

Baltusrol Doesn't Want Water Basin On Course

Concerned with the effect the development of mountain property will have on the drainage of water onto its course, Baltusrol Golf Club spokesmen told the Springfield Planning Board at a public hearing Thursday night that 56 acres should not be used as a retention basin, by developers of other property.

In golfing circles, the local course is considered one of the finest and most difficult in the eastern part of the United States.

The board is considering the application of Isidor Sherman of 23 Londonderry Way, Summit, who wants to subdivide 18.5 acres on the side of Baltusrol Mountain in Springfield and Mountaintown.

Plans call for 35 lots in Springfield and 19 in Mountaintown of which four are partially in Springfield and one is half in Mountaintown. The land presently all undeveloped, lies between Diamond Hill Corp. property and Baltusrol Golf Club property, Rolling Rock Road, Mountaintown now runs up the area and would be continued into the tract on development according to Springfield Township Engineer Alfred H. Swenson.

Mr. Sherman is the owner and developer of the property for which homes are planned.

The golf club asks to maintain its present drainage system. Speaking for the club were Fred A. Frost, attorney with the law firm, Pitney Hardin and Ward of Newark, and Harry A. Taylor a member of the board of governors at Baltusrol, who is serving on the club's committee, studying the drainage problem.

Stressing the club's desire to be "a good neighbor," Mr. Frost explained that his remarks were not to be regarded as an objection at this time. He went on to point out that if the property in question were subdivided under the present plan, it would be necessary for Baltusrol to drain surface waters off an area previously naturally drained.

Continuing the club's position on this matter, Mr. Taylor stated that it would be necessary to use one acre of the fifth green on the course as a retention basin, which he said, would create a disturbance and require constant care entirely for the benefit of a neighbor.

"We are satisfied with the drainage system at the moment. Our course is adequately drained," he said, and added that the first objection to the plan was that Baltusrol would be "losing lands" with the establishment of "an eye sore" and, secondly, that the club would be required to maintain this basin at its own expense.

According to Richard J. Jeske, an engineer associated with Aurnhammer, Jeske and Aurnhammer of Summit, who represents Mr. Sherman, the waters are now draining on the sixth fairway. He said the proposed basin on the course was to be located behind the fifth green of the upper course parallel to the sixth fairway.

Mr. Jeske expressed the good faith of the developer, who he said has been negotiating with Mr. Frost and Mr. Taylor for nine months and who has thoroughly investigated ways to solve the drainage question to the satisfaction of both sides.

At the meeting, Mr. Jeske introduced an alternate plan calling for the construction of a retention basin on the Sherman property. He recommended that this basin be maintained by the municipality as part of its storm sewer program and be established for recreational purposes.

He indicated that it could serve as a skating pond in winter and possibly as a swimming pool in summer. It would also require grass maintenance, he said.

The two retention basin plans, either on the Baltusrol or Sherman property, were the only solutions to the problem "within the realm of economic possibilities," Mr. Jeske said.

The Planning Board agreed to withhold action on the application until Baltusrol engineers can study Mr. Jeske's latest proposal for the establishment of a basin on the Sherman property.

Whatever action the board takes in this matter will be subject to the approval of the Springfield Township Committee. Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and newly appointed Committeeman John C. Pitney are members of the Planning Board.

Checks Pour In For Stricken Child

COLLECTED MONEY FOR LINDYLEE: Six youngsters, 8 to 11, all residents in Briar Hill Circle, Springfield, and children with a heart-rang door bells in their neighborhood Friday and Saturday asking for contributions to the Lindylee Fund. They turned in $46.00 which is part of the $632.00 received in the first few days. The children are (left to right) Dorothy Banner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Benner; Cynthia Sergi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sergi; Barbara Roy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Roy; Lauren Sarge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sarge; Kathleen Visconti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Visconti; Marilyn Passero, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Passero; and Saul Freeman, Chairman of the Fund

Many Projects Planned For Funds

Three year old Lindylee Brown, stricken with encephalitis, managed a wan smile from her bed in Overlook Hospital when her mother told her "you'll be getting better now. Your friends and neighbors have again opened their hearts."

