

BUSY, BUSY, BUSY—Irwin Street playground in Springfield is a busy spot this summer with approximately 140 registered youngsters taking advantage of the recreation facilities. Maryann Donington and Al Hector are recreation supervisors at this playground. These children are busy working on their "Around the World in Eight Weeks" project. Miss Donington reads a story to them each week pertaining to another country and then the children draw pictures about the country and the story. The Eskimos was last week's story. (Dick Schwartz)

Martin Deutsch, 43 Briar Hill Circle, who is probably Springfield's top amateur photographer, is it again — prize winning. The 1961 New York Metropolitan Summer Photo Contest sponsored by the New York World-Telegram has already awarded Mr. Deutsch two first prizes and two honorable mentions in the first three weeks of its 10-week run.

There are six winners each week, one for color prints and one for black-and-white in each of these categories: Children, Activities (which includes pets and portraits) and Scenes. Mr. Deutsch won first prize in the Scenes Black-and-White category, the first week, and in Children Black-and-White, the second.

Besides being a weekly winner last year, Mr. Deutsch won in the Regional finals and came in for a Special Merit Award in the National Finals. Only photos entered in the Regional competition are considered for National awards.

There are more than $29,150 in prizes in this year's Metropolitan Summer Photo Contest, including $1000 first prizes. Whether Mr. Deutsch will win any of this large reward for his skills remains a moot question. He's up against stiff competition — and the stiffest in this amateur-only battle-of-the-shutter-snappers comes from his home state of New Jersey.

Stickie Retires After 42 Years with Armour Firm

Completing 42 years of service with Armour and Co., Ellery Stickie, presently a resident of Springfield and for many years a resident of Paterson, retires this month from his position as manager of Armour's New York District.

Mr. Stickie started his work in the meat industry in 1919, when he joined Morris and Company as a clerk. This company later became a part of Armour and Company and Mr. Stickie continued with Armour, moving up through the ranks of assistant cashier, cashier and branch house sales manager in New Jersey and New York. He remained with Armour in Paterson until 1937.

In 1943, Mr. Stickie was moved to Armour headquarters in Chicago, where he held important sales management positions until 1957, when he was returned to the east coast as assistant district manager in the Philadelphia District. A year later he was named Philadelphia district manager, and a year after that he was elected manager of the New York District of Armour.

In commenting on Mr. Stickie's long service with the company, Henry E. Stepp, vice president of Armour, said: "We speak for his many friends in and out of the company in wishing him health and happiness in the years ahead." Mr. and Mrs. Stickie live at 35A Troy Drive.

916 Register At 8 Playgrounds Varied Activities Provided

The Springfield playgrounds have registered 916 children during the first week of the playground season. This large early registration shows the keen interest the children are taking in the activities offered at the eight playgrounds here in town.

Henshaw Playground has a registration of 175 children. The leaders at the Henshaw Playground are Norman Mueller and Barbara Heerwagen. During the first week of the Henshaw Tournament was held. Mark Mueller was the winner. Dennis Lies finished second and Robert Constanzer placed third. Paddle Tennis is popular at Henshaw with Keith Neigel and Bart Thiele showing the way. Another popular game at Henshaw is washers. The washer leaders are Donnie Bueher and Richie Campbell. The Henshaw Hurricanes, last year's playground league champs have organized their squad for this season. The team consists of Danny Lies, Richie Campbell, Dave Hinchings, Joe Bucchi, Ron Zarowitz, Joe Glazier, Dennis Bueher, Ricky Szles, Freddy Volherbus, Mark Hummel, Billy Aggar, Mike Guerra, and Billy Szles.

Regional Playground registering 128 children under the direction of Clint Measaker and Myrna Cyre had a busy week last week. Pencil holders were made by Elipse Wolfman, Katie Napie, Robin Geiger, Lee Ann Schweitzer, and Eileen Francis. Jewelry boxes were completed by John Gardella, Patty Lalak, Marie Lewandowski, and Sandy Geiger-Rose-Corages-for-Mothers were created by Lee Stevens and Sherry Greenfield. Pretty Handkerchiefs were made by Pete Goan and Joe Slipka. A horseshoe tournament for boys and girls was held last week at Regional. The boys tournament was won by Gilbert Van Burckick. Pete Saykt was second and Joe Sarne finished third. The girls winner was Robin Geiger, Sally Rutkow and Elaine Fleischman were second and third.

102 children were registered at Caldwell playground. A very eventful week was directed by leader, Susan Oakman. A "Suppressed Desire" Contest was held at Caldwell. This contest provided for the children to dress-up as what they most wished to be. The winners of the various categories were: "Much Ado With Nothing"; Lucille Hardgrove, and Mark Yaculle; "Most Original"; Carl Durand, Dawn Zarelli, and Buddy Haas; "Best Prepared"; Annette-Viscardi, Lynn Gastiel, and Linda Smith. Honorable Mentions were won by Peg Kramer, Kathy Kopec, and Gregg Anderson. Caldwell won a kick-ball game with Irwin Playground by the score of 18-17. Nine Del Marue was the outstanding player for Caldwell. A Wheels on Parade Contest was also held at Caldwell. The winners were: Kathy Kopec, Buddy Hardgrove, Linda Smith, Buddy Haas, Ricky Schwartz, Vincent Kramer, Charis Haas, Barb Kiff-aynder, Linda Crosett, Carol Durand, Joanne Crosett, Mike Kopec, Eileen Smith, and Lucille Hardgrove. Raindeer from potato, toothpicks, and pipe cleaners were made by the children. All the children loved making them even John Meierdick who found the raw potato good eating!

Aside from enjoying the new play area at Sandmeier the children are amusing themselves with many activities and facilities that are available. David Mitchell, Jerry Jones, Kenneth and Gerald Jackson, along with Richard Clark and Melvin McClain, are busily developing strong muscles by exercising daily on the jungle monkey bars. With George Garner, John and Larry Anthony, Olin Clark, Donald Jackson, Ronald Samuets, George Franklin, Ronald Brooks, and Wilbur Hill softball and baseball are popular sports. And while the boys are playing baseball and softball Christine and Barbara Crump, Sharon Franklin, Thelma Michelle, and Sharon Mc Clain; Effe, Audrey, and H.B. Anthony are engrossed in playing kickball. Sandmeier playground has such quiet games as checkers, chess, dominoes, and chinese checkers to attract participants. Michael Parker, Larry and Geraldine Breeden who do rather well in these activities. Getting a lot of practice at the horseshoe pit is Mary Franklin, Mary and Robert Garner, Penni Clark, and Barrilyn Baldwin. Presently the registration total is 75 children. The leaders of Sandmeier Playground are Anita Robinson and Mary Garner.

Woodside Playground under the direction of Carol Marano has a registration of 117 children. At Woodside the more popular morning games are checkers, chess, sandbox activity, tether ball, relay races, basketball, paddle tennis, and water games. Ron Wilson has been performing with vigor around the tether ball court. Drow Miller and Ken Orango provide the competition in the relay races. Neil Elliot and his famous castles are leading the sandbox brigade. "Old Maid" is a popular quiet game in the early morning. This game is not so popular with Lorraine Orango, however, for she usually winds up being the "Old Maid". Arts and Crafts are popular with the children in the afternoons. A portrait contest winner was Robin Schatz. Pirate hats and Japanese paper dolls were made by the children.

Denham Playground registered 81 children during the first week of the Playground Season. Denham Playground is supervised by Gail Christensen. Last week a "Suppressed Desire" Contest was held at Denham and also a "Wheels on Parade Contest". The winners of the suppressed Desire Dress-up were: Julie Haberberg who portrayed an actress, Barbara Cardone, who was a ballet dancer, Rosemary Carton, a school teacher, and Dennis Dreher, who played as Aunt Jennyma. The "Wheels on Parade" winners were: Rosemary Carton, most original; Patty Cardone, prettiest; and Robert Wilson, funniest. In Arts and Crafts activity at Denham Playground the children were busy making raindeer from potato and toothpicks. Many of the children made small change purses from leather. Another exciting event at Denham was a tissue paper race. This was a very hotly contested event but the eventual winners were Billy Reinfer's team.

