

Money Needed For Boy In 31 Day Coma; Family Broke

... an 18-year-old boy in a coma now for 31 days ... his life hanging on a thread ... his distraught family waiting through the long nightmare ... his five brothers and sisters going to school each day with suspense mounting ... a heart-broken mother and father hovering near the hospital ... keeping the other children calm ... and all the time the bills are mounting ... thousands of dollars ... This is the tragic story which was revealed this week as the aftermath of a bicycle accident on August 23 here.

Herman Spiesbach, Jr., 18, of 194 Linden Avenue fell from his moving bike and struck his head with such force that the skull was depressed 1/4 of an inch.

The boy was rushed to Overlook Hospital where the family's physician, Dr. Gabriel J. Lull immediately ordered an operation by two of the country's leading neurosurgeons.

The delicate surgery lasted over 4 hours. The boy has never regained consciousness. Today he lies in Overlook Hospital in a coma attended by nurses around the clock. Meanwhile life must go on for the Herman Spiesbach family. But with medical expenses sky-rocketing for Herman, Jr., the family finds itself hopelessly in debt.

The father is a maintenance supervisor at the Maplewood Country Club. Until this tragedy befell him, he had managed to provide a comfortable living for his wife and six children.

But now the burden of debt is running into the thousands of dollars. He has mortgaged his house to the hilt, his life-time savings are wiped out.

This week the people of Springfield began to come to his aid. Word of the family's predicament has spread throughout the town.

One anonymous donor has given $1,500 to the Spiesbachs.

A civic club voted $350 to help out the family at a meeting this week.

Other groups and individuals have been asked to give by a group of citizens who have banded together in behalf of the grief-stricken family.

Saul Freeman, an employer of the injured boy, has organized a fund drive with the help of James Finn, Harry Monroe, Dan Lucey, Herb Fay, Thomas Brogan, and Richard Blake.

They are asking all in Springfield to give dollars, coins, and checks to the "Herbert Spiesbach, Jr., Medical Fund." The money should be sent to the Springfield Sun office at 262 Morris Avenue.

The group feels it is a responsibility of a town to look after its own when they are in trouble. The Spiesbachs have lived here for many years.

"Cowards, Weak, Trickery, Fence Sitting," Yelp GOP

"Art Handville and Ike Freedman, Republican candidates for Township Committee, today branded their Democratic opponents as 'political cowards' and challenged both Howard A. Flammer and Daniel A. Lucey to declare publicly whether or not they support Council Manager Form of Government for Springfield.

Council Manager Form of Government is on this year's ballot and will be voted upon by the people. 'The people of Springfield have a right to know which form of government these two men favor. Are they so weak in their political courage that they refuse to disclose their position for fear of losing votes?'

'The people of Springfield will not stand for their line of political trickery,' Handville and Freedman declared.

'The Democratic position that this issue is isolated from this campaign is ridiculous and an insult to every voter,' the Republican team continued. In a letter to all Springfield residents, they charged the Democrats with deliberately avoiding the issue, and further charged Flammer and Lucey with 'fence sitting.'

'We have made our convictions with regard to Council Manager Form of Government a matter of public record,' continued Handville and Freedman. 'We are convinced that Council Manager Form of Government will benefit Springfield. We have made and will continue to make in the weeks to come, every possible effort to convince the voters of Springfield that it is through the efforts of a Council Manager that Springfield will continue to prosper and grow.'

Fund-Shy Trenton Can't Tell Location Of Three Highways In Springfield

Lack of money and engineers appears to be the reason why the State Highway Department can only give out the most hazy answers on Springfield's road problems.

Repeated efforts by this newspaper to find out where and when three major highways will be built in Springfield have met with vague "no priority schedules" and "no survey underway" and "that's way in the future" and "15-year plan," etc.

"When pressed why they don't know anything in Trenton, highway officials plead lack of funds. The engineers are simply way behind."

