Engineers To Have Reports On Sites Ready

Mayor Philip Del Vecchio sounded a call for all citizens of the community to attend the June 27 public hearing on the municipal pool issue to be held at the Gaudineer School starting at 8:00 P.M.

The Mayor felt that it is to everyone's interest to make their views known on this vital and timely question. It is his desire as an elected official to be responsive to the will of the public. This opportunity for the people to be heard should not be neglected.

"Now that the Evergreen site has been eliminated," said Mayor Del Vecchio "I feel that a cloud has been removed from the issue and an objective consideration can be given to this projected program."

"It has been the policy of the present administration to divulge all the facts on any given issue, as soon as they are available. In keeping with that policy, I feel that it is incumbent upon us to give this opportunity for public expression to every citizen."

"Since taking office, the Township Committee has constantly moved forward together with the Swim Pool Study Committee, to gather the facts, and to present them to the people."

Towards this end, we have retained the firm of Robt. Sisco Associates for professional assistance in evaluating the available sites for the location of this facility. The Sisco firm, comprised of Mr. Sisco, an outstanding recreation consultant, J. Frederick Cook, a registered architect and site planner, and Melville J. Lyman, a licensed professional engineer who specializes in the technical aspects of swim pool site planning and construction.

"This firm was responsible for the planning of the Livingston swim pool facilities, as well as the pools being built in New Providence and Morris Plains. After the Sisco organization presents its report program at the public hearing, the meeting will be open for discussion. The Swim Pool Study Committee, and Township Attorney Cayley will be available to answer all questions."

Mayor Del Vecchio stated that it was his considered opinion that the true purpose of this hearing will be nullified unless a representative cross-section of the public attends the hearing on June 27th, at the Gaudineer School at 8:00 P.M.

Two supervisors have been assigned to Irwin, Sandmeier, Riverside, Regional, and Henshaw playgrounds and one supervisor to Woodside, Denham, and James Caldwell School playgrounds.

Miss Mary Ann Donington, of Springfield, will serve as a traveling arts and crafts teacher, who will visit the playgrounds. Her schedule will be announced at each playground.

In addition starting June 25, Irwin playground will be open 5:30 P.M. to 8:30 P.M., Monday through Friday and from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M. on Saturdays.

It is expected that the shelter house at the Irwin Street playground, under construction, will be completed by next Monday.

John Swedish, high school basketball and baseball coach, will serve as evening director at the Irwin Street Playground. Tennis lessons will be given free this year unlike in previous years when a payment of $2 was charged for a series of eight lessons.

Mr. Swedish will be the teacher. It was explained that when the number of interested players has been determined, a schedule will be established. Instruction might be offered twice a week with consideration given to children seven years old and up.

Presently, no registration is required for the use of tennis courts and the demand for the courts will determine what the rules will be for the summer.

Extensive play on the basketball court at the Irwin playground is also anticipated with Mr. Swedish in charge.

Director Ruby also announced that an instructional baseball school will open next Wednesday (June 27) at 10 A.M. at the Meisel field. It will be conducted on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for 16 days by Director Ruby and Scott Donington, playground co-ordinator.

Any boy, living in Springfield, who is at least nine years old will be eligible. It is not necessary for him to be on a team or in a league for him to participate. Main purpose of the school is to instruct the youngsters on what is expected of them on the ball field in reference to the position they might play, said Mr. Ruby.

X-Ray Program Set For Inmates

Overlook Hospital is doing everything possible to make sure "it can't happen here" as far as fire is concerned. An extended program of fire prevention and fire fighting for Overlook personnel has provided many busy scenes in the last two weeks. Nurses and aides learned special techniques whereby they could carry even large patients to safety. Extinguishers were both manned and "womaned" by hospital personnel to put out practice fires set in a special room constructed in the hospital's back lot.

The special course was held under the expert instruction of Chief John Townley of Fire Consultant Services, Inc., and Deputy Fire Chief of the Plainfield Fire Department. It consisted of lectures, demonstrations and actual practice, covering the most common causes of fire and their prevention, the means by which fire spreads and how to control it, how to evacuate patients and deal with any emergency situation.

Overlook's construction is as fire-resistant as a modern hospital, can be with all elevator dumbwater and stairway shafts of special heat-resistant materials, as well as the inner wall construction. Sprinkler, extinguishers and other pieces of fire fighting equipment are kept ready to go on a moment's notice, along with the hospital's emergency fire cart.

A Fire and Safety Committee, headed by Walter Zelowski, Associate Chief Engineer, holds regular drills for all personnel, so the entire hospital staff is both trained and alert for any emergency and also well versed in techniques of fire prevention.

Overlook works closely with the Summit Fire Department as well, observing all regulations for its patients' safety and enlisting the assistance of the department in its practice programs.

No Fires For Overlook Hospital

The chest x-ray program conducted by the Union County Tuberculosis and Health League for inmates, and personnel of the Union County Jail will begin tomorrow, an expanded schedule, it was announced by Miss Mary Ewell Roe, executive director of the League.

The chest x-ray program, which has been in operation for two years, was on a once-a-week schedule. Following a conference of Union County Sheriff Ralph Oriscello, Dr. William Schirmer, jail physician; Warden Thomas Sullivan; Dr. Albert Minzler, medical director of the League's tuberculosis clinic, and Miss Roe, arrangements were made to take x-rays in the jail twice a week, and to take follow-up films in the jail on the same days. This schedule was worked out to reduce the number of persons missed between the weekly dates.

In a year's x-raying at the jail, from 1275 x-rays taken, the League reported findings as follows: three previously unknown active cases of tuberculosis, all in an early stage; two known active cases placed under immediate treatment, two former patients found to have recurred, and eight inactive cases of the disease, five of whom were previously unknown.

Public health standards for many years have indicated that jail populations are one of the most important groups to x-ray routinely.

Is Singing Cop Police Brutality?

BALLAS, Tex. (UPI) - Policeman George Alan Kent, composer of more than 50 songs, often sings to prisoners as he drives them to jail in the paddy wagon.

"Lots of times they beat on the doors and say they don't mind going to jail but they shouldn't have to listen to my singing," Kent said with a laugh.

He specializes in "country pop" music and has made several records - singing and accompanying himself on the guitar. Kent has been a policeman four years. His duties include driving the paddy wagon, dispatching and jailing.

The inmate is one singer who does not have to worry if he is off key. He has a captive audience.

That Professor's Back in a New 'Flubber' Film

(Release Weekend of June 23-24 or after - Illustrated)

By JOSEPH FINNIGAN
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Only in Hollywood could you shoot a picture with the ungainly title of "Son of Flubber," about a college professor who makes rain clouds and expect to make money.

That's what Walt Disney is doing and there's every indication the film might succeed like "The Absent Minded Professor." His movie about a socially slipshod scientist who discovered "flubber," a magic material combining the qualities of atomic energy and rubber.

When "Professor" started pouring money into Disney's Burbank studios, the canny movie maker wasted no time preparing a sequel to the film entitled "Son of Flubber."

