 Troops can now be assured their letters mailed before 5:30 p.m. on a business day will, under normal conditions, be delivered to destinations within the area on first delivery trips of the following business day.

"Mailing early in the day, thereby giving the Post Office time to sort and transport mail to its destination, is the best way to be sure your letter receives overnight service," Postmaster DelVecchio added.

Mayor Defends

 "It is true, as the Charter Study so caustically relates, that the people of Springfield were placed under a form of government which was developed for conditions over 100 years ago. It is also true, which they do not state, that likewise is the government of the United States of America operating under a Constitution which was drawn up over 175 years ago. Either by design or lack of knowledge they do not tell you that the Township Committee form of government operates under a State Statute, and that statute has been amended by deletion, addition and revision over the past years to where it now encompasses many volumes, and is as modern and up to date as the State Legislative body deems necessary.

"Perhaps the Faulkner Act and its Plan E, 'Council-Manager' form of government will likewise have its many defects and deficiencies corrected in the next 100 years, but is it fair to the citizens of Springfield that we be saddled with such a governmental straight jacket until time and conditions correct its many faults?"

Organizational Set-up
 "The present organizational set-up of our municipal functions, in the main, come under two officials who are in effect, town managers, but who are directly answerable to the Township Committee. One official, the Township Clerk, has charge of most of the internal operations, such as official records, ordinances, purchasing (othof than bids), personnel and payroll. The other official, the Township Engineer, has charge of most external operations, such as roads, sewers, public buildings and grounds.

"The Police and Fire Departments are headed by their respective chiefs and all are answerable directly to the Township Committee. This organization of responsibility and work follows the corporate pattern and has resulted in integrated, efficient and economical operation of the Township.

"Departments such as the Public Library, Recreation Commission, Shade-Free Commission and Welfare Department are by State Statute semi-autonomous and are controlled indirectly through their budgets which is the direct responsibility of the elected Township Committee. Under any other form of government their operations could not be changed.

Changes Thru Years
 "The administrative practices now in being are the result of many changes over the years, and there is no question that changes will be made in the future as they are found practical to improve our operations. Suggestions are always welcomed from our citizens.

"Under the Township form of government, the five members of the Township Committee act as a whole, as required by law. Thus, the legislative and executive principles are the product of their combined judgment. There is no parceling out of authority in particular areas to individual Committee men, such as would be the case in a Manager form of government, whereby that individual would be the sole administrative officer and could assume dictatorial authority.

"The policy decisions of the entire committee are carried out under the administrative supervision of the department heads who are responsible to the committee as a whole. Thus the men who are elected to govern by our citizens do actually govern, and are directly answerable to the electorate.

"This article has dealt for the most part with a brief outline of what I strongly feel are the advantages of our present Township Committee form of government. In subsequent articles I will present further facts and figures to assist the citizens of Springfield to carefully weigh and arrive at a momentous decision in the forthcoming referendum. I will also point out the pitfalls and hazards of a Council-Manager form of government that are proven facts where this set-up has been tried and failed."

 U.S. Pool Co. of Scotch Plains; according to him, the 4th largest pool manufacturer in the U.S.

His company has just brought English channel swimmer Gertrude Ederle into the business and are selling a pool that she designed. The price range is $2,000 to $10,000 with custom pools up to $20,000. Rudolph estimates the annual upkeep at about $75.

The U. S. Pool Co. makes its pools with the emphasis on safety, says Rudolph. Here are some of the features:

a. Kiddie wading pools that fall into shallow end so young folks won't fall in deep water.

b. Covers that go over entire pool, look on, and can resist weights of 600 lbs. so no one could fall or jump into pools while owners are away.

c. Alarms that float on surface of pool and go off when 3 lbs. fall into the water. They are removed during swimming sessions.

d. Walls made of Corchex, a bacteria killing agency.

e. Fibre glass structures that expand so that the pool can be filled all winter enabling usage as a skating rink.

Temple Beth Ahm Sisterhood Meet

The opening meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Ahm will be held on Monday evening, September 8, at the Temple, Baltusrol Way. The meeting will start at the new time of 8:15 P.M.

The guest speaker will be Mr. Sylvan Kohn, director of Adult and Extension Education of the Essex County Jewish Community Council, whose topic will be "Sisterhood and You". Mrs. Meyer Bidelman, president of the Sisterhood, urges all women of the Temple, whether they are members of Sisterhood or not, to come to hear Mr. Kohn's message.