The failure of the Highway Department to pinpoint where the three highways will go is causing an economic blight in the entire Springfield area. The following business projects have been scrapped by highway uncertainty:

1. A shopping center on the Marmon tract on Morris Avenue beside the Summit border. Rumor has it that Bloomingdale's was interested in this.
2. An exclusive New York specialty store development behind Saks Fifth Avenue in Springfield. One of the stores still slated to move onto Morris Avenue there is Bonwit Teller.
3. A shopping center on the Jenco property behind the stores along the North side of Morris Avenue. Food Fair and John Wanamaker were supposed to occupy this site.
4. A large bowling alley-recreation center on the Cairo-Casale Farm on Springfield Avenue.

None of these investors could afford to gamble the millions of dollars involved in areas where highways may go. Some of these locations may be missed by miles.

Urge Residents To Kill Bridge And Save Town

Springfield residents who still have the anti-highway fervor of a few months ago should keep a sharp eye on the results of a meeting of the New York City Board of Estimate tomorrow, Friday.

The redoubtable Robert Moses is going to try to force through a positive vote for the go-ahead on construction of the Narrows Bridge from Staten Island to Brooklyn.

This would sound the death-knell to the Liberty Bridge proposed by the men who spurred talk-in town of the "revitalization" of Route 22.

It would, therefore, make it inevitable that a spur road be connected to U.S. Route 78 (formerly F.A.I. 102) and before that the new alignment of Route 22 in Springfield. This spur (labeled U.S. Route 27B) would take traffic from the West through Springfield down to the Goethals Bridge-in Elizabeth, across the Narrows Bridge to Brooklyn, then north to New England.

If the Liberty Bridge advocates should defeat Moses that would mean that traffic from the West would continue through Springfield on Route 78 and cross New

Claim Rulers Now Draw Up Five Budgets

3rd in a series of articles by the Citizens Organization for Charter Study.

Taxes are directly proportional to the total township budget. The preparation of this budget is therefore the key action of the township committee each year.

The report of the Charter Commission specifically points out, however, that budget preparation is one of the glaring defects of the township committee form of government which Springfield has used since 1793. The present method of preparing and adopting the township budget cannot achieve the lowest possible tax rate. It is, in actuality, the sum of five separate budgets, rather than a single rational plan of total expenditures. This weakness is the direct result of an operational system which lacks a true executive head—a system which does not separate administrative duties from policy making functions.

Budget preparation normally begins with a copy of the preceding year's figures. The tendency is to use this as a "guide" to carry forward last year's expenditures with very little inclination upon the part of any township committee member to question a figure which is not an increase over the year before—even though the same work may not again be required. Since each committee member is a "specialist" for his department and presents its budget, there is little likelihood that one taken apaisal will be offered by one who has his own program to sell.

If adequate administration were the responsibility of a township manager, as proposed by the Charter Commission's recommended Council-Manager Plan, budget preparation would be centralized. The manager would review the requests of each department with the department head. Since, as manager, he has of necessity worked closely with each department throughout the year, the needs of each department can be balanced against the requirements of another. The manager does not have a "special" department and can prepare one over all budget taking the entire picture into consideration. In this way, a township manager could well earn his keep, solely by improving the present budget process.

100 Argue At Sewer Hearing

A standing room only crowd of 100 citizens showed up at the Township Committee's regular meeting last night to protest the approval of the Stumpike Sewer.

With Mayor Albert G. Binder hospitalized by a ulcer condition and Committee member Raymond W. Forbes out of town on business, the Committee did not have the required quorum to act on the ordinance.

A motion by Committee member Arthur Handville to postpone the hearing until Oct. 8 passed unanimously.

The hearing, which lasted several hours, became alternately heated and amusing. An attorney for Jeffroe Estates presented arguments for the developers who would contribute $20,000 and two lots to the Township for the sewer. Everybody in the audience who spoke assailed the contract between Jeffroe and the Township.

