Anthony Rajoppi, 85, Says He Planted That Magnolia

Anthony Rajoppi who admits being 85 years of age, practically stormed into the Springfield Sun offices to announce that he was the man who "planted that magnificent magnolia tree in front of the First Presbyterian Church in Springfield."

"Yes, sir," said the alert head of one of Springfield's pioneer of planting in the Presbyterian Church cemetery but I don't remember exactly where -- but I always was happy to be planting something near the beautiful Springfield church."

Mr. Rajoppi remembered that Springfield was "just about a horse and buggy path" when he first came to the Township. "The only way we could travel was either by bicycle," he said, "and it was nothing for me to drive a horse and wagon all to New York City -- over the Secaucus Turnpike and by ferry to the big city. It was a full day's journey."

The Rajoppi family lived on the nursery (Fleming) property until about 20 years ago when a home was built at 47 Linden Avenue which is still occupied by a son, Daniel. About five years ago the elder Mr. Rajoppi moved to Summit where he lives with a sister, Mrs. Mary Caruso at 2 Manor Hill Road.

In addition to his son, Daniel Rajoppi who lives in Linden Avenue, there is another son, Raleigh, who resides at 2 Prospect Place, Springfield, and a daughter, Mrs. C. Gerber of 47 Linden Avenue.

"We came to Springfield in 1900," mused the proud 85-year-old "and it was just after I started work for the F. and F. Nurseries -- the Flemmer family -- when I planted these two beautiful trees I also did a lot families. "I remember planting not only the magnolia tree but that large evergreen alongside."

"That was exactly," and here Mr. Rajoppi appeared to be doing some rapid mental arithmetic, "that was exactly 61 years ago."

Mayor Names Three To Insurance Committee

Mayor Philip Del Vecchio Tuesday night appointed three members to an insurance committee, which he said would function as a liaison between the Township Committee and insurance agents and whose duty would be to determine and adequacy of the township insurance program.

Committee members are Richard Moore of 89 Remer Avenue, Eugene Wuerz of Perry Place and Robert Planer of Short Hills Avenue.

Mayor Del Vecchio said that he would like the committee to consist of five members. The mayor also appointed Robert J. Klein of 6 Janet Lane as an additional member of the swimming pool committee.

The committee voted to pay bills in the amount of $500 which are expected to be incurred by the Volunteer Fire Department in connection with the annual Memorial Day parade. The chairman of the Township Committee and township clerk were authorized to sign an agreement with Springfield Board of Education for the use of land between Sandmeier and Walton schools for recreation facilities. It was reported that the agreement has already been signed by the school board and the Recreation Commission and a baseball field is underway at the location.

Be Sure And Vote!

The League of Women Voters of Springfield urges all to vote in the Primary Elections, Tuesday, April 17. The polls will remain open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Objects To Site For Swim Pool

Isadore Lemmerman of 104 Evergreen Avenue, Springfield, appeared at the Springfield Township Committee meeting Tuesday night in Municipal Building to question the Township Committee on one of the sites being considered for the municipal swimming pool.

He reported that the area in question is 250 feet away from an address which was rejected by a municipal board as a location for a nursery school.

A swimming pool gives off more noise than a nursery school, he contended and suggested that there were other locations in the township which were away from the higher ratables.

Mayor Philip Del Vecchio advised him that the site has not yet been determined and a public hearing would be held on the matter when the desires of the residents will be heard.

Music Appreciation Group Meets In Town

A meeting of the Music Appreciation Group of Springfield was held Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bender, 21 Ann Place.

"Humor in Music" was discussed by Stephen Sell, a music major student at Rutgers University, New Brunswick.

He illustrated his talk by playing the following recordings: "Musical Joke", Mozart; "Rosenkavalier Overture", R. Strauss; "Till Eulenspiegel", R. Strauss; "Divertissement", I. Ibert; "La Valse", Ravel.

Following the talk, Mr. Sell played Ravel's "Valse Nobles et Sentimentales" on the piano.

Before enrolling at Rutgers, where he is a junior, Mr. Sell attended the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School and was graduated from the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark.

Fees Raised For Moving Of Houses

With an eye to the immediate future when additional homes might be moved or demolished in connection with the proposed Route 78, Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night took steps to update its building code controlling this matter.

On the recommendation of Committeeman Robert Hardgrove, Township Attorney James Cawley was authorized to make arrangements for changes in the law so that a $100 payment will be required for removal of a dwelling and a $25 payment will be required for a demolition permit.

The fees are to be put into the general fund. It was pointed out the moving of a home required the use of the police department and the demolition of a home involves the fire department.

Present fees are $25 for a removal permit and $5 for demolition. The matter had been called to Township Committee's attention by Building Inspector Otto Fessler.

He pointed out that rates in Summit are $100 for removal and $25 for demolition. Springfield's fees were described as "antiquated."

Township Gives O.K. To Builder On Springmount

The preliminary subdivision plan for Springmount, an 18.5 acre development proposed by Isidor Sherman of 23 Londonderry Way, Summit, on the side of Baltusrol Mountain, was approved on majority vote by Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night in Municipal Building.

The application has been before Township Committee since November 9. The Township Committee voted for the application, three to two.

Vigorously opposing the proposal were Township Committeemen Vincent J. Bonadies and Russel Sibole. Voting yes on the plan were Mayor Philip Del Vecchio and Committeemen Robert Hardgrove and Arthur Falkin. The application had been recommended by the Planning Board on a majority vote last November 2. The application has been before the township a year.

One of the main concerns in the matter has been the question of water drainage from the development in question which is located above Baltusrol Golf course. Approval was granted with specifications for the construction of a large retention basin designed to handle storm water.

In making the motion approving the preliminary plan, Committeeman Falkin included as additional stipulations to the proposal that the retention basin should be enclosed with fencing similar to that of the Baltusrol Golf Club with a gate and lock and that the basin area be shrubbed and landscaped. He also recommended that the retention basin be constructed at the expense of the developer on the golf course property if this land is made available before final approval of the plan.

Clear All Obstacles For National Drive-In Bank

Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night approved a revised recommendation of the Board of Adjustment for the construction of a drive-in banking facility at the General Greene Shopping Center to be operated by National State Bank.

Requirements on the application, which has been before the municipal government bodies a number of months, now conform with Township Committee's request in regard to ingress and egress at the Mountain Avenue approach to the shopping center.

The plan calls for an enlargement of the driveway at that point and the construction of a center island.

Committeeman Arthur Falkin reported that the work is under way and it is expected that a tree in the path of the proposal will be removed the end of this week.

Ensiey Bennett Jr. of Cranford, township traffic consultant, announced that the approval of the county engineer is being sought for the painting of new lines in Mountain Avenue which will facilitate the movement of traffic in Mountain Avenue at this point.

A recommendation of the Planning Board for the final approval of a subdivision for Robert Hockstein for four building lots in Cottler Avenue was approved on the condition that the developer arrange for right of way for street and street lighting installations.

Authorization was given for the acceptance of Surrey Lane and Twin Oaks Oval as township streets. It was reported that the two streets might have previously been accepted but the action cannot be found in the records.

Township Attorney James Cawley was directed to prepare a resolution requesting the Union County Park Commission to deed to Springfield 3,000 square feet of land in connection with the realignment of Milltown Road and the relocation of the bridge in the area.

Action was also taken whereby the park commission will be petitioned to grant permission for the installation of storm sewers through its property for the Hockstein development.

A resolution was passed requesting the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders for permission for Westmark Builders to construct storm sewers in Baltusrol Road.

Business Men Object To Good Humor License

A plea for the small business man was voiced by Wally Kleinman, of Springfield Pharmacy who objected to the issuance of a license to the Good Humor Corp. of Newark at the meeting of Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night in the Municipal Building.

Roessner Fund Reaches $6,500.

The fund for the family of Patrolman Joseph Roessner who was killed several weeks ago while chasing a speeder on Meisel Avenue, has grown to $6,500 according to Saul Freeman, chairman of the drive.

The $6,500, total includes all collections up to Monday.

Contributions to the fund can still be mailed to the Joe Roessner Fund, P.O. Box 25, Springfield.

Mr. Kleinman contended that by such action there is a nipping away at every little business. It is not fair. Something should be done to stop it," he said.

