Ed Ruby Wins Lions' Top Award

"MAN OF THE YEAR"—Edward Ruby, head of the Springfield Recreation Commission, is shown receiving the annual achievement award from Dean Ruby, Widmer, Mrs. John Keith, and Mrs. Thelma LaKe Sandmeier, principal of the Gaudineer School, at a banquet Friday night at Dan Dowd's here.

Director of the Springfield Recreation Commission, Edward Ruby, was awarded the Springfield Lions Club annual "Achievement Award" at a banquet Friday night at Dan Dowd's here.

Ruby is the eighth recipient of the award that dates back to the first winners, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keith. Last year, Mrs. Thelma LaKe Sandmeier, principal of the Gaudineer School, was named for the award.

Dean Widmer, chairman of the award committee, described Ruby as a "great guy" in his presentation speech for his work with the youth of Springfield.

The following is from Widmer's talk outlining Ruby's past:

"To us, he has always been considered a charter member of Springfield. However, research indicates this is not quite true. To our surprise, Ed was born in one of our suburbs, Scotch Plains, at the beginning of the twentieth century. Moving to Springfield at the age of four practically qualifies him as a charter member of our town. Having been a resident (Continued on Page 3)

HIGH COMMAND—Jack H. Stifelman, with paper in hand, is the new president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce. He succeeds Donald S. Leany as head of the merchant's, businessmen's and professional men's organization. Left to right are new officers: J. D. Second, vice-president; Stifelman; John Schable III, treasurer; A. W. Morrison, secretary.

Jack Stifelman Is Elected New C of C Pres.

Jack H. Stifelman was unanimously elected president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night.

The Board of Directors picked Stifelman and three other officers at a meeting to set plans for the coming year. Stifelman is a CPA with offices at 623 Morris Avenue.

J. D. Second, manager of the General Electric Co. on Route 22, was named vice-president. John Schable III of the Schable Oil Co. at 192 Mountain Avenue, was made treasurer, and A. W. Morrison of Andrew Wilson Inc. on Balmisul Way was tapped for secretary.

The Board of Directors also confirmed the installation of the following members to the Board. They were elected at the last general meeting.

Three year terms to Stifelman, Schable, Morrison and Second. Two year terms to Henry Grabarz, Wesley Lewandowski, James Cavley, and Martin Stelshardt. One year terms to Milton Keshen, Russel Lyons, Carl Jehlen, and Laurence Rogers.

Reserve Cops Give 1,600 Hours Free

Another year of service to the community was completed and reviewed by the CD Police Reserve at its recent January meeting. Over 1,600 hours of time were donated during 1958 by its members.

The organization, only one of the many Civil Defense forces authorized by State law, is designed to perform routine police duties in time of civil or military disaster, thus relieving members of the regular police force for other use.

The CD Police Reserve is directed in its training activities by the Chief of Police and sub-officers of the regular police force as he designates. During the past year programs of instruction have been offered by police officers in traffic control, use of police equipment, and accident investigation. Proper care and use of fire arms (Continued on Page 3)

Nix Route 22 As Highway Path

Springfield's advocates of the "revitalization" of Route 22 received a major setback this week with the release by the State Highway Department of a study of the project.

The engineering consulting firm of Madigan-Hyland found nothing but thorns in the plan put forward by two out-of-town lobbyists and endorsed by the local Mayor's Committee on the highway and more than 1,000 signatures on a locally circulated petition.

The report says that use of the present Route 22 for the path of the projected interstate highway would:

Cost at least $42 million more than the State's alignment. Wipe out all businesses in Springfield on the traffic island. This includes National Shoes, Furniture Craft, Sandler and Worth, and the Lido Diner.

Labor May Muffle Local RR Whistle

Springfield is threatened with the temporary loss of its only railroad.

Strikers may halt the powerful engines (2) of the Rahway Valley Railroad which roar through town every so often. Four of the railroad's 15 employees are threatening to walk out on Jan. 21 unless their demand for a pay increase is met.