What Mrs. Donald Brown, 19 Morris Avenue, Springfield, mother of the child, tried to tell Lindylee was that there was an immediate response to the appeal for contributions to the Lindylee Brown Fund and, up to Monday morning, a total of $632.03 had been received by Saul Freeman, Chairman of the drive.

The money received will be placed in a special account and, according to members of the committee, will be used only to help the parents pay for Lindylee's hospital, medical, nursing care. Mr. Freeman is chairman of the Crippled Children's Committee of the Springfield Elks, and is serving as head of the final drive for the Lindylee Fund.

"The response has been most gratifying," said Mr. Freeman, "and the first mail indicated that people in this area will come to Lindylee's help. The first mail included everything from a single dollar bill to a check for $100 with the donor requesting that the contribution be listed as anonymous."

"Letters and cheerful notes accompanied many of the checks with prayers for a speedy recovery for Lindylee," said Mr. Freeman.

Ordinance To Change Some Traffic Laws

An ordinance regulating traffic control was introduced at the Springfield Township Committee meeting Tuesday night.

The ordinance, which consolidates the municipality's traffic laws with a few minor changes, will have a public hearing September 26.

It provides for regulation and control of traffic and parking on through streets, stop intersections, one-way streets, yield intersections, and weight limitations and provides penalties thereof.

One change in the present law is the establishment of Possum Pass, which connects Springfield and Mountaintown, as a weight limitation street.

It was announced that Mountaintown recently approved a similar stipulation for the street. The street was designated for light traffic with a four ton limit.

The ordinance, which had been submitted to the Department of Public Safety, Trenton, for approval, was commended by that agency.

Gerald Driscoll, chief of the bureau of traffic safety of the Division of Motor Vehicles, praised the municipal officials for the way in which the ordinance was "set forth in a clear and concise manner."

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and Committeeman Russel Sibole indicated that this commendation was considered quite an accomplishment.

Break Ground For New P.O.

Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio has announced that at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 17, official ground breaking ceremonies will be held at the site of the new post office building at 210 Mountain Avenue, Springfield.

Boys Ring Door-Bells; Get $23. For Lindylee

Four 12 year old boys in the Woodside Homes of Springfield section responded to the "Help 3-year old Lindylee" call and spent their week end going from door to door, asking for money to help the encephalitis victim pay her hospital and doctors' bills.

A total of $23.03 was turned over to the Lindylee Fund by these four boys which is part of the $632.03 total in the first list of contributors.

The four 12 year old boys who took time off from their week end play to help Lindylee are: Ronald Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson, 10 Hemlock Terrace; Peter Brunny, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brunny, 9 Cypress Terrace; Robert Gleitsmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gleitsmann, 14 Hemlock Terrace; and Drew Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, 25 Laurel Drive, all of Springfield.

Planning Board Approves Homes Behind Cardinal's

Springfield Planning Board, at its regular meeting last Thursday night approved the application of Joseph Wilt of Elizabethtown, who wants to divide 3.6 acres behind the Cardinal nursery property into 13 building lots.

The property will include the continuation of Woodside Road and Mr. Wilt told the board the type of homes planned for the property will be similar to those on Woodside Road. No one attending the public hearing in Municipal Hall objected to the proposal.

The application will now be forwarded to the Township Committee for final approval or rejection.

action was withheld on the application of Lawrence and Filomena Leone of South Springfield Avenue, who are seeking permission to subdivide 4.9 acres at their home address into 14 building lots.

Ernest Brita of 18 Main Street, Millburn, attorney, appeared for the applicants. B. Baldwin of 64 Ruby Street, Raymond Oaks of 39 Cambridge Terrace and Theodore Hais of 315 Northview Terrace asked about plans for the development, which will include a 50-foot right of way.

The public hearing on the application of Sanford Nalitz for the improvement of 1.52 acres at 125-161 Springfield Avenue, involving two lots, was postponed until the next meeting.

A revised subdivision map, submitted by Frank Cardinal of Milltown Road, developer, increasing the size of lots in the Union County Industrial Park was accepted by the board.

