Murphy Belts Democrats; Decries Use of Hatchetman

Office-Seeker Promises End of Political Machine

Paul T. Murphy, Republican candidate for the Springfield Township Committee, in his release to the Springfield Sun, denounces the "political machine" in Springfield. He feels that Mayor Vincent Bonadies' program could have been accomplished by the two previous administrations or by the four remaining Democrats on the Committee "after his defeat."

Following is Mr. Murphy's complete statement:

"The recent two pronged attack by Mr. Bonadies and Mr. Balentine demonstrates forcefully the tactics a political machine will use to perpetuate itself in office and the penalty any candidate who dares to oppose it must be prepared to pay. To the gentle strains of 'You take the high road and I'll take the low road' the two-B's began their campaign duet!

"Mr. Bonadies outlined a program which can be readily accomplished by the four remaining Democrats after his defeat. In fact, if it was anything more than a pious hope, it could have been readily done in his two previous administrations.

"Mr. Balentine, on the other hand, accepts the role of hatchetman with great gusto. Since he is unable to answer what I have said in previous statements, he first twists and distorts those statements into what he wishes I had said and then replies to his own distortions. The epithet 'mudslinger' the failure to observe the usual amenities of Mr. Balentine, all bear the hallmark of previous statements by his boss. The voice is that of Mr. Balentine but the hand is the same overworked ghost writer."

"The statement that our Mayor is a full time Mayor comes as a surprise to one who knows he is a Motor Vehicle Agent, a business man, and a politician. It also demonstrates a shocking lack of understanding of Township Committee government. If Mr. Balentine has abdicated his responsibility to participate in every decision to one-fifth of the committee, Mr. Bonadies, let me assure him I will not do so to the next Mayor.

"Next week, I assume, someone else will join the discordant duet to form a terrible trio until ultimately, on election eve, we shall have a chorus of cacophony. The striking thing to me is that neither member of the duet explained or retracted any of the admitted misstatements made concerning me. Their failure demonstrates that the misstatements were deliberate.

"It is encouraging to an undecided voter that the political machine recognizes my candidacy as a serious threat to its survival. During the past weeks, many of Mr. Bonadies' former supporters have swung into our camp. They are, to say the least, disenchanted with his conduct since he achieved one party government in the coming month, we invite all persons interested in two party representative government to join us in our fight to restore it to Springfield. We can promise you no reward except good government and the end of a political machine."

Bonadies Pledges Continued Economy in Town Gov't.

Dwyer Supports Bonadies And Local Highway Stand

At a meeting before the "Springfield Young Republicans" at Evergreen Lodge Florence P. Dwyer, Republican Congresswoman, stated that she was supporting the local governing body's fight against the location of Rt. 78 through Springfield.

Mrs. Dwyer stated that Mayor Bonadies had exhausted every recourse available to him in Washington. Mrs. Dwyer went on to say that she had arranged various appointments for Mayor Bonadies and other township officials with the Federal Bureau of Roads and other government agencies.

Mrs. Dwyer further stated that Congress should require the state highway department to permit communities such as Springfield to prepare alternative plans and give them full consideration in advance of irrevocable action, such as acquisition of rights-of-way.

The Republican Congresswoman said she felt that state planning for Rt. 78 through Springfield had been entirely unsatisfactory and had failed to take due consideration of the "human factors" involved in highway locations. She urged that an independent engineering firm resolve the differences in the municipal cost estimate of an alternate route and the state alignment.

Sibole declared that "the developments of the present campaign for the local governing body have produced a clear dividing line with Bonadies on the side of the administration's outstanding record of progress and Paul T. Murphy, who has offered the community little while criticizing everything, standing on the other side."

Sibole stated: "I have watched the present campaign of Mr. Murphy unfold and have been disturbed by his disregard for the dignity and decency of public office. Mr. Murphy has resorted to distortions, half-truths and questionable political promises. He has attempted to create issues where none existed, without regard to the facts and without regard to the consequences to their families. I believe this is wrong. I feel that Mr. Murphy knows it is wrong, but he nevertheless persists in such unjustifiable attacks."

"For example," Sibole said, "I am proud to be a member of the present administration and particularly proud of the entire governing body's record in holding the tax line. I may not always agree with the views of my colleagues on procedure, but I share with them the same goals and objectives, namely, the achievement of maximum efficiency in local government at the least possible cost to the taxpayer."

Shares Objectives
 Mr. Murphy, nevertheless, has attempted to distort this record of economical municipal government achieved by the present administration. He does not mention our lower tax rate. He does not mention our healthy financial condition; he avoids

Emphasizes 24-Point Tax Reduction Here Since 1958

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies declared today that the 24-point reduction in taxes here since 1958 is a direct result of year-round concern for economy in government that continues to keynote the present administration's responsiveness to the taxpayer.

Speaking before afternoon and evening home audiences of Republicans and Democrats, Bonadies stated: "I believe there is one prime issue that can never be ignored by those seeking public office. Namely, what is being done and what will be done to keep our taxes down at no sacrifice in municipal services."

"In 1958 our tax rate of $3.77 marked an end to years of runaway taxes in Springfield under past administrations who dodged this issue with indifference and lack of concern. Not only was the past continuous spiraling climb of taxes halted, but the governing body can point with pride to the 1960 tax rate of $5.53 that reflects a two-year reduction of 24 points, despite the addition of a needed new school."

Record Speaks
 "Economy in Springfield's government continues to be the responsibility of every member of the governing body and must also be that of every candidate for public office. The administration's record in this regard speaks for itself in contrast to the election-time-only voice of a political candidate who cannot himself measure up to this record in any degree and only offers criticism of everything and everyone."

Bonadies added: "I ask for the support of all residents of Springfield in behalf of my reelection to the governing body because I have pledged myself to help continue this record of economic progress and not to destroy it as my political opponent proposes through irresponsible and empty words that offer only lip service.

"Springfield is at the crossroads of its development, when maximum efficiency in government is essential if we are to continue to progress ahead through sound and responsible administration.

No Empty Words
 "There can be no room for experimentation with the hopes and requirements of our citizens to build even a better community as we move forward. We can measure in deeds, not empty words, our economic progress and our concern to keep going forward.

"Our present administration has demonstrated this in its two years of operation, by turning back the tide of governmental indifference which we inherited. This is not the result of one political party pitted against another, but a reflection of individual desires of the present governing body serving you to truly represent good government and honest government.

"If my political opponent ever had a single constructive contribution to make for our community, why has he kept it a secret until election time, and why does he still campaign not on economy in government, but on personal attacks that reflect his inability to serve in public office?"

GE Plant Picketed

Picketing was reported in Springfield on October 3 at the precision parts and X-ray department plant of the General Electric Co.

Patrol cars were at the plant in the morning, but there were no incidents, reported Police Captain Leslie E. Joyner. He said the plant was opened.

Capt. Joyner stated that the strike created a traffic hazard in Route 22 where the plant is located. He indicated that police were at the scene to make sure there was no violence toward any employees who crossed the picket lines to report to work.

Numbers Dwindle
 He noted that there were about 35 pickets at the plant when it opened, but the number later dwindled to 15.

General Electric also operates a magnetic materials and metallurgical products plant at 760 Colfax Ave., Kenilworth. A spokesman for the plant said that it was not affected by the walkout.

He said that the plant operates under a union contract in Detroit and that the workers are represented by the United Auto Workers who are not involved in the strike.

A spokesman at the Springfield plant said that most of the employees who crossed the picket line were non-union and "except" employees. He said that one hourly employee crossed the picket line and experienced no difficulty.

The spokesman said that no manufacturing was being conducted at the plant Tuesday.

Local Artist Has Second Book Published-Sculpture

Mrs. Lillian Johnson, 143 Baltusrol Way, Springfield, has just had her second book published by David McKay Co., Inc., N.Y.C., titled "Sculpture, the basic methods and materials."

She is currently teaching courses in Sculpture at the Adult Education School, Jonathan Dayton Regional High, and the Morris County Art Association, Morristown. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of The Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art, where she also taught sculpture.

Her book gives a clear, step-by-step instructions for modeling in clay and armature construction, casting in plaster, carving wood, stone and other materials. Making reliefs, metal sculpture and mobiles. All are clearly illustrated with photographs.

In a review by the Christian Science Monitor it said, "Learning to 'sculpt' is made as easy as possible for you in this book. You are so gently eased into making the first cut into material, that you've done it before you realize it. And in case you have some trepidation about starting to mold a malleable lump of clay, you are reminded that 'we instinctively shape any malleable material we find in our hands.' The book is not for the dedicated artist; it is for the hobbyist, the camp counselor, the schoolteacher, the housewife, the high school student, will find it an expressive outlet — anyone who just wants to have fun at sculpturing."

Mrs. Johnson has won various awards in sculpture and exhibited widely.

At present she also teaches Art at St. Elizabeth Academy, Convent Station, and childrens art courses at Morris County Art Assoc., Morristown Saturdays. She also taught childrens classes at the Springfield Recreation Center last year.

She is also the author of the successful book "Paper-Mache" published by David McKay Co., Inc., NYC, in 1959.

New Group Formed at Beth Ahm

A new group for young people has been formed at Springfield's Temple Beth Ahm, according to Irving Merkin, chairman of the new group.

Mr. Merkin said, "We call our new organization the PAX group — Parents And Youth — and we expect to explore all those areas of youth-adult common interest which will help us understand the problems which our young people are facing, and it will certainly help our young people to understand some of the problems which we as parents and adults are facing."

A series of seminars will be held during the coming season with invited panelists taking part and leading the discussion. It is expected that Mrs. Thelma Sandmeter, Principal of the Florence M. Gaudineer School will be one of the first resource people to discuss the problems of youth with this group.

Architects Discuss Needs With Temple Committees

Donald Rotwein and Edward Blake, who are the architects for Springfield's Temple have been conducting a series of meetings with various Temple committees to ascertain the needs and desires of the congregation.

The Women's Group, so active in Temple affairs, presented concepts for kitchen and social facilities. The architects have indicated much reliance for the communal and decorative aspects of the building will be placed upon the suggestions of the Women's Group.

Harry Katz, chairman of the congregations Religious School Board, received a pattern of growth whereby the present school enrollment of 220, is expected to reach 350 within two years. This, coupled with the ever expanding curricula of the school is symbolic of the growth of Sharey Shalom. The Religious and Hebrew Schools offer instruction in a broad range of subjects for children from 5 to 15, including confirmation and Bar and Bas Mitzvah studies. Classes are held in the Raymond Chisholm Public School and the Temple House.

Kew Drive Kids Raise Money For Cancer Fund

The other day five youngsters came into the Springfield Sun office, smiling in an embarrassed manner. What had they done? Had they broken a school window and wanted to know how to pay for it? Or did they want to learn the mysteries of the newspaper world?

Then a mother came in, all smiles and seemingly proud of the five youngsters.

And well she might be. Paul and Shari Doros, Laurie and Marie Feldman, Robbie and Carole Smith, and Denise Devone had raised $7.84 for the Cancer Fund.

These five children, all residents of Kew Drive with the exception of Carole who now lives in Wyckoff, sold candy, old toys, books, and presented a show in order to contribute something to the Fund. The children used Carole's cellar to sell their "goodies."

They also brought their candy to the Raymond Chisholm School and many teachers and custodians added their pennies candy wholesale to the children.

Paul and Shari Doros, Laurie and Marie Feldman, Robbie and Carole Smith, and Denise Devone had raised $7.84 for the Cancer Fund.

Denise was the mistress of ceremonies at the show the children put on. The youngsters danced, sang, twirled, and did numerous tricks to captivate the audience and earn money for the charity.

The money was raised over a period of three months and from talking to these children they had lots of fun. But they aren't stopping now. They have already decided to start raising money for another charity.

Vocational School Hires Consultants

Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell have been retained as consultants by the Board of Education of the Union County Vocational and Technical Schools, it was announced by Eugene Caffrey of Westfield, Board President.

The firm, which is one of the best-known in the educational consulting field, will advise the board and its director, George N. Baxel, in the planning of a vocational education program. The fee for the educational consultant will be deducted from the standard architect's fee so that there is no additional cost to the Board of Education. Mr. Caffrey explained.

Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell was organized as a partnership in 1947 following many years of practice by individual members of the firm. The combined experience of the partners in the planning of school buildings represents over 80 years of practice.

The work of the consultants is divided into two major areas: planning school buildings and determining by conducting surveys and analyzing population growth.

In the field of planning school buildings, the consultants work with the Board of Education and the architect in the preparation of a program of educational requirements, development of preliminary plans and final working drawings and specifications "in keeping with best educational practice with attention to maximum economy."

Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell recently completed the planning of the new Weymouth Vocational School and Senior High School in Weymouth, Massachusetts, and has acted as consultants for the John A. O'Connell Vocational School in San Francisco, California. The reference to our financial surplus, the highest in our town's history; and he is silent on our attaining one of our best bond ratings ever. Mr. Murphy doesn't attack any of this progress, because he can't fight it and he knows it!

"He can fight individual personalities and this is all Mr. Murphy has done throughout his campaign. Whether this strategy on his part is to cover up the fact that he has nothing constructive to offer, or merely to keep under wraps his own inexperience to serve in public office, is a point of some concern."

Morale High

Sibole added: "Since I serve as chairman of the Department of Public Safety, I can tell Mr. Murphy first-hand that his political attacks on our police department are a waste of time. Our police department morale has never been higher, nor its efficiency greater. Both the police department and the fire department are doing outstanding jobs in serving the community and deserve better consideration than to be the subject of Mr. Murphy's political attacks that are aimed at exploiting a few votes."

Sibole continued: "As for some of Mr. Murphy's other schemes to gather votes, none is more ridiculous than his changing political viewpoints. For example, early in the campaign Mr. Murphy thought it might help him to gain votes if he pictures the governing body members as disagreeing with each other on various issues. I believe that this is a healthy condition, although Mr. Murphy obviously was seeking merely to divide us. When this failed to impress anybody, Mr. Murphy switched and claimed we are now all the victims of bozism! Nothing could be farther from the truth and Mr. Murphy knows it!"