Whether this would halt operations on the 14 mile long railroad from Summit to Roselle Park is uncertain. The president of the road, George A. Clark says of his four track repair men:

"If they strike, we are prepared to go on for two years without them." The line was founded by the late Louis Keller, Mr. Clark succeeds (Continued on Page 3)

Name Jehlen Head Of Scout Campaign

Carl Jehlen, general manager of Balmisul Country Club and member of the Springfield Rotary Club, has been named chairman in Springfield by the Washington Rook-Girl Scout Council in the campaign to raise $26,000.

This drive will be conducted to support the council's program in seven municipalities and will start April 2 to continue through April 20 in Berkeley Heights, Clark, Garwood, Kenilworth, Springfield, Union and Winfield.

William Lathers Jr. of Union, a vice president of the Union Center National Bank, will act as general chairman.

The Rotary Clubs of Union and Springfield have assumed responsibility for the drives in these communities. In most areas the soliciting will be confined largely to business and industry.

Washington Rook Council serves 28 municipalities. It covers most of Union County and part of Somerset and Middlesex counties. Approximately 18 per cent of the council members reside in the seven communities, and the quota is based on this figure.

Ask Gas Station For Mountain-Henshaw Aves.

Residents in the Henshaw and Mountain avenue area of Springfield can be expected to attend the next public hearing of the Board of Adjustment scheduled for January 22 because of an application which threatens to add more to the "dangerous and confused traffic" at this hazardous intersection.

An application has been made to construct a filling station at the corner of Henshaw and Mountain and the members of the Board of Adjustment are to consider this application by Charles De Marco at a public hearing, 8 o'clock p.m.

The Township authorities, in past years, have been discouraging any further gas and filling stations for Springfield, and residents in this area are expected to offer their objections at the public hearing.

Another application to be considered at this same public hearing will be to appeal a decision of Building Inspector Wilbert J. Binder for the right to store and maintain 25 to 30 buses on an open lot on Route 22.

Howard Johnsons, in Route 22, has applied for a special exception use to the zoning ordinance seeking approval for the addition of 24 more units to the present motel on the property. The application is being made in the name of Robert F. Downs, Inc., operators of the present motel facilities, one of the better operated facilities in this area.

Net Valuation Up Here Nearly Two Millions

Springfield shows an increase of nearly two million dollars—$1,966,500—in the 1959 net valuation of real estate according to a tabulation of tax reports received by the Union County Tax Board and released a few days ago.

Springfield showed an increase greater than most of the communities in Union County, the totals being greater than Summit, Westfield, Plainfield, Rahway, Hillside, Cranford, Garwood, Mountainside, New Providence, Roselle, Scotch Plains and Roselle Park.

Berkeley Heights, Linden and Union areas marked by new construction during the past year, led the increase table. All registered gains of more than $2,000,000 in new ratables with Union listing almost $4,000,000.

The figures represent the amount $23,000,000 in the summaries submitted by 20 of the county's 21 towns. All except Elizabeth have reported. The Elizabeth increase may be less than a million dollars. It is estimated. Last year the rise was $2,264,007.

Local Driver Loses License

Paul J. Pettinella of 108 Jefferson Terrace, Springfield, had his driver's license revoked by the State according to a list released this week.

The motor vehicle commissioner suspended his license for two months on charges of one speeding, one traffic light, and three stop sign violations.

Fire Guts Mende Florist Bldg.

An early morning fire last weekend destroyed the roof and damaged the boiler in a small building belonging to Mende Florist at 223 Mountain Avenue. Firemen said the blaze, of undetermined origin, started in a loft above the boiler in a 14 by 20-foot cinder block building apart from the florist buildings. The owner, Mrs. Alice F. Mende, who occupies an apartment on the property was awakened by the sound and glow of the flames and summoned the firemen. Deputy Chief Robert Day said flames were shooting through the roof when the department arrived. The roof was destroyed, the estimated loss could not be determined immediately, firemen said. The boiler still can be operated to provide heat in the other buildings. Chief Ormond Mesker directed the firemen.

