

Baseball League Takes Over Playground Spotlight

As the playground summer fun closed its third week of activities, the Playground Baseball League took the spotlight. This league consists of teams from Henshaw Playground, Irwin Playground, Regional Playground, and Riverside Playground. All boys twelve and under are welcomed into the league, which plays under established Springfield Youth League rules. Each of the playgrounds in the league play has a male supervisor in attendance to instruct boys and to supervise their baseball playing. This Playground League has always been interesting, for the games are hard fought in the spirit of competitive play. All equipment necessary for playing baseball is supplied by the Recreation Commission as part of its summer program. Bats, balls, gloves, protective equipment, and the like are all supplied by the Springfield Recreation Commission. The Playground Baseball League is off to a fine start this season. At this early date the Riverside Rockets are in first place with a record of 4 wins and 0 losses. The Irwin Indians and the Henshaw Hurricanes are deadlocked with 2 wins and 2 losses each. The Regional Tigers have yet to win a game this season, but may still be heard from The Tigers captured the championship two years past with such a late season drive. Last year the championship was fought for up until the final day between Irwin and Henshaw with Henshaw gaining the championship.

The Riverside Rockets, the surprise of the Playground Baseball League, continued their winning ways last week. The Rockets captured two games, defeating Irwin 6-2 and trouncing Regional 18-1. Ted Collins was the star of the Irwin game. Greg Gregory and Johnny Scheck shared the spotlight in the Regional game. Gregory batted home seven runs for the victors, while Johnny Scheck had four hits. Riverside a parental last place finisher is showing it means business this season. Riverside Playground is not all baseball this season as shown by the variety of activity held there. A picnic was held there last week. The children brought their lunches and several of the girls baked cakes. Kathleen Cull, Tina D'Andrea, Marie D'Andrea, Catherine Silcocke, and Kathy and Nancy Yeager were the bakers. The Leader, Cathy Werle, even tried her hand at baking to the delight and amazement of everyone. Everyone at the picnic partook in the toasting of marshmallows and the entire affair was crowned by Debby Graveman, who supplied punch for everyone. "Chitei" Monticelli remains as undefeated domain champion of Riverside "Chitei" won a very exciting and dramatic domino game with Paul Scheck last week during one long and hot afternoon. Riverside Playground featured a Costume Parade last week. Art Ceek, as a boxer won first prize. Denise Comista took second place for her outfit of a flippers. Other first place winners were Debby Graveman who was little bo-peep and Jimmy Scheck, who played the part of a sick patient. Barby Heady won a prize for being a princess and Walter Harms was a winner for his Mickey Mouse Costume. Other entrants were: Stephanie Beauvier, Kathy Cull, Kathy Frest, Barby Frost, Gretchen Kraft, Joyce Martini, Frances Moore, Sherri Palmer, Virginia Steinback, Nancy Yeager, Susan Harms, Thomas Palmer, and Richie Steinbach.

At Sandmier Playground every Monday the children eagerly await Miss Foley's arrival because they know she will bring something exciting for arts and crafts. This week she brought playcraft which was assembled into bluebirds, blue jays, scarlet tanagers, and orioles by Carol Nevius, Larry and Geraldine Breeden, Sherri Baldwin, Peni Olin and Richard Clark. When a volleyball and a net arrived a game was played by Larry Anthony the Garner family consisting of Robert, George, Mary, Deborah, and Mrs. Garner against Wilbur Hill, Donald Jackson, Lawrence Street, Larry Breeden and Miss Robinson. Old Maid cards is a pastime of Gerald and Kenneth Jackson, E.B. Anthony and her sister Debbie, Renee Nevius and Sheradin Thomas, Clarie, Edna, and Mari Franklin Emily Thomas, Michael Parker, Larry Anthony, Wilbur Hill, Robert Garner, along with Darryln Baldwin and Ronald Samuels are having great fun at the Railway Swimming Pool each Tuesday and Thursday mornings. Ronald, who plays baseball and swims also takes tennis lessons. He sure is an active lad. With the Township Championships and County Competition in mind, Larry Anthony is readying himself for the standing broad jump event. George Garner is still throwing ringers in horseshoes. Michael Parker plays good chess and Penni Clark will be staying around the tether ball poles.

At Irwin Playground baseball retained much of the week's interest. On Monday the Indians lost to Riverside 6-2. The losing pitcher was Steve Seigel. The Indians had a bad day with many errors. On Wednesday the Indians evened their record at 2-2 with a 12-4 victory over the Henshaw Hurricanes. Brian Sheehan won his second game of the season. Sheehan also banged out Irwin's first home run of the season. Outstanding team play by George Franklin, Richie Sherman Linda Barrett, Wilbur Hill, Joe Freien, Richie Falkin, Anthony Ciccone, Gene Zern, and Jimmie Cannen helped contribute to the victory. The game was highlighted by outstanding in the field play and everyone enjoyed a good day at the plate. The children at Irwin participated in a painting contest last week. The subject painted about was: "What you like best about the playground". The winners were: Sherry LeBoeuf, Steven Serki, and Kathleen Johnson. Irwin played its second kick-ball game last week. Irwin played Denham and although the Indians played excellent but they were defeated 9-7. Jimmie Cannen was a fine

Planning Firm Finds 7 Sites for Pool Due for November

New Plan To Rid Town Of "Obnoxious"

The Industrial Committee, established last year to encourage desirable industry to come to Springfield, was designated to serve as a "screening committee" by Township Committee Tuesday night.

