REAL POLITICAL SCRAP HERE

The very important national campaign for president and the interesting slam-bang battle for the Sixth District Congressional seat have evidently failed to divert Springfield from its intensive local campaign for the Township Committee.

The Township is digging in for what may be one of the most exciting battles for control of the local machinery of government. The Republicans feel confident they will re-elect Mayor Albert G. Binder and Township Committee member Eugene E. Donnelly and the Democrats appear to be just as certain that their two candidates, Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, will make it this year.

The results on election day depend entirely on the more than 1,000 new voters now registered and eligible to cast their ballots. Both sides claim they "have the new voters right here in the palm of the hand" which, if true, could naturally swing the election.

Last November — against Raymond W. Forbes, and incumbent Frederick A. Handville, Keane failed by only 83 votes of winning one of the places. The new voters — those registered here this year and eligible for the first time — will decide the campaign.

The Fourth District, where the Republican support is strongest, will have 262 new voters, the greatest number of eligible newcomers in the entire Township. If the Republicans can add these to the heavy vote given to Forbes last year — 451 against the 178 for Keane — it will place a heavy burden on the Democrats in the Third and Sixth Districts, where, they insist, there has been a terrific trend in favor of the Keane-Weinberg candidacy.

Looking at the records, last year's election shows that Keane led the other candidates in the First District with 232 against Weinberg's 212, Forbes, 244, and Handville's 232. There are 94 new voters in this district and the balance of power may come anywhere — even in the first.

The returns last year were all in, except the Third District, and taking into account the figures of the previous election, it appeared that, at last, Keane would be swept into office. This district, however, gave Forbes excellent support although both Keane and Weinberg received 542 and 510, respectively, against 377 for Forbes and 350 for Handville.

This year there are, at least, 206 new voters in the Third District and that's where the Keane-Weinberg forces claim the game will be won. And the Democrats say, if it isn't in the Third District, it might very well be the Sixth where 213 new eligible voters will cast their ballots.

The result will depend on which side gets the majority of the new voters, and a lot of spade work has already been done by both camps.

ACTION AGAINST SUNDAY TRADE

Creation of a "Citizens' Committee for Sunday Closing in New Jersey" will elevate the recurrent spat over Sabbath commerce to the state level, where determination inescapably must be reached. The prevailing scattergun pattern is ludicrous and is not even a convincing practice under any conception of home rule.

The committee, which held its organization in Newark, drew heavily on Union County, but will include representation from the 20 other counties.

The four major objections voiced at the organization session encompass the general revulsion expressed in many localities. They are the factual and concrete with traditional resentment toward any commercialization of the Sabbath. Many activities once condemned for that day now are accepted as proper and even necessary, however, and the tone of Sunday observance has been altered, perhaps more than the average citizen realizes.

The Sunday merchants are the target of the condemnation, yet their doors would not be open if willing customers were not at hand. The customers are there, as a Sunday afternoon drive past any of the stores will demonstrate.

The presence of the potential buyers is an expression of facets of the changed mode of life in the land of the individually owned home, the suburbs, the developments replacing golf courses and pastures across the countryside. It also is a manifestation of the ethereal domestic quality that the women's trade papers delight in designating as "togetherness." These Sunday afternoon roadside shopping ventures usually are family jaunts. The purchases frequently are items of general concern to all the family, not routine items available at the supermarket.

Some of the objections certainly are valid, but if a strict Sunday closing is to be enacted, both the merchants and the buyers would be required to arrive at a compromise substitute, probably evening hours. That admittedly would be less convenient for many people.

Life in a weekly newspaper office is most heart-warming simply because the nice people are more numerous than the other kind. The other day — a newcomer to Springfield visited us in the Sun office to purchase a subscription "so that we can find out about our neighbors" and what's going on in the Township.

"We come from Ohio," said this new resident, "and I want to tell you how pleased we are to live in such a progressive community. We were especially happy to see policemen guiding school children at almost every intersection — the streets are very well kept — and we look forward to becoming more acquainted with our very friendly neighbors."

Mothers Want Cafeteria Menu Continued In Sun

There is evident interest in the menu being published each week in the Springfield Sun for the Florence M. Gaudineer cafeteria and several letters have been received asking that it be continued.

The menu for each week is being printed in the Sun so that mothers of pupils attending Gaudineer School may be able to balance the diet for their meals at home.

One of the letters received by the Springfield Sun has been selected as an indication of interest and is printed below:

Editor, Sun:

Our son, Barry Hollander attends the Florence M. Gaudineer School. As we live one mile from the school, it is necessary that he has lunch in the school cafeteria.

Naturally, as parents, we are always interested in his welfare and of course anxious to know the menu served during the course of each week. The Springfield Sun has shown great interest to everyone by publishing the MENU each week and we are ever grateful to you for this very fine service.

We hope that you will continue publishing the menu weekly and we feel sure that it is appreciated by everyone that uses the cafeteria. Our thanks and best wishes.

MR. & MRS. EDWARD HOLLANDER

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Ahm last Monday, Janet Law, president, and Lenore Greene were named as delegates to attend the National Convention of Sisterhoods at the Concord Hotel, Kiamasha Lake, N. Y. from November 11th to 14th.

JNHAC To Meet
A general meeting of the Springfield League, JNHAC is scheduled for November 7, 1956 at 8:30 p.m. at Temple Beth Ahm, Baltusrol-Way.

Town Quits Tax Dispute With County

The Township has found that it doesn't always pay to argue with the tax collector. In fact, sometimes you save money keeping quiet.

Last spring 12 communities in Union County including Springfield banded together to protest the new county tax table.

After hiring a tax expert and an attorney to argue their case, the towns fought through several hearings in May and June.

The State Division of Tax Appeals announced their decision in September. Not only did they refuse to lower the tax rate, but they upped the ratios in some of the towns.

The towns quickly decided to abandon the protest at a meeting Friday night in the Springfield Municipal Building. The attorney said there was little chance for a successful litigation in light of rulings in similar cases.

This has not soothed the 12 towns, however. They have decided to remain in organization (The Union County Intermunicipal Council) to keep an eye on future tax rulings.

Mayor Ira F. Holly of Berkeley Heights is the chairman. The other towns in the Council are: New Providence, Union, Cranford, Scotch Plains, Fanwood, Mountainside, Clark, Kenilworth, Garwood and Roselle Park.

All this comes about because the true realty value of the county is skyrocketing. During the first six months of 1956, it went up $122 million. This means a slight change in the equalization ratios from one town to another depending on how high each town assesses its own property.

For example, Springfield assesses its property at $14,662,350. This is a tax rate of 21.87% of the true value of $67,043,210. New Providence, on the other hand, assesses its property at $12,403,625 or 35.33% of their true value of $35,107,911. Union County equalizes these various percentages so that each town pays proportionally a fair rate to the county.

Local Democrats Open Headquarters

Democratic Campaign Headquarters, at 262 Morris Avenue officially opened here Monday night with a mass pledge "to restore civic pride to Springfield by ending runaway taxes and political dictatorial rule under the regime of Mayor Albert Binder."

Principal speaker was Arthur MacMahon, of 165 South Springfield Avenue, who told an audience of campaign workers the election of Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg has become the banner of all Springfield residents, regardless of party affiliation. He said it becomes "the responsibility of every member of the community to cast off the type of political self-interest rule handed out by Mayor Binder and his running mate, Eugene Donnelly."

This election, MacMahon declared, is not a question of which party belongs in office, but a more serious question for which men can do the job we need in a township beset by ever-increasing taxes, no immediate or long-range planning and a candidate in Donnelly who practices private real estate.

Bonadies Lays Platform On Line

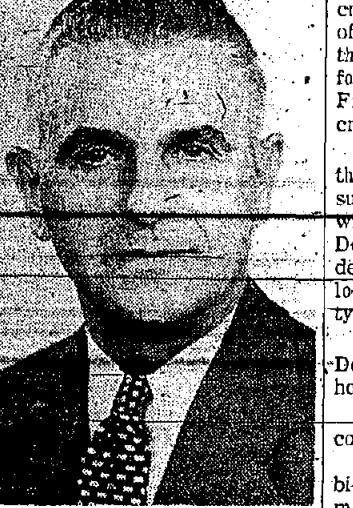

Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies, local Democratic leader, is taking some time off from his efforts in behalf of the Springfield campaign, to ask for support in his candidacy for Freeholder on the County Democratic ticket.

Bonadies has been campaigning throughout the county and his supporters hope that Springfield will give him a large vote from Democrats, Republicans and Independents — since he is the only local resident running for a county office.

Following is the platform of the Democratic candidates for Freeholder:

1. To a sensible solution for the control of flood waters.
2. Establishment of an active bi-partisan County Industrial Commission consisting of representative business and labor to attract new industry to our county and to hold what we already have.
3. Elimination of political meetings at the County Courthouse at the taxpayers' expense and the preparation, distribution and mailing of political literature.
4. Immediate end of pollution of rivers and streams of Union County through removal of industrial waste and sewage.
5. Evening meetings of Board of Freeholders so interested taxpayers can be heard.

Say Democrats Wage Campaign Of False Facts

Mayor Albert G. Binder and Finance Commissioner Eugene F. Donnelly, Republican candidates for re-election to the Township Committee, today charged their Democratic opponents with waging a campaign of "false facts and distorted descriptions."

"The principal basis of the Democratic campaign has been concentrated on so-called 'runaway taxes,' Mayor Binder and his running mate said. 'This is a completely false presentation. The tax for local government, which is the only one which the township committee controls, has increased only 10.72 points in four years. That is far less than might be expected in view of the expansion of municipal services, normal pay raises, increased cost of garbage disposal and purchase of new rolling equipment for the police and fire departments.'

"Any substantial increase in taxes here can be attributed to the need for new school facilities, both elementary and secondary, in the face of a rapidly increasing population. The township committee does not control the school situation. The Democratic candidates know this and they also realize that the item for county taxes can be raised without the township being able to do anything about it."

Challenge Democrats
"This is plain talk, the same type we have presented in our campaign rallies. We challenge the Democrats to use actual figures when they talk about 'runaway taxes.' It's time the people of Springfield were shown, assuming they do not already know, that the Democrats are trying to woo their votes by presenting a pseudo-issue. Let them list the figure for this 'runaway tax increase' which they love to quote."

"If they feel the 10.72 point increase over four years and the $4.00 per year in total tax dollars that the average township taxpayer is paying is still too much, let them tell voters where they, if elected, would cut expenditures."

"Apparently they would reduce police and firemen's salaries, let off deserving increases to other municipal personnel, and get rid of new police-patrol cars and fire equipment. They would then succeed in raising fire insurance rates which Republican policies have helped to lower. This campaign is drawing to a close with the Democrats still speaking in contradictory generalities. They have yet to quote any tax figure to show a substantial increase in the local tax over four years."

"Their other issue has been so-called 'dictatorship.' Every township resident knows he has the floor for any complaint at a township committee meeting. This charge has fallen flat and it has (Continued on Page 2)

Dems Again Aim Runaway Taxes Charges At GOP

Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, Democratic Township Committee Candidates, declared today that Springfield's current $9.77 tax rate, the highest in Union County, "will still go higher if their opponents are permitted to carry on three more years of unconcern for runaway taxes here."

Reaffirming their pledge to take steps to halt the steady climb of Springfield's tax rate, Keane and Weinberg charged their opponents with attempting to dodge the responsibility of halting runaway taxes by using runaway distortions, as well, to fool the public.

"When our opponents seek to hide the issue of runaway taxes by saying taxpayers are only paying $4 a year more today than four years ago," Keane and Weinberg said, "then we again refer them to the increased tax payment notices which belie those figures."

