Public Hearing Called On 795G Gaudineer Plan

AT 7-TOWN MEETING

Hardgrove To OK Safe 22' Suggestions

Mayor Robert D. Hardgrove, Springfield's representative at the meeting of seven municipalities along Route 22 held last week on highway safety, told the Sun Tuesday he will ask Township Committee to endorse the newly organized safety council's ideas and appoint him as a permanent council member. He said his main concern is to make the road safe. He indicated he will also seek approval of a small budget in the amount of approximately $100, needed to implement the program of the organization.

The group's initial meeting was held April 29 in the Towers Steak House, Route 22, Mountainside. It was promoted by Councilman Henry P. Wester of Mountainside, a strong advocate of highway safety, who has been urging enforcement of use of the right hand lane only for trucks traveling Route 22. Next meeting of the group is scheduled for May 13 with Wester to stipulate the time and place at a later date.

At last week's meeting, the officials of the seven municipalities formed the Essex-Union-Somerset Traffic Safety Council to implement recommendations for highway safety. The group forwarded telegrams to Governor Richard J. Hughes, Atty. Gen. Sills, and State Police Superintendent Col. D.R. Capello urging an immediate increase in state police radio-car patrols from Newark to beyond Somerville as a start in solving the many traffic hazards on Route 22.

In organizing the council, the members agreed to seek recognition and financial support from their governing bodies. Wester was named chairman and Township Committeeman Robert Diamond of Hillside, vice chairman. Mrs. Marguerite Becker, Mountainside deputy clerk, will serve as secretary. In the future, participation of highway municipalities to the west will be sought, it was said.

Communities represented at the meeting were Hillside, Mountainside, Springfield, Union, Newark, Scotch Plains and North Plainfield.

No Reply Yet To Telegrams About Tracks

Mayor Robert D. Hardgrove Tuesday night said he has not yet received a reply to the second telegram he sent Governor Richard J. Hughes about the Morris Ave. trolley tracks. The message was sent out last week following the April 28 Springfield township committee meeting.

At that time Township Committee indicated it was not satisfied with a response from State Highway Department engineer, J.R. Schuyler, in answer to their first telegram to the governor.

The state highway official's letter brought up the subject of elimination of parking along Morris Ave., which Township Committee said was unrelated to the removal of the trolley tracks, their only request.

The township governing body is concerned with the number of accidents on Morris Ave., which are attributed to the tracks, and glassy street surface, especially hazardous with wet weather conditions.

With the first telegram to the governor, Mayor Hardgrove included the statistics of 245 accidents with 77 injured since Jan. 1st, 1962 in the two-mile stretch of roadway.

A serious accident on Morris Ave. last month resulting in a 19-year-old Union co-ed being hospitalized in critical condition, renewed the trolley track issue. The teenager has been in a coma since April 6.

Township Committee seeks a meeting of a State Highway Department representative with the township engineer in an effort towards eliminating the problem by resurfacing the state-owned roadway.

Referendum June 9 To End Crowding

Springfield residents will have opportunity to learn first hand about Board of Education's new Gaudineer expansion proposal calling for a $795,000 expenditure at a public hearing Tuesday, May 26, at 8 P.M. in the Gaudineer cafeteria.

The plan to relieve the crowded conditions at the school will be submitted to the voters in a referendum on June 9th.

Two previous requests for expansion were rejected by the public last year.

Board members, school officials, and the architect will be present at the public hearing to explain the new expansion program and to answer questions from the audience.

Board Member Joseph A. Bender, chairman of both the board's buildings and grounds committee and advisory school planning committee, is general co-ordinator of the building program.

The board is also planning to forward citizens a brochure to familiarize them with the proposal in the near future.

The proposed expansion would be financed by bonds payable over a 20-year period. Plans have been forwarded to the State Department of Education for approval.

The program calls for construction of an addition and the re-allocation of existing space so that the school will be able to accommodate an eventual 900-pupil enrollment anticipated by 1969. It is explained the State Department of Education advocates the practice of five-year planning as a practical one.

The new proposal will provide for 10 additional classrooms, an enlarged library art, most double-in-size, a combination all-purpose room and girls' gym, a new girls' locker room, an instrumental music room, enlargement and consolidation of general offices, an enlarged health office, and an enlarged home economics compound.

As a result of the rearrangement, facilities for science, art, and home economics will be improved. Through use of a large, folding bleacher, the new all-purpose room will be able to serve 900. The present all-purpose room is to be used solely as a boys' gym by the removal of the stage, which was built as a temporary facility. The girls' present locker room will be converted into a boys' locker room.

The new proposal will provide 33,000 square feet of additional space. The one-story addition will be constructed on the south end of the building near the ball field. Architectural appearance of the addition will correspond with the rest of the building.

Architect, I.S. Frederick A. Elsassner and Associates of Elms, who drew the plans for the original Gaudineer building occupied in 1952 and the addition in 1956.

Two referendums defeated last year would have provided for Gaudineer expansion. The first, presented in May, was a $1,471,000 "package," with $1,392,000 of it slated for combined expansion at Gaudineer and Chisholm schools and $79,000 for an administration building, to be built on Walton School property. The amount earmarked in this proposal for Gaudineer was $894,000.

The second bond issue proposal, presented to the voters in October sought approval for a $850,000 expenditure for expansion at only Gaudineer School. This was also defeated.

Items incorporated in the October referendum which have been omitted from the new proposal include an elevator installation and changes in the kitchen and food service area. Also the size of the all-purpose room has been substantially reduced in the new plan and some of the new classrooms have been made.

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

The Highlander Booster Club of Governor Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights will hold its fourth annual All-Sports Awards Dinner May 19, it was announced today by Jack G. Hansen, club president.

The dinner will be held at the Mountainside Inn on Route #22 beginning at 7:30 p.m. Dinner tickets will be available for $4 from the club secretary, Mrs. Helen Adamiak. She may be contacted for reservations at 464-9078.

