Town Would Appreciate Even 20 Acres For Park From Baltusrol's 463

Baltusrol Has Many Champions

The Springfield Sun, last week, plunged into an exhilarating journalistic safari in which we looked longingly at those 463 acres of fragrant, garden-like property now occupied by the Baltusrol Golf Club.

We admit that it was practically civic treason to have posed the question whether or not "Springfield really needed such a lush, richly esthetic golfers' paradise."

There was the usual calculated risk of reaction -- both in criticism and approval -- but we hardly expected the deluge of righteous indignation, breast beating and blistering letter writing.

One would think that we had torn down a statue of Revolutionary War hero General Nathaniel Greene, or kicked Sant Claus in his non-padded red pantaloons.

However, the surprising revelation is that there were just as many who found some merit in the article although these did not come through with as much emotion, as much fist shaking and "cancel my subscription" threats as those who rushed in to the defense of Baltusrol.

Baltusrol doesn't need the help of these self appointed champions. The 463 acres belong to the Baltusrol members and there's nothing anyone wants to do about having them pick up their golf bags and move elsewhere.

Looks For Park Expansion

The article was inspired by the fact that Springfield, with an area of only about 5 square miles, and needing park and playground expansion room, must wonder whether or not Baltusrol needs such a big chunk of property -- right smack in the town, not on the outskirts, which is true of most golf clubs.

With the approval of the Green Acres referendum in the recent election, Springfield, as all other communities in New Jersey, may obtain state matching funds for expanding park and playground facilities.

Livingston, for instance, has 333 acres of park and playground under municipal and school control, where could Springfield go for future expansion?

Most of the shrieking criticism against this newspaper for daring to publish last week's article came in telephone calls which gave the courageous speaker the anonymity of just a voice on the other end of the line.

Many of the vociferous objectors insisted on pointing out how much it would cost the municipality in the way of additional services -- more schools, etc. if there were anything other than the golf club on that property.

No one is against the Baltusrol Golf Club but we do believe that 463 acres is an awful lot of real estate. We use the word "real estate" advisedly because we're not so naive as to believe that holding all that acreage is the idea of nature lovers.

Baltusrol recently sold off some property it owned for many years, just across Shampike Road at the club entrance.

And it was sold to a developer at current real estate prices for building of new homes. Baltusrol also recently sold some property to the Springfield Board of Education for future school expansion at a comparatively low price per acre.

Because of the scarcity of property in Springfield, prices on all land is going skyward. We have no quarrel with directors and members of the Baltusrol Golf Club for holding this largest and finest piece of land in Springfield. But, if Baltusrol can sell to Sherbrook Homes, perhaps there are many more acres the club would place on the market.

Or, if Springfield is allowed to dream a bit, and if the Baltusrol Golf Club shudders at the thought of being mercenary, some of that now unused 463 acres might be given to the municipality for park purposes.

That might be a nice gesture to compensate for the many years of little taxes paid by the club to Springfield. The Township receives about $46,000 annually in taxes from Baltusrol -- the whole 463 acres -- golf course, club house and other facilities.

There's no skulduggery about these payments, there's nothing illegal about the tax rate and there is nothing political about the tax bill. We're talking about all that unused property in the 463 acres owned by Baltusrol.

Here's a typical letter received as the result of the Baltusrol article. We are taking the liberty of using the name of the writer. We haven't deleted a single word, we haven't edited a single comma.

Sun Subscriber Writes A Letter

The Springfield Sun
Springfield, New Jersey

Gentlemen:

After reading the item in the Springfield Sun of this week, I am so incensed against any newspaper who would print such an item that I am going to ask you to take my name off the list for renewal of your paper.

I know of so many persons residing in Springfield who do not share your comments and who are proud of having such a fine golf club here that I am sending the Baltusrol Golf Club a copy of this letter to let them know that at least some persons or residents do not share your feeling.

You failed to mention that if this land were available for homes, how very long a time would elapse before any taxes would be available since it would mean building streets, increasing fire and police protection and building another school. This latter we have been burdened enough it would seem. And, all this aside from the fact that we do not live in a dictatorship -- or do we? where Johnny-come-lately could demand something that did not belong to them. Baltusrol Golf Club was here because of some farsighted persons who had money enough to enjoy what they chose and I cannot see where we, as residents, have the right to try to take something away from them. I travel past the club four times a day and I have never been inconvenienced nearly so much with the tournaments, etc., as I have with the bad handling of traffic every week night with the 5 o'clock rush.

This all sounds to me like a disgruntled person who found it impossible to gain membership in this fine club. I am glad they do keep the membership restricted so it would not become a bathing and picnic ground under less restricted regime.

Very truly yours,
Laura V. de Sagredo

(ED. Sorry, we are not "a disgruntled person who found it impossible to gain membership in this fine club." At the moment we don't know any Springfield resident who "gained membership." And we hope the use of the word "restricted" in the last paragraph was meant to be "exclusive.")

Editor, Springfield Sun:

If, as you suggest in your lead article, the 463 acres of Baltusrol Golf Club were subdivided into, say, 400 one acre plots (allowing 10-15% for streets, etc.) it might be possible to provide 400 houses worth $30,000. This would provide $12,000,000 new rateables at full value (100%) and about $290,000 tax income at present rates.

The actual cost to Springfield property taxpayers for public education is over $550 per pupil. Thus if each home provided just ONE pupil for the schools we would require an additional school and, at present costs, the total school bill would increase by $220,000 per year. In addition, we would then have to provide police and fire protection for approximately 1600 more people, provide and maintain about six miles of roads and services, not to include the incidental expenses of administration, etc., and additional county taxes.

At the present time county and municipal costs total about 50% of the school bill so this might well add another $110,000 per year to our tax bill.

In summary, we would then be faced with a total cost to the community of $330,000 as against a tax income of $290,000, or net loss of $40,000 to be met by higher taxes. At present, we get $50,000 tax income without any educational liability, and very limited exposure for municipal and county services, so your proposal might well involve a total net increase in local taxes of $90,000 a year.

As for the local Llewellyn Park that makes the developers drool, let us face the fact that Llewellyn Park was built in the 1800s and today the market for $100,000 homes is practically nil. Let us also ponder that the tax on property in West Orange, including Llewellyn Park, is 30% higher than in Springfield.

Do we really need the Baltusrol Club? Yes! Let's consider it as an attractive landmark that is a substantial factor in holding our tax rate down.

Very truly yours,
Leonard E. Best

Editor, Springfield Sun:

Compliments to the Sun, Official Newspaper of the Township of Springfield, for a lead editorial in studied provincialism!

But why the pussy-footing? By all means, let's alert the township attorney to start immediate eviction notices against Baltusrol. Together, we shall roll up the greens, rid the lovely land of the oaks, maples, sycamores, and poplars and in no time at all we can boast our very own "miracle mile" (colonial facades, of course) of grocery stores, tailor shops, "oops!" shoppes, coffee shoppes and cheeseburger havens to assuage the thirst and appetite of aesthetic-minded Springfieldites! Get the picture? Man, it's something to make the developers drool.

"Drool, drool, drool! Six years of starchy in Springfield and still more of this nonsense from the official town organ. Oh, you dirty, crowded City...forgive me, I'm running back to forgiveness. Shame! To even suggest (should the land be acquired in the future) that it be used for additional commercial and residential development, is simply chilling to the bone. Parks, decent recreational centers, cultural growth...by all means!

Sincerely,
D. Feldman

Public Hearing Tonite On Plan For Apartments

Frank Colatruglio of 306 Mountain Avenue, has notified Springfield Board of Education, as one of the property owners in the immediate vicinity, that a public hearing will be held tonight, November 30 at 8 P.M. in the Municipal Building for the construction of a garden apartment at the Mountain Avenue address.

The communication said that an appeal will be made by Stanley Gruen for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colatruglio on a decision of the Springfield building inspector refusing a permit to build the garden apartment.

Board of Education Attorney Howard Casselman was instructed to appear at the meeting for the board and bring up the question of traffic.

It was pointed out that the board is not opposed to the garden apartment per se, but is concerned with the traffic situation which might arise from its establishment, which is in the vicinity of Chisholm and Gaudineer schools.

The board is presently conducting a study of traffic congestion problems at these two schools and ways to combat them with the assistance of Enslay R. Bennett Jr. of Cranford, traffic survey consultant for the township.

Mr. Bennett gave a progress report at the Tuesday night board meeting. One of the main concerns is the problem created when parents stop their automobiles in South Springfield Avenue at Gaudineer School to discharge pupils.

A parking area off the road and a means of egress are being considered. The situation will be studied further by Mr. Bennett, Township Committeeman Russel Sibole, chairman of the police committee, and the building and grounds committee of the Board.

