Revival Of Route 78 Plan Not Popular With People In Towns Here Affected

The old question of Route 78—alias FAI 102—again has popped up, with an announcement by the State Highway Department that the road would be built within the next five years.

The freeway would run from Springfield to Berkeley Heights, cutting across Summit. It has been bitterly opposed by Springfield and Summit, while Berkeley Heights authorities do not accept the idea with relish.

Berkeley Heights Mayor George T. Loman said that he would "rather see the road put somewhere else." However, he noted that the proposed location in that township would "do as little harm as possible."

The first thought that came into many minds when the road was re-introduced was the possibility that the highway is all part of the jetport scheme. Many persons actually got the idea when the airport was first suggested.

The highway department categorically denies this and said that they announced their plans first. However, the suspicion lingers.

Former Mayor Arthur Maner said the township officials are very "very much interested" in where the freeway interchanges would be located.

The state has indicated that one interchange would be in Springfield but has not indicated where others would be located. The new highway will cost between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000 a mile for the 8.1 mile stretch through the county.

"Nothing New On Highway" Says Trenton

"Not a single thing new," was the answer at the New Jersey State Highway Department offices in Trenton regarding the proposed new federal freeway, Route 78, which will slash right through Springfield.

A story appearing in the Elizabeth Journal last week, with a map captioned "Final Line For New Route 78" led to a hurried telephone call to the State Highway Department offices.

"There hasn't been anything new on the proposed new Route 78," said an official in the publicity department. "There is no pin-pointing as yet as to just where the highway will go through Springfield and we know nothing more than we knew two and three months ago."

"The map showing F.A.I. 78 and the statement that land acquisitions may start late this year? That," said this same State Highway official, "was the handiwork of the reporter who prepared the story. It is not the Highway Department's map. It showed approximately where the new highway will go and is practically the same route we showed to residents in this area when the public meeting was held in Springfield."

The official at the State Highway Department offices would venture no opinion as to when there would be some specific "news" on the new highway.

START SEASON OFFICIALLY—Mayor Vincent J. To Be Sworn In

JAY E. BLOOM

When the swearing in of those who passed the October examination for prospective attorneys takes place in Trenton Monday, Jan. 18, among those participating in the ceremony will be Jay E. Bloom, of 75 Kew Drive, Springfield.

Mr. Bloom, a graduate of Westchester High School and Lafayette College, Class of 1954, received his law degree from Columbia University School of Law in 1959, after having spent 1956 and 1957 in Germany with the U. S. Army.

The new attorney will be associated with the law firm of Lesnik and Amosco in Newark.

Public Invited To See Girls Play; Bridge Unit Is In Need Of Members

Two of the strongest girls basketball teams in the East will be in display at the Florence Gaudineer School Saturday evening, Jan. 16, when New London, Conn., and the Paterson Debs clash in an exhibition game. The teams will play at 7, with dancing for the seventh and eighth graders to follow.

The New London team is considered a sure-fire entry in the National AAU championships in February.

The Paterson team is built around Donna Shortway, Carol Habben and Betty Hillard. Boys rules are used throughout, with both clubs averaging about 50 points a game.

The program is open to all Springfield residents with no admission being charged.

Dance Classes Being Formed

An adult ballroom dance group will be sponsored by Springfield Recreation Commission at Raymond Chisholm School starting Jan. 28. The beginners group will run from 7:30 to 8:30 P.M. The advanced group class is scheduled for 8:30 to 9:30 P.M.

Instruction in the cha-cha, fox trot, waltz, tango, rumba will be offered by the team of Jayne Hickey and Jack Fisher.

Registration for the dance course will take place Thursday evening, Jan. 21, 7 to 9, at the Gaudineer School. Fee for the full ten-week course will be $10 per individual and $18 per couple, payable at the time of registration.

Anyone desiring to register before the date mentioned may do so by writing Jack Fisher, P.O. Box 174, Springfield.

Police Reserve Gave 1100 Man Hrs. in 1959, Report Shows; More Men Needed

Under the direction of former Captain (Reserve) LeRoy Roberts, Springfield's Police Reserve, an unpaid civil defense force adjunct, contributed approximately 1100 man hours of police work to the township during 1959, the unit's year end report reveals. This total does not include additional time spent at monthly meetings and in pistol, first aid and other training classes.

The group is composed of some 25 volunteers who work at least one evening per month either on car or foot patrol. Holiday functions which necessitate additional police protection provide supplemental on-the-job training for the reservists.

Annual elections held this week resulted in the selection of Joseph S. Seidel, an attorney, as captain for the next two years. Subordinate officers chosen were: Lieutenant, Anthony Calavas; Sergeant, Richard H. Moore, Werner Penard, Murray Zeidner.

Applicants for membership in the group must be United States citizens, 21 years of age or over, in good general health, of good moral character and willing to sign the loyalty oath prescribed by statute.

Captain Seidel expressed a desire to supplement the present force, particularly with men capable of performing auxiliary police duties between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., the hours when most civil defense drills are held.

"The poor turn-out at civil defense drills held during these hours is directly attributable to the fact that almost all of our members are employed outside the township," Captain Seidel said. "It is therefore apparent that, in order to provide an adequate supplemental force, during these hours, we must recruit persons who are employed in Springfield even though these persons may be long to auxiliary police units in other municipalities."

"I urge such persons to seek membership in the Springfield Police Reserve," he concluded. Prospective members may call Captain Seidel at DR 6-5067 or may contact present members for further information.

An Invitation To Use Window

Since the removal of our Christmas display from the front window at our office—282 Morris Avenue—the space has been bare. It is too valuable from a publicity standpoint to remain unused. We cordially invite welfare organizations and fund-drive groups—such as the March of Dimes, Red Cross, Hadassah, women's clubs, church groups—to set up timely displays in the window which tie in with local and/or national projects. If organization representatives will come to our office any Friday and speak with Julian Sarokin, a schedule of use will be worked out.

Efficiency Policy Is Put Into Effect By Committee

Name Pancani As Head Of Planning Bd.