The principal speaker this year will be a well-known figure from the world of sports. For those who have not supported the Booster Club's other projects, this is an excellent opportunity to do so."

Hansen said that trophies will be presented to all senior lettermen at the dinner. The master of ceremonies will be Russ Huftchar.

To the Editor of the SUN: Is it not time something was done to protect life and limb on State Highway 22? Where are the State Troopers? Why are the police in the towns expected to patrol the State Highway? They have enough to do in their own towns. We pay taxes, not alone for new highways but for the present ones to be properly patrolled. In a recent family accident it was 15 minutes before a policeman appeared on the scene.

Many accidents are caused by truck drivers. They are given a limited time to make a haul and if they find they are behind time they "speed it up" sometimes doing 50 to 60 miles an hour in a 45 mile an hour zone. Sometimes they have faulty brakes. So we can not always condemn the truck driver. But why are not state troopers on duty to check these things?

It is to New Jersey's shame that there are so many accidents on Highway 22 that only those that result in DEATH are put in the newspapers. At the present time, at the entrance to Highway 22 there should be a sign, "Travel at your own risk" or "From here to Eternity."

Yours truly, Alice V. Stackleth

Live Better Electrically OUTDOORS

With Appliances

Today, with portable electric appliances you can be a good cook outdoors as easily as you can in your own kitchen.

Electric appliances eliminate the need for a fire, the danger of flareups, and the nuisance of dirty smoke and emptying ashes. Electricity is ready at the flip of a switch, without fanning, coaxing or waiting.

With Electric Lawn Mowers

Modern electric equipment such as a lawn mower makes grounds keeping a pleasure rather than a challenge. And of course, with electricity there are no fuel worries, no oil to change, no carburetors to adjust and no carbon monoxide. In addition to the lawn mower, there are also electric hedge clippers and edgers, and for those with a green thumb, there are soil heat cables for hotbeds.

Ask your Reddy Kilowatt Dealer and Electrical Contractor to show you the many new products for better living outdoors. Ask them about the latest developments in outdoor wiring and lighting. They can help you plan to make an enjoyable use of electricity this summer and in the years to come.

For interesting ideas on how electricity can help you live better electrically outdoors, fill in the coupon and we will send you a colorful, illustrated booklet.

Springfield Nine Ties

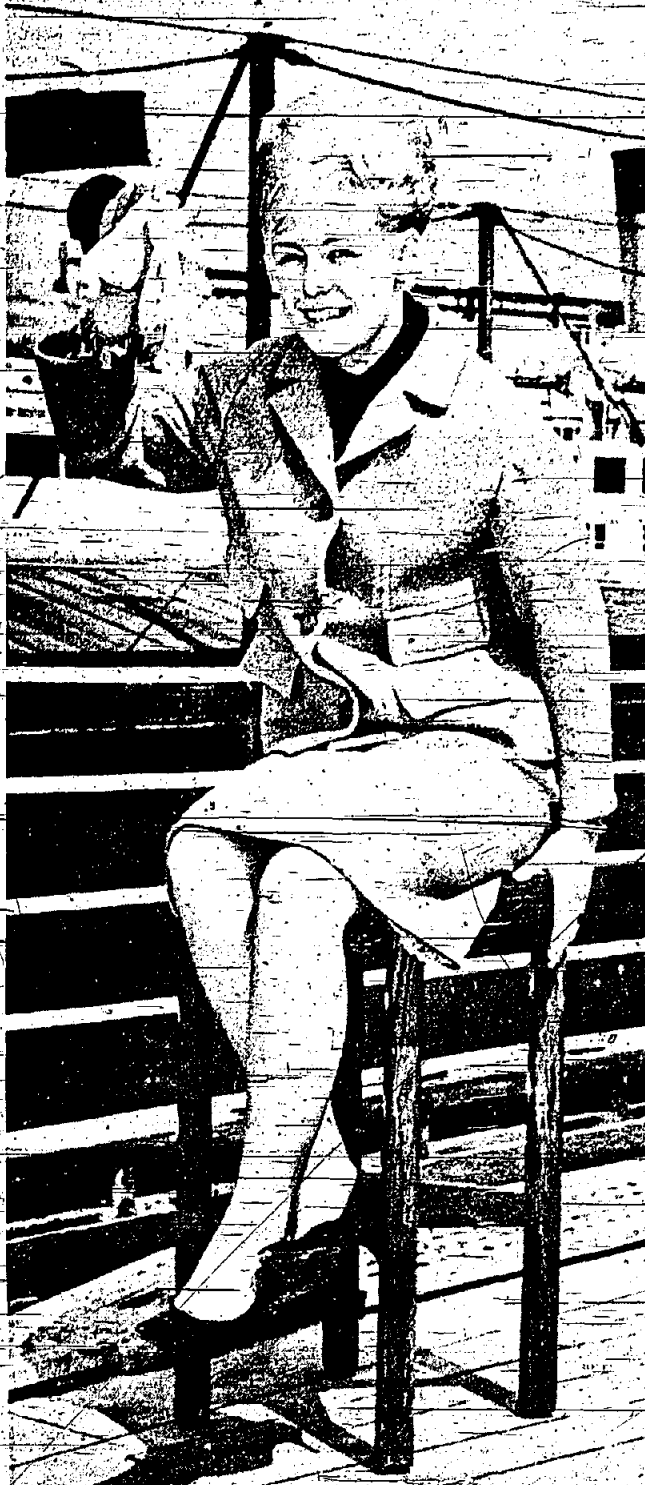

The Scotch Plains-Panwood Juniors High ninth grade baseball team dropped two one run decisions in succession against Hillside and Cranford last week. In the "home opener" against Hillside, the Blue and White played much better ball than their 7-7 tie with Springfield, but lost a tough 4-3 contest. Both pitchers were tossing perfect games for the first three innings but the fourth Hillside came up with a run on a single, an error and another single. They struck again in the fifth with another run on a single, sacrifice and a triple. In the sixth, Hillside scored two runs on a walk, triple and a balk. Thus, the score at the end of the first 5-1/2-innings was Hillside 4-Scotch Plains 0. Incidentally, the Hillside pitcher was throwing a one hitter, a single by Billy Crockett.