The board will make its recommendation to the Township Committee for the map's approval.

Voters League Starts Drive

The League of Women Voters of Springfield has started its annual finance drive.

The purpose of this drive is to collect funds to underwrite the League's non-partisan activities for the next twelve months.

The League believes that the true spirit and practical operation of democracy is based solidly on an informed voter.

League activities include printing and disseminating non-partisan candidate information, as well as conducting "Candidate's Night", where the public can meet all the candidates.

On election day, League members serve as baby sitters and provide transportation to the polls. While the League itself practices complete political impartiality and supports no candidate or party, it encourages the public to play an active role in the political party of their own choice.

Other current activities of the League include a factual study of the Springfield school system, regional planning, and national foreign economic policies.

All League members give freely of their time and services without compensation, but without the support of public spirited citizens, the League cannot fully function.

Those wishing to make a contribution, please send your check to Mrs. Rubin Gran, finance chairman, 2 Troy Drive, Springfield.

SAYING FAREWELL — Tulip Road residents Nat Perlman and Bud Cooperman wish number 24 Tulip Road a safe trip. The house, purchased by the Highway Department, and resold for placement on Short Hills Avenue off Morris Avenue, is up on wheels and will be moved shortly. Eventually one entire side of Tulip Road is expected to be taken by the State to make way for Routes 78 and 26. This house was purchased at an earlier date because its former owner, Mr. Arnold Birnbaum was transferred by his company to California.

Ed. Note: (The Trenton office of the New Jersey Highway Department recently said it "knew nothing about specific right-of-way acquisitions in Springfield." This building (above) was purchased by the Highway Department and later sold to Herman Kravis, a Springfield resident, at a public (?) auction.)

Springfield Library

In the Springfield Library, summer reading programs were scarcely ended when winter plans and winter activities rushed to take their places. Foremost among the new programs were the beginning of Great Books Discussions and Preschool Story Hours.

The Great Books Discussion course has for sponsors both the Public Library and the Regional Adult Evening School. It meets (on Tuesday evenings) in the Library (30 Main St., Springfield) at two-week intervals beginning Tuesday, September 12. The first book to be discussed is from the Bible (Old Testament), the Book of Job. The second one will be Aeschylus' The Oresteia on September 26. Notices were sent to those who came last year or who had left names. There is still an opportunity for people interested in books and reading to join the group.

Mrs. Keller, the Children's Librarian, reports that mothers have been coming into the Library and telephoning to secure tickets for the Pre-School Story hours. All tickets for the A-Series which will begin on Friday, September 22 and the B-Series to begin Wednesday, October 18 have been distributed. There are still a number of openings in the C-Series which begins on Friday, November 17. The Preschool Story Hours are planned for boys and girls who are four years old, or who will have a fourth birthday before December 1961. The idea of limiting the group to this age is to make sure that the children are mature enough to enjoy the stories and get acquainted with library procedures. If the children are too young at the present moment, in time they will be old enough to join a later group.

Help Your SAFETY PATROL

WINNER, AAA TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

Safety Patrol

Many boys and girls in this area will help to protect the lives of schoolmates in traffic this year as members of the School Safety Patrol, reported the New Jersey Automobile Club (AAA) today.

The local youngsters are part of a contingent of some 770,000 patrol youngsters serving at school crossings throughout the nation.

A new safety poster urging school-age children to "Help Your Safety Patrol" is now being distributed to schools in Springfield as part of the regular monthly safety education program of the New Jersey Automobile Club (AAA).

Paying tribute to the Patrols, the Motor Club pointed out that since 1922 when the program was inaugurated, the traffic death rate of school-age children has dropped to nearly one-half, while the death rate of all other groups has doubled.

The AAA Club urged all children to respect and take advantage of the guidance of the Safety Patrols, and called on parents to advise their youngsters: "The Safety Patrols are performing one of the most outstanding jobs in the entire traffic safety field," the club said. "Their influence on other children has been the most constructive step in reducing accidents involving school-age children."

