Winfield Asks To Send Their Students Here

Members of the Union County Regional Board of Education will study a proposal made by Dr. William H. West, county superintendent of schools, that the Springfield Regional High School admit students from Winfield, at the regular meeting of the board here Tuesday night.

Dr. West said Rosella Park no longer would accept Winfield students after this year. He asked the board to take 65 students from Winfield next year, 135 in 1957, 185 in 1958 and 175 in 1959 in the new Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School at Clark when that building is completed in September.

By 1960, he continued, the Regional Board will have erected a third high school on a site already purchased in Berkeley Heights. Dr. West added it would be profitable to admit Winfield students. He claimed Winfield could be charged $60,250 in tuition fees in 1957 for a net profit to the Regional board of $19,850 and billed for $86,025 in 1958 for a profit of $32,932.

These figures were challenged by Thomas L. Nolan, Clark member, who claimed they did not include transportation costs. He added that he doubted if Winfield could pay such sums as $86,025. Dr. West replied that the $30 to $50 monthly rentals in Winfield included payment of all taxes and the rents could be raised by the corporation which runs the community on a 50-year mortgage from the federal government.

William J. Broderick, Kenilworth member, suggested Winfield residents ask the federal government for funds to erect its own. (Continued on page 67)

Crestmont Raises Savings to 3%

Effective Jan. 1, 1956, the dividend rate on savings to be paid by Crestmont Savings and Loan Association will be increased to 3 per cent per annum. It is announced by Loren F. Gardiner, executive vice president and manager.

"This is the highest rate on insured savings announced in Springfield," Gardiner said. "The higher dividend will be paid for the six-month period beginning Jan. 1. The increase will result in greater returns to about 9,500 people now saving at the association, with many more expected to open accounts. Both offices of the association are affected by the rise in rate. Crestmont having its Springfield office at 175 Morris avenue, while another is located at 1888 Springfield avenue in Maplewood."

"This increase is an ordinary savings account, in which you save any amount you like whenever you like," Gardiner pointed out. "All our accounts are insured up to $10,000 through an instrumentality of the United States Government."

Letter on Morris Avenue Matter Makes Headlines

Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies who has been the target of many blasts during the current local political campaign, yesterday fired another broadside aimed at the Republican controlled administration with the Morris avenue parking ban as his subject. Bonadies, in his statement, maintains that the Township Committee had never taken official action as implied by the release last week and repeats his pledge that if he is given a majority in the governing body, some action will be taken immediately to relieve the situation on Morris avenue. A half page paid advertisement appears on Page 3 of this issue on the Morris Avenue matter.

"The whole story of the political squall," said Bonadies in his statement, can be found in the correspondence between the New Jersey State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer and Governor Robert B. Meyner; Mayor Binder, according to the letter, would be willing to go along with the 24 hour parking on condition Union would also agree... that the elimination of parking on Morris avenue would be most desirable to him but that he feared his co-municipal leaders. The administration power house feared going along with the idea, the letter further stated, because eliminating parking would mean that they would die politically.

"That letter merely proves how little concern the local governing body had for the merchant in the Morris avenue matter. We know that rescinding a local ordinance is strictly a local governmental

Excellent Police Work Solves Theft on Rte. 22

Alert story-book police work by Patrolmen Edward Roessner and Harold Searles enabled the Springfield Police to not only clear up a well planned piece of burglary but to recover all the loot and arrest Robert Ford, 24, of 90 Diven street whom they charged with the robbery.

These two local police officers making a routine check up while patrolling Rt. 22, saw a car parked in the rear of the Howard Johnson restaurant. They carefully noted the license number of the car but when they had returned from their rounds about 1:15 a.m., the car was gone.

They examined the building and discovered that an entry had been made and that the screens and the windows were open. A further check revealed that the electric cash register was gone and then started the kind of police work the television writers create.

Over $600 Made in P.T.A. Thrift Sale

Springfield P.T.A. closed a very successful thrift sale yesterday with more than $600 to be realized according to Mrs. Irving J. Gershen, finance chairman, and Mrs. E. Weinger, the Thrift Sale Chairman. The sale was held for three days in a vacant store owned by Sam and Joseph Casternova on Morris avenue who donated the use of their premises without charge.

Mrs. Gershen, on behalf of the P.T.A., wishes to thank all those who helped make the sale a success, especially Robert Davidson, manager of the J. J. Newberry store, who made available the use of equipment necessary for the sale; to the Springfield Hardware for relinquishing the store which was rented to them as campaign headquarters and for donating the use of the electricity to light the premises.

Four couples, all members of the Springfield Squad, attended the convention: Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Furst and Mr. and Mrs. John Baier.

Democrats Quote Law To Show Job of Assessor is Appointive; Republicans Hit "Ad" on Taxes

A joint statement by Township Committeeman Fredrick A. Handville and Raymond W. Forbes, Republican candidates for the two vacancies on the governing body in the November 8 election, accuses the Democratic organization of "broken promises and being followers of the New Deal philosophy of 'tax and spend—spend and elect.'"