He even signed up some of the original cast, among them Fred MacMurray, who repeats his college professor role. Nancy Olson and Keenan Wynn.

In "Professor," MacMurray put his magic "flubber" material on the shoes of a college basketball team and the players had more bounce per ounce than their taller opponents.

The basketball game was one of the funniest movie scenes shot in years. MacMurray even had a model-T automobile fly to Washington, D.C. on "flubber" power.

In "Son of Flubber," a secret formula is used to help the college football team MacMurray even experiments with rain cloud production.

Miss Olson, a New York actress who played MacMurray's fiancée in "Professor" and is married to him in the sequel, says "all of a sudden working in movies has become fun."

The beautiful blonde performer was out of the picture business for five years, making a comeback in Disney's 1960 production of "Polyanna."

"I hadn't even thought of pictures," she said, crediting Disney with "taking me out of mothballs."

Miss Olson, divorced mother of two children, stayed off movie screens because of her own disinterest.

"My agent used to say to producers, 'Look she doesn't want to work.'" Nancy retailed. "So they just quit sending me scripts. Right now I don't even have an agent. I had the last one for 12 years. There's not an actress in town who stayed with her agent 12 years."

Nancy wants more comedy roles and, hopefully, another picture with the forgetful professor touring the world.

"It would be nice if the Paris and Rome," she said.

Springfield Library Ready For Summer Reading Program

NEW OFFICERS AND TRUSTEES: Mrs. Hy Sunshine, Region President of O.R.T. installed the incoming officers and trustees of the Springfield Chapter of Women's American O.R.T. for the coming year, 1962-63 at the Chanticleer on June 5th. Mrs. Paul Miller was installation Chairman. Mrs. Edward Denner, president, in her acceptance speech, is looking forward to a fruitful year of continued success. Seated left to right: Mrs. Harold Gottlieb, Treasurer, Mrs. Herbert Gardiner, Vice President, Mrs. Irving Kalet, Vice President, Mrs. Edward Denner, President, Mrs. Sidney Rosenkrantz, Vice President, Mrs. Igberl Schulman, Vice President, Mrs. William Schwartz, Parliamentarian. Standing left to right: Mrs. Irving Tanner, Trustee, Mrs. Jack Weiner, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Charles Katz, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Max Fruchter, Financial Secretary, Mrs. Bertram Cooperman, Trustee, Mrs. Phillip Pedinoff, Trustee, Mrs. Mobbie Learner, Trustee. Mrs. Nat Turen, Trustee. (36 Jan Photographers.)

In this exhilarating "year of the astronauts," the children of Springfield are invited to "soar into outer space with books," as they join the Summer Reading Club at the Springfield Public Library. Bright new charts featuring our solar system will be used to stimulate their many reading interests. The requirements will be similar to those of other years. All children from first to eighth grade are eligible. Miss Reyner, Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Keller and Miss Barbara Rau have visited Gaudineer, Walton, Chisholm, Sandmeier, and Caldwell Schools to stimulate interest and explain the procedures. The students were invited to come to the Library and to sign up for the club. When they do, they will receive a notebook entitled "Books I Have Read" in which to write about the books they have borrowed and read. To launch him into space, each reader receives a colored bookmark showing an astronaut. The child will receive one colored sticker for every two books reported upon in writing. Reports may not be written in the library. This is a take-it-home project. Children should be encouraged to read on their own reading level and to avoid reading too many books by the same author. Each child will have the personal choice of either keeping his completed chart or leaving it in the library for a display. Those who wish to complete the Presidential Charts from last year may do so before starting their new charts, or vice versa. The Reading Club closes on the Friday before Labor Day. As the club gets under way, there will be further publicity on its progress, including comments on the many interesting reading adventures enjoyed by the smaller patrons and the library staff.

Selling a home is a professional job

Leave it to the professional

Leave to the expert those matters in which the expert excels—and that applies to plumbers or printers, bakers or bankers, locksmiths or lawyers.

Selling real estate implies an abundance of knowledge in a highly specialized field. It requires facts on comparative values, financing, mode of presentation, and many other technicalities involved in the sale of a home.

Too late, many folks learn that signs reading "FOR SALE—See Owner" merely attract curiosity seekers or those seeking to impose distress prices on properties. The net result is lost time, lost money.

Place your confidence in a Realtor. He will represent your best interests. He knows how to show your home in proper perspective. He knows how to make prospects feel at home. He glamorizes what is good. He is familiar with the means by which you can secure your top dollar... and what more can anyone ask?

Leave nail-biting to the misinformed. A knowing public has learned to trust its Realtor.

WEEKLY EDITORIAL COMMENT

Watch The Pools

Scotch Plains and the Watchung communities have a good many swimming pools of all shapes and sizes. Now that the warm weather is here, parents are beginning to fill them up and join their youngsters in cooling off with a quick dip. With all this activity then it seems an opportune time to point out the potential hazards of leaving a pool unattended.

Many little children are "wanderers." They go from backyard to backyard, in search of adventure and excitement. Some are certain to test out -- or accidentally fall into -- a pool that is left unattended. Unless yours is a very small wading pool, or one which you have protected with a high fence and locked gate, please stay by your pool. Otherwise there could be tragic accidents.

Some communities have laws making it mandatory that all large pools be fenced in with locked gates. Scotch Plains passed an ordinance like this two summers ago. Other communities have followed suit. It's a good idea because it affords some measure of protection. But youngsters can climb. It's always best to keep an eye on the pool by checking it every now and then. And if you go away for a weekend, it is best to empty it unless you are positive that there is no way a little fellow can climb over the fence.

It's a problem, keeping cool... and keeping the pool protected. But when you consider the tremendous stakes we have in our children and those of our neighbors, the precautions are well worth the effort.

Get Rid Of Weedy Lots

While vacant lots is not the problem it once was, the Board of Realtors of the Oranges and Maplewood points out that such weeds can be an extreme hazard particularly in the very dry days which we are now experiencing. Cigarette and trash fires have lately been a serious factor in injuring firemen fighting such fires and sizable property losses have been incurred.

This has been especially true in New Jersey as well as the adjoining states of New York and Pennsylvania.

Weedy lots are not only a fire hazard, they are also known to harbor rats and noxious insects such as mosquitoes and cockroaches.

This, of course, is an added health menace, and we are not discounting the prevalence of poison ivy and ragweed in such unattended lots.

Weed control is now possible for a whole season with the application of a single treatment. Progressive pest control companies can be helpful in killing such weeds in a fashion which does not present neighborhood problems or hazards for children.

Why in heaven's name has such a site as the Angleton Property, along the Sunnyside, between that narrow highway and the rear of Troy Village, been proposed as a public park and swimming pool area, is beyond my comprehension.

This site is on the very outer edge of Springfield, the very last street to be exact, and where the opposite side of the highway borders a different town entirely. This it would bring up traffic problems affecting two police departments, and mean the greater part of Springfield residents would have to traverse considerable distances to reach the park.