Springfield's Planning Board will again have James Pancani, well known architect, as its chairman. He was elected to that post at a meeting of the Board held last week.

Also re-elected were: Vice chairman, Francis Keane, and secretary, Emmet Lindauer.

The board named Albert Swenson, township engineer, and Wilbert Binder, building inspector, as a committee to study the possibility of rezoning a tract in the Main St.-Morris Ave. area from residential to limited industrial.

The two man committee will concentrate on the undeveloped land in the area. The board was concerned over the possibility of a large group of low cost homes being built there.

The board discussed the mechanics of drafting a master plan for the township, as called for in Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies' New Year Day message.

Some members felt the plan should be drafted at the local level with a professional planner only for advice and consultation. Their reasoning was that men who have lived in the community are far more familiar with problems peculiar to the area than any outsider could be.

The availability of matching state funds, allocated by the Department of Conservation and Economic Development, makes the job an easier one from a financial point of view.

Says Township Need Not Worry

Port of New York Authority "smooth talkers" came to Springfield Monday night to tell Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and members of the Township Committee that "the proposed Great Swamp jetport in Morris County would have no appreciable effect here."

Richard J. Banahan, deputy director of community relations for the P.A., headed a three man delegation armed with sweet words and a lot of information on why Springfield "has nothing to worry about."

The mayor was in agreement that noise from jets and other (Continued on Page 13)

Re-Named Head

The re-elected chairman of Springfield Planning Board, who was named to a second term as head of the group at its re-organization meeting Jan. 7, lives with his wife and their two children, a daughter, 18, and a son, 14, at 3 Briar Hills Circle.

A resident of the township since 1947 and a member of the Planning Board about six years, Mr. Pancani is active in their minutes for each member of the Committee.

The Mayor explained that his purpose was to make certain that all members of the governing board are kept fully informed of everything that goes on within the township government.

The library board submitted a financial report for 1959 and requested a budget for 1960 of $57,450—some $2,000 more than last year's amount. The request was filed until action is taken on the municipal budget.

Also filed for budgetary action was the annual notice of assessment from Rahway Valley Sewerage Authority. The net amount assessed to Springfield for 1960 was given as $28,524.84. Maintenance and operation of the sewer system was listed for $15,311.47, bonds and interest, $14,941.77, and there was a refund of $1,228.40 to be deducted.

Sheddox Development Co. was denied a renewal of its building permit. This was a matter of long standing, the Mayor explained. Several renewals of the permit have been allowed, the company not being (Continued on Page 13)

Mrs. Josephson Heads Drive

Mrs. B. H. Josephson, wife of Dr. B. H. Josephson, of 291 S. Springfield Avenue has been named Springfield's general chairman of the "53-Minute March on Cerebral Palsy," which has been announced by Julius R. Pollatschek, president of the United Cerebral Palsy League of Union County, which staffs and maintains a Union County Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center at 636 Salem Avenue, Elizabeth.

Mrs. Josephson said statistics show every 53 minutes a child with cerebral palsy is born somewhere in this country.

"In our own county the cerebral palsied and their parents, who know full well the meaning and tragedy of this multi-crippler, look to us, the public, to help provide the medical treatment, rehabilitation, educational and vocational training that makes possible for them a better, brighter, more meaningful future," said Mrs. Josephson.

To provide the needed treatment and services of the Treatment Center for the year and to support United Cerebral Palsy's National research program, "we must raise $1200. I am confident everyone in Springfield will respond generously to this appeal," Mrs. Josephson concluded.

Lt. Madura Gets Wings
Lt. Jerome S. Madura, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Madura, of 115 Edgewood Avenue, recently was awarded the silver wings of an Air Force pilot when the 49 members of Class 60-D graduated at Greenville AFB, Miss.

The exercise marked the completion of about 12 months extensive pilot training. Prior to arrival at Greenville, Lt. Madura graduated from primary pilot training at Moore AFB, Mission, Texas.

"HOW TO SELECT CANDIDATES..." PTA and Women Voters League

The four local Parent-Teacher Associations and the League of Women Voters of Springfield, in sponsoring the Candidates Night Program for the Board of Education Candidates on February 1st at the Gaudineer School, urge Springfield residents to give thoughtful consideration to the following information.

These are some suggested qualifications and criteria to help select "the best board members" when you go to the polls on February 2nd (Regional Board Elections) and February 9th (Local Board Elections), the statement said.

The candidate should:
1. Represent the interests of the community at large, rather than any political, social, religious, economic or other special interest or geographic area.

2. Be sensitive to public opinion and have the moral stamina to take courageous action for the good of the schools despite self-interest, pressure groups and influences.

3. Have skill in maintaining effective co-operation with professional staff, and public relations with citizens and community groups, with opportunity for exchange of views.

4. Have attained an educational level high enough to command the respect and co-operation of the community at large. As important as academic background, is a willingness to learn and grow.

5. Recognize that their responsibility is not to run the schools, but to see that they are well run.

6. Function as a part of a political party.

Library Board Elects Leaders

Thursday, Jan. 7—the Board of Trustees of Springfield Public Library held its first meeting of the new year. Agenda for the evening included election of officers and a review of the previous year's activities.

Officers were elected as follows: L. Stevens, president; E. Lichtenstein, vice president; B. Newschwager, treasurer; Mrs. S. Bender, secretary.

Mr. Stevens appointed the following as chairman of the various committees: Mr. Lichtenstein, library operations; K. Hietzel, building and grounds; Mrs. K. Abramson, publicity.

Miss Helen Reyner is director of the library and D. B. Palmer is curator.

Chisholm P.T.A. Members To Hear Marriage Counselor

In line with this year's theme of "A Happy Home Makes a Happy Child" the Raymond Chisholm P.T.A. will have as its guest speaker at the January 18 meeting Theodore R. Isenstadt, who has been Executive Director of the Jewish Family Service Association of Essex County for the past 13 years.

Mr. Isenstadt, who is also a past president of the New Jersey Welfare Council and a member of the Executive Board of the National Conference on Jewish Communal Welfare, is a qualified marriage counselor and a very entertaining speaker.