SAFETY

Proper placement of extension cords will eliminate a major fire threat, says the Allstate Safety Crusade. Cords should be attached to moldings or baseboards and not run underneath rugs.

Small children should never be left alone in a house, fire statistics reveal. Almost 80 per cent of all child deaths in home fires involve unattended children.

ON MY HONOR

This great country of ours has plenty of honor to fall back on. One has only to recall the past two political conventions, at which time both parties credited themselves with the honor of great men who had previous affiliations with their respective parties.

The above honor is worthy of reminiscing, should be discussed often—What about our future honor—is there a need for it—if so—where should it be started, when should it be instilled and in whom should it be cultured?

All countries need honorable men; ours might need less. It would be foolish to believe there are no voids to fill even in our nation. Our future would be less than mere existence without it. It is significant that these three words "ON MY HONOR" begin the BOY SCOUT OATH. For fifty years the Boy Scouts of America instilled, practiced and believed in honor. There is no better organization to start with than the BSA, who have FIVE MILLION boys as its members (Springfield has over SIX HUNDRED) who are aspiring to be the future leaders of our country. You can recognize their efforts through your support.

Kinneally Appoints Tom Dunn Campaign Coordinator for UC

Union County Democratic Chairman, James J. Kinneally, today announced the appointment of Freeholder Thomas G. Dunn of Elizabeth, as "Co-Ordinator of Campaigns" for Union County.

Dunn's duties, Kinneally said, will involve forging together campaign efforts of all Democratic groups into a cohesive political fighting force, armed with a master plan geared to bring Democratic victory in November to all municipalities.

Dunn will serve also, Kinneally reported, as liaison man for the Co-County Democratic Organization between that group and the "Citizens for Kennedy." In this position, it will be up to Dunn to prevent duplication of the genuine spirit of cooperation that presently prevails between the two organizations, the County Chairman said.

"Tom Dunn has accepted this tremendous responsibility with enthusiasm and vigor," Kinneally stated. "His record of proven organizational ability is well known throughout the County and State, and I am confident that his efforts will add greatly to the overwhelming victory that we expect in November," Kinneally continued. Kinneally called upon all Democrats and supporters of Senator Kennedy to assist Freeholder Dunn in his newest assignment.

Dunn announced today that he would make immediate plans to set up an office in Elizabeth.

Stamler Speaks To B'nai B'rith

Springfield's B'nai B'rith Lodge will hold its first regular meeting of the year 8:30 P.M. Monday evening October 10, at Temple Beth Ahim on Baltusrol Way.

The program will be of particular interest to the Jewish community in Springfield. October 13 will mark the 11th anniversary of the founding of the Order of B'nai B'rith, the oldest and largest Jewish service organization in the world. Rubin Ritz of Hillside, a member of the Administrative Board and Board of Governors of District Grand Lodge 3 of B'nai B'rith will help celebrate the occasion.

The principal speaker will be Assemblyman Nelson F. Stamler of Union. Mr. Stamler, who is a National Committeeman of the A.L.L. and a Past President of the New Jersey Regional A.L.L., will discuss some of the aspects of the work of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in promoting harmony in the community and mutual respect and understanding where racial and religious conflicts display their many ugly facets.

Family Life Today Praise And Approval

By Phyllis Greer, Specialist in Human Relations Rutgers-The State University

"You handled that situation very well, Tom" or "Your room looks just fine, Sally," are simple words. They are easy words to say and so important, yet so often neglected.

Parents are usually pleased when their youngsters do a good job or behave particularly well. Much too frequently the good job or behavior is passed by without comment, but when it's bad the youngsters hear plenty about it.

It means a great deal to everyone and particularly to youngsters to receive some praise and approval for a good job well done. Praise is a strong shot in the arm for everyone and it is appreciated very much.

Praise and approval are much better incentives for future actions than blame, criticism or nagging. In addition to the thought of the future, it is only reasonable that a good job be complimented.

When parents complain about their children's lack of appreciation, have you ever wondered whether the parents ever show their appreciation of the youngsters or praised them?

Praised and approval should be given possible but never for actions which do not deserve it. This is a sure way for youngsters to lose respect for the adult. Children have good sense and know when their actions deserve to be praised. If they receive compliments for a sloppy job or other undeserving action, they think they can get away with anything.

Union County To Be Represented At New Jersey Association For Retarded Children Convention

The Union County Unit, New Jersey Association for Retarded Children, will be represented at a four-day "Panorama of Progress" that will mark the 10th anniversary of the national movement to aid the mentally retarded. Mrs. Felix Helppap, President, announced today.

The local group will be one of 800 state and community units taking part at the Convention of the National Association for Retarded Children at the Hotel Leamington in Minneapolis, Minnesota, October 5-8. Mr. Robert Allen, 728 Embree Crescent, Westfield, is delegate for the Union County Unit, NJARC. Mr. Allen has a B.S. from Columbia University in the field of chemical engineering and is employed as supervisor and section head at DuPont, Perth Amboy plant.

Currently, Mr. Allen is president of the Board of Directors of the Occupational Center of Union County.

"A decade ago, 42 parents of retarded children met at Minneapolis, determined to improve the lot of five million mentally retarded in the United States."

Boroites Win Gulf Contest

A number of local residents have won prizes in Gulf Oil Corporation's "Hat in the Ring" contest. They were chosen for their outstanding answers to the query: "I would like to see nominated for President because..."

The winners are: Mrs. Charles Weber, 201 Plainfield Avenue, and Leo Schenker, 24 Webster Drive, both of Berkeley Heights; Mrs. R. Goodhard, 38 Whipperwill Way; and Bernard Seligman, 345 Summit Road, both of Mountainside; and Edward Blindt, 32 Chest Place, Springfield.

The competition represented a unique approach to business participation in politics. "The sole purpose of the contest," the Company explained, "is to create greater interest in political personalities, their positions on issues, and their beliefs."

What did the state winners have to say in their prize-winning answers? As far as Gulf is concerned, neither the Company nor the Public will ever know. The judges' panel was selected from outside the Company and the participants were promised: "Contents of entries will not be made known to any person or organization (including Gulf) and opinions expressed therein will not be used for any purpose, political or otherwise."

Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Goodhard received Mercury 45 h.p. outboard motors. Mr. Seligman received a Stromberg-Carlson stereo hi-fi. Mr. Blindt received a Black & Decker power tool kit, and Mr. Schenker received a Vail sports treasure chest.

Mr. Allen explained. They started a nationwide demonstration that the retarded can be helped to develop, learn, and work. The Union County Unit, New Jersey Association for Retarded Children, started in October, 1949.

Mrs. Robert Allen will accompany her husband.

Lack of Facilities Forces NCE to Limit Enrollment

Admits Largest Freshman Class

Newark College of Engineering announced today that the largest freshman class in the history of NCE — 439 students — has been enrolled this fall. But college officials made the statement with mixed feelings.

Their disappointment stems from the fact that while the increase in freshman enrollment was considerable, 420 were admitted last year — a total of nearly 1,400 young men and women had applied for admission this year. According to Frank A. Grammer, dean of admissions, the number represented some 300 more students than those who had applied in 1959.

Dean Grammer and other college authorities explain the limit placed on freshman enrollment as a measure forced upon NCE because of lack of classroom and laboratory space plus the difficulty of obtaining faculty members to provide instruction for a rapidly growing student body.

As it is NCE has exceeded the limit it had set on freshman enrollment last May, when the college's newest and largest building, Weston Hall, was completed. It was estimated at that time that a gradual increase in freshmen could be made from 1959's 420 to 475 this year, and to 550 by 1961.

Fortunately, the college has been able to find room for 24 freshmen beyond the original estimate without crowding other students or impairing the instruction program. But the problem of building up the faculty to enable NCE to meet next year's quota of freshmen remains and promises to grow worse.

This was the sentiment of William Hazell, NCE vice president and dean, who handles supervisory of acquiring teaching personnel as well as the college's construction plans. "The difficulty of erecting a building at an engineering college," he said, "is far less than that of selecting qualified people for the faculty."

Hazell cited such factors as the educational background and teaching experience on the part of candidates for the faculty. "These qualifications," he continued, "must be strongly related to our purposes here at NCE, and those who possess them are at a premium, considering the low number of persons entering the teaching field and the high number who are attracted to industry."

Hazell called the selection of teaching personnel "a slow, painstaking process, made more complex as the years progress."

Even though 17 new members were added this term to complete the faculty roster, many more new members, he said, "are needed to help solve the teaching problem and prevent increases in the freshman ranks."

But if there was disappointment on NCE's part over having to limit the number of freshmen, there is also an obvious pleasure in the scholastic quality of newcomers the college has enrolled. Based on Dean Grammer's calculations, approximately 60 per cent of this year's freshmen came from the top quarter of their high school graduating class. As well, 92 per cent of the total number ranked in the upper half.

In examining the higher side of enrollment still further, NCE may look also to its total undergraduate day division, which reached a new high this year. There are currently 1,619 students enrolled, an increase over 1,483 of last year. Coupled with 1,299 students in the evening division, total undergraduate enrollment hit 2,909. The figure compared with 2,888 registered in 1959.

And still another new high was set. According to the dean of admissions, 12 women were accepted as freshmen this fall, boosting total female enrollment to 30. Last year, 22 coeds were attending classes. The largest female freshman class enrollment before this time occurred in 1957, when nine women were admitted.

Other enrollment figures given by the dean listed 650 students in the graduate division and 1,113 students in the special courses division. Counting all divisions, a total of 4,672 men and women are now attending the college.

EDU Sponsors London Tour

A Christmas Study Tour to London has been announced by Dr. Samuel Pratt, Dean of Fairleigh Dickinson University, Fairham-Madison Campus, for students and members of the Faculty.

The tour will leave Idlewild by jet transportation on December 17, 1960, and return from London on January 1, 1961. The program is open to all faculty and students of Fairleigh Dickinson University, and members of their families.

The trip will include meeting members of Parliament, government officials, trade union leaders, and university professors. The group will enjoy theatre, concert, and opera shows.

They will see the sights of London: the Tower, Buckingham Palace, Westminster Abbey, the Palace of Westminster, Downing Street, Trafalgar Square, Piccadilly Circus, Hampton Court Palace, and Cambridge University.

A feature of the program will be Christmas Day spent in a London home. The group will stay in centrally located University Residence, and dine at various restaurants in town.

This is the first of a series of student-faculty trips abroad scheduled for this year.

GOP 'Penny Wise & Pound Foolish', Says Kinneally

The campaign Committee of the Incumbent Democratic Candidates for the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders have answered the Republican blast of "Irresponsible Management" and $10,000 a day borrowing.

According to James J. Kinneally, Democratic Campaign Coordinator, "C.O.P. tacticians never learn."

"Roy Carey has been named a coordinator of the Republican committee to return the 'do nothing Republican slate' to the Board of Chosen Freeholders in Union County. Mark my words, we expected the 'Big Lie' to start and by golly it did," said Kinneally.

"They call us irresponsible and when in reality the Democratic Board of Freeholders have cut the taxes by one point or an over all county cut of approximately $284,000. This is quite a feat considering they are trying to repair the neglect of the Republicans under their rule of 30 years of being 'Penny Wise and Pound Foolish' said Kinneally.

"We expect the Republicans to continue to repeat this 'Big Lie' over and over and over again and try to perpetrate a fraud on the electorate of Union County," said Kinneally.

"They now have their candidates - uninformed, - and misled in making wild statements

The paintings of Arthur E. Carlson are now being shown at the Springfield Public Library in the exhibit sponsored by the Springfield Woman's Club. The exhibit, which is composed primarily of landscape and marine scenes done in oils and water color, will be on display until mid-November.

Mr. Carlson has studied at the Art Students League in New York under G. Bridgman, Maurice Zung, Edward Dufner, and Samuel Theobald. He is a member of the Art Gallery of South Orange and Maplewood, where he has exhibited. His works have also been displayed at the West Orange Woman's Club and at art exhibits sponsored by the Springfield Woman's Club.

Mr. Carlson, who resides at 64 Linden Avenue, retired last January from Worthington Corporation in Harrison. Now he is devoting full time to his art and is planning to specialize in portraits.

Children's rooms should be located in parts of the house which have easy escape routes, according to the Allstate Safety Crusade. Otherwise, fire may cut off children's exit from the house and prevent their rescue.

Household rubbish should be burned away from buildings, low hanging branches and wires, the Allstate Safety Crusade points out. The area of the fire should never be left unattended, even temporarily, if children are in the vicinity.

Student Nurses Study At UJC

Three area residents are among 92 student nurses from Elizabeth and Perth Amboy General Hospitals who began their academic studies Thursday, September 22nd, at Union College, Cranford.

The area residents enrolled at Union Junior College are: Miss Nina P. Evans of 1305 Coles Avenue, Mountainside and Miss Patricia A. Norris of 2236 Rhoda Place and Miss Arlene L. Stibert of 2246 Jersey Avenue, both of Scotch Plains.

A graduate of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, Miss Evans is enrolled in the School of Nursing of Elizabeth General Hospital, Miss Norris and Miss Stibert are graduates of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, and are both enrolled in the School of Nursing of Perth Amboy General Hospital.

While at Union Junior College, the student nurses earn 19 college credits, taking all their academic work at the college. They study English composition, anatomy and physiology, chemistry, general psychology, sociology, and microbiology and take labs in anatomy and physiology, chemistry, and microbiology.

In addition to academic studies, the student nurses are eligible to participate in all college activities and extra-curricular programs.

Dr. Henry Haas At Kaffeeklatsch

The next meeting of the Summit YWCA Kaffeeklatsch on Wednesday morning, October 12, from 10 to 11:30, will feature the return of a perennial favorite, Dr. Henry B. Haas of Fernwood Road, Summit. Dr. Haas, president of the Sugar Research Foundation, Inc. and also its chemical consultant, has addressed the Kaffeeklatsch on a wide variety of subjects from the strictly technical to birth-taking holiday junkets atop the Matterhorn. On this occasion he will describe another vacation adventure which involved a California trip through the giant forest giant on the summit of Mt. Whitney in the Sierra Nevada Range and the 2nd high peak in the U.S.

