Unico Hears About New Blood Program

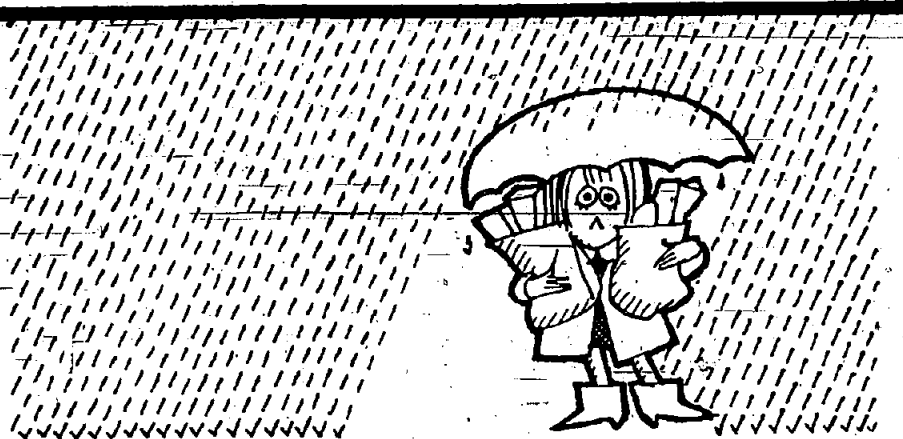

Mr. Henry Wright, chairman of the Springfield Red Cross Blood Program was the guest of UNICO men's club on Tuesday, February 14. Mr. Wright spoke to the 17 members present about the recently initiated blood program and the coming visit of the Bloodmobile.

Mr. Wright provided the background for the Blood Program which was inaugurated in March a year ago to enable Springfield residents and employees to participate in the benefits of the New York Regional Blood Program. He announced the next visit of the Bloodmobile to be on March 18th from 1-7 p.m. at the Presbyterian Parish house. He also urged any resident or employee, male or female, to become a part of this valuable program to the community, by signing up to serve as an administrator, volunteer worker, or blood donor at the March Bloodmobile visit. Enthusiasm for the Blood Program has been wide-spread, asserted Mr. Wright. "In fact, residents from Summit, Millburn-Short Hills, Westfield, and Plainfield have participated as both blood donors and volunteer workers at previous Bloodmobile visits."

As a result of this presentation two volunteers signed up on the spot to be donors at the Bloodmobile visit on Monday, March 18th at the Presbyterian Parish House on Main Street, Springfield. Others showed high interest and desired still further information.

Any groups wanting a speaker on the Blood Program in Springfield, and individuals seeking information or desiring to volunteer as donors or workers should call DR 9-2562.

Ambitious Program Slated For Schools

Preparing for population growth and normal needs for education, the Springfield Board of Education has announced an ambitious program for the expansion of existing school facilities in the Township.

The program will be known as "Operation Update" and comes as the result of exhaustive surveys and studies by School Board members and officials of Springfield's educational system.

Frederick A. Elsasser, well known school architect, has been chosen and authorized to prepare preliminary plans to be ready in time for a public meeting to be held at the Florence M. Gaudineer School cafeteria on Wednesday, March 20, at 8 p.m. at which time complete details will be available.

The tentative plans by the Board of Education is to set a date in May for a referendum and the March 20 public meeting has been arranged so that all Springfield residents will be able to get all information on the proposed expansion program.

Designed to provide for the most efficient use of existing school buildings and properties, the proposed plans include an addition to the Florence M. Gaudineer School, a two-story addition to the Raymond Chisholm School, replacing the four room, one-story construction built in 1921, and a small administration building to be constructed on the site of the Walton School.

When completed the building program will provide the necessary additional classroom space and fulfill the requirements of the overall school program.

In preparing the referendum the Board of Education has viewed the school system's facilities needs for the next five years with full consideration given to the expanding curriculum, the present shortage of classroom space, the normal increase in school population and the probable areas of population growth. The program will provide the Springfield Schools with additional facilities in centralized locations on School owned properties.

1918 — The Last Act, by Barrie Pitt (Norton $5.95)

Two Britons whose personal acquaintance with war dates back only to the 1939-1945 conflict have turned their attention to the tragic folly of their fathers who drenched France with blood in World War I.

The result is two books, independently written and published, which are sufficiently similar in style, content and viewpoint for one to have been meant as a sequel for the other.

Home's "The Price of Glory" is the story of the French defense of Verdun, history's most terrible battle. Ten months of continual carnage ended with the opposing forces just about where they began — at a cost of 600,000 men killed, wounded or captured.

France's losses were somewhat heavier than Germany's, but the difference was not significant: both sides squandered human resources they could not spare, and neither ever recovered entirely.

Two events that occurred far from the trenches in France set the stage for climactic developments — the Russian revolution and subsequent surrender and the U.S. declaration of war.

Some of them fought in the ranks of the U.S. Army during World War

Jr. Reviewers Consider Books

At the last meeting of the Junior Reviewers at the Springfield Public Library, the following reviews were considered interesting:

CALDWELL SCHOOL -William Keller.

"Boy of the Pyramids" by Ruth Fosdick Jones. "This book is about Ancient Egypt and mainly about Sari and Kaffe, son of a nobleman. It is a time of slaves and of bull fights, which are very exciting. You will read about the flooding Nile and harvest time in Egypt. Also there is the mystery of a green stone, found in a basket that had accidentally tumbled over, which had come from the pyramid of a pharaoh of Egypt. One the stone was Horus, son of the god of the Nile carved on it, with a chip in it, which was how they could tell. If you would like to find out what happened at the end, read "Boy of the Pyramids." I liked this book because it tells about some interesting facts about Ancient Egypt and what was true, like the river Nile flowing over."

CHISHOLM SCHOOL -Lisa Wasserman.

"Spy for the Confederacy" by Jeannette Nolan. "This book tells the life story of Rose O'Neal Greenhow. At the beginning of the book, Rose and her sister Ellen moved from Poolesville, Maryland to Washington. There they stayed at the Old Capitol boardinghouse which later became a prison for the Confederate soldiers. Rose loved politics and at once became a friend of John C. Calhoun. She married Robert Greenhow in 1835. Within the next ten years Robert and Rose had three children, Florence, Gertrude and Leila. Robert Greenhow worked for the State Department. The State Department sent Robert to Mexico and Rose went with him. In Mexico a lawyer in San Francisco and Robert agreed. Rose went back to Washington and Robert went to San Francisco. When Rose returned to Washington she had another child that she named Little Rose. In March a letter was sent to Rose from Robert's clerk, Robert was dead. The Civil War began and Rose started her career as a spy for the Confederacy. Allan Pinkerton, a detective who was trying to wipe out all the spies in Washington became suspicious of Rose. He found some evidence and arrested Rose. She was sent to the Old Capitol with the other Confederate soldiers and spies. Rose was exiled to Richmond because of the way she acted at the Old Capitol building. President Davis sent Rose to London to regain the sympathy of France and England. On the way back from London Rose drowned. If you want to know why and how read this book."

ST. JAMES SCHOOL -Steve Vinnacombe.

"Indian Captive-Story of Mary Jenison" by Lois Lenski. "In the spring of 1758, a rumor of raiding Indians spread over Eastern Pennsylvania. About three hours later the Indians surrounded the house of Mary Jenison. They entered the house and destroyed everything. They took the family captive. They traveled for a few days. Then Mary Jenison was taken from her family. Her family was killed the next day. Mary Jenison's journey from Marsh Creek Hollow to Fort Duquesne was taken on foot; from the Ohio River to Genishaw was taken by horseback, by canoe and on foot. Mary Jenison became a Seneca Indian and was named Corn Tassel because of her blonde hair. The English came and tried to bring her to Fort Niagara and give her a home. Mary Jenison became aware of the Seneca Indian murdering her family. Mary had great courage and would not return with the English. The Seneca Indians then named her Little Woman-of-Great-Courage. She is famous today in American Colonial History."

SANDMEIER SCHOOL -Lee Meisel.

"Stonewall Jackson" by Johnathon Daniels. "Thomas Johnathon Jackson was born 1824. He was truly a great soul. Tom was a stern man. On June 12, 1842 Fool Tom started West Point (They called him Fool Tom at W.P.). He was a major in the Mexican War. Jackson married Elinor Juckin. She soon died. In 1857 he married Mary Anna. In the battle of Bull Run or Manassas on his horse 'Little Sorel' Jackson got his name 'Stonewall.' General Bee rallied his men, 'Look Gen. Bee shouted, 'There is Jackson standing like a stone wall.' 'Stonewall' fought many exciting battles. John W. Palmer wrote Stonewall Jackson's Way. One night as 'Old Jack' was going to a battle he met another Confederate Army. Some soldiers yelled 'cease firing.' There he was shot. His right arm was amputated. Soon pneumonia killed him. He's surely a great soul. John Esten Cooke wrote a poem about him. "I liked the book - was excellent. I'd recommend this book but at the first half of the book I had to force myself a little."

WALTON SCHOOL -Michael Chotimer.

"Ben Franklin of Old Philadelphia" by Margaret Cousins is a biography on Benjamin Franklin and what he did for this country. It starts when Franklin was born in 1708. He was a 'water baby.' Ben loved the sea and had the ambition to be a sailor. Next the book told about when Ben went to school. School was over at 12, then his education had just begun. He became an apprentice to his brother. Ben's older brother was jealous of Ben. You can guess what happened.