Board Member Rupert Humer, who introduced the question of what the board was doing about promoting a municipal play area at Sandmeier School, was informed that the board is waiting for plans to be submitted to Board Attorney Casselman by the Springfield Recreation Commission so that the board can act on them.

The board has indicated that it will permit the Recreation Commission to build and maintain a play area with baseball fields on the school property at the Commission's own expense.

A heating and ventilating survey for Caldwell and Chisholm schools from Philip H. Oppenheimer of Fanwood, consulting engineer, was received and referred to the building and grounds committee, headed by Board Vice President Joseph Bender.

Board member August Caprio recommended that funds should not be included in the coming school budget for the T.V. educational series in as much as the programs are not expected to begin until next September.

Board Member Alan Cunningham reported that a typing course, being considered at Gaudineer School will not be included in the 1962-63 curriculum.

It was explained that in order to include the course at the school, it would be necessary to eliminate some other subject. It was also stressed that a typing course is offered in the high school curriculum and a summer course in typing is given at the high school.

John E. Willard of Maplewood, a graduate of Lycoming College in Pennsylvania, has been engaged to replace Karl Schneek, a science teacher at Gaudineer School, who recently resigned to assume a principalship elsewhere.

Because of the expansion of the library services at Gaudineer School, Mrs. Virginia Gleitsman was engaged on a part-time basis to assist Mrs. Ruth Packer, school librarian.

Mrs. Mary Ingalls and Mrs. Helen Rex are placed on the substitute teacher list. The resignation of Mrs. Elaine Liverstein, who will be married and live in New York, was accepted, effective November 24. Miss Marcia Kent will be the replacement in Sandmeier School; Mrs. Irene Steiner, physical education teacher, was granted a maternity leave, effective January 31, 1962 or before.

Superintendent of Schools Benjamin F. Newswanger reported enrollment as of November 17 as follows: Caldwell, 423; Chisholm, 219; Walton, 316; Sandmeier, 496; and Gaudineer, 690.

Authorization was given for the purchase of two additional snow blowers at a total cost not to exceed $500.

Proclaim Dec. 3 to 10 Retarded Children's Week In Springfield

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies today proclaimed the period between December 3rd and December 10th as RETARDED CHILDREN'S WEEK in Springfield.

Mayor Bonadies commended the volunteers of the Association for their courage and initiative in tackling the vast community problem of Retardation.

"These public spirited citizens deserve a helping hand for trying to solve one of the most tragic afflictions of our society. Three out of every one hundred babies born today and every day suffer from mental deficiency. With the rapid increase in population in the United States, it is evident that the mentally retarded child and his affect on the total family unit is one of the most serious social problems facing us now," the Mayor stated.

The Union County Unit, New Jersey Association for Retarded Children, has been organized since 1949 as a group of parents and friends of the mentally retarded children of Union County. The Unit sponsors a day school, summer day camp, information and referral service, parent and public education, occupational center and benevolent committee for State institutions.

Its purpose is to promote the welfare of the mentally retarded at home or in the state training schools, regardless of race, creed or age.

The Union County Unit, New Jersey Association for Retarded Children is a member of the National Association for Retarded Children.

The N.A.R.C. works with governmental agencies and the Congress, representing the rights of the retarded, developing needed services, fostering progressive legislation, stimulates, fosters and supports research and stimulates recruitment of teachers and other professional specialists for careers serving the retarded.

GOP May Retain Many Of Present Office Holders

Rumors, leaking out of "partially smoke-filled living rooms," have it that the Republican majority members, who will take over the Springfield governing body January 1, have not yet resolved all their problems of organization but "we're all close to an understanding on every important matter," said one of the insiders.

Conferences will be held regularly, the same rumors say, and more definite announcements are expected within a week or two.

The apparent approach to takeover of control seems to be that there will be no "actual house cleaning, no wild swinging of the ax."

Applications are being received by the Republican Board of Strategy and "everyone is being considered on qualifications and ability to do the job without any emphasis on political affiliations."

Many of those now holding offices of responsibility and trust in the present administration are expected to be retained, according to well-informed sources.

"These people who have been doing their jobs in the administration of the office to which they have been assigned will be retained to those positions," is the news from this same reliable source.

A change is expected in the assignment of legal personnel to the various departments in the Township. At present the Township Attorney is subject to call for legal assistance from the Planning Board and the Board of Adjustment. He also acts as prosecutor in cases before the Municipal Court.

The plan of the new Republican majority, it is understood, is to make appointments to these various Township departments instead of having the single Township Attorney do the legal work for all of them. This new idea, according to the information on hand, will enable the new Republican controlled Township Committee to designate several attorneys to various departments.

No names have been dropped as being front-runners for the several top jobs that will be available for the victors in Springfield. It is a generally accepted fact that James J. Cawley, officer of the day for the Republican campaign in the recent election, can have about anything he wants and he will probably be appointed to take over the Township Attorney's office.

Send a Note, a Letter To Cheer Up Ralph Swanson

Ralph Swanson, athletic member of one of Springfield's well known families, was suddenly stricken some time ago by Multiple Sclerosis.

Springfield, as usual, opened its heart to this young man and did what it could to help and comfort him.

Now, Ralph is in good hands, a patient at the Veterans' Hospital in East Orange where everything is being done in the fight against this dread disease.

But, Ralph needs a bit of morale building. The letter below is from a member of Ralph's family and he gives Springfield and its residents quite a "pat on the back."

All Ralph needs now is a card, a letter, just a note—some small sign that "his friends in Springfield have not forgotten him." How to send these bits of encouragement is at the bottom of the letter.

Editor, Sun:

A LETTER TO THE CITIZENS OF SPRINGFIELD, N.J.

"The face of the earth is constantly changing but one thing that never changes is the hearts of good people." And you good people of Springfield, N.J. have proved this old proverb so very true.

It is the desire of this writer to humbly thank each and every one of you for the kind consideration shown my family over the past thirty years.

Two years ago when my mother was in Overlook Hospital I hope you folks donated the life saving blood that enables her to live today.

Six years ago when my sister

Millicent died giving birth to her daughter you folks were so kind in your expressions of sympathy. Again, when my brother Walter and sister Jean were killed in an auto accident in 1941 you people responded with comfort and consideration.

Several years ago another member of my family, Ralph, was stricken with that dreaded disease Multiple Sclerosis and is now in critical condition in the Veterans Hospital in East Orange.

In connection with this I should like to again call on you hospitable folks of my home town. It takes so little to bring comfort to those less fortunate than us.

A note, a card, some small remembrance would mean so much. Ralph has suffered so hard for so long and it would be such a comfort for him to know we have not forgotten.

For the past ten years this member of the Swanson family has resided in South Carolina. This area is famous for Southern hospitality but I assure you the citizens of Springfield, N.J. need take their hat off to no one when it comes to hospitality and kindness.

Your letters and remembrances to Ralph Swanson, Ward 11A, Veterans' Hospital, East Orange, will be such a comfort here in the waning hours of his life. So send them, please, and may God Bless all of you.

Thank you,

Robert E. Swanson

School Board Adopts New Insurance Plan

Springfield Board of Education by majority vote authorized provision and payment for a major medical insurance plan for all full-time employees at its regular meeting, November 21, in Caldwell School. The Board voted six to three in its favor.

The plan, which will go into effect next July for some 143 employees, will provide coverage for long-term illnesses and convalescences with $10,000 protection per illness.

Furnished by Travelers Insurance Company, the program will cost the board about $1,600 yearly. Employees have the option of enrolling dependents at the group rates at their own expense.

Those voting against the plan were Board Members John Gacos, Dr. Benjamin H. Josephson and Frank W. Hayden Jr.

One of the arguments against the proposal was that only about 60 per cent of the employees have taken hospitalization and a better use for the money would be to increase the pay scale of the teachers.

Those in favor of the plan contended that while the pay scale is not the highest, it is considered "in the running" and the board is pleased with the way good teachers are attracted to the township.

Board President Howard Smith has pointed out the importance of the medical plan, emphasizing that during a serious illness, it can mean the difference between solvency and bankruptcy. Furthermore, he said, the plan will mean the board will pay an additional $11 for each employee, whereas an added increment would be at least $100 per employee.

This year, effective last July 1st, the teacher salary scale was adjusted with the basic minimum raised from $4,600 to $4,700.

A retirement policy was also adopted at the board meeting. The purpose of the policy is to stimulate and maintain the high standards of employee performance in the Springfield schools. At the time of retirement, a regular full-time employee may be eligible for a "special service recognition payment" on the recommendation of the board secretary. The maximum of the award is not to exceed one-half of the final year's salary. Maximum award would be based on excellence in service, co-operation, non-abuse of absences, and contribution to education of children.

