

Out-of-Town Commuters Push Out Local Shoppers From Parking Lots

Residents May Get Stickers

How to give local residents priority use of municipal parking lots was the problem of the Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night. Springfield parking lots are presently free and unmetered. The full parking lot situation has been aggravated by out-of-town commuters taking buses at Springfield Center and residents of General Greene Village, it was said. Former all-day parking facilities at General Greene Village have now been limited to two hours forcing many there to use the nearby municipal lot in Center and Hannah Streets.

During a recent police survey, Police Chief Wilbur Selander informed the Committee there were 104 cars at 10 A.M. and 100 cars at 1 P.M. in the lot which has capacity for 108 cars. He also enclosed in his communication prices for the installation of parking meters.

Committee Chairman Vincent J. Bonadies said that commuters come from as far as Morris County to park their automobiles and take the New York bus. Committee member Russel W. Sibole reported that recently out of 53 cars, twelve were from Millburn, eleven from Summit and only four from Springfield. When Number 1 lot near the Hershey Ice Cream Co. is filled—the commuters fill Number 2 lot in Morris Avenue Caldwell Place and walk the one block to the bus stop, it was said. Committee member Sibole said that he did not favor the idea of metering the lots but would prefer having the township attorney investigate the possibility of "resident stickers" and two hour parking limits. Commuters should be restricted or taxed rather than local residents who are paying the taxes, it was stressed. Committee agreed that the township attorney obtain sample ordinances from Summit and Millburn and proceed to establish along these lines.

Noting the number of cars parked at Township Hall Tuesday night, Committee member Howard A. Flammer pointed out most of them were "unauthorized" and said that a few of the parking spaces should be reserved for official business. "It is a tough time to park on meeting night," he said. A meeting was also being held by a group in the Legion Home building nearby. Committee member Russel W. Sibole agreed that he had a "small car" and he could not even find a spot, it forced him to do some walking, which did him some good, he said. He added that if Committee member Flammer would like it, they would put up a sign for him, Committee Chairman Bonadies reported he parked in the area reserved for police and expected a ticket when he went out. Committee member Daniel Lucy pointed to the seriousness of the matter by explaining that there would be no parking spots in the area if there was a fire alarm. Committee agreed that it should work out a parking program with the American Legion. Committee member Sibole said he would take immediate steps in this matter.

War Declared On All-Day Shopping Center Parkers

Apartment Curbs Set

Warning Tickets Annoy Buyers

On recommendation of the Planning Board, and amendment to the 1954 zoning ordinance was introduced for first reading at the Springfield Township Committee meeting Tuesday night. The measure will offer some regulation over proposed apartment houses built on property less than five acres. Township Attorney Irwin Weinberg explained that presently the planning board only reviews apartment house applications which involve five or more acres of land on which are located in apartment house zones. Apartment applications on smaller land parcels are presently only reviewed by the Board of Adjustment, which then sends a recommendation to the township committee for either approval or rejection.

The new amendment will also require the planning board's approval of layout, over which the board presently has no control. Committee member Russel W. Sibole termed the amendment "long overdue" and Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies said that it was of great importance to the community. Bids for the installation of sanitary sewers in Dundar Road, Mountain Avenue, South Springfield Avenue and part of Baltimore Avenue were also discussed.

Owners of the General Greene Shopping Center in Springfield have been testing a plan to cure the parking situation in the shopping area. But the repercussions have not been according to the written script. Springfield police officers, in uniform, have been placing warning tickets on all parked cars in the shopping center with the last paragraph threat that you are hereby warned that upon further violation of parking rules a criminal trespassing charge will be filed against the owner of this vehicle in the Municipal Court.

The shopping center owners have been faced with the problem of "all day parkers," those Springfield residents who found an easy solution to their parking problems due to commuting could park their cars all day in the General Greene Shopping Center and taking a bus to Newark, New York City or Elizabeth. All day parkers always gave the General Greene Shopping Center a "sell out" but store proprietors soon discovered why all their salespeople were not busy all day long. The cars really belonged to the theatergoers or the new York, Newark and Elizabeth store shoppers.

The warning notices have had some desired effect and store proprietors are now happy to see parking space for their regular customers. However, many regular shoppers are disturbed by the threat of the posted warnings reading that "free parking space is provided for use of patrons while shopping in business outlets within the Center, limited to a period of 2 hours."

According to some residents who have been regular General Greene Center shoppers, the warning is intended to discourage doing business anywhere else in Springfield while the cars are parked in the shopping center. One resident complain in writing to the General Greene Shopping Center management pointing out that to enlighten your Office No. 15-1 was shopping. I got out of my car at the bank and then came back to make purchases at the shopping center.

Anyone Need Mayor Issues Poppy Already Used PO Equip

The Springfield Post Office, which will be moving into new and modern offices in the near future, has on hand surplus used equipment that individuals might want. The following equipment is for sale: one metal cabinet with wire screen door; one wood cabinet with two doors; one wood distribution case with table; two oak chairs; one pendulum clock and three postal boxes. Invitation to bid on any or all of these items may be obtained from the postmaster. Bids will close on May 29 at 2 p.m.

I hereby proclaim May 24, 25, 26, and 27 to be Poppy Days in the Township of Springfield. I strongly urge that all our citizens observe this day by wearing a Memorial poppy. Mayor Bonadies said.

Mrs. Alice Milhon, Poppy Day Chairman for the Auxiliary, said this patriotic observance has been held in Springfield for a number of years. Since the American Legion and Auxiliary originated the idea of Poppy Days after World War I, the program has had two basic objectives: to serve as a memorial for the nation's war dead and as a tribute to all disabled veterans. The American Legion Auxiliary has always been pleased with the heartening response from the public to this worthy program. We are hoping that 1961 will be our best year to date. Mrs. Milhon said. According to the Auxiliary, more than twenty-five million of the familiar red crepe paper poppies have been made by disabled veterans in hospitals throughout the country this year. All donations received will go directly to either veterans or members of their families.

10th Anniversary Observed by Holy Cross Lutheran Church Serves Over 100 Families

Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 639 Mountain Ave., Springfield, will celebrate the tenth anniversary of the holding of Lutheran services in Springfield next Sunday, May 28. A special service of thanksgiving will commemorate the occasion, according to the Rev. Lester Messerschmidt, Pastor. Since the church was named "Holy Cross", his sermon will be titled: "The Cross of Christ."

The first Lutheran service was held in Springfield on May 20, 1951, in the auditorium of the Raymond Chisholm School with the Rev. Henry von Spreckelsen of Union delivering the sermon. Some 40 people attended the first service. Services continued to be held in the school auditorium until the spring of 1953 when the present chapel at 639 Mountain Ave. was dedicated.