His subject of "Making Marriage Work" is one that should appeal to both parents, and the P.T.A. Executive Committee looks forward to seeing a large crowd of mothers and fathers in the Chisholm Auditorium at 8:15 on January 18.

The program has been arranged by Parent and Family Life Chairman, Mrs. David S. Bender. Refreshments will be served by the Hospitality Committee headed by Mrs. Donald-Lan-A. Short business meeting will precede the talk by Mr. Isenstadt.

Local Volunteers To Teach Course

Two qualified volunteer leaders will teach the Beginners Sewing Class at the Presbyterian Parish House, starting Monday, Jan. 18 at 10 A.M. There will be no charge for registration.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer, 6 Prospect Place, and Mrs. John Veale, 445 Morris Avenue, both Springfield, have completed the leader-training with the Home Economics Extension Service of Union County and are prepared to teach local homemakers how to make a simple cotton dress.

Interested homemakers may register for the class by calling either Mrs. Spencer or Mrs. Veale.

The remaining dates for the class are: Jan. 25, Feb. 1, 8, 15. Each session will be from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M., with one hour for lunch.

Students should bring only a tape measure, pencil and paper to the first session.

Grid Star To Be At Men's Club

The Men's Club of Temple Beth Ahm will present "The N. Y. Football Giants Story," featuring in person one of the greatest centers in the game—Ray Wietecha.

Ray's record of not missing a moment of offensive play in his seven years with the Giants is expected to stand as a record for many years. He will tell interesting stories about his teammates and show movie highlights of several Giants games.

All Are Invited

A reminder has been issued by Walton P.T.A. that everyone is invited to hear Dr. Hirsch, L. Silverman, widely-known professor of psychology, speak at the Association meeting Monday evening, Jan. 18, at 8:30, in the school auditorium. He will talk on discipline.

343 Building Permits Given

Building Inspector Wilbert J. Binder reported to the Springfield Township Committee Tuesday evening that during 1959 he gave out 343 permits and 154 certificates of occupancy.

The permits, which brought $9,919.25 into the coffers of the township, represented a total construction value of $3,046,704.50.

Permits for the erection of 41 one-family homes, valued at $854,000; two garden apartments, valued at $1,095,000; one motel, $120,000, and 15 commercial and industrial buildings, valued at $737,000, topped the Building Inspector's list.

The remainder of the permits were issued as follows: three swimming pools, valued at $10,700; 109 alterations, $169,383; 34 signs, $25,198; 129 burners, $225,442.50. Two blasting and seven demolition permits, for which no fee is charged, also were issued.

January - and March of Dimes

The symbol for the new year and the symbol for new hope is traditionally a new baby. We think of young Mr. 1960, only a few days old at the moment, as a youngster radiant with health and brimming with optimism. It has always seemed fitting that the March of Dimes appeal should be held in January. For years the March of Dimes meant hope to the children suffering from polio. Only a few short years ago, a March of Dimes-financed research project produced a polio vaccine that has protected millions of youngsters from a crippling disease.

And this year, too, it is fitting that the March of Dimes comes at a time when hopes are high for the new year. This year, it's a NEW March of Dimes, because it now offers new hope to even more millions—the patients suffering from crippling birth defects and crippling arthritis, as well as those suffering from crippling polio. These three diseases affect one family out of every four in this country.

Crippling birth defects are the major unmet childhood medical problem in the United States. About 250,000 children annually, or one in 16, are born each year with significant birth defects.

The number of Americans suffering from some form of arthritis and rheumatism is more than 11,000,000. Among these are children afflicted with rheumatoid arthritis. They live in such a painful, tragic world that the touch of a sheet on the body can be excruciating at times.

And, finally, there are more than 50,000 victims of paralytic polio still being aided by the March of Dimes. Some are children whose parents neglected to give them Salk shots.

Remember all these numbers when you pass a coin collector for the NEW March of Dimes. Remember all these numbers when you see pictures of fat and assy Mr. 1960, exuberant with good health. Remember these numbers when you look at your own children, exuberant and active and protected by the Salk vaccine.

ME (incaps) run for the Board of Education??? Do I LOOK as though I were out of my mind? I should say NOT!!!!!!
How often have such remarks been heard when the deadline approaches for filing petitions of candidacy for school board elections in February?
Yet, in spite of such shieing away, when the time arrives and residents of a school district feel they can contribute something of value to the operations of the school system, there are people who file for the positions to be filled and, just as often as not, there are more candidates than vacancies. This competition is healthy. It certainly is a part of the American Way of Life.

Thus, in Springfield we find there are five vacancies to be filled on Feb. 2, with ten candidates to be listed on the ballot; six competing for the three-year term openings, two each of the two-year and one-year terms. The men—and it is to be noted that all the aspirants are men—who are making the school board run must feel a desire for community service, else they would not be subjecting themselves to the inconveniences of a campaign. They are deserving of commendation. Regardless of the outcome, these people have earned our thanks for their willingness to serve in a vital spot in our municipal set-up.

The Sun is preparing biographical material about the ten men for publication in an early issue. We invite each of the candidates to submit a statement telling the voters WHY he chose to run, HOW he feels about the issues involved and WHAT HE WILL TRY TO DO if elected.

Immediate action is suggested, as only three more issues of The Sun will appear before Election Day—Feb. 9. The statements should be as brief as the subject matter will permit.

School board campaigns are notably short—much too short, The Sun believes. Here is an opportunity for the candidates to reach most of the voters of the district with one all-inclusive statement.