The one thousand residents of Troy Village, with their own splendid pool, I am sure would have no use of pool facilities, nor would they enjoy having sports or other arena amusements take place in their own backyard, such as a "Hollywood Bowl" or "Layton Stadium," as suggested by the Sun.

Has consideration been given to the approaching highway work to be done on Route 278 which, according to last word that has been printed in the papers, will cut under the Sunnyside crossing West Brian Ave. and bridge the Baltusol Way which will probably interfere with traffic in and out of Troy Village for possible a year or more.

Summit learned that they made a big mistake in building a school near the outskirts of the town, and had to sell the property at a great loss.

If this is to be a Springfield project, for Springfield residents, and if they have so many underprivileged children in this town where recent claims state that the township is one of the most prosperous in the state, why not place it where these "underprivileged" want have to use their autos, to get to it?
Sincerely,
Harold A. Sonn

Biddelman Is Installed As Beth Ahm Head

Officers and trustees of Temple Beth Ahm for the year 1962-1963 were recently installed, as follows: President, Meyer Biddelman; 1st Vice-president, Seymour Wortzel; 2nd Vice-president, Sol Levin; 3rd Vice-president, Milton Rubenstein; 4th Vice-president, Arthur Balkin;

PS. What about the heavy dust from quarry operations that settle all over Troy Village? What affect would this have on eyes and noses of the swimmers? Would Springfield pay the doctor?

Editor: Springfield Sun
All residents of Springfield who are interested in the proposed Municipal Swimming Pool, PLEASE note the public hearing will be held on June 27th, 1962, 8:00 P.M., at The Gaudineer School.

If you really want a pool for Springfield it is urgent that you attend this meeting and indicate your support. Apathy and poor attendance will only indicate a lack of real interest particularly on the part of those who have already indicated their support.

Please attend and bring your neighbors. This is your big opportunity to be heard and to see the plans and the proposed sites for this facility.

We want to be assured that we have your solid support for a pool to be ready for swimming in 1963.

The Mayor's Swim Pool Committee
Editor: Springfield Sun
Following is copy of letter addressed to Mayor Philip DeVacchio under date of June 18, 1962.

We feel the Mayor's Citizens' Pool Study Committee has done an excellent job of presenting facts for providing a swimming pool for the citizens of Springfield and is justly deserving of thanks.

We further feel that such a pool would be a lasting benefit to our community, especially in providing a well balanced recreation program for our youth.

Sincerely,
Bruce W. Evans

Red Cross Gives Special Honors To Volunteers

Four Red Cross volunteer workers received special recognition at the annual meeting of the Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross held at the Cannonball House, Chapter headquarters.

John C. Gacos, Chapter chairman, lauded the work of Mrs. Harry Quinzel, 13 South Trivet, Mrs. Walter Macaulay, 75 Mountain Avenue, and Mrs. Henry M. Muller, 27 Molter Avenue. Mrs. George M. Walton, 36 Kew Drive who have served Springfield and local and national Red Cross with twenty years of continuous volunteer work.

They were presented volunteer recognition pins by the Board with expressed appreciation. "It is the dedicated contribution of these volunteers who have given depth, continuity, and vision to the Springfield Chapter. It is volunteers like these that have kept alive the spirit of unselfish giving of oneself to serve one's neighbors and the community."

A special vote of appreciation was also extended to Mrs. Quinzel who has served the Chapter for eight years in the capacity of Chapter Secretary. Although most Red Cross chapters have a paid secretary to carry the tremendous load of requests, correspondence, and calls connected with local Chapter work, the Springfield Chapter is composed entirely of volunteer staff. Mrs. Quinzel has given volunteer service day and night during the past eight years to coordinate the work of the Springfield Chapter. Mrs. Henry B. George and Mrs. Robert Powers will share

Will Use Gaudineer For Summer Program

Use of Gaudineer School for a summer enrichment program in the school system on a private basis was authorized by Springfield Board of Education by a majority vote.

The vote was eight to one in favor of the proposal with Board Member Frank W. Haydu Jr. voting in the negative. According to the plan the program will be conducted for six weeks from July 16 to August 24 at the school for pupils who are presently in the seventh grade and will be eighth grade students next September. About 60 pupils could be accommodated. It was emphasized that the course would be conducted as an enrichment program rather than as a remedial one with the youngsters participating on a volunteer basis and not as a prerequisite. A fee of $60 has been set for the course to be concerned with mathematics, social studies, language arts, and science. It will be conducted four hours a day, five days a week over the six-week interval. The intention of the enrichment program is to create further interest in areas to be developed in future academic programs, it was pointed out.

Teachers participating in the program will be: Robert Oldhoff, mathematics; Stewart Mulvihill, Science; William Pfeiffer, social studies; and William Lomney, Language arts. All are teachers at the Gaudineer School.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore L. Buzin of 164 Wentz Ave., Springfield, have filed suit in Superior Court against the Township of Springfield, charging that their property was not restored to its original condition after the township installed a sanitary sewer through their land. Mr. and Mrs. Buzin agreed March 13, 1961, to grant the township easements for the sewer and for land needed temporarily during its construction, accepting a token payment of $1 in return. The land involved is 15 feet wide and 362 feet long. Mr. and Mrs. Buzin contend that the township agreed to repair any damage to their land, trees or shrubs and to resurface their driveway. They allege that the township has failed to do so.

Money Matters

By Donald H. Shafaman

This article is one in a series which will regularly appear in this newspaper dealing with investments and financial and estate planning. Periodically, Mr. Shafaman, who is President of Donan & Co., Inc. and a former practicing attorney, will devote a column to answering readers' questions. These may be sent to The Springfield Sun, Springfield, N.J.

Last week's article discussed some general principles to be followed when investing. Today we will get a little more specific in attempting to ascertain the factors which affect stock prices. Needless to say, it is impossible to arrive at any incontrovertible conclusion with respect to a particular stock -- otherwise we'd all be rich.

There are always two sets of conditions which affect the stock market. This article is concerned with an outline of the first set of conditions -- fundamental factors -- which develop outside the market and must dominate it in the long run. The second set -- technical factors -- are those conditions which operate within the market over short periods and will affect stock prices regardless of fundamental conditions. Technical analysis will be discussed in future articles.

For the long-term investor, fundamental analysis is the most important factor in the successful selection of securities. Underlying this analysis is the conventional theory that the basic cause of stock price movement is the anticipation of changes in corporate earnings. Thus the investor should evaluate conditions as they affect future earnings and buy only those stocks whose earnings should increase. Ideally, he should buy before these future earnings increases are "discounted" by the investing public and the price of the stock goes too high. In summary it may be stated that any condition which indicates a change in earnings of a particular company or companies will affect stock prices which will move in advance of actual changes in earnings.

To determine the trend of earnings it is necessary for the fundamental analyst, be he amateur or professional, to examine a wide range of factors. These include the state of the economy in general, domestic and foreign competition, possible technological improvements, political climate, etc. Of course, a comparison of competitors earnings and the price of their stock will be major factors.