"When Ben was older he did many things for Philadelphia such as organizing the first voluntary fire men. Later he became an ambassador which was the most exciting part of the book. Read the book to find out what happened on his exploits to England and France.

"I liked the book accept for one point. The author kept going back to earlier dates when he was far ahead in his life."

The Censors and the Schools, by Jack Nelson and Gene Roberts, Jr. (Little, Brown $4.50): Two newspaper reporters survey the activities of minority groups in determining what can or cannot appear in school textbooks.

HS To Host Trib Youth

Jonathan Dayton Regional High School will once again be the host school for two New York Herald Tribune Youth Forum Delegates. The delegates this year will be from Greece and Liberia. They will arrive in Springfield on February 11, and spend a three week period at the school.

The Forum Program is designed primarily, to promote better understanding between peoples of different countries. It gives thousands of students an opportunity to realize how much alike human beings are. It also permits hundreds of schools a unique focal point for increasing students interest in world affairs, and, through the delegates reactions, a new appreciation of the fundamental principles of American democracy.

Jonathan Dayton has arranged hospitality for Forum Delegates in the homes of their students and designed a program of school and community activities that will be of mutual educational benefit to delegates and host students.

Dorothy Ward, 64 South 17 St., Kenilworth, will be hostess to Iren Spanidou, Delegate from Greece.

Miss Spanidou, born in Thessaly, has traveled extensively throughout Greece. She has attended seven different schools and has lived in more than seven towns. She is a student of English, German, French and History.

Glen Thomas, 404 Coolidge Drive, Kenilworth, will be host to Amos Sawyer, Delegate from Liberia.

Mr. Sawyer is a High School Senior and is interested in enrolling in the University of Liberia—or seeking a foreign scholarship to study political science after graduation. He is president of the Hi-Y Club and a Senator in the Student Council of his school.

Food for Needy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—About 6.2 million needy persons in family units are receiving foods donated by the U.S. Department of Agriculture through its Direct Distribution Program. This is an increase of about 200,000 over a year earlier.

Swim Pool Applications Being Mailed

The informative brochure and application for charter membership in the Springfield Community Swimming Pool is in process of being mailed to every resident of the township, according to Edward Schwartz, Chairman of the Swim Pool Committee. The applications have been available for a few days at Town Hall and already some families have availed themselves of these and the first few applications have already been returned.

Residents are urged to return the applications with the initial year's membership dues as quickly as possible because membership will be taken on first-come, first-served basis and is limited because of health and safety factors. The brochure outlines two pages of facts and statistics regarding the proposed pool and membership regulations.

In addition to the application blank which can be torn or cut off from the brochure, an addressed envelope accompanies each brochure so that residents may return their application and membership far more easily.

The Swim Pool Committee requests that all applications be returned not later than March 6, 1963. Don't delay and be sorry! Mail your application TODAY!

Car Expenses

And Tax Scene

Car owners fretting over the high cost of motoring have at least one consolation—some of their expenses are deductible for income tax purposes, says the New Jersey Automobile Club (AAA). F. Kenneth Schultze, General Manager of the Club, said that taxpayers who itemize deductions may deduct the following even if the car is used solely for personal, non-business purposes:

1. Automobile registration fees.
2. State and local taxes on gasoline (but not the 4¢ Federal tax).
3. Interest on money borrowed on the security of an automobile.
4. Losses not covered by insurance resulting from fire, storm or theft or accident provided the accident was not the result of the taxpayer's willful act or negligence—such as drunken driving, for example.

Tax Help

Taxpayer assistance by telephone is being expanded this year for northern New Jersey taxpayers, Frank S. Turbett, Jr., Director of the Newark District of the Internal Revenue Service, announced today.

Special telephone lines are open from 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., Monday through Friday, in all local Internal Revenue Service offices. Mr. Turbett said this telephone service will save time and money for taxpayers and the Government. Phoning provides uninterrupted attention to tax problems and eliminates standing in line.

Ambitious Schedule By Industrial Group

An ambitious year is ahead for the Mayor's Industrial Committee. Their plans were outlined at the last regular meeting on February 6, 1963.

Mayor Arthur Falkin who attended, commended the committee for the brochure that is being distributed and remarked that it has caused quite a favorable stir among those interested parties that have received it so far. Reports given on projects in progress were firstly that the signs, just erected by the state were originated by the efforts of the committee. Progress too is being made on parking problems in the industrial community and solutions for relief are in the offing. It was also reported that 1500 Industrial Brochures had been sent to Industrial Realtors from Boston to Washington. The mayor made a suggestion that architects might be another beneficial outlet for their Brochure. The committee agreed that this was an excellent suggestion and would follow through. They also placed in motion advertising throughout the year in various appropriate industrial periodicals. The most ambitious plan for the year is an Industrial Fair to be held during June of 1963 at one of Springfield's Schools as presently contemplated. The Industrial Community will be asked to join with the Township Industrial Committee in bringing to the public an exhibit of products and services rendered by them. This display will help demonstrate that the theme of the Industrial Committee's Brochure is testimony in fact of "A balanced community."

During the meeting a question came upon the relative responsibilities of the Mayor's Industrial Committee and the Industrial Division of the Chamber of Commerce. Since the question was posed to Mayor Falkin he remarked that in his opinion the Industrial committee primary function was to attract and bring industry into Springfield, and secondly be available to help solve any problems industry might be faced with. The industrial division of the Chamber of Commerce's prime function is to service industries within the township and secondly to help bring in new concerns. The next meeting of the Mayors Industrial Committee is to be an open meeting in which everyone in our industrial community is invited. There will be a question and answer period in which any subject of interest may be brought to the floor. We may expect many questions on the Industrial Fair to be raised. The open meeting will be on Wednesday the 6th of March.

On Honors List

Miss Diana Bouchard of Springfield is on the honors list at Upsala College, East Orange for the fall semester of the 1962-63 academic year.

A senior majoring in Spanish, Miss Bouchard is planning to attend Columbia University for graduate study. She will be teaching in the elementary school after graduation from Upsala.

Library Growth Due To Efficient Job By Director

10th Year as Librarian

MISS HELEN C. REYNER

Growth of the Springfield Public Library is due, to a great extent, to the efficient staff under the leadership of Miss Helen C. Reyner who is starting her tenth year as Director of the Free Public Library of Springfield.

She came to Springfield in December, 1953 and became Director on January 1, 1954. Immediately before coming to Springfield, she had been studying at the School of Library Service, Columbia University, where she received an M.A. Degree.

This was not Miss Reyner's first degree in library field since she has been in library work since she was eighteen years old. After graduation from Camden High School she studied library methods at the William Penn Adult Evening School in Philadelphia, and did volunteer work in The Apprentices' Library on Broad Street. At this time she was invited to join the staff of the Camden Public Library as assistant to the Children's Librarian.

The four years spent in Camden gave Miss Reyner valuable insight into the operation of a public library, because she worked in various departments and her hours were short enough to enable her to attend the University of Pennsylvania part time.

After leaving the Camden Library, Miss Reyner entered the University as a sophomore and was graduated with a B.A. degree. This was followed by a year at the School of Library Science at Drexel Institute in Philadelphia where she earned a B.S. degree in Library Science.

Following her graduation Miss Reyner spent eight years as Librarian at Camden High School, and four years in the Philadelphia school system.

Nevertheless, she was anxious to return to public library work and began to work toward this by becoming cataloger for the Haddonfield Public Library and then the Atlantic County Library System centered in Mays Landing.

In order to study at the Columbia Library School, where she had previously taken several courses, she changed to the Passaic Public Library for two years. Finally she devoted full time to acquiring her degree before coming to Springfield. She has also received a professional certificate from the Education Department of New Jersey.

Miss Reyner was born in Camden and says she looks upon herself as a "Jerseyite" and is never happy away from this state where she has many friends in both the north and the south.

Some of the groups with which she has been associated are: American Library Association, New Jersey Education Association, Camden County Chapter of American Association of University Women, St. John's Church of Camden, Alumni Associations of University of Pennsylvania, Drexel Institute and Columbia University, the New Jersey Library Association, League of Women Voters, Springfield Woman's Club, New Jersey Historical Society, Springfield Historical Society, Book Women's Club, and the Women's National Book Association New York City Branch.

While living in Springfield, Miss Reyner attends St. Paul's Church in Westfield, because her family always has had close association with the Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey.

During the time Miss Reyner has been Director of the Springfield Library the circulation figures have risen from 38,000 in 1953, to 150,000 at the present time. In 1957 an addition three times the size of the original library was built.

Miss Reyner has recently added the title of Consultant to the Board of Directors and as such will be preparing background material for further expansion of the library and its facilities and revising content and distribution of the book collection.

White Elephant Sale at Hadassah

The Springfield Chapter of Hadassah will hold their annual laugh-provoking White Elephant Sale at the regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening February 28th at Temple Beth Ahm, 8:30 p.m.

Members are reminded that they are to bring with them any article new or nearly new for resale. Mr. David Schwartz will once again be the auctioneer for the sale. All proceeds from this function go to support the Vocational Education Program of Hadassah.

Mrs. Aaron Ratner, Vocational Education chairman will report to the membership the latest information from the National Hadassah office on this project, which is the natural outgrowth of Hadassah's original program to foster the well-being of youth in Israel.