SUN Rays

Both of those—or have I the right to say 2 of the several—who read this column last week pounced upon the writer with the same questions. Put in different words, the pair wanted to know (1) WHO wrote the piece, (2) WHY it happened to appear at this time, (3) WHAT TYPE OF COLUMN WAS INTENDED, (4) WOULD IT BE CONTINUED. The basis for the first query was glaringly obvious as soon as I opened my copy of The Sun: my initials (S.E.L.) were omitted from the bottom of the column. Here are the answers: The group of paragraphs was put together by S. E. Lieberman. The observations appeared in last week's issue of the paper because I had joined the Sun staff in time to work on that issue and I was an immediate victim of I-must-write-a-column, that ailment which strikes a newspaperman every time he starts a new job. It is intended to be an assemblage of miscellaneous comment, as broad and as interesting as my imagination, experience—and ability can make it. Will it be continued? Well, now that's up to you. There is one question I would have liked to have had asked, for I have a prompt reply: Are contributions wanted? The answer is a loud YES!

Airlines which serve the island and the big, plush hotels in Havana and other parts of Cuba are offering a half-fare, half-rate come-on to get Americans to fill the empty hostesses. Ignoring the bait would show Castro and his regime how unpalatable are his fascist and communist-like carryings-on. The Bearded Beauty appears to be sleeping at American newspapermen. I happened to be in the neighborhood when The Miami Herald's James Buchanan got involved with the dictator. He was lucky to get out in one piece only weeks after he was arrested. The U. S. press sees the Buchanan incident as a warning of what lies in store for enterprising reporters seeking true stories of important happenings on that attractive island.

Here's a phenomenon for the electronics-minded to play around with: As I drive to work in the morning (and drive back home in the evening) my radio is jammed. Just as I pass Exit 133 and I am about to enter Essex County on the Garden State Parkway on the way to Springfield, Hal Simms's or Dallas Townsend's voice (depending on how late I am) becomes garbled in other voices or music. Perhaps one of the readers of these words will like to air his knowledge of broadcasting techniques by offering an explanation.

Pleading "The Sixth" (this differs from "The Fifth" in that the latter covers a guilty knowledge while the former explains actual ignorance), I do not know much about the State Highway Dept.'s plans for the construction of a railroad bridge across and the widening of Morris Avenue in Union. BUT I do hope that whatever is done takes a lot of the driving hazard out of motoring along that busy street.

Looking over the list of municipal officials in Scotch Plains, I was struck by the name of Township Committee member Walter H. Jones. Where I come from that is a name to conjure with—in Republican politics at least. Bergen County's Walter H. Jones is State Senator. . . and most of those in the upper echelon of the G.O.P. there (including Senator Jones himself) look upon him as Gov. Robert B. Meyner's successor in Trenton—Wouldn't it be an even more remarkable coincidence if Township Committee member Jones' middle name proved to be Henry!

I may not make a fortune if I ever invent one, but I'll sure get satisfaction from using a gadget which will squirt smoke into the face of the driver of the car behind me when he insists on keeping me focused in his bright lights.

One of the thrills of working in a new territory is meeting people who know folks in your hometown. Such an experience was mine the other day when I met Edwin G. Davenport, a candidate for the Board of Education in Springfield, who told me he has known Ralph Steele of Westwood for many years. I have known Ralph since he came to town to manage the Woolworth store some 25 years ago—a job he still holds. He is one of the most active volunteer workers I've ever come across: in his church, the Boy Scouts, Chamber of Commerce, Everyman's Bible Class, fund drives of all kinds, etc.

As a fair-minded reporter I must tell you that the Garden State Parkway was in fine condition Monday morning. I can speak only for that 25-mile, three-quarters-in-the-funnel stretch from Exit 165 in Bergen County to Exit 140 here in Union. While over the radio came repeated warnings to drive exceedingly carefully because of icy roads, the Parkway presented a completely danger-free surface.—S.E.L.

Suit Filed As Accident Sequel

Charging permanent injuries resulted from a car accident two years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kazin, of 42 Garden Oval, Springfield, have filed a $51,000 suit in Superior Court against Morris Rubell, owner of Rubell's Decorators, 408A Chancellor Avenue, Newark, and Henry T. Hutchins, of 26 Leo Place, Newark, driver of the Rubell truck involved in the crash.

Mr. Kazin stated in the suit that he received permanent injuries to his head, arms, legs and back and that an existing arthritic condition was aggravated by the crash, which, the complainants said occurred when Mrs. Kazin's car, being driven by her husband, was struck in the rear by the Rubell truck at the intersection of Elizabeth and Maple Avenues, Newark, Jan. 20, 1958.

In addition to the $50,000 being asked for the injuries to Mr. Kazin, $1,000 is being sought for damages to the Kazin car. John L. McGuire of Newark is attorney for the Springfield couple.

Time For Filing Getting Shorter

Less than three weeks remain for aliens to file their address report cards, E. P. Bouchard, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, announced today.

According to Bouchard, there are many aliens in New Jersey who have not yet completed cards. He urged all aliens to file alien address report cards as soon as possible in order to comply with the law. Cards are available at all Post Offices and Immigration Service offices. Bouchard stated that any alien who willfully or inexcusably fails to file an address report card during January may be subject to a fine, imprisonment and deportation. The only persons not required to file reports are those persons in diplomatic status and Mexican nationals admitted to the United States as temporary agricultural laborers.

Early Filing; Early Returns

Don't delay filing that Federal income tax return you just got in the mail — especially if you are one of the many millions who may have a tax refund coming. The sooner you file, the sooner Internal Revenue Service can process your return and get your check to you. That is the advice of Joseph F. J. Mayer, District Director for the Newark district.

"If we have to give your return a pre-refund audit and thus delay your refund check, we will inform you of that fact by letter. But even in such cases, the earlier you file, the earlier we can get at your pre-refund audit," Mr. Mayer added. He also offered a couple of tips for early filers who want to receive their refunds as quickly as possible.

One is to make sure you don't omit any essential information in making out your return, such as your signature (and that of your spouse if it is a joint return), your Form W-2 reporting your tax withholdings, and your address as legible as you can print it.

The other tip, Mr. Mayer said, is not to write for a few weeks asking where your refund is. "If we have to stop to answer such letters," Mr. Mayer said, "it will slow down the refunding process and delay your check that much longer."

It's The Law

This Legal Column is prepared under the supervision of the New Jersey State Bar Association as a public service. It is designed to inform citizens of their rights, duties and obligations under our laws rather than to give advice concerning specific legal problems.

