THIS WEEK

REMEMBER THOSE DAYS AFTER JULY 4TH?

Springfield has just completed another "safe and sane" Fourth Of July celebration—and everybody is in agreement that "it was the best ever." Thanks, to all members of the committee.

The feature of the full day's program was the fireworks display on the Meisel Field playground in the evening—an exciting and very beautiful climax which attracted the largest crowd in the Township's history. Others including residents of neighboring communities watched the "bombs bursting in air" from porches and patios.

We used the phrase "safe and sane July 4th celebration" in the opening paragraph above because there was a time when parents would approach this holiday with considerable fear. Newspapers, on the day following July 4, would be filled with lists of people killed as the result of fireworks, children burned by exploding firecrackers, kids maimed, fingers gone—a day of horror and the number of victims growing each year.

Today, with the sale of fireworks banned and the use of firecrackers regulated by state and municipal law, the only news there is after each one of these Fourth of July celebrations include the winners of the Baby Parade, the athletic events winners, and the arm that struck out 14 in the Leaguer's ball game. What a relief not to read about the kid next door—or the adult who inspected the fuse too closely when the giant firecracker failed to go off as scheduled. We still wish there were something the parents could do about cutting down the highway accidents.

SOME OF THE JOYS OF NEWSPAPERING

An aroma of fascination surrounds a newspaper, making many persons say they'd like to own one.

It is a fascination which clings to everyone except newspaper people. They have no illusions. Now, if you want to own a newspaper, here is what you'll have to do in one normal day:

Explain to Mrs. Smith why Aunt Sarah's 85th birthday party was not on the front page.

Explain to an advertiser why it is impossible to get him on page three.

Explain to an ex-subscriber why you had to cut off his unpaid subscription.

Explain deadlines 500 times a day and why you have to have them.

Soothe a lady who called her party in too late.

Soothe another lady whose name you misspelled.

Explain why some weeks you've got news running out of your ears and other weeks the paper reads like a report on Amalramated Steel.

Apologize to an advertiser for an error in his ad and smile sweetly while he tells you what an idiot you are.

Decipher scribbling that comes in written on check backs, paper napkins, a corner of junior's arithmetic paper or the back of a letter from Cousin Frank.

Cope with a folder that is anti-social and wallowing in its own importance that it can, at this final minute, keep you from getting a paper circulated and starts acting like a little boy who wants to go to the bathroom.

Explain to a customer arriving late with copy that if you get his stuff in, you'll have to leave somebody else out and then explain to the one you left out.

The last run made, you'll feel a sense of relief—for about five minutes. Then you start explaining why you did this or didn't do that and it starts all over again.

Typos provide the editor with some good material for his column:

"Forty years ago we were told by a hard-boiled city editor to quit worrying about typographical errors that inevitably would appear from time to time in the earth-shaking prose that came from our typewriter. You'll never be a successful newspaper writer," he said, "until the appearance of a typo in something you wrote no longer makes you sick at your stomach."

Almost always, the typo will appear in a story, editorial or advertisement that is important. They seldom creep into articles or ads you don't care about. One of the commonest is the dropping of the letter "r" from the word "friend."

Likewise dropping the letter "n" from window has in times past resulted in both divorce and libel suits. A variation of the typo is the placing of the wrong headline on a news story. An example is when a prominent local citizen dies and over his obit appears this headline:

"Improvement Seen in Local Affairs." Sometimes four or five typos will appear in one issue. After much swearing, hecking, probing, detective work, you'll have the typos so frightened that they go away. You think they are gone for good. But they are not.

When you've forgotten all about them, back they come. The typo is as much a part of American life as the mosquito—and because you can't get rid of them, you have to try to live with them."

SOME OBSERVATIONS TO FILL THE COLUMN

There is no more beautiful spot in town—in a public place, we mean—than the Mall in front of the Municipal Building.

The landscaping is pleasing to the eye and the flower arrangement is all that could be desired. Sorry there aren't more such displays in front of our public buildings, or the industrial and commercial places in Springfield.

