

Baltusrol Club

A Golfers' Paradise; Do We Really Need It?

There is a shortage of residential property in Springfield. The Baltusrol Golf Club owns 463 acres. Which brings up the question: "DOES THE BALTUSROL GOLF CLUB MEAN SO MUCH TO SPRINGFIELD?" Except for aesthetics and the prestige of having such a lush country club in the Township, there are an unusual number of "no" answers to the question.

The Baltusrol organization owns the largest parcel of very desirable land in Springfield on which the Township treasury receives approximately $46,000. annually in taxes.

A few residents in Springfield do pick up some money as caddies. But that's where all advantages, if they can be called that, stop.

No resident of Springfield is a member—except those who moved into Troy Village recently so that they could be close to a speedy nine holes and a fast cocktail. Baltusrol members don't buy a tie in Springfield, they send no clothes to the Township tailors, they never need buy a sandwich or a cup of coffee in Springfield or even a pack of cigarettes;

In fact some of the old timers in the golf club are not certain where Springfield is located. According to the reports, Baltusrol for many years insisted that the address of the golf club be Short Hills, N. J. and all mail was addressed to a box in that post office. Baltusrol members do their part in helping tear up the Township streets coming to and going from the golf course.

This is especially true during the National Opens in Springfield when thousands help tie up traffic for days while Township police must do double duty helping to unsmear the jam of visitors.

But not one single cheeseburger is sold to any of these golf enthusiasts because all they're interested in is getting into the golf course and see the champions.

The Baltusrol membership includes some of the most important and affluent names in the nation, heads of some of the largest corporations in the world. This isn't meant as a plea "to shop here" or to get greater participation in Springfield's civic problems—even though that wouldn't be out of order. Baltusrol could solve many of Springfield's civic and charity programs.

This is not intended to give Baltusrol eviction notices. The 463 acres still belong to the club and the members can do as they please with them so long as the governing body is satisfied. And, the Township Committee and all Springfield officials are evidently very happy with having Baltusrol in Springfield.

However, THESE SAME 463 ACRES COULD BRING IN MORE THAN $100,000.00 IN TAXES INSTEAD OF WHAT THE CLUB PAYS INTO THE TREASURY NOW. One acre homes, or even high class apartments, with a Llewellyn Park atmosphere, is something to make the developers drool.

Perhaps, Baltusrol could retain its golf course and sell off part of the 463 acres and let's see what it means in the way of taxes. These residents would, at least, order some groceries here.

PRESENT $2,000 CHECK FOR SCHOLARSHIPS—Andrew Cannarato of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Kentworth Post 2230, presents check for $2,000 to Rupert H. ## Postmaster Del Vecchio Launches Early Mailing Drive For Holiday Season

"It is now time to start planning for Christmas card and gift mailings," Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio said today as he launched his 1961 "Mail Early for Christmas" Campaign.

Stressing the need for everyone to cooperate in this campaign, Postmaster Del Vecchio said "Early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts is the biggest single factor in getting everything delivered before Christmas. It is a greater factor this year since there will be no deliveries of Christmas letter-mails on Sunday, December 24th and Monday, December 25th."

Looking ahead to what may be the greatest Christmas season ever, the Post Office Department plans to expand its facilities and to provide extra help during the Christmas rush period. However, the Postmaster said, "Here are the things to watch in order to help in getting every Christmas card and package delivered by December 23rd.

Check your Christmas card and gift lists carefully. Be sure each address is complete with full name, street and number, city,

Veterans Give Two Scholarships To H.S.

Donation of two $1,000 scholarships by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Kentworth Post 2230 to the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School P.T.A. scholarship drive was announced at the P.T.A. meeting last Thursday in Halsey Hall.

The awards will be made next June to two Kentworth graduates, selected by the school scholarship committee on the basis of character, citizenship, scholarship ability, and need. The VFW contribution is the first substantial gift in the campaign to raise $50,000 for 1962 graduates in Kentworth and Springfield.

Mrs. Karl Flanter was nominated as president for 1962-63, and other officers named were Rupert H. Humer, first vice-president; William A. Hoffmann, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Isley, recording secretary; Mrs. Adolph Letkauskas, corresponding secretary, and Meyer A. Biddelman, treasurer. The election will be held at the March meeting.

Wayne Roy, procedure and by-laws chairman, proposed changes in the by-laws necessitated by the withdrawal of members in Berkeley Heights and Mountainside. Michael A. Passero, Jr., reported for the auditing committee. Meyer A. Biddelman, scholarship co-chairman, drew heavy applause when he made the announcement of the VFW contribution.

Faculty and students of the Spanish and music departments presented a program, "Salute to Latin America," with August Caprio, coordinator of the language department, as master of ceremonies, Robert Brewin was student-announcer.

Lindylee Fund Closes With $3251.37 Total

The Lindylee Brown Fund has received a check for $206.60 from the Continental Post, American Legion of Springfield, as full proceeds from the November 5 paper scrap drive.

This brought up the Lindylee Fund total to $3251.37 which has been received to help Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown, 19 Morris Avenue, Springfield, parents of the child who has been stricken with encephalitis.

The Crippled Children's Committee of the Springfield Lodge of Elks, with Saul Freeman as chairman of the campaign, had charge of the drive to collect the contributions and the response has been very gratifying.

Mr. Freeman, chairman of the campaign to raise funds, announced that he is preparing a final report that "the Lindylee Drive is officially closed with the receipt of the Legion check as the result of the November 5 scrap drive."

"We want to thank all those who contributed," said Mr. Freeman, "and we hope our efforts will help Lindylee and her parents in the fight against this dread disease. Springfield has always had a big heart, has always responded to worthwhile causes and our neighbors did not fail us this time."

The lack of service Saturday and Sunday did not constitute a strike, said James Conway, spokesman for the 134 drivers, members of the Amalgamated Associated Motor Coach Employees Union. He said the drivers were attending a continuous union session to clear up grievances.

The company had announced earlier that, if the union were not satisfied with the result of the hearing, it could submit the issue for arbitration.

The company provides bus service for some 15,000 persons each weekday to Newark and New York from Mountainside and Springfield.

GOP Victors Not Ready To Fill Offices

Grade A turkey and good old fashioned pumpkin pie replaced politics as the chief topic of conversation this week in Springfield, and a mild moratorium has been declared in Township affairs for this week.

The Township Republicans, still jubilant over their sweep of all contests in Springfield, have been continuing their weekly conferences which became a very important part of their campaign planning.

Very informal discussions have been held by the four successful GOP candidates and their Board of Strategy but no official announcements will be ready for some time to come.

Selection of party members for the various positions to be filled by the Republicans, who now control the Springfield governing body, has been under consideration but no decision on any position has been definitely made.

While no one will venture a guess as to any of the places to be filled it is generally conceded that James W. Cawley who was general chairman of all the Republican campaign strategy, could get "about anything he wants."

Rumors have it, but without tracing it to any reliable source, that Mr. Cawley will, probably, take over the very important job of Township Attorney. However, former Township Attorney Max Sherman was very active in the victorious campaign on behalf of the Republican ticket and many are of the opinion that his name may be under consideration for this important post.

The selection of one of the three candidates, Arthur Falkin, Philip Del Vecchio and Robert Hardgrove, Jr., as Mayor is still one of the important decisions to be made by the Republicans. The lineup at the January 1 organization meeting will be three GOP and two Democrats, represented by the current Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and Russel Sibole.