"The serious matter of rising taxes, which may climb over $10.50 per $100 assessment by 1957 in Springfield, cannot be passed over glibly nor lightly as our opponents seek to do," they continued. "Climbing tax rates are paid for by homeowners in the form of higher taxes and by apartment dwellers in the form of rent increases."

"Despite our plea for action now to prevent Springfield's tax rate from going still higher next year, our opponents by placing sidestep the issue with everything but constructive and affirmative steps to halt these runaway taxes."

"While these opponents drag from their political campaign bag all the conflicting material they deem necessary to confuse the public on taxes, the tragic situation remains — they refuse to take action now on halting runaway taxes that have climbed $1.64 per $100 assessment, during their present three years in office now ending."

"This contempt of the people once again points in the vital need to end the one-sided dictatorial rule which has been clamped upon Springfield by Mayor Albert Binder, whose contempt of the people is evidenced by his brazen refusal to hear the concerns of residents at public hearings; and by his running mate, Eugene Donnelly, who has seen fit to conduct private real-estate dealings while in public office and also acting on some variances for the same real estate. We are firmly pledged to end this contempt of the people," Keane and Weinberg declared.

Springfield's Oldest Resident, 98, Born Into Slavery

Springfield's 98-year-old Aaron Garner of 97 Diven Street, was given an interesting feature article in last Sunday's Newark News, written by John Lauria, local correspondent for the newspaper. The feature story follows:

The old man leaned back in the sofa, passed a gnarled hand over a balding head and said, with a broad grin, "Son, if you want to live to my age lead a good life and drink nothing but good whiskey."

Aaron Garner of 97 Diven St. was born in slavery in Moreland County, Va. He was 7 in 1865 when Congress adopted the 13th Amendment abolishing slavery. Today, at 98, sporting Victorian mutton chop whiskers, Garner is the oldest resident of Springfield and one of the oldest in Union County. He recalls nothing of his young slave days.

He does recall, however, the time when Springfield, now a bustling suburban town, was "nothing but pasture land for horses, mules and cattle."

He came to New Jersey in 1877 and settled in Westfield where he was employed by the old Spina Dairy. Three years later he came to Springfield, and in 1887 married Rachel Watts. His wife is 91. The couple celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary recently. They have two sons, William, who is 65, and George, 58, both of Springfield; three grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Letters to Editor

This week the mail included "The Voice of Springfield," Vol. 1. A ridiculous piece of literature. The parts of sentences that were used remind one of the "quip," "Have you stopped beating your wife?"

The Democratic nominees claim their opponents "ignore the facts." One can condone Mr. Weinberg for permitting his name on such trash as he is merely a football that is pumped by a split Democratic BOSS group.

Mr. Keane and Mr. Weinberg. What is your platform? What will you do and how? Condemn if you must, but what will you do to correct that which you condemn? Don't use the word bossism, your BOSSES have never run in the open for public office, they push, and pull their candidates as puppets.

When the Democrats of Springfield have something constructive to say, the good people of Springfield will listen. Why can't you both think for yourselves and then speak for yourselves as Mayor Binder and Committeeman Donnelly do? Springfield will always need good citizens to run its government. PROVE by word and deed you are a good citizen.

Say Democrats

The Democrats still have not explained who dictated their nomination in the face of an unorganized Democratic municipal committee.

Truth Distorted:
"One anticipates some deviation from actual fact in the heat of a political campaign but the Democratic tactic of deliberately distorting the truth about taxes and their fantastic talk about non-existent dictatorships give the electorate a clear picture of what to expect should they gain control of Springfield.

"This township has made progress under a Republican administration which has constantly kept township residents conversant with its policies. We are willing to stand on the record of the past three years. We doubt if Springfield wants to turn its government over to a thrice-reputed politician and his running mate who become political soothsayers in the six weeks before election and forget about the township the rest of the year," Mayor Binder and Commissioner Donnelly said.

Let's mention RUN A WAY TAXES. The following has been taken from the reverse sides of the Tax Forms of 1937 and 1936:
County Tax 72 1284 7095
Regional School Tax 45 140 2115
District School Tax 192 3671 9007
Township Tax 127 2401 4396
Rate per $100.00 5.49 9.77 78%
This table cannot be denied, IT IS A FACT.

When Mr. Keane was on the Township Committee the tax rate for municipal expenditures as the above table shows was 2.37. Today (1936) our police, fire, engineering, plumbing inspection, building inspection, garbage collection as well as all other municipal services have more than doubled in cost. This all due to a growth of 3 to 4 times in population since 1947, however this Municipal cost rose only 43%, the lowest increase on your tax bill.

If the Democratic nominees do not want our children educated, then let them call a spade a spade. The necessary Regional and local school rates rose 211% and 80% respectively.

Let's mention Mayor Binder's Statements. The Democratic nominees fear to print the entire statement he made to a group of people. This would not be an advantage to the Democratic nominees.

Keane In Defense Of Planning Board

Criticism of the Springfield Planning Board by Republican candidates for the Township Committee, dating back to the board's operations some six years ago, was described today as an attack by Republicans against their own party members.

Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, Democratic Township Committee candidates, declared that the desperation political statement by Mayor Binder and his running mate, Eugene Donnelly, who had to delve back six years in order to make up some campaign issues, will be strongly resented by the people who served on the Planning Board at that time.

"The inference that the Planning Board," Keane said, "of which I was the only Democratic member, neglected to keep minutes because I was chairman, seriously reflects on the integrity of the entire board at that time."

"If Binder and Donnelly, in their desperation to avoid defeat at the polls next month, see fit to make such irresponsible statements, then I must defend the integrity of the Planning Board at that time, whose secretary, Mrs. Christine Ungemah, did a very fine job during my chairmanship and whose Republican board participants included such worthy members as Arthur Lennox, Walter Ba'win, Bert Flemmer and Harry Spencer," Keane added.

"I hope and trust, Keane said, "that Binder and Donnelly in their desperation to avoid defeat in November will not continue to carry their campaign down to this level for the sake of all the people concerned who are not running for office, yet must be the target for such irresponsible attacks by two men, who find their time in office running out."

In another statement, Keane also pointed out that a life-long membership in the P.B.A. fostered him by the Springfield Police Department was the best answer to a similar device-type of Binder-Donnelly campaign material that sought to fabricate an issue on that level also when none existed.

estate dealings while serving on the township committee, while this running partner, Mayor Binder, permits such practices.

All this, MacMahon stated, will be replaced by the outstanding candidates we have in Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, whose platform provides the concrete steps needed to end the Binder-Donnelly type of Springfield government.

Springfield Pharmacy Celebrates Its 50 Years On Changing Morris Avenue

THE CHANGING SCENE - C. R. Garabrant's original home for the Springfield Pharmacy, was in the center store above. The pharmacy, now celebrating its 50th anniversary, moved into the building at extreme left and the Towne Community Lunchette now occupies the center store. The Cain insurance office on right passed to the Bunnell Bros. who latter moved across the street into the bank building. The Post Office was next in line to be followed by the Charles Huff's hardware store. He moved across the street eventually and sold out to "Kee" Freedman which is now Springfield Hardware and Paint. Right Barbers now holds down the fort. Jaekens & Neumann, the store on the left, was a butcher and egg outfit. They gave way, in time, to the American Grocery Store, and the store is now occupied by Taft Cleaners.

Jaekens & Neumann, the store on the left, was a butcher and egg outfit. They gave way, in time, to the American Grocery Store, and the store is now occupied by Taft Cleaners.

A person who leaves Springfield for a year probably won't recognize the town when he returns. The scene is always changing. But a person who left here in 1960 would find one thing the same: if he returned today—the Springfield Pharmacy.

This venerable institution has just celebrated 50 years of service to the community and appears a sure bet to roll up another 50. The Springfield Pharmacy has not wandered far from its original location down the years. Opened by C. R. Garabrant in the same store that now houses the Towne Community Shoppe, Springfield Pharmacy moved two doors west in 1928 and has been there ever since.

Mr. Garabrant sold the store to Charles Rutkin in 1912 and he in turn sold it to Morris Lichtenstein in 1919. It has been in the Lichtenstein family ever since. Morris took his son Elliot into partnership with him in the business when Elliot returned from service in Europe after World War II. When Morris died in 1954, Elliot, like his father, a Registered Pharmacist, took over the business.

Elliot, who lives with his wife Sylvia and their two sons, Marshall, 8, and Robert, 4, at 525 Ashwood road, has become an institution in town himself. As treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Advisory Committee of the National State Bank of Elizabeth's Springfield Branch, he has his finger on the economic pulse of Springfield. As a member of the Lions Club and the Historical Society, he is active in civic affairs. As one of the most outspoken of local merchants, he is

A sensible program for mental health and a greater aid for chronically ill cases. At the present time the chronically ill are sent to all parts of the state as far as Atlantic County at a cost in excess of over $300,000 yearly. 10. Consideration of a county vocational school. 11. Elimination of interference with bi-partisan boards. 13. Provisions for a liberal registration plan which will enable all qualified voters to register.

Swimming Program Makes Big Splash
The Springfield Red Cross Chapter made swimming a major sport for children this past summer according to statistics released at the Board of Directors meeting Oct. 1. Water Safety Chairman, Mrs. Thomas Doherty reported that 207 children registered in the Red Cross swimming program. The average daily attendance at the Rahway pool was 200. All told, the Red Cross Township and Recreation Commission transported 2,517 young folk to the pool. Mrs. Doherty said that the program included issuing badges and certificates to beginners and intermediate swimmers and awards in junior and senior life saving. It is reported to hold an immense solid gold-chain the Incas hid from the Spaniards.

"During the daytime when the schools are not open, outdoor basketball courts are available for informal play at the Chisholm, Gaudineer, James Caldwell, Irwin and Henshaw Playgrounds. Farm Show Brings 1500 to Regional

More than 1,500 adults and children attended the annual Farm Fair and Flower Show conducted last weekend by the Future Farmers of America at the Regional High School. Educational exhibits were entered in competition by Future Farmer organizations from high schools in other parts of the state. Among the special attractions were exhibits of goats, ducks, turkeys, chickens, baby chicks, a bull calf, a cow, a deadweight skunk and a raccoon. There was also a large mechanical hen showing in detail the formation of the egg inside the hen from start to finish. In keeping with the theme of Fire Prevention Week—the Regional F.F.A. had an exhibit on conservation of wild life through fire prevention in the forest.

More than 100 floral arrangements and varieties were entered in the flower show by growers from many residents of Springfield. The following local people were winners or received ribbons for placing in various classes: Mrs. C. E. Taylor of 28 Elm Hill received three first place ribbons for her exhibits in the Miniature Arrangement, Gay Nineties, and Bowl Arrangements. Mrs. Charles Frank of 58 Mapes Ave. received a first and second place in the Red Rose Class and a third and fourth in the Tea Rose Class. Mrs. William Doyle, 29 Mapes Ave., took first place for Azalea Mum. Mrs. H. P. Sommerer, 40 Mapes Ave., won first place for Galardia. Mrs. L. Mulsman, Debbie Hill, Berkeley Heights, received first place in Gladiolus Class.

Mrs. Clarence Zellar of South Springfield Ave. won the following: first place, Wild Flowers; first place, Cosmos; third place, Zinnias; first place, Marigolds; third place, Dahlias. Betsy Zellar took third place for Gourds. David Zellar received a special award for his exhibit of Angel's Trumpet. Ronald Heuter of Summit Rd., Mountaintide, took special award for a Flowering Maple. Larry Veisberg, 22 Brook St., was awarded third place for a mixed bouquet. John Merit, 31 Brook St., took first place for mixed bowl arrangement. Mrs. J. Sahán, 114 Mapes Ave. was first in the Dahlia Class.