Still—not everybody looks on this beauty spot with the same enthusiasm and acceptance. One resident of Springfield—a lady—discussing gardening and such with Mrs. Publisher in a food market asked: "What do you think of all of the flowers in front of the Town Hall?"

"Aren't they just wonderful?" was the enthusiastic reply. "It's the most beautiful spot in Springfield!"

"Yeah," was the lady's somewhat discouraging response. "I wonder who is paying for all that? Not the politicians,"

Home Owners Fight Highway Dump In Town

Residents of Springfield are preparing to fight the possibility that the New Jersey State Highway Department may be permitted to establish a maintenance yard or dump in the Township.

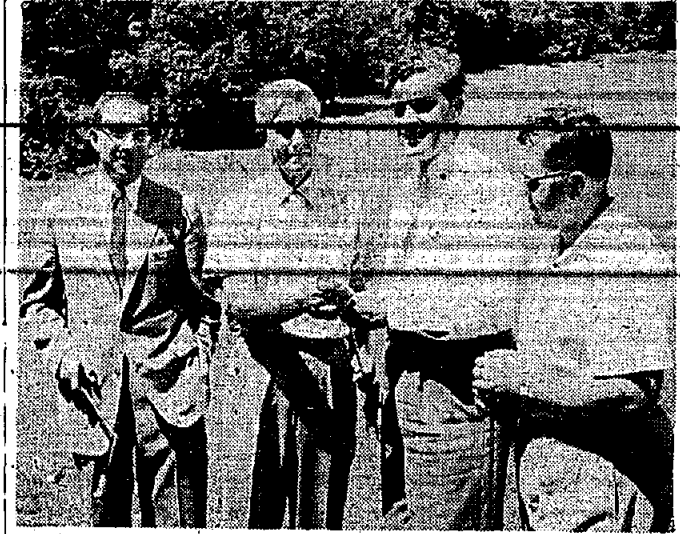

This yard will serve as the "jumping off" center for all road work in this area with trucks, construction equipment and other repair apparatus to be housed here in Springfield. There will be stock piles of cinders, salt bins for iced roadways, tar tanks for repairs and the usual gas and oil facilities for the trucks and equipment.

The land on which the Highway Department is planning to move this central repair dump is now in a single family zone and the original request for a permit to set up this maintenance yard was denied by the Township Building Inspector Wilbert J. Binder.

A request was then made for a variance by the Fern Realty Company, owners of the property, which was under consideration by the members of the Board of Adjustment at their last regular meeting. Final disposition of the matter was postponed until the meeting to be held on Thursday, July 30.

There appears to be very little support for the dump.

know! Well, no matter who is paying for it, there should be more of it. Springfield doesn't have too many things of aesthetic value.

Once—because the Township was so deep in tradition and Revolutionary lore—we had hoped that Springfield would inspire some Colonial design in developing our business, industrial and public building program. But, aside from the remodeling job at the Town Hall, it is the same streamlined, modern architecture. Even our school buildings are too modern in their design for a community that goes back so far in American history.

problems. It represents countless hours of planning and works on the part of the volunteers and chairmen.

The Budget Committee announces that the Heart Chapter will be in a position to continue the programs as outlined including the Rheumatic Fever Programs.

Also grants to six Visiting Nurse Associations in the county, the public education programs and a professional symposium for physicians.

Community service and limited grants to St. Michael's and Beth Israel Hospital for special cardiac diagnostic services for county residents will again be possible.

The chapter is hopeful that in the near future the establishment of a Cardiac Diagnostic and Therapy Center will materialize.

likelihood that the Board of Adjustment will approve the application since it is hardly the most desirable installation for any community. And, according to those who have been following the history of relations between the Township Committee and the Highway Department, they are confident that the governing body will not be too eager to having the maintenance dump located in the Township.

Residents are beginning to muster their forces in case the Board of Adjustment does show signs of permitting the State Road Department to locate its central repair operations in Springfield.

