

INSIDE... UNION COUNTY

FREEHOLDERS ELECTION IMPORTANT

The top brass of both major parties in Union County is inwardly more concerned about the election of three Freeholders than any other office in the 1960 election.

Both parties are depending on the heads of their tickets to help them along, but they are fully aware that many voters think independently when it comes to local and county candidates. They both will be striving to win over this block of voters.

With control of the county government at stake, the victory or defeat of present Democratic Freeholder candidates Edward J. Carlin, M.D., Director Thomas J. O'Brien and William Dalziel becomes a paramount concern of both parties. The Democrats presently enjoy a 5 to 3 three majority. The Republicans held sway previous to 1959 for over fifty years.

The three incumbent Democrats proudly boast of a record of a 1959 tax rate reduction equal to approximately $280,000 and a 1960 rate only one-half point higher than the 1958 rate.

They inaugurated an expansion and improvement program at Runnells Hospital to provide bed space for the chronic ill and they hope to attain through this program, the full hospital accreditation which was lost under the Republican controlled Board.

The Democrats charged the Republican administration with completely ignoring safety improvements at the hospital which they have undertaken to correct.

They charge that the Republicans spent approximately one million dollars in 1956 to build a nurses' residence which, they charge, was overbuilt and contains many unused, completely furnished rooms.

The Democrats estimate that, with minor alterations to the building, approximately 120 additional beds can be provided for chronic ill cases. This, in effect, they say, will bring about economy as over 200 patients in nursing homes in all parts of the state cost the county over $130,000 per year, whereas Rose Hall could accommodate a large portion of these patients. They are using this as an argument in portraying Republican inefficiency and costly mismanagement.

The Republicans on the other hand are hoping for a Nixon sweep in the County this year. They carry their Freeholder candidates into office. They are worried about the Democratic Freeholders' influence on the independent voters who change their vote for Freeholder on a basis of Freeholder accomplishments.

Plagued with the jail tobacco fund expose, wherein it was alleged that over $12,000 in profits from sales of tobacco, candy, etc. to prisoners was mismanaged (and a strong presentation by the Grand Jury resulted) the Republicans are faced with a major task of regaining confidence of the electorate.

Disorganized through years of internal feuding at the county level, coals were recently thrown on the smoldering fire by the appointment of Roy E. Carey, former Under-Sheriff and unsuccessful candidate for Sheriff last year, to lead the Republican forces in the county.

Recent Democratic gains in most communities of Union County have caused additional worries. The loss of control of the Sheriff's, Register's and Surrogate's offices, plus the Board of Freeholders, has terminated the solid Court House Republican margin.

The Democrats feel that their three incumbent Freeholder candidates have established a record of economy and efficient management of county government and are counting on the electorate to retain them in office rather than take a chance on three Republican candidates who have had no experience in county government.

The Town Meeting Method

The Nixon-Kennedy debates on television won't attract more attention in Berkeley Heights than the fact to face meeting between Fritz Schade, Democratic candidate for Tax Assessor, and incumbent Tax Assessor Theodore Plumly, Republican who seeks re-election.

They clash in a debate Friday evening, September 30, at the Columbia School, Berkeley Heights, and this should be the main event of the campaign. They have been tossing political brick-bats at each other all Summer.

Warning To Doting Parents

Doting parents who believe their children's photographs worthy of use in national advertising — or any of a number of "free-for-nothing" pictures of their kids should heed the warnings of Better Business Bureaus to watch out for such "photo schemes and rackets."

Officials of the National Better Business Bureau have stated that the "photo registry" or the "free photo" promoters are filching thousands of dollars from gullible parents who are led to believe that there is no catch in the proposition.

The "mug book" is the scheme most parents accept, but the "this won't cost you a cent" proposal has resulted in a great number of complaints in this area. And, usually, enlargements are pressured on the parents, high priced frames, special finishes, . . . all of which arrives C.O.D. After payment has been made, the parents then discover that the finished product is not comparable with the sample displayed by the photo salesman. Of course, then it is too late. The fast talking and smiling salesman is off to greener pastures.

The "mug book" scheme is a collection of photos of would-be models published for profit by a promoter at the expense of the models, collectively, or their parents, and sent, unsolicited, unwanted and usually unused, to advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers.

These books are albums attract patronage by representing that there is a big demand for child photos by national advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers who pay up to $500, and more, for them. They solicit the submission of photos for approval, and then congratulate the parents on the photogenic qualities of their offspring.

The story is that child photos are published in an album and distributed to large numbers of advertisers, agencies and publishers, presumably in dire need of such photos. A common fee for inclusion of a photo is $10.

Surveys made by the National Better Business Bureau establish that national advertisers do not use "mug books" as a source of child photos. They secure their photos through their advertising agencies, who use commercial photographers and professional model agencies. Unsolicited albums are not generally considered, because (1) the usual quality of most of the photographs makes it impossible for anyone to know whether the children are suitable; and (2) the children are not geographically available; (3) the photos may not be current; and (4) the legal work involved in dealing directly with parents would make the cost prohibitive.

Dunn Attacks GOP 1952-1956 Pledges

Jack Dunn, Democratic Candidate for Congress from Union County charged last night that the Republican Party deserted their 1952-56 pledge of economy and became in fact, the party of the spend-thrift and inflation.

Dunn then went on to challenge his Republican opponent to deny the fact that the spending record of the Eisenhower-Nixon Government was much greater than the previous Democratic record and the Republican had forced Federal indebtedness to new record highs.

Speaking to a meeting of party workers at the Kennedy-Dunn headquarters in Elizabeth Carteret Hotel, Jack Dunn pointed out that in seven years the rose 25 billion dollars under the Republicans; from 260 billion in 1952 to 285 billion in 1959.

Dunn also declared that "the Republican Party's records for balancing the budget is a disgrace when compared to the Democratic record. Look at the record of the Democratic record between the fiscal years 1947-53. It has an average annual surplus of 1.5 billion dollars. Compare this with the Republicans. Average deficit of 2.1 billion dollars each year for the period 1954-60 with another 1.5 billion dollar rise in the budget promised for 1961."

Dunn stated "this is the sad record of Republican failure during the last seven years and is an interesting contrast to present and past election day promises. My opponent in the campaign constantly refers to a "record of service." This I regret to say is hers and the Republican Party's record of service. It has been a record of service primarily to banks and mortgage companies. Excess interest rates paid to such groups have cost the American people an average of 3.3 billion dollars during these seven Republican lean years.

"This rise in interest rates was more than nine times the amount of money the Eisenhower-Nixon administration spent on public school education.

The election of a Democratic President and a Democratic Congress is the only cure for this constant record of failure," Dunn instructed his audience.

YWCA Kaffeeklatsch Opens Season

Opening program for the next Wednesday morning, October 5, will be the annual appearance of Mrs. Dorothy Hughes Bearer who will review a current topic of unusual interest "The Method of Zen" by Eugene Herrigel. Mrs. Bearer is a professional lecturer and is a speech instructor at Fairleigh Dickinson College in Madison.

Kaffeeklatsch, one of the very popular traditional programs of the YWCA, is open to all women of the area. Coffee hour, from 10 o'clock, provides an opportunity for meetings and visiting with many persons. The program is presented from 10:30 to 11:30.

A great attraction of Kaffeeklatsch is the program for children of mothers attending. Concurrent child dance and rhythm classes are held for youngsters from 3 to 6 years, as well as be visiting services for infants 18 months or over. These services, for which charges are moderate, give mothers an opportunity to relax with adult friends knowing that their children are well cared for on the lower level of the YWCA given over Wednesday morning to children's activities.

No prior reservations are needed for attendance at Kaffeeklatsch. For further information, or a copy of future programs, call the Summit YWCA at CR 3-4242.

Kaffeeklatsch regular special events are planned by the Kaffeeklatsch program committee of which Mrs. J. C. Rosler of Summit is chairman. Other committee members from Summit include Mrs. Walter Reichbach and Mrs. J. H. Ruffey; from Chatham, Mrs. J. R. Miller; and from New Providence, Mrs. W. MacLaurin.

UC Citizens For Kennedy Office Opens

The official opening of the Union County Citizens for Kennedy headquarters at the Cranford Hotel on Saturday was marked by an address from chairman Dr. Neil A. McDonald, professor of government at Rutgers University.

Dr. McDonald informed the group that Union County has organized behind the Kennedy movement more rapidly than any county in the state. To underscore the importance of the members' efforts on behalf of Senator Kennedy, Dr. McDonald noted "that for the sake of one popular vote in the majority the entire electoral vote of the state could be won."

He stressed the importance of reaching the vast majority of undecided voters with the vitality of Senator Kennedy's "vision and leadership." Dr. McDonald remarked that "a victory for Kennedy in New Jersey, if considered in the light of previous presidential elections, will assure the Senator the White House."

At a meeting of municipal chairmen of Citizens for Kennedy preceding the address it was announced by Park W. Masters, county leader, that all twenty-one municipalities are now under the direction of a local chairman.

The eight new chairmen who complete county-wide organization are: Union, Emmett Neele; Elizabeth, Mrs. Janet Conneen; Garwood, Joseph Fuentas; Rahway, Henry Mc Closkey; Winfield, Joseph Wright; Mountainside, Chester B. Allen; Linden, and J. F. Blewett.

all apples are eating apples!