The purpose of the plan is to eliminate "obnoxious" industry which might be masquerading as a highly regarded concern, Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies explained. "We are desirous of industrial rentals, but not at the cost of good living," he said. According to the proposal, the building inspector will inform the industrial committee of the applications he has before him and the committee will act in concert with the Planning Board, Township Committee member, William Balentine is the Township Committee's representative on the industrial committee.

Also in connection with the industrial section of the community, Enslley R. Bennett Jr., traffic survey consultant, recommended the extension of Commerce Street from the Industrial development to Hillside Avenue and that vehicles weighing more than for tons be prohibited from the extension. He also suggested that the radius of the corners of Brown and Stern Avenues at Route 22 be increased. The Committee indicated that it expected voluntary contributions for this work from the industries in the area involved. The recommendations were accepted and the engineering department was instructed to proceed in this matter.

A contract for the paving and curbing in Stiles, Mecks, Diven and Ruby Streets was awarded to Valentino Dello Pello of Bloomfield for $45,429.90. Other bidders were: Dura-Bilt Paving Co. of Springfield, $54,071; Union Paving and Construction Co. of Union, $45,070.50; Kenneth Brennan & Son of Summit, $46,098.70; B. A. Spatz of Summit $49,368.40; Petrozello Brothers of South Orange, $52,988.50, and J. Cocuzzo and Son of Maplewood, $47,491.

The contract for the installation of a traffic light at Hillside Avenue and South Springfield Avenue was awarded to Lancaster Electric Service of Springfield for $9,500. The Lancaster company was the only bidder.

A letter from the Board of Education requesting sidewalks in the north side of Milltown Road between Laurel Drive and Cortler Avenue was received. It was agreed a survey would be made by the police and engineering departments to ascertain the need for the walks.

There is a question of right-of-way and it involves acquiring the property of homeowners.

The humid atmosphere during the Springfield Township Committee meeting Tuesday night was somewhat lifted with the reception of a municipal swimming pool study submitted by Candeb, Fleissig and Associates, Newark planning consultants.

Part of a master plan the concern is presently considering for the township, the study recommended the construction of a pool on several possible sites and the

Rec Bids Rejected

Bids received by Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night in Township Hall for the expansion of recreation facilities at the Irwin Street playground were rejected. Action was taken on the recommendation of Township Engineer Alfred H. Swenson. Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies announced that the bids were far in excess, about $7,000 to be exact.

The two bidders for the work were Dura-Bilt Paving Co. of Springfield at $26,214 and Kenneth Brennan and Son of Summit at $24,361.

Last month Township Committee adopted an ordinance appropriating $52,000 for extensive improvements at Woodside and Irwin Street playgrounds. Tuesday night's bids covered only the one playground.

Township Engineer Swenson was instructed to readvertize for the work.

Leslie Lawn, chairman of the Recreation Commission, who attended Tuesday's meeting, was instructed by the Committee to quickly submit plans for a playground on Union County Park Commission property adjacent to the Smithfield Park Homes. The park commission has given tentative permission for use of three acres there for recreational purposes and is expecting a detailed plan of the proposal. The developer has also put in escrow $5,000 for the purpose, it was announced.

Mr. Lawn was advised to meet with the Engineering Department and submit a complete layout of the proposal.

A recommendation of the Board of Adjustment to permit Furniture Craft Co. of Route 22 to construct an attached building to its present structure which would be used for storage was approved by the Committee.

A letter of payment from the borough of Mountainside is its contribution in the construction of the south side sanitary sewer system was received. The $20,000 check was referred to the treasurer.

A communication thanking the Committee for its contribution was received from the Fourth of July Committee. A congratulatory letter was ordered to be sent that committee for its work in conjunction with the recent holiday.

establishment of a committee to proceed in this direction. "Springfield, with a population of approximately 15,000, would easily support a community swimming pool," the report said, and added that "future population growth may even warrant the construction of a second facility to adequately serve increased demand for recreational facilities."

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies said that the Township Committee would like to have the public's sentiment in the matter and indicated that the question would be placed on the ballot in November. If it were received favorably, the pool could be constructed next spring, he said when questioned about the meeting.

In accordance with the present population, the Candeb concern recommended that the pool area be from 6,750 to 9,000 square feet on a minimum of four acres of land - seven to ten acres of land is desirable. It suggested seven possible sites, which Mayor Bonadies said the governing body agreed not to make public at this time in fairness to the owners of the properties involved. The site should be located on a major local street without subjecting pool users to unnecessary traffic hazards, the report said.

Total estimated cost including land, pool construction and accessories and parking facilities should not exceed $250,000. Operating costs would probably not exceed $12,000 yearly. Two methods the study suggested for complete municipal operation through bond issue and operated by the Recreation Commission or by a non-profit corporation which would operate it for a given time until it was returned to the community.

There were no comments from Committee member Russel Sibola and Howard A. Flammer on the proposal. Committee member Daniel M. Luey and William Balentine were absent from the meeting.