Montreal, originally the Indian village of Hochelaga, was founded as the city of Ville Marie May 18, 1642, by Paul de Chomedey Sieur de Maisonneuve. It was incorporated as Montreal in 1832 and was the seat of the Government of Canada for several years after the union of Upper and Lower Canada in 1841.

Townpeople Put First Aid Squad Over The Top!

If you should look out your front window some day soon and see a brand new cream colored ambulance go by with the name "Springfield First Aid Squad" on its door—don't do a double take—don't rub your eyes—just pat yourself on the shoulder and say "I helped to do that!"

Because what you'll be looking at will be the new 1956 Sayre-Scovill Cadillac ambulance recently purchased by the Squad and soon to be placed in service.

The ambulance, which cost $12,000, is being financed with funds set aside each year during the past seven fund drives. Also being purchased with these funds are a 60-watt 2-way radio and a resuscitator. Both are expected to be delivered within 3 weeks and at that time the new vehicle will be put into service.

The new ambulance will carry four patients, 2 on suspended stretchers, 1 on a permanent floor bunk and the fourth on a rolling 2-level stretcher which can also be raised to bed height without lifting.

Also included in the ambulance is a beacon ray light on the roof, pistol grip spotlight with 3 separate socket connections, airliner drapes on rear side doors and quarters with roller shade on rear door, special medicine cabinet, piano hinged for resuscitator and oxygen bottle folding aluminum chair, large medicine cabinet in rear door, and E-Z eye glass in windshield.

Mechanical and power features include power steering, power brakes, V-8 overhead valve engine delivering 285 H.P., 158-inch wheelbase, a Leece-Neiville alternating current generator and a built-in battery charger plug.

It had been felt by Squad and Township officials for some time that a second ambulance was necessary in order to give the town complete coverage. On many occasions one ambulance is out of town, either in transportation or answering a neighboring town's call. Also, since the First Aid Squad's inception 7 years ago the number of calls has increased an estimated 300%. The membership has grown from the original 7 or 8 to nearly 30 active members today.

Democratic Women Congressional Arranging Parties

The Springfield Women's Democratic Committee with Mrs. Philip Lewis as chairman, has mapped out a heavy schedule from now until election day which includes luncheon meetings in the hall of Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, the Democratic candidates for Township Committee, as well as a series of teas and coffee parties for Congressman Harrison A. Williams who seeks re-election in the Sixth District.

Mrs. Lewis announces that the group will hold a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. David Shane, 518 Ashwood Road, next Wednesday, October 25, featuring committee reports on the progress throughout the township in support of Keane and Weinberg.

Mrs. Harold Berg, chairman of the group's registration committee, will deliver a report at that time on the "enthusiastic workers efforts in registering new voters." This committee, said Mrs. Lewis assisted in the registration of voters throughout Springfield on a non-partisan basis.

In addition to arranging for the personal home-meeting of Keane and Weinberg with residents throughout the Township, Mrs. Lewis also reports that arrangements have been made for a greater number of tea and coffee parties for Congressman Williams, a November 1 date being scheduled for her own home at 385 Milltown Road with guests representing both political parties present. Another Williams party is slated at the home of Miss Nancy Cohen, 51 B Forest Drive, on the same day, November 1, with residents of Short Hills Village being invited to hear and meet the Congressman personally.

Another Williams party will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Siegel, 48 Warwick Circle, where over 150 have been invited to hear Cong. Williams and other candidates on Tuesday, October 24.

A large group of Springfield women attended the rally held in Plainfield yesterday afternoon for Congressman Williams with U.S. Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts as the guest speaker. Yesterday's rally was arranged by the "Women For Williams," with Mrs. H. M. Vasquez as the Springfield chairman.

Rep. Williams received warm praise yesterday from George Dunton, president of the Union County CIO Council, for his "near-perfect" voting record during the last two years in Congress.

Based on his statement of legislation of votes involving foreign and domestic policy compiled by the New Jersey State CIO Council, Dunton said that "Representative Williams has voted consistently in the best interests of the working people in Union County, and certainly, on his record, deserves reelection."

Making public the State CIO's voting records for 1955-56, State President Paul Hughes said organized labor "is not concerned with legislation which directly affects its rights. We take stands on legislation in far broader fields, because we believe that such legislation has a vital effect on the welfare of our members."

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

"Or your sins won't be forgiven." "What's that? Sorry? But we thought all along that Catholics had it easy; that all they had to do was to go in, rattie off a list of their sins, and be forgiven."

That certainly would be a snap - if you could go in every so often and practically get a blank check from any priest; but it just doesn't work that way.

A priest hearing confessions takes great pains to assure himself that the sinner is really sorry. He notes the tone of the voice and the manner of the penitent. He makes sure that the sinner, if he is caught in a bad habit, is prepared to do battle against the bonds holding him. He even helps him draw up plans for freeing himself from temptation, in some measure.

And only when the priest is convinced that the penitent is sincerely sorry, only then does he pronounce the sacred words of forgiveness. But if he knows that the sinner is not sorry; that he is only halfhearted in his good intentions, then no power on earth can drag that sacred formula from his lips.

The sinner must be sorry for all his sins. He is not at liberty to choose from the list of his offenses. He must realize that sin is the worst evil that could come into his life, and he must hate it with his whole soul. More than that, he must be sorry for his sins, not merely because they may have disgraced him, or cost him his health or his fortune; but because they have offended the Good God and have endangered the eternal destiny of his soul.

Couldn't a sinner fool the priest? Yes, he could fool the priest - but he couldn't fool God and, after all, it's God who forgives sins through the priests. If there be no sorrow for the sins confessed, God simply doesn't act. The sins remain, blackened now still more by the effort to mock God.

Any Catholic will be glad to say the Act of Contrition for you. Listen to it carefully. It's what we say after we've told the priest our sins, and we mean every word of it!

A BOY'S PRAYER

Dear God... there's so much I'd like to say to You. It's that way lots of times. I want to talk to You, and then somehow I get stuck for words.

I guess I do some stupid things, sometimes... like that fight with Butch-Hendley yesterday. He said something I didn't like and then I said something, and that was it. I guess I won, but afterwards I was kind of ashamed. I told Dad about it last night and he went for a walk with me and we looked up at the sky and the stars. Everything looked so big, all of a sudden, that it scared me. It seemed too big to understand.

Then Dad told me that there are lots of things like the sky and the stars, too big for people to ever understand. And he said that that's where Faith comes in, and that it is good to have the Church to put our trust in.

I got to thinking about that, and I told Dad that I'd kind of like to ask Butch to come to Church with us next Sunday morning, but that I was afraid he wouldn't come. Dad grinned at me and said, "Why not ask him and see?"

Dear God... I did ask Butch, and he's coming - Butch hasn't been to Church regularly like I have, so maybe when it comes to praying he'll get stuck for words even worse than I do. But You'll listen to him anyway, won't You? Because he needs You very much... just like I do... just like all of us do.

Thank You, God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Adlai Boosters In Fund Drive

Springfield's Volunteers for Stevenson and Kefauver participated in the fund drive here this week to help raise money for television time and the response has been very gratifying to the committee members. Scores of enthusiastic workers have been ringing doorbells calling upon Springfield voters with campaign literature, pledge books and Stevenson-Kefauver buttons.

The Springfield drive coincides with a national fund-raising drive by the Democratic organization, Springfield's Volunteers plan to continue the drive a full week in order to raise as much money as possible.

"The Democrats don't have any large corporations to help them out, and very few millionaires," said Miss Nancy Cohen, Chairman of the Springfield group. "So this is the only way we can raise money to help Stevenson in his campaign, by knocking on doors and asking everyone for a small contribution. At this stage of the campaign, every little donation helps out, so we hope everyone can contribute something."

Miss Cohen also pointed out that the Volunteers for Stevenson and Kefauver share space at the Springfield Democratic Headquarters. "We have our own workers there," she said, "and will be happy to hand out literature and buttons to everyone who stops in. It will have to be on a first-come, first-served basis, however, because we don't have too much literature left, thanks to the wonderful reception our workers have received throughout Springfield."

The following names are those of fifth graders at the Raymond Chisholm School who have had two years as Brownies and are now ready to be first class Intermediate: Susan Bates, Carolyn Bucci, Marsha Davis, Karen Fitzgerald, Bonnie Getz, Anna Mary Giannattasio, Eleanor Pfeifer, Nancy Shubert, Susan Wehrle. Seventeen fourth graders, also at Raymond Chisholm have had no scouting as yet and would like to be second year Brownies. They are: Susan Clermont, Joan Rawitz, Diane Sobey, Myrtle Boydman, Marilyn Brownlie, Toby Kaplan, Nancy Schwartz, Barbara Kilsnyder, Barbara Cataldo, Dale Hendrickson, Regina Cooperman, Allyson Kalem, Carol Rogers, Abby Sue Fisher, Marcia Lillen, Marguerite Freedman and Gail Wilson.

Mrs. John Orche, Organizational Chairman, can be reached at Drexel 6-1779 and will be glad to answer any questions you have in regard to starting a troop.

Your Library

Improvements at the Free Public Library of Springfield are proceeding at a fast pace. Not only has the new wing been started and the walls for the lower level completed on the outside, but changes inside have begun. Many books have had to be moved because the builders expect to remove the stairs and remodel the hallways about the first of November. Fortunately there is a back stairs which can be used.

Since the collection of "Youth" books is located in the hall, the staff is scouring around trying to find new locations for some of them. All the Springfield schools are helping by taking large collections of these and children's books for classroom use. If more are left than can be handled during the building, they will be placed in storage until the new wing is finished.

The regular Library Borrowers and the general public have been wonderful about finding storage spaces for extra numbers of books. This gives many people a chance to read in a leisurely way long books and classics they have always intended to start. Many have said they anticipated a great deal of pleasure. The Springfield Sun's front page article was a great help in publicizing this project. The number of readers who mentioned it show the Sun has a wide circle of influence.

Next Friday Mrs. Hartley Ferguson will tell the story, because Mrs. Dean Widmer cannot come on account of her husband's serious illness. Mrs. Frederick Schumacher, who was such a fine help last year, and told the first story this year, will be on hand to help her. The children will be assured of seeing a familiar face. The Story Hours will be held as usual on Fridays at 10 A.M. and 11 A.M. as long as the building is usable.

At the present time, the Library must be entered through the side door, while the porch in front is being reconstructed. Later it may be necessary to use the back door. But everyone is bearing the inconvenience cheerfully because they know the extra space in the new wing will add so much to the usefulness and efficiency of the Springfield Library.

New Pastor Named By Baptist Church

Pastor Bill Vautin

The Springfield Baptist Church today named Pastor Bill Vautin to take over the duties of the local church effective immediately.

Pastor Bill Vautin was born in Teaneck on December 7, 1934. At the age of sixteen he "believed on the Lord Jesus Christ" and began serving him by teaching church school classes and by becoming a youth leader in his own church. He later became a member of the Brookdale Baptist Church of Bloomfield. Under the preaching and teaching of the pastor of that church, the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Anderson, he soon became grounded in sound Bible doctrine.

In the summer of 1955, he began preaching as a substitute at Park Baptist Church, Irvington, and was then called to assist the new minister of that church. While carrying on a ministry of preaching and teaching there, he also preached in missions and parks for the Men's Bible Class of his home church in Brookdale.

Pastor Vautin is a senior at Upsala College in East Orange, completing his requirements for an A.B. degree. He is presently enrolled in the Hawthorne Evening Bible School, Hawthorne, and plans to continue his training in seminary after graduating from Upsala College next year.

Mr. Vautin was unanimously elected interim pastor by the members of the Springfield Baptist Church and is now actively planning with his church members for the greater dissemination of the Gospel of Christ throughout the Springfield area. Pastor Bill says, "As a young pastor, I look to Paul's advice to Timothy: 'Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.' My life's Bible verse is Philippians 1:17. 'I am set for the defence of the gospel.'

