friends and yet how difficult it is to write to them.

But how many people remember the art of writing novels of character was discovered by Samuel Richardson while writing letters for illiterate servant girls? His first novel "Pamela, or Virtue Rewarded" is told in a series of letters. Another story told in letters, which also goes back to the eighteenth century, is "Humphrey Clinker" by Smollett. In recent times "Daddy-Long-Legs" and "Dear Enemy" by Jean Webster appeared in the ditional letter form. The letters in "The Ides of March" by Thornton Wilder were supposed to have been written in Caesar's Rome. Just the past week we were reading the letter Harry S. Truman wrote to "Dear Mother and Mary" telling of his first days in the White House. Letters always have an important place in biography and some are collected for their charm and entertainment. "A Blessed Girl; Memoirs of a Victorian Girlhood" and Theodore Roosevelt's "Letters to His Children," which he occasionally illustrated, are examples of these.

Beside letters telling stories and letters written by real people, the Free Public Library of Springfield has books on how to write letters, both social and business, such as "Take a Letter Please" and "Successful Letter Writing." Advice on letter writing for formal occasions is found in etiquette books like the one by Mrs. Emily Post.

With so much help available in your library it would be fun to write some unusual letters during this week set apart for letter writing.

GOP Candidates To Attend O.R.T. NY Convention

(Continued from Page 1) parking on Morris Avenue. Of course, characteristically, Mr. Bonadies does not inform the people that any local traffic ordinance cannot become effective until it is approved by the State Department of Motor Vehicles. Mr. Bonadies rates as the State's outstanding optimist if he thinks that the Motor Vehicle Department is going to back down on the present limitation on parking and repudiate the Highway Department that insisted on it.

"What is more, Mr. Bonadies, if he were a reasonable man, would not plunge for free-for-all parking if he had any consideration for the safety of the people of Springfield?"

"A reasonable man would want the partial ban on parking in rush hours to permit the better flow of traffic as well as the protection of pedestrians. But who ever accused Mr. Bonadies of being a reasonable man?"

"If his vaunted power and influence with the Democrat Highway Commissioner is anywhere as impressive as he would have the public believe, why doesn't he show Mr. Palmer that a 24-hour ban on parking is completely unrealistic and totally unnecessary and not a condition to be imposed to obtain the covering of the old trolley tracks and the repaving of the street."

"Contrast Mr. Bonadies' political paralysis on this important matter with the unceasing efforts of Mayor Albert C. Binder and the Republican members of the Township Committee to persuade Commissioner Palmer to do this job. Incidentally, Mr. Bonadies was fully aware of every meeting, conference and communication between Mayor Binder and Commissioner Palmer."

"Mr. Bonadies has done nothing on this matter for ten whole months. In view of his record, we doubt that he can do what he says he can in the next ten months—or the next ten years."

Women's American O.R.T., an organization dedicated to helping unprivileged and underprivileged people in 19 countries, will open its 13th Biennial Convention on October 18th at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City.

Over 400 delegates and as many alternates from the 235 chapters and 28 regions of this nationwide organization will be present. Women from the Springfield Chapter who will be delegates are Mrs. Philip Goldhammer, president; Mrs. Walter Canter, Mrs. David Hecht, Mrs. Seymour Margules, all of Springfield, and Mrs. Morris Horowitz, Mrs. Lloyd Kaplan, and Mrs. Philip Kaufman of Millburn. Aside from scheduled addresses by important government and public figures, the convention will also feature a fashion show displaying the design and craftsmanship of the students of various O.R.T. schools in Europe.

"Town Meeting" Provocation to Do It

(Continued from Page 1) "What has happened to that? Have the exposures regarding the reported $50,000 commissions made in a few months by the real estate monopoly in the Township Committee forced them to abandon the promise. Have they been smoked out and are now fighting to perpetuate the many things that are ready for further exposure? Why did Mayor Binder apply the gag rule to citizens and taxpayers when they attempted to be heard on a matter that was before the Township, ordering them to sit down because they had the audacity to ask some questions. Where did Mayor Binder get his authority to permit all members—all the Republican members to carry on, with instructions from Town Attorney Sherman, but refusing me the right to be heard."

"This political campaign which was to be conducted on a high dignified plane has now been dragged into the gutter but, for a good reason—the truth hurts. How disgusting it must be to good citizens to know that a Township Committee business session was used as a sounding board for personal political campaigns with steam roller tactics and insults hurled against the minority.

At Business Session "Where did Mayor Binder find the authority to permit a purely political campaign matter to become part of the business agenda of the Township Committee meeting? How could he permit Mr. Laying to read a prepared political attack against me with the job holders chortling and debauchery going out of the window?"

