

THIS WEEK

COUNTING DOWN FOR THE LAUNCHING

Show us an aggressive, hard base running and table pounding Chamber of Commerce and we will show you a pretty good community.

Give us an active group with a membership representation that is a cross section of the entire community—business, industry and professional—and we will show you a successful town.

Springfield is especially fortunate in having a Chamber of Commerce, poised and ready on the launching pad, with some of the Township's leaders taking a genuine interest. These men are not lending their names for window dressing; they're doing actual work in behalf of a rejuvenated Chamber of Commerce. We're all keeping our fingers crossed in hopes that nothing happens to interfere with the momentum of this new force in Springfield.

The Chamber of Commerce in Springfield is no longer a limp organization with no target, no objective, no real program and very little reason to continue existing. Younger blood—more vision—more energy have taken over the organization and these new Chamber of Commerce leaders mean to do something about Springfield.

When you have men like Bob Davidson, general manager of the local J. J. Newberry organization, accepting responsibilities as the head of one of the committees, Springfield can rest assured that something will be done to help business in the Township.

When you can interest such men as Lawrence J. Rogers, general manager of Saks Fifth Avenue; John A. Schable, Jr., of Schable Oil Company; Arthur H. Smith, Jr., manager of the local branch of the National State Bank of Elizabeth; Carl Jehlen, manager of the Baltusrol Golf Club; A. W. Morrison, of Andrew Wilson Co.; Jack H. Stiefman, a local C.P.A.; and a large list of others who have enlisted and are making themselves available, the Chamber of Commerce can't help succeeding.

Many of the former Chamber of Commerce members, old timers and recent workers, are still keeping up their interest in "boasting Springfield" and this new upsurge should get the show on the road.

Credit for the "new Chamber of Commerce look" goes to Donald S. Lenny, who has taken over the job as president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Lenny comes to this job with much "know how" since it was he who has managed the local Channel Lumber operation on Route 22 since it opened. He knows how to organize, how to delegate duties and have the work done. And he also has the advantage of getting constructive ideas, sound advice and personal interest of such experienced and successful men as named above.

WHAT'S NEW WITH CHARTER STUDY?

This is not in the nature of criticism—but shouldn't the voters of Springfield have some preliminary report on what progress has been made by the Charter Study?

Members of the Charter Commission are devoting considerable time and effort to the matter but the residents have, as yet, had no idea on what has been considered as a proposed change in local government.

Perhaps, the Charter Commission has no change recommendation to make but the rumors have it that a definite new form of government is to be proposed. Students of the Charter Study maintain that a preliminary is being prepared for the public and will be made available to the voters before the final and formal plan is submitted.

OUR NATION OF SKIP READERS

When newspapers held a convention recently a main speaker remarked that America is becoming a nation of "skimmers."

But our habit of skimming over involves a great deal more than newspapers, we are inclined to believe. We are perhaps skimming over life too... touching no more than the paper the gift is wrapped in.

It is too much easier to turn on a television set or radio and have our daily dose of knowledge (such as it is) and entertainment spoon fed to us than it is to take time out to read a worthwhile book, to meet and talk with people who have something worthwhile to offer, to think things out for ourselves... too much easier to let someone else dish out their version of the truth and accept it rather than search for it ourselves.

It is much easier to let someone else run our governments, our schools, our communities regardless of how well or how poorly they are doing it while we sit at home and indulge in our own amusements... and certainly it is much easier to let someone else attend the PTA and school board and city council meetings and public hearings, and push civic endeavors and fight for the lower taxes and government economies... leaving us free mainly to gripe about

Boy Asks President's Help To Ride His Bike To School

Dana Henowitz, 7 year old first grader at the Edward Walton School, evidently doesn't read the newspapers very much and isn't seriously concerned with how busy President Eisenhower is. The youngster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron-Henowitz of 173 Lelak, has been wanting to ride his bike to school but his parents and the local school authorities always point to the rules which permitted only students, starting with the third grade and up, to take his wheel to school.

Dana insisted that this ruling was an invasion of his personal freedom and rights and, with the cooperation of his brother, Mark, nine years of age and a fourth grader at the Walton School, decided to do something about it. Dana dictated a letter to President Eisenhower at the White House and brother Mark pecked it out on the typewriter with one finger. They mailed the letter to President Eisenhower.

Dana and Mark waited daily for a company of Marines or a squadron of jets to hit Springfield and demand that the seven year old schoolboy be permitted to live his life as a free man and ride his bike, if he wants to, to and from the Walton School.

A few days ago Dana received a letter from Washington which doesn't change the rules about riding

ing a bike to school but he's happy anyway that his letter was of sufficient interest at least to take President Eisenhower's attention away from recession, Foreign Policy and the missile program. Here is the letter:

Department of Health Education & Welfare
Office of Education
Washington, D.C.
May 2

Dana Henowitz
173 Lelak Avenue
Dear Dana:

Your letter to the President about riding your bike to school has been sent to me. The President is a very busy man, so I am writing to you instead. You write very well and I am sure that you do good work in school.

We all should try to understand that the principal and the teachers know best what is safe for the children in a school. They think of all the girls and boys and then they do what they think is wise. They have the right to do this. No one in Washington may tell the school people in the towns and in the states what rules to make for the children in their school. You believe this is right, I am sure.

With best wishes to you.

ANOTHER WORTHY CAUSE—Dr. Richard H. Roberts, President of the Union County Association for Mental Health, receiving a proclamation at the State House from Governor Robert E. Meyner proclaiming the month of May as Mental Health Month.

Mental Health Group In Favor Of United Fund

The Union County Association For Mental Health, through Dr. Richard H. Roberts, the County President, and Vincent J. Bonadies, Springfield Fund Chairman, this week announced that their organization favored a united campaign for the Township.

The offer to assist any plan for a single fund drive instead of the separate campaigns now being used in Springfield came in a letter addressed to the Springfield Sun which follows:

Thanks to your paper's cooperation. Your readers are well aware of the current fund drive being conducted by The Union County Association for Mental Health and the financial need in the areas of education, services and research in mental illness. Sixty percent of what we raise will remain in Union County; the remainder going to the state and national organization of which we are a part.

But this letter is not just a plea for continued support of our drive. It is to state our attitude on the problem of the great number of separate fund drives versus a United Fund.

Our organization, unlike certain other national health groups, can and does participate in united campaigns and in fact we will do all in our power to assist the United Fund should one be established in Springfield. Cooperation is always good for mental health.

Union County Association for Mental Health

Local Teacher Rises To Defense Of Linden Avenue

The following letter to the editor was one of several comments made about last week's article in the SUN telling of the absence of juvenile delinquency in Springfield.

School officials were a little flustered by the "12 out of 600" figure applied to potential trouble makers at the Florence Gaudineer School. They feel the actual figure is nearer "6 out of 600" and they rather object to the use of figures at all.

School officials also felt that candy stores were given a bad name when the article said that the children seen "hanging around soda fountains downtown." The Board of Education does not wish to impugn the morality of the ice cream soda.

To the Editor:

I was very impressed with the fine account of Springfield youth in last week's paper. I have a deep respect for those who told about our youth. However, I would like to be enlightened as to the person, I as a resident of Linden Ave., should thank for the publicity given this street. This dubious honor was extended to no other street. In the entire lengthy article not one

Official Highway Map Due Before Hearings

Bulldozers Whoa-Ho-Ho And Where Do We Go-Go-

No group is in a position to be more upset by the uncertainty surrounding the alignment of Route 102 than the Twin Brooks Civic Association centered in the area most likely to be hit.

The president of the group, Robert D. Hardgrave, expressed his unhappiness in a letter to the editor of the SUN, quoted. The headline above is also his suggestion, an apt expression of frustration in the vernacular.

The articles in recent issues of the "Springfield Sun" about "Ho" and "Whoa" concerning the proposed new highway Route No. 102 have been very interesting to read. Comments by the township officials also have made very nice copy. We are grateful to the "Springfield Sun" for initiating and continuing to furnish information on the highway situation.

The members of the Twin Brooks Civic Association regard the highway, as proposed, as a real and definite threat to the way of life of the people in this area. We have tried to accomplish results in determining the position of the route so that plans of the individual home owner might be made accordingly. By pooling our efforts with other interested organizations in town, a citizens' council was formed. From this large representative group, a Mayor's Highway Committee was selected, at the request of Mayor Binder, to work with him so that an honest effort might be made to pick the best route in regard to Springfield as a whole.

Results of logical and reasonable pursuit along these lines have led to nothing. Since its formation at the beginning of the year, the Mayor's Highway Committee has never been summoned.

Now, with the publicity given to the highway, it seems that the position of the residents of the Twin Brooks area is like that of a football. On one hand, we are subjected to bulldozers ripping our area up immediately; and on the other hand, there is an attitude of "Shhh, be quiet or requisia in pace—rest in peace." We, of this area, are now indignant as to how we are thought of as members of this fine community; and we would like the answers to many obvious questions, a few of which are listed below:

If the Mayor, the Township Engineer, and the "Springfield Sun" do not agree as to the proposed route, where is it going?

Democrats To Hear Williams Monday Night

Harrison A. Williams, Jr., Democratic candidate for United States Senator, is scheduled to address members of the Springfield Democratic Club at a meeting to be held Monday, May 12, at 8 p.m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars building. The VFW headquarters is located on Morrison Road just off Morris Avenue, in the rear of the Post Office.

As a native of Newark, Dr. Holloway holds an A.B. degree from Western Maryland College and a B.D. degree from Drew Seminary. He also holds honorary degrees from Baldwin-Wallace College, Kansas Wesleyan University, and Dickinson College.

Dr. Holloway is a past president of the National Association of Schools and Colleges of The Methodist Church and is a member of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church. He also is a member of the National Council of Churches, a trustee of the Pennington (New Jersey) Prep School and of the Methodist Hospital of Brooklyn.

Legion Asks For Poppy Volunteers

A call for volunteers for service on Poppy Day has been issued by Mrs. Joseph Colletto, President of Springfield Unit 228 of the American Legion Auxiliary. A large corps of volunteer workers is needed to distribute memorial poppies throughout the town on Poppy Day when the nation's war dead will be honored by the wearing of the little red flowers.

"This year, when grave dangers face our nation," said Mrs. Colletto, "we all need the patriotic inspiration of wearing a memorial poppy, the symbol of sacrifice made by so many Americans that our country might remain free. The Auxiliary hopes to have enough volunteers so that poppies can be offered to everyone in town."