Almost all of the five thousand plus apple varieties that are raised in this area are good for eating out of hand. The problem is to get the apple picked at exactly the right time and refrigerated until it is eaten. In terms of apple quality, three weeks' storage at 32 degrees Fahrenheit is equal to one day at 70 degrees.

Apples on the farm, vary in price from sixty cents to ten dollars per hundredweight, depending upon size, grade, quality and package. Our prices vary from eight to twenty cents per pound of apples. Why not come out and see the difference in the appearance and taste. Once you try apples from Geiger's Cider Mill you will agree they are among the finest.

We are just beginning our season and we have McIntosh, Opalescent, Fall Pippins and early Stark Delicious this week. We also have our new supplies of Vermont Maple Syrup, Honey from all over and Pennsylvania apple butter. Of course, we are making our delicious Apple Cider daily and you are all invited to come out for a free sample drink.

Museum Displays Political Relics Of Yesteryear

Once every four years, during the presidential election campaign, the Curator of the Springfield Library Museum gets out the Museum's collection of political relics from bygone campaigns for exhibition.

The collection consists of buttons, badges, medals, and tokens dating as far back as the campaign of Andrew Jackson, the seventh President, for re-election in 1832. Also included are a combination cane and flag carried in the Harrison-Morton election of 1888 and a pocket match safe shaped to resemble the head of a candidate.

Prior to 1900, the celluloid lapel buttons now so widely distributed by both political parties during presidential election were unknown, and various devices in metal or ribbons were used for the same purpose, the earliest of which were in the form of tokens or medals. These items resembled coins and were carried as pocket pieces by the voters.

Added to the exhibit this time is one of the official medals struck to commemorate the second inauguration, January 20, 1887, of Dwight D. Eisenhower as 34th President and Richard M. Nixon as 36th Vice-President of the United States.

Beginning with the second inauguration of President McKinley in 1901, an official inaugural medal has been struck every four years.

Originals in gold are presented to the President and Vice-President and replicas in silver and bronze are made available to the public on a limited basis. The beautiful medal of 1967 was designed by Walter Hancock, of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, a noted sculptor, whose works include several fine statues and medals and the first inaugural medal for President Eisenhower.

The museum, located on the second floor of the Springfield Library, is open every day and Monday and Friday evenings, during the regular library hours.

TAKING CARE OF YOUR GARDEN

By Edward A. Cardinal

Many more lawns have been damaged severely by grubs during the past week so I will continue to answer questions on that subject. Grub-killing chemicals can be applied to the lawn until the ground freezes, but if you suspect grubs don't delay. Remember, if you see starlings or dark gray birds pecking holes in your lawn, it is a sure indication of Japanese beetle grubs. A lawn can be completely destroyed without seeing any evidence of grubs.

QUESTION: Does chlordane, DDT, Dieldrin, etc., only kill Japanese beetle grubs in the lawn?
ANSWER: No, indeed, ants, chinch bugs, chiggers and many other insects, including mosquitoes, will be eliminated. If you examine your turf closely you will find it is alive with insects of many kinds, but most of them harmless.

QUESTION: How can I tell if the brown patches in my lawn have been caused by beetle grubs or dogs?
ANSWER: Beetle grubs chew off the grass roots and the seed can be lifted from the ground as a rule. Dog damage is usually indicated by small circular patches from 9 to 12 inches in diameter, with the grass around the edges a rich green color and growing faster than the rest of the lawn. This is caused by the nitrogen in the animal's urine.

QUESTION: Can I apply fertilizer, lime and chlordane to my lawn at the same time?
ANSWER: Fertilizer and chlordane can be applied together but it is best to put lime on at a later date as the lime can break down the chlordane.

QUESTION: Can seed and chlordane be applied at the same time?
ANSWER: If seeding is done at the time chlordane is applied I would suggest watering in thoroughly as chlordane can slow down the germination. However, the normal application as directed on the container will have very little effect on time

UC Vocational School Starts

Seventy-two men began studies in electronics technology and drafting design technology Tuesday in the evening session of the Union County Vocational-Technical Institute, Union.

Thirty-six men are enrolled in electronics technology and thirty-six in drafting and design technology. This is the first evening program developed by the Board of Education of the Union County Vocational and Technical Schools.

The following student is enrolled in the evening session to study electronics technology: Joseph F. Beebe, 15 Park Lane, Springfield, graduate of Seton Hall Preparatory School, South Orange, attended Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken.

Also enrolled in the drafting and design technology program are: Edward Palmara, 31 Coghwell Court, Berkeley Heights, a graduate of Brooklyn Technical and Textile High School; Warren Puppre, 115 Ballast Way, a graduate of Jonathan Dayton Regional High

Union Adult School Opens 9th Semester

Offers Varied and Exciting Courses

The successful Union Adult School will begin its ninth semester on Wednesday evening, October 5th, and continue for 10 weeks up to December 7th.

Close to 400 registration have been received by mail before the opening of personal registration at Union High School last night. Last night's registration will be tallied some time today and it will unquestionably result in very few openings still being available in many of the courses according to Miss Proustet, the Director.

Among the continuing courses, Advanced Securities & Investing is still proving to be in popular demand. Also, Posture & Slimming for Women, Golf, Contract Bridge, Creative Painting, Millinery, Interior Decorating, Flower Arrangements and Power Boating.

There has been a gratifying reception by registrants for our new subjects have never been offered in any Adult School before said Miss Proustet.

These new courses have been carefully and thoughtfully selected by the Executive Committee to permit the greatest choice of subjects covering a broad field.

Some of these new courses which offer the many advantages for a better life in business, the home or at play are the new Brief Hand Writing, a Gourmet Cooking class for men only, Gymnastics for men.

Kinney Named Chairman PTA Juvenile Committee

The Board of Managers of the Union County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations met recently and set up the county program for the coming year.

Special emphasis will be placed in the areas of Juvenile Protection and the Teenager in the Family to implement the theme for this administration, "Home, School, Community, How from a foundation?"

Earl G. Kinney, Chairman of the Board of Managers and Attendance Officer of Plainfield Schools, is the new Chairman of the Committee on Juvenile Protection. He outlined a program for acquainting Union County citizens with the many different groups set up to consider children of ages 14, 15, 16 and 17 years of age.

Mrs. Peter C. Rung of Roselle new courses introduced with this semester. Many of these is the new County Chairman of the Committee on Parent and Family Life and will assist in the Educational Conferences planned by the Union County Home Economics Extension Service.

Membership Chairman, Mrs. Jeremiah Kopecky of Roselle Park urged the Council to join the efforts of her committee in enrolling a record county membership of 80,000 members during October, the National PTA membership month.

Merck Sponsors Science Series at Union Junior For Talented HS Pupils

The challenge of science will be directed at academically talented high school students in North Jersey this fall and winter by Union Junior College, sponsor of a new scientific lecture-discussion series under a grant from the Merck Company Foundation.

The lecture-discussion series is aimed at challenging the high school students intellectually, presenting new and different viewpoints, stimulating additional study, research and reading, presenting new ideas and new concepts and provoking thought," Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen, Union Junior College dean, said.

Under the plan, high schools in Union, including Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Essex, Middlesex, Morris and Somerset counties will be invited to "send students with the greatest potential to attend the lecture-discussion series. Ten lectures by leading figures in various scientific fields will be offered to be followed by discussions by trained leaders.

A grant of $2,880 to launch the lecture-discussion series has been made available by the Merck Company Foundation.

"It is anticipated," Dr. Iversen said, "that this program will increase interest of able students in science and mathematics, help make them better overall students and increase their interest in their high school studies, introduce them to the challenging life of the scientist and mathematician, and inform them of the great need for highly-trained people, especially in the highly-concentrated research area of North and Central Jersey."

Lectures in the fields of astronomy, meteorology, biochemistry, microbiology, nuclear physics, chemistry, geology, anthropology, space explorations, oceanography and others are planned, Dr. Iversen said. Lectures will be selected from leading colleges and universities in the eastern part of the United States and from scientific societies.

Dr. Iversen will be director for the project and he will be assisted by the faculty and staff of Union Junior College.

The lecture-discussion series is based on a pilot program conducted by Union Junior College and the Cranford Board of Education during the 1958-60 academic year. The experimental seminar attracted 60 juniors and seniors from Cranford High School. The lectures covered six diverse fields, including four of

Springfield: As Good As Expected

Sputin Sports

By Z. SPOUTER

The Bottomless Reservoir

It's a peculiar situation when you come face-to-face with the machine, to write a column like this. It is also difficult at times, mainly because you don't know what to write that will interest you. It amazes me how some of the daily sport columnists, i.e. Red Smith of The Trib, Dan Parker of the Mirror, Jimmy Cannon of Journal American, and thousands of others can sit down and bang out a lengthy and interesting column everyday.

I read in awe of their endless supply of information—their wide scope of knowledge of sports. They'll give a racing column one day and come back with a baseball the next. There seems to be no bottom to their reservoir of facts, stories, personalities or anecdotes.

This whole dilemma came to a head last week at the Senator, Yankees game. It was the game the Yankees won in the 11th inning 2-1, on an error by catcher, Earl Battey.

It was the idea of being-at-the-house that Ruth built, listening to the fan's comments and conversation of the game. The idea of seeing in color the beautiful green wall-to-wall carpeting covering the outfield. To eat a very rare hot dog on a cold roll and then to wash it down with a beer. The hustle-bustle, the jarring—crushing of the fans after the last out had been made.