"Several weeks ago when several citizens and taxpayers attempted to ask some pertinent questions at a PUBLIC HEARING on the Angleton apartment house matter, Mayor Binder wouldn't permit them to be heard, stating that it was being done merely as part of a political campaign.

"Tuesday evening, at a business meeting of the governing body, Mayor Binder permitted Mr. Laying to make his political speech, reading from a typed paper, and then turned the whole meeting over to the $84,000 question to Messrs. Laying and Remlinger.

"Even Town Attorney Max Sherman got into the act, sitting from chair to chair, prompting answers and advising on how the questions should be phrased.

"What a commentary on our local administration! To permit such a display of power politics at a regular business meeting of the governing body, Mayor Binder wouldn't permit taxpayers to ask any question that might not be answered to his own satisfaction—but Tuesday evening's meeting was turned into a political affair with everybody raising their hands in supplication and begging everything. Calling me names and referring to me as dispenser of juvenile delinquency doesn't answer any of the questions Springfield voters will answer November 8."

Democrats

(Continued from Page 1) distance, not to use persuasive powers to intimidate or coerce. We charge that the present Real Estate mob has continually violated their position of trust to further their personal interests. Have we become so apathetic to government that we are going to permit this activity to be carried on with impunity to the usurers of public trust?

"How much more dignity there was in Washington when Former Air Secretary Harold E. Talbot was charged with violating the conflict-of-interest laws in using his high position, to get business for his own engineering firm and share in the profits. An inquiry and public opinion forced the resignation of Mr. Talbot because of the investigation.

"But President Eisenhower didn't make public any explanation, any attempt to laugh off the reprehensible business of using the influence of high office for selfish gain without any regard for the opinion of anyone—especially the public.

"The charges made against members of the Township Committee and the governing body for real estate activities are not to be laughed at. No one denies a man's right to have outside interests; one could hardly make a living as a member of the governing body. But in this case, these real estate people obtained their licenses after they had been members of the governing body after taking office.

"Springfield doesn't need government by privilege for special interests only. These special blessed few who control Springfield now consider the Township their private political hunting grounds and they have become so powerful that their indifference to the needs of the community is becoming tragic. Their secret weapon is power and control, but they are using old-time worn techniques and we believe it's time for a change—a big change.

"Will Mayor Binder beat his breast with anguish when he is reminded that it was a member of his official family, Township Committeeman Charles Remlinger who maneuvered and guided a resolution to a very quick adoption changing the existing bond requirements for builders so that the cash required would be much less. Wasn't it a strange coincidence, Mr. Mayor, that the only developer or builder affected by such a change in cash requirements happened to be the firm represented by Mr. Remlinger?"

"Can't Be Laughed Off "Real-estate activities by members of the governing body cannot be laughed off; they're not just ordinary sales. They represent some of the largest deals made in the Township and the commissions run into thousands and thousands of dollars. So, it's no wonder that every effort is being made to keep control of these real estate developments. For instance, Mr. Laying assessed the Haselmann property at approximately $300 an acre for Springfield's tax purposes—but is said to have sold it at $450,000 an acre. The Ness property was sold at a reported $105,000. That's BIG BUSINESS.

"Does he want to explain how it was that Mr. Remlinger suddenly became the super-salesman and was signed as exclusive agent for the Fisher Contracting Company's 240 house development on Meisel avenue, the Twin Oaks, and, next will come the homes on the Haselmann tract? Was it an accomplishment of the administration that Mr. Remlinger sat with the Planning Board and with the Township Committee, considering matters that concerned all these real estate developments while everyone knew—and Remlinger even boasted—that his firm was to be the exclusive selling agent."

"Does he want to explain why rate citizens jammed into the Town Hall for a public hearing on a piece of property sold by the Donnelly-McMullen office at the corner of Hillside and South Springfield avenues?"

"That brings us to all the public hearings with taxpayers and citizens objecting to so many proposals hatched out by these same eager-beaver real estate members of the official family. Daystrom, as we all know, was willing to build on property other than the Baltusrol Golf Club tract on Sunpike road. Daystrom wanted to come to Springfield and all the civic associations in Springfield assured their representatives that they would be welcome on property selected on Baltusrol Top. But, evidently, Daystrom was driven out—NOT by objectors but by the Township Committee. Wasn't that piece of property in the right real estate office?"

"And, in closing this Mr. Mayor, do you remember what you said in public when some matter was up for a public hearing a few months ago? Do you remember the statement you made when the shouting of objectors ceased? You said, 'Mr. Mayor, if you don't like it, don't vote for us.'"

Elected President Barbara Booth of Springfield was elected president of Grade Eight in its recent election in student government at Kent Place School in Summit.

