Vote No On Manager Plan E Is Wrong Manager Will For Springfield Cost More $$

Council-Manager Plan E is a form of government designed for large cities, particularly municipalities in the grip of a one party system.

The author of the legislation that established the plan, Bayard H. Faulkner, insists on this. Small communities like Springfield are eligible for this plan only because it would have been unconstitutional for the New Jersey legislature to pass a law obviously aimed at one or two cities.

Council-Manager government is ideal for a city like Newark where there is no effective political opposition to the ruling Democratic Party. It sets up a power within the government (the manager) who acts on a day to day basis independently of the political majority. Ultimately, like Sherman Adams at the national level the manager would be dependent upon political support, but in the meantime he would wield the power of government.

It was into this struggle for political power that the local League of Women Voters stumbled two years ago while studying Springfield government. Why not take advantage of the Faulkner Act and "modernize" Springfield's government.

The Springfield SUN strongly supported the movement to study local government. This paper, for example, has long felt that the Mayor should be elected directly by all the citizens.

The failure of the subsequently elected Charter Study Commission is that they did not study Springfield's government. On the one hand they made no inquiry into the running of any of the departments in Town Hall — Fire, Police, Tax Assessor, Town Clerk, etc. On the other hand, and most im-

Voters will find that the wording of the Public Question on whether Springfield should adopt the Council-Manager Plan E form of government describes this option as being "modern."

This implies that a vote against Plan E is a vote for something that is "ancient" or at least "archaic."

This statement of opinion on an official voting machine, is completely inaccurate.

There is nothing "modern" about the hiring of an executive who is not directly responsible to the people to run a government. How do you vote against the manager?

There is nothing "modern" about dividing responsibility between elected officials and appointed hirelings. Whom do I complain to?

There is nothing "modern" about a law that makes it a criminal act for an elected representative to tell the manager what to do. How can Council set policy?

There is nothing "modern" about a form of government that is based on the premise that there are no local problems. Can a manager from anywhere run this town like any town?

On the other hand, there is nothing "old fashioned" about going to a township committee meeting and asking the man you elected what he can do for you. If you don't like what he says, can't you vote against him?

There is nothing "archaic" about an elected official being responsible for what his government does.

These are the underlying assumptions upon which Springfield is being asked to de-

Forbes and Town Hall Join Mayor In Fight Against Manager Plan

ISAAC FREEDMAN — Republican candidate for Springfield Township Committee. Isaac Freedman is a well-known local hardware store proprietor who, since coming here from England, has become as much a part of the town as the trolley tracks on Morris Avenue. His unassuming manner and perennial pleasant disposition aided in his work with the local Chamber of Commerce and an effective fund raiser for charity drives and Temple Beth Ahm affairs.

FREDERICK A. HANDVILLE — Republican Township Committee member Frederick A. Handville is running for re-election again after three three-year terms in office. The 45-year-old Westfield merchant has been known for his quiet dignity and authoritative statements on the Committee. Never given to hasty ill-considered remarks, he has earned respect for his running of the Fire and Police departments, and work on the Board of Health and Finance committee.

HOWARD A. FLAMMER — Democratic candidate for Springfield Township Committee Howard A. Flammer is a well known lawyer who is often called on to lead civic and social activities. Known for his good-natured exuberant manner, the patient attorney has cut quite a niche for himself at the Bell Telephone Laboratories where his accomplishments have been of sufficient stature to earn him a place in Who's Who in the East. He has served as a leader of the local Methodist church, American Legion, and Rotary.

DANIEL M. LUCY — Democratic candidate for Springfield Township Committee Daniel M. Lucy is a quick-witted banker who, when accused, drives home his points with fiery eloquence. The 47-year-old assistant vice-president of the Bankers Trust Co. in New York City, possesses a fine sense of humor and an extensive background of experience in business fiscal policies. He was the organizing director of the local Civil Defense program and worked three years on a local tax assessment problems.

Three civic leaders of Springfield have joined Mayor Albert G. Binder to head a group of government authorities opposed to Council-Manager Plan E.

Raymond W. Forbes, former President of the Springfield Board of Education and retiring member of the Springfield Township Committee, said yesterday that the Public Question on changing local government "must be defeated" Tuesday.

Township Clerk Eleonore H. Worthington joined Forbes in stating that the Charter question "transcends party politics" and urged yesterday that people vote No at the Polls.

Tax Assessor Wilbur Layng, long a major power in the local Republican organization, joined forces with Mayor Binder in leading the fight against Plan E.

"There isn't a single person in Town Hall who is in favor of a change to Council-Manager," Mrs. Worthington stated. It is the first time that the woman whose task it is to administer the day to day business of local government had expressed herself publicly on a controversial subject.

Forbes attack on the Charter change included a thinly veiled criticism of the faction within the Republican party which has supported Plan E.

He described these politicians as "political malcontents, disappointed office seekers and those who aspire to public office." He says that they are promoting Plan E to "further their own ambitions."

Presumably, this refers to the fact that if Plan E were adopted five seats on the Council would be up for election. This opens the field to more aspirants than the present form of government.

Mayor Binder and Committee member Forbes are both in the position of having no personal stake in the outcome of the Charter vote. The Mayor has said that he will retire soon and is simply giving Springfield voters "the benefit of my 10 years as a Township Committeeman." Forbes, who did not run for reelection this year, says he is expressing the opinion with "which I feel the public ought best be served."

The two committeemen are working actively this week to rally their followers toward getting out as big a "No" vote on Plan E as possible.

Forbes outlines his reasons for opposing Plan E in another article on this page. Mayor Binder completes his 32-point criticism from last week elsewhere in the paper.

Control of Township Committee at Stake Next Tuesday; Both Political Parties Approaching End of Hectic Campaign

With 6,958 eligible voters — almost 300 more than last year — political leaders in Springfield look for a record turnout next Tuesday when the Township will select two members of the governing body, decide whether or not to accept the Council-Manager Plan E change in government and vote for the various county candidates.

The Democrats, encouraged by enthusiastic responses at all their election gatherings and the attendance of more than 350 at an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. Robert B. Meyner, believe that the upsurge and Democratic trend in the nation will give victory to their two candidates — Howard A. Flammer and Daniel M. Lucy.

An energetic campaign has been waged by the Republican candidates, Isaac Freedman and Frederick A. Handville, present incumbent, for the two places on the Township Committee, with Raymond Kravetz, an able newcomer to the local GOP political scene, doing a very fine job of managing the Republican campaign.

Mrs. Amy Bandomer has been selling Congresswoman Florence F. Dwyer who is seeking reelection to the Sixth District post and Col. Jack Dunn, her Democratic opponent, has been spending considerable time in Springfield in an attempt to win away some of this support from the present incumbent.

The Democrats are pointing with pride to the record breaking turnout for Mrs. Meyner's tea on a Wednesday afternoon, using it as evidence that the "Democratic trend is spilling over into Springfield" and Flammer and Lucy will pick up a great many of the new voters who have recently come to Springfield.

"When there has been a turnout of 350 or more women for an afternoon tea," ask the Democratic leaders here, "the attendance was even a revelation to county and state observers who stopped off with their candidates for the usual introduction. Gov. Meyner and Mrs. Meyner were pleased by the size of the crowd and remained in the receiving line long after their scheduled time to greet Springfield's citizens."

The Republican campaign on behalf of Freedman and Handville has been going at full speed and Campaign Manager Kravetz feels confident that the two will be elected. However, observers in the local political scene, believe that the split on the question of endorsing the Council Manager Plan E to replace the present Township Committee form of government has taken some of the unity out of the usual GOP campaign.

The two GOP candidates — Freedman and Handville — have openly declared that they are in favor of discarding the present form of government and replacing

'We Have Told The Truth,' Say Republicans

"Ike" Freedman and "Art" Handville at a meeting of their party workers last night reiterated that they have spent the entire campaign in telling the voters the truth.

"We have conducted our campaign with integrity and presented the issues to the people as we see them. We have taken a firm stand on public questions and have not evaded any issues."

"We have made our position clear on Council-Manager Plan E, form of government for Springfield," they continued.

"We have made our position clear on inviting desirable industrial plants in properly zoned areas through an Industrial-Business Commission.

"We have made our position clear on the false charges of the Democrats as to "Run Away Taxes" by proving conclusively that the tax structure of the community compares favorably with others of our neighboring towns and cities and provides in its structure good services for its structures expended.

"We have made our position clear on our desire for continued growth of Springfield by proper planning as exemplified by the fine job done over the years by the Township Planning Board unit.

"We sponsor Individualism in politics; We reject the subversion of politics by any one individual."

No Runaway Taxes Say Republicans

"Art" Handville and "Ike" Freedman Republican Candidates for Township Committee completely destroyed the false charges of "runaway taxes, panic adopted revaluation program, and poor planning" as espoused by their Democratic opponents in a prepared statement to the press today by establishing conclusively the following facts:

"Taxes in Springfield are comparably lower than those of five neighboring communities, while at the same time providing in most instances more services for each tax dollar spent at municipal level."

Handville said, "It is apparent to all that the highest tax rates in New Jersey exist in those towns and counties under Democratic administration, i.e.: Hudson County and Middlesex County, and not in those towns and counties which have been under Republican leadership, i.e.: Union County and Bergen County."

The revaluation program, Freedman said "was rightfully adopted by the Township Committee under the law set down by the Supreme Court of the State of New Jersey."

Mayor Fears Manager Will Be "Dicator"

Mayor Albert G. Binder concludes his case for the defense of the Township Committee form of government and reasons for opposing Council-Manager Plan E in the statement quoted below.

As a sidelight, the Mayor disclosed some more bars at Democratic Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies for his refusal to take a public stand on the issue. Binder claims that Bonadies has privately told him that he is against Plan E. The Mayor says Bonadies is silent on the subject because of "political chicanery."

Mayor Binder's statement follows:

"This is a continuation and the final article on reasons why I believe the Council-Manager form of government should be defeated at the General Election, next Tuesday, November 4th.

"Enumerated below are 17 more reasons why this form of government is not in the best interests of Springfield.

"These reasons are naturally my own personal viewpoint and they are arrived at through my own experience in our local governmental affairs. I feel I owe it to the citizens of Springfield to give them the benefit of my 10 years as a Township Committeeman and also as the titular head of a political party.

"By the same token I feel strongly that my counter-part in the Democratic Party, Vincent J. Bonadies, should have likewise given the citizens of Springfield his thoughts and expressions on this vital subject. He has had four

Taxpayers File Suit— Stop Shunpike Sewer

Six Springfield residents blocked, momentarily at least, the construction of the controversial Shunpike Sewer.

The six citizens were granted a temporary restraining order by Union County Superior Court Judge Walter L. Hetfield yesterday morning when they filed a taxpayers' suit against the Township Committee and Jeffrey Estates.

Judge Hetfield ruled that contracts or construction on the sewer must be halted until he holds a preliminary hearing on the subject. He ordered the hearing for November 7, but the defendants can ask to have it moved up to within two days.

The six citizens in their suit charge that "taxpayers' money is being used in the sewer project for private benefit." They are: Harold Flucht of 80 Henshaw Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. R. Leslie Van Riper of 6 Warwick Circle, Charles Joseph Vincent Jr. of 14 Warwick Circle, Mr. and Mrs. James Brady of 2 Warwick Circle, and Richard C. Campbell of 82 Henshaw Avenue.

The members of the Township Committee were served their notices yesterday, as was Max Sherman, the registered agent for Jeffrey Estates.

The construction of the $130,000 storm-sewer became a political issue in Springfield when Democratic candidates Howard Flammer and Daniel Lucy declared themselves opposed to the sewer contract while Republican candidates Isaac Freedman and Frederick Handville favored it.

The bone of contention is the share in the sewer to be shouldered by Jeffrey Estates. The taxpayers' suit claims that it is not commensurate with the benefit derived.

Attorney for the taxpayers is Seymour Margulies of 28 South Derby road, a member of the JCC.

Forbes Says Mgr. Won't Improve Gov't

Raymond W. Forbes says he has found nothing in the Charter Study Commission's report during his years on the Township Committee to "indicate at this time that a change from our present Township Committee form of government" is called for.

Forbes, who is giving up his seat on the Committee this year, says the failure to study local government and says that the manager could not save money or serve the public with more speed.

His statement follows:

"When the citizens of Springfield voted last November for the formation of a Charter Study Commission to examine our present Township form of government and its functions, and to later present to the people detailed findings, it was expected that their recommendations would be based on factual findings, and the report to the citizens when completed would be the result of an exhaustive and careful study of all Township departments.

"It is reasonable to assume also that any group attempting such a study would interview all department heads, appointed or elected, and study carefully the functions and workings of all departments

Binder - Faulkner Clash Tonight

Mayor Albert G. Binder has been invited to give his views against Council-Manager Plan E at the public meeting tonight sponsored by the League of Women Voters at the local library.

Bayard H. Faulkner, author of the act setting up the manager plan, will speak along with Robert Southward, a member of the Springfield Charter Commission.

Mayor Binder sent a telegram to league president Mrs. Richard Moore, criticizing the fact that no anti-manager speakers had been invited to the series of lectures.

Mrs. Leonard Atkin, chairman of the league's Charter Study Commission, promptly invited the Mayor to speak tonight.

The meeting will start at 8:30 p.m. under the circumstances which Mrs. Atkin describes as "open debate."

Flammer And Lucy Expose Opponents' Big Lie Switch

Township Committee Candidates Howard A. Flammer and Daniel M. Lucy declared today that their Republican opponents next Tuesday on the eve of election and pressured by the mounting concern of taxpayers over runaway taxes, have finally confessed to the existence of runaway taxes here.