Poppy Day will be observed here on May 23 and 24. Women and girls of Unit 228, wishing to volunteer to distribute poppies all or part of that day should contact Mrs. Edwin J. Schnell Sr., Auxiliary Poppy Chairman, at DRexel 9-5775.

Missing Bloodhound

Anyone see a thorned bloodhound? Mrs. William Brodhead of 58 Clinton Avenue has reported that her prize three-year-old tan bloodhound has been missing from his usual haunts around Clinton Avenue. Mrs. Brodhead has asked "Duffly" will be appreciated. A reward is being offered.

As the date for the public hearing on the alignment of Route 102 through Springfield draws near, the State Highway Department revealed that an official map will be published 15 days prior to the hearing.

The official estimate on April 24 was that the hearing would be held in "four to six weeks." That means that Springfield can expect to see such a map within 15 days.

A spokesman for the Highway Department told the SUN that the published map will show the "general route" of the highway through Springfield and that the map at the hearing itself will show "the alignment to a relatively fine degree."

When questioned on this point, the spokesman (it is against Highway Department policy to allow anyone but Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer to be quoted directly) said that the hearing map would be specific enough to tell homeowners if their property is "entirely clear or possibly involved." He explained further that it would not be accurate enough to show whether the highway will "hit one rose bush and miss an apple tree."

He said that it will be possible for months after the hearing to change the course of the roadway "5 or 10 feet" for engineering purposes.

TIME TABLE

The representative of the Highway Department outlined the probable schedule of events in the building of the interstate highway through Springfield.

New Jersey has submitted a rough "schematic" to the Federal Government on the route of F.A.I. Route 102. With approval from Washington, Trenton is now holding public hearings on sections of the highway. Washington must again approve the route after reading the transcript of the hearings.

It will then take 3 to 6 months for the State to prepare the "right-of-way plans" which pinpoint the properties to be bought.

The funds for the highway were all approved in 1956 Federal legislation and the schedule will not be accelerated by "anti-recession" funds voted this year.

Construction is already underway on Route 102 between Still Valley and Bloomsbury and on the Clinton bypass.

NO NEWS

The Springfield SUN in numerous phone calls to Trenton last week also collected a large number of "Don't know's" to questions.

Don't know when construction would start in Springfield.

Don't know anything about intersections.

Don't know when the public hearings will actually begin.

Don't know when chief engineer Fritzsche will return to his office.

Don't know how wide the highway will be.

Don't know any specifics about where the highway will go.

However, this last was qualified with a suggestion that made it clear that actually the route is down in black and white on engineer drawing boards.

The SUN told a spokesman in Trenton of the plight of one Springfield couple who couldn't accept a job in California because they couldn't sell their home which lay in the path of the highway. He said that the couple should write the Highway Department describing exactly where their property is. He went on to say that the Department would assure the couple whether the highway would hit them or not.

So it appears that the route has been determined and is just waiting the public hearing to be revealed.

Hit Runyon Show Staged By Local Guys and Dolls

The Dramatic Workshop of Temple Beth Ahm presented "Guys and Dolls" before two jam packed houses at the Regional High School Auditorium Saturday and Sunday nights. This time, the production was a very definite artistic and financial success.

The above opening paragraphs especially catching the attention of the audience before and during the entire cast into a professional unit. The most noticeable feature of the production was the building and painting of scenery, the lighting, the placing of microphones, the notes, the love scenes, the acting, the comedy, the menu for lunches, and every personal and professional move made during the rehearsals and presentation of the musical fable of Broadway.

It would be difficult to point to any particular star of the show but Jack Silverman's portrayal of Nicely-Nicely Johnson, one of Runyon's typical characters, needed even take second place to Stubby Kaye's performance with the original Broadway company.

Dr. Saul Gladstone was sensational as Benny Southstreet, giving such a professional performance that many in the audience are still not convinced that he is a Springfield resident and practicing dentist as his profession.

The part of Nathan Detroit, made famous in the original Broadway presentation by Sam Levene, was given pro handling by Paul Weisman. Harriet Harrison, as Sarah Brown, the Salvation Army lass, and Corinne Klein, as Miss Adelaide, the nightclub gal who carries a torch for Nathan Detroit, gave perfect performances. Alan Krause, as SKY Masterson, was in very good voice throughout and Raymond Kravetz, Big Jule was tailored for that very amusing part.

Director Chergotis real display of his talent came in perfecting the dancing routines, the com-was not the response of a "pardon our yawn" clause.

The director of the two night stand, George Chergotis, must be a genuine genius because he took an enthusiastic group of people, most of whom had never faced an audience before and within the first few days had them performing as a very definite artistic and financial success.

The above opening paragraphs especially catching the attention of the audience before and during the entire cast into a professional unit. The most noticeable feature of the production was the building and painting of scenery, the lighting, the placing of microphones, the notes, the love scenes, the acting, the comedy, the menu for lunches, and every personal and professional move made during the rehearsals and presentation of the musical fable of Broadway.

And they made it the hard way—building and painting all the scenery sets—handling the lighting effects—shifting the many scenes—projecting every voice, dialogue and singing note through a hi-fidelity system—and doing all the interesting Runyon characters, as professionally as Broadway. This is like praise from Caesar. The applause greeting each number, each situation, each bit of typical Runyonese was genuine and

Charles Ruby, Former Mayor, Dies at 86

Former Mayor Charles H. Ruby of 90 Mountain Avenue died last Thursday of a long illness at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jessie Widmer of 403 Grove Street, Westfield, where he had been living since he underwent an operation last summer. He was 86. Born in Jersey City, Mr. Ruby moved to Springfield 52 years ago. He was a construction contractor for many years. He was a member of the Board of Education from 1908 until his election to the Township Committee in 1914. He served on the committee for nine years, first as fire commissioner and then as mayor from 1918 until he retired from office in 1922. The new town hall was completed during his last years as mayor. Mr. Ruby joined the volunteer fire department in 1937 and remained active for many years. He was the first man to join the department after it received its charter in 1935. He also leaves two sons, Edward J., Springfield recreation director, and Charles W. of Greenvillage, another daughter, Mrs. Emma Morrison of Springfield, four grandchildren and two great grandchildren. The funeral was held last Saturday at 2 p.m. in Smith & Smith Suburban, 415 Morris Avenue.

Baltusrol Dinner Dance On May 25

Bernard Shapiro social chairman of The Baltusrol Civic Association announces that the annual Dinner Dance of the group will be held on Sunday Evening, May 28th at the Chiam Chateau, Mountain side. Selection of the supper club was made because of its excellent facilities and the pleasant evening had there by the Group last year. The occasion is a yearly event with Baltusrol and has always proved a social success. Limited reservations are available and can be made by calling the following: Nat Hart DR 9-2435, Bernie Shapiro, DR 6-0837 or Iz Yablonsky DR 9-2436.

Two Day Retreat This Weekend

Members of the Westminster Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church will attend a two day retreat at Island Heights, New Jersey. The group will leave by charter bus at 6:30 p.m. Friday and return after supper Saturday. The group will be accompanied by several adults of the church. The total attending 65. The purpose of this retreat is to have fun and fellowship together and also to plan for a better year next Fall.

League Sets Higher Educational Unit

The Springfield League of Women Voters will hold a Higher Education Unit meeting on Tuesday, May 13, 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. S. Miller, 114 Jefferson Terrace. The State and local Leagues have arrived at the decision that there is an urgent need to expand public higher educational facilities in New Jersey. Among the topics under discussion at the Springfield unit meeting are possible methods of financing this expansion. Mrs. J. Seidel is unit chairman. Other participating committee members are: Mesdms: Beno, Leventhal, Miller, Murray and Shrensel. A good League turnout is anticipated; refreshments will follow the discussion period.

Ready Fireworks Rises to Defense For 4th Of July

The Springfield July 4th Committee Inc. is a volunteer group representing most Springfield civic groups, organized for the sole purpose of providing our township with a safe holiday at home. Lon Pignolet has been elected General Chairman, succeeding Steve Schmidt Jr., who has served for the past two years. Mr. Pignolet announces this year's celebration will include a baby parade, competitive games for youngsters and adults, a watermelon eating contest, free rides for the kiddies, a championship ball game, and evening entertainment with a spectacular fireworks display. The Committee extends an invitation to all interested persons, as well as representatives of local organizations. The committee hopes the constructive suggestions mentioned the "day after" will be made available to them beforehand. Watch the Springfield Sun for more details.

 name or street was mentioned. Therefore, would like to know the purpose behind this, or was it just an editorial slip. I am proud to reside on Linden Ave., where it is obvious that people take pride in their homes and children. Having lived here 16 years, I think I can say our children are as fine as any other street, and like any other street there is always a bad apple or two. If it is necessary to the story to tell certain specific incidents, tell them. But no purpose is served when a particular street is singled out, unless you are also prepared to give the exact house number. In that way those who do try to behave themselves will not be eyed suspiciously by others just because they happen to reside on that street. I trust your future articles will be as encouraging as last weeks with this one exception. Thoughtfully, MRS. EDWARD FRANCIS, 113 Linden Avenue, Springfield, N.J.

 "How Do Our Children Learn to Read?" will be the topic of Mrs. Edna D. Sall's talk at the meeting of the P.T.A. on Monday, May 19 at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Sall is chairman of curriculum for early childhood education at the Newark State Teachers College.

Mrs. Sall's talk puts the parents in the place of the child learning to read, which she demonstrates by use of symbol cards. She has had wide experience as a teacher, lecturer, and author.

The Executive Board will meet Monday, May 12 at 8:15 p.m. at Gaudineer School. Mrs. Christensen requests that all board members bring their final reports and procedure books.

Philip Lewis has been appointed representative to the Citizen's Advisory Committee. He replaces Walter Baldwin who has resigned.

The Pre-School Census Committee, chaired by Mrs. Arthur Buchner, has been busy tallying the future school population. Committee workers include the Mesdames Barry Baron, Sol Braverman, John Brink, Samuel Caruso, Niles Christensen, Gene Consales, W. Most of the ladies in the dance routines had never gone beyond the introductory offer of Arthur Murray's but they kicked and kicked and kicked like winners. Behind the scenes were such ardent workers as Rose Lester who was the Rogers and Hammerstein of the show, handling all the headaches as production manager. Ephraim Weinger doubled in brass by not only performing a sensational job as publicity director but he lost his amateur standing by doing a bit as a waiter in the Hot Box nightclub. Even Orta Granick who had responsibilities as the stage manager, stepped out to assist the walk on part.