Red Cross Opens
First Aid Class

Two classes in Standard First Aid will begin this week according to an announcement by the Millburn-Short Hills Chapter of the American Red Cross. An evening class beginning at 8 p. m. will start today, Thursday, at the Chapter House on Millburn Avenue. A morning class starts on Wednesday, October 19, at 9:30 a. m.

These classes are free. The complete course of General First Aid is covered in eighteen class hours. The local chapter is fortunate in having skilled and capable volunteer instructors—a fact which accounts for the numerous courses held here during the last few years and which have resulted in a community-wide awareness of the vital need for safety education. Registrations may be made by calling Drexel 9-4198.

Free Pamphlet On Hurricanes

Every year violent windstorms cause untold damage, loss of life. Of these, hurricanes are among the most destructive. This is because they extend over wide areas.

Last year, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, capital stock fire insurance companies paid out $225 million through losses resulting from Carol, Edna and Hazel.

Born in tropical regions of the Atlantic or Caribbean, such storms develop between the middle of June and the middle of November. Their period of greatest activity is now—early September.

Usually hurricanes move westward or north-westward, then swing in a curve toward the north or northeast. Their paths vary considerably. Some travel thousands of miles at sea, never come near the mainland; others strike at points on the Gulf of Mexico or the Atlantic coast. From Yucatan to Nova Scotia their devastating effects have been felt, sometimes far inland.

Some hurricanes are small, 50 miles in diameter, the majority are bigger—in many instances 500 miles across. The center averages about 14 miles in diameter with winds revolving counter-clockwise around it at sustained velocity often of more than 100 miles an hour. The entire storm progresses generally at a speed of 10 to 15 miles an hour.

In a pamphlet just published, the National Board of Fire Underwriters lists the precautions that should be taken to prevent needless loss of life and property damage. Copies may be obtained by writing to the Engineering Department, National Board of Fire Underwriters, 85 John St., New York 38, N. Y.

Briefly, these precautions are as follows:

1. Stay off streets. Serious injury—often fatalities—result from falling glass, signs and building cornices.
2. Don't touch wires. Downed power lines are a grave menace. Instruct children in this precaution.
3. Movable awnings should be raised and securely tied, or removed entirely.
4. Shutters should be secured as quickly as possible. Delay may make impossible any chance to get them into proper position, thus resulting in damage.
5. Garage doors and other large doors should be securely braced against movement either in or out.
6. Loose material and movable objects, such as boards, garbage cans, porch furniture and the like, should be placed where there is no danger of being lifted and blown against a building or through a window.
7. One or more windows should be kept open on the lee side—the side opposite that from which the wind is coming—to provide some ventilation and, under certain conditions, to prevent wind damage and to equalize pressure.
8. Temporary lighting methods, preferably electric flashlights, should be arranged for use in case electric current is cut off.

Woman's Club News

The first fall meeting of the Springfield Woman's Club was held on October 5 in the James Caldwell School, with President, Mrs. Edwin G. Davenport, presiding. Membership chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Mann, introduced six new members of our club, welcomed them into membership, and invited them to join one or more departments of the club. The new members are Mrs. Walter Anderson, 46 Lyon place, Mrs. H. E. Callahan, 289 Ballusrol way, Mrs. John Moore, 75 Lyon place, Mrs. Edward Reibold, 365 Maple avenue, Mrs. Charles Schaffner, 5 Shunpike road, and Mrs. Joseph Zasa, 81 Jefferson place. Mrs. Stanley Frank, now of Plainfield, was also reinstated into membership in our organization.

Announcement was made of the forthcoming Fifth District Fall Conference to be held Tuesday, October 18 at the Connecticut Farms Presbyterian Church, 2555 Chestnut street in Union, with the Townley Club, Connecticut Farms Club, and the Springfield Club of Union as the hostess clubs. The conference theme will be "Mental, Social, Mental and Spiritual Growth." The all-day program will begin at 10:00 a.m. with Fifth District Vice-President, Mrs. F. A. Starkweather as presiding officer. Luncheon will be served in the church for $1.05. In addition to interesting discussions by Mrs. Thomas H. McGlade, chairman of International Relations, on "Women and World Affairs," and by Mrs. Karl G. Wenzel, Music Chairman, who will speak on "The Music in Your Life," forecasts of activities planned for the coming year will be given by all Fifth District Department Chairmen. Among those giving "forecasts" will be the following members of the Springfield Club: Mrs. K. E. Bandomer, Civic & Legislation Department; Mrs. Adam LaSota, College, and Mrs. Edwin G. Davenport, Program Assistance. During the afternoon session, Mrs. Ralph S. Doubleday, State Treasurer, will speak, using as her topic "Your Money is My Responsibility—You Take Care of Yourself."

