The 1995 graduate, now 23, arrived at the school March 26, prepared to answer questions tossed at him by approximately 300 excited elementary school students gathered in the school's Stapleton touched on the importance of having role models growing up and how important it was he never gave up on his dream.

"When I was a kid, I really looked up to Jerry Rice (former 49ers' wide receiver)," he explained. "He had a strict workout plan and seemed like he played the game right, and always did the right thing.

"I always said if I didn't make it, it wouldn't be because I quit," he said.

Franklin Principal Corey Lowery attended the meet and greet with Stapleton

"Role models are few and far between," Lowery explained about the importance of Stapleton's visit to the school.

While it was nice to have a champion in his midst, Lowery joked, "the school would have invited Darnell back whether he LINDEN -- Robocop, eat your heart out.

City police are taking high-tech tactics to the streets, utilizing laser guns to eatch speeding motorists.

Linden is the first police department in the county, besides state police, using LIDAR, a light detection and ranging system that measures vehicle speeds more quickly and accurately than traditional radar detectors, according to local law enforcement officials.

With a grant from the state Highway Safety Fund, city police recently purchased two handheld laser guns, costing just under $2,000 each, according to Traffic Bureau Sgt. Mike Babulski.

The LIDAR system "emits a highly focused beam of invisible light to calculate a vehicle's traveling speed," according to a news release issued by Linden police.

Officers can pick out a target with a sighting scope on the laser device.

Unlike car-mounted radar systems, the laser gun is more effective on busy roadways. "Regular radar is useless in traffic," said Babulski. "We can't use them for hours in the afternoon because of too much volume. With this, you can pick one car out and grab it."

He noted the anti-speeding guns are being certified by the city and will be used, primarily on Route 27 and Routes 1 & 9, shortly.

Linden Police Chief Michael Boyle said the lasers can accurately estimate the speed a vehicle is traveling within I mile-per-hour, and CRANFORD — With the Cranford Crossing Redevelopment Project under the care of a new broker, township officials hope to attract include such facilities. more tenants to the under-used mixed-use facility, though some disagreement exists as to when and how this can be accomplished.

Teen arrested in connection to shooting

By John O'Reilly Staff Writer

HILLSIDE — The teen gunman sought for shooting and wounding a fellow classmate March 20, turned himself into police last week.

Isaac J. Little of Hillside turned up at police headquarters at 9:22 a.m. March 25, accompanied by his attorney, Nabil Kassem of Clifton.

The 18-year-old Hillside High School senior was deemed "armed and dangerous" by police after he allegedly shot a classmate outside Popeye's Restaurant on Long and Liberty avenues and fled. A warrant was issued for Little's arrest following the shooting.

According to police reports, the shorting occurred after the victim, also 18, confronted Little and his accomplice, Mark Robinson, in the area of Avy Street, and demanded to know why they had followed him and two friends to the fast-food restaurant.

Little allegedly pulled out a black revolver, pointed it at the victim's chest and pulled the trigger. When the gun did not discharge, he fired again, hitting the victim in the right thigh, according to Hillside Police Chief Robert Quinlan. The victim was not seriously injured and was was treated at Beth Israel Hospital in Newark.

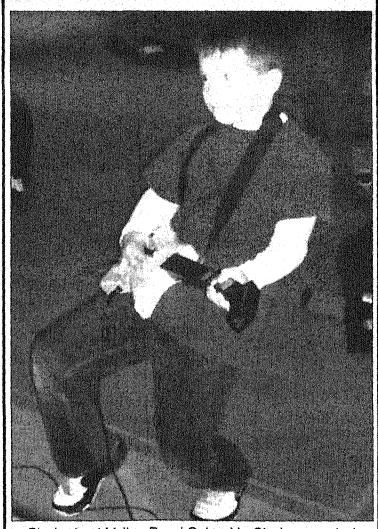

Robinson was identified as an accomplice to the shooting and arrested two days later. He was charged with conspiracy to commit aggravated assault with a weapon.

Little has been charged with aggravated assault with a weapon, possession of a weapon and possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose. Earlier this week, he was being held at Union County Jail on $100,000 bail.

Investigators said there were indications of an ongoing dispute between the assailants and the victim, which may have sparked the violence.

Roselle school tax to remain flat

By Joseph M. D'Alise Staff Writer

ROSELLE — Taxpayers in Roselle will get a nice surprise in the school portion of their taxes, if the Board of Education's proposed spending plan is OKed by voters.

The budget calls for no increase in the amount to be raised by taxes. During the 2009-10 fiscal year, the tax levy will remain flat; at $23.4 million for the average home assessed at $126,600,

No layoffs or reductions in staff will be made, nor will any programs or services be cut, according to Superintendent Elnardo Webster.

The $53.4 million total budget, which represents an increase of 4 percent from last year's $51.3 million budget, was approved by the school board at its March 16 meeting. It has been sent to the county superintendent for review and will be returned in time for a public vote on the plan April 21.

The proposed budget includes more than $1.6 million for capital improvements, as well as money allocated for a 4 percent contractual pay increase for Roselle Education Association teachers. It also includes a 5 percent, or $1.1 million increase in Roselle's state aid from last year, bringing the total amount of state aid to $23.8 million this year.

"We worked hard to put together a budget that includes everything we need, but is also sensitive to the needs of the Roselle taxpayer," Webster said, noting the budget incorporates money for several long overdue projects.

Some projects highlighted include $500,000 for the replacement of boilers at Abraham Clark High School and Polk Elementary School and $400,000 for new science labs at the high school. The budget will also support the purchase of new textbooks for students in all schools, expected to cost the district $100,000.

According to Business Administrator Luiggi Campana, the budget incorporates a reduced cost for students returning from out-of-district instruction. Because of the few number of students with special needs in the past, the district could not support an entire class and was forced to bus those students to other districts.

According to Webster, the population of students with special needs has increased, and the district will now spend $155,000 to hire two additional special education teachers and provide them with supplies at the high school. He said the improvement will cut down on out-of-district costs by approximately $1.3 million in the 2009-10 budget, according to Campana.

"This strategy goes hand-in-hand with developing more in-district capacity to provide necessary services," Campana explained.

While the preliminary budget, if approved, will aid the district in updating both its technology and science departments, Webster acknowledged there are some needs it will not be meet, at least not this year.

"We need about 18 million for capital improvements," Webster said. "We need a new building for eight-graders who are currently in the high school building, and we also need to upgrade our athletic facilities."

He noted fields at both the high school and middle school need general maintenance, which could cost the district approximately $20,000 annually.

Overall, Webster said he feels the spending plan is fiscally responsible. He credited the school board and Campana with the accomplishment.

"[Campana] was able to negotiate with various entities, allowing us to maximize dollars," Webster said. "The board supported the direction we were going, and was very supportive of the needs of the district and its children."

Contract talks renewed after 'super' showdown

By John O'Reilly Staff Writer

LINDEN — Tempers boiled on both sides of the dais when the city school board met in an emergency meeting to discuss appointing an interim administrator to step in for the district superintendent, whose contract was rejected March 18.

Rocco Tomazic's contract was voted down by the school board, after some officials deemed it too costly.

An estimated 300 teachers, parents and administrators showed up at the school board meeting March 26, in support the former assistant superintendent and 13-year district educator, some chanting "Rocky," and others, at times, heckling board members.