Prior to this desperation acknowledgement, Handville and Freedman conducted their entire campaign on the theme that "runaway taxes are just a big lie and that the entire issue is ridiculous."

"Once again," Flammer and Lucy said, "Mayor Binder has proved his point when he described Handville and Freedman as political opportunists. It was but two short weeks ago that Handville and Freedman issued press releases and purchased a full page advertisement to shout that runaway taxes don't exist in Springfield—that the entire problem is ridiculous and a big lie."

"With defeat staring them in the face at the hands of the taxpayers they sought to deceive, political opportunist candidates, Handville and Freedman emerged from a huddle one week before election and decided to switch to a scheme to bring in factories in exchange for rateables," Flammer and Lucy declared.

"Their confession that Springfield needs a program to curb runaway taxes," Flammer and Lucy

Help Support Local Boy Scout Drive Saturday

Start today gathering up your old magazines and newspapers for the monthly pick-up by the local American Legion.

This collection of scrap paper, scheduled for November 2, requires the assistance of every resident of Springfield.

THE ENTIRE PROCEEDS OF THIS LEGION SCRAP PAPER DRIVE WILL BE TURNED OVER TO THE HERMAN SPEISFACH MEDICAL FUND.

Remember the date, November 2. Help support this worthy cause by simply having all your scrap newspaper and magazines neatly tied and waiting for the trucks by 10 a.m. on the scheduled Sunday.

Latest List Of Contributors To The Herman Spiesbach III Medical Fund

The spontaneous drive to raise money for the impoverished family of Herman Spiesbach III will conclude Sunday with the American Legion's scrap paper drive.

Organized teams of volunteers are putting extra men on the trucks in an attempt to raise more money than ever for the critically injured lad.

Spiesbach, 10, was picked up by Springfield police on Monday night and taken out to Herman.

Dr. Gabriel Mull, the boy's physician, reported yesterday that there was no change in the condition of the semi-conscious boy. He still lies in critical condition at Overlook Hospital unable to comprehend the world about him.

Donors, sent $161 into the Springfield SUN office this week to bring the total town contributions to date to $6,537.00.

Five Seniors Tour Linden Oil Co.

Five college preparatory seniors of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Donald Booker, Peter Rupp, Loran Skusen, Jeffrey Taylor and Art Van der Linden, were taken recently on an all-day tour of the oil industry in connection with the observance of National Oil Refinery Week.

The tour is an outgrowth of a program designed to interest scientifically talented students in possible careers in the oil industry.

On the agenda were a tour of the oil tank farm in Linden and an intensive study survey of the Calsco petroleum laboratory and refining plant, also in Linden.

The five students were selected by a faculty committee comprised of representatives of the mathematics, science and guidance departments of the school.

Johnsons Have Boy

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of 32 Colfax road, Springfield announce the birth of a baby boy on Friday, Oct. 17, at Overlook Hospital.

Two burial fields with more than 100 graves dating back to about 3,000 years before Christ have been discovered by a Dutch scientific expedition in Egypt.

Builds 22-Store Chain In 5 Years

Hyman Shlafer of 11 Troy Drive, Springfield, was awarded the 1958 Business Growth Achievement Award of the Commercial Finance Industry at the Waldorf-Astoria Tuesday night.

Shlafer is the founder of the 22-store Parts Unlimited retail chain. He was honored for reaching the 22-store mark after inaugurating the operation only five years ago.

Shlafer's retailing innovation, Parts Unlimited, Inc., was one of the first to cater exclusively to the do-it-yourself market in television, radio, high fidelity and associated accessories, and is today considered the largest operation of its kind in the United States.

Civil Air Patrol Can Help Airmen

Springfield high school students can make the first step toward attending the U. S. Air Force Academy by contacting the local Civil Air Patrol Squadron.

Captain Kenneth D. Boettger, of the Springfield Squadron, says that boys in excellent physical condition and with outstanding school grades stand a good chance to get into the Colorado Springs institution. They are asked to attend the regular meeting of the squadron on Wednesday nights at 8 at the Gaudineer School.

Boy Scout $ To Be Gathered Saturday

Volunteers will go into every Springfield home Saturday to pick up the envelopes distributed by Cubs and Scouts to conclude the yearly Boy Scouts of America drive here.

Recently the boys themselves distributed safety brochures and finance envelopes to every home in town. The safety notices were part of the Scout's National Good Turn program to acquaint families with good safety practices in emergencies. The envelopes are from the Union Council Finance Drive. This is the first year Springfield scouts have collected in the Fall.

The following people will help the Boy Scouts on their house to house canvass Saturday, picking up envelopes already distributed by Cubs and Scouts:

- Jack Shook, Charles Yeager, Mrs. A. Rizzo, Mrs. Henry Heady, H. W. Jones, W. French, R. Zieser, E. H. Wuerz and Mrs. J. C. Hoard.

Family Affair Now At Police Hdqtrs.

There are now three Roessner brothers on the Springfield Police Force.

24-year-old Robert joined his brothers Edward 30, and Joseph 21, on the local force. He was welcomed into the fold at last Wednesday's regular meeting of the Township Committee along with three other patrolmen. They are: Richard T. Elvin of 18 Beverly Road; Robert W. McGuire of 31 Maple Avenue; and Howard Thompson of 14 Cottler Avenue. They start work November 1 at a salary of $4,700.

This brings police strength to 28 men.

Pingry Alumni Gather Saturday

James Hughes of 60 Shunpike road attended a luncheon Saturday at Pingry School in Elizabeth to help plan the year's luncheon fund drive.

Hughes is a 1938 graduate of the school and represents his class on the alumni council.

Hi Neighbor!!

NEWS AND TIDBITS ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS & NEIGHBORS. If You Have Any News Call...

DREXEL 6-4502

Lorrie Lewis

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kefauver of 43 Newbrook Lane hosted a festive farewell party held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reynolds, also of Newbrook Lane, who are moving shortly to Cambridge, Mass.

Birth congratulations are wished for Mr. and Mrs. John C. Johnson of 52 Colfax Road whose son, David John, was born on October 17 at Overlook Hospital.

Our new neighbors at 77 Pitt Rd. are Mr. and Mrs. William H. Nickless. They moved here recently from Irvington. Mr. Nickless is a chemical engineer.

The rain that fell last Saturday eve certainly didn't dampen the spirits of the guests attending the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fisher of Cottage Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stein of 60 Twin Oaks Oval spent a refreshing four day weekend at the Nevele Country Club. The Steins were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. William Becker of Livingston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hardgrove, Jr. of 125 Siltier St. became parents of a son, Robert David, on October 23 at Overlook Hospital.

He weighed 7 lbs., 13 oz. The Hardgroves have two daughters, Lucille and Janice. Mrs. Hardgrove is the former Hazel Heer of Maplewood.

Huber - Kennedy Engagement Told

Elizabeth Huber

Mr. August M. Huber of 289 Baltusrol Way, Springfield, has made known the engagement of his daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. Thomas J. Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Kennedy of 68 Mountain Avenue, Springfield.

Miss Huber is a graduate of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School. Daughter of the late Mrs. Huber, she is presently employed as a secretary at Verona Dye-stuffs in Union.

Mr. Kennedy is a graduate of Union High School and attends Seton Hall University. He served two years in the United States Navy and is a member of the Springfield Police Department.

A June wedding is planned.

53 Girls Willing To Help Overlook

This year's applicants for volunteer service at Overlook Hospital comprising the Juniors and Seniors of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Number 53.

The experienced girls serve each Monday after school and are assisted by the newly enrolled who report in groups of ten, on alternate Mondays.

The beginning date for remaining applicants who as yet have not been taken on a tour of the Hospital is Thursday, November 6.

Mrs. Wesley Lewandowski is in charge of the Hospital Program sponsored by the Springfield Woman's Club and is assisted in this work by Mrs. M. Heard, Mrs. A. Wood, Mrs. J. Tuck, Mrs. M. Urduck, and Mrs. H. Eckelkamp.

Edith Stender is the High School Representative.

Doris Henrich's Landscape Is Highlight Of Women's Art Show

The Springfield Public Library sheltered the Annual Art Show sponsored by the Art Department of the Springfield Woman's Club on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 25 and 26.

Despite a steady downpour many art lovers came to view the 46 paintings and 11 pieces of sculpture and ceramics on display.

"Evening in Branch Brook Park" a very unusual oil painting by Doris Henrich, 53 Meisel avenue, was voted most popular in the show. Miss Henrich is a talented free-lance artist whose watercolor

"On the Sunny Side" was second in number of votes two years ago. This year's winner was bought by Mrs. L. Kymer, 234 South Springfield avenue.

Close in popularity to "Evening idly colored panel done in magna was "Weeping Girl," a large vivy by Marlene Ferruggia, 27 Pitt road.

Other favorites were: third, "Winter Farm" an oil by Val Del Vecchio, age 10; fourth, "Winter on the Farm" an oil by Philip Del Vecchio, Jr., age 12; fifth, "Cindy," an oil by Jacqueline Klapholz.

Also high in votes were "Picnic" an oil by Merrill Multnaup; "Otter Point," an oil by Amanda Williams; "Apples," a watercolor by Gertrude Saha; and "Ocean Scene" by Johann Puntigam.

Mrs. Glenn Oyster, chairman, and Mrs. Donald Lenny, co-chairman wish to thank all the artists who participated and others who cooperated to make Springfield more aware of American Art Week, November 1 to 7.

Some of the paintings from the exhibit are now on display at the Library for the next two weeks.

Your Library

During the past week many organizations have been holding annual celebrations. By this plan they hope to make the public acquainted with their aims.

On Saturday, American Art Week was remembered by an exhibit of pictures arranged by the Art Department of the Springfield Woman's Club.

It was necessary because of the rain to hold this in the downstairs auditorium of the Library, instead of on the lawn as planned. A number of local artists sent pictures.

A selection from these is being held over for the rest of the week and may be seen on the first floor hallway and in the fireplace room.

The picture of fishermen mending their nets by Harriet Preston, which won a special award, has been hung over the fireplace itself and will be loaned for an even longer time.

This picture exactly fits the style of this room and everyone appreciates the loan of this picture and the generosity of the Woman's Club.

Patriotic Education Week, from October 19-25 was commemorated by a series of reproductions of flags which have aroused so much interest among the children that many of the books have been carried off for home reading.

The "Give 'n' Eat" Society, Children of the American Revolution, supplied a series of reproductions of flags which have flown over our country. The series begins with the Spanish flag brought by Columbus in 1492, and ends with the fifteen-star, fifteen-stripe flag belonging to the War of 1812.

It was this last one that inspired Key to write "The Star-Spangled Banner." The Library added to the flags a good number of appropriate books from its collection. The books and flags are still on exhibit in the Juvenile Department.

The TV and radio this week are having a great deal to say about a new book, "The Ugly American," by W. J. Lederer and Eugene Burdick. Twenty-one episodes employing fictional situations and characters based on fact show the mistakes and failures of untrained diplomats which often offend the citizens of Southeast Asia.

This is a lesson which American people should take to heart.

It is to be hoped that the contrasting group of a few informed and dedicated men who give the Asians real help and who create a mutual understanding and respect, are not overlooked by readers here and abroad.

As was said last week, self-criticism may be good for us and we need to take it to heart. At the same time, we do not wish to discourage ourselves or turn only our poorest face to other countries.

Soprano Dolores Baldyga

A lighthearted program is in store for members of the Springfield Woman's Club and their guests on Wednesday, November 5, when Soprano Dolores Baldyga and Pianist-arranger Dana Lordly will bring something entirely new to the audience.

The couple met in the somewhat sacred halls of Boston's famed New England Conservatory where they conceived a program idea that would incorporate their serious musical and dramatic training into scenes and skits that featured lavish arrangements of music the whole world knew and loved.

They poke gentle fun at the overly-scholarly approach to serious music. Breaking from the tradition of using the established dialogue of musical comedy scenes, Dana and Dolores prefer to set their arrangements into situations that everyone will recognize: a scene in a living room or museum, or a husband and wife dispute over a TV set.

SCHOOL BEAT

By MARSHA WILSON

One of the newest committees formed at Regional is the Pep Committee under the leadership of Karen Rogers, a senior from Springfield. This committee functions under the Student Council. The main purpose is to encourage more school spirit around Regional. They already conducted one successful pep rally last Friday and plan many more for the future. Members of the club from Springfield include: Johanne Hartz, Joan Pitney, Sue Kerr, Arlene Kauer, Bill Bender, Dave Powers, Ray Rouse, and myself. General reaction around school to the committee has been very favorable. The administration backs it completely and Karen hopes that soon all 1700 students will do the same.

Tentative plans have been released concerning the Senior Sports Dance to be held Saturday night, November 15th in the girl's gym at Regional. Don Booker, senior class president from Springfield, is busy hiring a band and delegating committees. In committee work Springfielders just naturally come out. Avidly working on the dance preparations are Sue Oakman, Bobbi Diamond, Jan Forster, Bill Bender, Ray Rouse, Karen Rogers, Roy Abrams, and Teddy Stiles.

It is at this dance that Mr. Regional is announced. Mr. Regional is a senior boy who represents the finest example of Regional's typical athlete. He must be good not only on the field but also in the classroom. The winner is presented with a trophy.

The sale of yearbooks is going on for the next month. A yearbook costs $5 for underclassmen and $6 for seniors. The senior yearbook has a padded cover with the student's name engraved in gold. Yearbooks may also be purchased on the installment plan with $4 deposit and $2 balance which is paid in the spring. Members of the yearbook staff from Springfield are Diana Bouchard, Judy Crowley, Karen Rogers, Judy Vance, and Norman Muller.