It is important to note when making a fundamental analysis of a company that it is not overly important whether earnings are retained by the company or paid out as dividends. Theoretically, if earnings increase, the price of the stock will rise over a period of time. If a large proportion of current earnings are retained by the company as reinvested capital, instead of being paid out as dividends, it is reasonable to expect an increased rate of growth of future earnings.

Tempering this fundamental approach to stock analysis, is what we might consider a confidence factor. Thus, if enough people become overoptimistic about things in general they will buy stocks until prices reach unwarranted levels. This is what causes stock in IBM, or Polaroid to go into orbit. On the other hand, when people become Excessively pessimistic, they will unload stocks until they fall to entirely unreasonable levels as measured by normal standards.

As we stated at the beginning of this column, completely scientific long term investing is impossible especially due to the vagaries of the confidence factor. However, with effort and knowledge, better than average results can be expected.

Decline And Fall??

It has become obvious to those devotees of the game of baseball, especially those who avidly follow the champion New York Yankees, that once again the Bombers are staggering along the pennant trail in a fashion unbecomingly unworldly.

However, the consensus of opinion seems to be that this lapse is merely the "annual slip" that makes for good news copy coming from the Yankees front office.

But as it may, we seem to feel that there is a little more to this year's "habit" and are willing to try and prove it.

In 1961, the New Yorkers finished eight full games ahead of their closest competition, the Detroit Tigers; and then there was a jump of six more games before Baltimore entered the picture. The first division finished up with the White Sox twenty-three behind.

Other clubs finished: Indians, 30 1/2 behind; Red Sox, 33 back; Twins, 38; Angels, 38 1/2; Athletics, 47 1/2; and Washington, also 47 1/2 behind the leaders.

The Yankee's winning record last year was a pretty fair 109 won against 54 lost.

We'd venture to say that barring unforeseen circumstances, only the lowly Senators could possibly finish as many as 47 games behind this season.

As for the other teams, a definite improvement is immediately obvious, even at this relatively early pre-All-Star Game date. Only 9 1/2 games separate first place Cleveland from ninth place Boston, at this Monday writing, with the Red Sox playing one more game than the League Leading Indians.

It is the vast improvement in personnel up and down the American League line that is making the difference, along with a noticeable decline in Yankee performance.

And there has been a decline the way we see it. Let's talk statistics, which, unfortunately, are all baseball crystal ball gazers have to work with.

In 1961, the Yankee average batting average was a healthy .272 (top 11 players), with Roger Maris contributing heavily in the home run department along with Mantle and Blanchard.

Everyone seemed to be healthy in 1961. Whitey Ford recorded 25-4, Luis Arroyo picked up 15 against 5, and Ralph Terry ended up with a respectable 16-3 hurling record.

Cletis Boyer amazed all with extra-spectacular plays afield. Roger Maris kept the turnstiles busy with his climb to the top of the homer ladder, and teammate Mickey Mantle belted enough base knocks to wind up at .317.

While all this statistical activity was going on in the "House That Ruth Built", the other nine clubs in the American League seemed to be bent on heading in the opposite direction. They all chased the Yankees, and "chased" is really the term. Detroit and Chicago fell easily to the Bombers, and from then on in it was merely a matter of playing out the schedule.

The question now arises whether the rest of the League has improved in 1962, or the Yankees have become more human and less "god-like"?

While we feel it to be a combination of both, we are inclined to lean toward the fact that the Yankees are slipping. Granted, Mantle, Ford and Arroyo have seen little action since April, but take a glance at the Tiger injury list and keep in mind that every team expects to receive a few pulled muscles here and there.

Notably, really expected Maris to hit another 60 home runs this season—but what most people forget is that Roger never will be much more than a .275 hitter, and if he fails to produce big in the four-bagger department, then his talents can only be ranked along with a dozen other outfielders in the League.

Yogi Berra has seen better days and if this isn't his last season, we'd be plenty surprised. Bill Skowron is neither here nor there (as usual). Clet Boyer has proved he is human afield, pitching has been nothing to write home about, and Manager Ralph Houk has displayed enough emotion to let us know that being the Yankee Skipper is not the bed of roses it once might have been.

These next few weeks should tell the story in the American League. It is about this time when the men are separated from the boys and the hot July sun proves who are the hitters and pitchers. As it stands now, the A.L. race is a healthy one. We, as fans, like to see a club like the Twins for instance, hang in there right through the season, so even if the Yankees do win, it will be by one or so games rather than eight or sixteen. There's something very nice about sitting down to watch a Yankee game and not knowing who will win before the first ball is thrown.

Who do you figure in the Series, Yankees vs. Giants???

Rain Reigns
The heavy rains throughout the early part of the week caused postponement of most scheduled games, as the Springfield Junior Baseball League turned toward the final week of play. Although the strong Morris Ave. Motors team appears to be headed for a win in the Babe Ruth Majors, there could very likely be a three way tie in the Babe Ruth Minors.

The race in the Youth League Majors could also be decided in this final week of play.

Both leagues wind up their seasons by the end of June each year due to the great number of players scheduled for summer camps and vacation trips.

Nesbitt, DiFrancesco, Win All-County Honors

Lynn Nesbitt, third baseman for Governor Livingston Regional High School of Berkeley Heights, and Don DiFrancesco, Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School outfielder, reaped the most honors among Watchung Area schoolboy baseball players in all-Union County and Watchung Conference teams selected by Newark and Elizabeth newspapers.

The all-star nine were named on the basis of ballots cast by coaches of Union County and Watchung Conference scholastic teams.

Nesbitt was selected to all-Union County selected by both the Elizabeth Journal and the Newark News. DiFrancesco was chosen for the Watchung Conference's all-star team published by the Journal.

Nesbitt, the county's leading hitter with a .464 record and top slugger with six home runs in 18 games, was the only junior selected for the all-county team. Lynn was instrumental in the Highlanders posting a 12-6 record this season and hit game-winning home runs in the semi-final and final round games of the state regional tournament which was captured by Governor Livingston. He batted in 19 runs in 18 games and was a stalwart in the Highlanders' strong defense.

DiFrancesco was a bright spot in a disappointing season for Scotch Plains-Fanwood. He had good range in the outfield and was one of the Blue Raiders' more consistent hitters. Don also was selected for the Journal's second all-Union County team and for the News' third all-county nine.

Anthony Fevola, Springfield Regional outfielder, was picked for the News' second all-county team. On the News' third all-star nine were Jerry DiPasquale, Governor Livingston pitcher, who pitched the Highlanders to the state title, allowing only one run in 22 innings of tournament play; Bill Kretzer, Springfield Regional pitcher, and Tom Rutishauser, Scotch Plains-Fanwood catcher.

DiPasquale, who finished with a 7-4 record, also was named to the Journal's second all-county team. On the Journal's third team were Jack Appar, Springfield Regional shortstop; John Wadas, Governor Livingston catcher, and Kretzer.