In conjunction with the overall master plan, a letter was received from the Department of Conservation and Economic Development informing the township that a change in the federal law requires Springfield to pay one-third instead of one-half of the cost of the program. The other two-thirds will be paid by the state and federal governments. According to the letter, the total cost of the program will be $22,250 with the consultant (Candeb) to cost $17,500, services performed by the township $4,000 and state administrative costs $750. The federal and state share will be $14,833.33 and the municipal share will be $3,416.67 in cash and $4,000 in township services. The last payment is to be made 15 months after the contract is executed. Before the change in the federal law, Springfield had expected to contribute $7,000 in cash and $4,000 in services.

De the most popular costumes paraded by the youngsters. The judges, Mrs. Rita Snyder, Mrs. Marianne, and Miss Carol Marano, the playground leader, asked each child to perform in his particular costume. Ted Rubenstein took everyone by surprise with his terrific robot costume, which won first prize. Randi Meyer dressed as a blues singer and took second place for being so brave and singing for the children. Randi sang the popular song "Over the Rainbow". Deidre Anne and Deborah Jo Mann took third place for their lovely Japanese costumes. Mrs. Snyder was thoughtful and brought lollypops for all those children who participated in this gala event. Fun was had by all. The younger set in Woodside playground spent Wednesday afternoon making little party hats. Popular activities at Woodside that are played almost continuously by the children are tether ball, checkers, chess, basketball, paddle tennis, and sand box games. Denham Playground too small for a baseball team, turned to kick ball for their competitive team sport. Denham took on Irwin in their first inter-play-ground kick ball game. The game was very close score of 9-7. Billy Beck was chosen captain of the kick ball team for this game. Fifteen children from Denham played in the game under the direction of Galt Christenson, the leader of the Playground. The Irwin leader, Maryann Denington, has high hopes her team will win its next game. She is continuing with the same lineup. The children participated in a Hat contest at Denham last week. Those hats judged to be the prettiest were made by Diane Johnson, Furka Kubisch, and Linda Johnson. The funniest were: Jimmy Wilson, Marion Jacques and Tommy Jacques. The most original creations were submitted by Susan Lewis, Tommy Chapman, and Julie Haberberg. Under Arts and Crafts direction the children made wild animals from cardboard. Giraffes, elephants, and lions were made the children. The Around the World in Eight Weeks Club studied Sweden. Drawings of first rate quality were turned in by Libby Chapman, Erecka Kubisch, and Diane Johnson.

Two shut-out pitching performances were the high-lights of these two wins by Henshaw Ronnie Azarowicz pitched a two-hitter as his team defeated Irwin 1-0. Gonnle also drove in the lone run of the ball game with a double. Donnie Buehrer and Joe Buccì each contributed two hits for Henshaw. The other victory was a 2-0 defeat of Regional Denny Leis tossed a one-hitter in setting back the Regional Tigers. Other outstanding Henshaw players in the game were Ricky Szeles, Keith Brink and Joe Buccì. Spud is a very popular name at Henshaw. The more active participants in this game are Ann Appgar, Marie Tafese, Phillip Wade, Karl Mende, Randy Huntoon, Patty Day, and Pat Leis. Debbie Huntoon is the playground leader at washers. This Mende is leading in the tether ball activity. Participants in a kick ball game lead by Judy Leis and Karen Wenz were Ronie Bufo, Laurie Feldman, Nancy Smith, Pat Bufo, Debbie Baldwin Pat and Barbara Leis Patricia Kauer, Ann Appgar, Rachel Kalen, Shari and Amy Daros, and Bonnie and Connie Miller. Jack Appgar and Keith Niegel provide the main competition in paddle tennis along with Mark Miller, Bart Tiele and Joe Buccì. Keith Niegel has been busy making little birds in the arts and crafts classes.

On Wednesday of last week Regional Playground was the scene for the annual Regional Playground Costume Parade. This event always seems to be one of major proportions at Regional and every year it draws a large attraction. This season proved to be no different as thirty two contestants paraded single file around the playground and before judges stand. Many excited spectators applauded the costumes of their choice. Under the expert judgement of Mr. Edward J. Ruby, recreation director, Mr. John Gardella, and Mr. Richard Luarelle, otherwise known as "Iky and Luke", the winners were chosen. The award for the best costume was given to Dale Pfeifer Karen Koldorf was acclaimed the most original. Prettiest was Joan DiPalma. The funniest costtume was worn by Sanford Weiss Special Prizes were awarded to Arthur Siruse, Robin Geiger, Ricky Serhie, Susan Koldorf, Gail Lawrence, and Norbert Wrobelaki. An added treat was given this costume parade. All the spectators and contestants were thrilled by Miss Sandy Geiger's appearance as a "Flapper". A checker tournament was held at Regional Playground last week for both boys and girls. Last years Township Champion for girls was again victorious in her specialty. Marie Lewandowski defeated all the other girls at Regional this year. Elaine Fleischman finished second and Linda Strawinska placed third. Lenny Scote won first place in the boys division. Gil Van Buskirk placed second behind Lenny and Pete Sayki finished third. Masks were designed from paper bags at Regional last week. The best were Sue Keldorf, Janet Brindell Elaine Fleischman, Pat Keabehn and Marie DiPalma. The best mosaic art work of the week was turned in by Janet Brindell Marie Lewandowski, Iris Ginter, Elaine Fleischman, Patty Lalack and Penny Simon. A very different but interesting type contest was held at Regional during the week. This contest was termed "Drop the clothespin in the bottle contest" and was just what its name would indicate. Penny Simon proved to be the most proficient at this activity. Sandy Geiger was second best and John Napier placed third.