All women of the area are cordially invited to attend these weekly "mornings out." Coffee will be served at 10 o'clock followed by the program at 10:30.

Concurrent child rhythm and dance classes for youngsters from 3 to 6 years of age, as well as babysitting services for infants 18 months or over, are available at reasonable rates for children of mothers attending the event.

Prior reservations are not required. Further information may be obtained by calling the YWCA at CR 3-4242.

O'Brien Slams At Maliciousness of GOP Candidates

Thomas J. O'Brien director of the Union County Board of Freeholders today spoke out against the malicious attack of the Republican Candidates for Freeholders.

"Much unfounded derogatory criticism has been leveled at the incumbent Democratic Freeholders William Dalziel, Dr. Edward J. Carlin and myself by the GOP hopefuls. Most of this 'hog-wash' has been prepared for them by the 'strategists' of the GOP Party," said O'Brien.

Mr. & Mrs. Star In Loews Show

Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner, two of the screen's most popular young stars (they're Mr. and Mrs. Wagner in private life) appear together for the first time in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "All the Fine Young Cannibals" starting at Loew's Theater in Newark on Wednesday. Co-starring are Susan Kohner and George Hamilton, in his first picture since "Home From the Hill," with another top role played by famed singer Pearl Bailey.

A strong drama of today's youth facing a changing world, "All the Fine Young Cannibals" is as unusual as its title, which stems from the picture's theme of the struggle of four young people to find happiness. In their search to find love, the hopes and fears are revealed, and in their taperness to grab at life with both hands, no matter what the cost, they are brought to the brink of tragedy.

Pearl Bailey's role is that of a blues singer who finds her personal nirvana in alcohol. Not only does Miss Bailey give a gripping dramatic performance, she also sings several popular hits.

Producer General E. Herman has given this Avon-Briefing-for-MGM elaborate staging in beautifully decorated New York apartments, luxury hotel suites and a wide variety of interior and exterior scenes filmed in CinemaScope and color. Feminine members of the audience will find much to talk about in the Helen Rose designed clothes worn by the Misses Wood and Kohner.

The associate feature "Key Witness" stars Jeffery Hunter and Pat Crowley.

County CYO Council To Elect Officers

The Union County CYO Junior Council will elect officers at a meeting on Oct. 16th, in the St. Michael's CYO Hall, 889 E. Jersey St., Elizabeth, it was announced today.

The council, formed last year, comprises two delegates—each from county parishes. Junior CYO membership is open to boys and girls up to the age of 18. Adult supervisors from each of the parish will be on hand for the opening session, which begins at 3 p.m.

Rev. Roland W. Muenzen, assistant pastor at St. Michael's and county CYO moderator, will speak. There will be discussion of the county's participation in the first annual archdiocesan junior CYO convention to be held at Seton Hall University on Nov. 11.

The Senior CYO Youth Council will meet in the evening on Oct. 16th at St. Bartholomew Hall in Scotch Plains. The seniors include unmarried young men and women between the ages of 19 and 26.

Church Holds Harvest Dance

St. James Church, Springfield, will hold its Harvest Festival Dance under the combined sponsorship of the Holy Name Society, Rosary Altar Society and the Mother's Guild on Saturday, October 15 in the Church Auditorium at 8:30 P.M.

Adult parishioners will enjoy dance music furnished by the Nu-Tones, the same group who provided the music and entertainment at last year's Parish Party.

The drawing for the beautiful 1960 Pontiac car will also be held the same evening. All parishioners are urged to make reservations for their raffle tickets as soon as possible.

As this event promises to be the social highlight of the Fall season, Fr. Farrell urged all adult parishioners to attend and enjoy a truly fine evening.

In conclusion O'Brien said, "This is our pledge, our past actions have proven we are making a real and honest effort to carry out the pledge. What are the Republicans pledging? What will they do? Return the county government to its previous GOP standstill position? If the GOP candidates will answer these questions instead of trying to smear the 'Big Lie' all over Union County, they will be doing the electorate of Union County a favor."

Murphy Belts Democrats; Decries Use of Hatchetman

Office-Seeker Promises End of Political Machine

Phul T. Murphy, Republican candidate for the Springfield Township Committee, in his release to the Springfield Sun, denounces the "political machine" in Springfield. He feels that Mayor Vincent Bonadies' program could have been accomplished by the two previous administrations or by the four remaining Democrats on the Committee "after his defeat."

Following is Mr. Murphy's complete statement:
"The recent two pronged attack by Mr. Bonadies and Mr. Balentine demonstrates forcefully the tactics a political machine will use to perpetuate itself in office and the penalty any candidate who dares to oppose it must be prepared to pay. To the gentle strains of 'You take the high road and I'll take the low road' the two B's began their campaign duel!

"Mr. Bonadies outlined a program which can be readily accomplished by the four remaining Democrats after his defeat. In fact, if it was anything more than a pious hope, it could have been readily done in his two previous administrations.

"Mr. Balentine, on the other hand, accepts the role of hatchetman with great gusto. Since he is unable to answer what I have said in previous statements, he first twists and distorts those statements into what he wishes I had said and then replies to his own distortions. The epithet 'muddalinger,' the failure to observe the usual amenities of Mr. before my name, all bear the hallmark of previous statements by his boss. The voice is that of Mr. Balentine but the hand is the same overworked ghost writer.

"The statement that our Mayor is a full time Mayor comes as a surprise to one who knows he is a Motor Vehicle Agent, a business man, and a politician. It also demonstrates a shocking lack of understanding of Township Committee government. If Mr. Balentine has abdicated his responsibility to participate in every decision to one fifth of the committee, Mr. Bonadies, let me assure him I will not do so to the next Mayor.

"Next week, I assume, someone else will join the discordant duo to form a terrible trio until ultimately, on election eve, we shall have a chorus of cacophony. The striking thing to me is that neither member of the duo is a supporter or detractor of the admitted misstatements made concerning me. Their failure demonstrates that the misstatement were deliberate.

"It is encouraging to an underdog to note that the political machine recognizes my candidacy as a serious threat to its survival. During the past weeks, many of Mr. Bonadies former supporters have swung into our camp. They are to say the least, disenchanted with his conduct since he achieved one party government. In the coming month, we invite all persons interested in two party representative government to join us in our fight to restore it to Springfield. We can promise you no reward except good government and the end of a political machine."

GE Plant Picketed

Picketing was reported in Springfield on October 3 at the precision parts and X-ray department plant of the General Electric Co.

Patrol cars were at the plant in the morning, but there were no incidents, reported Police Captain Leslie B. Joyner. He said the plant was opened. Capt. Joyner stated that the strike created a traffic hazard on Route 22 where the plant is located. He indicated that police were at the scene to make sure there was no violence toward any employees who crossed the picket lines to report to work.

Numbers dwindle
He noted that there were about 35 pickets at the plant when it opened, but the number later dwindled to 15.

General Electric also operates a magnetic materials and metallurgical products plant at 780 Colfax Ave., Kenilworth. A spokesman for the plant said that it was not affected by the walkout.

He said that the plant operates under a main factory in Detroit and that the workers are represented by the United Auto Workers who are not involved in the strike.

A spokesman at the Springfield plant said that most of the employees who crossed the picket line were non-hourly and "except" employees. He said that one hourly employee crossed the picket line and experienced no difficulty.

The spokesman said that no manufacturing was being conducted at the plant Tuesday.

Local Artist Has Second Book Published-Sculpture

Mrs. Lillian Johnson, 143 Battusroi Way, Springfield, has just had her second book published by David McKay Co., Inc., N.Y.C.

She is currently teaching courses in Sculpture at the Adult Education School Jonathan Dayton Regional High, and the Morris County Art Association, Morristown. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of The Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art, where she also taught sculpture.

Her book gives a clear, step-by-step instructions for modeling in clay, and armature construction, casting in plaster, carving wood, stone and other materials. Making reliefs, metal sculpture and mobiles. All are clearly illustrated with photographs.

In a review by the Christian Science Monitor it said "Learning to 'Sculpt' is made as easy as possible for you in this book. You are so gently eased into making the first cut into material, that you've done it before you realize it. And in case you have some trepidation about starting to mold a malleable lump of clay, you are reminded that 'we instinctively shape any malleable material we find in our hands.' The book is not for 'the dedicated artist.' It is for the hobbyist, the camp counselor, the schoolteacher, the housewife, the high school student, will find it an expressive outlet — anyone who just wants to have fun at sculpturing."

Mrs. Johnson has won various awards in sculpture and exhibited widely.

At present she also teaches Art at St. Elizabeth Academy, Convent Station, and childrens art courses at Morris County Art Assoc., Morristown, Saturdays. She also taught childrens classes at the Springfield Recreation Center last year.

She is also the author of the successful book "Papier-Mache," published by David McKay Co., Inc., NYC, in 1952.

George Lindemer, Summit High School art instructor, will direct the group. Anyone interested in joining the Art Group should contact Ed Ruby at the Springfield Municipal Building.

Record Is Distorted By Murphy

Township Committeeman Russell W. Sibole joined today in active township-wide support for the re-election of Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies to help continue the present administration's economic progress and sound growth.

Sibole declared that "the developments of the present campaign for the local governing body have produced a clear dividing line with Bonadies on the side of the administration's outstanding record of progress and Paul T. Murphy, who has offered the governing body little while criticizing everything, standing on the other side."

Sibole stated: "I have watched the present campaign of Mr. Murphy unfold and have been disturbed by his disregard for the dignity and decency of public office. Mr. Murphy has resorted to distortions, half-truths and questionable political promises. He has attempted to create issues where none existed, without regard to the facts and with careless attacks on individuals without regard to the consequences to their families. I believe this is wrong. I feel that Mr. Murphy knows it is wrong, but he nevertheless persists in such unjustifiable attacks.

"For example," Sibole said, "I am proud to be a member of the present administration and particularly proud of the entire governing body's record in holding the tax line. I may not always agree with the views of my colleagues on procedure, but I share with them the same goals and objectives — namely, the achievement of maximum efficiency in local government at the least possible cost to the taxpayer."

New Group Formed at Beth Ahm

A new group for young people has been formed at Springfield's Temple Beth Ahm, according to Irving Merkin, chairman of the new program.

Mr. Merkin said, "We call our new organization the PAY group — Parents and Youth — and we expect to expand all those are at of youth-adult common interest which will help us understand the problems which our young people are facing, and it will certainly help our young people to understand some of the problems which we as parents and adults are facing."

A series of seminars will be held during the coming season, with invited panelists taking part and leading the discussion. It is expected that Mrs. Thelma Sandmeier, Principal of the Florence M. Gaudineer School will be one of the first resource people to discuss the problems of youth with this group.

Dwyer Supports Bonadies And Local Highway Stand

Emphasizes 24-Point Tax Reduction Here Since 1958

At a meeting before the Springfield Young Republicans at Evergreen Lodge, Florence P. Dwyer, Republican Congresswoman, stated that she was supporting the local governing body's fight against the location of Ht. 78 through Springfield.

Mrs. Dwyer stated that Mayor Bonadies had exhausted every recourse available to him in Washington. Mrs. Dwyer went on to say that she had arranged various appointments for Mayor Bonadies and other township officials with the Federal Bureau of Roads and other government agencies.

Mrs. Dwyer further stated that Congress should require the state highway department to permit communities such as Springfield to prepare alternative plans and give them full consideration in advance of irrevocable action, such as acquisition of rights-of-way.

The Republican Congresswoman said she felt that state planning for Rt. 78 through Springfield had been entirely unsatisfactory and had failed to take due consideration of the "human factors" involved in highway locations. She urged that an independent "engineering" firm resolve the differences in the municipal cost estimate of an alternate route and the state alignment.

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies declared today that the 24-point reduction in taxes here since 1958 is a direct result of year-round concern for economy in government that continues to keynote the present administration's responsiveness to the taxpayer.

Speaking before afternoon and evening home audiences of Republicans and Democrats, Bonadies stated: "I believe there is one prime issue that can never be ignored by those seeking public office. Namely, what is being done and what will be done to keep our taxes down at no sacrifice in municipal services. "In 1958 our tax rate of $5.77 marked an end to years of runaway taxes in Springfield under past administrations who dodged this issue with indifference and lack of concern. Not only was the past continuous spiraling climb of taxes halted, but the governing body can point with pride to the 1960 tax rate of $5.53 that reflects a two-year reduction of 24 points, despite the addition of a needed new school.

Record Speaks
"Economy in Springfield's government continues to be the responsibility of every member of the governing body and must also be that of every candidate for public office. The administration's record in this regard speaks for itself in contrast to the election-time-only voice of a political candidate who cannot himself measure up to this record in any degree and only offers criticism of everything and everyone."

Bonadies added: "I ask for the support of all residents of Springfield in behalf of my reelection to the governing body because I have pledged myself to help continue this record of economic progress and not to destroy it as my political opponent proposes through irresponsible and empty words that offer only lip service.

"Springfield is at the crossroads of its development, when maximum efficiency in government is essential if we are to continue to progress ahead through sound and responsible administration.

No Empty Words
"There can be no room for experiment with the hopes and requirements of our citizens to build even a better community as we move forward. We can measure in deeds, not empty words our economic progress and our concern to keep going forward.

"Our present administration has demonstrated this in its two years of operation, by turning back the tide of governmental inefficiency which we inherited. This is not the result of one political party pitted against another, but a reflection of individual desires of the present governing body serving you to truly represent good government and honest government.

"If my political opponent ever had a single constructive contribution to make for our community, why has he kept it a secret until election time, and why does he still campaign not on economy in government, but on personal attacks that reflect his inability to serve in public office."

Vocational School Hires Consultants

Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell have been retained as consultants by the Board of Education of the Union County Vocational and Technical Schools, it was announced by Eugene Caffrey of Westfield, Board President.

The firm, which is one of the best known in the educational consulting field, will advise the board and its director, George N. Baxel, in the planning of a vocational education program. The fee for the educational consultant will be deducted from the standard architect's fee so that there is no additional cost to the Board of Education. Mr. Caffrey explained.

Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell was organized as a partnership in 1947 following many years of practice by individual members of the firm. The combined experience of the partners in the planning of school buildings represents over 80 years of practice.

The work of the consultants is divided into two major areas: planning school building needs and assistance in planning school buildings.

School building needs are determined by conducting surveys and analyzing population growth.

In the field of planning school buildings, the consultants work with the Board of Education and the architect in the preparation of a program of educational requirements, development of preliminary plans and final working drawings and specifications "in keeping with best educational practice with attention to maximum economy."

Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell recently completed the planning of the new Weymouth Vocational School and Senior High School in Weymouth, Massachusetts, and has acted as consultants for the John A. O'Connell Vocational School in San Francisco, California. The

Donald Rotwein and Edward Blake, who are the architects for Springfield's Temple Shalom's new building, have been conducting a series of meetings with various Temple committees to ascertain the needs and desires of the congregation.

The Women's Group, so active in Temple affairs, presented concepts for kitchen and social facilities. The architects have indicated much reliance for the communal and decorative aspects of the building will be placed upon the suggestions of the Women's Group.

Harry Katz, chairman of the congregations Religious School Board, received a pattern of growth whereby the present school enrollment of 220, is expected to reach 350 within two years. This, coupled with the ever expanding curricula of the school is symbolic of the growth of Shalom. The Religious and Hebrew Schools offer instruction in a broad range of subjects for children from 5 to 13, including confirmation and Bar and Bas Mitzvah studies.

Classes are held in the Raymond Chispolm Public School and the Temple House.

Kew Drive Kids Raise Money For Cancer Fund

The other day five youngsters came into the Springfield Sun office, smiling in an embarrassed manner. "What had they done? Had they broken a school window and wanted to know how to pay for it? Or did they want to learn the mysteries of the newspaper world?"

Then a mother came in, all smiles and seemingly proud of the five youngsters.

And well she might be. Paul and Shari Doros, Laurie and Marcia Feldman, Robbie and Carole Smith, and Denise Devone had raised $7.84 for the Cancer Fund.

These five children, all residents of Kew Drive with the exception of Carole who now lives in Wyckoff, sold candy, old toys, books, and presented a show in order to contribute something to the Fund. The children used Carole's cellar to sell their "goods."

They also brought their candy to the Raymond Chispolm School, and many teachers and custodians added their pennies candy wholesale to the children.

Denise was the mistress of ceremonies at the show the children put on. The youngsters danced, sang, twirled, and did numerous tricks to captivate the audience and turn money for the charity.

The money was raised over a period of three months and from talking to these children they had lots of fun. But they aren't stopping now. They have already decided to start raising money for another charity.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckley, of 531 So. Springfield Avenue, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary with a dinner party at Evergreen Lodge on September 21. The Buckleys played host to thirty-five relatives and friends, who dined and danced the evening away, helping them mark this happy occasion.

Miss Rhonda Stern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard of 48 Detroit Drive, has been accepted as a resident at The French House at Douglas College, for her junior year. The Sterns moved here recently, from Newark.

Ernan Spector, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Spector of 9 Hemlock Terrace, hosted a party for his fourth birthday on September 24 at which his guests were David Snyder, Barry Greenberg, Claire Whitcomb, Steven Cohen, Barbara Salzman, Steven Rosenberg, Paul Feldman and cousin, Elaine Schechtel. Big brother, Mark, celebrated his fourteenth birthday with a family dinner party at home on October 2.

Wishes for a speedy recovery go to Robert Reichman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Reichman of 35 Garden Oval. Robert is in Overlook Hospital after an operation on a broken arm, and we hope he'll be up and about very soon.

Friends and neighbors extend their deepest sympathy to Harriet Schwartz on the loss of her parents.

Congratulations to David Katz, of 29 Cypress Terrace, on winning the club championship at the Weequahic Park Golf Club. One of Springfield's better known athletes, David is a former New Jersey State Amateur Tennis Champion.

Recent arrivals in Springfield are Dr. and Mrs. Leo Romano, of 314 Milltown Road. The Romanos are former residents of Jersey City, where Dr. Romano still maintains his dental office.

Howard Cohn, son of Dr. and Mrs. Herman Cohn of 17 Hemlock Terrace, will be Bar Mitzvahed on Saturday morning, October 8 at Temple Beth Ahm. A reception for family and friends will be held on the following evening at The Alpine Cafeteria in Maplewood.

Congratulations on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary go to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Micheli of 46 Garden Oval. The Michelis were guests of honor at a surprise party at The Rock in West Orange, given by their daughter, Virginia. Mr. Micheli, who is the proprietor of a hairdressing establishment in Maplewood, is president of The Lions Club of Maplewood, and a well known amateur sculptor. The family recently returned from a three week trip to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Couch, of 49 Henshaw Avenue, announce the birth of daughter Kimberly Yvonne, at Overlook Hospital on September 29. The young lady who weighed nine pounds, three ounces at birth, has a twenty-two month old brother, Jonathan. The Couchs have an additional reason for celebrating this week since Jonathan was picked as one of the first weekly Award of Honor winners in the Beautiful Child Contest run by the New York Daily News. Mom is the former Molly Whelstone, and dad is a test engineer for Lockheed.

Those of you who miss the Big Top Car Hop on Route 22, as a place for your children's birthday parties, might be interested to know that the Garden of Eatin', which has taken its place, is a delightful spot for late evening snacks, etc.

reference to our financial surplus, the highest in our town's history, and he is silent on our attaining one of our best bond ratings ever. Mr. Murphy doesn't attack any of this progress, because he can't fight it and he knows it!

"He can fight individual personalities and this is all Mr. Murphy has done throughout his campaign. Whether this strategy on his part is to cover up the fact that he has nothing constructive to offer, or merely to keep under wraps his own inexperience to serve in public office, is a point of some concern."

Morale High

Sibole added: "Since I serve as chairman of the Department of Public Safety, I can tell Mr. Murphy first-hand that his political attacks on our police department are a waste of time. Our police department morale has never been higher, nor its efficiency greater. Both the police department and the fire department are doing outstanding jobs in serving the community and deserve better consideration than to be the subject of Mr. Murphy's political attacks that are aimed at exploiting a few votes."

Sibole continued: "As for some of Mr. Murphy's other schemes to gather votes, none is more ridiculous than his changing political viewpoints. For example, early in the campaign Mr. Murphy thought it might help him to gain votes if he pictures the governing body members as disagreeing with each other on various issues. I believe that this is a healthy condition, although Mr. Murphy obviously was seeking merely to divide us. When this failed to impress anybody, Mr. Murphy switched and claimed we are now all the victims of jossism. Nothing could be farther from the truth—and Mr. Murphy knows it."

SAFETY

Proper placement of extension cords will eliminate a major fire threat, says the Allstate Safety Crusade. Cords should be attached to moldings or baseboards and not run underneath rugs.

Small children should never be left alone in a house, fire statistics reveal. Almost 80 per cent of all child deaths in home fires involve unattended children.

ON MY HONOR

This great country of ours has plenty of honor to fall back on—One has only to recall the past two political conventions, at which time both parties credited themselves with the honor of great men who had previous affiliations with their respective parties.

The above honor is worthy of reminding, should be discussed often. What about our future honor—is there a need for it—if so—where should it be started, when should it be instilled and in whom should it be cultured?

All countries need honorable men; ours might need less. It would be foolish to believe there are no voids to fill even in our nation. Our future would be less than mere existence without it. It is significant that these three words "ON MY HONOR" begin the BOY SCOUT OATH. For fifty years the Boy Scouts of America instilled, practiced and believed in honor. There is no better organization to start with than the BSA, who have FIVE MILLION boys as its members (Springfield has over SIX HUNDRED) who are aspiring to be the future leaders of our country. You can recognize their efforts through your support.

GIFT FROM THE EARTH, a prize-winning film, opens by showing all the good things that come from the earth; precious minerals, gems, food, clothing, and shelter. The film then goes on to follow explorers in their search for natural gas deposits in scenic Texas and Louisiana, and shows how gas is extracted from subterranean pockets. Stamler Speaks To B'nai B'rith

Springfield's B'nai B'rith Lodge will hold its first regular meeting of the year 8:30 P.M. Monday evening October 10, at Temple Beth Ahm on Baltusrol Way.

The program will be of particular interest to the Jewish community in Springfield, October 13 will mark the 177th anniversary of the founding of the Order of B'nai B'rith, the oldest and largest Jewish service organization in the world. Rubin Ritz of Hill side, a member of the Administrative Board and Board of Governors of District Grand Lodge 3 of B'nai B'rith will help celebrate the occasion.

The principal speaker will be Assemblyman Nelson P. Stamler of Union. Mr. Stamler, who is a National Committeeman of the A.L.L. and a Past President of the New Jersey Regional A.D.L., will discuss some of the aspects of the work of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in promoting harmony in the community and mutual respect and understanding where racial and religious conflicts display their many ugly facets.

Family Life Today Praise And Approval

By Phyllis Green, Specialist in Human Relations Rutgers State University.

"You handled that situation very well, Tom," or "Your room looks just fine, Sally," are simple words. They are easy words to say and so important, yet so often neglected.

Parents are usually pleased when their youngsters do a good job or behave particularly well. Much too frequently the good job or behavior is passed by without comment, but when it's bad the youngsters hear plenty about it.

It means a great deal to everyone and particularly to youngsters to receive some praise and approval for a good job well done. Praise is a strong shot in the arm for everyone and it is appreciated very much.

Praise and approval are much better incentives for future actions than blame, criticism or nagging. In addition to the thought of the future, it is only reasonable that a good job be complimented.

When parents complain about their children's lack of appreciation, have you ever wondered whether the parents ever show their appreciation of the youngsters or praised them?

Praise and approval should be given possible but never for actions which do not deserve it. This is a sure way for youngsters to lose respect for the adult. Children have good sense and know when their actions deserve to be praised. If they receive compliments for a sloppy job or other undeserving action, they think they can get away with anything.

Union County To Be Represented At New Jersey Association For Retarded Children Convention

The Union County Unit, New Jersey Association for Retarded Children, will be represented at a four-day "Panorama of Progress" that will mark the 10th anniversary of the national movement to aid the mentally retarded. Mrs. Felix Helpap, President, announced today.

The local group will be one of 800 state and community units taking part at the Convention of the National Association for Retarded Children at the Hotel Leamington in Minneapolis, Minnesota, October 5-8. Mr. Robert Allen, 728 Embree Crescent, Westfield, is delegate for the Union County Unit, NAARC. Mr. Allen has a B.S. from Columbia University in the field of chemical engineering and is employed as a supervisor and section head at DuPont, Perth Amboy plant; currently, Mr. Allen is president of the Board of Directors of the Occupational Center of Union County.

"A decade ago, 42 parents of retarded children met at Minneapolis determined to improve the lot of five million mentally retarded in the United States."

Boroites Win Gulf Contest

A number of local residents have won prizes in Gulf Oil Corporation's "Hat in the Ring" contest. They were chosen for their outstanding answers to the query: "I would like to see . . . nominated for President because . . ."

The winners are: Mrs. Charles Weber, 1041 Plainfield Avenue, and Leo Schenker, 27 Webster Drive, both of Berkeley Heights; Mrs. R. Goodhard, 38 Whipperway Way, and Bernard Seligman, 349 Summit Road, both of Mount Pleasant; and Edward Blindt, 32 Chest Place, Springfield.

The competition represented a unique approach to business participation in politics. "The sole purpose of the contest," the Company explained, "is to create greater interest . . . in political personalities, their positions on issues, and their beliefs . . ."

What did the state winners have to say in their prize-winning answers? As far as Gulf is concerned, neither the Company nor the Public will ever know. The judges' panel was selected from outside the Company and the participants were promised: "Contents of entries will not be made known to any person or organization (including Gulf), and opinions expressed therein will not be used . . . for any purpose, political or otherwise."

Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Goodhard received Mercury 45 h.p. outboard motors; Mr. Seligman received a Stromberg-Carlson stereo hi-fi; Mr. Blindt received a Black & Decker power tool kit, and Mr. Schenker received a Voit sports treasure chest.

Mr. Allen explained. They started a nationwide demonstration that the retarded can be helped to develop, learn, and work. The Union County Unit, New Jersey Association for Retarded Children, started in October, 1949.

Mrs. Robert Allen will accompany her husband.

October Marks Opening of Ralph Evans Ice Skating School; First in East

Lack of Facilities Forces NCE to Limit Enrollment

Admits Largest Freshman Class

Newark College of Engineering announced today that the largest freshman class in the history of NCE — 420 students — has been enrolled this fall. But college officials made the statement with mixed feelings.

Their disappointment stems from the fact that while the increase in freshman enrollment was considerable — 420 were admitted last year — a total of nearly 1,400 young men and women had applied for admission this year. According to Frank A. Grammer, dean of admissions, the number represented some 300 more students than those who had applied in 1959.

Dean Grammer and other college authorities explain the limit placed on freshman enrollment as a measure forced upon NCE because of lack of classroom and laboratory space plus the difficulty of obtaining faculty members to provide instruction for a rapidly growing student body.

As it is NCE has exceeded the limit it had set on freshman enrollment last May, when the college's newest and largest building, Weston Hall, was completed. It was estimated at that time that a gradual increase in freshmen could be made from 1959's 420 to 475 this year, and to 550 by 1961.

Fortunately, the college has been able to find room for 24 freshmen beyond the original estimate, without crowding other students or impairing the instruction program. But the problem of building up the faculty to enable NCE to meet next year's quota of freshmen remains and promises to grow worse.

This was the sentiment of William Hazell, NCE vice president and dean, who handles supervisory of acquiring teaching personnel as well as the college's construction plans. "The difficulty of creating a building at an engineering college," he said, "is far less than that of selecting qualified people for the faculty."

Hazell cited such factors as the educational background and teaching experience on the part of candidates for the faculty. "These qualifications," he continued, "must be strongly related to our purposes here at NCE, and those who possess them are at a premium, considering the low number of persons entering the teaching field and the high number who are attracted to industry."