It is the contact with the sport which in turn is contact with fans. It's something you can't get from watching a game on your TV set. It is this contact that enables the columnists to place their readers in the situation, that they (the writer) have experienced himself at one time.

There are basketball fans... there are ping pong fans... And there are baseball fans.

I can't say that I have ever made a psychological study, but I have detected certain traits in certain sport fans. Try it sometime and see if you agree with me that there is no fan like a baseball fan.

I don't know what it is, but the baseball fan comes out with more provocative and time-lasting phrases. They seem so much more critical of their losing team, and so much more boastful of their winning efforts. It's like the mother who can tell her child to "go play in traffic," and beat him black and blue, but don't let anyone else touch or say anything offensive to the "little monster."

Such is the case with the baseball fan. They will boo Mickey Mantle till he is white-fisted gripping the bat trying to shut them up with the big hit. But look out when it comes, all of the Bronx cheers suddenly become the pleasant sound of acknowledgment of their hero. Our Mickey Mantle.

A Little About "Nuthin"

We saw the Scotch Plains-Roselle battle Saturday, which was a good ball game. The Raiders made a good showing, considering they were the underdog, not only in this column, but in all the papers. Chuck Nelson had his boys in high spirits, which helped somewhat to compensate for some of their shortcomings. We can't resist commenting on the performance of Bruce Springer at his new position. We'll let it go at saying, "He did a darn good job," but what makes his performance more noteworthy is that his passing hand was heavily tapped due to his broken index finger, and the two masks protecting his recently broken nose. We would like to see him without these injuries. Don't forget what our prediction was about Springer. In case you haven't read in the sports section, "my bosses" have decided to present a Most Valuable Player trophy to a boy from each of the following high schools: Springfield Regional, Governor Livingston, and Scotch Plains-Fanwood. The coaches of each school will select the winners. We hope to make this an annual presentation. The Spouter likes the Yankees in five games. I don't have enough courage to say they will pull a repeat of the 1927 fiasco.

The Spouter Sez

I'm batting .666 in my own little-guessing-game, and that's just what it is. I've been right very few times in my young life when it comes to picking winners. It's reached the point that however I pick my friends will bet just the opposite way. They are rich now, and I here I am. I'm only kidding.

But anyway, I will make my well-researched selections again, and let you act accordingly.

Springfield over Carteret—This is a heckofa ball club at Springfield. We don't want to give Herb Palmer's "stars" a big head and use the adjectives that would really stuit them, so we'll let it go at that. Last week we said the offense led by Tom Marino and Herb Etzold would be too much for Hillside. The same will hold true against Carteret, but add a couple of more names to that list. Carl Kirchberger at halfback and a real rugged tackle, Monty Sica will make things very unpleasant for the opposition. Yup, this is a real good football team.

North Plainfield over Scotch Plains—The Raiders surprised last week, but they won't this week. Roselle took a lot out of them—physically as well as mentally. It's

Raiders Not Jubilant Over Roselle Tie

In most cases when the underdog manages a tie, it would be reason for jubilation on the part of the coach and his players. Like everything, there are exceptions and the Scotch Plains-Roselle battle Saturday was an exception. There were few signs of victory celebrations, by the underdog Blue Raiders, after their surprising 13-13 tie with the reputed to be powerful Roselle eleven.

Roselle, not Scotch Plains was lucky to come out of the match, even. Neither team was extremely impressive, but the Raiders showed a superior passing game averaging 4.5 yards per carry, and a strong defense.

Roselle didn't exactly sit on their hands the entire ball game, as they were equally tough on defense when they had to be, and showed a better ground attack than the Raiders. At times the Rams switched to a single wing offense which proved to be their most profitable weapon. At the close of the first half Roselle was utilizing the single wing to advantage, but time ran out as they penetrated to the Raiders' 35 yard line.

GOES TO AIR EARLY From the opening play, one could sense that Nelson was going employ a wide-open, exciting type offense when Bruce Springer, overshot his end, John Torbyn, on the Roselle 35 yard line. Torbyn got behind his defenders but the pass was a bit too long.

Before the end of the game, the fans saw 22 passes attempted by Raider quarterbacks, Bruce Springer and Tony Novello with 10 completions, netting them 187 yards.

When the Raiders needed yardage they went to the air. Bruce Springer used a quick pass to John Torbyn and Rick K. Jackson to great advantage, and when the time was right, he hit Torbyn on a 27 yarder for the tying score. If Chuck Nelson doesn't have ulcers by now, it is no fault of Torbyn. On this scoring play, Torbyn made a good grab, then juggled the ball two or three times before he finally found the handle.

RESERVES SHOW WELL Nelson was forced to go to his bench early and often. His starting halfback, Dave Difore was forced out with an ankle injury, only to see Tony Inzana come off the bench to score a touch-down to make it 7-7, on a swing-out pass from Springer.

Guard, Rich Merrifield was sidelined with a 4 stitch-cut over his eye. Curt Calhoun injured his shoulder and will miss the North Plainfield game. Sal Verini has a bad foot, but will probably play Saturday. If Verini is unable to go Saturday, Nelson will be hurting, since he was the leading ground-gainer with 7.2 yards per carry.

Verini doesn't carry much weight on his 150 pound frame, but shows no trepidation in trying to run over tacklers.

Another reserve back that showed signs of being an asset to the Raider cause is Bob Stoveken, reserve fullback. Stoveken picked up two first downs during his brief offensive opportunity. One a 10 yard sprint, and the other a 3 yard buck up the middle.

MUCH TO BE SAID FOR SPRINGER Before the season started, it was thought that the fortunes of the Plains football team rested on Bruce Springer, the converted end. Whatever doubts there were as to his quarterbacking capabilities, they should be completely subdued. He was extremely successful working under two injuries. Monday of last week, he broke the index finger on his passing hand. On Thursday, the jinx came back to haunt him again, this time his nose was broken.

But with his finger heavily bandaged, and two masks protecting his nose, Bruce completed 8-18 passes good for two touchdowns. He also showed he is a running threat when he was trapped attempting to pass, came out of his pocket and raced 20 yards.

NO TIME TO REST

After a bruising battle with Roselle, Chuck Nelson probably would give his right arm for a "soft game" this week, but forget it. North Plainfield will be every bit as rough as the Rams were this past week. Fresh from their 47-2 triumphing over Watching Hills, North Plainfield will be a very uncooperative bunch Saturday. How does Nelson feel about the Canuck?

"Anytime a team rools up a 47-2 score, they must have something. It is going to take a good effort by us to win this one. North Plainfield has balance, two all-county ends, good running and passing and this kid Amo at quarterback."

After hearing Nelson's brief scouting report, one can't help but to sympathize with him.

This Week Should Be Stiff Test

Not Pressed In 19-0 Waltz

"I wanted four touchdowns, before I started substituting."

That's Herb Palmer speaking, the currently "high-flying" mentor at Springfield Regional. I should modify that "high-flying" phrase somewhat, because he tries not to appear as such. He tries not to conceal how much he thinks of this year's team. But it is a very difficult task. Let's face it... Springfield is "loaded for 'bear." Their 19-0 inching over Hillside doesn't tell the true picture. They are more than 19 points better than Hillside.

He has never said it, but allusions of going all the way are certainly preying on his mind. The situation at Springfield is analogous to a pitcher going into the late innings with a no-hitter going for him. It is taboo for anyone in the dugout to make mention of the fact.

They are taking the games one at a time, and hoping for the best. This week they should be put a stiffer test when they encounter a "rough-and-tumble" Carteret night club.

According to Plan—When you coach a ball club of Springfield's caliber, life isn't very exciting. You don't have to hold nightly meetings with your staff, trying to hit on a winning combination, or after plays that will suit your personnel. You don't get bleeding ulcers as you watch the massacre.

You just keep going as you did the previous week, and that is just what Palmer is doing. He gets a few surprises in a ball game. This past Saturday, Palmer was surprised at the type of game Monty Sica turned in. Sica was in the Hillside backfield so often, they were going to put a Hillside uniform on him.

He was also pleased with Carl Kirchberger's running. His 73 yard jaunt in the first period paved the way for their victory. Then came the likes of Herb Etzold, Tom Marino, John Unglaub, John Lies and Joe DeMario who all performed to Palmer's liking.

What Makes A Winning Team This is supposed to be a news story (which we doubt) so we won't dwell too deep on the subject of "what ingredients go into making up a winning football team." But the temptation is too great to pass up a few "choice" comments.

For a team to win, they have to want to win. They have to practice hard, and in general have a good attitude. Of course a little ability thrown in never hurts.

This Springfield team has all of the above ingredients. If they don't win it is no fault but their own. We kind of think they will.

Another thing, what do we mean when we say "win." Are we referring to just a few ball games, or to win more than they lose... not hardly. Remember about the pitcher with a no-hitter in the late innings. In this case it is still the early innings.

all home games. We also sponsor the Thanksgiving dance that is held in the High School.

Mr. Bull said "we are fortunate to have active members who no longer have children on any of the athletic team."