Four Scotch Plains-Fanwood players received honorable mention on the Watchung Conference team. They were Corney Jones, first baseman; Hal Hamlette, second baseman; pitcher Charles Mason, and Rutishauser.

Fischer Nine Proves Age Is No Factor

Sting Meeker Club, 11-4

By Dick Schwartz

Strange things are happening in the Springfield Adult Softball League. Aside from a few rebels, either in the win column or lost column, the League appears to be evening out and it looks as though there will close contests for positioning right up to the last week of action.

Take last Sunday for instance. Perhaps the most surprising result took place at the 11:00 game on the Meisel Field when Fischer Travel Bureau once again proved that "age is no barrier" as the "old men" walked away from a strong Meeker team, 11-4.

Fischer's win was its fourth straight. The travel men have yet to drop a decision. A tight defense was the key along with steady hitting ability and strong pitching. Hurler Bill Savarin held Meeker to three hits until the sixth inning. Leading in the hitting department for the winners was John "Skip" Bechtold who went five for five. Fischer, eleven runs, 16 hits, Meeker, four runs out of 7 hits.

In other League action, Ehrhardt Electronics, showing more and more strength as the season progresses topped Reinette 12-4.

Ehrhardt's pitcher Stan Cornfield helped his own cause by hitting a homer. Reinette's downfall was once again a loose defense as the boys held Ehrhardt in check until the disastrous ninth inning when the electricians exploded for six tallies.

Rich Blisof, Jaycees hurler, walked three men in a row in the fifth inning, which certainly didn't help his cause, as the Jaycees went down to defeat at the hands of the Mets; 10-9. Standout for the Mets was Dom Casternovia who chalked up the win on the mound and tripled with the bases loaded in the fourth

Farm League A
White Sox Clinch Tie

A big 6 run 2nd-inning gave the White Sox an 8-2 win over the Farm League A Cardinals. The Sox jumped to a quick 2-0 lead on the strength of John Methvin's triple in the first. The resourceful Cardinals, however, bounced right back to tie it all at 2-2. But then the big Sox 2nd put it on ice for the victors, Bob Shomo was a standout for the Cards with sterling play at the second basemen's slot.

The victory assured the Sox of at least a tie for top league honors—the deciding contest will be a rematch of the postponed Tiger-White Sox game now scheduled for this Wednesday.

Cubs-Cards Split

The Farm League A Cards and Cubs met twice this week in a regularly scheduled and a rematch game. The Cubs bats jumped out with a roud in the first contest to give the Orange Shirts an 11-1 victory. John Seligman, Richard Nigro, and Dennis Carlson all had perfect days at the plate for the victors. Stuart Lutz drove in the lone tally for the Cards.

In the second contest, Tom Zemla and Jim Walkin put a silencer on the Cubs bats, with John Seligman twirling excellently for the Cubs, the score stood 0-0 after two. In the third, the Cardinals mounted a 3 run rally topped by Vince Julian's base loaded hit. The Cubs roared back with a booming 2-run homer by Jim Herbaugh but their effort fell short giving the Cards the victory 3-2.

Davron Studio, who was finding winning ways difficult, tangled with the Sun and that was all the photographers needed to get back on the winning track. Davron broke a 7-3 deadlock in the sixth inning and picked up a few more in the seventh to walk away with the contest, 16-7.

Standout for the Sun in their fourth straight loss was first baseman Ed Tapper who unloaded a long homer to right with two on.

Ron Goleber was the winning hurler and Dick Schwartz got stung for his second loss of the year. One bright spot for the Sun, however, is that nobody was injured, a habit the newspapermen are trying to break.

In the only other game played on Sunday, a Katz vs. Meisel fielded after their first two games, playing heads-up ball and defeated the American Legion, 3-2.

Scotch Plains-Fanwood Pennant Race Tight

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Little League is wrapped up in one of its closest pennant races in its ten-year history.

At the half-way mark, three teams—the Indians, White Sox, and Red Sox—were tied for first place in the American League and two teams—the Giants and the Phillies—were tied for first place in the National League. Another team, the Dodgers, was only one game behind.

On this, the tenth anniversary of the founding of the Little League, enthusiasm is at what may be its highest pitch. As many as 100 attend a game and total monthly attendance is well over 1,000.

Should the teams go down the wire as they are now, a triple play-off would be necessary in one league, at least in this case, one team would draw a bye and meet the winner of a game between the other two. This winner would go on to meet the champion of the other league for the Little League-World Series. Two victories out of three games is necessary to win the "world championship," currently held by the Giants.

This year the League has added an electrical scoreboard, which lights up to indicate "Hit" or "error," balls, strikes, and outs.

No team has been able to show mastery over the entire league. The Giants, for example, last year's champion, have been beaten three times; yet the Giants upended the White Sox when this team was undefeated and leading the American League. The White Sox came back to beat the Red Sox,

Awards To Be Given

Sportsmanship awards will be made in each of the four divisions of the Springfield Junior Baseball League this Saturday at the annual picnic at Meisel Ave. field.

The individual trophy awards have again been sponsored by the Baltusrol Golf Club.

Candidates are nominated by the managers and coaches of each team, then ballots are cast by "players" and "adult" personnel to determine the winner. To assure that this election does not result in a "popularity" contest, the adult votes are weighed to offset such a possibility.

The award winner represents the best in citizenship and sportsmanship demeanor, with cooperative attitude and team spirit heading his qualifications.

BY JAMES

There may never be another six-day period like it in the annals of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. Admittedly, it will be tough to match.

What six-day period? Why the one in May in which Scotch Plains-Fanwood captured three championships in golf and track. The Blue Raiders started off with a stunning victory in the Union County Conference golf tournament and followed up with track and field championships in the Watchung Conference and North Arlington Invitational meets.

The amazing thing about the golf title was that Scotch Plains-Fanwood didn't even have a formal golf team this year and wasn't even considered a title threat in the tournament. What was overlooked by the "experts" was the site of the tournament.

The event was played at the Scotch Plains Country Club and the four Scotch Plains-Fanwood representatives were well acquainted with that course. The Blue Raiders failed in their bid for the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association championship in Middletown but that couldn't detract from their amazing showing in the county event.

The track team's victory in the Watchung Conference event was somewhat expected as the Blue Raiders had trounced their leading rivals—Westfield and Cranford—in dual-meet competition. Scotch Plains-Fanwood won its second straight crown in rather easy fashion.

The victory in the North Arlington Invitational, in contrast, was well-earned and highly satisfying. The Blue Raiders took the meet by a three-point margin over Clifford Scott High School of East Orange. The Scotties went on to win the State Group championship, indicating the power of their squad.

Scotch Plains-Fanwood won all 12 of its dual-meets this season, most of them by top-sided margins. The string of victories extended the Blue Raiders' undefeated streak through 28 dual meets over a three-season period.