Special attention is paid to the political advertisement of last week in which the Democrats "attempted to show that Springfield's taxes are the highest in a selected list of Union County municipalities... but they conceal the fact that these same towns have higher assessments."

Developers' Help
The statement further points out that many of the developers have played an important part in the various improvements of the township, stating that the Woodside Homes, gave two and one-half acre tract for recreational use, that Archibald developers cleared, without cost, 30 feet of frontage along Milltown Road and the many other improvements brought by such operations.

"If these be the real estate deals," says the statement, "then, in Springfield's interest, let's have more of them."

Following is their joint statement in full:

"The two Democrat aspirants for the Township Committee are continuing to run true to form. Practice, it is said, makes perfect, and by consistent and continuous practice they have become masters of the 'art' of telling half-truths, making phony promises and conducting trial by newspapers and using innuendo."

"The ink is not yet dry on the broken promises of last year's campaign; yet here they go again (continued on page 11)"

Dr. Louis Evans To Address Men's Club

Men of the Presbyterian Church under the leadership of Mr. Edward Mertz, President of the Men's Club, will attend the all day workshop in the Westfield Church on Saturday, October 29th.

The featured speaker will be Dr. Louis H. Evans, Minister-at-Large of the Presbyterian Board of National Missions.

Dr. Evans, formerly pastor for twelve years of the First Presbyterian Church, Hollywood, California, is according to Life Magazine one of the twelve outstanding religious leaders of America—a man "whose energy seems inexhaustible and whose sermons are full of well-thought-out Christian doctrine and plain speaking."

For the past three years he has served as summer supply at the National Presbyterian Church in Washington, D. C., among whose members are President and Mrs. Eisenhower, Mrs. and Mrs. John Foster Dulles, J. Edgar Hoover and many other Cabinet, Congressional and government figures.

Dr. Evans is the author of "Youth Seeks a Master," "The Kingdom is Yours" and other publications. Besides many TV and radio broadcasts, he recently flew to Scotland at the request of Dr. Billy Graham to speak to a large gathering of Scottish ministers who had been brought together by the Graham Crusade for Scotland.

Dr. Evans will deliver his address entitled "We're All In This Together."

The October 29 meeting is sponsored by the Elizabeth Presbyterian NCPM Chapter and will include four panel discussions, subjects entitled "Organizing the Full Manpower of Your Church," "How Ministers View the NCPM," "Creating Church Interest with Manual Projects," and "Spiritual Growth Through the NCPM." School Board Attorney Out Since Sept. 28

News has trickled through the confidential and classified sources of information in Springfield that Magistrate Henry C. McMullen had resigned as counsel of the Springfield Board of Education at a hurriedly called special meeting of the School Board on September 28, and a new attorney, Howard F. Casselman, appointed to fill the vacancy at the same meeting.

He had held the dual jobs, local magistrate and School Board attorney, for some time but a recent order from Chief Justice Arthur T. Vanderbilt and the Supreme Court made resignation from one of these jobs compulsory. The order gave September 7 as the final date on which the dual job holders must resign from one or the other but no action was taken by the local Board of Education until a further order came from the Union County School Superintendent's office, according to the local board minutes.

Howard F. Casselman, a local attorney, was named to fill the vacancy until the expiration of (Continued on page 2)

Dem's Platform Pledges Better Deal for Town

The Springfield Democratic organization, speaking through its candidates for election to the Township Committee on November 8, presents a party platform to the residents of the Township with a pledge to make it work.

"Springfield deserves the best and we are confident that the independent voters of the Township are sufficiently aroused to vote for both Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg so that we can assume control and provide the kind of government that the will of the people."

"The present power group, in control of the Township affairs, has had such a stranglehold over such a long period of time that there is a positive move to oust those who have been ignoring the real needs of the community by paying too much attention to their big real estate deals and other affairs entirely foreign to the performance of their duties."

Mr. Weinberg, who is a practicing attorney and has made a thorough study of municipal affairs, has been watching the operation of the local governing body, since becoming a resident of Springfield, he stated, and entered the political campaign only because he felt it was his civic duty to do something about the elimination of the powerful clique.

Following is the Democratic platform and Mr. Weinberg's statement accompanying the various planks:

Letters to Editor

Editor, SUN:

In the October 13th issue of your paper you quote a speech by Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies, to the effect that the "town meeting is no place for politics." I should like to heartily concur with Mr. Bonadies on that statement, but I believe that if the record were to be examined, it would show that Mr. Bonadies is the gentleman on the township committee that practices politics and not the Republicans. Last year, the voters decided that since the Democrats hadn't been in office for a long time, it might be nice to give one of them a chance to represent the town on the township committee. However, the election of Mr. Bonadies, a Democrat, to this Committee, instead of providing for better township government, has had the opposite effect. From reading the account of the town meetings in the "Sun" and attendance at the township committee meeting, it is evident that Mr. Bonadies has been practicing party politics at the expense of the township. He has obstructed the work of the Committee frequently, and in general has shown no concern for the improvement of the town.