Irwin Playground with leaders Mary Ann Donington and Al Hector showed a registration of 149 children. Irwin Playground is the home of the famed Irwin Indians baseball team. The Indians started well on their way to another successful season by defeating the Regional Tigers 8-1. Richie Falkin and Richie Johnson led the way for Irwin in this their first contest. Brian Sheehan was the winning pitcher for the Indians. Irwin Playground offered many interesting events last week. Every afternoon of every week a special event always takes place at Irwin. A popular event last week was the creation of scissor holders, all of which proved to be very attractive and most useful. A "Suppressed Desire" Contest was another event of last week. At this time the children were to come to the Playground dressed up as the person or thing they always wished to be. The 26 entries were judged according to "most original", "best prepared", "Much Ado With Nothing", Alan Gerber, Pat Howrth, and Pat Sheehan captured first, second, and third places for most original. The best prepared were Spanky La Motta, Julie Brands, and Shorty Le Bogut. Much Ado With Nothing were Ricky Nechenson, Ellen Alexy, and Kathy Ziegler. Last week Irwin played a kickball game with Caldwell Playground. This game was the cause of much attention with the children at Irwin and the spirit was high. Spanky La Motta and Warren Danziger acted as co-captains of the team. The Irwin was defeated at Caldwell but all are hoping for better success next week when they take on Denham Playground. Against Denham Linda Barrett and Barbara Kornish will act as umpires. Little "Napoleon", a french-poodle-and-team-mascot will accompany the team to Denham. The "Wheels on Parade Contest" at Irwin attracted 20 contestants. The winners were: Most original; Tommy Rossiter, Spanky La Motta, Shorty Le Bogut, and Robert Sergi; Prettiest; Dorothy Breaner, Cynthia Sergi, and Debbie Ziegler; Best Displayed; Julie Brands, Raymond Danzinger, and Kathy Johnson. Last week the children displayed their Arts and Crafts ability by making raindeer out of potatoes and toothpicks. "The Around the World in Eight Weeks" Club meet again last week at Irwin Playground and the children studied the Eskimos. Many of the children are doing a good job as playground helpers, those especially good this season are: Glenn LeBouff, Linda Barrett, Robert Arnold, and

Cadet Reports To Army Base

Cadet John F. O'Neill, son of Mr. & Mrs. Albert J. O'Neill, 30 Lewis Drive, Springfield, has arrived at Fort Knox for six weeks of intensive field training and practical work in the subjects and theories which he has been studying in his military classes at Notre Dame. Cadet O'Neill will receive thorough training in all infantry weapons and will personally fire most of these weapons. He will also receive further training in map reading and patrolling and will participate in tactical problems of the platoon in which all cadets will be tested to determine their leadership capabilities.

The summer camp is a major requirement in the military career of Cadet O'Neill. Having successfully completed the four year college ROTC course and the summer camp, he will be eligible for commissioning as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve upon his graduation from Notre Dame.

Exhibits Art At Library

An exhibition of the paintings of Patricia Ryel is currently on display at the Springfield Public Library. This exhibit is sponsored by the Springfield Woman's Club who will feature Mrs. Ryel's work through the month of July. Mrs. Ryel began her studies at Beaver College, but is now majoring in Fine Arts at Syracuse University. She has exhibited her works in Syracuse and won numerous prizes as a student at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

A JOB WELL DONE—The Springfield Fourth of July Committee is to be commended for a job well done. They planned and organized the festivities for the national holiday. Those who contributed to the success of the holiday are left to right standing: Gerol E. Harvey, chairman of committees; Lee L. Andrews, Jr., auditor; Mrs. Thomas E. Smith, co-chairman of baby parade; Mrs. Lee L. Andrews, Jr., secretary; Mrs. Earl L. Lawit, co-chairman of baby parade; Earl L. Lawit, chairman of publicity; Theodore Schuss, Jr., baseball chairman. Officers sitting left to right: Leslie Lown, finance; Louisa W. Pligalski, treasurer; Theodore Schuss, president, and Michael Healey, vice president. Not pictured are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bowman, Frank Harlow, Lenard Galden and Otto Granick.

Spanky LaMotta, Jackie Gargano has been outstanding around the playground in all departments. Riverside Playground and the Riverside Rockets baseball team are certainly making themselves heard from this season. Riverside Playground has attracted a registration of 89 children this year. Paul Foley and Kathy Werle are the Playground leaders. The baseball from Riverside called the Riverside Rockets are making a terrific comeback this season. The Rockets, who for the past two seasons have finished last in the playground baseball league won their first two games in impressive style. Riverside defeated the Regional Tigers in their home opener by the score of 6-2. Johnny Schock pitched a two hitter for Riverside. Gary Haydu and Mark Bogda knocked out two hits apiece for the victors. Riverside then proceeded to knock all watchers by defeating last year's Champion the Henshaw Hurricanes. In beating Henshaw the Rocket pitcher, Ghet Ozaplaski, struck out 14 men and pitched a no hitter, as they say this is an outstanding performance in any league. Frank Kenny struck a big blow for Riverside in this game as he blasted a bases loaded triple. Patti Monticello, Marie D'Andrea, and Kathy Heady are doing their part in cheering this Riverside Team on to their successes. Frank "Chitci" Monticello is doing a fine job as coach of this team. His help to Paul Foley, the Playground Leader, has been outstanding. Both Paul and "Chitci" deserve much credit for the Teams surprising success. A Tunny face drawing contest was held last week at Riverside. A very interesting display of creations were submitted. The winners were: Monica Bonhorr, Kathleen Cull, and Mary Ann Campbell.

PLAYGROUND IMPROVEMENTS

The Springfield Township Committee and the Recreation Commission are to be commended for their planned renovations of local playgrounds. At the last Township Committee $52,000 was appropriated. Committee $52,000 was appropriated for the vast improvements scheduled at the Irwin and Woodside playgrounds, the first fields on the agenda. With over 900 children registered at the town's eight fields, the municipal officials have shown foresight in proposing these alterations this summer; so that next summer the children will be able to take full advantage of the new facilities. The other playgrounds also, in time, will be renovated, but the Township Committee and the Recreation Commission first chose the Irwin and Woodside locations, because they have the largest enrollment.

Improvements slated for Irwin include a field house with complete sanitary facilities; a garden area with flowering shrubs; single angle parking for 45 cars; two tennis courts; a dual purpose basketball and badminton court; an improved baseball diamond; improved landscaping and a lightly wooded area suitable for play. The shrubbery will enclose the ball field which will be graded properly, top-soiled and re-seeded early this fall. The field-house will be used for the storage of recreation materials and will be available for use by local scout organizations. The water fountain already on the site will be moved to the garden area. There will be an entrance built near the storm sewer and paths will be broken from the wooded area leading to the play areas.

Scheduled for Woodside is a tennis court, field house, additional landscaping complete with treeplanting and a more developed park area.

Sandmeier, according to sources, is also scheduled for improvements. Outside of a field house and improved landscaping, though, nothing definite has been decided.

In addition to these welcome changes, who knows land might be available in the future suitable for a municipal swimming pool similar to that built in Livingston. This pool was financed wholly by Livingston citizens. In addition to being a boon to Springfielders, this municipal pool would prove advantageous to children who want to learn to swim. They would not have to travel to other pools for instruction. The Recreation Commission and the local Red Cross chapter could make arrangements for children to take instruction at the municipal pool. Cost would undoubtedly be less since transportation would be eliminated. It's something to think about.

End 1st Year At InSTITUTE

James Ruban and Hassel J. Savard, Jr., both of Springfield, were two of 28 Union County men who have completed the first year of their two-year programs in the Union County Vocational-Technical Institute. Mr. Ruban pursued courses in Drafting and Design and Mr. Savard enrolled in the Electronics division. They were members of the Institute's first classes in Electronics Technology and Drafting and Design Technology. The Institute provides training for post high school men and women in both day and evening programs.

Salvation Army Asks Continued Drive Support

Captain Ernest Baxendale, Director of the Salvation Army's Service Unit in New Jersey today announced that Springfield had raised 70% of its goal in the 1961 Salvation Army Drive here. Captain Baxendale said that he hoped the community would respond in kind to the drive's appeal so that the Salvation Army's Service Unit could continue and expand its humanitarian activities in this area. Captain Baxendale said that the Salvation Army's summer camp program was moving forward and that Star Lake Camp in Bloomington would be alive soon with happy, laughing youngsters, thanks to the town's support so far.

He also indicated that the Salvation Army's many other programs, including help and referrals of the homeless and poor could continue, not to mention the many local emergencies from fires and personal calamities. Captain Baxendale suggests that those interested in furthering the local Salvation Army Service Unit's program, make their check payable to The Salvation Army and send them to Mr. Arthur H. Smith, Jr., Nat'l State Bank of Eliz.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sun:

We wish to publicly thank all the people who helped make being the co-chairmen of the 4th July Baby Parade the pleasant experience it was.

We wish to thank the Springfield Sun for the wonderful cooperation and assistance given to this affair.

To Mrs. Andrews for her usual untiring assistance that only she can give. To his Honor, Mayor Vincent Bonadies and to all the guests for their so graciously giving their time, and to the many good friends and neighbors who gave their time, experience and money to make this fourth one of the best we ever had. May many thanks go to the people of Springfield for taking part in the Baby Parade. Last but not least to Mr. Al Bowman for doing his usual good job as Master of Ceremonies. Without Al, it just wouldn't seem like the Fourth. To our many friends that we may have forgotten to mention, we would like to say thanks for your cooperation, for without you, there just couldn't be a successful day.