Hazell called the selection of teaching personnel "a slow, painstaking process, made more complex as the years progress," even though 17 new members were added this term to complete the faculty roster, many more new members, he said, "are needed to help solve the teaching problem and permit increases in the freshman ranks."

But if there was disappointment on NCE's part over having to limit the number of freshman, there is also an obvious pleasure in the scholastic quality of newcomers the college has enrolled. Based on Dean Grammer's calculations, approximately 60 per cent of this year's freshmen came from the top quarter of their high school graduating class. As well, 92 per cent of the total number ranked in the upper half.

In examining the brighter side of enrollment still further, NCE may look also to its total undergraduate day division, which reached a new high this year. There are currently 1,619 students enrolled, an increase over 1,483 of last year. Coupled with 1,296 students in the evening division, total undergraduate enrollment hit 2,909. The figure compared with 2,888 registered in 1959.

And still another new high was set. According to the dean of admissions, 13 women were accepted as freshmen this fall, boosting total female enrollment to 30. Last year, 22 coeds were attending classes. The largest female freshman class enrollment before this time occurred in 1957, when nine women were admitted.

Other enrollment figures given by the dean listed 650 students in the graduate division and 1,113 students in the special courses division. Counting all divisions a total of 4,672 men and women are now attending the college.

GOP 'Penny Wise & Pound Foolish', Says Kinneally

The campaign Committee of the Incumbent Democratic Candidates for the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders have answered the Republican blast of "Irresponsible Management" and $10,000 a day borrowing.

According to James J. Kinneally, Democratic Campaign Coordinator, "G.O.P. tacticians never learn."

"Roy Carey has been named a coordinator of the Republican committee to return the 'do-nothing' Republican state to the Board of Chosen Freeholders in Union County. Mark my words, we expect the 'Big Lie' to start and by-golly it did," said Kinneally.

"They call us irresponsible and when in reality the Democratic Board of Freeholders have cut the taxes by one point or an over all county cut of approximately $284,000. This is quite a feat considering they are trying to repair the neglect of the Republicans under their rule of 50 years of being 'Penny Wise and Pound Foolish' said Kinneally.

"We expect the Republicans to continue to repeat this 'Big Lie' over and over and over again and try to perpetrate a fraud on the electorate of Union County," said Kinneally.

"They now have their candidates uninformed, and misled in making wild statements

Dr. Henry Haas At Kaffeeklatsch

The next meeting of the Summit YWCA Kaffeeklatsch on Wednesday morning, October 12, from 10 to 11:30, will feature the return of a perennial favorite, Dr. Henry B. Haas of Fernwood Road, Summit. Dr. Haas, president of the Sugar Research Foundation, Inc. and also its chemical consultant, has addressed the Kaffeeklatsch on a wide variety of subjects from the strictly technical to brash talking holiday junkets out the Matterhorn. On this occasion he will describe another vacation adventure which involved a California trip through the giant forest and on the summit of Mt. Whitney in the Sierra Nevada Range and the 2nd high peak in the U.S.

All women of the area are cordially invited to attend these weekly "mornings out." Coffee will be served at 10 o'clock followed by the program at 10:30. Concurrent child rhythm and dance classes for youngsters from 3 to 6 years of age, as well as babysitting services for infants 18 months or over, are available at reasonable rates for children of mothers attending the event.

Prior reservations are not required. Further information may be obtained by calling the YWCA at CR 3-4242.

Children's rooms should be located in parts of the house which have easy escape routes, according to the Allstate Safety Crusade. Otherwise, fire may cut off children's exit from the house and prevent their rescue. Household rubbish should be burned away from buildings, low hanging branches and wires, the Allstate Safety Crusade points out. The area of the fire should never be left unattended, even temporarily, if children are in the vicinity.

O'Brien Slams At Maliciousness of GOP Candidates

Thomas J. O'Brien director of the Union County Board of Freeholders today spoke out against the malicious attack of the Republican Candidates for Freeholders.

"Much unfounded, derogatory criticism has been leveled at the incumbent Democratic Freeholders William Dalsiel, Dr. Edward J. Carlin and myself by the GOP hopefuls. Most of this 'hog-wash' has been prepared for them by the 'strategists' of the GOP Party," said O'Brien.

"I say let's cut out this petty 'chicken mickering' and get down to issues which affect the everyday life of our Union County citizens," said O'Brien.

"When we took office we sincerely applied ourselves diligently to the task of trying to put County Government in its proper role and proper action. This was extremely difficult considering the fact the Republicans had held sway for over forty years. Their operation of 'Penny-Wise Pound Foolish' operation had our County Government at a standstill. Much effort was needed to get the County movement off the pad," O'Brien stated.

Mr. & Mrs. Star In Loews Show

Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner, two of the screen's most popular young stars (they're Mr. and Mrs. Wagner in private life), appear together for the first time in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "All the Fine Young Cannibals" starting at Loew's Theater in Newark on Wednesday. Co-stars are Susan Kohner and George Hamilton, in his first picture since "Home From the Hill," with another top role played by famed singer Pearl Bailey.

A strong drama of today's youth facing a changing world, "All the Fine Young Cannibals" is as unusual as its title, which stems from the picture's theme of the struggle of four young people to find happiness. In their search to find love, the paths of these four cross, their hopes and fears are revealed, and in their eagerness to grab at life with both hands, no matter what the cost, they are brought to the brink of tragedy.

Pearl Bailey's role is that of a blues singer who finds her personal nirvana in alcohol. Not only does Miss Bailey give a gripping dramatic performance, she also sings several popular hits.

Producer Fando S. Berman has given this Avon Picture for MGM elaborate staging in beautifully decorated New York apartments, luxury hotel suites and exterior scenes filmed in Cinemascope and color. Feminine members of the audience will find much to talk about in the Helen Rose designed clothes worn by the Misses Wood and Kohner.

The associate feature "Key Witness" stars Jeffery Hunter and Pat Crowley.

"When we took office at the beginning of 1958, we were a minority voice calling for progressive county government. The Republicans ignored us but the electorate did not. It voted Democratic again that November. This gave us six of the nine seats on the Freeholder board and made us the majority party for the first time in history. We began to carry out our program. These are the major accomplishments of the last twenty months," said O'Brien. "I would like to list some of our accomplishments as a Democratic majority board."

A county tax rate held within half-a-cent of the 1955 level and cut last year.

A pilot vocational school program financed with federal aid that includes the states first tuition-free technical institute.

A hospital expansion and accreditation program that added thirty-six beds to the county's John E. Rannels Hospital last spring and will add one hundred and thirteen by the end of the year.

A new all season ice-skating rink in Warinanco Park and golf course in Ash Brook Park.

Reorganization of the county's Probation Department and a new program for Alcoholics.

Centralized purchasing and personnel offices which have produced many economies.

An investment program which took almost a million in county funds out of non-interest bearing accounts and put it into U. S. bonds that pay up to four per cent."

In conclusion O'Brien said, "This is our pledge, our past actions have proven we are making a real and honest effort to carry out the pledge. What are the Republicans pledging? What will they do? Return the county government to its previous GOP standstill position? If the GOP candidates will answer these questions instead of trying to smear the 'Big Lie' all over Union County, they will be doing the electorate of Union County a favor."

Church Holds Harvest Dance

St. James Church, Springfield, will hold its Harvest Festival Dance under the combined sponsorship of the Holy Name Society, Rosary Altar Society and the Mother's Guild on Saturday, October 15 in the Church Auditorium at 8:30 P.M.

Adult parishioners will enjoy dance music furnished by the Nu-Tones, the same group who provided the music and entertainment at last year's Parish Party.

The drawing for the beautiful 1959 Pontiac car will also be held the same evening. All parishioners are urged to make returns of their raffle tickets as soon as possible.

As this event promises to be the social highlight of the Fall season, Fr. Farrell urged all adult parishioners to attend and enjoy a truly fine evening.

In addition to refreshments, fun and, of course, concentration on some very serious and worthwhile projects to which the Post is devoted members can also look forward to an interesting program schedule for the year.

In an effort to increase membership, all present members are being asked to bring either an inactive or non-member veteran with them. All you have to do is accompany them the first time — they're certain to come back again on their own!

Please make it a point to contact John Wentz, Jr. who will be happy to collect your dues.

SWINGLES' DINER

ROUTE 22, SPRINGFIELD

OCTOBER, 1960

Union County

Welcomes

The New

to Route 22
Springfield, N. J.

Early Colonial Flavor Captured by Swingle's

The Swingle brothers spent many hours in the Springfield Library, the Princeton University Library, and the New York Public Library completing research for their Route 22 diner.

They read colonial letters, diaries, and historical books in order to capture the colonial feeling and atmosphere in their design.

Numerous members of the Springfield Historical Society also contributed information which the brothers were able to utilize. The time spent in research was not wasted, though, for the finished product is a new innovation in diner-buildings. Swingle Diners, Inc. Middlesex, New Jersey, have built diners of various styles from New York to Florida. Though primarily diner builders, they will manage the new Springfield diner themselves. They plan to use this diner as an advertising model.

When asked why the colonial theme was chosen for their diner Fred Swingle answered, "Since Springfield is a Revolutionary War town, we felt it proper to take advantage of the theme."

Antique pistols and rifles, colorful red and white curtains, a brick wall, hand-hewn beams, egg inlaid in the main dining room floor contribute to the colonial air.

Even the business office in the rear of the diner carries out the theme. The curtains have the Battle of Bunker Hill, and there are crossed swords on the ceiling, drums and files printed on their there is a painting of the past to life.

ANOTHER COLONIAL NOTE ADDED—This sign is a reproduction of one which hung from the Bull's Head Inn at the turn of eighteenth century. Note the manner in which the Hessians spelled "Springfield"—they transposed the "i" and "e". They probably were not familiar with the 1 before e rule.

"BATTLE OF SPRINGFIELD" MOTIF USED—Fred and decorated this diner themselves, using the Swingle brothers, Fred, Joe, and Dallas, design. "Battle of Springfield" as their theme.

FAST BECOMES ALIVE—Throughout the interior of the diner one sees relics and reproductions from the Colonial American era. Pine and wood hand-hewn beams contribute to the color and atmosphere of the dining area. Paintings of various Revolutionary War campaigns transport you back to another day when America was a youngster in an old World. Copper fixtures, dishes painted with colonial scenes and early American rifles add to the decor of this colorful diner.

ANTIQUE WEAPONS INCREASE COLONIAL FLAVOR—A portion of Dallas Swingle's antique pistol and rifle collection is displayed in a glass case on your left as you walk into the diner. The percussion and flintlock rifles, dueling pistols, a solid silver Queen Anne pistol and a squirrel rifle used by the minutemen add an air of authenticity to the interior.

Citizens For Kennedy, Johnson Meet Tonight

The Mountside Inn will be the scene this evening of a meeting of the Mountside Citizens for Kennedy and Johnson. The principal guest of the evening will be Peter Hughes, vice-chairman of the Union County group. Mr. Hughes will explain the activities of the county group and the enthusiastic response to them throughout the area.

All are welcome to the meeting which will start at 9:30 p.m.

Overcrowded storage lofts, attics, basements or garages are dangerous fire hazards, warns the Allstate Safety Crusade. Rubbish should be disposed of daily in closed metal containers, while storage items should not be packed in such a way as to become a pile of fuel for a fire.

Newcomers Directors Board Conducts Final Meeting

The last board of directors meeting of the present term of the Mountside Newcomers Club was held last week at the home of Mrs. David Mitchell, 1567 Grouse Lane. Mrs. James Keating was co-hostess.

Mrs. John Trout, president, expressed her appreciation and congratulations to the members of the board for what she felt has been a successful and enjoyable six month term of office.

Mrs. Jack Hildebran, program chairman, reported that the next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 11, at the Braidburn Country Club in Chatham. The installation of the incoming officers will be conducted at this time. This is an open meeting and guests are invited. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Peter Renz, 1155 Sawmill Rd. By today, Mrs. Mitchell announced that child care will be provided at the Mountside Union Chapel, Route 22, and that mothers should have their children there by noon.

Mrs. William Spohn, social activities chairman, announced that there were still vacancies for the bus trip to Morvin, the Governor's Mansion, planned for Tuesday, October 25. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Spohn, 24 Whipperwill Way. Any cancellation for this trip must be made by Friday, October 21; otherwise reservations must be paid for.

240 Attend Newcomers Dance
 The Autumn Flare Ball, given by the Mountside Newcomers Club last Friday evening, was attended by 240 people. Dancers whirled to the music of Chick Walsch and his orchestra at the Redwood Inn in Somerville.

The title of Harvest Queen was given to Mrs. Michael Kraytich of Willow Road in Mountside. She was crowned, given a corsage of gladioli, a bottle of champagne, and a gift of a dinner for two at the Chanticleer Restaurant in Millburn.

The Inn was adorned with brightly colored autumn leaves, pumpkins, and corn stalks, set off by a large harvest moon. Mrs. William Ferguson was in charge of decorations.

Mrs. Harry Irwin, chairman of the dance, announced that it was a financial as well as a social success. The proceeds of the Ball will be donated to the Mountside Rescue Squad.

Alsid Named Lay Chairman

Hal Alsid, South Gate, Murray Hill, has been announced as congregational lay chairman of the Lutheran Open House Week to be conducted at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Springfield, from October 30 to November 3.

The Open House is being conducted in over 300 Lutheran churches in the Greater New York area simultaneous to the effort at Holy Cross. Its purpose is to reach those not affiliated with a church and to strengthen the evangelism program of the local congregation.

Highlight of the week is to be nightly services conducted by a guest missionary.
 Mr. Alsid is presently chairman of the Evangelism Committee at Holy Cross. He is a graduate of the University of Washington and is employed as a plant engineer for Western Electric. The Alsids have two children, Eric and Mark.

300 Lutheran Churches to Participate in Open House

Three hundred churches in the New York City metropolitan area, having a combined membership of over 100,000 confirmed members, will participate in an intensive five-day evangelism mission known as "Lutheran Open House" from October 30 to November 3.