Undoubtedly, the Republican members of the Township Committee have committed errors in the past, and probably will do so in the future, but these mistakes are the mistakes of men trying to do their best for the township. It might also be added, that these men ran for the Township Committee, not because they were politically ambitious like Mr. Bonadies is, but out of a sense of civic responsibility.

In conclusion, I should like to suggest to Mr. Bonadies, that for his remaining two years in office, he remember that he is opposed to politics in the town meeting.

Yours sincerely,
Elizabeth L. Cox,

"THE SELL-OUT"

The Story of Selfish Politicians and the Real Estate Monopoly Controlled Administration in SPRINGFIELD.

... Last week's statement by the Ivory Tower Boys who want to hang onto the "good thing" they have had going for so many years, piously stated that no one is concerned with the matter of Morris Avenue parking problems and pointed to the fact that "Mayor Albert G. Binder and the Republican members of the Township Committee have been unceasing in their efforts to persuade State Highway Commissioner Palmer to do this job."

WHAT IS THE REAL TRUTH?

Following is an excerpt from a letter written by Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer to Governor Robert B. Meyner, dated August 18, 1955. Gov. Meyner had requested some information on the situation regarding the traffic problem on Morris Avenue in Springfield.

"The Mayor (Mayor Albert G. Binder) agreed that elimination of parking in Springfield would be desirable but that he FEARED HIS CO-MUNICIPAL LEADERS. The Mayor then went on to say that Union never went along on the stagger parking and that Springfield store-keepers were complaining and that if he tried to go further towards eliminating parking THAT HE WOULD DIE POLITICALLY."

That is an excerpt from a letter from Commissioner Palmer to Gov. Meyner. No genuine consideration of what good it might or might not do for Springfield but how it might affect the administration politically!!

Voters of Springfield! Please, Accept This Advice!

At a recent public hearing in the Municipal Building, Mayor Albert G. Binder made this statement to a group of taxpayers:

"IF YOU DON'T LIKE IT, DON'T VOTE FOR US!"

And, at a public hearing, July 28, in the same Town Hall, TOWNSHIP COMMITTEEMAN FREDERICK A. HANDVILLE said to another group of taxpayers:

"... IN OPERATING THE TOWN GOVERNMENT, WE RUN IT AS WE SEE FIT AND WE ARE BEHOLDEN TO NO ONE!"

Famous Sayings! Please Take Their Advice.

Here's Another From the Same Letter to Gov. Meyner:

"Prior to any contact with the Mayor and this office, we learned from the press that the Mayor had released a story and, as I recall it, a copy of a letter that he simultaneously addressed to me in which he thanked US PROFUSELY FOR WHAT WE WERE GOING TO DO."

Just to prove how "anxious" Mayor Binder and the "me-too" colleagues were to protect the merchants on Morris Avenue, here is another sentence from that same letter to Gov. Meyner:

"Mayor Binder then focused on Union, saying that if we (the State Highway Department) could get Union to go along, that WE MIGHT GET SPRINGFIELD TO ALSO GO ALONG."

If all this can be the "unceasing efforts of the Republican controlled Township Committee to protect Springfield and its merchants," it's a sorry state of affairs—since the letter from the Highway Department definitely shows that the local bosses were willing to "sell out" on condition that Union does . . . as long as it couldn't jeopardize them politically.

The final paragraph of Commissioner Palmer's letter to Gov. Meyner is very refreshing:

"Some might feel that the Mayor is more interested in the press he receives RATHER THAN THE WELFARE OF THE CITIZENS and the traveling public, as it will be noted that he puts down at the bottom of the letters he sends here: CC: PRESS."

How much more courageous was Mayor F. Edward Biertuempfel of Union who, when faced with a similar demand by the Highway Department, stated publicly in the Newark News of October 11, 1955:

"A State Highway loses its identity when it passes through a community. We don't want cars sailing through Union. THEY CAN'T DO HERE WHAT THEY DID IN SPRINGFIELD."

We can promise action on the matter of Morris Avenue and its parking problems—but they won't be measured by any selfish political yardstick.

Give us an opportunity to take these matters out of the hands of those who have been using it as a political football for years. They have no regard for the business man—for the merchant—if it will hurt them politically.

Winfield Asks

high school but Dr. West replied that the Winfield elementary school had been expanded with money from Washington and that no more aid would be given. The board member questioned Dr. West on his prediction that the number of students from Winfield would level off in a few years because the community has no room to grow. He said the present buildings could be torn down and replaced by apartments or four-family units.

Dr. Minor C. K. Jones of Mountaineer, president of the board, noted a similarity between Winfield's application and a similar request recently by the New Providence Board of Education. New Providence's bid to join the regional district was rejected.