Sincerely,

Ed. Note: The following letter was sent to the Congress of Racial Equality by Charles Danziger of Temple Shalom.

Gentlemen:

The people of Springfield, N.J. have been very much concerned about the restrictions on freedom and equality which you are waging battle in recent weeks, many citizens of this area have hailed the personal participation by Rabbi Israel S. Dresner, of Temple Shalom, in the Freedom Ride to Tallahassee.

As a testimonial to Rabbi Dresner for having the courage to practice what he preaches, and as an endorsement of the worthy goals of equal opportunity and freedom to which all righteous people aspire, many families have spontaneously contributed $539.00 for furthering the good work of CORE.

I am proud and privileged to transmit these funds herewith, with the added wish that the day may soon come when all men shall be free, when all men shall recognize that they are brethren.

Sincerely yours,
 Charles Danziger

Arts, Crafts Provided at Playgrounds

In connection with the Springfield Recreation Commission's summer playground program an Arts and Crafts department has been created. The work of this department is carried on separately from that normally done at the playgrounds under the supervision of the playground leaders.

Miss Carol Foley of Westfield, an art major from the College of St. Elizabeth, directs the program. During the school season, Miss Foley is on the staff of Holy Trinity High School in Westfield as an art instructor. Miss Foley travels to the playgrounds on a planned schedule to develop a creative art program among these Springfield children who attend the playgrounds. The children are advised of Miss Foley's appearance in advance and they attend her classes with much enthusiasm. The success of this program has been marked by the superior quality of the creative craft projects accomplished and developed by the children.

Mrs. Sherman Joins Bar-b-que Committee

Mrs. Martin Sherman has joined Springfield's Temple Shalom's Bar-b-que committee. The Bar-b-que, which is given by the Temple's Board of Trustees, will be held on Sunday evening, August 20, in the Temple House at 8:00 p.m.

With a great feeling of gratification the committee tolled throughout the day to make possible one of Springfield's best celebrations. To the committee, I extend my sincere thanks for a job well done. To the Springfield Sun, the merchants of town, the police and fire departments, road commission, Civil Air Patrol, the first aid squad, Union Park Commission, Boy Scouts, American Legion, and to our friends behind-the-scenes, go untold amount of credit for their contribution and cooperation. Without it, we could not have achieved any amount of success. Truly this is our American Way of Life.

Foster Parents Can Bring Destitute Children Hope Through Interest And Aid

Dr. and Mrs. Stevens "Adopt" Chinese Boy

Dr. and Mrs. Donald J. Stevens, 164 Hillside Avenue, Springfield, have financially "adopted" Tong Huen Chai, an eleven-year-old Chinese boy living in Hong Kong. They have done this through the Foster Parents' Plan, Inc., 352 Park Avenue South, New York City. The Foster Parents have promised to contribute $15,000 a month toward the child's support for at least one year.

Huen Chai is a solemn, quiet little boy with a wan looking face. Last summer he had typhoid fever, and was hospitalized for a month. He is four feet tall, extremely thin, and is probably suffering from malnutrition. He is attending the fourth grade of primary school where his fees are $1.40 per month. His school record is extremely good, and the boy is eager to continue his schooling.

Huen Chai is the oldest child of a family of nine which includes his parents, two brothers; Lung Chai (10), Sun Lung (13) and four sisters: Chuk Chang (7), Chuk Sau (5), Khuk Kwan (2), and Chuk Fun (1). "Home" to this family is a small wooden shack in one of the dirtiest and most poverty-stricken of the squatter areas of Hong Kong. It measures 9' x 7' and was built at a cost of $53.00. There is just enough room for the family's few possessions, a bed a chair, and two stools. A sleeping platform has been constructed in the space to give the maximum ground space. Since sanitation facilities in squatter areas are nonexistent, health conditions, smells, insects, are all flagrantly bad.

Huen Chai is one of many thousands of children forced to endure a life of incredible squalor because their parents chose to struggle for survival in Hong Kong rather than live under Communism. Huen Chai's father, whose family were doctors, worked in the army before entering a literary academy where he studied for five years before graduation. The child's father was an officer with the Government in China and a secondary school teacher. In 1950, after the Communist forces had gained control of the mainland, the child's parents fled to Hong Kong. Every day more and more refugees crowd into the city; the result is appalling. The population density, due to the small area into which people must be jammed, is now ten times that of New York City. A recent report states: "Human beings are packed into terrible overcrowded tenements, flats, divided into cubicles and bed spaces, hundreds of thousands of persons have collected waste timber and old tin cans and built shacks on every hillside to form 'squatter villages'." There are no electrical or water facilities of any kind in these squatter areas.

After their arrival in Hong Kong Huen Chai's father was unable to find employment for two years. The position of the educated refugee is sometimes harder than that of the illiterate, since the latter are used to and can often secure manual laboring work, even though this may be sporadic. The father, a proud man is now reduced to hawking beans and bamboo roots in the streets. He earns about $1.00—$1.23 per day. The child's mother helps her husband prepare the beans for sale. There is no other source of income. The family is receiving help in the form of some rice and pork, once or twice a month. Out of the totally inadequate income, a total of $3.15 per month is paid for the school fees of the three oldest children.

By extending a helping hand to Huen Chai you will assure him a monthly grant of $8.00, food and clothing parcels, shoes, and special medical care. Of equal importance is the heartwarming knowledge that someone cares and wants to help. Your interest and kind assistance bring new hope to these hard-pressed parents and afford the child the opportunity of looking toward a brighter future.

The Foster Parents' Plan, which has rehabilitated more than 76,000 children on a personal basis since its founding in 1937, is now helping more than 20,000 youngsters in Greece, Italy, So Korea, France, Viet Nam and Hong Kong. Over the past twenty four years, more than 600,000 individuals and groups in America have helped needy children overseas through the Foster Parents' Plan.

The Foster Parents' Plan is happy to send full information on how to become a Foster Parent to a child in Europe, So. Korea, Viet Nam, or Hong Kong to any individual, school or group. Just write to Foster Parents' Plan, 352 Park Avenue South, New York City.

Foster Parents' Plan is a non-sectarian, non-profit, non-propaganda, independent, government-approved relief organization which provides children who are orphaned, distressed, or otherwise made destitute, with the care, education, and moral support they need. "Adoption" through the Plan is financial, not legal. Of the $15,000 which the Foster Parent promises to contribute monthly the child receives $8.00 each month as an out-right cash grant. The remainder is used for periodic food and new clothing packages, translation of letters, medical services, and education. Because each child is treated as an individual, any special needs of the child or his family are taken care of by the Plan from its General Fund. This Fund is made up of contributions from the public.

To encourage a warm, personal relationship between Foster Parent and child, the Foster Parent receives a history of the child and gives the youngster the feeling of security and love he needs.

There are many people who sympathize with Huen Chai and his family. Many people would like to extend a helping hand to them; fewer people, unfortunately are able to offer the financial aid required. Yet those who are able should seriously consider taking advantage of the extremely gratifying act of giving of which they are capable. Give to the Foster Parents Plan, but better yet—"adopt" a child.

B'nai B'rith To Hold Picnic

More than 100 children and staff at the New Jersey State Diagnostic Center, Menlo Park, N.J. will be guests of B'nai B'rith Women, Northern New Jersey Council and the Union County Association for Mental Health at their 3rd Annual Picnic on July 20th at 4:30 P.M.

Mrs. Gerald Freeman, West Orange, President; Mrs. Leo Grossman, Colonia, Citizenship & Civic Affairs Chairman for Council; and Miss Doreen Toffey, Assistant Executive Director of the Union County Association for Mental Health are in charge of this picnic.

Menlo Park is an institution for emotionally and socially maladjusted children. Children are referred to the Diagnostic Center by Courts, schools, or social agencies. They reside at the Center for a period up to ninety days and are given tests to probe the subconscious and arrive at the hidden conflict. A full time educational program is conducted with qualified teachers to keep the children abreast of school work during their stay. The Diagnostic Center received its first patient in 1950.

The following three Citizenship & Civic Affairs Chairman and their chapters are coordinating this affair—Mrs. Fred D. Barnett, of the New Brunswick Chapter; Mrs. Sanford Fishman, Colonia, of Sinal Chapter; and Mrs. Ben Novy, Kenilworth, of Kadimah Chapter, B'nai B'rith Women. The Mental Health Organization is supplying a film and cartoon to be shown to the boys after the picnic supper, and B'nai B'rith Women of eleven chapters are supplying the refreshments for the picnic which will consist of Hot Dogs, Watermelons, Ice Cream, Cake, Beans, Pickles, Relish and candy, and will hold a bingo with prizes for the girls after the picnic supper.