Paul Beck stated the main objection when speaking for the Henshaw-Hawthorn Civic Association, said that they felt that the developer's share was not enough of the projected $127,000 project.

Jeffroe Estate's attorney, Alexander Krause, on the other hand, said that if "percentage of land

Boys' Carnival Clears $3.62

A check for $3.62 received this week by the Springfield First Aid Squad, toward its fund drive may not have been among the largest amounts contributed, but it certainly was one of the most well received.

It was the amount collected from neighborhood kids in the North and South Derby Rd. area by James Garner, 8, and his brother, Robert H. sons of Mr. & Mrs. Sidney Garner of South Derby Road at a background carnival run by the boys recently.

American Legion & Auxiliary Install Officers

WHITE CEREMONY—The local post of the American Legion installed new officers in a white ceremony last week. Left to right, outgoing Commander William J. Doyle, and outgoing Past Unit President Mrs. Joseph Colletto. New officers are Mrs. Robert D. Hardgrove, Jr., and David C. Roe. The ceremony took place at the Legion Hall.

The annual installation ceremony of Springfield's American Legion Post and its Ladies' Auxiliary Unit (Continental No. 228) took place last Saturday evening at the American Legion Hall. The newly installed leaders are Post Commander David C. Roe and Auxiliary Unit President Mrs. Robert D. Hardgrove, Jr., who have now succeeded Past Commander William J. Doyle and Past Unit President Mrs. Joseph Colletto. In accepting the symbols and oaths of their new offices, the new commander and unit president pledged the utmost cooperation between the post and unit to continue the projects and charitable programs which are fostered on national, state, county, and local levels by the American Legion and its Auxiliary.

The following American Legion officers were installed: First Vice Commander Hans I. Neilson, 2nd Vice Com. Francis Sammond, Adjutant Donald Schwerdt, Chaplain George Graziano, Historian Charles Smith, Jr., Finance Officer LeRoy Roberts, Sergeant-at-Arms Alfred Rutz. The following men will serve as committee chairman: William J. Doyle, Americans, Edward Baumer.

"Panic, Reckless, Big Lie, Mess, Exploit," Shout Dems

Township Committee Candidates Howard A. Flammer and Daniel M. Lucey today challenged their opponents in the November 4th governing body election here "to come out from behind the charter question and publicly face the people on the mess that has resulted from Springfield's panic-adopted tax reassessment program."

Attacking their opponents' continued political exploitation of the charter question, Flammer and Lucey again stressed that "the question of a charter change must be considered by the people on its own merits free of political pressure or persuasion groups."

"Our opponents cannot continue to hide behind that question," Flammer and Lucey declared, "and resort to burying their heads on such vital problems as the tax reassessment mess, spiraling tax costs and reckless planning—all of which they claim does not exist in Springfield."

"We hereby challenge them to face the public on their cry that the entire mess resulting from the tax reassessment program is just a big lie and dare them specifically to face those people of Springfield, representing more than 1,000 appeals, whose tax bills climbed upward because of the manner in which the reassessment was handled. There are still 156 appeals pending."

"They have used the big lie in defending this mess," Flammer and Lucey declared, "and we now challenge them to face the people of Springfield to deny that it exists."

"Their defense of the tax reassessment mess," Flammer and Lucey said, "is no less contemptible than their decision to politically exploit the charter question. Republicans and Democrats alike, in communities across our nation, have always rightfully held to the principle that no matter what form of local government exists, it can be no better than the men holding office. We also challenge our opponents to place before the public their qualifications to serve Springfield, no matter what the form of government, in a manner that would uphold the principles of sound administration through men in office who are equipped to do the job."

Use Of "Big Lie" Is Condemned By Vince Bonadies

Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies charged today that "the attempt by Isaac Freedman and Arthur Handville to defend the mess resulting from the tax reassessment program here with cries of lies is typical of candidates problems facing the people of Springfield."