Those planning to attend the Fifth District Fall Conference are Mrs. Davenport, President; Mrs. Charles Heard, First Vice-President; Mrs. George J. Varza, Treasurer; American Home Department Chairman, Mrs. Vincent J. Bonadies; Garden Department Chairman, Mrs. Edward J. Schubert; Music Department Chairman, Mrs. John G. Williams; Parliamentarian Mrs. Merton D. Williams; and Yearbook Chairman and Historian Mrs. Michael Tausko.

At the October 5th meeting, Mrs. Charles Heard was elected to the office of First Vice-President of the Club, and Mrs. Adolph Sismun to the office of Third Vice-President. It was also announced that Mrs. Edward J. Snider had served on the State Yearbook Committee during this past summer.

Mrs. Snider, as Education Department Chairman, appealed to clubwomen who would like to offer voluntary service assisting at the Springfield Public Library, where additional help is needed each afternoon. If you are in a position to help in this way, please contact Mrs. Snider immediately. An appeal was also made for women who might have time to devote to the worthy cause of Girl Scouting. Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout Leaders are urgently needed. Please contact Mrs. Davenport if you can participate.

College Day Chairman, Mrs. Henry Wasson, invited members and all interested parties to College Day at Douglass College, New Brunswick, on Saturday, October 29. Details will appear elsewhere in the "Springfield Sun."

Program Chairman, Mrs. Charles Heard, introduced the speaker for the evening, Dr. Houston Peterson, Professor in the Department of Philosophy at Rutgers University. His topic was "Manners and Morals in Our Day." "Manners," he said, "does not mean knowing every rule in the book of etiquette; it simply means considerate and thoughtful conduct at all times, whether surrounded by your friends or by strangers." To explain and elaborate on this statement, Dr. Peterson cited instances in the lives of three famous men who lived in the Eighteenth Century and followed the rule of thoughtful conduct.

"One of the basic symbols of manners," he stated, "is to listen attentively and respectfully, diverting your entire attention to one who is speaking. The second symbol is to have the moral courage to swallow your pride and vanity and to apologize when you have done wrong. The third," he concluded, "is to have respect for humanity."

After an interesting, thought-provoking, and entertaining program, club members were served refreshments by the Hospitality Committee, with Mrs. Adolph Sismun as its chairman. In the center of the table was a most at-

Ship Master and Wife Take Trip

Sea captains go on busmen's holidays. Captain Charles E. Reilly and his wife of 50 S. Springfield Ave. have sailed on the S.S. EXCALIBUR, American-Export Lines ship, for a 45-day Mediterranean cruise.

Captain Reilly is a master of the S.S. Exigia, one of the company's freighters and sails to Spanish and Italian ports.

He joined the company in 1929 and was made a master in 1944. During World War II he was a commander in the Navy. The ship he is sailing on for his vacation is a half-freighter and half-passenger ship.

He and his wife will visit ports in Europe, Africa and Asia. They also will spend several weeks visiting in Southern Europe before returning home.

Set Program On Fire Prevention

National Fire Prevention Week is more than a slogan! At Regional High School, this week, a special emphasis is being placed on accepted fire prevention methods and fire-fighting techniques.

Several departments of the high school have instituted a full program, along with the departmental curriculum, in special and necessary instruction in fire prevention and fire-fighting.

In the Home Making Department, Miss Mary Ann Ulbricht, and Miss Alice Karmazin, will instruct students on fire prevention and fire-fighting in the home—principally in the kitchen—Mr. Adam LaSota and Mr. Peter Danilo will instruct all the Ag students.

In the safety education program, this week, as all through the year, safety education and practices are naturally stressed. Mr. Russell Hunchar, Miss Hiller, and Miss Betty Leonard will devote special time and emphasis on accepted fire prevention methods.

Mr. William Brown, assistant principal, stated that he is arranging to have an inspection check list distributed to students to take home during this week.

In the past the Board of Education provided funds to purchase adequate fire-fighting equipment. Mr. Edmund Frey, superintendent of buildings and grounds, and a member of the Springfield fire department, stated that the high school has more fire-fighting equipment than is recommended by the local fire department.

The custodial force at the high school is trained to control fires until the local firemen arrive. Two custodians, Henry F. and Warren Ruban, are volunteer members of the Springfield fire department.

P.T.A. NEWS

Techniques for group leaders, suggestions for planning programs, demonstrations of various discussion stimulants, review of source materials and a panel discussion will be included in the Leader Training Meeting for Union County Parent Education, at the YMCA, Madison Avenue, Elizabeth, N. J., on October 19th from 9:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. This conference is being sponsored by the Extension Service of Rutgers University under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Armstrong. This is to be one of a series of meetings to include information and help for parents of school-age. Don't miss it!