Services were conducted by guest pastors from surrounding areas until the first resident pastor, the Rev. Eric Rieker, took over his pastoral duties on July 15, 1951. His pastorate extended over a period of five years, until the summer of 1956. For over a year the parish was without a resident pastor until the Rev. Lester Messerschmidt assumed the spiritual leadership of the congregation in July, 1957. Under his pastorate the church has grown to approximately 250 members, serving over 100 families in the Springfield-Mountainside area.

An expansion program was inaugurated in the fall of 1958, and in the spring of 1962 a new $100,000 church building will be erected to accommodate the growing congregation. The public is cordially invited to attend the anniversary service.

Regional Schools Complete Modern Mathematics Study

Teachers of seventh and eighth grade mathematics in the six constituent districts (Berkeley Heights, Clark, Garwood, Kenilworth, Mountainside and Springfield) of the Union County Regional High School District, along with members of the high school staffs, and under the direction of the New Jersey State Department of Education have been engaged in a year-long study of modern mathematics curricula in grades 7 and 8. Workshop sessions have been held monthly to discuss in detail the course content of various programs. At four of these sessions, Dr. Ernest Rannucci, Chairman of Mathematics Department at Newark State College was guest lecturer on related mathematics subjects.

As a result of these sessions, recommendations have been made through the superintendents of the constituent districts to introduce materials prepared by the University of Maryland in grades 7 and 8 on at least a pilot basis. Representing the State Department of Education were George Schienker and William Guthrie, State Consultants in Mathematics and Science. Representing the Union County Regional District was Joseph Sott, Coordinator of Mathematics. General Chairman of the group was Dr. Levin Hanesan, Superintendent of Schools in Mountainside. Dr. Warren M. Davis, Superintendent of the Union County Regional High School District was instrumental in having the State Department of Education undertake this successful venture. Tentative plans have been made for the continuation of this cooperative study during the next school year.

The group of district superintendents entered into a contract with the Temple University for the cooperative study of foreign language in the elementary schools.

Industrial Park Area Planned in Springfield Ave. Astronomers To Viewings

Springfield's campaign for more ratables - other than home building - received a boost this week with the announcement that the Elizabethtown Water Com-

Appointment Made By ESCA Corp.

Mr. Ernst Steinbrecher, 57 Essex Ave., Montclair, has been appointed Vice President and Chief Engineer of the Electronics Standards Corp. of America, at 1827 East Second St., Scotch Plains.

Mr. Steinbrecher, a native of Austria, graduated from the Institute of Technology in Vienna. He has served as a senior project engineer at MicroLab, Livingston, and research engineer in the Hanovia Division of Englehard Industries, Newark. Also as a project engineer in the industrial and scientific products division of Curtis-Wright Corp., Caldwell, and as a research engineer in the radiocommunication division of the Signal Corps Engineering Laboratories at Fort Monmouth.

Amateur Astronomers, Inc., with the cooperation of the Union County Park Commission, will hold four public observation programs this summer at Washington Reservation.

While visitors are welcome at the club's regular observations, members of AA felt that the interest in astronomy shown last summer by the residents of Union County warranted special programs this year.

The observations will be made from the large circle opposite the parking area at Surprise Lake. There will be a guide at the south side of the refreshment stand from 8:00 pm to dark, to direct visitors to the viewing area.

Members of AA, acting as host, will be wearing white arm bands for identification, and they will answer questions and locate and identify sky objects for visitors. The dates of these special viewings, with alternate dates in case the sky is not clear, are as follows:

Friday, May 26 - alternate, Saturday, May 27
Friday, June 23 - alternate, Saturday, June 24
Friday, July 21 - alternate, Saturday, July 22
Friday, August 18 - alternate, Saturday, August 19

In addition to the observations, visitors will be allowed to examine the optical equipment, most of which was made by the members themselves. The telescopes on display will range from a small 8-power elbow telescope to a giant 10-inch reflecting telescope.

Bob Miller, Mountainside, who helped arrange this summer program, said there will be at least a dozen telescopes available at each session, and if the response is as he anticipates, more instruments can easily be provided.

FRIENDSHIP ACROSS THE OCEANS—The Brownies of Troop 901 of Mountainside held an International Friendship program recently under the leadership of Mrs. Gay Cranford and Mrs. Robert Mullin. The girls learned about "our neighbors across the ocean" to better understand customs and attitudes that may appear strange until the reasons are known and understood.

For Fashion's Sake, Soften Your Elbows

Sleeves are getting shorter and gloves are getting longer in fashion circles these days, but milady's elbows definitely will be exposed.

Apply hand lotion generously and frequently throughout the day, massaging it into the elbows. Whisk off any excess with Kleenex tissues to avoid staining your garments.

If the elbows are darkened and soiled looking still, apply this homemade bleaching agent. Mix a teaspoon of salad oil with juice of half a lemon. Rub it on elbows, letting it remain a few minutes. Rinse off with tepid water.

Communities Fail to Meet Health Drive Proper Health Practices Head Named

Municipal Officials Attend Health Confab

Many communities are failing to meet good public health practices, Dr. Miriam Sachs, Metropolitan State District Health Officer, stated at a meeting of mayors and other officials of Union County municipalities last evening in Cranford. The meeting was arranged by the UC Tuberculosis and Health League to find ways to meet gaps in municipal health services which prevent effective control of tuberculosis in Union County.

Those officials attending from the Watchung area were Mayor Albert E. Hartung of Mountainside, Mayor Charles T. Todd of Fairwood, and Lewis B. Shalcross of Scotch Plains. Mr. Shalcross is executive secretary of the township.

"Communities have no choice about their health programs," Dr. Sachs said, pointing out that minimum performance standards of public health were drawn up by committees of health officers in 1954.

only part-time sanitarians available and no health officers.

Some communities, Dr. Sachs noted, can meet some minimum standards by using existing facilities, such as the laboratory of the State Department of Health. Public health nursing services vary from no coverage to adequate in the 21 municipalities in Union County.

Many questions about tuberculosis in Union County, according to Dr. Sachs, can be answered with the help of the Tuberculosis Case Register of the UC Tuberculosis and Health League.

Dr. Albert Minzter, medical director of the League's tuberculosis clinic, urged municipal officials to organize the facilities needed to bring about control of TB. Among the results of insufficient services, Dr. Minzter mentioned grossly inadequate bacteriologic checks in TB patients, three-fourths of cases not

To provide for these impromptu excursions, keep the hamper in readiness with paper napkins, cups and plates, and plastic or other types of "silver". Then all mother need do is pack the food just before taking off.

