Rahway Makes Grid Championship Bid In Holiday Battle Against Regional

Chief Sorge In Plea For More Safe Driving

Springfield's safe driving campaign, designed to eliminate automobile accidents, will become part of the state-wide drive for greater safety which started this week and continues through January 2 by proclamation from Governor Robert B. Meyner.

"The Township has always had a safe driving campaign," said Police Chief Albert A. Sorge yesterday, "and our records show that the number of accidents is decreasing with the education of the motorists. Springfield is a heavy traffic community since Route 28, which is Morris avenue and a state highway, passes right through the center of our town—but we have managed to keep our accidents down."

The record shows that Springfield had a total of 190 accidents up to this week with 44 reported as injured. There were two killed, one of these only last week when, according to the police report, a Roselle resident lost control of his car and struck a tree in front of the Raymond Chisholm School. The other fatality occurred August when six year old Philip Gaestel was struck and killed by a car in front of his home on Sumpke road.

The records in Springfield also show that, up to November 1, there were 1542 summonses given out in Springfield for traffic violations. "Issuing this number of summonses for traffic violations," said Police Chief Sorge, "is further proof that we are making every effort to cut down accidents. We know that most accidents are caused by sheer stupidity and carelessness of the drivers. Safe driving must become natural and we must make every day a safe driving day."

Chief Sorge urged all drivers to contribute to the holiday spirit by helping to reduce highway accidents. "We are in our holiday season," said Chief Sorge, "the most perilous time of the year for accidents. We have tried to educate, to scare and humiliate the man behind the wheel. Let us now try to put emphasis on the skill, timing, coordination and smooth handling that make for expert driving and safe driving. If more car drivers would strive for expert performance behind the wheel, these accident figures would be cut drastically. Too many drivers are satisfied with a minimum of safety effort instead of becoming good drivers. We have stop streets, slow down streets and very, very few accidents can be traced to traffic. (Continued on page 4)

Town Asks for New Garbage Contract Bids

The present scavenger contract in Springfield expires at the end of this year and the machinery has been set in motion for the signing of a new contract with bids to be received at a special meeting of the Township Committee on December 8.

Specifications have been put into the new contract after a long and exhaustive study of the present agreement with changes that are intended to benefit both the contractor and the services to Springfield. Many changes have been incorporated in the contract specifications after the end of the current agreement which the Township officials hope, will eliminate many of the present disadvantages both to the contractor and the services to be rendered.

The new contract, according to Township officials, will "have teeth" in it so that it can be enforced both on the part of the contractor and those who benefit from the services.

The present contractors, Peter Roselle & Sons of East Orange, have held the local garbage collection and scavenger contract for 18 years and have done a good job despite the rapid growth of Springfield and the increasing demands for these services. Crescent Roselle, officer of the firm, has been the contact man for the present contracting organization in Springfield.

DAR Holds Meeting At Tallau Home

The Church and Cannon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution met Tuesday evening (November 22) at the home of Mrs. Tallau of South Springfield avenue.

Richard Deyo of Elizabeth, junior state president, New Jersey Society, Children of the American Revolution described the work of that society.

Mrs. Tallau introduced a program of 18th century American music. Records of ballads published in broadside form and circulated in the Boston area in the 17th and 18th centuries set to traditional melodies and a quintet for string instruments by John Frederick Peters, were played.

Members brought Christmas gifts which will be sent to children who attend D.A.R. approved schools. These schools receive substantial financial aid from the D.A.R. and are attended by children who would not receive an education if it was not for this D.A.R. aid.

Mrs. J. P. Haggett, first vice regent, conducted the meeting in the absence of the regent, Mrs. Eugene F. Donnelly who is vacationing in Florida. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. John Kulp and Miss Helen Buzzell.

Regional Football Team Lauds Suchena and Staff

"Regardless of the outcome of Thursday's game," said a certain Regional lineman, "this football season at Regional is one which will long be remembered." This player, whether he knew it or not, spoke for the whole Bulldog squad.

Perhaps it would have been easier to "go out" during practice. It certainly would have been easier not to go out for the football team at all, but the name Mike Suchena inspired these boys to give it all they had, and more.