Attends Pru Management Conference

M. Michael Teichman, 14 Forest Drive, Springfield will attend the second session of the Prudential Insurance Co.'s fourth annual advanced-management program to be held at Princeton University beginning this Sunday, July 16.

Mr. Teichman, a training consultant in the company's ordinary agencies department, will be one of 45 executives from various Prudential offices in the United States and Canada to attend the three-week session.

The course is being given three times this summer, with the third session to begin on August 13. The first session ended last week. In all, 135 Prudential executives will attend the program, living in Princeton dormitories and working in the university classrooms.

The sessions will be led by some of the nation's leading businessmen and by prominent members of the faculties of such universities as Princeton, Columbia, Minnesota, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Northwestern, Indiana, and Ohio State.

Bab Martyrdom Observed by Baha'i Group

The anniversary of the Martyrdom of the Bab, forerunner of the Baha'i World Faith, was observed Sunday, July 8, at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Paul Ios, at a public meeting of the Baha'i of Springfield. Paul Ios was guest speaker.

"The Bab, was a prophet in His own right," said Mr. Ios, "and was founder of the Baha'i religion, but his chief duty was to prepare the way for One greater than Himself who followed soon after. The Bab's execution in 1850 and the persecution of His followers were meant to suppress this new religion but they failed. Instead, in 1863 the Babis turned to the Promised One, Baha'u'llah, Prophet-Founder of the Baha'i World Faith. "The title, Bab, means 'gateway' in Persian, Mr. Ios continued, "people throughout the world feel that his coming fulfilled prophecies in many Scriptures, including the Koran and the Bible. He was born in Persia which in the Bible was called 'Babyl'."

The year of the declaration of his Mission, 1844, was thought by many groups in America and Europe to be the year of the promised second coming of Christ. "The Baha'is think these people were right as to the timing," added Mr. Ios with a smile.

Patricia Bulgreen, Robert Louis Vadas Recite Wedding Vows

Take New England Homeymoon

St. Bartholomew's Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains was the setting Saturday of the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Bulgreen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bulgreen, 1708 Front Street, Scotch Plains, to Robert Louis Vadas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vadas, 90 Oakland Avenue, Nixon. Father John B. Caulfield officiated at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. A reception was held at the Blue Shutter Inn, Union, after the ceremony.

Mrs. Shirley Knowle sang two solos plus two duets with Mrs. Rose Boyles. Both are from Scotch Plains.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk organza gown fashioned with a scalloped modified sabbina neckline of a lencon lace, trimmed with pearls and sequins. It featured short sleeves, a torso bodice and front panel of lencon lace. The skirt terminated in a chapel sweep with a bustle-back of French illusion. The elbow-length veil was held by a crown of borealls. Mrs. Vadas carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis with ivy.

The honor attendant was the bride's sister, Miss Barbara Carole Bulgreen. She wore an aqua cocktail-length dress of silk organza over taffeta with a scoop neckline and bouffant skirt caught up with self-fabric roses. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Wearing identical dresses, but carrying yellow roses, were the bridesmaids Mrs. Joseph Triano of Linden, and Mrs. Karl Scheidt of Bloomfield, cousin of the bride, Miss Kathleen Marie Bulgreen, another sister of the bride, was flower girl. Wearing an aqua dress, she held a basket filled with pink and yellow roses.

Louis Gyarmati, Jr. of Nixon served as best man. Ushering were Andrew Kaplan, also of Nixon, and Richard Garyl of Middletown. Paul Clark of Port Reading, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

After a wedding trip to New England, the couple will reside in Logan, Utah.

Mrs. Vadas is a graduate of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School and the Berkeley School, East Orange.

The groom is a graduate of Highland Park High School and is presently a senior at Utah State University. He served as a sergeant in the US Marine Corps.

Spring is car-clean-up time, too. And if your car has white wall tires you'll welcome a new short-cut to getting them bright white again. Use full-strength pine cleaner solution on a sponge. It wipes off dirt and grime with no scrubbing necessary. Then a good rinse with clear water.

Miss White Marries Mr. R. Parkhurst

Miss Carole Lee White, daughter of Mrs. Virginia White of 240 Front Street, Plainfield, became the bride of Rodger Winsa Parkhurst, son of Mr. & Mrs. William A. Parkhurst, 102 Mill Lane, Mountainside, Saturday in the Community Presbyterian Church in Mountainside. The Reverend Fred Paddock, assistant minister, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Henry George Schnabel of Livingston, the bride wore a silk organza gown fashioned with a fitted bodice trimmed with Chantilly lace and full skirt ending in a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of sweetheart carnations surrounding a white orchid.

Miss Suzanne A. Grant of Union was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were the Misses Helen and Madelyn Schnabel, cousins of the bride and both of Livingston, and Miss Bonnie Twichell of Fanwood. All were attired in bouffant styled gowns of mint green organza and carried cascade bouquets of white and green carnations.

Ritter T. Parkhurst of Mountainside was best man for his brother, Ushering were William A. Parkhurst, Jr. of Westfield and Philip Parkhurst of Plainfield, brothers of the bridegroom.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the church. The bride was graduated from Plainfield High School. She is employed by the All State Insurance Company, Murray Hill. Mr. Parkhurst was graduated from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School and served three years in the Marine Corps. He is associated with his father in the operation of Parkhurst Construction Company of Mountainside.

A shower for the bride was given by Mrs. Philip Parkhurst and Mrs. William A. Parkhurst, Jr. The bridegroom's parents entertained at a rehearsal party at their home.

WATER FROM THE MOON

One way of increasing man's fresh water supply is to steam it from the moon, claims an industrial scientist. His theory:

The rock formations on the moon contain as much as 3% water. The water could be condensed by steaming it from the rocks with huge mirrors placed to reflect heat from the sun!

FIRE AND WATER

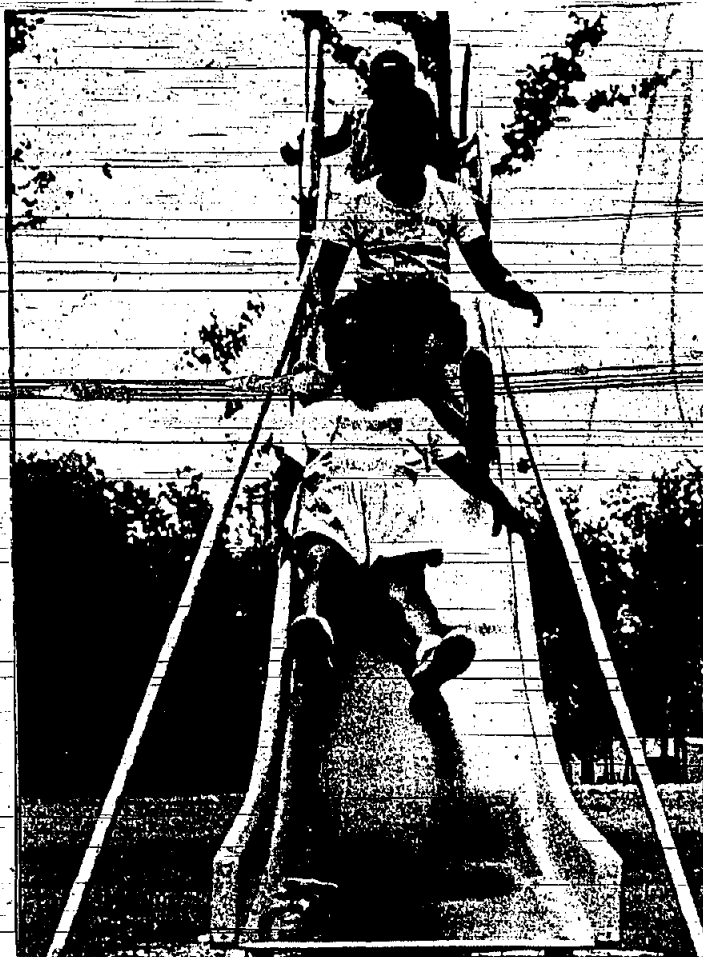

A fireman without a fire can be the result of a false alarm, but a fireman without water to fight a fire can be tragic. The National Water Institute reports that in Quincy, California, a lumberyard fire raged out of control because the fire department ran out of water. Barlier, residents had defeated a water bond proposal at the polls.

MORE CANDY CONSUMED

Candy consumption in the United States last year exceeded 3 billion pounds, for a gain of 3 per cent. Some 83 million pieces of candy were eaten daily on an average.