Colleges have begun accepting students who applied on the early decision plan. Diana Bouchard of Springfield and Judith Hofreiter of Mountaintop have been accepted by Muhlenberg and Gettysburg Colleges in Pennsylvania. This is formal college-application season, and every senior who plans to attend college should be making his application.

Regional's school newspaper, the Dayton News, has already put out two issues of the paper and is presently working on their Thanksgiving issue. Many freshmen girls from Springfield are taking a course in news writing given by the editors of the paper on Wednesday afternoons. Report card time is tomorrow, and both students and parents eagerly await the first report card of the school year!

Regional's halls are developing a quiet atmosphere as we move into the second of six parking periods. Dreary weather always makes everyone tired, but nevertheless a good-sized crowd turned out for the second pep rally last Friday afternoon sponsored by the pep committee. The band, cheerleaders, and twirlers helped make the event a splendid success. Speaking of cheerleaders, they recently sponsored an informal Friday night dance. Springfield cheerleaders who planned the social were: Johanne Hartz, Carol Marano, Margot Breier, Joan Pitney, and Joyce Harrison. In order to have continuous music throughout the evening they recorded all the popular songs of today on tape and ran the tape off at the dance. This seemed to work out quite well. The National Honor Society induction ceremony was held last week and four of the five seniors elected are Springfieldites. New members from this town include Sue Oakman, Karen Rogers, Chip Skousen, and Don Booker. Peter Rupp, who resides in Mountaintop, was also elected. These seniors were judged on four qualities necessary for membership, character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Another induction will be held in the Springtime. Both seniors and juniors will be inducted at this time. Parties rate high on everyone's list, and Phyllis Kaplan, a junior from Springfield, gave a tremendous one last week. Phyl had plenty of people and plenty of food. Since Halloween is tomorrow, Sue Hickey, a senior from Mountaintop, decided that she would have a Halloween costume party. The date is set for tomorrow night, and some of the costumes should prove to be quite interesting. Seniors are introducing a new dating plan for their senior sports dance. They have entitled it the "Date Bureau." Thought up by Jan Forster and Judy Ward, this is how it works.

THIS WEEK

SEE DEMOCRATIC TREND HERE

In past pre-election paragraphs we have been tempted to tip our timid toe in the cold pool of political prophecy but we always swept the idea under the carpet because we didn't want to climb too far out on the limb.

However, this year, every sign points to a victory for Howard Flammer and Dan Lucy next Tuesday and we make this prediction with the satisfaction of having given each political party the free use of our columns with equal space for both.

We see this trend because of the following facts: 1. Republican leaders here, who shall be nameless for obvious reasons, have openly stated that "the Democrats are a shoo-in this year."

2. A recent sampling of voters made in Morris Avenue with thirty pedestrians, selected at random, resulted in surprising support for Flammer and Lucy. Eighteen definitely stated that they and their wives would vote for the two Democrats, seven stated they have always voted in the Republican column and the other five said they hadn't made up their minds. Two of these told the inquirer that they might vote for Democrats this year.

3. Endorsement by Isaac Freedman and Art Handville of the proposed Council Manager Plan E has split wide open whatever unity the Republican organization had before the organization of the present Springfield County Committee.

4. Top drawer Republicans such as Mayor Albert G. Binder, Raymond Forbes, Wilbur W. (Bert) Layng and a host of other GOP workers have organized and are devoting their efforts to defeat the question on the ballot and are conducting an active campaign from now until election day asking Springfield to vote "No" on the proposal.

5. The Republican workers—the top drawer leaders who are always very active in election campaigns in the past—appear to be "sitting this one out" and leaving the campaign strategy to Raymond Kravetz, a newcomer to local politics.

6. During the campaign we haven't heard from or seen such Republican stalwarts as Charles Beardsley, Tax Assessor Bert Layng, and many others who usually play an important part in every political scrap in Springfield.

Another sign indicating a definite split in the Springfield Republican organization is the fact that one present township official and a GOP leader told the Springfield Sun that "win-or lose next Tuesday, none of the present so-called stalwarts would have anything to do with the Republican party in Springfield." He further explained that "he and his group now promoting the candidacy of Freedman and Handville would take over the GOP organization in this town."

Another straw in the wind is the fact that at Tuesday night's Meet Your Candidates program at the Gaudineer School, under the auspices of the League of Women Voters, there was no evidence of any of the GOP Township officials.

The important thing now is to get out the vote—to make certain that every eligible voter exercises his privilege as a citizen. The New York Times, in a recent editorial appealing to the independent voter, sums it up as follows:

"While recognizing the importance of party, party machine and party organ, we think it useful, especially at election time, to emphasize the equally great importance of the independent. We base our own political preferences much more on personal qualifications than on strictly party positions. We believe it is a healthy thing for our American democracy."

Education Board Backs Amendment

The Springfield Board of Education pointed out this afternoon that passage of the proposed Constitutional Amendment, which will be submitted to New Jersey voters next Tuesday, should result in lower interest rates on all school bonds sold in the future. The local school board urged that voters in Springfield approve the amendment to the State Constitution to permit the Fund for

The Support of the Free Public Schools to be used in such manner as the legislature may provide.

Plan E Wrong

portant, they failed to study the way political power works in Springfield. Both political parties are of approximately equal strength in Springfield. You have only to look at this week's SUN to see that they keep very close watch on what the other is doing. The Shunpike Sewer controversy is a prime example of the minority party riding herd on the majority.

Where does the Faulkner Act manager fit into this? Inevitably in the middle. He will wield the day to day power of office, for example negotiating sewer contracts, therefore he will be the target of whichever party is displeased. He will be a third power in a town which already has two: The result can only be unprecedented squabbling, fringes, and governmental paralysis.

It is true that throughout the United States there are many town manager forms of government. But the all important difference is that the Faulkner manager is given power all to himself. He acts almost completely independent of the council—much like the director of a corporation being free of stockholder influence, except in rare show-downs.

The type of manager government that would work in Springfield, and does work in thousands of other communities, is one in which the manager is simply the servant of the majority party. He is in effect what we call the Town Clerk.

It is because of this redistribution of power to the manager that most New Jersey communities have turned down or ignored the Faulkner manager. Only 17 of the nearly 600 N. J. small towns have a form of manager government. Only 3 have Plan E which involves the use of two political parties in contest for power. All 3 have had continuous governmental turmoil.

The only way Springfield can adopt a council-manager form of government is to hold elections at a different time of the year among candidates who do not identify them-

Manager Will

cide whether to try a new form of government for at least four years. This issue of "responsibility" has been buried under a barrage of nonsense about "efficiency" by the group of citizens promoting Plan E. They say that what is needed in Springfield's town hall is more "efficiency." They say that Police Chief Albert Sarge, Fire Chief Ormand Mesker, Township Engineer Alfred Swenson, and other department heads under the coordination of Township Clerk Eleonore Worthington are spending taxpayer's money inefficiently.

They say that a manager, who with his secretary will cost at least $15,000 a year, will save money through "efficiency." We submit that this is nonsense.

Anybody who knows the operation of Springfield town affairs knows that there isn't a single saving that could be made by reorganization of the administration. The only way to save money in this government is to cut back some program. If voters want this done, they can carry far more weight with their elected officials than with an appointed professional.

In summation, this means that a vote of YES for Plan E can only bring about the spending of more money to pay the manager's expenses.

Council-Manager means the voters get more taxes and less direct say as to how they will be spent.

The Springfield SUN urges voters to vote NO on this Public Question.

Taxpayers File

sey City firm - Levy, Lemkau and Margulies.

Mayor Albert G. Binder issued the following 11th-hour statement in regard to the storm-sewer taxpayers suit:

"The petition to the court for a restraining order to stop the Shunpike trunk sewer project is purely a calculated political move on the part of a few Democrats to embarrass the town committee."

"It is a wanton waste of the taxpayers' money to defend such a suit which will most certainly be done and which we are confident will be adjudicated in favor of the taxpayers at large. It has been agreed by all parties concerned that the sewer is of an utmost necessity to provide drainage for a large area of Springfield."

"Any change in the routing of the sewer could result in all the taxpayers of Springfield being assessed proportionately for the total cost of the sewer, $130,000. As an alternate, the residents of Shunpike - Henshaw - Hawthorn areas, plus those adjacent to the sewer in the Mountain Avenue and Meisel Avenue areas could well bear the full cost."

"If this should come about, the unfortunate residents of the areas named, can thank Messrs. Bonadies, Lucy and Flammer for their political chicanery. Even the process server comes from the office of David T. Wilentz, well known State and Middlesex County Democratic leader."

"Bonadies asserted that Flammer and Lucy from the outset have dealt candidly, positively and firmly with the problems posed here by the community's rapid growth and expansion, while the opposition slate has either dodged, evaded or failed to offer anything but political exploitations."

On the problem of coping with Springfield's runaway taxes, Bonadies noted, Flammer and Lucy came forth with a positive action program to help curb the annual tax climb, while the opposition slate scorned runaway taxes as a big lie and a ridiculous issue.

On the $130,000 Shunpike sewer, shelling out taxpayers' money as the major share for the sewer, whose prime beneficiary is the builder of a proposed 59-home tract, Bonadies stated: "Flammer and Lucy fought side-by-side with the people against this action, while the opposition slate not only supported the use of taxpayers' money for a private

Bonadies Sums Up Democrats' Case

Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies declared today that the election of Howard A. Flammer and Daniel M. Lucy to Springfield's governing body will be realized November 4th because throughout their campaign they have squarely faced the issues with the people.

"Specifically," Bonadies declared, "we have seen the same campaign pattern used by candidate Frederick A. Handville as his nine do-nothing years in office; who together with his running mate, Isaac Freedman, remained silent when they could have spoken out in behalf of the people; who have not faced the truth and have deceived the people on all the issues."

"All of these factors," Bonadies said, "clearly reflect the tremendous contrast in the candidates, coupled with the fact that the personal qualifications of Flammer and Lucy are so outstanding as to contribute greatly to efficient government for Springfield."

Letters to Editor

Dear Sir:
Dan Lucy's irresponsible attacks on the Planning Board do not qualify him for the office of Township Committeeman for the following reasons:
1. He never attended a Planning Board Meeting.
2. His reckless attacks are reflected in the ignorance of state and local planning laws when he proposes to prevent newcomers from moving into Springfield.
3. He has used the Planning Board as a political football in his campaign.
4. He has charged that the rising taxes have been caused by people who moved into town after him.
5. He has arrogantly assumed authorship of a plan to attract industrial factories to the town. He refuses to admit that the Planning Board has already introduced this plan after careful study of its impact.
6. Without any study and only weeks before election Dan Lucy has the audacity to put forth a sudden irresponsible industrial scheme that would blacken the community's skyline with smokestacks—with reckless rezoning. This quote is from Lucy's party leader, Vincent Bonadies, who so actively and bitterly fought this plan.
7. Dan Lucy failed to attend Township budget meetings but not sheds crocodile tears over budget practices.
8. Where was his silent voice when the whole Township banded together to fight the New Route 22?
9. Where was his silent voice when the new budget was introduced and approved by his leader, Vincent Bonadies?
10. He lacks the courage to discuss the proposed Council-Manager Plan.
Dan Lucy refuses to admit that for a man who failed to attend Township meetings before election—who failed to attend Planning Board meetings—he has suddenly found it politically expedient to attack the efforts of dedicated citizens members of our citizens advisory committee.
A man who unqualifiably attacks the efforts of responsible and sincere citizens is NOT qualified to assume administration or office over that same group of citizens."
Henry Grabarz, Chairman, Springfield Planning Board

Flammer & Lucy

said, "is a far cry from their ratings as recent as a week ago and throughout their campaign that the tax problem here is just a big lie. Apparently, Flammer and Lucy asserted, they could not make the big lie stick to official figures that show municipal taxes in Springfield—not counting schools or county—not counting from $287,142.48 in 1951 to $340,448.35 in 1958."

"This sudden switch to a confession that Springfield has a tax problem, Flammer and Lucy said, will not deceive the people who are fed up and disgusted with political scheming and political opportunist candidates who promise anything and everything in a desperation bid to hold public office."

Flammer and Lucy added: "We challenge Mr. Handville to explain where he has been during his nine do-nothing years on the governing body where he personally sat in silence as our tax rate spiraled year after year. Why has he waited until one week before election to speak up on the vital need for action to cope with Springfield's never-ending tax climb. Why has his running mate waited until one week before election to join the same scheme after shouting our tax problem is just a big lie?"

Flammer and Lucy concluded: "Our program has been before the people from the very beginning of our campaign and our political opponents one week before election are saying 'me too.' Our program calls for temporarily taking the accent off large-scale housing developments here in cooperation with builders while desirable ratables only are developed to pay for necessary municipal needs: measures to prevent such giveaways as taxpayers' monies as the $130,000 Shunpike sewer which will send our taxes climbing for the next 15 years for a project which the developer as prime beneficiary should have paid the major costs; and an annual tax report to the people to provide complete tax information."

"Specifically," Bonadies declared, "we have seen the same campaign pattern used by candidate Frederick A. Handville as his nine do-nothing years in office; who together with his running mate, Isaac Freedman, remained silent when they could have spoken out in behalf of the people; who have not faced the truth and have deceived the people on all the issues."

"All of these factors," Bonadies said, "clearly reflect the tremendous contrast in the candidates, coupled with the fact that the personal qualifications of Flammer and Lucy are so outstanding as to contribute greatly to efficient government for Springfield."