"Mike," Athletic Director, former Frosh football coach and Assistant wrestling mentor took charge of the gridmen during the team's "desperate" hours. Last year the Regional squad was nothing to talk about, they won one while dropping eight, losing to Rahway 18-7. Coach Suchena and his staff members Lou DeRosa and Walter La Prairie began from scratch this year.

The team was turned upside down. New and complicated plays were gone over again and again until the boys knew them like they knew their two times table. Practice became not a recreation period but hours of grueling work.

Through this program the coaches ignited what they had been looking for—a spark that glowed victory. The spark was minute at first, but after the first two games on the schedule became to a roaring fire. The boys were now playing for the Regional title and they were playing for Mike Suchena.

DON CARPENTER
One of Springfield's three top-flight quarterbacks is Don Carpenter. Don has been sharing the Q.B. position with Rocky Lettieri and Richie Walker. He is a sophomore who knows his business. A good natured hard playing individual, Carpenter can kick, run, direct and throw with the ease that marks a good ballplayer. In the last few games Don has teamed up with Curt Merz, throwing his mate pass after pass. This double threat combination has supplied the scoring punch Regional has needed to defeat such teams as Linden, Union and Caldwell. Carpenter is not going to be one of the boys moving to the Clark High School and the Orange and Blue will be blessed with his services for two more campaigns. In addition to starring on the gridiron, Carpenter is a talented basketball player and a fine baseball prospect.

CURT MERZ
A candidate for All-County and possibly All-State honors is Springfield Regional's star end Curt Merz. Curt is an all around athlete. When the pigskin season reaches its completion Merz hangs up his spikes and puts on his sneakers to take the role of center on the Varsity basketball team. Then when the court days come to an end he heads for the cinders where he throws the shotput. Incidentally he set a high school record in this event last year.

Merz's football feats are too numerous to mention in the two inches allotted to him. He has made unbelievable catches and has managed to elude the opposition to turn these catches into touchdowns. Elected as co-captain of the grid-men along with Joe Holliday, Curt has proven himself an able leader.

BOB ANDERSON
Bob Anderson, or "Butch" as his friends call him hails from Springfield. Being a senior today's Thanksgiving game will be Bob's last for Regional. This solidly built youngster has participated in every game, playing his heart out. A steady competitor all the way, Butch has popped-up when least expected and has turned in some excellent exhibitions of running and pass receiving. It was Anderson who scored the winning touchdown in the Somerville game. All of five foot seven but weighing closer to two-hundred than one-hundred pounds, Bob Anderson portrays the perfect half-back. In addition to football, he also takes part in the school's wrestling program and is one of the better members of the Regional track squad.

RONNY COLES
Ronny Coles, a member of the junior class will be playing his last game for Springfield Regional this morning. Ron is just one of many boys on the team who will find themselves attending the new Clark High School next year. Starting the season a mite slowly, he began to pick up as the campaign picked up. Ronny almost singlehandedly defeated Somerville gaining yardage whenever called upon. Coles is a big boy; he stands six feet high and weighs well over two-hundred pounds. Coach Suchena is counting heavily on this fullback in today's play against Rahway.

ED MCCARTHY
This is Ed McCarthy's third year on the Bulldog Varsity. Ed is fast, aggressive and capable. Plagued by injury all through his playing career, McCarthy has always been a shining light on the football team. The opposing club knows it's in for trouble when Ed McCarthy pulls that ball in and heads upfield on a kick-off return. Perhaps Ed's greatest asset is his ability to shift his feet with amazing speed and reverse field at the most opportune moment. He is five foot ten, weighs upward of one hundred and fifty pounds, plays half-back and is a key factor in the Bulldog attack.

COME OUT AND ROOT THE REGIONAL TEAM
TO VICTORY!

Picture if you will a blue skied sunny morning, over ten thousand anxious spectators sitting in Regional's football stands awaiting the start of a championship game, and you have in your mind the scene for today's Thanksgiving tilt here at Springfield. Whether the sky will be blue we really can't say, but we do know that the game between the Scarlet of Rahway and Springfield Regional's Bulldogs will be one of excitement and thrills. The outcome of this contest will decide the State Group III Championship.

