BULLDOZERS WHERE?

STATE MAP — This is the map released by the New Jersey State Highway Department in their press release announcing the public hearing on highway Route 102 on Monday, June 30 in Springfield. The State says that a completely detailed map will be available at the hearing. Note the three suggested interchanges, indicated by the large black dots. The one on Baltusrol Road is in Summit.

State Agrees To Cover Over Trolley Tracks

The Battle of the Morris Avenue Trolley Tracks is about to end. And, surprise of surprises, it will end with victory for the people of Springfield because the New Jersey State Highway Department announced this week that "resurfacing of this section is included in our schedule of operations for the 1958-1959 fiscal year."

All this came about as the direct result of the latest exchange of letters between Springfield and Trenton. Mayor Albert G. Binder's letter to the Highway Department which indicated that the rails may be covered. A phone call to Trenton by this paper said that while there is a chance the funds won't be available, the odds are that this year will see the disappearance of the hazardous rails. Following is the letter from Judge McMuller and the answer he received: A similar letter from Mayor Binder was unanswered May 2, 1958. Honorable Frederick J. Gassert, Jr., Director, Division of Motor Vehicles, Department of Law and Public Safety, State House Annex

The Case For Widening Route 22

Group Claims It's Possible To "Revitalize" Old Road

There need be no new highway at all says a group of Springfield citizens spark-plugged by an out-of-town pressure group which is fighting freeways to protect business. The Twin Brooks Civic Association has enlisted the support of Mayor Albert G. Binder's special "Mayor's Committee" and sixty other citizens to battle for a plan that would widen the present Route 22 in lieu of any new construction.

The group was seized with almost "revival meeting" enthusiasm Monday night when J. Robert Proctor of an organization known as "York-Jersey Citizens For Traffic And Planning Improvement" convinced them that there is a "very good chance" of kicking the new highway.

Proctor addressed a meeting of 80 citizens representing four of the five local P.T.A.'s, and many of the 31 town organizations. He had a wealth of documents, charts and figures to back up his contention that the State Highway Department has no business building another super highway.

He got the groups unanimous approval of his plan to urge that Route 22 be immediately improved eastward to Union and a 6-lane viaduct be built mostly over the Lehigh Valley Railroad tracks, instead of the State's proposed mountain construction through Springfield with 102.

The group envisions the present Route 22 being widened to eight lanes with two additional "slow down" lanes for cars wishing to turn off or stop at any of the stores. They want all traffic lights eliminated by overpasses.

The whole project has been designed by an engineer, Henry Such Smith, president of the Bergen Point Iron Works of Hoboken.

One of the reasons Proctor and his organization oppose the new highway is that it will strike a blow against such pillars of free enterprise as outdoor advertising, gas stations, road stands, etc. The Federal freeway will not even, by law, have a single gas station on its 68 mile length across New Jersey, according to Proctor.

His organization is opposed to freeways anywhere, except where it is necessary for a "mile or two" to get through a highly congested area. However, he describes his organization as being completely altruistic in its desire to promote free enterprise.

Springfield residents who backed Proctor at Monday's meeting in the James Caldwell School voted to blanket the town with a petition urging the State to look into the merits of the Proctor plan and to fight in every way possible the proposals for Routes 102 and 107.

STATE'S REBUTTAL
Mayor Albert G. Binder addressed a letter to the State Highway Department on May 8 asking for their views on the Proctor plan. He has not received an answer, so the SUN called Trenton to hear a lot of cold water thrown on the proposal.

A spokesman for the Highway Department said that the idea is "not at all feasible." That is, not if Trenton wishes to get all that Federal money.

Under the provisions of the Federal Highway Act of 1956, New Jersey can get 90% of the bill paid if they will construct a freeway to Federal standards. These include:
a. Minimum 12' traffic lanes.
b. A 33' center island in open areas.
c. Minimum 12' shoulder for safe off the pavement stopping on both sides.
d. 7 additional feet on both sides before there is any slant up or down an embankment.

Besides this there is a law on New Jersey statutes that no property owner can be denied access to a highway that touches his property. (Continued on page 3)

The Case For Alternate Route

Terry Dempsey's And The Chanticleer In New Path

Official Springfield is throwing its weight behind an alternate route for Federal Highway 102 that has won the backing of the engineering firm hired by the town to examine the situation.

This route enters Springfield from the West just like the State route, but heads straight across Morris Avenue at the Five Corners by Terry Dempsey's and doesn't cut back down into Springfield until it smashes through the Chanticleer between Millburn High School and Short Hills Avenue. Then it goes out of town the same as the State's route.