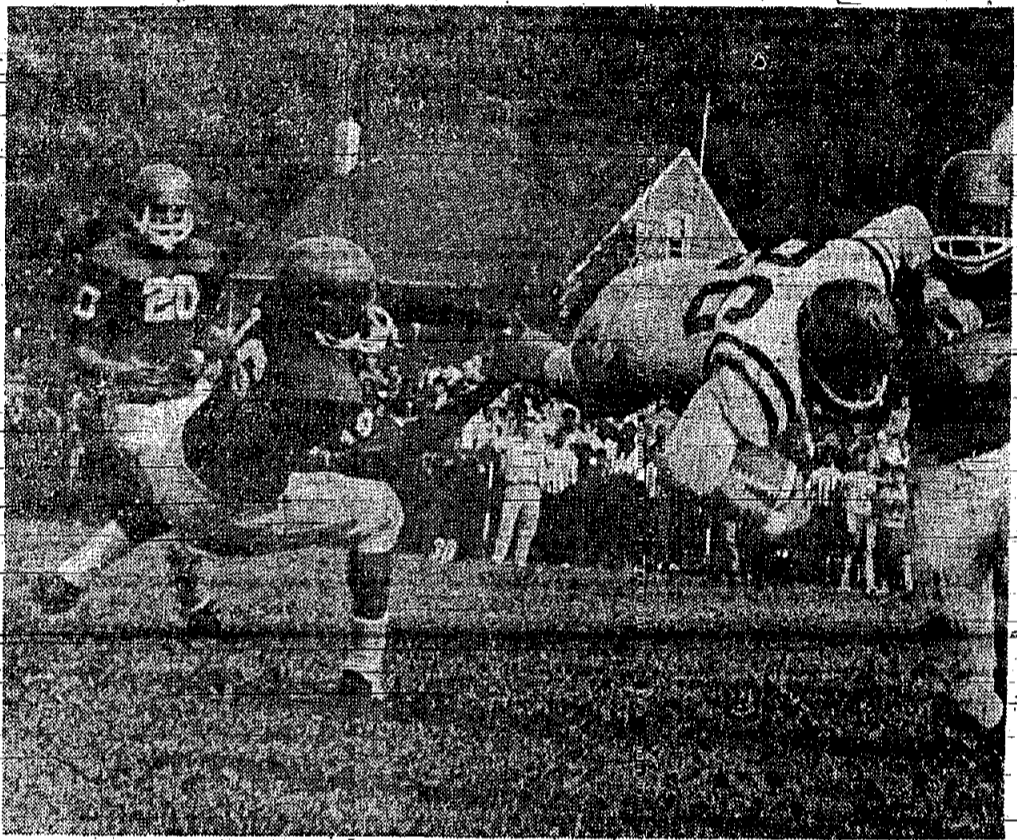

Victor Bleska, our vice president and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brink, Bob Williamson who chairs our membership committee, and his talented wife Marge who handles the refreshments dept. You mothers will best understand as I quote Marge at the last All Sports Dinner for about 300 students and guests. "Its beautiful to watch all that roast beef and food disappear."

Wesley Lewendowski our treasurer is going all out to make our funds grow to meet the activities obligations.

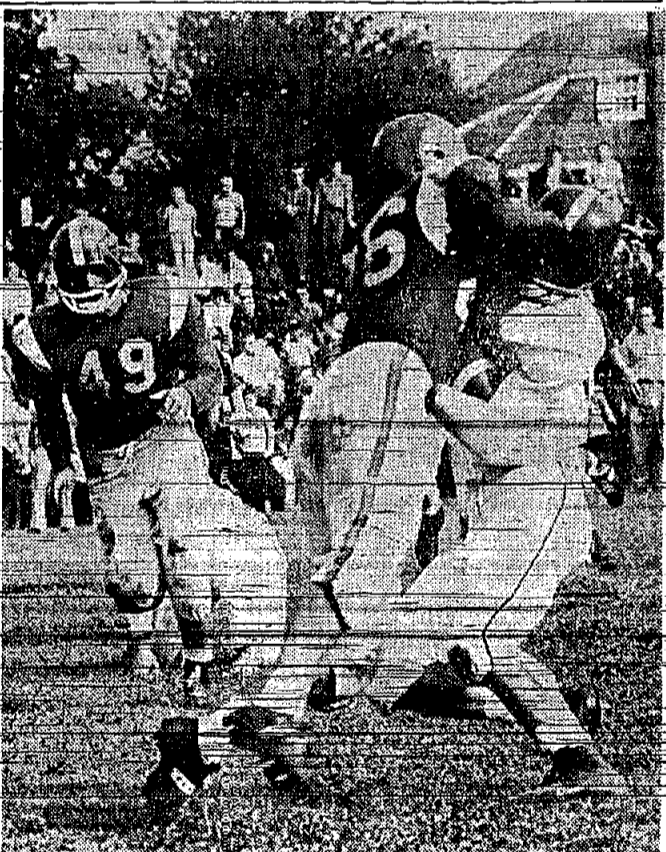

We are asking all the coaches to have their players bring one or more of their parents to this "Booster Kickoff."

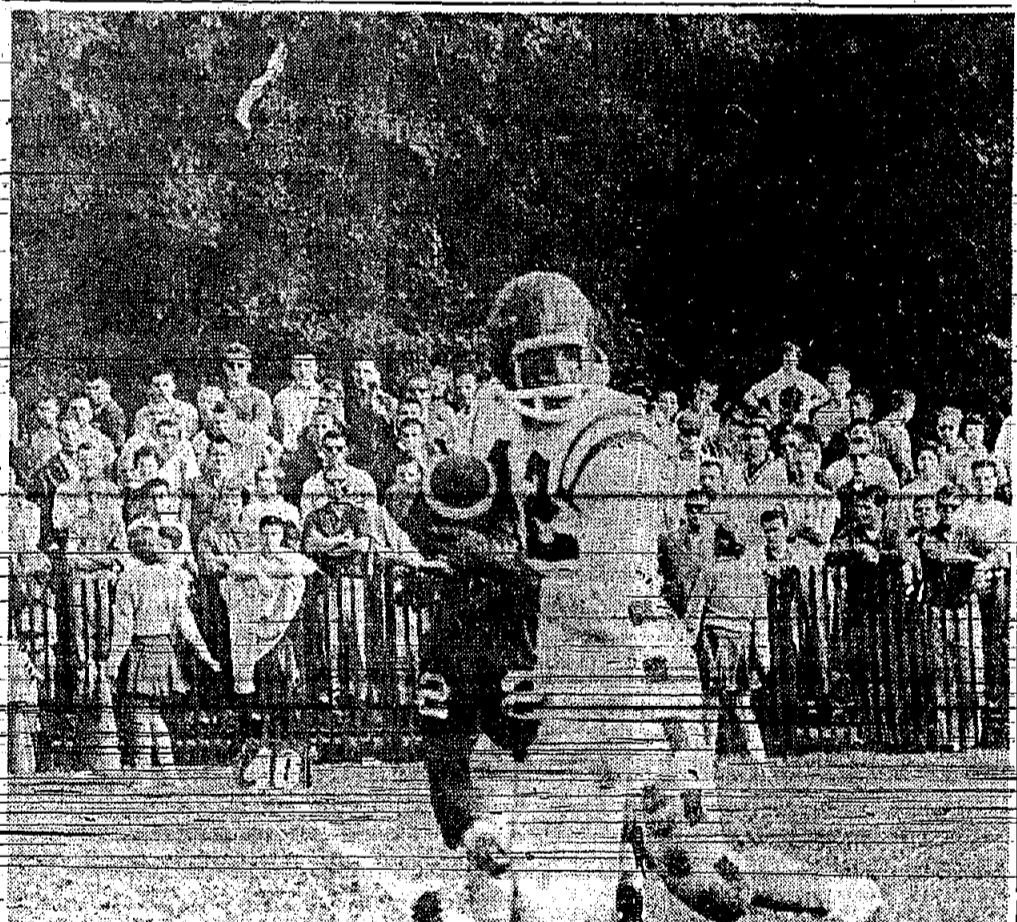

FROM BEHIND—Mike Greenberg, (22) one of Springfield's hard running backs may have had allusions of six points on this run, but was suddenly caught from behind. As it turned out Greenberg picked up five yards and Springfield a 19-0 win over Hillside (Van Photos)

PUT ME DOWN—They put him down alright but it wasn't gently. The player being "put" down is Rick Jackson, Raider end who was on the receiving end of one of the 10 passes completed Saturday by Plains quarterbacks. Porter (16) of Roselle, made the shoe-top tackle.

COMING SOMEPLACE?—Herb Etzold (26) lets ball carrier Schwartz of Hillside know that he is just as tough on defense as offense. His offensive effort of the day was two touchdowns.

GOING-GOING-GONE?—Not quite, as Sal Verini, Scotch Plains made a good grab on this Bruce Springer toss, for a big gain, but was brought down by McDonnell of Roselle. Verini was leading ground gainer for the Raiders with a 7.2 average against a tough Roselle line. (Photo by Fred Keesing)

TIME BUREAU TO ANNOUNCE WORLD SERIES GAME RESULTS

Want to know the score of World Series games? Then dial TRINITY 8-1212. That's the number of New Jersey Bell Telephone Company's time bureau serving the North Jersey area, and this year, as in the past, the bureau will announce scores along with the time of the day. New Jersey Bell said the service relieves newspapers, radio stations and baseball offices of overloading on their ordinarily busy switchboards. Half-inning scores will be announced throughout each game. Following the conclusion of these "October-classics," the final scores will be announced for one hour. In the event of a postponement, an announcement will be made on TRINITY 8-1212 immediately and will continue for one hour after the scheduled start of the game.

tough getting a team up two weeks in a row. The 47-2 win by North Plainfield impressed us... We hope we are wrong.