Township Committeeman Arthur Falkin informed him that the Good Humor concern would conduct a home delivery service similar to the Dugan, Drake and Bond companies and trucks making soda home deliveries. Committeeman Russel Sibole explained that the law did not require that the concern come to Township Committee for approval for this type of service. "It is a common thing," he said. However, he noted that the request had been referred to the Township Committee because it has maintained close scrutiny over operations such as those conducted by the Good Humor concern.

Committeeman Sibole said that the operation can be controlled through the traffic and vehicular ordinance which prohibits anyone from stopping in the street for the sale of merchandise. If such an offense is committed, the license can be revoked, he said.

Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies expressed his objections to the granting of the license to the Good Humor company, pointing out that it opened the door to other such businesses. He also maintained that it would present a hazard to children, who might recognize the Good Humor truck.

The only good that the township will receive from the operation will be the $10 license fee, he noted. The same application came before the Township Committee last year and the year before and it was denied, he said.

at the southeast corner of the Sherman property. Mr. Falkin would rather have it located at the confluence of two streams between the fifth green and the sixth tee on the golf course.

Approval of the application will mean the development of 54 dwellings, 19 of which will be located in Mountainside and 35 in Springfield.

The property lies in both Mountainside and Springfield with Rolling Rock Road in Mountainside going up to the area. The preliminary subdivision plat has also been approved by the Mountainside Planning Board and Mountainside Borough Council.

The application must now go before both Mountainside Planning Board and Borough Council for final approval as well as Springfield Planning Board and Township Committee.

In making a recommendation for the application, Committeeman Falkin explained that the proposal was discussed every time the 1962 Township Committee convened in executive session. He reported that he walked the entire area, contacted Baltusrol Golf Club on the matter, and read the files of the Planning Board on the subject.

In announcing his opposition Committeeman Bonadies said that he had a sound good reason for not wanting to accept an open basin. He contended that the township has a standing policy that a developer must have adequate drainage and he did not want to impose on the community an open basin which would be a nuisance located in one of the finest sections of the community which would attract children, and would also require maintenance by the township.

He also pointed out that all members of the Planning Board did not vote for the proposal and added that the plan would aggravate the general drainage problem in the south side of the township.

The possibility of the basin being located on the Baltusrol Golf Club property was denied by Committeeman Bonadies who reported that Baltusrol Golf Club representatives in 1961 indicated that they would not consider the basin constructed on their property.

"There is a great need for the top of the mountain to be properly drained into the Rahway River," Committeeman Bonadies declared, suggesting that piping project might now be instituted.

Committeeman Falkin assured Committeeman Bonadies that the basin was not designed to retain water and noted that the longest it would retain water would be about 30 to 40 minutes during the peak of a storm. He also pointed out that piping would cost $43,000 from the property to Irwin Street and $58,000 across Hillside Avenue with an additional $65 a lineal foot down to the Rahway River. (After the meeting, he said that the cost of piping without the retention basin from the development to Mountain Avenue would be $101,000.)

Also Committeeman Falkin contended that the greatest problem in the township now was the Rahway River which can't absorb the present flow of water going into it and is causing flooding conditions, and water to back up. He maintained that dumping water from an 84 inch pipe at a much faster rate would only aggravate a bad situation.

He also claimed that it would not be likely that Baltusrol Golf Club would be required to finance much of the cost of such a project and the major part of the facility would have to be the responsibility of the township. Mayor Philip Del Vecchio noted that it was a man's inherent right to develop his land and also pointed out that the new development would replace some of the 90 homes in Springfield being lost with the construction of the new highway.

Committeeman Russel Sibole announced that he was against the proposal in November and with all the facts, he said that his mind was made up. The establishment of the basin is a precedent which he "hated to see," he said.

Committeeman Bonadies reminded the Committee that the township has no need for this. He told them: "The town is not committed to anything. We have no obligation to the developers. The developer has an obligation to do a job on our terms and if he doesn't like our terms, he goes to another town. It has always been the policy of the community to have the developer close any open ditch that existed on his property and why should we open a big pond, when we don't want open ditches?" he asked.

In addition, Committeeman Bonadies cited erosion as a problem of maintenance and also contended that the Mosquito Commission will not look favorably on the project.

Over 150 School Children Take Part In Concert Tomorrow Night

The instrumental music department of Springfield Public Schools will present its annual concert tomorrow, Friday, April 13, at 8 p.m. at the Florence M. Gaudineer School.

This concert will include performing groups which represent three levels of instrumental proficiency. These groups are: a flutophone ensemble, a beginning orchestra, and the advanced orchestra.

The flutophone ensemble consists of third-grade pupils who are the potential orchestra members of the near future. The beginning orchestra consists of fourth and fifth grade students from the James Caldwell, Raymond Chisholm, Thelma L. Sandmeier, and Edward V. Walton Schools.

The advanced orchestra is comprised of sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students from the Florence M. Gaudineer School, and is the most experienced performing group in the school system. The instrumental music department has also developed a twirling team which is to be presented.

The twirling team is composed of eighth grade girls from the Florence M. Gaudineer School. B. F. Newschwanger, Superintendent of schools, will present the program.

The concert is under the direction of John J. Alt with the following assisting faculty: Rena G. Birnbaum, Mactin, Geltman, Nancy Lee Kite, Gail S. Mahood, Julie Scardaville, Priscilla R. Taddeo and Joan A. Van Pelt. Stage decorations are by Julie Scardaville and costumes by Gertrude Del Vecchio.

Stage Hands, Francis Drabik, John Rosenberg and John Rutz. Usherettes, Cheryl Boyle, Mary Jane Messina, Susan Schechter and Marcia Solkoff.

A total of 150 students, under the direction of Mr. Alt, will take part in tomorrow (Friday) night's concert.

Insurance Bills Again Subject Of Discussion

An ordinance restricting structures and the extent of the use of their land was adopted on final reading Tuesday night by Springfield Township Committee.

The measure will require restaurants, bars, and stores to have increased parking space as compared to previous ordinances and will reduce the parking space requirements of industry so that they will be able to use a larger portion of their land for their establishment.

There were no comments from the audience on the proposal during the public hearing. On the recommendation of the Planning Board, an amendment was added to the ordinance which will regulate the shape of the parking areas in the industrial zone.

The salary ordinance for 1962, expected to be adopted Tuesday night, was postponed so that it could be readjusted. It was announced that the budget called for a $3,700 salary for the switchboard clerk and the salary ordinance listed it as $3,750.

The ordinance was ordered to be changed to correspond with the budget and readjusted with another public hearing to be scheduled for April 24.

Authorization was given to Township Attorney James Cawley to revamp the ordinance regulating street openings. Instructions were given that the measure is to require a $50 fee for a street opening permit, instead of the previous $25 deposit and that the money, which will not be returnable, will be placed in the general fund instead of the trust fund.

The payment of bills was authorized by majority vote. Voting against their payment was Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies who indicated that he did not approve of an insurance bill submitted by the Bunnell Insurance agency.

Since last meeting, he said that he has been waiting for the finance committee to call a meeting to discuss the insurance question and it has not been forthcoming. The bills have been in the building since January 15, he said, and indicated that he saw no reason to hurry their payment now.

Committeeman Robert Hardgrove announced that the Township Committee has an obligation to meet and suggested that the insurance bills be paid rather than run the risk of their cancellation because of non-payment.

Committeeman Russel Sibole reported that as a member of the finance committee he had already signed the bills. "We have an obligation to pay bills whether they are entered into legally or not," he said.

He added that he thought there would have been a meeting to resolve the insurance problem. The total insurance bills amounted to $15,067. Committeeman Hardgrove said after the meeting. He said they involved both the Bunnell Brothers and Genovese Insurance agencies.

New Temple Sharey Shalom Building Ready For Dedication April 27 Weekend

Temple Sharey Shalom of Springfield, will dedicate its new building on the weekend of April 27. The announcement was made by Selwyn Schechter and Joseph Bender, co-chairman of the building committee.

Temple Sharey Shalom, originally known as the Suburban Reform Congregation of Springfield, was formed in the Spring of 1957 by Philip Gurian. Mr. Gurian investigated and planned the forming of a Reform Congregation in Springfield.

After all details and information were obtained a group of interested residents of this town met in the Gurian home. The founders of the Temple are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gurian, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Danziger, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Friedman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gans, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Katz, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kirsten, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lesser, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olesky, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Reichman, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Steiger, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sklar, and Mr. and Mrs. William Savarin.