Directing the effort in central New Jersey is the Reverend Lester Messerschmidt, Pastor of Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 639 Mountain Avenue, Springfield.

The stated purpose of the mission is "to reach those not vitally connected with any church with the message of Jesus and to encourage Lutheran people to renew their faith and to show their love for Christ." It will open on Reformation Sunday, October 30, with eight mass rallies in various geographical areas and continue through Thursday, November 3, with services nightly in the participating churches. Five youth rallies during the preceding week will serve as a prelude to the mission.

Using the theme "Christ Invites You," lay visitors will be trained and sent out daily in teams of two to make calls on prospective church members and to extend invitations to worship. Guest pastors selected from various sections of the nation will assist the host pastors with the week's activities. These guest "missioners" and pastors of local churches will also be trained at daily "Missions to Ministers," conducted by leaders from the departments of evangelism and of the six participating Lutheran church bodies.

Approximately one-half of the 300 churches are affiliated with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. The others are members of five Lutheran bodies belonging to The National Lutheran Council, namely, The United Lutheran Church in America, The American Lutheran Church, The Evangelical Lutheran Church, The Augustana Lutheran Church, and the American Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Louis C. Meyer, New York, executive secretary of stewardship and evangelism for The Atlantic District of The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, who is chairman of the steering committee for Lutheran Open House, says that "this will be the greatest Lutheran evangelism emphasis ever conducted in New York and New Jersey."

Coordinating the evangelism effort of the National Lutheran Council bodies is the Rev. Clifton M. Wehne, associate director of the Department of Evangelism of the ULCA.

Paper Mill Show of Nichols, May, Breaking All Records

The pre-Broadway engagement at the Paper Mill Playhouse of "An Evening with Mike Nichols and Elaine May" broke the box-office record at the Millburn theatre.

Before "An Evening with Mike Nichols and Elaine May" opened, the Friday-Sept. 23, Saturday, Sept. 24, Friday, Sept. 30, and Saturday, Oct. 1, evening performances had been sold out.

The Saturday, Sept. 24, performance is a benefit for the Theresa Grota Service League.

Prior to the opening of "An Evening with Mike Nichols and Elaine May," a new box office record had been established by Shelley Winters and Kevin McCarthy when they starred in "Two for the Seesaw" during the weeks of July 4 and August 15.

The orchestra pit at the Paper Mill has been furnished with folding chairs and with the slight increase in admission prices for the Nichols and May revue, "An Evening with Mike Nichols and Elaine May" will establish new box office records for the Paper Mill Playhouse.

JDRHS Presents "January Thaw" In November 4

Auditions for this year's senior play have been completed and the cast has been announced. Joseph Trinty, director of dramatics at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, held the final tryouts on Wednesday, September 21, and on the following afternoon announced the thirteen member cast.

The 191 senior class is presenting a comedy, "January Thaw" which will be given on Friday, November 4, in Halsey Hall.

The cast is as follows: Gloria Rouse, Mark Bidelman, Nancy Kameen, Richard Sussman, Carol Ashfield, Joseph Romieri, Bruce Heard, Sherry Chayet, and Stuart Schwartz, all of Springfield, Beverly Rabinowitz and Judith Rodgers of Kenilworth, Kenneth Wilson of Mountaintide and James Turnbull of Berkeley Heights.

Rehearsals began on Monday, September 26 under the direction of Mr. Trinty and Dolores Kedzierski, student director, and will continue for the remaining weeks, both after school and in the evening.

INSIDE UNION COUNTY

The Board stated that in Plainfield alone about fifty percent of the high school graduates do not go to college. They said also that to run a school on the basis of each year's enrollment would make planning uncertain. Members focused attention on the fact that state law permits only the recommended form of financing.

It's really a pity that such an educational project should become a political football.

But they've already chosen up sides and, whether or not it is just political coincidence, the Republican supporters are opposed to the plan with GOP-controlled municipalities going on record against the whole idea.

Shunpike Group To Hear Mayor

The Shunpike Association, Springfield, through its president, Mr. Norman L. Cooper, announced that the next meeting of the civic association will be held Tuesday evening, October 18th, at 8:30 P.M. at the Baltusrol Golf Club. This will be the first meeting after the summer recess and future activities will be planned. Mayor Vincent Bonadies will be present at the meeting and will address the members. The topic of his speech has not yet been announced but is expected to deal with the problems confronting the Township both now and in the future. Members and guests will be able to ask Mayor Bonadies any questions they might have about the township in the discussion period that will follow the speech. The Shunpike Association is open for membership to all residents of Kew Drive, Shunpike Road, Warwick Circle, and the immediate vicinity. Anyone desiring information about joining may call Mrs. Mickey Doros at MU 2-6199. Never store flammable liquids in glass bottles, the Allstate Safety Crusade says. Glass can be broken too easily, releasing fumes which can make your home a blazing torch in seconds.

Plan Study Week-End

It has been announced at Temple Beth Ahm, Springfield, that arrangements have been finalized for a week-end of discourse, study and discussion to be held at Asbury Park early in the year. Manasseh Mendelsohn, who is acting as the chairman of the week-end staff, said, "So many of our men have indicated an interest in renewing an old, old custom of listening to learned scholars discuss interpretations of the Bible that we have joined with other congregations of neighboring communities to set up this weekend-of-study. We expect to have several of the nation's leading biblical scholars and rabbis with us, in Asbury Park on January 5, 7, and 8 to help us get the most out of our discussions".

Mr. Mendelsohn further pointed out that the true richness of the Bible comes only from constant searching and discussing, and when this is done with scholars of nationwide repute, then a most fruitful experience is to be had. Seymour Cohen, Religious Affairs Chairman of Temple Beth Ahm said, "We are encouraged by the response which we have had to the announcement that we are to have our Kallah, or study holiday in Asbury Park. We look forward to an active and profitable experience."

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

By RABBI REUBEN E. LEVINE, Temple Beth Ahm, Springfield
At the end of Yom Kippur, the solemn Jewish Day of Atonement, it was an old custom for the head of the family to drive a small stake into the ground near his home. This act symbolized the transition from solemnity to joyful celebration. The stake represented the first step in the erection of the Sukkah or temporary booth.

Five days after the High Holy Days Jewish families observe SUKKOS, the Feast of Tabernacles, during which time they gather for prayer and refreshments in a rustic hut built near the home or provided for communal use on the grounds of their synagogue. This shelter is covered with branches and leaves and is decorated, often quite elaborately, with fruits, gourds and vegetables, for Sukkos concerns itself with the produce of the earth. It is the Jewish Harvest Festival of Thanksgiving, comparable to the Thanksgiving that we celebrate as an American national holiday in November.

The leaf-covered shelter, also known as a Tabernacle, is rich in symbolism. Besides being a concrete expression of appreciation for God's bounty, it is also a recollection of the period in Israel's history when the Hebrews journeyed for forty years after their liberation from Egyptian bondage. The Sukkah represents the temporary dwellings they used before finally settling in the Promised Land.

Spiritually, the temporary nature of the Sukkah is a reminder that even though we may seek shelter and comfort among our material possessions, our ultimate trust must be in God who is our true Guardian and Protector.

Sukkos is understandably a very joyful holiday. It culminates after eight days with the observance of Simchat Torah, or the Rejoicing of the Law. The latter celebration marks the completion of the reading of the Torah Scroll at the synagogue, and the beginning of the cycle of readings for the next year. This festive period is an active realization of the words of Psalm 92: "It is good to give thanks unto the Lord."

Temple Beth Ahm's Sukkah may be seen on its grounds during the coming week. All visitors are welcome. Sukkos Services are being held on the mornings of October 6, 7, 13, and 14.

Temple Nursery School Is Opened

Mrs. Beverly Rotweh, chairman of the Springfield Temple committee of the Nursery School, announced that the Nursery School program for the new year has been opened, and that once again a successful year is anticipated.

Temple Features Book Lectures

Herman Horowitz, chairman of Springfield's Temple Sharey Shalom's Adult Education Committee, has announced a "Book of the Month" lecture and discussion series to be held on Wednesday evenings beginning November 2.

The congregations spiritual leader, Rabbi Israel S. Dresner, will conduct the series.

Everyone in this series will be given a book to read, at the next meeting the Rabbi will give a short lecture on the book read and there will then be a discussion period. There is no charge to enroll in this course.

T&L has done a remarkable job of maintaining accreditation for us. For the first time, we are opening our Nursery School to non-members as well as members because we feel that we have a responsibility to serve the entire community.

The Temple has been serving Springfield with its Nursery School since 1955, and according to Mr. Leonard Garber, Vice President in charge of Temple Educational Activities, this promises to be the most fruitful of all.

and receiving of poems is a part of the ritual of dining.

A Chinese art exhibit is being arranged by Professor Wang and a display of Chinese ceramics by Mrs. Wang Yuen Koo is planned. After the dinner, two films on present day China will be shown and one on Chinese sculpture through the ages.

Fairleigh Dickinson hopes that people of the area, as well as students and their families, will avail themselves of the opportunity of taking part in these cultural dinners. The Chinese dinner will be followed by Latin America, November 13; Sweden, December 11; Africa, February 19; Japan, March 19; and India, April 23. Those interested in attending the first dinner on Sunday or any of those following, should call Mr. Najarian at the Florham - Madison campus for further information.

FDU Offers Series Of 6 International Dinners on Campus

"World harmony will be achieved when world citizens understand and respect each other," said Dr. Samuel Pratt, dean of the Florham-Madison campus, to students of Fairleigh Dickinson University, in announcing a series of six International Dinners to be given at the campus.

"Now more than ever colleges should present programs that emphasize good foreign relations."

The international series will begin with a Chinese Cultural Exhibit and Buffet Supper to be held on Sunday, October 9. An authentic Chinese menu, which will include Won Ton soup and Moo Goo Gae Yok, will be served between five and six p.m. Miss Lily Lee, a Chinese dormitory student, will be one of the hostesses and help with the decorations. Her brother, Calvin Lee, wrote the cook book "Chinese Cooking For American Kitchens," from which the recipes for the dinner have been taken.

To the Chinese art is not something to be found in museums. Artistic taste is an integral part of daily manners and customs. It extends to the dinner table art where the elegant handling of chop-sticks, and the giving

With the McCarter Theatre Fall Drama Series now underway, the resident company — APA (the Association of Producing Artists) — will be presenting a new play each week for six weeks. The members of the company have the benefit of long experience in working together before this ambitious undertaking, since many of them have been together previously in Broadway and off-Broadway classic festivals at Carnegie Tech and Yalt Drama School, in Boston with Wellesley's Group 20 Players and the Brattle Theatre of Cambridge, or in the Shakespeare Festivals at Stratford, Connecticut, San Diego, and Antioch.

Show Rembrandt

The Fine Arts Film Series sponsored by the University-Community Theatre will switch from music to art with its second showing of the season on Wednesday evening, October 5, when "Rembrandt," the life of the great Dutch painter is presented. The films are being shown in the Science Building Theatre on the Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University. The narration for "Rembrandt" features Charles Laughlin, Gertrude Lawrence, and Eliza Lanchester.

The third showing of the series on Wednesday evening, October 12, will consist of three films: "Appalachian Spring," the only full length Martha Graham ballet on film, with choreography and costumes by Martha Graham, sets by Isamu Noguchi and music by Aaron Copland; "A Dancer's World" with choreography by Martha Graham; and "Invitation to Music" aimed against a background of Florence, showing preparations for a music festival in Italy.

Student Prince Draws Accolades

Show-business has had its really great moments. These range from Al Jolson, down on one knee singing "Mama" to Enzo Pinza's spine-chilling rendition of "Some Enchanted Evening." Taking its place along with these never-to-be-forgotten moments, is the beautiful Sigmund Romberg music in "The Student Prince."

There isn't a Jolson or a Pinza in the cast at the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre, where "The Student Prince" concludes a highly successful run Sunday night, but the presentation is superb.

While such name performers as Paul Dixon, Marie Santelli, Alex Alexander, Feodore Tdick, Don Potter and Honey Sanders provide great voices, and acting, the Meadowbrook's make chorus is superb.

Manners to Coordinate BH GOP Freeholder Campaign

Township Committeeman Arthur Manners of Berkeley Heights was named today as Berkeley Heights campaign coordinator for Peter J. McDonough, Harry V. Osborne, Jr. and Edward H. Tiller, Republican candidates for Freeholder.

Manners joined other municipal coordinators in a pledge to "devote untiring efforts to restoring responsible government to the people of Union County."

"This can be achieved only through the defeat of the free spenders on the county governing board," said Manners. "The election of Peter McDonough, Harry Osborne and Edward Tiller will break the control now held by the spoils system political faction now on the board, which currently has a six-to-three majority. An Election Day victory for the three Republican Freeholder candidates will be the first step toward a revitalized, in-the-back fiscal policy for all Union County taxpayers."

Manners is the former mayor of Berkeley Heights and is president of the Republicans of Berkeley Heights, Inc. A methods engineer with the J. K. Smit Company of New Providence, he lives at 317 Plainfield Avenue, Berkeley Heights.

Round Robin Bridge Begins Nov. 7 To Benefit Scholarship Fund

The Round Robin Bridge contest sponsored by the Scholarship Committee of the American Association of University Women, Berkeley Heights Branch, starts November 7. It is a series of teams of a section in a rotation manner. Every team plays seven times between November and March, 1961. At the end of an evening play, each player donates 50 cents towards a scholarship for a deserving Berkeley Heights girl graduate to be offered in the spring of 1961. In March, the accumulative scores are tallied and the winning teams from each section compete for the grand prize. Last year a luncheon was given for the section winners. The grand prize was a week end at the Jersey shore accommodations for six for each member of the winning team. This year's prizes will be announced later.

Contribute to a worthy project and have fun at the same time. Find a partner and apply now. Beginners, there is a section for you too—no don't hesitate. Become a "pro". Contact Mrs. Hat Alsd, 6 Southgate Rd. Murray Hill, Cr 7-8594.

