Chamber Of Commerce To Launch 9 Studies

By PHIL HAFF

The new blood that the Springfield Chamber of Commerce needed so badly showed up Tuesday night at a meeting at Baltusrol Golf Club and found the need for a transtusion was great.

Forty-four leaders of retail business, industry and professions turned out for the first big push under new president Donald S. Lenny to "revitalize the chamber." For the majority it was their introduction to the peculiar lethargy that grips the Springfield business community.

The meeting ended after an hour and twenty minutes of random speeches with those attending agreeing only on meeting again in two weeks. Three committee chairmen were appointed by Lenny, one of whom took some action.

Arthur H. Smith, Jr., manager of the Springfield branch of the National State Bank of Philadelphia, took over the membership committee and immediately deputized ten assistants and put them to work to get a bigger turnout at the next meeting.

Local GOP Will Hold Reception For Candidates

Springfield Republicans are putting on another big show for Bernard M. Shanley, GOP candidate for United States Senate, Saturday evening, April 12, at the American Legion Hall, with practically every party candidate already committed to appear during the evening.

This reception is sponsored by the Springfield Republican Primary Campaign Committee with Mrs. Amy Bandemer and Charles F. Beagles as co-chairmen of the affair. This group has been backing the candidacy of Mr. Shanley and it is the hope of the committee that he will get a big vote in Springfield as well as the other organization candidates.

Invitations for Saturday night's reception have been sent to all residents in Springfield and the committee urges everyone to be present which includes refreshments, entertainment as well as politics.

The reception is in honor of the following Republican candidates:

- 1. Bernard M. Shanley for United States Senate.
- 2. Hon. Florence P. Dwyer for Congress.
- 3. Charles A. Ott for Superior Court.
- 4. Bruce J. Baum for Register and Finance.
- 5. Richard P. Hatfield and Ernest S. Hickok for Preholders.

The new officers were elected at a meeting held March 24 and in addition to Bonadies as head of the lodge, included the following:

- Herbert E. Fay, Leading Knight; M. James Finn, Loyal Knight; Fred Keesing, Lecturing Knight; Henry A. Cumberley, Secretary; Max Weiss, Treasurer; Saul Freeman, Tiler; Joseph J. Duffy, 1-year Trustee; Albert E. Kessler, 2-year Trustee; Gilbert Anthony, 4-year Trustee; Daniel M. Lucy, 3-year Trustee; Richard M. Blake, 5-year Trustee.

The Springfield Elks has been under the leadership of Richard M. Blake who served as Exalted Ruler since its organization in the Township. The local lodge made considerable progress under Blake's leadership and is now needed to be one of the most progressive in this area.

Charter Study Report May Be Ready August

At its last session, the Springfield Charter Study Commission met with officers and some members of the Citizens Organization for Charter Study, the group which was instrumental in electing the Study Commission.

Chairman, "Wes" Compton, outlined the progress of the Commission to date and led an open discussion of the terms of government available to Springfield and the many variations possible.

Those participating included Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Atkin, Seymour Marquies, Jules Kazin, Walt Baldwin, Paul Murphy, Norman Banner and Norbert Berberish in addition to the five members of the commission.

Any citizen or group desiring to express their views to the Commission should contact the Secretary, Robert Southward (DR 6-4859), in the very near future.

The Charter Study Commission was elected five months ago and is beginning to look forward to rendering its report. The final report and recommendation of the Commission must be submitted not later than August 5, 1958.

Librarian Says Local Taste In Reading Is Not Lacking

By Helen C. Rcyner
Director of the Springfield Free Public Library

It was with considerable astonishment that I read the front page article in last week's Springfield Sun. Instead of regarding the reading taste of Springfield residents as low, or, as the SUN said, "lacking," I have always thought of the reading taste in Springfield as being exceptionally high.

It is said that straws show the way the wind blows. Let us look at the way the breeze blows the reading straw in Springfield. Just before the new wing was added to the library, it was decided to make more space on the shelves by removing all books which had not circulated in the last year or two. (This is not an infallible sign because some books are read for small parts right in the Library). However, after examining the section on philosophy, religion, and sociology, it was discovered that practically every book had been taken home within the last six months. At that point the idea of taking off books to make room was abandoned. But it would be agreed that philosophy, religion, and sociology are considered fairly weighty subjects, and people borrowing such books have high standards of reading.

Red Cross Sets Record In Drive

The 1958 fund drive of the Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross fell short of its goal in March but succeeded in raising more than $1,000 above the 1957 contributions.

Harold C. Oakman, fund chairman, states that as of April 5 the chapter had collected $5,831.68 toward its target of $6,517. He says that the chapter still hopes to boost its total with contributions still to be received.

State Experts Cause Terrific Traffic Jam

SUN Subscription Plan To Help Retarded Children

To help raise funds needed to carry on the work of the New Jersey Association For Retarded Children in this area, President Jack Mascuch of the Union-County unit announced today that the organization will participate with the Springfield Sun in a subscription campaign in this Township. A percentage of the money obtained through the subscriptions will go to the Association for Retarded Children.

Mrs. B. Paul Yuckman and Mrs. S. G. Goldstein, chairman and co-chairman of the Springfield Unit, reported this week that approximately $1300 had been collected in the recent fund drive throughout the Township but that considerably more money was needed to "help the more than 120,000 mentally retarded children to be born this year."

Mrs. Yuckman, who directed the fund raising campaign this year in Springfield, said the Association for Retarded Children appreciates the support of residents in the Township. "We hope," she continued, "that those who weren't contacted by our workers in the fund drive will help the Association by subscribing to the Sun. Part of the money received by the Springfield Sun for each subscription will be given to help the work in behalf of Retarded Children."

BY TELEPHONE

Retires After 36 Yrs. From NJ Bell

Lorenz Seuffert

Lorenz Seuffert of 545 Morris Ave., will retire from the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company April 20 after 36 years of service. He is a repairman in the company's Plant Department in Newark.

Seuffert, who joined the company as an installer, has been a repairman for nearly 29 years. He is a member of Newark Downtown Council of H. G. McCully Chapter, Telephone Pioneers of America. Seuffert plans to move to Florida.

Amateur Radio Man Gives Assistance

Ham radio operators throughout the country number in the thousands, and even in Springfield there are many who follow the kilocycles on the short wave band as part of an exciting hobby—and every so often, the art of amateur radio gains its rewards.

Unfolding like a television drama is the following: On Wednesday evening, March 26, Owen Morrison, a ham operator, and local post office employee, received a call from Adam LaSota of Country Club Lane.

LaSota stated that he had found out that his mother, Mrs. Emily Winterhalder, had been in an auto accident in Florida, and LaSota was unable to find out from the hospital his mother's condition.

Young Morrison set up the antenna, tuned in the proper frequency and put in a call to Jupiter, Florida, where Carleton H. Morrison (no relation, but from Springfield) operates W2HVJ. Carleton Morrison contacted the Fort Pierce Hospital, 45 miles away, and in a very short time, radioed back to Springfield that the condition of Mrs. Winterhalder was good.