The Parent Education Group of the Florence Gaudineer School will hold the first meeting of the current year on Thursday evening in the library of the school. Miss Lillian Hayward of the Florence Gaudineer teaching staff will discuss the developmental reading program for the students of the 7th and 8th grades. In recent years, there has been a discussion concerning reading habits of the younger Teen-Agers, so this subject of the meeting is not only timely, but extremely important. The meeting is open to everyone interested. Refreshments will be served.

The Parent Education Group of the Raymond Ostrum School and the Edward Walker School met Monday evening. Dr. Ruth Boyle, well-known psychologist, formerly with the Summit school system and now head of the Guidance Department of the Irvington Schools, was the speaker. A great many pertinent questions were discussed and suggestions made for happy adjustments. For those parents who were unable to take part in the meeting, some suggestions for home application were offered.

"It takes two to make a quarrel. Democracy begins at home. Rules should be reasonable and consistent. The most frequent should-be happiness."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. S. Seigel, Mrs. G. Glanattasio, Mrs. J. Jacobs. The Chairman for arrangements was Mrs. B. P. Yuckman.

The P.T.A. Membership Campaign ends this week. However, memberships are accepted all year. Mrs. E. E. # WAKE UP!

People Of Springfield

"Today the taxpayer is caught between the demands for increase in public expenditures and the high tax bills which he is already paying. Increasingly, he is coming to realize that in government as in his private affairs he must find ways to make the dollar buy more in goods and services."

—From the 1955 Platform and Program of
NEW JERSEY TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION

Let Us Explode This Myth About Springfield's Taxes!

The present Springfield governing majority, with one frustrated, lone voice against the POWER HOUSE WIND-MILL is making every effort to retain its stranglehold on Township affairs.

The POWER HOUSE points to the "many accomplishments (?) by the present administration and how they did it WITHOUT INCREASING TAXES, they say.

JUST WHAT HAS THIS CLIQUE IN THE IVORY TOWER ACCOMPLISHED FOR SPRINGFIELD?

THE ANSWER IS, NOTHING! Does Springfield have any parks — do we have anything unusual in Township services FOR OUR TAXES?

MANY OF OUR STREETS ARE MAINTAINED AT THE EXPENSE OF EITHER THE COUNTY OR STATE.

- MORRIS AVENUE IS A STATE HIGHWAY.
- MEISEL AVENUE IS A COUNTY ROAD.
- SHUNPIKE ROAD BELONGS TO THE COUNTY.
- SEVEN BRIDGES ROAD TO THE STATE.
- SOUTH SPRINGFIELD AVENUE TO THE COUNTY.

THE NEW JERSEY TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION RELEASED FIGURES ON SEPTEMBER 25, 1955, WHICH SHOW THAT THE 1955 PROPERTY TAX FOR SPRINGFIELD IS

8.94

Let Us Look At The Record!!

UNION TOWNSHIP, WITH AN OPERATING EXPENSE OF $1,730,922, and school operating budget for 1955-56 of $2,448,390., and one of the fastest growing communities in Union County has a tax rate for 1955 of

6.37

SUMMIT, with a school operating budget of $1,211,207

5.52

WESTFIELD, with its beautiful parks, a school operating budget of $1,939,125, has a tax rate of

6.99

Look at These Tax Figures for 1955: Springfield's Is

8.94

RAHWAY'S IS . . . . . 6.76	HILLSIDE'S IS . . . . . 5.04
ELIZABETH'S IS . . . . . 7.68	LINDEN'S IS . . . . . 5.70
CRANFORD'S IS . . . . . 6.52	PLAINFIELD'S IS . . . . . 6.66

IN FACT, SPRINGFIELD HAS THE HIGHEST TAX RATE IN UNION COUNTY EXCEPT NEW PROVIDENCE BOROUGH AND WINFIELD.

ALL OF THESE COMMUNITIES HAVE THE SAME GROWING PAINS, THE SAME SCHOOL PROBLEMS — BUT THEIR TAX RATES ARE LOWER. THE IVORY TOWER BOYS, OF COURSE, WILL HAVE EXPLANATIONS BUT IT'S ALL A LOT OF GOBBLEDYGOOK AND BOOK-KEEPING DOUBLE TALK.

THE SOLUTION IS SIMPLE —

What Is a Wishful Thinking Budget?

What is a wishful thinking budget? It's one that covers what the family may need, and hopes to find money to pay for. This is unrealistic and courts worry, if not eventual bankruptcy. The First State Bank suggests the safe way to manage one's money is to put saving, as a reserve, at the top of the budget and keep the budget well within anticipated income.

Springfield Hardware To Move Into Larger Quarters

Another "good sign" of the times in Springfield is the announcement this week by "Ike" Freedman, proprietor of the Springfield Paint and Hardware Store, will move from 260 Morris avenue, where he has been located for 18 years, to the former super market next door. Work has been going on in the former super market for weeks and a grand opening is being planned for early next month.