This group of pioneers then set out to obtain members and draw up a constitution. By September of 1957 the Suburban Reform Congregation was a legal and recognized reform congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

From the time of its inception until the present time, the congregation has held Religious Services in the Parish House of the First Presbyterian Church, on Main Street in Springfield. High Holy Day Services were held in the Parish House and the Florence Gaudineer school, while summer services were held in the Temple House, at 78 South Springfield Avenue. In 1960, the congregation changed its name to Temple Sharey Shalom. Philip Gurian was president of the congregation from 1957-1959, Charles Danziger led the group from 1959-1961. Philip Ames is currently president.

The spiritual leader of the Temple, Rabbi Israel Dresner, joined the group as a student Rabbi in September of 1958, and has remained with the Temple ever since. Sharey Shalom's Kantor, Richard Borman, has been with them since 1960.

A building fund campaign chaired by Selwyn Schechter, was begun in the Fall of 1960, with ground breaking ceremonies being held in the Spring of 1961. Joseph Bender, who is in charge of the actual building program, handled all contracts, worked along side of the architects, Rotwein and Blake, supervised the entire building, and has done much of the more elaborate and detailed wood work inside of the building.

Mr. Bender, Charles Danziger and Mike Peack formed a committee that has done the interior painting and a great deal of the wood work. Many of the congregants have joined this committee and have devoted many, many of their weekends and leisure hours to this work.

The "Dedication Weekend"

committee is headed by Jesse Halperin, who has the following congregants assisting him: Harold Alper, David Belasco, Louis Cohen, Philip Gurian, Mrs. Albert Kessler, Selwyn Schechter, Mrs. Albert Schenfeld, Mrs. Saul Saeper, Robert Silverman, and Sol White.

The first Sabbath Eve service to be held in the building will begin at 8:45 p.m. on April 27. The service will be followed by an Oneg Shabbat. On Saturday morning, Sabbath services will be held at 10:15 a.m., followed by a Kiddish.

During the afternoon the building will be "open" to all who wish to go through it. The Temple's Youth Group will act as guides and hosts at this time. A dedication banquet will be held in the building on Saturday evening. Entertainment and dancing will follow the banquet. There will be guest Rabbi's at Sabbath Eve and Sabbath morning services and also important personalities at the banquet.

The Religious School will continue holding classes in the Sandmeier School on Sundays and weekday Hebrew classes in the Raymond Chisholm School.

Library Board Presents Tentative Policy Draft

The policy committee of Mountside Library Board of Trustees presented a draft and excerpts of a tentative library policy to members of the board at a regular meeting Monday night at the library. The draft involves general policy, personnel, book selection, and public library-school relationship. The proposals were presented to the trustees for study and consideration and it was explained that a definite policy for the library is expected to be formulated within 60 days. The policy committee, consisting of Sidney Mele, Dr. Levin B. Hanigan, superintendent of schools, and Mayor Eugene Rau, has been working on the program since January. Two applications for a librarian position were received and referred to William Teley and Dr. Hanigan. Mrs. Virginia Kirk, assistant librarian, who is moving to Asbury Park area where she is accepting a position, will leave her post at the end of June. She started as a volunteer at the library 10 years ago. Announcement was made of a book discussion group which is underway in the borough. The board agreed to encourage such programs and to cooperate in obtaining material for its members.

Coffee And Dessert Held By Proposed Trust Co.

An informal coffee and dessert was held Thursday evening, April 5, at the Half Way House, Mountainside, by the Suburban Trust Company of Westfield (the bank approved by the State of New Jersey to open a branch in Mountainside). The APPROVED Bank's prospective neighbors were invited so they would have ample opportunity to examine the proposed plans and site improvements and become completely familiar with this improvement in their neighborhood.

Bill Woodhull, briefly outlined Suburban's intentions as a good neighbor.

Questions were answered by Jim Walsh, Horace Corbin, and Bill Woodhull. Mr. Corbin assured the neighbors that the existing old buildings would be removed, and illustrated the extensive lawn and landscaping which would replace these unsightly structures.

The Architect's renderings of the proposed Professional Buildings (which will house the Bank and other professional people) were carefully explained by Jim Walsh, a banker with 45 years experience.

Bill Woodhull in his remarks stated "After extensive surveys of your (and we hope our) Town, we selected this site because we feel we can better serve all of Mountainside from this location." Your State Department of Banking and Insurance concurred with us in this and granted to our Bank the necessary franchise at this location.

Bill Woodhull continued "As your new neighbors, we wish to cooperate in every way and will, with permission from the proper authorities, donate enough of our land to widen the now dangerous corner of Central Avenue and Rt. 22." He went on to say, "Our survey revealed a safety problem at Deerfield and Our Lady of Lourdes Schools on Central Avenue near Knollwood Rd. In addition to widening Central Avenue along our property, we will also, with proper permission, pay for the construction of up to 2,500 feet of sidewalks in this area, thereby eliminating this existing hazard."

"We at Suburban are proud of this Professional Building and Bank and want our improvement to be an asset to the whole community", Mr. Woodhull concluded.

The presentation was warmly received.

Coffee and dessert were served by Mrs. Gladys Kreie assisted by Emory Dare and George Gilbride, all officers of the Suburban Trust Company.

Teenage PARTY LINE

by Myra Elliott

The senior ball held at the Martinsville Inn was a huge success. Little stuffed dogs were given as favors to the girls and the queen and her four attendants were chosen.

They were: Susan Stalger-queen; Jane De Hart, 1st attendant; Gladys Vogl, 3rd attendant; and Susan Rynar 4th attendant. Mr. Scocca came on the dance floor and did the twist. All who attended had a marvelous time.

Stanley Zeidner of Crisley Lane, Springfield; a "61" of Regional, returned Friday night from Vt. School in Port Hueneme California. He kept it secret when he was coming in and he surprised all of us. He will be in Springfield until his orders arrive and send him elsewhere.

There were many parties after the "Ball". Some kids who held these parties were: Herma Rosenber, Sherry Stickle, Alan Preston, Ted Schuss, Mike Bracht, and Wendy Ebert had a breakfast party from 3:00 to 7:00. We all danced or ate till dawn.

The Freshman dance, on Friday April 13, at Regional, is sure to be a huge success. The hours will be from 8:00 - 11:00 P.M. and admission will be 75¢ in advance and $1.00 at the door. Music will be by Emory Elsher and his band. Be sure to go.

We all hope Johnnie Marino is feeling better since his accident. He sprained his back while on a picnic.

Complains Of Water In Golf Club Section

A complaint of a water condition in the area of Baltusrol Golf Club and Ashwood Road, signed by a number of residents of Ashwood and Sherwood Roads, was received at the meeting of Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night.

According to the communication the water remains about four days in the area of 516 and 514 Ashwood Road after a heavy rain storm.

Acting Township Engineer Walter Kamb reported that elevations were taken at the site and the supervisor of the grounds of Baltusrol Golf Club gave assurance that debris on the Baltusrol property would be eliminated and a ditch would be dug.

Mrs. J. Kessler of 516 Ashwood Road, who attended the meeting, registered strong protest, citing the stagnant water as a threat to the health in the area.

For Infant's Sake

Eliminate clogging in baby's bottle by cutting a 2 by 2 inch sterile gauze pad on its folds and using one cut section, opened to single mesh, to cover the mouth of the bottle before screwing on nipple and bottle cap. The gauze acts as a strainer so the formula doesn't clog in neck of bottle.

Pupil Hurts Wrist

Robert Moreines of 20 Shelley Road, an eighth grade pupil at Florence M. Gaudineer School, last Thursday suffered a broken wrist during gym period at the school.

The Springfield First Aid Squad transported him to the family doctor, Dr. A. F. Cappola, in Millburn, and then to Overlook Hospital, Summit, where he was admitted.

According to the youth's mother, Moreines landed on his arm instead of his feet during a high jump, causing the injury to his left wrist.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moreines.

P.T.A. To Attend Gaudineer Meeting

Mrs. Robert B. Jackson, president of the Florence M. Gaudineer P.T.A., extends an invitation from the League of Women Voters to attend a meeting at the Gaudineer School on April 30, at 8:00 p.m., on the survey of the Springfield public school system now being conducted.

A. B. Anderson, Secretary of the Board of Education, will give a history and tell anecdotes of the Springfield schools.

The purpose of the survey is to present to interested citizens a factual view of the Springfield schools in relation to their history, administration, operational practices, curriculum special services, and community relations.