The crowd had an impact on school officials. After going into closed-door session for more than an hour, the board decided to keep Tomazic as acting superintendent and has asked the county for more time to renegotiate his contract. Both parties said they are committed to working out a new contract, but neither would discuss the desired terms.

Tomazic was approved for the post in November and took over when former superintendent Joseph Martino retired in January.

Specific contract details could not be revealed due to ongoing talks, but some officials placed Tomazic's salary, with benefits, at well over $200,000.

According to figures released by the state Department of Education, Elizabeth superintendent Pablo Munez earned a base salary of approximately $230,000 for the 2008-09 school year.

Louis Scaldino, who sat on the board's Negotiating Committee, said Linden's district is similar to that of Roselle or Rahway. There the superintendents earn $150,000 and $173,000, respectively, according to the DOE report.

Board president Bryan Russell called the first-time superintendent's contract "excessive." "I agree ...he is qualified and did well as assistant superintendent. [The rejected contract] was a little too excessive for Linden, especially now with the budget crisis we're all facing," he said.

But Tomazic said the boards' actions are questionable, noting they did not discuss his salary during four separate meetings before voting it down.

Some board members, including Lisa Orman and William Motley, called the board to task for bringing up the issue so close to the vote. "We come across looking like we are incompetent," Orman scolded.

Parent and former board member Rebecah Pattoli called the vote to reject Tomazic's salary "shametal"

"If [the Board] had second thoughts, the...contract should have been looked at immediately, not in 11th hour," Pattoli said.

Other parents and staff said they feel the battle over the contract is hiding a strained relationship between Tomazic and the board.

"I have never met a man with more integrity than Dr. Tomazic," said Soehl Middle School principal Diana Braisted.

Russell backed his comments in an interview after the meeting, saying it was nothing personal, only that he had issues with Tomazie's "leadership style" and handling of the budget. "I hope everybody can come together at a meeting point. It has to be both sides, not just one side," Russell said.

Candlewood Suites project OK'd by city

By John O'Reilly Staff Writer

RAHWAY — The site plan for the four-story Candlewood Suites hotel was approved by the city Planning Board at their March 24 meeting, speeding along construction for the downtown project.

City Planner Lenore Slothower said the project, which replaced plans for a proposed Sleep Inn motel, was approved without any major problems.

"A few residents showed up...but they were satisfied that what is being proposed is something they can live with," Slothower said.

Several years ago, a site plan for the Sleep Inn was approved by the Planning Board, but the project was never started. The 4.4-acre property was sold by hotel developer Krishna Corp. City officials would not say why it was sold.

Construction on the project will soon begin along East Milton Avenue, near Routes 1 & 9 and between Paterson and Lennington al@thelocalsource.com.

to take nine to 12 months, according to Jason Chaikin, an engineer at Krishna Corp.

The property has remained untouched for about four years. It had been occupied by Deluxe Inn, a one-story hotel owned by a local resident. Neighbors complained the low-cost motel attracted seedy patrons and was an eyesore.

The new hotel will be constructed adjacent to Best Western.

New features will include an upscale restaurant, pedestrian walkway to the Rahway River, landscaped grounds and a fence around the property, according to the site plan.

A minor change to the Candlewood development project was the board's denial of an outdoor swimming pool. Planning officials said any pool built at the site must be indoors to alleviate residents' quality of life concerns.

Linden police officer Andrew Perrella sets his sights on city speeders, using one of two new LIDAR lasers - light detection and ranging equipment that measures a vehicle's speed more quickly than car-mounted radar detectors.

After the beam hits a car, the laser can calculate the speed a vehicle is traveling in 0.3 seconds,

Authorities hope the new technology will translate to safer streets. During the last three years, the city recorded eight motor vehicle-related fatalities and 6,274 collisions were reported. Most were caused by speeding, city police said.

"[With] the lasers, we can now increase awareness with an alternative speed enforcement tool and save lives, by making everyone think twice about

Babulski said, however, that the city's LIDAR devices are so advanced, police can detect if they are being jammed.

In addition to the new lasers, patrols will continue utilizing existing speed detection equipment. Officers noted regular radar guns are much cheaper and just as efficient on side streets and in light traf-

In his youth, Stapleton was both quiet and smart, Volmoveh remembered, "He was a ... good student," she said. After playing football at Rutgers and being a finalist for the Rimington Trophy as top collegiate center in his senior year. Stapleton was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Steelers prior to the 2007 season. On March 26, it wasn't his noteworthy career he was concerned with, it was the privilege of lecturing to new crop of young dreamers. "I feel honored to be here," he said, noting he keeps in touch with people from his hometown. "I'm still close with a lot of friends from Franklin," Stapleton said.

For students who questioned what it's like to be a professional athlete or win a Super Bowl, Stapleton admitted it's exciting, but he choose to keep his success in perspective.

"It has been a dream of mine since I was a little kid. I am blessed to be a part of the game, but I know it won't last forever. I never take a day for granted, and I always work very hard, because one day I will not be able to play football anymore."

Stapleton has two younger brothers, Darius, 14, and Desmond, 20, who is currently a tackle/guard for the Rutgers' football team.

Union woman jailed in $400K theft case

By John O'Reilly Staff Writer

UNION — A township woman has been sentenced to six years in jail for bilking her boss out of more than $400,000 she used to finance a lavish lifestyle.

Vilma Bello, 29, was sentenced in February, a short time after she was arrested for stealing $408,000 from her superior at E.J. Peters Co.

According to the sentence handed down by Morris County Superior Court Judge Thomas Manahan, Bello will be eligible for parole in 14 to 18 months, due to her cooperation during the investigation in the matter.

She was also ordered to pay back the stolen money and still faces a civil lawsuit.

The former administrative assistant reportedly forged multiple checks between January 2005 and August 2008 in the name of Edwin Peters, the owner of the Mountain Lakes building and contracting company where she worked for several years. An employee answering phones at the company declined to comment on the situation.

Bello used the money to buy a $320,000 home on Cranbrook Road in Union, a two-week honeymoon to Fiji, a new convertible and pay off credit card bills, according to Bill Swayze, spokesman for the Morris County Prosecutor's Office.

Swayze said Bello spent $20,000 paying off a blue 2007 Honda $2000, $10,000 in personal checks to herself and $95,000 on a down payment for the Union home. She spent an additional $20,000 on the honeymoon and a wedding, but was arrested three days before the date.

Police began investigating Bello when Peters noticed mysterious deposits while reviewing financial records.

Bello's boyfriend, who was not been charged in the scheme, accompanied her to the court hearing. Investigators determined he was not responsible for the crime and did not have knowledge of the thefts.

Set an example

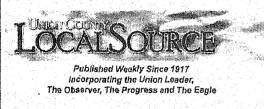

In the last few years, the Springfield Board of Education has become synonymous with bickering and animosity — actions which caused the board to fail the governance portion of last year's New Jersey Quality Single Accountability Continuum. It's a disgrace; but the worst part about the ongoing contention is that every minute the board spends arguing is time that could be spent discussing issues pertaining to education — not hashing out their own personality conflicts.

Last week, for example, a public budget meeting turned to a discussion of ethics after the board drafted a resolution denouncing comments allegedly made by board member Jeff Strumpf on the Springfield Community Forum — an online blog site. The board is considering filing a complaint with the School Ethics Commission, claiming that Strumpf may have violated the School Ethics Act and the Code of Ethics to which Springfield board members must now adhere. The purpose of the meeting was to allow residents to learn about how their tax dollars are being spent. Instead, school officials, once again, focused more attention than necessary on issues involving their differences.