William J. Melick, Springfield member, claimed that if Winfield were admitted the number of students per classroom would be raised to 29 or 30 "after we have finally reduced the number to the state-recommended 25." He added, "We have enough problems now." Only John L. Banyard, Garwood member, seemed willing to consider the proposal. He praised Dr. West for the thoroughness of his report, predicted Winfield could pay the increased school costs, and suggested the board study the matter further before to the electorate despite expressions, to the contrary, announced by the present administration. Such comments as, "You're nothing but pressure groups," "If you don't like it don't vote for me," "We are not beholden to either majority groups, or minority groups, in fact we are beholden to no one," have no part in our concept of responsibility to those who elect us. It is our firm belief that you can't live in a vacuum and expect to know the public will. After all, shouldn't the people of the community have some voice in determining what is or isn't good for them. In fact, this self imposed cloak can only provide an aura of suspicion to those who wield it, that their acts and actions cannot stand public scrutiny.

Want No Caucus
2. This leads to one of the most important points in our platform—The Elimination of Caucus—might add at this juncture that there is a Pre-Caucus meeting, by invitation only. The minority member of the Township Committee is not invited to this select function.

As Counsel to a large corporation, I will be the first to admit that executive committees and other small groups can expedite business with less difficulty than larger groups can. However, the efficiency that may be afforded business by such tactics is not and should not be sought in government at the expense of public ignorance. Noticeably missing from our so-called public meetings is a lack of understanding by the public of basic issues involved in underlying policies or legislation. I don't think I need be more graphic than to state that the usual pronouncement is an ordinance to amend an ordinance of 1938 approved and seconded. Understand what's going on—don't!—This so-called efficient system doesn't even offer a word of an explanation of what's going on. And obviously the most sinister aspect of caucus government is that we are not told the reasoning behind policy or legislative changes, or where a Committee member stands on a particular issue. A particularly deplorable by-product is that when the Township Committee holds a public meeting they have already reached a decision on the matters before them, despite the fact the public has not had an opportunity to voice its view. Frustrating isn't it—Perhaps its meant to be that way, but not in my book.

3. Ethics in government—I don't think we need be more specific than refer to the dual roles the elected officials in this town have been permitted to play with impunity. We refer to the Mayor's inept explanation that the real estate dealings of Town Committee members is beside the point. It hardly beside the point that these men got their real estate licenses after being elected to office? If the Mayor is satisfied with his explanation, we are not. Must everything be dictated by personal gain?

All I have to say is our cards will be on the table when we are elected because I still believe that the majority of people still want fair play irrespective of the political party to which they belong.

4. Lower taxes through better and more efficient government—I think it would be foolish of us, though it might certainly help our cause, to make outright promises of Tax relief. I do think, however, that an exhaustive survey of local services with a view toward efficiency might release budgetary items heretofore thought necessary. I think further that such a statement as "The Board of Education" is a separate government, and we have no control over that today, will never lead to efficient planning. For instance, didn't the Township Committee know that the Board of Education would request 15 additional school rooms at Florence Gaudineer school at a proposed cost of $500,000—if this need be apparent and we assume it is, wouldn't it be wise to go ahead with plans for a new Town Hall which exhausts our borrowing capacity. Wouldn't closer cooperation with the Board of Education have brought this problem to light?

5. Publication of Township Committee Meeting minutes—The importance of putting into record the matters before the Town Committee as well as the actions taken by the Committee need not be further expanded than to say that the entire community whether present or not at said meetings will be aware of Township problems and the manner in which they are handled.

6. Stricter adherence to master zone plan—That we have to take this position certainly is the mystery of the year—Our collective tax monies were used on the basis that we needed an expert to prepare a comprehensive zoning plan. When this matter came before the public at the Gaudineer school what was immediately noticeable was that a paper chart was superimposed over the experts printed map purporting to change the Shampke piece to limited business and Daystrom. In rapid succession came the swimming pool, Angleton and the latest—is a change at the intersection of Hillside and So. Springfield Avenues.

We think that we will remain uncontradicted if we state that these changes do not and did not, as a whole, represent changes for the best interest of the community. What do you suppose is the inside story?

7. Adoption of Capital Plan—With the adoption of a program of returning the government to the taxpayers this plan is a further step to understanding the Tax problems we face—this plan necessitates the formation of a citizen committee to plan future needs of the community and to properly budget the same—to seek measures to put the community on a sound fiscal basis.

8. Redistricting of voting districts—Convenience and more opportunity to have better party representation.

9. Flood Control—To date no one has done much for the people in the so called flood area but recognize the existence of the problem—Certainly permitting Angleton to build his apartment house without safeguards for the elimination of absorption areas will only add to existing problems—County aid should certainly be sought in this regard.

10. Expand recreational facilities—existing facilities are certainly not sufficient—nor are they adequately equipped.

11. Town Beautification program.

12. Highway by passes.

13. Parking bans on Morris Avenue.

14. Union County Park Commission.

SUNNING SPORTS

By RITCHY SCHWARTZ

Scoring touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters enabled Regional to win its fourth straight game. This victory came at the expense of a somewhat highly regarded Caldwell eleven.