Up to date there has been no indication as to the man to be favored for the position as Mayor but an announcement on this matter is expected after a meeting to be held next Sunday.

Democrats in Springfield are gradually recovering from the shock of such a complete defeat and plans are already in motion to revitalize the party in the Township.

Mayor Bonadies, titular head of the Democrats here, says "complicity and apathy were responsible for the defeat. Many of our regulars were so sure of our victory that they didn't think it important to go to the polls. Too many of our regulars thought it was definitely in the bag."

A recommendation of the Board of Adjustment for a variance to Dobb's Auto Body Shop at 17 Springfield Ave. for the construction of an attached garage was granted.

An additional traffic signal at South Springfield Ave. and Hillside Ave. was approved. The added light fixture is to improve the visibility for cars in So. Springfield Ave. driving from Route 22 north.

Bids for the construction of a shelter house at the Irwin Street playground were rejected as too high. Bids were: A. J. Iuso Construction Co., East Orange, $18,300; H.C. Bierbaum Construction Co., Livingston, $19,495; Frank Fuchs, Kentworth, $17,550.

Gaudineer PTA Sets Monday For Classroom Visitation

The Florence M. Gaudineer P.T.A. will hold its next meeting on Monday evening, November 27, at 7:30 p.m., in the Gaudineer Auditorium.

Following a brief business meeting, parents will be directed to their children's classrooms where they will have the opportunity to follow the schedule of the students for a day. The teachers will outline the curriculum prepared for the year. This classroom visitation is not intended to take the place of individual parent-teacher conferences but all parents will obtain a better understanding of the type of work the children are doing and the general background reasons for the curriculum as it is planned.

Bus Service Is Resumed

Somerset Bus Company vehicles were back on the road Monday after a work stoppage by 134 drivers during the weekend.

The drivers agreed to return to work after meeting since Friday night in the Moose Hall in Bound Brook.

The lack of service Saturday and Sunday did not constitute a strike, said James Conway, spokesman for the 134 drivers, members of the Amalgamated Associated Motor Coach Employees Union. He said the drivers were attending a continuous union session to clear up grievances.

The company had announced earlier that, if the union were not satisfied with the result of the hearing, it could submit the issue for arbitration.

The company provides bus service for some 15,000 persons each weekday to Newark and New York from Mountainside and Springfield.

Bulldogs Vs. Indians

TUFFY HARTZ

Turkey is only part of the Thanksgiving festivities in Springfield each year. For other excitement and holiday atmosphere one must look toward the Meisel Avenue football field where, on alternating Turkey Days, Springfield Regional's Bulldogs tangle with the Indians from Rahway in a gridiron clash that dates back to 1937 when Rahway blanked Regional 25-0.

Tomorrow's contest marks the 25th meeting of the two high school teams. Of these 25 encounters, Rahway has amassed sixteen victories to Springfield's six. There have been two ties.

New Signals For "Weather And Closing of Township Schools"

Plans have been completed by the Springfield Parent Teachers Association to stand by with information regarding school closing due to "weather" conditions. In past years, the switchboard of the Police Station was jammed on snowy mornings with calls from parents and children asking whether or not school was to be called off. Last year, in an effort to ease the strain on the Police Department, the custodians of each school were posted at the telephone for hours when they were needed for snow removal or maintenance of heating equipment. The Parent Teacher Associations have volunteered to augment the regular "school closed" signals with certain parents in each school who will be notified if school will not be in session due to weather conditions.

The names and telephone numbers of these "Minutemen" will be published in the PTA bulletins of each school.

"Anyone who misses the fire whistle or John Gambling's program on WOR, has but to telephone his designated PTA representative for the correct information.

Parents and children are instructed to watch school bulletins which will carry further information regarding school closings.

Everyone is requested to cooperate so that there will no longer be the danger of a jammed Police Department switchboard, or hours wasted while school custodians answer telephones.

Paid-Up Lunch

The Louise Waterman Wise Chapter, American Jewish Congress, will hold its annual paid-up membership luncheon on Monday, November 27 at 12:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bert Kaswimer, 3 Woodland Crescent S. O. Co-chairman of the affair are Mrs. Morton Geist and Mrs. Charles Rosen, both of Springfield, Mrs. Bernard Horwitz of West Orange is president of the organization. Mrs. Daniel Kram of West Orange, vice-president in charge of programs, has announced that the speaker for the afternoon will be Rabbi Israel S. Dressner, spiritual leader of Temple Shalom in Springfield, N.J., who will discuss "The Task of the Jew in the American Freedom Movement". Rabbi Dressner has traveled extensively in Europe and has lived in Israel for several months. He has been actively involved in the freedom movement in America for several years as a member of such organizations as NAACP, CORE, AJC, and ADL.

In June, 1961, he was a member of the first inter-racial and the only interfaith clergymen's freedom ride into the South. Along with one other rabbi and eight white and negro Protestant ministers, he was arrested in the airport terminal of Tallahassee after being denied service in the airport restaurant and after having engaged in a sit-in hunger strike there for more than 24 hours. After a short imprisonment in the Leon County Jail, he and the other clergymen were convicted on the charge of unlawful assembly and were sentenced to 60 days in jail. The clergymen are presently appealing their conviction and each is out on $1000 bail. It is expected that their case will eventually reach the Supreme Court of the USA, as it is the first airport terminal suit.

LIONS GOVERNOR VISITS

Arthur Blumenschine, Governor of 64 Lions clubs in District 16E was a guest of the Springfield Lions club on his annual official visit to the local club last week. Governor Blumenschine complimented the local club for its active interests in community affairs and the recent gift of an eye testing machine to the local school system. He was particularly pleased that the local club had one of the largest membership rolls and the weekly meetings were so largely attended. In photo, left to right: Seated Harold Bishop, Zone Chairman; Herbert Kern, President of the local club; Arthur Blumenschine, Governor of 16E; Mel Edelstein, Cabinet Secretary.

Sandmeier PTA

At the Tehlma L. Sandmeier P.T.A. meeting on November 20, the report covering the Mother's Trip to the U.N. on November 16, was announced as most successful and all concerned expressed their gratitude to Mrs. Sidney Sklar, International Relations Chairman, for a most enjoyable day.

With the wonderful response to the trip, Mrs. Sklar announced an excess of monies on the bus fare and it was unanimously decided to contribute the remaining funds to UNICEF. A certificate of appreciation from UNICEF was displayed by Mrs. H. Lee Sarokin, President of the P.T.A., at the meeting. The amount contributed was $20.00.

Prior to the meeting the classroom visitations were arranged in a new order whereby the grades were broken down to enable parents to spend adequate time in the classes of their children where more than one was involved. The Kindergarten, first, and second grades had visitations from 7:45 to 8:15 p.m., and the third, fourth, fifth, and Kindergarten were 8:30 to 9:00 p.m., followed by the P.T.A. meeting.

Richard D. Batchelder, President of the Classroom Teachers Association, addressed the delegates Wednesday night in a speech titled "A Time for Decision" and developed the idea that this is a time for "not dwelling on problems but realizing our potential for progress".

Mr. Batchelder traced the major influences on education today by saying, "To set the stage, this is an era of abundance and affluence", and listed as points for consideration the population explosion, which is affecting not only the number of children but also the percentage being educated; knowledge explosion as we learn more about our world and ourselves; technology in the use of adjuncts to teacher instruction; automation, which brings us more leisure time to fill constructively; professional autonomy, which he said is a threat to academic freedom and is resulting in the impossibility of discussing controversial issues in schools; school finances and the need for a broad-based tax; and the illiteracy of one-half of the world's population and the American ideology of the eventual supremacy of the individual.