The new poster was designed by David Bell, 8, a third-grade student at Longfellow School, Louisville, Kentucky. It was a first place winner in the American Automobile Association's National Traffic Safety Poster Contest. Selected by a board of prominent judges, the poster has been reproduced for distribution by AAA Clubs throughout the nation.

"Major Parties Running New Jersey Citizens"

On Wednesday evening, September 6, Reinhard V. Metzger, Conservative Party candidate for governor, told the members of the Union County Conservative Club that "the major party candidates are gradually but inevitably ruining the people of New Jersey."

Mr. Metzger, who was Republican Assemblyman, 1954 and 1955, from Essex County said he has resigned all connection with the Republican Party, including trusteeship of the Clean Government Republican "because, like many others, he was fed up with the lack of principles and poor quality of candidates offered the voters by both major parties."

Metzger believes that his experience in New Jersey civic and political affairs has given him a firmer foundation and understanding for high office in New Jersey than has either of the other candidates.

He outlined his position on several of New Jersey's major problems, particularly those regarding taxes and spending. "You would be appalled," he said, "at the extravagance, waste and inefficiency in government. I have fought on these issues on the floor of the Assembly, during office, I repeatedly showed the Legislature how money could be saved. On one occasion I remember, I gave them facts and figures on how a million dollars could be cut, only to have them ignored in favor of the padded figure. Was this deliberate? You bet it was; and it will continue until you get those patronage and plum hungry party men out of office."

On the question as to the possibility of a broad base tax relieving the burden of high property taxes in New Jersey, Metzger charged that advocates of such a tax were knowingly promoting a calculated deception on the taxpayer. "Anyone who stops to think for a minute," he said, "will realize that the property tax is a municipal tax for the support of the community, the schools and the county, while any so-called broad base tax would be collected directly by the State and simply used to swell the already huge 'general fund' available for squandering. The towns and cities would still have to find the same money for their own government. The squanderers try to tell you that some of these new tax monies would be returned to the municipalities, but I don't have to tell you how that would work out. You would have less to say about your own affairs and less control over your tax dollars than ever before - with Trenton calling the shots."

"This is a decision, not a solution," Metzger concluded, "and the Conservative Party still stands four square on NO NEW TAXES IN NEW JERSEY."

Bell To Initiate Number Calling

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. announced today that starting Sept. 25 it will begin a statewide program to give All Number Calling (ANC) numbers to customers who have new telephone service installed. New Jersey Bell customers will receive all-numeral telephone numbers if they move within New Jersey, from one location to another, or move from out of state to a location served by New Jersey Bell. Persons who have telephone service installed where there was none previously will also get ANC numbers under the new program.

Under ANC, numerals are used in place of the traditional two letters in the exchange designations. Accordingly, a telephone number which formerly was listed as BA 4-9970 could be changed to 224-9970 through ANC. New Jersey Bell cited the program as part of a gradual plan to bring all telephones in the country under the ANC system. The company late last year began a program of converting some exchange areas to ANC in conjunction with improvement activities, such as the introduction of dial service.

The rapid growth of the telephone system during recent years, as well as its anticipated growth in the future, has created the need for a much greater number of exchange combinations. Under the present rate of growth of the telephone system the supply of two-letter, five-numeral telephone numbers would be exhausted in the 1970's. The company said it plans to convert all telephones in areas served by New Jersey Bell to ANC within about five years.

State Highway Map Ready For Distribution In Week

The latest edition of the New Jersey State Highway Department's Official Map and Guide will be ready for free distribution within a week, Commissioner Dwight R.G. Palmer announced today.

The new map will be available to anyone requesting a copy. Post cards only, with printed or typed address of the party making the request, should be directed to Highway Map, State Highway Department, 1035 Parkway Avenue, Trenton 25, N.J.