Mrs. Murray Greenberg, Donor chairman, will present final plans for the Donor Luncheon, which this year will be held at the Americana Hotel in New York on March 20th, 1963.

Mrs. Harold Reisberg, American and Zionist Affairs chairman, will bring to the members all the latest information pertinent to an informed group of women interested in world affairs.

Rotary To Donate

The Rotary Club of Springfield announced today that they will make available educational loan funds in limited amounts to qualified high school graduates and to students currently attending or other institutions of higher learning.

Qualification is to be on the basis of residency in the township of Springfield, scholastic ability, character, and evidence of need of financial assistance to further his or her education. The loans will be free of interest charges and not subject to repayment until such time as the student has completed his education or discontinues his studies.

Additional information may be obtained from the Student Loan Committee of the Rotary Club of Springfield or from Miss Charlotte Singer, Director of Guidance, Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

It should be of interest to the residents of Springfield to learn that the funds that make these loans possible were derived from the Rotary Club's U.S. Air Force Band Concert in 1962 that will be augmented through receipts from the presentation of the Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers, sponsored by the Club, who will appear on Sunday, March 3, 1963 at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School auditorium.

Observe Week

Monday evening, February 18th, the Raymond Chisholm P. T. A. observed National Brotherhood Week with a program which was enjoyed by over forty parents and teachers.

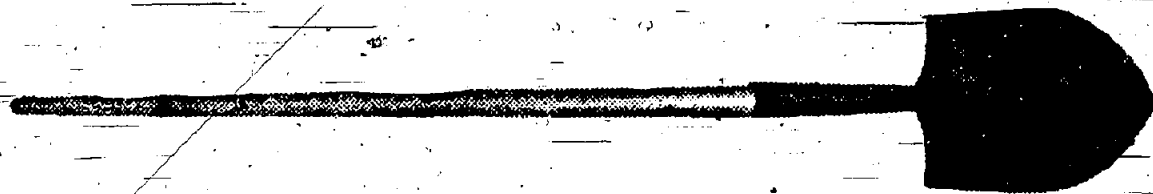

Mrs. Bernard Schwartz set the keynote for the evening by reading the recent statement made by President Kennedy on the meaning of World Brotherhood. A film was shown and Reverend James E. Lindsley of the St. Stephens Episcopal Church added a few words at the conclusion of the program.

The Hospitality Committee under the leadership of Mrs. Everette Kaufman provided desserts from many different lands.

Mrs. Butler's fifth grade class won the attendance prize.

Special Patriotic Service Slated By Elks, Legion

A special patriotic service will be held by the American Legion Post 228, and the Springfield Lodge of Elks on Saturday, Feb. 23, at 8:00 p.m. at the Legion Hall, North Trivett Street.

This service, which will be held to foster the Americanism programs of both organizations, is one in which all residents are invited to attend, in addition to the members of all civic, religious and professional units in Springfield.

The purpose of this service is to bring to the attention of all, the need, in this period of history, for the sincere and dedicated love of our country, the need to uphold the ideals and traditions which have made this America the outstanding civilization of all time, and the need to show, again and again, that it is the people, under our form of government, that makes this country strong, and the champions of freedom and liberty for all.

A full program has been arranged with prominent speakers in attendance, and after the ceremony, all are invited to the Lodge 357 Morris Ave., for refreshments.

Thomas Dougherty, Commander of the Legion, with Ray Schramm, and Saul Freeman, Exalted Ruler of the Elks, in conjunction with committee members Richard M. Blake PER, Robert T. Marino PER, and Loyal Knight John Grifo, have completed all phases of the program, and invited all residents to come to the Legion Hall to observe the ceremony.

Bob Denver, beatnik pal of "Dobie Gillis" on the CBS Television Network, was a pre-law major at Loyola University before he began acting.

The 1963 appropriation makes provision for salary and wage increases to all full time Municipal Employees. The Anticipated Revenues for 1963, which include Surplus, Miscellaneous Revenues, and Receipts from Delinquent Taxes, show a decrease of $101,091.10, and is attributable to less surplus being used in preparing the 1963 Budget, than in 1962.

The Reserve for Uncollected Taxes shows an increase of $54,733.86, primarily to provide for the anticipated loss in collection of 1963 taxes on properties that will be taken by the State Highway Department, and also to provide the required overlay on the increased levy for School, County, and Municipal Purposes.

Dinner Dance Great Success

Last Friday night the Chamber of Commerce held its first annual dinner dance. It was evident that from the good time everyone had the evening was an unqualified success. Among the highlights of the evening was the sumptuous dinner. The Chanticleer again lived up to its high reputation and really "did it up brown".

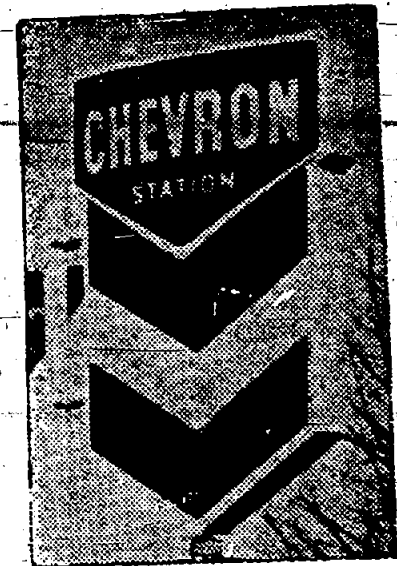

After dinner Jack Stifelman, President of the Chamber of Commerce, called Henry Grabarz, past President of the Chamber of Commerce, to step up front and there presented him with a plaque from his associates on the Board of Directors, citing him for his outstanding leadership and devotion to the ideals of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Grabarz then commented on the role of the citizens in the township form of government and that with the dedicated Board of Directors he had to foster the aims of the Chamber of Commerce there was good reason for the success in 1962. With this he called the members of the 1962 Board of Directors forward and presented each with a framed certificate of award citing each and every one of them for their loyalty and unrelenting efforts. He then turned the mike over to Mr. Stifelman with the remark that although his shoes were size 12 he was sure Mr. Stifelman who wears size 9 would be able to fill them in the year 1963; Mr. Stifelman accepted the challenge and assured all present that he felt with his hard working group this year would surely equal last.

Mr. Stifelman then introduced committeeman and former Mayor, Philip DelVecchio, and asked him to make a few remarks. Mr. DelVecchio thanked the Chamber of Commerce for their efforts and accomplishments throughout the year.

From then on the orchestra took over and dancing of all fashions prevailed, interspersed only by the talented Mrs. Sale-sky who sang a few lovely songs.

Sane Campaign

The Union County Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy intends to mount an immediate campaign to alert citizens to the importance of making known their views concerning a nuclear test-ban treaty, according to Victor Besson, Chairman.

"We believe that the great majority of citizens in our community favor the consummation of a nuclear test-ban treaty with Soviet Russia provided there are adequate inspection guarantees," Mr. Besson points out. "But none of us can afford to be passive in this matter. We must make sure that President Kennedy, members of his administration, and Congress know what we want."

"We'll be working hard on the telephone and face to face to urge our neighbors to send letters and telegrams to both the President and members of Congress. Now that Soviet Russia has re-accepted the principle of on-site inspection, there are very few differences to be resolved. The test-ban negotiations now going on at the 18 Nation Disarmament Conference in Geneva hold great promise."

"However, there are vocal opponents of the test-ban agreement and it would be unfortunate if their voices were the loudest to be heard by President Kennedy and members of Congress"

Mr. Besson pointed out that any agreement arrived at by the Administration would have to be ratified by two-thirds of the Senate.

Young GOPs

To Hold Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Springfield Republican Club will be held, as usual, at the newly furnished and expanded American Legion Hall on Trivett Street across from Town Hall. The date is the regular fourth Monday February 25th at 8:30 p.m.

According to President John Grifo, his wife Joy will be in charge of the "rotation" Refreshment Committee at this meeting. Volunteers for coming meetings will be accepted at the meeting.

Twenty-six-year Treasurer, Charles Quinzel announces that the modest dues of two dollars per member are acceptable at this time and reminds members and prospects alike of the following:

each year. Refreshments are served.

2. At least ten mailings notifying you of the meetings, programs and other happenings.

3. After three months from payment of dues, you are eligible to vote on Club affairs or to be nominated for office if you are willing.

5. A membership card. New prospective members are cordially invited to the meetings and to enjoy "the fun of the club." Membership requirements are Age 21 or over and registered to vote either republican or independent. For more information phone Drexel 6-3428.

The Oldest Market In Town

The Springfield Market was opened in the 1920's by Mike D'Andrea as a Meat Market, and over the years has been one of the better known stores in the area. With the years came changes both in size and management. In the 1930's Les Schulman took over the produce department from Mr. D'Andrea, and in 1941 Jim Funcheon purchased the grocery department from Mr. D'Andrea. This was the year of Pearl Harbor. The ensuing years of the war until 1946 were trying years for the three owners and their many customers, what with rationing, stamps, shortages of meat, coffee, butter, sugar, etc. Many events come to mind in recalling the memories of the years of the war—some pleasant, and some unpleasant. But one that many of the older residents in town will recall was the late Township Committeeman, Mr. Macartney, handing out numbers to the women in line waiting for the store to open whenever legitimate meat was available. This was only on about one day a week, usually Thursday, because most of the meat during these days was going into the black market.