The story is perhaps similar to many operators handle from day to day, but points up that hobby or, not-radio operators can play an important place in the community.

State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer and his career traffic experts from the Bureau of Traffic Safety of the Department of Highways have done it again.

Without informing a single official of either Springfield or Millburn—without asking the advice of either police department, and without any regard for either municipality, Mr. Palmer's experts swooped down on Springfield last week and made a complete mess of the traffic at the intersection of Morris and Millburn avenues.

Traffic at this point was a nightmarish problem for years but these drawing board traffic experts installed "no left turn" signs, moved traffic lights and changed timing cycles with utter abandon. There is now nothing but confusion at this dangerous intersection.

Heart Drive Is Still Lagging In Rush Effort

First returns from the reactivated Heart Fund drive in Springfield under the chairmanship of Vincent J. Bonadies is far short of the goal set by the new team of volunteers. Bonadies answered the many frantic calls for help from the Heart Fund headquarters in Union-County since there was no one who was willing to lead the drive for money here this year.

"We have organized an enthusiastic group," said Bonadies, "to carry on the work of soliciting Heart Fund money but we could do it only by mail. Letters have been sent to practically every resident in Springfield and we have received some contributions but there are still a great many who haven't responded. The Heart Fund is appealing to all those who haven't yet sent in their money to do so immediately. There is a self-addressed envelope enclosed in each letter."

Mr. Bonadies has given assistance. (Continued on Page 6)

Regional Will Pioneer With Russian Course

Students in the Arthur L. Johnson High School, Clark and the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, will be among the first in the nation to elect the study of Russian Language when the schools reopen in September 1958.

Mr. Edward J. Carcaise, a member of the faculty at the Johnson School, majored in Russian at Syracuse University and will be assigned to teach the new course available to students at both schools.

Only 16 high schools in the United States are now teaching the Russian Language according to Dr. Helen B. Yakobson, head of George Washington University's Department of Slavic Languages. Although many high schools throughout the country are considering the addition of Russian, only eight private and eight public schools now offer the subject.

Dr. Warren M. Davis, Superintendent of the Union-County Regional High School District controlling the two schools, reveals that the Board of Education has approved the addition of Russian as an important leading step in the continuing development of curriculum to provide for all of the students in the district.

Another Industry Is Coming To Town

Construction work has been started on another industry in Springfield with ground being broken for the one story building in Stern Avenue for the Excellence Corporation, a machine tool manufacturing concern out of Detroit.

The Murray Construction Company has the contract for the new building to be occupied as executive offices after completion.

Frank J. Brown, president of Brown and Brown, Industrial Realtors and Developers of Elizabeth, New Jersey, has announced that his firm has just completed the design, construction and leasing of a new industrial site at Union Avenue, Springfield. Plans are being drawn for the Wilbur Company. The new 40,000 square foot building will house the Eastern Regional sales agency and engineering offices of the Tregoe, Ohio firm.

Eastern Division Sales Manager Carl B. Graczyk will head the enlarged operation and continue to supervise the sale of spray painting and finishing equipment, exhaust systems, air compressors, hose and connectors manufactured by De Vilbiss. Regional offices were formerly located on Frelinghuysen Avenue, Newark.

Maurice M. Weill, president of the Murray Construction Company, directed the construction of the new building as designed by architect Peter M. Grygotis.

Library Open One Hour More Daily

The Springfield Free Public Library will open an hour earlier from now on, according to director Helen C. Rcyner.

The new hours start at 9:30 each morning, instead of the hitherto 10:30, and go onto the same closing hours.

The schedule now is: 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily including Saturday, and two evenings, Monday and Friday, 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Miss Rcyner says that a major reason for the additional hour is to be convenient for shoppers who come into the center of town early in the morning.

She also announces that an artist who belongs to the library has volunteered to repaint the sign in front of the building.

Regional Students Take Over Newberry's For Day

Springfield Regional High School students will take over the management and sales at the J. J. Newberry store in the General Greene Shopping Center next Wednesday, April 16, as part of the school's "Management For A Day" program.

The "one day" program has shown on store salesmanship and been arranged by Michael F. Nigro, Chairman of the Distribution Education Advisory Committee for the Regional High School and is part of the program to teach the students by actual participation.

The high school boys and girls selected for various duties at the Newberry Store will take over every department for that one day, starting at 9:30 a.m. and continuing throughout the day until closing time 5:30. The students performing the various jobs in the Newberry organization on this "management day" will witness the various details relating to the opening of the store at 9:30 and each one will be assigned to a department.

During the day films will be

Mean Thief Steals 2 Easter Baskets

The mean thief who last Sunday stole two Easter baskets from an automobile intended for two little girls, age 2 and 3, will get very little comfort for his troubled conscience in learning that two other baskets were obtained to replace the pilfered.

Ten-year-old Karen Farmer, who now lives in Millburn but was formerly a resident of Springfield, purchased two Easter baskets to be presented to her little friends, Laura Ann who is 3 years old, and Mary Lou, two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Schmolzer of 41 Colfax Road. The remainder of the story with its heartwarming ending is told in the following letter from Mrs. Schmolzer:

Editor, Sun:
 I'd like to retell an Easter story made real by a thoughtful Springfield merchant.

Like most parents, we had looked forward to a joyous Easter with church in the morning and a pleasant day with our two little girls. The day was somewhat marred by rain, but was brightened by what follows.

A little chum of our two little girls was thoughtful enough to purchase for her own two Easter baskets for our youngsters. But can you imagine the crestfallen child when she discovered her two little gifts had been stolen from her father's car only minutes before she was to come to make her two little friends happy? The child was distraught. Her parents thought, "How could anyone do such a thing on Easter day?" Perhaps the "little thief" will someday be the "good thief."

To assuage the grief of the little girl, her parents called up "Margie's Confectionery" to see if replacements could be bought. The Kindergartners will be registered on Thursday, April 17, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Raymond Chisolm School, on Thursday, April 24, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Edward V. Walton School; and on Thursday, May 1, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the James Caldwell School.

Parents of kindergartners who have been contacted by the P.T.A. pre-school census committee will be informed through the mail as to the exact time they should report with their children on the above days and they should bring in their medical and dental forms properly filled out by their doctors.

Parents who have not been notified by mail within three weeks of the registration date should contact their neighborhood school as soon as possible.

Certificates of birth, vaccination (vaccination is compulsory for entrance to Springfield Schools), diphtheria (Schick test) and whooping cough inoculations, and Salk inoculation (this also is compulsory) should be brought in at the time of registration.

Dr. Robert Belliveau, the school dentist, will be present at these designated times. All parents have been urged to register their children on these specific dates. No other registration will be held until the latter part of August.

manager said it was closing time. After hearing the story he gladly waited for the little girl to come down and purchase two replacement baskets for her friends. She bought identical baskets and came over to our house and presented them to our two happy children.