"Town Pool"

Committeeman Russel Sibole said Mayor Bonadies explained that acquiring property is not an easy task and said that he didn't think the Board of Education is aware of the property problem. A request from Commonwealth

Water Company to charge Morrison Road from a one-way to a two-way street so that the company can ingress and egress from water company property after the proposed Route 78 is established in the area was received. Committee moved that it would not be able to act on this request until it has fought-of-way maps from the State Highway Department at its disposal at which time the request will be given consideration. The township accepted Joanne Way and Cain Street in Forest Acres, a new development, as township streets.

"Obnoxious"

Mayor Bonadies commended the members of the township board and planning board for the master plan undertaking, congratulating them on their "foresight and vision" in the program begun 18 months ago. The program should have been established two years ago, he said and pointed out that Springfield's share in the plan is a "pitance" in comparison to the overall program.

Nation's First All-Electric Garden Apartments Being Built in JCP&L Territory at Eatontown

The Gold Medallion is a familiar symbol on private homes denoting all electric service, but all electric apartments are just now making history. A total of 416 such apartments are being erected on some forty landscaped acres only about thirty minutes commuting time from New York City.

The apartments, in two-story buildings, will each have complete General Electric kitchens and electric heating. Each apartment will be separately metered, giving each tenant complete control over the amount of electricity he uses for heating or any other purpose—a brand new idea.

Electric Dollar Bigger Now Than Ten Years Ago!

Our average residential customer is using almost twice the electricity he did a decade ago. In NJP&L territory, for example, usage has jumped from 2,038 kilowatt-hours in 1950 to 3,805 kilowatt-hours in 1960. In that same period the company's average revenue per residential kilowatt-hour has decreased from 2.88 cents to 2.65 cents. What else that you buy costs less today than it did 10 years ago?

Lions Club Presents Board Of Education With Eye Machine

A new eye screening machine for use in the local school system has been given by the Springfield Lions Club, the Springfield Board of Education was informed last Tuesday night at its meeting in Caldwell School. The gift was announced by Board Member August Caprio, who is also secretary of the local Lions organization. The machine was voted at a recent board of directors meeting, he said, and is expected to be delivered in September. The board instructed its secretary to send a letter of thanks to the Lions Club.

Mr. Caprio also reported the progress being made in the establishment of an educational television station for the northern New Jersey area. The station as presently planned will serve six counties and operate on channel 13, he said. Board Member Richard E. Werner, who pointed out that the station is scheduled to be under construction by October 1st, urged the board to be "pioneers" in this field and suggested that a committee be appointed to pursue the matter further. Member Joseph A. Bender cautioned the board not to act "too early" and recommended that it withhold action until more thoroughly informed in the matter. Board President Howard Smith referred the question to the school government committee for further study and advised it to keep abreast of the progress made for the establishment of the station.

On the recommendation of John Gacos, the board awarded a contract for bread to the Ward Baking Co. for $1,683.50. The board concurred in the recommendation of Mr. Bender of the building and grounds committee that Stewart Mulvihill be engaged for summer maintenance work at $2 an hour. Also on the recommendation of Mr. Bender, Lancaster Electric Service of Springfield was authorized to perform the following services: install light fixtures and wiring in the special services room in Caldwell School at a cost of $363.95; install electrical baseboard heaters at $108; install a new 200 ampere service at Caldwell School at $351; and install power service for a new G. E. kitchen range at a cost of $280. The board also authorized the purchase of the new range, to be used in Chisholm School off the gymnasium, at a cost of $225.

The resignations of Mrs. Charlotte Pierson and Mrs. Betty T. Ball, teachers, were accepted. Both served the past year as part-time kindergarten teachers and Superintendent of Schools B. F. Newsinger explained that next year's enrollment did not necessitate their employment.

Board Agrees To Study Plans For Community School

A recommendation of Dr. Minor C. K. Jones, board member, was approved by the Regional Board of Education. Dr. Jones suggestion was to investigate the possibility of using the facilities of the three regional high schools for a community college. The study will be conducted by Dr. Warren M. Davis, superintendent of regional schools. Dr. Jones' proposal would include vocational training as well as liberal arts instruction. The sessions would be held in the evening to complement the already existing adult evening extension courses.

His plan calls for an autonomous vocational school which would offer an associate degree similar to those granted by junior colleges.

The liberal arts program might be integrated with Union Junior College and Newark State College, Dr. Jones said. He noted that such a plan would greatly simplify admissions and accreditation problems. Preference for admission to the 4,500 openings would be given to residents of the regional school board district. This includes Springfield, Berkeley Heights, Mountaineer, Kentworth, Garwood and Clark Township.

Students applying from other areas would be considered for enrollment.

Mr. Caprio announced that arrangements are being made for the meeting of Union County School Boards Association to be held in November or December with a prominent speaker to be engaged for the affair. Mr. Werner reported that the quarterly periodical published by the local board has been entered in competition with publications of other school boards. He also praised the yearbook published this year by Gaudinier School and it was agreed to send a letter of commendation to Mrs. Thelma L. Sandmeier, principal of the school, and the yearbook committee.