In 1946 Mr. D'Andrea retired and Les and Jim formed a partnership and bought out Mr. D'Andrea's interest in the store; shortly thereafter enlarged the store into a self-service superette, and for a time operated only as a self-service Shop-Rite Super Market. However, this type of a store did not appeal to either owner. After serious thought, they decided to return to the operation of the Springfield Market as a self-service superette, with free telephone delivery service featuring top quality meat, fancy produce, and a complete line of groceries, etc. to better serve the growing population in our widely spread-out town, and also in Union, Summit, Millburn, and Mountainside.

The store is fortunate in having a fine butcher, Harry Newman, who finds no effort too great when it comes to pleasing our fastidious meat customers. Michael Pettinocchio, our new deliveryman, and John Benigno complete our staff.

This store is the old type store where owner and customer are known by name and a friendly relationship exists here that cannot be enjoyed in a large super-market. Our aim in the years ahead will be to improve our SERVICES to our customers, because there is a nice feeling at the end of the day when you know you have done the best you can in any endeavor.

Les and Mae Schulman are the proud parents of three daughters and one granddaughter. Les is a member of the Hillside Lodge B'nai B'rith. Mae is a member of the Hillside Chapter of Hadassah.

The Schulman family: Karen, B.A. from Beaver College, will graduate in June from the University of Chicago with a M.A. degree, specializing in Medical and Psychiatric Casework. Janet is a freshman at the University of Wisconsin. Lynda, who graduated from Rutgers University with a B.A. degree, Phi Beta Kappa and Who's Who, American Universities and Colleges, is now working for her M.A.

in education. Lynda, is married to Jerome Rosenbaum, has one daughter and resides in Jersey City. Mr. Rosenbaum is office manager for deferred compensation, Mutual Fund Specialists in Manhattan.

Jim and Anne (Conley) Funcheon are also proud of their seven children and five grandchildren, and have lived in Springfield most of their lives. Jim and his family are members of St. James Church. He is active in the Springfield Bowling League, and is an exempt volunteer fireman.

Jim has three children away from home. Betzi, an R.N. graduate of St. Michael's Newark, resides in Maplewood with her husband, Lawyer Harry Sheil, and three children. Joan, a baby nurse graduate of St. Vincent's, Montclair, resides in Springfield with her husband, Anthony Dante, I.B.M. Tabulating Supervisor for All State Insurance Company in Murray Hill, they have two children, Marine Lieutenant James, a graduate of Seton Hall University, is residing in Triangel, Virginia with his new bride, formerly Angela Benigno of Springfield. He is stationed at Quantico, Virginia.

There are four children still at home: Ellen, a senior at Regional High; Peter and Billy attend St. James School; and Mary Kate who keeps mommy company at home.

Jim Funcheon was one the early presidents of the Chamber of Commerce and although not active now, realized the importance of a Chamber of Commerce and hopes it will continue its good work for years to come.

The Municipal Parking Lot near our store has been a big help to our business and a nice convenience to our customers and we would like to thank the Township Committee and the Chamber for their efforts to improve conditions in the business area.

Troop 155 News

On February 16, Scout Troop 155 under Scoutmaster Sheldon Becker, had its second annual Scout Dinner in Fellowship Hall, Union Village Methodist Church. Master of Ceremonies, Ken Adriaance, introduced the honored guests, Clarence Buurman, Vice Chairman of the Hills District Scout Commission, Grant Lavery, Robert Mikulyak, Mel Weber and Don Weber and also leaders and members of the local scout committee.

During the candlelight ceremony of the Court of Honor which followed the dinner, merit badges were awarded and advancements were made. Bill Jayne, Lee Johnson and Bill McKinnon received merit badges in cycling, citizenship and reading, respectively; George Gunderson, Bruce Jayne, David Mukai, and Gregory Speck became Tenderfoot Scouts while Victor Mukai, Charles Papazian, and Robert Trakimas were awarded merit badges and advanced to the rank of Star Scout.

The PIECE DE RESISTANCE of the evening consisted of color slides and movies on the very interesting subject of canoeing shown by Grant Lavery and Robert Mikulyak, assisted by Troop 155's own canoeing veterans of many years, Mel Weber and his son, Don.

We missed the presence of our very popular Committee Chairman, William Jayne, who was absent due to illness.

Bedell Heads Award Office

The Prudential Insurance Co.'s Chatham District office, 320 Main St., Chatham, has been awarded one of the company's highest honors, a President's Citation. It was the second highest ranking office in the country.

Formal presentation of the award, for "all-round agency accomplishments," will be made at a future dinner to be attended by the entire district staff and Prudential's top area executives.

Only the top 10 per cent of the 589 company districts throughout the United States and Canada receive the citation each year.

Close Games Feature Action

Close games featured State League basketball games last Saturday afternoon at the Florence Gaudineer School gym. In the opening game of the 5-game card, California won 25-23 over North Carolina with Allen Todres the chief point maker for the winners with an 18 point output. Danziger and Jensen were outstanding for the North Carolina wolfpack. In the second game Oklahoma's well drilled quintet edged Minnesota 22-19, with Margulis and Pierson the sparkplugs for the winners. Big Ralph LoSanno was blanked in the first half, then collaborated with O'Connell as each scored 8 points to carry the brunt of the Minnesota attack.

Kentucky tipped Texas 26-24 as Johnny Schoch came up with his top game of the campaign, with Howard Spielman chipping in with three timely baskets in the late stages of the game. Mike Krautblatt and Don Cubberly were the most outstanding for the losing Texans. West Virginia showed good rebounding and drive to easily defeat Wyoming 18-10. Howie Tiss and big Mike Biro were the scoring leaders for the Mountaineers, with Biro netting 10 points on 5 baskets. Gary Ginsburg scored 8 points in the last half to lead the Wyoming scorers. In the finale of the 5-game card Florida scored an impressive 26-18 win over Utah, with Bobby Catapano tossing home 18 points to provide the spark for Florida. Schwartz and Hrank were the best for Utah.

After the Banquet, by Yukio Mishima (Knopf $4): This latest work by a young Japanese novelist tells of the love and marriage of the middle-aged Kazuo, proprietress of the fashionable Setsugan Restaurant, and the retired cabinet minister Noguchi. Both were set beyond change in their ways of life. Kazuo loved the lively turmoil of the entertainment world. Noguchi, old politician that he was, still longed for the position and dignity of public office. So he ran for governor and conducted his campaign in the staid, rigid manner of the past. Mishima's insight into human mores, morals and motives keeps the story on a high plane of interest. Translation from the Japanese is by Donald Keene.

Optimists to Hold Organization Meeting at Springfield House

The recently organized Springfield Optimists have embarked on their first local project in assisting the Union Chapter of this world-wide service organization with the Union, Springfield, Kenilworth Soap Box Derby in cooperation with L. & S Chevrolet Co. of Union.

Contestants will be boys between the ages of 11 and 15 years on August 1, 1963. The winner of the local race, scheduled for June 9, will receive a $500.00 United States Savings Bond and a trophy, and will be sent to Akron, Ohio, with all expenses paid, for the national contest on August 3. The scholarship awards, totaling $30,000.00, will be awarded to the winners in Akron.

Each applicant must build his own car according to specifications. The wheels, identical for each car, are purchased from the derby sponsors by the boys.

Applications and rule books can be obtained at L. & S Chevrolet Co. at Morris Avenue and Commerce Street in Union. Each boy must be accompanied by a parent.

In making the announcement, A. Donald McKenzie, President of the Union Optimist Club, stated, "We are proud to be chosen as a sponsor of the 1963 Soap Box Derby in this area."

Farm Topic Is Slated

The problem of a farming family, and the care of their crops and animals during the four seasons of the year will be shown at The Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation, on Sunday, February 24.

The color, sound film entitled "The Great Adventure" depicts life on a Swedish farm.

One-half hour nature talks for children will be conducted by Dr. Harold N. Moldenke, director of Trailside, at 4:00 p.m., on Monday, February 25; Tuesday, February 26; and Thursday, February 28. "Birds of Prey" will be discussed during the three days and Dr. Moldenke's lectures will be illustrated with color slides.

The Trailside Nature and Science Center is open to the public each weekday, except Friday, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m., and on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. There is no admission charge at any time.

Swamp Locals

The Union, Jr.s. continued to extend their New Jersey Table Tennis League lead by swamping fourth place Springfield 9 to 1. Springfield's only win was Al Noehenson's victory over Wayne Richter, the Union, Jr.s. number 3 man. Harvey Gutman and Jeff Siversky swept their matches and took the doubles match.

It was a stand off between Newark and Jersey City with the final score being 5 to 5. Upset victories were scored by Raoul Kamel of Jersey City over Bill Cross of Newark and Ken Brause of Newark over Raoul Kamel.

Colonia hit its stride again by defeating Bloomfield 7 to 3. They were helped by the absence of Martin Buki from the Bloomfield squad. Don Zargham of Bloomfield upset veteran Stan Meilus of Colonia. Bloomfield's loss dropped them from second place to third place. This was the only change in the standings from the preceding week.

Although Irvington was only able to field two of their three players, they managed to hold Eatontown to a 5 to 5 tie. Elias Solomon won all three of his matches as usual. John Kilpatrick, current state champion, was once again one of his victims.

Clifton bounced back with a 6 to 4 victory, their second of the season, over the Union, Sr.s. Ray Johnson of Clifton won all three of his matches.