As elected officials, school board members are supposed to be setting an example for the students — teaching them the importance of working together amicably and compromising. Instead, they're acting more like children than the students attending the Springfield public schools. It's an embarrassment and the situation is one that caused the state to take notice and that has parents frustrated as well. Rightfully so.

At this point, whether or not Strumpf violated the ethics code by posting derogatory comments online is almost irrelevant. Yes, we'd like to see the matter resolved, but we'd also like to see an end to the obvious tension and split among school board members that has a tendency to overshadow the tasks at hand. To it's credit, when the bickering is kept to a minimum, the Springfield Board of Education manages to accomplish quite a lot in terms of bringing new programs and services to the district for the students.

Although the problems that led to ethics charges against board members in the past have simmered down, the mistrust and tension is often still palpable. How can school officials expect the parents and students of the district to respect them when they, themselves are acting like children?

The tested rules of engagement

An hour into a closed session by the Linden Board of Education last week over the future of Superintendent Rocco Tomazic, the crowd chanted "Rocky, Rocky," in support of their man.

Rather odd that a school administrator commands such a following. The superintendent has quietly developed a vocal coalition of the city's black community, school employees, and the PTA types. For the ex-Navy man and ROTC instructor, it was the equivalent of a fleet engagement against the majority of board not willing to give him a super contract.

Since January, the board's team has been negotiating with Tomazic. A proposed yearly salary of $215,000 plus an expensive benefit package and a five-year term has caused five members of the board, currently consisting of eight, to balk. It's a lot of money for this working class city to pay a new superintendent.

The board members moved the meeting from the small administrative offices to the gym at School One to accommodate the crowd. Board member Lisa Orman, a Tomazic supporter, instructed a group to make sure they stood and participated.

An irony of the evening was the slogan in the gym "School One: Excellent staff, great students, and high expectations." Those areas weren't part of the discussion. The first hour was wasted on procedure issues and why the meeting was even taking place. One Tomazic supporter balanced a mini-recorder and raised arm while yelling "power to the people."

By Frank Capece

leaders, "Careful even meticulous their degree of caution or boldness contingent upon their willingness to take calculated risks." Tomazic was ready.

A rumor making the rounds was the appointment of a minority assistant superintendent as opposed to the relative of an ex-superintendent was the real problem. It was denied by board members. It sure did fit into the pro-Tomazic attack task force. Tomazic supporters both paid staff and others were strategically placed for citizens and press covering the crowd of about 300.

When it came time for Tomazic to speak, his careful speech applied a passive aggressive technique and avoided topics like salary, length of contract academic achievement and why a guy who can't hit a curve ball is entitled to such a rise from the current $158,000 pay check as assistant.

Tomazic used his time to make clear that an upcoming trip to China for Linden students including him and his wife as "chaperones" was costing the board virtually nothing. Why a rookie superintendent would take such a trip rather than staying close to home was not on his sonar screen presentation. His love for the kids and desire to move forward were predictable elements.

During the one-hour break, the Maybe "power to Tomazic" was citizens informally used their time more accurate. The late author to discuss education, how the kids Thomas Buell wrote about Naval were doing and the future of the resident of Cranford.

community. It was the valuable part of the evening.

Shortly thereafter, the board came out and said the status quo would remain, and Tomazic would stay in a holding pattern. The proposed contract rejected by the Union County superintendent, the alleged unauthorized inquiries by the board attorney to the superintendent and all other issues would have to be discussed some other

Meanwhile, the ex-Navy man and board might heed the recent words in the Naval publication Warships, "Once the capabilities slip away, they are hard to regenerate or even maintain."

Adventures in Cranford Parking

"Not a happy man." Scooter, Cranford's intrepid enforcer, was first spotted ticketing Saturday at 9:25 a.m. on the town's south side.

His routine was interrupted by a few parkers with questions who appeared satisfied by his answers. It was in Lot 7 on the north side where he hit pay dirt, knocking off a bevy of tickets in a 20-minute One local employee remarked, "He is not a happy man."

The problem is the excessive ticket writing which saw diners at the Cranford Hotel last Friday observe Scooter meticulously measuring and then ticketing a car a few inches too many from the curb. At some point in the past, effective parking enforcement went beyond implementing the purview of the Police Department. Policy change is properly the purview of the elected Cranford officials. It's a purview they need take back.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A 'show of disrespect'

To the Editor:

I am writing in reference to the editorial of March 19. I find it unbelievable that a newspaper can give an opinion when the newspaper does not have all the facts. So, let me break it down for you.

Since when can a mayor yell at an individual, wag his/her finger in a persons face and state "I will get you" not once but twice that was a threat when someone says it in anger. Mayor (Richard) Gerbounka is an ex-captain of detectives, who as mayor in the city of Linden, has control over the police department and is considered a powerful man. Councilwoman Michele Yamakaitis is a female and should not have been spoken to in that manner.

Why is it the only one making any comments is Mayor Gerbounka? Why didn't Councilwoman Yamakaitis, Councilman Gene Davis or Council President (Robert) Bunk make any statements to the newspaper? They did not because the city of Linden has a personal policy in place and in that policy states that no one is suppose to speak to the press until an investigation has been completed. It appears that Mayor Gerbounka failed to follow his own policy. Did you bother to check if a compliant was filed with the personal department and for that matter how many could have been filed by Councilwoman Yamakaitis or anyone else against the mayor? You couldn't because that is kept confidential.

My next question is how do you know that Councilwoman Michele did not go to private attorney and file suit? Again you don't; confidential, because no one is suppose to talk about it until the investigation is completed. I also noticed that you forgot how Mayor Gerbounka used a sexist statement to a newspaper: "If she can't stand the heat get out of kitchen." This is the mayor of Linden speaking about a councilwoman in Linden, this shows his disrespect for the Councilwoman and all woman.

The only one turning this into revenge is the mayor. Councilwoman Michele did not ask for his support nor did she need his support. Councilwoman Michele won by a landslide 1157 to 207. He is angry that he lost the seat he used to hold to a Democrat and not the Independent he supported. He was also upset that he lost the 6th Ward seat to a Democrat. In other words, everyone he supported lost the election. Winners don't have revenge in their hearts only losers do.

Celebration of hope

Relay For Life is the American Cancer Society's signature event. It is an overnight celebration of hope and survivorship.

Teams camp out and take turns walking a track throughout the night, in honor of those who have fought cancer and in memory of those who are no longer with us. Last year, more than 4,600 communities held Relay For Life events, raising $375 million. Funds raised through Relay For Life support the lifesaving work of the American Cancer Society through research, education, advocacy and patient-family serv-

It is a community event in every sense of the word. When you arrive, you may be surprised to find that Relay For Life is not your typical fundraising walk: it's a unique opportunity for all to make a serious difference in the fight against cancer, while having fun at the same time. It is a chance to remember and reflect on those who sadly lost their battle to cancer. Yet, at the same time, we honor and celebrate the lives of cancer survivors, who continue to live and fight each day with this disease.

A cancer diagnosis can certainly make the affected individual feel as though they are really alone. One amazing part of the "relay experience" is the opening ceremonies. The walk begins with the "Survivor Celebration Lap." Witnessing this is a genuinely uplifting long.

experience: seeing hundreds of survivors, united in this cause, proudly walking around the track together. The best part of all is that each survivor, when in the company of such an astounding number of fellow survivors, will no longer feel alone.