F. Butler Hehl, Union, and Mrs. G. Mitsos, Glencoke, L. I.

Mrs. Eugene Boehm was chairman of the Baby Parade program assisted by Misses Debbie Clermont, Dorothy Ann Boehm, Karen Healey, Judy Crowley, Elaine Munsel and Mrs. William DeLeonard.

Athletic events and contests followed for every member of the family. The most popular was the watermelon eating contest (with a truck load of ice cream) enjoyed by contestants and spectators alike. There were free rides for the children and the afternoon ended with a baseball game.

Boy Scouts of Troop No. 62 served hot dogs, soda and candy. Scoutmasters Seymour Wortzel, Julius Berkowitz, Victor Shapira and Otto Rankin served refreshments through fireworks.

The general chairman, Louis Fignolet wishes to thank all those who gave so generously of their services to make this another glorious Fourth for Springfield residents, particularly the Fire and Police Department, the First Aid Squad, the Civil Air Patrol, Road Commission, Union County Mosquito Commission, Union County Park Commission, American Legion, to all the business concerns and civic and service organizations, and to all those who helped support the committee financially.

Paving Job On Parking Lot Is Being Rushed

Paving of the new municipal parking lot at the extension of Mountain avenue and Morris avenue has been started by J. Cocuzzo & Sons, of Maplewood, and, if there are no problems, the job is expected to be completed within two weeks.

J. Cocuzzo & Sons were the lowest bidders on the paving of the parking lot with a total of $9,027 for the entire job. This was much lower than the estimated cost set by Springfield which was approximately $12,000.

This Maplewood contractor is one of the best in the area and the fact that there was no other job occupying their time at the time, made it possible for Springfield to get the job done at this low price of $9,000.

Work is also proceeding on the electrical work and the five aluminum poles to light up the parking area. The Lancaster Electric Co. of Springfield was awarded the contract for this work, bidding $2,364 for the entire job. Underground cables are being installed throughout the parking lot and the aluminum poles placed so that the entire area will be well lighted at all times.

Parking in this new lot has increased business along Morris avenue and all the merchants are happy since it provides off street parking during those hours when it is prohibited on Morris avenue. As soon as the paving job is completed the Township plans to mark off parking spaces and regulate the traffic in and out of the lot.

YOUR LIBRARY

Several years ago there appeared in this column an article about the variety of "How To" books in the Springfield Library. The staff has just checked the card catalog again to see how much further progress has been made for the instruction of the "do-it-yourselfers." We were surprised to find 144 titles beginning "How to" in the Springfield Library.

On the occasion of the first article we noted that our favorite titles were "How to Cook a Wolf," "How to Meet a Millionaire" and "How to Live with a Cat." We would now like to add to the list "How to Live with a Teenager." It goes without saying that the library has any number of instructive books on all sorts of practical subjects. You will find on our shelves books on "how to" afford a college education, become a good dancer, be your own decorator, break 90 at golf, build model railroads, debate, draw, drive, finish your car, free yourself from nervous tension, get into television, grow annuals, make a will, a telescope, aprons, ceramics, movies, jewelry, picture frames, etc. No doubt with study and effort all these things can be accomplished by anyone with the will to do so.

However, there is another category of books that give instruction in subjects that would appear to be a little more unconventional and off-the-beaten track. Often, we can't guarantee your success in learning "How to Do Nothing with Nobody All Alone By Yourself," or "How to Build an Orange Crate from Old Pieces of Furniture." Then there is a little book called "How to Remove the Cotton from a Bottle of Aspirin." Well, ated that this welcome burden will be distributed more or less equitably throughout the state organization. All nine Republican congressmen will be given job jurisdiction over their own districts plus contiguous Democratic districts, and will be expected to work with the appropriate Republican leaders, the Case spokesman said.

This arrangement, he said, was worked out among Case, the GOP congressman and state Republican chairman Charles R. Erdman Jr. For example, Rep. Frank C. Osmer (R-9th Dist.) will be referred agent for his own district in Bergen County and for the Democratic controlled 13th and 14th districts in adjoining Hudson County. Osmer said he will work with GOP chairman J. Heier Theurer in Hudson County and the Democratic controlled 13th and 14th districts in adjoining Hudson County.