Manchester over Berkeley Heights—Why shouldn't we. The Highlanders couldn't score against a weak Parsippany team. We wonder if that challenge has presented itself yet????

Bell To Head Booster Club

John E. Bell newly elected president of the Jothanan Dayton Regional Booster Club looks forward to Oct. 3, at 8 P.M. when he will introduce the parents to the Regional Coaching staff in the High School Gym.

Coach Herb Palmer will show moving pictures of some of our previous games and tell us what he plans for the near football future. We would like to have Coach John Swedish tell us of his successful soccer team and how the team is shaping up this year.

The Boosters welcome all parents and interested parties to this meeting. The Booster activties are mainly to work in closer cooperation with the governing body, the board of education and the coaches. We strive for good sportsmanship between schools. The Boosters sponsor the All Sports dinner, which include all Inter School activities, and the cheer leader. The Boosters sponsor the Football dinner, the funds for which are raised by selling programs and refreshments at

Berkeley Booters Bring Back Bacon

Brown To Shake Lineup; Thinks Club Will Produce

First Livingston Team To Produce

When you head out to Governor Livingston School, with an assignment to interview a coach, you almost know beforehand what your story will be about. It's contents will tell how pessimistic the coach is, how little experience he has, and how few games he will win this year.

When we completed our interview with head soccer coach Russ Hunchar, we were sincerely happy to be able to inject some optimism in a story. All things considered, Coach Hunchar thinks his team "will have an interesting soccer season (interpreted this means a winning season) with them coming along fast."

MORE OF A BACKGROUND

It seems strange that Hunchar should be different from the other coaches at Berkeley, and not be faced with a group of raw recruits. Where the soccer mentor benefits, is in the respect that he brought with him a crop of good, experienced players from Springfield. On his starting team he will have boys from Springfield who played when he was head coach at that school. By the way, in his two years at Springfield, Hunchar was nothing short of successful; boasting a 9-4-2 record last year, and coming in second in the state tournament. The 1958 season saw his booters lose only to state champs, Thomas Jefferson, while they were chalking up 9 victories.

He has no illusion of grandeur in his new assignment, by thinking that he will equal or better his Springfield record, but his squad of 33 men could easily complete the best record of all the varsity squads this year at the new school.

TEMPLE BETH AHM

The pins were livelier, or the men were stronger, but either way the scores were higher for the second meeting of the Temple Beth Ahm bowling league. There were high sries scored by L. Seroff 597, A. Glover 568, and M. Cooper who saved the day for his team with a 556. A. Weinberg hit the high game for the day with a 221 and the other 200 or better games were as follows: L. Seroff 212, S. Faber 203, J. Sarokin 201, and A. Greene 200.

M. Billet had the distinction of rolling the first triplicate of the season on three consecutive 145 games.

HE HAS PROBLEMS TOO

Up to this point, you may have the impression that Hunchar has landed at a "Utopia." This is not so. He, like football head, Al Brown, has been faced with some problems. Not as great as Brown, but still problems.

One of the prime requirements of an athletic aggregation, is to have a place to practice, and a place to play their home games. This athletic team has none of the above. Thus far, they have been practicing on a field about one half the size of the official field. When he can do it, Russ will take his boys to the Columbia School where they "can run wild" on those spacious acres.

His home games also pose a problem. Right now there is a good chance that they will be booting the round ball at the Black Brook Park, in Kenilworth.

Another problem he faced was getting the team out to practice. It wasn't because the boys didn't want to practise. They couldn't. Hunchar explained it like this, "I sent out permission slips to be signed by the parents last June in Springfield, but when I got here I had to do it all over again. This along with giving all the candidates a physical exam, put us a week behind in our practise."

SOME REAL TALENT

We started by saying how optimistic Hunchar is, then we told his problems, now that you are completely befuddled, we'll talk about all of his outstanding players that have all kinds of experience.

The four boys that Hunchar seems to put of his confidence in are Bill Sawyer and Greg Palcanis for Clark, and Bill Powers and Russ Doeringer from Springfield. All four of these boys have played a lot of soccer at their former schools and figure to carry the Highlanders to a winning season.

Here is Hunchar's appraisal of the four:

Bill Sawyer, Inside Right—very sound, an all-around threat. A star at Clark.

Greg Palcanis, center forward—a little slow, but manages to get his job done. Should hold the front line together.

Bill Powers, center half-back—This is a great soccer player. Very fast. (Coach Brown wouldn't mind having him on his football team.)

right"—A good soccer player. He is very fast with a good foot.

PLENTY MORE

Along with the above quartet, Hunchar will count heavily on many more booters. Some of them are: Bob Vanling, left fullback, who can play any place; Bob Nolan inside left, from Clark; the outside left spot is wide open. Sophomore, Van Voorhies will be at right half; Frank Antonetti, who has no American experience but played in Italy. He has been in this country six years.

Another spot wide open is goalie. Right now it is a toss-up among Joe Gellings, a senior with no experience; Tony Mele who is also without experience, and Chuck Kelly, who does have experience may go at goalie or left wing.

Some of Hunchar's reserve linemen will be John Wadas and Sam Testa, who both played for Hunchar last year at Springfield.

Ken Gambrell and Richard Neubauer will be seeing a lot of action at the fullback slot. A senior who Hunchar described as fast, with a lot of guts is Donald McNeil.

FIRST TO BRING HOME THE BACON

We interviewed Hunchar prior to his first ball game, which was this past Monday against Hillside. We wrote with our fingers crossed, hoping that the outcome of the game would coincide with our pre-season appraisal. Fortunately, they were the first to bring home a victory in the short history of Governor Livingston High School.

They went against an experienced Hillside team, but as Coach Hunchar said, "we were not phased. They took the offense from the start, and never let up." Hunchar said, "I was really amazed during the first quarter. I thought we would win by 3 goals."

LAST-MINUTE CHANGES

Russ Hunchar had his problems the day of the game. His first chock came when he discovered that Bob Vanling had to transfer back to Springfield Regional. Next, he discovered that one of his stars, Bill Powers had sustained a 15 inch cut on his hand playing touch football Saturday.

He inserted two boys that had no prior experience. He

"We gave a fairly good account of ourselves considering it was our first game," was Coach Al Brown's summation of his ball club's 20-0 defeat at the hands of Parsippany.

"We should've won the game," was assistant coach Mike Suchena's summation of the same game.

From here we proceed to check on some of the statistics available and they indicated that Berkeley Heights showed very little of anything resembling an offense. They picked up a menger—68 yards to average—2.3 per carry. Through the air they completed 3 out of 10 passes for 37 yards.

If this is making a "fairly good account" of themselves, we would hate to see the results if they made a poor account of themselves. I don't think anyone can believe that Coach Brown, who has been riding the crest of one successful season after another before his Berkeley adventure, isn't somewhat disheartened.

The Brownmen literally threw the game away. They fumbled twice deep in their own territory; once on their own three yard line, the other on the 10. But, these are the things you expect when you are coaching a group of young, inexperienced, but very eager youngsters.

Losing is just not part of Brown's constitution. It hurts all the more when you are conditioned to being a winner. This year may not see his coaching ability pay off, but give it time. With every game, Brown instills once more little segments of his background, experience and that desire to win in the Highlanders. If he is a realist, and listening to him speak, we think he is. . . Brown must use every game this year as a foundation for next season.

After watching the Highlanders in action Saturday, he quickly "discovered" that changes must be made. Not only to prepare for next year, but to get a lineup that will produce for him. The latter may not be easy, but he plans to give it a try.

The Manchester game will have only two seniors in the starting lineup, Wait Rice and John DeLuca. Another change is the switch of Jerry DiPasquale from fullback to guard. About DiPasquale, Brown said he "was the most valuable player on the field Saturday."

Jim Fish also received some of the few compliments that Brown handed out. Fish was only the back that hit up in the line with some determination.

Included in the "big shake-up" will probably be newcomers Bob McCann. McCann has just arrived from Connecticut and did a pretty good job at quarterback. Being a junior, along with some potential places him in Brown's plans.

Trying to be as objective as possible, Brown summed up his team's effort like this:

"Most first year teams would have taken a worse beating. I feel their performance was acceptable. Give them time they will come. They knew what they had to do, but they just couldn't do it. We did a good job on pun; returns, our defense was pretty good, but our blocking was very bad. If I can get some "fire-and-dash" into the boys, we'll do alright this year."

And thus we prepare for another Saturday.

Numerous local boys have started their freshman year at Colgate University, Hamilton, New York.

Those who reported to the University on September 17 are: Kenyard K. Ben-Ari, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Ben-Ari, 1433 Fernwood Road, Mountainside; Alfred P. Fenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willy P. Helen Sabo

Congratulations to go Mr. and Mrs. Joe Young, of 32B Troy Drive, on the birth of their first child, James Leland, born at Overlook Hospital on September 15. The Youngs are former residents of Houston, Texas.