PAUSE THAT REFRESHES—Summertime calls for cool drinks and some Springfield children decided to make some profit providing refreshments for passing residents. Last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Burnett, 60 Shunpike Road, Springfield, six youngsters set up a kool-aid stand, but one of the owners was drinking up the profits. Little Michael Raab was just too thirsty. Standing next to Michael in his sister, Adrian, 7; Keith Theiler, 9; Thomas Sutton, 7; Beth Zisman, 8; and Billy Burnett, 9. (Dick Schwartz)

LEXINGTON, VA — Restoration of one of the South's priceless treasures—the Lee Memorial Chapel on the campus of Washington and Lee University here, has been made possible by a gift of $870,000 from the Ford Motor Company Fund to the university. The chapel was built by General Robert E. Lee during his tenure as president of the university from 1852 until his death in 1870. It is here that General Lee and his family are buried. The chapel also houses a museum of Lee battlefield and family mementoes and a valuable art collection including original portraits of Washington, Madison and Lafayette.

Around the World Interests Kids

Caldwell, Irwin, and Denham Playgrounds, all in Springfield, have added a new attraction to their playground events this year. Susan Oakman, Maryann Donington, and Gail Christensen the leaders at these Play-areas have developed a cultural hour, for the children.

This hour takes the form of a club, which has been cleverly termed "Around the World in Eight Weeks". Each week during the eight weeks of the playground season a story of a different country of the world is read by the leader to the children. Following the reading of the story the children are called upon to create an original drawing concerning the country.

The children will keep each picture to form a booklet which at the closing of the season will be judged and prizes awarded for those which are superior. The start of the program has shown a keen interest by the children. Many outstanding drawings have been completed by the children.

Band School Gives Weekly Assemblies

At its Friday Assembly, the Union County Band and Orchestra Summer School presented the 98-piece Band IV directed by William Ostlander of Linden.

After the band played "Minute Men March" of Olivetti, Mr. Casimir V. Bork, director of the school, led the opening exercises. This was followed by the band's performance of the overture, "Pleur-de-Lis" of Olivetti, "Kamen of Ostraw" of Rubenstein, and a tango, "La Comparista" by Rodriguez.

Before the closing march, "Festival of Youth", Mr. Bork called attention to the school picnic on July 20th at Warinac Park, on the trip to the Goldman Band Concert on July 21st and the Advanced Band and Scholarship Concert on July 12th.

For the assembly on July 14th, the 60-piece Band III A under the direction of Al Zareva of Rahway will play the "Challenger March" of Hummel, and "The Glendy Birk" of Eoster.

Band III B will be directed by Robert Jones, who is instrumental instructor at Columbia High School of South Orange and Maplewood. This band is made of 70 boys and girls whose average is 12-13 years of age. They will play "On the Plaza March" of Herfurch and "The Golden Pledge Overture" of Beeler.

All assemblies are held at Locust School in Roselle at 11:30 on Fridays. Mr. Bork extends an invitation to attend to all interested persons.

Barry Fink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fink of 34 Hemlock Terrace, was host at his first stag dinner last Wednesday night, when he entertained eleven "men" friends at a supper party in honor of his sixth birthday. Barry's guests were Steven Goldstein, Hal Wasserman, Bobby Manheimer, Marc Shipman, Jonathan Katz, Michael Klarfeld, Peter Gelwarg, Charles Adickman, Joey Gardiner, Marlon Dennis and Tommy Lowy. Only female allowed was three-year-old sister Ronni.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Giger, of 68 Troy Drive, announce the birth of a daughter, Monica Barbara, on June 22 at Overlook Hospital. The baby's birth weight was seven pounds, three ounces. Big brother is sixteen-month-old Alexander.

Mr. J. Lloyd Roslin, proprietor of The Tavern Restaurant in Newark, has moved his wife and family from Brooklyn, N.Y. to their new home at 7 Lenape Road in Smithfield. Lenape are six-year-old Cindy and two-year-old Marc. We hope they'll all be happy in Springfield.

Miss Ettye Freedman, of 570 So. Springfield Avenue, is entertaining Miss Ray Rose of Manchester, England, on her first visit to the United States. Miss Rose arrived in this country on July 5, and the two ladies left the following day for a five day visit to Washington, D.C. They were accompanied by Miss Freedman's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Friedman of 445 Morris Avenue, and niece Lori. Miss Rose will be staying with Miss Freedman and her brother Mr. Sol Freedman for the remainder of her vacation in this country.

Newcomers to Springfield are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dector, who have moved from Union to 128 Briar Hills Circle. Younger members of the family are five-year-old Elyse and two-year-old Andrew.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of 98 Edgewood Avenue on the birth of son Edward Joseph at Overlook Hospital on June 24. The young man weighed in at five pounds, 15 ounces, and joins a family that includes four brothers and two sisters.

New residents at 66 Keeler Street are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Straus, formerly of Union. Small fry in the family are five-year-old Judith and two-year-old Shari. Mr. Straus is a teacher with the Newark School System.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marzell, of 26 Cypress Terrace, were hosts for several days last week to Mr. and Mrs. Simon Marsal of Haifa, Israel. Belle had visited the Marsals last July during her European tour with daughters Tina and Marilyn, and they in turn enjoyed a delightful return visit here.

Report to the People

Every Fourth of July, Americans have an opportunity to discover new truths about their freedoms. This year, perhaps more than any other, I rediscovered the spirit of July Fourth. It burns more brightly in mere Americans, I think, than most people in public life comprehend.

A month before we left for home for the usual round of July Fourth celebrations, President Kennedy spoke to Congress in a special message. He said:

"What happens to a poor devil who is not a Member of Congress who gets caught in the same storm (as a Member of Congress) and does not have the Congressional flag flying at the masthead... Do they (the Navy) go ahead and shoot him if he does not have a flag (and he tries to put into port)?" ... Do you mean to tell me that the distinguished speaker of the House is going to ride through the streets in Washington or down in Texas with a 3 x 5 flag flying at the masthead?

Below would you fly it, above or below the squirrel tail that some people fly off their radio antennas? I think this is utter and unmitigated foolishness and I am opposed to it."

It is hard to believe that President Kennedy could have been talking about the same Congress which tried to pass such a bill.

when he told us that Congress has "responded" to his call for sacrifice.

And yet, few can fault the President's objective in his repeated calls to the American people for any sacrifice necessary to the survival of freedom. If he has been criticized for this demand, it is because he has probably not been specific enough in his recommendations - how and what should we sacrifice and how much should we sacrifice, not just why we are required to sacrifice in the name of freedom.

I believe, because most Americans are ready to do their duty to preserve peace with honor, regardless of the dangers.

It lies, rather, with the people in Government and the Members of Congress who pay lip service to the qualities of courage and perseverance which lie quietly within most of their countrymen, waiting to be scratched and prodded into action when the dangers are clearly explained to them.

THE CAPTAIN'S BARN, located on New Providence Road near Mountain Avenue, is the newest shop in Mountaintop. Operated by Ingrid Thorsen, the shop carries imported and domestic objects plus materials for festive decorating.

Deaths

MRS. HELEN K. G. KULP

Funeral services were held on Monday morning at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Millburn for Mrs. Helen K. G. Kulp, 83, of 119 S. Maple Avenue, Springfield wife of John J. Kulp. She died last Thursday in Overlook Hospital, Summit, after surgery.

Mrs. Kulp was born in Allentown, New Jersey but at twelve her family moved to Trenton where she completed her education. In Trenton she taught music and kindergarten, was a member of Ladies Choral Society and the Guild and Sunday School of Christ Church.

In 1927 she and her husband moved to their present residence in Springfield. She was a member, and had served as Chaplain, of the Church and Cannon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. She was active in the work at St. Stephen's Church where she was a member.

Beside her husband, she is survived by her son, Dr. J. Laurence Kulp, Professor of Geochemistry at Columbia University and by four grand-children, Ruth Elizabeth, Ellen Barbara, John Laurence, Jr., and James Everett, all of whom live in Ridgewood, N.J.

Barn Shop Provides Unusual

"The Captain's Barn," the latest addition to Mountaintop's new look, is a shop one must visit. We think you will be captivated by this fresh new approach to merchandising.

Built in 1840, the Barn provides a charming, informal setting for imported and domestic gifts on the first floor. In the studio loft, you will find locally made articles and materials for craft decorating—the tiny items on display will stimulate some big ideas to those with imagination.

Come fall "The Captain's Barn" will house a Christmas shop filled with supplies and ideas necessary for the making of individual decorations for home and club.

If you have longed to own an oil painting, do visit the Barn which is now displaying works by the Westfield Art Association.

We enjoyed our visit with S. Ingrid Thorsen, the originator of "The Captain's Barn." We feel certain you will too.

Hear Radio, TV Artist

The regular luncheon meeting of the Christian Women's Club will be held at the Suburban Hotel, Summit, July 19th at 11:30 A.M. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Percy Crawford, Radio and Television artist.

Mrs. Elizabeth Strassburger, lyric soprano, will be the soloist for the afternoon.

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Company will present the special feature, "Your Voice Is You."

TEEN-AGE UNCERTAINTY

"Teen-agers uncertain! That's nonsense. They think that they know everything and adults don't know anything."