The Special Interest Conference "What's New" featured a panel of speakers, each a specialist in his field, who discussed new methods, aims, and procedures in education.

The topics covered included balance in curriculum to include movement (physical education),

Capacity Crowd Attends Concert At High School

A capacity crowd jammed the Regional High School auditorium Sunday afternoon to hear the South Orange Community Orchestra in an "around the world concert for the children of Springfield and their families." Only parents, accompanied by children, were admitted.

The musical program was arranged by the Raymond Chisholm P.T.A. with the cooperation of other P.T.A. groups in Springfield, and was one of the most successful such affairs ever held in the Township.

Mrs. B. H. Josephson was chairman of the concert committee with Superintendent of Schools B. F. Newswanger, John Alt and Mesdames E. Powers,

$210.63 FOR UNICEF

Music lovers, attending Sunday's Family Sharing Concert at the Regional High School auditorium, showed their appreciation to the extent of contributing $210.63 for UNICEF. Considers of the exits received this total in voluntary contributions:

G. Budilish D. Force, J. Astley, P. Weisman and E. Kaufman as members.

Also assisting Mrs. Josephson were Mrs. B. Ehlers, Mrs. W. Binder, Mrs. S. Mruk, Mrs. D. Kalem, Mrs. L. Stevens and Mrs. E. Fuhrer.

The concert also enriched the treasury of the UNICEF since those in attendance contributed voluntarily in canisters on their way out of the auditorium.

The musical program included a well-arranged group of numbers with Jamie Buswell, young violinist, as one of the features of the afternoon.

color, art, and sound (music), as well as the more heavily emphasized science, mathematics and foreign languages; development of vocabulary and public speaking; TV teaching; Outdoor Education; reading program aims and development considering different abilities.

Human Development in Education which stressed that we should be interested in behavior patterns and potential "not in relating to the past but in the future in relation to NOW"; and machine teaching, which was presented as a means of learning in which a child cannot passively listen but must participate.

The conference on "Physical Fitness in Action" featured educators, an athlete, a gymnastic coach and physical education teacher, and a Marine Corps fitness coordinator. Effects of the directives resulting from the White House Conference on Children and Youth were discussed in relation to physical fitness in our schools.

At the final session on October 27, Philip Geary addressed the delegates with "This is Your World". Mr. Geary spoke of the conflicting ideologies in the world today.

Members Of SANE Hear Fallout Talk

Many residents from this area heard Robert Klein, Associate Editor of Consumer Reports, speaking at a meeting of Watching SANE, in Christ Church, Summit, last week, who stated that "there are too many variables to adequately rate shelters as they are being constructed today."

He spoke of the dangers of fallout of Strontium 90 in milk and the monitoring program conducted by Consumer's Union in conjunction with the U.S. government.

Dr. Herbert Shepperd of the N. J. Committee for Radiation Information spoke of the effects of nuclear weapons, particularly blast and firestorms which are neglected some extent in fallout shelter specifications.

Bernard Singer, chairman, Union County SANE, spoke of the need for fulfilling the desires of the people for an abundant life by a "peace race" rather than an "arms race."

He ascribed blame to both sides in the failure of the Geneva talks and called for a renewal of negotiations. He also mentioned that SANE advocated a campaign directed toward President Kennedy of no-testing in the atmosphere or underground as a prelude to such negotiations.

Fima, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Fima of 7 Chestnut Street, Summit. Father Nardone officiated at the ceremony. A reception was held at the Blue Spatter in Union.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Glenn Scheider, served as Matron of Honor and her sister, Miss Margaret Pulcino, was Maid of Honor. The bridesmaids were: Miss Joanne Formichella and Miss Joan Fima of Summit; Miss Karen Rahnenfuhrer of Kenilworth; Mrs. Salvatore Liberato of New Providence and Mrs. William Smith of Springfield.

Mr. Jules Bozzo of Manville served as the best man. Usters were the Messrs. Anthony Calari, William Parkin, and Daniel Russo of Summit, Donald Cronin and Salvatore Liberato of New Providence, and Glenn Scheider of Union.

The bride wore a gown styled of champagne ivory silk faille taffeta with a basque bodice. Alencon lace appliques accented the bateau neckline in front and through the back in an interesting shoulder to waist detail. A crown of matching Alencon Lace held the three-tiered bouffant veil of silk illusion. The bridesmaids wore similar dresses with bateau necklines and three-quarter sleeves.

WATCHUNG PARTY LINE DR 6-4316

HELEN SABO

Congratulations on their silver wedding anniversary go to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lord of 17 Laurel Drive, Springfield, who celebrated twenty-five years of marriage on November 21. The Lords have just returned from a two-week Caribbean Cruise on the liner Gripsholm. Some ports of call were Caracas, Venezuela, Haiti, Martinique and Granada.

Biggest baby we've had the pleasure of announcing recently is 10 pound, three ounces Jennifer Gay Jernstedt, born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jernstedt of 273 Chaucer Drive, Berkeley Heights, on November 7, at Overlook Hospital. Other small fry in the family are Anna, Bonnie, Roland and Pamela.

Newcomers to our area are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farrington and family who have moved from Beverly, Mass., to 66 Spring Brook Road, Springfield. Younger members of the family are Ann, Jean, Kathleen and Paul, who are eight, seven, four and one year old respectively. Dad is a statistician with American Telephone and Telegraph in New York.

A son, Vincent Robert, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Stahl of 40 Evergreen Avenue, Springfield, on November 5 at Overlook Hospital in Summit. On the welcoming committee was seven-year-old sister Carol Jean. Mrs. Stahl is the former Ruth Bechtloff of Union.

Each Thanksgiving Day holds an additional special significance for Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mortensen of 2145 Gallagher Avenue in Scotch Plains. The Mortensens moved into their home twelve years ago on Thanksgiving Day, 1949, when they were one of the few families in the area, and can lay claim to having eaten the first Thanksgiving turkey on Gallagher Avenue.

A daughter, Patricia Ann, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cocuzio of 2266 Westfield Avenue, Scotch Plains, on November 3 at Overlook Hospital in Summit. The new addition, who weighed six pounds, seven ounces at birth, has a five-year-old sister, Debora. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cocuzio of Union and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Conklin of 23 Baltusrol in Springfield.

Best wishes on their fifteenth wedding anniversary go to Mr.

and Mrs. Frank Kolinchik, of 45 Evergreen Avenue, Springfield. The Kolinchiks reached this happy milestone on November 16. Helping with the celebration was seven-year-old son Richard.

The November 16 trip to the United Nations, sponsored by the P.T.A. of the Thelma Sandmeter School in Springfield, was thoroughly enjoyed by the forty-four participants, most of whom are looking forward to going back more leisurely "on their own." When the chairman, Mrs. Terry Sklar, disclosed that she had a twenty dollar balance because of the complete subscription, the ladies voted to turn it over to UNICEF, rather than redistributing it among themselves.

We'd like to extend a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. John Frere, who have moved all the way from Phoenix, Arizona, to 799 Mountain Avenue in Springfield. Younger members of the family are three-year-old Blake, and baby Scotty Mr. Frere is an engineer with Western Electric in New York City.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Alan Kempler of 24 Bryant Avenue, Springfield, on the birth of their first child, a daughter, on November 6 at Beth Israel Hospital in Newark. The young lady, who weighed in at seven pounds, twelve ounces has been named Heidi Jill. Mrs. Kempler is the former Barbara Bender, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Bender of Irvington. Proud grandparents in Springfield are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kempler of 25 Troy Drive.