And all these jobs are to be filled in time for the start of the census-taking April 1—just prior to the April 12 primary. Republicans Only receive $400 a month. Crew leaders will serve two to three months and draw $15.50 a day. Enumerators will work several weeks and will be paid by the questionnaire. A "hard working" enumerator, said Von Struve, can make about $12 a day.
From Case on down, Republicans will preside only over the 4th District embracing Mercer and Cumberland counties, the bailiwick of another Democrat, Frank Thompson.

Despite this delegation of power actual recommendations for the 10 key supervisors' jobs must be made by Case's office. This affords the Rahway Republican virtual veto power over the selection of the census corps at a time when Republican patronage around the state is at a low point because of a Democratic governor and majority in the State Assembly.

The happy fact about the enumerators' jobs is that they are "piece work" of a very special political kind, and can be handled after working hours, at night say, with a little campaign labor on the side.

For the second straight year Coach Pat England's team, the Yankees, have won the Major League Series in PAL baseball.

Coach England has coached PAL team since the first year the Police Athletic League began which is now about eight years old. He is the only one of the original coaches left with the teams. This year's series was over when the Yankees won the last four games they played and came out on top in the playoffs. The final average for the team in regular games was: won 8, lost 3. The final game of their regular season was with Coach Godon-Benedict's Braves when the Yankees won, the score 4 to 3.

Coach England when asked if there were any outstanding games or players of the year said "all the games are outstanding games, all the boys are wonderful. I can't pick any one boy in particular or any one game—they are all good to me. Each and every boy is playing to the best of his ability, when they playing is good, we win. When they have an off night or day, the same as big ball-players, we have to expect to lose too."

No Hitter In Last Week Mens Softball

Richard Tomasetti of Kellers Grove hurled the first no-hitter of the season while his teammates battled out an 11-0 win over Rehels as the final week of the Berkeley Heights Township Softball League arrived. With the win, Kellers still held on to first place; what could be the deciding game is the scheduled affair against Sulphur Springs next Monday evening.

In fashioning his no-hitter, Tomasetti struck out eight and walked two, a third man reaching first on an error. Not a Rehels runner got beyond second, Tomasetti retired the last nine in order. Lou Zichichi and Bill Benner had perfect nights, including a homer apiece. Memillo added a four-bagger of his own.

Turkeytown dropped two games to extend their streak to five losses in a row. The Braves, with some timely hitting by Ernie DeFronzo—with six rbi's, took the A. C. 13 to 5 despite home runs by Robertson and Ward of the losers. Joe Turiano win his first game of the year while Bob Imbimbo dropped his fifth.

Rehels ended their season with a 6-3 win over Turkeytown Tuesday. Joe Donofrio won his second game as his mates made the most of seven hits, three of them by Herb Kennedy, and some shaky fielding by the losers. Bob Imbimbo was charged with the loss.

Youth Leagues End Play For 1959 Season

The Springfield Baseball League ended this past week with a very successful season. The Channel Lumber Co. team won the championship in the Major Babe Ruth League. They went undefeated until the last two games of the season, losing these two games.

In the Babe Ruth Minor League competition was much tougher. It was necessary to have a playoff to get a winner, the Lions beat the Royal Crown team to come out champs of the League.

The Car Hop Team won the championship in the Youth Major League with stiff competition from the Kiwanis and the Rotary teams. With P.B.A. Legion and Lions always giving the leaders a good game.

In the Youth Minor League the Chadwick Realtors led the League all the way winning 18 games, losing none. Gejack Jewelry gave them competition in beginning of the season but slipped near the end. A Picnic was held Wednesday at Evergreen Lodge for all the players, managers and coaches, with hot dogs, hamburgers and soda being served. Trophies were presented to the players on the winning team of each league. Also presented were trophies to the most valuable player and best sportsman of each league.