Twelve members of a Springfield pinocle club had a wonderful time last week-end when they took off for a vacation in the Poconos. Enjoying themselves at High Point Inn were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bucci, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Litvak, Mr. and Mrs. Ozzie Thiele, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Thiele, Mr. and Mrs. George Kauer, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Appar - all of Hawthorne and Henshaw Avenues.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Blum, of 17 Cypress Terrace, have returned from a week-end in Cleveland, where they helped Diane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Myers, celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Philip DelVecchio entertained twenty-five Republican and Democrat women at coffee last Thursday afternoon at her home at 11 High Point Drive. Guest of honor was Congresswoman Florence Dwyer, who gave the ladies some idea of the duties of a Congresswoman, in addition to mentioning her own particular activities and discussing some current Springfield problems. Mrs. James Cawley and Mrs. Paul Beck assisted Mrs. DelVecchio, by pouring for the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ford, of 38 Ruby Street, are the proud parents of a second son, Ernest Lamont, born on September 20 at Overlook Hospital. Big brother is nineteen-month-old Lewis.

SUN, SPRING PARTY LINE - Mr. William Savarin, of 82 Garden Oval, is back from a ten day Travel Seminar in Mexico, celebrating the one hundred fiftieth anniversary of Mexico's independence. Mr. Savarin is Vice-President of Fischer Brothers Travel Bureau in Irvington, and was representing his agency at the seminar. His stops included such cities as Mexico City, Acapulco, San Jose Puro, Tacos, Cuernavaca and many other places, where he inspected hotels, night clubs and restaurants, for the future counseling of travelers.

Mr. and Mrs. Manny Salman, and daughter, Barbara, of 10 Dogwood Terrace, are delighted to announce the arrival of Arthur Harold, born August 7.

Barbara Salman had a double reason for celebrating since September 12 marked her fifth birthday. On Saturday she had a luncheon party at which her guests included Steven Rosenberg, Carla Lilien, Cindy and Randi Rotwein, Elliot and Robin Leibman, Lynn Schwartz, Michael Kosnett, Debbie Goldman, David Snyder, Claire Whitcomb, Rosa Wyglendowski, Melissa Malovony, Julie Blaufox, Mathew Telser, Steven Blumencrantz, Shelley Zapolitz and Stuart Liebkind.

Resuming their studies at Centenary College for Women in Hackettstown are Miss Nancy Helen Gaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Gaff, of 8 Forest Drive; and Miss Elaine Ethel Kern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Kern, of 224 Baltusrol Avenue. Both young ladies, who started classes on September 26, are entering their senior year at the College.

In the "belated welcomes" department, we'd like to say "Hello" to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Salsky, and five-year-old son, Ricky, who have moved from Brooklyn, N.Y., to 51A Monhain Avenue. Mr. Salsky, who has long been a partner in Kometts, children's wear store on Morris Avenue, has moved to Springfield to take over the active running of the store.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Merklebach, of 24 Brook Street, on the birth of their son, Thomas Kurt. The young man, who was born at Overlook Hospital on September 14, has a seventeen-month-old brother, Steven Paul.

Newcomers to Springfield are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Montesano and family, who have taken up residence at 10 Leslie Court. The family, which formerly resided in Irvington, includes Linda, Medelaine and Joseph, who are seven, four and one years old respectively. Mr. Montesano is with the Palma Company in Mountainside.

Mrs. Pauline Riley, of 311 No. View Terrace, has returned from an Atlantic City convention of the executives of Emmons Jewelers, Inc. Mrs. Riley, who is a branch manager of Emmons, was one of the speakers at the convention.

Edward S. Foster, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Foster, 53 Wentz Avenue, has won a cadet promotion at Norwich University in Northfield, Vermont. Mr. Foster, who is a senior at the military college, has been named Cadet Colonel, and thus is the Cadet Commander of the regiment. He also has been named a member of the cadet cadre which helps in the indoctrination of incoming freshmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCready have moved from Bloomfield to 31 Warner Avenue. Youngsters in the family are four-year-old Anthony and two-year-old Judith. Mr. McCready is associated with the Prudential Insurance Company in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Greenberg have flown to Hawaii for a ten day stay in our new fiftieth state. Mr. Greenberg is affiliated with Custom Casting Company of Newark. The couple resides at 95 Evergreen Avenue.

Sharey Shalom Holds Membership Dance

It had been previously announced that Temple Sharey Shalom would hold a "Yom Kippur Dance" on Saturday evening, October 2.

This dance is being given by Sharey Shalom's membership committee and their women's group, for congregants, their friends and prospective members, and therefore is a "Membership Dance" even though it falls on October 2, which, until sundown of that day, is Yom Kippur.

The Membership Dance will start at 9:00 p.m., in the Edison Recreation Center on Morris Avenue in Summit.

WOMEN'S CLUB NEWS

The lazy summer season has said its final farewell and it's time to turn our thoughts to the projects and social activities that are lined up for members of the Springfield Woman's Club. Our departments and committees again have come up with some ideas that promise entertainment and good fun for us, so let's start our club year with good attendance at our first Fall meeting on Wednesday, October 5, 1960.

WAYS AND MEANS

Just a reminder that tickets are now available for the Dinner and Dance at the Bow and Arrow Manor, West Orange to be held on Saturday, October 22, 1960. Please invite your friends and make this first project a social success. Ways and Means Committees members may be contacted for tickets and Mrs. Fred Mercurio, chairman, and Mrs. James Cawley, co-chairman, will be glad to supply any additional information.

Trail Garden Club Lists Activities For Coming Season

Sunday's rain did not deter more than 5000 garden lovers who visited "Nature's Wonderland," Trailside Garden Club's annual Flower show at Trailside Museum in Watchung Reservation. Nor had "Donna, done more than slightly depleted blooms which had been guarded for showing in the horticulture classes.

Mrs. H. A. Leedom of the Mountside Garden Club received an Award of Distinction for her most simple arrangement in "Woodland Shrines" and in the Junior Arrangement section Patricia Weller, an eighth grade student, received the Junior achievement award for her depiction of "Nature Study."

Of great interest in the arrangement section were five arrangements by guests under the theme "Bird Watch." Exhibitors included Mrs. Jackson Ayo Jr. of Elizabeth, Mrs. Harold L. Brooks of Westfield, Mrs. Phillip G. Brueckner of Livingston, Mrs. Edward J. Drury Bernard F. Murphy of Fanwood, back of Florham Park, and Mrs. all accredited judges.

Under theme of "Snowflake" a miniature, Mrs. Robert Williamson of Dig & Delve Garden

Club, Cranford, took first; Mrs. Harry Brington of Sunny Acres, Cranford, second; Mrs. Joseph W. Turk of Fanwood Garden Club, third; and Mrs. Keith Slater of Berkeley Heights, Honorable Mention. In the small arrangement class "Enchanted Desert," Mrs. Harold Pachlke of Spade & Hoe took first; Mrs. Edward Ostroff, also of Spade & Hoe, second; Mrs. Raymond Foster of Foothill Garden Club, third; and Mrs. Edward De Voikin of Crane's Ford Gardeners, Honorable Mention. The class of "Indian Summer" saw first won by Mrs. William McCrady of Dig & Delve, second by Mrs. Walter Saultz of Trailside; third by Mrs. N. L. Wasserbach of Trailside and honorable mentions by Mesdames C. J. Yungler of Plainfield and Richard Wal-

In "Dance of the Wood Nymphs" first award went to Mrs. Kenneth R. Doremus of Trailside, while third went to Mrs. Nelson Beam of Railway Manor Garden Club. "Hillside H. G. F. Rieter of Garden Club Hoe; second to Mrs. John Suski of Mountain Trail; third to Mrs. Torg Tonnesson of "Rake and Harvest" brought a first to Mrs. of Westfield. Under "Metamorphosis," combining fresh and dried material, Mrs. John Le Via of Railway Manor took first of Fanwood Garden Club, second; Mrs. John Glockner of first; Mrs. William H. Blaj Jr. Mrs. Sherrie's Garden Club, third; and Mrs. Joseph Kuntz of Dig and Delve, honorable mention. "Reflection" received a first award for Mrs. Robert L. Coolege of Mountside Garden Club; second to Mrs. Thomas Zarinko of Union; third to Mrs. Harry Irwin of Mountain Trail; and honorable mention to Mrs. Edith of Trailside, C. A. Hoffman also of Trailside and Mrs. Milan of Seeds & Seeds, Cranford. The class of "Indian Summer" saw first won by Mrs. William McCrady of Dig & Delve; second by Mrs. Walter Saultz of Trailside; third by Mrs. N. L. Wasserbach of Trailside and honorable mentions by Mesdames C. J. Yungler of Plainfield and Richard Wal-

Trailside and honorable mention to Mrs. K. R. Doremus also of Trailside. In "Mountain Greenery" Mrs. Joseph L. Turk of Fanwood won first; Mrs. F. J. Carrel of Westfield, second; Mrs. J. Kane of Elizabeth, third and honorable mention to Mrs. Edward H. Clendenin of Plainfield and Mrs. John LaVia of Railway Manor. A most interesting array of Corsages under the title "Rainbow," showed ten entries. The Blue-was-won-by Mrs. J. R. Weiss of Bake & Hoe; second by Mrs. Paula Grove of Mountain Trail; third by Mrs. Harold Walsor of Green Thumb of Cranford; and honorable mention to Mrs. Earl Shea of Green Thumb, Mrs. Thomas A. Zarinko of Union and Mrs. Melva Toll of the Garden Circle of Westfield.