Sun-Bathers: Protect Eyes

Do you like to lounge in the sun? Don't be caught squint-eyed at the end of the day.

Beware, particularly, of sun-rays when you are lying face-up toward the sun trying to achieve a smooth, overall tan. Your eyes and eyelids are especially sensitive and require continual protection either with dark glasses or other eye-protectors.

Cooking Utensils

Proper care of the kitchen cooking utensils used at home will save you a lot of money and time. Outdoor cooking should be relaxed and fun. Let your reason to let down your guard be the weather.

When you cookware, be sure to wash it thoroughly in hot soap water using a brush, well, and completely with plenty of water. Thorough cleaning with the absorbent towels mentioned earlier. A rinse occasion with baking soda solution is a good ending.

How Picnic Pie

Use your juicy home-made pie in broken condition in a pie tin. Put the pie on top of the empty pie tin close to the bottom tin which holds the pie. Seal together with cellophane.

Take two pies in Kleenex and hold the towels in place with rubber bands. If any of the pies manages to seep out, absorbent paper towels will Approximately ninety people will attend the fourth annual Employer-Employee D. E. banquet given Tuesday afternoon at 12:30 P.M. at the Mountainside Inn, Mountainside, N. J.

Robert L. Kastner, Teacher-Coordinator, will introduce the various speakers as well as the two officers of the D. E. Clubs - Joyce Holmberg of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School D. E. Club and Anthony Verlatti, of the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School.

Perry Vaca, Sales-Manager, Wynn's Oil Company, will deliver the principal address "Opportunity Once in a Lifetime" and Robert L. Kelly, State Distributive Business and Distributive Education, will outline the future plans in store for Distributive Education in New Jersey and in the Regional District.

There will be two awards of Series E Bonds ($50.00 each) made to two people, one from each school, winners to be announced at the banquet.

The 40 students in the D. E. classes have earned, so far this year, about $38,000 working for 29 different firms. At the end of the year, Occupational Training Certificates will be awarded each student receiving satisfactory passing grades in both theory classes in school and work-experience grades, which the employer helps in establishing.

Dr. Warren M. Davis, Superintendent of Schools, states that much to be learned through their work and experience, and the employers, in giving the students an opportunity to gain this experience, are helping them in full-time and life-time work. He also states that he considers it a privilege to learn what it means to work while young and to learn how to do it, well and to your own satisfaction. Distributive

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Any ardent fishermen noticed that the fish have been jumping higher along the Railway River these past few weeks? This is due to the series of Reflector Dams built in the water to control the flow and fall of the current. This in turn keeps the fish from swimming down too fast or in undesirable sections of the river for anglers.

Perhaps also Ramblers have seen a group of wet-water rats in the form of Troop 70 Springfield Boy Scouts working in the river building these dams, evenings after school hours. McGerrah these boys have done a tremendous feat under the guidance of the New Jersey State Conservation wardens. Mr. Maling of the Springfield Police Dept. arranged this project in the interests of the whole community.

This is one time that the boys can go home with a clean conscience to get wet in the river! The younger boys of the Troop also got some more water fun in this weekend at Lake Minisink, Pennsylvania, the property of Mr. Schneek who teaches Health and Science at Gaudineer School, Springfield. It may have been cool here over the weekend but

Interest in Education Nets Rajoppi Honor at Rutgers U

Commended by Dr. Gross

Raleigh Rajoppi of Springfield was the recipient of the Rutgers medal at the annual commencement of the Union Leadership Academy held at Rutgers University Commons here on May 20. The medal, symbolic of distinguished service to the State University was conferred by Rutgers President Mason W. Gross. 'You have displayed,' stated the citation—read by Dr. Gross, 'a continuing interest in education over the years as manifested, for example, by your leadership in the purchase, by the Brotherhood of the William Hucheson Memorial Forest, a leading national center for botanical research. Further, you have encouraged members within your jurisdiction to participate fully in the educational program of the Rutgers Institute of Management and Labor Relations and have made it possible for your members to enroll in the Union Leadership Academy. For your interest in education, and especially for your interest in and support of Rutgers, The State University, I am happy to confer upon you the Rutgers University Award of which this medal is the symbol.'

Rajoppi, President of the New Jersey State Council of Carpenters, is also International executive-board member of the second district of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. The U.B.A., created six years ago by District 4 and the Labor Program of the Rutgers Institute of Management and Labor Relations, is now a cooperative endeavor of Rutgers, Penn State, Cornell and West Virginia universities, four departments of the AFL-CIO and thirteen international unions.

Girl Scout Council Picks Leaders

Mrs. C. J. Halinger of Plainfield, chairman of the established camp committee of the Washington Rock Girl Scout Council announces the selection of Miss Mary Lou Scudato as director of Camp Blue Heron, Sparta, N. J., and Mrs. R. K. Dearing of Westfield as director of Camp Lou Henry Hoover on Swartwood Lake, Middleville, N. J. Miss Scudato is a member of the council's professional staff. Although new to professional scouting she participated in troop activities in Roselle Park and has a long-time interest in camping. Through her past experience Miss Scudato has developed an outstanding administrative ability in addition to a fine understanding of young people.

The established camp committee and the council's program department, in consultation with the two directors, have completed plans for expanded program opportunities at both camps for the 1961 season. Emphasis will be placed on patrols of six to eight girls planning their own program under the guidance of trained staff, affording each girl an opportunity to pursue her special interests in camping and in related fields such as the arts, nature, water front, etc.

The sites and facilities committee, under the chairmanship of William Williams of Linden, has made a great many improvements in both camps. During the spring, buildings have been painted inside and out, new structures added and the sites readied for the camp. Both Camp Blue Heron and Camp Lou Henry Hoover will hold four two-week sessions from July 2 through August 26. Each session at Camp Heron is open to 92 girls entering the fifth and sixth grades each session at Camp Hoover is open to 146 girls entering 7th through 12th grade. Registrations are now being accepted at the Girl Scout Office, 201 Grove St., Westfield. Registrations are now being accepted for both registered members of the Girl Scout movement and to non-scouts.

Discuss New Blood Plan

A meeting of the Westfield Mountainside Blood Donor Service was held May 15 at Red Cross Headquarters to discuss a new blood program to service Westfield and Mountainside. This new program would be part of the New York Regional Blood Program of Red Cross and would be serviced by blood mobile units from the New York Center. Until this time town-wide coverage had been available under the present ambulatory blood program and the only requirement for receiving blood is that the person be a resident of either Westfield or Mountainside. However, due to the scarcity of volunteer donors the present program is becoming inadequate. Under the new blood program, various civic, fraternal and residential groups will participate by recruiting donors from among their members in order to give coverage to their membership as a whole. Anyone who is not affiliated with one of the participating organizations may have this blood donor service made available to him by enrolling in a special group which will be operated directly from Red Cross. The success of this or any blood program, however, will depend upon the support it receives from Westfield and Mountainside residents.