This streak, the longest athletic winning streak still alive in Union County circles, is a tribute to the coaching ability of Ray Schnitzer, who also is director of athletics. Ray has developed a well-rounded, versatile group of athletes who have been unbeatable in dual-meet competition.

Unfortunately, the type of balance that wins dual meets, and even conference titles, does not pay off in statewide competition. In the state meet the requirement is brilliant individual competitors. The Blue Raiders didn't have super stars and this accounts for their seven-point total in the state meet.

It would seem though that Scotch Plains-Fanwood has a superstar in the making in sophomore miler Steve Harris. Steve finished third in this year's state meet, and is a good bet to bring home a state mile championship during the next two seasons.

Praises for Hunchar, a Champion Coach
Plaudits are in order for Russ Hunchar, director of athletics at Governor Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights. In the school's second year of existence, Russ coached Highlander teams to two athletic championships.

That would be an outstanding record for any school, but for a second-year school it is amazing. Hunchar's soccer team won the Union County Conference championship last fall and last month his baseball team captured the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association's North Jersey, Section 2, Group 2 championship.

The real tribute to Hunchar's coaching ability and his handling of teen-age youngsters is that the Highlanders hardly figured to win either crown in pre-season estimates. Hunchar's first-year soccer team had suffered through a losing season and even Russ probably would have settled for a winning season before the campaign got underway.

But what a difference a year makes. With virtually the same personnel in key roles, the Highlanders finished undefeated against Union County Conference competition and reached the semifinals of the state Group 2 tournament.

John Wadas rained home 15 goals for a school scoring record and Bill Sawyer added seven more, also breaking the previous school mark. The Highlanders' defense also shared in the spotlight with all-county selection Bill Powers leading the way.

In baseball, Hunchar had a veteran infield and one pitcher—Jerry DiPasquale. Everyone knows that pitching is the key to success in schoolboy baseball. When DiPasquale fell on evil times, Hunchar came up with a sensational sophomore in southpaw Bob Heuer. The lefthanded sophomore's five victories enabled the Highlander to qualify for the state tournament.

DiPasquale, back on the beam, and Lynn Nesbitt took it from there. DiPasquale allowed only one run and seven hits in 22 innings of pressure-packed tournament pitching against Clifford Scott of East Orange and Madison, co-champion of the Suburban Conference. Nesbitt hit decisive home runs in each game.

'Twas quite a year for Russ Hunchar and Governor Livingston Regional High School.

When Crestmont and Rotary tangled for the first time in early May, the game wound up in a scoreless tie. The replay of this game was taken by Crestmont 2-1.

In the third encounter, Rotary took the contest 5-2. Both teams were in a virtual tie since May 23rd until Crestmont bested Rotary 6-4 at Sandmeier on June 11. The game was a nip and tuck affair with Ronnie Agarewicz, the Crestmont hurler, allowing two hits, and Gary Kutz, the Rotary pitcher giving up five baseknocks.

Sheehan, Haydu and Schock contributed the stick work and defensive play for the Rotary nine that kept the game close, while Hesselein, Schiffo, Finnerty, Mucusue and Volkmar shared the limelight for Crestmont.

Charities To Benefit From Jaycee Game

Charitable organizations and institutions in every community in state which is served by a chapter of the New Jersey Jaycees will benefit from a game between the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League at Princeton on Saturday, September 8.

Among the 160 participating Jaycee chapters throughout the state are the Springfield Jaycees. Each chapter has pledged its portion of the game's net receipts to local charities.

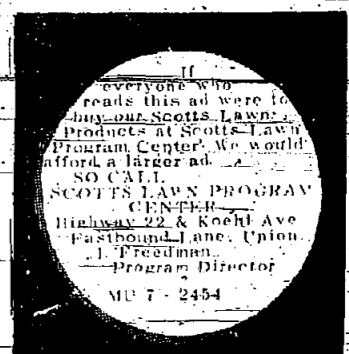

Billed as the "Jaycee Football Classic," the game will be the final one prior to opening of the NFL's 1962 championship season on the following weekend. The biggest crowd ever to witness a pro grid clash in New Jersey sports history is expected at Princeton University's Palmer Stadium, especially since the two rivals—the Giants and the Eagles—were the champions and runners-up, respectively, in the league's Eastern Division race last season, and due to the location of the game midway between New York and Philadelphia.

The Classic will be the first Double Winner CLEVELAND (UPI)—Emil Leven of the Cleveland Indians was the last man to pitch two complete games and win them both in the majors, accomplishing the feat on Aug. 28, 1926.

The New Jersey Jaycees (who officially changed their name from the New Jersey Junior Chamber of Commerce at their state convention in Asbury Park, last month) is an organization of young men, ages 21 to 35, dedicated to humanitarian and community service. In New Jersey, the Jaycees total over 6,000 members in 160 chapters throughout the state.

BOATING

Jim Wakefield, a retired British submarine man, is sailing around the earth in an 18-foot sloop which he assembled from a kit he bought two years ago for $50.

At the moment, the intrepid 40-year-old adventurer, who left Bristol, England, on May 14, is estimated to be somewhere in the Mediterranean with his one-man crew, Andrew Freke, 19, a mechanic.

For the last five years, Wakefield worked as an engineer on a guided missile project. For the last two, he devoted most of his spare time to building and fitting out the boat, "Spartan Spirit," in an abandoned farmhouse near Bristol.

While the basic design of the "Spartan Spirit" is that of the kit boat, Wakefield and Freke made some major modifications to meet conditions they expect to encounter on their two-year, 26,000-mile voyage.

To prevent flooding, they reduced the cockpit to one-fourth of its designed space, and to improve stability, they reshaped the keel and added 150 pounds to the craft's weight.

Below deck, Wakefield has rigged up a steering device in the cabin that enables him to stay on course in rough weather. Wakefield described the system as a laserop based on bicycle bits and pieces.

Another novel piece serves as a key element in the electrical system. It is a dynamo linked to a small spinner that trails behind the boat, producing 6 volts at 140 RPM for lights and an emergency radio transmitter.

The "Spartan Spirit" also carries a unique course indicator fashioned by Wakefield from scraps of electrical hardware. If the sloop drifts off course, a floodlight mounted at the bow illuminates the water in the cabin, the lights flow dim or bright, depending on the degree of course variation.

Wakefield and his one-man crew believe that theirs may be the smallest craft ever to attempt a full circumnavigation of the world. Their course from the Mediterranean will take them through the Red Sea to Aden, then across the Arabian Sea to Colombo, the Fiji Islands, Easter Island, off the coast of Ecuador, then through the Panama Canal and across the Caribbean to the Bahamas, a final stop at the Azores, and then home to Bristol.

Their only concession to the uncertainties of wind and tide will be a 6 1/2 horsepower Perkins outboard motor installed on a special transom.

The Army's Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors has recommended 13 new Federal civil works projects or modifications of existing projects, including six projects for navigation purposes in Michigan, Texas, Maine and New York.

Sports Tour
DETROIT (UPI)—Ernie Harwell, Detroit Tigers' broadcaster, will personally conduct a European tour for sports fans this Fall. The group will leave from Detroit on Oct. 15.