In the Junior Arrangement section, entries were beautiful and varied, for all ages. In the class for thirteen to sixteen year-olds, "Lasting Beauty" a miniature, first was won by Anne Louise Berry of the Westfield Junior Club; second by Judy Kutter of Fanwood Teenage Club; third by Sandra Trepow of Fanwood; while honorable mentions went to Doris Reagan of Fanwood; Jan Rothemberger of Fanwood; and Barbara Boehkay also of Fanwood. For "Ages 7 to 12," "Earth's Treasures," the blue was won by Bill Dickey of Green Thumb Juniors; red to Constance Beam of Railway Manor Juniors; yellow to Jo Ann Hachmann of Washington Rock Scout Troop, and honorable mentions to Debbie (Joni) of Foothills Juniors, Nancy Albertson also of Foothills Juniors and Diane Smith of Westfield Juniors. "Nature Study" for 7th, 8th and 9th grade pupils, saw first award going to Patricia Weller who won the Junior Achievement; second to Judy Delnero of Fanwood Teenage Club; third to Gail Messermer of Fanwood; and honorable mentions to Elaine Mone of Washington-Rock and brecker of Spade & Hoe.

"Cold is the Wind" brought a first to Mrs. Fred Budde of Fanwood, second to Mrs. Berny B. Gebert of Trailside; third to Mrs. Charles Dickey of Beth Ilen Dickey of Green Thumb Juniors. "Fairies Glen" a Terrarium exhibit for youngsters up to and including third grade, had the first awarded to ally Foster, a five year old of Foothills Juniors, second by Janice Beam of Railway Manor Juniors; third by Beth Bradley of Fanwood and honorable mentions by Bootsie tonka of Foothills Juniors and Bill Dickey of Green Thumb Juniors. "Winter Wonderland" for 4th, 5th and 6th graders, saw the blue ribbon award go to Laurie Bradley of Fanwood Juniors, red to Christie Riddle of Westfield Juniors; yellow to Deborah Beam of Railway Manor Juniors; and honorable mentions to Kathleen Ott of Washington Rock and Elaine Mone of the same troop.

"Donna's" recent incursions into the Union County area did deplete the quantity of blooms planned for exhibit Sunday, but not the quality of those on display. J. F. Nelson of the Westfield Men's Garden Club once again came through, with top honors by gathering thirteen first awards, twelve seconds, two thirds and three honorable mentions. Many of his awards were in the Dahlia Classes. Mrs. F. R. F. F. F. of Scotch Plains, reaped seven blue ribbons, two red ribbons and four yellows. Mrs. Julie Winchur of Foothills and Trailside Garden Club received two firsts, two seconds and two thirds. Mrs. Kenneth Doremus of Trailside Garden Club won one first, two seconds, one third and one honorable mention, while her husband won one second award. Another husband and wife team who took several awards were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sachrist of Cranford. Together they corralled four firsts, two seconds and one third. Mrs. Charles Dickey, President of Trailside Garden Club won two seconds, two thirds and one honorable mention.

Other firsts in the Horticulture Division were won by Mrs. H. H. Blair Jr. of Fanwood who took three in Zinnias; Mrs. Evelyn Holcombe of Foothills Garden Club; Mrs. K. H. Slater of Berkeley Heights; Mrs. Julius Colucci of Mountainside; Mrs. J. Kuntz of Cranford; Mrs. Louise Cohen of Springfield; Mrs. L. E. Minkel of Mountainside Garden Club in the Tuberosus class, winning and Award of Merit on her collection. Mrs. J. Cambria of Westfield; Mrs. Keith Slater of Berkeley Heights; Mrs. Marie Flynn of Railway Manor; Mrs. F. K. Whitaker of Mountainside Garden Club; Mrs. C. A. Hashim of Cranford; E. E. Philo of Sunny Acres and Trailside Garden Club; Mrs. G. Hudson of Westfield, two on African Violets; Mrs. G. Hudson, Mrs. M. McLaughlin, Russell Pierce of Clark and Thomas Moffat of Berkeley Heights.

Second ribbons went to Mrs. Marie Flynn of Railway, (4) Thomas Moffat of Berkeley Heights, Mrs. J. Kuntz of Cranford; Mrs. H. Blair, Jr. of Fanwood; Mrs. C. Dickey of Cranford (3) Mrs. Alveda Sull of Clark, Mrs. Louis Cohen of Springfield; Mrs. M. L. Wasserbach of Summit; Mrs. J. Cambria of Westfield (3); Mrs. H. ## ENGLISH LESSONS AT SUMMIT YWCA SEPT. 28

English classes for all non-English-speaking people for their 10th year at the Summit YWCA opened Wednesday evening, September 28 from 8 to 9:30.

Initiated by the YWCA because of the great need for this service which was not available elsewhere in the vicinity, these classes have grown to an annual two fifteen-week semesters in the fall and winter of 150 men and women living in the Summit area who come from a wide variety of countries. There are usually from 7 to 10 groups which include all graduations from beginners to advanced. Educational backgrounds are very diversified from 3 or 4 years elementary schooling to persons with University graduate school degrees. Tuition charges are extremely low as the entire teaching staff is a volunteer one. Students pay for their own textbooks especially prepared for this purpose and published very reasonably in paper cover form.

Membership in the English classes includes all privileges of YWCA membership. Young unmarrieds join in the Social Dances and Sunday Drop-Ins, all can share in Association events, join for classes or clubs if time permit or work on committees. Some special parties are planned during the year for the classes as a whole. Teachers help with some of the many problems which are difficult for newcomers to solve. Perhaps one of the greatest advantages of this service is the opportunity provided for these newcomers to meet one another and make friends and to pool information of value in their adjustment to a new country.

Because of the obvious language difficulty inherent in publically, the YWCA asks that anyone knowing of persons who may be interested in these classes explain the opportunity to the persons involved or phone the information to Mrs. Harry H. Dampman, Program Assistant at the YWCA CR 3-4242. Students may enter at any time of the year.

Title Hopes For Raider Booters

Formichella Has 7 Vets Plus Checchio

It took many bruises, hard hours of work, and many sad Saturdays but it finally came after 11 seasons — a winning football season at Scotch Plains. A similar situation is currently prevailing in another sport at the new high school. Soccer is now going through the dry stage.

Fortunately, we don't think it will be an 11 year siege. Coach Al Formichella in his third year at the helm should go over the 500 mark this year. He has seven returning lettermen including Amerigo Checchio, who Formichella thinks "will be named to some all-state team." Ignorant of last year's record he asked the coach if he thought his record would improve over last year's. "I don't think that would be asking for too much. I think it will improve enough to win the Watchung Conference." Last year the Formichella's booters won only 2 of 15 contests, tying five.

Plenty of Talent The soccer skipper regards Checchio with high esteem, but there will be an assortment of talent available to back him up. Along with Checchio at center forward, Formichella has Pete Cressman at right wing, Joe Apperzato at right inside and Harold Hamlet at left inside. They are all lettermen. To go with this veteran line, Formichella will use Fred Loy at left half, Bill Brynildson at right half and John Mandy at goal. Rounding out the starting lineup is Jules Pushman at outside left, Tom Hackett at center half, Scot Callahan at left fullback, and Butch Landers at right fullback.

Some Competent Reserves Along with this balanced and experienced first squad Formichella will be able to choose from any number of reserves. He has Dave Hodgkins on the line and Bob Leonard, Dick Hill, Bill Rowe in the backfield. Rowe was switched from the line. Another reserve who Formichella is very high on is Freshman, Renato Marcovecchio.

First Home Game Friday Tomorrow will be the first time in three years that Raider boosters will be able to see their team at home. In the past all games have been played on the road. The game starts at 3:45 at the Kenilworth field.

For a change of pace, come out and watch this good soccer team in action.

Simple Simon Children's Show

Do you want your child to be able to see real, live actors? Here is his opportunity to support the Children's Theatre!

THE ADVENTURES OF SIMPLE SIMON, a colorful production with songs and dances, will be presented by The Reveler of Union on Saturday, October 8, at Columbia School in Berkeley Heights. Performances will be given at 1:30 and 3:30, and tickets are 50c per child and 50c per accompanying adult.

The Drama Study Group of the Berkeley Heights Branch of the American Association of University Women is sponsoring this non-profit venture, and it is hoped that it will be just the first of a series of live theater presentations for the children in this area.

Tickets and information may be obtained from Mrs. Raymond Taylor at CR. 7-1095, Mrs. J.A. Jaffe at CR. 7-6841, or Mrs. W. R. Donnelly at FA. 2-9440.

Local Couple Celebrates 25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oberst, 30 Beverly Road, Springfield, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday, September 25 at the National Turner Hall in Irvington.

Over 100 guests were entertained at the cocktail party and buffet. Married in the Evangelical Church, Newark, Mr. and Mrs.

Oberst came to Springfield from Irvington six years ago. They have an 11-year-old girl, Susan.

Leonard Habig of Westchester, Pennsylvania, the best man at the Oberst wedding, and Mrs. Margaret Nash of Union, the flower girl, were also at the party.

Couple Celebrates 20th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stogryn, 227 Apple Tree Lane, Mountside, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary, Sept. 10 at their home with a cocktail and dinner party. Approximately 60 friends and relatives attended.