Report Rapid Rise Of Local Business

Twenty-eight new business firms were added to Springfield during the last year, according to Dun and Bradstreet. The credit organization reports that their Agency Reference Book shows an increase from 223 to 251 businesses in Springfield during 1958. This is a greater percentage increase than Union County or neighboring towns can boast of. Springfield now ranks 9th in number of business firms among Union County's communities.

Mrs. Bandomer May Get Elections Post

Mrs. Amy Bandomer, one of the Republican leaders in both local and Union County circles, tops the list of those mentioned for appointment to the Union County Board of Elections. Mrs. Edith S. Pascoe of Elizabeth lost her bid for reappointment to that post last week when the GOP executive committee decided to name someone else.

Fails To Have Car Inspected

The executive committee voted to limit the elections board patronage to one term per appointee. Mrs. Pascoe's second two-year term expires March 1.

The Republican group agreed to give the job to a woman and announced it would meet Jan. 22 to vote on candidates. It will select three names on that date for recommendation to the appointive authorities.

The vote board job now pays $3,000 a year, with $1,500 extra for the chairman of the board and the secretary. The 1959 county budget contains provisions for $600 and $800 raises but the estimate is not yet approved.

Mrs. Pascoe has been secretary and registrations commissioner for the past two years. The extra-salaried post falls to the senior Republicans on the bi-partisan board. It will go this year to Carl O. Vebinger of Roselle Park, named last year to succeed Charles F. Beardley of Springfield.

Polio Needs Still Great Despite Salk

The complete and final eradication of polio still remains a prime concern of the National Foundation as it goes into its 21st annual March of Dimes. It was emphasized here today by J. Leo Moran, campaign director of Springfield.

"The Salk vaccine, developed with March of Dimes funds," the director said, "gives us a powerful weapon for knocking out polio. With this victory in sight, even though not yet achieved, the National Foundation is preparing to march toward greater victories in the realm of public health. But the National Foundation is still pledged to give patient aid to all polio victims past or future who need its help."

Estimates indicate some 150,000 survivors of paralytic polio might benefit from modern techniques of rehabilitation pioneered by the National Foundation. Some 50,000 are already on its patient aid chapter rolls.

"In polio research," the director said, "the National Foundation is seeking to increase the effectiveness of the Salk vaccine; indications are that it is 90 per cent effective with three properly spaced shots. Also being studied is a live virus vaccine that can be taken orally. The Salk vaccine is a dead virus vaccine requiring a series of injections. Other National Foundation researchers are looking for better ways to lessen the crippling after-effects of polio."

The campaign director pointed out that while polio is on the run it is still crippling people more than three years after development of a preventive vaccine.

Morey LaRue Has 70th Birthday

The Morey LaRue Laundry Co., which has more than 100 sales outlets in northern New Jersey, eastern Pennsylvania and Staten Island, is marking its 70th year of operation. Morey LaRue has a store in the General Greene Shopping Center in Springfield.

The company was founded in 1890 by Mahlon Morey and William LaRue in Easton, Pa. Three years later branches were opened in Elizabeth and Staten Island.

Mr. Morey supervised the plant in Elizabeth, which was made the central office several years later. The firm, incorporated in 1900, suffered serious misfortune the following year when a fire destroyed the plant at 16-20 W. Jersey Street. A factory in Belleville was rented while the structure was rebuilt. It was in use five months later.

A fleet of motorized delivery trucks was first used in 1924. In

Group Asks Public For Opinion On New School

The group of citizens given the task of finding out why Springfield rejected the proposed new elementary school last month has decided to conduct a written poll.

The public opinion committee of the Citizen's Advisory Committee to the Board of Education met at chairman Mrs. Ruth Hillard's home Tuesday night and voted for the poll.

The group wants Springfield residents to put their frank opinion on the ballot below. Then residents are urged to mail or bring the ballots to the Springfield SUN office, to J. J. Newberry's, or to Roland Drug in the Tab Shopping Center. Voters can mail the ballots directly to Mrs. Ruth Hillard, 15 Archbridge Lane, Springfield.