Before starting their door bell ringing stint, the girls met in the home of the campaign chairman, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Bell of Richelle Pl., for instructions and distribution of kits, and returned after their canvass to map plans for a similar project next Sunday. Doris Stalbaum of Westfield was chairman of the group. She was aided by Jean Kellogg, Jan Callaghan, Patricia Rose, Linda Allan, Carol Lynne Bell, Marie Hauck, Patricia Cherry and Patricia Schuler, all of Scotch Plains.

Educational Experience Again Offered Thru JDR Slow-Course

During the past four years a special program for the slow learner has been in operation in the high schools of the Union County Regional High School District No. 1. This program provides a set core of educational experiences for slow learners in personal, social, academic, and vocational areas. Its aim is to offer students in this category a sound academic training as well as to equip them with skills that are saleable when they graduate from high school.

Students are initially selected for this program from eighth-grade classification tests. Those students whom the district psychologist recommends for the program are interviewed with their parents. Parental consent and student consent are necessary before admission is granted.

Those students who are accepted into the program are tried for one year. At this point the plan of the program is extremely flexible in that, if sufficient progress is made, a student may be rescheduled for the regular program during the following year or they may participate in a part-time program. If progress so warrants, the student may remain in the core program for the remainder of his high school educational experience.

The core program emphasizes academic growth, remedial instruction, and vocational exploration during the first two years. During the third year, the vocational emphasis increases with stress upon occupational study and selection. The courses in occupations and work-adjustment training lead to selection of an occupational endeavor which is learned on the job in the four-year work-study program. This last year represents a diversified occupations program under which the students are offered paid part-time work experience in which their progress is supervised by their employer. The program coordinator from the school district.

At the end of the four year program the student is graduated from the high school with a diploma and with the educational training received, he should be in the most favorable position to take his place as a citizen, worker and community member.

The core program for the slow learner is operated at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School and is open to all qualifying students in the Union County Regional High School District No. 1. Dr. R.T. Jacobsen, Principal of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, presented the core program plan at the Annual Convention of the National Association of Secondary School Principals which was held in Detroit early in the Spring. A summary of this presentation was published in the Bulletin of the Association.

Dems Set October for Governor's Golf Day

James J. Kinneally, Union County Democratic Chairman, announced today that the County Committee will have its first Annual Governor's Golf Day at the Suburban Golf Club in Union on Thursday, October 5.

State School Annual Red Cross Plans Varied Drive Falls Short Study

From June 22 to August 4, Summer Session will be held at Montclair State College. Courses ranging from reading-improvement to dramatics, Math Institutes to Home Economics will be made available during that period. The regular summer session will be held June 26 to August 4, along with several short-term workshops. These include an "Alcohol Education Workshop" for health teachers, school nurses and guidance counselors; two in driver education, a one-week PTA Workshop, and two in home economics covering supervision and classes for educable and retarded children.

There will be two National Science Foundation Institutes in Mathematics. Demonstration opportunities will be abundant at Montclair S.C. this summer. A summer theater workshop and a reading improvement laboratory. These represent at least two major productions of the college.

For the first time in the history of the Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross the local fund drive failed to reach its quota. At the May meeting of the Board of Directors, Allan R. Cunningham, chairman of the drive for funds and members, announced that only $5,126.63 of the $5,400.00 goal had been received to date. Cunningham lauded the efforts of the Area Directors, District Captains, and neighborhood volunteers who diligently boosted the figure. He praised those who contributed generously to the work of the local Red Cross. It was noted that despite the failure to reach the goal, citizens interest and appreciation of Red Cross services to the community was at an all-time high.

The Board of Directors decided to exert every effort to gain additional funds to enable all existing services of the Springfield Red Cross program to continue functioning. Of particular concern were the First Aid and Water Safety committees, including the Learn-to-Swim program, the Motor Corp activity, and Canteen Committee work. Any business men who were not reached during the drive or who have not as yet sent in their contributions are urged to mail their contributions to the Springfield Red Cross, 13 South Trivet.

Mrs. Carl Ledig, Motor Corp chairman, reported on a busy two-month period for the drivers, with at least one call or delivery averaged daily. The Canteen Committee under Mrs. George Walton reported serving coffee and buns to the firemen returning from fighting the recent fire disaster at the Houallie Construction Company. Mrs. Gertrude Quinlan and Mrs. Harry Quinlan assisted in this service.

The Board of Directors decided to table action on the proposed new Blood Bank program until the financial status of Chapter is studied in view of the failure to reach the fund goal. Although there is no charge for blood given by the donors to the Red Cross Blood Bank, there is heavy financial expense shared by the local and national Red Cross to process the blood for the blood bank. And the burden of the local chapter is greatest in sharing with the recipient the cost of the processing and administering of the plasma to the patient. Once the blood program is underway the cost to the local chapter has been estimated at between $500.00 and $600.00 annually. The request for blood from the Springfield Chapter has been high, so that the Board hopes that additional funds will be received that the Springfield Chapter may offer this valuable service to the community.

Banker Urges Home Owners To Repair Property Damage

Referring to a recent report to the Home Improvement Council in Washington in which it was brought out that 40 million homes in this country need $69 billion worth of repairs, Loren F. Gardiner, president of Crestmont Savings and Loan Association of Maplewood and Springfield, emphasizes the importance of home owners of keeping their properties in proper repair. Because of damages caused by the severe winter, as well as normal deterioration, Mr. Gardiner estimates that in the area served by Crestmont 7000 homes need $12 million worth of repairs just to maintain their present value. This estimate does not include any modernization which will enhance the value of the properties.

Mr. Gardiner points out that owning a home is the largest single investment most persons make in a lifetime. "It is a sound investment," he adds, "providing security for the future. It is, therefore, important that the homeowner protect his investment by keeping his property in proper repair and improving on it."

"Home improvement loans for making necessary repairs or for modernizing by installing a new kitchen, remodeling a basement, insulating a house and other improvements are easily arranged," states Mr. Gardiner. "Such loans may be made for as much as $3,500 on a one-family unit with as long as five years to repay."