The Stogryn's wedding attendants and their respective spouses also were there. They are Mr. and Mrs. James Alden, Roselle; Mr. and Mrs. William Kubida, Maplewood; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stogryn, Newark; Mr. and Mrs. James Alcross, Lakewood; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lytwyn, Irvington; Mrs. Stephen Dawiec, Newark; Miss Mary Shpakowich, Irvington, and Miss Lillian Mischuk, Newark.

Anthony Luzba entertained the guests with accordion music and much fun was had by all guests.

Thoughtstirs To Discuss Modern Expression In The Arts

Next meeting of the YWCA Thoughtstirs is scheduled for Wednesday evening, October 5th at 8:15. Art, music and literature of the modern school will be discussed. Mrs. Allan Davis of Murray Hill will talk on Picasso, Mrs. Rex Wiese of Summit will talk about modern music with works of Stravinsky as examples, and Mrs. William Highleyman, also of Summit, will review the literary approach of T. S. Eliot.

Members of a similar discussion club from the Plainfield YWCA will be guests on this occasion.

Thoughtstir chairman for October and November will be Mrs. Thomas Richards of Chatham.

All young women under 40 years of age, married or single, are cordially invited to join in these invigorating exchanges of ideas. Thoughtstirs meet the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of each month from 8:15 to 11 p.m., concluding sessions with refreshments.

Call the YWCA at CR 3-4242 for further information.

Y Homemakers Club To Meet

Three sessions on October 6, 20th and November 3rd, have been scheduled by the YWCA strations and work on Christmas crafts for home decoration and gifts.

This group, open to all housewives interested in a "night out", meets regularly the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month from 8:30 to 11:00 p.m.

Yom Kippur Services To Be Held Friday

Temple Beth Ahm will hold its Yom Kippur Services at Dayton Regional High School on Friday, Sept. 30, at 6:30 P.M. and on Saturday, Oct. 1, 1960 at 9:00 A.M. The services will be led by Rabbi Reuben R. Levine and chanted by Cantor Irving Kramerman.

Junior services will be held at the American Legion Hall on Saturday, Oct. 1, 1960 at 11:00 A.M.

DON'T HANG AROUND HOME

(even when it's raining)

Go buy her a Flameless Electric Dryer

Put the washing where it belongs. In a new all-electric dryer it's always drying time, whatever the weather. Everything from shag rugs to dainty laces tumble-dry gently in dust-free, electrically heated air. There's no wind-whipping or sun-fading. So your clothes come out softer and fluffier than if dried outside. Less ironing's needed. And a flameless electric dryer can't fume-fade colored things. Electric drying's easier, too. No more hauling heavy baskets. No more stooping and straining to hang things up. And the cost? Low! A full load dries for less than five cents. Get a new electric dryer. It will be great for your wife — and your clothes!

Summit College Club Sponsors Annual Benefit Book Sale

The Summit College Club is sponsoring a book sale which will open at 9:30 Saturday, October 8, and continue throughout the following week (except Sunday) until 6 p.m., October 15, at 120 Summit Avenue, corner of DeForest Avenue, Summit. This general sale will be preceded by the offering of children's books on Friday afternoon, October 7, from 2:30 to 6 o'clock. Included in the sale of more than 30,000 books will be current best sellers, first editions, reference books, mysteries, texts and also sheet music, records and art prints. Many of the rare and curious books will be of interest to bibliophiles, collectors and dealers.

The primary purpose of the annual book sale, in its twenty sixth year, is to augment the scholarship fund which the local group maintains. During the past year, scholarships have been awarded to ten worthy area girls for study in colleges and universities.

On a national scale, the Summit College Club supports the awarding of fellowships and grants for study on a graduate level by the American Association of University Women, of which the club is an affiliate. Although these grants are not provided directly to a local student for graduate work or research a recommendation for such a fellowship made by the Summit College Club receives consideration by AAUW.

School Savings Program Begins Seventh Year In Local Schools

The 1960-61 School Savings program in the public and parochial school of Mountaineer and Garwood began its seventh year of operation this week under the sponsorship of Westfield Federal Savings.

Include among the schools in the program is the Luther Hall day school of Westfield which is starting its fourth year. The total enrollment for this year will be over 6500 children for an increase of approximately 300 new children in the Central Union County grade schools according to Mrs. Ellen L. Senne, Director of School Savings for Westfield Federal Savings.

As in past years, this program is held every Tuesday in each school as a regular class room savings activity which is designed to teach children how and why to save money and how to use a savings pass book. The program is conducted in any school where the school authorities request it and is entirely voluntary on the part of the pupils.

her on Tuesday. This eliminated handling loose change and entering the amounts in the passbook by the teacher.

The importance of thrift education has been recognized by increasing numbers of school officials in recent years. This is evidenced by nationwide surveys which show more pupils in more schools saving more money each year.

Most of the money saved by school children comes from gifts, allowances and money they earn for themselves. The most popular reasons for saving by children are summer camp, bicycles, radios, graduation, college and school clothes. They will quickly agree to set aside regularly a part of their allowance or earnings for the things they really desire.

School Savings stresses the importance of systematic saving rather than the amount of money saved and to this end Westfield Federal Savings awards during the spring vacation special Honor Savings Certificates to those who have saved every Tuesday.

The thrift habit thus helps to complete a well rounded education for the student and when carried over in later life, makes for a happier future.

Rev. Faramelli Is Guest Speaker

The Women's Work of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Westfield, will inaugurate the fall season with a Corporate Communion, Thursday, October 6 at 12:30 P.M. in the church.

Immediately following, luncheon will be served in the Parish House by the church headed by Mrs. Charles Mey.

The guest speaker will be the Rev. Norman J. Faramelli, Director of Religious Education at St. Paul's. Mr. Faramelli's topic will be "Religious Education and St. Paul's."

All women in the parish are urged to attend the Corporate Communion, luncheon and meeting. A special invitation is extended to the new members of the parish.

Plains Booters

A net trick by Emanuel Kyrios of Chatham played a major part in dampening the score about of the Scotch Plains booters Kyrios paved the way for a 3-3 victory over At Fortmichella's boys.

The Eskimos tallied in every period. Mike Burton scored in the first and Kyrios dented the nets in the second for a 2-0 lead. Amerigo Ciccio, Scotch Plains' center forward, put his team into the scoring column before the half.

Kyrios' second goal gave Chatham a 3-1 margin at the three-quarter marker. The third tally early in the final stanza just about wrapped up the verdict for the hosts.

Renato Marcovecchio, booted in a 20-yarder for the visitors and John Rennie countered with Chatham's last tally. Fullback Tom Hekett of the Raiders got in on the scoring when his 40-yard booming kick glanced off a defense man's shoulder, and into the net.

The score:
SCOTCH PLAINS—Mandi, G. Chatham, H. Hackett, J. Landres, B. Bryndson, Ch. Leonard, M. Marcovecchio, M. Hamletto, H. Ciccio, J. Appavalle, H. Gressman, or Substitutes—Mulliken, Hodgkins, Feltonner, Royce, Smith, Kopf, Bell.
CHATHAM—Darrell, G. Clark, J. Wertz, J. Hadley, J. Storey, C. Schweitzer, H. Young, J. Gagnier, J. Rennie, G. Kyrios, J. Burich, or Substitutes—J. H. 1 0 2-3
Chatham 3 1 1 2-3
Goals: Scotch Plains—Ciccio, Marcovecchio, Hackett; Chatham—Kyrios, H. Rennie, Burton.

Nursery School Holds Open House

Holy Cross Christian Nursery School, 639 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, will hold an "Open House" on Saturday morning, October 1, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Pastor Lester Messerschmidt has announced.

The general public is invited to come and inspect the new facilities and equipment of the school which opens Monday, Oct. 3rd.

On hand to greet parents and visitors will be Mrs. Joseph Riege, teacher of the nursery school; Mr. Arthur Boehm, chairman of the congregation's Board of Parish Education; and Pastor Messerschmidt.

Holy Cross Christian Nursery School is open to pre-kindergarten children of all faiths from the age of 3 to 5. Sessions will be held Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from Friday from 9:00 - 11:30 a.m. It is approved by both the city and state.

A limited number of openings is still available. Tuition is $18.00 per month.

Laughlin of Cranford; Betty Fundock of Clark; Mary Schromer of Mountaineer; Mrs. Russell Pierce, Clark; Mrs. E. G. Herman of Mountaineer; Mrs. Alveda Sult of Clark; Mrs. Julius Colucci of Mountaineer; Mr. F. E. WWhitaker of Westfield; Mrs. H. Synder of Mountaineer and Mrs. R. Pierce of Clark.

Eight Juniors exhibited in their section of Horticulture, with young Bill Dickey of Cranford gathering three firsts and one second. Both Ellen Dickey look one first, one second and one third. Joanne Holcombe of Mountaineer won two firsts, one second; Marjorie Esposito of Clark won two Honorable Mentions; Robert Carter of Berkeley Heights one first; Helen Sult of Clark one first; Joy Gunther of Cranford Boy Scouts Explorer Post No. 80 also a first; and Betty Ann Fundock of Clark a second.

In the educational and conversion exhibits, which most of the viewers found very interesting, comments concurred that the orchid exhibit by the Orchid society of New Jersey was the most outstanding. Those who braved the rain during the afternoon found their excursion well worthwhile.