No payment, partial payment, or full payment can be given. This plan will replace another policy, which did not prove satisfactory, it was explained.

Order Hydrant Off-Private Property

The holiday spirit prevailed at the Springfield Township Committee meeting Tuesday night with Committeeman Daniel M. Lucy recommending that the Committee finally settle an eight-year squabble by authorizing the removal of a fire hydrant from private property.

The controversy concerns a hydrant located on the land of Edward Baumer of 41 Colonial Terrace, who contends that every time the hydrant is flushed out, his lawn is washed away.

Township Engineer Alfred H. Swenson recommends that it be relocated from five feet to two feet in back of the curb. He points out that the water company is reluctant to assume financial responsibility in such matters.

Calling this situation "an injustice to the property owner," Committeeman Lucy reminded the Township Committee that Christmas is only a few weeks away and recommended the hydrant's removal. The job is estimated to cost $300.

Mr. Baumer is a patrolman with the Springfield Police Department.

Adopt Parking Lot Meter Law For Springfield

Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night adopted on final reading an ordinance providing for the installation of parking meters in Municipal Parking Lot Number 1 in Center and Hannah streets.

Provision will be made for one-hour parking for one nickel, two-hour parking for two nickels and a row of twenty-five cent meters will be installed for six-hour parking.

Meter use will be required between 8 A.M. to 6 P.M., except Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays. No parking will be permitted in the lot 2 A.M. to 5 P.M. Monday through Friday. The lot contains space for 105 cars. Municipal Parking Lot Number 2 on Morris Avenue opposite Caldwell Place remains free.

Morris Avenue Motors, Springfield, the low bidder at $6,214.60, was authorized to provide the township with three new patrol cars and a standard four-door sedan for a detective car. Other bidders were: Wyman Motors Inc., Maplewood, $7,547.39; Brown Ford Inc., Union, $7,029.63, and L & S Chevrolet, Union, $9,487.45.

On the request of Lemuel Stevens, president of the Free Public Library board, a check for State aid amounting to $770.36 was accepted and designated to the 1961 budget of the library Board of Trustees.

Additional street lighting was authorized for Albert Court, Fadam Road and Route 22, the Mountain, Henshaw and South Springfield avenues area, and Shumple Road, north of Mountain Avenue to Eton Place.

A request from Mrs. Gene Kinzel, secretary, seeking endorsement of a bloodmobile the Springfield Red Cross Chapter will conduct March 26, 1962 was granted. The chapter hopes to collect 150 pints of blood.

Communications were received from Summit, Scotch Plains and Plainfield opposing the expenditures of county funds by the Union County Board of Freeholders for the Elizabeth River flood control project. The matter was held over for further consideration.

On the recommendation of Fire Chief Ormond W. Meaker, Raymond L. Lenhart of 347 Morris Avenue, Siegfried W. Merkbach of 24 Brook Street, and Robert F. Henry of 57 Caldwell Place were appointed to the Springfield Volunteer Fire Department.

Splinters From The Board

By RICHARD E. WERNER
Chairman, Springfield Board of Education
Public Relations Committee

(Nothing that follows is to be considered as official opinion of the Springfield Board of Education.)

Members of the Board were most happy to learn of Howard Smith's decision to remain as an active member of the Board this week. We, who work closely with him, know of his true value to Springfield, and are gratified to see that so many of you were concerned about his announced intentions to retire.

This writer had numerous townspeople ask him to plead with Mr. Smith to reconsider, and since so many of you took time out to call and write to our President, he has agreed to stay on. It is indeed nice to see that you realized that his sixteen years of service makes him a most valuable member!

The evaluation study begun last year in our schools is still in progress. The personnel of all our schools have been meeting on a regular basis to evaluate the various aspects of our school program. To date the section of the evaluation workbook devoted to the material dimension has been completed and we are about half-way through the evaluation of the academic dimension. The one remaining section devoted to the social dimension, as related to the children's learning experiences, is scheduled for completion by the end of January, 1962.

Following the general participation phase of this study, the central committee, under the leadership of Mr. Murray and Mrs. Perkins will begin to assemble the information garnered from this study with a view to making a full scale report of the findings to the Superintendent for ultimate presentation to the Board of Education.

The teachers and all other personnel involved have been participating enthusiastically in this study. Their work has included preparation of material as well as participating in group and general meetings. It is felt that the results of this project will not only benefit the school system as a whole, but that the group discussions of the various aspects of the schools and the school program are proving to be worthwhile for the teachers as a phase of their in-service training.

Let your columnist be sued, may I point out that the above data was secured from a memorandum by Mr. Benjamin News-wanger, Supr. of Schools.

An exhaustive study is underway to attempt making the James Caldwell School "modern" in many respects. Certain improvements are being suggested, and it is hoped that we can gradually, room by room, make the entire school usable for many years to come. Of course, some major renovations will be called for, and since these can best be done during the summer months, our progress must be painstakingly slow. However, it is felt that with patience and persistence, we can accomplish our desired results and bring James Caldwell up to the standards we desire.

At the October meeting, the Board agreed to establish an "Orientation School" for all interested Board members once they have announced their intentions to seek a Board position. This "school" is to be conducted by Mr. A. B. Anderson, Secretary of the Board, and its purpose is to better inform the candidates as to the duties, responsibilities, and functions of a Board member. It is felt that once selected, the new Board Members can become more valuable to the community since he will be better informed.

Scout Drive

The annual fund raising drive of the Boy Scouts of America in Springfield continues to climb slowly towards the goal of $4,800.00.

The total amount collected as of November 21 now stands at $2,165.00, with special gifts, (business and manufacturers) at $766.00, and the contributions from the general public at $1,399.00.

It is evident that a much greater effort must be made if Springfield is to obtain the goal set for this town.

It is hoped that contributions from the business people of town will help to reward the efforts of scores of volunteers who have contributed so much to their time towards this drive.

Rutgers Professor Says Fallout Shelter Useless

"Fall-out Shelters" was the subject of a talk by Dr. David Frost, Prof. of Physical Sciences, at Rutgers, following services at Temple Beth Ahm, in Springfield.

Dr. Frost stated that "the Civil Defense program is based on the assumption that the Russians will drop only 1,500 megatons on the entire United States in one brief nuclear attack. Military experts estimate the present stockpile at well over 20,000 megatons. 50,000 megatons dropped on the U.S. would result in death of at least 90% of the population even with extensive C.D. preparation.

In addition, expert testimony before Congress established that the residual fallout in an area measuring 150 miles by 25 miles after explosion of a 10 megaton bomb was enough to kill all persons who emerged from their two-week stay in shelters. "Persons advocating civil defense measures are deluding themselves and giving rise to false hopes on the part of American citizens. They are diverting valuable attention and effort from the real problem, which is not how to survive a nuclear attack but how to prevent it. "Most dangerous, the advocates of civil defense are creating the impression that survival in a nuclear war is thinkable and possible after all, and that we can still absorb blow and counter blow, if worst comes to worst."

In the question period, Dr. Frost pointed out that the Russians also have no wish to commit national suicide and that agreement on disarmament aims have been reached with the two contending powers. Dr. Frost suggested that as alternative to C.D. each person support disarmament measures of our government and work toward peace in his own organization or in cooperation with the local Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy.

At the conclusion of the evening Rabbi Reuben Levine, spiritual leader of Temple Beth Ahm, expressed his thanks for the presentation and stated that "in keeping with his belief that the synagogue should be a forum for coming to grips with vital issues of our day as well as a house of prayer, Dr. Frost's talk and discussion was most welcome."

Another opportunity for discussion of this vital issue will take place December 18 at the Raymond Chisholm School P.T.A.

WHERE CAN YOU REALLY BE SAFE?—Here's what was left of an automobile owned by Frank Cardinal, one of the leading industrial real estate operators in this area, a few minutes after he had carefully parked it in his driveway at 266 Milltown Road, Springfield. Mrs. Cardinal had just switched on an outside light when a car, according to the police report, came tearing across Milltown Road, roaring through the front of Cardinal's Nursery and coming to a sudden and abrupt stop when it rammed into the car, sitting quietly and unoccupied in the driveway. The out-of-control car was driven by Mrs. Benjamin Katz of 26 Richland Drive, Springfield. Mrs. Katz was rushed to Overlook Hospital and, according to the police, suffered a nose injury but escaped serious injuries. (Photo - Dick Schwartz)

The recently elected Republicans to the Township Committee, Philip Del Vecchio, Arthur M. Falkin and Robert D. Hardgrove, have acknowledged receipt of the recent letter of "good wishes" from the members of the present governing body.