The State Highway Department has examined this path and found that it would cost an additional 3 1/2 million dollars.

But the Springfield Township Committee feels that other factors outweigh the expense. They are urging that citizens write their congressmen in support of this alternate plan.

The Case For State Route

Highway Dept. Hearing Set For Monday, June 30 Here

The New Jersey State Highway Department has set June 30 as D-Day for Springfield to fight or accept the state route of Interstate Highway 102.

Public hearings will be held then to air citizens' feelings and to hear of alternate route suggestions. But the State is most interested in presenting its case for the route released on maps printed in this paper on April 24.

The best reason for the State's alignment, if you're taking bets, is that the State backs it.

The public hearing will be on the 6.7 mile section of proposed Route 102 from Berkeley Heights eastward through Springfield to the Union line.

The hearing, the fifth to be held on F.A.I. 102 since January 1957 is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. in the auditorium of the Springfield Regional High School.

The alignment to be discussed is not final according to State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer but will represent the Highway Department's recommendation after exhaustive traffic, economic and engineering studies. Several alternate alignments were studied prior to the selection of the hearing line, he said.

These studies included the number of homes and businesses to be taken; the loss of ratables in each community; service to motorists; service to the communities; traffic analysis; length of each alignment; cost of construction; per cent of grades, etc., the Commissioner explained.

As planned this section of the new interstate route would consist of four lanes in each direction, separated by a wide center island. In general the right-of-way will be 300 feet wide, although in built-up areas this width will be reduced.

INTERCHANGES
The locations of interchanges between the Interstate route and local roads have not been determined, a Department spokesman said, although such points of entrance and exit are suggested at Springfield Avenue, Morris Avenue and Baltusrol Road, in Summit.

It was explained that as a matter of policy points of interchange will not be determined until after consultations with municipal engineers.

The public hearing is being held in conformance with the provisions of the Federal Highway Act of 1956. The purpose, the spokesman said, is to permit constructive suggestions to be made regarding the recommended alignment. A tape recording of the hearing is then submitted to the district office of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads for review. Only following such review will official approval of the alignment be made, he said.

COSTS $388 MILLION
F.A.I. 102 is one of New Jersey's eight interstate and Defense Highways for which the Federal Government is paying 90 per cent of the cost. It is planned to run from the Holland Tunnel to Phillipsburg, a distance of 68 miles. Its overall cost is estimated at $388 million dollars.

The June 30 meeting will have completed public hearings on the route from Bloomsbury, Warren County, eastward to Springfield. Several sections of the route are now under construction.

When completed F.A.I. 102 will carry a large percentage of the traffic now traveling on Route 22, leaving that road to perform a more local function.

According to the Highway Department peak traffic counts on Route 22 are more than double the designed capacity of the highway.

which are being circulated now, to abandon the proposed Rts. 102 and 107, and widen the present Route 22.

What the town of Springfield needs, is a fighting force in the Town Hall, whether Republicans or Democrats, to help all the citizens and residents who are in the midst of the "monster" and not to worry about trolley tracks, laws in front of Town Hall, dinners, and parties, but to FIGHT, FIGHT and FIGHT the most important thing ever to hit Springfield.

We need more co-operation from the Springfield Sun, which started off with a bang, with headlines about our town being "Butchered" and "Slaughtered" and now there is not even a word to help arouse our residents, or Trenton, on what the highway will do to Springfield.

I am writing this letter to your paper for publication, on behalf of the many residents of the Garden Oval Association, who are ardent subscribers to your paper and who would like to continue to be subscribers.

So please, Springfield Sun, and Town Committee men, show us some fight, let Springfield be heard in Trenton!
Thank you.

Mayor's Committee Blasts SUN & Town

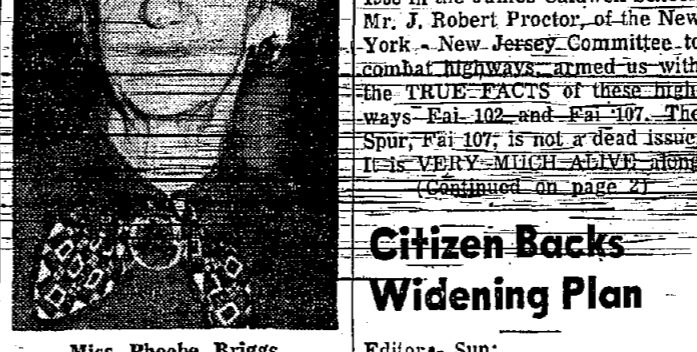

To the Springfield Sun and Township Committee

We the undersigned were appointed to a Mayor's COMMITTEE, to act as a liaison between our organizations and the Mayor for developments on Highways 102 and 107. We were promised a monthly report. To date all we have received are evasive answers—double talk—and lack of action. We have been advised by our Mayor and the Township Committee that a Petition is Valueless and yet our Mayor used this Method just before ELECTION in trying to defeat the Highway.