BANKRUPTCY

All of a person's debts may not be forgiven if he goes through bankruptcy. While the bankruptcy laws are designed to permit a person to get a new start by wiping the slate clean, there are exceptions based on public policy.

The exceptions fall into six different categories classified as (1) taxes due the United States or any state, county, district or municipality, (2) liabilities for property obtained by false pretense or false representation or willful and malicious injury to a person or his property, (3) debts not duly scheduled in the bankruptcy proceeding, (4) debt created by fraud, embezzlement, or defalcation by a person in a trust capacity, (5) debts for wages earned during the three-month period immediately prior to commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, (6) debts for money deposited by an employee or to secure performance of the terms of his employment contract.

Thus, even though a person be declared bankrupt, debts falling into the above class would not be discharged. Specific examples of such debts are:

1. A loan induced by a false financial statement
2. Claims for embezzlement
3. Damages for assault and battery
4. Sale of consigned merchandise without payment therefor
5. Damages resulting from certain negligence actions where the circumstances are such as to constitute willful and malicious conduct, such as driving a truck on the wrong side of the road while intoxicated
6. Damages resulting from hit-and-run accidents
7. Liability for alimony or child support

In view of the exceptions, it's best to check carefully if you are affected by a bankruptcy; the debt may not be discharged.

FROM THE GRANDSTAND

By Doug Voigt

Regional's athletic squads fared extremely well the past week as the basketballers gained an even split with an impressive victory over Plainfield and the wrestlers scored a thrilling win over Plainfield and added an easier one with Rahway.

The first half of the Union contest looked like a complete rout, with the locals on the long end, as the visitors hit only five of 31 shots in their futile attempts in that half. However, they caught their own torrid second half shooting and Regional's inability to take and hit enough shots to keep pace with the "Farmers." Springfield left the floor at halftime with a seemingly comfortable lead, 26 to 17, but this soon melted—and they were desperately trying to regain the lead—something they failed to achieve. Jay Gladstone was high on the local scoring list with 14 points.

Approximately 100 women enjoyed a delightful afternoon Monday at the regular monthly meeting of Mountaineers Newcomers Club. Mrs. Harry Rowe, of 15 Mountainview Drive, chairman for the day, presented Margaret Wright, who demonstrated the art of cosmetic application. Rosemary Quinn of "High House," a club member, was a model for her demonstration.

The January meeting of Westmont Chapter of Deborah will be held on Jan. 19 at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. Sol Shapiro, 707 Shadowlawn Drive, Westfield. Miss Mary Kanane, Freeholder of Union County, will speak on "To Will or Not to Will."

Is your golf game a little below par? Plan to be at the Deerpark School Jan. 30 at 1 p.m. Four New Jersey golf pros will be on hand to "smooth out your rough spots." There will not be any charge for admission.

Mrs. Emilee Cantagallo, of 1079 Willow Road, held a social gathering at her home for Mrs. Michael Kralick, a new neighbor who recently moved to 1088 Willow Road. A lovely house plant was presented to Mrs. Kralick to welcome her and her husband to town. Those who attended were: Mrs. William Hebler, Mrs. Elias Hoffman, Mrs. Joseph Siejak and Mrs. Joseph Styka.

The Plainfield wrestler was playing for the tie, and Regional's Bob Parrella succeeded in outscoring him by one point and thus gaining three Springfield points and the victory.

Rahway proved to be a much easier match as Lucariello won by forfeit. Petrozelli tied his opponent, Becker, pinned the man at 1:35 of the second period. Kasbarian outpointed his man, Rupp won by default. Tuffy Hart tied his opposing tussler, Parrella pinned his opponent at 1:07 of the final period and Leo Lospinoso outpointed his opposed grappler.

St. Benedict's on Jan. 15 and Bound Brook on the 20th will compose the schedule the next week for the local grapplers as they seek to lengthen their victory skein.

Irving V. Leventhal, Certified Public Accountant of 36 Edgewood Avenue, Springfield, will talk before the Optimists of Summit today, Thursday, at the Suburban Hotel.

Man has bowled for more than 5,000 years. Egyptians bowled a round stone through two uprights and 10 wooden pins and called the game skittles. The Dutch perfected "knipspins" and borrowed the Egyptian name. The Scots called their version curling. Missionaries tried to convert pagan Germany by "kegeling" the "heide" — clubbing the heathen. Wooden "kegels" — clubs representing pagan ways — were knocked over in this game.

Coach Herb Palmer's wrestling squad came out on the long end of the score in each of their first two matches by posting a 23 to 21 triumph over Plainfield and beating Rahway 30 to 20. The first match saw the "Bulldogs" enter the last hour trailing 21 to 20, despite the efforts of Ron Lucariello, John Petrozelli, Gene Becker, Ed Kasbarian, George Rupp and Matt Principle. Lucariello was the only matman who succeeded in pinning his opponent as he did so at 1:08 of the first period. The last hour, however, meant everything as even a tie would have meant a Plainfield victory.

Hit Musical
Opens Season

"Where's Charley?" the musical comedy which will reopen the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre's 1960 season on February 26 is a musical version of the play that for more than 60 years has been the most fabulously successful of any show in the English language.

When this farce was first presented in London in 1892, it ran for 1,466 performances. This world's record was only the beginning as many touring companies took the show to all parts of the British Empire and it became sort of an industry in itself.

The first American production of "Charley's Aunt" was in October 1893. It was revived 13 years later for a nationwide tour and other major presentations in New York occurred in 1914, 1925, 1940 and 1953. In the last two revivals, Jose Ferrer was the rampaging Charley with enormous success.

Hollywood has filmed the show four times with Syd Chaplin, Charles Ruggles, Jack Benny and Rely Bolger in the title role.

One of the finest musical versions of "Where's Charley?" is scheduled at the Meadowbrook. Producers Helga & Gary McHugh and Carl Sawyer are currently preparing to cast the production with all-Broadway talent.