Two young men home for the Thanksgiving holidays are Cornell freshmen and roommates, Donald Weiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Weiss of Springfield; and Steven Bender, son of Springfield School Board Vice President Joseph Bender and his wife Sylvia. Birthday congratulations are in order for Donald, who was surprised on the day before he came home by a birthday cake, which his mother arranged to have delivered to him at school.

EDITORIAL

Many of us who do not live in Summit tend to think of Overlook Hospital as a Summit institution. Our response, therefore, to its fund-raising efforts has been in the past disappointing.

The fact of the matter is, Overlook is our hospital. Where else do most of us turn in times of medical emergency? Where do our rescue squads head when accidents strike? Where, indeed, are most of our babies born; our children treated when ill? Where are our aged, infirm?

These are the questions that should be asked. For it is at Overlook that most of us turn for the answers. And we are most fortunate to have such fine medical facilities available to us, night and day, whatever the need.

But Overlook did not grow by itself. It has grown solely through the interest and contributions of local people aware of the necessity for medical facilities in the area.

It does not seem fair to let the people of Summit and Millburn bear the main load of a community hospital that serves many towns outside its own limits. Overlook recently spent $4,000,000 on a new wing largely to meet the needs of this growing area - which certainly includes Springfield, and Berkeley Heights.

Let us respond generously, as well as with enlightened self-interest, to Overlook's Annual Giving Drive. A non-profit, voluntary hospital like Overlook is totally dependent upon our contributions if it is to keep pace with advances in medical science and service. We can take deep comfort in the fact that Overlook is rated as one of the leading hospitals in New Jersey today - let's help to keep it that way. We can take deep comfort in the fact that Overlook is rated as one of the leading hospitals in New Jersey today - let's help to keep it that way by sending our contribution to the Overlook Development Fund today.

Despite the fact that there is a legitimate complaint against the apparent "round-the-clock" solicitation for worthy causes, Springfield and residents in the entire Watchung Weekles area always seem to respond with whole-hearted support when the story is properly told.

The most recent example is the Lindylee Brown Fund which lost this week with a total of $3,251. This was collected to help the parents of the encephalitis victim meet the costs of hospitalization and medical expenses. The total was reached without too much participation by the industries in the area which further emphasizes the often repeated statement that "people in this area have a big heart."

Saul Freeman, a busy business man and a great believer in his civic responsibilities, handled the entire show for the Lindylee Fund and should be commended for this devotion to practically every worthwhile cause, drive, campaign in the community.

He is chairman of the Crippled Children's Committee of the Springfield Lodge of Elks; director of the Springfield Civil Defense program; active in the current Boy Scout membership and fund drive; plays an important part in the Chamber of Commerce programs - a very busy man.

There should be more like Saul Freeman and there should be more communities with devoted and dedicated citizens like Saul Freeman.

While we are on the subject of causes and charity drives, there should be some official source where those who have been solicited, especially by telephone, can determine whether or not the "pitch" is legitimate.

This newspaper has often received telephone calls from subscribers requesting information on whether or not such and such fund drive is legitimate.

They use the word "legitimate" in seeking such information but there is no way for this newspaper to give any advice unless we know something about the organizations, its program, its need for financial help.

Usually, when there is nothing in this office to answer such questions, it is suggested that a telephone call be made to the police department where all such information may be available.

Too many telephone solicitations are made to local residents from out of town organizations for contributions, all of which might be "worthy" but if there is no local interest in the cause and no one in the community participates in the soliciting group, and your newspaper knows nothing about the activities of the organization, the answer should be easy. Just say "I'm sorry."

If the cause is worthy, if the organization is legitimate, if the need for finances is accepted, there is no reason why such groups wouldn't want to publish such appeals in the home-town newspaper.

Here's Some Poetry Worth Republishing

During the past election campaign, a bit of poetry was published in this newspaper which was, probably, missed by many readers.

It is interesting enough to publish it again and here it is:

Editors:

A recent item in a New York newspaper stated that a certain group of clergymen had determined that the murder of an interloper trying to enter one's bomb shelter during nuclear attack was justified.

This bit of information inspired the following:

Here my son, Please take this knife
You'll use it soon to save your life.

And you, my sweet and gentle daughter
I will teach the art of slaughter.

If neighbors, friends or even kin
Should try to enter - do them in

For food that's stocked on all these shelves
Is just enough to feed ourselves.

And if we must - no 'ifs' or 'buts'
To keep them out, we'll rip their guts.

Now here's a happy circumstance
We've been acquired in advance

Now, children, run outside and play
You've had your lesson for today.

Arthur Thieberger

Lecture Series

"Operation Deep Freeze," a lecture illustrated with color slides and exhibits, will be presented by Harold Walker, Meuchen, at the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation, on Sunday, November 26, at 3:00 p.m.

Mr. Walker visited the South Pole in 1958, when he was with an expedition that took the first television equipment to the Antarctic to record various scientific data, and he will give a firsthand report of conditions in that land of ice and cold.

At 4:00 p.m. on Monday, November 27; Tuesday, November 28; Wednesday, November 29; and Thursday, November 30; Miss Irma Heyer, educational assistant at the Center, will conduct the daily one-half hour nature talks for children. Miss Heyer has selected "Wildflowers"

BPW Conference

A Conference of Business and Professional Women of the Americas, sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., has been called for November 23-26, in San Juan, Puerto Rico, to assist in the Alliance for Progress program.

The Westfield Business and Professional Women's Club is a member of the national organization.

Miss Emma McCall, State President and member of the Westfield B.P.W., will attend.

Miss Katherine Peden, Hopkinsville, Ky., President of the National Federation, said acceptance has been received from 36 delegates representing 18 Central and South American countries, Canada and Mexico. Miss Peden and Dr. Miriam C. Miles, Tuscaloosa, Ala., 1st Vice President of the National Federation, will be delegates from this country. There will be 54 observers from 36 State Federations of Business and Professional Women's Clubs in attendance.

The purpose of this initial Conference of the Americas, said Miss Peden, is to "endeavor to increase hemispheric friendship and cooperation. This meeting brings top level business and professional women to the conference table to seek ways in which women of the Western Hemisphere may make greater contributions to their respective nations as well as to our two continents. Delegates, I am certain, will use womanpower to bring about the alliance of women to aid the program which all seek for the Americas."

as the topic to be discussed during the week.

The Trailside Nature and Science Center is open to the public each weekday, except Friday, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. and on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. The public is invited to visit the Center and participate in the scheduled programs.

Locals to Exhibit

An exhibition of paintings by 18 New Jersey artists will be held in conjunction with a sale of "personal treasures" at the Barn of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Roy Jones of 560 Tremont Avenue.

The sale of antiques, brass and copper articles, fabrics, china, and other articles opens Monday (November 20) and continues Tuesday and Wednesday (November 21 and 22) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The sale will benefit the landscaping fund of Union Junior College, Cranford.

Artists who will exhibit are: Maxwell Simpson and Ellen Knouse of Scotch Plains, Harry and Wendy Devlin, Mrs. Bert Souder and Jane Crow of Mountainide, Molly Marsh of Plainfield, Peg Pfister, a graduate of Union Junior College, Jerry Lubeck, Jane Whipple Green, and Norman Webb of Westfield.