Year's Taxes at $2 1/2 Million Mark

When the Republicans turned the reins of government to the Democrats on New Year's Day, the town had just completed its first year with taxes running at the $2 1/2 million a year mark.

Collector of Taxes Charles H. Huff reports that the town anted up $2,228,790.78 in taxes in 1958. This is almost half a million dollars more than the $2,039,738.35 collected in 1957.

The month of December alone was almost twice the preceding year. $41,002.60 in 1958 and $22,117 in 1957.

Thus, Democrats will be dealing with a budget that will, more than likely, be in the $2 1/2 million area. Prospects are that revenue will continue to increase for several years in the future.

At places like the narrow corridor between Weequahic Park and the Lehigh Valley Railroad the interstate route would be an elevated highway over the present Route 22.

Ignore Henry Smith
Actually the Madigan-Hyland study is not a refutation of the "revitalization" proposal put forward by Henry Fuch Smith and J. Robert Proctor. They asked that instead of a limited access highway as required by the Federal Highway Act, that only a continuous access road be built. The latter can be done with 60% Federal money, while the Madigan-Hyland plan calls for 50% Federal money.

In other words, a great deal of the extra expense of the Madigan-Hyland "Rehabilitation" of Route 22 is caused by their insistence on limited access. It means constructing two separate highways—the middle expressway and a local street along the edge. This way business must be destroyed all along the route.

Smith objected to the findings of Madigan-Hyland in a telegram last week because they ignored his open access proposal which he says he will save $200 million. He also smelled a rat in the naming of Madigan-Hyland to do the job.

"I can understand the professional resistance to Route 22 revitalization as the engineering firm granted. . . . (the study) . . . is the same firm engaged for the Narrows Bridge approach which I oppose as being part of a $433 million waste in highway construction in the two-state area. He and Proctor have long expressed the belief that there is collusion between the governmental highway departments and the engineering and construction firms who stand to profit most from the multi-billion dollar interstate highway program.

Traffic Figures
Madigan-Hyland, a Long Island City firm, came up with some traffic statistics of interest to Springfield. For example, in 1957 there were 42,900 cars a day passing South Springfield Avenue on Route 22 and 41,750 passing Mountain Avenue.

Seniors at Regional have embarked on a fund-raising spree. Money is needed for so many things, like the senior ball, senior play, class trip, caps and gowns, etc. To help raise money they are sponsoring an informal dance this Saturday night. The cost is $3.55 per person, and music will be provided for by our jukebox. Actually, this dance is a reunion dance with the seniors of the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark. Johnson seniors attended Dayton Regional for only one year (freshman); as soon as the high school was completed in Clark for students of Clark and Garwood they switched.

One of the most enjoyable assemblies we've had was the dance band assembly. I was surprised to see that Springfield had so much talent. Bruce Goldstein, a junior from Springfield, is the leader of the "Continental"; the dance band itself is sparked with many Springfield students; Carol Marano, a junior from Springfield sang "Cry Me a River"; and Paula Frankel, Richie Baker, Donna Ferguson and Fred Benhoff took part in the dancing.

Our wrestling and basketball teams show a definite improvement over the football team. In an exciting basketball game Regional defeated Plainfield, who had been undefeated until they faced Regional, by a score of 59-55.

The wrestling team also won its match, 26-22. Varsity wrestlers include John Petrowelli, Leo Lopinsco, Pete Rupp, Ray Lewandowski and Harry Lake. If you have never watched a wrestling match before, I think you will find much enjoyment in this sport. The Senior Ball is only one month away, and plans are in the process for the first formal dance of the year. A new system is being used for this dance. The committees are formed by two home rooms working together, such as two-home-rooms to work on decorations, two home rooms to work on publicity, etc. In this way every senior is on some kind of committee.

Last Saturday proved to be an important day for many seniors, for in their hands rested their acceptance to college. Yes, last Saturday was the day of the Col-

Cawley & King Name Leaders To Spur School

Some of the spadework of the committees investigating Springfield's school situation has already been done.