Letters to Editor

every reason to expect that our town will benefit at least as much as did Livingston.
The mayor's inexcusable and studied blanket insult "managers are notorious carpet-baggers" is completely unauthenticated and is equally as false as the statement "all politicians are nefarious characters." A manager's reputation depends solely upon the manner in which he fulfills his duties; and an itinerant, one would be hard put to interest a Council in hiring him... at any price.
Mr. Binder blandly assumes that a manager will be hard to find at a salary of $10,000 per year. Here, again, he displays scant knowledge of the subject, for there is an adequate pool of competent managers from which to draw.
It can not be too strongly emphasized that these men, unlike our councilmen, have undergone an intensive training to qualify them for their profession.
The suggestion that it would prove to be a difficult feat to remove a manager (assuming, of course, that his actions warranted such action is patently untrue. He is directly responsible to the Council and this body can quickly and effectively rid the township of an objectionable manager.
However, in order to protect him as well as the citizenry from the lodging of false charges, a public hearing must be held. This provision of the Faulkner Act acts as a safeguard against the manager's eviction from office by a disgruntled councilman, irate fire chief, etc.
No credence should be placed in the mayor's view that the manager represents a "one-man brain trust." The latter is not the "boss" of the Town Hall, but rather, represents a powerful unifying influence. Surely no one can gainsay that Springfield is in desperate need of an individual to coordinate and watch over the daily workings of our government.
I feel constrained to comment upon Mr. Binder's "pointing with pride" remark "concerned with our excellent Zoning Ordinance. Many residents will recall that he decried the nominal cost of the study required to bring this ordinance to fruition and that he was most uncooperative during the public hearings pressuring his passage. One has but to review the number and types of variances granted since the Ordinance was passed to realize that under our mayor's leadership many blows were struck at its very foundations.
No member of the Charter Study Organization or the group of Commissioners has stated or believes that the Council-Manager plan will instantly reduce our inordinately high taxes or will miraculously organize our governmental activities overnight.
However, there is not a scintilla of doubt in the minds of the people who have brought the referendum before the public that an affirmative vote for Plan E will result in a more efficiently run government. The implications of this are obvious.
Truly yours,
Stanley K. Freeman, Ph.D.

The Case FOR Plan E

21 Reasons For Cost Per Capita Background

1. Would give Springfield a full time executive administrator.
2. Would give Springfield the advantage of having a man with an educational background in municipal government and a practical experience in running a one million dollar organization.
3. Would give Springfield a full time representative in negotiating contracts and provide a stimulus for attracting industrial ratables in to our community.
4. Would give effective centralized control and responsibility for the council and the township employees.
5. Would encourage securing more competitive bidding on purchases over $2500.
6. Would encourage a plan of centralized purchasing of office supplies and equipment for all departments.
7. Can effectively run motor and clerical pools for more efficient use of township owned cars and clerical help where it is needed.
8. Would provide encouragement and incentive to career workers in our municipal government whose jobs would not be affected by politics.
9. Would encourage long range planning on a continuous basis for future development in residential and industrial areas in town as well as roads, sewers, parks, playgrounds and schools.
10. Can eliminate some of the necessary expenditures the municipal government has had to allocate funds toward the hiring of an outside consultant for a specific project.
11. Would give Springfield one integrated budget arrived at with the cooperation of all department heads.
12. Would give Springfield a budget that reflects the direct and daily operations of the township government.
13. Would provide a full representative who is alert to protect the Township's interests in negotiations with federal and state governments at all times.
14. Can produce a more effective elected town council, attracting men with broader backgrounds to run for office.
15. Would relieve the council of the every day administrative duties that has proved so burdensome to an elected official serving on a part time basis.
16. Would truly make our town council set as a legislative body and a policy making body responsive to the people.
17. Would give the council the "reins" of governing with the final approval or rejection on all appropriations, negotiation of contracts, the budget and appointments.
18. Would prohibit any officer or employee elected or appointed to be directly or indirectly involved in any contract or job for work or materials, or the profits thereof, to be furnished or performed for the municipality.
19. Would provide for the "RECALL" of any elected officer by petition and due cause.
20. Would provide the powers of Initiative and Referendum to the people for reinitiating any ordinance by petitioning 25% of the registered voters and placing on the ballot said ordinance for rejection or approval by the voters of Springfield.

Teach Children Fire Safety Early!

Children should be taught at an early age to respect fire not fear it. They should be made aware of its uses and benefits, and also its dangers. They should be urged to cooperate in the family job of fire prevention. Remember, children, like adults must be taught fire safety. Their lives depend on you!

power by setting policy through its ordinances and resolutions and final say on the budget.

Modern Government

A new Executive Branch of our Township's government would be headed by the Manager who, under the provisions of the enabling Act, would be chosen by the Council solely on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications, with special reference to his actual experience in or his knowledge of accepted practice with respect to the duties of his office. For the first time our Township employees will have a trained, experienced administrator to guide and integrate their respective efforts.

Increased Home Rule

The Faulkner Act, passed in 1950 by the Legislature of New Jersey, provides the basis for our movement. The inadequacy of the old forms of municipal government in New Jersey in the face of modern conditions, was recognized, and a democratic process set up for municipalities to study and, if necessary, change their old, inadequate governmental systems for a new, more efficient plan.

Springfield's Charter Study and the Report of our Charter Commissioners is based upon sound, modern concepts of local self-government. The citizens' vote for Council-Manager Plan E would provide modern, efficient government most responsive to the people.

SPRINGFIELD MANAGER

VOTE YES PLAN E

Vote YES to give Springfield a modern form of government.

This means an elected council of five members appoint a full-time, trained, and experienced township Manager accountable to and subject to removal by it.

Springfield Needs A Change In Government.

Springfield has loyal employees doing a competent job, but they and we have suffered from basic weakness of the Township form of government.

The Township form of government lacks by law a chief executive who is properly empowered to operate the kind of million dollar a year local government we have.

The time has come when such elected officials must be given a sound, modern business organization to help solve the problems and pressures of being in the path of metropolitan forces and to better provide for anticipated future growth.

Council - Manager Government Can Do The Most.

- Plan E would provide for local government under an elected council and a qualified, professional township Manager.
- Plan E would continue political party responsibility in the election of township officers.
- Plan E would give Springfield a more modern, businesslike organization.
- Plan E would give Springfield a chief executive legally empowered in fact as well as in name.
- Plan E would result in effective part-time service by council.
- Plan E would provide sound budget.
- Plan E would give Springfield effective, centralized control, purchasing, and personnel direction.
- Plan E would offer opportunities for ultimate savings in direct and indirect tax costs of local government through better management and better service.

REGIONAL HIGH-
The first PTA meeting of the year was opened by the President Mrs. Horace J. Libby with a report of the executive board meetings. The budget was read and adopted. Mrs. Libby announced that the American Education Week on November 3rd, there will be "Open House" at the school from 9:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. The parents were urged to visit the class rooms.

Dr. R. T. Jacobson instructed the parents as to the procedure for the evening. Each parent followed their own students schedule in 10-minute periods. These were very interesting as the teachers explained the systems of grading and the plan of work for the year. After the sessions were over, doughnuts and coffee were served in the cafeteria. A very successful cake sale was the last event of the evening. "Back to School Night" was well attended.

At the 58th annual convention, attended by representatives of all the Springfield Public Schools, delegates voted to endorse the question: "To amend Article VIII, Section IV, Paragraph 2, on the Constitution of the State of New Jersey," to permit investment of 18 million dollars in the State Fund for support of Public Schools, in any State School District Bonds.

By pledging the 18 million dollars in the State Fund to help local school districts, it would enable them to get better interest rates thus keeping down their taxes.

By using the Fund for that purpose, the taxpayers would be saved millions of dollars in the future because of this state aid to the local schools. This backing by the state would facilitate both the adoption of badly needed school programs by school districts, and the actual selling of bonds.

Florence Gaudineer PTA
The Florence M. Gaudineer PTA dedicated their meeting to "Dad" Monday evening, October 27th. A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. J. Frank Jacobsen, president, and the invocation was offered by Rabbi Reuben Levine.

Rev. John M. Infanger, Jr., guest speaker, whose topic was "Joy of Living" delighted those present with his entertaining approach to enjoying life. The following four fathers, Robert Muthaupt, Briant Haas, Alfred Bowman and George Lord, presented a short, humorous skit entitled "Dilemma of the PTA Father."

Tickets were on sale for the dessert-card party to be held November 20th at Koos Bros., Railway. Since there is a limited number available, members were urged to contact their Home

Room Representative, or Mrs. J. P. Brownlie at DRexel 9-2228 as soon as possible.

Mrs. Charles Miller, membership chairman, reported that this year's PTA membership now totals 1,137. The eighth grades had a canning exhibit, under the direction of Mrs. Olive Hann, home economics teacher, and there was a special United Nations exhibit prepared by the International Relations committee.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Kent and her committee who used United Nations table decorations. Mrs. Marjorie Ross's sixth grade won the attendance banner and the special "pencil Spunkin'."

Edward Walton PTA
The Edward V. Walton Parent Teacher Association Card Party was held in the school auditorium on Monday, October 20. The auditorium was decorated in a Halloween motif; an excellent job done by the fifth graders.

Mrs. Meyer Lasky, chairman of the card party, wishes to express her appreciation to all those who have donated gifts and to the following members whose efforts made this affair a success: co-chairmen, Mrs. Victor Schapiro and Mrs. Charles Ginsberg; Mrs. Stephen Bino and all her class mothers; Mrs. William Alexy, hospitality chairman, and her helpers, Mrs. Victor Tomie, Mrs. Clarence Freundlich, and Mrs. Dayle Stamelman; Mrs. Abner Weinberg; Mrs. Robert Jackson; Mrs. Ted Seagull; Mrs. Max Fruchter; Mrs. Reagin Weinberg; Mrs. Norman Stromeier; Mrs. Allan Borsky; Mrs. Bernard Warman for their help with the posters and souvenirs.

Mrs. Lasky also wishes to thank Mr. Daniel Murray, principal, and Mrs. George Rau for their cooperation and assistance and to Mrs.

STYLES IN SCISSORS— Abbie Sue Fisher of 8 scissor necklaces, scatter pins and a scissor Cottage Lane be-decked in style (a la Springfield) studded tiara (her own original creation) wearing the new popular fad of scissor bracelets.

James Caldwell School PTA
Mrs. Alan R. Cunningham, Mrs. H. E. Forsyth, Mrs. George Kunc, Mrs. S. Bryant Haas and Mrs. John A. Schoch attended the 58th annual convention of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers which was held in Atlantic City on Oct. 22, 23, 24. "The Challenge of Change" was the theme of the convention. Those who attended were very impressed with the speakers and are grateful to the James Caldwell School PTA for the privilege of attending.

On Monday evening, Nov. 17, "Open House Night" will be held at the James Caldwell School. A short business meeting will be held in the school's auditorium at 8 p. m. Visitation to the classrooms will follow and all parents are cordially invited to attend. More details of "Open House Night" will appear in this column.

The president of the James Caldwell School PTA wishes to remind all members of their responsibility to Vote on Election Day, November 4th.

Clyde Stauffer, legislative chairman, reminds PTA members that the State PTA is supporting the amendment on the ballot Tuesday to vote more money for public schools. He urges Springfield voters to vote yes on the question.

Mrs. H. J. Libby, Springfield, president of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School PTA, reports that the 58th Annual State Convention of the New Jersey Congress of Parents & Teachers held in Atlantic City Oct. 22, 23 and 24 was an inspiration to all. Others in attendance were Dr. R. T. Jacobsen, Principal of Dayton Regional H. S., Mrs. E. Alder Owens, Mountainside, advisor to president; Mrs. Victor F. Massa, Berkeley Heights; first vice president.

Theme of convention "The Challenge of Change." This was the largest convention with 3,033 attending. Over 340 persons from Union County.

Dem's Scissors Win County OK
What was meant to be an ordinary Campaign Pin in Springfield's contest for two seats on the Township Committee, is becoming one of the most popular political symbols in Union County.

Early in October, tiny scissors pins were mailed to many residents in Springfield by the Democratic Candidates, Howard Flammer and Dan Lucy. The pin was accompanied by a poem and an explanatory letter: "... The scissors enclosed symbolizes a means to CUT wasteful spending and unnecessary township expenditures, a practice which has spiraled Springfield's tax bill to an unprecedented high..." etc.

The response was a great deal more than they had hoped for. In a few days people all-over town had pinned the scissors to coats, lapels, hats, collars, as tie pins, and even jeweled them and were being worn as attractive scatter pins. Various Democratic municipal committees requested information and permission to use the scissors. Scissors were showing up all over the county at congressional and senatorial rallies, and even Helen Meyner and Assemblywoman Mildred Barry Hughes sported scissors during their tour of the County on "Union County Day," October 15th.

Although Mrs. Flammer and Lucy cannot account for the county-wide popularity of their campaign pin, they are certainly very pleased at its acceptance in Springfield by both Democrats and Republicans.

Woman's Club News

The November meeting of the executive board of the Springfield Women's Club was held Wednesday, October 29, at the home of Miss Gertrude Sala, 468 Morris Avenue.

The Art Department will meet at Miss Sala's home at 468 Morris Avenue on Monday, November 3, at 8:15 p. m., where they will make "Christmas Cards from Scraps and Snips." Members are asked to bring old Christmas Cards, wrapping paper, ribbon, sequins, pieces of felt or any items they wish to use in their designs. The paper and paints will be supplied.

The November Club Night which is the ninth anniversary for the Springfield Women's Club will be held on Wednesday, November 5, and will also be guest night. Members are invited to bring guests with them when they attend this meeting. A very interesting program is planned for this meeting and the feature attraction of the evening will be a performance by Lordy and Dame.