Police Reserve Sets Schedule

The Police Reserve of Springfield, a unit of Springfield's Civilian Defense and Disaster Control organization, held its October meeting on Tuesday October 2nd, at the Town Hall. This was the second meeting after the Summer season and was attended by fifteen members and presided over by Captain Wm. Pierce of the Police Reserve.

Captain W. Selander of the Police Department was also present at the meeting and the membership discussed plans for the coming months.

A resignation of Reserve Lt. Herold Jones made it necessary for the membership to fill the vacancy prior to the next regular election of Officers, which is in January of 1958. Reserve Sgt. Edward Olesky was elected as Lt., and Officer Leroy Roberts promoted to Sgt. to fill the spot left by Olesky.

Following instructions given to the Reserves by Chief of Police Albert Sorge, each man shall contribute four hours of time per month to duty assigned by the Police Department. In accordance with the aforementioned ruling, a voluntary duty schedule was set up by Reserve Sgt. Richard Moore, the Liaison Officer, whereby all members would be available at scheduled times to aid the Police Department in traffic and patrol duty. An interesting program is planned for future meetings which will include First Aid, Traffic Control, Police training films and other instruction in Police methods.

New members will be welcome, and anyone interested can get complete details by checking with Chief Sorge at Police HDQ.

Local Ike Fans Blast Stevenson

The Springfield Citizens for Eisenhower this week claimed that candidate Stevenson, losing in debate on the real issues is now resorting to personal attacks on President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

Walter W. Baldwin, speaking for the local Citizens for Eisenhower Group declared, "President Eisenhower in his forthright speeches has shown the Stevenson-Kefauver attempts to debate the issues, weak and amateurish attempts by inexperienced candidates to discredit the sound policies of the United States which have been formulated by a capable administration and backed by an overwhelming majority of the people." Asking "Whose running scared now" Baldwin noted that Stevenson's snide remarks about President Eisenhower were only succeeding in alienating even the members of his (Stevenson's) own party.

As it has been pointed out in recent national releases via Press, Radio and Television, the Democrat Standard Bearer Mr. Stevenson apparently is unable, or unwilling to conduct his campaign on the issues of Government, but instead has turned in desperation to the deplorable level of personal vindictiveness.

The local chairman asked the citizens of Springfield to note the difference in approach of the two national candidates; Stevenson wisecracking, back-biting, hitting low. President Eisenhower on the other hand, conducting a campaign with dignity, humility, and yet a confidence that can only come from a job well done, as evidenced by his most recent television appearances.

The committee urged that all our local people regardless of political affiliation join with them in securing the re-election of President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

REAL POLITICAL SCRAP HERE

The very important national campaign for president and the interesting slambang battle for the Sixth District Congressional seat have evidently failed to divert Springfield from its intensive local campaign for the Township Committee two seats.

The Township is digging in for what may be one of the most exciting battles for control of the local machinery of government. The Republicans feel confident they will re-elect Mayor Albert G. Binder and Township Committeeman Eugene F. Donnelly and the Democrats appear to be just as certain that their two candidates—Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg—will make it this year.

The results on election day depend entirely on the more than 1,000 new voters now registered and eligible to cast their ballots. Both sides claim they "have the new voters right here in the palm of the hand" which, if true, could naturally swing the election.

Last November, against Raymond W. Forbes and incumbent Frederick A. Handville, Keane failed by only 83 votes of winning one of the places. The new voters—those registered here this year and eligible for the first time—will decide the campaign.

The Fourth District, where the Republican support is strongest, will have 262 new voters, the greatest number of eligible newcomers in the entire Township. If the Republicans can add these to the heavy vote given to Forbes last year—451 against the 178 for Keane—it will place a heavy burden on the Democrats in the Third and Sixth Districts, where, they insist, there has been a terrific trend in favor of the Keane-Weinberg candidacy.

Looking at the records, last year's election shows that Keane led the other candidates in the First District with 232 against Weinberg's 212, Forbes, 244, and Handville's 232. There are 94 new voters in this district and the balance of power may come anywhere—even in the first.

The returns last year were all in, except the Third District, and, taking into account the figures of the previous election, it appeared that, at least, Keane would be swept into office. This district, however, gave Forbes excellent support although both Keane and Weinberg received 542 and 510, respectively, against 377 for Forbes and 350 for Handville.

This year there are, at least, 208 new voters in the Third District and that's where the Keane-Weinberg forces claim the game will be won. And, the Democrats say, if it isn't in the Third District, it might very well be the Sixth where 213 new eligible voters will cast their ballots.

The result will depend on which side gets the majority of the new voters, and a lot of spare work has already been done by both camps.

ACTION AGAINST SUNDAY TRADE

Creation of a "Citizens Committee for Sunday Closing in New Jersey" will elevate the recurrent spat over Sabbath commerce to the state level, where determination inescapably must be reached. The prevailing scattergun pattern is ludicrous and is not even a convincing practice under any conception of home rule.

The committee, which held its organization in Newark, drew heavily on Union County, but will include representation from the 20 other counties.

The four major objections voiced at the organization session encompass the general revision expressed in many localities. They are factual and concurred with additional resentment toward any commercialization of the Sabbath. Many activities once condemned for that day now are accepted as proper and even necessary, however, and the time of Sunday observance has been altered, perhaps more than the average citizen realizes.

The Sunday merchants are the target of the condemnation, yet their doors would not be open if willing customers were not at hand. The customers are there, as a Sunday afternoon drive past any of the stores will demonstrate.

The presence of the potential buyers is an expression of facets of the changed mode of life in the land of the individually owned home, the suburbs, the developments replacing golf courses and pastures across the countryside. It also is a manifestation of the ethereal domestic quality that the women's trade papers delight in designating as "togetherness." These Sunday afternoon roadside shopping ventures usually are family jaunts. The purchases frequently are items of general concern to all the family, not routine items available at the supermarket.

Some of the objections certainly are valid, but if a strict Sunday closing is to be enacted, both the merchants and the buyers would be required to arrive at a compromise substitute, probably evening hours. That admittedly would be less convenient for many people.

Life in a weekly newspaper office is most heart-warming simply because the nice people are more numerous than the other kind.

The other day—a newcomer to Springfield visited us in the Sun office to purchase a subscription to Springfield and we talked about our neighbors and what's going on in the Township.

"We come from Ohio," said this new resident, "and I want to tell you how pleased we are to live in such a progressive community. We were especially happy to see policemen guiding school children at almost every intersection—the streets are very well kept—and we look forward to becoming more acquainted with our very friendly neighbors."

Mothers Want Cafeteria Menu Continued In Sun

There is evident interest in the menu being published each week in the Springfield Sun for the Florence M. Gaudineer cafeteria and several letters have been received asking that it be continued.

The menu for each week is being printed in the Sun so that mothers of pupils attending Gaudineer School may be able to balance the diet for the other meals at home.

One of the letters received by the Springfield Sun has been selected as an indication of interest and is printed below:

Editor, Sun:

Our son, Barry Hollander attends the Florence M. Gaudineer School. As we live one mile from the school, it is necessary that he has lunch in the school cafeteria.

Naturally, as parents, we are always interested in his welfare and of course anxious to know the menu served during the course of each week. The Springfield Sun has shown great interest to everyone by publishing the MENU each week and we are ever grateful to you for this very fine service.

We hope that you will continue publishing the menu weekly and we feel sure that it is appreciated by everyone that uses the cafeteria. Our thanks and best wishes.

MR. & MRS. EDWARD HOLLANDER

85 Kipling Avenue

Following is the menu for the week of October 12:

Monday: Spaghetti with meat sauce, applesauce or grapefruit, peanut butter sandwich, milk.

Tuesday: Ground beef, gravy, whipped potatoes, buttered green beans, bread, butter, milk.

Wednesday: Frankfurters, baked beans, sauerkraut, raisins, roll, butter, milk.

Thursday: Chow Mein, rice, Chinese noodles, peaches, peanut-butter sandwich, milk.

Friday: Tuna fish salad, potato chips, lettuce with French dressing, hard roll, butter, milk.

Subject to change when absolutely necessary. Ice cream sold daily.

Named As Delegates

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Ahm last Monday, Janet Lawth, president, and Lenore Greene were named as delegates to attend the National Convention of Sisterhoods at the Concord Hotel, Kiamnesia Lake, N. Y. from November 11th to 14th.

JNHAC To Meet

A general meeting of the Springfield League, JNHAC is scheduled for November 7, 1956 at 8:30 p.m. at Temple Beth Ahm, Baltusrol Way.

Mrs. S. Silver, President, will preside and the guest speaker will be Dr. I. R. Fox, Pediatrician from Union, New Jersey.

Town Quits Tax Dispute With County

The Township has found that it doesn't always pay to argue with the tax collector. In fact, sometimes you save money keeping quiet.

Last spring 12 communities in Union County including Springfield banded together to protest the new county tax table.

After hiring a tax expert and an attorney to argue their case, the towns fought through several hearings in May and June.

The State Division of Tax Appeals announced their decision in September. Not only did they refuse to lower the tax rate, but they upped the ratios in some of the towns.

The towns quickly decided to abandon the protest at a meeting Friday night in the Springfield Municipal Building. The attorney said there was little chance for a successful litigation in light of rulings in similar cases.

This has not soothed the 12 towns, however. They have decided to remain in organization (The Union County Intermunicipal Council) to keep an eye on future tax rulings in similar cases.

The other towns in the Council are: New Providence, Union, Cranford, Scotch Plains, Fanwood, Mountainside, Clark, Kenilworth, Garwood and Roselle Park.

All this comes about because the true realty value of the county is skyrocketing. During the first six months of 1956, it went up $122 million. This means a slight change in the equalization ratios from one town to another depending on how high each town assesses its own property.

For example, Springfield assesses its property at $14,662,350. This is a tax-rate of 21.87% of the true value of $67,043,210. New Providence, on the other hand, assesses its property at $12,403,625 or 35.33% of their true value of $35,107,911. Union County equalizes these various percentages so that each town pays proportionally a fair rate to the county.

Local Democrats Open Headquarters

Democratic Campaign Headquarters, at 262 Morris Avenue officially opened here Monday night with a mass pledge "to restore civic pride to Springfield by ending runaway taxes and political dictatorial rule under the regime of Mayor Albert Binder."

Principal speaker was Arthur MacMahon, of 165 South Springfield Avenue, who told an audience of campaign workers the election of Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg has become the banner of all Springfield residents, regardless of party affiliation. He said it becomes the responsibility of every member of the community to cast off the type of political self-interest rule handed out by Mayor Binder and his running mate, Eugene Donnelly.

This election, MacMahon declared, is not a question of which party belongs in office, but a more serious question of which men can do the job we need in a township beset by ever increasing taxes, no immediate or long-range planning and a candidate in Donnelly who practices private real estate.

Democratic Campaign Headquarters, at 262 Morris Avenue officially opened here Monday night with a mass pledge "to restore civic pride to Springfield by ending runaway taxes and political dictatorial rule under the regime of Mayor Albert Binder."

NAMED TRUSTEE BY REALTORS. Benjamin J. Chadwick, head of the real estate firm bearing his name at 336 Morris Avenue, has been named to the Board of Trustees of the Board of Realtors of the Oranges, Maplewood, Millburn and Springfield for 1957. Chadwick became a member of the Realtors only about a year ago and has been very active in the various programs of the organization. Charles J. Klein of Maplewood, was elected President.