The new majority members have asked for a list of Township documents to be made available, the full letter to the Township Committee appearing below:

Gentlemen: May I thank you for the good wishes contained in your letter of November 13, 1961.

- Copy of all 1961 resolutions passed to date.
- Copy of all ordinances passed from July 1, 1961 to date.

SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY

HURRAY FOR BOOK! Is the year's slogan for Children Book Week, which has recently been celebrated in the Public Library, and in the Schools of Springfield, with colorful posters portraying a beautiful early century antique red and yellow automobile, conveying a cheerful roving family. Bookmarks with a similar slogan and trademark were distributed to all children in the schools and the library.

The bulletin board display in the Children's room has a stimulating arrangement of book week posters, and a variety of new book jackets: "Abe Lincoln's Hobby", by Helen Kay, "The Little Bear and the Princess", by Jane Gemmill, "A Fish out of Water", by Helen Palmer, Yulla's, "Le Petit Elephant" (French), Roger Duvoisin's, "Happy Lion's Quest" and many others. To greet the children in the hallway entrance to the room, mobiles are gayly swinging out the words, "Endless, fun, romance and laughter are found in books".

Since a hundred and fifth books were added to the collection, it is impossible to review them at this time. However, it is hoped that some reviews may appear in this column next week.

The Adult Department also honored Book Week with a display using the books themselves instead of jackets. These are a group of twenty-five books which are popular with members of President Kennedy's Cabinet. A short time ago one of the Washington Women's Clubs made a survey of what the Cabinet Members read. The report of the survey has appeared in a number of newspapers, and one copy of it has been posted along with the books mentioned. The name of each Cabinet Member has been attached to a book he particularly likes.

So far a great many adults have stopped to look at the Cabinet Member's favorite books, which are arranged in the main hallway exhibit space. The Springfield Public Library was pleased to discover that it had all but two of the books mentioned.

In these various ways Book Week was called to the attention of Springfield citizens both old and young.

BPW Meets At Novak's

The Westfield Business and Professional Women's Club met at Novak's Restaurant, Scotch Plains, for its regular dinner meeting, Tuesday evening, November 21.

The Health and Safety Chairman, Mrs. Frances Caesar, was responsible for obtaining from the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs a film called, "That Others May Live" - a picture concerning the Chinese Nursing Home in which all BPW women have been interested since 1941.

It was in this year 1941 that China's back was to the wall - conditions were so bad that 25 Chinese girls left the mainland and headed for Formosa to start this nursing school.

This nursing school today is known as the School of Nursing of the National Defense Medical Center. It was through the Business and Professional Women Club's contributions that this nursing school was kept going under the careful eye of a Texas Beep named Dr. Minnie L. Maffee.

This year of 1962 will see the start of building a new Nurse's Home with the gift of $100,000 from the United States Business and Professional Women's Clubs. This new building will be named the Minnie L. Maffee Chinese Nurses' Home honoring the Texas M.D. who was so dedicated to this venture.

Mrs. V.I. Grant, in charge of the Christmas party, announced that the party will be the finest ever with professional talent performing for the women. The party will be held on December 12 at the Half-Way House.

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Moren of 2268 Redwood Road, Scotch Plains, celebrated their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Saturday evening, November 18, 1961, at a surprise dinner, at The Cove-Roastie.

The dinner was arranged and attended by their many neighborhood friends on both sides of Redwood Road, who presented a gift with all their good wishes.

An enjoyable evening was had by all those present and the surprise and amazement of the Morens added to the pleasure of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Moren, married December 5th 1911 by Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Pastor Emeritus, Trinity Reform Church, Plainsfield.

The wedding was performed at the home of Rev. Schenck. Elizabeth W. Dufford, sister of Mrs. Moren, and Chester L. Harriman witnessed.

Paper Mill

The Honor Marionettes, a success at schools, camps and theatres all over the East, will come to the Paper Mill Playhouse next Saturday at 11 A.M. as part of the Saturday Morning Children's Series. "Hansel and Gretel", with the music of Humperdinck, will be the play that the one-third life size marionettes will perform. The fairy story is dramatized to appeal to the four to twelve age group.

Girls would probably be more willing to be bridesmaids if they knew that by an old tradition it was expected that they would have the good fortune to become a bride within a year. Is your Shirt a Shirker?
Your shirt has a definite responsibility, which it may not be able to meet.
It should put up a good "front" for you, and not distract from your appearance. It should be comfortable and give you confidence.
If it does not, you need not blame the shirt. It may be a helpless victim of a mediocre laundry. You can rescue your shirking shirts and help them regain their crisp new appearance... by sending them to Pan American! Our "personalized" shirt laundry is your guarantee that they will be done to your satisfaction. You owe it to your shirts... and yourself to try our superior service. So, why not drop off your next bundle of shirts at Pan American.

RELIGION IN THE NEW AGE
Part 3 of series
"To say that man is to recognize this Day as God's and is to enter into the New Age through religion does not mean that he will enter it simply by devotional exercises; by a personal decision or through the good offices of some venerated tradition. Religion, ending man with power from on high, has come into the world again according to the immortal principle of all the world religions of the past. Its word has not been spoken anonymously nor without authentication, but through a destined and open Revelation given by a Great Soul appointed as spokesman by the Most High. As the sublime Prophets of the past have proclaimed themselves the Bearers of a new Message and a new Covenant, so in this age Baha'u'llah has proclaimed Himself as entrusted by God with a supreme mission of deliverance and guidance to all mankind: A new day has broken, there is only one sun in its sky. In unequivocal terms He repeats the strict command uttered by every Prophet of times past: He bids men abandon their doubts and prejudices, put on the garment of humility and turn wholly to His teachings."
Write for free booklet which treats this subject in greater detail.
The Baha'is of Springfield P.O. Box 178, Springfield, N.J.

WILLIAMS IN MEXICO
- Tennessee Williams has rented a home in a volcano-fringed village near here for two months of work.
The playwright's only companions are Frank Merlo, a friend, and his German shepherd dog. Although he has not disclosed whether he has a project involving Mexican locale, Williams supplied terse definition of his writing method to one visitor.
"I select my main characters, and then get them into trouble," he said. "I work about three or four hours each morning, and often wake up at night with an idea and go to work again."

BY DICK SCHWARTZ

Quite a controversy has sprung up concerning Springfield's Baltusrol Golf Club and its 463 acres of fertile land planted smack in the middle of the Township. (See Springfield Sun, Nov. 23.)

While we tend to shy away from the arguments that have been ignited over the simmering flames of taxes, schools, 'socialism' and traffic on tournament days, we do not hesitate to voice our opinion from the standpoint of a typical Springfield resident, for we fit nicely into this category.

We have lived in Springfield for some eight years. In that span we have traveled up and down every street in town and shopped in almost every retail establishment. This reporter is a four-year 'product' of Springfield Regional High School and a devout believer in the destiny of Routes 24 and 78.

Once, and only once, on a very special spring afternoon, have we ventured through the rustic Baltusrol Golf Club gates in quest of information from Johnny Farrell.

We had heard a great deal about the Club. Hadn't they played the National Open there a few times? But we had never been closer than the lanes of Shunpike Road permitted.

Needless to say, the grounds were immaculate as we had expected. The Pro-Shop was as lush as we had expected, and although Mr. Farrell wasn't around, his associate who helped us was as cordial as we had expected.

We got what we came for, drove out through the rustic gates and haven't been back since.

Now, as far as we're concerned, this is no great loss. We play our golf at either a West Orange course, or Ashbrook, or 'Cardiac' Hill. We have never had any real desire to replace our divots at Baltusrol. There are more important things to hope for.

But one thing does annoy us. Most 'exclusive,' and what some letters to our offices have termed 'restricted' clubs are either on the outskirts of a town, or are located in 'exclusive' or 'restricted' areas, where the homes start at $100,000 and getting into to fit into the garages are the only problems.

But in Springfield, where the Middle Class reigns and where there are few fins and only an average of one garage per dwelling, and where many forego luxuries to send their kids to college, and where most men come home tired at five o'clock, here sits one of the most famous golf courses in the world, taking up close to one-fifth of the town's land, and offering little, if anything, to Springfield residents.

We realize that what the Baltusrol Golf Club does with its property is strictly up to them, and in effect, is nobody else's business. But we can dream—and there's no law against that either.

While all this is technically none of our business, it is still food for thought. Wouldn't it be dandy for Springfield if Baltusrol would throw a 'crumb' to the Township and give perhaps twenty of its acres—toward a recreation area—a park—a ski slope? No hole need be erased as a result of this gesture. There'd still be 443 acres left for cocktails and nine, and maybe then, residents such as this reporter, would pass along the miles of cyclone fence on Mountain Avenue with a little more respect for one of the world's greatest golfing establishments.