The most moving part of the evening is the luminaria ceremony, which takes place at nightfall. During this emotional ceremony, volunteers and participants light hundreds of candles. The candles illuminate the perimeter of the track and guide us though the darkness during a "silent lap." We take this time to slow down for a moment, out of respect for the survivors walking among us, and to reflect on the lives of those who did not win the battle.

Everyone is welcome to participate in Relay For Life, but cancer survivors are our special guests. There is no registration fee for survivors, but we ask that those who wish to participate in the Survivor Celebration Ceremony pre-register, if possible.

Volunteers from the community are urgently needed to continue the fight against cancer. We are seeking new teams and team captains, as well as individual participants for everything from event planning to dayevent set-up. A little of your time can make a huge difference in the fight against cancer!

For more information on Relay For Life of Clark, or the American Cancer Society, call 973-736-7771 ext. 2005, or visit www.relayforlife.org/clarknj. Together, we will make a difference.

CAT ACNE

Feline acne, sometimes called chin acne or kitty acne, begins as a patch of blackheads on a cat's chin and can develop into an ugly patch of red bumps. Like human acne, cat acne is believed to be caused by food allergies, contact allergies, and stress. Another common belief is that cat acne can be caused by the bacteria that lurks within the nicks and scratches of plastic food dishes. Acne can be quite uncomfortable for cats, and a trip to the vet is necessary to rule out other diseases that might also cause a rash. Cat acne can usually be cleared up by washing the area with antibacterial soap, topical ointments, or antibiotics.

Feline acne is more common during the spring and fall shedding seasons, because this is when the body undergoes a cleansing process. In addition to shedding old hair, the body also rids itself of old waste products, which are then excreted through the pores. Pulaski jumper identified

SPRINGFIELD -- Police have identified the Springfield man who jumped to his death from the Pulaski Skyway last week.

Day Kwon, 59, was found dead at 10:39 p.m. March 20 on Raymond Boulevard in Newark, according to Newark police. His vehicle was found parked on the Skyway above.

An autopsy was performed which confirmed Kwon's injuries were consistent with suicide, authorities said.

No suicide note or clues into Kwon's motives were found in his vehicle.

Originally, investigators could not determine if Kwon's death was caused by the fall or if a vehicle on the Skyway had struck him first, said Newark Detective Todd McClendon.

Kwon lived alone in an apartment at the Short Hills Club Village complex on Forest Drive.

When contacted for comment, management at the complex only said they remembered Kwon as a "great guy."

Munoz, 61, dies of heart ailment

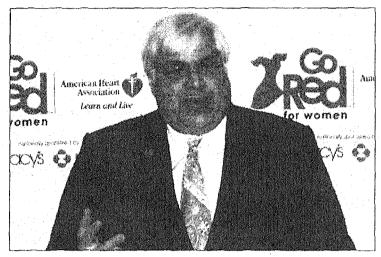

By Toniann Antonelli Regional Editor

Union County Assemblyman Dr. Eric Munoz, who died at approximately 5:30 p.m. Monday at University Hospital in Newark, was remembered by colleagues earlier this week for his positive outlook on life.

Study aims to improve Rts. 1&9 in Union County

By Paul Greulich Staff Writer

The North Jersey Transportation Planning Authority has approved funding for a study that will recommend strategies to reduce congestion and improve safety on Routes 1&9 in Elizabeth, Linden and Rahway, county officials announced last week.

NJTPA handles regional transportation planning and oversees federal money for traffic improvements for an area that covers about by the Union County. 13 counties in the northern region of the state.

"Basically we look to address needs that have been identified," NITPA Spokesperson David Behrend said.

The study, which is expected to begin in July, is projected to cost $220,000, which will be paid for through $176,000 in federal funds provided by a NJTPA grant and $44,000 that will be provided

It will focus on a 7-mile stretch of the often-dangerous roadway. Several factors contribute to making Routes 1&9 a useful, but dangerous passageway. Trucks and busses comprise a significant percentage of the vehicles that use this road, which narrows from three to two lanes in several places.

"Another challenge particular to that corridor is the whole mix of Three teams of law enforcement officers from the Union County Prosecutor's Office were among those recognized for their service to the community at an annual dinner hosted by the New Jersey State Law Enforcement Officers Association on March 22.

Lt. Kevin Foley of the Intelligence Unit, Lt. Lester Swick of the Gang Task Force, and Lt. Michael Burns of the Narcotics Strike Force each accepted an Outstanding Police Work Award on behalf of their units.

Capt. Ronald Reale, who supervises the units, commended the officers involved. "All three units are dedicated and utilize each other's efforts to identify and maintain criminal activity," Reale said.

NJLEOA Spokesperson Lauren Sanderson said the intelligence unit has worked to establish a computer database that has come to hold files on 2,109 suspects since 2003.

The gang task force conducted wiretaps on four different street gangs in Union, Elizabeth and Plainfield including the Latin Kings, Latin Oueens and Bloods. The strike force executed 12 search warrants and made 19 arrests, including a leader and top officers of the Clinton Avenue Regional Street Gang in Plainfield.

The Narcotics Strikeforce conducted a three-month wiretap investigation into the Fitzgerald Family's drug distribution network, according to officials. The strikeforce obtained 24 search warrants, which led to the arrest of 47 people, including those members of the Fitzgerald family who were allegedly leading the operation.

The ceremony saw a total of eight awards handed out to different law enforcement organizations in the state.

Union County Sheriff's Officer Ryan Wilson received the Police Star Award for assisting a gravely-injured man who had been struck by a motor vehicle. Although Wilson was off-duty at the time, he rushed to the victim's aid.

"There is no question, that if Officer Wilson was not there, the victim would have lost his life," said Union County Sheriff Ralph Froehlich.

The Hillside Police Department was also honored for the performance of Officers Terrence Clerk and Bryan Arrington, who rescued a newborn baby from a toilet where it had been born.

Man injured when police 'open fire'

Staff Writer

HILLSIDE — A Newark man remains hospitalized after Hillside police allegedly opened fire on his vehicle during an early morning confrontation on Liberty Avenue.

Multiple bullets ripped through the car, hitting the 25-year-old Newark man "several times," according to John Holl, a spokesman for the Union County Prosecutor's Office.

The man, whose identity was not released, is being treated at University Hospital in Newark and is expected to fully recover, Holl said. A Hillside woman was in the car at the time of the shooting, but was treated and released at a local hospital for minor injuries, he added.

Several police officers were also treated and released for minor injuries at various local hospitals. Investigators are unclear on what caused the incident.

According to Union County Prosecutor Theodore Romankow, a routine patrol noticed a red Honda Accord parked in an alleyway near Liberty Avenue at about 1:45 a.m.

"At some point during (their) interaction with police, the officers opened fire," he said. No further details were given.

The case is currently being investigated by the Special Prosecutions Unit of the UCPO. Officials have not yet said whether the Newark man or officers involved will face charges.

Rep. Leonard Lance, who represents the 7th Congressional District, worked with Munoz for nearly a decade in the NJ Legislature.

"I...admired his dedicated commitment to public service and his important contributions to the medical community as a surgeon and medical professor," Lance said, "White Eric will be deeply missed, he made a profound and extremely positive difference in the lives of the people of New Jersey."