This year's football records have been nothing short of great for both clubs. Rahway has Bob Scarpi, a fine footballer who finds his name well up there in the list of top high school scorers. The Indians defeated by Linden for the teams only loss are "up" for this game against Regional. Knowing that they already have a tremendous edge in the series, Rahway will hit Springfield with confidence and talent. The Scarlet sport four shut-outs on their overall seasonal record of 7-1 and have scored a total of 137 points against opposition while giving up only 37. They have marched away with victories against such teams as Carteret, Westfield and Cranford, while dropping their only game as we mentioned to Linden 6-0.

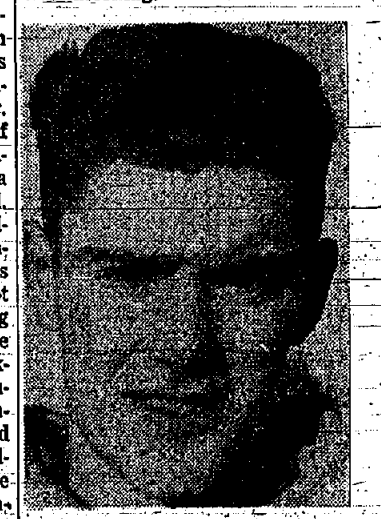

On the other side of the fence with a "BEWARE OF DOG" sign over them we meet the Regional Bulldogs. Directed by an able bodied coaching staff the Regionals also have a 7-1 seasonal mark losing only to Westfield 21-13. They have trampled Morristown, Caldwell, Union and Linden among others. R. H. S. supports a huge line, with each boy weighing two-hundred pounds or better.

Springfield has depth, three half backs, Ed McCarthy, Butch Anderson and Tony Castaldo pose a powerful picture in the backfield. Ronny Coles, the fullback is loaded with strength in his two-hundred pound plus frame and it is questionable as to whether or not Rahway will be capable of slowing him down. Running the club are three quarterbacks, Richie Walker, Rocky Lettieri and Don Carpenter. Walker started off the season like a house on fire. He looked almost professional against Hillside, Morristown and Somerville but then for some unknown reason he fizzled out. When Walker caved in Coach Suchena called in his next quarterback Rocky Lettieri. Rocky showed good running and passing traits and has been a steady performer since. But the boy to keep your eye on is Don Carpenter, quarterback number three. Carpenter is an all around Q. B. he throws, runs and passes with ease and dexterity. He also can boot that pigskin a country mile. Completing the picture for Regional is end Curt Merz. Curt, Springfield's nomination for All-State honors has come through in every game, making brilliant catches and inspiring the squad with his drive and determination.

JOE HOLLIDAY
Joe Holliday, co-captain of the Bulldogs along with Curt Merz, also pictured on this page, will be playing his last game for Regional this morning.

TONY CASTALDO
Tony Castaldo is a coach's dream, gifted with light feet and an ability to second guess his pursuers, he has shone in every game played this season. Strictly a broken field runner, Tony has broken into the clear again and again due to spectacular feats of footwork. Along with taking half-back honors for Regional, Castaldo is an honor-roll student as well. Recently elected to the Vice Presidency of the Junior Class, he is a popular youngster on and off the gridiron. Tony is five foot seven and supports one hundred and fifty pounds of dynamite.

Davega Opening Smashes 3-Day Business Records

Records were shattered, both in the matter of dollars of merchandise sold and the number of persons who came "just to see" at the grand opening of the new Davega Store on Route 22 last week-end.

"Never in the history of our business," said A. Davega, one of the high executives of the organization, "has there been such a response. It is impossible to give any figures as to the number of people that went through our turnstiles during the three day week-end, starting with Friday, but we know our sales established startling new records.

Traffic was backed up for miles, with state troopers keeping the cars moving in and out of our spacious parking lot where the Springfield police took over and did a very excellent job of maintaining a steady flow of cars in and out of the area. It is difficult for us to even venture a guess as to the number of people that jammed into the store during the opening three days but the members of the Springfield police force, assigned to help keep traffic moving, worked smoothly and did everything to help us handle the record-breaking throng of shoppers.