So you see, Easter for our two families was made a little brighter by a thoughtful merchant who didn't mind waiting to "lock up." Instead he unlocked a generous heart, Easter spirit, Springfield style.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. J. C. Schmolzer,

Chamber

When the bell sounded in the first round, the chairman of the township planning board was the first speaker on his feet urging the chamber study with an eye toward approving (1) the present route of the federal highway coming to town, and (2) the industrial rezoning ordinance that the planning board has recommended to the township committee.

He stated that the township now knows where the highway is going and that "we have found it the best route possible." It will only destroy 41 houses and 6 business properties, he declared.

"The only fly in the ointment,"

Grabatz reported, "is that we don't know where the spur will go."

He urged the chamber to support the rezoning ordinance because it would be a great relief to tax paying businesses.

"The ultimate development of the industrial zone could be in $1. million in rentals," Grabatz stated. He wants the chamber to draft a resolution supporting the ordinance with "as much dispatch as possible."

Strength In Unity

Mrs. Milton Keshen of Beacon Hill Co. asked the chamber to take some action on the number of solicitations for funds in Springfield. She said that each businessman gets touched everyday for some contribution to some program or charity. "The chamber should have a definite policy on this," Mrs. Keshen stated.

She said that the only way the chamber can carry any weight is through unity in numbers. Lenny agreed with her and revealed that there are 432 professional, business and industrial firms in town. He felt that only when the chamber has unified a considerable portion of this group will it carry enough weight to accomplish much in town.

This was why no definite action was voted upon at Tuesday's meeting. The next gathering of the business clans will be on April 22 at the Andrew Wilson Company on Baltusrol Way. The meeting following that will be at Saks Fifth Avenue.

Saks On The Map

Laurence J. Rogers, manager of Saks Fifth Avenue, stated that he felt the publicity committee had the biggest job - that of putting Springfield on the map.

"Before I moved out here," Rogers declared, "I never heard of Springfield, Millburn and Summit, yes, but not Springfield."

He suggested that the chamber get some Springfield signs on the Garden State Parkway and Route 22.

A. W. Morrison of Andrew Wilson Co. pointed out that the chamber ought to come to aid of fellow businessmen when they are in trouble.

"We all know of two fellows who got a raw deal recently," Morrison declared.

Former president John C. Grausman read the By-laws of the chamber to the meeting. Among the curiosities in this document is a declaration that the chamber will not indulge in politics and that no one can speak at a meeting for more than 10 minutes or more than twice on the same subject.

Lenny emphasized that the purpose of the chamber is to promote the welfare of the town as a whole. He said that while businessmen naturally ask "What can the chamber do for me?", they must realize that self interest must be secondary to town interest.

month, and the quality of these books is very high.

TV Spurs Books

A few months ago a great many requests came in for the books that Dr. Zull of N.Y.U. was discussing on the early TV program. As far as we could discover only one person in Springfield was registered for credit, but many people read the books for pleasure.

Another straw

In the magazine field itself, subscriptions were sent to Harpers and The New Yorker at the earnest request of a reader who pointed out their many uses.

In this connection, it might be well to say that the Free Public Library has all five magazine titles listed as "the intellectuals": The New Yorker, Atlantic Monthly, Harper's Magazine, Scientific American, and Saturday Review. The Library not only keeps the current issues in their browsing corner, but stores the back issues. These are used extensively by students writing papers.

Not one of the five "low brow" magazines is in the Library.

It may be that the reading public find the "intellectual" magazines mentioned above too expensive to purchase. The Atlantic Monthly is sixty cents, while Life is twenty-five cents. An individual's income does not always keep pace with his intellectual tastes. Why buy expensive magazines when you can find a comfortable seat by the Library fireplace? There you may sit and browse through twenty of the latest issues.

Best Sellers

It is true that the Springfield Library fills requests for the more sensational best-sellers. But when

Housewives' Tasks To Be Made Easier

A special class in Work Simplification has been planned for this area by Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, of the Home Extension Service for Union County. This class has come about as a result of interest expressed by several groups of women.

So that mothers will be free to attend, plans are being made to care for small children. The children are to bring a toy and if the weather permits, they can play out in the back yard of the library.

The auditorium of the Free Public Library of Springfield, 30 Main Street, was chosen as a convenient location. The Springfield library is located back of the historic Presbyterian Church which stands on the corner of Morris Avenue and Main Street.

So that everyone may have a chance to participate in the discussion, the class enrollment is limited. All women interested should register immediately with Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, Home Agent, Court House Annex, Elizabeth 4-N. J.

said his department would be willing to remove or cover up the track—and it could be done within a few weeks—but that he wouldn't do it unless Springfield agreed to ban ALL PARKING AT ALL TIMES ON MORRIS AVENUE. Township officials would not agree to this stipulation and Commissioner Palmer has refused to order the exposed rails removed.

The intersection of Morris and Millburn avenues—and the heavy rush of traffic twice each day on Morris Turnpike and Morris Avenue—complicating at this busy point—has given both Springfield and Millburn police considerable trouble.

The Highway Department experts have placed "no left turn signs" at points where it makes it impossible for autoists to reach their destinations without turning into residential sections of Springfield and then retracing their steps so as to be able to make right turns. The time cycle on the traffic light at this corner has been changed so that drivers on Morris avenue going to the City of Summit cannot turn into the Morris avenue extension.

Complaints began jamming the telephone switchboard at Springfield police headquarters as soon as the signs were placed and the traffic light moved. No one knew anything about making the changes—and the local police department was caught off guard. Since there is no ordinance setting up violations for those making left turns despite the Highway Department signs, many autoists ignored the warnings and traffic was snarled for hours every day.

Mayor Binder put in a telephone call to the Highway Department in Trenton Tuesday and managed to contact a Mr. Hartman who said he knew about the plans to "alleviate the traffic jam

No one knew anything about making the changes—and the local police department was caught off guard. Since there is no ordinance setting up violations for those making left turns despite the Highway Department signs, many autoists ignored the warnings and traffic was snarled for hours every day.

Mayor Binder put in a telephone call to the Highway Department in Trenton Tuesday and managed to contact a Mr. Hartman who said he knew about the plans to "alleviate the traffic jam

ELERY — (155 Morris Ave., rear of Chrysler-Plymouth agency—Springfield) When your car ends its out-of-shape look for Elery, a firm with the necessary fancy equipment, (2) a firm with the know-how, experience, and (3) a firm with the integrity to be the lowest bidder. On all occasions the SUN recommends Elery Auto Body Shop.

HI FI & SOUND

STEREO SOUND CORP.—(173 Mountain Ave., Springfield, DRexel 6-4847) You two ears play an important part in listening to sound. The story of high fidelity sound reproduction is largely an effort to add another ear to the traditional one eared speakers. This development called stereophonic sound is available for home listeners as well as the Radio City Music Hall. This firm can set you up with either dual recorded tape sound systems or AM-FM radio dynamo sound.