A brief business meeting will precede the program and refreshments will be served. The meeting is designed as an open-house to welcome all new, old and prospective members to a most interesting Sisterhood year.

Mrs. Abner Gold, program chairman and Mrs. Lee Lichter, membership chairman, will be in charge of the program.

You shall file your Answer with Proof of Service in duplicate with the Clerk of Superior Court, at Trenton, New Jersey, in accordance with the Rules of Civil Practice and Procedure.

The object of this action is to foreclose a tax sale certificate recorded in Book 3071 of Mortgages for Union County page 6 and which, by means assignments, is held by the Plaintiff and affects lands in Township of Springfield, Union County, New Jersey and known as Lot 84 on Map of Property Office 877787 in Chas. 2220-23. Said lands being known as 159 Linden Avenue, Springfield, New Jersey.

You are joined because you are some of the owners of record and the husbands of such owners of the lands above described.

A most enthusiastic vacation endorsement came from Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Harback of 51 Evergreen Ave. who, with their children Joanie, Edward and Virginia, just completed a five-week cross country tour in their house trailer.

One of their favorite stops was Yellowstone Park. It was there that Mr. Harback had a bad fright one morning. He stepped out of the trailer to admire the scenery only to be faced by an enormous wild bear. Fortunately the bear found something else to distract him and left Mr. Harback with only a memory of an unusual encounter.

The family also spent time in Salt Lake City, Utah, Nevada, California (where of course they visited Disneyland), Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kur of 159 Wentz Ave. are happy to announce family at Miami Beach's Deauville Hotel for Mr. and Sam Piccione of 41 Kipling Ave. and their children Sam Jr. and Kathy. The Picciones sunned and funned for four weeks.

The "Ocean Monarch" was the ship chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Parker of 81 Kew Drive for a two-week cruise. The voyage took them to Quebec, the Saguenay River area, Halifax, and Bermuda.

Peter Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller of 112 Meisel Ave., spent a week at Holiday House where he attended the high school-Bible conference. Peter was sent there by St. Stephen's church of Millburn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hockstein of 9 Cottler Ave. and their son, Eddie, have returned home from Lake Hopatcong where they spent a good part of the summer at their family home.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Gershen of One Norwood Road and their sons, Jonathan and David, week-ended in Greenwood Lake, N. Y. at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Merkle. The Merkles are also residents of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schramm of One Remer Ave. enjoyed a few days of relaxation last week at Wildwood and Cape May, N. J. They were accompanied by their children Eileen and Karen.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Editor, SUN:

While it might seem odd to write to my own son, about his father, I cannot resist using this medium to tell our readers how marvelous both the Springfield Police and the Springfield First Aid Squad have been in the emergency which arose at our home at 3 a.m. this past Sunday.

Everyone responded so quickly to my urgent call for help, that I am certain their devotion to service enabled your father to fight off a rather serious attack. The First Aid Squad rushed him to Overlook Hospital, after they and the police worked on him for some time, where he is now receiving treatment.

I am especially grateful to Dr. K. Burk of Springfield "covering" that day for our regular physician, Dr. Ralph I. Mond, who came immediately at that early hour in the morning.

Am confident that when your father comes home from Overlook Hospital, he will add his thanks to all those who made themselves available in this emergency. They are truly dedicated people.

Ever gratefully,
MOTHER
(Mrs. S. O.) Reebe W. Sarokin

LIKE HAVING SIX HANDS!

an ALL ELECTRIC LAUNDRY

Your home laundry is only half complete with just an automatic washer. Hanging that wash out to dry is an unnecessary job. By adding an electric dryer you can take care of all the washday drudgery — automatically. Simply take the wet things out of the washer, toss them in the dryer and forget them. Everything from chenille bedspreads to delicate lingerie tumble dry safely in clean, electrically heated air. Towels come out fluffier. Colors can't sun-fade. Clothes dry so soft and wrinkle-free they're easier to iron, and very often need no ironing at all. And there's no more worry about the weather. You don't need six hands to beat the work on washday. One's enough to set the dial on an all-electric dryer.

7 pounds, 8 ounces of Sacred Trust

If you have youngsters of your own, then this picture must call up wonderful memories. How happy, how proud you were of the new baby. Proud, happy, and grateful, too. For no one had to tell either of you that your child was a sacred trust... that his or her happiness depended in large measure upon the way you measured up as a parent.