25th Gridiron Clash Sees RHS Winner Over Rahway Eleven

The Springfield Regional Bulldogs ended their 1961 football campaign on a strong note last Thursday, downing rival Rahway 32-6 before 5,500 cheering spectators at the Regional field.

The Bulldogs began slowly, and at halftime the score was deadlocked at 0-0. The second half proved the difference as the Indians were introduced to the power that has made the Bulldogs rate among the top in Union County football this season.

Halfback Tuffy Hartz closed out his high school gridiron career in high style, scoring four touchdowns in the 25th anniversary meeting between the two schools. It was the seventh series victory for the Bulldogs and second in a row. Rahway eleven has beaten their Thanksgiving opponents 16 times and two contests have gone as ties.

The Bulldogs moved ahead for good in the third period when quarterback Jack Aggar tossed to Larry Stickle in the end zone for a 32 yard touchdown play. The Orange and Blue then went on to score three more times in the game to trounce their visitors.

Hartz moved up the middle for a yard or two and then bucked across on the next play. This was Tuffy's 16th touchdown.

The Orange and Blue, with the help of a Sica interception, had the ball on the Indian 1 yard mark, and threatened again, but the pass play that put it there was called back when the home club had an ineligible receiver downfield.

The Regional squad opened the scoring in the first stanza when Hartz completed a 49 yard march with a plunge from the 1. Bill Geoghegan missed the extra point on this one, but hit for two during the morning's activities.

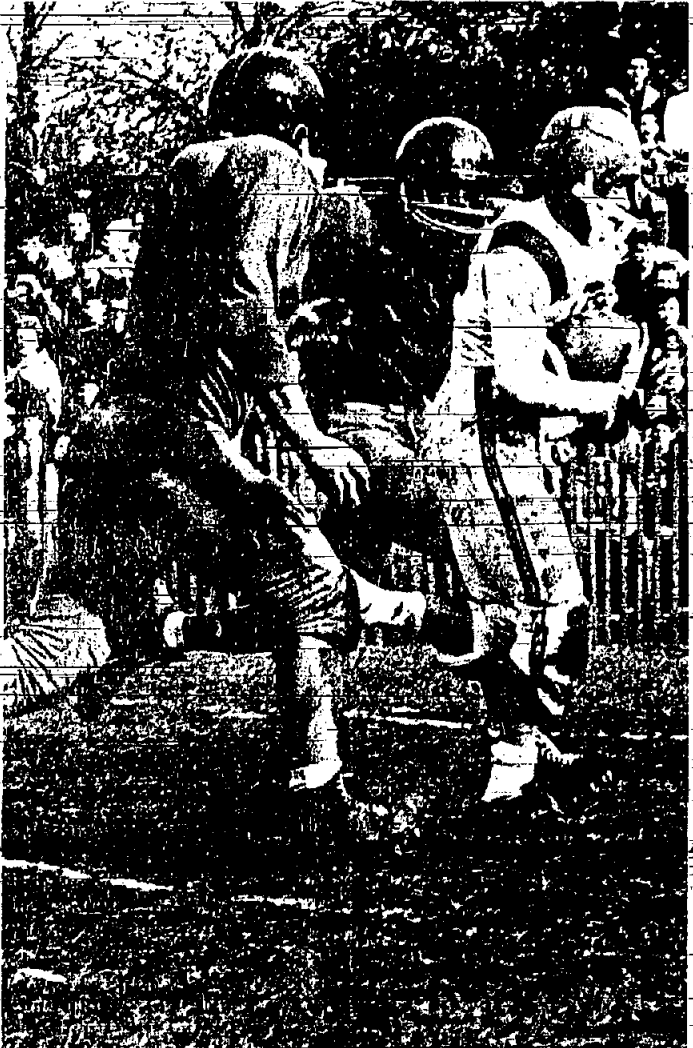

Rahway took over in the next quarter and made the equalizer on quarterback Bill Huff's six yard touchdown toss to Roland Randolph. The extra point try was no good.

Springfield got another crack at the goal posts late in the same quarter when Geoghegan recovered a DiNeta fumble of a punt on the Regional 45. Ron Puorro then pranced 23 yards and it looked like another score until John Glass of Rahway intercepted an Aggar aerial on the 14.

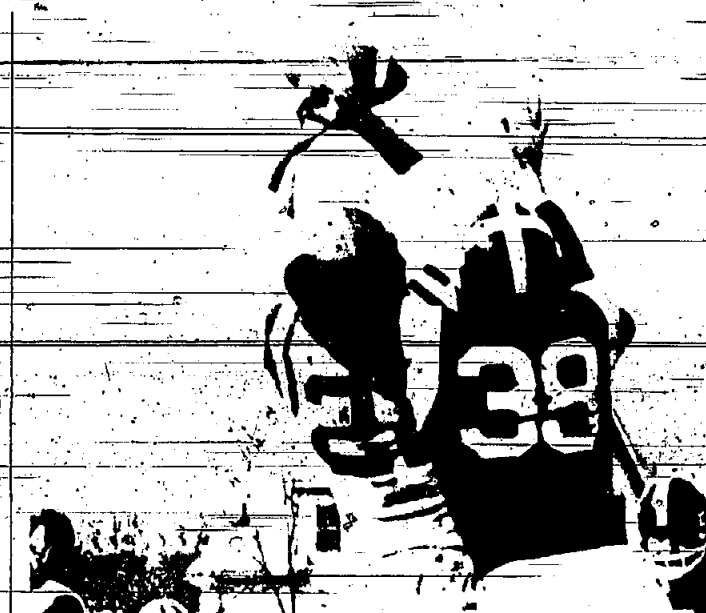

A short punt early in the third period enabled the Orange and Blue to take possession on Rahway's 43 and, after an Indian penalty and a first yard run by Puorro, Aggar threw to Stickle who fell into the end zone. Score, 13-6.

Regional again took possession on the next kickoff when Stickle recovered a fumble on Rahway's 25 and brought it back to the 15. Aggar forwarded to Hartz for 12 more and Tuffy then carried in from the 3 to make the mark 25-6 and Geoghegan added the 26th point.

In a few short minutes the Bulldogs posted their final TD. Rahway was nailed on their 15 after trying to pass on a fourth down situation.

CATCH ME!—Ron Puorro, Regional back, counts out the yardage while two Indians race after him to bring him down. Action took place in first half of Thanksgiving game between rivals Rahway and Springfield. (Dick Schwartz)

ALMOST—Bill Thompson (22), has a little trouble finding the handle on an aerial as Clark's Bob Prish (38) makes matters difficult. Raiders pulled out a close one 14/13.

Beacon on Sports

BY JAMES

In the fall of 1960 when Russ Hunchar, now director of athletics at Governor Livingston Regional High School, was preparing for his first season as the school's soccer coach, he was confident that he would field a strong team.

Although Russ was aware of the handicap of having no practice field and the disadvantage of playing all games on opponents' fields, Hunchar still felt his team would have a successful season.

There was some basis for the hard-working coach's optimism too. Before coming to Governor Livingston, Hunchar had coached at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield. Most of the potential Governor Livingston booters had attended Springfield previously, so Russ was quite familiar with his personnel.

So what happened? For some unexplained reason, the Highlanders simply never got untracked. Possibly it was a result of being overshadowed by the school's surprisingly successful football team, but as the season progressed things went from bad to worse. The Highlanders finished the year with a mediocre three wins, seven losses and four ties.

Hunchar was disillusioned but not discouraged. He knew he had good personnel and eight of the players would be back for another season.

With the dawning of the recently concluded season, Hunchar was hopeful but wary of being overoptimistic.

"I thought I had a good team last year and we did very poorly. I think I've got a good team this year too, but let's wait and see."

Hunchar must have been having nightmares of his 1960 season after the opening game's loss to arch-rival Summit. Highlander defender inadvertently helped Summit score all of its goals in a 3-1 win. Even Summit's well-deserved reputation as a soccer powerhouse couldn't appease Russ after that loss. (Summit has gone on to the final round of the State Tournament.)

But that was to be Hunchar's last bad day for a long while—some two months to be more precise.

The Highlanders suddenly found themselves. Johnny Wadas blossomed as a scoring threat and the Highlander backfield welded into a cohesive defensive unit that formed a cordon around Frank Antonetti in the Highlander nets.

Fifteen consecutive opponents managed to score a total of only eight goals against the Highlanders—and none of them could make off with a Highlander kilt as a victory token. Things got so good that Hunchar was sincerely disappointed when his team was held to a tie by Chatham, a perennial contender for State championship honors. (Chatham is a semi-finalist in the State Group III tournament and a likely opponent for Summit in the championship game.)