Say Democrats Wage Campaign Of False Facts

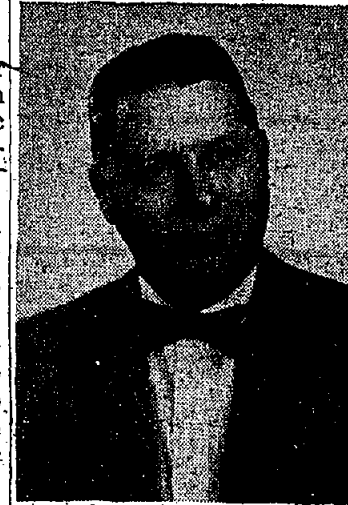

Mayor Albert G. Binder and Finance Commissioner Eugene F. Donnelly, Republican candidates for re-election to the Township Committee, today charged their Democratic opponents with waging a campaign of "false facts and distorted descriptions."

"The principal basis of the Democratic campaign has been concentrated on so called 'runaway taxes,' Mayor Binder and his running mate said. "This is a completely false presentation. The tax for local government, which is the only one which the township committee controls, has increased only 10 1/2 points in four years. That is far less than might be expected in view of the expansion of municipal services, normal pay raises, increased cost of garbage disposal and purchase of new rolling equipment for the police and fire departments.

"Any substantial increase in taxes here can be attributed to the need for new school facilities, both elementary and secondary, in the face of a rapidly increasing population. The township committee does not control the school situation. The Democratic candidates know this and they also realize that the item for county taxes can be raised without the township being able to do anything about it.

Challenge Democrats
"This is plain talk, the same type we have presented in our campaign releases. We challenge the Democrats to use actual figures when they talk about 'runaway taxes.' It's time the people of Springfield were shown, assuming they do not already know, that the Democrats are trying to woo their votes by presenting

Focht Elected President Of Youth League

JOSEPH L. FOCHT

Joseph L. Focht, who has been leading the Springfield Youth Baseball League for three years, has been given an enthusiastic vote of confidence by being re-elected president for the coming year. Interest in the youth league has grown considerably since Focht took charge, starting with four major league teams and it has

Dems Again Aim Runaway Taxes Charges At GOP

Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, Democratic Township Committee Candidates, declared today that Springfield's current $9.77 tax rate, the highest in Union County, "will still go higher if their opponents are permitted to carry on three more years of unconcern for runaway taxes here."

Reaffirming their pledge to take steps to halt the steady climb of Springfield's tax rate, Keane and Weinberg charged their opponents with attempting to dodge the responsibility of halting runaway taxes by using runaway distortions, as well, to fool the public.

"When our opponents seek to hide the issue of runaway taxes by saying taxpayers are only paying $4 a year more today than four years ago," Keane and Weinberg said, "then we again refer them to the increased tax payment notices which bear those figures."

"The serious matter of rising taxes, which may climb over $10.50 per $100 assessment by 1957 in Springfield, cannot be passed over lightly or lightly as our opponents seek to do," they continued. "Climbing tax rates are paid for by homeowners in the form of higher taxes and by apartment dwellers in the form of rent increases.

"Despite our plea for action now to prevent Springfield's tax rate from going still higher next year, our opponents by placing politics first have continued to sidestep the issue with everything but constructive and affirmative steps to halt these runaway taxes.

"While these opponents drag from their political campaign bag all the conflicting material they deem necessary to confuse the public on taxes, the tragic situation remains—they refuse to take action now on halting runaway taxes that have climbed $1.64 per $100 assessment during their present three years in office now ending.

"This contempt of the people once again points to the vital need to end the one-sided dictatorial rule which has been clamped upon Springfield by Mayor Albert Binder, whose contempt of the people is evidenced by his brazen refusals to hear the concerns of residents at public hearings, and by his running mate, Eugene Donnelly, who has been fit to conduct private real estate dealings while in public office and also acting on some variances for the same real estate. We are firmly pledged to end this contempt of the people," Keane and Weinberg declared.

Witnesses To Convene

Springfield's Oldest Resident, 98, Born Into Slavery

A LONG TIME—His watch in hand, Aaron Garner, 98-year-old resident of Springfield, draws attention of his great-grandson, Robert Garner, 3. Elder Garner was born a slave.

Springfield's 98 year old Aaron Garner of 97 Diven Street, was given an interesting feature article in last Sunday's Newark News, written by John Lauria, local correspondent for the newspaper. The feature story follows:

The old man leaned back in the seat, passed a glance hard over a balding head and said with a broad grin, "Son, if you want to live to my age lead a good life and drink nothing but good whiskey."

Aaron Garner of 97 Diven St. was born in slavery in Moreland County, Va. He was 7 in 1865 when Congress adopted the 13th Amendment abolishing slavery. Today, at 98, sporting Victorian mutton chop whiskers, Garner is the oldest resident of Springfield and one of the oldest in Union County. He recalls nothing of his young slave days.

He does recall, however, the time when Springfield, now a bustling suburban town, was "nothing but pasture land for horses, mules and cattle."

Wife Is 91
He came to New Jersey in 1877 and settled in Westfield where he was employed by the old Spina Dairy. Three years later he came to Springfield, and in 1881 married Rachel White. His wife is 91. The couple celebrated their 68th wedding anniversary recently. They have two sons, William, who is 65, and George, 58, both of Springfield; three grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Letters to Editor

This week the mail included, "The Voice of Springfield," Vol. 1. A ridiculous piece of literature. The parts of sentences that were used remind me of the quip, "Have you stopped beating your wife?"

The Democratic nominees claim their opponents "ignore the facts." One can condone Mr. Weinberg for permitting his name on such trash as he is merely a football that is pumped by a split Democratic BOSS group. As a newcomer to Springfield and a civic-minded Democratic, he has shown some political possibilities, but has been informed what to say by behind the scene disgruntled bosses.

Mr. Keane can only be condemned for putting his name to such trash. HE has been here long enough and has run for office often enough to know how ridiculous this is.

Let's mention RUN A WAY TAXES. The following has been taken from the reverse sides of the Tax Forms of 1947 and 1956:

County Tax	72	1,204	70%
Regional School Tax	45	1,40	21%
District School Tax	1,93	3,67	90%
Township Tax	2,37	3,40	43%
Rate per $100.00	5.49	9.77	78%

This table cannot be denied, IT IS A FACT.

When Mr. Keane was on the Township Committee the tax rate for municipal expenditures as the above table shows was 2.37. Today (1956) our police, fire, engineer-

Keane In Defense Of Planning Board

Criticism of the Springfield Planning Board by Republican candidates for the Township Committee, dating back to the board's operations some six years ago, was described today as an attack by Republicans against their own party members.

Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, Democratic Township Committee candidates, declared that the desperation political statement by Mayor Binder and his running mate, Eugene Donnelly, who had to delve back six years in order to make up some campaign issues, will be strongly resented by the people who served on the Planning Board at that time.

"The inference that the Planning Board," Keane said, "of which I was the only Democratic member, neglected to keep minutes because I was chairman, seriously reflects on the integrity of the entire board at that time."

"If Binder and Donnelly, in their desperation to avoid defeat at the polls next month, see fit to make such irresponsible statements, then I must defend the integrity of the Planning Board at that time, whose secretary, Mrs. Christine Ungemah, did a very fine job during my chairmanship and whose Republican board participants included such worthy members as Arthur Lennox, Walter Baldwin, Bert Flemmer and Harry Spencer," Keane added.

"I hope and trust," Keane said, "that Binder and Donnelly in their desperation to avoid defeat in November will not continue to carry their campaign down to this level for the sake of all the people concerned who are not running for office, yet must be the target for such irresponsible attacks by two men, who find their time in office running out."

In another statement, Keane also pointed out that a life-long membership in the P.B.A. favored him by the Springfield Police Department was the best answer to a similar, devious-type of Binder-Donnelly campaign material that sought to fabricate an issue on that level also when none existed.

Mr. Garrabrant sold the store to Charles Rutkin in 1912 and he in turn sold it to Morris Lichtenstein in 1919. It has been in the Lichtenstein family ever since.

Morris took his son Elliot into partnership with him in the business when Elliot returned from service in Europe after World War II. When Morris died in 1954, Elliot, like his father, a Registered Pharmacist, took over the business.

Springfield Pharmacy Celebrates Its 50 Years On Changing Morris Avenue

THE CHANGING SCENE — C. R. Garrabrant's original home for the Springfield Pharmacy, was in the center store above. The pharmacy, now celebrating its 50th anniversary, moved into the building at extreme left and the Towne Community Lunchette now occupies the center store. The Cal Insurance office on right passed to the Bunnell Bros. who later moved across the street into the bank building. The Post Office was next in line to be followed by the Charles Huff's hardware store. He moved across the street eventually and sold out to "Doc" Freedman which is now Springfield Hardware and Paint. Rialto Barbers now holds down the fort. Jeakens & Neumann, the store on the left, was a butter and egg outlet. They gave way, in time, to the American Grocery Store, and the store is now occupied by Taff-Cleaners.

A person who leaves Springfield for a year probably won't recognize the town when he returns. The scene is always changing.

But a person who left here in 1906 would find one thing the same. If he returned today—the Springfield Pharmacy.

This venerable institution has just chalked off 50 years of service to the community and appears a sure bet to roll up another 50.

The Springfield Pharmacy has not wandered far from its original location down the years. Opened by C. R. Garrabrant in the same store that now houses the Towne Community Shoppe, Springfield Pharmacy moved two doors west in 1928 and has been there ever since.

Mr. Garrabrant sold the store to Charles Rutkin in 1912 and he in turn sold it to Morris Lichtenstein in 1919. It has been in the Lichtenstein family ever since.

Morris took his son Elliot into partnership with him in the business when Elliot returned from service in Europe after World War II. When Morris died in 1954, Elliot, like his father, a Registered Pharmacist, took over the business.

Elliot, who lives with his wife Sylvia, and their two sons, Marshall, 8, and Robert, 4, at 525 Ashwood road, has become an institution in town himself. As treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Advisory Committee of the National State Bank of Elizabeth's Springfield Branch, he has his finger on the economic pulse of Springfield. As a member of the Lions Club and the Historical Society, he is active in civic affairs. As one of the most outspoken of local merchants, he is a long time champion of commercial development here.

There have been many changes inside the Springfield Pharmacy since Mr. Garrabrant first hung out his sign on a sleepy dirt road called Morris Avenue. But that sign and the trolley tracks are the only things that remain the same on Morris Avenue 50 years later.

require fund raising for such an undertaking.

 now increased to six major clubs and six minor teams with 250 boys and approximately 50 adults participating.

Others elected to the governing committee of the league are Edwin Schnell, vice president; Bruno Becker, treasurer; and Stanley McConkey, secretary. Ed Ruby was named League Commissioner for the fourth consecutive year and Frank Haydu was appointed publicly director for the league.

One of the high lights of the usual season for the Youth League is the annual dinner at which time all the players, officers and adult workers are honored for their interest in this worthwhile local program. Plans for this affair have been discussed and an announcement as to the date and place will be announced in a few days.

 6. Better maintenance and repair of County roads. Maintenance and repair to be placed on the basis of need rather than political expediency.

7. Fair treatment to all County employees, particularly to those in the lower income bracket.

8. Adequate funds for construction and maintenance of a Park System for all sections of the county.

9. A sensible program for mental health and a greater aid for chronically ill cases. At the present time the chronically ill are sent to all parts of the state as far as Atlantic County at a cost in excess of over $300,000 yearly.