Mr. Gardiner adds, "We are fortunate in New Jersey in that dealers soliciting business for the improvement of homes are under the supervision of the banking department of New Jersey, thus correcting many abuses which have been prevalent in the past. However, it is still important that the homeowner make sure that he is dealing with a reputable contractor, and that is a field where the lending institution, such as Crestmont, can also be of great help."

Exhibits Sculpture In Newark

Joseph T. Domarek, 1482 Fox-trail, Mountainside, is one of the artists included in the third Triennial exhibition of New Jersey artists shown currently at the Newark Museum. Mr. Domarek has a welded bronze sculpture entitled "Archain Arboretum" on exhibit. Over 1200 works of art were entered and the jury, composed of H. Harvard Arnason, vice president for Art Administration of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation of New York; Kyle Morris and Walter Szmielew, selected 108 art works including 17 sculptures and oil paintings.

Mr. Domarek has been awarded a prize at the Monmouth College Festival of Arts for his oil painting, "Surging Surf."

Mr. Domarek was recently elected president of the National Society of Casein Painters, vice president of the Associated Artists of New Jersey and Director and Chairman of Exhibits of Audubon Artists, Inc., New York.

Friday, the team to beat, Sulphur Springs, came from behind to win over Berkeley Recreation. Gelger pitched well for Berkeley Rec but lost the lead when he threw wild to third base with two men on. One Scene Seen By Hill Players

One scene from Clara Boothe Luce's play, "The Women" will be given by the Stony Hill Players before their last meeting on May 31 at the Berkeley School. The time will be 8:15 and members and patrons are invited to attend.

May and Dick Gould of Twin Falls Road are directing the scene. The Goulds are well steeped in back stage and on-stage theater. Dick Gould has the male lead in the Players' full production as well as Higgins in Pygmalion, and May has played many character parts including that of Mrs. Higgins.

Thirty-five back-biting women snipe at each other without the benefit of one man in the twelve scenes of the play, eleven of which to be given takes place in a Reno hotel room where a kicking, hair pulling, scratching "fight" breaks out, not, however, with all thirty five women participating. Only six will be performing. They are Sue Wadas, Dot Brown, Jo Ray, Ginny Takacs, Orris Messner and Nancy Gilmore.

Another item to be discussed at the meeting will be the Stony Hill Players picnic to be held on June 17th.

Steve Allen, after a year's absence will return to television as star of "The Steve Allen Show," a weekly comedy-variety program on ABC-TV, beginning Wednesday, October 4. Allen, holder of TV's Peabody Award, Sylvanus Award and Look Magazine TV Award, promises several new features in his new telecast.

In keeping with his tradition of introducing new talent who grew to star stature after appearing on his programs—among them Shelley Berman, Mort Sahl, Mike Nichols and Elaine May, Steve Lawrence, Edydie Gorme, Andy Williams, Don Knotts, Bill Dana and Tom Poston—he plans to showcase fresh, young talent, giving them their first national exposure. In addition, members of the old Steve Allen gang will be on tap from time to time, as well as occasional guest stars.

Richard (Have Gun, Will Travel) Boone has reached an agreement with MGM-Records to narrate a series of stories of Jesus for children, based on scenes from the Bible as depicted in the Samuel Bronston production, "King of Kings" to be released by MGM. It will be released in the fall.

Jesse L. Lasky, Jr. son of one of the great Hollywood pioneers, has written an excellent portrait of a movie-producer-showman-executive in the days when Hollywood was in its hey-day. Titled "Naked in a Cactus Garden," and published by the Bobbs-Merrill Co., Inc., Mr. Lasky, a screenwriter and an author with three novels and three books of poems to his credit, grew up in the Hollywoods and is a very fine chronicler of happenings in the movie capital.

LOOK/LISTEN: Teenage recording artist Mike Clifford cut new sides for Columbia a couple of weeks ago and makes his debut on Ed Sullivan's CBS-TV show Sunday, June 11.

Don Ameche and Frances Langford will record an album, "The Bickerson," based on their old radio character.

Julia Meade is on a cruise with her husband and baby and is getting a rest before her summer stock acting, singing and dancing tour which begins June 5.

SEE-HEAR: Veteran comedian actor Arnold Stang will provide the title role voice of "Top-Cat" the leader of an alley-fell of New York felines, in ABC-TV's new cartoon series debuting in the fall. Stang replaces Michael O'Shea, who bowed out of the T.C. voice role because of an imminent live-action series, according to Hanna-Barbera Productions, producers of the new series.

Bobby Darin and his actress bride Sandra Dee, is off to Hawaii for a brief holiday.

"The Allan King Show," a special one-time comedy program starring the rising young comedian will be presented on CBS-TV Monday, September 18. Show is actually the pilot for a proposed new teleseries.

Mort Gottlieb and Henry Guettel have packaged a production of "The Fourposter," starring Steve Allen and his wife Jayne Meadows, for a seven-week summer tour. The two-character play will first be presented for two weeks beginning Tuesday, June 26, at Chicago's Edgewater Beach Hotel. It will play Detroit for two weeks during its subsequent tour.

A bank dedicated to helping the community grow and prosper

A community is entitled to the best services that banking can contribute to its economic health and growth — for banking is as basic a community service as water supply, police and fire protection, schools and libraries.

This is the philosophy and policy that has guided National State since its founding 149 years ago.