Mrs. Walter Anderson, Budget and finance chairman, wished to thank all members who participated in the Good-As-New Auction.

Mrs. Anderson reports "The

The members who attended were enthusiastic and urged more activities of this type. We are now welcoming suggestions for future "fun and profit" projects.

Mrs. Stanley M. Cornfield, safety chairman, reminds all members that Spring "clean up" should not be a time of danger and that a town ordinance forbids building fires in yards or streets.

Mrs. John Brownie, secretary, asks all the members of the Executive Committee that the next meeting will be April 30, at 9:30 a.m., at the Gaudineer School. All procedure books are to be completed and returned to Mrs. Jackson at that time.

Help Fight Cancer

The American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute have designated 1962 as Cancer Progress Year in an effort to point up the advances made against cancer in the last 25 years.

While they cannot offer anything as spectacular as the man in space science has given us, they can show, in human terms, dramatic and remarkable results. Twenty-five years ago about 160,000 persons were alive, cured of cancer. Today there are more than 1,100,000. The number is increasing each day.

The cure rate for cancer climbed from one out of seven in the late 1930's to one out of three in the late 1950's. Today, according to the Society, it could be one out of two if all cancers were diagnosed early and treated promptly.

While the final conquest of cancer is not in sight, the Society and the Institute can take great satisfaction in their uphill struggle. In 1962 some 42,000 men, women and children will be saved from cancer who would have died had they developed the disease 10 years ago. This is indeed compelling reason for all to join in observing Cancer Progress Year.

Progress against cancer is attributed to two major factors. First, developments in research which have resulted in new diagnostic techniques and improved methods of treatment. Second, response to public and professional education which has resulted in earlier detection, prompt treatment and better, more available facilities.

Among the goals of Cancer Progress Year are, "to intensify the efforts being made to persuade the public to act for its own protection, to improve the care of the cancer patient, and to step up all programs to speed the final victory over cancer." Final victory will come from the laboratory, and while today we are in the midst of the most massive research attack ever launched against a disease, there is still great need for expanding the cancer research effort.

These are worthy goals. The best way to observe Cancer Progress Year is to have a health checkup and to make a contribution to the American Cancer Society's April Crusade.

School Bus Segregation

Members of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education may soon be faced with an interesting challenge, involving another kind of school segregation — school-bus segregation.

Parents of children in St. Bartholomew's School already know something about one aspect of this kind of segregation: they help pay for bus transportation with their taxes, but their own children don't have it.

Now public school children are also involved in the school-bus segregation problem, because of a Board of Education policy which states that all children — even kindergarten youngsters — must live at least one mile away from school in order to qualify for bus transportation.

The one mile is not a "walking mile" or an "as the crow flies" mile, but a vehicular mile — a mile that can be traversed by a vehicle along a public thoroughfare. The Board of Education even has a special instrument for measuring the mile.

In the past the board has held firmly to this rule, pointing out that a previous Board of Education was ordered to adopt a policy which is inflexible and if justice and fairness warrant an exception, the exception shall be made.

Both decisions require courage on the part of the board members, because neither ruling seems certain to please everyone.

The special case comes up because of the extension of Evergreen Avenue to Westfield Avenue, cutting down the "vehicular" distance to Evergreen School for several children in the northeastern section of Scotch Plains.

As a result, many kindergarten children from this area face the prospect of walking to school along dangerous Mountain Avenue over an area where there is no sidewalk and east-bound trucks and cars whiz by at high speeds, apparently because the road empties into Route 22.

The families don't object to having their children walk, remembering, perhaps, "the good old days" when many of us had to hike several miles to school. A little exercise never hurt anyone.

The parents do object, however, to exposing their children to the danger of the heavy traffic. There are a lot more cars and trucks on the road today than there were "in the good old days." This stretch of road is dangerous for adults, let alone five-year-old children.

It is not fair to expect the town council to drop everything and rush sidewalks to this area. There are many other areas that are also in need of sidewalks and residents in these areas have been waiting a long time.

However, if the township cannot install sidewalks before school starts in September, board members will have to do some serious soul-searching and decide whether their policy on the one-mile segregation should be always iron-clad or flexible in cases like this.

The board members seem certain to consider the following in making up their minds: 1) the safety of the children involved and the safety of all the children in the school district in similar circumstances; 2) the cost — high, low or negligible; 3) the availability of school-owned buses; 4) the cooperation of parents in getting children up earlier so a bus can make an extra run.

Board members will most certainly weigh these and other factors and place the safety of the children uppermost in their minds. The safety aspects should be investigated thoroughly. Certainly if just one boy or girl were struck by a car, any policy of school bus segregation would be subject for immediate re-examination. Let's check the safety factors now, not later on.

It would be good if those families who might be affected in border-line cases let the board know how they feel about these residents in northeastern Scotch Plains. After all these would be the families who would be expected to murmur if they felt an exception to the board policy was unfair.

If these people assured the board they wanted to see their neighbors have peace of mind while awaiting the construction of sidewalks, the board could act without fear of criticism from others in similar situations.

It should be made clear that neither this board, nor the state, instituted the "one-mile" segregation policy. The board has been generous in allowing more transportation than allowed for in state aid. It can be as liberal or conservative as it wishes in doing out bus transportation.

Judging by the way the board has handled difficult decisions like this in the past, we feel board members will give all the facts careful consideration and come up with a just answer — one which provides the maximum safety for each individual child and at the same time considers all the children in the community.

We know the board will try to come up with a fair answer; whether or not it will also be a popular answer is something else again.

Senator Clifford P. Case reports to you

Debate in the Senate last week, prior to the overwhelming vote to pass the bill authorizing emergency financial aid to the United Nations, involved a major discussion of the U.N. and our country's participation in it.

I am glad to be able to report that the Senate did not question our membership in the U.N. Rather, the debate centered upon the nature and extent of our support for it.

There is a small but noisy faction in the country which urges us to "Get the U.S. out of the U.N. and out of the U.S." To some in this group, the United Nations will be unsafe until we get all the foreigners out of it. Such persons would have found little comfort in the Senate's discussions.

Despite all the sound and fury of the attacks on the U.N., public opinion polls have shown that only one American in 20 favors this country's withdrawing and that more than 80 percent of us feel it is "very important" for our country to work to make the U.N. a success.

One helpful development is the greater public understanding today of what the United Nations can do and what it cannot. Most Americans now recognize that the U.N. cannot act as a world government capable of settling all problems, including those between the great powers. The United Nations Charter and the organization established under it in 1945 are based on the hard political fact that the U.N. cannot take collective action against one of the world's superpowers short of precipitating the global war the U.N. seeks to avoid.

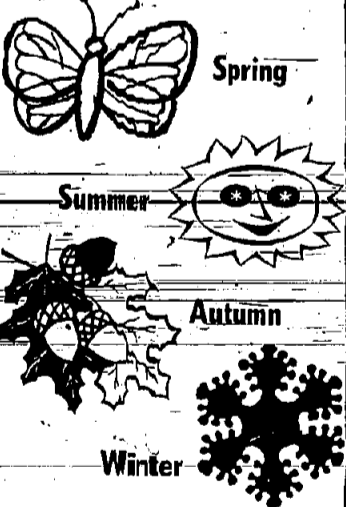

There is better understanding too, that the existence of the United Nations is not a reason to neglect our own defenses. Article 51 of the Charter recognizes the inherent right of individual or collective self-defense. The U.N. could not long exist without the global balance of power to which NATO makes an indispensable contribution.

I believe that, despite the limitations posed by the great power conflict, the U.N. can and does make a number of important, even crucial, contributions in helping to preserve peace.

The United Nations can serve as a sort of buffer, an acceptable third party able to fill a dangerous power vacuum and thus to prevent a head-on collision by the great powers. This is what the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold described as the role of "preventive diplomacy", and it is well-illustrated by the U.N.'s peace-keeping function in the Congo. However regrettable some of the developments in the Congo may have been, it seems abundantly clear that it is far better to have the U.N., rather than American and Soviet troops, there.