From 1995 to 2001 Munoz served as councilman at large in Summit, and was the former chairman of the Summit Republican Municipal Committee.

Union County Republican

Chairman Phil Morin said the party has not yet decided who will fill the remainder of the assemblyman's unexpired term.

"Given what has transpired...we really haven't had the chance to get the county officers and leaders together and talk about what we're going to do," said Morin.

The GOP has 35 days to choose a new representative to fill the seat.

Munoz earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia, then went on to carn a medical degree from Albert Einstein College of Medicine, and a master's degree in finance from Columbia University.

things that are along it," Behrend said.

The highway serves two airports, the New Jersey Turnpike, Interstate 78 and the Goethals Bridge, as well as a large number of commercial sites. The tract of the road being studied starts at the Elizabeth/Newark border to the north and ends at the Rahway/Woodbridge border to the south. In 2005, average vehicle trips per day on Routes 1&9 ranged from 65,000 in Rahway to 90,700 in Elizabeth.

The NJTPA hopes for a comprehensive study that will lead to a variety of options including large-scale and small improvements to the road.

"It could potentially be the basis for a wide range of things," Behrend

The county applied to NJTPA for the money and will be overseeing the study. "In this case, the money gets passed on to the county," Behrend explained. "We fund it, but they're the ones that will be running the day-

Freeholder Dan Sullivan, who represents the county on the NJTPA Board of Trustees, said the study will serve an important purpose.

"This study will put a framework in place for ensuring Routes 1&9 is ready to handle the travel demands it will face in the future," Sullivan said. "The corridor must continue to safely and effectively serve the thousands of people who rely on it for local and regional trips each day."

Dedicated cast will bring 'imaginative' show to DBHS

Spring 'Seussical' staged at school through Saturday

Leave it to a dedicated science teacher at David Brearley High the past 15 years," he said. "And School in Kenilworth to turn into a dedicated producer-director of the Brearley, I love it, but I also love staged tonight, tomorrow and Sat-Brearley Theater spring 2009 musical, "Seussical."

he can excel in both "professions," with confidence and success.

"I've been teaching science for 10 of those years, right here at producing and directing a show here at the school. My roots are Curtis Cerillo is convinced that here. I began on the stage at this school when I was a kid. I've had a lot of experience with shows on this stage. And I graduated from Brearley.'

"Seussical," which will be urday at 7 p.m. in the auditorium the David Brearley Middle/High School, is based on the works of Dr. Seuss. It was originated by Stephen Flaherty, Lynn Arrens and Eric Idle with music by Flaherty and lyrics by Arrens.

"Actually," said Cerillo, "I'm part of a team of three: artistic director, Janice Marsili and music director, Lauren Widner. When anything is wrong with the play, it comes back to me, absolutely. But the three of us are responsible, and we solve all the problems because we are of one mind. It matters to us that everything runs smoothly."

Cerillo explained that one of the reasons this play was chosen was because "it gave us a chance to cast as many students as we could. We now have 37. Every kid who auditioned, got a part. And some have multiple roles," he said. "The music is fabulous. The score is modern. And it's a show that has not been done in Kenilworth before, and we want to introduce this show.1

The cast and crew have been rehearsing since January,

There is some dancing in the show, he indicated, "but there also is a lot of movement, a lot to learn, and they are so dedicated, that they're all performing really well."

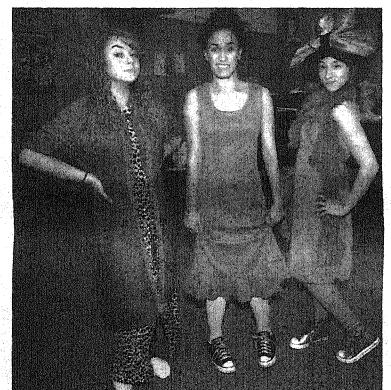

He mentioned that the "heart of "It's going very well," beamed the show is in the characters and the story they have to share...this

The main cast includes Garry Howard, Christian Emma, Sean Reilly, Dino Curia, Christine Bennett, Dailyn Santana, Kelly Hotz, Priscilla Mendes and Matthew Bonnell.

Chair Marian Glenn noted Sustainable Jersey, a new statewide program that allows towns to become certified as sustainable by meeting certain criteria involving "green" initiatives in the areas of transportation, energy use and planning, as an area where the greater commission could be useful.

City groups joining efforts include the alternate transportation, shade tree advisory and recycling committees. The chair of each comordinance at the Feb. 24 City Coun- mittee will now sit on the Environcil meeting. "It is an effort to mental Commission, as non-voting members.

"[The] council asked the comability-focused committees," said mission to act as a coordinating body among...green committees to be sure we're working in synergy Environmental Commission and that one arm knows what the other arm is doing," Glenn said about the origin of the plan.

She noted members of the different committees have been positive about the change, adding the ordinance formalizes what had already been developing in an informal fashion. "There's a lot of work to be done, and now there's many more people involved," Glenn said.

Glenn added there is potential for additional adjustments, depending on how the new structure works

Councilwoman Diane Klaif, who served as liaison to the commission last year, referred to the change as minor, but necessary. "It's basically an update. The ordinance establishing the commission has never been changed." she said.

Iditarod musher tracks 'satisfying' career

By Joseph M. D'Alise Staff Writer

KENILWORTH - Karen Land wakes up the first Saturday in March prepared for an intense day. She will be faced with blizzards causing whiteout conditions as she climbs atop a sled. Sixteen dogs will pull along, sometimes at 30 miles-per-hour, through gale-force winds, which can cause the wind chill to plummet to 100 degrees below zero.

Land is an Iditarod Dog Sled Race musher. The annual race winds through Alaska, moving from Anchorage to Nome, approximately 1,100 miles. On March 25, the 37-yearold from Martinsdale, Mont., made quite a different trip with her Alaskan husky sled dog, Borage. She stopped at Kenilworth library to tell the story many, especially those from New Jersey, never get to hear: What it's like to participate in the Iditarod.

"My parents were shocked when I told them I was going to race, because I hate cold weather and I like to sleep," Land told a group of about 70 adults and children who attended the library program. "The hardest part about the race is the lack of sleep and cold weather."

Racers typically get approximately 4 or 5 hours of sleep daily during the trek, which can take as long as two weeks.

Land has participated in the race three times, in 2002, 2003 and 2004. Her greatest race was in 2002, when she placed 49th out of 65 racers, and finished in less than 14 days.

"I didn't start out as the outdoorsy type," Land said, noting her interest in the race peaked when she followed a racer around in the late 1990s, creating a documentary for a college class. She began racing dogs several years later, in 2000.

Despite contending with frost bite and dangerously uneven terrains, Land told the crowd it has been money that has been her greatest obstacle.

During her last race, Land's Iditarod budget was $25,000, which is considered low, she explained. Some racers spend as much as double that amount. The money goes towards traveling to Alaska, as well as supplies, vet costs and hundreds of pounds of dog food.

Land owns about 60 dogs, of which 16 are chosen to compete. "I train with these dogs all year round," she explained, as Borage cuddled up to the crowd, walking around and soliciting pets and scratches. "The dogs train by pulling four-wheelers and sometimes Volkswagen

Iditarod musher, Karen Land, and her Alaskan Husky, Borage, pose with 9-year-old Timmy Howarth and 6 year-old Amanda Howarth, both of Kenilworth, in front of the sled Land used to compete in the 2002, 2003 and 2004 Iditarod Dog Sled Race. Land visited March 25.