HOME IMPROVEMENTS

CHANNEL LUMBER CO.—(Route 22, Springfield, DRexel 6-6000) Channel's charge account system makes it possible to buy just about anything under the sun (or as advertised in the SUN) and take 18 months to pay for it. This of course includes lumber, home improvements, housewares, paints, hardware and so on. A service to the community is Channel's standing offer to loan extra chairs for card parties, club meetings, etc., absolutely free of charge.

INSURANCE & REAL ESTATE

ANNE SYLVESTER'S REALTY CORNER—(649 Morris Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-8800) As is becoming increasingly evident, that Realty Corner has a corner on the local realty market. This vigorous all woman organization has "been making" many "nice" realtors to leave realty in order to come to her. All she has is only one final criteria on the sale of a home—are both parties happy? The answer here is—everybody's happy.

BUNNELL BROS.—(8 Premier Ave., Springfield, DRexel 9-3400) Springfield's insurance business would be like Boston without the Colon. Since 1915 their big friendly office is in the bank building near all that big friendly money. Insurance matters, though it is a good deal more than friendly; their years of experience show in the soundness of their advice.

LAUNDROMAT

COURTESY LAUNDROMAT—(288 Morris Ave., Springfield) Everybody knows that you just drop off your laundry here and come back in an hour to pick it up fluff dry. But did you know that Adolf Mirabelli does expert shoe repairing here too? And he's fluff dry all the time.

LUMBER & SUPPLIES

COLUMBIA—(Maple Ave., Springfield, DRexel 8-9950) Springfield's reliable home improvement center has countless suggestions for adding life to your house in their two big showrooms. From ready-assembled corner cabinets to beautifully grained Pella-Wood Folding Doors, the Columbia people have quality merchandise to choose from. Of particular interest is the assortment of elaborate bathroom medicine cabinets. You'd be surprised at the ingenious conveniences built-in to Columbia's cabinets.

LIGHT FIXTURES

MODERN LIGHTING—(615 Morris Avenue, opposite Terry Dempsey's, Springfield) —Motorists can't help being fascinated by the dazzling display of fixtures that glow upon the rather dreary five-corners. Joe Hockadel has hung tempting samples of his fixtures in the window. Inside you'll find the variety even greater, from vivid modern to elegant classic provincial.

PAINT & WALLPAPER

R. GLEMMING — (248 Morris Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-7785) Along with artist's supplies and about a million samples of wallpaper, Roy Glemming carries the fabulous complete ERB line of paints. This firm has pioneered some startling developments in paints, including Alkyd base and latex base paints that cover in one coat. The Clover-Match system of selecting the best color variations is the one that we're recommending.

RESTAURANTS

CHINA SKY—(Springfield Shopping Center, DRexel 9-5010) Here's a random sampling from the menu showing that their's practically everything under the China Sky. SAM GOB TAI — sliced lobster, meat, white meat of chicken, Chinese roast pork prepared with imported Chinese maitake, grow pea pods, waterchestnut, bamboo shoots and hearts of bok choy. At $1.15 for $1.75 in Jack O'ain's cheerful dining room.

RESTAURANTS

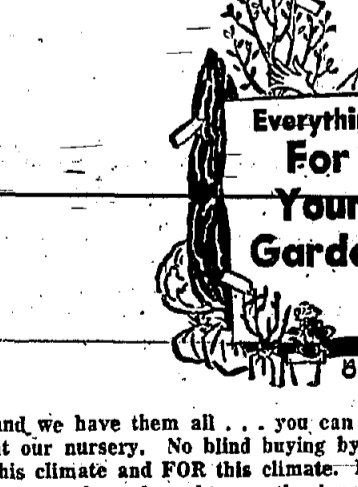

MOUNTAIN AVENUE LUNCHEONETTE—(549 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-8500) Next to Walnut School. There is one thing better than good German cooking and that is Mrs. Germania's German cooking. She's running the luncheonette, lunch and snack headquarters in town. The SUN recommends trying any of her homemade delicacies.

SIP & SUE DRIVE-IN RESTAURANT—(Corner of Morris Avenue and Springfield Avenue, DRexel 6-4000) If you're one of a vanishing race of motorists who will still order out-of-your-car and sit in the car, Jack Buhoko's colonial modern dining place offers a big new dining room. However, you'll get the same good food by simply staying in your car and ordering your food out to you. Either way, the food is what makes stopping here an event.

TONY'S PIZZERIA—(Mountain and Elemer Avenue, opposite Regional High School, Springfield, DRexel 6-9772) There's an old saying that a pizza pie is what you make it. Tony Della certainly makes them more than usually good. His hand with the pizza is sure and his experience with flaky crust is considerable. If you want to take one home, call in advance and pick it up hot. Better order several while you're at it.

WALTER'S INN—(595 Morris Ave., opposite Millburn Ave., Springfield) The old heard comment about the pizza pie being too big to eat says that's originated here where the pizza come king size in both diameter and seasoning. We like splitting a pizza among everybody at the table and ordering individual portions of their delicious Lasagna, Barolo, and veal and peppers. You sure know you've dined out after that.

Fixed charges, same-day service, and guarantees on all work are the other reasons why people phone A & A.

SPRINGFIELD RADIO & TELEVISION CENTER—(173 Mountain Ave., Springfield, DRexel 6-4545) Fire mobile repair credit six months to repay men, and electronic testing equipment to man the CBS master control room, make this a logical choice when Lawrence Weik gets hired. Springfield Players Lead In Table Tennis League

Table tennis which may be recognized as "ping pong" in the recreation rooms of the split-level world has become a major sport in Springfield.

It is the latest standing of the Springfield Table Tennis League in the New Jersey State League. Springfield players are in first place, just one game ahead of the Newark club. The New Jersey Table Tennis League plays Thursday nights at the Cranford American Legion Hall and Springfield took first place in last week's games defeating Plainfield 7-2. The standing including last Thursday night's games is as follows:

ALVIN NOEHENSON

meet the present National Champion, Bernard Bukiet of Chicago. But the results of the national tournament will not detract from the glory of being captain of a Springfield table tennis team which is leading nine other municipalities in the State League. With Noehenson on the Springfield team are Stan Mellus and Ernie De Vos who have played remarkable tennis in winning a total of 135 games while losing 90.

Noehenson's most enthusiastic rooter, his wife, Mitzi, and their children give spectator support any time Al can get some one to practise with him in the recreation room of their Briar Hills Circle home. They have lived in Springfield about two years and while table tennis is first on the list of their interests, they are very civic-minded and participate in many worthwhile local activities.

SUNNING SPORTS

By MIKE GOODMAN

Coach Bob Lummer and his Tracksters start their track season this coming Tuesday, April 15, with an away meet with the Linden Tigers. That meeting will be the first of ten dual contests with neighboring schools. Regional's cindermen host only seven returning lettermen to meet this onslaught. The seven are: Dave Colvin, Butch Kertesz, Ray Walsh, Bob Keith, Jerry Stuver, Cass Wolowicz and Chip Skousen. The Bulldogs will need many good reserves to finish with a record better than last season's 3-7.