10. Consideration of a county vocational school.

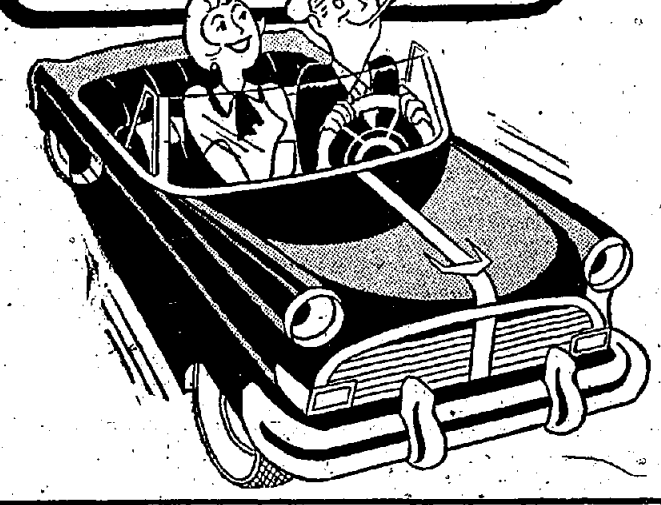

11. Two-party representation on the Board of Freeholders. (One party, the Republican party, has dominated the county board since its inception.)

12. Elimination of interference with bi-partisan boards.

13. Provisions for a liberal registration plan which will enable all qualified voters to register.

GOOD NEWS For CAR OWNERS
 From NADEL'S Sinclair Service Center
 MORRIS AVENUE
 CENTER STREET

Let's mention RUN A WAY TAXES. The following has been taken from the reverse sides of the Tax Forms of 1947 and 1956:

County Tax 72 1,204 70%
 Regional School Tax 45 1,40 21%
 District School Tax 1,93 3,67 90%
 Township Tax 2,37 3,40 43%
 Rate per $100.00 5.49 9.77 78%

This table cannot be denied, IT IS A FACT.

When Mr. Keane was on the Township Committee the tax rate for municipal expenditures as the above table shows was 2.37. Today (1956) our police, fire, engineering, plumbing inspection, building inspection, garbage collection as well as all other municipal services have more than doubled in cost. This all due to a growth of 3 to 4 times in population since 1947, however this Municipal cost rose only 43%, the lowest increase on your tax bill.

If the Democratic nominees do not want our children educated, then let them call a spade a spade. The necessary Regional and local school rates rose 211% and 90% respectively.

Let's mention Mayor Binder's Statements. The Democratic Nominees fear to print the entire statement he made to a group of people. This would not be an advantage to the Democratic nominees. However to pick phrase and misconstrue with intent, is an advantage, maybe not honorable.

To sum up. What would the Democratic nominees do, to reduce TAXES? Do away with education? Decrease teachers salaries? Go back to the little red schoolhouse? If so, take it up with the people when a referendum is up for public vote.

Would the Democratic nominees use other than honorable means to expedite their cause? Can the people trust in office those that seek office by these means?

Mr. Keane and Mr. Weinberg. What is your platform? What will you do and how? Condemn if you must, but what will you do to correct that which you condemn? Don't use the word bossism, your BOSSES have never run in the open for public office, they push and pull their candidates as puppets.

When the Democrats of Springfield have something constructive to say, the good people of Springfield will listen. Why can't you both think for yourselves and then speak for yourselves as Mayor Binder and Committeeman Donnelly do? Springfield will always need good citizens to run its government. PROVE by word and deed you are a good citizen.

Say Democrats

 The Democrats still have not explained who dictated their nomination in the face of an unorganized Democratic municipal committee.

Truth Distorted
 "One anticipates some deviation from actual fact in the heat of a political campaign but the Democratic tactic of deliberately distorting the truth about taxes and their fantastic talk about nonexistent dictatorships give the electorate a clear picture of what to expect should they gain control of Springfield."

"This township has made progress under a Republican administration which has constantly kept township residents conversant with its policies. We are willing to stand on the record of the past three years. We doubt if Springfield wants to turn its government over to a thrice-reputed politician and his running mate who become political soothsayers in the six weeks before election and forget about the township the rest of the year."

Mayor Binder and Commissioner Donnelly said.

 estate dealings while serving on the township committee, while his running partner, Mayor Binder, permits such practices.

All this, MacMahon stated, will be replaced by the outstanding candidates we have in Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, whose platform provides the concrete steps needed to end the Binder-Donnelly type of Springfield government.

Mrs. J. P. Brownlie, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Joseph E. Patterson, Mrs. Frank Jakobsen, and Mrs. B. P. Yuckman attended from the Springfield P.T.A. They were happy to see the Springfield P.T.A. publicity book of 1955-56 among the fifteen P.T.A. publicity books on display at this meeting. These fifteen books were selected as the top fifteen at the spring council meeting. P.T.A. members look at the Honorable Mention Award which has been attached to the title page with pride. An interesting and successful meeting of the Parent Education Group of the Florence M. Gaudneer School was held on Monday evening, October 15. The film entitled "Meeting the Needs of the Adolescent" was shown. A lively discussion period led by Mrs. Lois French of New Jersey State Teachers College, Newark, N. It was concluded that the adolescent will reflect that foundation of trust and love in their emotional and physical maturation.

700 To Help TV Appeal
 Volunteer workers from United Cerebral Palsy of Union County will be among the nearly 700 who will staff New Jersey UCP Teletheon Headquarters at the Hotel Robert Treat, Newark, October 20-21, it was announced today by Albert J. Benninger, Mountain-side, local Teletheon chairman.

The volunteers will handle an estimated 20,000 phone calls and sort, verify and tabulate pledges during the 19-hour show over WOR-TV (Channel 9) starting at 10 P.M., Saturday, October 20.

Townpeople Put First Aid Squad Over The Top!

If you should look out your front window some day soon and see a brand new cream colored ambulance go by with the name "Springfield First Aid Squad" on its door—don't do a double take—don't rub your eyes—just pat yourself on the shoulder and say "I helped to do that!"

Because what you'll be looking at will be the new 1956 Sayre-Scovill-Cadillac ambulance recently purchased by the Squad and soon to be placed in service.

The ambulance, which cost $12,000, is being financed with funds set aside each year during the past seven fund drives. Also being purchased with these funds are a 60-watt 2-way radio and a resuscitator. Both are expected to be delivered within 3 weeks and at that time the new vehicle will be put into service.

The new ambulance will carry four patients, 2 on suspended stretchers, 1 on a permanent floor-bunk and the fourth on a rolling 2-level stretcher which can also be raised to bed height without lifting.

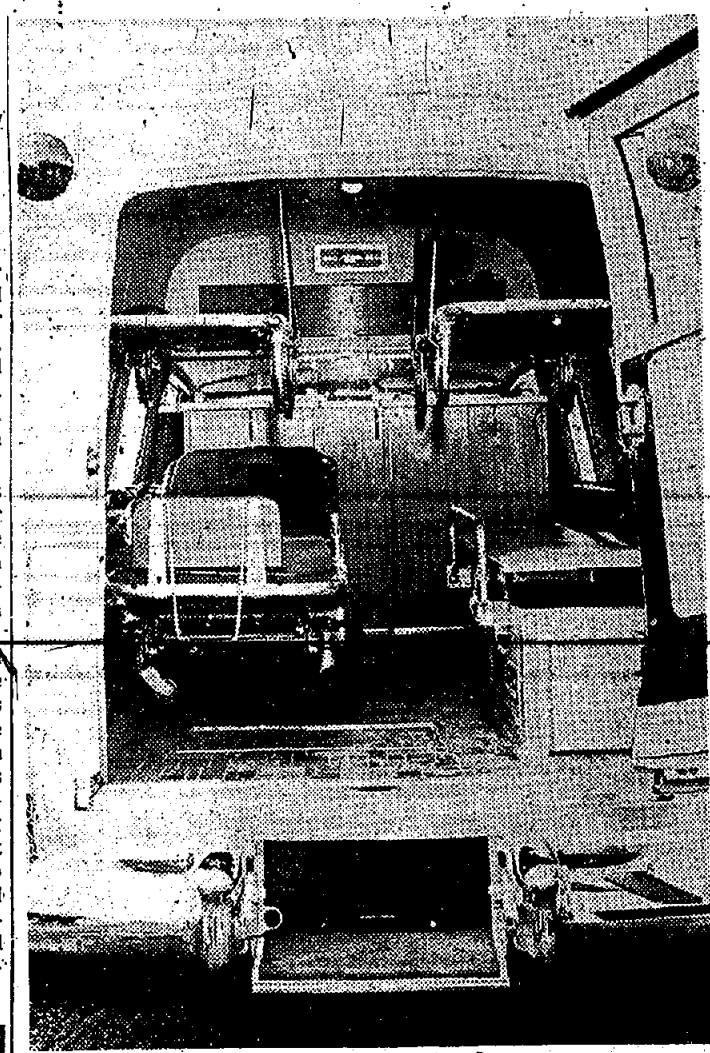

Also included in the ambulance is a beacon ray light on the roof, pistol-grip spotlight with 3 separate socket connections, airliner drapes on rear side doors and quarters with roller shade on rear door, special medicine cabinet, piano hinged for resuscitator and oxygen bottle folding aluminum chair, large medicine cabinet in rear door, and E-Z eye glass in windshield.

Mechanical and power features include power steering, power brakes, V-8 overhead valve engine delivering 285 H.P., 158 inch wheelbase, a Leace-Neiville alternating current generator and a built-in battery charger plug.

It had been felt by Squad and Township officials for some time that a second ambulance was necessary in order to give the town complete coverage. On many occasions one ambulance is out of town, either in transportation or answering a neighboring town's call. Also, since the First Aid Squad's inception 7 years ago the number of calls has increased an estimated 300%. The membership has grown from the original 7 or 8 to nearly 30 active members today.

4-PIECE INTERIOR — Inside view of the new ambulance shows 2 suspended stretchers and 2 floor cots to transport up to 4 patients at one time. The extra high and wide door opening enables placement of a patient inside the ambulance in a sit-up position. (Mickey Fox photo)

YOUR GOAL IN LIFE

Is it a question mark or a period? There are certain basic essentials: food, shelter, clothing. Some folks never have more. But the richness of living requires more, and requires money. Education for your children, a car good enough to "go places" safely, a home of your own, perhaps your own business, money available for a rainy day.

Not what you earn now, but what you save now foretells your financial future. So why not start saving a certain percent each pay day in The First State Bank.

Democratic Women Arranging Parties

The Springfield Women's Democratic Committee with Mrs. Philip Lewis as chairman, has mapped out a heavy schedule from now until election day which includes luncheon meetings in behalf of Francis J. Keane and Irwin Weinberg, the Democratic candidates for Township Committee, as well as a series of teas and coffee parties for Congressman Harrison A. Williams who seeks re-election in the Sixth District.

Mrs. Lewis announces that the group will hold a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. David Shane, 516 Ashwood Road, next Wednesday, October 24, featuring committee reports on the progress throughout the township in support of Keane and Weinberg.

Mrs. Harold Barg, chairman of the group's registration committee, will deliver a report at that time on the "enthusiastic workers' efforts in registering new voters." This committee, said Mrs. Lewis assisted in the registration of voters throughout Springfield on a non-partisan basis.

In addition to arranging for the personal home meeting of Keane and Weinberg with residents throughout the Township, Mrs. Lewis also reports that arrangements have been made for a greater number of teas and coffee parties for Congressman Williams, a November 1 date being scheduled for her own home at 385 Milltown Road with guests representing both political parties present. Another Williams party is slated at the home of Miss Nancy Cohen, 51-B Forest Drive, on the same day, November 1, with residents of Short Hills Village being invited to hear and meet the Congressman personally.

Another Williams party will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Siegel, 48 Warwick Circle, where over 150 have been invited to hear Cong. Williams and other candidates on Tuesday, October 30.

A large group of Springfield women attended the rally held in Plainfield yesterday afternoon for Congressman Williams with U.S. Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts as the guest speaker. Yesterday's rally was arranged by the "Women For Williams," with Mrs. H. M. Wasing as the Springfield chairman.

Rep. Williams received warm praise yesterday from George Dunton, president of the Union County CIO Council, for his "near-perfect" voting record during the last two years in Congress.