Throughout the race, which continues through the night, there are 13 check points where mushers and dogs can rest and eat.

Mushers can send three 80-pound bags of food and material to each checkpoint before the race. "It takes close to a ton of supplies," Land explained. Her dogs mostly eat raw meat on the trail, which can be anything from fish to

The dogs pull the 23-pound sled, with Land on it, 100 pounds of supplies in the sled bag and about 50 pounds of clothes.

Land compared racing to "riding a runaway

"The dogs never want to stop," Land said. "The most satisfying feeling is hearing the sirens blast in Nome and seeing the whole town come to the finish line to greet each racer that finishes.'

hear. He walked away stunned. "I never realized how dangerous the race was," he said after listening to Land's stories of a few sled crashes, during which she was dragged through snow and ice for miles.

Audrey Richards said she left feeling educated and fulfilled. "I've heard a few stories in the past about the Iditarod, but Karen was such a great speaker, I really learned a lot," she said.

Library Director Dale Spindel said community members were not the only ones getting an earful. "I think everyone enjoyed Karen's presentation and learned a little something. I know I did," she said.

Land's is unsure whether she will compete in future Iditarods, but said she is currently working on a memoir about her experiences during the three races.

ship of Union, New Jersey Fiscal Year 2009

SUMMARY OF THE ACTION PLAN

The Artion Plan of the Consolidated Plan for the Township of Union has been prepared in response to a consolidated process developed by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for four of its formula grant programs. Community Development Block Grants (CDBG). HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME), Emergency Sheller Grants (ESG), and Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPVA). The new Consolidated Plan regulations replace all HUD planning and application requirements with a single submission that will satisfy the minimum statutory requirements for participation in the four programs.

The Township participates in the CDBG program and is a member of the Union County HOME Program Consortium. It is required to prepare and submit an action plan for HUD approval in order to receive Community Development Grant funds.

The Action Plan is intended to serve the following functions: 1) A planning document for the Township, which builds upon a citizen participation process; 2) An application for federal funds under HUD's formula grant programs; 3) A strategy to be followed in carrying out HUD programs; and, 4) An action plan that provides a basis for assessing performance.

In the Action Plan, Union Township has: 1) described its housing needs and market conditions; 2) prepared a housing and homeless needs assessment; 3) set out a non-community development plan that establishes priorities for meeting those needs; 4) established a one-year action plan that outlines the intended use of resources; and, 5) identified resources anticipated to be available.

Federal regulations require that this summary be published in one or more local, general circulation newspapers. This summary describes the purpose and priorities of the plan, type and location of activities the location of the complete document. Citizens have 30 days to review the document and submit comments. Citizen comments on the plan should be submitted to the Office of Community Develops Municipal Building, 1976 Morris Avenue, Union, New Jersey 07083. All citizen comments will be considered in preparing the final Action Plan. A summary of these comments or views, and a summary of comments or views not accepted and the reasons therefore, will be attached to the final Action Plan.

Copies of the draft Action Plan will be available for review on April 13, 2009 at the Office of Community Development in the Municipal Building

SUMMARY OF PLAN DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

As part of the Plan development process, public hearings were held on December 18, 2008, January 15, 2009. February 19, 2009 and March 19, 2009. The purpose of the public meetings were to obtain the views of citizens, public officials and agencies and other interested parties regarding the housing and community development needs of the jurisdiction. A final public meeting on the Action Plan has been scheduled at 7:30 p.m. on June 8, 2009 in the Municipal Building.

The development of the Action Plan involved consultation with those agencies in delivering housing and housing services within the Township. Meetings and discussions were held between the staff of the Township Community Development Block Grant Program Office, the Township Division of Planning, the Township Board of Health and the Union County Division of Housing and Community Development. The New Jersey Department of Community Affairs was also consulted regarding its Section 8 Rental Assistance Program.

In addition there were meetings conducted with appropriate housing and social service agencies regarding the housing needs of children, elderly persons, persons with disabilities, homeless persons

The Action Plan lists, by level of government and by private sources, all resources and programs expected to be available to the Township for use in carrying out its housing activities. Each entry includes a short

This section constitutes the 2009 Annual Plan of the Five-Year Consolidated Plan. It sets forth a description of activities for the use of funds that are expected to become available during the coming Federal fiscal year, determines goals for individuals and households to be served, and describes the implementation plan and geographic location of the activities to be undertaken. Union baseball seeking to be better than average

Farmers sparked by strong senior cast

By JR Parachini Sports Editor

This is a year where the Union baseball team does not want to settle for just being average.

A senior-laden squad dominated by returning varsity starters has set its sights on getting back to being one of the top teams in Union County and in North 2, Group 4.

The Farmers have had more recent success in the states than the counties, but are coming off back-toback 13-12 finishes that may well serve as motivation for this year's team to perform a whole lot better.

"Last year during our last game we set a goal for this year's team to improve upon as far as our record," thirdyear head coach Frank Napolitano said. "The guys themselves talked about an 18-win goal for the team."

With Union having three returning starting pitchers back in its lineup, there's a good chance that goal can be achieved.

"When we started out practicing, you could see the hard work from the last two years paying off," Napolitano said. "We're doing the little things we talked about over the years. It took us a couple of games to shake the rust off our bats, but we're hitting the ball well now."

The three moundsmen back - all seniors - include right hander Tom Becht, big lefty Bobby Lisowski and righty Ryan Pascullo. Union has six other position players that are returning starters as well, all of them also seniors.

"Our defense is there and that is good with a lot of kids back," Napolitano said. "They're working hard and they put their time in.

"Now it's time to make something of the effort they have put in the last four years."

In addition to Becht, Union's No. 1, Lisowski and Pascullo, other Farmer hurlers include sophomore right hander Pete McTernan, freshman left hander Devin Zimmerman, senior right hander Justin Fernandez and senior righty relief pitcher Michael Wolff, Union's starting shortstop, who will be earning his fourth varsity letter in baseball.

"Tom has improved his physical body condition, looks good and is a strong athlete," Napolitano said of Becht, a three-year starter who was to take the ball for Union's season-opener yesterday vs. Roselle Catholic in a Mountain Valley Conference-Mountain Division vs. Watchung Conference clash.

"Tom has dropped a little weight, his control is better and there is a little more pop on his fastball," Napolitano said of the 6-foot, 180-pounder, "He's in fine shape and is ready to go."

Becht's first win last year was a 4-3 triumph at Montgomery to even Union's record at 2-2. Becht tossed a four-hitter, striking out five and walking four.

Union is scheduled to host Montgomery on Lisowski, a First Team All-State football player who seeks to continue in that sport on the next level and who will represent Union in this year's North-South All Star Game at Kean University, is still working his way into baseball shape.

Also a three-year varsity starting pitcher, Lisowski is an imposing presence on the mound at 6-4, 280.

"We will bring Bobby along slowly," Napolitano said. "We're still working on his pitch count. He can all 33 seasons he was at the helm. come in as a reliever or starter.'

Pascullo started on the varsity level last year for the first time.

"He looks a lot better than last year, with more control of his off-speed pitches," Napolitano said. "All of our guys have worked hard as far as conditioning and getting their bodies ready."

McTernan went all five innings to earn his first varsity victory over Shabazz 11-1 at home last year, which was Union's final victory of the season. He struck out four and walked two in tossing a two-hitter. Napolitano said he also pitched in relief against Scotch Plains.