Mr. Freedman, who is also president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce, and active in practically every civic effort, has always had great faith in the future of the Township and it is his belief that shoppers can be attracted and held with good service, high-quality merchandise and the right prices. This hardware store has been at the same location for 18 years during which time the Freedmans have built up a loyal following.

The new store will offer approximately 3,000 square feet where Mr. Freedman has installed the most modern of display and merchandising equipment. All known brands will be carried with a complete line of Vita Var products, houseware, furnishing, and all kinds of hardware.

The usual ribbon cutting ceremonies will be part of an elaborate grand opening program being planned by Mr. Freedman.

Sister Asks Court to Say 'Lost' Kin Legally Dead

Miss Flora R. Day of 160 Tucker avenue has instituted action to have her brother's family of four declared legally dead, having disappeared in 1943 without any trace.

Miss Day told the Sun she alone is asking Surrogate Charles A. Otto for an order to show cause why Mr. and Mrs. William G. Day and the couple's two daughters, Thelma and Winifred, should not be declared dead. An earlier story said Miss Flora Day and her sister Miss Caroline L. Day were taking the action but Miss Flora said she was the one who kept up the insurance on her brother's policy.

County Judge Edward A. McGrath set the hearing for the Nov. 4 session of Probate Court. Miss Day stated that her brother's family, then residents of East Orange, decided in the summer of 1942 to start a new life in the West.

They vacated their rented home,

The new Scout Master is Morton Adell of 6 Perry place who replaces Felix Gold. Mr. Gold is quite active in the United States Army reserve, and therefore has had to resign as scoutmaster. He will certainly be missed by all.

The following are the executive officers of the troop: Senior Patrol Leaders—George Seltzer, and Billy Bender; Patrol Leaders—Steve Chador, Bruce Goldstein and Barry Marder; Assistant Patrol Leaders—Ronnie Bahrs, Steve Bender and Larry Atkin; Scribe—Artie Gerber. ### New Money Order Service Announced

In keeping with the objective of continued good service to its patrons and in an endeavor to operate in the most economical but efficient fashion, Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio announced the use of a new domestic money order form at the main post office and at Station No. 1 in the J. J. Newberry store. The new form was placed in use on September 19th.

The new domestic money order form and procedure are the result of considerable study by the Post Office Department and are aimed primarily to curb the raising of money orders.

Under the new procedure, patrons will not be required to complete an application form as in the past. They merely will request the money order clerk to issue an order in the desired amount. The amount will then be inserted by the money order clerk who will partially detach the purchaser's receipt and hand the order to the Edward V. Walton School.

She received her A.B. at the College of St. Elizabeth, and has had four years experience. She has three children aged 17, 15 and 8.

Additional information regarding these changes may be secured at the local post office. Posters and printed information for use by patrons are being prepared by the Post Office Department for distribution as soon as received by the Springfield post office.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

Just the Church for such a woman!
"A notorious night-club hostess died. Married, divorced, and remarried, she had abandoned her God and her Church for the tinsel of the world; yet in her coffin a rosary entwined her stiff, white fingers, over her remains a Requiem Mass was sung, and the ground that finally covered her had been consecrated by the Catholic Church."

Just the Church for such a woman!
The Catholic Church does produce saints, yet the purpose of its founding was to save sinners. Of its hundreds of millions of children how many are frequently under temptations that you and I perhaps, have never experienced? How many fall in their human frailty? Yet history shows that unnumbered sinners in their dying gasps implore God to forgive them and to take them back into His Sacred Heart again. And does the all-merciful God refuse?

To the woman of 1900 years ago who was taken in adultery, our Divine Savior said, "Go and sin no more." To the employer of today who has defrauded laborers of their wages, to the gangster who has murdered his way to wealth, to the woman of the world who has denied and defied Him—to every Catholic on his death-bed or in the confessional, who is truly penitent and who has full intent to make reparation, Jesus Christ says again and again through the mouth of His priest, "Go and sin no more."

"Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." "Judge not, lest ye be judged!" "The flesh is weak!" The Catholic, knowing these things, is taught to forgive, and sympathize with his erring brother, aware that if his own temptations has been as great, he might have fallen even to a lower depth. And so he condemns not; but rather, if possible, helps with counsel, consolation, and prayer to lead the sinner back to his Church, which reflects God's boundless mercy through its great Sacrament of Penance.

So here's to the night-club hostess! If her death-bed confession was sincere, as surely we must assume it was, the Pope himself must envy her in the final salvation of which she is assured.

Post Office Asks That Xmas Overseas Mail Be Sent Now!

Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio announced that the period October 15 to November 15 has again been designated for the acceptance of Christmas parcels for members of our Armed Forces serving outside the Continental United States. The designated period has been established by the several departments of the National Military Establishment.