Today, you know better than ever how true that is. It's you the children look to for all things... for love, for learning, for fun... and above all, for the good example to follow in life.

That's quite a responsibility. But, thanks to God, not a lonely one. For God blessed you with children, knows you need His constant help to raise them wisely—and that help is yours for the asking. Worship together, at your Church or Synagogue, every week.

HOW Water Works
The Reversing Waterfalls!
ST. JOHN RIVER, NEW BRUNSWICK, CANADA—caused by the 50-foot tides in the Bay of Fundy.
At low tide, the river flows over a 15-foot falls into the Bay, but at high tide, water from the Bay comes in with such a rush that the falls are reversed, and the sea water falls into the river from a height of 20 feet!

St. Stephens Sets World Cruise Fair

In St. Stephen's Parish House on Friday, October 24th. This will be an all-day affair. Hours to be announced at a later date.

Plans are being completed for a "World Cruise Fair" to be held in St. Stephen's Parish House on Friday, October 24th.

Beth Ahm To Hold Special Service

Rabbi Reuben R. Levine of Temple Beth Ahm announces that a "Slichos" Service will be held at the Temple on Saturday night, September 6th. This is the traditional mid-night service held prior to the High Holy Days, setting the mood of repentance, which is the theme of the forthcoming solemn days.

The Slichos Service contains prayers asserting God's Kingdom and stressing his Fatherhood and Mercy. It calls upon the worshippers to humbly search their ways and to seek personal grace before God and Man. The Service, which begins at 11:30 p.m. is open to all. It will be conducted by Rabbi Reuben R. Levine and Cantor Irving Kramerman.

ORT Sets First Membership Tea

The first membership tea of the Fall season is planned for the Springfield chapter of Woman's American ORT on Tuesday evening, September 9, at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Rotwein, 25 Sycamore Terrace Springfield.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Martin Sherman, of the Springfield chapter, will report on the origin and history of ORT. Anyone interested in attending may contact Mrs. Harold Davis, chairman of membership teas, at Drexel 6-5736. Woman's American ORT provides vocational training, social assistance, medical care and opportunities for higher education for the needy youth in 19 countries throughout the free world.

JNHAC To Hold Fashion Show

The Springfield League of the Jewish National Home for Asthmatic Children will have a three time first on Sat. afternoon, September thirteenth, at two p.m. at the Spring-Garden-Country Club in Florham Park. It will be the first time a delicious luncheon will be served for purpose of membership. The first time a membership affair will be held in a country club, and the first time Jelof's of Millburn and Newark, coordinated with fur, military, shoes, handbags and jewelry by other merchants.

Please make your reservations on or before September seventh with the membership chairman Mrs. Larry Fine at Dr. 6-4494 or Mrs. Phil Ames at Dr. 9-4975.

Asthmatic Board To Meet Sept. 9

The Board of the Springfield League of the J. N. H. A. C. will meet Tuesday, September ninth, at the home of Mrs. Philip Ames, 25 Archdr Adger Lane, Springfield. Mrs. David Adler, President, will conduct the meeting.

Mrs. Harry Katz, past president, will report on the convention held at the Denver Home. Mrs. Larry Fine will report on the Membership Tea to be held at the Spring-Garden-Country Club in Florham Park, and Mrs. Herbert Axelrad will tell about the Rummage Sale.

Other reports will be given by the Mesdames Milford Schulman, Phillip Ames, Jack Hager, Joseph Wortman, Leo Heller, Norman Shapiro and George Rudner.

P.T.A. NEWS

Gaudineer School All members of the Gaudineer P.T.A., and particularly executive committee members and officers, are reminded of the Union-County Institute conferences to be held next Tuesday, September 9th at First Presbyterian Church, Chestnut Street and 5th Avenue, Roselle.

One and two hour conferences, from 9:30 to 2:30, will be conducted by the County Chairmen and Officers for Local Unit Chairmen and Officers. Registration will be 25c. There will be an Executive Committee Meeting for all officers and committee chairmen on September 22nd at 8:15 p.m. in the Teachers' Room of the Florence Gaudineer School.

Boy To Goulds

Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Gould of 28 Briar Hills-Circle announce the birth of a baby boy born August 31 at Beth Israel Hospital, Newark. Alan Steven weighed in at 6 lbs. 11 oz. He has a sister, Carol Ellen age 3.

O.R.T. Board To Meet On Thurs.