In the Raider's half of the sixth, Tucker Coon walked, stole second, and scored on a single by Mike Dougherty. Ken Arnesen, who had reached base on the catcher's interference, scored, after being advanced by Dougherty, on a single by seventh-grader Rick Tadaro. In the final inning, the seventh, with the Raiders trailing 4-2, Jim Baldwin clobbered a home-run but it wasn't enough as Scotch Plains lost 4-3.

Baldwin also pitched a beautiful ball game allowing only two earned runs, walking 4 and striking out 7.

The contest with Cranford was a real heartbreaker as Cranford defeated Scotch Plains 1-0. The Cranford run was scored in the first inning when the leadoff batter singled, reached second on an error and scored on another single.

The Raiders came close to scoring a few times. In the third inning, Ken Mantz singled. Then Tucker Coon dropped in a fly ball to right but Mantz, thinking the ball might be caught, was forced at second killing a potential rally. Also, in the fifth inning, Fred Plenge reached second base on a double error and was advanced to third on a ground out. He then tried to score on a dribbler to the pitcher but was tagged out. Ken Mantz pitched another fine game not allowing an earned run, striking out 5 and walking 4.

"Loyalty and Team Spirit" awards were made to: Roger Schwannhauser of Summit, 9-10 age group; Doug Tallamy of Berkeley Heights, 11-12 group; Tom Battaglia of Berkeley Heights, 13-14 group; and Dave Appler of Berkeley Heights, 15-17 group.

All members of the team were presented with plaques and championship patches. The Summit Team won 17 dual meets during the season. They also won the team trophy at the Princeton Invitational meet; captured two age-group titles in the Central Atlantic Northern sectionals, and placed second at the Central Atlantic Area Championships in Silver Spring, Maryland.

Top Residents Will Get Local Mail Deliveries

Rep. Florence P. Dwyer (R-6th Dist.) announced today the Post Office Department has agreed to transfer delivery of mail to residents of the Baltusrol Top section of Springfield from the Westfield Post Office to the Springfield Post Office.

The change will be made on Monday, July 1, 1964, Mrs. Dwyer said.

Residents of the Baltusrol Top area have long complained that delivery of mail addressed to Springfield has been delayed for at least a day because of the need to re-direct such mail from the Springfield Post Office to the Westfield Post Office prior to delivery.

Despite agreement between the Springfield and Westfield postmasters that mail deliveries to the area should be handled by the Springfield Post Office, Department officials refused to make the change on grounds that delivery from Westfield was more convenient because of the absence of direct access roads to the area from Springfield.

Congresswoman Dwyer requested the Department to reconsider its decision after more than 80 percent of the residents of the Baltusrol Top section signed petitions indicating their desire for the change, Springfield Mayor Arthur Falkin, in 1963, and Robert Hardgrove, this year, strongly supported the proposed change.

The Baltusrol Top section is physically separated from the rest of Springfield by the Baltusrol Golf Club which limits access to the area through Summit or Mountside. Springfield officials, however, are planning construction of a new road which would provide a direct route to the Baltusrol Top from Shunpike Road along the north end of the golf club.

The Highlander Booster Club of Governor Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights will hold its fourth annual All-Sports Awards Dinner May 19, it was announced today by Jack G. Hansen, club president.

The dinner will be held at the Mountside Inn on Route 22 beginning at 7:30 p.m. Dinner tickets will be available for $4 from the club secretary, Helen Adamiak. She may be contacted at 464-9078.

According to Hansen, "this awards dinner is the outstanding event of our entire program and traditionally attracts a capacity crowd of students and parents."

Mother's Day Here Again

Sunday is Mother's Day, and that presents a problem to every newspaper in the country...

Could it suffice to say that there probably is no other Day in our country as important...

Probably not. Probably there are those who would demand a long to-do on the virtues and importance of motherhood...

Very simply: To all mothers, a happy day, and thanks for being the way you all are.

Come the convention, to get closer to politics again, in San Francisco this July, there will be four names belabored and yelled out for the candidate for Republican challenger to the presidency...

Turning to serious politics for a moment, for we consider Wallace to be nothing more than a clown, it would appear that the aforementioned four top choices have been narrowed to two...

Rockefeller has too much going against him, including a shaky hold on his own state, New York, and Goldwater has too much against him as well...

Nixon has slowly been emerging as more and more of an "unconfirmed" candidate, and Lodge has never once said he is opposed to being nominated...

While there is no doubt in anyone's mind that Lyndon Johnson will be nominated, there is great doubt in most minds as to the identity of the desired running-mate for the Texas Twister...

Great pressure is being put on leading Democrats to give that slot to Robert Kennedy, attorney general and brother of the assassinated president...

Everyone been out the World's Fair yet? There are some who have said they won't go until all the exhibits and all the attractions are completely built...

SEN. STAMLER REPORTS

'Private Meeting' To Decide On Tax

The professional phrase makers and public relations men are at it again, softening up the taxpayer for the big kill...

What they mean, of course, is a secret meeting of top politicians of both parties to choose between a sales tax and an income tax...

And to make the choice absolutely binding, the announced plan is to steamroller some tax through the legislature and get it signed by the Governor real quick...

This means, very simply, that nobody who's against it better keep his mouth shut, or he commits political suicide.

They can call it a "bi-partisan conference" all they want, but it still spells back room politics to me...

A PROUD DAY FOR MOM!

A Cultural Crisis

We are facing a cultural crisis in this country, and the effects of it have already been seen, felt and noticed by those interested enough to care.

In speaking to a successful author last week, a reporter asked him just how long it took to write his latest -- and first -- novel, and how much expense he incurred in the process...

There are small, isolated instances in this country by which a wealthy philanthropist has assisted a budding talent, and there have been cases -- also well isolated -- of colonies established by an individual or a group...