According to a Highway Department spokesman, advance requests heretofore made will be honored without the need for further action on the part of the requesters. The Official Map and Guide again employs the booklet design in preference to the single sheet; this type of map has had wide acceptance as a convenience to the motoring public since it is more convenient to use in a car. In addition, the design permits use of a larger scale, especially valuable in metropolitan areas. Highways and streets in the State's two principal metropolitan areas, Camden and North

Overlook Solves Parking Problem

Improved parking service for the convenience of the public is about to go into effect at Overlook Hospital. A new system of "live" parking with attendants will begin Monday, September 18, in special areas reserved for patients, doctors, visitors and volunteers.

By enabling almost double the number of cars to be parked in a given area, "live" parking with attendants will assure the public of quick and accessible solution to what has long been a major traffic problem.

Similar plans have proven most successful in many progressive eastern hospitals confronted with limited parking areas, plus population growth and consequent expansion of hospital facilities.

A charge of 25¢ for two hours, 50¢ overtime per day, is to defray the cost of attendants, installation of control gates, ticket offices, shelters and repaving of the lots. Volunteers will not be charged while contributing their services.

"Overlook's Board of Trustees makes every effort to see that patient costs are kept to a minimum," Sturgis S. Wilson, President, commented today. "We don't want any 'hidden' charges at Overlook. We therefore felt the most fair handling of parking costs was to charge those persons directly using the parking facilities."

The hospital's original plans called for the lot across Morris Avenue to be reserved for visitors, along with the area at the side of the Main Entrance, since these sections are closest to the front door. The Town Council, however, has vetoed the use of the lot across the street by visitors on the grounds that the crossing is too hazardous.

The Morris Avenue lot was originally rented to Overlook by the Town of Summit with the understanding that it be used for employees. The Council has held to the view that this restriction continue on the grounds that employees come and go at stated times and are more aware of the dangers involved.

Efforts to establish a traffic light at this point have been stalemated so far by the fact that Morris Avenue is a county road, requiring legislation at a higher level.

Of special interest to motorists are a number of photographs showing the Highway Department's new safety construction features. These include: creper lanes, center barriers, hedges, overpasses, and outside white lines. Text explaining the purpose and results of these safety items accompany each photo.

The last page of the booklet is a special fold-out with a complete index to cities and towns on one side and economic and marketing advantages of the State on the other. This survey outlines New Jersey's potential and existing status in industry, commerce and transportation.

On the back cover the Department utilizes a four-color map to show the proposed improvements it has planned for the existing 1850 mile State Highway System in order to match growing traffic needs. A short accompanying text explains the Department's policy in bringing about accomplishments of the overall job.

Tips and Tricks—Blankets get much of their warmth from the air surrounding the fibers, so don't pile a lot of items on top of them in the closet. You'll "squeeze out" the air. For maximum wear, bathing suits should be rinsed in clear water after every use. Periodically, they should be washed in lukewarm water with mild soda. Never iron swimsuits. You'll destroy some of their elasticity.

Barnard Club Ladies' Guild Prepares Plans Lunch For Annual Harvest Fair

Final arrangements are being made for the annual luncheon of the Barnard College Club of North Central New Jersey on September 21 at B. Altman and Co. in Short Hills. Mrs. Marian Churchill White, President of the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College, and Alumnae Exchange will speak on "The Barnard You Don't See".

Serving on the luncheon committee are Mrs. Michael Bernstein of 53A Troy Drive, Springfield, and Mrs. Donald D. MacLaren of Mountain Avenue, Scotch Plains.

The Ladies' Guild of Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Springfield is finishing preparations for their annual Harvest Fair this Saturday, September 16, from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm on the church grounds and in the parish house at 639-641 Mountain Avenue. All proceeds from this diligent effort will go toward the new church building which is now being designed.

Free cartoon movies will be shown to the children at 11:00 am and 1:00 pm. They will also have fun fishing at the Kiddies' Fish Pond.

Members and friends of the guild will combine their many talents in various booths. Mrs. Wm. Kistner and Mrs. Wm. Gooding have gathered many Christmas and everyday home decorations and gifts in their Home Decor Booth.

The Country Store, under the able direction of Mrs. Walter Gaestel and Mrs. Carl Holmberg, has items too numerous to mention.