Basing his statement on a tabulation of votes involving foreign and domestic policy compiled by the New Jersey State CIO Council, Dunton said that "Representative Williams has voted consistently in the best interests of the working people in Union County, and certainly, on his record, deserves reelection."

Making public the State CIO's voting records for 1955-56, State President Paul Krebs said organized labor "is not concerned only with legislation which directly affects its rights. We take stands on legislation in far broader fields, because we believe that such legislation has a vital effect on the welfare of our members."

Congressional Candidates To Speak On 24th

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 24, at 8:15 p.m., the League of Women Voters of Westfield in cooperation with other local leagues, including Springfield, will present "Candidates Night" for all congressional candidates as well as those for the offices of Freeholder and State Senator.

Heading the list of participating candidates are Harrison A. Williams, Jr., Democrat Incumbent Congressman, and Assemblywoman Florence P. Dwyer, his Republican opponent for the office. State Senate candidates, Robert C. Crane, Republican, and H. Douglas Stine, Democrat, have also accepted the League's invitation to take part.

All six Freeholder candidates will also be available for questioning. They include Democrats: Mrs. Vivienne Meyer, John V. Donohue and Vincent J. Bonadies; Republicans: Sherwood C. Valentine, Albert J. Bonninger and George W. Herlich.

Each candidate will present his answer to a question which he has received from the League prior to the meeting, and the candidates will also be open to questions from the floor.

Mrs. David Stammelman, Chairman of Voters Service for the Springfield League, urges everyone to attend this important meeting on October 24 at the Elm Street School Auditorium in Westfield. Please phone her at DR 6-5973 if transportation to Westfield is needed.

Bonninger, Herlich and Valentine, candidates for Freeholder, Henry Nulton for County Clerk and Alex Campbell for Sheriff. The party will be part of the County Tour originating in Elizabeth and winding up at a rally at Union High School, Union.

Senior CYO Unit Elects Officers

Joan Ann Chadwick was elected president of the senior CYO unit of St. James Church at elections held recently. Other new officers are: Vice president, Paul Jones; corresponding secretary, Claire Jaeger; recording secretary, Mary Pietz; and treasurer, Margaret Cunningham.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

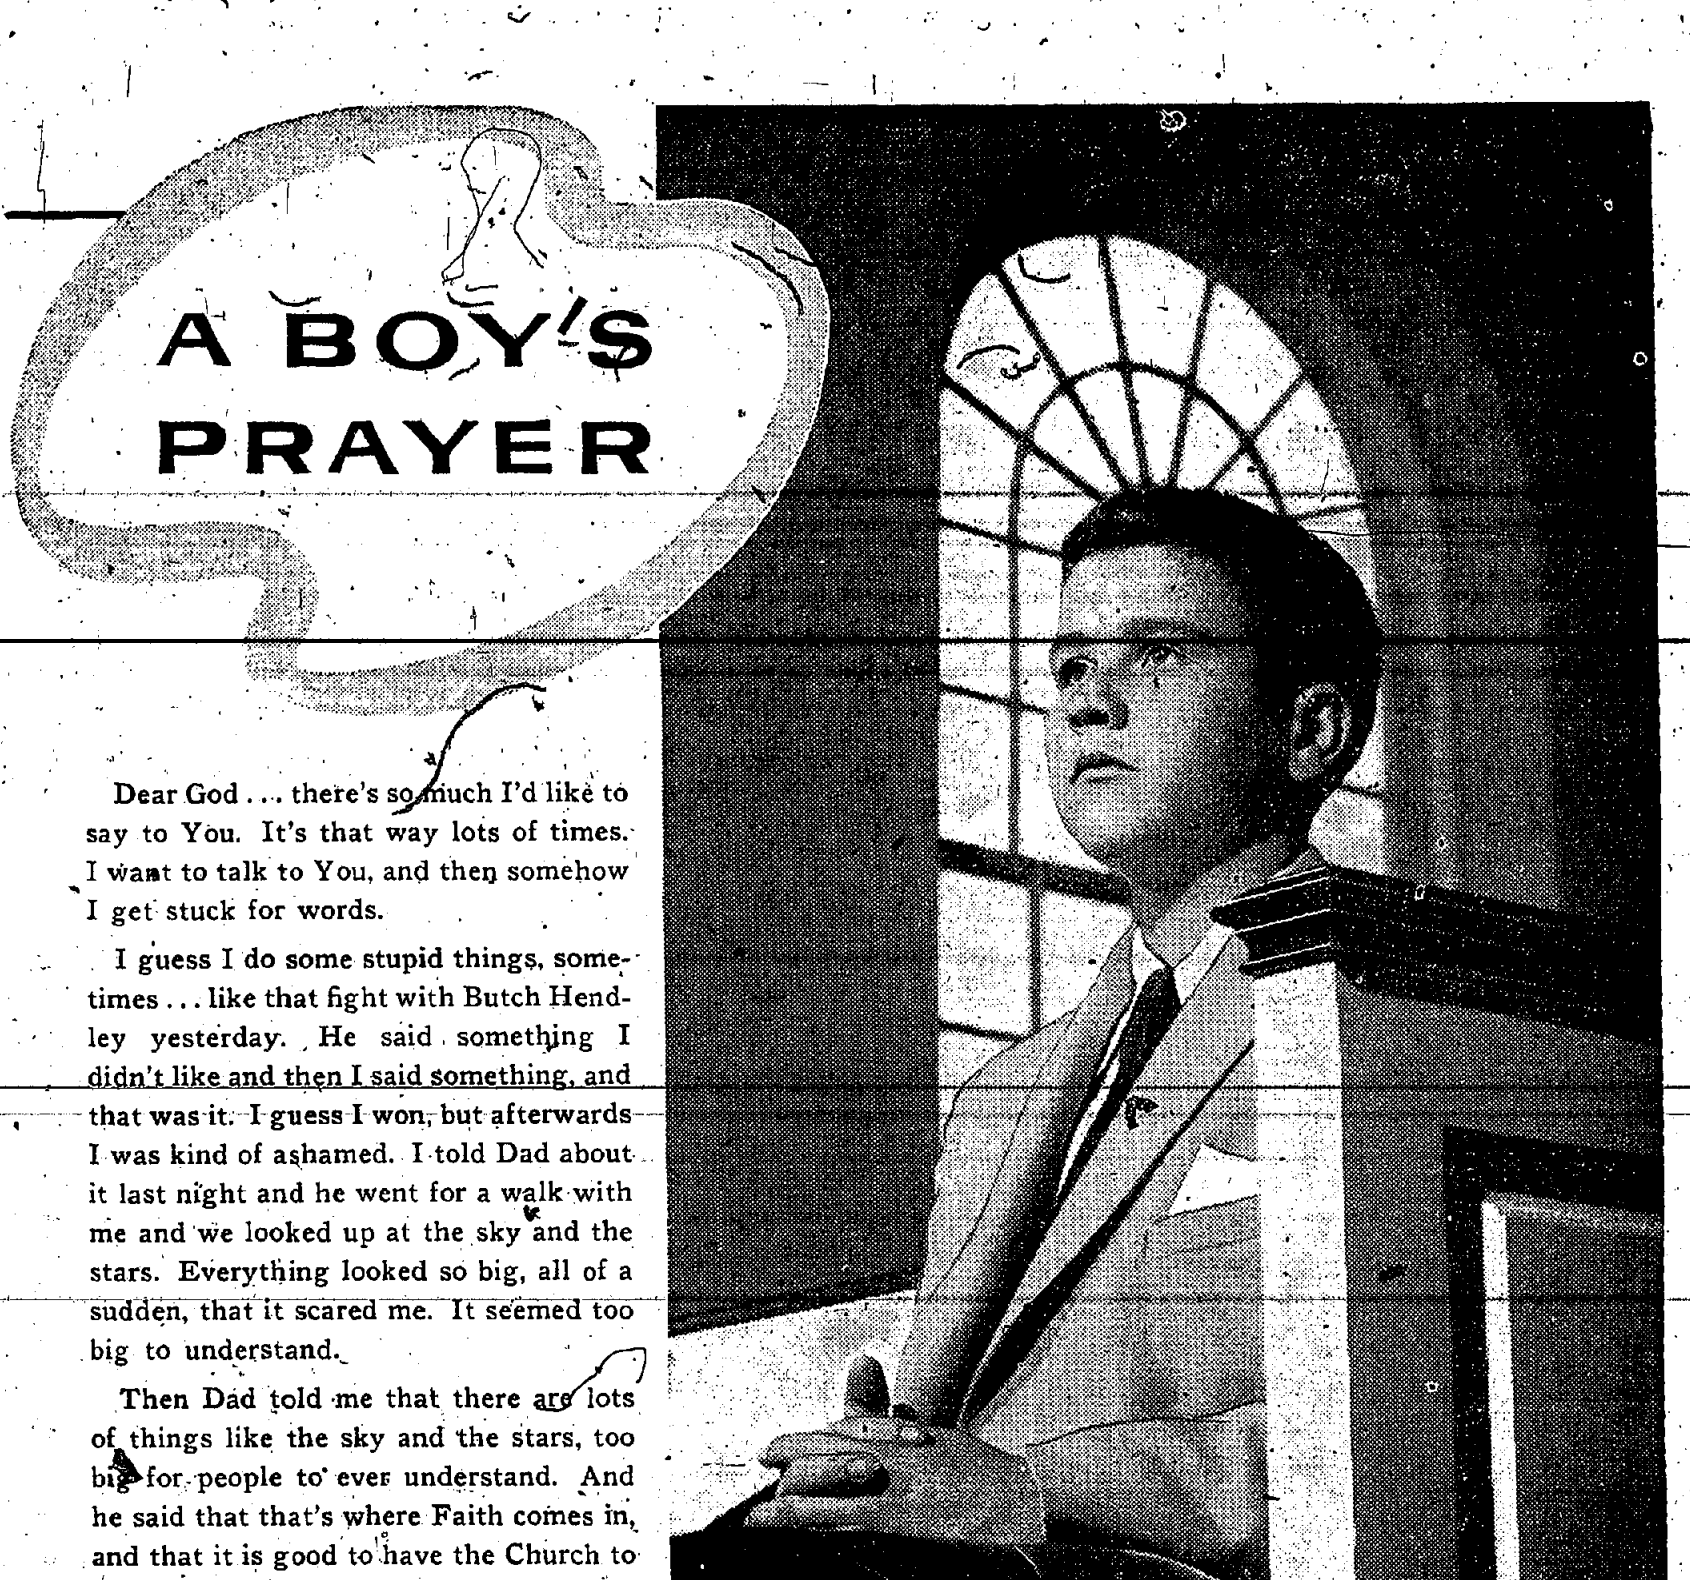

"Or your sins won't be forgiven." "What's that? Sorry? But we thought all along that Catholics had it easy; that all they had to do was to go in, rattle off a list of their sins, and be forgiven."
That certainly would be a snap — if you could go in every so often and practically get a blank check from any priest; but it just doesn't work that way.
A priest hearing confessions takes great pains to assure himself that the sinner is really sorry. He notes the tone of the voice and the manner of the penitent. He makes sure that the sinner, if he be caught in a bad habit, is prepared to do battle against the bonds holding him. He even helps him draw up plans for freeing himself from temptation, in some measure.
And only when the priest is convinced that the penitent is sincerely sorry, only then does he pronounce the sacred words of forgiveness. But if he knows that the sinner is not sorry, that he is only halfhearted in his good intentions, then no power on earth can drag that sacred formula from his lips.
The sinner must be sorry for all his sins. He is not at liberty to choose from the list of his offenses. He must realize that sin is the worst evil that could come into his life, and he must hate it with his whole soul. More than that, he must be sorry for his sins, not merely because they may have disgraced him, or cost him his health or his fortune, but because they have offended the Good God and have endangered the eternal destiny of his soul.
Couldn't a sinner fool the priest? Yes, he could fool the priest—but he couldn't fool God and, after all, it's God who forgives sins through the priest. If there be no sorrow for the sins confessed, God simply doesn't act. The sins remain, blackened now still more by the effort to mock God.
Any Catholic will be glad to shy the Act of Contrition for you. Listen to it carefully. It's what we say after we've told the priest our sins—and we mean every word of it!