Even the stormy weather on Saturday," continued Mr. Davega, "even the snow failed to discourage the crowds and Saturday was high tide until closing time. We did offer unusual bargains and the shoppers evidently realized the advantages of buying in this new Springfield Davega Store.

Davega Stores opened formally last Friday on Route 22, Springfield, with especially priced merchandise to attract customers but neither the executives of the establishment nor the police department expected such a response.

enter only when a good number of shoppers went through the exits with their purchases." Many of the advertised items were "out of stock" by Saturday night closing but the store will be replenished and many more startling Davega priced merchandise will be offered.

Free parking space and the easy flow from Route 22 attracted the thousands from this area and the fine display of merchandise in the store, making shopping very easy, brought in the record breaking number of purchasers. "We want to thank both the state police and the members of the Springfield police department," said General Manager Stein, "Some of the local police officers worked through a continuous long stretch of hours to keep the crowds moving."

Bazaar to Be Held at American Legion Hall on December 1st

The public is invited and urged to attend a gala Bazaar at the American Legion Hall on Thursday, December 1 from 11:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. This bazaar is sponsored by the Ways and Means Department of the Springfield Women's Club to benefit the club Community Fund and to carry on the work of the departments in the club.

Shoppers will have an opportunity here to buy all their Christmas gifts, as well as their own needs for Christmas—decorating and Holiday entertaining. All departments in the Women's Club are participating in the event, and their featured items will be sold at the many booths decorated in the Christmas Holiday theme.

Among the many gift items to be sold are very handsome sets of beauty and shade without providing leaves to rake. There is no such tree, for into each home owner's life some leaves must fall. # HOW IS OVERLOOK DOING?

A Brief Report by the President at the End of the Hospital's Fiscal Year, September 30, 1955

On September 30th, Overlook Hospital completed another fiscal year.

Never before in our history have we been called upon to serve so many people. During the past year Overlook took care of 9,927 patients of more than 165 doctors. It was the birthplace of more than 1,453 babies.

Financially we did better than we expected for three very important reasons:

First, because our rate of occupancy was considerably higher than we anticipated;

Second, because we negotiated a substantially better contract with Blue Cross; and Third, because of the very greatly increased efficiency of the hospital's administration.

All in all, we have come a very long way in the past few years.

We still have a $342,000 mortgage but we are amortizing it, and otherwise we are free of debt.

A Look Ahead

All the friends of Overlook in all the communities it serves are entitled to know at this point what we foresee as we look ahead:

Since we are operating at or near our present capacity we cannot expect any financial gains from increased occupancy of our rooms.

We also cannot expect any significant improvement in our Blue Cross income.

And good administration has reached the point where we cannot anticipate substantial gains from improvements there, either.

On the other hand we must expect higher costs. Payroll increases alone will amount to $148,000 during the year ahead.

Operating Deficit

Taking all things into consideration we feel we must expect an operating deficit for the coming year of something like $90,000, and, after taking into account non-operating income, we must look for contributions of something like $45,000 from our friends and supporters in the communities which we serve to balance this operating deficit.

Following for your information is our Operating Budget for the year which began October 1, 1955. It indicates what income and outgo we expect as we look at the year ahead.

Budget for Coming Year

Net Operating Income	$1,953,024
Operating Expense	2,043,134
Net Operating Deficit	90,110
Non-operating Income	46,300
Net Deficit for the Year	43,810

Capital Needs

In addition to our recurring annual needs (because few modern hospitals can support themselves on their own operating income), we must make substantial expenditures each year for capital purposes. During the fiscal year just ended, for example, we spent or authorized the expenditure of $26,000 for a very much needed emergency generator. We spent $5,200 for acoustical ceilings in the halls. (These were called for in the original plan of Overlook but had to be eliminated because the total original capital available was insufficient and we had to eliminate many desirable outlays.) We have spent or authorized the expenditure of $39,000 for the nurses' home—which has already begun to pay dividends since we can now much more successfully compete with other hospitals for the available supply of nurses. We have a very attractive place for them to live and the word is getting around among nurses. We very much need a third elevator—to cost something like $50,000—and we have $11,500 available from last year's annual giving to use for that purpose, but the balance still has to be raised. Overlook, by the way, has a committee whose sole function is to determine the order in which we will solve our equipment and construction problems. We have a long list of pressing capital needs.