Also, George W. Freese, Rebecca Lydon, and Irah Sheahan of Cranford, Allyn Schaeffer of Rahway, Georges His of Watchung, and Andrao Sozio of South Orange.

Mrs. Charles Eaton, III, of Watchung is chairman for this phase of the sale, which is sponsored by the citizens landscaping committee of Union Junior College.

About 10 acres of Union Junior College's 28-acre campus have been landscaped under the direction of the citizens' committee. Mrs. Jones, chairman, said the aim of the committee is to raise funds to pay for the landscaping of the college's campus and to help finance the establishment of a wildlife sanctuary on the campus as a memorial to the late Prof. David G. Fables, Jr., who was one of New Jersey's foremost naturalists.

THREE PERUVIAN INDIANS...descendants of the Incas, give a musical concert at the opening of Brentano's bookstore in The Mall at Short Hills, shopping center on the Morris and Essex Turnpike, on Saturday, November 18. Until last month, when they left their native Andes for the United States, they had never seen a telephone, a radio, an electric light, or even a wheel.

Safety Council Concerned Over Home Accident Rate

Grave concern over the mounting rate of deaths in-home accidents in New Jersey was expressed by George G. Traver, executive vice-president of the New Jersey State Safety Council, at the opening of the Fourteenth Home Safety Conference sponsored by the Council's Women's Division (Tues. Nov. 14) in Military Park Hotel (Newark), in 1959, according to Traver, 775 home accident deaths were reported in the state. Of these 190 were under five years of age and 359 were 65 years or older, making a total of 549 deaths in those age groups alone. In 1960, 833 deaths were recorded, an increase of 58 more than recorded in the previous year. Of these 572 were in the age group under five years and 65 years and older. Up until the end of August this year, latest figures available, 514 home accident deaths were reported, an increase of 50 more than the 464 recorded in the corresponding eight months of last year, according to Traver.

Traver reported that home accidents for the past two years exceeded traffic accidents in New Jersey.

The accident rate among the four and one-half million people with active alcoholism is probably higher in the case of on-the-job, off-the-job, in traffic accidents, and in the home than among the balance of the nation's population. This was reported by Lewis F. Presnall, Industrial Consultant, National Council on Alcoholism, New York, in a talk "A New Map for an Old Frontier." "We can state with more conviction," he stated, "that there is a significant number of these four and one-half million who comprise the serious cases of alcoholism and whose a group make up a high-risk population that is well worth a considerable amount of our attention."

Presnall told the 125 delegates from 22 statewide women's organizations attending the session that the ratio of alcoholics among men and women in the densely populated areas is 1-1 compared to 5-1 in all other areas, and 35-50 years of age is the largest age group affected both among men and women.

Accident Rate

"We can reduce home accident rates among social drinkers through education," Presnall stated. "But the only effective way to reduce the number of off-the-job accidents among those having alcoholism is to attack the alcoholism problem itself. Those who are concerned specifically with the problem of safety, whether it is on-the-job or off-the-job, can play an increasingly active role in the general cooperative efforts of the community in promoting education, early case finding, and motivation towards treatment of those involved in alcoholism. We need a great deal more in research

RELIGION IN THE NEW AGE
 Part 2 of series
 "...human wisdom, divorced from spiritually, cannot explain what this New Age is - nor whence nor whither it leads. Human wisdom does not know what to do with this New Age, cannot take advantage of its constructive opportunities nor bring into the field of action its progressive ideas and noble ideals.
 What it has at last achieved is to build the terrific undirected energies of mankind into a World-Frankenstein and let the Monster loose upon the earth, ravaging and to ravage. Ecclesiastical wisdom did not succeed. Mundane wisdom has failed. Religion remains yet to be tried."
 "There is today only one light shining undimmed in the gathering darkness. There is in the wide earth only one solitary voice lifted to give a message of comfort and hope, of courage, of promise, of triumph. There is only one rational reading of the signs of the times. There is only one intelligible account of what these portents mean and how they can be used."

Science Notebook

By Hans Klein

Chemistry, as all high school graduates who have run the course can tell you, is a jolly compromise between physics and biology. Having neither the mass of descriptive detail of biology nor the mathematical perplexities of physics it presents itself pleasingly balanced to suit the intellectual taste of the eager student desiring a breather with a slight challenge.

The science of chemistry deals with the composition of substances and the transformation they undergo.

Theoretically, chemistry is principally concerned with changes on the molecular level, and chemical changes involve transformations in the molecules themselves or in their relationships with other molecules. There are a number of branches of chemistry, notably ORGANIC CHEMISTRY, which is the study of hydrocarbons and their derivatives. Paradoxically, while all organic compounds contain carbon, all compounds containing carbon are not necessarily organic. INORGANIC CHEMISTRY might then be described carelessly as the study of all compounds of the elements other than those of carbon. PHYSICAL and THEORETICAL chemistry comprise the study of the laws governing chemical and physical behavior of substances. It includes THERMOCHEMISTRY, ELECTROCHEMISTRY, PHOTOCHEMISTRY, COLLOIDAL CHEMISTRY and still others.

As a science chemistry is the youngest of the three major sciences and the origin of the name itself is somewhat controversial and obscure. The Greek word "chemia" occurs about the fourth century to designate the art of metal working. "Chemia", by some, is thought to be derived from the word "black" which described the soil of Egypt, the land where the chemical arts probably originated. It may also refer to "dark" or "hidden" pertaining to the "Divine Art" by which it was known to the ancients. Others claim it is related to the Chinese word KEM-MAI signifying "gone astray in search of gold". At any rate the mystic origins of the chemical art as well as its evolution out of the esoteric practice of alchemy has given chemistry an aura of glamorous mystery which the modern student finds INCOMPATIBLE with the hard facts encountered in today's chemical laboratories. To compare alchemy to modern chemistry would be like reading Marco Polo as a prelude to visiting modern Tokyo.

SCIENCE QUIZ

What any good high school chemistry student can answer for those who don't know.

"Cannonball" At Millburn

The jazz at the Paper Mill series has booked an explosive quintet for next Sunday night's concert. The "Cannonball" Adderley five, noted for the frenzy they stirred among jazz fans at the Newport and Randall's Island festivals, will play one concert Sunday, November 26 at 6 p.m.

The quintet consists of Cannonball Adderley on alto sax, Nat Adderley on trumpet, Sam Jones on bass, Louis Hayes on the drums and Victor Feldman on piano and vibes. The feverish five have also appeared on TV on both the Debby Reynolds spectacular and the Mike Wallace Show. "Cannonball" has won several awards including the 1960 Downbeat Award for best alto sax and the Metronome, Playboy and Podium Awards.

The clever hostess can turn the easiest meal into a festive occasion with a few simple touches. Staff with your prettiest dinnerware, put out elegantly simple silver, your best crystal and linens, and finish off with lighted candles and a floral centerpiece. In choosing a centerpiece, keep the bowl and arrangement low, so that your guests can see each other across the table. That's true of candles, too.

Edible Gifts

The varied food suggestions shown, all of which can be made at home at a minimal cost, will also be discussed. A Christmas bulletin including menus and recipes for guest entertaining, children's party, and the Christmas Day Dinner will be distributed.

The program will be held at the Y.W.C.A., Jersey Street, Elizabeth, on Tuesday, November 28th, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. All county women are invited to attend and enjoy the many original ideas presented by the Extension Service.