"The use of the big lie is an old and vicious campaign technique," Bonadies said, "exposed even further by these men in their own words when they referred to dates in fables quoting me on days which no meetings of the township committee were held, one of the dates even being a Saturday night."

"No responsible candidates for public office can honestly hide the fact that more than 1,000 tax appeals have resulted from the reassessment program with 156 appeals still pending and with the possibility of many more homeowners who will be hit by higher tax bills," Bonadies declared.

"If Messrs. Freedman and Handville think they can argue the existence of all these appeals (Continued on Page 6)

GOP Here Split And Democrats Are Jubilant

Messrs Ray Kravetz, Isaac Freedman and Art Handville who make up the first team for the local Republicans in the elections next month are faced with quite a fight unless there is considerable fence mending before the campaign gets very far.

At this writing the Springfield GOP appears to be hopelessly divided with many of the stalwarts, the professionals who have guided the Republicans to victory after victory, publicly announcing that "they are taking a walk" this year.

If Messrs Kravetz, Freedman and Handville can pull this one out of the fire "it will mean a brand new leadership for the GOP organization in Springfield. However, those who are students of campaign strategy, and political expediency believe that the first shot fired by the candidates in so many splinters, only a miracle or a very good cause could reunite the once strong local political machine.

The announcement that the Republican candidates had endorsed a change of government in Springfield and would support the Council-Manager Plan on the ballot in November was the hand grenade that split the GOP.

Mayor Albert G. Binder who had already started a series of articles defending the administration of government here under the Republicans and voicing his reasons against the Council-Manager Plan, made a secret that he wouldn't carry the ball in the coming election as far as the local candidates are concerned.

Many of the other top drawer Republican leaders in Springfield are also joining in "taking a walk" this year and the campaign may find the GOP going all out for Kean for Senator and "Flo" Dwyer for Congress without even a second look at the lever for two Township Committees.

1st Aid Squad Sees Increase In Bike Falls

Accidents and emergency calls showed a decline during August according to the monthly report issued this week by the Springfield First Aid Squad. A total of 21 emergency calls were answered by the first aiders, one of the lowest numbers of calls in a monthly period in recent years.

The only serious increase, according to squad officials, comes from bicycle accidents. Youngsters and teenagers have been involved in several incidents involving "bikes," one resulting in extremely serious injuries. Squad officers call upon all parents to exert added effort toward emphasizing bicycle safety to their children.

In addition to the 21 emergency calls, the report included 8 transportation, 319 miles travelled by the two ambulances, 154 man-hours devolved by squad members, and 7 tanks of oxygen consumed. Five of the 21 emergencies were heart cases.

Police To Pick Up Bike Siren Boys

"Strict enforcement of bicycle regulations will go into immediate effect today," stated Police Chief Albert A. Sorge. "We have received so many complaints lately regarding the use of sirens on bicycles, that I have instructed all officers to issue summons to violators."

Under the Motor Vehicle Act, the section on bicycles states that it is necessary to have a bell or some other audible device affixed to the bicycle, however, under no circumstances should this be either a siren or whistle.

Summons issued by the local police will be considered a juvenile offense and will be heard in Juvenile Court in Elizabeth.

expenses was brought up last year, money was allocated for the purchase of a gavel for the Raymond-Chisholm PTA. However, Mr. Walter W. Baldwin of 118 Henshaw Avenue, who was then serving on the executive board, offered to save the organization this expense by making a gavel himself. Our association wishes to thank Mr. Baldwin for the hours spent in making this lovely gavel, and the kind thought that inspired the gift.

Calwell School
The James Caldwell School PTA held a reception on Thursday, September 18, for the teachers in the school auditorium.

A short business meeting preceded the reception, conducted by Mrs. Alan Cunningham, president. The budget for the coming year was approved. Rev. Virgil Mabry of the Springfield Methodist Church offered the invocation.

Presiding at the tea table were: Mrs. H. E. Forsyth, school principal and Miss E. Smith, second grade teacher.