Long Term Needs

As we look ahead we are, of course, conscious that population is expanding very rapidly in the area which depends upon Overlook Hospital. It seems to us quite certain that within a relatively short period of time—perhaps two years—we will need to move toward some substantial building.

Our capital problems, as we move ahead, are growing larger, not smaller. They are balanced, of course, by the increasing number of people we serve—by the increasing number of doctors who use our facilities—by the growing numbers of people to whom we can properly turn for all the help a hospital requires—not only financial but in the form of voluntary services. (We now have over 700 volunteer workers.)

We have a very big job of organizing public understanding and support as Overlook expands to meet an expanding population, but there is no reason why we cannot expect increasing numbers of good and responsible citizens to support the work of Overlook in their own interests and for the common good.

Annual Giving Program

To meet our great and growing problem we have embarked on a program to organize the support of the people of the area we serve—and many generous friends have already contributed this year. We are asking more and more people to consider that the support of a first-class hospital is a continuing responsibility in the public interest—an investment, not a charity—and to include us in their tax-deductible programs of giving on a planned annual basis. Many people have expressed their willingness to do this.

What The Money Will Let Us Do

The flow of annual giving will provide for three major needs:

- (1) covering the operating deficits which arise from the fact that a hospital like Overlook is run as a community service, not for profit;
- (2) providing funds for important near-term capital improvements;
- (3) providing gradually a foundation of capital to use in expanding the hospital's basic facilities so that when we need to grow to meet the growing, long-term demands made upon us we will have a good start.

An Invitation to Help

I certainly hope that all who can do so will plan to become friends and supporters of Overlook on a continuing annual basis as members and generous contributors of money and time.

A great hospital is a very fine cause to support—in the public interest as well as for your own personal and family security. I can promise you that your money will be put to very good use in a well-managed, efficiently operated Overlook.

F. BRUCE GERHARD, President,

Overlook Hospital Association.

that the games were just part of the schedule until 1946, then they began to require recognition. That season was almost identical to this. Regional had an 8-0 record and Rahway a mediocre 4-4 count. The Bulldogs led 7-0 at half time but went down to defeat in the second stanza of play under a surprise Rahway attack. The years 1947, 48, 49 and 50 proved to be the golden years for both clubs. In 1947 playing at Springfield, the decisive win, handing Rahway its Orange and Blue marched to a worst defeat since the series began in '37". The game of 1948 again saw the Indians come from behind and take the Bulldogs 13-7. The winning of the 1949 game by Regional brought the Springfielders their first undefeated season under Coach John Brown. With such standouts as Nate Smith, Ken Belliveau and Frank Vincende they marched to a 27-7 win. The first tie game of the series occurred in 1950 when the heavily favored Bulldogs were held 7-7. After losing quite decisively in '51 and '52", B. H. S. bounced back to take an upset win from the Scarlet, 12-7. Ronny Coles was just beginning his football career, as was Curt Merz and Joe Holliday. It proved to be a terrific game full of thrills and excitement. Regional stars George MacKenzie, Harold Bolick Bob Wyckoff, Bob Hull and Ed Ruby compiled their efforts to make this Thanksgiving affair the upset of the day.

Last season the Orane and Blue again went down to defeat at the hands of the Indians, 18-7.

Today's contest should be the most important of the lot. Both teams, bitter rivals as is, will be meeting not only for a traditional Turkey Day game, but for the State Championship as well. Our money rides on the Bulldogs.

Santa Claus Due At St. Stephens

Santa Claus will arrive at St. Stephens' bazaar and Winter Wonderland for children on Friday, December 2nd and Saturday, December 3rd. It is expected that Santa will put in an appearance on the street several times before the affair.