Jake Foehner, a senior and last year's third baseman, was converted to catcher.

"I knew we needed somebody for this year and he's worked hard and looks good so far," Napolitano said.

At first base will be senior returning player Jesse Lara and Lisowski, John Motacki is a two-year starter at second base and Becht and McTernan are the third basemen.

Wolff cracked the varsity lineup as a freshman three years ago when Union reached the North 2, Group 4 championship game.

"Michael's a leader," Napolitano said. "He works hard in the weight room and his uniform is always dirty in practice. He's not verbal, but his actions speak louder than words.

"As a freshman he was on the team that made it to the sectional final against Elizabeth. The kids look up to him as a player who was on our last team that played for a championship.

"Hopefully, we can get back there."

Three-year starter Antonio Serrano is in left field, twoyear starter Jared Sumner is in center - he played in right last year - and Zimmerman and Pascullo are in right.

Returning starters include Becht, Lisowski, Pascullo, Serrano, Sumner, Wolff, Motacki, Lara and NOTES: Roselle Catholic, sparked by junior left hander-outfielder Lou Clemente of Union, finished 14-10 in 2008.

Other non-league games on the schedule against non-Union County competition include Somerset County foes Bridgewater-Raritan, Montgomery and Watchung Hills and Hudson County rival Bayonne. Union defeated Bayonne in a 2002 Group 4 semifinal before beating Jackson in Middlesex County in the Group 4 final.

"We like to pick up teams that have won in the past," Napolitano said. "I don't think we've beaten Watchung Hills since we started playing them, but we'll keep them on our schedule."

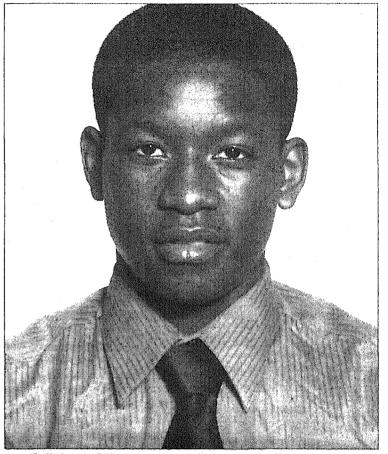

Farmers will host the Warriors on April 18 at 10:30 a.m.

This will be it for the Watchung Conference this year, with a three-tier Union County Conference set to commence next season.

"When I played the Watchung Conference had Union Catholic, Summit and Cranford and I always liked the rivalries we had with those schools," said Napolitano, who is a 1989 UHS graduate who played for Gordon LeMatty.

Elizabeth head coach Ray Korn enters the season seven wins shy of passing LeMatty as the winningest coach in Union County history.

LeMatty's 33-season record (1959-1991) at Union stands at 641-272-4. Union fashioned winning records

Felician College freshman Antoine Obery of Roselle made an impact right away as a key player on Golden Falcons men's basketball team.

Obery, who as a senior led Roselle to its first Central Jersey, Group 2 championship last year, earned Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference Men's Basketball Rookie of the Week honors in late February for his outstanding play in his team's only game of that week.

Obery, a 6-foot-3 guard, shot 10-for-12 from the field and recorded a season-high 22 points and 10 rebounds in Felician's 80-74 road setback to Post University on Feb. 24. In his team's final game of the regular season, Oberv added three assists and four blocked shots in 32 minutes of play.

Felician College, with campuses in Lodi and Rutherford, finished with winning season of 16-13.

Obery, who wears No. 3, scored 173 points for a 6. 2 average and grabbed 131 rebounds, averaging 4.7 per game.

Obery, a 2008 Abraham Clark graduate, earned First Team All-Con-Union lost at Watchung Hills 9-3 last year. The ference honors in the Mountain Valley Conference-Mountain Division

Hillside baseball eyeing continued improvement

By JR Parachini Sports Editor

At one point last year the Hillside baseball team was actually 8-6. The Comets also went on to qualify for the state playoffs.

What was that?

Hillside baseball was 8-6? The Comets qualified for the state playoffs?

That was true on both counts.

Winning seasons and state playoff appearances are rare for Hillside, which finished 8-9-1 last year after falling at Governor Livingston 14-2 in a first round Central Jersey, Group 2 contest.

However, under first-year head coach Tom Augello, the Comets made great strides last season.

Augello reports that there are only two returning starters, those players being senior pitcher-shortstop Urix Lantigua and senior second baseman Luis Delgado.

Three other returners from last year's squad include junior outfielder-pitcher Anthony Figueiras, sophomore pitcher-utility player Anthony Burgess and junior pitcher-first baseman Pablo Renta.

When the Comets were scheduled to open at St. Patrick yesterday in Elizabeth, senior Carron McCluney – a football and basketball standout – was to be in right field for the first time.

"I taught him the mechanics starting March 6," Augello said. "He was totally raw and two weeks later vs. Newark Tech he crushes an inside-the-park home run.

"He almost passed my catcher, who from first base tripped on second. He's a heck of an athlete."

McCluney guided the Hillside football team to the North 2, Group 2 semifinals and a winning record of 8-3. He was just named all-conference in basketball, helping Hillside come back from a 0-8 start to finish even at 12-12.

"He works hard, especially on bunting, and he'll be on the mound in a month," Augello said. "He's still rusty on catching fly balls. He played in a good Little League system and had good coaching in the summer. He would be a five-tool player in college."

Other football players on board include right fielders Jackson Israel and Dominique Lewis.

"They have a great work ethic, never miss practice and still take care of their football conditioning work," Augello said.

Taking over the catcher position is junior Anthony Ramos. "He was ineligible last year, but worked hard in the fall," Augello said. "He has good power."

Key losses to graduation were pitcher-third basemen Chris Childers and Luis Noblecilla and first baseman Robert Rodriguez.

Right now Augello has Renta, Burgess and junior Carlos Rivas at first base, Delgado and Lantigua in the middle and freshman Esterlin Lantigua at third base.

In left field is Figueiras, in center is freshman lefty Pete Krill and in right is McCluney and Dickson. Another outfielder is senior Fernando Noblecilla, who played on the junior varsity team in 2007, but did not play at all last year.

Other hurlers include senior right hander John Baez, junior righty Mikey Antiporda and senior right hander Sean Wade, who is also listed as a right fielder.

"The first two are new to the game, while the latter returns after a sophomore year on junior varsity," Augello said.

Augello said.
"Urix (Lantigua), Burgess, Renta and Krill are my four starters, while McCluney, Esterlin (Lantigua), Delgado and Figueiras will see innings."

Hillside's last win in 2008 was a 12-2 home decision over Newark Central. Urix Lantigua went five innings for the victory, allowing only two hits and one earned run and striking out one and walking three.

Burgess went 2-for-2, with a double, a triple, one run and four RBI as the win clinched Hillside's first state playoff berth since 1978.

"We scrimmaged Wardlaw-Hartridge, Newark Tech and University and I was impressed over the progress they've made after the high school season, junior legion, fall ball league and these last three weeks," Augello said earlier in the week. "We go nonstop from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. and having John Conroy as an assistant, they don't come any better than him."

Conroy is also an assistant football coach at Hillside under head coach John Power. Both Conroy and Power were also assistant football coaches at Union.

"John is great with the kids, is a great teacher and he offers us more options at practice," Augello said.