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago White Sox established a major league record that will probably stand for all time when they hit only three home runs during the entire 1908 season.

Horse Figures
NEW YORK (UPI)—A total of 2,853 individual thoroughbreds raced at Aqueduct, Belmont Park and Saratoga in 1961.

RETIRING—R. M. Sullivan, who will retire as American Oil Company's district manager after 32 years of association.

R. M. Sullivan To Retire

R.M. "Dick" Sullivan, Newark district manager for American Oil will retire after having been associated with the company for 32 years.

Sullivan has requested retirement to go into private law practice in Andover, Massachusetts. He is a law graduate of Northeastern University and a member of the bar in Massachusetts.

At a banquet given in his honor at the Robin Hood Inn in Clifton, New Jersey, about one hundred friends and company associates gathered to honor him. Newark district sales manager Bill Baldwin was master of ceremonies. Keynote speaker was B.J. Yarrington, regional manager for American Oil's New York region.

In his remarks Yarrington said, "It's men like Dick Sullivan that have made our company what it is today. The benefits and progress we now enjoy have come as a result of the efforts of such men. I am most pleased to have had the privilege of working with Dick Sullivan."

Sullivan commented that he had always thought that a country lawyer's life would be a very useful, purposeful, and satisfying experience. "I feel very fortunate in having been able to enjoy the security of being associated with a corporation while raising a family, and now I am, also, going to be able to realize my life's ambition," he said.

Sullivan joined Mexican Petroleum Corporation in Boston, Mass. in 1930. While employed by Mexpet he completed his education in law at Northeastern University, graduating in 1932. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1941 to 1946, achieving the rank of lieutenant commander. After his discharge he returned to American Oil Company, and in 1950 became assistant division manager at Boston. In 1956 he was appointed district manager at Boston. In 1958 he was appointed district manager of the Newark District which includes most of New Jersey.

Friends contributed to give Dick an assortment of garden implements, including a power unit.

Sullivan and his wife Mary, who live at 17 B Troy Drive, Springfield, New Jersey, have four children—Richard, U.S.N.A.; Anthony; Lawrence, and Sheila.

T.E. Locker has been named Newark district manager and will replace Sullivan. Locker comes to Newark from Minneapolis.

SCIENCE NOTEBOOK

BY HANS KLEIN
UNION COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOLS

That the social sciences do not keep pace with the physical sciences is cause for lament. Indeed, the ever-increasing impact of technological advances keep sociology off balance.

Mechanization on the farm shifts the population off the land and into the sprawling cities. Even there the unskilled are dogged by automation, which replaces them, leaving them trapped in the cities with nowhere else to go. Those young enough and clever enough learn new skills, but a residue remains that, as time goes on, still be still less employable. Our armed forces will fade out, but what of the young unskilled and unemployable? They can only become a social problem for the future.

In democratic America, with education for all, we dream of training everyone for his place in society. The dream is sincere, more and more an indication of mental and social disability. We will come to realize that this is an unfortunate situation. Who will ultimately support the many luckless ones born uneducable for the competition with robots in tomorrow's society?

Questions sent to Hans Klein care of this newspaper, will be answered in the Science Quiz.

but we are a nation of optimists. It isn't democratic to believe that social classes propagate themselves—but evidence indicates they do. Individuals can rise beyond the class into which they are born, but there are limits to which a class as a whole can rise. The middle class in America has expanded to include almost everyone—but not all. The extremely wealthy and the extremely poor are excluded. Greater opportunities are afforded the latter group and some will escape from society's cellar. But society's concern will further proliferate the lowest class. In today's America, prolonged and extreme poverty is becoming

Junior Fortnightly Club Gift Boon Overlook Babies

One tiny drop of blood from a baby's heel is all that is necessary to do intricate blood chemistry at Overlook Hospital, thanks to a gift of a new instrument called an ultra-micro-analyzer from the Junior Fortnightly Club of Summit. The ultra-micro-analyzer is a particular boon in infant and pediatric cases with, for example, kidney and severe heart problems," commented Dr. George L. Erdman, Overlook's Director of Laboratories. "Repeated tests can be easily taken with a mere pinprick, compared to the old method where a larger quantity of blood had to be taken from tiny veins difficult to find. It is far less of a drain, too, on an infant." Accepting the Junior Fortnightly gift of $1600, which will be divided between the purchase of the ultra-micro-analyzer and furnishing a patient room at the hospital, Overlook's Director Robert E. Heinlein expressed the hospital's gratitude to club members for their help to their community hospital. Mrs. Kenneth R. Robson, Jr., president of the Junior Fortnightly Club, and Mrs. Paul Watson, chairman of the Spring Luncheon and Fashion Show which raised the money, presented the gift.

Police Help Camp

It only takes $25 to send an underprivileged child to Camp Endeavor, watching for a week. Help us make some children happy this summer. The Berkeley Heights-Watching Local #144 have been fortunate in being able to take over a gas station for a day, and the profits earned to go for this good cause. Your local Police Departments have volunteered their services for June 23, 1962 at the Fargo Gas Station on Route #22, near Two Guys from Harrison, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Please support this good cause and have your car serviced by your local Policemen Saturday, June 23, 1962. We will wash cars, grease jobs, and don't forget to fill up with gas and let us see how many of these children we can send to camp.

Olympic Park Again Set For The 4th

Fireworks and band concerts, features at Olympic Park each July 4 since 1912, will be on tap at the Irvington-Maplewood park again this year. The fireworks at 10 p.m. will follow the day's final presentation of a three-act free circus. Clem Basile's Band offers popular concerts every afternoon and evening but patriotic themes dominate the Independence Day programs. Beatrice Boatright is the headliner of next week's new show, starting Monday. She cavorts atop a flexible mast 100 feet high, without safety equipment. Show people call this a swagpole. Barbara Morris, and her comedy seals, children's favorites, and the Three Alimos, a juggling trio, round out the bill. Olympic has 2,000 free seats for these shows at 4 and 9:30 p.m. Grandstand seats also are available at nominal charge.

Bonnie Brae Opens Sat.

Bonnie Brae Camp for Boys in Millington, opens its 37th session on Saturday with 180 youngsters between the ages of nine and thirteen arriving from ten New Jersey counties to spend two weeks there under the guidance and supervision of specially trained counsellors, who will teach them swimming, crafts and many out-door sports and games. Throughout the summer another 180 boys will arrive every two weeks at Bonnie Brae, replacing those who came earlier. It is expected that over 800 youngsters will benefit from this valuable camping experience by the end of August and that most counties in New Jersey will be represented.