In the 60, 100, and 220-yard dashes, Juniors Cass Wolowicz and Chip Skousen handle the chores. Skousen also specializes in the javelin throw. Wolowicz again appears in the broad jump category. In the high hurdles Senior Ray Walsh seems to be the only boy of merit. Ray may well have a chance in the state event with his three years of varsity track experience. Among the low hurdlers Don Gibbons, a sophomore, stands out.

In the half mile event Dave Colvin and Bob Keith are the main contenders. These two men will provide tough competition for opponents. Both have broken the school's record and Colvin placed fifth in the state meet last year with an exceedingly good time of 2:03. In the gruelling mile Jerry Stuver, a Junior, and Butch Kertesz, a Senior, are the only standouts. Stuver's time in the event hovers around 4:55 while Kertesz's is about 5:00.

Bill Heine and Bob Ellert seem to be the best bet in the pole vault. Lanky John Saxton and Junior Ray Lewandowski are vying for top honors in the high jump. The weights look weak with only Dave Lapanik, a Junior with some varsity experience, having a chance in forthcoming meets. But Bob Engle and Ray Pawlikowski are trying hard to remedy this problem.

He received his bachelor's degree from Oswego State Teachers' College. The 303d meets weekly on Thursday evenings at the Kearny Shipyard.

What BERNARD M. SHANLEY says about
The Candidate who can win in November!

TODAY'S IMPORTANT ISSUES

In hundreds of appearances throughout the Garden State, Mr. Shanley, a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, has firmly put himself on record for issues which face this State and the Nation today.

SHANLEY: An Outstanding Lawmaker

Bernard M. Shanley wrote a series of Communist Control Bills which are now the law of the land. One important measure took away the right to vote from a Communist convicted under the Smith Act of being guilty of conspiring to overthrow our government by force or violence. On the recommendation of the late Senator Robert Taft, President Eisenhower appointed Mr. Shanley to head a Committee which proposed changes to the Taft-Hartley Act. Mr. Shanley drafted the Federal-State Relationship Act which turns back to the States some of the powers and programs formerly handled by Washington. This was an Administration proposal aimed at reducing the size of "big government." Shanley's bill also proposed that the Federal government turn back part of the funds collected through the local telephone tax so that State governments could run these programs without adding to State budgets.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

We must be the first to launch a manned space satellite. We must be the first to reach the moon. To be second best is to invite national suicide.

OLD FASHIONED ECONOMY

Adoption of all the recommendations of the Hoover Commission should be put into effect immediately to eliminate mountains of waste, duplication, and archaic methods of operation.

LOWER FOOD PRICES

We must adopt a farm program which will lower food prices to the housewife. I suggest a program of direct aid to small farmers, and farmers in need. This will save us money, and put money into the hands of those who need it, right now.

UNFAIR COMMUTERS TAX

If I am elected I will work for a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting one State from taxing the income of residents of another State. It is unfair for New Jersey commuters to be taxed in New York, where they receive no benefits for the money taken away from them.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Our inflexible Social Security program should be made flexible by tying it to the cost-of-living.

SMALL BUSINESS

Congress should immediately pass a bill which would give a 20 to 30 per cent reduction on the first $25,000 of income of the small corporation. Their future growth will easily offset the temporary loss of revenue.

INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM

We must take leadership in technology and in economic freedom if we are to pass on to our children the same, wonderful, free way of life we have been privileged to enjoy.

SHANLEY: A Man Of Vigor

Few people realize that Bernard M. Shanley is a vigorous athlete whose first love is baseball. In fact, he still ardently remembers his college days when he played third base on the same team as the late Yankee idol, Lou Gehrig. Shanley was a member of the National Championship Squash Tennis team and All-State basketball guard. He is also an expert rifleman and duck hunter who has taught some notable Washington figures how to quarry a duck dinner. Despite the furious pace of campaigning for the nomination, last week he found a little time to bat out a few to the Shanley "little leaguers" who are fast developing their Father's love of baseball.

SHANLEY: His War Record

He enlisted as a private in 1942 and was discharged a Captain in 1946. He served in Italy, and received three Battle Stars and a War Department Citation.

What Does Food Cost You? Let It Cost a Little Thought and Imagination

American housewives are very fortunate in the variety of foods available to them throughout the entire year. There is an endless choice of fresh, frozen and canned foods of every description. There should never be any reason to serve the same food twice in a row or even twice in one week. Don't let lethargy or habit rob you and your family of the good eating available to everyone. Good eating is not by any means synonymous with expensive eating. The most expensive is not always the best.

Overcooking is a common fault. Cooking in too much water is another. If anything at all, vegetables should be served slightly on the crisp side. They should be cooked in the least amount of water possible. If you are afraid they might burn during the last few minutes of cooking, add a small pat of butter, not more water. One notable exception to the minimum-water rule is the cooking of cabbage. Even this, however, should not be overcooked into a mush. Try this with the next head of cabbage you cook. Shred the cabbage as though preparing coarse cole slaw. Put it into a large pot of salted, boiling water. As soon as the water begins to boil again, remove the cabbage, drain it well, add a large pat of butter and serve. You will find the difference in flavor tremendous.

Celery, particularly the heavy Pascal variety, makes an excellent cooked vegetable. Cut it in three-inch lengths. Barely cover it with lightly salted water. The water will disappear shortly before the celery is done and a pat of butter should be added to prevent sticking.

Have you used any marjoram or basil lately? In the use of any seasoning, remember too little is far better than too much. A little experimenting will soon indicate how much you will like. Add a little of one or the other the next time you mash potatoes. They are good in eggs and salads, too.

Overcooking eggs can be disastrous. Next time you fry eggs, use a minimum amount of butter and add one tablespoon of hot water for each egg in the pan. If you have the courage to step out of the ordinary, add white wine instead of water. There are cookbooks at the library devoted exclusively to egg recipes. It might be worthwhile to investigate some of them. Eggs are high in nutritional value and people who don't like eggs may never have had one that was truly properly cooked.

Just because canned and frozen foods are marked "ready to serve" it does not follow that you cannot improve them. They will nearly always be the better for the addition of seasonings. The addition of monosodium glutamate alone will be an improvement. Experiment with dried spices. If you have a spot of ground available, you might like to try growing chives, parsley, basil and marjoram. They are easy to grow and will provide much better flavor than dried herbs.

SUGGESTED RECIPES

Peel five tomatoes. Cut into thick slices and quarter. Heat two tablespoons of olive oil (or one tablespoon each olive oil and butter). Add tomato for two minutes then add cooked green beans (fresh, frozen or canned). Stir and cook ten minutes. Add salt, pepper and basil.

Melt two tablespoons butter. Remove from heat and add 1/4 cup flour. Stir until smooth. Gradually add one cup stock, unthickened chicken gravy or chicken soup. (One cup water and one chicken bouillon cube may be used.) When thickened, add beets, one teaspoon parboiled, chopped onion, three cloves, two sprigs parsley and heat for several minutes. Before serving, stir in 1/2 teaspoon of vinegar or white wine.