A BOY'S PRAYER

Dear God . . . there's so much I'd like to say to You. It's that way lots of times. I want to talk to You, and then somehow I get stuck for words.

I guess I do some stupid things, sometimes . . . like that fight with Butch Hendley yesterday. He said something I didn't like and then I said something, and that was it. I guess I won, but afterwards I was kind of ashamed. I told Dad about it last night and he went for a walk with me and we looked up at the sky and the stars. Everything looked so big, all of a sudden, that it scared me. It seemed too big to understand.

Then Dad told me that there are lots of things like the sky and the stars, too big for people to ever understand. And he said that that's where Faith comes in, and that it is good to have the Church to put our trust in.

I got to thinking about that, and I told Dad that I'd kind of like to ask Butch to come to Church with us next Sunday morning, but that I was afraid he wouldn't come. Dad grinned at me and said, "Why not ask him and see?"

Dear God . . . I did ask Butch, and he's coming. Butch hasn't been to Church regularly like I have, so maybe when it comes to praying he'll get stuck for words even worse than I do. But You'll listen to him anyway, won't You? Because he needs You very much . . . just like I do . . . just like all of us do.

Thank You, God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Adlai Boosters In Fund Drive

Springfield's Volunteers for Stevenson and Kefauver participated in the fund drive here this week to help raise money for television time and the response has been very gratifying to the committee members. Scores of enthusiastic workers have been ringing door-to-door, calling upon Springfield voters with campaign literature, pledge books and Stevenson-Kefauver buttons.

The Springfield drive coincides with a national fund-raising drive by the Democratic organization, Springfield's Volunteers plan to continue the drive a full week in order to raise as much money as possible.

"The Democrats don't have any large corporations to help them out, and very few millionaires," said Miss Nancy Cohen, Chairman of the Springfield group. "So this is the only way we can raise money to help Stevenson in his campaign, by knocking on doors and asking everyone for a small contribution. At this stage of the campaign, every little donation helps out, so we hope everyone can contribute something."

Miss Cohen also pointed out that the Volunteers for Stevenson and Kefauver share space at the Springfield Democratic Headquarters. "We have our own workers there," she said, "and will be happy to hand out literature and buttons to everyone who stops in. It will have to be on a first-come, first-served basis, however, because we don't have too much literature left, thanks to the wonderful reception our workers have received throughout Springfield."

The following names are those of fifth graders at the Raymond Chisholm School who have had two years as Brownies and are now ready to be first class Intermediate: Susan Bates, Carolyn Bucci, Marsha Davis, Karen Fitzgerald, Bonnie Getz, Anna Mary Giannattasio, Eleanor Pfeiffer, Nancy Shubert, Susan Wehrle. Seventeen fourth graders, also at Raymond Chisholm have had no scouting as yet and would like to become second year Brownies. They are: Susan Clement, Joan Rawitz, Diane Scooby, Meryle Boydman, Marlyn Brownlie, Toby Kaplan, Nancy Schwartz, Barbara Rillsnyder, Barbara Cataldo, Dale Hendrickson, Regina Cooperman, Allyson Kalem, Carole Rogers, Abby Sue Fisher, Marcia Lillen, Marguerite Freedman and Gail Wilson.

Mrs. John O'Ree, Organizational Chairman, can be reached at Drexel 6-1779 and will be glad to answer any questions you have in regard to starting a troop.

Your Library

Improvements at the Free Public Library of Springfield are proceeding at a fast pace. Not only has the new wing been started and the walls for the lower level completed on the outside, but changes inside have begun. Many books have had to be moved because the builders expect to remove the stairs and remodel the hallways about the first of November. Fortunately there is a back stairs which can be used.

Since the collection of "Youth" books is located in the hall, the staff is scouring around trying to find new locations for some of them. All the Springfield schools are helping by taking large collections of these and children's books for classroom use. If more are left than can be handled during the building, they will be placed in storage until the new wing is finished.

The regular Library Borrowers and the general public have been wonderful about finding storage spaces for extra numbers of books. This gives many people a chance to read in a leisurely way long books and classics they have always intended to start. Many have said they anticipated a great deal of pleasure. The Springfield Sun's front page article was a great help in publicizing this project. The number of readers who mentioned it show the Sun has a wide circle of influence.

Next Friday Mrs. Hartley Ferguson will tell the story, because Mrs. Dean Widmer cannot come on account of her husband's serious illness. Mrs. Frederick Schumacher, who was such a fine help last year and told the first story this year, will be on hand to help her. The children will be assured of seeing a familiar face. The Story Hours will be held as usual on Fridays at 10 A.M. and 11 A.M. as long as the building is usable.

At the present time, the Library must be entered through the side door, while the porch in front is being reconstructed. Later it may be necessary to use the back door. But everyone is bearing the inconvenience cheerfully because they know the extra space in the new wing will add so much to the usefulness and efficiency of the Springfield Library.

New Pastor Named By Baptist Church

Pastor Bill Vautin

The Springfield Baptist Church today named Pastor Bill Vautin to take over the duties of the local church effective immediately.

Pastor Bill Vautin was born in Teaneck, on December 7, 1934. At the age of sixteen he "believed on the Lord Jesus Christ" and began serving him by teaching church school classes and by becoming a youth leader in his own church. He later became a member of the Brookdale Baptist Church of Bloomfield. Under the preaching and teaching of the pastor of that church, the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Anderson, he soon became grounded in sound Bible doctrine.

In the summer of 1955, he began preaching as a substitute at Park Baptist Church, Irvington, and was then called to assist the new minister of that church. While carrying on a ministry of preaching and teaching there, he also preached in missions and parks for the Men's Bible Class of his home church in Brookdale.

Pastor Vautin is a senior at Upsala College in East Orange, completing his requirements for an A.B. degree. He is presently enrolled in the Hawthorne Evening Bible School, Hawthorne, and plans to continue his training in seminary after graduating from Upsala College next year.

Mr. Vautin was unanimously elected interim pastor by the members of the Springfield Baptist Church and is now actively planning with his church members for the greater dissemination of the Gospel of Christ throughout the Springfield area. Pastor Bill says, "As a young pastor, I look to Paul's advice to Timothy: 'Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. My life's Bible verse is Philippians 1:17, 'I am set for the defence of the gospel.'

Police Reserve Sets Schedule

The Police Reserve of Springfield, a unit of Springfield's Civilian Defense and Disaster Control organization, held its October meeting on Tuesday October 2nd, at the Town Hall. This was the second meeting after the Summer season and was attended by fifteen members and presided over by Captain Wm. Pierce of the Police Reserves.

A resignation of Reserve Lt. Herold Jones made it necessary for the membership to fill the vacancy prior to the next regular election of Officers, which is in January of 1958. Reserve Sgt. Edward Olesky was elected as Lt., and Officer Leroy Roberts promoted to Sgt. to fill the spot left by Olesky.

Following instructions given to the Reserves by Chief of Police Albert Sorge, each man shall contribute four hours of time per month to duty assigned by the Police Department. In accordance with the aforementioned ruling, a voluntary duty schedule was set up by Reserve Sgt. Richard Moore, the Liaison Officer, whereby all members would be available at scheduled times to aid the Police Department in traffic and patrol duty. An interesting program is planned for future meetings which will include First Aid, Traffic Control, Police training films and other instruction in Police methods.

New members will be welcome, and anyone interested can get complete details by checking with Chief Sorge at Police HDQ.

The Springfield Woman's Club will have a Christmas Bazaar on Thursday, December 6th, at the Springfield Methodist Church, in Springfield, New Jersey.

Local Ike Fans Blast Stevenson

The Springfield Citizens for Eisenhower this week claimed that candidate Stevenson, losing in debate on the real issues is now resorting to personal attacks on President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

Walter W. Baldwin, speaking for the local Citizens for Eisenhower Group declared: "President Eisenhower in his forthright speeches has shown the Stevenson-Kefauver attempts to debate the 'issues,' weak and amateurish attempts by inexperienced candidates to discredit the sound policies of the United States which have been formulated by a capable administration and backed by an overwhelming majority of the people." Asking "Whose running scared now?" Baldwin noted that Stevenson's snide remarks about President Eisenhower were only succeeding in alienating even the members of his (Stevenson's) own party.

As it has been pointed out in recent national releases via Press, Radio and Television, the Democrat Standard Bearer Mr. Stevenson apparently is unable, or unwilling to conduct his campaign on the issues of Government, but instead has turned in desperation to the deplorable level of personal vindictiveness.

The local chairman asked the citizens of Springfield to note the difference in approach of the two national candidates; Stevenson wisecracking, back-biting, hitting low. President Eisenhower on the other hand, conducting a campaign with dignity, humility, and yet a confidence that can only come from a job well done, as evidenced by his most recent television appearances.

The committee urged that all our local people regardless of political affiliation join with them in securing the re-election of President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

This Orange and Blue turnabout, in name, Dave Lopian, Dave, an underclassman played one whale of a game against Caldwell. This solidly-built tackle, who plays his heart out whenever he steps onto the gridiron has all the makings of another All-county Scriba.

Someone told me a few days ago that there was one thing that meant more to her than anything else. This moved my reporter because, this particular subject had much to do with school spirit. I believe that more and more students are beginning to think of their school and team as part of themselves.

boys like David Lopian in its enrollment. Boys that have the courage and determination to win and play the game fair and square. Sunning Sports, salutes Dave Lopian, Regional High tackle as FOOTBALL PLAYER OF THE WEEK.

VFW Tightens Bowling League
The V.F.W. Mavericks took two from the Disc & Shutter and cut their lead to a single game. In order to win the V.F.W. team was forced to a 3 game series score of 2616 which was good enough to get them on the top 3 list.

SPRINGFIELD!...

HERE ARE THE TRUE FACTS

ABOUT YOUR TAXES

Don't be misled by the shop-worn, meaningless shouts of "runaway taxes" by desperate candidates trying to find some real issue in the local campaign.

THE SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE HAS NO CONTROL OVER THE SCHOOL, COUNTY AND REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL TAXES.

BUT WE CAN— AND DO CONTROL— THE TAX FOR LOCAL PURPOSES WHICH HAS GONE FROM $3.30 IN 1953 TO $3.40½ in 1956

DURING THIS PERIOD OF GROWTH AND PROGRESS WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO WIPE OUT OUR BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF MORE THAN $200,000.00 . . .

- WE HAVE ESTABLISHED A FULL TIME ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT
- WE HAVE A FULL TIME BUILDING INSPECTOR
- WE HAVE FULL TIME SERVICE OF THE SANITARIAN AND PLUMBING INSPECTOR
- WE HAVE LAUNCHED A BUILDING EXPANSION PROGRAM THAT WILL GIVE SPRINGFIELD A NEW MUNICIPAL BUILDING . . . A NEW PUBLIC GARAGE . . . AN ANNEX TO THE PUBLIC LIBRARY
- WE HAVE REPAVED STREETS AND INCREASED OUR SERVICES TO THE NEEDS OF A POPULATION THAT HAS PRACTICALLY DOUBLED IN THE PAST SIX YEARS . . .

ALL THESE SERVICES . . THESE INCREASED COSTS OF GOVERNMENT . . WITH A LOCAL PURPOSE TAX RATE THAT WAS $3.30 IN 1953—AND ONLY $3.40½ NOW!