This is a common exclamation of adults. And of course, often teen-agers do act as if they know everything—they know they don't, but they won't admit it. This know-it-all attitude is protective cover-up to hide their feelings of uncertainty.

Adolescence is a period when young people are groping for the answers to many things. Their questions range from "Who am I, really? Why am I here?" to "Which fork shall I use?" and "What is the right thing to say?"

Teen-agers are learning to be adults, but they are neither quite adult nor any longer children. Their childish standards and values are inadequate, yet they haven't found their way to adult standards. Their teen-agers need and want your help with their problems. They need understanding guidance rather than dictatorial authority, explains Rutgers University Human Relations Specialist Phyllis Greer.

Give young people an opportunity to talk out their problems—that is the best way to help them. Adults need to avoid making critical judgments or laughing at teen-age problems. Serious listening, respecting the teenager's opinion and problems, and discussing the pros and cons of various solutions will help the teen-ager grow to be a responsible adult.

How do you feeling when you start out in the morning for a day's use of your car? Did you have a good night's sleep? Do you feel alert—up to par physically and mentally? Are you emotionally in tune with the world and your fellow man? According to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company these are questions which you should ask yourself each time that you back your car out of the garage. Your life may depend upon the correct answers.

Tennis Lessons Offered to Kids

Tennis Lessons, sponsored by the Springfield Recreation Commission, were offered last week at the Henshaw Avenue Playground. This is the 10th consecutive year that Springfield Recreation has offered tennis lessons to the children of Springfield as part of its Summer Recreation Program.

40 children, all who registered earlier, were out for their first taste of tennis this year. Lessons will be given Monday and Wednesday-mornings at 10:00 A.M. through-out the summer. The tennis court at Henshaw Avenue Playground is the site of this tennis activity.

Miss Anita Robinson, a Springfield Playground Supervisor in the summer months and a public school teacher during the school season is the instructor again this year. Miss Robinson conducted a very successful tennis program last year.

TV GUIDELINES: Double Jeopardy

RADNOR, Pa. — Joseph Kearns, who plays Mr. Wilson on "Dennis the Menace," recently told TV GUIDE he made two mistakes during his life. The first came when he was a young wool buyer for a New England textile firm. He had bought and shipped to the company $8,000 worth of wool. But it was black Karac wool for which the company had no use. The second mistake occurred when Kearns signed the contract for the TV series before it was evident how important his role would be. "Yes," said Kearns, "and if I'd known it, I could have got more money. Every time I think about that contract, I feel as if I'd bought five more carloads of black wool."

The man who claims he has nothing to worry about these days just isn't trying.

Charles Pfeiffer, 836 Wallburg Avenue, Westfield, who helped design and build the locks of the Panama Canal, died at his home after a short illness. He was 86.

Mr. Pfeiffer was a former partner and chief designer in the construction department of Howell Field & Goodhard - Corbett, a New York building and fireproofing firm no longer in existence. He played a major role in the design of the canal locks, which were of wood sheathed in metal, and supervised their construction in the Manhattan factory of the company. The gates later were assembled in the Canal Zone.

Mr. Pfeiffer was with the Howell firm for about 45 years, working also on the design, construction and fireproofing of all outer doors and windows of the former Pennsylvania Hotel, New York. The concern was dissolved about 30 years ago and Mr. Pfeiffer then became a self-employed carpenter. He retired in 1956.

A native of Germany, he came to this country in 1890 and lived in New York for 14 years before moving to Westfield in 1901. He was a member of Local 135, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.

English Comedy Scheduled At Middlesex Playhouse

The Foothill Playhouse in Middlesex starts July off with a bang--presenting "Breath of Spring"--a hilarious English comedy by Peter Coke. This play will be presented July 19 through 22, and 26 through 29 at the Playhouse.

Bahama Film At Trailside

"Island Oddities" a color, sound film showing the "uninhabited" shores of the Bahama Islands with its strange sea and shore animals, birds and fish will be shown at the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Museum, in the Watchung Reservation, on Sunday, July 16, at 3:00 p.m.

The passenger and not the driver is the innocent cause of many automobile accidents, according to the Institute for Safer Living. Distraction involving passengers is shown to be the most common form of driver inattention leading to traffic mishaps.

Everything goes well until a member of the syndicate indignantly reports the loss of a fur piece and the police come charging in. The maid is horrified to discover the schemes that have been going on behind her back, but agrees to employ her old talents to bait the amateurs out of trouble on the condition that they never touch a fur again. She succeeds, the police leave and life returns to its old humdrum ways. But then someone remembers that it was only furs they had promised not to touch again.

Helping the gaiety along is Scott Mathewson, Helen Boars and Alma Rankin, three Foothill regulars. Madeline Bridgeman, a gay French lady, adds her special brand of hilarity as a member of the syndicate. Dot Connolly, Gladys DiPaolo, William Zollinger and James Froesbee are cast in supporting roles. Direction is by Stanley Klein with Paul Hyland assisting.

There's no denying that Jack Paar, who is perhaps the most controversial TV personality of them all, has tremendous sales appeal.

Recently the manufacturers of a product called "Jiffy Sew" became one of Paar's sponsors. "Jiffy Sew," which is an unusual liquid which sews without needle and thread, was, until a few weeks ago, one of the few products which the company's executives decided to market through the nation's supermarkets and chain stores, someone came up with the idea of sponsoring part of the Paar show in order to help publicize the product more quickly on a nationwide basis.

But, still another brainstorm was hatched when it was discovered that Jack Paar had never recorded an album during his entire, stormy career. Why not, someone asked, issue a Paar album which could be bought only together with "Jiffy Sew"? Since "Jiffy Sew" is advertised as a product for use in sewing—rather than as a cement or as a glue—it was pointed out that the Paar album would have to be sold in a completely different way than albums are usually sold. It would not do to sell these albums in record stores—because the sponsor was more interested in reaching housewives than he was in reaching their teen-age sons and daughters with his tubes of "Jiffy Sew."

What better place to display the albums, someone asked, than on the same notions counters in supermarkets, five-and-dimes, department stores, and sewing centers in which "Jiffy Sew" itself was sold? And so was evolved what has developed into one of the most successful merchandising gimmicks of the decade. Within two weeks after the Paar album—with tubes of "Jiffy Sew," attached—was advertised on the Paar NBC-TV program, well over 1,000,000 of the albums (and tubes) had been sold. It is impossible to tell at this point exactly how many Paar albums—and tubes of the product—will be sold by the time the final count is in, but this could wind up being the biggest-selling album of all time!

An interesting sidelight is that the combined price of the album and product is only $1.47—about 1/3 of the price for which albums recorded by personalities of Paar's stature are usually sold.

There have been various estimates as to how much Paar will make on the album sales—guesses have gone as high as $150,000. The manufacturers of the product hope he makes $1,000,000—because as a result of sponsoring the Paar show and tying in with the albums, they have already had to move to larger quarters and hire lots more people in order to try to keep up with the demand!

TELE-SIGHT'S Singer Frankie Lane is slated to guest on "Bachelor Father" next season... "A Clearing in the Woods" Offered by Foothill Group

Miss Riley, Hibblethwaite Star

Foothill Playhouse presented its third production on July 5. The brilliant play by Arthur Laurents, "A Clearing in the Woods," stars Shirley Riley and Ronald Hibblethwaite, with Roger Ahrens, Tony Campo, Roland Lough, Joan Selzer, Sally Barrie, Dot McCormick and Midge Hirschberg as supporting cast. The play deals with the efforts of a troubled woman to get to the heart of her problems by delving into her past. Mr. Laurents shows her at various stages in her career, beginning with childhood, and including the several men in her life, beginning with her father.

Until the final scene of release, they weave in and out of her mind in various phases of conflict, failure, and misunderstanding. In some of the finest writing he has done, Mr. Laurents takes her through her entire emotional life, until, through her own courage and the understanding love of a young scientist, she arrives at knowledge and acceptance of her own nature. The play, directed by Jane Howell, will continue from July 12 through the 15th.

JULIE LONDON, describing the plight of the amply formed actress: "Sometimes I think they (producers) tend to measure an actress's talents by her measurements. If the measurements go beyond a certain point, they figure she can't possibly act."

Western Jamboree Planned at Fair

Another large Western Jamboree has been planned for the last four days of the 1961 Morris County Fair, August 23, 24, 25 and 26. Prize List and information folder on all events for those wishing to compete are available at the Fair Office, S. Beverwyck Rd., Parsippany.

On Wednesday evening the 4-H Clubs of Morris County will put on their horse show and gymnastics events.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings rodeo events such as bull dogging, calf roping, barrel racing and the ever popular calf scramble will be held with championships being awarded Saturday evening.

Starting Saturday morning at 9:30, the largest Western Horse Show to date with some nineteen classes is scheduled to be run off with an expected large entry of riders from several surrounding states.