It is expected that many Christmas parcels will be sent this year by persons in this country to friends and family serving overseas and the following instructions have been issued with the view of assuring delivery of the gift parcel on time and in good condition. Postmaster Del Vecchio stated "The Military Establishment has advised that military personnel are well supplied with food and that parcels containing foodstuffs subject to spoilage and breakage in transit are likely to reach overseas destinations unfit for use."

The importance of mailing Christmas parcels to overseas military personnel during the designated period cannot be emphasized too strongly—the earlier the better. Parcels should not be delayed on the assumption that timely delivery will be assured through the use of air parcel post. While expeditious service by air is given in the continental United States final delivery overseas must be made through the use of surface transportation.

Boxes for overseas transmission must be of strong construction because of the great distances these parcels must be transported and the handling and storage they must undergo. Each box should be securely tied and contain sufficient cushioning material. Fibreboard boxes should also be securely wrapped in heavy paper which materially strengthens the package.

In the event it is desired to transmit gifts of money, patrons are advised to use the postal money order which may be cashed at any military post office. Greeting cards for Armed Forces personnel overseas may be mailed at any time, but patrons should deposit such cards prepaid at the first class rate prior to November 15th; at the air mail rate prior to December 1st, if they are to have a reasonable expectation of delivery prior to Christmas.

Consult the local post office for size, weight, postage, additional preparation instructions, and prohibitions for Christmas Mail for Armed Forces overseas. The "French varnish" Rembrandt used to protect his paintings was made of shellac with the wax removed. The same substance is still used today by artists.

Attend Testimonial

Mrs. Ruth Hattersley, Past President, and Mrs. Rose Miller, Vice President of the Ladies Auxiliary to Battle Hill Post No. 7889—Veterans of Foreign Wars, attended a testimonial dinner Saturday Night, at the Robert Treat Hotel, in Newark, in honor of Mrs. Betty Semon, Department President, Ladies Auxiliary of New Jersey, Veterans of Foreign Wars, This is an annual affair where the various Auxiliaries in the State of New Jersey pay homage to their Department President. Among the honored guests were: Commander Frank Hahn, Department Commander of the State of New Jersey; Mrs. Agnes Holz, Past National President, Ladies Auxiliary; Mrs. Mary Kay Duff, Department President of Pennsylvania; and Mr. Peter Rodino, Congressman of the State of New Jersey.

THIS IS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK... BE SAFE, DON'T RELY ON YOUR NOSE

We all know the Bear who constantly warns us in the ads to be careful of fire in the forests. Did you ever compare his situation with that of us two-legged house dwellers? He and his four-legged friends live on the same level as an incipient fire. At the time of outbreak their escape route is in an arc of 359 degrees.

We house-dwellers, on the other hand, with all of our accumulated intelligence, have boxed ourselves under a roof where we live and sleep on top of and inside of areas of potential fire and smoke hazard. In our individual family cases we feel secure. And we go to sleep counting only upon the noise to alert us if fire breaks out. Sort of silly, isn't it? Especially when we stop and think of the many ways fire originate today which were impossible a hundred years ago.

Your town's fire chief is constantly concerned with your safety. He wants you to understand what security from fire hazard means. He wants for the home the same fundamental protections which are rigidly enforced in manufacturing plants where safety is the order of the day. And he wants you to give him and his men time. Not time to fight your fire, but time to reach you earlier—before the fire mushrooms. To achieve this both local and national associations of fire experts recommend installation of approved fire detectors which will reliably alert the home owner of a dangerous situation in the home. When the alert sounds the occupants still have time to get out. They can call the fire department and get the equipment there many minutes sooner.

Two most important results—the saving of lives and great reduction in fire loss. That is why Falcon Alarm Company of Summit, New Jersey is justly proud of its Underwriters' Laboratory approved Falcon Automatic Fire Detector.

Our self-powered unit activates a siren alarm when ceiling temperature melts its locked-in fuse. The power for the siren comes from DuPont Freon, the harmless, non-explosive, non

SUNNING SPORTS

By RITCHY SCHWARTZ

Well we did it again, the heavy downpour of rain stopped long enough Saturday for Regional to take its third straight victory. This week their victims were the Somerville Pioneers.

High up in the press box at Brooks Field, Somerville, we watched the Orange and Black of Somerset County tally in the second period of play, this being the first points scored against Regional this season.

The Somerville touchdown came on the same type of play that Richie Walker pulled off against Morristown. Pioneer quarter Glen Madalon hit his end who was behind the defense with a pass, and that was seven points.

Things looked bleak for the Regionals when they came trotting back for the second half of play but they bounced into the third quarter like a truly polished eleven.