Winner of this week's contest is Mrs. David Schapiro of 507 Olive Ter., Union. Her fruit cake keeps well in a freezer and is good to have on hand for unexpected guests.

YEAR-ROUND FRUIT CAKE

Carr Stresses His Fiscal Experience

Management of county finances, as in any other level of government, involves not only the routine receipts and expenditures, but consideration of inevitable forthcoming capital outlays and provision against the demands of emergencies, former Freeholder Nelson L. Carr said today.

Carr is a candidate for the Republican nomination, April 15, for another term as freeholder. During his six years as a member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Carr served on the finance committee, among others, and was the acting chairman of it during the preparation of the 1957 budget. The fiscal program evolved from that budget permitted a reduction in the county tax rate from .3237 to .3113.

Cut fruit into pieces; add raisins; place in saucepan; add water to cover; cook covered 10 minutes; set aside to cool. Cream: 2-3 cup vegetable shortening

Add:
3-4 cup dark brown sugar
3 eggs

Beat thoroughly.
Sift together:
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1-4 teaspoon salt

Add:
Flour mixture to shortening mixture. Blend thoroughly.

Add:
Cooled fruit

1/2 cup chopped pecans
Mix gently. Pour into greased, floured loaf pan. Bake at 325 degrees F. one and three-quarter to two hours. Leave in pan to cool.

How To Revive Shellac Finishes

If your shellacked furniture is foggy, faded or scratched, you can revive the finish with paraffin oil and white shellac. Miss Gena Thames, extension home furnishings specialist of Rutgers University, offers these directions:

Remove any wax from the surface with gum turpentine and a coarse cloth.

Mix together 2 parts of paraffin oil (available at filling stations and drug stores) and 1 part of white shellac. Be sure that shellac is fresh.

Applying with a coarse cloth is usually adequate. However, on neglected pieces—use 3-0 steel wool and rub gently with the grain, protecting with masking or adhesive tape sections where the grain runs in another direction. Wipe surface with a dry cloth.

Mix only enough to use. Do not attempt to store shellac or a mixture with shellac in its old shellac remains sticky and will not dry.

How to keep screwdriver blades from slipping when heavy pressure is applied? One simple way is to rub ordinary blackboard chalk on the tip of the blade beforehand.

Low Calorie Salad Sauce

Most salad dressings are high in calorie content but here is a recipe suggested by Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, Union County Home Agent, that has only 25 calories per tablespoon. It is also economical, costing only five to eight cents per cup. It is easy to prepare.

TOMATO JUICE DRESSING

2 to 4 tablespoons salad oil
1/2 cup tomato juice
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon grated onion
Combine all ingredients. Beat well with egg beater until blended or shake well in covered jar. Yield: about 1 cup.

Tree Protection

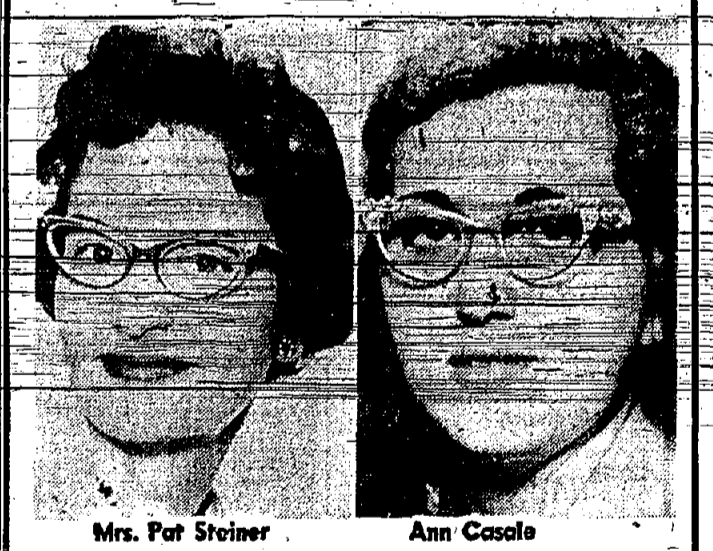

If tree limbs are split in a wind storm, do not grab hold of them and pull them from the tree. If you do, you may pull off a long strip of bark from the main trunk and thus permanently disfigure the tree. Cut limbs off evenly with a saw. If dangerously high from the ground let a tree expert do the work. He will doctor the tree.

Felt-tipped marking pens, obtainable at art supply stores and stationery shops, are very useful for marking on almost any surface, including hard-to-mark metal, glass and plastic.

Reflected Heat
Get more heat from your radiators by slipping a sheet of aluminum foil behind them.

Ringin' In Nutrition

The worst noise in the world? Quite a few million Americans—men, women and children—would agree that it's the sound of an alarm clock blowing its top any time from 5 to 9 a.m.

Fruit or fruit juice, cereal, milk or coffee and several slices of bread or toast. Eggs, bacon or other meats should be included several times a week.

So far as breakfast is concerned, time is of the essence for the average family. One of the main reasons why so many workers and children do not have an adequate breakfast is that they do not have sufficient time to eat and enjoy it.

You may moan and groan the first few days when you have to get up and shut off the alarm a half-hour earlier, but in a short time you'll naturally be hale, hearty and have a healthier appetite. And your family will owe a vote of thanks to Levi.

Not even the Russians will claim credit for inventing this ticking, clanging, metallic-gonging noise so far they have not disputed the fact that Levi Hutchins, a Yankee from Concord, Mass., invented the alarm clock back in 1787.

But Levi's invention is a definite nutritional aid. It gets the family up in time to enjoy a good breakfast. And nutritionists, whose clocks seem to be accurate, say that breakfast is the most neglected meal of the day. It should supply one-fourth to one-third of the body's daily requirements for protein, minerals, vitamins and calories.

According to authorities in the nutrition field, you're apt to be gummy, tired and less efficient during the day if you don't eat a good breakfast. A basic breakfast, they say, should consist of

Bathroom Safety
In remodeling bathroom, don't overlook such safety factors as grab bars for bathtubs and showers, non-skid finishes for flooring, light switches preferably located outside the bathroom.

Handling Tubing
To clamp this wall pipe or tubing in a vise without crushing or scratching it, wrap the tubing with several steel wool pads before inserting in the vise. This gives a slip-proof grip and avoids damage to the tubing.

Good Coffee Easy To Fix

Nowadays, it seems, Etiquette with a capital E is much more flexible than it used to be and even our most formal parties are considerably more relaxed. However, there are some manners that always need minding. For instance, coffee should be served hot, freshly made and strong when you're entertaining.

Even though you've been making coffee for years, it's possible that you've never really known some of the finer points of proper brewing. They're really quite simple. First of all, start with a clean coffee maker, fresh coffee of the proper grind and fresh-cold water. For average-strength coffee, use one Standard Coffee Measure (or 2 level measuring tablespoons) of coffee to each 3/4 of a measuring cup (6 ounces) of water. If you want coffee a bit on the weaker side, dilute with water after brewing.