The Winter Wonderland will feature in addition to Santa Claus, games, toys, and gifts for the children, also a gift table where the youngsters can do their Christmas shopping. Mrs. Clifford Anderson is in charge of the Wonderland.

The bazaar, with Mrs. Robert Esler and Mrs. David Brown as co-chairman, will have many useful articles and many helpful suggestions for Christmas shopping.

Mrs. Oakley Jackson is in charge of the snack bar, which will be open all day on Friday. A buffet supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m.

All Church organizations are cooperating in this affair.

Woman's Hand Bag Lost: Please, Return to SUN

A black hand bag, containing considerable cash, a wallet with membership and registration cards, and the odds and ends usually found in a woman's bag has been lost in Springfield.

It was lost last Wednesday, some time between 1:05 p. m. and about 3 o'clock on either Riverside, Battle Hill or Wentz avenues. The owner of the bag would love to have it returned intact with cash and everything else—but she would be happy if only the contents were returned since there were some papers of sentimental value in it as well as the wallet.

DAV To Present Marionette Show

Dr. A. Leo Kahn, commander, Disabled American Veterans of Millburn and Springfield, announced today that the world famous Suzari Marionettes will be in town on Saturday, December 3rd at Regional High in Springfield. The play is the Suzari Company's "Pinochio," an amusing version of the children's story, with music and rollicking puppet antics enough to satisfy the most demanding of child audiences.

"Pinochio" like all of the Suzari Company's plays, is the product of the combined efforts of the several young and talented artists who make up the Suzari Company. Their aim has always been to present both entertainment and education in a puppet show, and to do so with the best available techniques and materials. Recently, after its reporters had visited a Suzari production, a Boston paper commented, "Backstage at a Suzari show looks like a miniature version of the Ziegfeld Follies."

Two performances will take place, a morning show at 11 and an afternoon show at 2. The proceeds of the performances will be used for the D.A.V. Hospital Fund. Tickets for the show may be obtained gratis to children thru the cooperation of merchants of Springfield and at the office of the Springfield Sun.

The day is now upon us when the Bulldogs have a chance to dip their battered spikes and aching bodies into the battle for a Sectional Championship.

It's up to them today, those heroes in orange and blue. Will they fall to the Scarlet, just what will they do?

At left end there's Joe Galini, a veteran tried and true. If Joe stays in there fighting, Regional will come through.

When Jerry crashes that line, he really turns on the steam.

Bill Tryczinski holds down center, hiking is Billy's game. Davey Crockett is a loser, compared to this lad's aim.

At right guard is Bob Nadasky, a more talented soph is hard to find.

He plays with all his heart, can't hardly get them kind.

To the tackle spot we go, Tom Scriba's realm.

"A real threat on that line," is the word from the helm.

Now here we are at end, to a player you've all been waiting for. That boy Curt Merz, he really knows the score.

All you Springfielders know this half-back from out Keeler Avenue way, as far as the squad goes he's a mainstay.

Determination is Butch Anderson's rule, remember that catch against Morristown? ... too cool.

Ronny Coles is a terror against all opposition.

To eat up offensive yardage, is this two-hundred pounder's mission.

That light footed man at half-back is Mr. Tony Castaldo, number ten.

All Anthony needs is a few good blockers, and to stop ... he doesn't know when.

Last but not least is Don Carpenter, he's only a sophomore it's true.

But there may never be another so spirited to play for the Orange and Blue.

Let's bring this bit of corny rhyme to an abrupt ending.

Anyone may borrow its lines, there's no patent pending.

Woman's Club News

With only one week remaining in final preparation for our gala Public Bazaar at the American Legion Hall on December 1, all departments are really humming in last-minute activity to complete their projects by the sale deadline.