Why not a government stipend to all who apply, which would, of course, be rescinded if nothing results from the efforts of the individual?

Poppy Girl Chosen

Sandra Smar of 77 Stanton St. has been named Miss Poppy for 1964 by Mrs. Alex Ferko, poppy chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary of Clark Unit 328.

Mrs. Ferko said the poppies you will wear on Poppy Day will have an even greater significance than the flowers which bloomed on the battlefields of Europe.

All volunteers who offer the poppies to the public receive nothing tangible for their work, these workers gain a great deal of satisfaction from their contribution to this program.

The early 1920's was revived Saturday at Linden Airport when American Airlines displayed their "Tin Goose."

The 13 passenger plane has been rebuilt by American and will eventually be presented to the Smithsonian Institute as part of their program of acquiring airplanes of significant historical value.

American is using the old tri motor to introduce their brand new trijet, the 727 Astrojet. The 727 is the first three-engine airliner produced in the U.S. in three decades.

Flying in the "Tin Goose" was quite an experience. The plane now takes off with eight passengers, besides its pilot and co-pilot.

Captain Adkins has been flying for 22 years and Macce for 23. Both enjoy their current job with "Tin Goose" saying it's "fun to fly" the old plane.

POLITICAL CHATTER

Waste Of Time, Money Could Be Stopped Now

Are we in the business of government to do an efficient job or to wage continual controversy, all centering on party lines and party wishes and party beliefs?

Like last week, for instance, when the Republican-weighted legislators topped nearly $6 million off Gov. Richard Hughes' proposed state budget.

It matters not to us whether the state budget was passed or not, although in a later column we shall express our own views of the Trenton situation.

Of course, there is no other way to run any government, be it municipal, county, state or federal, than the way we do it here in this country.

Would it be possible, even probably that the elected officials could forget party allegiances just while they serve in a special capacity which directly affects every citizen of the state?

While Republicans have historically been the party of freedom and opportunity, she declared, "we must translate our basic principles and historic contributions into terms and issues which deal in a meaningful way with the real problems of our changing and revolutionary world."

Dwyer Receives 1st Service Award From Women's GOP

Rep. Florence P. Dwyer (R-6th Dist.) has received the first Distinguished Public Service award ever given by the New Jersey Federation of Republican Women during the Federation's 34th annual convention last weekend.

Citing the Union County Congresswoman's "outstanding contribution to the cause of good government" during her service in the N.J. State Assembly and the U.S. House of Representatives, the award read in part:

"Forthrightness, honesty, devotion to duty are the bases for Florence Dwyer's great success. To these are added an excellent and inquiring mind and indefinable and rare quality of leadership characteristic of the true public servant.

In her speech at the Federation convention in Atlantic City, Mrs. Dwyer said "a revolution of common sense is sweeping the country" which could mean victory for the Republican Party.

She pointed out that people were coming to realize that the Democratic Party was "fundamentally incapable of governing the country as it deserves to be governed" and could be persuaded that Republican policies and methods "will assure sound results and full value for every dollar."

Congresswoman Dwyer warned her party, however, that it needs to be "more positive, constructive and affirmative" in order to reach people "with a convincing demonstration of Republican capabilities and intentions."

It's the same as if you were in a very responsible position with a firm, and had been running things pretty much under your control for a long while.

You'd be upset and angry, but perhaps after you thought about it you might see that the new man had logic behind his methods, too.

That's where our state assembly is. Both sides want to help the people. Both sides want to correct current inadequacies and shortcomings and deficiencies.

We have this bit of comment to make to the assembly and the state senators and all the other legislators: We know you're working for us, boys, but couldn't you work with each other, too?

Go ahead. Ship $6 million of $16 million or 25% from the governor's proposed budget, but get together with him first and perhaps you'll be able to do all that snipping in an atmosphere of understanding and expediency.

We are against no one. We are an independent newspaper, and we will make no party choices or show any party favoritism. But we are violently opposed to money waste or time waste or effort waste. We do make a stand on this.

Ben Tepper To Chair Dwyer Bid

Ben Tepper To Chair Dwyer Bid

One of Union County's most prominent businessmen, Benjamin Tepper of Plainfield, will serve as finance chairman for the reelection campaign of Rep. Florence P. Dwyer (R-6th Dist., N.J.), the Congresswoman announced today.

President of the Tepper Department Store in Plainfield and Short Hills, he has been a leading figure for many years in a variety of civic and community activities.

In announcing Tepper's acceptance of the post, Mrs. Dwyer said, "I am delighted and deeply honored that a man as busy and productive as Ben Tepper, who has made so many important contributions to our area, would accept such a major responsibility in this campaign."

Among his many community service activities, Tepper was associated with the Plainfield Community Chest from 1945 to 1952 and served for two years as president of its board of directors.

He is actively affiliated with Temple Shalom and the Jewish Community Center of Plainfield.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Tepper, co-founder of the department store, Tepper was graduated from Yale University in 1932, following which he joined the firm. He became president in 1949.

He married the former Hazel Levine and the couple have two children, Mrs. Maxine Krulwich of Hampton, Va., and Anne Tepper, a member of the senior class of Boston University.

Girl Newshawk Scoops Daddy

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Twelve-year-old Emma Hicks was on the scene where the news broke and she made the most of it.

"I think she pulled a fast one on me," said her father, the Rev. John J. Hicks. The minister is president of the St. Louis Board of Education.

A big snow had fallen overnight in the city, and the question was "should the public schools be closed?"

The Rev. Mr. Hicks got on the telephone and started canvassing board members. On the last call, he announced to Emma that she didn't have to get ready for school, that board members cancelled classes for the day.

Emma's father started to make another telephone call to the news media.

"Daddy," Emma said, "just let me make one quick telephone call and I'll be through."

The father stepped aside. Emma telephoned a radio station (KXOK) and collected $2 for her news beat that school was out. The station compensates listeners for news tips.