Dana Lordy who is a pianist-arranger and Dolores Baldyga, a soprano present a program entitled "Romance in Music," which is something entirely new to the concert stage. Their aim is to combine concert, musical comedy and theatre and present them in a new and entertaining fashion.

Ghosts To Collect Money For UNICEF

A new-style Halloween is all set. The local UNICEF Committee, consisting of representatives from several civic organizations, the Temples and Protestant Churches, and even of the PTA, has been at work to promote this community-wide project in commemoration of United Nations Week. UNICEF filmstrips have been shown in the grade schools and churches; posters have been placed about town; and youngsters have been equipped with milk cartons bearing the UNICEF emblem.

The spooks with the UNICEF cartons are really angels in disguise, for the coins they collect will be their gift to the less fortunate children all over the world.

After the ghosts have made their rounds their UNICEF cartons may be turned in at the station most conveniently located. (See school flyer for details).

TAKING CARE OF YOUR GARDEN
By Edward A. Cardina
Chairman, Springfield Shade-Tree Commission

Bearded iris, after having passed their blooming season, are ready for division if this has not been done in the past several years. To have success with this bulbous plant some periodical care is required if satisfactory bloom is expected continuously.

The older roots attached to the rhizomes, or bulbs, die off after blooming is over and the fleshy roots enter a period of rest or dormancy until sometime in August.

It is during this time that gardeners lift the rhizomes, destroy the iris borers, clean up rhizome rot and improve the soil before replanting.

Being a rapid grower, iris has a tendency to grow fast and produce an abundance of roots and leaves, thus reducing the size and number of blooms. Division of the entire clumps into smaller healthy sections becomes a necessity if the plant is to thrive satisfactorily.

Split the rhizomes so as to have a strong and healthy rhizome with a single or double fan of leaves attached to them. The leaves are then reduced in length so they will be about five or six inches long.

Destroy the fleshy iris-borers found in the soil or in tunnels of the rhizomes and look for any evidence of rot which sometimes occurs as a result of the insect damage. Remove the infected area of the rhizome with a knife and dust the healthy surface with sulphur.

Before resetting the rhizomes, mix plenty of organic matter and some plant food in the soil. If your location for this plant is not well drained, stir enough soil to the present surface to give a mound 12 inches high. A raised bed of this type is unsatisfactory drained areas benefits greatly.

Rhizomes are set about 12 inches apart in the bed and planted shallow so that half the thickness of the bulb is exposed above the soil. In planting to such a depth, the iris borer is less likely to attack the rhizomes.

Mayor Fears

ship Committee form of government, and he has expressed himself to me personally that the Council-Manager form is not in the best interest of Springfield. I urge him in the few remaining days before the referendum to commit himself to those citizens of Springfield who look to him for leadership. He owes it to the citizens at large and his guide, and not rely on political chicanery. "It is also unfortunate that this referendum has been placed on the ballot the same time as the election of local candidates for Township Committee. The issue has been clouded with propaganda and lies by the minority party whereby they seek to gain political support of the citizens. False statements about Taxes, Revaluation of Assessments, Giveaways, etc. which they know, or should know, are detrimental to our basic form of Township Committee Government. Let your decision be made on the true facts as they exist today, and not on political falsehoods or over zealous citizens who want a change for change sake.

17. MORE REASONS WHY THE REFERENDUM SHOULD BE DEFEATED
17. "It is dangerous to have administration centered in one man. When administration is divided among various elected officials and administrative heads, an incompetent or dishonest official cannot color the entire administration. If there is any efficiency gained in one-man control, it is very much at the expense of the people's protection.

18. "It is more than doubtful that the Manager can achieve economies. Since the major portion of municipal governmental expenditures fall into the mandatory category, items over which the Township has no control because of the requirements of State Law and other reasons, the Manager can only operate in a remaining minor portion. He would still have to advertise for bids on purchases over $2500.00. Can he persuade bidders to give lower prices? Even by discriminatorily lopping off town employees' heads, he could only reduce the tax rate by relatively few points. An independent study states: "Many of the proponents of the Town Manager plan have claimed it will reduce taxes. This has not usually been demonstrable."

19. "The Manager can easily become a political Storm Center. The question whether or not to retain a Manager can, and often does, become a hot political issue in an election of Council members. The Manager's past administrative record then becomes a political football. This means, in reality, that the Town Manager plan, contrary to what its proponents claim, does NOT remove politics from administration. Complete separation of the two is impracticable, if not impossible."

20. THE COUNCIL
20. "The Council fails to provide local leadership. No member of the Council, not even the Mayor, can be called a leader in local government affairs. The Mayor, elected by the Council, will have limited appointments, if any, and will sign certain routine papers after the Manager designates by an "X" where he shall sign. This lack of leadership is a serious defect. The citizens of Springfield, as in every other town or city in a democracy, look to their elected leader for guidance and inspiration. The President represents the nation, the Governor the State and the Mayor the Town. The Manager cannot fulfill this leadership requirement because he is not responsible to the public. This, clearly, is not the pattern of responsive government in a democracy.

21. "The Council tends to become a rubber-stamp for the Manager. The Council's role, under the Faulkner Act, is stringently limited to policy-making. As previously stated, if any Councilman steps over this line or even looks as if he is doing it, he courts the risk of being tried as a criminal for "influencing" the Manager or his assistants and being disqualified from office. Hence, the Council tends to act along with the Manager's suggestions.

22. "The Council can do very little about complaints from the public. When the public complains to the Council, it will be complaining to a body it elected but which has delegated to someone of its own choosing (the Manager) what amounts to virtually complete control over the functioning of the local government. The Council will be practically helpless to do anything about these grievances.

23. "The argument of Manager proponents that the Council will attract high-calibre men is theory, not fact. Manager proponents contend that, with the Manager taking over time-consuming details, community leaders will be more easily induced to seek Council membership. This is contradicted by independent studies, which state that the calibre of the men in the elective bodies has not significantly been affected by the adoption of the manager plan.

COUNCIL MANAGER PLAN
24. "In actual practice, there is no clear-cut distinction between policy-making and administration. In most administrative decisions the Manager, in effect, is laying down the law. He cannot, nor is he expected to, go to the Council for detailed instructions. When he uses his judgment in administration, as he must, he is directing policy. The preparation of the annual budget by the Manager is a good example of policy-making. If the Council is willing to go along with his budgetary recommendations, he will, in effect, be developing policy. If the Manager is strong and the Council weak, and this is the usual situation, the balance between policy-making and administration disappears.

25. "Responsibility can become confused. Instead of producing a separation of policy and administration, the Town Manager plan can well result in a diffusion of responsibility. The Manager can lay the blame for poor administration on obstructive politicians. While the Council can claim that sound policy is being sabotaged by poor administration.

UNSOUND OR ERRONEOUS COMPARISONS
26. "To compare the government of a municipality with the operation of a business corporation is unsound. The Manager proponents like to draw an analogy between municipal government and a private corporation. They contend that the Council is comparable to the corporation's Board of Directors, the Manager to its President and the citizens to the stockholders. Actually, the one big feature common to both is that conscientious executives try to get a full dollar's worth for each dollar spent. The basic and decisive difference between the two has been admirably described by the late Samuel D. Williams, an expert on Municipal Law and Administration in New Jersey, as follows:

"The Manager plan fits perfectly into the thinking of those who are convinced, in spite of their experience to the contrary, that they, like 'The King in his counting house' can sit in an ivory tower, formulating policies for someone else to execute, all based upon the theory that a Municipal Government can be run like a business. Repeal all the laws and cancel all the regulations controlling Municipal Government and they would be about 60 per cent right. With the laws and regulations still functioning they are about 98 per cent wrong. What they persist in overlooking is that a businessman can, and often does, risk his money in order to succeed. But in Municipal affairs we have been struggling for centuries to eliminate even the risk arising from human failures because we are dealing not with our money nor with our welfare, but with the money and welfare of the citizen."

27. "To compare a Manager with a Superintendent of Schools is misleading. Manager proponents, in an effort to show there is a precedent in Springfield for such an official, say the Manager may be compared to the Superintendent of Schools. This is wrong. He does not hire or fire personnel. He can suggest action to the Board of Education, but he cannot act independently of the Board, to which he is at all times responsible.

THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION
28. "Springfield now has a government responsive to the majority of the Committeemen, as well as to the public. Springfield's present Township Committee is directly answerable to the citizens. Responsibility is pinpointed in each of the five Committeemen for the proper functioning of his respective department. Each must give a continual accounting of his stewardship to the other committeemen and in turn the committee as a whole is responsible to the public at large.

29. Springfield has a tried and tested form of government. The Township Committee form of Government has served Springfield well for more than 150 years. During that time our town has grown from a rural countryside village to a bustling, prosperous suburban community. Our population has grown from terms of hundreds until it is now in the neighborhood of 17,000, and throughout all of its unprecedented growth—especially during the past 10 years—our present form of government has adequately and competently met every problem associated with this growth. That our community has been well administered is attested by the calibre of the citizens who have been attracted to it during the past many years. Because of this record of sound administration, there is no need for Springfield to serve as a guinea pig for the untried, drastic, revolutionary Faulkner Brand of Council-Manager Government.

MEN, NOT FORM
MAKE GOVERNMENT
30. "In the last analysis, the quality of government is determined by the men who run it and not by its form. Wherever government has fallen in disrepute, the blame can be attributed to human, not mechanical, failures. Springfield has had no such human failures. Over the years of my experience there have been many fine accomplishments which have added immeasurably to the progress of our town. To cite a few of the outstanding accomplishments are a new zoning ordinance, revaluation of assessments, establishment of a full time efficient Engineering Department, expanded and efficient Police and Fire Departments, expanded recreational facilities with a newly established recreational center, renovation plus additions to the Municipal Building to provide better facilities for town employees, and for improved services to our citizens, vigorous approach to our garbage disposal problem, long range planning to eliminate drainage problems, and many others.

should be administered by an "expert," not by "amateurs." Yet, a basic fixture of American government is the amateur, elected official. Although there is no school that can specifically train a man to be President of the United States, this "amateur" heads a host of highly specialized departments and agencies handling the most complex and technical matters. The same holds true for a Governor and a host of other officials on the Federal, state, county and local levels.
CONCLUSION
33. "It is intelligent to vote 'No.' Recommended on the basis of a superficial study, the Council-Manager Plan E as established by the Faulkner Act is an untested type of administration fraught with trouble-making legal ambiguities. Also, it hands over control of the town's governmental functions to a non-elective, irresponsible, "expert" vested with the powers of a dictator. Its theoretical separation of policy-making and administration is impracticable.

With our present Township Committee form of government tested by time, Springfield has no demonstrable need to experiment with a form of government repugnant to American principles of democracy. The intelligent thing is to vote "No" in the referendum on next Tuesday, November 4th."

Binder Fires Personal Jibes At Bonadies

Mayor Albert G. Binder released one of the most heated personal attacks ever heard in local politics yesterday.
The Mayor laced into the character of Demo Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies, accusing him of having no other interest in town affairs but selfishness.
"His one and only concern is for Mr. Bonadies," the Mayor said.
He listed three issues on which he claims Bonadies acting for personal motives rather than the public good. They are the Shunpike sewer, Possum Pass and Rajoppi land deal.
The Mayor chimed in with the Republican candidates for office by calling Bonadies a "boss."
Following is Mayor Binder's statement:
"It is gratifying to receive recognition from politicians such as Vincent Bonadies and his stooges, Dan Lucy and Howard Hammer, that the Republican candidates for Township Committee are men of independence and self-respect. It dispenses for all times the myth that the local Democratic 'Big-wigs' have been crying that the Republican Party in Springfield is 'Boss' controlled. Never in my four (4) years as titular head of the Republican Party have I ever tried to influence or pressure any individual in or out of public office to conform to my personal convictions."
"From my personal observations, the same cannot be said of Mr. Bonadies. He has repeatedly hand picked the candidates for committee whom he determines before hand will enhance his own political future. He lives and breathes politics in every field of endeavor, whether it be civic, fraternal or social activities. His one and only concern is for Mr. Bonadies, even though it may be at the expense of the welfare of the citizens of Springfield. He will speak out only when it serves his personal advantage, and conversely, on many occasions, his position on controversial matters discussed in executive sessions is withheld in public meetings for fear of alienating voters. Let me cite a few instances:
1. SHUNPIKE TRUNK SEWER
"In all of the Township Committee private discussions on this project Mr. Bonadies was in complete agreement of its necessity and cost. Only after his bitter personal feud with the Township Attorney did he bring in the 'conflict of interest' issue. He knew from engineering data presented over a long period of time, that this was not a special benefit to any individual or group, but would actually improve drainage for a wide area of owners. He suggested a dollar figure for the developer's donation, and only when he sensed the opportunity to gain political favor with a group of misinformed citizens did he pretend to be the saviour of the people.
2. CLOSING OF STREETS—'POSSUM PASS'
"His negative position on the requested closing Building Inspector, the in the Briar Hills development was well stated in our discussions in executive sessions—but when the residents in the area came in number to the public meeting to protest our decision, Mr. Bonadies sat silently by, for fear of antagonizing the voters in that area.
3. 'RAJOPPI' LAND DEAL
"Mr. Bonadies spearheaded the drive in private sessions to lift 'No building restriction' on the former Rajoppi property which was sold by the Township for a total of $1,400,000, on the express condition that no homes were to be built there. Mr. Bonadies, in spite of the court decision against lifting these restrictions, refused to lift a finger to get at least $20,000.00 for building lots, their fair market value. In spite of citizen protests and the protest of Mr. Handville and myself at the public hearing, Mr. Bonadies voted for this giveaway.
"The public might well ask why Mr. Bonadies overruled the Superior Court of our State, why he reversed his second vote of May 22, 1957, when he voted that there has been no change in circumstances or conditions concerning a release of the title covenant forbidding development or construction on said lands.