Hand made and/or decorated articles will be presented by Mrs. George Mihlon and Mrs. Ethel Naumann in the Needlework Booth.

Religious articles will be sold or displayed for orders to be taken by Mrs. Horace Libby and Mrs. Herbert Keller.

Home made cakes, pies, breads, jellies, and other delicious foods will be sold in the Sweet Shop by Mrs. Egon Stark and Mrs. Roy Dougherty. The members of the Guild have combined their favorite family recipes into a cookbook which will be printed in time for the Fair.

Over 13,000 To Receive Social Security Checks

Over 13,000 persons living in the Union County are among the 3.7 million people throughout the country who are receiving increases in the social security checks delivered to them this week, Ralph W. Jones, district manager of the Elizabeth social security office, said today.

Under amendments to the social security law, signed by President Kennedy on June 30, payments are increased for about one out of every four persons on the social security benefit rolls. Payments of those getting benefits at or near the minimum rate are boosted by amounts ranging up to $7 and the benefits of widows getting payments based on their husbands' work are raised by about 10 percent.

The increased benefits for these beneficiaries under the 1961 amendments to the law could be added automatically to their checks, Jones said. But persons made newly eligible for benefits or for higher benefits by some of the other 1961 amendments will need to get in touch with their local social security office.

Under these amendments:

- (1) Retired men have the option of receiving reduced retirement benefits as early as age 62.
- (2) Many older people who did not work for the length of time required under the old law will now be eligible for payments. The amount of work needed to get benefits has been reduced. However, at least a year and a half of work under social security is needed to qualify for payments. The surviving families of workers who died after June 1954 and who were not eligible for benefits under the old law may now be eligible because of this change.
- (3) The amount that beneficiaries can earn and still collect a portion of their benefits for the year has been raised. As an example, a worker without dependents, eligible for a monthly old age benefit of $120, can earn about $2800 annually and still collect some of his benefits for the year. Many people, otherwise eligible for benefits, who have not yet applied because they are still working should find out now whether it is to their advantage to file an application.
- (4) Because of the 10 percent

BODIES IN SHAPE—Bulldog Footballers go through their fitness paces by doing some jumping jacks. With the beginning of the season just a few weeks away, getting in top-flight shape is pretty important.

AND MINDS—Coach Herb Palmer calls his squad together to outline a few plays. The boys listened and then broke onto the field to put the skull session to practical use.

REBUILDING JOB

Bulldogs Face Tough Schedule

Open at Home Against Somerville On September 23

Begin 90 Degree Practice Sessions

Football in an outdoor oven... Wind sprints on a hot frying pan... Skull sessions on burnt grass...

These were the scenes played out on Springfield Regional's Miesel Avenue athletic field a few weeks ago as the Orange and Blue doffed pads and headgear in preparation for another gridiron campaign. But the heat dulled none of the squad's enthusiasm.

At this date, Coach Herb Palmer's Bulldogs stand ready for all comers, and their rigorous schedule certainly warrants this type of outlook.

The Bulldogs, open-at-home on Saturday, September 23 against an always dangerous Somerville eleven, and then go on to face Arthur L. Johnson Regional, Scotch Plains, Caldwell, Summit, Edison, North Plainfield and Roselle on successive Saturdays, with the annual finale coming November 23 against Rahway.

How does the season shape up between the Springfield goal posts? From Coach Palmer's vantage point, the team's winning or losing ways rest upon question marks and experience.

Replacements are the greatest problem currently facing Mr. Palmer and his staff. With only eight returning lettermen, there are naturally quite a few vacancies to be filled.

GLHS Booters To Play Away

With eight starters back from last year's squad that won three and tied six of 14 games, the soccer team of Governor Livingston Regional High School is going through its pre-season preparations with an air of guarded optimism.

The Highlanders once again are facing a rugged 14-game slate which will pair them with some of New Jersey's top schoolboy soccer teams. To add to Coach Russ Hunchak's woes, the Highlanders once again will have to play all of their games at opponents' fields.

Governor Livingston will open its season one week from today against neighboring rival Summit High at 3:45 p.m. in Summit. The Hill City kickers annually field one of the State's best Group 3 teams.