Spoutin' Sports

A Bad Seven

This was a bad week for some people in the sports world. Coaches as well as sportswriters felt the sting of the upset bug.

Being a follower by nature, I thought it only fitting and proper to join the select group of "wrong guessers." I told you last week that I'm usually wrong and I think you should be convinced of that after my weekly blunders. I really felt rotten about picking Scotch Plains to lose, but it did turn out to be my only accurate guess.

About the other two games—my face is a bright red, and I usually don't blush at the slightest provocation.

Being wrong, but yet close isn't too bad—but being wrong-out is another thing. Let's take them one at a time.

About The Springfield Loss

This was a bad one for me as well as for Herb Palmer, his staff, all Bulldog supporters and for the players. We could write it off in the books by saying, "They just had a bad day." This would be the understatement of the day season.

They had an horrendous day. Why? I don't know. I could think of many reasons, but it wouldn't be fair to them to list in this column. Herb Palmer, who is quick to praise any of his players that are deserving, is just as objective in his criticism, said, "The kids just weren't ready mentally for the game. After a poor week of practice (due to the inclement weather) I thought they were ready Friday, but apparently they were not."

This probably is the foremost problem confronting high school coaches, trying to get the boys "up" week after week. It is only natural that a team will have a letdown. This was the week for Springfield to be "down." If it sounds like I'm defending them, you are right. If it sounds like I'm making excuses for them, you are wrong.

Last week I thought they had one hellava ball club! I still do. For you people who think they are over-rate, give them time to redeem themselves. One game offers little basis to condemn a team.

Maybe some of those headlines made too much of an impression on them—maybe they didn't. This Saturday should tell, because there certainly have not been any headlines telling them how good they are when you're a loser, you lose all by your lonesome.

I have only one thing to say to you guys on the team (that is if you read this column), don't make me look like a bum again this week. I enjoy writing nice things, I get no enjoyment whatsoever when I have to say a team isn't playing up to its full potential, or a team is down and they don't care if they win or lose.

About The Berkeley Win

Before I write another word I want to say one thing. Congratulations to the entire staff and squad on your first-victory at Governor Livingston.

Sometimes I wonder if it pays to be honest. I guess it does in the long run.

Here is the crux of the matter, you decide for yourself. From the very beginning, the Spouter has been spouting how difficult it would be for Berkeley Heights to win a ball game. I said also that they wouldn't win a game this year, and that no one could expect them to, since they are a first year school.

They had my sympathy (which they don't need), but they also received the truthful opinion of this writer. I thought they were inexperienced, which they are. I thought they showed very little against Parsippany, which they did, and I said they would lose Saturday, which they didn't.

So, if I had gone along praising them when they didn't deserve it, and picked them to win when I sincerely thought they were not going to, I would have come much closer to reality. But who wants to be realistic.

Highlander Speaks Up

This past week wasn't a complete nebbish. I found out the hard way that some fans do read the sports section of this paper. What I'm trying to say is that indirectly we received a letter to the editor. (Naturally, it didn't agree with anything I said, but it was still a letter.)

One of my astute colleagues devoted his entire column to refute my appraisal of the Governor Livingston football team.

I'll make a deal with you, Don, when I get lynched by some irate fan, I'll turn over my column to you. Your "Press Box" in the Highlander, (Governor Livingston school paper) would go over big with Berkeley Heights fans.

The Spouter Sez:

I'm just a glutton for punishment. You would think after last week I would give up this bit about picking losers, I mean winners. Springfield Over Somerville—Both teams will be trying to get back into the winners circle. Somerville took a sound beating from South River last week, 25-0. This hasn't convinced Coach Palmer that Somerville is not a good ball club. If the Bulldogs want to make amends for last week, this is their opportunity. It won't be easy for them, but victory very seldom comes easy. I think they are going to be "mentally ready" for this one.

Berkeley Does It: Wins!

Shows Class in 25-7 Victory, Brown Impressed By Team

An incensed, fired-up, Governor Livingston football team silenced all of its critics Saturday with a demolishing 25-7 win over a surprised Manchester group. Manchester making its first start in varsity competition showed the effects of inexperience, by fumbling four times and having five of their aerials intercepted. Typical of the hustling-aggressive brand of ball they played Saturday, the Highlanders recovered all four fumbles. One of their interceptions was turned into a score on a 30 yard run by Ken Hamilton.

100% Improvement—the boys, Brown found quite a few other distinct improvements which pleased him and his staff. Along with the team's attitude Brown along with his staff, found many other improvements in Saturday's performance. Here are some of the developments that pleased Brown.

(1) The offensive blocking was much improved over the past week, but it is yet where near what Brown thinks it should be. (2) Brown said the pass coverage was excellent. I can't find any fault with our pass defense. (3) We did a good job on their wide stuff, but we showed a weakness up the middle. We will be working a lot on that the next two weeks. (4) Our quick-kick has been very effective this year, and has helped keep the pressure on the opposition.

New Left Side Brown showed he is a man of his word. He said there would be changes in the lineup against Manchester, and there were. He inserted a complete new left side of the line. He used Tom Foster at left end, Lynn Nesbitt at tackle, and Jerry DiPasquale at guard. DiPasquale was converted stalwarts on defense.

In the backfield, Brown called on Ken Hamilton at quarterback, Pete Suchena and Melvin Flint at halfbacks, and Jim Fish at fullback.

Trying to get as many players into action as possible Brown alternated at most positions. Flint and Frank Fish alternated, with Fish being outstanding on defense.

Wait Hnot and Ken Stanton handled the tackle duties and Dick Haas and John DeDuca took turns at guard. Along with Fish, Wait Rice and Jerry DiPasquale were defensive stalwarts on defense.

No Game This Week The Highlanders have an open date this Saturday, but Brown has no intention of taking things easy.

This reporter jokingly asked if the boys had this past Monday off due to their Saturday effort. Brown, looking surprised, said, "Are you kidding, they'll have this Saturday off, and that's it."

He then went on to tell what he had in mind for the two weeks. There will be a scrimmage game with the underclassmen challenging the upperclassmen. Brown will also spend time on some new plays he plans on introducing. "The boys have indicated that they are ready for some new plays."

A weapon that Brown used so effectively in the past has failed to materialize at Governor Livingston. — that is the punt return. Brown said, "Everytime it looks as if we are going to break loose, something goes wrong. When this starts to work, I'll feel we've really made gains."

With a quick glimpse at the scoreboard, it looks as if Livingston is already making gains.

Carteret Wins Lopsided Affair

Bulldogs More Like Puppies In Losing

Springfield Regional was given the shock treatment Saturday by a scrappy and determined Carteret bunch. The loss was an upset, personally. It was a rude-awakening for everyone connected with the highly heralded Bulldog squad which was expected to have their hands full, but yet come out victorious.

They never came close to bringing home a victory and living up to the very complimentary headlines that have followed them on their opening training. They were never even in the ball game. Their offense resembled the many futile rockets that never made it out of its launching pad.

Their defense was penetrated like the Marines taking Iwo Jima. The 298 yards that Carteret rolled up on the ground against a feeble 64 for Springfield is a fairly good indication of the lopsided contest.

There is one fact that can't be explained. How could the score be 6-0, with such conflicting figures. Herb Palmer gave one explanation of the score:

"We were just plain lucky to get off this easy. Our boys weren't mentally ready for the game, and they played like it. Boys with two and three years experience just didn't do the job for us. They weren't that good, we were just that bad."

A Little Luck Won It Springfield may have been lucky to get off as easy as they did, but Carteret scored on a somewhat lucky play themselves. It was along actual, that just eluded defender, Tuffy Hartz's finger tips.

But with such decisive figures in their favor, no one could honestly say, that Carteret was lucky to win the ball game. It was just a matter of time until the lacadaisical Springfield unit feel the impact of their lethargic play.

Springfield got off on the wrong foot. Not counting their poor attitude, they were hit with a penalty that off set a first down. This may have been somewhat of a setback, but they never attempted to fight back. As for the officiating, Coach Palmer had not just go through the motions, it could be another Carteret fiasco.

Coach Palmer has the utmost respect for this Somerville group. He confirmed this in his evaluation of them.

"Somerville is as finest team as we will probably face all year. They area a fundamentally-coached team that will run over you before you know what happened. They can hit for two and three quick touchdowns right at the start, and sit on it for the rest of the game. They may not be as good as they have been but unless we play a better game than we did against Carteret, the results will be the same."

A Couple Of Changes Palmer hinted that some of his past starters may feel the bench this Saturday. A lot depended on their performance in practice this week.

Monty Sica, one of the few that pleased Palmer Saturday, suffered a broken nose with four minutes left and may not see action this Saturday. If Sica can't make it, Frank Parrilli will go in his place.

A happy note, is that Karl Krichberger will be back in action this week.

It will be interesting to see if the Bulldogs play dead again this week, or they are going to go out and it substantiate all those headlines written about them.

Gallant Raider's Finally Break

Hold Canucks First Half, Fall in 2nd.

After playing six consecutive quarters of inspired football, the Blue Raiders of Scotch Plains could go no further. A devastatingly potent North Plainfield squad eventually broke through this wall of inspiration to run up 26 points in the second half bringing them a 33-7 win.

Don't let this score fool you; the Raiders were very much in the game. Chuck Nelson, who plays it to the hilt every Saturday to win, did just that this Saturday. He said, "We could have played for the close loss something like 20-7, but I would rather take chances and go for the win. Unfortunately very few of our gambles paid off for us, and as a result North Plainfield ran up a bigger score."

Even after a half week, the Raiders fought heroically as the underdogs. As the first half ended, the had managed to hold the Canucks even at 7-7. At this point, Nelson sincerely felt that he was going to win the ball game.

The first half saw the Raiders completely bottle up passing and running star, Ted Amo and his two all-county ends. The second half was something else. Amo started hitting his ends, the Raider line didn't give a good rush, the secondary was coming up too fast embaling passes to be completed and the Raiders were out of the game.

NOT SURPRISED This a comparatively young Raider team, and Chuck Nelson knew before the start of the season that they would be making many mistakes. It has been unfortunate that they have faced two of their toughest opponents before they had a chance to get their feet wet.

On the positive side, one could say that the experience they have received against the top teams, will provide them with the savvy to handle their remaining opponents.

Nelson feels that if he could get his offense to "jell" the Raiders would start to show their heels. It is hard to explain what a coach means when he refers to an offense "jelling," in essence it is the offensive unit starting toward their destination, all or the same count.

SHOULD GO THIS WEEK This should be the Raider's week. They will have Curt Callhoun back in action along with a healthier Buige Springer.

At full speed Springer should be able to get the Raiders moving against Piscataway, Saturday.

A little praise should go to Willie Jones. According to Nelson he is a "real tiger" on the field. He wants to play ball, and he wants to win. This shows very conclusively in his performances week after week.

When Chuck Nelson was queried on what to expect this Saturday, his answer was very simple, but very practical. "Touchdowns I hope." We'll go along with that.

Bulldog Booters Off To Fast Start Under Swedish

After 15 years, Coach John Swedish has found himself once again involved in soccer. Not since his college days has Swedish dealt with soccer, but he is happy to be back with the sport.

Admittedly football is his favorite sport, but the amiable coach enjoys his work as head basketball and soccer coach, along with freshmen baseball mentor.

His background in basketball has helped quite a bit in coaching soccer claims Swedish.

"In both sports you have a certain type offenses and defenses that are very similar. The fast break in soccer is used just as often in basketball. The W offense in soccer can also be applied fundamentally to a basketball offense."

MAKING PROGRESS

Swedish has been working at a pressure-pace trying to get his boys ready for the season. He wasn't notified until late summer that he would be the new soccer coach, and having been away from it gave him little to prepare.

While winning three games, Swedish is still trying to find the best place for his candidates. At this point his starting contingent is:

Dennis Frances, goalie, soph. Elliot Wortzel, fullback, jun. Bob Vanning, fullback, senior.

Rich Yzart, inside right, senior (letterman).

FACED WITH PROBLEMS

Swedish claims he has not been totally satisfied with his halfback and fullback situation. He probably will be alternating his players until a combination is found that pleases him.

His front line has pleased Swedish.

Paul Biddleman and Steve Zeger will provide Swedish with the necessary bench strength. A freshman, James Walker has impressed Swedish to an extent, that Walker will probably letter this year.

This is John Swedish's fifth year at Springfield; if his soccer team can win some games for him, it may develop into his most enjoyable.

Schnitzer Will Describe School Phys Ed Program

Scotch Plains — Raymond L. Schnitzer, director of athletics for the Scotch Plains-Fanwood school system, will be the speaker at the October 12 meeting of the Association for Good School to be in the Southside Firehouse at 8:15 P.M.

Schnitzer and the heads of his departments, who will accompany him, describe the physical education programs and facilities of the elementary, junior high and senior high school. He will then welcome questions and discussion from the audience. The meeting is open to the public.

Those participating in the program with Schnitzer will be: William Seider, girls' department, senior high school; Alfred Formichella, boys' department, senior high school; Mrs. Donald Springer, girls' department, junior high; Fred Perone, boys' department, junior high; Louis Frezza, supervisor of elementary physical education; and Charles Nelson, head football coach. Both the curricular and extra-curricular programs will be discussed.

Schnitzer has been with the local school system for seven years. His previous experience includes serving as the director of athletics at the Jersey City YMCA and teaching physical education at Paterson State Teachers College. He holds a BS degree in Education from Panzer College of Physical Education formerly located at East Orange, and now a part of Montclair State Teachers College.

It was at Panzer that Schnitzer met his wife, the former Betty Dube, a native of Plainfield. She was also a physical education major and is still an enthusiast as her husband about sports activities. The Schnitzers now have four children: Steven, 9, Kristine, 7, and Ray Jr., 5 all attend School 1. Beth Ann is 9 months. The family resides at 228 Haven Ave. Scotch Plains.

Schnitzer served in the Navy Air Corps, in the Pacific theater, from 1943 to 1945. He received the Distinguished Flying Cross. Herbert Samenfeld, Chairman of the Association for Good Schools, has announced that during the business meeting Harry Schwyring, chairman of the committee on tax resources, will present an interim report from his committee. Robert Thompson chairman of the committee on local industry will make his committee's report.