Sadie Steals Olympic Show

There is an aquatic accent to this week's program at Olympic Park with bathing beauties competing at the pool and a trained seal stealing the show during the free circus.

Roland Tiebor's Sadie the Lady Seal actually is a 10-year-old seal lion. She balances balls on her nose, climbs a ladder blindfolded and plays what Tiebor insists is "My Country 'Tis of Thee" on a set of horns. And she leads the applause for herself by spiritedly clapping her flippers. She charges 20 pounds of fish a day.

Olympic Park doesn't charge anything to see Sadie and two other, somewhat jealous acts, aerialists Marilyn Seabright and Paul Kohler, xylophonist.

All will depart Monday to make way for a new week's show at the Irvington-Mapplewood resort. That three-act offering will be headed by the Ronnie Lewis Trio, aerial ladder balancers: Joe Hodgini's dog and pony troupe and the Marvel Trio, acrobats. The Olympic Park Pool this afternoon is conducting the season's first bathing beauty contest, in three age groups. There will be contests each Thursday with the finals August 24. The primary entry requirement is that the contestants have to be girls.

The primary entry requirement is that the contestants have to be girls.

Your Sidewalk Reporter

Beginning this week a new feature is being added to the Watching Weeklies—the inquiring reporter. Every week questions of national and local significance will be asked the "man or woman on the street." If you have a question which you would like asked or wonder how the other person thinks drop a line to our main office at 200 Morris Avenue, Springfield, and we will ask "The Man on the Street."

This week's question: "Should the United States resume Atomic bomb testing as a measure to protect our nation's security since the Geneva talks appear to be fruitless or should we continue the talks in the hope some good will be accomplished?"

Elaine Sprowles

Mrs. Helen Eisen

Audiences prefer Marie Wilson. The star of video's "My Friend Irma" registered a personal triumph as she clicked beautifully in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." The musical comedy hit opened for a three week run Tuesday night at the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre.

Although this smash show soared, Meadowbrook patrons doubt whether the role of Lorelei Lee was ever in more capable hands than those of white-gloved Miss Wilson.

Whether she's singing, dancing or acting, Miss Wilson simply glitters as the most famous of the dumb but resourceful flappers of the 1920's.

The Meadowbrook magic realistically recreates the fabulous era of bathtub gin, the Charleston and F. Scott Fitzgerald in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." The popular Jule Styne-Leo Robin musical jamboree follows the adventures of Miss Wilson aboard a luxury ship in the world's greatest big-game area for a huntress—Paris. In Paris she bags a sultanees for trophies she covets and describes in "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend." Another of Miss Wilson's showstoppers is the "Little Girl From Little Rock" number.

Well-known Broadway star, Faye Dwyer, is seen as Marie's fellow-chorus girl who is misguidedly sent along on the trip by her friend's sugar-daddy to act as "chaperone." Miss Dwyer contributes heavily to the show particularly with such joyful stunts as "It's High Time," "Sunshine" and "Keeping Cool With Coolidge." The latter number is a Charleston routine, just one of many outstanding bits of choreography by Marc Hiatt.

Gary McHugh, who with his wife Helga, Carl Sawyer and Didi Scanga produces the Meadowbrook musicals, appears in his first role at the Dinner Theatre he originated in 1959. McHugh rocks the house with "Bye Bye Baby" and his all-round work adds immeasurably to the evening's pleasure.

Ruth Holden, Ralph Sumpter, Elaine Swann, Dick Curry, Dave Deigan, Judith Younger, Walter Murphy and Walter Korovin are others who contribute considerably to the Meadowbrook's 25th straight hit.

Mrs. Helen Eisen, Mountaineer housewife: "It is my firm conviction that the United States should remain, and maintain, an aggressive outlook on world problems. At this time, more than ever, we cannot afford to take a backseat to any nation or blocs or nations if we wish to remain a strong power!"

"However, I feel that while being aggressive, we should also use every means available for negotiation. While men are talking they are not fighting. The Geneva talks represent a great hope toward outlawing nuclear weapons. We must try to turn these talks to realistic ends while still holding our heads erect and maintaining our dignity."

Ed Gott of Scotch Plains, pre-medical student at the Pennsylvania State University: "Considering the turbulence which has enveloped our modern world, I believe that the United States would endanger her own security and also that of those who depend on her, if she were to abandon atomic and nuclear testing and fall behind in the armament race. The ever present threat and goal of the Communist government for world domination will not be quelled by superiority in atomic weapons or with any type of military superiority, however, it can be held at bay. We are contending with a hypocritical, treacherous, fanatical regime that will only respect a strong hand."

Summit conferences and promises have been of no avail in the past and will not be in the future. The communists have completely different ideals and conceptions of right and wrong than the American people do, for they are driven by one goal and that is to conquer and rule.

If the United States were to cease atomic testing with the contention that other governments might act in accord, I believe, the result would be disastrous. Promises of such action could not be trusted and could not be checked, for there is no physical means of detecting subterranean explosions. We would only be placing ourselves and our allies in a very dangerous position if the subversive elements were given the opportunity to have superiority of arms.

Ed Gott

Louis Jacobson

Elaine Sprowles, Elementary school teacher and recreation supervisor in Berkeley Heights: "I am against A-bomb testing in general. I do think it would be best to continue the talks in order to try to accomplish something effective. If we are going to test, though, I believe it should be done in our own deserts. If anyone is to be endangered by fall-out it should be our own people. We should not risk a repetition of the Japanese fishing incident."

Louis Jacobson of Springfield, sophomore at Rochester Institute of Technology: "I believe we should resume atomic bomb testing for scientific purposes and also continue the Geneva talks in the hope of peaceful settlement. In order to learn about peaceful uses of the atom, we must pursue nuclear testing. Testing, too, is another manner in which we can build up our nation's armaments which is fine with me."

Masterwork Chorus Sets Audition Date

Openings Available in All Parts

Mrs. William Kerr of Livingston, President of The Masterwork Music and Art Foundation, has announced that Wednesday evening, July 26, has been set as the first audition date for prospective members of The Masterwork Chorus. The auditions will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Perry, 17 Rosehill Place, Morristown, beginning at 8 P. M.

Requirements for membership in The Masterwork Chorus are not stringent. A pleasant, blending voice, proper pitch and some ability to read music are the main requisites. Previous singing experience is helpful, but not essential. At present there are openings in all voice parts. The chorus meets for rehearsal every Wednesday evening from September through May in Morristown.

The Masterwork Chorus is dedicated to professional-level performances of choral masterpieces in an authentic manner as possible, using original language and orchestrations, including any unusual instruments the composer's score originally demanded. In the years of its existence, The Masterwork Chorus has won an international reputation as an outstanding choral group, and recordings of its rehearsals and performances have been heard throughout the world. The critics generally have acclaimed the performance quality of the chorus as excellent. The regular conductor of both The Masterwork Chorus and Orchestra is David Randolph of New York, Music Director of The Masterwork Foundation.

Anyone interested in membership in The Masterwork Chorus is invited to attend the auditions on the evening of July 26. Further information about membership may be obtained, or reservation for audition may be made, by calling Mrs. Kerr at WYman-2-2491, Mrs. Robert Smith at OAKwood 7-6817, Mrs. John B. Lewis at Justice 4-8641, or the office of The Masterwork Foundation at Jefferson 8-1860.