Whether the game could be considered a gridiron affair or a swimming meet is a matter of opinion. Of the 3,000 spectators who witnessed the elements last Saturday, most would tell you it looked like the latter. For a while it seemed as if the whole field had possibilities of floating into another county.

But the rain and slippery ball didn't hamper the Bulldogs' aerial attack. Richie Walker's pass to Merz in the second quarter couldn't have been more perfectly executed with a magnet on a dry day. This pass traveled nineteen and Merz added twenty more yards of footwork, both put together equaled the first touchdown of the game. Rocky Letteri converted, (as usual) and it was 7-0 Regional.

Caldwell retaliated in the third stanza when Moger the quarterback flipped to his end, Frank Rusby, on a twenty-four yard pass play, and a score—Regional 7, Caldwell 6.

Losing nary a minute, R.H.S. took the touchdown kickoff and passed the ball 53 yards in four quick plays, featured by Tony Castaldi's run to the two. On the next play Tony hit pay dirt with a plunge into the end zone. After the conversion there was no more scoring for the rest of the game.

Considering the condition both teams put on admirable showings. On both sides it was a real team effort, it had to be. How long can a lone football player stay afloat these days without assistance. The score 14-6 does not begin to describe the hard work displayed by both clubs.

FROM THE HUDDLE:

Springfield players can't get swelled heads no matter how many games they win, there's no room. Coach Suchena does not permit the taking off of helmets throughout the game, on the field or off, says it's a safety measure. Due to their get-set position, Regional-linemen are always given away in public, their knuckles are worn down to the bone—Bulldogs are supposed to have a strong running attack, who can argue, its been too wet to prove anything—Letteri is spending his gym periods in the school's whirlpool. The kicker's hand is injured and he has had the water as hot

The Sarokins Ride Again

The terrific floods caused by the heavy storms this past week-end came as no real news to those who had heard that the Sarokins were making their long belated trip to New Hampshire.

As a matter of fact, several of those who knew of the contemplated visit to New England immediately cancelled their own plans since it has become an accepted fact that the storm signals and hurricane flags are hoisted the minute the Sarokins leave on any trip.

The Sarokins are still ready to consider any proposal by the travel agencies and vacation bureaus to remain at home—and the events of the past week-end should convince them that any such arrangement would be good business.

As the records will show when the Sarokins travel to Miami, all Jews for cold weather are broken; it snowed for their first visit to Las Vegas; rained for days and days on their trip to California to see the Rose Bowl game and the annual parade; blizzards come early when they go to New England; torrential rains when they make reservations at the sea shore, and, if there's a hurricane lurking off Cape Hatteras, it will strike full force wherever the Sarokins are going, as was the case this past Summer when Beach Haven was selected for a short vacation.

Going to New England to visit friends in a brand new home wasn't just an impulse. The Sarokins had been invited early last Spring but a sudden late blizzard drove us back to the television set. We made several other definite dates but the Sarokins successfully avoided several plain and fancy hurricanes.

Came the Indian Summer, when our host said the foliage was never better around their Newport home. The Yankees and Dodgers had gone through seven games of the world series without a single postponement and the Farmer's Almanac showed that the Zodiac signs promised wonderful weather for this past week end.

The Almanac was correct up to last Friday morning when the Sarokins packed up the car for a little jaunt to New Hampshire. The drizzle started just about when we shut the lid of the trunk—but there was no discouraging the almost calloused and redoubtable Sarokins.

The windshield wiper started as we pulled away and it wasn't turned off a single moment until we finally splashed home through the Connecticut River overflow late Sunday night. We saw the beautiful New England foliage through steamed windows on our way to Newport Friday, arriving just as the deluge came. It continued to rain all day Saturday and we were practically marooned without a single canasta player in the house. So heavy were the rains that our host wasn't even able to show us the prize gladiolas and daffodils on either side of his front entrance. In fact, we haven't yet seen his front entrance—since we sloshed into the new home through the garage entrance and escaped the same way.

Very early Sunday morning, there appeared to be a break in the weather; the storm had become just a drizzle and the Sarokins had had their fill of pressing noses against the cold window glass and looking for what might look like a faint bit of blue sky. The timid weatherman said there would be "slight disturbances" as he put on his rubbers, raincoat and storm-hat and went home for the day. There was even no poetic justice in the big sign—in the center of Newport which proclaims to the world that it is "The Sunshine City."

The trip back to Springfield was an endless jaunt—about 14 hours of wet, sliding and bumper-to-bumper travel. The Sarokins were returned four times off the parkways, were lost in Ridgefield, Connecticut, for hours; drove up to here in high water around the edges of Danbury; saw fit to practically covering parked autos in a factory lot and wondered whether or not we had turned off the water in the kitchen when left on this "see the foliage" vacation on Friday.