"Can-Can" Set For Xmas Season

Ooh, la, la! The Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre will go Parisian for the holiday days.

Following the highly successful run of Julia Meade in "Bells Are Ringing", the Meadowbrook plans to kickoff the Yule season with Cole Porter's exciting musical comedy "Can-Can."

There will be a four o'clock Thanksgiving Day matinee of "Bells Are Ringing" on Thursday and the show will come to an end Sunday night (Nov. 26). On Tuesday (Nov. 28) "Can-Can", with its high-kicking demurelled, starts a five-week run.

While TV's Miss Meade is the star of the current offering, producers Helga and Gary McHugh, Carl Sawyer and Richard Scanga, are going completely continental for "Can-Can". They are importing Lilo, the French darling, for the leading role. Lilo starred in the original hit on Broadway. This marks the return performance of a truly great musical show. It was first presented

By Dick Schwartz

There is really no need to go into any type of ecstasy over the up-coming Thanksgiving Day football tilts involving area teams. Everything that can be said about these games has been said in past years, and furthermore, attendance figures show that everyone who's a high school gridiron fan realizes the tension and excitement of witnessing a Turkey Day contest.

Rather in this space, we'd like to glance back at the season as its affected Scotch Plains, Springfield and Berkeley Heights, and give capsule rundowns of each game played.

Springfield stands 6-1-1, as they prepare to meet Rahway. The Bulldogs struck out on the right foot with little if any trouble against Somerville, Clark and Caldwell squads.

When the Orange and Blue traveled to Edison they ran into their first tie of the campaign. The following week, North Plainfield handed them their first loss. The Bulldogs picked up the pieces and went on to defeat Roselle and Summit. While the Roselle game was no contest, 2-5-1 Summit appeared to give the Dayton crew a bit of trouble, making the Rahway classic a little more important than it appeared to be when the "Palmer Men" were going great guns earlier in the year.

The Scotch Plains Raiders, touted by many to repeat in the Watching Conference, ran into trouble from Springfield and Westfield and settled for a pre-Thanksgiving count 6-2.

The Blue Raiders bounced back after their two consecutive losses—and went on to score a great many points in bearing all opposition.

We feel that the Raider record does not begin to show the strength of Coach Chuck Nelson's crew. The Plainsmen have a powerful aerial game and sport fine running backs.

This corner sees the Turkey Day game against Clark as a cinch for Haywood Gipson & Co.

The Highlanders of Berkeley Heights, went into their second season of varsity football this year with a little scepticism. Early season injuries and a lack of beef up front, had Coach Al Brown wondering.

Considering all the problems, the Highlanders did remarkably well.

Once again, their 4-4 record doesn't tell the whole story. The men from the hill, lost all 4 games by narrow margins and if all goes well, the Highlanders might come out of the 61 campaign with a winning effort against Ridge High of Basking Ridge. The Ridge squad is 2-5-1 in their initial Varsity season, and should, we think, fall before the Highlanders.

Once again, their 4-4 record doesn't tell the whole story. The men from the hill, lost all 4 games by narrow margins and if all goes well, the Highlanders might come out of the 61 campaign with a winning effort against Ridge High of Basking Ridge. The Ridge squad is 2-5-1 in their initial Varsity season, and should, we think, fall before the Highlanders.

Ridge, Highlanders In Gridiron Battle

The football teams of Governor Livingston Regional High School of Basking Ridge will be hungry for something besides turkey and all the trimmings when they inaugurate a Thanksgiving Day rivalry at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Memorial Field in Basking Ridge.

Both teams have been victimized by ill fortune in recent weeks and are somewhat victory-starved. The Highlanders of Governor Livingston have bowed to strong Metuchen and Hillside in their last two games by one-touchdown margins.

Ridge, in its first season on the gridiron, has seen its hopes for a highly successful season shattered by three consecutive one-touchdown losses. The fur really figures to fly tomorrow at Basking Ridge with both teams striving to wind up with a triumph.

A victory would have special significance for Governor Livingston. Al Brown's Highlanders will carry a 4-4 record into the season finale and can wind up with their second consecutive winning season.

Ridge has a 2-5-1 mark but is anxious to get off on the right foot in the start of its new series with Governor Livingston.

On the basis of season records and the teams' showings against their only mutual opponent — Watchung Hills Regional — the Highlanders reign as favorites.

Governor Livingston clipped Watchung Hills, 13-0, on a muddy field. Ridge bowed to Watchung Hills, 12-6, early in the season. Governor Livingston will rest its hopes for victory on a powerful defense spearheaded by Tony Renaldi and Jerry DiPasquale, a pair of crackerjack guards. The Highlander defensive unit has permitted an average of only 8 1/4 points per game this season and boasts one of the top defensive records in Union County.

Unfortunately, the Highlander offense has been spotty most of the season. Governor Livingston has averaged only 10.4 points per game and has been blanked twice, and limited to one touchdown twice. The Highlanders biggest failing has been to capitalize on scoring chances.

In fairness to the Highlanders' offensive unit, it should be pointed out that penalties have cost Governor Livingston five touchdowns this season.

Governor Livingston has the horses to make Brown's offensive patterns click. Frank Fish is a fine short passer and adequate on longer throws. Ben Russell runs as hard as any back in Union County and is the team's leading scorer with 46 points. Other running threats are "Skip" Flint and Bob Clarkens, both of whom have flashed top-notch form on occasion.

If all these boys come up with the kind of performances of which they are capable, Brown is going to find this Thanksgiving Day turkey mighty tasty tomorrow afternoon.

Sharing the spotlight tomorrow morning will be Governor Livingston's Highlander Marching Band. The band has prepared some special numbers for the season—wind-up, it will form a Highlander in kilts, a bagpipe that squeezes in-and-out, and the waves of Lock Lomond, all to the accompaniment of appropriate Scottish music.

Also slated is an appearance by Robert C. Harrison of Murray Hill, the band's guest piper, who will play the bagpipes for the traditional Highland Fling by the school's cheerleaders and twirlers.

The Team records:

SEPTEMBER 23

SCOTCH PLAINS VS. ROSELLE

Three quick touchdowns put the Raiders on the right track with a 40-21 win over Roselle. Standouts of the walkway were Sal Verini, Tom Rutishauser and Bill Lott.

BULLDOGS VS. SOMERVILLE

Springfield picked up a win in this one, 9-0. Marty Stica's block of a Somerville punt in the first half rolled into the end zone for a safety and the first Bulldog score of the season.

LIVINGSTON VS. PARSTIPPANY

The Highlanders dropped this one 14-7, but showed they had the stuff to win a few also. Frank Fish scored the lone Berkeley tally on a 35 yard run back of an interception.

SEPTEMBER 30

SCOTCH PLAINS VS. NO. PLAINFIELD

The Raiders blanked the Canucks in this one, 13-0. The strongest effort of this contest was given by the Plains defense which contained the Plainfielders and forced them into offensive mistakes.

BULLDOGS VS. CLARK

Not much of a contest, 39-14. Tuffy Hartz rolled for yardage and Larry Stickle and Ron Puorro did their share in the Bulldog's second win.

LIVINGSTON VS. B. BROOK

Governor Livingston picked up their first win of the season in high fashion, smothering Bound Brook, 24-0. Standouts in this one were Jerry DiPasquale, Tony Rinaldo and Len Semon.