This affair has become a national institution and is an excellent program for young boys. We feel that this affair provides us with one of the best outlets for the expression of the slogan of our Club, "friend of the boy."

McKenzie also advised applicants to get started early on their racers since often the difference between the winner and the loser in the derby is the extra time taken to bring the racer as near as possible to running perfection.

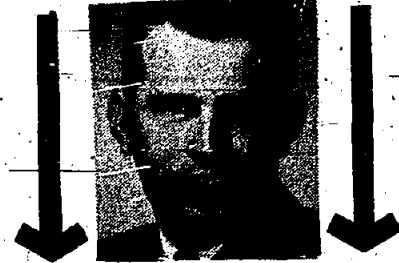

Any persons interested in helping with the Soap Box Derby or in other activities of the Optimists may do so by contacting Jay Sperling at DR 9-4942 or Bert Kaswiner at DR 9-3803.

Profiles of the Future, by Arthur C. Clarke (Harper & Row $3.95): This fascinating book is subtitled, "An Inquiry into the Limits of the Possible," but it doesn't take much reading to give one the feeling that even the sky is not the limit. Clarke, who has written much about space exploration, sees man as a creature engaged in an endless process of changing his implements, environment and himself. Man's technology, he speculates, may lead to machines capable of thinking for themselves and which may eventually render their creator obsolete.

Mixed Benefit

NEW YORK (UPI) — The first thing many homemakers do on a Monday morning is peek out the window to check the weather. If the day is bright and sunny, they consider it a good wash day.

But, while the sun is drying their clothes, it's also affecting the fabrics — and often not too favorable. Bright sunshine causes fading of color, bleaching, loss of whiteness, and weakening of fibers, say home economists at the Oklahoma State University's Agricultural Experiment Station.

Contributions Are Made

Two contributions to the worldwide fight against tuberculosis have been made by the Union County Tuberculosis and Health League. A check for $100 was mailed last week to help the Guam Tuberculosis Association which was nearly wiped out by a typhoon which struck the island in November, 1962. The League also renewed its membership in the International Union Against Tuberculosis.

On Guam, 90 per cent of the homes were destroyed in the storm. The Guam Tuberculosis Association suffered a total loss of its equipment and supplies, except the X-ray unit which could not operate because there was no power. Miraculously, the storm caused few casualties among the people. The island tuberculosis association reported that it first worked with other agencies to provide typhoid inoculations and emergency clothing and shelter before beginning its own restoration. It anticipates an increase in tuberculosis on the island as a result of the devastation and consequent health problems.

The Union County Tuberculosis and Health League's check was forwarded to Guam through the National Tuberculosis Association. Other tuberculosis associations in New Jersey and the United States have contributed $4,370 and the National Tuberculosis Association has made an emergency grant to the stricken tuberculosis affiliate.

The International Union Against Tuberculosis is a federation of 67 national tuberculosis associations and some 2,000 individual members. It maintains a constant alert against the worldwide tuberculosis problem which reaches epidemic proportions in many countries.

Press Greets SS "Magdalena"

Suburban newspaper publishers were guests of the Grace Line last Wednesday at a reception marking inauguration of passenger service at Port Newark. The handsomely appointed "Santa Magdalena", first of four new passenger-cargo liners which will make regularly scheduled trips between Newark and the Caribbean, was scene of the event. Executive from New Jersey and Manhattan were on hand for a conducted tour of the ship's vitals.

Introduction of passenger travel from and to Port Newark should have great significance not only for the City of Newark, but for the entire suburban area as well. People from all over the world will get to know Greater Newark's port as they have Manhattan's waterfront for many years. From the standpoint of commerce, the additional inflow of dollars to our area should be of interest to small and large businessmen of Greater Newark.

Sounds unbelievable for a Chrysler. But it's true.

And we're ready to prove it to you.

Considering the full-size value you get in a Newport 4-door sedan, we can appreciate why so many ask us to prove that a Chrysler can be priced so low.

We're always happy to.

Because we can talk about full-size comfort; big, booming V-8 power (fed by economical regular gas); rich fabrics; lush carpeting. Plus America's best and longest new-car warranty†—5 years or 50,000 miles.

So why not compare the facts, the figures, the features, with any car anywhere. We think you'll find the $2964 Chrysler sizing up as the finest value in town.

Your Chrysler dealer's ready with the proof.

†Your authorized Chrysler Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Chrysler Certified Car Care schedules.

Get in The Swim

Deeds are always born in the minds of men. Accomplishment is its own satisfaction. This week, it was announced by Ed Schwartz, Chairman of the Municipal Swim Pool Committee, that the idea of Springfield's own Swim Pool has finally become a reality and that the many dedicated men on his committee who have worked so hard for almost two years to bring this about are enjoying the fruit of its success.

Perhaps enjoying is not the right word. There is yet so much work to be done. But from all indications of an initial response that has been so overwhelming, its success is assured. The Recreation Department in the Municipal Building, has already been swamped with applications and calls. Many residents fearing that they would be too late, personally hand-carried their forms to the Town Hall to be sure of joining on time.

The Springfield Swim Pool Committee was delighted by the great number of applicants who have made it quite clear that the membership goal will be reached at an early date.

It is of great importance for all residents who wish membership to forward their applications immediately. This will insure many happy and entertaining hours for themselves and their families during the LONG HOT summer months ahead.

The Springfield Swim Pool, which offers membership to all local residents, will open formally on July 4th, 1963. This gives the membership a summer of good fun without the drudgery of driving on our crowded and often dangerous highways. The facilities that will be available this coming season will include many varied forms of recreation.

In addition to the pool, there are plans for basketball courts, tennis courts and many other activities which will appeal to all age groups. This is truly the first opportunity the residents of Springfield will have to enjoy not only the many activities mentioned, but also the close community feeling which is so important for a better Springfield.

The members of the Swim Pool Committee have been spending long hours so that their friends and neighbors will have at their disposal, the type of recreation facility which has been overwhelmingly accepted in many surrounding communities. The success of their efforts has been clearly indicated by the initial surge of applications.

Health requirements and regulations may necessitate limiting the number of families for this year. With this thought in mind, the Swim Pool Committee has set a March 6th Deadline Date in order to determine the status of our membership.

Marvin Strauss, Co-Chairman of Membership and Finance requests that applicants do not send cash, but use check or money orders payable to the Twp. of Springfield - Swim Pool. Please fill out the application completely (a copy is re-printed on this page.)

It must be emphasized that this entire program is the beginning, or rather the extension of a far-reaching recreational and cultural program initiated by our Township and residents, that will eventually embrace not only the physical enjoyment of swimming, but will provide the framework for a Springfield cultural and recreational center.

The Swim Pool Committee is being deluged with questions and inquires as to the regulations and operations of the pool and will make every endeavor to keep the public informed. The committee wants to remind you, once again, that your application should be sent immediately so that you and your family will GET IN THE SWIM FOR '63.

It is urged that swim pool applications be filed promptly and not later than March 6, 1963.

If there are any questions concerning the pool the following committee members will be able to answer them: Co-chairman, Marvin Strauss, Lee Beno. Members, John Sheehan, Milt Zisman, Joseph Fleischman, William Koonz, Shirley Goldhammer.

Busy Month

Sixty one calls were answered by the Springfield First Aid Squad during January according to a report made this week at the regular monthly business meeting held at Squad Headquarters on North Trivett Street.

These represented two more calls, than the same month in 1962 when 59 calls, comprising 40 emergencies and 19 transportations were reported.

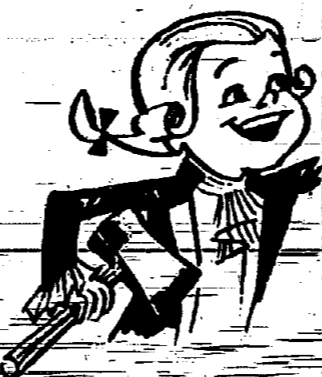

Both ambulances were pressed into service on 3 occasions during the 30-day period which included 43 emergencies, 17 transportations, and one stand-by.

The breakdown of calls answered included 12 heart cases, 5 auto accidents, 3 home accidents, 1 stand-by call, 1 maternity and 39 miscellaneous home illnesses. Three tanks of oxygen were consumed.

Squad members 181 hours of their time during the month for duty and the 2 ambulances were driven a total of 813 miles.

Also noted was the great increase in squad activity in the past 10 years because of the rapid growth of the town since 1952.

Extend "Horn" For Four Weeks

Although "Come Blow Your Horn", starring Menasha Skutnik, is not slated to open at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn until March 12, the engagement has already been extended.

The comedy, which is the final offering of the Paper Mill winter season, has enjoyed such a brisk demand at the box office that producers Frank Carrington and Laurence Feldman have decided to change the originally-planned two week run to four. The Minicola Playhouse on Long Island, operated by Mr. Feldman, also extended the play's run because of ticket demand.

The comedy will be directed by James Hammerstein.

Next Sunday, "Heart Sunday"

Springfield Heart Fund Chairman Max Sherman reminded all citizens that next Sunday, February 24, is designated annually as "Heart Sunday". Mr. Sherman stated that, "Although the entire month of February is 'Heart Month', special emphasis has always been placed on the last Sunday as being 'Heart Sunday'". Springfield volunteers have already collected many donations which will again purchase equipment for the Union County

Cardiac Diagnostic & Treatment Center at St. Elizabeth's Hospital and will be used for the purposes of research, education and aid to those afflicted with heart attacks, strokes, high blood pressure, rheumatic fever and in-born heart defects.