"Once in Love With Amy" and "My Darling, My Darling" are two of the many outstanding musical hits from "Where's Charley?"

Theatre party groups and individual reservations for the Meadowbrook's "Where's Charley?" are now being accepted. Phone Clifford 6-1455 for your reservations, including a special discount rate for groups of 50 or more persons.

Following "Where's Charley?", the Meadowbrook's Spring season of Broadway musical comedy hits will include: "The Boyfriend," "Kismet" and "Damn Yankees."

N. J. Symphony
Concert Jan. 27

The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra presents its second concert of the season at four different concert centers this month beginning in Livingston, Tuesday, January 26; Millburn, January 27; Montclair, January 28; and Rutherford, January 30.

Soloist for the second concert will be the young American pianist Lillian Kallir; play just completed an overseas Schumann's piano Concerto in A Minor. Miss Kallir has toured in which she received plaudits from reviewers in most of Europe's major cities.

Partial subscriptions for the remaining two concerts are still available according to orchestra officials and those wishing to subscribe for the January and March concerts may contact the Symphony office in Orange.

In addition to the Schumann Concerto, the Orchestra under the direction of Mathys Abas will play Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream," Bartok's "Roumanian Folkdances" and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 6, "Pathetique."

Bonnie Brae
Theatre Benefit
January 23

In celebration of the 25th annual theatre benefit on January 23rd Bonnie Brae Farm for Boys has taken the entire orchestra, mezzanine and part of the balcony for "The Sound of Music," starring Mary Martin at the Lunt Fontanne Theatre in New York City.

Mrs. Wilfred J. Funk of Montclair, Co-Chairman of the benefit with Mrs. Ludolph H. Conklin of Basking Ridge and Mrs. Paul F. Switz of Red Bank, announced today that all the seats have been sold, thus assuring Bonnie Brae the most successful theatre benefit in its history.

Hostesses for various New Jersey Communities include: Mrs. William R. Barrett of Plainfield; Mrs. William W. Lowe of Westfield; Mrs. William E. Reinhardt of Ridgewood; Mrs. William C. Ridgway, Jr. of Short Hills; Miss Elizabeth Hay Taylor of Maplewood; Mrs. John H. Thatcher of Englewood; Mrs. Philip B. Townley of West Orange; Mrs. Edwin C. Treat of Summit and Mrs. Robert Carey, Jr., South Orange of Bonnie Brae Auxiliary.

People who spend everything as they go will eventually see their forward progress come to a halt.

It costs very little to be courteous, but it seems that very few people are willing to pay the price.

Fashion Booklet Wardrobe Key

Now is the perfect time to take stock of your spring wardrobe and start thinking about additions for the new season ahead.

The first of a series of booklets on "How to be Well-Dressed", part of an extensive and long range community service program of basic fashion education, has just been issued by the International Ladies Garment Workers Union and will be distributed free to all who request a copy.

Co-authored by Eleanor Lambert, well known fashion authority, the first booklet gives advice on what to wear on such special occasions as wedding receptions, business conventions, a woman's club meeting, as well as factual information on special size groups.

Future booklets scheduled for publication will give guidance to young people assembling school wardrobes, to brides-to-be on how to plan a trousseau, and a travel wardrobe for any part of the world.

A second phase of the fashion education program is the production of semi-annual color fashion films, which will be distributed to TV stations, schools, colleges, women's clubs, conventions, and other meetings of women throughout America.

The booklet may be obtained by writing Box 288, Radio City Station, New York, N. Y.

Plan a Wedding
Tea Reception

The Wedding Tea Reception is gaining popularity for a number of reasons. Perhaps most important is that many of today's young brides-to-be prefer a less expensive wedding so that the money which might have been spent on an elaborate affair can be presented as a wedding gift. Another reason is that more guests can be invited.

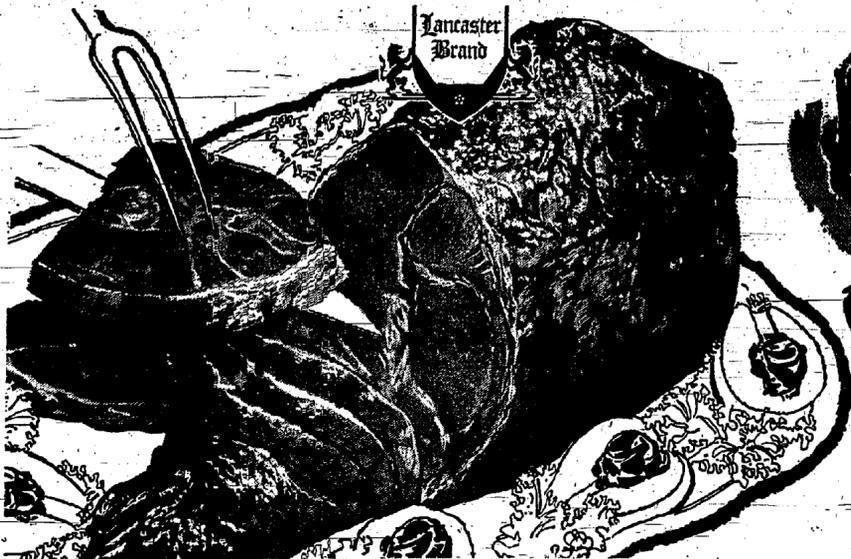

A reception can be elaborate or simple, depending upon the menu. A popular menu consists of champagne tea punch, seafood newburgh, open faced and decorative sandwiches, petits fours, hot beverages, and a wedding cake. Recipes follow:

CHAMPAGNE TEA PUNCH
(Makes about 25 servings)
1 quart water
1/4 cup loose tea
1/4 cup rum
1/4 cup brandy
Juice of 2 lemons
2 cups sugar
1 cup water
1 quart soda water, chilled
1 quart champagne, chilled
Ice cubes

SEAFOOD NEWBURGH
(Makes about 25 servings)
2 lbs. scallops, cooked
2 lbs. shelled, deveined shrimps, cooked
2/3 cup butter
4 tablespoons flour
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon paprika
3/4 cup sherry
6 egg yolks
1 quart light cream
Melt butter in top of double boiler or chafing dish. Blend in flour and seasonings. Gradually stir in sherry. Add cooked seafood. Cook till food is heated through. Combine egg yolks and cream. Pour into chafing dish, stirring constantly until sauce becomes thickened and smooth. Serve over rice or toast fingers.

