Aid Squad To Purchase New 59 Ambulance

It was disclosed this week by officers of the Springfield First Aid Squad that as a result of a study made by a special ambulance committee, the squad has elected to purchase a new 1959 Cadillac ambulance to be delivered sometime next month.

The committee was appointed six weeks ago to investigate the plausibility of repairing the 10: yr.old ambulance now being the older of the two "rigs" owned the squad was beyond the stage of "economical" repair. The organization's 2nd ambulance wa purchased in 1956.

The new vehicle will come equipped with a new-type rolling stretcher, spine hoard, rescusitator, special safety-plus chassis

Schrafft's Quality Isle Opened Here

New Jerseyites long familiar with the Schrafft's name for quality food and candy will soon be able to buy their favorites in supermarkets, if the test no# underway by the Frank G. Shattuck -Company for the Morris Turnpike Safeway, Springfield, proves successful.

On June 3, Schrafff's will open its first "Quality Isle" — a wholly new concept in modern self-service shopping.

In making the announcement Gerald Shattuck, president, described the 'Isle' as a "Schrafft's store-away-from Schrafft's. It has been designed in accordance with today's busy homemaker in mind, and is intended to make her onestop shopping more convenient and pleasant."

Springfield's Quality Isle will be located just inside the front door on the left side of the market. Its gleaming shelves will stock more construct a menu from entree to ing year.

Between the highway surveyors nd the tent caterbillars, Springfield is no longer an "oasis for angled nerves."

The police, board of health and township clerks have been plagued by phone calls demanding action eradicating these pests, but Shade Tree Commissioner Ed Cardinal says that little can be done during the migrating period.

"The eastern tent caterpillar beomes abundant periodically, Cardinal said. "About every 9 or 10 years it reaches a peak of abundance, and then declines for ery School at 785-Chestnut Street several years.