"One year later on June 23, 1958, Mr. Bonadies voted to lift these restrictions. The only change in circumstances being a new owner was involved. Why, Mr. Bonadies, why?
"Why did Mr. Bonadies lift these restrictions for Mr. DiVenu to, the new owner, when a year ago, he refused to do so for Mr. Gerber?
"And why did Mr. Lucy remain silent although he was present at the public hearing on August 13, 1957? Why didn't his heart bleed for the taxpayer on this issue?
"These are only a few of the glaring 'inconsistencies' that occurred, while Mr. Bonadies pretended to be all things to all people. Now he has taken under his wing two 'Yes' men, who he is confident will help build for him a political future outside of Springfield. Frankly, the Town of Springfield has all to gain with his future political career elsewhere. Mr. Lucy and Mr. Hammer will learn the hard way by their association with Mr. Bonadies, and their friends will be doing them a lasting favor by keeping them from serving on the Township Committee, at this time."
Albert G. Binder

familiar with their operation.
"There is nothing to indicate at this time that a change from our present Township Committee form of government to any other type or form of government could better serve the people of Springfield either as regards the expenditure of their tax dollar or the speed with which the public is served.
"A further careful study of the Charter Study Commission's report to the people fails to point out anywhere the need for changing to their recommended Plan E Council-Manager form. The report is general in scope and is never specific as to the reasons for the suggested change other than that throughout the report one man, a Manager, could cure whatever ills exist and answer all questions for all people.
"It is certainly to be recommended that from time to time the functions of government be re-examined, reappraised, and efforts made to correct any conditions found wanting. This is a standard procedure in all types of business, but change for change sake without good and sufficient reason should never be made.
"It is of interest to me, as I know it must be of interest to our citizens, to note that since the passage of the Faulkner Act in 1950 only 14 of our 57 municipalities have elected to change their form of government, and of these 14, only 3 have selected the Council-Manager Plan E form. This would certainly seem to indicate that in the 8 years since the passage of the Faulkner Act the great majority of our municipalities throughout the State realize that one man control under a manager form of government has many more drawbacks over a government operated by the elected representatives of the people.
"Having served on the Township Committee for almost three years, I am fully aware that no form of government is perfect in itself, and no form of government is any better than the character, qualifications and ability of the men and women elected to serve and represent the people in our town.
"There are in our town today political malcontents, disappointed office-seekers and those who aspire to public office—who would urge the adoption of the Council-Manager form of government regardless of whether such a plan is in the best interest of the people. This they would do to further their own ambitions. These are people whose desire to have a hand in the running of the government takes precedence with them over all other considerations. The issue in this coming election on the particular question of whether or not the people of Springfield should adopt a change in their form of government, in my opinion, transcends party politics. As I have stated, and as is known, I am not a candidate for reelection, and I am expressing myself as I have on all public questions in the past three years in the manner in which I feel the public can best be served. I would urge every voter in town to vote for the public candidates of his or her choice in the coming election and to reject and vote 'No' on the recommended change in our present form of government.
"No issue in the past, since the formation of our Township government in 1794, has such a far reaching effect on the future of our Township as this recommended change in the form of government. In the interest of continued good government it must be defeated."

No Runaway

New Jersey and was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Township Committee—including the vote of Boss Bonadies the Democratic member of the Committee.
"It seems strange," Freedman said, "to hear the Democrats howl about this program while only two miles away in Union, their Democratic brothers are howling that it has not as yet been done and is long past due."
"Is it possible," both Handville and Freedman asked, "that the Democratic Party knoweth not where politics begins and ends or it is just possible that this type of political expediency is the basis for their answering misjudgment of all public policies?"
"The hue and cry about poor planning is probably the most ludicrous of their entire Democratic platform, Handville and Freedman continued, when the facts show that Springfield doubled its population in less than ten years time.
"Are we to believe that all the people who moved here since 1948 were attracted to the community and have remained here to raise their families because planning by the Republican administrations then and now was poor? Even the Democratic stalwarts find that bit of political propaganda hard to swallow," Freedman and Handville concluded.

Forbes Says

of our Township government.
"It is very apparent from the report released this summer, and from newspaper articles published in the past few weeks that the Charter Study Commission has failed to completely study and examine the manner in which our present Township government functions.
"At this writing the Charter Study Commission has not interviewed the Building Inspector, the Tax Collector, the Tax Assessor, the Township Treasurer, the Chief of Police nor the Chief of the Fire Department. Yet articles have appeared making firm statements that a manager under the Council-Manager Plan E form of government could improve upon the operation of some of these departments; this they do without having even interviewed the men who run the departments and are most familiar with their operation.

"There is nothing to indicate at this time that a change from our present Township Committee form of government to any other type or form of government could better serve the people of Springfield either as regards the expenditure of their tax dollar or the speed with which the public is served.
"A further careful study of the Charter Study Commission's report to the people fails to point out anywhere the need for changing to their recommended Plan E Council-Manager form. The report is general in scope and is never specific as to the reasons for the suggested change other than that throughout the report one man, a Manager, could cure whatever ills exist and answer all questions for all people.
"It is certainly to be recommended that from time to time the functions of government be re-examined, reappraised, and efforts made to correct any conditions found wanting. This is a standard procedure in all types of business, but change for change sake without good and sufficient reason should never be made.
"It is of interest to me, as I know it must be of interest to our citizens, to note that since the passage of the Faulkner Act in 1950 only 14 of our 57 municipalities have elected to change their form of government, and of these 14, only 3 have selected the Council-Manager Plan E form. This would certainly seem to indicate that in the 8 years since the passage of the Faulkner Act the great majority of our municipalities throughout the State realize that one man control under a manager form of government has many more drawbacks over a government operated by the elected representatives of the people.
"Having served on the Township Committee for almost three years, I am fully aware that no form of government is perfect in itself, and no form of government is any better than the character, qualifications and ability of the men and women elected to serve and represent the people in our town.
"There are in our town today political malcontents, disappointed office-seekers and those who aspire to public office—who would urge the adoption of the Council-Manager form of government regardless of whether such a plan is in the best interest of the people. This they would do to further their own ambitions. These are people whose desire to have a hand in the running of the government takes precedence with them over all other considerations. The issue in this coming election on the particular question of whether or not the people of Springfield should adopt a change in their form of government, in my opinion, transcends party politics. As I have stated, and as is known, I am not a candidate for reelection, and I am expressing myself as I have on all public questions in the past three years in the manner in which I feel the public can best be served. I would urge every voter in town to vote for the public candidates of his or her choice in the coming election and to reject and vote 'No' on the recommended change in our present form of government.
"No issue in the past, since the formation of our Township government in 1794, has such a far reaching effect on the future of our Township as this recommended change in the form of government. In the interest of continued good government it must be defeated."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sun:
After reading Messrs. Handville's and Freedman's statement concerning Dan Lucy and Civil Defense, in last week's issue of the Sun, I felt compelled to give the facts concerning Dan's tenure as Municipal Director of Civil Defense and Disaster Control, in the interest of fair play.

It is indeed unfortunate that the Republican candidates have elected to bring this non-partisan subject into the political arena. This is something that Dan fought against during his period as director. He attempted to fill all staff positions with the best qualified people available regardless of political affiliation.

I, perhaps more than any other citizen of Springfield, am in a position to know exactly what Dan has done for Civil Defense. I would like to point out that Dan took the position of director at a time when Civil Defense was practically defunct in Springfield. He took this job against the advice of many who felt it was a thankless task and one requiring considerable time and effort. Several others, approached by the Mayor, prior to Dan's acceptance, refused the post. Indeed this was not an office for anyone seeking to gain political prominence in Springfield.

Since 1954, until his resignation in 1957, a period of almost three years, Dan worked diligently and at times against considerable disappointment and apathy, to develop a working civil defense force. If Dan is, as stated by Messrs. Handville and Freedman, "a resigner of responsible positions," this comes as quite a surprise to those of us who have been privileged to work with him in civil defense. Certainly a period of three years as Director is no short stretch by any standard.

I would also like to point out that Mr. Lucy is still active in Civil Defense as a member of the Union County Advisory Board, in recognition of his leadership in this field and as a member of the Springfield Fire Reserve.

Would that all our citizens were as conscious of their civic responsibilities as this "resigner of responsible positions."

Very truly yours,
Robert G. Planer,
Municipal Director,
Civil Defense and Disaster Control

Editor, Sun:
In order to clarify the issue regarding the Shunpike Sewer and the Henshaw-Hawthorn Association, the following is the written statement presented to the Township Committee, which is a matter of public record, on October 8, 1958, during the public hearing on this ordinance:

"In view of the rising tax rate the residents of the Henshaw-Hawthorn area are concerned about the added burden placed upon the town because of the proposed storm sewer to be constructed in the Baltusrol tract. We feel that the town is carrying an unfair proportion of the cost of this project in view of the fact that other developers have borne the cost of extensive storm sewers one hundred percent.

"We would like to ask that no final action be taken at this time, but that negotiations be considered to establish a more equitable share of the cost by the developer who, we believe, is the primary beneficiary. We would appreciate your consideration of this letter for publication."

Sincerely yours,
George C. Kauer, Jr.,
President.

Caldwell School
The James Caldwell School PTA Card-Party was held Monday evening in the school auditorium.

The finance committee chairman, Mrs. Stanley McConkey, extends the committee's vote of appreciation to the Class Mothers and School Staff who promoted the sale of tickets for the party and to each and every PTA member who, in any way, contributed to the success of the card party.

Mrs. William Wood, membership chairman, reports a most successful membership drive for James Caldwell School PTA. Up to date 574 members have been enrolled which exceeds last year's total. Mrs. Wood is grateful to the parents, class mothers and school staff who helped in reaching this record of the organization.

Dear Sir:
The officers and members of Suburban Deborah League wish to thank all the citizens of Springfield who contributed so generously to our recent maintenance drive. We would like to also thank your paper for the publicity we have received throughout the year. Mayor Binder for proclaiming October "13-18th Deborah Maintenance Week, Mr. Bonadies for acting as honorary chairman and Mr. Smith of the National State Bank for his cooperation with us.

Through the generosity of our townsfolk, we stand ready to give aid to those who need heart surgery, chest cancer or tubercular care. The modern facilities of Deborah hospital with its world renowned staff are available to any local resident who should ever need its use (and we hope there will be few, indeed). The motto of the hospital, "He who enters, does not pay" is possible because of the work done by auxiliaries such as Suburban Deborah League. As long as people can be saved by heart surgery, as long as the need for tubercular care continues and as long as research is necessary in the field of chest cancers, we pledge to aid in this wonderful "Fight for Life."

Sincerely,
Mrs. Allen Borsky,
President.

Announce Red Cross Course

A Standard-Red Cross course will be given at the First Aid Squad House, starting Wednesday, November 5, at 8 p.m. It is open to anyone 15 years or older and will continue for a minimum of 10 hours. For further information contact Mrs. George Bowles, DR. 6-6316.

Republicans Dance, Entertain Tonight

Broadway entertainment, music by Cy Greene and his orchestra, Trick-or-Treat gifts for everyone attending, plus a group of surprise gifts to the winners of the Champagne Hour Dance Contest are just a few of the treats planned by the committee in charge of the Halloween Eve dance sponsored by the Republican Campaign Committee for "Art" Handville and "Ike" Freedman being held at Evergreen Lodge tonight.

With the definite feeling of a Republican victory in view of the response to the invitations mailed to all residents of the town has been nothing short of sensational, the chairman, Raymond R. Kravetz announced today with every expectation of a record breaking crowd in attendance to enjoy all the festivities and meet the men who will be the victors on November 4.

B'nai B'rith Breakfast Set

The men's lodge of the Springfield B'nai B'rith will hold a membership breakfast on November 2, 9:30 a. m., at Temple Beth Ahm. In addition to breakfast, the lodge will present Emil Block. Among many other achievements Mr. Block is a past president of the North Jersey Council of B'nai B'rith. Any man interested in B'nai B'rith is welcome to attend free of charge. For additional information, contact Rudolph Bamberger, lodge membership chairman.

"Brother—they ought to put that one in jail!"

Why all the carelessness, the bad manners, the outright breaking of the law that this gas station owner sees every day?
Because someone is in a hurry? Because someone loses his head and tries to return a discourtesy? Because someone is just not thinking?

These are pretty silly reasons for flirting with death. Last year nearly 40,000 men, women and children died in traffic accidents. Many of them were killed by good drivers who for one moment drove recklessly. And one moment can mean the difference between life and death.

For Your Health and Your Welfare
Vote "YES" for the Water Referendum

The Water Referendum, which will be on your ballot on November 4, deserves your support. A "Yes" vote means water security for you.

The people of New Jersey need to have an abundant supply of water all twelve months of the year. You want enough water for the health and welfare of every member of your family. Water is a vital factor in New Jersey's economic progress; it is a necessary advantage to the state's industrial growth.

Here are the main reasons why you should vote "Yes":

- First, the Water Referendum offers a practical solution to New Jersey's immediate need for a water supply.
- Second, New Jersey needs additional water storage as well as water supply. This plan would provide storage in reservoirs, for use during dry periods of surplus water which falls during rainy periods.
- Third, this is a thrifty solution, since the proposal pays for itself... without a single penny of new or additional taxes.

This is a vital problem which must be solved now. To have water security without new or additional taxes...