There might have been some direction signs but we didn't find many—and a very tired but cooperative policeman informed us that we were how on the main street of Armonk, New York, which news may have some appeal to those who like to discover such unusual facts but, not having had dinner and still having no idea how we were to reach New York City and, eventually, Springfield—the startling announcement that "you are now in Armonk, New York" had no immediate appeal to the Sarokins.

However, there was little we could do about it and we accepted the news, with mixed feelings.

We still had to go to White Plains and thousands of cars were stranded there and no way to get to New York City. A shout from the back-seat alerted everybody. Land had been sighted—a directional sign said it was only 33 miles to New York City. The remainder of the ride was an ordeal and it was a very happy but tired Sarokin family along about the second extra dry Martini at the Newark Airport.

How to teach your child to save regularly *

School years are probably the most important years in your child's life. Besides learning the ABC's of education, he is forming habits that will determine the kind of adult he will grow up to be.

Is your child learning the important lesson of thrift and the values of a regular savings program?

Hundreds of thousands of young Americans are learning the responsibilities of good citizenship... how to save regularly... even helping to finance their own future college educations... through the Treasury's School Savings Program.

By the regular purchase of Savings Stamps in their schools, children are investing in U. S. Savings Bonds on the installment plan. Each student has his own album for United States Savings Stamps in 10¢ and 25¢ denominations. By budgeting his allowance or earning extra spending money, each child buys his own Savings Stamps. Then when he has filled his stamp album, he exchanges it for a U. S. Savings Bond, Series E, maturity value, $25—one of the safest, best paying investments any of us can make.

Is your child's school participating in this important savings program? Why not speak to your principal, school superintendent or P. T. A. group about it today? You can obtain complete information on the School Savings Program from your state Savings Bond office, or the Education Section, U. S. Savings Bonds Division, Washington 25, D. C.

Encourage your child to buy Savings Stamps regularly. Start the U. S. School Savings Program in your town today!

the township committee shall thereupon APPOINT one assessor, who shall hold office for such time as may be fixed by law for assessors appointed to fill vacancies. Which means that the tax assessor may be appointed FOR A FOUR YEAR TERM according to the cross reference on Page 112 under the heading of APPOINTMENTS; TERMS; VACANCIES.

"Instead of Mr. Layng rolling his eyes in innocence and being surprised to hear his name mentioned for the 'big payoff,' he and the real estate monopoly controlled Township Committee should have asked for some competent legal advice before making such a grand stand play.

"Mr. Layng said it was 'a pitiful thing that two such completely uninformed candidates should be put forward by the Democrat Party for election to the Township Committee.' How well informed was the source of Mr. Layng's advice—or is it a clear case of attempting to pervert the law for fraudulent purposes.

"Mr. Sherman knew that the law clearly provides for APPOINTMENT of a one man tax assessor 'until he shall be elected in the manner and for the term provided by law.' Mr. Sherman knows—and no doubt, knew—all the time of the tenure possibilities of naming Mr. Layng to the job once the machinery, creating the one-man office, was started.

"Mayor Binder and all members of the Township Committee know that there were many discussions during the past few months regarding the one man, full time tax assessor's office to be established in Springfield AND THAT THE APPOINTMENT COULD BE MADE JANUARY 1st. Not once, during all those discussions, did Mr. Sherman, as the Township Attorney, ever tell the members of the Township Committee whom he is obliged to advise on all such legal and municipal problems—never once did he say that an election would be needed and that an appointment COULD NOT BE MADE.

CONFERENCE HELD

"The Township Attorney, the real estate monopoly members of the Township Committee, and others in the power house of control, sat in on many conferences where THERE WERE DEFINITE STATEMENTS THAT "BURT" LAYNG WAS THE ONLY MAN QUALIFIED TO HOLD THE JOB AS ONE MAN TAX ASSESSOR AND THAT HE WILL BE APPOINTED JANUARY 1st.

"Secret meetings were held during which time the matter of Mr. Layng's appointment became such a matter of discussion that there is now a cold war between the Ivory Tower Real Estate Lobby in Town Hall and members of the Springfield—Republican County Committee, Mayor Binder and his "me-too" colleagues on the Township Committee want control more than ever right now, because they know the real blow off, the real show down with their own County Committee members is coming.

"Rumors have it that there is almost open rebellion because the Town Hall string pullers have been ignoring the elected members of the Republican Committee in Springfield and a victory this November will enable them to ride herd over their own party opponents. The pressure to have Mr. Layng appointed has resulted in almost open warfare and hurried, secret conferences had been held prior to Mr. Layng's insulting published statement, according to our well informed sources.

"The burlesque carried on at the regular business session of the Township Committee last week is more evidence of the utter disregard for Springfield by these desperate men at Town Hall. Even Mr. Layng's statement that he would not even accept the job if he were offered to him, is taken with the usual grain of salt because it has been reported that he has been very definite about wanting that job, and the string-pullers were with him.

"We're not going to believe that this is the kind of legal advice the Township authorities have been getting from Town Attorney Sherman. We understand that there are times of political expediency when an interpretation of a legal matter can be given to fit the case as needed, but it is our belief that the powers that be, the Real Estate Monopoly controlled Township Committee will accept only what they want in decisions.