The co-chairmen of the "Citizens' Advisory Committee" allocated duties last weekend and several of the minor committees have met.

The "Citizens' Advisory Committee" was convened by the Springfield Board of Education a week ago Tuesday to find out what went wrong in the recent defeated school building referendum.

Chairmen James K. Cawley and George G. King were given the authority by the committee as a whole to designate small committee chairmen and those who would serve under them. King and Cawley report the following have been asked to head up the committees:

Site-selection—Otto Granick, 85 Remer Ave.

Statistics on school need—Mrs. Sonia Dorfsky, 247 Milltown Road.

Construction type and cost—Kenneth E. Bapdome, 28 Evergreen Ave.

Financial effect on taxes—Andrew W. Morrison, 39 Highland Ave.

Survey of the public's opinion—Mrs. Lily Hillard, 15 Archbridge lane.

Publicity—Mrs. Marion Lobell, 20 Colfax Road.

The first committee to meet was the Public Opinion seekers under Mrs. Hillard. They met at her home Tuesday evening, Jan. 13.

The Statistics committee met last night, Jan. 14 under Mrs. Dorfsky's direction.

The Site's committee will tackle its controversial problem for the first time on Tuesday, Jan. 20. All committees will make their first report to the committee as a whole on Jan. 27.

Newcomers to join the "Citizens' Advisory Committee" are: Dan Casyath, Jack Cowles, Len Redfield, Robert Smith, George Lord, and H. J. Levins. They have been assigned to smaller committees, according to King and Cawley.

Kids Outread Parents As Library Doubles Business

The Springfield Public Library has doubled its services since starting in its new quarters last year.

During 1958, the first full year since 1946 when remodeling began, the library has lent twice as many books, collected twice as much in fines, and bought twice as many new books than during 1955 according to Miss Helen C. Reyner, librarian.

Miss Reyner revealed in her annual report that 138,709 articles were circulated in 1958 as against 61,897 in 1955. She says that $1,026.38 was levied in fines during the last year, while only $436.77 was charged to overdue books in 1955. The figures on new books is 4,313 as against 2,549.

Records for 1956 and 1957 are not relevant, Miss Reyner claims, because the library was closed for long periods of the year.

The only activity to show a loss over the last few years is the story hour program. There were 76 story hours in 1955 and only 47 last year.

Miss Reyner's report follows:

Local Schools Launch Work For "Superior" Children

Educators agree that every child should be challenged to reach his maximum development. Administrators and teachers are steadily confronted, therefore, with finding materials and methods of teaching that make maximum allowances for individual differences.

An "Advanced Enrichment Program" has been set up in the Springfield School System as a result of three years of extensive research by a committee consisting of the following members of the staff: Lillian Gushin, Lillian Hayward, James Jan Tausch, Norman Le Boeuf, Elizabeth Powers, Edna Purcell, Jane Schorr and Robert Van Wagner.

The committee felt that in order to meet the needs of superior children, it was necessary to reorganize on a specific fact about them, namely, though they differ from other children in many ways, they have the same basic needs. Consequently, it was decided to keep such children as part of regular classes but to provide through a program of enrichment activities which would be carried on in a regularly scheduled time.

A group of children was selected in a building based upon recommendations by the classroom teachers and tests administered by the school psychologist. This group at present is limited to children from grades one through three. It is expected that other grades will be added in succeeding years.

Select Teachers

The committee decided that a carefully selected teacher in each building should plan and conduct the work of the respective groups.

Mrs. Marilyn Perkins of the James Caldwell School, Miss Gloria Bourdy of the Raymond Chisholm School and Mrs. Jean Chisholm of the Edward Walton School were chosen to work with these groups.

The children are provided with opportunities for creativity, independent work and research. The program is designed to bring to the children a wealth of materials which they are qualified to absorb. They are helped to become sensitive to subtleties of meaning of concepts at their maturity level.