The board of the Springfield chapter of Woman's American ORT, (Organization for rehabilitation through training) will hold its first meeting of the new season on Thursday evening, September 4 at 8:30 P.M., at the home of Mrs. Don Perlmutter of 47 Garden Oval, Springfield.

Newly installed officers are bubbling with ideas and innovations for a most interesting and fruitful year. A report will be given by Mrs. Irving Shatten on plans for the gala theater-party to be held in January.

Mrs. David Hecht will preside.

Firesiders Hear Lebanese Native

The Fireside Group of the First Presbyterian Church will resume its fall activities on September 10th at 8 p.m. with the Rev. Faud Bahnam, a native of Lebanon. Mr. Bahnam will lead a discussion period on "The Role of the Church in the Middle East."

He was born in Jerusalem and educated at the American University at Beirut and Oxford University. At the present time he is studying for his doctor's degree at Princeton Seminary and on his return to Lebanon will be engaged in producing Christian literature.

Hole In One !!!

Mr. and Mrs. Max Weiss and sons of 59 Bryan Avenue, spent the Labor Day weekend at their favorite summer resort, Sky Hill Lodge in the Poconos.

Sunday was a lucky day for Max. He played a round of golf at the Mountain Manor Golf Club and at the second hole it happened—A HOLE IN ONE! Needless to say, as part of the festivities traditional to the feast, Max ended up in the swimming pool—clothes and all, but however wet, still smiling and happy.

for the Muslims. The new president, Edward Tackels, will conduct a meeting and refreshments will be served.

Dark Cottons Are Important For "Hot" Fall

Dark cottons become important as fall approaches and temperatures are still high, says Mrs. Carolyn Yuknus, Associate Home Agent.

"What to wear" becomes the cry of most women at this time. Light pastel and sheers look too summery and faded to give you that smart-looking feeling. Heavier materials are uncomfortable to wear and look too "winterish."

The solution to this problem is either buy or make several dark cottons in either solid, small print or plaid colors. There is such variety of designs available that you may have a problem making a final choice.

If you are a home sewer, you will have a large variety of material to choose from. Solid colored materials offer no problems except to make certain the pattern is cut on the grain of the fabric.

The small geometric prints are attractive, but they need careful scrutiny. Such designs are deceiving because they may have a definite "up and down" to the design. Look at a section of the material carefully and note if there is a top or bottom to the single design. If there is, the design reversed in other places?

If a patterned material has a one direction design, then all the pattern pieces must be placed with the top of each piece going in the same direction.

Plaid offer pleasant possibilities for dark cottons—however, plaids must be matched to achieve that "expensive cotton look."

Plaids may be very deceiving. The fabric may be a balanced, unbalanced up and down, or unbalanced right and left design.

A leaflet on "Plaids and Stripes" is available free of charge, by contacting the Home Economics Extension Service Office, Court House Annex, Elizabeth.

Plaids may require extra time for careful planning and cutting, but the results are satisfying.

Plan to get your dark cotton wardrobe ready now.

PATIO GLAMOUR:

Cotton goes glamorous enough for dancing outdoors beneath the stars in these patio separates by Martini. The fabric is heavy textured cotton woven with gold Lurex.

the hunting season. It is designed for deer or venison roasts but does wonders with a veal shoulder or rump. If you plan to barbecue—a piece of veal, this recipe will give you something really special. If not, tuck it away in your recipe file for use on a roast next winter. You'll be glad you did.

Mrs. Walter T. Leamy Jr. of 704 Pinewood Rd., Union, who won our $10 Favorite Recipe Contest prize with this recipe, says it has been handed down in her family from her great-grandmother who was French-Canadian.

Even if you aren't descended from the French-Canadians, you are invited to enter our contest. Just mail your favorite recipe to this newspaper at the address in the upper left-hand corner of this page. Please include telephone number.

MARINATE FOR VEAL

Mix together:

- 1 cup wine vinegar
- 1 cup white wine
- 2 cups cooking oil
- 1 onion, chopped
- 1 carrot, chopped
- 1 teaspoon chopped garlic
- 1 or 2 cloves
- 1 sage leaf
- Pinch of thyme
- Pinch of oregano
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Cover veal shoulder or rump (or venison) weighing 3 1/2 to 4 pounds with marinate and leave two days, turning meat frequently (every three hours, at least). Drain about an hour before roasting. Sear meat golden brown on all sides and roast at 350 degrees F. one and a half to two hours.