TERCENTENARY TALES

Duel Shook The World: When Burr Killed Hamilton

BY JOHN T. DUNNINGHAM

Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr, accompanied by seconds and attendants, rowed across the Hudson River to Weehawken on July 11, 1804, climbed a rickety high-structure to a grassy niche carved into the cliffs and prepared to kill or be killed in a traditional affair of honor.

The principals watched as their seconds measured 10 full paces, examined one another's loaded weapons and took their places. Both fired their pistols and Hamilton collapsed against a boulder, mortally wounded. Burr left immediately for New York; seconds carried Hamilton across the river to die.

That duel shook the civilized world. Burr was Vice President of the United States and Hamilton had been Secretary of the Treasury under President Washington. The happenings of July 11, 1804, would have been enough to etch the Weehawken dueling ground into permanent attention, but dueling had been going on there before Burr met Hamilton — and continued long after.

Nature had worked overtime to make the Weehawken cliffs lovely. The rocky precipice seemed to rise straight up from the river, and just south of the dueling ground a stream dashed wildly through a deep ravine. Twenty feet above the Hudson River, a grassy shelf lay under a towering cedar tree.

Man whose hurt feelings could be soothed only by the exchange of gunfire discovered that lay in the spot. To their delight, it measured exactly 11 paces long — just enough, with one pace to spare, to permit duellists to exercise their skills.

No path led to the ground at river level and access from the heights was impossible, meaning that combatants came and went by boat. That perfectly suited those bent on duels, for they could be about their business and gone before the forces of law and the pleaders for peaceful settlement could interfere.

The land was owned by one Captain Deas, whose home was set atop the cliff. According to Charles H. Winfield's "History of Hudson County" (published 1874), Deas was "a peace man," Winfield wrote:

"Whenever he scented a duel, Deas would hurry to the ground, rush in between the parties and by his suavity in mood, heal their wounded honor and establish peace."

Captain Deas apparently had a deficient "duel sense" for men clashed so often on his grassy plot that the Weehawken location became known as "the bloody ground." Winfield recorded 14 duels fought on the spot between September 2, 1799, and September 28, 1845. Five of the meetings resulted in deaths.

Burr himself fought the first duel in 1799, meeting John B. Church, Alexander Hamilton's brother-in-law. Church's pistol ball passed through Burr's coat, whereupon Church apologized for standing Burr and the men shook hands.

The Burr-Hamilton animosity threaded through all the early dueling at Weehawken. On November 22 and 23, 1801, Isaac Gouverneur, scion of a prominent New York family, was shot to death by William H. Maxwell at Weehawken on July 8, 1815, but rather than hurt socially prominent people, the Governor's family announced Eacker and Price met first on Sunday, November 22, at Weehawken and exchanged four shots each without effect. The next day Eacker and Hamilton journeyed to the ground and prepared to prepare themselves in silence. They fired simultaneously, but only Eacker's shot struck home. Hamilton was wounded seriously and died the next morning.

John Swartout, a friend of Burr's, and De Witt Clinton, political ally of Hamilton's, clashed at Weehawken on July 31, 1802. Swartout was wounded slightly, causing Clinton to remark: "I didn't want to hurt him, but I wish I had the principal here." He referred to Aaron Burr — but Burr became Hamilton's responsibility.

The outcry following Hamilton's death made dueling more difficult, but the little boats laden with sensitive men still made their way to Weehawken.

Isaac Gouverneur, scion of a prominent New York family, was shot to death by William H. Maxwell at Weehawken on July 8, 1815, but rather than hurt socially prominent people, the Governor's family announced simply, that he had died "after a short illness."

Duels and killings continued, although occasionally Captain Deas prevailed in peaceful settlement. Constables also stepped in; on October 19, 1835, Henry Atken and Thomas Sherman were arrested at Weehawken after they had laboriously clambered up to the dueling rendezvous.

The 13th recorded duel took place on May 16, 1837, when a Spaniard from Guatemala and a Frenchman living in New York emptied their pistols. The Spaniard was wounded slightly, but that 13th duel was a lucky duel at that, at least from the viewpoint of those who believe disputes can be settled peacefully or legally.

The resulting fire seemed to mock all the "affairs of honor" which had defaced the Weehawken cliffs. Presumably everyone saw the joke and went off laughing, although history sadly has neglected to record the aftermath. At any rate, Weehawken never again knew the sounds and sights of a formal duel.

KEY LIME PIE FROM A PACKAGE

A modern version of Florida's major dessert triumph, the Key Lime Pie, can now be made the short-cut way with the aid of a packaged mix. The new product, Royal Key Lime Flavor Pie Filling, has just become available at food stores across the country.

As versatile as the famous Key Lime Pie whose fascinating history began centuries ago in the Florida Keys, the new mix can be prepared in many ways. Package directions indicate how to make a meringue-topped pie and a chiffon pie from the same basic combination of ingredients.

When frozen, the chiffon pie becomes a third version. And, there are many other variations through the addition of ingredients such as cottage cheese, chocolate bits, fruit slices, whipped cream—and so forth. Pie crusts can be varied, too, from conventional pastry ones to crusts made of cookie crumbs or a baked meringue shell, such as the one featured here.

KEY LIME ANGEL PIE

- 2 eggs, separated
- 1/2 teaspoon vinegar
- 1/4 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup salt
- 2/3 cup sugar
- 1 package Royal Key Lime Flavor Pie Filling
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 cups cold water
- 1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped

Combine 2 egg whites, vinegar, vanilla and salt; beat until frothy. Add 2/3 cup sugar gradually and beat until stiff peaks form. Spread in well-greased 9-inch pie-pan. Bake in slow oven (300°F) about 35 minutes. Cool. Combine Royal Key Lime Flavor Pie Filling and 1/2 cup sugar in saucepan. Gradually add water and 2 slightly beaten egg yolks, stirring to keep smooth. Cook over medium high heat, stirring constantly, until mixture just starts to boil. Break flavor capsule if undissolved; stir into filling. Pour into bowl; place transparent wrap or wax paper directly on filling. Chill until set.