In announcing the opening of Bonnie Brae Camp, Harry V. Osborne, Jr., president of the Board of Managers, said that the boys who attend this facility all come from low-income families. None of their parents are able to contribute toward their support while at camp, nor are the sponsoring agencies which refer youngsters required to pay a fee, although a few of these give what they can to help Bonnie Brae meet its operating expenses. Mr. Osborne said the camp is supported almost entirely by voluntary contributions from individuals, foundations, service clubs, churches, business and industry and needs $52,058 in such gifts to meet its 1962 budget. Applications again this year have far exceeded Bonnie Brae's capacity. Only the boys who need camping experience most, have been considered and there is still a long waiting list of youngsters who can be called to replace last-minute drop-outs. As a result, it will not be known until the close of this season how many boys from each county will be represented at Bonnie Brae this year, however at this time it appears that they will come from every part of the State.

During the winter a number of improvements have been made at Bonnie Brae Camp which, according to Mr. Osborne, will greatly benefit the youngsters who attend. Among these is a large recreation pavilion, donated by a member of the Board of Managers, which will provide a shelter for games on rainy days and mid-days when the sun is exceedingly bright and warm. New beds have been provided for all the cabins, a gift from a Foundation whose donors are also members of Bonnie Brae's Board. Additional and improved lavatory facilities have been added and the outdoor chapel for this non-sectarian camp has been enclosed by planting new shrubs. These improvements were also made possible by donations.

"Paint Your Wagon" Stars Frank Lovejoy

Frank Lovejoy, who made an indelible impression on the public in his first movie "Home of the Brave", will perform the starring role in the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre's next hit musical, "Paint Your Wagon", opening at the Cedar Grove restaurant, Tuesday, June 26th.

The rugged, handsome actor last seen on Broadway in the hit play "The Best Man", appeared in more than 5000 network programs on the air prior to his Hollywood debut and was radio's highest-paid dramatic star.

Lovejoy portrays the battered, brawling, mining town boss of a woman-starved town during the California gold rush days.

The joy and jubilation of the mines upon the arrival of some enterprising husband seeking eastern girls, forms one of the high spots of this show which fortunately was written by the same team who also wrote such popular musicals as "Brigadoon" and "My Fair Lady".

Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe. These two tuneful geniuses have spared nothing in the way of a score—and the plot is action packed. Sex life of the miners, with song, lusty ballads such as "I'm on My Way," "Whoop-Ti-Ay" and "There's a Coach Comin' In" with a couple of attractive ballads, "I Still See Elsa" and "Another Autumn," plus a delightful romance makes it a gay, breezy, virile musical.

Producer's Helga and Gary McHugh, Carl Sawyer and Dick Scanga, in keeping with their usual procedure, have surrounded the star with the highest caliber professional talent available. Repeaters at the "Brook" in supporting roles are Marilyn Sprague, Tom Snow, Colley Bristler, Molly Sterns and Maria Thome.

Donald Burr handles the directorial duties with versatile Ken Browne as stage manager. It was the latter who jumped into the role of the leprechaun in "Finian's Rainbow" with a few hours notice when Dennis Day couldn't go on. He conducted himself admirably.

Morey Amsterdam is still packing them in at the popular Route #23 Bistro until Sunday night, June 24th, with his outstanding portrayal of Nathan Detroit in "Guys and Dolls," ably assisted by Betty Ann Grove as his gal friend, Adelaide. Amsterdam's night club act immediately following the musical, brings down the house.

FDU Professor McMullen Wins Society Research Grant

Dr. E. Wallace McMullen, Assistant Professor of English at the Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University, is the recipient of an American Philosophical Society Research Grant. The award will enable Dr. McMullen to expand his study of New Jersey place-names already begun during the 1961-62 academic year just concluded. Under his direction, during the spring term, four Fairleigh Dickinson University graduate students worked on Morris County place-names, covering about one half the area. Names in use from colonial and revolutionary times are of special interest. Many of courses are of Indian derivation.

McMullen is an authority on Morris County place-names. He is the author of a comprehensive volume, "English Topographic Terms in Florida 1563-1874." Of this earlier research, Clifford Matthews, editor of "Dictionary of Americanisms" had this to say: "I have seldom consulted a more interesting or... a more profitable piece of investigation."

A reviewer said, "McMullen's work is one of the few systematic studies of American-topographical nomenclature. As such, it will be useful as an example of method to those preparing similar studies in other parts of North America. In addition, it will be a valuable reference book for the student of American history and culture, since it carefully defines and illustrates a large number of regionally significant terms." In the conclusion of the same review, the author states that "McMullen has presented us with a carefully prepared and highly readable study, which should be a model for future works of this kind."

McMullen is editor of NAMES, the journal of the American Name Society. This is one of six magazines being published on the Madison campus of the University. The others are: Charlotter, Business Review, Connotation, Delle Arti and University Woman.

The four last named were all launched at the Madison campus with the active encouragement of Dr. Samuel Pratt, Dean of the campus since its inception four years ago.

Committee Evaluates 2 Year Colleges

Union Junior College in Cranford will be host Saturday morning (June 23) to the organization meeting of an 11-man advisory committee appointed by Freeholder Director Jay A. Stemmer of Clark to evaluate legislation authorizing counties to construct and operate two-year colleges.

Dr. Kenneth C. Mackay, UJC President, invited the committee to meet at the college's Nomanegan Campus. Dr. Mackay, who is one of the six national directors of the American Association of Junior Colleges, is a member of the advisory committee. He served on the state-wide committee which developed and recommended the county college plan to the Legislature and to former Gov. Robert B. Meyner. Under the terms of the new legislation, counties and the state will share the cost of capital construction equally. The new law provides for the state to provide up to $200 per pupil for operation costs, but no funds have been appropriated for this purpose.

Another law enacted simultaneously authorized Board of Freeholders in counties with a population of 300,000 or more, which includes Union County, to purchase educational services from existing, accredited two-year colleges. Only Union Junior College meets these criteria among the state's junior colleges.

Other members of the committee are:
Dr. Edward J. Nolan, plant manager of Merck & Co. Inc., Rahway, and chairman of the Union County Citizens Budget Committee.
Martin Knudsen, president of the AFL-CIO Building Trades.
Max Russell of Potter, Gard, Bussett & Co., Plainfield.
Mayor Edward H. Peterson of Scotch Plains, president of Magnus Company, Greenwood.
Dr. William H. West of Cranford, county superintendent of schools, and secretary of the Union County Vocational and Technical Board of Education.
John Volfsin of Linden, a member of the Union County Vocational and Technical Board of Education and a member of Local 592, United Automobile Workers.

Railroad to Get Facelifting

At one minute after midnight some night this summer, painters and other workmen will swarm into the Hudson-Manhattan Railroad stations to start giving the railroad a clean, fresh look.

Plans for the program were announced by Chairman S. Sloan Colt following the monthly Board meeting on June 14. Chairman Colt said that the Board authorized the filing of condemnation proceedings so that the bi-state agency's subsidiary, the Port Authority Trans-Hudson Corporation (PATH), could take title to the railroad as early as August 1.

The immediate program calls for a general scrubbing, painting and repairing of public and employee areas at the stations, including concourses, locker and rest rooms, and platforms. New PATH identification and directional signs also will be installed throughout the system.