Music: Eat Opium By HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Musical score for Albert Zugsmith's "Confession: of an Opium Eater" was described by composer-conductor Al Clessler as "uneartily and down-to-earthly." Clessler will use jazz stars Alvin Ray on guitar, Shorty Rogers and Alex Golden on trumpets, Buddy Collette on flute, Benny Carter on clarinet, Miltie Bernhardt on trombone and Doc Hoffman

Letters To The Editor

On Loman

Editor, Berkeley Heights Beacon: Recently, Regional School Board member George Loman re-entered the old, worn political problem of Mountain Avenue.

This situation is not quite as School Board member Loman would have his readers believe. In the fall of 1960, (after a decade of Freeholder inaction) the then, Democratic Board of Freeholders took the first positive step towards Mt. Avenue resurfacing.

The funds provided for this work were such as to require that the Township make certain provision for drainage along this critical roadway.

The then Democratic road department went to work with dispatch, leaving only those regions unpaired which required the drainage work which was to be done by the Township.

School Board member Loman was at that time on the Berkeley Heights Township Committee. It took that group about 18 months to complete the drainage work, a relatively simple, low cost project.

This performance is typical of that of ingrown one party controlled political bodies.

In his recent blast, "non-political", School Board member Mr. Loman is clearly attempting to "white wash" his record as a public servant.

To this writer, Mr. Loman's interest in this situation is patently clear and not in the best interest of either the Regional Board of Education or the Township.

Walter George, President Berkeley Heights Democratic Club, Inc.

Editor Berkeley Heights Beacon: Former Mayor George Loman's bitterly critical account of the failure of the Union County Board of Freeholders to complete the resurfacing of Mountain Avenue failed in one important respect. It did not give an accurate accounting of the past history of the Mountain Avenue mess, nor did it even try to give credit where credit is due.

For many years Mountain Avenue, as those of us who live on it know, has been a mess. For years one Republican controlled Freeholder Board after another refused to do anything about it. It was not until control of the Freeholders passed to the Democrats that any real interest was shown in this Berkeley Heights problem. In 1960 a resurfacing program, rushed to be completed before winter, was ordered by the Democratic Freeholders, after they had reached a workable compromise with Berkeley Heights on the final paved width.

Instead of welcoming this improvement and expressing appropriate thanks, local officials of the Republican Party and Republican Township Committee carp, complained, called the improvement politician and asked for defeat of the Democratic Freeholders standing for deserv-

They got their wish. By a narrow margin the Democrats were defeated. Control passed to the Republicans. Situation returned to normal. Nothing has since been done about Mountain Avenue. Even the monies appropriated for its repair seem to have vanished — by Mr. Loman's account.

Perhaps we should also remind ourselves of just who our real friends are. Obviously Republicans have little regard for Berkeley Heights. After all this is a hip pocket community. They can always depend on the local boys to deliver Berkeley Heights — Lock, Stock, and Barrel.

Yours truly, John Wywrot, Committeeman District 4

Hit & Run

Editor, SPRINGFIELD SUN: I'm hurt. Not only is the rear fender of my car badly damaged, but I am hurt to think the person in the white car who sideswiped my parked car on Milltown Road Tuesday Night, April 3, did not stop and admit the fault.

Perhaps they would like to relieve their conscience. My phone number is DR 9-5332, I live at 57 Henshaw Avenue, Springfield. Respectfully, Mrs. H.W. Meistek

Echo Praised

Editor, MOUNTAINSIDE ECHO: Congratulations to the Mountain-side Echo. I almost stopped reading your paper after the printing of the vicious and untrue attack upon Mr. Irvine B. Johnston, our Borough Attorney. In the true spirit of fairness, the ECHO investigated the many HE Palleations and then gave us the truth — the whole truth, and nothing else but the truth, in its editorial on the front page of the APRIL 5th issue.

It seems a shame that the whole primary campaign cannot be conducted by both sides in the same manner as that conducted by the PAL candidates. We, the voters, are interested in the qualifications of the candidates rather than a long recitation of what is supposed to have happened in past Borough Administrations.

Through your fair and impartial presentations you make it possible for us to decide how we vote on Primary Day. Continue the good reporting of facts.

Yours very truly, Harry G. Rekeimer, 1466 Woodacres Drive, Mountain-side.

Editor, MOUNTAINSIDE ECHO: Primary election charges and counter charges in the papers for the past few weeks were very nicely summed up and the true facts presented in your excellent article on April 5th.

It is indeed a community service that the Echo has rendered in investigating the serious allegations and reporting, without bias, the result of its findings. Character assassination is a vicious way to promote publicity for a group of candidates.

Yours truly, Mrs. Jean-Oswath, Timbrin Road.

Assessing Shift Drops Tax Rates

Five Union County municipalities that revised their taxing standards for 1962 are the only ones that show decreases in tax rates this year, according to figures released by the Union County Tax Board.

However the drop in the tax rate in the five towns does not necessarily mean lower tax bills for residents.

In each town the assessment ratio was raised to 40 per cent. Previously it had been 25.30 in Fanwood, 25.57 in Scotch Plains, 27.28 in Hillside, 28.19 in New Providence and 29.54 in Summit.

In all of the other municipalities, the rates have gone up. Fanwood showed the biggest drop in its rate, $3.56 per $100 valuation. The 1961 rate was $10.58 and this year $7.02.

It was explained by a spokesman for the county board that municipal assessing officials in Fanwood increased land values and reassessed other properties.

Other municipalities that showed reductions in their rates are: Hillside, $1.51, from $8.03 to $6.52; New Providence, $2.56, from $8.77 to $6.21; Scotch Plains $3.19, from $9.95 to $6.76, and Summit, $1.51 from $7.16 to $5.65. Hillside and New Providence had complete revaluation programs.

The five municipalities were the only ones that notified the county board by Jan. 10, when their tax books were filed, that they had revised their taxing programs.

The county tax board has fixed 40 per cent as its yardstick for its equalization program in accordance with a new state law, it was pointed out by Thomas C. Mahon, President. The state, however, has postponed making the tax equalization program compulsory.

Largest increase in a municipal rate was in Roselle Park where the tax figure for 1962 will be $10.41, compared with $8.88 last year.

Your Library In Springfield

The advent of Spring heralds the Easter Season, one of the most delightful and colorful times of the year.

"Easter Kitten" in the book by Janet Konkle had a wonderful surprise as he saw for the first time the cold brown world change to glorious green, dotted with yellow, red, pink, and violet. After witnessing the hatching of eggs and the flutter of new life, he went in search of the wise one who could tell him why the world is so fresh and new. It was Easter Bunny who revealed to him the secret of spring. This and other delightful books accompany the current Easter Book Display in the Children's Room of the Springfield Public Library. In the display, young gal's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of hats. The theme of the exhibit is "PUT ON YOUR EASTER BONNET". Pinned against a background of bright flowers and hopping bunnies, three beautiful bon-nets are displayed: one in pink, one in yellow, one in lavender. Each year the publishers of children's literature have been joined with new books, "The First Easter Rabbit", by Hertha Pauli is an imaginative tale of why the Easter Rabbit offers his basket of eggs on Easter morning. The story goes back to the time when Brother Francis of Assisi visited the sunny island in the middle of an Italian lake to commune with the animals, and with God and Nature during the days before Easter.

Another new one is "Piccolina and the Easter Bells," by Pauline Priolo, illustrated by Rita Favre. Piccolina, known as the Little One, was so small she could not reach doorknobs, so small even a little pig could bully her. But today was the day before Easter when the bells in Sicily would ring out and all the children in the village would be lifted by their tallest relatives. When the time came her tall father was nowhere to be found and there was no one to lift her but a bent old miller.

Bulldog Nine Winners In First Two Encounters

Hurler Monticello Key To Victories Over Park & Westfield Opponents

By Arnie Miniman

Despite the presence of miserable weather, Regional High's baseball team sandwiched two games between two postponements and emerged with a 2-0 record, a 6-5 victory over Roselle Park, and a 2-1 upset win over Westfield, has put Springfield in the spotlight as the surprise team in Union County.

Sophomore hurler Frank Monticello was the deciding factor for the Bulldogs, as he pitched 10 innings, allowing 1 run and 5 hits. Frank was credited with the victories in both games, giving him a 2-0 mark.

On April 4, Springfield opened against the Roselle Park line of former Regional Coach, Jack Bicknel. Three singles by Jack Appar, Danny Mascara and Joe DiMario, gave hurler Bill Kretzer a 2-0 lead into the bottom of the first inning, but faulty fielding on the part of Springfield, and four hits allowed by Kretzer, enabled Park to gain a 5-2 advantage before Monticello took over. The Bulldogs promptly came back with 3 runs in the fifth, on the strength of doubles by Mascara and Frank Perelli. Then a double by Tony Fevola, with Appar on first, and a Park miscue, enabled the Bulldogs to emerge victorious.