Your Library

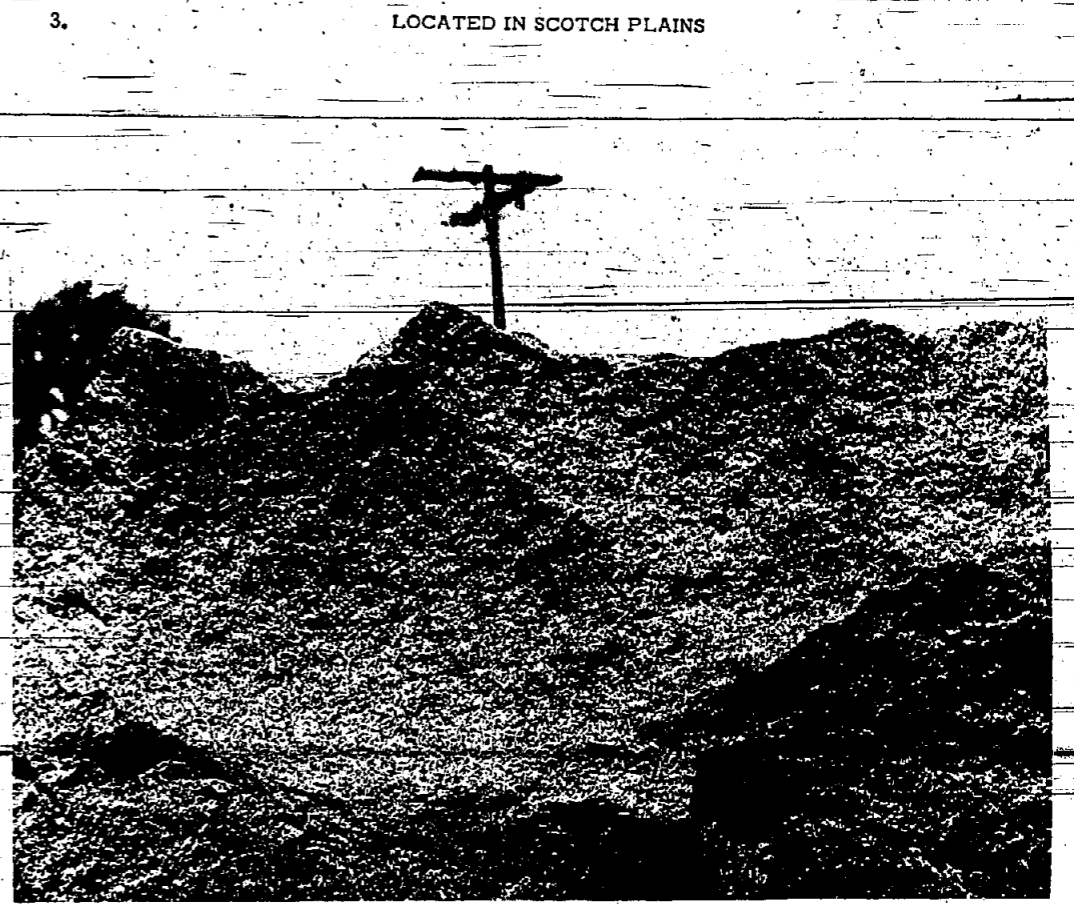

The Great Book Discussions at the Free Public Library of Springfield engendered a great deal of enthusiasm during the past winter and spring. Because of the number of persons asking to join in the fall of 1960, two groups were formed, and met simultaneously.

One group under the leadership of Mrs. Bryant Haas read the second series of books. This was made up of some members from the previous year and some new members. The other group was directed by Miss Helen C. Reyner for the majority of the meetings. Mr. John Whitcomb very kindly helped out the several times when she was ill or had conflicting meetings. Since each group should have two leaders, their is room for anyone interested in that experience to volunteer his services.

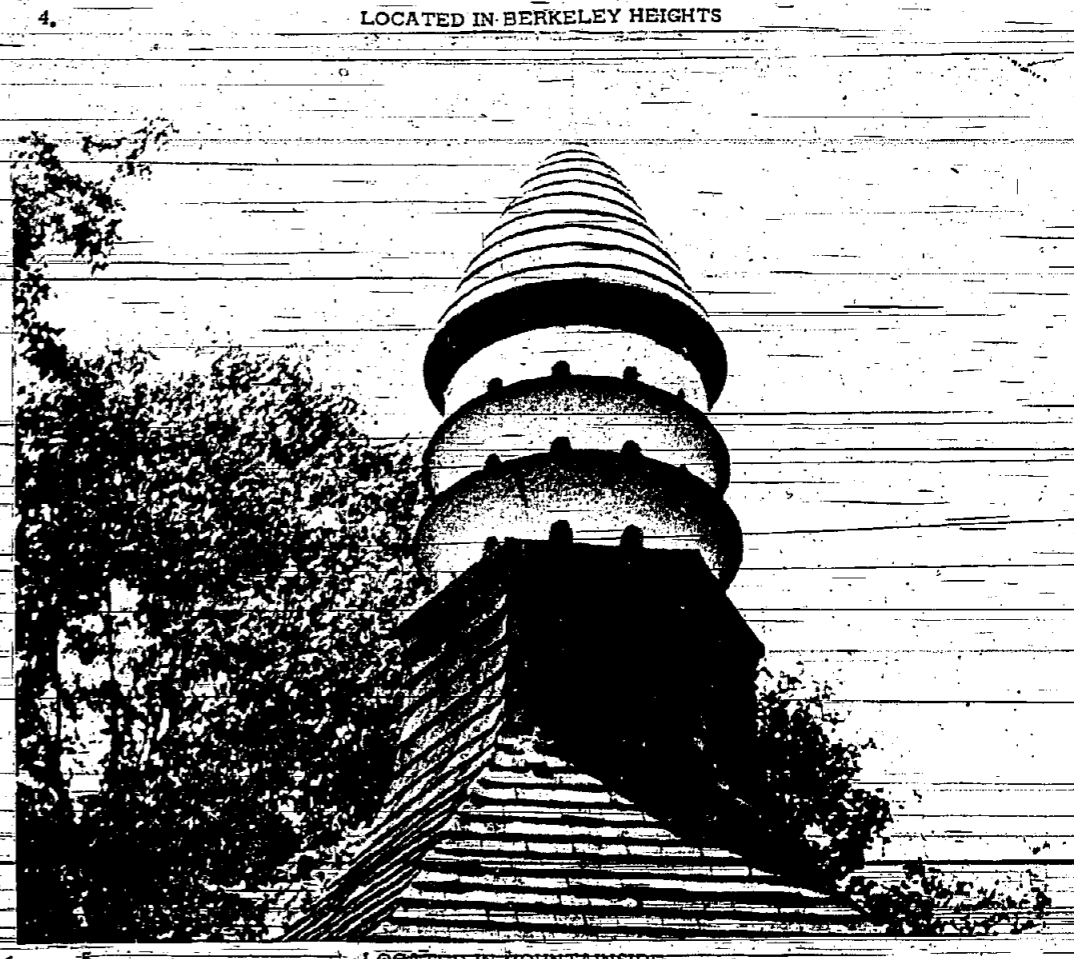

Both groups ended with a hard core of eight or ten persons who attended nearly all of the sixteen discussions. These were so delighted with the plan that they wanted to go out and enroll their friends. They also asked to have the books ordered immediately, so that they could start reading leisurely during the summer. The order for the Third Series has been sent to the Great Books Foundation in Chicago.

Now that members of both groups have experienced reading and discussing great books, it was decided to have both groups read the Third Series. Then, if the weather is bad and not many people can get out, the groups can combine. This intermingling should lead to new ideas and spark lively discussions. The Great Books method encourages readers to express their own original ideas, after each member of the group has read the same work. Sometimes the selections are whole books, if the work is long, the famous and most interesting parts have been selected. This makes it possible for busy people to read carefully, the book on the program prior to the discussion. The meetings are held two weeks apart.

At the present time both groups would welcome new members. Any one who enjoys reading and ideas would like to enter these informal discussions, and make friends with the interesting people who take part. The people may leave their names, addresses and telephone numbers at the library during the summer. The Library in Springfield will make sure that they are notified about joining one of the groups.

No Applications Required For State Police Exams

Test Scheduled for July 14

Colonel Joseph D. Rutter, State Police Superintendent, today announced that his office has been swamped with requests for application forms for the coming recruit examination on July 14th. Despite the numerous announcements stating that the forms are not necessary to take the written examination. Rutter again advised that all qualified aspirants merely report to the examining point and they will be permitted to take the examination. Men should report before 7:00 P.M. to the testing center at Central High School, Greenwood Avenue and Chambers Street, Trenton. Applicants must be not less than 21 nor more than 35 years of age as of October 15, 1961, and at least 5 ft. 8 inches, and not more than 6 ft. 4 inches without shoes, well-proportioned, and must be of good reputation and of sound moral character. The medical test will be held on Saturday, July 29, (not July 22, as previously mentioned), at West Trenton, Division Headquarters. Based on the number of applicants, the physical fitness test may be held the same date. If not, the physical fitness examination will be held on the following Saturday, August 5. Applicants appointed to the State Police Academy for the 16-week training will receive a salary of $129.50 biweekly and, upon graduation, will advance to $4309, plus $1128 maintenance allowance per annum. Annual increments of $215 are granted until a maximum salary of $5599, plus maintenance allowance, is attained. Living quarters, uniforms and equipment are provided by the Division.

Last Chance For Tiny Tot Camp

Registration for the third and final period of Camp Weeto, the Fanwood - Scotch Plains Y. M.C.A.'s play camp for tiny tots, is now open. Boys and girls from age 4 through kindergarten may enroll for the two weeks period from July 24th through August 4th in the three day a week day camping program for very small children. Mrs. Agnes Roberts, play camp director said that the final two weeks of camp will feature a trip to Howarth on Thursday, July 20th for an exciting experience with pony cart riding. In addition to daily swimming classes, naturecraft, handicraft, coordinative exercises and special program activities the play campers will be working toward a parent day at the close of camp. Naturecraft, for the two weeks period will concentrate on learning about the wind, the campers will construct boom-er-angs, wind vanes, and butterfly wind toys. In handicrafts they will make totem poles, toy band instruments, and a bank.