The board agreed to send a letter of invitation to Mr. Howard Holcombe, architectural supervisor school-building service with the State Department of Education, to visit Caldwell School to ascertain whether the fire safety measures at the school are adequate.

Mrs. Eleanor Worthington, township clerk, notified the board that the sidewalks on the northern side of Shunpike Rd., which the board had requested, are to be installed by the developer. Alan Cunningham and Dr. Benjamin H. Josephson were absent from the meeting.

The addition of two new faculty members at Converse College has been announced by Robert T. Coleman, Jr., president.

Mr. Schmitz presently is a candidate for a Ph. D. degree at University of North Carolina where he also is serving as a graduate assistant. He received a B. For the first time in the history of the Springfield post office, the post office will have the exclusive use and occupancy of the building it will occupy. Previous post office quarters were a part of buildings containing stores and offices.

The Government will furnish all utilities including water and sewerage service.

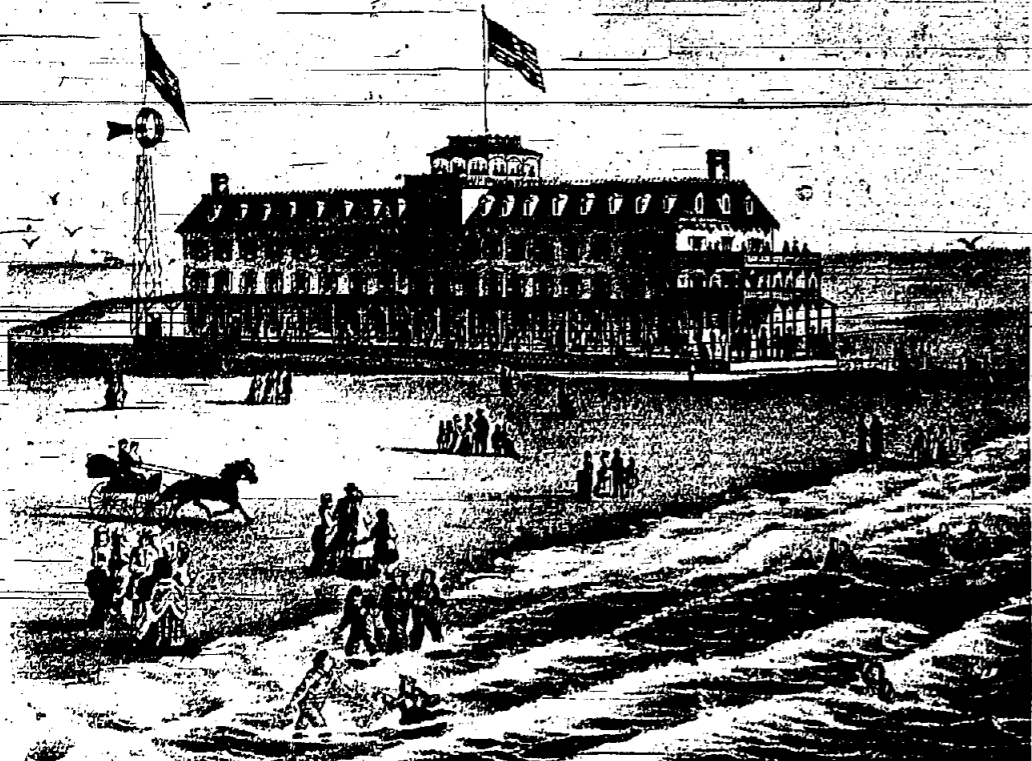

Postmaster DelVecchio stated the building will be constructed of face-brick on all sides and will be of colonial design in accordance with Post Office Department specifications. The building will contain an inside area of 7,470 sq. ft.; mailing platform of 1,014 sq. ft.; parking area of 4,875 sq. ft.; maneuvering area of 6,929 sq. ft.; and 5,515 sq. ft. of driveway area. Heat will be forced air by oil and the building will be completely air conditioned using central ceiling diffusers. The public lobby will be divided into two sections; one for window service and the other containing post office lock boxes, mail drops and stamp vending machines.

The Postmaster also stated the building will contain the most up to date equipment available and will provide more than three times the floor space currently occupied by the post office. Dates of the tentative construction time table are not yet available.

Mr. Pettit has served as a member of Baha' summer school committees in Davison, Michigan and Dallas, Texas; member of the National Baha' Youth Committee, Area Teaching Committee for the Gulf States, and for five years was elected as a delegate to the National Baha' Convention in Wilmette, Illinois. I think a library is a very good place because it helps you in your studies in school. It's very good to go there when you have free time of a special assignment at school. In the summer they have a club that would interest you. They give you little booklets to report about what you liked about the book you picked to read. The library lets you keep out a book for four weeks without paying.

Report to the People

by Florence P. Dwyer, Representative, Sixth District

I hope and pray we will never need to know for certain, but I am sure at this point in history that the American people are prepared to go all the way in supporting our Government in its determination to save West Berlin from the grasp of the Soviet Union and Communist East Germany.