Fold whipped cream into lime pie filling. Spoon into meringue shell. Chill about 1/2 hour. If desired, garnish top with additional whipped cream, and mandarin orange sections. Makes 1 9-inch pie.

Protection Urged For States In Water Planning

WASHINGTON—An overhauling of proposed water resources planning legislation to strengthen the role of interstate compact groups, community watershed associations and private industry has been urged on Congress by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Testifying before the Irrigation and Reclamation subcommittee of the House Interior Committee, Daniel W. Cannon, committee executive of NAM's Natural Resources Committee recommended that any measure adopted should include a firm congressional declaration in favor of water rights of the states.

Mr. Cannon said that the two legislative bills before the committee—H.R. 3620 and S 1111—should be rewritten to include:

- A declaration of policy favoring private enterprise development of natural resources so as to place projects on an income-producing, taxpaying basis, and thus avoid huge outlays from the U. S. Treasury.
- A declaration of policy encouraging the use of interstate compact agencies and rejecting further federal valley authorities such as TVA.

WHY YOUNGSTERS LOVE TO EAT OUT

All kinds of special treats, from balloons to eat-size sundaes, help to captivate the children when you dine out. New surprises to make dining out even more fun will come off the schedule at this year's National Restaurant Convention at Chicago's McCormick Place, Chicago, May 23-28.

These days, eating out is a fun thing for the whole family. Because so many restaurant operators make special efforts to keep the children entertained, parents can both savor the food and relax for a social evening.

Gadgets that intrigue the moppets include children's menus, place mats they can color while waiting for their food, and pails filled with box lunches to take out, treature chests, paper hats, free balloons, super-duper sundaes, and birthday cupcakes.

This year's 45th annual National Restaurant Convention and Motel-Rama will focus attention on new attractions for customers. The world's largest food service and lodging exposition, it is expected to draw some 55,000 from every State in the Union.

SPOTS ON YOUR CARPETS? TRY THIS 'RUG-ED' ADVICE

New floor polisher banishes dirt on rugs and floors.

Like Lady MacBeth, many home-makers face a problem with spots. Often a general grime also clouds the beauty of rugs.

Such a situation need not be a permanent blot on the escutcheon, according to Singer floor care experts, who are afoot with remedies. First of all, they recommend that spots receive attention as they appear. It is difficult, if not impossible, to remove ones too long a-blooming.

To aid this effort, they offer the following suggestions:
To remove tar from a rug, scrape up as much as possible, then use an upward brushing motion to apply cleaning fluid. To banish puppy accidents, blot up immediately with a damp cloth. Then make a solution of two teaspoons detergent and two cups warm water. Apply solution with a medicine dropper. Using a circular motion, wipe gently with a clean cloth. Sponge with clean warm water, blotting up as much moisture as possible.

If mud is tracked onto the rug, let it dry. Brush off as much as you can, then sponge with water or with the detergent solution. Sponge away the final traces with alcohol. Use clean water to remove accidents with syrup, candy and alcoholic beverages.

The best medicine for a carpet that looks tired and gray is shampooing.
Ideal for this restorative effort is Singer's new Economy Floor Polisher, which shampoos rugs in addition to scrubbing, waxing and polishing hard floors. This new cleaner has 66% more power and 50% more liquid capacity. The experts note that rugs should be shampooed every three months, a schedule that's a breeze with this modern appliance.

Rug care thus is twofold: wipe up spills as soon as they happen and shampoo your carpet regularly for true beauty and longevity.

2 Vehicular Fires Quelled By Dept.

Two fires originating in motor vehicles were handled within minutes of each other Monday afternoon by Springfield Fire Department.

The department was first called at 12:53 p.m. by Charles C. Justice, manager of Smith and Smith Suburban, Morris Ave., to Park Lane near Short Hills Ave. to extinguish a fire in his 1962 automobile. Firemen, under the direction of Capt. Ronald Johnson, fought the fire, throughout the engine compartment and in the front tire. Firemen attributed it to either a leak in the carburetor or fuel line. Justice, who lives on Forest Dr., was enroute to the mortuary from lunch at the time of the incident. Patrolman Harold Searles of Springfield Police Department was also dispatched to the scene.

While still at this fire, a call came into Fire Department at 1:08 p.m. concerning burning refuse dumped from a private scavenger truck onto South Springfield Ave. Another shift, headed by Capt. Edwin Eskino, answered this.

The blaze erupted in refuse collected from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School. Discovering the flames were licking the power lines as the vehicle was traveling south along South Springfield Ave., the workers dumped the load onto the pavement. The truck was owned by Highway Disposal Co., Scotch Plains, with Richard Hill, 1535 West Third St., Plainfield, the driver, accompanied by two other men.

It was necessary for firemen to lay a line and return the debris by shovel. A road department loader, sent to the scene, was reported too big to handle the work.

With one-way traffic enforced during the operation, a traffic tie-up resulted for about an hour, ending at 2:06. Detailed on the scene were Police Sergeant Daniel Mading and Patrolmen Reas Powell and Eugene Pederson. Firemen remained busy at the location for about 1-1/2 hours.

Reader Asks Becker Amendment Denied

To the Editor:
I respectfully and urgently request that you do everything in your power to have the Becker Amendment rejected. One of the bulletin boards in front of a local church in my town had the following phrase. It was sought of a thought for the day: "The louder the yell, the weaker the argument." I wonder if this point-of-view doesn't apply to the "emotionalism" involved in trying to get the Becker Amendment out of your Committee and on to the floor.
The greatness that is inherent in this government system lies in the fact that our government and its laws stem from a document which is without dogma. It took hundreds and hundreds of years before mankind could evolve a form of government which did not have the concept of "divine right" as its central force. These ideas did not just "pop" into the heads of our founding fathers. They stem from observations made by philosophers and historians who influenced the minds of the founders of this Great and wonderful country. Men like Thomas Hobbes and John Locke influenced Thomas Jefferson and others in such a way as to make it quite clear that they did not want religion involved with government matters.