Runyon Show

 Many singing, the musclemen and the various company bits, all of which brought quick response from the appreciative audiences. Most of the ladies in the dance routines had never gone beyond the introductory offer of Arthur Murray's but they kicked and kicked and kicked like winners. Behind the scenes were such ardent workers as Rose Lester who was the Rogers and Hammerstein of the show, handling all the headaches as production manager. Ephraim Weinger doubled in brass by not only performing a sensational job as publicity director but he lost his amateur standing by doing a bit as a waiter in the Hot Box nightclub. Even Orta Granick who had responsibilities as the stage manager, stepped out to assist the walk on part.

Reports have it that it was a huge financial success. Requests from other organizations in this area have been received asking the local thespians to consider staging the same show in South Orange and Bloomfield. (S.O.S.)

The case of the crumpled letter!

- 1 The desk where Mr. Nelson opened his bills and wrote a letter to the electric company, protesting against their advertising that electricity gives more value for every dollar than any other item in the family budget.
- 2 Where Mr. Nelson looked at the electric clock to see if he had time to mail his letter before dinner.
- 3 The hi-fi set he turned off as he left the room.
- 4 Where Mr. N. paused to check the furnace thermostat and turn on the porch light to guide the dinner guests.
- 5 His daughter's bedroom where he watched her drying her hair with the electric hair dryer and admired the dress she had just ironed for her date.
- 6 The TV, with Junior deep in "Masked Riders of the Range."
- 7 The electric coffeemaker and the toaster, ready to do dinner duty.
- 8 The all-electric kitchen, where dinner was cooking and Mrs. Nelson was taking ice cubes from the refrigerator—and where the electric dishwasher and clothes washer and dryer were waiting to do the chores ahead.
- 9 The back porch, where Mr. N. paused to think—realizing that his family was putting electricity to work in dozens of ways all over the house... ways he often forgot. So maybe the electric company was right about the value of his service.
- 10 The trash can into which he tossed his crumpled letter.

THE TOWN TALKS

by Bruce Goldstein

Question: Do you think that a United Fund Drive will be successful?

Tim Stewart, 80 Salter Street, Springfield (student): "I feel that the drive will be unsuccessful because the charities won't receive nearly as much money in contributions as soliciting separately."

Mr. Hugh Bennett, 154 Hillside Avenue, Springfield: "The drive would be better than the many drives that we have now."

George Beltzer, 32 Sherwood Road, Springfield (Student): "Because of the insurmountable problem of distribution of funds, the United Fund Drive will be successful only in that it will increase the convenience of the resident."

Mr. D. Monaghan, 29 Irwin St., Springfield: "A United Fund Drive is certainly the best type of drive for this community."

Mr. Hutchinson, 6 Mapes Avenue, Springfield: "I think it will be successful because the drive seemed to work out very well in Newark."

Ernie Giannattasio, 250 Milltown Road, Springfield (Student): "I certainly think a United Fund Drive would be more successful than many of the other smaller drives we have."

Local Accountant Installed As Summit Exchange Club Head

Richard E. Goldfinger, member of the Springfield firm of Stiefelman & Goldfinger, certified public accountant, has been installed as president of the Exchange Club of Summit and New Providence.

The installation services were held at Far Hills Inn, Somerville, with State Exchange Club President Henry T. Stubb and Past State President Robert L. Netchert participating in the program. Former Congressman Harrison A. Williams, Jr., and present Democratic candidate for United States Senate, attended and delivered an address.

Holy Name Sets Communion Meal

The father and son annual Communion Breakfast sponsored by Holy Name Society of St. James Catholic Church will take place on Sunday morning, June 8 following the 8 o'clock mass. Arthur McDevitt of Union is chairman, with Frank Courtney of Springfield as co-chairman. Frank Ott of Union, a Past State Deputy in the Knights of Columbus and a member of the Holy Name Society, will be the Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. McDevitt has announced that the guest speaker for the breakfast will be George D. Leary Jr. of Englewood. He is Past Grand Knight of Carroll Council, Knights of Columbus of Union City and is also Past State Deputy of New Jersey. He is a well known speaker throughout New Jersey for the Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Edward, moderator of the Holy Name Society and Father John Farrell, pastor at St. James will speak briefly. Tickets are being sold after each mass on Sundays.

Cook's Tour Of Jewish Cuisine

"Jewish Cookery As It Reflects Jewish Life," touching on the little known sidelights in the development of Jewish home cooking, will be presented by Miss Edith G. Stoffer of the B. Manischewitz Co., at the Mothers' Day meeting of the Springfield B'nai B'rith Women, Wednesday afternoon, May 14th, 12:45 p.m. at Temple Beth Ahm.

Literally a "Cook's Tour" of Jewish culinary heritage, the program will cover the wide range of influences—geographic, economic, social and religious—which have played a part in the evolution of what we now identify as typical Jewish cooking.

Mothers and mothers-in-law of members will be the guests of B'nai B'rith for the afternoon. Mrs. David Weinstein, President, will preside at a short business meeting preceding the program. Mrs. Ira G. Cohen is vice president in charge of program. Mrs. Morris Milstein is hospitality chairman.

Springfield B'nai B'rith meets the second Wednesday of each month. For further information call Mrs. Louis-Lamberg at DR. 9-5193.

Scholarship To Pat Haggerty

Anne Fogarty To Show Her Fashions In Person At Saks

FASHION SHOW—Above is one of the dresses Anne Fogarty has designed for the collection she is showing at Saks Fifth Avenue, Springfield, this Saturday afternoon. In two tone chartreuse yellow polished cotton, Anne Fogarty uses the darker shade for the top and bottom of this long evening gown, linking the lighter center-section to the others by two tone-matching embroidery. The necklace is of iridescent crystal set in gold. From the accessories collection designed by Anne Fogarty for the Misses size-figure-6 through-14—Exclusively at Saks Fifth Avenue.

Anne Fogarty, the renowned fashion designer, will be at Saks Fifth Avenue, Springfield, this Saturday, May 10, from 1 to 4 p.m. to preside over an informal show of her new Keystone Collection.

Miss Fogarty, who has joined the staff of Saks Fifth Avenue, will have models showing the collection "designed for the young figure" in misses' sizes 6 to 12.

The informal modeling will take place in the Anne Fogarty Room in the Young Elite Shop of the East Wing.

Anne Fogarty is full of honors for previous achievements in the Fashion field. As early as 1950 she was selected by Mademoiselle Magazine as one of ten Young Women of the Year who had dis-

SAKS FIFTH AVE NEWS

Come meet famous ANNE FOGARTY and see an informal modeling of her new collection done exclusively for S.F.A. Saturday, May 10, 1 to 4 P.M. in the Young Elite Shop, East Wing.

Why don't you Anne Fogarty of Saks Fifth Avenue

For a long, long time there has been a dream in the back of my mind. I've wanted to do a collection of dresses for the young figure in sizes 6 to 12—the small-boned woman who prefers the subtle to the obvious. Most of us are not tall, thin models, nor do we want to wear the extreme in fashion. We want simple understated clothes that generate their excitement from purity of line, wonderful fabrics and a youthful outlook. Saks Fifth Avenue offered me the greatest opportunity to realize my dreams. Their thinking coincided exactly with mine, and we are happy to bring you an exclusive collection of dresses, priced from 25.00 to 69.95, for every busy minute of your life.

In order to complete this look, I just had to do some shoes... and some hats... and some lingerie. Now the effect is precisely what I was seeking. I would like so much for you to see the results of my efforts.

TAKING CARE OF YOUR GARDEN
By Edward A. Cardinal
Chairman, Springfield Shrub Tree Commission

This time of year I am swamped with questions about plants that did not survive transplanting. Invariably it is the same story that the plant looked all right when it was bought, it was watered faithfully every day, and plenty of fertilizer was used, but still it died.

What caused this plant to die? Here are some reasons I found while answering complaints. Potted roses mounded up with chemical fertilizer 4" deep. A dogwood planted almost a foot deeper than normal to make it short enough to match another plant. A willow planted in a swampy area to soak up water. A dead peach tree with 5 lbs. of box around the roots to correct a boron deficiency. And last, but not least, eight young hemlocks in a dog run.

In a survey made a few years ago it was found that less than 20% of plants grown in the country reach maturity. Many plants have a high mortality rate even under ideal conditions, but planted by inexperienced people in the infertile sub-soil of the modern development it is almost sure death.

QUESTION: Our soil is very hard, and none of my plants thrive — they just exist. Can you tell me what is wrong?
ANSWER: In hard ground the roots have little chance to develop, so the plant must feed in its restricted area. It might be best to replant them by enlarging the hole in width and depth, then use humus and manure mixed with the soil to provide nourishment. I have found that boring a hole with a crowbar, or auger to a depth of two, or three feet will help drainage and give the plant a better chance to survive.

QUESTION: I water my plants well during the summer, but still they dry out. What is wrong?
ANSWER: Watering with a hose on dry, hard ground is almost useless, for the water does not penetrate deeply enough. Punch holes in the soil around the tree with a fork, or iron rod before watering. Better yet, a watering rod, can be purchased for a small cost and does a wonderful job of getting the water down in the root area where it will do some good. It is a wise investment for all gardeners.

QUESTION: Give some common faults in planting and list them in order of importance.
ANSWER: Wrong environment, meaning putting plants that require shade in full sun or placing a plant in poorly drained, or infertile soil. Next would be improper planting that is planting too deep, or too shallow, using the wrong fertilizer, or insufficient topsoil, etc. Third would be improper care such as watering too little, or too much and improper spraying.

QUESTION: Please tell us how to plant properly?
ANSWER: Dig the hole at least 50% larger than the root area. Dig the hole 50% deeper than depth to be planted. Mix one-part humus, Michigan Peat, rotted manure, or a combination of all three with about four parts of the soil. Put some of this mixture in the bottom of the hole and place plant in the hole to the proper depth, that is about the depth it was originally planted in the nursery. Refill hole with the soil mixture and tamp firmly. When hole is filled to within an inch or two of the top fill with water to settle the soil around the roots and fill any air-pockets that might exist. After water has settled, refill hole with soil and leave a slight depression to catch extra water when it rains. Water thoroughly once a week.

The modern pesticide industry had its start with the development of DDT late in World War II. Farmers today buy well over one billion dollars worth of DDT and other pesticides every year.