"We should have beaten them," Russ reported after the game. Chatham scored in the opening minutes and the Highlanders tied the score in the second period.

Hunchar's fine coaching wasn't the only role he played in his team's success. During the season he scouted around for a home field for his booters and finally obtained the use of Memorial Field in the heart of the township in mid-season.

Russ staked out the field himself and made arrangements for the installation of goal posts and storm fencing. Of course, Russ didn't have much to keep him busy this fall what with his new duties as athletic director and moving his family from Iselin to Berkeley Heights.

Anyway, Hunchar's efforts paid off. It was at Memorial Field that Wadas booted in two goals in the final period to give Governor Livingston a 2-1 victory over Scotch Plains that assured the Highlanders of their first Union County Conference championship.

Hunchar's Highlanders fell two games short of a coveted state championship, but he shouldn't feel too disappointed. Governor Livingston, in just two seasons, has established itself as a soccer power in Union County; and Hunchar's hard work this year brought Union County's newest school its first athletic championship and made its soccer coach a sure-fire candidate for coach-of-the-year honors in the county.

Thomas 'Comes Out' With Great Showing Against Ridge Team

Little Artie Thomas, bowler and baseball player extraordinary, also is quite a football player.

Artie, who waited until his senior year to try his hand at the gridiron game, waited until the final game of the season to earn the accolades of a hero.

The fleet halfback scored two touchdowns and played an important role in a third as Governor Livingston Regional High School inaugurated a Thanksgiving Day football series with Ridge High School of Basking Ridge with a come-from-behind, 26-13 victory.

Until little Artie went into his dazzling act, it appeared that the underdog Ridge eleven might very well upset the Highlanders and ruin the bid of AJ Russell's eleven for a second consecutive winning season.

Long-range scoring plays, which have ruined the Highlanders in several other games this season, were instrumental in boosting Ridge to a 13-6 lead in the first period.

A 66-yard run by Bill Harrison pushed Ridge in front, 6-0, and after the Highlanders tied the count at 6-6, a 58-yard run by Tom McGoroy put Ridge back in the lead, 13-6.

That was the situation in the second period when Ridge punted to Thomas on the Highlander 15. Artie streaked to the left sideline, snaked his way past several Ridge defenders, and romped 85 yards for a touchdown.

Thomas' record run for a Highlander touchdown brought the Governor Livingston partisans in the throng of 2,500 fans to their feet with a roar. Bill Braun's successful placekick, the first extra point kicked by the Highlanders all season, tied the score at 13-13 at the half.

Barrell's Ben Russell, the Highlanders leading scorer this season with 52 points, then put Governor Livingston in front for the first time early in the third period. Once again, Thomas played a big role.

Thomas took a punt on the Ridge 40 and fooled the Basking Ridge defenders by handing off to Russell on the Highlanders' pet crisis-cross play. With Ridge tacklers concentrating on the fleet Thomas, Russell stormed 40 yards for a touchdown. It was his second successful placekick made the score 20-13.

Thomas was to add a final touchdown score winding up his senior football career. Jersey DiPasquale intercepted a pass to give the Highlanders possession on their own 38-yard line late in the third period. On second down, Russell exploded for 35 yards and a first down on the Ridge 12.

From there quarterback Frank Fish passed to Thomas for a 12-yard touchdown play. Earlier, Fish had scored the Highlanders first touchdown on a 10-yard quarterback keeper play. Fish had passed Governor Livingston into scoring position with a 15-yarder to Lynn Nesbitt and a 12-yarder to Bob Marksen.

Earlier this year Thomas had paced Governor Livingston to a third-place finish in the Union County Conference Bowling Tournament and was the shortstop and leading hitter on the Highlander's baseball team that earned invitations to play in the Union County Conference and New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association's North Jersey, Section 2, Group 11 tournaments. Until last Thursday these were his chief claims to athletic fame.

The thrilling victory over Ridge gave Coach Braun his second straight winning season. The Highlanders finished with a 5-4 record, losing all four games by one-touchdown, margins. Governor Livingston's overall football record now is 11-6.

Russell's 52 points this season, accounted for one eighth touchdowns and four extra points on running plays, put him in good position to break Jim Fish's career scoring record. Fish scored 66 points last year in his only season of play. Russell, a junior, has all of next season to pass Fish's mark.

STOPPED—Bill Geoghegan is almost clear but one Rahway tackler latches onto his jersey and won't let go. Other Indians are coming up to help their man make the stop stick.

OFF AND RUNNING—Ron Puorro snares an Appar pass and is off for a nice gain. Rahway's Joe Bonura is trying to keep pace with the fleet Bulldog halfback.

HARTZ GOING—Tuffy Hartz (11), has nobody but friendly team members surrounding him as he goes for gain. Harold Bell (28) is closest to camera, while Marty Sica (33) left, watches play after delivering key block.

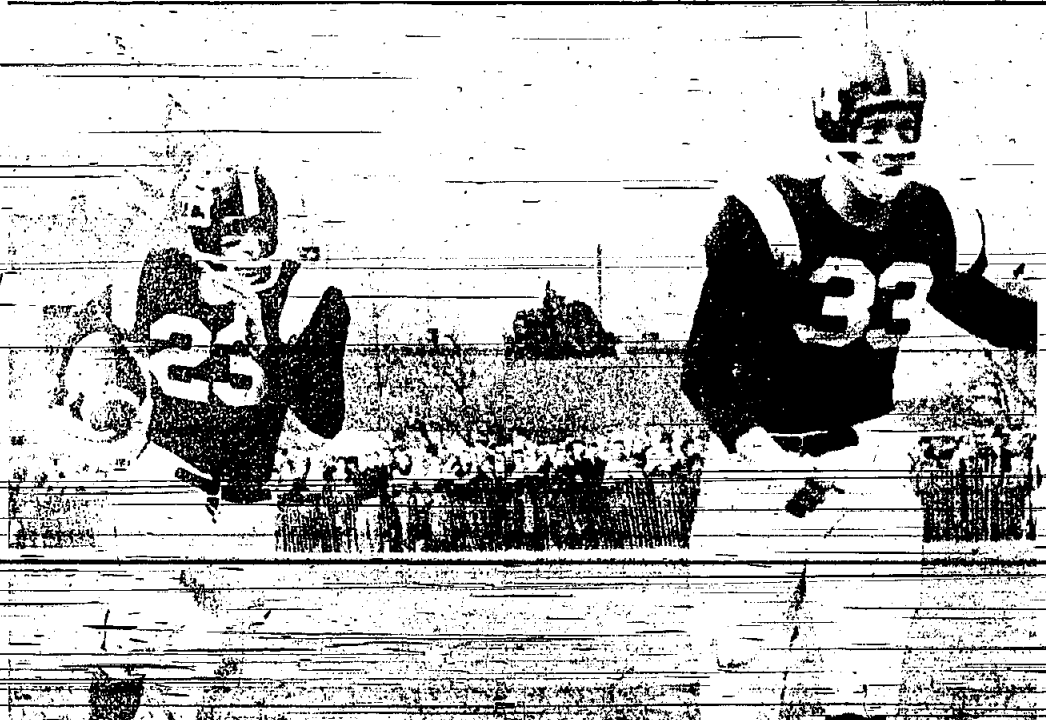

NO LOVE HERE—Frank Perrilli, Regional center might appear to be consoling an unidentified Rahway ball carrier, but the case is quite the opposite. Frank is in the midst of pulling the Indian down for a loss on fourth down situation. Bulldogs went on to score.