TENDER SPIRIT:

Long before two GI's got the brilliant idea of dehydrating papaya to produce a meat tenderizer in "salt" form, wine and vinegar marinates were used. The marinate has the added advantage of seasoning the meat delightfully. Shown adding wine to her prize-winning recipe for Marinate For Veal is Mrs. Walter T. Leamy Jr., who received $10 check in our Favorite Recipe Contest this week.

Apples In Abundance Are Forecast For Fall Pies

A homemade fresh, green apple pie is one of the treats in store for your family at this time of year. Served still warm, it tastes best, especially with a little wedge of cheese. But served cold with ice cream, apple pie is one of America's favorite desserts, says Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, County Home Agent.

For good apple pie you must start with good apples—and that means the right variety for cooking. But there is also some difference of opinion as to what is desirable. Everyone agrees that pie apples should be slightly tart. Some like an apple that stays fairly firm like a Rome, while others don't mind if the apple cooks mushy like a McIntosh.

According to a survey of homemaker's opinions of apple varieties for different uses, excellent for all purposes are Cortland, Northern Spy, and Golden Delicious; for eating raw are Delicious and Winesap; for baking are Wealthy, Greening, and Rome Beauty, and for making sauce are Wealthy, Greening, Jonathan, and Rome Beauty. Select seasonal apple varieties that are best suited to your needs.

Apples, in all colors, sizes, and shapes are expected in plenty this fall. The best apple crop since 1950 is forecast for this year. Production should be six per cent above last year for the entire country and 20 per cent greater for New York State. Extension specialists expect supplies to increase in September and reach their peak in October. Lowest seasonal prices will be in October and November.

While hundreds of apple varieties are grown in this country, only a few of them are important commercially. About one-third of the nearby apples are McIntosh, an all-purpose apple. These and Greenings will be more plentiful than they were a year ago. Harvest of both McIntosh and Greenings begins in September but the apples are available until Spring. Other abundant varieties expected are Cortland, Delicious, Baldwin, and Wealthy. All of these but the Baldwins

Sweet Potatoes Go On Masquerade

Vegetable Is Candy, Cake, Pudding or Biscuits

By AUDREY CHASE

The sweet potato is a native of tropical America. It is grown extensively in our southeastern states and is grown commercially as far north as our own state. There are many recipes for this delightfully edible tuberous root both as a vegetable and a dessert.

Down South America way, they have some particularly good sweet potato dessert recipes. Here is one of their little cakes that could be mixed ahead of time and cooked at the table in an electric frying pan the next time the girls come in for bridge.

Mash three boiled sweet potatoes and measure the amount. Add half as much flour and one-half teaspoon salt. Add three egg yolks well beaten. Knead by heaping tablespoonsful into flat cakes three-quarters of an inch thick. Fry slowly in butter and serve with syrup or honey.

If your family is fond of puddings, surprise them with this one from our southern neighbors.

Reserve one-quarter cup milk from one quart and scald the rest. Add four tablespoons raw rice and cook until very soft. Add to the quarter cup of milk two tablespoons cornstarch, two cups sugar and one-quarter teaspoon salt and stir slowly into the rice. Add one medium sweet potato grated raw and six almonds, blanched, peeled and crushed. Simmer while stirring constantly until pudding is very thick.

Cool before serving.

If you really like to cook and have the time to indulge in this pleasant art, you will have fun making South American fudge. No doubt, the family will eat (Continued on next page)

Fashion Wear
Presents Its Own Lexicon

In the Fashion Lexicon, here are a few words fashion lovers will be hearing this fall.

Dress Institute - It introduces the word and gives its meaning fashion-wise.

Directoire (de-reck-twoer) - The period - 1792 - 1800 in France when high-waisted loose fitting clothes were in fashion, as they are today.

Empire (em-pee-er or em-pee-er) - The period of 1803-1813 when Napoleon was Emperor, when high-waisted, form-fitting clothes were introduced.

Trapeze - The Dior silhouette of Spring - 1958 - which flares out sharply below the shoulders, somewhat like a child's dress. The name is derived from the geometrical figure, trapezoid, a pyramid with a flattened top.

Flounce - A full, gathered section at the base of a skirt.

Bateau neckline (Bat-o) - Boat-shaped, high in front and back, pointed at shoulders.

Cowl neckline - Soft drape of self-material at the neckline.

Cowl back - Similar drapery at the back of the dress.