I have seen this resolve of spirit wherever I have gone and with whom ever I have talked during the weeks since Soviet Premier Khrushchev delivered his latest ultimatum. It has taken many forms: from the simple but deeply-felt plea, "Get tough, don't give in on Berlin!", which I hear from people everywhere, to the unanimous vote by which the House passed the huge $42.7 billion defense appropriations bill, it has resulted in pledges of support to President Kennedy from former President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon. And it has lifted the hopes of those who feel as I do that Congress must pass a foreign aid bill this year which will equip the President to fight the battle for freedom wherever freedom is threatened.

No substitute for policy "firmness" and "toughness" as essential as they are in the context of this crisis, are no substitute for a carefully-thought out foreign policy. Without reliable information from the White House and the State Department, without candid guidance from the President about the true nature of our world situation and of the alternative policies open to us, our people can make no judgments. Given this information, however, and enabled to exercise their good judgment, Americans will be prepared to make the sacrifices and support the policies which can strengthen our country and help fuel the engines of freedom throughout the world.

The Soviet Ambassador to the United States was reported to have commented at a recent party in Washington that he didn't believe the American people would fight for Berlin. If this represents the official view of the Soviet Government, then I believe they are in for a rude shock, and the sooner and more convincingly our own Government awakens the Russians to reality the better it will be for all concerned and the less danger there will be of nuclear war resulting from one side's mistaken judgment of the other.

As our country's chief policy-maker, the President must shape policy to meet both immediate needs and long-range objectives. The Berlin crisis is not likely to come to a head all at once, presenting us with the black and white alternatives of nuclear war or surrender. Instead, we must expect the Communists to apply their pressure gradually and deviously, probing for Western weaknesses both of defenses and of policy. If our reactions to Communist pressures are adequate, if our counter-measures are sound and imaginative, then we can save West Berlin, expose the Soviet Union's hypocrisy and rally the free world to new and mightier efforts.

It is not enough, therefore, to prepare for one climactic contest of strength and determination. Ours is a challenge that requires staying-power. It is not a question of "licking the Russians once and for all." It is a matter of out-testing and out-smarting them—and being able to do so because of our greater understanding of and devotion to freedom, justice and opportunity.

Most effective weapon Our most effective weapon in this unprecedented kind of international power struggle is also, ironically, the most controversial of our Government's programs. Despite the fact that virtually every outstanding American who has taken the trouble to investigate foreign aid thoroughly—and this includes Republicans and Democrats alike—has supported the program strongly, there is still a large residue of suspicion, uncertainty and outright hostility to foreign aid among many of our people. I suspect that both sides are right. Certainly, foreign aid has been successful and is today more vital than ever in strengthening our allies and in stiffening the resolve of newer and poorer nations to stay free and independent, just as certainly, however, there has been waste, inefficiency and poor administration. I am cautiously optimistic that the concept of financing foreign aid projects over a period of a year, which is the heart of the Administration's bill, will serve to strengthen the program and make it a more efficient instrument of our assistance. The idea, you will recall originated with the Eisenhower Administration, but was blocked by a Democratic Congress.

This year, it has a much better chance of success. The President probably will not be given all he has requested, for Congress may prefer three-year rather than five-year commitments. We in Congress may prefer three-year rather than five-year commitments. We in Congress may prefer three-year rather than five-year commitments. We in Congress may prefer three-year rather than five-year commitments.

But one thing is missing—the policy direction that will give meaning and effect to our military strength, our foreign aid, and our people's resolute spirit. The lack of a clearly-articulated policy, outlining the means we propose to use in achieving our country's ultimate goals, has been the new Administration's greatest failure and has transformed it to its best friends into its severest critics.

The symptoms are many: confused State Department-White House responsibilities, erratic coordination, downgrading of the Department's key policy planning staff, the failure to make the best use of top foreign service officers, or to begin a long-range training program to develop an improved foreign service.

The Berlin crisis is only the next storm on the horizon. To ride it out successfully and to pursue our work of building a free and peaceful world, the President must set about the task of shaping policy, of relating it to our Nation's goals, and of enlisting the understanding and support of our people.

County Spending Shown On Rise

Three New Jersey counties reported reductions in expenditures last year. Increased spending of the remaining 18 counties boosted the statewide total to a new overall high of $21,524,169, an increase of more than eight per cent over 1959.

As reported in Ocean County, where total spending dropped nine per cent to less than $5 million; Warren County, which spent less than $2 1/2 million for a drop of nearly three per cent, and Salem County which dropped one per cent to slightly more than $2 million.

Reductions in capital spending and debt service last year accounted principally for the declines in the three counties. Conversely, increased capital spending from borrowed funds in two other counties last year resulted in the largest percentage jumps in overall spending among all counties.

Largest percentage increase for the one-year period was reported by Cape May County, where spending rose nearly 24% to total more than $3 1/4 million. Burlington County's expenditures increased 18 1/2 per cent to more than $5 3/4 million.

Among the large counties, Essex reported spending more than $40 million, an increase of nearly 12 per cent over the previous year. Hudson County spent more than $34 million, an increase of 10 per cent. In Bergen County, expenditures totaled $203 3/4 million—an increase of less than one per cent over 1959.

Expenditures in Union County (rose) 9.5 per cent, to total $13,265,140 in 1960 as compared with $12,113,699 in 1959. The spending totals, assembled from official records by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association for inclusion in its forthcoming annual reference work, "Financial Statistics of New Jersey Local Government," cover current operations, debt service and capital improvements, including those financed from borrowed funds.