OCTOBER 7

SCOTCH PLAINS VS. BULLDOGS

A game that was expected to be close contest turned into rout as the Bulldogs turned it on in a 20-0 shutout of the 1960 Watching Conference Champs. Marty Stica, perhaps played the strongest game—intercepting and setting up scores. A fine end-zone grab by Ron Puorro from Jack Aggar was probably the outstanding offensive play of the game.

LIVINGSTON VS. PISCATAWAY

A heartbreaking 6-0 loss for the Highlanders at the hands of Piscataway. The two squads were evenly matched and a break for the Piscataway team with six minutes remaining in the contest, pushed over the lone tally of the game.

OCTOBER 14

SCOTCH PLAINS VS. WESTFIELD

The Plainsmen didn't know it at the time, but they were playing the new Watching Conference Champs when they bowed to Westfield 18-6 in this one. Bob Stoveken carried over the lone Raider touchdown, and the Blue Devils scored three on heads-up offensive play.

BULLDOGS VS. CALDWELL

This one was no contest. The Bulldogs romped 54-6 on a rain-soaked, slippery field before a few hundred die-hard fans. A new school scoring record was set as the offensive squad showed great poise chalking up its fourth win of the campaign.

LIVINGSTON VS. WATCHUNG

Watching Regional fell to the Highlanders 13-0, giving the Heights squad a 2-2 mark overall. Standouts in the shutout were Skip Flint and Frank Fish.

OCTOBER 21

PLAINS VS. ROSELLE PARK

Plainsmen broke a two game losing streak taking Park 32-0. Dave DiFore, substitute halfback showed the way scoring four of the Raider's five touchdowns.

LIVINGSTON VS. HANOVER PK.

Gov. Livingston got on the winning side of the ledger with an 18-14 triumph over Hanover Park. Frank Fish, Ben Russell and Art Thomas showed their stuff in the victory, while the entire Highlander squad banded together to lend support for the third win of the year.

OCTOBER 28

SCOTCH PLAINS VS. HILLSIDE

A great show of aerial talent was displayed by Scotch Plains

Meet Opposition Thanksgiving Morning

Raiders

Bulldogs

as the Raiders downed Hillside 40-19. The Raider's stood 4-2 overall after this one. Tom Rutishauser was the field general responsible for the passing bombardment and his receivers were Gary Accari, Bill Lott and Sal Verini.

BULLDOGS VS. EDISON

This game marked the first non-winning Saturday for the Bulldogs as they tied Edison 7-7 at the opposition's field. The game was exciting and hotly contested. Both clubs lost chances for winning scores.

LIVINGSTON VS. NOTRE DAME

Surviving a near loss at the hands of down-state Notre Dame High, the Highlanders emerged from this one with a 7-6 win and a 4-2 overall record for Coach Al Brown. A Frank Fish to Skip Flint pass play accounted for the tying touchdown, and Ben Russell's extra point was the decider.

NOVEMBER 4

SCOTCH PLAINS VS. RAHWAY

The Rahway Indians fell to the Raiders 41-0 in a runaway contest that saw the Plainsmen amass their 82nd point in two games. Again it was via the air lanes that proved success.

BULLDOGS VS. N. PLAINFIELD

The Bulldogs incurred their first loss of the season at Canuck Field in North Plainfield as they went down to defeat 14-0. According to Coach Herb Palmer "we only played eight minutes of really bad football, but this was enough to beat us."

Soccer Squad Loses, But Are Still Proud Of Seasonal Record

Although its hopes of adding the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association's Group II soccer championship to its Union County title were shattered by Hightstown on November 17, the soccer team of Governor Livingston Regional High School has established a mark that future Highlander teams will find tough to match.

In losing to Hightstown, Group II state champion four times in the past five years, the Highlanders of Coach Russ Huncher lost only their second game in 17 contests this season. The 5-0 setback in the NJSIAA semifinals also ended a 15-game unbeaten streak for Governor Livingston.

The Highlanders had gained the semi-final round by defeating West Morris Regional High School, 3-1, on November 15 at Hanover Park.

The Highlanders battled Hightstown, a 2-0 winner over Pennington High in the first round, to a virtual standstill through the first half. Hightstown scored just before halftime and then added four quick goals in the third period to make the game a rout.

Hightstown's five goals represented nearly half of the total goals allowed by the Highlanders in 16 previous games, and marked the first time in 15 games that any team had scored more than once against the rugged Governor Livingston defense.

John Wadas and Bill Sawyer, the Highlanders' top scorers during the regular season, accounted for all three goals against West Morris. Wadas' first period score — his 15th — put Governor Livingston in front, but West Morris tied the score in the first period. Sawyer's goals in the second and third periods provided the Highlanders' winning margin. Wadas, Tony Conte and Sam Testa were credited with assists on the goals.

The Highlanders finished with an 11-2-4 record and captured the Union-County Conference title with 6-0-3 mark.

LIVINGSTON VS. METUCHEN

The Highlanders lost another close one; this time to a Metuchen Club who dumped them 19-14. Ben Russell was most of the show in the losing effort as he scored both touchdowns on fine runs.

NOVEMBER 11

SCOTCH PLAINS VS. CRANFORD

The Raiders really came through in this one, downing a highly regarded Cranford eleven 31-7, and toppling the Cougars from a bid for Watching honors. It was a team effort, with Haywood Gipson—especially, doing a fine job in the quarterback slot replacing the injured field general.

BULLDOGS VS. ROSELLE

No contest, 47-7 mauling was the Bulldog's second highest point total of the season. While the entire Springfield squad did a good job, special credit must be given to members of the second team who showed that they'll be tough to beat next season also.

LIVINGSTON VS. HILLSIDE

A loss to the hands of Hillside left the Highlanders with a 4-4 record going into the Thanksgiving game against Ridge High School. In dropping the 7-0 decision, the Berkeley team lost for the fourth time by the margin of one touch down or less. They can still wind up with a plus campaign if they can take Ridge this Thursday.

LOOK OUT!—Summit gridders might not know it, but Tuffy Hartz (11) and John Keiffer (24) are going to make kick-off return difficult for the Bulldogs. Action took place in first half of Summit Dayton game that went to Bulldogs (13-6).

Springfield Barely Over Hilltoppers 13-7

Springfield's Bulldogs won last Saturday morning at Summit, 13-7, and they won by the skin of their chin straps at that. For a contest that was foreseen as a pushover by those in the "know," the Orange and Blue met a Summit crew who didn't seem to remember that they were supposed to be snowed under.

If one factor must be brought up as to why the Bulldogs did end up victorious, it must be their defense. Without the aid of Summit fumbles, the Regional cause might have been a lost one. All the scoring for both sides took place in the second period. Springfield turned the trick on two recovered Summit bobbles. Marty Sica, claimed a George Lee fumble on the Summit 28 as the second quarter began. It took the visitors seven plays off the ground to go the distance to pay dirt, Tuffy Hartz going over on an eight-yard run. Bill Genghagen converted, and the Bulldogs led 7-0.

It wasn't long after, when Geoghegan pounced on another Summit loose ball on the home team's 45. After quarterback Appar passed successfully to Harold Bell and Ron Pourro, Hartz again took the pigskin and dashed 31 yards for what was to be the deciding tally. The Hilltoppers' lone score came on a ten-yard run by back Ed Mallory. As the game drew to a close, the Summit crew was again threatening to score, camped on the Regional 15, but the clock saved the day for the Bulldogs.