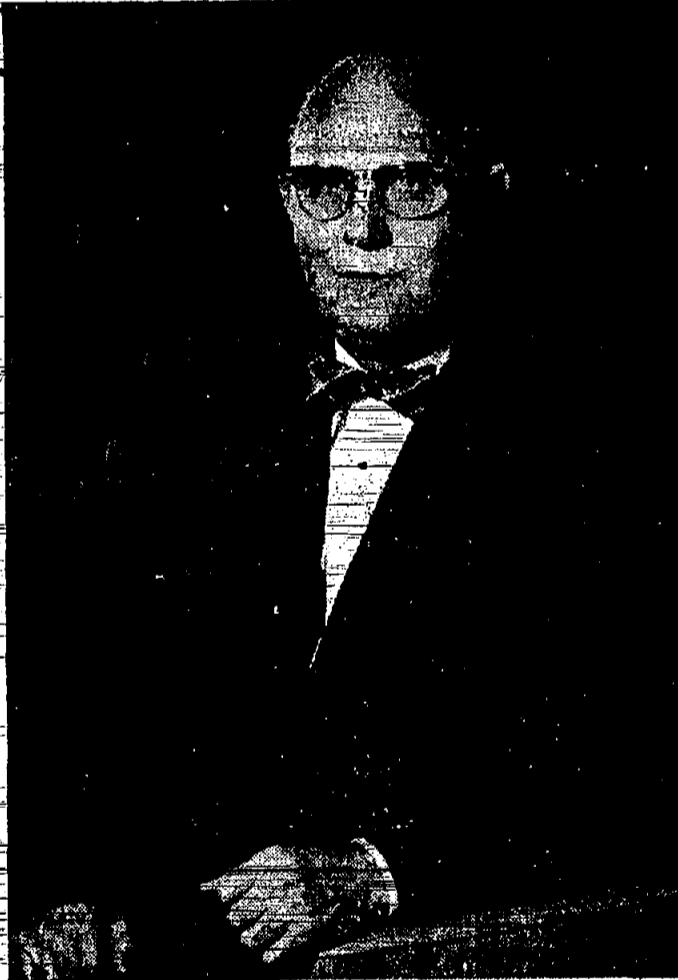

That is why you will find at the Millburn Office of National State such exceptionally convenient facilities as three drive-in windows, an ample parking lot adjoining the bank — and inside the bank a large staff of competent, courteous neighbors to serve you through more than 30 helpful banking services, for business, home, and personal needs.

LOREN F. GARDINER
President
Crestmont Savings and Loan Association

"One of the facts of business life which I learned early in my career is this: Leave to the experts those matters in which the expert excels, and that applies to plumbers or printers, bakers or bankers, lawyers or locksmiths.

"I stress this bit of philosophy because occasionally one of our homeowners asks me how he or she can sell their home. Without hesitation, I point out that selling real estate is not his or her business. Therefore, they lack information on comparative values, financing, mode of presentation and all the other techniques involved in the sale of a home. "Usually 'For Sale by Owner' signs attract curiosity seekers or bargain hunters. The net result is lost time, lost money. My recommendation is simply this: Place your confidence in a Realtor. He will represent your best interests. He knows how to show your house in proper perspective. He knows how to make prospects feel at home. He glamorizes what is good. He is familiar with the means by which you can secure your top dollar, and what more can anyone ask?"

JDRHS Students Complete Union Jr. Science Confab

A peek into the intriguing and expanding world of science has ended for four Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield students. They are Stephen Bender of 21

Ann Place; Alan Chaiet of 33 Cypress Terrace; Richard F. Johnson of 147 Pitt Rd, and L. Sanders Smith of 454 Meisel Ave., all of Springfield. They participated in the Union Junior College Science Seminar for academically talented high school students. Included in the series were lectures and discussions in the fields of mathematics, statistics, thermodynamics, astronomy, oceanography, nutrition, genetics, research and chemistry.

The purpose of the series was to challenge the gifted high school student intellectually and to create an interest in science and mathematics. The series was offered under a grant to Union Junior College from the Merck Company Foundation. Dr. Kenneth W. Iverson, UJC dean and seminar director, noted that the program attempted to increase the interest of able students in science and mathematics, and to help make them better overall students and increase their interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sklar, of 18 Anbridge Lane, have returned from a four-day visit to Washington, D.C., with sons Richard and Steven, who are eleven and seven years old respectively. Highlights of the trip was a chat the boys had in the lobby of the Shoreham Hotel with former first lady Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Birthday congratulations go to Mr. William DeLeonard, of 322 Milltown Road, who became one years younger on May 19. Bill and wife Annalee went to New York to see the hit show "Do Re Mi" on the previous evening; and then Annalee arranged a surprise party on Friday night, when Bill got home for the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 171 to find Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cardinal and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frieri waiting to wish him well for the coming year. Additional good wishes go to both DeLeonards on their fourteenth anniversary which was on May 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred J. Murphy, of 54 South Maple Avenue, announce the birth of daughter Margaret Mary, on May 15 at Overlook Hospital. The new addition weighed six pounds, twelve ounces at birth, and has a two-year-old brother Billy. Mrs. Murphy is the former Patricia Partridge.

Miss Ruth Lank, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. R. B. Lank of 60 Forest Drive, has returned from a ten week sojourn in Europe. Miss Lank vacationed and visited friends in Switzerland, Italy and France, on this trip, which was her fourth to the Continent.

Newcomers to Springfield are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Starr, and two-year old son Ira, who have moved from Hillside to 367 Meisel Avenue. Mr. Starr is the owner of the Community Plumbing Supply Company in Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lewis of 385 Milltown Road are back in Springfield after a six and a half week tour of the Mediterranean with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph eph Bender of 21 Ann Place. They visited France, motored through northern Italy, and went to Rome. They also spent time in Istanbul, Turkey (long enough to see the belly dancers); Tangier, Morocco, "at last" said Laurie "I've been taken to the Cashbah"; and Israel, where Laurie was able to attend the trial of Adolph.

Miss Marlene Ann Mercurio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mercurio of 436 Mountain Avenue, is one of the twenty-five finalists vying for the title of Miss New Jersey, at Asbury Park on June 11. The winner will go on to represent our state in the contest that culminates with the selection on Miss Universe. We all wish Marlene the best of luck.

Mr. Robert Seyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Seyle of 202 Linden Avenue, will be among the candidates for degrees of David Lipscomb College in Nashville, Tenn. on June 5. Young Mr. Seyle, who is a graduate of Irvington High School, is a candidate for a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education.

Springfield members of the Pinery Glee Club, which took part in a joint concert with the "Vail-Deane school last Saturday, are James Chalmers, who is a member of the Buttondowns; and Bruce Evans, Toshikazu Hatori, Kit Kennedy and Philip Thompson. Congratulations on her birthday go to Nancy Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peters of 38 Colfax Road, who was six years old on May 17. Nancy celebrated the big day with a party at which her guests were Susan Lobell, Mary Lou and Laura Schimoler, Diane and Linda Johnson, Jill Simon, Dorothy Jenzell and Gary Sklar.

Occupants of the new house at 14 Mohawk Drive in Smithfield Park are Dr. and Mrs. Richard Relkin and family. Small fry are five-year-old Susan and two-year-old Barbara. Dr. Relkin is an orthodontist with offices in Rahway.

GOP Fetes Mrs. Glaser For 40 Years of Service

The testimonial dinner in honor of Mrs. Helen Glaser of Plainfield, former chairman of the Republican State Committee, has been scheduled for June 5 at the Scotch Plains Country Club. Mrs. Glaser has served 40 years with the Republican Party. The general chairman is the honorable Florence P. Dwyer, Congresswoman from the 6th Congressional District. Her co-chairman is the honorable Donald H. McLean. Mrs. Amy Bandomer of Springfield, Union County Election Commissioner, is in charge of tickets. Other committee assignments will be released at a later date.