Small cans of mushrooms or mushroom pieces are handy items to have on the pantry shelf. They do much to dress up leftover meats. They add interest to the skillet and heat while cooking the meat. And they go well with green beans. Add them when the beans are almost done.

Appointment of L. M. Pringle as New York Division Manager of Safeway's 178 Retail Food Stores in the Metropolitan New York area was announced today by Robert A. Magowan, President and Chairman of the Board. Mr. Pringle will succeed Fred E. Rowland who has managed the food company's stores in New York, Connecticut and New Jersey, for the past two years. Civil Defense Official Tells Rotary Of Dangers

The head of every family has a precious responsibility—the safety of his wife and children in the event of atomic war, Col. Howell L. Hodgskin told the Springfield Rotary Tuesday at the Ballusrol Golf Club. Colonel Hodgskin is deputy coordinator of Civil Defense and Disaster Control for Union County. He was introduced by Saul Freeman, CD director for Springfield.

"There are three important truths which every citizen should know," Colonel Hodgskin told Rotary. "First is that no atomic holocaust will wipe out your entire community—some will survive. Second, the individual responsibility for being prepared to meet with disaster; and third, your elected officials at the head of your municipal, state and federal government is charged with responsibility within his jurisdiction in an emergency."

"What should the individual know, to be prepared? Colonel Hodgskin listed seven essentials:

1. What is Civil Defense and Disaster Control? The mobilization of all community resources to meet with man-made or natural disaster.
2. Why plan? It will be too late to work out a plan for action after disaster strikes. "He who plans before 'bombs away' will live to see another day."
3. What are the Civil Defense warning signals? Just two: steady siren blast for "alert" and wailing siren tone or short blasts for three minutes, for "take cover."
4. What is the community plan? A detailed plan for community action in emergency; learn details from community CD director.
5. Protection from radioactive and Indian Oceans, bringing to over 500 kinds the museum's display of these fascinating and colorful objects from the sea.

Sleigh Ride for a Gas Pipe

Here is one way Gas service is extended across a body of water: Gas pipes are secured on to wooden "sleds" . . . the sleds are pushed into the water . . . lengths of pipe are lined up . . . joined . . . and then the entire line is submerged. Sound easy? It is when you know how. And it's the "know-how" that makes your Gas service so dependable!

MY REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

By Congresswoman FLORENCE P. DWYER

The number one issue in the Congress today is price stability—the fight against inflation and rising prices, the struggle to protect the purchasing power of the people and the value of the American dollar.

It's safe to predict that it will remain the chief issue, at least for the balance of the present session of Congress.

This is so because—despite the complexity of the underlying fiscal, monetary and political factors, this is a matter that concerns every single American, directly and intimately. This is an issue all of us confront every time we pay our rent, buy the week's groceries, or leave a tip after eating out.

Since it is widely agreed by the experts that at least part of the issue of inflation versus price stability will be determined by the policies followed by the Administration and Congress, the people have wisely chosen to voice their feelings about it to their elected representatives. This fact, plus the innate importance of the matter, have combined to make it and keep it the primary issue of the 86th Congress.

Public Concern

Yet, there is an unusual aspect to this particular issue. Political problems or national needs are often not widely recognized as important issues until they've gotten out of hand. In this instance, however, the country has enjoyed stable consumer prices for well over a year. How, then, account for the widespread public concern about inflation?

The answer, I believe, must credit the general public with a great deal of foresight—foresight based in part on recent economic experience, especially the failure of consumer prices to decline during the recent recession and the resulting impulse for prices to rise during the current recovery.

It also reflects the good judgment of the public in following the informed leadership of the President. Equipped as he is with great resources for economic analysis—and for understanding the forces that shape national economy, the President has spoken out early and often and vigorously about the possible pitfalls along the path of recovery and economic growth. And the people and the press, to an impressively wide extent, have followed his leadership.