It when their efforts haven't accomplished results to suit our own interests. It is easier to blame the schools, other people's children or almost anyone else for the irresponsibility of our young people than it is to sit down and delve into our own responsibility in that direction. The result of "skimming over" is skimpiness, whether it is skimpiness of knowledge of state, national or international affairs, or skimpiness of news on the news paper, or skimpiness of news on the news paper, or skimpiness not even having glanced at them at all. Strange that this era of skimming over comes in a time when we have more leisure hours than ever. And when the world has been brought so much closer together that we need more than ever in order to get along (perhaps even to survive), a deeper understanding of ourselves and others... a greater knowledge of the world... a reevaluation of the values of life... and an active interest in seeing that our nation returns to the principles it was founded on. It's about time we stopped shoveling off the top layer and started digging in. It isn't easy... but then nothing worthwhile ever is.

PICKUP SERVICE?

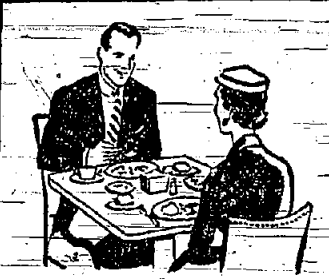

The clanging noise made by the garbage collectors aroused the family. The housewife suddenly remembered she had forgotten to put out the garbage. With her hair in curlers and her face shiny with various creams she sleepily leaned out the window and called to the collectors, "Am I too late for the garbage?" "Certainly not," replied the collector, "hop right in."—Jaka (Miss.) Vidette

In Altman Contest
Carol Fox of 398 Alden road and Carol Powell of Berkeley Heights will represent Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, when the Junior Advisory Board of B. Altman & Co. holds a Table Setting Contest in the Club Room of the Short Hills store on May 10th.

There will be four general categories for the settings; Breakfast, Luncheon, Outdoor eating and Dinner, and each team drew their categories in order to have an evenly divided grouping of types. The girls will select their china, glassware, silver, linen etc. at B. Altman & Co., and have their tables ready to be judged by noon the day of the contest.

Judges to be invited include Mr. Marty Horn, famous restaurateur of Mayfair Farms, Miss Kay Carlin, Merchandise Director of Seventeen Magazine, Mrs. Harold Pell, Sr. Board Member, Mrs. Eleanor MacDougal, Fashion Coordinator of B. Altman & Co., New York City and Mrs. Roy Phurnall, State Chairman of American Home Dept. of N.J. State Federation of Women's Clubs.

The tables are to be judged on three topics: First, General appearance of setting; Second, Proper use of Tableware in relationship to the menu; and Third, and most important, originality and concept and interpretation of theme.

Library

The two outstanding events of the week from the point of view of the Springfield Library were the awarding of the Pulitzer Prizes and the Conference of the New Jersey Association at Asbury Park. The citations made by the Pulitzer Committee did not find the local library napping. With one exception, all the books were on the shelves. "An Epitaph for Dixie" is on our shelves. Its author, Harry S. Ashmore, was cited for his courageous stand in the Arkansas disturbances. A curious coincidence is that the winning cartoon by Bruce Shank made use of Rodin's "The Thinker" and on Tuesday, Mr. A. S. Maskew, who is moving from Rose avenue to Point Pleasant, presented to the museum section of the library a very handsome small bronze copy of this famous statue. The other event of the week, the State Conference, found Springfield equally well represented. Mrs. Joseph Manuel and Mrs. John Porter attended sessions for two days; Helen C. Reyer was busy for all three days as chairman of hospitality. Mrs. Walter Hohn and Mrs. Maitland P. Simmons were there for Friday. Each one came away feeling she had learned something which would help with her library work. To Talk On Europe Before Firesiders

At the next meeting of the Fireside Group of the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, May 14th, the privilege of hearing one of our own townspeople—Miss Gail Runyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chase Runyon of Tucker Avenue—She will speak of her experiences in youth camps in Europe. She was a student at Union Seminary, a graduate of Wilson College and spent last summer in Europe under the sponsorship of American Friends Society working in youth camps there. This summer she will work in New Mexico under the National Missions of the Presbyterian Church. Gail is the second girl to be received under care of Elizabeth Presbytery as a student for the ministry.

Orchard Inn Sold To New Syndicate

One of Springfield's landmarks, the Orchard Inn on Route 22 where Hans Del, as Mein-Hosel made that restaurant very popular is about to change hands, according to a well founded report. The Dowd organization has had considerable experience in this field and the report is that the new owners intend to partially rebuild Orchard Inn and transform it into one of the finest restaurants in the area. The Chesapeake Bay retriever originated 150 years ago in Maryland.

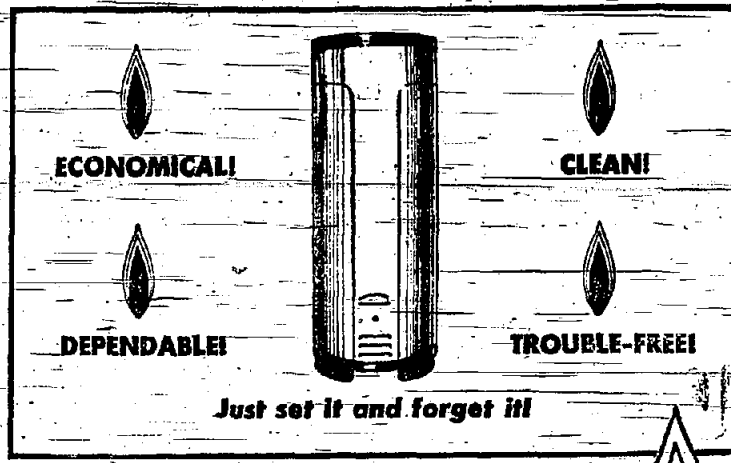

Charter Group Visits Livingston Council

As part of its study program, the Springfield Charter Study Commission attended a meeting of the Livingston Town Council Monday evening, May 5. Livingston changed from the Committee form of government to the Council-Manager form a short time ago. After the regular township meeting, the Charter Commission met informally with the members of the Livingston Town Council and the town Manager, Robert Harp. Several members of the Livingston Council were Committee members under the old form, and these men were able to give a first-hand description of the transition from one form of government to another and the difference in the role of a Committee member and a Councilman. The exact duties and responsibilities of the manager and his relationship to the council were also explored. Livingston made the change from Committee form to Council-Manager government with little difficulty, local charter study commissioners replied, and it would appear to be successful. The new governing body is operating smoothly and efficiently with administrative and legislative functions and responsibility definitely separated, the benefits and savings brought about by the full-time administrator have more than paid for this man's salary. They have supported the new form of government and the town Manager to the fullest and deserve sincere praise for their unselfish efforts. While the final recommendation of the Springfield Charter Study Commission is still a couple of months away, it is sincerely hoped that their findings, whatever they might be, will receive the same wholehearted support that was evidenced in Livingston.

AUTO BODY WORK ELERY - (155 Morris Ave., rear of Chrysler-Plymouth agency, Springfield). When your rear end is out of shape look for: (1) a firm with the necessary fancy equipment; (2) a firm with the know-how of experience; and (3) a firm with the integrity for the best job at the lowest rate. On all 3 counts, the SUN recommends Elery Auto Body Shop.	INSURANCE & REAL ESTATE ANNE SYLVESTER'S REALTY CORNER (659 Morris Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-2300). Now more than ever you must be sure your real estate affairs are handled by a competent firm who knows the market and the pitfalls. With the uncertainty of the highway, and with the uncertainty of the current economic situation, it is imperative you get the best possible realtor. This firm fills the bill in guiding you over the rocks and shoals of the current market toward the most money for your home with the soundest deal.	RESTAURANTS MOUNTAIN AVENUE LUNCHEONETTE (549 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, next to Walton School). There is only one thing better than good German cooking and that is Mrs. Gertrude's German cooking. She is running the prettiest breakfast, lunch and snack headquarters in town. The SUN recommends trying any of her homemade delicacies. SIP & SUP DRIVE-IN RESTAURANT - (Corner of Morris Avenue and Springfield Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-2000) - a complete menu of a pleasing, food-oriented restaurant. You sit at your car and eat indoors, just as you would at a restaurant. The food is a big-brother dining room. However, you'll get the same good food by simply eating in your car. The food is the food out-to-you. Either way the food is what makes stopping here an event!
FLOOR COVERINGS LINOLEUM & CARPET FACTORY OUTLET (Route 22, Springfield, DRexel 6-2300). Here you'll find a complete line of linoleum, tile and broadloom carpeting. The SUN recommends this firm for its wide variety of floor coverings at low-budget prices. Almost all of the linoleum is particularly popular for its quality of the installation.	LAUNDROMAT COURTESY LAUNDROMAT - (288 Morris Ave., Springfield) Everybody knows that you just drop off your laundry here and come back in an hour to shoes reparing here too! And he's fluff-dry all the time.	SLIPCOVERS-DRAPES SPRINGFIELD INTERIOR DECORATORS - (248 Morris Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-2379) When you go to this enterprising firm you are going straight to the horse's mouth, so to speak. These are the people who handle all the big department custom fabric work. By going direct you simply save the retail price of new drapes. Slipcovers for a chair and sofa $59.50; upholstered chair $40.00.
FOOD MARKETS SPRINGFIELD MARKET - (172 Morris Ave., Springfield, DRexel 6-0431) If you're an expeditious shopper, or just a mother expecting good service, these boys take phone orders and deliver free of charge! Jim Furchess is the boss. He has only top quality foods at prices that can't be matched anywhere.	LUMBER & SUPPLIES COLUMBIA (Maple Ave., Springfield, DRexel 6-2950) Springfield's reliable home improvement center has countless suggestions for adding life to your home in their two big showrooms. From ready-assembled corner cabinets to beautifully stained Pella Wood Folding Doors, the Columbia people have quality merchandise to choose from. Of particular interest is one assortment of elaborate bathroom medicine cabinets. You'd be surprised at the ingenious conveniences built-in to Columbia's cabinets.	TV SERVICE A & A TV - (2708 Morris Ave. Union, 4 1/2 mile from Springfield, MURdock 8-5800) - Al Jones has been in TV since 1933 when it was considered a high, electronic world had made available to Springfield a shop that is top in its field. Fixed charges, same day service, and guarantees on all work are the other reasons why people phone A & A.
GARDEN SUPPLIES CARDINAL NURSERIES (272 Milltown Road, Springfield, DRexel 6-0440) Springfield's Garden Department Store has a winter service that deserves attention by homeowners who don't want to get caught in the Spring Rush. Cardinal's boys will take your power or hand lawn mowers now for servicing and dry a complete complete set of tools and equipment. They'll take everything and tune-up the engine. They'll pick up and deliver at your home free of charge.	HARDWARE HYDE AND ELLIS, INC. (712 Mountain Ave., beside Mt. Spring Bake Shop, Springfield, DRexel 6-7900) A sparkling new hardware superstore has opened up in the growing south end of town and is showing Springfield what modern merchandising means. Everything from the builder's supplies to the big selection of housewares is arranged in neat displays to catch the eye. Free delivery is available from both the Springfield store and the even bigger Westfield home headquarters. HI FI & SOUND STEREO SOUND CORP - (173 Mountain Ave., Springfield, DRexel 6-5441) Your two ears play an important part in listening to sound. The story of high fidelity sound reproduction is largely an effort to add another ear to the traditional one ear speakers. This development, called stereophonic sound, is available for home listeners as well as the Radio City Music Hall. This firm can set you up with either dual recorded tape sound systems or AM-FM radio (amplifier) sound.	PAINT & WALLPAPER R. GLEMING - (248 Morris Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-7939) Along with artist's supplies and about a million samples of wallpaper, Roy Gleming carries the fabulous complete EBER line of paints. This firm has pioneered some startling developments in paint, including Alkyd base and latex base paints that cover in one coat. The Otero-Match system of selecting the 324 color variations is the clearest we've ever seen.	RESTAURANTS CHINA SKY - (Springfield Shopping Center, DRexel 6-5000) Here's a restaurant sampling from the menu showing that there's practically everything under the China Sky. SAM QOP TAI - sliced lobster meat, white steamed chicken, Chinese roast pork prepared with imported Chinese mushrooms, slow poe poe, water chestnuts, bamboo shoots and hearts of bok choy. All this for $2.75 in Jack Chin's cheerful dining room.
HOME IMPROVEMENTS CHANNEL LUMBER CO. - (Route 22, Springfield, DRexel 6-5000) Channeled charge account system makes it possible to buy just about anything under the sun (or as advertised in the SUN) and take it home to pay for it. This, of course, includes lumber, home improvements, housewares, paint, hardware, and so on! A service to the community is Channeled's standing offer to loan extra nails for card parties, club meetings, etc., absolutely free of charge.