Kitchen Lore
Try to take time to wipe off jars and bottles with a soapy sponge after each use to remove any spilled drops, before you put them back on the shelves. In case you miss now and then, cardboard coasters placed under the various containers will keep any leakage from reaching the shelf lining. Slip the flour after into a paper or plastic bag after using it to keep it clean and to catch any loose flour. Another good suggestion is to keep the rolling pin in a bag, too, after washing it with soap and water.

It's Distressing
What's distressing? Why it's distressing when junior tracks mud across the kitchen floor but "distressing" can also be very nice. "Distressing" is the name given to tiny delicate markings applied to a furniture surface during finishing to enhance its character. Better quality furniture is often distressed.

Safety Conference Topics Friday To Range From Driving Through Firearms

Safety in driving, boating, swimming and firearms will be discussed at a teen-age conference, to be held Friday, Jan. 15, by the school safety committee of Union County Safety Council. It will be the third such parley.

Union County Department of Education and the New Jersey State Safety Council are cooperating sponsors of the session, which will be held from 1 to 3:30 p.m. at the Bayway Community Center.

Every secondary school in the county has been invited to send student delegates from Grades Nine to 12, inclusive, accompanied by two faculty members.

Topics for discussion, student consultants will be: "How Can We Overcome the Organized Agitation for Raising the Driving Age?" Dean Jedry of Scotch Plains High School, chairman; Earl Smith, director of driver education, Scotch Plains High School, consultant; Norma Sich of Scotch Plains High School, recorder.

"Insurance Problems of Young Drivers," Allen Hinman of Plainfield High School, chairman; John Schmidt, underwriter, Allstate Insurance Co., consultant; Patricia Tramer of Scotch Plains High School, recorder.

The bridge department, Davison reported, did such maintenance and construction work as cleaning culverts, re-moving a sand bar, constructing catch basins, building retaining walls, cleaning and painting and replacing concrete sidewalks.

The Engineering Department, he stated, continued to furnish rainfall and tide data used in the study of drainage and flood control and in the design of bridges, storm sewers and culverts, to the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development's Division of Water Policy and Supply.

Davison also listed projects toward which the Freeholders have authorized contributions by the county. These projects deal with stream improvements undertaken by municipalities where such improvements eliminate the need for county bridges across public streets.

They include improvement and enclosure of a stream which crosses Wood Valley Road and Central Avenue in Mountainside; improvement of drainage by the construction of a storm water sewer from Shunpike Road to Van Winkle Creek, crossing Flermer, Mountain, Tooker and Henshaw Avenues in Springfield; improvement and enclosure of a stream which crosses Golf Street, Wood Road and Shackamaxon Drive in Scotch Plains.

Also, improvement of drainage by the construction of a storm sewer along Tower Place and Midway Avenue to Terrill Road in Fanwood; construction of a storm water sewer along Union Avenue and Springfield Avenue and crossing Springfield Avenue in New Providence; construction of a storm water sewer with manholes and appurtenances on W. Chestnut Street in Union.

Blainfield High School, recorder.

"Boating Safety Problems," John Smart of Union High School, chairman; George Mueller, captain, Northern Division, U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, consultant; Unice Mahr of Union High School, recorder.

"Problems of Water Safety"—skin diving and home swimming pools, Charles Walker of Union High School, chairman; Bernard Saks, director first aid and water safety, Elizabeth Chapter, American Red Cross, and Edward Neely, president, Plainfield Seuba Diving Club, consultants; Cathy Giacini of Union High School, recorder.

Firearms Panel Listed

Lester Miller of Rahway High School, chairman of the school safety committee of the Union County Safety Council, heads the planning committee.

The committee includes faculty representatives from 15 high schools in the county; Dr. West and Dr. Nathaniel O. Schneider, director, school and college division, New Jersey Safety Council.

Engineer Frowns On New Road Construction; Wants Those In Use Improved

Library. This will be followed by highlights from the Delaware Master Plan of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and the Syracuse University Report.

After two years of study the League has agreed to support regional river basin planning as the most efficient way to develop national water resources. Members are trying to answer the following questions as related to the Delaware River Basin: (1) What is the best plan for the multi-purpose development of the river basin? (2) What kind of new governmental machinery is needed to effectively implement regional river basin planning? (3) What improvements are needed for better financial measurements so that those who benefit from public water resource developments shall pay equitably for such benefits?

The January meeting will be at 8:15 at the home of Mrs. Rubin Gran, 2 Troy Drive, DR. 6-3824. All League members are urged to attend to learn about their roles in this vital problem.

Elizabeth Man Chosen As Board Of Managers Head At J. E. Runnells Hospital

Organizing for 1960, the Board of Managers of John E. Runnells Hospital for Chest Diseases in Berkeley Heights last week elected Israel Cardonsky president. The new leader of the hospital board is a resident of Elizabeth, where he is an insurance broker and a member of the Board of Fire Commissioners.

At the same session the board approved a $1,844,000 budget for this year and initiated action leading to the selection of a permanent medical director of the institution as successor to Dr. John E. Runnells.

Mr. Cardonsky has served for seven years on the hospital board.

Elizabeth YM-YWHA and of the He is a past president of the New Jersey Federation of YM-YWHA's. He is active in a number of civic and welfare groups.

All-Out Effort Pledged

In his inaugural speech, Mr. Cardonsky pledged an all-out effort for the hospital and called for the continued cooperation of the board members in the program of hospital improvement.

Gordon Ehrlich of Scotch Plains was elected first vice-president and John T. Glennon of Elizabeth was named second vice-president. Mr. Glennon, Dr. Robert Casey of Rahway and Henry Gavin of Linden were inducted as board members.