Remedies Available

It has only been within the past two or three decades that economists have discovered the tools with which government can help prevent the extremes of inflation and deflation. Until recently, the periodic ups and downs and booms and busts that afflicted the national economy were generally believed to be inevitable. And people suffered greatly from uncontrolled depression and unchecked inflation.

Today we know this isn't necessary. We know that the government has effective methods of avoiding these extremes, of keeping the economy on an even keel—without resorting to direct price, wage and production controls.

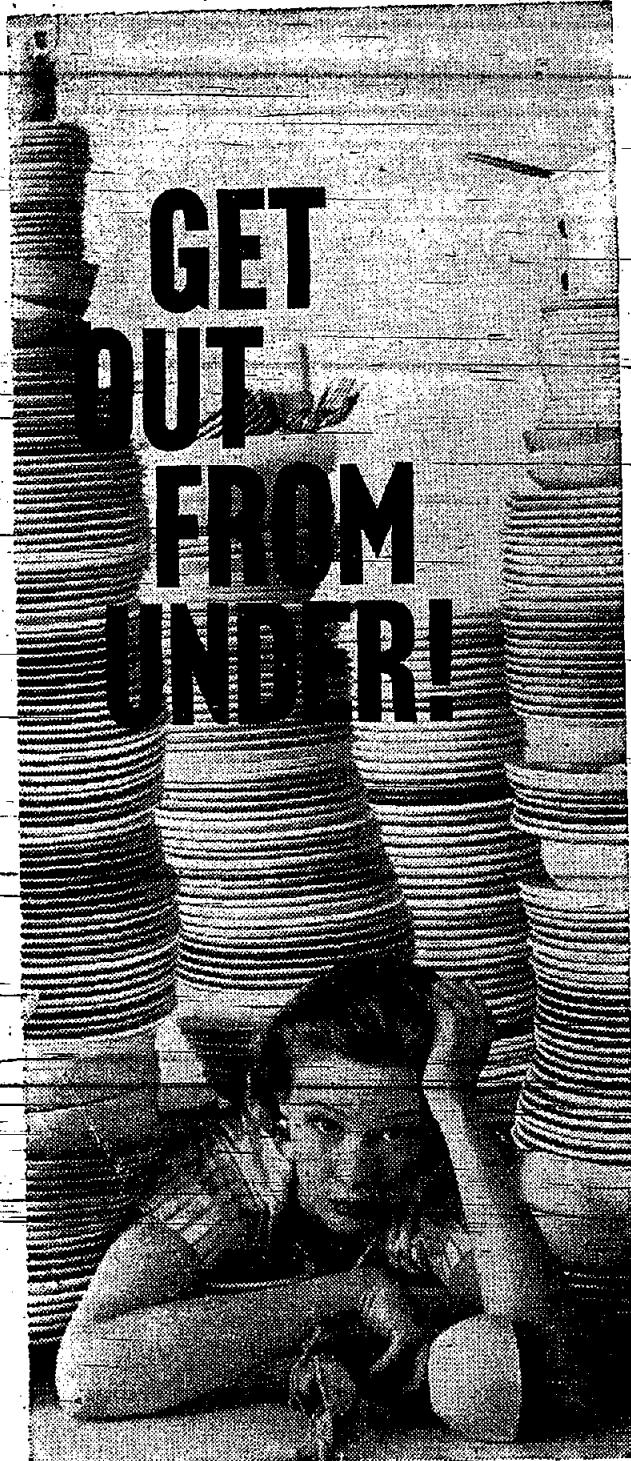

How and when, and how well, these methods are used depends ultimately on the understanding and consent of the people, as manifested through their representatives in Congress. The President cannot act alone and arbitrarily. Congress must either provide him with the required powers or approve his use of them.

This, essentially, is the issue being determined today in almost every measure voted on in Congress. The President has diagnosed the health of the economy and has prescribed certain measures he believes will keep it strong and growing. Fundamental to this end, he believes, is the need to check inflation: by restraining excessive government spending, by recognizing price stability as an explicit goal of government policy, by reducing the national debt, and by controlling the supply of money and credit.