Mrs. Robert Bernstein, Hospitality chairman, was ably assisted by the following mothers: Mrs. John Billings, Mrs. Roger Nikolo, Mrs. Howard Heerwagen and Mrs. James Cherry.

The James Caldwell School PTA will begin its annual membership enrollment on Oct. 6. Mrs. William Wood, membership chairman, is hoping for a 100% enrollment from each class. The drive will continue through October 17.

Members of the James Caldwell PTA remember to keep the evening of October 20 open on your calendar! That night our card party will be held in the school's auditorium.

SCHOOL BEAT

By MARSHA WILSON

Walking down the halls of Regional you can feel excitement and tension in the air. The big question is, will we win our first football game this Saturday at Hillside? It's no secret that we've won all our preliminary scrimmages or that we're scheduled to win five out of our nine games this season. All we want to know is—will we live up to these expectations?

Scheduled for Saturday evening is the Student Council dance. This year our school is very fortunate, for the Parent-Teacher Association donated a jukebox to the school at the end of last year to be used for school dances. The Student Council, under the leadership of Toni Sheldon of Berkeley Heights, will be the second organization to use this very worthwhile gift, the first being the Freshmen Dance of May, 1958.

Remember all the things the PTA does for the students of Regional and make Sue Oakman's job as PTA Representative easier by joining the PTA. For only $1.00 a year your child could receive one of the many scholarships they give.

One of the most amusing things about Regional is lunch in the cafeteria. After racing out of class and charging into the cafeteria full blast, you find a lunch line that seems to extend to Alaska when you're hungry! Then you find that in order to be in the spirit of things you need about $10.00 before you can get out of lunch alive. The reason? Those sales women like Anne Howe and Ann Sears of Springfield who approach you with dance tickets, football tickets, bust tickets to Hillside (the first game is away),
Activity Cards, Dayton News
Cards, and anything else, like tickets to the 1970 fencing match!
Driver Education is probably the most popular subject for juniors and seniors. When the course is finished, you have completed the necessary training needed to apply for a driver's license. Two cars are available each period enabling eight people to receive behind-the-wheel lessons. You may have seen Art von der Linden, Johanne Hariz, or Al Menkin cruising around town in "their" car for the next 6 weeks. An interesting note: by the time you have finished the course you will have driven in every town within a 17 mile radius of Regional!

To ease the crowded conditions
a new pla has been instituted—up and down-stairways. This can be quite confusing as Carol Marano found out. It's really quite a time saver though.

Senior girls are settling down to a nice quiet life of knitting in their spare time. Karen Rogers of Springfield and Sue Riches and Nancy Nanger of Mountside are extending all their efforts on the project of the year—sweaters, plenty big, plenty bulky, and plenty warm.

The National Forensic League has started practicing for their first debate, and George Seltzer and Bruce Goldstein of Springfield show promise for a very successful year of debating.

In the future several representatives from Eastern colleges are scheduled to talk to interested juniors and seniors. Muriel Stone, Joan Pitney, and Ruth Tamaroff are making the rounds to the college teas usually given at alumni's homes.

Our school is constantly decorated with plenty of posters announcing future events largely due to the efforts of Ward Landrigan and Margot Breier, our budding artists from Springfield. Jan Forster and Pat Durand, also of Springfield, manage the bulletin

about

Frank H. Taylor & Son, Inc.

Many of our friends know us best as one of the nation's dynamic residential sales organizations.

But the scope of our business has far greater dimension than this. For There is no phase of realty operation in which we do not occupy a significant role.

Some of the companies which we serve are small. Others are among the world's largest. But large or small, each assignment entrusted to us is executed efficiently, vigorously, faithfully. Moreover these assignments are as different in character as the companies we serve. Some are completed in a few days. Others may take many, many months.

Whatever the size or composition of your company, you can count on a Taylor executive for genuinely effective service on either a local or nationwide plane.