Since interpretations of reading material begins to enter the children's understanding at an early age, the way is paved for critical thinking. They become acquainted with a wide variety of printed material, visual aids, textbooks, reference materials, and reading just for fun. Along with this goes the acquisition of study habits and techniques, such as, knowing the reasons for a particular reading assignment, how to find information needed, how to evaluate the usefulness of information obtained and how to adjust reading speed to the type of material.

The material used is related to their interests and abilities and they are encouraged to develop other interests and their higher abilities. Thus the program is aimed at all-around development as well as special skill learning.

Creative Thinking

Along with free and independent reading and access to a greater variety of reading materials goes creative writing and thinking. Other creative activities include art and music. Written and oral reports and demonstrations of their special activities are important in this program. The children receive special assignments and projects, both as individuals and as a group, in connection with "unit" responsibilities based on their interests and abilities. They are encouraged to probe for the reasons behind materials covered by the regular classes in such fields as science, history and arithmetic, and to search for principles once the essentials are

Artist's Work Is Shown At 2 Shows
 Andrew K. Nelson of 159 Pitt Road, Springfield, is exhibiting three canvasses at the Montclair Art Museum for the rest of this month.
 His works are part of a special showing by a group of commercial artists who call themselves "The North-Jersey-Twelve." Nelson's contributions are in the expressionist field.
 His work in Fine Art is also receiving a one-man showing at the J. Walter Thompson advertising agency in New York this week. During the day, Nelson is engaged in more-commercial art, specifically as art director of the Ford account. He has won several "best of show" awards from the Art-Director's Club in New York. He and his wife, Myra are both graduates of Cooper Union in New York. They have three children, Drew 11, Marla 8, and Neil 3.

SUNNING SPORTS by VICTOR GOLDBERG

Regional finally began clicking on the basketball court winning both games last week. They topped Union, 54-32 and Plainfield, 49-45.
On Tuesday, January 6, Springfield journeyed to Union. They finally won the game as Bill Benner sank two foul shots with the score tied and nine seconds left to clinch the game for the Bulldogs. The game was nip and tuck all the way. There were nine ties and the lead changed hands 15 times. Union held the largest advantage, a five-point lead in the middle of the third period, but a five-point spurt by Richie Baker wiped that out. Benner led the Regional offense with 23 points. Eight of those were in the last quarter to spark the Bulldogs' winning surge. He hit for 41 per cent of his field goal attempts.
On Friday Regional met Plainfield for the second time this season, having lost the first encounter by three points, 52-49. The Bulldogs seemed on their way to losing again as they fell behind 16-8 early in the second period. Led by Benner and Dennis Golcher, however, the Bulldogs surged into the lead, 21-20 with 2:42 to go in the first half. Twelve seconds later, Pete Liske hit a jump shot to put Plainfield into the lead.
Regional didn't catch up until the fourth quarter opened with Bill Franklin hitting a jump shot making the score 39 all. Benner's two free throws were matched by Liske's layup and the score was again deadlocked. Then Benner hit on three consecutive

Friedman's 20 Points Leads Hawks To Basketball Win
The Springfield Recreation Youth Basketball league opened play last Tuesday at the Florence Gaudineer School gymnasium, with the Hawks trimming the Globetrotters 44-43 in overtime. On Thursday the high scoring Warriors gained a 50-37 victory over the Royals, who were handicapped by the lack of a good back court operator.
Friedman was the top scorer of the Hawk-Trotter game, scoring the decisive goal in overtime to give the red shirts a hard-earned victory over the Globetrotters. Al Bell and Dave Bonislowski were the hard driving courtmen for the Trotters, with Bullock showing signs of developing into a good basketball player, all dependent on additional coaching.
The Warriors look like the club to beat in the Youth League, having size as well as good scoring power and good ball handlers. The Royals have a fast club, with Bob Baker, Jim Crowley and Okrasinski as their sparks, with Larry MacConkey the ball hawk. The Warrior-Royal game was close for three quarters, with the green shirts asserting their superiority in a high scoring fourth quarter.
Any boys who haven't registered to date for the Youth program are requested to be on hand either Thursday or Tuesday night for assignment to either of the four clubs.