"We hope the tax payers' money is not being wasted by having the Township Committee ignore Mr. Sherman's legal advice. It cost the taxpayer exactly $13,188.00 for the 20 months prior to September to obtain this legal advice, according to the records in the Treasurer's office. This, it is reported, does not include bills for services in any of the present court actions."

Republicans Hit

—bolder and phoner, than ever. What happened to the two-hour a day twice a week conferences with the citizens? And what about the promise to remove the parking ban on Morris Avenue in face of State Commissioner Palmer's repeated insistent demands for a complete 24 hour seven day week parking ban?

"Another example of their attempt to delude the voters of Springfield is their recent ad in which they attempt to show that Springfield's taxes are the highest in a selected list of Union County municipalities. They carefully print the tax rates for nine municipalities, where the 1955 tax rate is unquestionably lower than Springfield's, and chortle with glee at their great accomplishment. But they conceal from you the fact that these same towns have higher assessments.

Tax Dollars Count

"The quoting of a tax rate alone has no significance. The tax dollar which you pay out is the really important item in living costs, and most people know that these tax dollars are no more and in many cases are less than those paid by property owners in these other towns. Figures released by the Local Government Department of the State of New Jersey, show that Springfield is fourth from the lowest in assessed values. The affected tax dollars of low assessments and high rates is obvious even to the uninitiated, in which class our opponents obviously belong on the face of their own statements.

"The citizen acceptance of the assessment policy can best be demonstrated by the fact that not a single residential property owner filed an appeal in 1955 with the Union County Board of Taxation. The two amateurs in municipal fiscal affairs can neither deny this nor misinterpret this.

"The Springfield property owner enjoys another great benefit not shared by tax payers in other Union County towns. With the exception of the new bonds to be issued for the necessary addition to the Town Hall, the Free Public Library and the construction of the new Township Garage (all recommended after careful study by a Citizen's Committee) our Township government is free of bonded debt.

"We have provided the increased services and capital improvements required by a population growth which in the last seven years equals in numbers the total population increase of Springfield in 168 years; and we did this without putting your future in hock. The net cost of servicing these new bonds will not affect future tax rates because in 1955 the last payments-for-service costs on our sewer bonds were made. The expansion of Township facilities will effect other savings by way of elimination of rental expenses for municipal offices and storage of equipment.

Well Managed

"Competent, licensed authority has certified year after year that Springfield's affairs are well and carefully managed. We are sure that the people of Springfield are too wise to turn over the handling of their municipal finances to irresponsible Democrats, who, from the top to the smallest governmental unit, devotedly follow the basic New Deal philosophy of—'Tax and spend—spend and elect.'"

"The Republican administration has saved the tax payers thousands of dollars by its sound fiscal policies as well as by wise planning and good business management. For example, we obtained from the Woodside-Homes development without one cent of cost a two and one-half acre tract dedicated to public recreation use. The same developer deeded to the Township some 1500 feet of frontage along Milltown Road without cost, for future improvement of this street.

"Archbridge developers deeded to the Township without cost over 300 feet frontage along Milltown Road for future improvement. This same developer also contributed $3,000 towards the piping of a storm drainage ditch which might otherwise have been done at Township expense. Archbridge is also required to improve a portion of Evergreen Avenue, an existing Township street, at its expense.

"Short Hills Village contributed substantially toward the construction of a sanitary sewer, which eliminated a pumping station. This pumping station had been a maintenance problem and expense to the Township. Camptown developers were required to pay for the curbing along a portion of South Springfield Avenue.

"These are but a few out of many. If these be real estate deals, they in Springfield's interest, let's have more of them.

"The Republican administration was successful in negotiating and obtaining substantial sums of State money for the installation of traffic signal lights along Morris avenue at its intersections with Short Hills Avenue, Marion Avenue and Sallen Street.

"State and County funds have also been obtained for road repairs and other maintenance items.

"The Republicans who constitute Springfield's government are men of proven ability, sound-thinking and conscientious public officials. We seek election to the Township Committee in order that sound government may be continued."

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

What is the mission of a missionary?

Once there was a handful of men who went forth to convert the world to Christianity. These men knew exactly what their mission was; for Christ had said to them personally: "Going therefore, teach ye all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matt. 28:19-20).

They knew full well that the truth of their teaching was guaranteed, for the Master had said: "He that heareth you, heareth me" (Luke 10:16).

And so they went forth on their humanly impossible mission with a forge-fitness of self and a singleness of purpose which resulted in the loss of their lives and the conversion of the ancient world.

Today in almost every land there are Catholic missionary priests—about 26,000 all told—each following Christ's command: "Go ye into the whole world and preach the Gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15)—each teaching the exact same divine truths that Peter and Paul and the other Apostles had preached—each aware of His God-given powers by succession, for our Blessed Lord had said: "Behold, I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world" (Matt. 28:20).