Paul Kadlic, of Springfield will be in the starting backfield for the Trinity College freshman team when it opens its season. The Trinity coach will be attempting to emulate last year's unblemished record, under Coach Chet McPhee. A total of 44 candidates turned out for the opening practice.

Football Clinic

To Hold Parents Day Next Sat.

Ed Ruby, Director of Springfield's Recreation Commission, has announced that on October 15 at the Regional High School athletic field the newly-formed football clinic will hold a Parents' Day.

On this day the parents will observe their children performing various football fundamentals.

The Clinic, under the leadership of Henry T. King, V. Albano, T. Taglienti, D. Wodach, F. Rhinacock, B. Marion, D. Tomkins, P. Kernos, B. Hagendush, and G. Schilling, teaches proper skill in the basic fundamentals of football. They stress development of good sportsmanship, health standards, and teamwork and help aid the youngsters in developing their physical attitudes.

The youngsters meet in the bleachers for a short talk and then go off into their particular groups. They learn only one set defense—a six-man-line—and the Clinic encourages free scoring.

PRE-GAME PEP TALK — The starting eleven, Vizzoni, Arno Paessler, Richard Uizat, Dan Golden and Larry McConkey, (standing) Charles Muratore, Elliot Wortzel, Bill Peacock, Dennis Francis and Bob Vanning. Pirates Win Opening Game 33 Years Coming

It took them 33 years, but the Pittsburgh Pirates have won a World Series Game. The Pirates took the opener yesterday, as sore-armed Vernon Law pitched eight innings yielding just 2 runs. The Pirates wasted no time, as they knocked out starter, Art Ditmar, in a third of an inning, reaching him for 3 runs. Roger Maris, Elston Howard and Bill Mazeroski homered in the game. The Yankees hit the Pirates, 13-8, but the Yanks made two errors. It will be Bob Friend and Bob Turley in the second game of the series today.

Springfield Upset 5-3 By Linden Booters

Regionals first loss of the 1960-61 soccer season was handed to them by a fired up Linden team. Linden who was the underdog before the start of the game came into play with a will to turn Springfield upside down, and virtually did. Vince Iraggi led the Linden Cougars with four goals.

The Springfield club led for only 12 1/2 minutes of the first period. Then the fireworks started, and Springfield's net minder Dan Francis was really kept busy. The first score was set at 12 1/2 minutes of the first period. Stan Martin passed to Iraggi who booted a 20 yard goal, and the first Linden score.

CYO Keglers Set For Loop Action

CYO bowlers in junior and senior classifications are getting their score sheets and rubber-soled shoes ready for another season at the lanes. Ray Molnar, CYO program director, foresees the biggest year ever.

The juniors, boys and girls up to 18, won't begin rolling until after the first of the year, but Lou Freidel, who supervises the leagues, is starting his organization work now. The junior leagues had 11 entries last year in separate boy and girl divisions. This year, at least twice that number expected.

Plans now are for splitting the entry list into Elizabeth and suburban loops, with separate boy and girl leagues in each loop. It is likely the city leagues will use Twin City Lanes again, according to Freidel.

Freidel, a stickout kegler in adult competition, is polling the potential entries on scheduling. The choice will be among Saturday morning, Saturday afternoon or Sunday afternoon. The leagues rolled at noon Saturday last year.

Start At Echo The seniors, between 19 and 26, will begin another season on Oct. 16 at Echo Lanes, Mountinside. Last year's 14 team set will expand to about 20 teams this year, according to Molnar. The competition is mixed in the senior class. Holy Trinity "A"

Team, representing the Westfield parish, took top honors last year and is expected to be in the running for the crown again this season. Both junior and senior leagues will run through the spring, concluding with tournaments in May. Winners go to the Newark archdiocesan tournament. Immaculate Conception, Elizabeth, girls' team was last year champion in the junior archdiocesan roll offs.

HE IS USING HIS HEAD — Amerigo Checchio is the scholarly gentleman using his "bean", as he bean lost 2-1, checking Checchio's form in Tom Hackett, Bill Brynildsen, Coach Al Formichella. Regional. Checchio's practice, paid off for him as ed as a Regional starter. Joe scored from ten yards out. There was no assist on the play. The time eight minutes of the second period. The last goal which boosted the Regional tally was made possible by Larry McConkey, who made a spectacular kick at thirteen minutes of the last period. A opener kick taken by Larry curved off the goal post and deflected in, a beautiful goal. Nice work Larry.

INSIDE... UNION COUNTY

by S. Sarokin
Politics Begins To Boil

The first unprecedented debate between Vice-President Richard M. Nixon and Senator John Kennedy has developed individual interest and varied reaction. All viewers are in agreement on one point—both men acted as gentlemen.

Union County Democratic leaders, however, do not believe that Peter J. McDonough, youthful aspirant for a Freeholder post on the Republican ticket, is entitled to such bi-partisan praise. The Democrats are charging him with misstatements of facts and untruths. They claim his press releases are sufficient proof.

Union County Register James J. Delaney charged the Republican Freeholder candidates with conducting a "big lie campaign." From another quarter, James J. Kinneally, Democratic County Chairman, was so incensed at the Republican Freeholder Candidate's statements that he appointed a truth squad to counteract the G.O.P. allegations.

From all reports the personal organization of Congresswoman Florence P. Dwyer is moving in high gear. Jack Dunn of Westfield, her Democratic rival of 1958 and present opponent, has enlivened his campaign by forming Dunn Groups throughout the county.

Mrs. Dwyer, an experienced and aggressive campaigner, has shied away from the attempts of the three Republican Freeholder candidates to tie on to her campaign. In past campaigns she has usually played it solo and has been successful.

The Republican County Organization is elated over the recent success of the fair held at the Westfield Armory and the twenty-five dollar fund-raising dinner at the Shackamaxon Country Club. The proceeds, estimated at $9,000, will be a welcome addition to their treasury and will provide the means to enlarge a paid campaign force. The Republicans are also looking forward to a large financial return from their annual year-book publication.

The Democratic Freeholder incumbents, Edward J. Carlin, M.D., Director Thomas J. O'Brien and William Dalziel, are being extolled for their accomplishments of improvements at Rumlle's Hospital, additional financial assistance to local hospitals and added bed space for the chronic ill at the county institution by welfare groups throughout the county. They hope to retain control and have the opportunity to finish the project they have started.

The walls of the Court House shook last Thursday night when the operation of the County Civil Defense was aired. The issue centered around the need for improved quarters. For the last nine years Civil Defense county headquarters have been located in a building at the county Roads and Engineering Department, South Avenue, Scotch Plains.

Evidence of politics entered the fray when the three Republican Freeholder candidates along with Dr. Karel, County Medical Coordinator and unsuccessful Republican candidate for councilman in Elizabeth last election, joined forces in condemning the present and past Republican Boards for inaction.

In 1958 the Republican controlled Board took no action on a proposed underground shelter for Civil Defense operation which, if built under government specifications and government financial participation, would have cost the county approximately $300,000.

The Democrats are trying to solve the problem by providing necessary space for Civil Defense but bluntly state that a $300,000 expenditure for the underground shelter is out of the question.

Five Republican Mayors joined together and requested the Board of Freeholders to place a referendum on the ballot to determine the method of financing the County Vocational School. The method of financing will undoubtedly develop into a campaign issue.

The facts, however, are as follows: A referendum by the Board of Freeholders would mean nothing. The method of financing has been established and would require action by the legislature to change it.

In December of 1959 the Board of Freeholders requested State Senator Robert C. Crane and the Assembly delegation to pass legislation in Trenton which would permit a referendum that would be binding and effective. Under the circumstances, the present Freeholders say they feel that a referendum at this time, placed on the ballot by the Freeholders, would be nothing more than a farce inasmuch as it would give the Board no power to act. In this the Board of Freeholders is supported by many prominent educators in the county.

The establishment of technical training schools throughout the country have been strongly advocated by the present administration in Washington and the major costs of operating the present county technical institution in Union is being borne by the Federal and State Governments.

The stand of the Freeholders was reinforced recently by the Plainfield Board of Education wherein they detailed to the Common Council of Plainfield their stand on financing of the proposed Union County Vocational School.

In its report the Plainfield School Board recommended that the financing be done by appropriations made by the Board of Freeholders, the usual way of financing county services. They stated that the present Freeholder plan of financing the school was for the best interest of Plainfield. They noted that the growing need for skilled craftsmen in industry is a further reason for increasing training facilities.

GOP Mixes School & Politics Charge Dem Office-Seekers

UC Vocational School Has Become "Campaign Issue"

The three incumbent Democratic Freeholders, Edward J. Carlin, M.D., Thomas J. O'Brien and William Dalziel, today charged their Republican opponents with mixing schooling and politics.

The method of financing the proposed Union County Vocational School has become a hot County campaign issue. The Democratic trio charge that the Republicans are attempting to mislead the county citizens by advocating that the Board of Freeholders place a referendum on the ballot to determine the method of financing.

Edward J. Carlin, in a release today, states: "The Republican incumbents are fully aware that such a referendum would be a complete farce upon the electorate.

"They should know that the Board of Freeholders do not make the laws of the State and the method of financing on a county basis has been established and would require action by the State Legislature to change it."

Dems-Wanted Legislation

"We, the Democratic majority, in December 1959 requested Republican State Senator Robert C. Crane and the Assembly Delegation to pass the necessary legislation in Trenton to permit the voters of the County to determine whether or not the cost of operation be appropriated on a county basis or paid for by the individual municipalities on the basis of the daily average enrollment of students from the particular municipality. Senator Crane did nothing about it."

"Now the Republican strategists are attempting to make it appear that the Board of Freeholders could change the method by simply putting a referendum on the ballot. This is hypocrisy."

GOP Needs Campaign Issues

"We are aware that the Republican candidates are in need of campaign issues and will go to any extent in their desperation to issue misleading statements filled with untruths.

"Before they attempted to mix school and politics, they should consult with the various Boards of Education and seek their views. We would suggest that a Republican candidate for Freeholder who resides in Plainfield, consult with the Board of Education in his own town who wholeheartedly suggests the financing of the Union County Vocational School by appropriations made by the Board of Education."

Freeholders rather than on a per scholar basis. He might also find out from his own Board of Education that they have stated that "to run a school on the basis of each year's enrollment would make planning uncertain."

"They should also tell the voters when attending Republican meetings that the Technical Vocational School plan has been strongly advocated by the present Republican Administration in Washington who realize, as we do, that proper vocational training is an important adjunct in developing the working strength of our country, and for our national defense.

Dems Blast GOP Freeholders For "The Big Lie Technique"

Trying To Repair "Yesterday's Neglect" At Rumlle's Hospital

A four-plank platform was announced yesterday and last night at 100 Republican headquarters offices throughout the county by the three Republican Freeholder candidates, Peter J. McDonough of Plainfield, Harry V. Osborne, Jr. of Cranford and Edward H. Tiller of Garwood, and their campaign coordinators.

The platform: "1) Efficient management of county government and sound budgetary practices.

"2) Stop the bureaucratic trend of establishing offices at the county level which duplicate services administered more efficiently at the municipal level.

"3) Full support for an adequate county Civil Defense Program.

"4) A referendum to determine the financing procedure for the Union County Vocational School."

The platform was announced at Republican headquarters in Elizabeth, Union, Plainfield, Roselle Park, Cranford, Linden, Rahway, Westfield, Summit and Garwood.

Mary Kanane of Union, Raymond Moore of Hillside and Jay Steiner of Clark, the three Republicans already on the nine-member Freeholder Board, pledged their support for the candidates' platform. "The election of Peter McDonough, Harry Osborne and Edward Tiller will provide for a Republican major-

Kennedy Group Chairmen Named

George L. Sutton, chairman of the Berkeley Heights Citizens for Kennedy organization, has announced the names of a twelve-member Executive Committee.

"We are extremely fortunate," Sutton said, "to have such a dedicated and capable staff working for the election of John F. Kennedy. Our committee represents a wide variety of civic and religious organizations. We have members from every part of the local area; newcomers and residents who have lived for many years in this fine community."

In addition to George Sutton, the committee consists of Mrs. John R. Pierce, honorary chairman; William Munz, Public Relations chairman; Mrs. Martin Lurray, Events and Speakers chairman.

GOP Freeholder Aspirants Announce 4-Plank Platform

In a prepared statement from James J. Delaney, Campaign Manager for incumbent Democrat Dr. Edward Carlin in this year's campaign, he states:

They evidently feel the best technique to use to influence the voters is the "Big Lie" technique.

"The Big Lie Technique, used throughout the world today to break down existing governments, is very simple—tell a Big Lie often enough and people will believe it."

"Republicans are insulting the intelligence of the Union County voters by trying to 'Brain Wash' them with this technique."

"Roy Carey has been named coordinator of the Republicans—thus Union County residents can look forward to a real 'Brainwashing' in the 'Big Lie' Technique."

"In last year's campaign Republicans tried to pin the 'Free Spending' label on the Democratic Freeholders."

"They tried this knowing full well the record showed this to be an outrageous Big Lie."

"In reality, the Democratic controlled Freeholder Board was not spending big money. One of the jobs they were doing was on Rumlle's Hospital—repairing yesterday's neglect at today's prices. Under Republican rule a policy of Fix it—Patch it—Glue it—led to the loss of accreditation for this badly needed Union County institution."

neglect, the Democrats on this year's Board of Freeholders, namely Dr. Edward J. Carlin, has taken vigorous effort to overhaul and bring back accreditation to John Rumlle's Hospital.

"One example of this excellent project, being carried out by Dr. Carlin, will add 113 beds to the existing facilities of Rumlle's Hospital for a little less than $1,000 per bed. Compare this with the national average cost of $15,000 of adding new facilities for a hospital bed."

"In truth the Democrats are merely trying to salvage the harm done by Republicans when they ruled the County under the policy of 'Let's be penny wise and be pound foolish.' The voters will think we are saving them money."