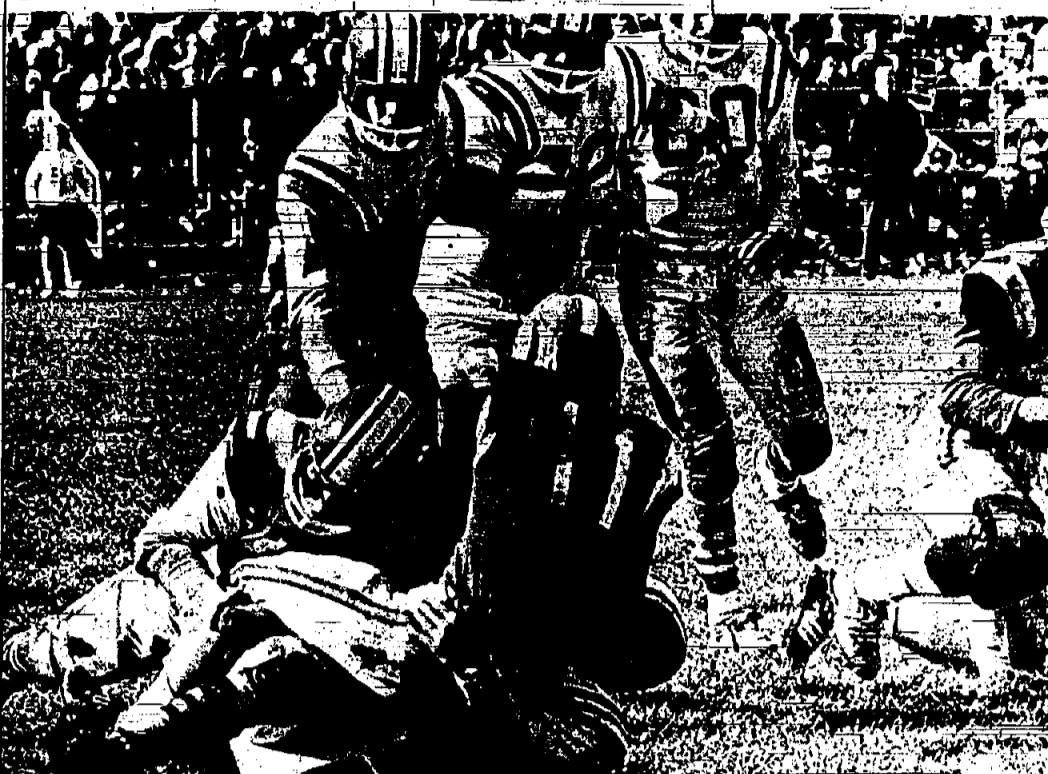

CUT OFF—Summit player begins to see the daylight close up, as Hartz and Keiffer of Bulldogs go in for the kill in second half of pea-Thanksgiving game last week end.

Skating Program Scheduled For Thanksgiving Day

The Thanksgiving holiday weekend schedule for the Warinanco Park Ice Skating Center was announced today by the Union County Park Commission. On Thanksgiving Day the Ice Center will offer a morning session from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon; an afternoon session from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m., and an evening session from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m.

On Friday, November 24, the same schedule will be in effect as on Thanksgiving Day with a morning, afternoon and evening session. The Saturday and Sunday schedule will remain the same. The Park Commission also announced that skating parties are welcome at the Ice Center. Call the Warinanco Park Ice Skating Center (Ghestnut 1-3262) for further details. For the seven day period end-

STOPPED—Tuffy Hartz moved well against Summit last Saturday morning, but on occasion he was hit hard. Above, two Summit men are making sure Tuffy goes no further, while three more are ready to add insurance.

Kiddie Korner By Goldi Malloy Rainbow Feather's Thanksgiving

Rainbow Feather was a sad little turkey. And frightened, too, at the barnyard talk about that dreadful thing called Thanksgiving.

"Say what you please," gobbled Big Tom Turkey. "Thanksgiving's just a pain in my neck."

"Tut! Tut!" quacked Madam Duck. "I'll probably lose my head this Thanksgiving."

"My dears," clucked Mother Hen. "Thanksgiving could be the end of me."

"How about us for Thanksgiving?" wailed guinea hens in the chestnut tree by the wood pile.

"What's Thanksgiving, Big Tom?" asked Rainbow Feather.

Big Tom just fanned his tail and strutted away.

He asked Madam Duck but she jumped in the pond and swam away.

Mother Hen smiled at Rainbow Feather but she was too busy with her chicks to answer.

Rainbow Feather hurried to the chestnut tree. Surely Guinea Hens should know.

"Sorry! Can't stop now for conversations. There's the boss with his gun," they said and flew to the henhouse and hid under the eaves.

Rainbow Feather looked around. Already the barnyard was empty. He was so scared, he ran to the wood pile and squeezed under a log.

"Stop shoving!" said a strange voice. "There's room for two. Hide your red necktie and keep quiet."

Rainbow Feather ducked his head and kept quiet but he couldn't forget about Thanksgiving.

"Maybe you could tell me, whenever you're here," he whispered.

"I'm Pierre Opossum, if it's anything to you. What do you want to know?"

"About Thanksgiving," said Rainbow Feather.

"Thanksgiving is when they chop off your head, stuff you with stuffing and roast you in the oven."

"Who, me?!" Rainbow Feather's tail fanned out in fright.

"Hey! Watch that!" cried Pierre. "Want to start a log slide?"

"Sorry," said Rainbow Feather. "But I'm scared. Two big tears rolled down his cheeks."

"You don't have to stay here," said Pierre. "Just let me find another egg and I'll show you how to be safe from this Thanksgiving stuff," Pierre slid out of the wood pile without moving a single log. In a minute he was back with one of Mother Hen's eggshells in his whiskers.

"Let's go," he said. "We've got to move fast so we won't be seen."

Rainbow Feather squirmed out of the wood pile, too, and followed Pierre across the field to the dark woods. When they were in behind the trees Pierre slowed down.

"See how safe it is here," he said.

"It's awfully lonely," gobbled Rainbow Feather.

"Better than being served on a platter."

"Yes," answered Rainbow Feather. "If you put it that way. But where will I sleep?"

"You can sleep in my tree if you wish. I'm a night prowler, myself. Wouldn't have been in that wood pile this afternoon if I hadn't played dead so long I fell asleep."

Pierre led the way to his tree. "Roost on that branch up there if you want," he said. "You'll have to excuse me now, I've some exploring to do. See you tomorrow." And Pierre was gone.

The branch looked tempting but Rainbow Feather had never flown that high. "Perhaps, if I practiced all night, just as morning came he flew high enough to sit on the branch. He was dreadfully tired now but he couldn't sleep.

Tiny Sparrow circled the branch and sat down beside him. "Happy Thanksgiving," he chirped.

"Thanksgiving!" cried Rainbow Feather, his tail fanning out in fright. "That's when they chop off my head and roast me in the oven!"

"Oh, no, not here in the safe woods," laughed Tiny. "There's a good part to Thanksgiving, too, you know."

"What's good about it?" said Rainbow Feather.

"Why, being thankful, of course," answered Tiny. "Is that what makes you so happy?"

"Sure! I'm happy I've a warm nest and for lots of other reasons," said Tiny. "Well, got to gather berries now for our Thanksgiving feast. You're invited. Why don't you try being thankful?"

Rainbow Feather did try. Soon he felt very thankful. Thankful for Pierre and the safe woods. Thankful for friendly Tiny Sparrow and all the other chirping and chattering about him. Next minute he was down on the ground looking for bits of food to bring to their Thanksgiving feast.