Vote "Yes" for WATER SECURITY on November 4

Small law act entitled "An act to authorize the creation of a debt of the State of New Jersey by the issuance of bonds of the State in the aggregate principal amount of $45,000,000, for researching, acquiring, constructing and developing water supplies for public, industrial, irrigation and other purposes and facilities appurtenant thereto, providing the ways and means to pay the interest of such debt and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof, and providing for the submission of this act to the people at a general election," be approved?

If you have youngsters of your own, then this picture must call up wonderful memories. How happy, how proud you were of the new baby. Proud, happy, and grateful, too. For no one had to tell either of you that your child was a sacred trust... that his or her happiness depended in large measure upon the way you measured up as a parent.

Today, you know better than ever how true that is. It's you the children look to for all things... for love, for learning, for fun... and, above all, for the good example to follow in life.

That's quite a responsibility. But, thanks to God, not a lonely one. For God-blessed you with children, knows you need His constant help to raise them wisely—and that help is yours for the asking. Worship together, at your Church or Synagogue, every week.

Temple Beth Ahm Fund Drive Realizes $100,000 In 15 Days

$100,000 IN 15 DAYS—Dr. Arthur Williams, Chairman of the Challenge Gifts Committee for the new Temple Beth Ahm, paints in at the kick-off rally held Saturday night. Proud of the 15 day achievement are David Kaplan, Milton Kappstater, Temple President; Rabbi Reuben E. Levine; Manasseh Mendelsohn, Campaign Chairman and Leonard Garber.

At the Kick-off Rally of the Temple Beth Ahm Building Fund, campaign on Saturday, Oct. 25th, held at the auditorium of the Temple, Dr. Arthur Williams, Chairman of the Challenge Gifts Committee dramatically announced that the first twenty-five families seen in the campaign, together with the Sisterhood, had pledged $100,000 all within the first fifteen days.

Milton Kappstater, Temple President, expressed "every confidence" that with such a magnificent start by the Challenge Gifts Committee, under the Chairmanship of Dr. Williams, the Campaign is bound to succeed. Manasseh Mendelsohn, Campaign Chairman and master of ceremonies for the evening, declared that he was "sure" that the Advance Gifts Committee, under the Chairmanship of Ephraim Weinger, and Co-Chaired by Ike Freedman, James Ross and Abbe Greenberg, together with the General Giftsmanship of David Kaplan and the Leonard Nurkin, will meet the challenge of the suspicious beginnings made by Dr. Williams' Committee. Guest speaker of the evening was Dr. Max Gruenewald, Rabbi at Temple B'nai Israel in Millburn. Messages from Rev. Virgil E. Mabry, of the Springfield Methodist Church and Rev. Bruce Evans, of the Presbyterian Church were read to the group by Rabbi Reuben Levine. Rev. Mabry sent his wishes that "God bless your undertaking as you build material and spiritually." Writing from Alaska in a personal letter to Rabbi Levine, Rev. Evans expressed his interest in the project and sent his best wishes for its success.

Speaking for the Sisterhood was Mrs. Meyer Biddelman, who announced a Board pledge of $25,000, contingent on approval of the full Sisterhood membership. A highlight of the evening was Miss Toby Kaplan, aged 11½, who spoke on the children's point of view. Others speakers were Leonard Garber on the Need For Our New Center Building, Ralph Feldman on History of Congregation, Mrs. Ruth Weissman on Women's Point of View, Meyer Biddelman on Sacrificial Giving and a Recruitment talk by David Kaplan.

Sisterhood To Run Two Affairs

Flora Lichter, membership chairman of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Ahm announces the annual Paid-Up Membership Affair, which will be "Bride Meets Groom." The ceremony will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 3, at the Temple. A smorgasbord supper will be served immediately following the ceremony. The Sisterhood will also run a Rummage Sale on Nov. 5, 6, 7, at 175 Main Street, East Orange. Members of the Temple are requested to deliver articles suitable for rummage to Mrs. Meyer Biddelman, 122 Maple Avenue, or call Drexell 6-4345 or Drexell 6-0716 for pick up. Mrs. Bernard Ottenstein is in charge of the sale. Bermuda is the oldest self-governing colony in the British Commonwealth. Bermuda was claimed by the British in 1609.

Iran Missionary To Speak Here

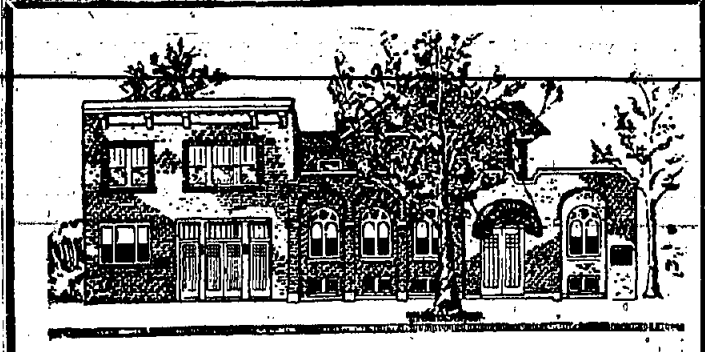

The Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Presbyterian Church will have as their speaker Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. Miss Jane Doolittle of Teheran, Iran. Miss Doolittle is from the Ecumenical Mission and Relations Commission. One of the outstanding pieces of missionary work in Teheran today is the Iran Bethel Project, and the story of its development is largely Jane Doolittle's story. In 1940 the Iranian government took over all educational work conducted by non-Iranians. This meant the closing of the Iran Bethel School, where Miss Doolittle had taught since 1926, and she was out of a job. Almost immediately she started a work that has developed into the Iran Bethel Project. In a rented apartment in the center of the city she started classes for former students and alumnae, and also began work among the poor in the district, especially women and children. By 1946 the work had grown sufficiently to warrant a home of its own and recognition as a permanent part of the mission program in Teheran. In 1948 funds realized from the sale of the former school were invested in a good building and adequate grounds in the heart of the city. Here a staff of ten under Miss Doolittle's direction carries on an active program for women, girls, and children of all ages and classes. In 1925 Miss Doolittle was appointed by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. and returned to Iran the following year. Her first year was spent in Hamadan where she taught in the Faith Hubbard School, a boarding and day school for girls. In 1927 she went again to Teheran to the Iran Bethel School, of which she was appointed principal. When this school was closed she began to develop the Iran Bethel Project.

PASTRY COOK: Mrs. Joseph Stamer is shown mixing pastry for cream puff recipe that won the $10 prize in our Favorite Recipe Contest this week. Cream puffs look complicated but they are really simple to make and delicious as well.

$10 For Favorite Recipe

If you've never made cream puffs, we urge you to try the recipe which won the $10 prize in our Favorite Recipe Contest this week. They are really easy to make and delicious to eat and should bring you some fine compliments on your cooking skill. Mrs. Joseph Stamer of 1325 Lincoln Ter., Union, submitted the recipe. Have you sent in your favorite recipe yet? Just mail it to this newspaper at the address in the upper left-hand corner of this page. A $10 prize is awarded every week. Please include your telephone number.

CREAM PUFFS
Sift together:
1/2 cup sifted flour (not self-rising)
1/4 teaspoon salt
low, direct heat:
Melt in saucepan over low, direct heat:
1/4 cup shortening (butter preferred) in 1/2 cup boiling water
Add:
Dry ingredients all at once, stirring constantly over heat until mixture forms ball in center of saucepan.

Remove from heat and add:
2 eggs, one at a time, beat vigorously until mixture is smooth

Drop:
By tablespoonsful on greased baking sheet one and one-half inches apart.

Bake 10 minutes in 450 degree oven. Lower heat and bake at 400 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Cool. Slice off top of puff. Fill with vanilla pudding. Replace top. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar.

Mrs. Stamer doesn't suggest it, but puffs may be filled with vanilla ice cream just before serving and covered with chocolate sauce. If you prefer, cocktail size cream puffs may be made by dropping dough from teaspoon instead of tablespoon. These may also be filled with pudding or ice cream. Filled with lobster, crab, shrimp or tuna fish salad, they make a delightful conversation-piece appetizer.

Time For Pumpkin Pie

Reach for a can of rich, golden pumpkin or squash and make a pumpkin pie for dinner. With cool, invigorating weather there comes a yen for home-baked pies, and pumpkin is a top choice.

It's always good served plain, but for special occasions add a conversation-making topping. Shredded or flaked coconut, well drained crushed pineapple, cranberry sauce flavored whipped cream or toasted sesame seed are some extra-good suggestions.

1/2 cup shredded or flaked coconut
Mix well beaten eggs, sugar, spices, salt and pumpkin. Add milk and water and stir until mixture is smooth. Pour into a 9-inch pastry lined pie pan. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) 45 to 55 minutes, or until mixture is firm and crust is well browned. Cool slightly and sprinkle with coconut. One 9-inch pie.

Light Jack-O'-Lantern For Saman
Eat Fruits and Nuts For The Goddess Pomona

By AUDREY CHASE WALTERS

The reasons behind why we do the things we do always make an interesting study and Halloween is no exception. Known as the eve of the Christian festival, All Saints' Day, Halloween actually was celebrated many years before the birth of Christ. It was the custom to build bonfires on Halloween because that was the one night of the year when witches and ghosts were most likely to be abroad. In Ireland, Halloween is still called the Vigil of Saman. He was the lord of death who called the wicked souls together, for an annual convention or something.

Somewhere along the line, the Roman festival of Pomona came into the picture. Fruits and nuts were part of this festival celebrated about November first in honor of Pomona, goddess of fruits and gardens.

So if you light a candle in the pumpkin displayed in your window tomorrow night and have the traditional apples and nuts on the sideboard and children disguised as witches and ghosts ringing your doorbell, it's all because of Saman and Pomona and bonfires ignited in the dim-distant-ages.

And all of this brings us right up to the housewife with an interest in cooking and the time to indulge in this fascinating art. There is nothing like a holiday as an excuse for making "something special."

The Favorite Recipe Contest column today has a recipe for cream puffs. If you cover them with a simple confectioners' sugar icing tinted orange, they make delightfully plump "pumpkins" to serve at your party or as dessert on Halloween.

Here is a Halloween pie which uses both apples and nuts, hail Pomona!

Place one package lemon chiffon pie filling in large, deep bowl. Add half cup boiling water and mix thoroughly. Add half cup very cold apple juice and beat vigorously with rotary beater or at highest speed of electric mixer until mixture is very foamy. Add third cup sugar and continue beating until mixture stands in peaks. Fold in third cup toasted, chopped pecans. Pour into baked eight- or nine-inch pie shell. Chill until set, about two hours. Garnish each piece with whipped cream and apple slices.

If it's a cookie-baking-mood you're in, here is a recipe that lends itself well to cutting into fancy shapes and to decorations to suit any occasion. Cut them into pumpkins and cover with orange-tinted frosting. Cut them into clowns or witches and decorate as you will with frosting or bits of fruit or nuts.

Mix one and one-half cups shortening with an equal amount of brown sugar and one unbeaten egg. Beat well and add one tablespoon orange juice and half tablespoon lemon juice. Continue beating until light and foamy. Sift together three cups flour, one-quarter teaspoon soda and half teaspoon cinnamon. Add to first mixture and then add one cup ground, unblanched almonds. Chill at least three hours, roll, cut and bake in moderate oven about 10 minutes.

Cider is the traditional drink hauled out every year on Halloween. If you're not in a baking-mood at all, cider and donuts (from one of the excellent donut shops or bakeries in the area) will make excellent refreshments for your Halloween guests. Be daring and pep the cider up a bit. If the weather turns very cold, heat it up.

For cold cider punch, mix one quart of cider with three-quarters of a cup of lemon juice. Add sugar syrup to taste. Pour into punch bowl over ice and add one quart of soda water just before serving. To make sugar water, simply boil sugar in an equal amount of water for five minutes. Cool before using.

For hot cider, boil together for five minutes one quart of cider, two whole allspice, two whole cloves and one three-inch stick of cinnamon. Remove spices. (It's a good idea to tie them together in cheesecloth before adding them in the first place.) Add slightly less than one-half cup of dark brown sugar and boil another five minutes. Keep punch hot at drinking-temperature in double boiler until ready to serve.

NEVER FAIL-CHOCOLATE FROSTING
boiler over hot water, until chocolate is melted, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add 1 pound sifted confectioners' sugar, a little at a time, beating after each addition until frosting is smooth and creamy.

DANISH STUFFED CABBAGE
6 cups 1/2-inch soft bread cubes
2 cups (1-pound) sausage meat
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon celery salt
1/4 teaspoon sage
1 large head of cabbage
1/3 cup butter or margarine
1 cup dry bread crumbs

Combine soft bread cubes, sausage meat, salt, celery salt and sage. Slice the top off the head of cabbage. Scoop out center, leaving a firm shell and fill with bread mixture. Place top of cabbage over opening, secure with toothpicks or string. Tie in cheesecloth. Place in a large kettle of simmering water. Cover and simmer slowly for one hour. Remove from kettle and take off cheesecloth. Place stuffed cabbage on a platter and remove top. Melt butter in a skillet.

When hot, add dry bread crumbs and brown. To serve, cut into wedges and spoon Onion Sauce over each serving. Top with browned bread crumbs. Yield: 6 servings.

Try These Stuffed Onions In Hamburger Hoops

With this recipe, we have rice, 1 1/2 teaspoons thick steak sauce as one of the most versatile of all foods! Here it's a stuffing as well as a meat extender.

Tender cooked onions are hollowed out and filled with rice and green peas. A savory rice and ground-beef mixture is pressed up and around the onions. This is an award winner — our candidate for an "Oscar."