Monticello was at his best on April 6, as he went the route, allowing but 4 hits in the 2-1 win over heavily rated Westfield. The Blue Devils gathered three of its hits in the first inning, as they gained a quick 1-0 lead, but Springfield came back with a run in the second, on singles by Perelli and Francis and a Westfield throwing error, and one in the third, when Appar scored after Mascara reached first on an error. Butch Bell clouted a triple for the Bulldogs, the only extra base hit of the game.

Bulldog Bits
The Bulldogs showed commendable progress in their fielding against Westfield, after making 7 miscues against Roselle Park; they made only one in the second game. Springfield, in winning its first varsity contest from Westfield this year, has given the Blue Devils their 7th loss, as compared to 87 wins. Sophomore sacker Steve Berger celebrated his birthday Friday by collecting his first varsity hit. Tony Fevola's game winning double against Roselle Park was his first hit in any game this year, a fine time to collect it.

Union 9 Snaps Diamond Streak

On April 10th, the Dayton Regional Baseball team, riding high on their two previous victories over Roselle Park and Westfield, invaded Union in hopes of a third but were quickly set back by a 2-0 score.

The Bulldogs were able to collect only two hits in a brilliant pitching performance by Union's Bob Castigone. In the bottom of the first, Union collected their first run of the game on a towering home run by Tom Johnson. Dan Mascara, the Regional left-fielder, crashed into the fence while chasing the ball. He left the game but suffered a cut chin which resulted in six stitches. The only hits of the Springfield campaign were by Center-fielder Tony Fevola and First-baseman Denny Francis. Both were singles.

The other Union run came in the fifth inning. Catcher Roessner singled but first sacker fourth bounced into a near double play going from Butch Bell to Steve Burger to Denny Francis. Center-fielder Kiebler walked and stole second and third. He scored when second baseman Johnson reached first on an error by Bell.

Pitcher Bill Kretzer of Springfield also turned in a sparkling performance by allowing only three hits and three walks while striking out five.

Egg Hunt

Berkeley Heights Annual Easter Egg Hunt will be held on Saturday, April 14, at 10:30 a.m. at Columbia School Playground, for all boys and girls of Berkeley Heights from grades Kindergarten through grade three. The alternate date will be Saturday, April 20, 1962.

The program sponsored by the Recreation Commission and the Lions Club of New Providence and Berkeley Heights will include the egg hunt, special basket hunt, special golden egg hunt, and the special rabbit hunt. All boys and girls are welcome to participate and encouraged to join in the festivities.

Our interview last week with Ed Ruby, Springfield Recreation Director, opened many doors of thought to us, some of which we'd like to inject here.

Ed wasn't really opposed to Little Leagues, he just mentioned the fact that when he was a boy there was no need for the far-reaching organizations of today. In those days, kids just picked themselves up and played without permission slips from "Mommy" or $30 gloves from Davega.

We tend to agree with Ed. Even when we were Little League age (not so very long ago) in a Newark where there were less play-areas, we managed to play some sort of ball every day after school, whether it was stoop-ball, basketball in a backyard (we remember at least fifty kids using our backyard basket in the course of an afternoon), or baseball either in the street or schoolyard.

Now we're not saying that baseball in the street is better than baseball on a safe, grass-covered area. Nor are we proposing to do away with expensive baseball gear, and go back to the five-fingered, handkerchief-thin gloves of bygone days.

What we are saying, however, is that while surroundings and equipment have gotten better over the years, the desire to play among youngsters has gone off in the other direction.

... quick weekend tour of the Springfield area last week disclosed some very interesting facts.

1. At two of the Town's well fenced and well-maintained schoolyards no one was to be seen. The basketball courts were empty, the stickball boxes were unused, and the great expanses of green baseball grass were playing to a few bugs and one or two frisky dogs.

2. At two other play-areas we found a couple of parents throwing the ball around with their off-springs, and a half dozen little ones trying to hit a fungo or two... but nothing much to rave about in the way of spontaneous play.

3. An inspection of Morris Avenue, a main street, disclosed another sight. Here, we saw clusters of two or three teen-agers, not more than 14 or 15 years, old at the most, walking through town with their long hair and leather jackets, smoking away, and quite honestly... looking pretty comical.

All this proves something. It proves that whatever it is that guides kids today, it's not the competitive urge to knock out a triple or throw three quick ones past the guy with the broom handle at the stickball box.