PLAYGROUND ACTIVITY

James Caldwell Playground
Marjorie Bash, Leader
James Caldwell Playground now has 85 children registered. They keep busy playing games in the morning and doing arts and crafts in the afternoon, as well as special features. The first week great interest was aroused with a scavenger hunt. Sixteen teams of 2 or 3 went in search of 12 items which could be found on the playground.

Four teams managed to find all 12 items. They were: 1. Craig Matrice and Billy Cosco, 2. Linda Kent and Johanna Junite, 3. Robby-Hegenbush and Chyrsie Jo Landrigan, and 4. Janet and Lois Bash. Most everyone found such things as a candy wrapper, round stone, piece of string, round leaf, and match cover, but the real stumper was a caterpillar, all too easily found a week or so before.

Our arts and crafts project that week was working with wall paper. The children brought boxes from home which they covered to make very pretty boxes for various uses. They also made pretty sets of place mats of wall paper.

The second week our big event was a hobby show. We had 18 hobbies entered, not to mention a difficult job for the judges to pick the winners. Judges were Mr. Mattice, Joe Slipka, and Evelyn Bash. Judging was done in 3 categories as follows: Most complete collections: 1st Craig Matrice's shells, 2nd Greg Anderson's shells, and 3rd Craig Matrice's bottle caps; Frichest: 1st Janet Bash's horses, 2nd Linda Handeville's pictures, and 3rd Larry Bryant's knights; Most Work: 1st David Beetz's viking ship, 2nd Carl Booth's boats, and 3rd Gary Anderson's stamps. One additional prize was given for Steven Mittenacht's collection of "junk." The prize was an addition to his collection—a torn

Henshaw Playground

With registration at 150 and still rising, Henshaw Playground is open for another summer of fun. The activities of the first two weeks centered around arts and crafts. The special crafts were the making of paper bag puppets, construction paper animals, picture frames and for a touch of modern-art, collages were made. Outstanding work was completed by Jacky Fishel, Hank and Martin Josephs, Connie Solazi, Pat Bufo, Robbie Blake and Jane Taffee. Many old favorites in the craft field retained their prominence. Lots of lanyards and pot holders were completed, too. Many other activities were featured. Don Bueler took first place in the boys' checker tournament while Karen Kauer and Mike Mitterhoff have been practicing their paddle tennis at Henshaw's delegates to the town Olympics.

It has been a policy at Henshaw to appoint a junior leader. This boy or girl is chosen for his or her cooperation and display of leadership. Their duties involve assisting the leaders as well as the other children on the playground. This season two boys have been appointed: John Marino and Tommy Baker.

The Park Baseball League was begun this week for another exciting season. Tommy Baker pitched the Henshaw Hurricanes to their first victory over Regional with a 2-1 score. Keith Mangel was the big bat of the team. A new addition this year is the Junior Park team of boys from 3 to 11. The first game was held at Regional Playground, but the luck of the little Hurricanes wasn't too good on their first try. They lost 7-3—but wait till next game!

Show Boat In 2nd Week At Pine Brook

Broadway veteran George S. Irving, who plays Capt. Andy is at the helm of "Show Boat," the musical masterpiece by Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein which enters its second and final week at the Pine Brook Show Tent on Monday, (July 13). Hal Le Roy stars as Frank in the American classic which docks at New Jersey's newest musical arena theatre through Sunday, July 19. Pine Brook Show Tent producers Jerry Wayne and Paul Brenner signed Irving for his role as Capt. Andy while he was appearing as General Bullmoose in the season-opening production, "Li'l Abner at the Show Tent." His assured and deft performance in the Al Capp musical romp landed him the pivotal role in Jerome Kern's musical masterpiece. Producers seem to always be discovering the talented Springfield, Mass. native. As an 18-year old youth, he landed a spot in the touring company of "The Student Prince."

"Show Boat" costumes. Performances begin at 8:30 p.m. every night of the week at the new, exciting, Big Top theatre.