Troop 764—Leader, Mrs. John F. Patterson; co-leader, Mrs. Spencer Cannon. The girls enjoyed a cookout at Mrs. Patterson's home, 519 Mountain Avenue on Thursday evening of last week, May 1. The girls were awarded their badges earned during the past year. The scouts and the badges they earned are: Linda Doerring, Good Grooming, Child Care, Cooking and Skating; Dolores Truncala, Good Grooming, Child Care and Cooking; Kathy Aschner, First Aid, Good Grooming and Child Care; Wendy Lohman, Good Grooming. The following six girls each received five badges, Roganne Shottwell, Gail Schrader, Barbara Cannon, Irene Paneani, Leigh Freyman and Sigrid Patterson. The badges are First Aid, Good Grooming, Child Care, Cooking and Skating. Plans are being made now for a backyard camp on the June 13th week-end.

Troop 751—Leader, Mrs. Joseph Roller; co-leader, Mrs. Rupert Humer. The girls are now competing their work on the Mammal Badge and will do the final requirement tomorrow by visiting an animal farm in Northern New Jersey, where they train the animals for television work. The girls and the leaders would like to thank Mrs. Alan Cunningham who has worked faithfully with the girls on this badge. Mrs. Cunningham planned the badge work and attended each meeting to help the girls. The troop is also working on Troop Dramatics. On Friday, May 15, following the close of school the girls will enjoy a cookout at Echo Lake. Linda Kuehn, the troop scribe, wrote a letter for the troop to Mrs. J. Frank Jakobson thanking her and her committee for the picnic at Nomahegan Park in Cranford on Saturday, April 26. The troop felt the picnic was well planned and they had a wonderful time.

Troop 892—Leader, Mrs. David Hendlin; co-leaders, Mrs. Ralph Meyers and Mrs. Joseph Marzell. On Tuesday of next week, May 13, the girls have invited their mothers to attend their regular meeting at the Florence Gaudineer School. The three patrols will each perform an original play. The girls will serve refreshments to their mothers. New Patrol Leaders will be elected this week and named in next week's paper. Work is being done to complete the Second Class Requirements.

Troop 892—Leader, Mrs. Fred Merkle; co-leader, Mrs. Henry Moen. The girls are working today on their Mothers-Day gifts. They have done very well on the cookie sale and are still taking orders this week. Plans are being completed on a picnic supper to be held at Echo Lake on Thursday, June 12. The picnic will take the place of the weekly meeting.

Weatherman's Actions Canceled Baseball Opening

That's the story of the first week of regularly scheduled baseball games in the Springfield Junior Baseball League. Finally, after selecting the major and minor league teams, managers and coaches had their preliminary drills and are giving out the playing uniforms. Everyone is champing at the bit, looking for action, but the weatherman has been far from cooperative.

Bob Multaup will have the herculean task of rescheduling the games that have been washed out to date and those still to come. To date, the teams stand all even with no games in the win column and none in the lost column. That's as close as it will be all season long.

Schedules for the week beginning Saturday, May 10, follows:

BALE RUTH MAJOR LEAGUE
 Saturday, May 10, 1958 at 1:30 p.m. Channel Lumber Home vs. Drake Fuel Sales at Gaudinier Field.
 Sunday, May 11, 1958 at 1:30 p.m. Angletons at home vs. B.P.O. Elks No. 204 at Melch Field.
 Wednesday, May 14, 1958 at 6:30 p.m. Drake Fuel Sales at home vs. B.P.O. Elks No. 204 at Gaudinier Field.
CHANNEL LUMBER MAJOR LEAGUE
 Monday, May 12, 1958 at 6:30 p.m. Gem Shoe Center at home vs. Cretzer's at Regional Field.
 Tuesday, May 13, 1958 at 6:30 p.m. Channel Lumber at home vs. Drake Fuel Sales at Gaudinier Field.
 Wednesday, May 14, 1958 at 6:30 p.m. Drake Fuel Sales at home vs. Channel Lumber at Gaudinier Field.
ROYAL CROWN MAJOR LEAGUE
 Monday, May 12, 1958 at 6:30 p.m. Channel Lumber at home vs. Drake Fuel Sales at Gaudinier Field.

Letters to Editor

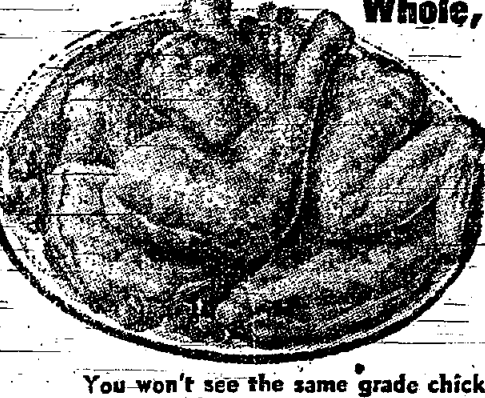

Editor, Sun:
 In the name of J. J. Kaplan, Esq., Chairman of the Union County Bar Association Law Day, USA committee, I would like to thank the Township committee and Mayor Binder for issuing the proclamation naming May 1st as LAW DAY, USA. To the Springfield-Sun goes our thanks for the publicity of the programs of May 1st. And to the many citizens of Springfield who aided us in the carrying out of the days programs, our sincere thanks.

The story of the gift that took a lifetime to make...

Like all grandfathers, he thinks the world of his grandson. Like all grandfathers, he'd give him the world, if he could. And, in a way, that's what he's done during all the rewarding times they have always spent together. He has tried to give his grandson a gift that will last the boy a lifetime, a gift that has been a lifetime in the making.

Faith... Faith that has been the strength and nourishment of his own life... that's what he has tried to show the boy, day by day. Faith in God, in himself, in his parents, in the town they live in, in the people he calls his neighbors. And so, every week, you'll see them, grandfather and grandson, worshipping with the rest of the family, at their church.

If you would like to leave as much to your children and to your children's children... remember this: only if you yourself have Faith, can you hope to give it in any measure. Begin this week to find the Faith for your life. Worship with all the family, at your Church or Synagogue.

liminary reports, as promised to the Mayor's Highway Committee, have not materialized.
From the present information, how can a hearing on the highway be held when no route is definite?
What has the Township Committee been doing for the best interest of Springfield concerning the highway? Assuming some progress has been made, why should this information be selective?
Why shouldn't "a red flag be waved in front of the bull"? We are all adults and are capable of the powers of logical reasoning; and now we want the answers.
What about interchanges? Their locations are of vital importance.

What consideration has this aspect of the problem been given? We want to definitely know just where we stand. We, as human beings, feel that the indecision which manipulates our status in this unfortunate situation is unwarranted. To have our feelings pulled about like a child's toy by every suggested change of the proposed route of the highway should cease immediately. We will not pledge our steadfast cooperation; and we would appreciate all of the available official information at all times.
Sincerely,
Robert D. Hardgrove

TO DISCUSS HI-FI POSSIBILITIES
Every high fidelity sound system must be personally designed to fit the acoustical problems of individual rooms. There is no such thing as a ready assembled cabinet music system that will give maximum performance in any room. Our sound engineers will be glad to visit your home and demonstrate to you what kind of equipment you need to achieve different levels of performance. We design outfits to suit low budgets as well as high budgets. But all of our component systems are engineered to produce genuinely high fidelity. Our specialty is the new frontier of sound called stereophonic. We will be pleased to demonstrate it for you.

Spring, Time of the Salad Use Fresh, Crisp Greens for Best Results

Suddenly, it's spring... can salad time be far behind? In seventeenth-century England, salads were thought to be a "tonic" to be eaten in the spring. In the days of ancient Rome, greens were eaten sprinkled with salt and the origin of our word "salad" is the Latin word "sal" meaning salt. Some gourmets insist a salad should never contain fruit; all agree salad ingredients should be fresh, crisp and of good quality.

In our country, lettuce in all its forms is most widely used as the basis for salads. For unusual variety, young spinach leaves are good. If you have nasturtiums in the garden, give your young leaves a try in a salad. Whatever greens you use, wash them thoroughly, drain them, and keep them in the refrigerator until ready for use. Salads should not be made too much in advance or the dressing will wilt the greens robbing them of their fresh crispness. You may even wish to go so far as to carry the greens and dressing separately to the table to be mixed just before serving.