Letters to The Editor

Editor,

The move to saddle the taxpayers of Union County with an expensive vocational school has its roots in the American misconception of education. This belief considers education's purpose is to train young people in how to make a living. But the famous 18th Century educator, Pestalozzi, said that education led to a higher aim - "to qualify the human being to the free and full use of all the faculties implanted by the Creator." In its highest sense education's purpose is a spiritual one which helps the individual attain a finer and more mature understanding of his relationship to the Almighty and to his fellowman.

It certainly is not a function of the county to run a trade school. It is already in the hospital business, operating that white elephant, Runnels Hospital, which takes 1/7th of the annual budget. This school will be another one draining the people of their money and to what end?

To make skilled workers for the factories? If these businesses need skilled workers - let them pay for the training. Why should the county? As a matter of fact most businesses prefer to train their worker on-the-job.

The danger to the children is that if it is too easy to get into vocational school, the tendency will be to urge them to attend it if they cause some problems, rather than to be patient with them and encourage them to work hard so they can acquire the education which will make their lives meaningful.

Sincerely yours,
O.B. Johannsen

Good Vision

For continuous good vision, wash your sunglasses frequently. When out of doors, rinse them in clear water and polish dry with Kleenex tissues to remove finger prints and oily lotions. Indoors, warm soapy water and a soft brush that gets into the crevices of the frames will keep glasses shining.

Pat Carroll Bounces Into Paper Mill's Newest Play

Pat Carroll, the zingy TV comedienne who has won an Emmy Award and used to delight audiences as Sid Caesar's wife on the 'Show of Shows', arrives at Paper Mill Monday, May 29th. Miss Carroll, who graces several TV spectacles a year, will play Princess Winnifred, the leading role in 'Once Upon A Matress'.

'Once Upon A Matress', which won critical raves when it opened in New York, is based on the legend of the Princess and the Pea. The show originated at Camp Tamiment, in the Catskills which also spawned such talent as Danny Kaye and Judy Holliday. There, Mary Rodgers and Marshall Barer put the show together; Jack Sydow directed and the trio took it to the Paper Mill. The play will open next Monday, May 29th and continue at the Paper Mill thru June 24th. 'Destry' the Western musical starring Yvonne de Carlo closes Saturday, May 27th

Vacation Time—Planning Time: Things To Remember

The suitcases are packed, the car is all shined up and full of gas, and everybody is ready to go. It's vacation time! That's what summer means to millions of Americans. Whatever your vacation plans - a fishing trip, a drive through New England, camping in Yellowstone, or a visit with grandpa and grandma - don't overlook important details in the rush to get away.

If you'll need reservations for housing or transportation, try to make them several weeks before you leave home. And know where you're going. The time to plan your trip is before you leave, not when you're on the road. You can lay out your route yourself or you can get help from any number of sources. Mom should tell the milkman and the paper boy the family will be away, and Dad should make arrangements with a neighbor or friend to keep the grass mowed. A neighbor probably will be glad to take in the mail while you're gone. Be sure the car is in good shape and the tires, including the spare, are not ready to blow out. And make a check list of things to take along - swimsuits, fishing gear, golf clubs, hiking shoes, a tent, whatever you'll need. This list should include Kleenex tissues and paper towels, because you'll find a thousand and one uses for them on the way and when you get there.

or soft drinks all over the back seat. The mess is quickly wiped up and the towels thrown away. Don't forget to put a paper sack or container in the car to hold the used tissues and towels until you can dispose of them. You're a neat dresser at home, and you won't want to be one on the highway. Towels also will be welcomed if Dad has to fix a flat tire or make some minor repairs on the car. He can wipe off the oil, grease, and dirt with paper toweling and drive on to the next town or service station for a more complete cleanup. With the family in the car, highway safety will be even more important than usual. Keeping the windshields, windows, and lights clean with paper towels will help avert accidents.

It's a Colorful World For The Modern Homemaker. It doesn't take too much looking around these days to conclude that it's a colorful world we live in. It's a far cry from grandma's day, for instance, when you could have any refrigerator color you wanted so long as it was white. And it wasn't too long ago that automobiles were offered in black only. Now, color is everywhere, inside the home and out. The availability of color has given homemakers the opportunity of being their own interior decorators and of choosing the colors that best express their individuality. This is especially true in the choice of house and room colors, draperies, floor coverings, appliances and the like. It extends, too, to such everyday items as paper tissues and towels and shelf and drawer coverings which, most often, become part of the room's decor. Color choice is especially welcome in a product like paper napkins. Since there's no washing or ironing after use, paper napkins are a convenience product. But with a careful selection of color and a simple but attractive fold, they also can make a real contribution to the appearance of your table. New colors are constantly being introduced. Casual size napkins, for example, are offered in the unusual shades of blue, coral and gold. For brunches, buffets, breakfasts and bridge get-togethers. These are the informal occasions when you're likely to be using a colored tablecloth. The important thing to keep in mind when selecting a napkin color is that it should be a part of your complete table scheme, with the napkin matching or contrasting with the cloth of your choice. With informal napkins, it's best to keep the folds simple. It's proper to fold the napkins corner to corner into triangular shapes, with the point away from the plate, or you may want to use just a rectangular fold. Used imaginatively, paper napkins can help make your casual table settings both colorful and convenient. Carry a damp, soapy sponge in a container and a box of Kleenex tissues in the car for quick hands and face clean-ups when you go touring with the children.

Here's How To Avoid Lipstick Prints on Napkins

It is carelessness, if not plain bad manners, to leave lipstick prints on napkins, according to etiquette authorities. For this reason, in a household where the hostess is also the laundress, paper napkins are often used. At buffet meals and other informal gatherings, dinner size, plain white paper napkins, which are discarded once and thrown away, are particularly serviceable. Today's housewife just does not have the time for laundering or the space to give to large quantities of washables. Even so, getting unappetizing red smears of lipstick on napkins, whether paper or not, should be avoided, if for no reason other than the esthetic point. A careful application of lipstick before leaving for a party will eliminate most problems. First, carefully outline your lips with a lipstick brush. Fill in the outline, then blot with tissues. Dust a little powder over your lips. Add a second application of lipstick, and let this set a minute. Blot again. This tested method of application takes longer, but your lipstick will stay on for hours and shouldn't smear.