If you're looking for new suggestions for meals and entertaining, or for good cookie recipes for Christmas, you'll certainly be wise to pick up the recipe booklets which the American Home Department has compiled to be sold at its booth along with the featured items of assorted baked goods. There will be three recipe booklets on sale, two of which include varieties of dishes, and the third to include thirty recipes of out-of-this-world cookies. The booklets are being sold at only 35 cents each or $1 for $1.50, and your family will agree when you serve these tasty dishes that it was an excellent investment! Be at the Bazaar early to assure best selections at each booth. As the sale starts promptly at 11:00 a.m. you'll be wise to come for lunch; bring your friends and kiddies. A snack bar and baby-sitting, nursery service will help you to make your selections without being rushed. Also, you'll want to be there at four o'clock to hear your name called as the winner of the milk stole raffle!

Twenty-five members were most fortunate to attend a recent meeting of the American Home Department held at the home of Mrs.

James Stewart, 88 Salter Street, for, they learned at this meeting how to wrap their Christmas gifts in such a way that the package itself will be remembered almost as well as the gift! Mrs. Henry C. Clusmeyer of Short Hills and Mrs. Harry Edwards, both of the Jolly Toy Gift Shop in East Orange, supplied the gift wrappings and ribbons for the group, as well as assorted-sized boxes which members were taught to wrap. The members practiced making intricate bows, roses, and geometric patterns with ribbon, and we're sure Saint Nick will give their Christmas packages the place of honor under the Christmas Tree this year!

Among the first to receive the American Home Department's beautifully-wrapped gifts will be twenty-two families in Springfield who will have a happier Christmas this year as the recipients of clothing and toys which members are donating to be delivered to their homes.

The Music Department's next regular meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 29 at the Cannonball House. With the presentation of "The Nutcracker Suite" at Club Night only two weeks away, this department is a hub of activity these days! Their Christmas Party on Monday, December 19 at the home of Mrs. Robert Kennedy, 1 Warwick Circle, sounds as though a good time is in store for all. A committee is already at work planning games and entertainment, and a Christmas Party tradition, members will exchange gifts.

Mrs. Edwin Davenport, Club President, and her guest Mrs. Charles Heard, First Vice-President, attended The Annual President's Day of the Elizabeth Woman's Club on Thursday, November 17, where they were privileged to hear a delightful musical program.

Attention, all members! Deadline to get your "white elephants" to Mrs. Howard Sherwin for the Bazaar is Monday, November 28. Call her at DR 9-2239 if you have anything to donate for the Ways and Means Department's booth, and someone will be around to pick up your contributions.

All members are requested to bring a "white gift" to the December Club Night, clearly marked for sex and age of the happy receiver. All gifts will be distributed to needy children at Christmas by the school nurse, Miss Florence M. Gaudner. This project, begun five years ago by the Music Department, is now traditional among all members who look forward each year to this opportunity to help make every needy child's Christmas a merrier one.

Your Library

Parents are people interested in reading and especially in reading about children. Some of this is serious reading to help solve a problem. But even when they are not studying a particular problem, they enjoy reading about young people just for fun. And some of this reading can be very amusing. Remember Booth Tarkenton's "Seventeen"!

Recently some very entertaining books have been added to the collection in the Free Public Library of Springfield. This is Goggle or, The Education of Father" by Bent Plegemann is one which relates in a humorous way a father's efforts to aid his son, Goggle, during his adolescent years. "The Five Fathers of Rept" by Ira Avery is fiction, but shows real understanding of the feelings of a child, a very appealing Italian orphan who clings to the five young men who befriended him. John McNulty (of the "New Yorker") tells with great tenderness of his relations with his small son, and of the boy's importance to him in "My Son Johnny."

Some new books about child care are: "Caring for the Sick at Home" by Lowndes, "Children's Humor" by Wolfenstein, "Prejudice and Your Child" by Clark, "Understanding Teen-agers" by Landis, and "Child Behavior" by Lig and Ames.

Mrs. Simmons reports that Thanksgiving is the popular topic of the week in the Children's Room. All books are in use. The newest ones are "Pilgrim Thanksgiving" by W. P. Hays and "The Thanksgiving Story" by Alice Dalgliesh. "Squanto, Friend of the White Man" by C. B. Bullis is an Indian story centered around the Pilgrims' friend.