The Springfield Chairman cited the great strides in heart surgery and heart treatment, and appealed to everyone to donate generously in order to continue the fight against heart disease which is still the Nation's #1 public health enemy.

CONCERT

By DELOS SMITH

United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — In his newest recording the venerable conductor, Bruno Walter, offers an interesting psychiatric opinion concerning his career-long hero, Gustav Mahler. This composer, Walter says in the album notes, composed with "volcanic" emotions involving personal matters. But he "sublimated" them entirely in his music and thus made it objective art.

Walter's record is of Mahler's first symphony, made with the Columbia Symphony (Columbia-6394.) After reading his opinion you can judge how well he illustrates it in his conducting. You're likely to feel Mahler's first, like his succeeding symphonies, still sounds exceedingly emotional on a highly personal basis.

First Aid Squad Has Busiest Year

Springfield's active 28-man first aid squad had the busiest year in 1962 since the squad's inception 13 years ago.

The squad, working in 14 teams around-the-clock, operates 2 fully-equipped ambulances on many varied calls. The calls range from minor mishaps to hospital emergency cases. In pursuing this service last year the squad totaled 614 calls requiring 8,234 road miles and 1,963 man hours of actual working time—not counting thousands of hours spent in standing by and making ready for these calls.

Broken down further, these totals represent 70 hours of working time per member for the year and an average of 13 road miles per call. Throughout the year, 422 calls of an emergency nature were answered, 178 calls were made transporting patients from hospitals to their homes or other hospitals in every part of the state and to many out-of-state medical centers.

Another 18 calls were made to stand by or assist the police and fire departments of Springfield and neighboring communities. All of these calls were made at no charge to patients or their families.

The report emphasizes only the facts and figures about this vital community service. It cannot show the faithfulness with which each volunteer member performed his duty to the community. This fact was best summed up by squad president William Seal when he said, "More important than the factual report which shows 1962 as our busiest year, are the dedicated and unselfish efforts of our members who faithfully serve, without pay, sacrificing their leisure time for the community, as well as our neighbors in surrounding communities."

Due to the overwhelming increase in calls for aid, the squad is in need of additional members.

QUESTION TIME—Mrs. Ralph Lodato of 166 Henshaw Avenue is about to be interviewed by Jaycee member Kenneth Whitney. The Jaycees have begun a community attitude survey in Springfield to determine community opinion.

While in Japan our government further utilized his services in the capacity of consultant on how to establish better working relations between Japanese labor, management and government.

In 1962 he was the subject of much public attention when he narrowly missed becoming the choice of the Bronx Reform Democrats against Democratic Boss Buckley.

Lakers Win

The Lakers were the most impressive in last week's Small-Fry Basketball League activity at the James Caldwell School and probably will be the favorites in the forthcoming playoffs which will start soon.

In the first game of a 4-game card the Bullet scored an easy 15-6 win over the Celtics with Gary Fox, Chris Gacos and Pete Demner providing scoring punch for the winners. Don Lan and Bobby Fox were the best for the Celtics. The Lakers showed good balance and good scoring ability as they easily defeated the Nats by a 26-10 score. The Lakers had five men in the scoring column, with Vasilow, Epstein, Vaughn Yane and Wolff all registering. Bob Wasserman was the top performer for the Nats, netting 5 points. The Piston-Aggie game was close, with the Pistons coming through with a 12-8 victory. Prussing and Meisel were the spark for the winners, with D'Andrea getting all of the 8 points for the Aggies.

The Billikens and the Knicks squared off in the finale which proved to be the best of the afternoon. The Bills won 17-14 after leading by a single point at halftime as Janukowicz scored 11 points to lead all scorers.

Those Who Serve

THE SCOUTMASTER an influence for good...

What is a boy without adult leadership? He could possibly grow up to be President. But he's more likely to wind up in trouble. Without adult guidance a boy might grow like a weed in an untended garden.

Over the years since Scouting was introduced in this country, millions of boys have benefited from the guidance of Scoutmasters. And no one will ever know the legions of boys they, in turn, have influenced.

The Scoutmaster not only leads a troop; he influences the life of every boy in it. He has volunteered his time and effort to prepare boys to be better citizens.

He guides boys in finding values expressed in the Scout Oath: On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

The Oath, by itself, means nothing. It's the Scoutmaster who breathes life into it and gives it meaning. And every boy who lives it is the Scoutmaster's legacy to the future of America. Because of him a youth learns to stand straight and tall like a mighty oak.

The Baltusrol Golf Club Story; One Of Growth And Development

Baltusrol Golf Club in Springfield is unique in many ways. It is one of the oldest golf clubs in the country, having been organized just seven years after golf was first introduced in the United States, in 1888, at St. Andrew's, in Hastings - on Hudson. More national championships have been played over its courses than at any other club in the country. In 1898, it had a table of graduated dues which were, according to the New York papers, "peculiar to Baltusrol Club and to no other", in that a single member living within five miles of the Club paid $20 annually; a member living more than five miles from the Club, but still a resident of New Jersey, paid $15, while members from outside the State paid only $10.

About 1891, over 500 acres of beautiful woods and farmland in the southwestern part of Springfield Township had come into the possession of a New Yorker, Louis Keller, owner and publisher of the "Social Register". A short, stocky bachelor in his late thirties, he was the son of Charles Keller, the first United States Commissioner of patents. Golf had captured the fancy of the wealthy and the leisured. So, in order to "provide winter golfing for those who had become fond of the game while summering at Southampton and Newport", Keller laid out a nine hole course on fifty acres and fitted up an eight room farmhouse on the property with a grill room and club house facilities.

Then, to his New York friends and to those who had "country homes along the line of the Morris & Essex Railroad from Orange to Morristown", he sent out invitations to join the Baltusrol Golf Club. Presumably, the name was derived from that of Baltus Roll, a farmer who had lived on the mountain many years before and had achieved nation-wide fame by being murdered, on the night of Washington's birthday, in 1831. New York responded to the invitation with enthusiasm and among the early members we find such names as Aspinwall, Halsey, Beekman, Townsend, Harriman, McAllister, Chapin, Hewitt, Schermerhorn, De Peyster, Hamilton, Pell, Haskell, Huntington and Morris.

Directions for reaching the Club suggested traveling by train to the Short Hills Station, or by bicycle, via the 23rd Street Ferry. Don't think that no one took Keller up on the latter method, for on opening day, October 19, 1895, the first guests to arrive for the opening tea were five men who had pedaled from New York by way of Rutherford. Guests arriving by train were met by carriage, which transported them to the Club, "some of the way through dense forest", as described by newspapers of the day. About fifty years later, gas rationing, during World War II, forced a revival of this procedure, although by that time most of the dense forest had been supplanted by dwellings. The use of the Short Hills Station, on the railroad, no doubt was partially responsible, but for many years the Baltusrol Club refused to admit being located in Springfield and used "Short Hills" on its stationery and in the lettering on its vehicles.

Baltusrol Golf Club was a success from its very start. As the membership grew, by leaps and bounds, renovations and additions were extensively made to the rambling two-story red clubhouse. Then, on the night of March 27, 1909, a fire started in the kitchen. In less than an hour after it was discovered, the frame building was reduced to ashes. Plans for a new clubhouse were started immediately, and they were drawn up by Chester H. Kirk, a New York architect and member of the club. The brick building in the style of an English manor house was completed in 1910, at a cost of more than $100,000. One of its outstanding features is a 300 foot terrace, overlooking the 18th green; also, its spacious two-story entrance hall.

Louis Keller was Secretary of the Club until his death, in 1922, and the Keller Cup, a tournament trophy awarded annually, was named in his memory. Until 1918, he had rented his land to the Club for a nominal sum, but that year he sold it to the members. Springfield Township's first tax atlas, compiled in 1915, shows that at that time, in addition to the area actually in use by the Club, Louis Keller owned most of the land on the mountain above it, extending all the way from Shunpike Road, with a few interruptions, to the Mountainside line and running over the other side in two or three places to the Summit line. One of his tracts adjoined the Isaac Sayre property and another was part of the area recently developed as "Sky Top". Keller also owned a large piece on the north side of Shunpike Road and several smaller pieces along Baltusrol Way, in the vicinity of Bryant Avenue. Of course, not all of this property was sold to the Baltusrol Club.

While a nine-hole course was sufficient to get the club under way, the growth in membership made enlargement of the course imperative almost from the beginning, and in 1896 it was increased to 18 holes.

The year 1899 was memorable for Baltusrol. It joined the United States Golf Association, hired its first professional, Willie Anderson, and held its first club tournament. The winner was James A. Tyng, of Short Hills.

The 18-hole course sufficed until 1920, when it was torn up, and A. W. Tillinghast, a leading golf course architect of that decade, was called in to design and build the present Upper and Lower courses of 18 holes each. The length of both courses is approximately 7,000 yards from the championship tees, each with a par of 72. However, one red letter day in 1956, member Eugene Krautter of South Orange went around the Upper course in 64. It won't surprise anyone to learn that he was club champion for the year 1945.