Tuberculosis research projects concerning immunity, resistance, and detection are being supported by the Union County Tuberculosis and Health League through the New Jersey Medical Research and Teaching Fund, according to a report made today by Robert M. Crans, of 420 Riverside Drive, Cranford, President of the League.

The New Jersey Medical Research and Teaching Fund is a pooling of grants from local tuberculosis leagues in New Jersey to further tuberculosis research and professional education. The Fund for 1961-62 reached a total of $16,594, including the $2,000 grant from the Union County League. These voluntary contributions of the local associations were in addition to the one-percent-of-all-Christmas-Seal funds automatically dedicated to research.

Scientists whose research is being supported by the New Jersey Fund are Sidney Raffel, M.D., of Stanford University, California, working on allergy and immunity in tuberculosis; Guy P. Youmans, M.D., of Northwestern University, Chicago, trying to find a new way to detect tuberculosis through evaluation of gel diffusion techniques; and Marvin J. Allison, Ph.D., of the Henry Phipps Institute, Philadelphia, who is studying the nature of resistance to tuberculosis.

All three grants were supported by the New Jersey Medical Research Fund last year.

To further medical education, the Fund will support a professorship in Chest Diseases at Seton Hall University held by Gustavo A. Lauranzi, M.D. This is a joint project shared equally by the New Jersey Medical Research and Teaching Fund and the Hudson County Tuberculosis League. This is the second year of a three-year program of support. The University will assume entire support after next year.

Besides her husband she leaves one daughter, Mrs. Frederick J. Emmenegger of Summit; one brother, Thomas Hunter of London, England, and one sister, Miss Jean Hunter of Aberdeen.

Service will be conducted in the Community Presbyterian Church tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. by the Rev. Elmer A. Talcott, minister. Interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Memorial Fund of the Community Presbyterian Church of Mountainside. Arrangements are in charge of Gray's of Westfield.

One of the many antiques to be used at Bonwit's Short Hills store, opening August 10, will be a 19th century Italian mirror which will enhance the shoe salon. Originally designed as a mirror frame for use over a hand, it was serving as a headboard when Bonwit's decorators found it. They will replace its top finial with an old carved iron figure, and put it back into service as a mirror.

The Ninth Sunday after Trinity will be celebrated at Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church, 524 South Street, Murray Hill on Sunday, July 30. The Rev. Russell E. Alexis Smith Stars In Critic's Choice

Did you ever think of what might happen if a reviewer had to watch the opening of his wife's new play, and then write an objective report on it? Ira Levin did, and he wrote one of the most delightful comedies to come along in years all about this amusing subject, "Critic's Choice."
A first showing comedy about reviewer Parker Ballantine, and his charming wife, Angela, "Critic's Choice" won plaudits from Broadway critics and audiences when it opened in New York. What happens when Angela announces her intentions to write a play to Parker and their precocious son, John, and then does - is not only funny, but provides an inside view of exactly how things work when a new play is put on.
Craig Stevens, TV's "Peter Gunn," plays the sophisticated and high-principled Parker Ballantine. Alexis Smith is the sweet wife who asserts her feminine rights by writing a play and then getting it produced. Other characters in the show include Dion

Miss Swanson Continues at Paper Mill

"Between Seasons," the new play by Malcolm Wells which has been trying out on the summer circuit, continues its stay at Paper Mill thru Saturday night August 5.
Gloria Swanson stars in the role of Judith Redmon, as the center of a love triangle. Her husband, played by Charles Baxter, is too busy and the bored and beautiful Judith falls in love with a young and handsome actor played by Ray Fulmer. How her husband recaptures Judith makes the climax of the sophisticated comedy.
In addition to displaying her acting power "Between Seasons" gives Miss Swanson an opportunity to wear a series of magnificent costumes she designed herself. The elegant set for the play has been partially furnished from Miss Swanson's own 5th Ave. apartment.
Tickets for "Between Seasons" are still available for all performances including the two Saturday shows at 6 and 9 P.M. and the 2:30 Wednesday matinee. Celeste Holm follows Miss Swanson into the Paper Mill in her hit Broadway comedy "Invitation to a March" opening August 7 for one week only.

"Homicidal" Is New Movie At Loew's State Theatre

William Castle, master of the macabre, is at it again, Castle's newest adventure into the realm of horror in "Homicidal," the story of a psychotic killer, due Wednesday, July 26 at Loew's State Theatre. Jean Arless is introduced to the screen in the new Columbia release and the film stars Glenn Corbett, Eugene Lester, Alan Bruce and James Westfield.
"Homicidal" reportedly has all the shock elements to make it a worthy successor to Castle's past suspense hits, "13 Ghosts," "The Tingler," "The House on Haunted Hill," and "Macabre." "Homicidal" comes equipped with another of William Castle's unique showmanship tricks, an audience participation "Grimmick" on a par with his ghost from "House on Haunted Hill," his special spectacles for "13 Ghosts" and his spine-tingler of "The Tingler."
Some of the "Homicidal" plot ingredients, which virtually assure a full measure of entertainment for the horror aficionado, are the maniac killer's menacing of a completely paralyzed, mute old woman; the nocturnal prowls of the killer seeking a new victim; and the ruthless destruction of a completely unsuspecting victim, during a mysterious midnight wedding.