Other members of the hospital board are: Howard Cox of Westfield, Dr. Edward Lynch of Elizabeth, John Freeman of Elizabeth and George M. Rollason of Plainfield.

The 1960 budget, subject to approval by the Board of Freeholders, calls for a $100,000 increase over 1959. Mr. Cardonsky said the hike stems primarily from anticipated expansion of facilities for the chronically ill at the hospital.

36 More Beds Due

He said that 36 more beds will be made available for chronic patients this year in a conversion program involving existing facilities. More personnel and equipment will be needed, the board president pointed out.

Mr. Cardonsky said he would set up a screening committee to interview applicants for the $18,500-a-year medical director post held by Dr. Runnells for almost a half century.

Dr. Lynch, Dr. Casey, who are three lay members of the board and Mr. Cardonsky will serve on the screening unit.

The board president said the selection will be made as soon as possible. He added that Dr. Eugene Nargiello, chief of staff and temporary medical director, will be given all consideration for the appointment.

ing ready to proceed with construction. The Mayor thought it not in the best interests of the township to continue renewing the permit, and his colleagues on the board agreed.

This action led the Mayor to recommend that a study be made of the Building and Zoning Codes, and any other ordinances involved, to determine whether changes might be necessary to prevent a recurrence of the situation described.

On the recommendation of Township Engineer Alfred H. Swenson, the $10,000 being held in escrow in connection with the Shunpike storm sewer project is not to be given to the contractor, Kenneth Brann, but is to remain where it is. This step was taken because it was reported that several residents along the pipe line's route were not wholly satisfied with the manner in which their property was being returned to its appearance before the job was started.

Springfield Avenue and then cut between the Presbyterian and Methodist Cemeteries as it crosses Main Street.

The artery will continue south of Springfield Post Office, run into Morris Avenue and then through the municipal park at Short Hills Avenue.

Route Outlined

It would continue across Eastusol Way, approximate the course of Brant Avenue and cut across Orchard Street and Eastusol Way. The highway would leave Springfield valley of the bend in the Rahway Valley Railroad at the Summit line.

The highway would then cut across Summit and enter Berkeley Heights at Glenside Avenue near the jumping course of the Watching Stables area.

It would cross Diamond Hill Road north of Twick Falls Road and Mc Mane Avenue south of Ridge Drive. The freeway would run several hundred feet behind the John E. Runnells Hospital for Chest Diseases.

After cutting through a pass near the hospital, the road would leave Berkeley Heights near the junction of Horseshoe Road and Plainfield Avenue.

Opposition to Tech School Is Ignored

Union County Vocational School Board of Education is moving ahead with its school plans, despite reports that the project has lost favor—politically.

The Board has drafted a $39,700 budget for its expenses from July 1960 to July 1961. The spending summary will be sent to the Vocational Board of School Estimate for approval. The county will contribute $17,000 to the total.

The whole project has been fought by Boards of Education in the Regional School Districts. Indications are that the Boards might be winning the fight as Democratic Freeholders have shown some fear that they might get the label of Free-spenders if they pass the plan.

Referendum Favored

posed that the public vote on a referendum to decide how the school will be financed. Democratic Freeholder Edward J.

Port Authority

air traffic problems probably would not be felt to a large extent in Springfield, which is almost 10 miles from the proposed jetport site.

Changes Noted

But the mayor pointed out federal and state authorities have outlined three major highways which would go through Springfield.

One, Route 78, the so-called new Route 22, is already under construction in other areas and will go through Springfield within five years. Construction of the other two is not certain and in any case is considerably in the future.

But the mayor and members of the Township Committee were concerned that construction of the jetport, with a projected work force of 23,000 and a high volume of air traffic might cause officials to make these roads even wider, cutting a greater swath through Springfield.

The PA representatives were not prepared to quote figures, but they said, traffic from the field would be absorbed in the hundreds of thousands of cars a day now traveling Route 22 without any appreciable impact.

They held out little hope that any other site will prove suitable for the giant air field. Even if the Air Force turned over McGuire Air Force Base, in Burlington County, it wouldn't do.

A commercial airport there would interfere with traffic patterns from Philadelphia, it was said.

Springfield officials, despite the PA assurances, remained unconvinced that the jetport could be anything but a liability, they indicated.

Carlin has indicated that he would like the whole idea of the school placed on a referendum, as have the newly inducted Republican minority members of the board.

Two methods of financing the school have been discussed—a per pupil assessment and general taxation.

The Vocational School Board also reported that it is nearing a decision on the selection of a superintendent. Three men are being considered, one from Ohio, one from New York and one from New Jersey.

The superintendent probably will receive a salary of $13,000. The Board also announced that it is setting up an evening school program at a cost of $10,000. The plan would be held in collaboration with similar plans which are conducted by trade unions for apprentices.

However, the vocational school idea would be more diversified. The night school probably will be operated in existing facilities.

The night school classes might start by March. The State Department of Education has been asked to furnish a list of educators who could head up the program until the new superintendent takes over.

The Board will also study the results of a survey on pupils' needs. The data is now being collated by an International Business Machine unit.

than ELECTRICALLY

Clean as your electric iron! That's flameless electric cooking. The pots and pans are in direct contact with the clean, flameless cooking units. There are no by-products of combustion, no grease or grime to soil kitchen walls and ceilings. And if something spills on the cooking unit, it burns right off. A light once-over with a damp cloth keeps the rest of the range spotless. All this plus the fact that it's the coolest and most accurate way to cook makes it easy to see why more and more people are switching to flameless electric ranges every day.

Hobby Boards Easy to Build

Each year more Americans — young and old alike — adopt hobbies in their leisure time.

Most of the hobbies are simple and require little material. Cards, writing, painting and family games, however, require ample table space. Hobby boards of durable plastic-finished hardboard have solved many family disputes when no tables were available.

Each member of the family may have his own large hobby board. Since Marlite, the pre-decorated hardboard, comes in 10 attractive colors, each hobbyist can identify his own board.