With only minutes gone by after intermission a Somerville kick was blocked and the ball was placed on their twenty-one. Ron Coles carried all the way from this point in six plays and finally barreled over to tie the game. Rocky Letteri converted and it was anyone's contest. The spirit of Coles and others pushed the team forward and the Bulldogs held Somerville. Then in the final quarter Butch Anderson came charging through a pile of players with the pigskin under his arm and ran it twenty-eight yards for the last touchdown of the game. Letteri's kick was wide and it stood at 13-7 until the final gun.

At this point we would like to give credit to a boy who really deserves it. Ron Coles has been playing varsity football at Regional for the last few years. He's a tall, strapping 200-pounder and was always thought of as a talented ballplayer. Saturday against Somerville Mr. Coles really came into his own. Not only did he carry the ball six consecutive times to an eventual touchdown, but he was in there the whole game, carrying the ball splendidly whenever called upon. On every play that Ron had the ball it took half the Somerville team to pull him to a stop. In a few instances, the referee's whistle had blown and he was still on his feet taking the opposition with him.

If it weren't for Ronny Coles our record may very well have been changed last week.

Letteri's failure to convert on the last touchdown should not be taken too seriously. The stocky junior has done very well with his toe, this being the first conversion missed since the start of the campaign.

With the news of Regional's victory came a sad note, Miss Nancy Howard, one of the school's spirited cheerleaders broke her arm while doing a cartwheel in the soft turf. Get well quick Nancy.

Flood Victims in Need of Clothing

Requests for more clothing, especially winter apparel, have been coming to Mrs. Robert W. Walters of 12 Kipling avenue who has done such a fine job with her personal campaign to help the flood sufferers in the New England area.

Mrs. Walters has asked the Springfield Sun to pass along the word that a great deal more clothing is needed and all those who have any, she will see to it that it is delivered to those who need it.

"We are asking all our good neighbors to leave the clothing on one side porch at 12 Kipling avenue," said Mrs. Walters. "With the help of our good neighbors we will see to it that transportation is provided to deliver the goods. Three cars made the trip last week and we plan to make a similar trip to the flood areas this week end."

Springfield Youth Baseball League Holds Annual Dinner

Some 150 boys, their manager and coaches, mothers who assisted in the preparation and serving of the dinner, league officials and other invited guests attended a dinner last Thursday evening at the Presbyterian Church Parish House. Acting as master of ceremonies was Joseph L. Focht, league president.

Included as guests of the league were Mayor Albert G. Binder, Township Committeeman Eugene F. Donnelly, president of the Babe Ruth League, Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies who was chairman of the township recreation activities; John Hall, chief editorial writer for the Elizabeth Daily Journal; Frank O'Rourke, scout and coach for the New York baseball Yankees; and Rupert Humer, vice president of the Babe Ruth baseball league who also was the Lions Club official representative at the dinner.

The dinner was opened by Rev. Bruce Evans of the Presbyterian Church delivering the invocation. After brief talks to the boys by Mayor Binder, Gene Donnelly and Vince Bonadies, regarding their interests and functions of the Township baseball program, the official presentation of the championship trophy was made to John Hansen, representative of the P.B.A. organization. Presentation was made by president Joseph L. Focht who congratulated the winners and their manager, Bruno Becker. Individual trophies were then presented to each member of the winning team.

Second place trophies were then awarded to the individual members of the Car Hop team by Ed Ruby, league commissioner, who congratulated them and their manager, Bob Marino.

The highlights of the evening were presented in the form of very interesting baseball talks by Mr. Hall and Mr. O'Rourke. Mr. Hall will be remembered for his interest in sports activities having been long active as a baseball writer for the Newark News and New York Herald Tribune. He was also State Athletic commissioner from 1942 to 1948.

After Mr. Hall's very interesting talk in which he directed his attention strictly to the boys and their activities, he in turn introduced Mr. O'Rourke who has long been identified with the game as an active major league baseball player and is at present a scout and coach for the New York Baseball Yankees. Mr. O'Rourke delivered some very interesting highlights of his own career and other insights regarding baseball in general. He followed this up by inviting the boys to participate in a question and answer period, directing all questions to him.

These questions brought many interesting items regarding the past world series and other baseball highlights to the surface.

The mothers were then asked to take a bow for their splendid work in preparing the dinner, food for which was all contributed by local merchants.

Herb Kern, well known local musician, assisted very nicely in the program by providing entertainment on the piano before the dinner started. Bill "C" Jensen also assisted by preparing very beautiful place cards for the individual tables.

The evening's entertainment was concluded by a showing of the official pictures of the dedication of the Irwin Street playground.

All of the food was contributed by: Turkeys, Casale's Farm, Betz & Betz, Grand Union, Nagel's Pork Store, Safeway Stores, Center Fish and Meat Market, and