NOTES: Urix Lantigua and Delgado were named team captains. Lantigua tied for the team lead in hits last year with 15 and batted .306. Delgado banged out 11 hits.

"They were with me from day one last year," Augello said. "They are two hard-working kids who are dedicated to the game.

"They played in the summer and in the fall and are now ready for productive senior seasons."

This is the last year of the Mountain Valley Conference, with Hillside a member of the Valley Division once again for baseball.

There will be a new Union County Conference next year that will include Summit.

Hillside has league games this year scheduled against New Providence, Newark Central, Technology, Brearley, Oratory Prep, Roselle Park, St. Mary's of Elizabeth and Rahway.

When he was done coaching, LeMatty was the winningest baseball coach in state history. He now ranks among the top 10.

Union has continued to have winning seasons every year after LeMatty's tenure, with Chet Czaplinski guiding the varsity for five seasons from 1992-1996, Mike Hamberg for 10 seasons from 1997-2006 and Napolitano the last two.

Korn's overall record is 635-301-1. His five-year record at Roselle Catholic is 110-91 and his record at Elizabeth since he became the head coach there in 1980 is 525-210-1.

Cranford baseball features new cast

Cougars have youthful look

By JR Parachini Sports Editor

This will be a season of transition for the Cranford baseball team, with a new cast of characters ready to make their presence felt across the diamond.

Back on the mound to head the pitching staff are senior right handers Jimmy Knight and Adam Fanelli. Outside of that, there are new players at every other position.

"We expect to be competitive in every game," said head coach Dennis McCaffery, who begins his 11th season at the helm with an impressive record of 209-69 (.752).

McCaffery reported that the junior varsity team won its Union County Tournament championship last year and that the freshman team defeated everyone except for Don Bosco Prep.

"This year's group has leaned very quickly," McCaffery said. "They've had success in the past and hopefully they will continue to have success."

Cranford is coming off a 19-6 campaign that was produced by a senior-dominated squad, Andrew Ciencin is now starting at North Carolina State and just hit his first home run against Villanova, where McCaffery starred 20 years ago.

Dan Moreno is also playing Division 1 ball at NJIT. Playing at Ramapo College are Joe Della Serra and Mike Tubelli as well as 2005 graduate Jack McDonough.

One of the freshman on the roster of the Kean University squad is Vince Gilstrap. Kean captured the Division 3 national championship in 2007.

Those are the kind of players that kept Cranford on top of its game, with the Cougars winning the 2007 Union County Tournament championship and then reaching the Group 3 state championship game after winning North 2, Group 3.

This year's squad will attempt to qualify for the states in Central Jersey, Group 2 for the first time since 2005.

Cranford won the section that year.

"We open up with two very difficult teams in St. Mary's (Rutherford) and Nutley," McCaffery said. "We know that we'll have our hands full right away."

Bernier is busy keeping score

For RC basketball squads

Most of the Roselle Catholic High School girls' basketball team's championship season was chronicled by junior scorekeeper Brandon Bernier.

Just like most of Roselle Catholic's basketball teams.

After sub-varsity scorekeeping duties with Roselle Catholic's boys' freshman team in 2007 and junior varsity squads in 2008, Bernier made the jump to varsity and kept the book for coach Dave Boff's team this winter.

But Bernier continued to keep the book for the JV boys' squad. When the varsity girls' basketball team was left with a mid-season opening, Bernier, with pencil in hand, filled the seat closest to the Lions' bench at the scorer's table.

From mid-January into March, the only time Bernier missed a girls' game was because duty with the varsity boys' basketball team called.

game was because duty with the varsity boys' basketball team called.

Bernier figured he kept score for between 50 and 55 Roselle Catholic basketball games during the 2008-09 season.

An honor roll student, Bernier quite capably replaced Mike Mroczek, who kept score for the RC varsity boys' program for four seasons.

At Roselle Catholic's annual Winter Athletics convocation, Bernier received two varsity letters, a JV certificate and multiple Scholar-Athlete medals, presented to any member of a team/program who makes the honor roll during the season.

A Roselle resident, who kept the book for every Union County Tournament and state tournament game played by a Lions basketball team, Bernier traveled with the varsity girls to Mainland Regional High School for the "Shootout at the Shore," just outside Atlantic City on Feb. 8.

both non-league foes, St. Mary's first today at 4 p.m. at Memorial Field and then Nutley Saturday morning at 11. The Cougars' first game against a Mountain Valley Conference team will be at Dayton Tuesday at 4 p.m. at Ruby Field in Springfield.

"We have a young team, so we try to stress the fundamentals and to play hard and be aggressive,"

McCaffery said, "If you do those Cranford is scheduled to host things, good things will happen. We want the kids to play hard 100 percent of the time and play the game the correct way."

Knight has a 12-4 two-year varsity pitching record, including an 8-I mark two years ago that included one save and an earned-run average of 3.38 in seven starts. He went 4-3 last year, winning four of his final six decisions.

His last game was a dandy as he shut out Colonia 3-0 at home in a mechanics. He lost his control a lit-North 2, Group 3 quarterfinal at Memorial Field. He limited the Patriots of Middlesex County to just four hits as he struck out four, walked two and hit two batters.

"Jimmy went into the fall and worked extremely hard in the weight room," McCaffery said. "He put on 10 pounds or so of solid muscle and is hoping to have a good spring.

tle bit last year and had a some problems with that. A credit to Jimmy is that he is extremely hard-working and is a very polite kid who works hard on and off the field."

Knight will join former Cranford teammates at Ramapo College next year.

Fanelli went 5-0 last year, with his last game being a five-inning 15-4 conference road triumph over

"He's worked on his pitching Roselle Catholic. He allowed four hits, striking out four and walking three.

Cranford repeated as MVC-Mountain Division champions, going undefeated in league play.

The Cougars have won the league their first two years in it, with this being the last year of the conference

Aspiring engineers use spaghetti and candy to erect a 'telecommunications tower' during an exercise at Infineum's 11th annual Career Workshop, which took place March 24 in Linden.

Students learn about engineering careers ited Infineum USA L.P.'s facilities in Linden, to participate in its 11th annual Career Workshop and learn about careers in engineering.

Approximately 130 students from 10 Union County high schools and Union County College along with some of their science teachers and supervisors had an opportunity to hear detailed information on engineering careers from several Infineum engineers and engineering students from the New Jersey Institute of Technology. The main focus of the event was to encourage students to become interested in engineering careers.

The program consisted of presentations describing seven engineering disciplines: chemical, civil, computer/electrical, materials, environmental and mechanical, including required courses and what typical engineers do in these fields. In addition, a team-building exercise involved students in hands-on activities which showed the approach to problem-solving

On March 24, local students vis- and decision-making techniques that engineers use in their everyday lives.

> "Career Day offers one of very few opportunities for kids to hear information that will help them make decisions regarding their college and career paths. Great program...it gets better every year," said Linden Schools District Science Director Dolores Maslo.

> During the team-building exercise, the students were placed into teams to work on a two-part project which consisted of building a bridge for vehicular and aquatic traffic and erecting a telecommunications tower of considerable height. The "aspiring engineers" were assigned to build the structures using unconventional materials: a set of Lego blocks to build the bridge, and Gummy Dots and spaghetti to erect the tower.

> Throughout the program, the students had an opportunity to interact with the engineers and ask questions about pursuing a future career in engineering.