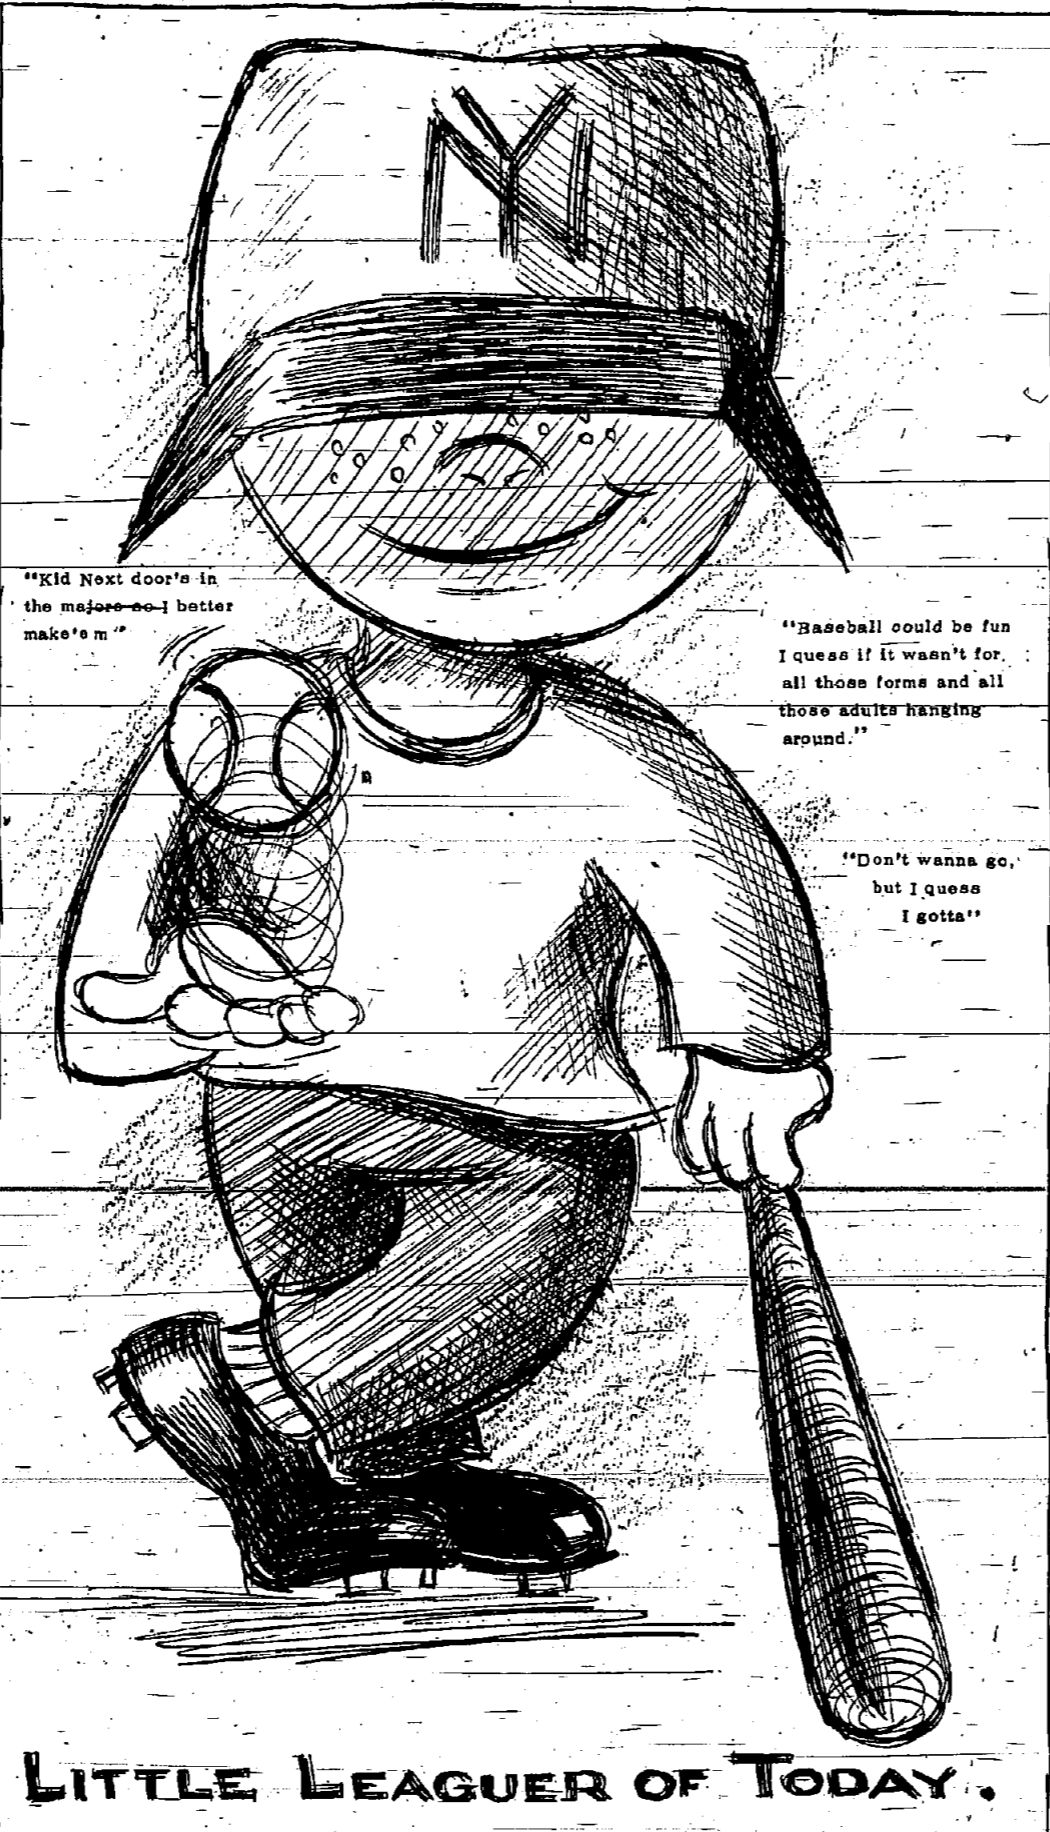

It probably boils down to the fact that as far as kids are concerned, sports have become something for the baby-trade... something they can do without in their quest to keep up with the kid next-door who just took his first puff at 12 years old.

So why, you ask yourselves, do Little League tryouts get a big play? We say it is because Little Leagues have become less of a sports symbol and more of a status marker.

Kids feel inferior if they're not in the Majors, or if they don't make any team at all. The competition seems to be for stature in the League, with winning or losing coming only as a result of playing.

Mothers and fathers take their sons to tryouts. And how many "Hit one to me Dad" did we hear during the trials a few weeks ago.

We might be slightly off-base in our reasoning since we are not as close to the scene as we'd like to be, but there must be some explanation for having 500 kids out on one weekend, and only a few dozen out on the following, when the only thing involved is the 'game' and not the prestige.

LITTLE LEAGUER OF TODAY.

"Kid Next door" in the major league better make 'em"

"Baseball could be fun I guess if it wasn't for all those forms and all those adults hanging around."

Sees Bright Spots

Lummer Announces Picks For Dayton Track Debut

By Gary Falkin

On April 10th, a basically inexperienced Springfield Regional Track team took to the field for their first of eleven outings. Coach Bob Lummer has so far made no predictions but sees a few bright spots in many of the events.

However, Coach Lummer just about has his starting team picked. Running the hurdles will be John Keiffer, Bill Geoghegan, Don Dauser and Tony Volengeri; in the 440 will be Bob Haas, Tuffy Hartz and Drew Westman; in the 880 will be John Moore, Paul Isenburg, Walter Diercks and Bob Ludecki. Glen Thomas, Jack Everett and Pete Creede will run the mile; Ed Erskine, Charlie Roll and Gene Tuback will throw the shotput, and Tuffy Harts, Dave Lebling and Drew Westman will hurl the javelin. The discus will be thrown by Tuffy Hartz, Bob Haas and Drew Westman; John Keiffer, Steve Bakanowski and Bill Geoghegan will attempt the high jump while Bill Gerhart, Pete Coan and Mark Binstock will take on the pole vault. The dashes, the 100 and 220, will be run by Steve Atkin, Hank Sabolak and Pete Calabrese.

Coming Track meets for this week will be on April 13 at Hillside and a home meet on the 17th against Cranford.

An extra swimming class is being formed by the Fanwood-Scotch Plains YMCA to be held on Thursday afternoons from 5 until 6 p.m. starting April 19. Boys and girls from age 7 to 11 are eligible for the ten week series. Registration is limited.

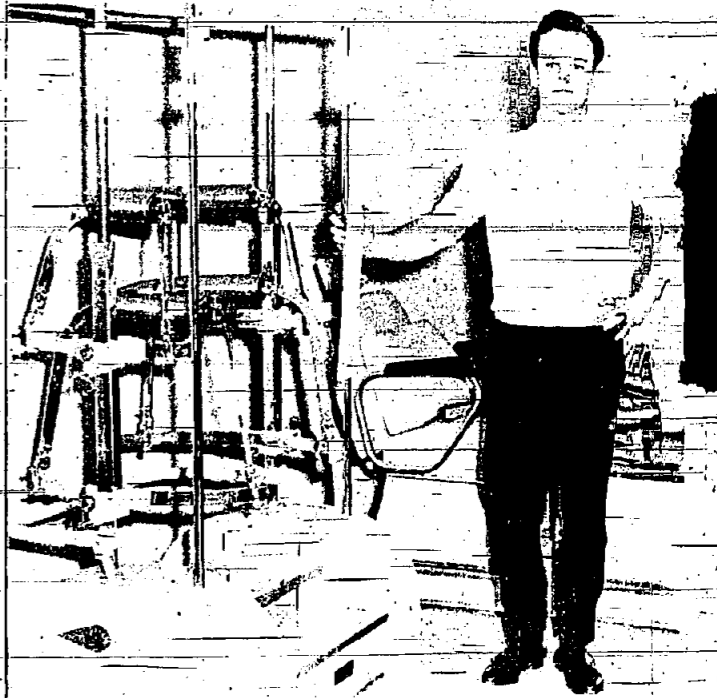

Jr. Bulldogs Now At 2-1

Victories over Roselle Park and Union, plus a loss to Westfield, has given the Springfield Junior varsity a 2-1 record. Coach Joe Mills, experimenting with his starting line-up, emerged with one that overpowered Union pitching for 5 runs, in a 5-4 win. Previously, the j.v. squad had defeated Roselle Park 3-0, and had fallen to Westfield 5-1.

The pitching staff, which seemed doubtful at the outset of the season, had held for the Bulldogs. Bob Kolessar and Jack Kulaig combined to three-hit Park, with Kulaig also knocking in the third rally for Springfield. Ron Urquhart did the major damage with the stick, collecting a single and a double in four trips, as Kolessar was credited with the victory.

Richard Freedman pitched against Westfield on April 6, and although he lost 5-1, his hurling was commendable after a rough first inning. Springfield was held to 5 hits by the Westfield pitcher, with Urquhart and Arnold Miniman getting two pieces.

A two run home run by Miniman highlighted the 5-4 win over Union. With Ray Figueroa on second after crashing a double, Miniman sent a long drive over the center fielders head on the second pitch. Miniman also singled in the fifth, to knock in the winning run.

Beacon on Sports

BY JAMES

A quick glance at the baseball schedule of Governor Livingston Regional High School for the month of April would seem to indicate the Highlanders have a rough road to hoe in the opening month of the season.

Following their "home" opener against Clark Regional, the Highlanders were slated to play eight consecutive games on the road. Then they are to return "home" on April 30 to meet Plainfield.

A quick glance at the schedule, however, doesn't really show the monumental task faced by Coach Russ Hunchar's Highlanders this season.

Those "home" games with Clark and Plainfield really aren't home games at all. The Clark game was played on the Crusaders' field and the Cardinals will be host to the Highlanders in Plainfield.