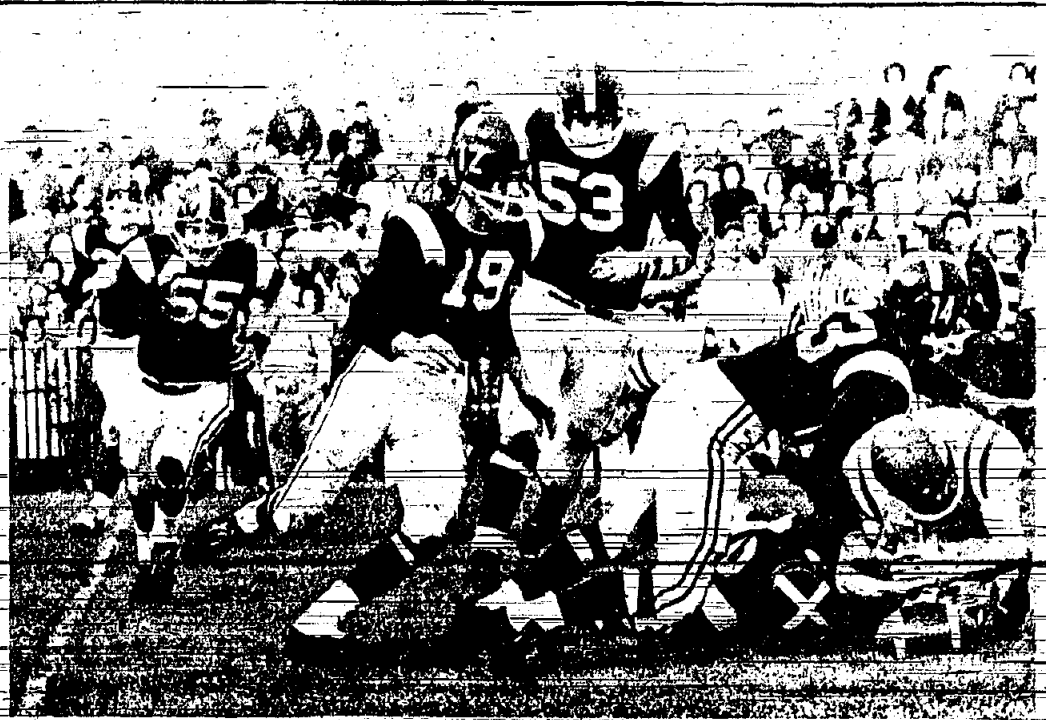

WRONG SHOULDER—Bulldog blocker appears to be giving Rahway's Willie Huff (32) a hand in bringing down Tuffy Hartz; Orange and Blue ball carrier. Play went for first down before Huff finally brought Hartz down.

BLUE RAIDERS SQUEAK PAST CLARK CLUB

ALL ALONE—John Giannattasio, Crusader ball carrier, has nobody but Ken Hauswald for Company as he sweeps end for gain.

LOOSE BALL—Sal Verini, Plainsman closest to the ball tries to retain possession as a host of Clark defensive men move in with other ideas.

Clark II Surprises Favored Plainsmen

When they say "forget about records on Thanksgiving Day," they really mean it. To most in the know, the Turkey Day tilting Clark Regional against the powerful Scotch Plains Blue Raiders was a foregone conclusion as to results. Estimates ran as high as a three touchdown spread between the two clubs, with the Plainsmen on top all the way. However, this was not the way the game turned out, and the words of Coach Chuck Nelson were lucky to walk away on the right end of a 14-13 score.

All four touchdowns in the evenly fought game were set up by either fumble recoveries or pass interceptions.

The victory enabled the Plainsmen to wind their fourth straight in the Turkey Day rivalry and wind up with a 7-2 record. The Crusaders finished with a 2-7 log.

The big crowd, expecting the Raiders to win handily, were startled early in the going when Clark ran up the first six points on the scoreboard.

John Gayewski set it up by intercepting a pass and returning it to the Raider 44. Eight plays later, Ken Hauswald and John Giannattasio teamed up on a 31-yard pass play for a touchdown, but Jim Clos' placement try for the conversion was short. The aerial was the only one Hauswald completed in two attempts.

Moments later, John Runnels, scrappy Raider guard, pounced on a fumble at the Clark 16 and on the first play Verini took a pitchout from Hayward Gipson and went all the way. Pfundheller's boot made it 7-0.

The Crusaders bounced back, however, just before the first half ended when Bill Prish picked off a pass on the Raider 29. Aided by a 23-yard run by Jim Scott, Clark scored in five plays with Hauswald going over on a sneak from the three with less than a minute remaining. This time Clos converted and Clark walked off the field at halftime with a surprising 13-7 bulge.

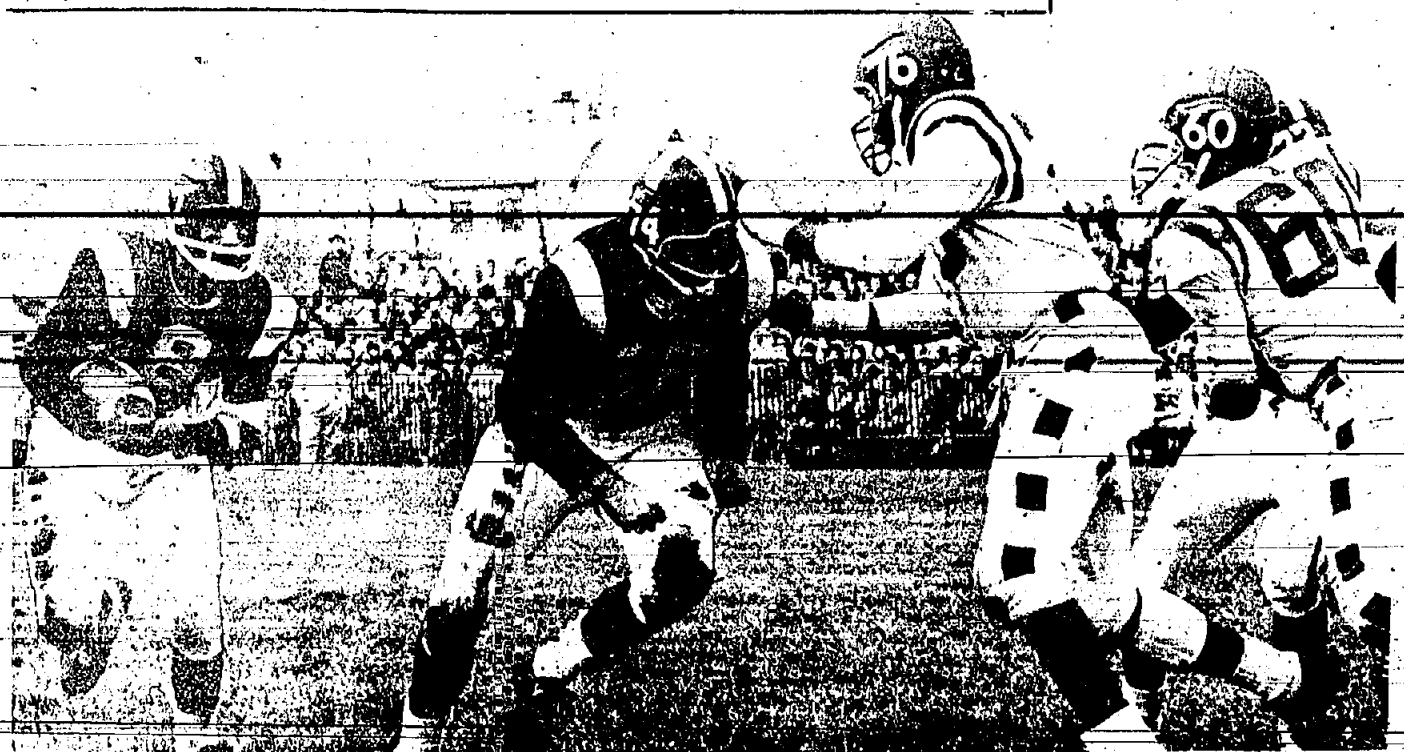

The Raiders, faced with the prospect of being the victim of a stunning form reversal, then cashed in on another break to pull the game out in the third period.

End Bruce Thompson pounced on a fumble at the Clark 33 and on the first play, Verini again delivered the mail, taking another pitchout from Gipson and streaking around right end for the score. With the score tied and the crowd hushed, Pfundheller, a placement specialist, came off the bench and delivered a strong boot through the bars for what proved to be the margin of victory.

Clark was stymied completely in the second half, but the Raiders had another bid checked at the Crusader 12 when a fumble was recovered by guard Ron Anderson.

Statistics were fairly even, with both teams pouncing out only five first downs each. Scotch Plains had 141 yards rushing and 23 yards passing for a total of 164 yards as compared to 91 rushing and 31 passing and a 122 aggregate for Clark.

Scotch Plains ended the campaign with a respectable 7-2 mark, and Coach Nelson and his crew should be proud of their boys who picked themselves up midway through the season and put on quite a show of offensive gridiron might.

OUT OF MY WAY—Charley Jones, Raider tackler wants Clark blocker Wheeler to get out of the way so he can get a crack at John Gayewski (8), Crusader ball carrier.

FOOTING PROBLEMS—Rich Himple, Clark back, might have gone for nice gain, but the Crusader got tripped up and fell. Closing in is (42) Sal Verini.

THAT WAS A NICE CATCH, MR GIBSON!

Lonely Littlecloud

by Goldy Mallay

Littlecloud lived in the Great West Sky. He loved to play hide and shice with the sun and change his shape. Sometimes he was a bunny, sometimes a pony, sometimes a fluffy, white ball. Once he was a long, thin, white cloud. The children loved to watch Littlecloud and guess what he would be next. But Littlecloud didn't know the children loved him so he felt very lonely.