The Springfield Library will be closed on Thanksgiving, but will be open all day Friday, November 25, 10:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.; 7:30 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. Because of the number of children home from school and able to use the library, the Pre-school Story Hour will skip a week and meet next on December 2 in two sessions, at 10:00 A.M. and 11 A.M.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

Purgatory Means Hope
 The souls confined there are only temporarily separated from Almighty God.
 Until you get into a discussion about the hereafter, you have no idea of the wide divergence of view that exists regarding Purgatory. The doctrine of Purgatory implies suffering, and, like every other doctrine that implies something unpleasant to comfort-loving and flesh-loving human nature, it is certain to meet objection.
 How many of us would presume to consider ourselves worthy to be united with an all-perfect, all-good God at the instant of death? Who among us can say that he has merited immediate transition from the stains of the earth to the Divine Presence? Where is the man or woman who can truthfully say that at the moment of death there is nothing to be accounted for—no debts unpaid? As Catholics, we accept the doctrine that Purgatory is the process of cleansing, that is the intermediate stage between this life and heaven, where our accrued obligations are satisfied, so that we can be joined in ecstatic joy to the pure and holy God forever.
 The month of November is an opportune time in which to discuss Purgatory because it is the month during which the Church asks us "to be mindful of those who have gone before us." We, the living, should also accept it as a time to be mindful of the fact that at some inevitable time—the next instance, perhaps—we may find ourselves in the category of "those who have gone before."
 There is nothing new about the denial of the doctrine of Purgatory. In the first centuries of Christianity, the Arian heresy denied the existence of Purgatory and disputed the usefulness of praying for the dead.
 Some of those who deny the doctrines of Purgatory go so far as to claim that the Church has "invented" Purgatory to provide its priests with a device for getting money in exchange for prayers and Masses for the dead. To such people, the Church "invents" all of the facets of its religion which they regard as "difficult." One good answer to such people is that the Church would be taking the hard way indeed by "inventing" not only Purgatory, but also Lent, Confession, the obligation of Sunday Mass and other practices when it would be so much easier and more palatable to advocate such earthly and world-satisfying doctrines as birth control, promiscuity, divorce, mercy-killing and automatic salvation!
 "It is, therefore, a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins." II Machabees, Chapter 12, Verse 46.

modern society and mode of living.
 The first of a series of Children's Concerts, sponsored by The Griffith Music Foundation, featuring The Little Orchestra Society with Thomas Sherman as conductor, was enjoyed by 43 Springfield boys and girls with five chaperons, on Saturday, November 19th, at the Mosque Theatre in Newark.
 The interest was held very high by audience participation. Mr. Paul Nordoff narrated the story of "The Frog Prince"; demonstrations of the "insides" of the instrument of the day—The Celeste—were most unusual; and the Story of Celeste featured the younger students of the Metropolitan Opera Ballet School.
 All who attended were happy that they had had the privilege. Thanks go to Mrs. Joseph Bender for making the arrangements.
 The Union County Program Chairman has chosen 12 Outstanding Local Programs of 120 PTA Organizations in the county. The Springfield Parent Teacher Association Program of the year is one of the twelve!
 Typical American names found in Antarctica include Mobil Oil Bay, Wallgreen Coast, Edsel Ford Range, Rockefeller Mountains, Wrigley Gulf, Beaumont Bay, Cape Washington, and of course, Little America.

Former Resident Weds Kansas Girl
 The marriage of Fred H. Loehr's of Pine Beach, N. J., formerly of Town, to Miss Dorothy Joan Watson of Wichita, Kansas, took place Saturday, November 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Naumann, 51 Rose Ave., Springfield.
 The bride wore a ballet-length gown of lace and pleated nylon with a short veil and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pom-pom chrysanthemums and tiny rosebuds. Best man for his brother was Harry A. Loehrs, and matron of honor was Mrs. Ethel Naumann, sister of the groom.
 Rev. Eric H. Rieker of Holy Cross Lutheran Church officiated at the ceremony, and a small reception was held at the home for relatives from Springfield, Union, Pine Beach, Mt. Holly, and Staten Island. Mr. Loehrs is employed by the Jersey Central Power and Light Company, and the couple will reside in Beachwood, N. J.