The same holds true for the Highlanders seven other "home" games this season. All will be played at opponents' fields since the Highlanders have no playing field. With 11 other "road" games on the schedule, Governor Livingston will be traveling the length and breadth of Union, Morris and Middlesex counties this spring.

The Highlanders may not be the winningest team in Union County this spring but they certainly will be the travelingest. It's safe to say that Russ Hunchar's team will travel more this spring than any other high school baseball team in Union County, and quite probably in New Jersey.

Fortunately, the Highlander veterans are accustomed to travel. They did quite a bit last season in meeting their commitments for 15 contests, all at opponents or neutral fields. Despite this handicap, they completed a winning season (8-7) and qualified for two post-season tournaments.

With a completely veteran infield and a top-notch pitcher in squat Jerry DiPasquale, curve-balling righthander, it's just possible the Highlanders may do even better this season. Their immediate objective is the Summit Area championship.

The Highlanders were slated to open their bid for that unofficial, but highly prized title, this afternoon against Summit. Summit won only two games last season but one of them was against the Highlanders.

This setback, along with the Highlanders' spectacular lack of success in soccer and basketball against Summit, is ranking Russ Hunchar. After nine meetings in three sports, the Highlanders still are looking for their first victory over a Hilltopper athletic team. It could come today at Summit's Tatlock Field.

Summit has only two veterans from last year's sub-par team and figures as the underdog. Hunchar's pitching -- or lack of it -- could help the Hilltoppers. It's quite likely that mound ace DiPasquale will be used in the Hillside and Scotch Plains games this week as both are Union County Conference engagements.

This would force Hunchar to use either of two inexperienced senior righthanders -- Jack Weiss or Al Kennedy -- or sophomore southpaw Bob Heuer. Heuer, according to Hunchar, is fast and has plenty of stuff, but lacks control. If a couple of these second-line hurlers come through, the Highlanders could go well beyond the Summit Area championship. If none prove reliable, the Governor Livingston boys will be fortunate to come up with a winning season.

Hunchar Soon To See What's What With Nine

Barring a rash of postponements, Coach Russ Hunchar of Governor Livingston Regional High School should find out this week just how much help he can expect from three inexperienced pitchers that make up his second-line hurlers.

Although pleased with last Thursday's opening game 2-1 victory over Clark Regional in Clark, Hunchar found out little that he didn't know before the season opened. Arnie Thomas and Lynn Nesbitt provided the outing pitch, as expected, and Jerry DiPasquale was masterful on the mound, also as expected.

The Highlanders are faced with three games this week, however, and some of the second-line hurlers will be going to the firing line. Their success, or lack of it, will decide how much the Highlanders can hope for this year.

Governor Livingston played Hillside last Tuesday and was slated to take on Summit this afternoon in Summit. Tomorrow they journey to Scotch Plains to take on the Blue Raiders. With DiPasquale a probable starter against Hillside, Al Kennedy, Jack Weiss or Bob Heuer figured for Scotch Plains. And the pace won't lessen next week with games scheduled with Rahway on Monday, Ridge High on Tuesday and Summit on Wednesday. Ridge on Tuesday and with New Providence at the borough field on April 20.

Thomas, Nesbitt and DiPasquale shared the hero laurels in the win over Clark. Thomas trip led to left and scored the season's first run on an error in the third inning to give the Highlanders a 1-0 lead. DiPasquale protected the lead until the sixth when Clark combined two of its three hits for the tying run. Nesbitt promptly snapped the deadlock in the bottom of the sixth inning with a home run. DiPasquale struck out 10 and walked only four in posting the triumph.

SCIENCE NOTEBOOK

BY HANS KLEIN UNION COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOLS

As science developed it tended to turn away from a philosophical basis. By the turn of the century, science seemed to be living a life of its own. The real world was the realm of science from the infinitesimal, as seen through the microscope, to the infinite as seen through astronomical telescopes. Science gave every promise of laying bare all the secrets of nature to the human mind. Yet every opened portal led to dozens of other closed doors defying entrance.

Today the greatest scientific minds are as much involved in philosophical techniques as in scientific experiment. Through the medium of mathematics, Einstein was more philosopher than scientist. A century ago scientific curiosity attracted very few persons into laboratory experimentation. Now the experimental methods of science are part and parcel of our technological age. Countless workers, ranging in skill from mere technicians to highly trained experts, compile voluminous data on every sort of product, organism, or material imaginable.

So impressive is the stamp of the laboratory that real or fancied tests and experiments are valued props in commercial advertising. Unfortunately, commercial advertising experiments on its own when, for example, it changes classical human anatomy to symbolism more applicable to manuals of plumbing, electrical wiring, or shop mechanics. SCIENCE QUIZ 1. Did technological developments always follow scientific discoveries? 2. The first workable steam engines used in industry were those of Thomas Savery, patented in 1698, and of Thomas Newcomen, 1705. When was the principle first discovered? 3. When was electricity discovered? 4. When was the first electric generator made? 5. When was it established that bacteria were the causative agents of disease?

ANSWERS

1. Not necessarily. The application of scientific principles to other areas came centuries after their actual discovery. 2. In 1800 B.C. by Hero of Alexandria. 3. Started electricity was known from the Greek word for amber, "electron." The name electricity comes from the ancient Greek word for amber, "electron." 4. In 1800 B.C. by Hero of Alexandria. 5. In 1800 B.C. by Hero of Alexandria.

Mrs. Mitzi Salmini, 4th grade teacher in Echobrook School and Mrs. Ingrid Singer, 3rd grade teacher in Beechwood School will represent Mountainside at the Northeast Regional Conference of the Classroom Teachers of the National Education Association in Annapolis, Maryland on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 26, 27 and 28.

The theme of the conference is "Teaching: A Profession." The principal speakers on Thursday and Friday will be Dr. Richard Miller, Director, N.E.A.

Organ Grinder At Bonwit Teller

As a special children's event for Easter, Bonwit Teller Short Hills will present the merry-making of an organ grinder and his two monkeys. The professional troupe will be at the store to talk with and entertain all the young at heart from 1-5 each day beginning Thursday, April 12th through Thursday, April 19.

Alberto, the colorfully dressed organ grinder, will play his antique hurdy gurdy and work with the monkeys in ten minute performances from their portable stage. Their repertoire of acts includes dancing, impersonations, playing musical instruments and a number of rope tricks.

The "Capuche" monkeys travel with a stage trunk filled with costumes and props. Some of their favorite guises are a little girl's frilly dress worn with a blond wig, a cowboy outfit and a Sherlock Holmes cape, hat and pipe, all very complimentary to their tiny white faces.

Alberto and his monkeys have appeared on television, radio, in the movies and a recording has been made of their hurdy gurdy music.

To Honor Dean

Building Code Committee Formed By Local Dems

A committee to investigate building code violations and building methods is being formed this week by Democratic candidates for Borough Council, Leo A. Genova. This committee will look into homes that have been constructed in the last few years, that have had problems in them.

Homeowners who have had problems with their homes can have a free inspection by this building committee made up of engineers and construction men. Methods of how to solve drainage problems, water seepage problems, plumbing troubles and other corrections in building errors will be offered.

Leo Genova said that he is creating this committee after spending more than a year on construction problems in Mountainside and found building violations affecting the safety of the occupants occurring throughout the Borough.

"I think that people who build a home in Mountainside should be protected with a building code that is strictly adhered to," said Genova.

Homeowners interested in getting a free building code inspection should contact Leo A. Genova at 1580 Rising Way or call him at Adams 3-0959.

It gives us at Channel Lumber real pleasure to know that our Brotherhood Tithes Days give so much material help to so many worthy causes," continued Mr. Charin. "Special attention has been given to this unique custom at Channel Lumber and letters of commendation have been received from all parts of the country."

Good Old Days?

NEW YORK (UPI) — In the Middle Ages, women literally wore armor-plated, not so much for defense as for esthetically provocative purposes. The armor worn under a lady's Sunday best molded tall and short, fat and lean, into the precise shape fashion had decreed for the moment.

Jazz Highlights — Ben Webster's tenor-saxing of "Stella by Starlight" on "The Warm Moods" (Reprise R-2001). Bill Woods' alto sax work on "Hard Rock Dance" on "Big Brass" by Benny Bailey (Candid 8013). Herbie Mann's flute artistry on "Bagdad" on "The Common Ground" (Atlantic A-18437).