Why? Is someone deliberately keeping the Public ignorant? For $5,000.00, we should have something CONCRETE. Where is it? We are completely disappointed that we have not read more about the development of Highways 102 and 107 in the Springfield Sun. They consciously stated that these highways could be compared to a Nuclear Weapon in their destruction of Springfield.

Their original Map alerted the people just before ELECTION. Since then our publicity has suffered the AX BLOW. Other newspapers have recognized our plight by BETTER coverage. Why hasn't the Sun? At a meeting on June 2, 1958 in the James Caldwell School, Mr. J. Robert Proctor, of the New York - New Jersey Committee to combat highways, armed us with the TRUE FACTS of these highways—102 and 107. The Sun, F.A.I. 107, is not a dead issue. IT IS VERY MUCH ALIVE and (Continued on page 2)

The Town Talks

By BRUCE GOLDSTEIN. Although there are many recreational facilities in Springfield, does not possess a full scale public park.

'I am in favor of establishing a park because a park would offer people a lot more recreation facilities and would make the town more attractive.'

'Yes, because there is no park in Springfield but only fields for the children. At the present time there are no parks of beauty for the adult.'

'I think establishing a park is a good idea because the town has grown that we need a park.'

'I think that the money for one large park with every facility would be put to better use if used to improve and better equip our present parks.'

'I think it would be good for the younger people because although there are fields in our town there are no parks.'

Your letter of May 2 to Director of Motor Vehicles Gasser, concerning the trolley rails along Morris Avenue, in Springfield, has been referred to this Department.

Please be advised that the resurfacing of this section of highway has been included in our schedule of operations for the 1958-1959 fiscal year, but whether or not the work will go forward will be entirely dependent upon the availability of funds.

Very truly yours, STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT (signed) F. D. Woodruff, Asst. Supervising Engr. Bureau of Maintenance

Terry Dempsey

It will be a do or die presentation before the State officials with engineering maps and charts to back up the town's position. The engineering firm of Theodore McCroskey Associates will present the technical picture which Forbes describes as feasible.

There are five arguments for the alternate path, according to Forbes: 1. The economic impact of the highway should not be born by Springfield alone.

2. The best location for an interchange would be at the five corners. 3. This is the logical spot to connect up with the East-West new road to Morrisdown.

4. The additional $1/2 million dollars does not take into account the cost of constructing interchanges in places like the middle of Springfield. It would cost much less to build an interchange at the five corners.

5. The grades and curves of the alternate route are acceptable to engineers. But the biggest reason for the alternate route is that it will cause "considerably less damage to Springfield all the way down the line."

Muller Is Big Town Booster

Group Claims

erty. So the State would have to buy up rather wide marginal strips of land if it is to have a limited access highway as required by the Federal government.

DON'T NEED FEDS.

Proctor and the local group behind him aren't even arguing this point, though. They claim the State shouldn't spend all that Federal money anyway. The present Route 22 can be improved, they say, with the Federal Government paying 50% of the bill.

Interstate travelers need another East-West highway.

Proctor says no, Springfield certainly doesn't need it. New Jersey is getting a labyrinth of freeways anyway, paralleling 102. And it seems a shame to let all those interstate travelers pass through New Jersey without an opportunity to leave some money here.

The amount of engineering work and "philosophical" effort expended by people on this side of the fence is quite remarkable. Here are some of the arguments for their position:

a. Interchanges off of freeways causes traffic jams on secondary roads.

b. There is no highway to meet 102 when it gets to Pennsylvania. Likewise what will it do to the Holland Tunnel.

c. Route 102 will create problems of accessibility of police and fire apparatus in Springfield.

d. Route 102 will cut off children from their schools.

e. Commercial establishments on the present Route 22 will suffer loss of business if the new highway is built, which means unemployment as work forces are cut.

f. It will take as long to travel over 102 as Route 22 because the new highway will be up hill over the Watchung plateau.

g. Only 1/4 of Route 22 traffic is interstate. The rest is commuter. The need is only for construction east of Plainfield, not for 58 miles.

h. Improvement of the present Route 22 upwards of a million dollars a year would be saved in driving time alone to users of the road, allowing as little as a dollar per hour as driving time value to the vehicle and its occupants. The theory is that commuters would still have to use the old highway, even if the new 102 is built.

i. The amount of money saved, it goes without saying, is enormous.

k. Route 22 isn't so bad as it now stands anyway. Capacity is supposed to be 55,000 cars a day in Hillside. Now the average is 39,000 and at that the road has a safety record comparable to the New Jersey Turnpike.

l. The National Highway Act of 1956 allows the widening of Route 22 under the provisions which reads: "... existing highways located on an Interstate route shall be used to the extent that such use is practicable, suitable, and feasible, it being the intent that local needs, to the extent practicable, suitable, and feasible, shall be given equal consideration with the needs of Interstate Commerce."