Always be consistent in brewing time: Percolate gently no more than 8 minutes; for a Vacuum coffee maker, stir and hold in upper bowl no more than 3 minutes; or for Drip, boiling water should go through the coffee in 4 to 6 minutes. Always use at least 1/4 capacity of your coffee maker and serve the coffee at once. Brewing too long (or boiling) makes your coffee bitter.

Serving Weak Coffee Is Always A Breach Of Etiquette

NO matter how "proper" your party may be, it won't be successful unless the coffee is hot, freshly made and inspiringly strong.

A Pressing Ham Aids Homemaker

Pressing equipment is invaluable to the homemaker, says Carolyn Yukus, Associate Home Agent. Along with the steam iron, the most helpful pressing aid is a tailors ham. It is so called because it looks somewhat like a ham. In this shape, it provides a curved pressing surface necessary to mold a garment to fit the figure. It is used mainly for pressing darts, lapels, collars, sleeves and curved seams.

If you can't buy a tailors ham or cushion, you can easily make one. The time spent in making this pressing aid will be well spent by achieving better looking garments. Make your tailor's ham of pre-shrunk cotton drill, ducking or canvas. Or, use a combination of cotton drill for one side and a closely woven wool for the other.

If you do a lot of sewing on wool, you would use the wool covered side of the pressing cushion when pressing. It absorbs the moisture of steam pressing, so that the nap is not flattened and a shine or mark appears.

Cut two pieces of the fabric chosen for the outside surface. These should be 17 inches long and 11 inches wide. Taper one end and round the other of both pieces to look like an egg or ham.

Double stitch the two pieces together, except for about a four-inch opening at the rounded end. Trim the seam to one quarter inch and clip the curve all around.

Turn right side out and stuff firmly with dry sawdust or coarse sand. You can also stuff the cushion with wool clippings from old suits, coats or sweaters.

Pack the filling lightly and keep the sides slightly curved. The tailors ham should be stuffed until it feels hard and firm.

Fish Can Provide Variety, Nutrients

Fish provides high quality protein for building and repairing body tissues. One serving of fish has as much protein as an equal serving of meat. Fish also contains vitamins and minerals needed for strong muscles and bones. Add variety to your meals by using canned fish, suggests Edith Mae Ingalls, Assistant Home Agent. Try this recipe.

TOMATO FISH LOAF

2 cups flaked-cooked fish or 14 oz. can
1 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
3/4 cup cooked or canned tomatoes
2 eggs-beaten
2 tablespoons melted fat
1 tablespoon minced onion
1/2 teaspoon savory seasoning
Salt and pepper to taste
Combine all ingredients, pack into greased loaf pan. Bake at 350° F until firm-about 45 minutes. Serves 6. Here's another that makes a delicious main course.

FISH-CHEESE SHORTCAKE

2 (1 1/2) tablespoons chopped onion
4 tablespoons fat
2 cups milk
1/2 cup grated cheese
1 1/2 cups flaked cooked or canned fish (14 oz.)
Salt and pepper to taste
Hot biscuits or corn bread

Cook onion slowly in the fat until tender. Blend in the flour. Add milk slowly, stirring constantly, and cook until the sauce is thickened. Add cheese and fish. Season with salt and pepper. Heat the mixture through, stirring occasionally. Serve on hot biscuits or corn bread. Serves 4. Note: This mixture can be put in greased casserole-topped with biscuits; bake at 375° for 15-20 minutes.

The first census to include the deaf, dumb and blind was taken in 1830. Total population that year was 12,866,020 in 48 states.

REPORT TO THE PEOPLE FROM YOUR CONGRESSWOMAN

FLORENCE P. DWYER

...been paid to it in the press, but a lengthy investigation by our Veterans Affairs Committee here may produce results of great benefit to veterans generally.

For several weeks now, the Committee has been looking long and hard at the multiple, and sometimes devious, means which have been devised to separate citizens from their dimes, quarters, and dollars — all for the sometimes undefined purpose of "helping the veteran."

Much of this fund-raising activity is not only legitimate but eminently worthwhile. Established veterans groups, locally and nationally, require financial support for the many charitable, self-help and civic-minded programs they operate. The results have been demonstrably valuable year after year.

Quite obviously, these activities have not been the target of our investigation. Rather, we have been seeking answers to two bothersome questions:

How many fly-by-night organizations have been flitting about the fringes of respectability, claiming veteran's status, and so announced purpose, among others, of helping handicapped veterans to obtain employment.

But NAVEC was in hot water with other veterans' groups and government agencies almost from the start. Rather than a membership association, it operated with a self-perpetuating board dominated by one individual. At the same time, it was a highly questionable contract with a Chicago fund-raising organization which is now under indictment for mail fraud. This was the source of most of its mailing lists, by means of which NAVEC mailed half-point pens to established donor lists, with requests that the pen be kept and $1.00 remitted to help handicapped veterans, the solicitation said.

Repeatedly, NAVEC attempted to claim or imply it had endorsements from prominent public officials, private organizations and government agencies — many of which publicly disclaimed any association and charged NAVEC with deception.

For a time, it even operated as a charitable, tax-exempt organization, though the Internal Revenue Service has since denied any tax-exempt status. NAVEC's tax liability is now estimated at $104,000.

Despite this record, NAVEC had considerable success, or rather, its promoters enjoyed the success, in little more than two years it raised about $3,130,000.00, much of which went for exorbitant travel, unauthorized expenditures, unsupported payments, and extravagantly unwise purchases.

As for handicapped veterans — our Committee investigated every claim of employment assistance submitted by NAVEC and has been able to verify only 188 cases.

Of these, nearly half were temporary, part-time employees of NAVEC itself.

To me, however, the most brazen thing about this whole operation was the bold proposition made to the Committee by NAVEC's chief promoter that NAVEC would dissolve itself — and this was implicit in the deal — if the Committee would drop its case against them.

Such is the way some men convince themselves with their own words.

Needless to say, the Committee would have no part of such a proposal.

We will, I expect, find many more variations of the same fundamentally dishonest purposes and methods as were involved in the case of NAVEC. This information will be important to us in our effort to determine what if any legislation should be enacted to protect the public and the honest veterans' organizations from this kind of disreputable exploitation.

You may recall, in this respect, the report last month of the N.J. Legislature's Charitable and Philanthropic Fund-raising Study Commission, which recommended a nation-wide study of such aspects as mail solicitations and the possibility of licensing such activities.

For these reasons, I would welcome from any of you — veterans and non-veterans, organizations and individuals — your thoughts and ideas and especially your own experiences with fund-raising activities.

I should like to know, for example, your views on what kind of fund-raising methods are ethical; what kinds are objectionable; and why; how large a percentage of the funds raised should be used directly for veterans' purposes; how much information has the public a right to expect about the amount and uses of this money.

