Night School Organized

The Union County Board of Vocational-Technical Education organized_a_night_school for lectronics and drafting students at its August 1 meeting.

Twice-a-week, two-hour classeswill be worked on a two sectionbasis starting Sept. 27. Registration was set for 7:30 p.m.-9:30 p.m. on Sept. 19_and 20. &G. H. Baxel, director, said the packaging of night sessions Mondays and fuesdays and Thursdays) stretches the two-classroom capacity to 72 students.

Day sessions (8:45 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.), which were announced earlier, are restricted tatively accepted, with 10 more in-the-screening-stage.—Some-20 other applications failed to meet specifications, he added. Recruiting for the day sessions has failed to draw-feminine response. Mr. Baxel said only one of 55 candidates to-date was a girl.

Both day and evening sessions will have two semesters.

The school, 90 per cent federal and state supported, is housed on the second floor of a commercial building at 2589 Morris