In order to preserve a democratic environment, it is necessary that each and every person who has an idea, even if it is extremely unpopular, have, in his own mind, the feeling that his idea may someday become a popular one. When any person or minority group no longer believes that his idea can become an idea of the majority, then the essence of democracy will start to deteriorate. If the government of the United States allows the concept of Judeo-Christian ideas to become an official indorsement of theirs, I believe that this will be a seriously regressive step for this great democracy.

Every person who belongs to a religion, by the nature of his commitment, believes that he is in touch with "the truth". I believe every person has a right to have this commitment, but I reject his right to impose it upon everyone. If I choose to teach my children to pray, it does not necessarily mean that I must teach my neighbor's children to pray. If I want my child to pray, the doesn't have to pray under the direction of a public school employee; he doesn't have to pray out loud. If my neighbor happens to be a Hindu and an American and happens to pay as much, if not more, taxes than I do, I see no reason why his children have to be exposed to "the truth" that I may believe; but which their parents do not believe to be "the truth".
The people who migrated to this great country came in many instances because of religious persecution. Some of the immigrants' religions were in a minority, and these people were concerned about whether or not they would be in an environment where their right to maintain their ideas would exist. I believe that, if the Judeo-Christian religious concept is indorsed by the government as the official religion of this great country, the rights of the minority will be severely abused, and abuses against democracy can snowball.

It is my basic faith in the concept of democracy which motivates my conviction that the Judiciary Committee and the Congress of the United States will not amend the Constitution, preserving both the majority's rights and the minority's rights to whatever religion they choose to adhere to; thus respecting each citizen's individuality and his right to that individuality.

Group To Lean On Variances

A meeting of all Springfield representatives of other civic organizations and other groups and representatives of interested persons has been called for tonight at 8:00 by the South Springfield Betterment Civic Association in the home of its president, Emanuel Magid, 228 Lelak Ave.

Magid called attention to three variances recommended by Board of Adjustment during the past 12 months.

He specifically referred to an application of Alsam Inc. for parking on residential property in the rear of 733 Mountain Ave., a special exception use for a nursing home on the Padam Farm property, and a variance for a singing shell at Evergreen Lodge.

Magid said that township officials are now considering the first municipality-wide zoning changes since 1955 and also claimed that the question of rezoning a large tract of undeveloped land on the north side of Route 22 in the South Springfield Ave. - South Derby Rd. area is soon to come before Planning Board. He reported this location, although adjacent to a business zone, is currently zoned S-120 for residential use.

He said: "We are opposed to this change in zoning and we will oppose changes of a similar nature throughout this community. Many persons have purchased homes in Springfield because of the township's past history of maintaining a residential community. The township officials have an obligation to the public to uphold the residential character of this municipality."

In referring to the April 21 meeting of Board of Adjustment in connection with the Alsam application, Magid claimed that the resolution and minutes of that meeting were still not available to the public on Mon., May 4th.

Magid contended that under the rules and regulations of township zoning, the resolution approving the variance and the minutes of the meeting are supposed to be available to the public as soon as possible after the meeting.

on the county level Apr. 28. He said filing must be done at least 37 days before election.

Blackman, acting municipal chairman since last August, was chosen to continue to head the county committee in the township. Mrs. Ruth Hillard was re-elected as vice chairman. Mrs. Alice Mattice was designated secretary and Wally Callen, treasurer.

Initial steps towards selection of the Township Committee candidate will be interviewing and screening with the final decision to be reached by the county committee of the township as a whole, he said.

Other plans of the Democrats include a dance scheduled for Fri., June 5 at the Clut Diana.

slightly smaller in size. The number of classrooms remains the same as in the previous referendum.

In presenting the new proposal, the board says that the building program has been "cut to the bone" and any reduction beyond this would affect the education program.

If the proposal is accepted by the voters, the board is getting early 1966 as the target date for completion of the new facility. At that time the board expects approximately an 800 enrollment at Gaudineer.

The present legitimate classrooms were designed for a 600 pupil capacity. Current school enrollment is 743 pupils. In 1964-65, the board hopes to squeeze the students into the present structure by dividing one room which is 1-1/2 room in size into two small classrooms, continuing use of the cafeteria for two or three classes simultaneously, possibly use the vocal music room for classrooms and continue to use half of the library as a classroom. Double sessions in the 1965-66 school year is a possibility.

THE POSTMAN his service is vital...

"Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night, stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds."

The words were written more than 2500 years ago by the Greek historian Herodotus in honor of a postal system operated hundreds of years before the birth of Christ.

It is not surprising that these words have become the motto of today's postman, for they truly express his devotion to duty.

Through all kinds of weather, at all times of the day and night, he makes his rounds to deliver mail, providing a vital service to the community, commerce, and the government.

He is carrying on a tradition, peculiar only to the United States, which began in 1860. It was then that a courageous band of young men took an oath of honesty and devotion to duty to carry the mails in the famed, Pony Express, risking death at the hands of hostile Indians and outlaws.

The tradition of the Pony Express lives on with today's postman and other postal employees. They have adopted the creed "The Mail Must Go Through," and will withstand many hardships to see that it does.

P.S. Corps Organized To Aid Korean Youths

A regional chapter of the New Jersey P.S. Corps (Pig Scholarship Corps) will be organized Tuesday on the Union Junior College campus.

The New Jersey P.S. Corps is being organized to provide piglets for children in every town in the Province of Kyung Puk, Korea, which, in effect, will provide a scholarship for middle school, high school and college for only $5.

Here's how the program works in Korea: A child is given a female pig to raise by himself under careful supervision. His pig produces an average of eight baby pigs each year. These piglets are sold, and the money is deposited in a joint bank account and is restricted for the child's educational expenses.

When he is ready to enter middle school (seventh grade) all of the money he needs is paid directly to the school of his choice. If the child wishes to go on to high school and college, he continues the process and his country gains a doctor, a teacher, an engineer or some other desperately needed specialist.