Below we have outlined some of our less publicized services and we invite you to share and profit from our background of almost 75 years of un-rivaled realty experience.

care of specific requirements regardless of location (statewide or nationwide).

Use of Big Lie

These "irate homeowners" as well as myself," Bonadies declared, "were told by the governing body that under the tax reassessment program virtually all our tax bills would remain the same with only a few being adjusted upward or perhaps downward."

The basic results of more than 1000 taxpayers' appeals protesting the 1958 assessments speak for themselves. I will defend my own interests, but the governing body elected to offend last year's voters and challenge Mr. Handville and his running mate to do likewise of Mr. Handville's nine-year-old governing body on my pledge to continue being heard as the lone opposition voice on the township committee.

No big lie campaign like that offered by Messrs. Freedman and Handville, Bonadies said, "will intimidate me nor still my voice longer with the administration. If the problems assigned him, how can they expect the people of Springfield to do otherwise but reject that record as well."

"Not only does Mr. Handville refuse to defend his record in office, but he in effect tells us he has no confidence in that record by his declaration that as a township committee member, he can no longer cope with the administration problems assigned him. If he does not resign, how can they expect the people of Springfield to do otherwise but reject that record as well."

Fun-Shy

when the actual roads are constructed, but the uncertainty has made the land virtually worthless. Here is the way the Highway Department is handling the situation in Springfield and go south through the town to Elizabeth.

Freeway to Morristown is "dependent on development in that part of the State in the next 10 years." Officials say "certain portions may be built ahead of time." It will parallel or overlap Route 24 (Morris Avenue) all the way.

"It is physically impossible to do the engineering on these projects at this time," a highway department spokesman said. He estimated that it costs the taxpayers of New Jersey five times as much to buy land for highways because these engineering studies have been delayed.

"If we could lay out the roads now and even in some cases buy the land ahead of time," the spokesman continued, "we'd save a great deal of money."

In addition to the lack of money available to the department, he claims that there just isn't enough engineering talent available in the State.

It would be impossible to isolate the Council Manager issue from this year's campaign.

"It is sheer folly to call Council Manager Form of Government political," they argued. "The very nature and operational method of Council Manager Rule calls for the changing of our form of government."

Handville and Freedman declared that the Democratic charge of political exploitation with regard to Council Manager Rule was a desperate move designed to trick Springfield voters. "Every clear thinking Springfield resident sees the Republican endorsement of Council Manager Form of Government in its true light. Our position is clear and unveiled and we are proud of our stand," they added.

In their joint challenge to Lucy and Flammer to "get off the fence," Handville and Freedman said they will in the weeks before November 4th "pull out" all the stops to show that Springfield has had a Decade of Progress under Republican leadership and that adoption of Council Manager rule will insure that progress.

"The voters of Springfield know where we stand. We challenge Mr. Lucy and Mr. Flammer to make public their position on this, one of the most vital issues in this campaign."

When Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, wanted "some peace and quiet" he used to wrap a large towel around his own telephone.

Handville, a member of Township Committee for nine years, and Freedman, further stated that

The twenty-second football season of the Springfield High School introduced at Regional. It is soccer. Soccer will be played only as a jayvee sport this year and will remain so until the powers that be decide it worthy of being a varsity sport. As of now the team would give any varsity team a tussle. In fact, they defeated the Summit varsity team 2-0 in a scrimmage.

7 pounds, 8 ounces of Sacred Trust

If you have youngsters of your own, then this picture must call up wonderful memories. How proud, how proud you were of the new baby. Proud, happy, and grateful, too. For no one had to tell either of you that your child was a sacred trust—that his or her happiness depended in large measure upon the way you measured up as a parent. That is, it's you the children look to for all things for love, for learning, for fun—and, above all, for the good example to follow in life. That's quite a responsibility. But, thanks to God, not a lonely one. For God blessed you with children, knows you need His constant help to raise them wisely—and that help is yours for the asking. Worship together, at your Church or Synagogue, every week.

Today, you know better than ever how true