The story of the gift that took a lifetime to make...

Like all grandfathers, he thinks the world of his grandson. Like all grandfathers, he'd give him the world if he could. And, in a way, that's what he's done during all the rewarding times they have always spent together. He has tried to give his grandson a gift that will last the boy a lifetime, a gift that has been a lifetime in the making.

Faith... Faith that has been the strength and nourishment of his own life... that's what he has tried to show the boy, day by day. Faith in God, in himself, in his parents, in the town they live in, in the people he calls his neighbors. And so, every week, you'll see them, grandfather and grandson, worshipping with the rest of the family, at their church.

If you would like to leave as much to your children and to your children's children... remember this: only if you yourself have Faith, can you hope to give it in any measure. Begin this week to find the Faith for your life. Worship with all the family at your Church or Synagogue.

Your Library
Readers coming into the Free Public Library of Springfield on Saturday were surprised. Girls were dodging "hither and yon" carrying books. It was the Girl Scouts who had come to help with the moving. This week sixteen girls came; nine came last week. Those for the library were: Patricia Kaufhold, Judy Kent, Candy Logah, Kathy Murphy, Laura Paciak, Joan Rutgerspan, Carol Rutz, Ellen Rutz, Lois Schneider, Irene Somer, and Irene Ziegenfuss. They were from Troops 743, 747, 833, and 744. In addition to the girls, two boys: Richard Leonard and Gary Buffington, volunteered their services. With everyone's help all of the books have been located on the proper level, and by the end of the week, the Library Staff will have smoothed out irregularities so there will be room for all. It will be a welcome change to look for books without having them crowded. So far the people looking for fiction on the lower level have found the books easy to locate.

Many have remarked about how nice it looks down there and how convenient they find it. Since the lower level is the coolest spot in the library, it should be popular on a hot day. The Library Staff are weary, but feel great satisfaction in seeing a job well done.

A side from the joys of home-ownership, you'll find your own home a great economy and enhancing investment. That is, if you buy carefully. And by buying through your Realtor you can be sure of buying carefully. Real estate values are his business. Circus Clowns To Bring Laughs Mon.

"Happiness is joy shared with others" is the motto of the clowns who are coming to Union with the Hunt Bros. circus for two big days, Monday and Tuesday June 9 and 10 under the auspices of the Lions Club. Playing on the lot at Biertumpel park the clowns have adopted their slogan from the Indian word for clown, "Koshare" or "Delight Maker."

Among the many clowns to appear are Happy Spitzer and his long eared friend; Ray Sinclair producing clown, Jonnie Thompson and many others.

International in flavor, clowns have a rich heritage dating from the clown poet Aristophanes of ancient Greece. Clown drollery, while aimed for its humor, often carries a bit of wisdom for the inhabitants of this weary world.

Many types of clown will appear with the circus as Harry Hunt, manager of the circus does not rely upon one particular name clown to carry the burden. While face harlequins, augustus, slapstick and other clowns will appear along with the already familiar "Weary Willie" tramp type.

Quality of clowns, not quantity, has been a tradition of the Hunt Bros. Circus and patrons of the show are assured that they will have joys of every shade of complexion to please and fascinate the children.

Penetrated by the clowns are, there will be 21 spectacular displays with more than 50 acts appearing.

Two shows are scheduled for each day at 2 and 8 p.m. with doors to the free menagerie opening approximately one hour earlier. Get tickets now from Lions who derive a greater percentage of profit from all tickets sold before circus day.

Bulldogs Lose In Tilt With Roselle

Roselle High School, seeded seventh in the Union County Baseball Tournament, ousted Regional...

Jonathan Dayton scored all their runs in the sixth inning when eight men batted. John Kolessar singled sharply. Then Don Carpenter struck out. Ed Reese kept rally alive with single. Vinnie DePinto batted and struck out. Danny Lucy helped things along with smash.

Regional's Diamondmen now must make up quite a few rain-out contests. Opponents will include Rahway, Roselle, Scotch Plains and Roselle Park.

Coach John Swedish's basketballers will employ a fast break and an outside shooting game to counteract the growing popularity of the zone defense among school boy fives. His own defense will be a straight man-for-man.