In Korea, about 85 per cent of the children in rural areas are unable to continue their education beyond the ninth grade, because their parents cannot afford even the modest tuition costs. There are no free schools.

The regional chapter at the Union Junior College is being organized by the Day Session Student Council under the leadership of John Johnson of Westfield, Student Council president, Ernest Graziano of 2723 Academy Road, Union is regional chairman.

Serving as regional division chairmen are: Allan May of 10 Barnside Road, Mountainside; Patricia Hartmann of Asbury Park; Jerry Jones of North Plainfield; James Matsumoto of Highland Park; Richard Jensen of Bound Brook; Martin Nitter of Iselin; Alonzo Antonelli of Kearny; Bernard McCauley of West Orange, and Elaine Pass of Newark.

Each of the division chairmen will attempt to recruit 12 other volunteers whose only task will be to explain the pig scholarship program to their friends and neighbors.

Carey McWilliams Guest Speaker At Newark State

Carey McWilliams, distinguished editor of The Nation, will speak to students and faculty on "Automation and An Abundant Economy" on Wednesday, at 1:30 p.m. in the D'Angelo Gymnasium of Newark State College, Union.

McWilliams will be the fourth and final speaker in this year's M. Ernest Townsend Memorial Lecture Series.

On the staff of The Nation since 1945, McWilliams was graduated from the University of Southern California with a law degree in 1927 and admitted to the California bar the same year. After practicing law in Los Angeles, he became Commissioner of Immigration and Housing in the State of California, until 1942. Twice he was awarded Guggenheim Fellowships.

Author of about a dozen books, McWilliams often concentrates on minority problems as in his books "A Mask for Privilege," "Prejudice," and "Brothers Under the Skin," which was translated into 17 languages.

He has also written a biography of Ambrose Pierce as well as several books on land and agriculture, notably "Factories in the Field," "Ill Fares the Land," "Southern California Country: An Island on the Land," and "California: The Great Exception." He is author of "North from Mexico," and has contributed to the Dictionary of American Biography, The Atlantic, Harper's, Saturday Review and New Republic.

Rhodendron Unit Schedules Display In Watchung Area

The Rhodendron Display Garden in Watchung Reservation will be given added interest this year by the planting of a rock garden section, a gift from Mrs. Carl Luenenschloss, of Fair Haven, in memory of her late husband, a rhodendron enthusiast of many years. Other plants, including the pale yellow keiskei, a specie from Japan, will be planted near the rock garden and are a memorial gift from friends and associates of the late Mr. Juenschloss.

More than three hundred and fifty additional plants will be added to the Rhodendron Garden through the generosity of garden lovers, according to Mrs. Charles R. Haag, of Cranford, chairman of the sponsoring committee. In addition to the commemorative gifts, a $900.00 gift has been received from the American Rhodendron Society through the kindness of Mr. Henry F. DuPont, and a large gift from the Mid-Jersey Chapter of the Society.

"The display of bloom should be at the height of its beauty by next weekend, and we hope lots of people will drive up to see it," said Mrs. Haag. The display garden is located on both sides of Tracy Drive in the Loop-Section of Watchung, close to the Trailside Science and Nature Center.

The planting was started four years ago, and each year it has been greatly expanded. This year many rare and exotic hybrids from the collection of Joseph B. Gable will be added. Part of the cost of the Display Garden is raised by an annual Fall plant sale sponsored by the Rhodendron Committee. At this time local gardeners are given an opportunity to buy unusual new hybrid for their own gardens.

Weisenfeld Speaks To Teachers' Group

"Recent strikes and negotiations which went to the brink of strike have persuaded many pundits that collective bargaining has outlived its usefulness. Sight is lost of the fact that there is more time lost from work each year as a result of industrial accidents or the common cold than strikes."

This statement in defense of collective bargaining was delivered Monday by Dr. Allan Weisenfeld, secretary of the New Jersey State Board of Education. He spoke to 20 Union High School teachers enrolled in "Contemporary Economic Systems," a graduate workshop course at Newark State College, Union. The teachers are supported by a $1,000 scholarship grant from the First State Bank of Union.

Last Phase Coming Near, SOS Readies For May 24

Enough sugar cubes to sweeten a million cups of coffee—about 4-1/2 tons—are required for the Union County Oral Polio Immunization Program now approaching its final phase on Sunday, May 24.

This is only one example of the massive supply problem involved in bringing lasting protection against polio to the residents of Union County.

Dr. Bernard Ehrenberg, Chairman of the Oral Polio Immunization program, estimates that by the time the program is completed, approximately 350,000 persons will be fully immunized.

Other examples of the vast quantity of supplies which had to be assembled and then distributed to 52 polio sites throughout the county are:

- One million little paper cups to hold the vaccine on a sugar cube.
- One and a half million registration forms were reprinted and distributed through public and parochial schools, supermarkets and mailed directly to more than 168,000 homes.
- One million immunization cards were printed to serve as a permanent record of individual protection against polio.
- A half million "tally sheets" were distributed to the 52 polio clinics.
- 15,000 medicine droppers; 75,000 identification cards; 150,000 rubber bands; 150,000 paper clips—distributed to all clinics for each of the three S.O.S. Sundays and the make-up clinics.

To make certain each of the more than 3,000 volunteers would be familiar with his role at the clinics, more than one million instructions sheets were printed and distributed. Each site received a supply of contribution containers, money bags and other miscellaneous paraphernalia to make sure everything went smoothly.

"The polio immunization program sponsored by the Union County Medical Society is now two-thirds completed," Dr. Ehrenberg pointed out. "Enthusiasm still runs high and we are expecting a large turnout for our final S.O.S. program on May 24. "Everyone should remember—that he must take the third dose of oral vaccine in order to be completely immunized against polio. Those who missed one or more of their vaccines should make them up with their personal physicians. The wholehearted support of the army of volunteers and the people of the various communities in our county assures the success of this great community health program."

"The doctors in Union County urge everyone to remember the date of the third program—May 24th—and be sure to participate."