The Highlanders also will play New Providence High twice and is slated for contests with Regional High School rivals Clark and Springfield. Other starters on the schedule include Chatham, Union, Linden and Scotch Plains.

Carrying most of Hunchak's hopes for a successful season are three top-notchers from last season, John Wadas, Bill Powers and Bill Sawyer. Other regulars back for another season are Richie Neubauer, Bob Engel, "Char" Kelly, Tony Conte and Sam Testa.

BILL GEOGHEGAN, Honor Student Fullback from Springfield

JACK APGAR, Quarterback from Springfield

HERB PALMER

On the front line, returning veterans Frank Perrelli and Tom Venice are at the guard positions. Ed Erskine will be back over the ball at center, Marry Sica, a Bulldog mainstay, will hold down one of the tackle posts and Larry Stickle will be docked at the left-end spot. If a boy can be found to fill the shoes of last year's All-County end Herb Etzold, and a steady can be found for the other tackle berth, Regional's forward wall will be in good shape.

However, the ball doesn't move without a strong backfield, and Coach Palmer cites the need for same.

Bill Geoghegan has been shifted to the fullback spot. Tuffy Hartz will work out of the left halfback sector, Jack Apgar shapes up as the starting quarterback and Ron Puorro will get a shot at right half. If this combination does not jell, the Bulldogs will be in the doghouse.

Getting back to the schedule, Coach Palmer notes that his team has a tougher ax to grind this year than in many years past. Still, if there's always that if, the team comes up to expectations, it should be a winning year. Palmer sees Somerville as one of the strongest opening engagements the team has ever encountered and he looks especially toward Scotch Plains, North Plainfield and Rahway as other rough competitors.

Canoe Brook Bowlers Ready To Begin Year

The third season of Canoe Brook Country Club's bowling league is about to get underway. The Summit club will have twenty 5-men teams and will bowl, as in previous years, on Monday evenings at 7:00 o'clock, at Madison's Plaza Lanes.

Captains for the teams have been selected and team members' names drawn from a hat, giving equal opportunity for all in this handicap tournament. The first night's bowling will be September 11th, with weekly sessions running through April 23rd, and with time out for Christmas and New Years.

"We've got a new system of allocating alternates to substitute for absent bowlers", said Jim Morris, chairman of the bowling committee, "and special alleys reserved for alternates to bowl on when they are not needed for their teams. The new arrangement should alleviate much of the trouble we had in other years of unbalanced teams due to absenteeism.

The program can be obtained from any of the following: Mr. Edward Ruby - DR 6-5800; Mr. Henry T. King - DR 9-3565; Mr. C.S. Catapano - DR 6-6080.

Registration Open For Footballers

The youth football program will kick off its second season this Saturday at the Miesel Avenue field. The program is basically the same as last year, however, first year problems have been solved so that the program should prove fun and enjoyable to the boys and yet still teach them the necessary fundamentals.

It has been decided to hold further registration for those boys who were unable to register this past Saturday for various reasons. These boys should report at the Miesel Avenue field in their uniform at 8:00 a.m. on September 16, 1961.

Their registration forms signed by their parents and accompanied with the $2.00 registration fee. As soon as possible after registering they will be placed with their group and take part in the opening session. In the event a boy has not received the registration form handed out in all Springfield schools last Friday, a form may be obtained by calling Mr. Catapano at DR 6-6080 or Mr. Ruby at DR 6-5800.

The program will be held every Saturday and cover a period of ten weeks starting Sept. 16, 1961. The boys should report promptly at 8 a.m. on the two-hour period can be utilized to the fullest extent.

Fall Hats Show Wide Variety

The new heads-up look in men's headwear, plus a greater than ever variety of models for all occasions, will make fall 1961 the hat-wearingest season in many a year. Adding fresh interest is the frank and open acceptance of British styling influence in hats, marked by crowns more tapered than ever and sharply upturned brims at the back. Brims continue to be narrow, most of them ranging from 1 1/2 to 2 inches, attracting youthful for all ages.