For a tossed green salad, try the French method. Start with a "chapon," the dried heel of a loaf of French bread which has been well rubbed with a clove of garlic. Place the chapon in the empty bowl and pile the greens on top. Cover the greens with the oil of your choice and toss until each green is well covered. Now sprinkle over the greens vinegar in an amount equal to one-fourth the amount of oil you used. Herb-seasoned wine vinegar is recommended. Toss the greens again and your salad is ready. If your salad bowl is made of wood, don't wash it. Clean it with paper towels. Instead of using a chapon, you may rub the bowl itself with garlic. It will improve with age.

Salads represent a delightful way to use left-overs. Almost anything can be added to the greens. Bits of left-over chicken and celery, mixed with a little mayonnaise, for instance, or left-over cold fish make good salads. Any cold meat can be sliced very thin and marinated in French dressing with a little bit of crushed anchovies. Anchovies are extremely salty and should be used with care. Left-over, cooked green beans, peas or carrots make a good addition to a salad. Canned kidney beans, well-drained and washed and then mixed with French dressing, add color and flavor.

If you do not like raw onion in salads, try cooking the chopped onion slowly in a little olive oil until it begins to turn golden. Chill and add to your salad. The flavor will be sweet and mild and the salad, perhaps, more easily digested.

Next time you make potato salad, try preparing the potatoes this way: Peel and dice six medium potatoes. Add finely chopped half of medium onion.

Barely cover with soup stock and cook just under well done. While still hot, add one-quarter cup white wine and let cool.

The statement that some gourmets hold to, the opinion that fruit never belongs in a salad may cause the raising of eyebrows among housewives accustomed to serving fruit salads as appetizers and desserts, and refreshments at bridge. At least one current cookbook lists 93 different recipes for fruit salads, so not everyone agrees with the gourmets. The opinion is generally held; however, that fruit salads should not be too "fussy." A salad with a pear "face" and lettuce "skirt" and bits of cherry "eyes" looks too much handied. Fresh mint leaves or watercress accent a fruit salad well. Balls or squares of cream cheese, either plain or rolled in chopped nuts or flanked by pecan or walnut halves, go very well with fruit. Coconut shreds, flaked nuts, dark sweet cherries with the stems left on, melon balls, small bunches of seedless grapes, or fresh berries all make attractive garnishes for fruit salads. Frosted grapes or mint leaves are good to dress up a summertime salad. Dip in beaten egg white, then in granulated sugar, shake gently and set aside to dry.

No matter what you put in your salad and whether you serve it as an appetizer, as a side dish with meat or as dessert, it is bound to be nutritious. Raw vegetables and fruits should be eaten daily by everyone because they have a higher vitamin and mineral content than those which are cooked. Nearly every vegetable and fruit salad you serve will provide vitamins A and C. Keep in mind that dark salad greens are richer in food value than the paler ones. A mixture of the stronger flavored dark greens and mild flavored light greens go well in a salad nutritionally and from a taste-appeal and eye-appeal standpoint.

If you should plan to serve a salad when you entertain, try a salad buffet. Have a variety of greens, a variety of fruit and a variety of dressings in separate containers on the buffet. Your guests will enjoy putting their own mixtures together. If the group is large enough and the hostess ambitious enough, the buffet might also include potato, chicken, tuna and egg salads. The possibilities are endless and can prove to be time-saving for the hostess.

THIS IS THE WAY: Mrs. Walter-Golda demonstrates how to put finishing touch on her favorite recipe which won $10 prize this week in our Favorite Recipe contest.

No Chemise On Beach

SHOW YOUR SHAPE when swimming and sunning are the order of the day. In a season of chemises and trapezes the waistline is often in total eclipse. But not on the beach! Here the Hollywood ideal reigns supreme. And famous West Coast swimwear designers have used all their skill this year to produce glamorous swim suits. Curvaceous feminine figures are enhanced by the gentle discipline of the elasticized fabrics. The bosom-line is as pretty and well-defined as in your evening gowns, for strapless bras are an integral part of most suits. And shoulder straps are there for your serious swimming, but they can be dispensed with entirely when you're bent on acquiring an even suntan. Pastel shirting stripes lead the beach fashion parade—shown in the photo above is a classic sheath suit of elasticized faille.

Chemise Is Old Society Finds

The chemise dress is scarcely new, the Union Historical Society reports. In conjunction with the township's sesquicentennial celebration, the society has been doing some research comparing women's fashions of 1800 with the fashions of 1950. Quoting from the book "Two Centuries of Costume" by Alice Morse Earle, the society points out: "The 'chemise-dress,' well named was a favorite form for day wear, and was equally proper for evening dress. It was shaped precisely like a sack-chemise, and was seldom fuller than the ordinary French-gored chemise of our present underwear. It was also of similar material, thin linen lawn, or sheer percale, and was no more trimmed at the neck and sleeves, though the skirt might be scantily flounced."

A magazine declared that the "chemise-dress" must be made tight to form of bust, drawn very low at each corner of neck and worn with crooked pearl slide to separate the bosom. Men's dress, the society found, was then more than a question of taste or fancy or convenience; in fact, it was a question of deep conviction, of political opinion. A man's standing in politics was judged by his garments. In American political circles after the fall of the Bastille, every Republican had to dress like a Frenchman—and every Federalist like an Englishman. If you were a Republican and opposed the administration, you had to tangle your hair in rough locks drawn forward wildly over your forehead, "as if you had been fighting a hurricane backward" and to wear tight pantaloons to the calf of the leg. Wearing knee-breeches and buckled shoes proved that you were an old fogey of a Federalist.

Paramount Plans Slate Prize Pictures

"The Bridge on the River Kwai" will begin an engagement at the Paramount Theatre May 29, one day after the same management opens an engagement of "Around the World in 80 Days" at the Adams Theatre. Both pictures have won several Oscars and international prizes. Alec Guinness stars as Colonel Nicholson in "River Kwai" and "80 Days" stars David Niven as Phileas Fogg. Since each picture runs for nearly three hours, both will be shown on a two-day schedule with reserved seats.

Luscious Berries Arriving Soon

The strawberry season will soon be in full swing and boxes of the luscious berries will be available for your favorite methods of serving them. Berries of any variety should be spread out in a shallow pan, large enough to take them all in a single layer, and stored in the refrigerator until ready for use. Wash berries thoroughly before the hulls are removed to prevent loss of juice. This will also prevent the berries being crushed while washing. Never wash them, however, until you are ready to use them.

Strawberry Cheese Ring
Soften two envelopes of gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water, dissolve over hot water and set aside. Gradually add 1 1/2 cups of milk to 1/2 pound cream cheese, blending until smooth. Add 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice, 3/4 teaspoon salt, dash of paprika and softened gelatin. Pour into a one-quart mold and chill until firm. Unmold and fill center with strawberries. Serve with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Makes 4-6 servings.

Quickie Sweet
1 8 or 10-inch round angel food cake
2 1/2-cup jars peach preserves
1 cup heavy cream
1 cup whipped and sweetened flaked milk
Slice cake once horizontally to make two layers. Spread half

Russian Troupe Will Be Seen In Philadelphia

An opportunity to see the fabulous Moscovy Dance Company come to this country and the largest company of any kind ever imported from abroad, will be available to New Jersey-Pennsylvania audiences at popular prices June 11 and 12, evenings only, in Philadelphia's Convention Hall.

Richard Pleasant, Managing Director of Princeton's McCarter Theatre, has joined forces with Emma Feldman, Philadelphia impresario, to present the Russian Company. All mail orders for tickets will be handled by Central City Ticket Office, 1422 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 2, Pa. Orders and checks must be accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelopes for the return of tickets. Otherwise they will be held in the customer's name until picked up. After May 13, tickets will go on sale "over the counter" at the headquarters of the Central City Ticket Office. But, at the main office, all small orders will be filled promptly in the order received.

The company, organized by Igor Moiseyev, a leading dancer and choreographer of the legendary Bolshoi Ballet, combines ballet with the riches of traditional Russian folk dance, drawn from 180 nationalities for ethnic groups, and trans-lates both into artistic com-positions. The program in-cludes story ballets, like "So-ber" satirizing the Russian entry in the cultural exchange craze for that game; and "Partisans"—a ballet-episode from the Russian resistance to the Nazis in the last war. The company comes as a major entry in the cultural exchange program between the United States and the U.S.S.R.

Amboy Drive-In Honors Mothers

In celebration of Mother's Day Sunday, the first thousand mothers arriving at the Amboys Drive-In Theatre, Sayreville, will receive a pearl charm bracelet. On Friday and Saturday, there will be a free treat for everyone. The "Long, Hot Summer" starring Joanne Woodward and Paul Newman and "The Great Sioux Uprising" with Jeff Chandler will be shown May 7-10. Friday and Saturday, "Pan Carnival" will be added and "The Snowman" will be shown at midnight. Robert Metchum in

"Thunder Road" and "The Last Paradise" are slated for May 11-13.

College Starts Building Drive

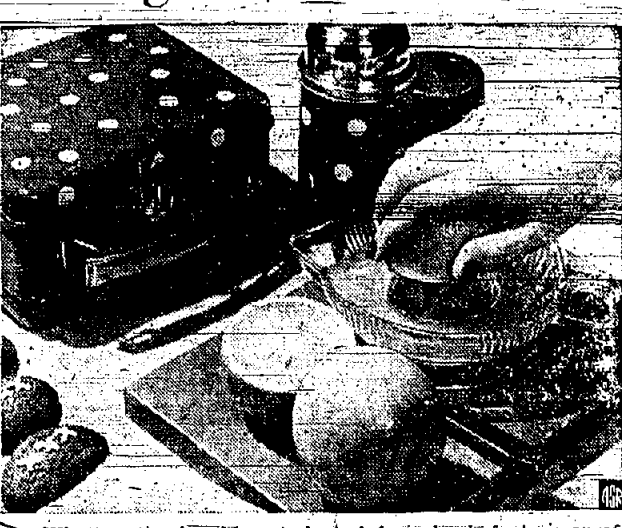

Solicitations began this week in Union as the alumni of Union launched a campaign to raise $100,000 for the college's silver anniversary development fund campaign. The alumni opened the fund campaign Friday evening at a dinner-dance at the Elks Clubhouse. Elizabeth, attended by more than 300 persons. Charles D. Ohning of 48 Magic Village, is the Union chairman.

The primary aim of Union Junior College's development fund campaign is to raise funds for a new building the college will construct on a new campus in Cranford, the former Nomahegan Golf Course.

Orange Juice For Health

Whether the lunchbox is bound for school, factory or office, it is a good idea to include orange juice. Working men and women as well as children need the energy and vitamin C the tasty juice provides. Put enough in the thermos container for a mid-morning pickup as well as a lunchtime treat.