And so the Catholic missionary of today carries on his Christian mission of teaching, preaching, converting, baptizing; and so it will be throughout the ages until there shall be "one Fold and one Shepherd."

The truth cannot hurt anyone. The truth about things Catholic is what we are attempting to give in these articles—and that is all.

Local Library Points To Advantage of Encyclopedia

Because it is important for elementary and high school students to get as near original sources as possible and to learn to digest materials for themselves, they are often discouraged from using encyclopedias. In doing this the splendid help found in an encyclopedia rightly used is lost sight of.

Recently an old friend found a lot of rocks had been washed down into the brook outside her Massachusetts summer home. They had been tumbled and broken up by hurricane Diane. She picked up a pretty pink one to use for a door stop. Wondering about the type of rock she began looking it up. Soon she was collecting more and before long had over twenty-five different specimens, all gathered within a few yards of the house. All she had to help name them was the Encyclopedia Britannica and her old Cornell note book made thirty years ago. But, with these simple tools, she soon found it had become a fascinating hobby.

Whenever we need information quickly and concisely stated, an encyclopedia is the best source. For further information the readings suggested at the end of articles can be followed up.

The Springfield Free Public Library has a nice collection of Encyclopedias: Britannica, Americana, Colliers, Compton's Pictorial Encyclopedia, and World Books. It has some other one-volume works and some encyclopedias on special subjects. Outstanding among these are the "Encyclopedia of Social Studies" and "Dictionary of American Biography."

Your Library

In Springfield the various organizations giving programs to celebrate the tenth birthday of the United Nations called attention to the books on the Public Library shelves. It was noted that this collection was not large numerically, but had been carefully selected.

The most imposing and comprehensive book was a reference work "Year Book of the United Nations for 1952." A monthly magazine "United Nations Review" helps to keep readers abreast of current information.

Among recent books were: Beckel's "Workshop for the World" (1954); Eichelberger's "UN: The First Ten Years" (1955); Fenichel and Andrews' "The United Nations Blueprint for Peace" (Rev. 1954); Roosevelt and DeWitt's "UN: Today and Tomorrow" (1953).

Trygve Lie has written a very charming, somewhat autobiographical account of his experiences with the UN—the "Cause of Peace," which came out in 1954. "Peace on Earth" published in 1949 contained not only a single chapter by Lie, but also had chapters by other early leaders such as Ralph Bunche, Carlos Romulo, Benjamin Cohen and Eleanor Roosevelt.

The books for younger readers include "A Fair World for All" by D. C. Fisher; "Partners: the United Nations and Youth" by Eleanor Roosevelt and Helen Ferris, and "How the United Nations Works" by Tom Galt.

All of these books will be placed on display by the main library desk so the readers can find them easily.

When the Historical Society of Morristown visited the Public Library on their pilgrimage last Saturday, they admired not only the exhibits of guns and memorabilia of the Revolutionary Period, but the beautiful tiles of the Franklin stove bequeathed to the Library by Miss Bailey as part of the building. Unfortunately, they arrived just when the building was crowded with children and adults preparing for the rainy weekend by getting a good supply of books. The reference room likewise was full of students working on high school projects. Our new wing is badly needed long before it is ready.

Story hour for pre-school children is still held at 10:30 a. m. Twelve little ones came out in all the storm last week. So far we have not had to divide into two groups.

build one of their by-passes. Let us be "bit" and "bought" and courageous in dealing with this matter as Union and Chatham have done, as Mayor Blumenthal has done in Union.

"Following an excerpt from a letter written by State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. C. Palmer to Governor Robert B. Meyner when the chief executive asked for a review of the matter of resurfacing Morris avenue in Springfield. Copy of the letter was obtained by me when I received an invitation to go to Trenton and discuss this Morris avenue matter!

"Some months ago Assemblywoman Dwyer contacted me in an endeavor to interest the department in removing the rails from the main street of Springfield, Rt. 24. During our conversation, being somewhat familiar with the area, I advised Assemblywoman Dwyer that we could make no decision until we made a personal inspection but that my inclination was towards resurfacing the street, covering over the rails rather than attempting to remove them. . . .

"Prior to any contact with the Mayor and this office we learned from the press that the Mayor had released a story and, as I recall it, a copy of a letter that he simultaneously addressed to me in which he thanked us profusely for what we were going to do. We called the Mayor and informed him that no decision had been reached and that under no circumstances would we consider resurfacing the highway unless parking was eliminated.

"The Mayor agreed that elimination of parking in Springfield would be desirable but that he feared his co-municipal leaders. The Mayor then went on to say that Union never went along on the stagger parking and that the Springfield store keepers were complaining of the stagger parking and that if he tried to go further towards eliminating parking that he would die politically. The Mayor then focused on Union saying that if we could get Union to go along—that we might get Springfield to also go along.

"Some might feel that the Mayor's more interested in the press he receives rather than the welfare of the citizens and travelling public, as it will be noted that he puts down at the bottom of the letters he sends here: cc: 'Press'."