We all have a large stake in honest fund-raising. We, the general public, want assurance that our money will be put to good use. You, veterans and veterans' organizations, have a wonderful reputation to protect and some excellent work on behalf of the needy to advance.

Those unscrupulous few who feed on America's generosity to good causes, hurt us all. It is in all our best interests to stop them.

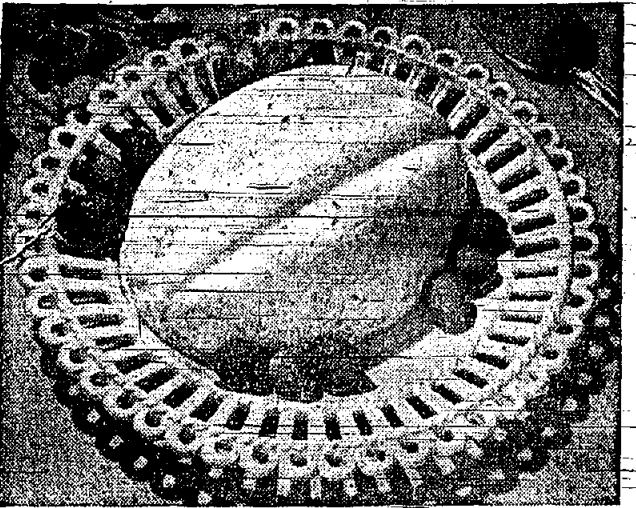

As you read this, Congress will be in the middle of its annual Easter recess — that 10-day period when most of us try to get back home and find out what you think about things. I plan to be doing a lot of asking and listening during that time, and return to Washington with a better idea of where we want to go in this time of recession, space exploration, and nuclear stalemate.

The problems are immense, granted, but we can't avoid them. Not that is, if freedom and democracy are still worth struggling for. And this struggle means responsibility, unselfishness, hard work, qualities which will be much in demand when Congress comes back to face such problems as: aid to education, reciprocal trade extension, anti-recession programs, foreign aid, the defense budget, reorganization of the Defense Department, revision of Federal election laws, regulation of certain labor union activities, and a hundred others.

To the degree that Congress succeeds in acting wisely and responsibly, your own wisdom, restraint, and good sense will have accomplished it.

Banana Marshmallow Fluff

Are you stumped for just the right dessert to act as an appropriate finale for that heavy meal?

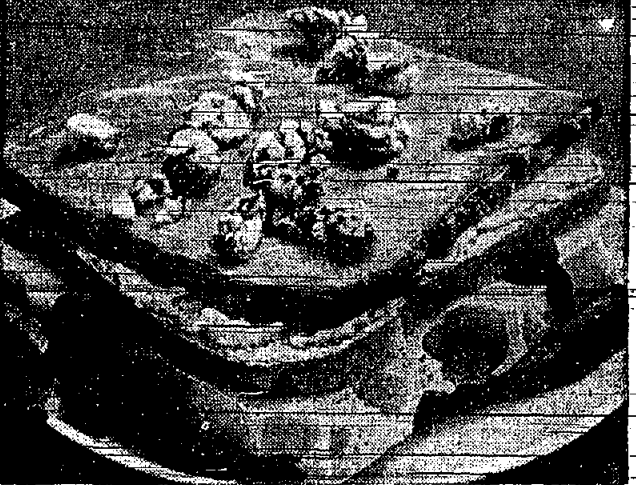

Why not serve Banana Marshmallow Fluff? It's a light, chilled, melt-in-your-mouth dessert that can easily be molded into a variety of shapes, depending on you.

Marshmallows give that just-right sweetness and oleo banana, a delicate, tropical flavor to this airy dessert. Chilled evaporated milk, a food that's economical for so many frozen desserts and other cooking uses, lends that velvety smoothness.

A part of the evaporated milk that goes into this delightful dessert is poured right from the can. Part is whipped before being folded in.

You'll reap heaps of compliments when you serve delectable Banana Marshmallow Fluff.

- BANANA MARSHMALLOW FLUFF
- 45 servings
 - 4 cup melon mold
 - 32 marshmallows (1/2 pound)
 - 1/2 cup evaporated milk
 - 3/4 cup water
 - 1/2 cup finely chopped pecans
 - 1 banana, sliced
 - 3/4 cup evaporated milk chilled in cold
 - 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- Combine marshmallows, the 1/2 cup evaporated milk, and water in a saucepan. Stir over very low heat until the marshmallows are dissolved. Cool and add nuts and banana. Whip the 3/4 cup evaporated milk with a chilled beater in a chilled bowl until stiff. Add lemon juice. Fold into the banana mixture. Pour into an oiled 4 cup melon mold and chill in the refrigerator until set. Unmold and garnish with bananas or fresh strawberries if desired.

GIRL SCOUT CORNER

Troop 744—Leader, Mrs. Lewis Gash; co-leader, Mrs. H. Enz. The girls have been kept busy fixing baskets and gifts for the patients at the Bonnie Burns Sanatorium. They filled paper cups with candy and then wrapped them in cellophane and tied them with ribbons. These cups were placed in two large Easter baskets. They gift-wrapped Golden Books, Children's Digests, combs, hair ribbons, baby booties, games, etc. These gifts filled a crepe paper decorated bushel basket. Mrs. Gash and Mrs. Enz delivered the baskets to the Sanatorium on Friday, Yesterday, April 9. The girls were the luncheon guests of Mrs. Enz at the Sip & Sup Restaurant and then enjoyed the Holiday Theatre performance of "Peter and the Wolf" at the ballet in Newark.

Troop 739—Leader, Mrs. Joseph Leonardi; co-leader, Mrs. Anthony Cicconi. Troop 747—Leader, Mrs. Philio Del Vecchio; co-leader, Mrs. D. Kaufhold. These two troops will spend today, April 10, at the Bronx Zoo. The girls will be accompanied by Mrs. Leonardi, Mrs. Cicconi and Mrs. K. Abrahamson from Troop 739 and Mrs. Kaufhold, Mrs. S. Mazur, Mrs. Herbert Callahan and Mrs. Frank Karwoski from Troop 747.

Troop 743—Leader, Mrs. Whitfield Cox; co-leader, Mrs. Edward Kent and Mrs. William Van Vranken. The younger girls in this troop are making inside balls from wool. The balls will be given to a Children's Home. The older girls will begin working on puppets at the meeting next week, Wednesday, April 16 at the James Caldwell School. The puppets will be used by the girls for a show in the future.

Troop 867—Leader, Mrs. Bruce Evans; co-leader, Mrs. T. A. Herman. The girls have learned to make the square knot and the clove hitch. They made samples of these knots on paper and put them in their Brownie Diary. To know these knots is a Brownie requirement. On March 27 the girls were happy to visit the Minnare Village on Evergreen avenue. Betty Herman celebrated her birthday at the meeting on April 3 and treated her Brownie friends to birthday cupcakes and ice cream pops.