Clean the chair by washing soap suds. Wipe off with another warm damp cloth. Rub the pattern gently with a swab out of warm water and neutral soap suds. When the chair is thoroughly dry, apply one or two protective coats of clear varnish.

Fancy Chairs Popular Again

There is a great revival of interest in fancy chairs, particularly the stenciled chair. Stenciling was first used on furniture in 1817 and continued to about 1870. Often an old stenciled chair needs only to be cleaned to bring out the beauty and clearness of the stenciled design, says Miss Gena Thames, extension home furnishing specialist of Rutgers University.

Refreshments For Showers

Nosegay cakes and a hot sandwich loaf make ideal refreshments for a shower. Mary Armstrong, Home Agent. In keeping with the festive atmosphere, they add interesting color and design to the table. They are good eating as well.

cept for the topping, can be made the night before and held in the refrigerator.

HOT SANDWICH LOAF—and nosegay cakes make interesting food for light entertaining. This fare is particularly good for baby or bridal showers because of its dainty, delicate appearance.

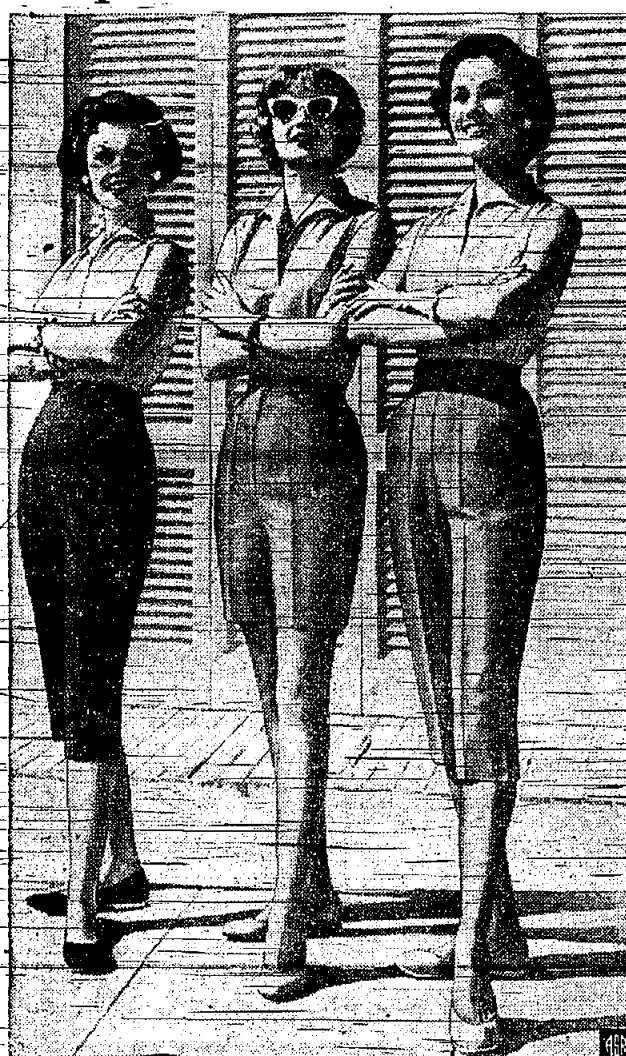

Hot Sandwich Loaf
 1 (2-pound) loaf sandwich bread, unsliced
 8 tablespoons soft butter or margarine
 4 slices boiled ham
 1/2 cup turkey-cheese filling
 6 large slices tomato
 1/2 cup sharp-flavored cheese spread
 2 egg whites
 1/4 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
 Dash of salt

Remove crusts from unsliced loaf of bread and cut lengthwise into 4 equal-sized slices. Spread each bread slice with butter. Arrange 2 layers of sliced boiled ham between first and second slices of bread; sharp-flavored cheese spread between third and fourth slices. Press loaf firmly together. Wrap in waxed paper and refrigerate until serving time. To serve: Beat egg white until stiff. Fold in mayonnaise and salt. Unwrap sandwich loaf and place on a cookie sheet. Spread top and sides of loaf with topping. Brown in a hot oven (450° F.) for ten minutes. Serve hot and cut crosswise into 12-14 portions.

Nosegay Cakes
 12 sponge cake shells
 3 pints of ice cream in 3 assorted flavors
 1 pint crushed strawberries
 Place a small scoop of each 3 ice cream flavors in each sponge cake shell. Serve crushed strawberries over each nosegay. Frozen or sweetened fresh berries may be used.

Proportioned To-Fit Right

HOW DO YOU LOOK IN PANTS? American women are noted for their pretty figures but pants are likely to put even the prettiest figure to the test. One may yearn to resemble the much-photographed beauties of Hollywood who look so glamorous in their shorts and pant-pushers but it's well to remember that, usually, they have these garments made to order. For fit and proper proportion are the basic ingredients of the sleek, well-proportioned appearance when wearing pants. Happily the custom look is available this year in ready-mades. Whether you are short, average or tall, there are good-looking, well-proportioned pants to your figure, shorts and pant-pushers ready for your summer chores and pastimes. In sturdy cotton poplins and twills they are easily washable. Carefully scaled and engineered to fit your size and height, you can move freely and always look neat.

Louvers Dramatize Decor

Louver doors are being used more and more by interior decorators to bring dramatic texture into homes with both contemporary and traditional decor. Here's a particularly effective use of louver doors in a double doorway between dining and living rooms. The doors are hinged to fold in half when open, providing an interesting "frame" for the doorway. Closed, they add interest to both rooms. These are stock doors available from building material dealers. Other stock louver doors are available in a wide range of styles and sizes.

Mushrooms May Be Eaten Raw

Fresh mushrooms are in such plentiful supply says Mary W. Armstrong, County Home Agent, that they are good buys. In many food stores, prices have recently been 25 to 50 per cent lower in some areas than they were a year ago. While they are so plentiful, we suggest eating fresh mushrooms raw as appetizers or as a snack. Simply cut off a thin slice from the stem end (it is never necessary to peel mushrooms, if they are well scrubbed), cut in quarters if they are of medium size, and chill well. Holding by the little "handle" ends, dip into a favorite dressing sauce and enjoy. Small mushrooms may be eaten as they are without slicing.

A new and zippy dipping sauce for Spring consists of two 2 ounce packages of cream cheese; a whole cucumber with skin on, grated; two tablespoons grated onion; 1 teaspoon prepared mustard; 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco; salt and pepper to taste. Serve in a hollowed-out medium head of cabbage or pineapple halves for added interest.

Fresh mushrooms as a cooked vegetable while they are priced low, Wash and slice. one to one-half pounds of mushrooms. Heat three or four tablespoons of cooking oil or one-half stick of butter or margarine in a skillet and add mushrooms. Sprinkle with juice of half a lemon, and cook over low heat. Stir frequently till mushrooms are lightly browned in their own juice, 5 to 8 minutes. Season lightly with salt and pepper. Serves 4-6.

Sleeves Return

MORE SLEEVE MEANS MORE FASHION this season, and these voluminous sleeves, soft, pretty, and so feminine, are a definite hallmark of Spring-Summer 1958. After the bare arms of the recent past (not always so flattering) they dress or blouse with a recognizable sleeve, covering all or part of the arm, has a refreshing newness, a certain appeal. But as arms adopt a cover-up program, necklines do the reverse. You'll see them plunging in front, or back, or almost disappearing in the wide, open, and bare spaces of a real low neckline, plus a charming seasonal print mark the pretty nylon sheer dress in our picture.

Suggested Mother's Day Menu Dad Can Prepare

Mother's Day is just around the corner, says Edith Mae Ingalls, Assistant Home Agent. "One good way to celebrate is by letting the older children of the household, or even Dad, prepare dinner."

Plan a menu that is well balanced and nutritious and keep the menu simple, using prepackaged and convenience foods and easy-to-cook meats. Plan the preparation and buying ahead to relieve last minute frustrations. Serve the meal attractively with a bouquet of Spring flowers for a centerpiece and perhaps a nosegay of flowers for mother.

Clean-up time is of utmost importance for this occasion, for it would be no treat to mother if the kitchen was left in disorder. When all the other members of the family, excepting mother, pitch in and help, it won't take long to clean up and get things put away.

Here is a suggested menu you might enjoy trying for your Mother's Day Dinner:

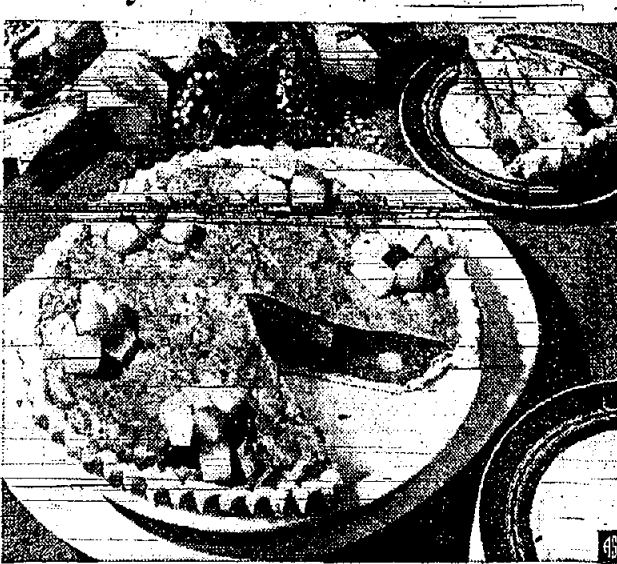

- Tomato-Juice Cocktail
- Braised Pork Chops
- Baked Potato
- Lettuce Wedge
- Brown and Serve Rolls
- Mother's Day Cake
- Applesauce
- Buttered Carrots
- Russian Dressing
- Ice Cream

Braised Pork Chops
Allow 1/2 to 3/4 lb. for each serving. Trim excess fat from chops. Lightly grease hot skillet with fat edge of one chop. Brown chops slowly on both sides in heavy skillet. (Allow 3 min. on each side). Add 1/2 cup water; cover tightly and cook slowly on top of range or in moderate oven (350 degrees) until tender and well done. Season after cooking.

Thin chops need no added liquid—but a tight fitting cover and low heat are needed to keep moist.
If you do not have time to buy or make cake, here is dessert you may try:

Fruit Ambrosia
4 medium oranges, or 1 small can orange sections
2 bananas, if you like
Seedless oranges are preferable. Pare the oranges and separate into a segments free from membrane. Place a layer of oranges in a glass serving dish, cover with a layer of sliced bananas; sprinkle with coconut. Cover with another layer of oranges and top with the remainder of the coconut. Cover with another layer of oranges and top with the remainder of the coconut. Chill thoroughly and serve very cold or arrange in same manner in individual serving dishes.