What is most likely to distract you while driving? Research by the Institute for Safer Living indicates that the following are high on the list of attention stealers which cause motorists to drive into trouble: An accident scene, unusual roadside objects, argument with a passenger, insect in car, smoking, eating, sharp light reflections, children, pets, objects blowing around in the car. If these are not enough, there are plenty of others which continually test the driver's powers of concentration.

Foothill Offers Dark of the Moon

The curtain rises on "Dark of the Moon" August 2nd at Foothill Playhouse, Middlesex. The thrilling drama, based on a popular American folk tale, will run at the Playhouse from August 2 to 5, and August 9 to 12. "Dark of the Moon," by Howard Richardson and William Berney, is based on the ballad of Barbara Allen, a girl so lovely she makes a witch boy leave his care-free mountain top and watchful eagle to become a human. He may remain a human if, and only if, the beautiful Barbara Allen remains true to him for a full year. The beautiful plot unfolds with brilliant wit, enchanting songs and lively dances... ending in a starkly tender climax.
The beautiful Barbara Allen is played by Eve Johnson, and John, the Witch Boy, by Ed Lawrence. These two fine actors have worked together for the past year as members of a four-person Shakespearean group, The Players Four. Other members of the cast include Charlotte Klein, Bruce Chandler, William Beatle, Jr., and Robert Landrum.

Songs That Dance Planned at Mill

Music and imagination have featured billing in "Songs That Dance," a program for children which will be presented at the Paper Mill Playhouse on Saturday morning, July 29, at 11:00 a.m. Judith Janus and Bob Cohen have worked out an original presentation of folk songs and dances from many lands which they offer together in a most engaging manner.
The children are not merely spectators, but actively participate in the proceedings. While the children sing choruses, clap accompaniments and make up verses, the stories of the "Old Woman Who Swallowed A Fly" or the "Little Overcoat" which changes shape before the eyes, and the adventures of a jolly hobo and his "Waltzing Matilda" unfold.

During these slow months, when local footballs lay deflated in misty locker rooms, and the Major Leagues are plodding along toward their day of reckoning, when the public discovers which National League team will be facing the Yankees in the Fall Classic, we thought we would mark time this week and partake in the columnist's privilege of springing whatever he pleases upon his readers.

Sparing no expense, we have compiled what we think constitutes a very interesting and often difficult sports quiz. We hope you enjoy these questions from out of the past, and tax your backgrounds to see how many correct answers you can come up with.

The full list of correct answers will be published in this column next week.

Good luck.

DO YOU THINK RED CHINA SHOULD BE ADMITTED TO THE UN?

Betty Bader of Mountaintop: "Until a few years ago, there was relatively no talk of admitting Red China to the United Nations because it was not recognized as the 'true' government of the people. Now, with rumors of Red China and Russia drifting apart, people would like to have Red China in the UN and voting with us. Suppose that Russia and Red China unite once admission is granted. 'Admission to the UN is for all countries, regardless of size and importance, if they are interested in promoting peace.'

Mrs. Lilyan Shephardson of Fanwood, secretary to administrator design director of CIBA: "Yes, this event is inevitable as we all know and in these times it is folly to think Red China can be kept out of the UN forever. The US is one of the top world powers, but the admission of so many new African nations into the UN, there are many more nationalistic feelings and leanings to contend with and no longer can votes 'yes' or 'no' be tallied before the official roll call is taken."

Red China is a large and powerful country. It is not as backward as it used to be. It is better to keep an eye on them at the conference table; so we will have an idea of what they are thinking and doing."

Mary Ann Pettinichio of Springfield: "It is my firm conviction that the United States should do its utmost to block every attempt Red China makes to enter the United Nations. I do not feel this way because I believe that Red China is not in reality the 'true' China today, but because I feel that we, the U.S., must draw a line somewhere to retard the ever increasing threat of International Communism. Perhaps, Red China's entry into the U.N. is, as some people say, an inevitable conclusion. However, we must at least make a token refusal to stop their admission. We must show the world, and continue to show the world, that the United States stands for the Democratic way, and refused to to those wholly opposed to this system. I am one hundred per cent for the United Nations. To coin an overworked cliché, 'while men are talking they're not fighting.' But there are certain values and obligations which supersede the greatest of organizations. Our oath of allegiance to freedom should not be compromised. Four-year-old girl to father: 'Isn't it funny that just about news happens each day to fill up a newspaper.'

ELECTRIC DRYER

Saves time, work and money—saves clothes, too—no heavy lifting, lugging or hanging!

An electric dryer is so safe and easy to install, you can't afford to be without one for another washday. No fuel pipes—just put it anywhere, even on the second floor. It will save you 220 back-breaking stoops, bends and lifts each week and twenty 8-hour working days each year. (University time and motion studies).

An electric dryer saves money, too—because it saves on clothes two ways. First, its gentle action means they last longer. No wear and tear of outside hanging, no soot or dust—no fading from fumes. Just the sunshine clean drying of safe radiant heat that makes them kitten-soft, 30% fluffier and always fresh-smelling. Then, it saves because you need fewer clothes and linens. You can wash and dry the same day—even cut commercial laundry costs by doing more at home.

Ask your Reddy Kilowatt dealer to show you a flameless electric dryer today. You'll want to install it in your home tomorrow.