High schools in Union County in general offer find industrial arts programs, but there is a difference between this and vocational education. Industrial arts is part of general education and should be available to all high school students independent of their choice of vocation. If Union County high schools were to attempt a conversion of their industrial arts departments to vocational departments, they would in effect be exchanging a good program valuable to many for a limited program valuable to perhaps just a few, Mr. Baxel said. The Director of the Union County Vocational and Technical Schools said vocational-technical education is specialized education. It is not intended for everyone nor would society benefit by giving it to everyone, Mr. Baxel said. Vocational education implies an association with work and specifically it denotes a skilled craft or trade. Typical occupations are: machinist, toolmaker, electrician, auto mechanic, carpenter, beautician. Mr. Baxel said

Cite Needs, Reasons for County Vocational School

(This is the second in a series of three articles on the need for a vocational-technical educational program in Union County. They are based on information supplied by the Board of Education of the Union County Vocational and Technical Schools to the Board of Chosen Freeholders.)

Vocational-technical education requires a large population base to operate efficiently and economically. That report has been made to the Union County Vocational and Technical Schools. The freeholders are now considering a request of the Board of Education of the Union County Vocational and Technical Schools for a $3,880,000 bond issue for a vocational school. With a population of more than 500,000, Union County has a large enough base for such a program, Mr. Baxel said. He explained that it is difficult for a local community to provide a diversified program, which will satisfy the needs of most people.

this education would primarily offered at the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, but could also be made available at the thirteenth and fourteenth grade levels. Emphasis is placed on skill with a moderate background of technical knowledge, Mr. Baxel said. The director explained that technical education involves occupations where emphasis is placed on technical know-how with a moderate background in skill. Typical occupations are: Electronics technician, drafting design technician, laboratory technician, etc. This education would be primarily offered at the thirteenth and fourteenth grades, but could be made available at the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades in some cases.

Fancy Equipment Not Necessary For Corn Feast. An old-fashioned cornucopia feast doesn't require any fancy equipment to be loads of fun. Just pack a big kettle in which to boil the corn at the cooking site. Bring a long-handled fork to spear the corn out of the kettle, a pan in which to melt butter, some salt and pepper, shakers and a large roll of paper towels. Kleenex towels can help out innumerable ways. For instance, strain the fresh corn in fresh towels to keep the corn hot until you are ready to serve. Don't forget, too, that folded paper towels make excellent insulated holders with which to grasp those hot ears of corn.

Summer Shoe Care. Some of this summer's shoes are practically the wash and wear variety. They are sport shoes in suede or leatherlike materials which actually can be cleaned with warm suds. Here's how: Scrub the scuff marks off with sudsy water using a soft brush. Wipe suds off with dampened Kleenex towels, then soak up any excess moisture with the dry paper towels.

the theater. The orchestra will be seated with push-back seats and the balcony will be converted into a divan lounge.

The Paramount will have a gold and black decor and a new gold fiber glass curtain will adorn the stage. The mezzanine lounge will be decorated in a New Orleans motif with wrought-iron furniture. New sound and projection equipment also will be installed.

Summer Bills Set at Mill

The Paper Mill Club's summer season will open June 26 and will offer seven plays, including two pre-Seven play openings, in a 12-week season.

Cornelia Otis Skinner and Hans

Conrad open the "Summer Festival" on June 28 in "The Pleasure of His Company," which continues through July 8. Molly Picon and Martyn Green of Gilbert & Sullivan fame come in next in "A Majority of One," from July 10 through July 22.

A new play, "Between Seasons," follows, starring the legendary Gloria Swanson. After the July 24-Aug. 5 engagement, the play will tour several other showcases before opening on Broadway in the fall.

Celeste Holm returns to Paper Mill on Aug. 7 in Arthur Laurents' "Invitation to a March," to play from Aug. 7 through Aug. 12, followed by Gene Clark in Tennessee Williams' "Period of Adjustment," from Aug. 14 through Aug. 19.

Play It Cool With Summer Beauty Care

When the weather's at its hottest, the smart woman plays it cool. She glides into a well-chosen warm weather wardrobe of light cotton frocks and informal play clothes. She gets a pretty summer hairdo. She changes her eating and working habits.

And if she wants to enjoy the bright, sunny days without suffering the consequences, she adds new secrets to her file on beauty care, say the experts.

Here are some tips that will help you enjoy summer fun this year without paying the price of weather penalties:

COMPLEXION - Whether you spend lots of time at the beach, on the golf course, or in your garden, hot sun and wind will play tricks on your complexion unless you prevent it.

Special oils and creams will let you play or work in the sun without painful burning or bleaching, but you should make a careful selection of which oil or cream suits your skin best. When you wipe these preparations off, use clean, soft material such as Kleenex tissues.

If you do get a painful sun or wind burn, avoid washing the area with soap and water for a few days. Use rich creams lavishly, instead, and gently wipe the preparation off with tissues.

HAIR - Avoid swimming and riding, especially when you are out in the sun. Use hair conditioners to keep your hair well groomed, so it will need extra care in warm weather. Don't forget the brush just because the living is easier.

Attractive summer coiffures are fashionable as well as comfortable. Choose the right one for your taste this year, then keep it sparkling clean by frequent shampooing.

NAILS - "Green thumb" can be another term for extra wear and tear on the nails in summer, when you're gardening and caring for flowers. Gloves help, but you'll probably still get broken nails and they'll get dirtier in 20 minutes in the garden than they will normally in two months.

Keep your nail brush busy and use it to clean your fingers and toes. The same techniques you use throughout the year will apply, but you will have to work harder at it. Keep Kleenex tissues nearby to clean up your manicuring mess.

Try Shortcut To Quick Door Cleanup

What's the most familiar sound around your home in summertime? If there's at least one child in the family and if he's old enough to be outside, probably it's the sound of the screen door slamming.

It keeps Dad busy all summer repairing the screen where the youngsters push it out of the frame. And it keeps Mom busy cleaning up the messes that come with it.

One shortcut is a quick cleanup with Kleenex paper toweling moistened in soapy water. By keeping up with the smudges, Mom can save somebody in the family a job of repainting the door.

The Alamo Booked at "Loew's"

John Wayne's huge production of "THE ALAMO" is now showing at Loew's Theatre in Newark. John Wayne's Technicolor tribute to a proud chapter in American history will be shown at Loew's on May 25.

The immortal story of the fight for Texas independence was filmed entirely in Texas, only a few miles from where "THE ALAMO" today is a national shrine. It was at this famous mission-fortress that the exciting careers and quicksilver personalities of three of America's most colorful heroes were combined and where they ended in glory.

Richard Widmark plays the fiery Colonel Jim Bowie and Laurence Harvey is Colonel William Barrett Travis, the intrepid commander of 180 brave men who gave their lives for the cause of freedom everywhere. It seems incredible that less than 185 volunteers in a crumbling mission would even consider standing against 7000 battle-hardened professional soldiers—and yet it is a recorded fact.