Baltusrol has been the scene of nine USGA championships. The Women's Championships were held there in 1901 and again in 1911, with the third one in 1961, when Baltusrol was host to the Sixteenth Women's Open Championship. Three Amateur Championships have been played over its courses; the first in 1904, the second in 1926, when the great Bobby Jones was defeated by George Von Elm, and the third in 1946 when "Smiley" Quick lost to Stanley E. Bishop.

Baltusrol had its first National Open in 1903; the second in 1915, won by amateur Jerome D. Travers; the third in 1936, won by Tony Manero, and the fourth one in June 1954, which broke records for attendance - 40,000 people. This occasion provided a big day for Springfield. Extra police were placed on duty to handle the huge volume of automobile traffic, parking lots were set up in every available open space in the vicinity of the Club, fire apparatus was stationed at strategic points and a folder with a small map of Springfield, sponsored jointly by the Township of Springfield, the Chamber of Commerce and the Baltusrol Golf Club, was printed for distribution to the visitors. The contest was played over the Lower Course, which was lengthened to 7,037 yards by six new tees, and the normal par of 72 was reduced to 70. Ed Furgol came in the winner and new Champion, with a score of 284, for the prize of $6,000. Gene Littler came in second with a score of 285, and the defending Champ, Ben Hogan, came in sixth.

Speaking of championships brings us quite naturally to Baltusrol's professional, Johnny Farrell, who won the USGA Open in 1928, at Olympia Field, Chicago. He defeated by one stroke no less a champion than Bobby Jones. From 1920, when he played in his first National Open, until he took over as pro at Baltusrol, in 1934, he was seldom out of the sports headlines. He holds the professional course record for both courses at the Club, with a 62 on the Upper and, tied with Ben Hogan, a 64 on the Lower. He has appeared on television and written a book on golf. During the winter months, he is the pro for the Country Club of Florida, Village of Golf, Delray Beach. Two of his sons, Billy and Jimmy, have followed in his footsteps and also teach at Baltusrol.

From the 200 members the Club had at the end of its first year, the number more than doubled by 1898, and by 1910 there were 700. Currently, the membership is over 800 and there is a waiting list. There are two classes of membership - proprietary and associate. The proprietary or golf membership is limited to 500 certificate-holding members.

A golf club covering 500 acres and having a membership of over 800 requires efficient administration. This is accomplished by Baltusrol's Board of Governors, composed of 18 members who serve for three years, six members being newly elected each year. The current President is Walther H. Seldmann, of New York, an official of the Worthington Corporation.

General Manager of the Club is Carl Jehlen, who has a wealth of hotel and country club experience behind him. Before coming to Baltusrol, in 1953, he was manager of Glen Ridge Country Club for six years, and before that, of the Forest Hill Field Club, Bloomfield. Prior to 1953, the Manager was Major Robert A. Jones, an autocratic ex-English army officer, well qualified to carry on the traditions of Louis Keller, who, in addition to establishing the Baltusrol Golf Club, was the founder of the "Social Register" of American Society and had little use for anyone without a proper social background. Since the advent of Mr. Jehlen, a pleasant, agreeable gentleman, the attitude of Baltusrol toward the residents of Springfield and the public in general has undergone a radical change. Facilities of the Club have been made available to such local groups as the Parent-

Women's Club and the Rotary Club, and public relations are on a much more friendly basis than they ever were before.

The number of employees varies between sixth and ninety, according to the season, the high figure being for summer, when the greenskeepers are at their peak number of twenty, under Golf Course Superintendent Edward J. Casey. There is an office staff of eight. The kitchen staff of twelve is under the direction of Paul Hansen, a resident of Springfield, who has been with the Club for twelve years.

Baltusrol has an unusually distinguished membership. To list those who hold positions of prominence in industry and finance would take many pages. Although in 1910 half of the members lived in New York, that proportion has changed over the years. At present, less than a hundred live outside of New Jersey. About thirty percent of the membership comes from the neighboring community of Short Hills. Stewart Hartshorn, its original developer, joined the Club in 1895.

There have been many noted guests at Baltusrol over the years; President William Howard Taft played there in 1912. Bob Hope usually plays there once a year and Dave Garroway, Ed Sullivan and Phil Rizzuto also have been guests.

There is no swimming pool and although squash, tennis, trap-shooting and ice-skating were added between 1910 and 1920, these have long since been discarded. Baltusrol Golf Club is strictly a golf club. Social events are limited to one dance in the spring and another in the fall, both held in the grill room added in 1929. Traditional is the open house buffet supper held on New Year's Day.

The history of Baltusrol is one of growth and progress. There is one thing, though, that hasn't changed over the years, and that is the object of the club. As given in the 1898 year book, Article II of the Constitution states: "The object of the Club shall be the playing, cultivation and advancement of the royal and ancient game of Golf."

On Monday, February 11th, two foreign students, Amos Sawyerr of Liberia and Iren Spanidou of Greece, arrived at Regional for a three week stay. Iren is staying with Dot Ward of Kenilworth and Amos is staying with Glen Thomas also of Kenilworth. We students of Regional are very pleased to have these young visitors staying with us and we hope they are enjoying their visit as much as we are enjoying having them.

On February 14th, Valentines Day, the class of 1965 held their Sophomore Cake Sale. Thanks to the efforts of members of the class and support of the entire student body, it was a great success and for the second consecutive year the class set a new school record for most money collected at a cake sale. We, the class of '65, would like to thank everyone who helped make this possible.

Regional High School now has its own official school crest, acquired through a contest sponsored by the student council and open to the entire student body. A special committee chose the winning entry, designed by Gene Johnson, class of '63, from sixteen designs submitted by members of all classes. Congratulations Gene!

in progress at Regional. Last week students from all four classes were given an opportunity to vote for the girl they believe to be the prettiest in their class. From these nominations the four girls with the most votes from each class will become the finalists who will compete for the title of Class Queen of their respective classes. The winners will be announced at the Dayton News Dance to be held on March 22.

Congratulations to Al Stender and Dave Bonislowski who have been accepted at Lafayette College and Niagra University respectively.

If you have any news, please call DR 9-2919.

NEW YORK (UPI) — You simply toss analysis out the window when it comes to Red Skelton. The comedian is in his 12th season, he switched from a half-hour to a one-hour show last fall and he has tough opposition. But where other top comics have wilted after two, three or five video seasons, Red is stronger than ever in the various rating systems that the industry respects. He may not be the critics' darling, but apparently the public likes him.

NEW JERSEY
... has the greatest concentration of research facilities in America!

INDUSTRIAL REACTOR AT PLAINSBORO, N. J.

New Jersey is small but mighty. Within the state are more than 625 industrial research laboratories plus others connected with universities. They account for over 10 per cent of the nation's research dollar each year, the highest annual expenditure of any state. Located in 175 communities, they are investigating and developing materials in nearly 700 product classifications. In 1961, these facilities received prime government contracts for research and development of 228 million dollars. The state is big on talent, too. New Jersey has an estimated 23,000 scientists and engineers — higher per capita than any other state.

Industry succeeds in New Jersey and the availability of research facilities is important to this success. The major output of many large companies consists of products not in existence five years ago and were developed only through extensive research.

JCP&L-NJP&L Families Are Finding New Comfort and Convenience in Flameless Electric Heat

Throughout the territory we serve, there is a strong trend toward heating with electricity. Last year, 752 new home heating customers were added and in 1963 it is expected that there will be an additional 2 1/2 times that number.

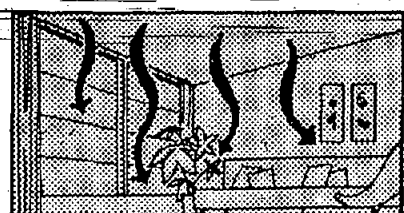

These electric home heating customers are made up of large and small families living in all types of homes both old and new - as well as in modern apartments. Their heating requirements differ and therein lies the appeal of flexible electric heating with its several basic systems.

All electric heating customers have much in common; however, they agree on the comfort of having individual room thermostats. They like its cleanliness and quiet. They find its automatic control a real convenience and they like its 100% efficiency with no furnace, flues or ducts to steal heat or space from living areas.

For more information on Electric House Heating, call our nearest office.

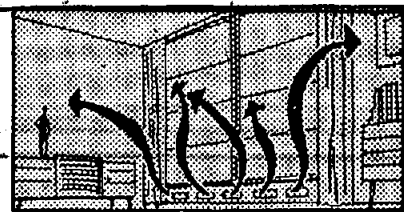

Basic Systems of Flameless Electric House Heating

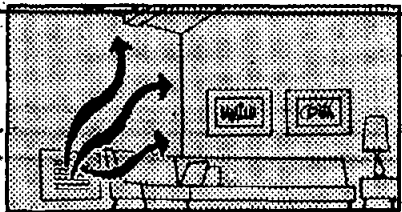

Ceiling cable heat is invisible. Wires less than 1/8" thick are fastened to ceilings before plastering. Each room can have a thermostat.

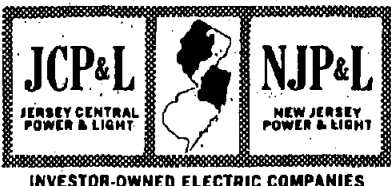

Wall panel heaters have heating coils behind a decorative grill. Small fans may be used with this thermostatically controlled unit.

Baseboard units heat by both radiation and convection. All surfaces are warmed evenly, and control is by individual room thermostat.

Electric furnaces provide compact central heating systems which can be combined with central air conditioning for year-round use.