"Nobody cares how I look," he said. "I'll go where someone will notice me." He floated to the edge of the Great West Sky. North Wind blew by.

"Oh, please take me with you," cried Littlecloud.

"Ho! Ho!" whistled North Wind. "You'll have to work very hard if you come with me."

"I don't care how hard I work, if only someone will notice me," answered Littlecloud.

With cold puffs North Wind blew Littlecloud to the Great North Sky. Hundreds of large gray clouds hurried about stretching their sides and making wide, gray ceilings across their sky.

"Drop snow! Drop snow!" whistled North Wind.

Littlecloud stretched his sides, trying to look gray and drop snow. The large clouds laughed, and rolled him over and over covering him with their snow.

"Nobody will ever notice me here," cried Littlecloud.

Then North Wind spied him. "A lovely snow ball!" he whistled. "I'll blow him down to earth." And he whisked Littlecloud out of the sky.

Down, down he fell, bumping into damp East Wind.

"Oh, please take me with you," cried Littlecloud.

"Ho! Ho!" laughed East Wind. "You'll be very wet if you come with me."

"I don't care how wet I am if only someone will notice me," answered Littlecloud.

East Wind wrapped rainy arms around Littlecloud and carried him to the Great East Sky. There, hundreds of black clouds rushed about swelling themselves with rain. They bumped each other so hard it made a dreadful thundering noise. Littlecloud put his folds over his ears and tried to swell himself and look blacker than anything. The big clouds didn't want him there. They bumped their wet sides against him rudely, splashing him with rain.

"Nobody will ever notice me here," said Littlecloud.

"Let's wash him away," cried the big clouds, and bumped their sides so hard their rain washed him right out of the Great East Sky.

Down, down he fell, bumping into South Wind.

"Oh, please take me with you," begged Littlecloud.

"My! My!" sighed South Wind. "You'll be very warm if you come with me."

"I don't care how warm I am, if only someone will notice me," answered Littlecloud.

South Wind puffed Littlecloud to the Great South Sky. Hundreds of white clouds floated about, fluffing themselves and covering the whole sky. Not one corner was left for Littlecloud.

"Nobody will ever notice me here," he sighed.

Littlecloud curled himself until he was a tiny button. The big clouds floated around him hiding the button in their folds.

"If only I had a path," thought Littlecloud, "I'd be a boat and sail away."

Just then South Wind blew a little path between the big clouds. Quick as a flash Littlecloud was a boat sailing down the path out of the crowded sky.

But the little boat was sad, sailing along all alone. Presently he heard laughing and whispering. He turned around and there were the merry West Winds.

"We're looking for Littlecloud," they said. "He is magic and changes his shape. Sometimes he's a bunny, sometimes he's a fluffy, white ball. The children asked us to find him."

"The children!" cried Littlecloud. "Did they really notice me?"

"Y-O-U?" cried the merry West Winds.

"Yes," answered Littlecloud. "I'm magic. See -- I'll show you." Quick as a flash he was a bunny, then a pony, then a fluffy, white ball.

"You are Littlecloud!" they laughed, dancing around him.

"Let's hurry back. The children are waiting." And they blew Littlecloud along with jolly puffs.

Littlecloud is not lonely anymore. He knows someone is noticing him. Each day he plays hide and shine with the sun and changes his shape. Can you find him in your sky?

Art Exhibit

An art exhibit featuring the works of a Westfield textile designer and her father-in-law will open Sunday at the Garden of Eatin', Route 22, Springfield, with an open house reception from 2 to 4 p.m.

The designer is Mrs. Virginia Platt Wilcox. Her father-in-law, Leon Wilcox, is employed at Easo Research and Engineering at Florham Park. Their exhibition, the fifth in a series sponsored by the Garden of Eatin' to introduce New Jersey artists to the public, will be on view for the remainder of 1961.

Mrs. Wilcox attended Moore Institute of Art in Philadelphia and is a member of the Plainfield and Lafayette College art associations. She has exhibited at Saks in Short Hills and the Union Dime Savings Bank in New York is a textile designer with Cohn Hall Marx in New York. Leon Wilcox, also a Westfield resident, has been painting as a hobby for many years.

Policy Course

In realizing the fact that the insurance buying public has what might be called, an appalling lack of knowledge about life insurance, we have decided to try to do something about it and the idea of a simplified course in the fundamentals and usages of life insurance offered to the public is our way of answering this need. It should be especially noted that our offering this course in no way obligates those that are interested in participating to buy additional insurance. It is strictly in the interest of better public relations that we offer this course. Obviously, we are looking to make this course available to as many people as possible, however, in the interest of efficiency, the class has to be limited to no more than twenty-five people. Covered in the course will be basic concepts of life insurance, a simplification of many technical aspects, examples and usages of life insurance in action.

For information call DR 6-3185.

Last Ten Days For Music Man

"The Music Man", Meredith Willson musical hit at the Paper Mill Playhouse, will continue for 10 days through Saturday evening, December 9, before the theatre closes for the blizzard season to re-open early in March of 1962.

"Music Man", which began its run on October 23, has been one of the most, if not the most successful shows of the 1962 Paper Mill season. It has played to capacity houses since its opening. The success of the show is a tradition rather than an exception. It played 1376 performances on Broadway over a span of four years and has recently been made into a movie. During its Broadway run it won a half dozen awards including the New York Drama Critics prize for "Best Musical of the Year".

The greatest award, however, comes from the audience rather than the professional award donors. At Paper Mill, as on Broadway, audiences stamp their enthusiasm and approval at curtain each evening by applauding in time to "76 Trombones", one of the rousing musical numbers in the show.

Starting in "Music Man" at the Mill are two performers who have played hundreds of times in their roles. Ted Scott, the Professor Harold Hill of the show, starred in the international company which enjoyed a six month stay in Australia. Barbara Williams, the demure Marian Librarian, played in the Broadway production for over two years.

Also notable, and noisy, in the show, are 64 Millburn school music students, who take turns, eight each night, playing the eight performances a week.

OLD Mr. BOSTON

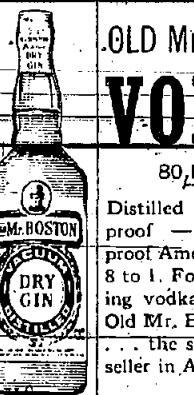

YE INTELLIGENT BUYER'S GUIDE TO FINEST LIQUORS

Mr. BOSTON'S ROCKING CHAIR IS 80 PROOF ... LIKE FAMOUS WHISKIES ABROAD

People in Europe, England, and Canada have long known that the finest quality liquors are produced at lower proofs. It takes low proof mildness to let full flavor come through; higher proofs deaden taste buds, and often mask unpleasant flavor. Old Mr. Boston produces Rocking Chair full flavored at 80 proof which requires less mixer and avoids that "watered-down" taste. It's America's largest selling 80 proof blended whiskey!

Dangerous Month

December is the most dangerous month for pedestrian accidents, the New Jersey Automobile Club (AAA) warned today, urging school-age youngsters to be extra alert in snowy, rainy weather.

"While the increased hours of darkness play an important part in December's higher pedestrian death rate, there is no doubt that the inclement weather is also a major factor," the AAA Club said. "Rain and snow lower visibility and increase the danger of skidding in automobiles and of slipping among pedestrians. It is a time for caution."

The AAA urged youngsters to allow themselves more time to cross slippery streets and to remember that cars require more braking distance under such conditions.

A safety poster on the theme, "Be Extra Alert in Bad Weather," will soon make its appearance in local elementary and junior high schools. It is being distributed this month in Essex, Morris and Union Counties as part of the regular monthly safety education program of the New Jersey Automobile Club.

The poster, designed by Nancy Messer, a 17-year-old student at Iowa City, Iowa, was a first prize winner in the American Automobile Association's National Traffic Safety Poster Contest. The prize was awarded by a panel of nationally-known judges, and the poster will be reproduced and distributed by AAA Motor Clubs in many sections of the country.

Adults Bowl

A group of thirty B'nai B'rith Young Adults of Union County and guests gathered at Linden Lanes on Sunday, November 26, 1961 between 1:30 and 5:00 p.m. After everyone had a chance to play three games, Jerry Parker of Linden, athletic chairman announced that Miss Sharon Lappin of Linden and Mr. Jerry Cohen of Elizabeth were each high scorers.

On December 10, at Temple Beth El, 338 Walnut Avenue, Cranford, B'nai B'rith Young Adults of Union County will present a film and a religious candle lighting ceremony for Chanukah with the help of Miss Fern Laffer, religious chairman.