Billie Bener returns to lead the hoopers. He will primarily play the pivot. Ed Reese will be the playmaker. All other positions are open but Richie Baker, Jay Gladstone, Howie Rudaminer, Dennis Golcher and Bill Franklin will provide a tough choice for Coach Swedish.

Next year will bring the debut of another sport to Jonathan Dayton, Soccer. This growing sport will be coached by Russ Hunchar. Next season, the schedule will be on the Junior Varsity level—in building toward full varsity status. Eight matches are planned for with Regional playing twice with Union, Scotch Plains, and the Wardle School for Plainfield, Cranford, and Jefferson will also meet the Bulldogs.

All matches will be played away but the Bulldogs-in-search of a practice field will go to Kenilworth—every day after school for work-out. Practice will be held at the Union County Park Commission field.

Next year will be the year for the Grapplers in Coach Herb Palmer's opinion. He has a JV team of this year that compiled a record of 7-1 and best every Union man in the annual Union County Novice Tournament. This is something since Union is the county powerhouse.

Returning from the varsity are: Ed Petrocelli-103 lbs., Pete Rupp-138 lbs., and Ray Lewandowski-128 lbs. and Ray Lewandowski-128 lbs. and Ray Lewandowski-128 lbs.

Sunning Sports is closing up shop. This will be the last column of the 1957-58 sports season. His final article could be a recap of Regional's athletic achievements during the past year but since the material is a little thin, I would rather gaze into the future of Regional's athletic teams.

Springfield Regional will use a more wide-open game next year. The football team will still run out of the unbalanced wing-T but the emphasis will be on passing and the possible break-through threat.

Football Coach Mike Suchena has great hopes for the rest of his backfield. He thinks he has as fast a backfield as the one in 1955 that compiled a 7-2 record. Sprinter Chip Skousen will start at Right Halfback while Dennis Golcher will get the nod at Fullback. The vital Wing-Back position will be filled by Cass Wolowitz. He runs the reverse very well and the speedy 160-pounder will be the main break-away threat.

The line is the sore spot. The line will be big but slow with the exception of the ends. Leo Lospinoso and Allan Stenford get the call at ends. Tackles will probably be Jerry Greenberg and Luke Lopank with the guards undecided between Don Engle, Art Murock, Frank Bieksa and Frank Campano. Center is a questionable spot.

Coaching Staff: Coach John Swedish's basketballers will employ a fast break and an outside shooting game to counteract the growing popularity of the zone defense among school boy fives. His own defense will be a straight man-for-man. Billie Bener returns to lead the hoopers. He will primarily play the pivot. Ed Reese will be the playmaker. has high series and Hopla has high average. A total of 38 boys turned out this year and Coach Peter Senecca expects 50 boys to come out next year. Prediction - Grapplers to be real tough. Give Union a battle for the state championship.

Next year's edition of Dayton's Diamondmen won't compare to this year's printing. Only three varsity boys will return. Pitcher Vinnie DePinto. The rest of the ball club will have to be made up by JVs. The Junior Varsity doesn't offer to much.

Richie Svans might become an extremely good pitcher while Richie Baker and Jay Gladstone might fill the holes at third and second bases. Outfield, catching and pitching will be the main problems. The Frosts have some good hurlers but they won't be experienced enough to be starters.

CAP Asked to Help Hunt Lost Child

A practice search-and-rescue mission turned into the real thing last weekend for fifteen members of the Springfield Civil Air Patrol.

For three days the cadets and seniors had been training in field problems involved in ground rescue in the Catskill State Park. N. Y. Their base of operation was a 240-acre farm owned by a fellow CAP member from Plainfield.

"Target teams" of supposed plane crashes spread themselves throughout the country, while rescue personnel set themselves to the task of locating them, caring for the injured, and transporting them to safety. They were putting to use all that had been learned during the winter months in such things as first aid, ground navigation, and rugged camping.

Beginning the trek home late Sunday afternoon in a somewhat exhausted condition, the CAP members arrived at the Port-Jervis area to find that the river was being dragged for a missing child.

After discussion with the local authorities they determined that it was not known whether the child had fallen into the river, or wandered off, and were asked to organize into search teams to comb the mountainous area nearby. They stood by waiting for the order to begin. However darkness was closing in quickly and the authorities did not wish to continue under such conditions. Disappointed that they could not render aid, the search teams continued on their way home, to learn happily Monday morning that the child had been found.

From Springfield were cadets Sue and Ed Kisch, Seniors Bob and Pat Henry, and Mrs. (L.) Hansen, the Squadron's Executive Officer.