Yale and Harvard posted Ivy League victories last Monday night at the Florence Gaudineer School gym, with Dartmouth and Cornell the victims. The first game was close for the first half, but Yale then put on a good scoring exhibition to easily win over a Dartmouth five that couldn't cope with Yale's aggressive play and good floorwork. Ronnie Haselman put on a good scoring exhibition, getting 8 points in the first half, six in the last two periods to lead the Dartmouth scorers. Billy Murphy and Cliff York also played well for the losers. Don Buehrer and Bob Belliveau were the point makers for Yale, with Freddie Title doing a good job setting up the scoring plays.

In the nightcap Harvard's tall club walloped Cornell 43-32 with Sheehan, Lester and Lies forming a good combination that not only controlled both backboards, but also registered the top point totals. The Harvard dribblers gained a 12-10 first quarter advantage and were never headed, although the big Red from Cornell sparked by Cannon, Silverman, and Apgar made things interesting for three quarters.

Italy Film Subject

"Tuscany, Italy's Golden Province," is the subject of a beautiful color film to be presented personally by Stan Walsh, distinguished traveler - photographer on Wed. February 27 at Union High School, Morris and Caldwell Aves. The program starts at 8:15 p.m. and is second of the series "The World Around Us" sponsored by Union Adult School. Tickets will be sold at the door.

A remarkable camera adventure to one of the world's great cultural centers, the film depicts: Pre-Roman Etruria; Florence, political, cultural, and financial arena of Tuscan creativity; San Gimignano and its medieval Manhattan skyline; Michelangelo's marble mountains of Carrara; and the mid-winter carnival at Viareggio, with the world's largest papier-

Louis Glickman, Director of the New Jersey Regional Office of the Anti Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, will be the guest speaker at the General Meeting of the Springfield Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women, at Temple Beth Ahm, Baltusrol Way, Springfield, Feb. 27 at 8:30 p.m. The B'nai B'rith Men's Lodge has been invited to this meeting to hear Mr. Glickman.

Previous to his present position, Mr. Glickman served as a consultant in the Mountain States Office of the League, serving Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming. Prior to coming with the League, he served with the Civil Rights Department of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, doing work in the Southwestern part of the United States, with Offices in Dallas, Texas; in the Middle-Central area of the country with offices in St. Louis, Missouri, and in the New England states with offices in Worcester, Massachusetts. He has served as a consultant and lecturer in the area of Civil Rights, minority groups problems; equality of opportunities; interreligious and interracial understanding in most sections of the United States, with a particular concentration on lecturing with school systems and colleges. Mr. Glickman received his graduate education at Boston University and received his graduate degree from the University of Virginia Law School.

mache floats. Other colorful features are the crusader's joust at Arezzo; artists along the Arno; handsome naval cadets on the Mar Ligure; harnessing volcanic steam; and the 12th century Battle of the Bridge at Pisa.

Tuscany is the heart of Italy, a world of turreted cities situated along a rock-ribbed coast. It is often called Europe's Miracle Province. It cradled the mysterious Etruscan civilization. St. Catherine was born there at Siena, and St. Francis at Assisi. In the sciences Tuscany won everlasting fame as the home of Galileo, who laid the base for modern scientific progress. Tuscany has always been predominantly farming country and produces red Chianti wine, olive oil, and fruit. It remains rich in traditional arts and crafts. Clays, metals, alabaster, leather, straw and stone have long been successfully worked. There is a contemporary output of beautiful embroidery of all sorts. Few regions have kept old customs so well. The cities look medieval, but it is really the people's will that has kept the old ways alive so long.

Stan Walsh lived in Europe for five years, and with his camera captured many subjects rarely seen by the casual visitor. He is a skilled writer, photographer, and producer. Walsh's earlier film production and travel experience came by way of service with the Ninth Air Force as a navigator and mission photographer during World War II. He is a graduate of the University of California.

are derived through the collection of discarded eyeglasses, gold and silver scrap, and odd bits of jewelry which are sent to a refinery and redeemed for cash. At no time does New Eyes for the Needy solicit any funds to carry out its work. The organization is incorporated in New Jersey as a non-profit organization and has permission from the United States Assay Office to collect gold scrap. It is endorsed by the Essex County Medical Society, the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, the New Jersey State Commission for the Blind.

Approximately 300,000 people have been helped by New Eyes for the Needy and almost two million pairs of glasses have been received. The work of sorting, testing, packaging and acknowledging is carried on by volunteers. There is one paid secretary employed on a part time basis and 90% of the funds derived from this work go into providing the necessary eyeglasses for the more unfortunate people of the world.

Simple non-astigmatic glasses are sent to medical missions all over the world; plastic frames are reused, and all metal frames and gold and silver scrap go to the refinery. Distribution of new prescription glasses is arranged through hospitals and welfare agencies, who are given funds by New Eyes for the Needy for this purpose.

At the meeting of the Springfield Lions, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corsini donated in excess of 3,000 pairs of eyeglasses to New Eyes for the Needy, through the cooperative efforts of the Millburn and the Springfield Lions clubs.

New Eyes for the Needy Inc. realize approximately $100,000 annually as result of processing those discarded items. Many of us have old eyeglasses, broken sets of cufflinks or earrings, and unusable bits of jewelry lying in dresser drawers. These bits of scrap may be converted to a very useful purpose by sending them to New Eyes for the Needy, Inc., Short Hills, New Jersey.

Still Dominating

The Mountaineers and Devrons continued their domination of play in the Springfield Recreation Commission Senior Basketball League, winning over the Meekers and Blackhawks in a twin bill at the Gaudineer last Wednesday night. In the opening game the Mountaineers won 50-43 over a scrappy Meeker five as Lahey, Pecina and Tom Conlin sparked the victory. DeMartine and Baker were the top performers for Meikus, with Drew scoring 8 points in a losing cause.

The Devrons won 33-32 in a rugged battle with Eddie Reese scoring 14 points to pace the winners, getting help from Teddie Schuss and Tom Marino. The Blackhawks came within an eyelash of winning.

For Our Fashion Minded Women

BY MARY ANN RUBAN

All great fashions start with a question. What's the coming mood? Above all, what is life going to be like this coming spring and summer? "That's the kind of thing any designer must be prepared to answer at all times," says Vera Maxwell, foremost dress designer and fashion coordinator for Saks Fifth Avenue.

What's new this spring? Well, ladies, you haven't read anything yet. The following will be the latest in fabrics for the coming spring-summer season.

Silk is the "Surprise" fabric this year. Beautiful soufflé silk in a three piece suit, with silk, honeycomb stitched to give it the packable, non-crush qualities of a knit, but with a quarter of the weight and indeed more elegance.

Probably Vera Maxwell was the first designer, many seasons ago, to bring forward fabric of the natural wild silk gathered in the deep forests of India. "Even the first had the most wonderful richness and texture. Now even more subtle and elegant."

It's cool when the weather is warm, insulated when it's chilly. No wonder they make a point of wild silk in every collection.

Linens look their best in the coat-dress look. They tailor so well and give a simple-skimmer dress so much importance. Besides the lighthearted blues are wonderful for this spring and all the Flax fabrics are best in blues.

Fluffy mohair tweeds with lots of resilience are favorites for they can cross the ocean by plane and arrive without a wrinkle. For the new season Mrs. Maxwell makes coats and suits with self-ties that give the new high-rise line in front. Usually all such woolsens, when they appear in costume, are lined with the enchanting prints that the designer makes especially for the dresses and blouses that go with her costumes.

Tailored chiffon is perhaps the most desirable in fabric. Printed or plain, these tailored chiffon suits are made for climate hopping and elegant settings. With a tailored jacket that can be removed, the sleeveless dress is smart for cocktail and evening.

The secret this year is in print. New effects can be created with printed fabrics. Different colors and designs can be greatly enhanced in printed fabrics.

Here are just a few of the outstanding designs this season. Through the courtesy of Saks Fifth Avenue, our paper is permitted to give our readers a sneak-peek at these lovely fashions.

"TIED RIGHT" ENSEMBLE
The patterned doublet is of special interest here because of its luxurious fri-branne, the French expression of spun rayon.

SURPRISE FIND OF THE YEAR... "SOUFFLE SILK" introduced by Mrs. Maxwell in her empire buttoned, longer jacketed suit with slashed doublet. The versatile fabric is pure silk honey-combed and stitched to achieve the packable non-crush qualities of a knit but with a quarter of the weight and twice the elegance!

"SOUFFLE SILK" DRESS AND TWEED SKIMMER. Making its debut in Vera Maxwell's present collection is soufflé silk that has the packable non-crush qualities of a knit, but with a quarter of the weight and twice the elegance! Here she uses it for an easy-wearing sheath and trimming on a spongy boucle tweed coat.

VERA MAXWELL'S ACT I, two glimpses of her sapphire blue costume in four parts. The scene opens in a southern airport—with smart traveler about to take off in an enchanting silk print two-piece dress strewn with Parma violets. Casually across her shoulders the slim, petal-collared sapphire blue coat in spongy mohair tweed.

Sebastian Cabot of "Stump the Stars" began acting in England, made his U. S. debut on Broadway with Sir John Gielgud in "Love for Love."

Diana Chesney of "Fair Exchange" performed in World War II troop shows in Egypt, Israel, Transjordan, Iraq, Lebanon and Libya.