- 6 large mild onions (about 3 1/2 ins. in diameter)
- 2 1/2 cups cooked white rice
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 cup canned tiny green peas, drained
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 5 tablespoons milk
- 1 1/2 lbs. ground beef
- 1 egg

Coffee-Flavored Exotic Dessert

There's something exotic about the very word "pilau" — Turkish, Persian or Indian — and it may be any of the three.

Main dish or dessert, pilau is eaten more than a thousand savory ways. To suit the Indian taste, it must have a generous sprinkling of curry. In true Turkish style, it's more often mild and sweet.

And what about this new variation on the theme, Coffee Raisin Pilau? No oriental mystery here, except that you may wonder how such a simple recipe can add up to such a surprisingly delicious dessert.

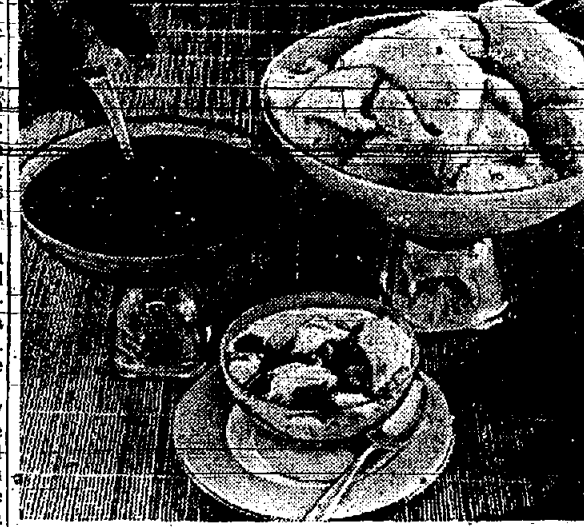

Not only is it downright good to eat, you can make it quickly and easily, and the finished product is lovely to look at, too. In our book, that's practically perfect!

Speaking of perfection, you'll want a fragrant potful of hot coffee to serve along with the coffee-flavored pilau. We'll admit that crisp autumn weather has a way of putting an edge on family appetites, but this combination is certain to become an all-time favorite whatever the season.

- COFFEE RAISIN PILAU
- 1 small package (4 1/2 oz.) pre-cooked rice
 - Regular strength coffee brew
 - 1/2 cup golden seedless raisins
 - 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 - 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
 - 1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Prepare pre-cooked rice according to package directions, using coffee instead of water. Stir in remaining ingredients except cream. Mix well and cool. Fold in whipped cream. Spoon into sherbet glasses. Makes 6 servings.

Creamy Caramel Sauce

This Homemade Dessert Sauce surpasses any "ready made" one we've found — and it's perfect for cakes and other desserts in addition to the ice cream we've pictured here. Keeps beautifully in your refrigerator, too, so you can store it for ready use.

- CARAMEL SAUCE
- 1 1/2 cups instant cream
 - 1 cup water
 - 1/2 cup shortening
 - 1/4 cup corn syrup
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt

Combine sugar and cream. Add remaining ingredients and cook over medium heat, stirring frequently as mixture thickens. Cook constantly as it darkens. Cook to 230 degrees or when a little dropped in cold water forms a very soft ball. Add 1/2 cup chopped nut meats. Serve warm cake squares, etc. Can be made ahead and kept refrigerated. Reheat over hot water. Makes about 2 1/4 cups sauce.

Circus Party For Rainy Days

When rain keeps the kiddies indoors, it's often up to you to find something for them to do. Create the festive atmosphere of a circus and let them cut gay trimmings from construction paper.

The Clown Sillies can be made from a package of your favorite cupcake mix. Add chocolate to the recipe on the package directions, mix, bake and cool. As easy as that!

Now frost and make-pert little clown faces atop each cupcake. The children will look forward to rainy days with parties like this!

- CLOWN SILLIES
- Makes 12 to 14 Cupcakes
 - 1 cupcake mix
 - 1 egg
 - 2 1/2 cup milk
 - 2 oz. (2 squares) unsweetened chocolate, melted

Decorations: Confectioners' sugar frosting. Semi-sweet chocolate pieces. Gumdrops. Cinnamon candies. Flaked or shredded coconut.

Heat oven to moderate (350° F.). Empty contents of package of cupcake mix into bowl. Add 1 egg and 1/2 cup milk. Beat for 1 minute. Add another 1/2 cup milk and melted chocolate; beat for one more minute. Line muffin cups with paper baking cups or grease and flour cupcake pans; fill cupcake pans one-half full. Bake in preheated oven (350° F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Cool.

Frost with confectioners' sugar frosting; make faces with chocolate, nuts, gumdrops, cinnamon candies and coconut.

Fresh Cranberries Are Symbol Of Holidays

Fresh cranberries, the symbol of fall colors, holiday seasons and festive eating, are here again.

Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, Union County Home Agent, says that although a variety of processed cranberry products are now available this year, around, relishes, hot breads and dishes made with the fresh berries add a seasonal note to menus.

You will find most fresh cranberries sold in one-pound transparent bags or in one-pound cardboard boxes with transparent windows. You can determine quality of the berries through this film to some extent. Look for plump, dry berries that are firm and have a high luster. Berries that are dull in appearance are past their prime.

As a historical sidelight, the Mayflower brought many foods to American shores, but cranberries were here to meet the ship. The Indians had long found many uses for the wild berry and their use has been traced back to 1550.

New Jersey has been a leader in cranberry production, ranking third in the nation. The pine barrens of Monmouth, Ocean, Burlington, Atlantic and Cumberland Counties are ideally suited to cranberry production. This year an estimated 75,000 barrels will be harvested.

Cranberry culture requires constant care. Many times we will hear weather forecasters include the statement, "frost in the cranberry bogs." This warning points up the special problem of the cranberry grower. In the spring and fall, first blossoms and then berries must be protected from frost. This is done by flooding the bogs since water is always warmer than air.

Quick cranberry sauce is a delightful accompaniment to piping-hot waffles or griddle cakes. Hot cranberry breakfast muffins and butter will make the whole family call "more."

- QUICK CRANBERRY SAUCE
- 2 cups water
 - 2 cups sugar
 - 4 cups fresh cranberries

Combine water and sugar in saucepan. Boil 5 minutes. Add cranberries and cook rapidly until berries pop and mixture thickens slightly, about 10 minutes. Makes 1 quart sauce.

- BREAKFAST MUFFINS
- 1 cup fresh cranberries
 - 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 4 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1 egg, beaten
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 2 cups flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup milk
 - 3 tablespoons melted butter

Put cranberries through food chopper, then mix with 1/2 cup sugar and cinnamon. Stir remaining 1/2 cup sugar with flour, baking powder and salt. Mix beaten egg, milk and melted butter. Combine dry and liquid mixtures and stir together until just mixed. Fold in sweetened cranberries. Fill

Skillet Stew Is Made With Package Mix

Here is a recipe for a hearty, delicious Skillet Chopped Beef Stew made with a package of beef vegetable soup mix that supplies not only delicious flavor but also the nutritious ingredients of numerous vegetables as well as beef.

This stew is simple to make and takes just about 35 minutes from start to finish. The onions and chopped meat are browned in melted butter and then 2 cups of water and the package of beef vegetable soup mix are immediately added and cooked for a half hour.

Serve piping hot with a lettuce salad tossed with a prepared Italian dressing.

- SKILLET CHOPPED-BEEF STEW WITH ONIONS
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 - 12 small white peeled onions
 - 1 pound ground beef
 - 2 cups water
 - 1 package beef vegetable soup mix
 - 1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Melt butter or margarine in skillet, add onions and lightly brown. Add meat and brown well, stirring constantly. Pour in water, stir in soup mix and cover. Cook about 30 minutes until onions are tender; adding more water if necessary. Sprinkle with parsley before serving. Makes 4 servings.

Frosted muffin cups two-thirds full. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) about 25 minutes, or until wire cake tester inserted in center or muffin comes out clean. Makes about 12 muffins.

Democrats Like Sausages Just As Much As Republicans

There's something wrong with that headline. Democrats probably like sausages even more than they like Republicans. No, let's get it straight: Democrats like sausages just as much as Republicans like sausage.

Well, what we really mean is that before, during and after Election Day, we'll be doing what we know best — making the finest sausages this side of Wurttemberg, which is where we learned to make them a long time ago.

Oh, what sausages! Jagdwurst, Brotwurst, Mettwurst — every kind of wurst.

You may pay a few cents more than in the supermarket, but if you like sausage and know good cold cuts, you'll love what you find here.

Fast Dessert Is Made In Skillet

Just think a dessert you stir together in a skillet and cook in 10 minutes on top of the stove. This is the quickest dessert you've ever made and has that wonderful long-baked flavor. The dessert is full of butter-browned pecans, plump currants and tender apple slices. And the secret of the whiff of lemon is the spice, mace!

- 1/2 cup boiling water
1/2 cup currants
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1/2 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
2 cups cooked white rice
1 cup canned apple slices, coarsely chopped
1/2 teaspoon mace
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup milk

Pour the water over the currants. Allow to stand while the rest of the pudding is being made. Melt the butter or margarine in a 9-inch or 10-inch skillet. Add pecans. Cook slowly, stirring occasionally, until the pecans are brown. Stir in the brown sugar, rice, apple slices, mace, cinnamon and currants. Stir over low heat until the sugar melts. Continue cooking over the low heat about 10 minutes; stir occasionally. Remove the skillet from the heat. Mix together the egg and milk. Stir in some of the hot pudding. Stir back into the skillet. Smooth the top with a spoon. Serve the pudding warm. It is extra delicious with whipped cream or vanilla ice cream. This recipe makes 6 to 7 servings.

Give Flavor To Foods Having Low Calories

Don't feel sorry for yourself if you have to pass up the rich foods and goodies. You can have delicious meals from low calorie foods. Select naturally fine flavored foods to start with, and then give them extra appeal with discreetly chosen seasonings, says Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, County Home Agent.

Fresh fruits, vegetables, cottage cheese and lean meat are among the good foods possible on a diet that must be low in calories. Of course, you can add calories to these foods when you dress them up with mayonnaise, whipped cream, gravy, rich sauces or other fats or sugars.

Our suggestions to weight watchers is to use spices for seasoning vegetables instead of cream sauce, butter or margarine. For example, a half cup of cooked green snap beans has a calorie count of 12. But a half-tablespoon of butter or margarine adds 50 calories. A dash of basil, thyme or mint adds only flavor. Use a little salt and vinegar or lemon juice on your green salad instead of salad dressing or use a low-calorie dressing. Each tablespoon of mayonnaise adds 90 calories. An Extension Bulletin available on request gives a salad dressing recipe that is only 40 calories. Raw fruit is always a wise choice for dessert. Have an apple or an orange at 75 calories, a half grapefruit for 45. If you choose apple pie or a piece of cake you would get 350 calories. Sweet food counts the most. The best way to make the most of your vegetables, Mrs. Irene Wolcott, Extension Specialist in Foods and Nutrition in our Rutgers University staff, suggests this low-calorie mustard sauce: Pour 1 cup of vegetable liquid or cooking liquid into pan. Use some vinegar to make the required amount, if necessary. Add 1/2 cup non-fat dry milk, 1 tablespoon flour and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Beat until smooth. Add 1 tablespoon butter and cook over low heat or boiling water until thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in 2 teaspoons prepared mustard. Use over cooked greens, snap beans or cabbage.

Sort cucumber over sliced fruit makes simple but always acceptable dessert. This is usually lower in calories than cake or pie and at the same time it provides more minerals and vitamins.

Mirror Walls Add Space

Among interior wall coverings for use in modern homes, there is one, an unframed architectural mirror, that does a lot more than merely provide an attractive surface for the wall. Mirroring actually doubles the apparent size of the room, extending the expanse of walls, ceiling and floor, thus giving an illusion of greater spaciousness to areas that would otherwise be boxlike and confining. A mirror wall also increases the amount of light in the room, is easily cleaned, never needs refinishing and "matches" immediately any type of room decoration.

Do You Rate As Meat Shopper?

Does your husband draw the line at shopping for meat? Or does he overspend when he buys the meat? How do you yourself rate? It is one of the most difficult parts of food shopping, says Mrs. Mary W. Armstrong, County Home Agent.

Do you suit meat purchases to your home shopping equipment? A score of our yes answers elicit you a high rating. And here are some of the reasons why.

Knowledge of quality signs helps you match your purchase to culinary use. Self-service of prepackaged meat and the accompanying disappearance of the butcher as counselor increase the need for self-reliance in quality selection. Here are the traits that mark good quality beef: Fat... A smooth covering of firm, creamy-white fat, evenly distributed over the exterior.

Regal Strawberry Pie

We are sure you'll enjoy cooking with preserves and we know that this particularly good recipe for Regal Strawberry Pie will meet with hearty family approval. It is one of many recipes recently developed which uses jellies and preserves as ingredients—a new concept in the dessert world.

Something New In Egg Recipes

For studying, playing and growing, children need special food elements, and eggs provide several of these. Whether fried, poached, scrambled, soft-cooked, hard-cooked or used as an ingredient with other foods, it provides the body-building protein and amino acids especially needed during periods of rapid growth.

Regal Strawberry Pie

smooth. Blend in 1/2 cup sugar. Beat 3 eggs slightly, add 1/2 cup milk and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Slowly add to the cheese mixture, stirring until well blended. Pour into a 9-inch pastry shell which has been baked in a hot oven, 425°, for 5 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven, 350° for 25 minutes. Cool. Spread the contents of one 12-ounce jar of pure strawberry preserves over the cooled pie and garnish with whipped cream.