Ascot collar - A collar with long ends to be looped over like a scarf.

Blouse - Overblouse held in at the bottom with a drawstring.

Raglan sleeve - A sleeve cut with slanting seams from neck to under the arm. Sling collar.

Upsanding collar - One continuous band of fabric.

Smock cut - Coat or dress gathered full below a yoke.

Harem skirt - Full skirt gathered under at the hemline like harem trousers.

Mohair tweed - Looped, brushed tweed made of wool and the hair of the mohair goat.

Loop tweed - Wool tweed with a looped surface.

French-knot tweed - Tweed with rubbed effect like French knots woven in.

Bouclé (boo-clay) - Woven or knitted fabric that has a smooth raised surface.

Matelessé (mal-lassey) - Soft silk fabric with raised woven designs in blistered effect.

Lamés (la-may) - Fabric woven of flat-gold or silver metal thread, often with a design against a sheer silk background.

Warp-printed silks (satin, taffeta, faille) - Patterned silks with the design printed on the vertical warp threads of the loom before weaving, producing a blurred effect in the print.

Cut velvet - Satin or taffeta with a raised pattern of velvet.

Coupe de velour (coop-de-ve-lour) - Same as cut velvet.

Souffle (soo-fly) - Puffed-up fabrics or drapery.

Ottoman silk - Heavy fabric with wide flat ribs extending from selvege to selvege.

Eponge (ay-pon) - Soft, loosely woven, spongy silk.

Peau l'ange (po-dan) - Waxy, smooth, garden-like finish in silk. It literally means "angel-skin."

Gros de Londres (grow de Londra) - Glossy, lightweight silk fabric woven with horizontal ribs. Pout de sole (poot de swah) - Ribbed silk slightly heavier than gros de Londres.

Sequins - Metal convex disks used for trimming.

Paillettes (pie-ettes) - Small, flat and glittering disks, usually sewn to lie flat like fish-scales.

Bugle beads - Tube-like beads used for embroidery.

Tartan plaid - Any plaid in distinctive design of a Scotch Highland clan.

Paisley - A decorative pattern originally used in Paisley shawls made in Paisley, Scotland, but taken from cashmere shawls of India.

Maniple drapery - Loose back drapery starting from the shoulder blades - also called "backdrop."

A shoe repairman gives this fix to get longer wear from patent leather. Clean shoes, handbag or belt with petroleum jelly. Begin using it as soon as you get the item home. Continued proper care in this line will discourage patent from cracking.

Caramel Orange Rolls
For Breakfast Action

MAKES 'EM HUSTLE: Want to make the family-hustle to breakfast? Serve these caramel orange rolls.

It's a breakfast call that will bring the whole family to the table quickly - the fragrance of these caramel-orange rolls as they bake. Made from Brown'n Serve Rolls, they are a jiffy-quick hot bread for breakfast. To shorten morning preparation time, they can be made oven-ready the night before, suggests Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, County Home Agent.

Follow the recipe for the topping, and spread it over the bottom of a loaf pan. Place a package of Brown'n Serve Rolls upside down in the topping, and then store in the refrigerator overnight. At breakfast time preheat the oven to 400° F. and while you assemble the other menu items, they will bake off.

CARAMEL ORANGE ROLLS
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 1/2 tablespoons orange juice
1/4 teaspoon mace
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
8 Brown'n Serve dinner rolls

Combine sugar, orange rind, orange juice, mace and butter. Spread over bottom of 1 quart loaf pan. Place rolls, with tops down, over sugar mixture. Bake in a moderate oven for 15 minutes. Let rolls stand in pan one minute after removing from oven. Invert pan to remove rolls so that caramel orange side is up. Serve immediately. Yield: 8 Caramel Orange Rolls.

How To Cook
Most Popular
Food: Milk

Did you know that milk was the most popular drink of all in the Northeast. Neither tea, coffee nor any of the bottled beverages is used in such volume. Everyone needs it, child or adult. Adults do drink less milk than children, but they can make up for this by eating more. Almost everyone would benefit by using more milk and cost need be no deterrent with non-fat dry milk so good and so readily available. It's excellent for use in cooking, besides making an especially good drink for those who are calorie-conscious, says Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, County Home Agent.