Fruity Chiffon Pie—Umm!

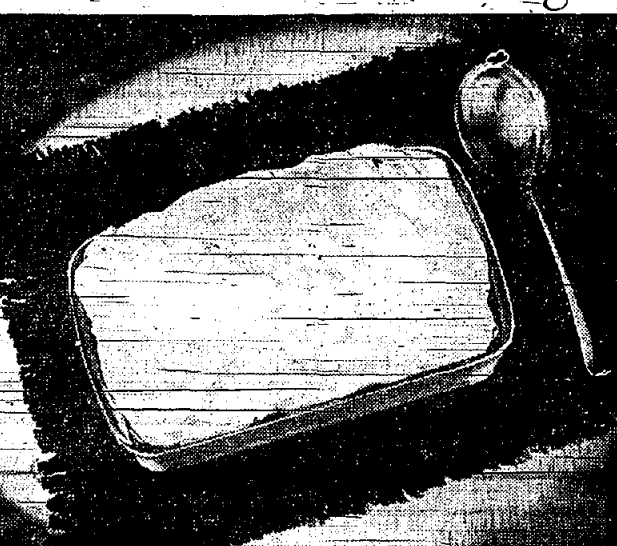

The new look for your menu—Chocolate-Fruit Pie is an harmonious combination of canned fruit cocktail and chocolate chiffon pie-filling. Its beauty, plus its lightness yet satisfying quality, makes it suitable for almost any menu.

Try combining different canned fruits with the packaged chiffon pie filling mixes, too. You'll discover many easy yet interesting pies and pudding-type desserts. Try canned apple sauce dribbled over the lemon mix, peach slices with strawberry, and pear halves topped with the chocolate mix.

Chocolate-Fruit Pie
1 envelope unflavored gelatine
1/4 cup cold water
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup cocoa
1 egg
1 can (16 oz.) fruit cocktail
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 cup whipping cream
Baked 9-inch pastry shell

Soften gelatine in cold water. Combine 3/4 cup of the sugar, cocoa and salt in saucepan; add egg yolks and 1/4 cup syrup drained from fruit cocktail; mix well and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, add gelatine and stir until dissolved. Add drained fruit and almond extract; chill until partially thickened. Beat egg whites until stiff with the remaining sugar. Fold egg whites and then whipped cream into gelatine mixture. Put in pastry shell and chill until firm. Makes one 9-inch pie.

Rice-Banana Pudding

This delicious, nutritious rice pudding recipe is an unusual combination of ingredients including bananas, grated orange rind and lemon juice as well as eggs and milk.

Method
1. Combine bananas and lemon juice and mash thoroughly. Stir in 3/4 cup of the sugar, salt, grated orange rind, milk and rice. Add well-beaten egg yolks and mix thoroughly. Pour into 10x6x2-inch baking dish. Set in pan of hot water.
2. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 35 minutes, or until set. Cool slightly.
3. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually add remaining sugar and beat until egg whites stand in stiff peaks. Spread meringue over pudding.
4. Return to oven and bake about 15 minutes longer, or until lightly browned. Serve warm or cold, cut into squares. Yields 8 servings.

Save The Drain
Don't pour grease out of skillets or broiler pans into your sink. The grease will congeal and clog the drain. Before the pan gets cold, it is easy to drain the grease off into a custard cup using a rubber plate scraper. Place the custard cup in the refrigerator overnight. In the morning, you'll have a hard cake of waste grease that can easily be put in the garbage without fuss or muss—and your sink easy to drain the grease off (it will remain unclogged into a custard cup using a

Cap-and-Gown Celebration

Do you have a graduation party just ahead? Here's a suggestion for the Refreshments: Diploma Roll Cake served with ice cream and iced drinks.

Diploma Roll Cake

Ingredients:
 3/4 cup sifted cake flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 4 eggs
 3/4 cup sugar
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 Strawberry cream filling*
 Frosting
 Flaked coconut

Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder. Beat eggs until light and lemon-colored. Add sugar to eggs slowly, beating constantly. Sift in small amount of flour mixture. Fold in. Continue until all flour mixture is added. Fold in vanilla. Line jelly roll pan 15x10x1 1/2 inches with waxed paper. Grease paper and sides of pan. Spoon cake batter evenly into pan. Bake at 400 degrees, for 13 minutes.

Remove cake from pan to damp cloth. Remove paper, trim edges and roll up in cloth. Let stand until cold, then unroll. Cut cake in half, crosswise. Spread each half with Strawberry Cream Filling and roll each half up quickly. Place halves side by side to form long, narrow roll. Cover with your favorite white frosting and sprinkle lavishly with flaked coconut. With pastry tube, form a "ribbon" and "bow" of tinted frosting at place where cakes join. Garnish "diploma" with strawberries. Cut in one-inch slices to serve. Makes about 20 slices.

Strawberry Cream Filling
 Whip 1 cup heavy cream and sweeten to taste. Fold in 1 cup chopped strawberries.

Stripes For Summer Play

RED, WHITE, AND BLUE, AND YOU. Yes, you're likely to be "going steady" from now on for this patriotic color scheme. It's a prime favorite for all the fun clothes of Summer. In a season that accents the nautical sprightly combinations of red, white, and blue are seen everywhere. In the ever-popular Cotton-Knits they have the happy faculty of looking just right, whether you're on KP duty at home or dangling your legs over the side of a sloop on the local lake. Among many alluring costumes you might elect one that's made up of equal parts White Duck Pants and cotton knit-Striped Pullover. Or make yours a Shorts Story in a dramatic Blazer Stripes.

Washable Summer Pleats

ARE YOU AFRAID OF PLEATS? Think they're too much trouble? Think they have to be cleaned, not washed? You couldn't be more wrong! This Summer there are Heaps of Pleats, and they're pleats for keeps! They're terribly important in the fashion picture now that the Slim Silhouette is in The Limelight—if you belong to the young crowd that moves around you'll certainly want an Easy-Going pleated skirt number in your wardrobe. Make it sharkskin in spanking white with a sailor-collared middy top, a little like the schoolgirl uniforms of your mother's day. The white stays white through innumerable washings, and the pleats stay in. If you're a career girl you'll find cotton blend cool navy-and-white check a useful choice. The skirt is Fan-Pleated (yes, for keeps.)

Report To the People

If the Senate follows the asking him to pick out the... of the House last week... programs he thought ought to... in approving a program of... loans to the States for exten-... sion, highway building, the... National Guard, vocational ed-... ucation, then the States will be... handed one of the greatest... challenges in the history of... Federal-State relations. A... variety of grants to help flint... States will be asked, in ef-... fect, to recognize an imme-... diate need which many feel is... national in character and take... quick, effective action to meet... it.

The Federal Government—If... the legislation is passed in its... present form—will tend to in-... dividual States whatever funds... they require to add 50 per cent... more eligibility to those un-... employed who exhaust their... regular benefits.

As the bill passed the House... this will be a permissive pro-... gram. States will not be re-... quired to do anything. But if... States recognize their responsi-... bility the resources will be... made available.

This marks the first time in... the flurry of counter-recession... activity here in Washington... that the States are being asked... to accept primary responsibility... for doing something effective... about a potentially danger-... ous situation. Because, if... the unemployed lose all their... purchasing power, it will breed... additional unemployment and... further depress the economy.

Since the recession is a seri-... ous national concern, most of... the action so far taken to halt... it has been of the Federal... variety. Federal Reserve Board... decisions to lower interest rates... and increase the supply of... money, for example, or the... Federal road-building program... approved by Congress, the... speed-up in defense spending... and in other authorized Fed-... eral programs, as well as such... proposed programs as building... Post Offices and assisting com-... munity development projects... have all been initiated by the... national government. To the... extent that Federal, State and... local governments share re-... sponsibility for some of these... programs, it is on a direct... grant basis.

Not so, however, with the... bill to aid the unemployed. This... legislation will, it seems... now, be entirely voluntary and... will include no direct Federal... grants of any kind. States will... have to repay Federal loans... either from general tax reve-... nue or from increased unem-... ployment taxes on employers.

I was reminded, in thinking... about this challenge to the... States, of the shock with which... some of my constituents greet-... ed one of my reports last sum-... mer on the subject of Federal... grant-in-aid program. In that... report, I listed each one of the... 63 Federal grant programs in... which New Jersey participated... together with the amount of... each grant received in fiscal... year 1956. The total amount... by the way, was $86,410,803.

The general reaction was... typified by one friend who... blurted out, "But who asked for... all these programs?" I... answered him, in turn, by Assuming that the Senate... will soon approve the House... bill, therefore, the challenge it... presents the States will be im-... mense. A first step in getting... the economy into "high gear"... again—to the point where we... can match the Russian rate of... industrial progress—requires... that we hold unemployment in... check and keep it from getting... worse. The 48 States should get... ready now to act fast and... effectively.

Chiffon Cake Treat To Eat

While the rich, light texture of a chiffon cake is tasty, the addition of cocoa to the cake is a delicious and new variation. In these days of convenience food, don't forget the tender eating qualities of cakes made from scratch.

And remember, too, that although the recipe looks long—the chiffon cake is one of the fastest cakes to make!

Cocoa Chiffon Cake

- ¾ cup boiling water
- ¼ cup cooking (saled) oil
- ½ cup cocoa
- 7 unbeaten egg yolks
- 1 ½ cups sifted cake flour
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 ½ cups sugar
- 1 ½ tsp. red food coloring
- 3 tsp. baking powder
- 1 cup egg whites (7 or 8)
- 1 tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. cream of tartar

Mix boiling water and cocoa; stir until smooth. Sift dry ingredients into bowl. Make a well; add oil, egg yolks, cooled cocoa mixture, vanilla, and coloring. Beat with spoon until smooth or with electric mixer on med. speed, 1 minute.

Beat egg whites and cream of tartar in large mixing bowl until whites form very stiff peaks or 3 to 5 min. with electric mixer on high speed. Do not underbeat. Pour egg yolk mixture slowly over beaten egg whites—folding just until blended. Do not stir. Pour into ungreased 10x4-inch tube pan.

Bake 55 min. at 325 degrees, then increase to 350 degrees and bake 10 to 15 min. longer, or until top springs back when lightly touched.

Turn upside down over neck of funnel or bottle until cold. Loosen from sides and tube with spatula. Turn pan over and hit edge sharply on table to loosen.