Problems in milk cooking are general problems not caused by a specific type of milk. Milk of any type is relatively unstable in cooking, compared to many other foods. Casein and the other milk proteins, minerals and lactose are common to all types of milk. The reaction of each or all of these milk elements to other ingredients and under certain cooking conditions can have a marked effect on results in recipes containing high proportions of milk. Even-skilled food chemists do not understand some of these complex reactions. Everyone experienced in daily practical food preparation is well aware of the "touchy" milk areas. You can best combat difficulties experienced in milk cooking by knowing some of the many causes of difficulties and avoiding them.

"Weeping" custard or soggy custard pies may result from many different conditions. An inaccurate recipe, too long baking, too high an oven temperature, uneven heat during baking, insufficient cooling before refrigeration.

Discolored mashed potatoes result from other causes than the milk used. Discoloration of potatoes before cooking is the most common.

Lumpy white sauce is caused by improper blending of flour and fat or liquid, insufficient stirring, or too high heat during thickening. Milk is seldom, if ever, the culprit.

Sticking to griddle of hot cakes is due to insufficient fat or wrong griddle temperature.

Hot because the mixture contains milk.

Watery baked entrees - containing milk are caused by wrong cooking temperature or too much of another ingredient.

Too high oven-heat or too long holding in oven or steam table should be avoided. And don't blame the milk when it's an excess of either acid vegetable or salt or cured meat that makes your scalloped dish curdle.

With such soups as cream of tomato, too, the acid vegetable is as much the cause of the curdled texture as the milk. Try carefully following a tested recipe, slowly adding the acid to the milk rather than vice versa, and serving the soup promptly.

Various Unfitted Lines Seen In School Clothes

It's time for the semester to open, and there are two schools of thought on how a little girl should look for those first few days in the classroom. She can adopt the current unfitted silhouette or appear in new dresses of conventional-fitted styles.

In Europe, the unfitted silhouette in children's clothing has remained a classic. Mrs. Florence G. Minifie, extension clothing specialist of Rutgers University, feels that this style should stay in fashion for a long time in children's wear.

Unfitted dresses look young whether they have style features such as pleats, flounces, the Empire line or interestingly placed belts. Remember that these new young fashions are worn shorter than last year's clothes. The new look appears out-of-proportion if it extends half way down the calf.

On the whole, jerseys, soft knits, challis, weight, woollens and blends and newly textured cottons further the fluid line of this silhouette, says the New Jersey State University specialist.

After several years of strict league trailing, boys' clothing is branching out into brighter colors, more wash-and-wear fabrics and more varied styling. Mrs. Minifie reports that there is a dressier touch than has been seen in several seasons in boys' back-to-school wear.

Clean Up And Prevent Fires

Each year rubbish and litter cause thousands of fires resulting in untold damage and loss of life. A thorough clean-up of your home and premises can help prevent such fires. At the same time, make a careful check for other fire hazards. Follow these suggestions:

Clear out debris: Get rid of rubbish or anything you are not going to use—such as old newspapers, magazines, broken furniture and the like—that may have accumulated in the attics, closets, cellars or garages.

Clean up after painting job: Throw out paint and oil-soaked rags or keep them in a closed metal container since they may heat up from chemical action and burst into flames. Hang up paint-soiled clothing so air can circulate around it.

Avoid using flammable liquids: Remove them from your home. A tiny flame or spark—even from static electricity or from a pilot light—will ignite gasoline vapor. Play safe! Do not use highly flammable or explosive fluids for dry cleaning!

Check electric appliances: See that they are in good repair and that cords are not worn or frayed. Any needed repair work, including repairs or extension of electric wiring, should be done by a qualified electrician. When buying new cords or appliances, look for the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., label or marker.

Check stoves, heaters and furnaces: See that they are clean and in good condition; have needed repair work done. Check pipes and chimneys: Have soot cleaned out of chimneys and smokepipes. Check for cracks and holes; have chimneys repaired where mortar or bricks are loose, and replace pipes if necessary.

Check your clothes drier: See that the vent, heating unit and lint catcher are free of lint. Accumulation of lint anywhere in the drier may ignite from the heat. A second important safety rule: Never put anything made of foam rubber in your drier. This may include shoulder pads, small pillows, toys, ironing board pads and other padding. Foam rubber is subject to spontaneous ignition at drier temperatures.

Watch outside fires: Clean up your yard. Keep grass cut low around buildings. If an outdoor fire is permitted by local regulations, water it until it is completely out. Do not start a fire on a windy day. The use of a wire-mesh basket or incinerator and ready availability of a garden hose are recommended for added safety.
